5 They were driven forth from among men, (they cryed after them as after a thiefe,)
6 To dwel in the clifts of ỹ valleys, in caves of the earth, and in the rocks.
7 Among the bushes they brayed, under ỹ nettles they were gathered together.
8 They were children of fooles, yea children of base men: they were viler then the earth.
9 And now am I their song, yea I am their by-word.
10 They abhorre me, they flee from me, & spare not to spit in my face.
11 Because he hath loosed my cord, & afflicted me, they have also let loose the bridle before me.
12 Vpon my right hand rise the youth, they push away my feet, and they raise up against me the wayes of their destruction.
13 They mar my path, they set forward my calamity, they have no helper.
14 They came upon me as a wide breaking in of waters: in the desolation they rolled themselves upon me.
15 Terrours are turned upon me: they pursue my soule as the wind: and my welfare passeth away as a cloud.
16 And now my soul is powred out upon me: the dayes of affliction have taken hold upon me.
17 My bones are pierced in me in the night season: & my sinews take no rest.
18 By the great force of my disease is my garment changed: it bindeth me about as the collar of my coat.
19 He hath cast me into the mire, & I am become like dust and ashes.
20 I cry unto thee, and thou dost not hearken: I stand up, and thou regardest me not.
21 Thou art become cruell to me: with thy strong hand thou oppose thy selfe against me.
22 Thou liftest me up to the wind, thou causest me to ride upon it, and dissolvest my substance.

6 For I know that thou wilt bring me to death, and to the house appointed for all living.

24 Howbeit hee will not stretch out his hand to the grave, though they cry in his destruction.

25 Did not I weep for him that was in trouble? was not my soule grieved for the poore?

26 When I looked for good, then evill came unto me: and when I waited for light, there came darkenesse.

27 My bowels boiled, and rested not: the dayes of affliction prevented me.

28 I went mourning without ꝙ Sunne: I stood up, and cried in y Congregation.

29 I am a brother to dragons, and a companion to owles.

30 My skin is black upon me, and my bones are burnt with heate.

31 My harpe also is turned to mourning, and my Organ into the voyce of them that weepe.

CHAP. XXXI.

1 I made a covenant with mine eyes: why then should I think upon a maid?

2 For what portion of God is there from above? and what inheritance of the Almighty from on high?

3 Is not destruction to the wicked? and a strange punishment to the workers of iniquity?

4 Doth not he see my wayes, and count all my steps?

5 If I have walked with vanity, or my foot hath hasted to deceit;

6 Let me be weighed in an even balance, that God may know my integrity.

7 If my step hath turned out of y way, & my heart walked after mine eyes, & if any blot hath cleaved to my hands:

8 Then let me sow, and let another eate: yea, let my offspring be rooted out.

9 If my heart hath been deceived by a woman, or if I have laid wait at my neighbours doore:

10 Then let my wife grind to another, & let others bow down upon her.

11 For this was heinous crime; yea, it was iniquity to be punished by the Judges.

12 For it is a fire that consumeth to destruction, and would root out all mine increase.

13 If I did despise the cause of my manservant, or of my maid-servant, when they contended with me:

14 What then shall I doe, when God riseth up? and when he visiteth, what shall I answer him?

15 Did not he that made me in the wombe make him? and did not one fashion us in the wombe?

16 If I have withheld the poor from their desire, or have caused the eyes of the widow to faile;

17 Or have eaten my morsell my self alone, and the fatherlesse hath not eaten thereof:

18 (For from my youth he was brought up with me as with a father, & I have guided her from my mothers wombe.)

19 If I have seene any perish for want of clothing, or any poore without covering:

20 If his loynes have not blessed me, and if hee were not warmed with the fleece of my sheepe:

21 If I have lift up my hand against the father lesse, when I saw my help in the gate:

22 Then let mine arme fall from my shoulder-blade, and mine arme be broken from the bone.

23 For destruction from God was a terrour to me: and by reason of his highnesse, I could not endure.

24 If I have made gold my hope, or have said to the fine gold, Thou art my confidence:

25 If I rejoyced because my wealth was great, and because mine hand had gotten much:

26 If I beheld the Sun when it shined, or the Moon walking in brightnesse:

27 And my heart hath been secretly enticed, or my mouth hath kissed my hand:

28 This also were an iniquity to be punished by the judge: for I should have denied the God that is above.

29 If I rejoyced at the destruction of him that hated me, or lift up my selfe when evill found him:

30 (Neither have I suffered my mouth to sin, by wishing a curse to his soule:)

31 If the men of my tabernacle said not, Oh that we had of his flesh! we cannot be satisfied.

32 The stranger did not lodge in the street: but I opened my doores to the traveller.

33 If I covered my transgressions, as Adam, by hiding mine iniquity in my bosome:

34 Did I feare a great multitude, or did the contempt of families terrifie me? that I kept silence, and went not out of the doore?

35 O that one would heare me: behold, my desire is, that the almighty would answer me, and that mine adversary had written a booke.

36 Surely I would take it upon my shoulder, & binde it as a crown to me.

37 I would declare to him the number of my steps, as a Prince would I goe neere unto him.

38 If my land cry against me, or that ꝙ furrowes likewise there of complaine:

39 If I have eaten the fruits thereof without money, or have caused the owners thereof to lose their life:

40 Let thistles grow in stead of wheate, and cockle in stead of barley. The words of Iob are ended.

CHAP. XXXII.

SO these three men ceased to answere Iob, because hee was righteous in his owne eyes.

2 Then was kindled the wrath of Elihu, y sonne of Barachel the Buzite, of the kinred of Ram: against Iob was his wrath kindled, because he justified himselfe rather then God.

3 Alſo

3 Also against his three friends was his wrath kindled: because they had found no answer, and yet had condemned Iob.

4 Now Elihu waited till Iob had spoken: because they were elder then he.

5 When Elihu saw that there was no answer in the mouth of these three men, then his wrath was kindled.

6 And Elihu the son of Barachel the Buzite answered & said, I am young, & ye are very old, wherfore I was afraid, and durst not shew you mine opinion.

7 I said, Dayes should speak, & multitude of yeers should teach wisedome.

8 But there is a spirit in man: and the inspiration of the almighty giveth them understanding.

9 Great men are not alwayes wise: neither do y aged understand judgement.

10 Therefore I said, Hearken to me, I also will shew mine opinion.

11 Behold, I waited for your words: I gave care to your reasons, whilst you searched out what to say.

12 Yea, I attended to you: and behold, there was none of you that convinced Iob or that answered his words:

13 Lest you should say; We have found out wisdome: God thrusteth him down, not man.

14 Now he hath not directed his words against me: neither will I answer him with your speeches.

15 They were amazed, they answered no more: they left off speaking.

16 When I had waited, (for they spake not: but stood still, and answered no more.)

17 I said, I will answere also my part, I also will shew mine opinion.

18 For I am full of matter, the spirit within me constraineth me.

19 Behold, my belly is as wine, which hath no vent, it is ready to burst like new bottels.

20 I will speak, that I may be refreshed, I will open my lips, and answer.

21 Let me not, I pray you, accept any mans person: neither let me give flattering titles unto man.

22 For I know not to give flattering titles; in so doing my Maker would soone take me away.

CHAP. XXXIII.

WHerefore Iob, I pray thee, heare my speeches, and hearken to all my words.

2 Behold, now I have opened my mouth, my tongue hath spoken in my mouth.

3 My words shall be of the uprightness of my heart, and my lips shall utter knowledge clearly.

4 The spirit of God hath made me, and the breath of the Almighty hath given me life.

5 If thou canst, answer me: set thy words in order before me, stand up.

6 Behold, I am according to thy wish in Gods stead: I also am formed out of the clay.

7 Behold, my terrour shall not make thee afraid, neither shall my hand be heavy upon thee.

8 Surely thou hast spoken in mine hearing, and I have heard the voice of thy words, saying,

9 I am cleane without transgression, I am innocent, neither is there iniquity in me.

10 Behold he findeth occasions against me, he counteth me for his enemy.

11 He putteth my feet in the stocks, he marketh all my paths.

12 Behold, in this thou art not righteous, I will answer thee, that God is greater than man.

13 Why doest thou strive against him? for he giveth not account of any of his matters.

14 For God speaketh once, yea twice, yet man perceiveth it not.

15 In a dreame, in a vision of the night, when deep sleepe falleth upon men, in slumberings upon the bed;

16 Then he openeth the eares of men, and sealeth their instruction,

17 That he may withdraw man from his purpose, and hide pride from man.

18 He keepeth back his soule from the pit, and his life from perishing by the sword.

19 He is chastened also with paine upon his bed, and the multitude of his bones with strong paine.

20 So that his life abhorreth bread, and his soul daintie meat.

21 His flesh is consumed away that it cannot be seen, and his bones that were not seene sticke out.

22 His soule draweth neere unto the grave, and his life to the destroyers.

23 If there be a messenger with him, an interpreter, one among a thousand, to shew unto man his uprightness:

24 Then he is gracious unto him, & saith, Deliver him from going down to the pit: I have found a ransome.

25 His flesh shall be fresher than a childes: he shall return to the dayes of his youth.

26 He shall pray unto God, and he will be favourable unto him, and he shall see his face with joy: for he will render unto man his righteousness.

27 He looketh upon men, and if any say, I have sinned, & perverted that which was right, and it profited me not;

28 He will deliver his soule from going into the pit, and his life shall see the light.

29 Lo, all these things worketh God often times with man,

30 To bring backe his soule from the pit, to be enlightned with the light of the living.

31 Marke well, O Iob, hearken unto me, hold thy peace, and I will speak.

32 If thou hast any thing to say, answer me; speak, for I desire to justifie thee.

33 If not, hearken unto me: hold thy peace, and I shall teach thee wisedome.

CHAP.

CHAP. XXXIIII.

1 Moreover Elihu answered, & said,
2 Heare my words, O ye wise men, & give eare unto me, ye that have knowledge.
3 For the eare trieth words, as the mouth tasteth meate.
4 Let us chuse to us iudgement; let us know among our selves what is good.
5 For Iob hath said, I am righteous; & God hath take away my iudgment.
6 Should I lie against my right? my wound is incurable without transgression.
7 What man is like Iob who drinketh up scorning like water?
8 Which goeth in company with the workers of iniquity, and walketh with wicked men.
9 For he hath said, It profiteth a man nothing that he should delight himself with God.
10 Therefore hearken unto mee, ye men of understanding farre be it from God that he should doe wickednesse, & from the Almighty, that he should commit iniquity.
11 For the worke of a man shall he render unto him, and cause every man to find according to his wayes.
12 Yea surely, God will not do wickedly neither will the Almighty pervert iudgement.
13 Who hath given him a charge over the earth? or who hath disposed the whole world?
14 If he set his heart upon man, if he gather unto himself his spirit & his breath;
15 All flesh shal perish together, and man shall turne againe unto dust.
16 If now hath understanding heare this: hearken to the voyce of my words.
17 Shall even he that hateth right, governe? and wilt thou condemne him that is just & mighty?
18 Is it fit to say to a king, Thou art wicked? to Princes, Ye are ungodly?
19 How much lesse to him that accepteth not the persons of princes, nor regardeth the rich more then the poore? for they all are the work of his hands.
20 In a moment shall they die, and the people shall be troubled at midnight & pass away, and the mighty shall be taken away without hand.
21 For his eyes are upon the wayes of man, and he seeth all his goings.
22 There is no darkenesse nor shadow of death, where the workers of iniquity may hide themselves.
23 For he will not lay upon man more then right, that he should enter into iudgement with God.
24 He shall break in pieces mighty men without number, and set others in their stead.
25 Therefore hee knoweth their workes, and he overturneth them in the night, so that they are destroyed.
26 He striketh them as wicked men, in the open sight of others:
27 Because they turned back from him & would not consider any of his wayes
28 So that they cause the cry of the poore to come unto him, & he heareth the cry of the afflicted.
29 When he giveth quietnesse, who then can make trouble? and when he hideth his face, who then can behold him? whether it be done against a nation, or against a man onely:
30 That the hypocrite reigne not, lest the people be ensnared.
31 Surely it is meet to be said unto God, I have born chastisement, I will not offend any more.
32 That which I see not, teach thou me, if I have done iniquity, I will doe no more.
33 Should it be according to thy mind? he will recompense it, whether thou refuse, or whether thou chuse, and not I: therefore speake what thou knowest.
34 Let men of understanding tel me, and let a wise man hearke in unto me.
35 Iob hath spoke without knowledge & his words were without wisedome.
36 My desire is that Iob may be tryed to the end, because of his answers for wicked men.
37 For he addeth rebellion unto his sin, he clappeth his hands amongst us, & multiplieth his words against God.

CHAP. XXXV.

ELihu spake moreover, and said,
2 Thinkest thou this to be right, that thou saidest, my righteousnesse is more then God?
3 For thou saidest, What aduantage will it be unto thee, and, What profit shal I have, if I be cleansed from my sin?
4 I will answere thee, and thy companions with thee.
5 Looke unto the heavens, and see, and behold the cloudes which are higher then thou.
6 If thou sinnest, what doest thou against him? or if thy transgressions be multiplied, what doest thou unto him?
7 If thou be righteous, what giveth thou him? or what receiveth he of thine hand?
8 Thy wickednesse may hurt a man as thou art: and thy righteousnes may profit the son of man.
9 By reason of the multitude of oppressions they make the oppressed to cry: they cry out by reason of the arme of the mighty.
10 But none saith, Where is God my maker, who giveth songs in the night?
11 Who teacheth us more then the beasts of the earth & maketh us wiser then the fowles of heaven.
12 There they cry, (but none giveth answere) because of the pride of evil men.
13 Surely God will not hear vanity, neither wil the Almighty regard it.
14 Although thou sayest, thou shalt not see him, yet iudgement is before him, therefore trust thou in him.
15 But now because it is not so, he hath visited in his anger, yet he knoweth it not in great extremity:

16 Therefore doeth Iob open his mouth in vaine: he multiplyeth words without knowledge.

CHAP. XXXVI.

1 Elihu also proceeded and said,

2 Suffer me a little, and I will shew thee, that I have yet to speake on God's behalf.

3 I will fetch my knowledge from farre, & will ascribe righteousnes to my Maker.

4 For truely my words shal not be false: he that is perfect in knowledge is with thee.

5 Behold, God is mighty and despiseth not any: he is mighty in strength and wisedome.

6 He preserveth not the life of the wicked: but giveth right to the poore.

7 He withdraweth not his eyes from the righteous: but with kings are they on the throne, yea, he doeth establish them for ever, and they are exalted.

8 And if they be bound in fetters, and be holden in cordes of affliction:

9 Then he sheweth them their work & their transgressions, y they have exceeded.

10 He openeth also their eare to discipline, and commandeth that they returne from iniquity.

11 If they obey and serve him, they shal spend their dayes in prosperity, and their yeres in pleasures.

12 But if they obey not, they shall perish by the sword, and they shal die without knowledge.

13 But y hypocrites in heart heap up wrath: they cry not when he bindes them in.

14 They die in youth, and their life is among the unclean.

15 He delivereth y poore in his affliction, & openeth their eare in oppression.

16 Yea even so would he have removed thee out of the strait, into a broad place where there is no straitnes: and that which should be set on thy table should be full of fatnesse.

17 But thou hast fulfilled the judgement of the wicked: judgement and justice take hold on thee.

18 Because there is wrath, beware lest he take thee away with his stroke: then a great ransome cannot deliver thee.

19 Will he esteeme thy riches? no, not gold, nor all the forces of strength.

20 Desire not the night, when people are cut off in their place.

21 Take heed, regard not iniquity: for this hast thou chosen rather then affliction.

22 Behold, God exalteth by his power: who teacheth like him?

23 Who hath enjoyned him his way? or who can say, thou hast wrought iniquity?

24 Remember that thou magnifie his worke which men behold.

25 Every man may see it, y man may behold it a far off.

26 Behold, God is great, and we know him not: neyther can the number of his yeres be searched out.

27 For he maketh small the drops of water, they powre down raine according to the vapour thereof:

28 Which the clouds doe drop, & fall upon man abundantly.

29 Also can any understand the spreading of the clouds, or the noise of his Tabernacle?

30 Behold, he spreadeth his light upon it, and covereth the bottome of the sea.

31 For by them judgeth he the people: he giveth meat in abundance.

32 With clouds he covereth the light, and commandeth it not to shine, by the cloud that commeth betwixt.

33 The noise thereof sheweth concerning the cattel also concerning the vapour.

CHAP. XXXVII.

1 At this also my heart trembleth, and is moved out of his place.

2 Heare attentively y noise of his voice, and y sound y goeth out of his mouth.

3 He directeth it under y whole heaven, & his lightning to y ends of the earth.

4 After it a voyce roareth: he thundereth with the voyce of his excellency: & he will not stay them when his voyce is heard.

5 God thundereth marvelously with his voyce: great things doth he, which we cannot comprehend.

6 For he saith to the snow, Be thou on the earth: likewise to the small raine, and to the great raine of his strength.

7 He sealeth up the hand of every man, y al men may know his worke.

8 Then the beasts goe into their denne, and remaine in their places.

9 Out of the South commeth y whirlwind: and cold out of the North.

10 By y breath of God, frost is given: and the breadth of y waters is straitned.

11 Also by watering he wearieth the cloud: he scattereth his bright cloud.

12 And it is turned round about by their counsels: that they may do whatsoever he commandeth them upon the face of the world in the earth.

13 He causeth it to come, whether for correction for his land, or for mercy.

14 Hearken to this, O Iob: stand still & consider y wondrous works of God.

15 Dost thou know when God disposed them, and caused the light of his cloud to shine?

16 Dost thou know the ballancings of the clouds, the wondrous works of him which is perfect in knowledge?

17 How thy garments are warme, when the earth is quiet by y South wind?

18 Hast thou with him spred out the skie, which is strong, even as a molten looking glasse?

19 Teach us what we shal say unto him, for we cannot order our speech by reason of darkenesse.

20 Shal it be told him that I speake? if man speake, surely he shal be swallowed up.

21 And now men see not the bright light which is in the cloudes: but the wind passeth and cleanseth them.

22 Fayre weather commeth out of the North: with God is terrible majesty.

ing the Almighty, we cannot find out: he is excellent in power, and in judgement, and in plenty of justice: he will not afflict.
8 Men do therefore fear him: he regardeth not any that are wise of heart.

CHAP. XXXVIII.

Then the LORD answered Job out of the whirlwind, and said, 2 Who is this that darkeneth counsel by words without knowledge?
3 Gird up now thy loines like a man: for
I will demand of thee, & answer thou me.
4 Where wast thou when I laid the foundations of the earth? declare, if thou hast understanding.
5 Who hath laid the measures thereof, if thou knowest? or who hath stretched the line upon it?
6 Whereupon are the foundations thereof fastned? or who laid the corner stone thereof?
7 When the morning stars sang together, and all the sons of God shouted for joy?
8 Or who shut up the sea with doors, when it brake forth, as if it had issued out of the wombe?
9 When I made the cloud the garment thereof, and thicke darkenes a swadling band for it, 10 And brake up for it my decreed place, and set bars and doors, 11 And said, Hitherto shalt thou come, but no further: & here shall thy proud waves be stayed.
12 Hast thou commanded the morning since thy dayes? and caused the day-spring to know his place.
13 That it might take hold of the ends of the earth, that the wicked might be shaken out of it?
14 It is turned as clay to the seale, and they stand as a garment.
15 And from the wicked their light is withheld, and the high arme shall be broken.
16 Hast thou entred into the springs of the sea? or hast thou walked in the search of the depths?
17 Have the gates of death been opened unto thee? or hast thou seen the doors of the shadow of death?
18 Hast thou perceived the breadth of the earth? declare if thou knowest it all.
19 Where is the way where light dwelleth? and as for darkenes, where is the place thereof?
20 That thou shouldest take it to the bound thereof, and that thou shouldst know the pathes to the house thereof.
21 Knowest thou it, because thou wast then borne? or because the number of thy dayes is great?
22 Hast thou entred into the treasures of the snow? or hast thou seen the treasures of the hayle.
23 Which I have reserved against the time of trouble, against the day of bat-tel and warre?
24 By what way is the light parted? or whereby the East wind is scattered upon the earth?
25 Who hath divided a water-course for the overflowing of waters? or a way for the lightening of thunder.
26 To cause it to raine on the earth, where no man is, on the wildernes wherein there is no man?
27 To satisfie the desolate and waste ground, and to cause the bud of the tender herbe to spring forth.
28 Hath the raine a father? or who hath begotten the dropps of dew?
29 Out of whose womb came the ice,
& the hoary frost of heaven, who hath gendred it?
30 The waters are hid as with a stone, and the face of the deepe is frozen.
31 Canst thou binde the sweet influences of Pleiades? or loose the bandes of Orion?
32 Canst thou bring forth Mazzaroth in his season? or canst thou guide Arcturus with his sons?
33 Knowest thou the ordinances of heaven? canst thou set the dominion thereof in the earth?
34 Canst thou lift up thy voyce to clouds, that abundance of waters may cover thee?
35 Canst thou send lightnings that they may go, and say to thee, Here we are?
36 Who hath put wisedome in the inward parts? or who hath given understanding to the heart?
37 Who can number the clouds in wisedom? or who can stay the bottels of heaven?
38 When the dust groweth into hardnes, and the clods cleave fast together?
39 Wilt thou hunt the prey for the lion & fill the appetite of his young lions.
40 When they couch in their dennes, and abide in the covert to lie in wait?
41 Who provideth for the raven his food? When his young ones cry unto God, they wander for lack of meat.

CHAP. XXXIX.

KNowest thou the time when the wild goates of the rock bring forth? or canst thou marke when the hindes do calve?
2 Canst thou number the moneths that they fulfill? or knowest thou the time when they bring forth?
3 They bow themselves, they bring forth their young ones, they cast out their sorrowes.
4 Their young ones are in good liking, they grow up with corne: they go forth, and returne not unto them.
5 Who hath sent out the wilde asse free? or who hath loosed the bands of the wild asse?
6 Whose house I have made the wil-dernes, & the barren land his dwellings.
7 He scorneth the multitude of the citie, neither regardeth he the crying of the driver.
8 The range of the mountaines is his pasture, and he searcheth after every greene thing.
9 Will the Unicorne bee willing to serve thee? or abide by thy crib?
10 Canst thou binde the Unicorn with his band in the furrow? or will

will he harrow the valleys after thee?
11 Wilt thou trust in him, because his strength is great? or wilt thou leave thy labour to him?
12 Wilt thou beleeue him that he will bring home thy seed, and gather it into thy barne?
13 Gauest thou the goodly wings to the Peacockes? or wings and feathers vnto the Ostrich?
14 Which leaueth her egges in the earth, and warmeth them in dust, 15 And forgetteth that the foot may crush them, or that the wild beast may breake them.
16 She is hardened against her young ones, as though they were not hers: her labour is in vaine without feare.
17 Because God hath deprived her of wisdome, neither hath he imparted to her understanding.
18 What time shee lifteth vp her selfe on high, he scorneth the horse and his rider.
19 Hast thou giuen the horse strength? hast y clothed his neck with thunder?
20 Canst thou make him afraid as a grashopper? the glory of his nostrils is terrible.
21 He paweth in the valley, and reioyceth in his strength? hee goeth on to meet the armed men.
22 He mocketh at feare, and is not affrighted: neither turneth he backe from the sword.
23 The quiuer ratleth against him, the glittering speare and the shield.
24 He swalloweth the ground with fiercenes and rage: neither beleeueth he that it is the sound of the trumpet.
25 He saith among the trumpets Ha, ha, & he smelleth the battel a far off, y thunder of the captains & y shouting.
26 Doth the hawke flie by thy wisdom, & stretch her wings toward y South?
27 Doth the Eagle mount vp at thy commandement, & make her nest on high?
28 She dwelleth and abideth on the rock, vpon the crag of the rocke, and the strong place.
29 From thence she seeketh the prey, and her eyes behold afarre off.
30 Her young ones also suck vp blood: and where the slaine are, there is she.

CHAP. XL.

MOreouer the Lord answered Iob, and said,
2 Shal he that contendeth with the Almighty, instruct him? he that reproueth God, let him answer it.
3 Then Iob answered the LORD, and said,
4 Loe I am vile, what shal I answere thee? I will lay my hand on my mouth.
5 Once haue I spoken, but I will not answer: yea twice, but I will proceed no further.
6 Then answered the LORD vnto Iob out of the whirlewind, and said,
7 Gird vp thy loines now like a man: I will demand of thee, and declare thou vnto me.
8 Wilt thou also disannul my iudgement? wilt thou condemne me, that thou mayest be righteous?
9 Hast thou an arm like God? or canst thou thunder with a voyce like him?
10 Decke thy self now with maiestie and excellencie, and array thy self with glory and beauty.
11 Cast abroad the rage of thy wrath, and behold every one that is proud, and abase him.
12 Look on euery one that is proud, and bring him low, and tread down the wicked in their place.
13 Hide them in the dust together, and binde their faces in secret.
14 Then will I also confesse vnto thee, that thine owne right hand can saue thee.
15 Behold now Behemoth, which I made as thee: he eateth grasse as an oxe.
16 Behold now, his strength is in his loines, and his force is in the nauel of his belly.
17 He moueth his tail like a Cedar: the sinewes of his stones are wrapt together.
18 His bones are as strong pipes of brasse: his bones are like barres of yron.
19 He is the chiefe of the wayes of God: the that made him, can make his sword to approach vnto him.
20 Surely the mountaines bring him forth food: where all the beasts of the field play.
21 He lieth vnder the shady trees, in the couert of the reed and fennes.
22 The shadie trees couer him with their shadow: the willowes of the brooke compasse him about.
23 Behold, he drinketh vp a riuer, and hasteth not: he trusteth that he can draw vp Iordan into his mouth.
24 He taketh it with his eyes: and pierceth thorow snares.

CHAP. XLI.

CAnst thou draw out Leuiathan with a hooke? or his tongue with a cord which thou lettest downe?
2 Canst thou put a hooke in his nose? or bore his iaw thorow with a thorne?
3 Will he make many supplications vnto thee? will he speake soft words vnto thee?
4 Will he make a Couenant with thee: wilt thou take him for a seruant for euer?
5 Wilt thou play with him as with a bird? or wilt y binde him for thy maidens?
6 Shall the companions make a banket of him? shall they part him among the merchants?
7 Canst thou fil his skinne with barbed irons? or his head with fish-speares?
8 Lay thine hand vpon him, remember the battel: do no more.
9 Behold, the hope of him is in vaine: shall not one be cast downe, euen at the sight of him.
10 None is so fierce that dare stirre him vp: who then is able to stand before me?
11 Who hath preuented me, that I who can stand before him?

11 Who hath prevented me, that I should repay him? whatsoever is under all the heaven is mine.
12 I will not conceal his parts, nor his power, nor his comely proportion.
13 Who can discover the face of his garment? or who can come to him with a double bridle?
14 Who can open the doors of his face? his teeth are terrible round about.
15 His scales are his pride, shut up together as with a close seal.
16 One is so near to another, that no air can come between them.
17 They are joyned one to another, they stick together, that they cannot be sundred.
18 His neesings a light doth shine, and his eyes are like the eyelids of the morning.
19 Out of his mouth go burning lamps, and sparks of fire leap out.
20 Out of his nostrils goeth smoak, as of a seething pot or caldron.
21 His breath kindleth coals, and a flame goeth out of his mouth.
22 In his neck remaineth strength, & sorrow is turned into joy before him.
23 The flakes of his flesh are joyned together: they are firm in themselves, that cannot be moved.
24 His heart is as firm as a stone yea, as hard as a piece of the nether millstone.
25 When he raiseth up himself, the mighty are afraid: by reason of breakings they purifie themselves.
26 The sword of him that layeth at him cannot hold: the spear, the dart, nor the habergeon.
27 He esteemeth iron as straw, and brass as rotten wood.
28 The arrow cannot make him flee: slinge-stones are turned with him into stubble.
29 Darts are counted as stubble: he laugheth at the shaking of a spear.
30 Sharp stones are under him: he spreadeth sharp-pointed things upon the mire.
31 He maketh the deep to boil like a pot: he maketh the Sea like a pot of ointment.
32 He maketh a path to shine after him: one would think the deep to be hoary.
33 Upon earth there is not his like: who is made without fear.
34 He beholdeth all high things: he is a King over all the children of pride.

CHAP. XLII.

1 Iob answered the Lord, & said,
2 I know that thou canst do every thing, and that no thought can be withholden from thee.
3 Who is he that hideth counsell without knowledge? therefore have I uttered y I understood not, things too wonderfull for me, which I knew not.
4 Hear, I beseech thee, and I will speak: I will demand of thee, and declare thou unto me.
5 I have heard of thee by the hearing of ear: but now mine eye seeth thee.
6 Wherefore I abhor my self, and repent in dust and ashes.
7 And it was so, that after the LORD had spoken these words unto Iob, the LORD said to Eliphaz the Temanite, My wrath is kindled against thee, and against thy two friends: for ye have not spoken of me the thing that is right, as my servant Iob hath.
8 Therefore take unto you now seven bullocks, and seven rams, and go to my servant Iob, and offer up for your selves a burnt-offering; and my servant Iob shall pray for you: for him will I accept: lest I deal with you after your folly, in that ye have not spoken of me the thing which is right, like my servant Iob.
9 So Eliphaz the Temanite, and Bildad the Suhite, and Zophar the Naamathite went, and did according as the LORD commanded them: the LORD also accepted Iob.
10 And the LORD turned the captivity of Iob, when he prayed for his friends: also the LORD gave Iob twice as much as he had before.
11 Then came there unto him all his brethren, and all his sisters, and all they that had been of his acquaintance before, and did eat bread with him in his house: and they bemoaned him, and comforted him over all the evill that the LORD had brought upon him: every man also gave him a peece of money, & every one an ear-ring of gold.
12 So the LORD blessed the latter end of Iob more then his beginning: for he had fourteen thousand sheep, and six thousand camels, and a thousand yoke of oxen, and a thousand she asses.
13 He had also seven sons, and three daughters.
14 And he called the name of the first, Iemima, and the name of the second, Kezia, and the name of the third, Keren-happuch.
15 And in all the land were no women found so fair as the daughters of Iob: and their father gave them inheritance among their brethren.
16 After this lived Iob an hundred and fourty years, and saw his sons, and his sons sons, even four generations.
17 So Iob died being old, and full of dayes.

PSAL. I.

1 Blessed is the man that walketh not in the counsel of the ungodly, nor standeth in the way of sinners, nor sitteth in the seat of the scornfull.
2 But his delight is in the Law of the LORD, and in his Law doeth he meditate day and night.
3 And he shall be like a tree planted by the rivers of water, that bringeth fourth his fruit in his season, his leaf also shall not wither, and whatsoever he doeth, shall prosper.

4 The ungodly are not so: but are like the chaff which y wind driveth away.

5 Therefore the ungodly shall not stand in the iudgement, nor sinners in the congregation of the righteous.

6 For y Lord knoweth y way of y righteous: but the way of the ungodly shall perish.

PSAL. II.

Wilfully do the heathen rage, and the people imagine a vain thing?

2 The kings of the earth set themselves, and the rulers take counsell together against the LORD, and against his anointed, saying,

3 Let us break their bands asunder, and cast away their coards from us.

4 He y sitteth in y heavens shal laugh: the LORD shall have them in derision.

5 Then shall he speak unto them in his wrath, and vexe them in his sore displeasure,

6 Yet have I set my king upon my holy hill of Sion.

7 I will declare the decree: the LORD hath said unto me, Thou art my son, this day have I begotten thee.

8 Ask of me, and I will give thee the heathē for thine inheritāce, and y uttermost part of the earth for thy possessiō.

9 Thou shalt break them with a rod of iron: thou shalt dash them in pieces like a potters vessell.

10 Be wise now therefore, O ye kings, be instructed ye iudges of the earth.

11 Serve the LORD with feare, and reioyce with trembling.

12 Kisse the son lest he be angry, and ye perish from y way, when his wrath is kindled but a little: Blessed are all they that put their trust in him.

PSAL. III.

A Psalme of David, when he fled from Absalom his son.

LORD, how are they increased that trouble me? many are they that rise up against me.

2 Many there be which say of my soul, There is no help for him in his God. Selah.

3 But y, O Lord art a shield for me, my glory, and y lifter up of my head.

4 I cried to the LORD with my voice, & he heard me out of his holy hil. Selah.

5 I laid me down and slept; I awaked, for the LORD sustained me.

6 I will not be afraid of ten thousands of people, that have set themselves against me round about.

7 Arise, O LORD, save me, O my God: for thou hast smitten all mine enemies upon the cheek bone: thou hast broken the teeth of the ungodly.

8 Salvation belongeth to the LORD: thy blessing is upon thy people. Selah.

PSAL. IV.

To the chief Musician on Neginoth. A psalm of David.

Hear me when I call, O God of my righteousnesse: thou hast enlarged me when I was in distresse, have upon me, and hear my prayer.

2 O ye sons of men, how long will turn my glory into shame? how will ye love vanity, and seek after lying? Selah.

3 But know that the LORD hath apart him that is godly for himself: LORD will hear when I call unto him.

4 Stand in awe, and sin not: commune with your own heart upon your and be still. Selah.

5 Offer the sacrifices of righteousness, and put your trust in the LORD.

6 There be many that say, Who will shew us any good? LORD, lift thou the light of thy countenance upon us.

7 Thou hast put gladnesse in my more then in the time that their and their wine increased.

8 I will both lay me down in peace, and sleep; for thou, LORD, only makest me dwell in safety.

PSAL. V.

To the chief Musician upon Nehiloth. A Psalm of David.

Give ear to my words, O LORD, consider my meditation.

2 Hearken unto the voyce of my cry, my King and my God: for unto thee will I pray.

3 My voyce shalt y hear in the morning, O LORD, in y morning will I direct my prayer unto thee, and will look up.

4 For thou art not a God that hast pleasure in wickednesse: neither shall dwell with thee.

5 The foolish shall not stand in thy sight: y hatest all workers of iniquity.

6 Thou shalt destroy them that speak leasing: the LORD will abhorre the bloody and deceitfull man.

7 But as for me, I will come into thy house, in the multitude of thy mercy: and in thy feare will I worship toward thy holy Temple.

8 Lead me, O LORD, in thy righteousnesse, because of mine enemies; make thy way straight before my face.

9 For there is no stedfastnesse in their mouth, their inward part is very wickednesse: their throat is an open sepulchre, they flatter with their tongue.

10 Destroy y them, O God; let them fall by their own counsels; cast them out in y multitude of their transgressions; for they have rebelled against thee.

11 But let all those that put their trust in thee reioyce: let them ever shout for joy, because thou defendest them, and let them also that love thy Name, be joyfull in thee.

12 For thou, LORD, wilt bless the righteous; with favour wilt thou compasse him, as with a shield.

PSAL. VI.

To the chief Musician on Neginoth upon Sheminith. A Psalm of David.

O LORD, rebuke me not in thine anger, neither chasten me in thine hote displeasure.

2 Have mercy upon me, O LORD,

Psalmes prayer.

3 Lest at any time they pull my soul as a lion, rending it in pieces, while there is none to deliver.

4 O LORD my God, if I have done this; if there be iniquity in my hands.

5 If I have rewarded evil unto him that was at peace with me; (yea, I have delivered him that without cause is mine enemie)

6 Let the enemy persecute my soul, and take it; yea, let him tread down my life upon the earth, and lay mine honour in the dust. Selah.

7 Arise, O LORD, in thine anger, lift up thy self, because of the rage of mine enemies: and awake for me to the judgement that thou hast commanded.

8 So shall the Congregation of the people compasse thee about: for their sakes therefore return thou on high.

9 The LORD shall judge the people: judge me, O LORD, according to my righteousnesse, and according to mine integrity that is in me.

10 Oh let the wickednes of the wicked come to an end, but establish the just: for the righteous God trieth the hearts & reins.

11 My defence is of God, which saveth the upright in heart.

12 God judgeth the righteous, and God is angry with the wicked every day.

13 If he turn not, he will whet his sword: he hath bent his bow, and made it ready.

14 He hath also prepared for him the instruments of death: he ordaineth his arrowes against the persecuters.

15 Behold, he travaileth with iniquity, and hath conceived mischief, and brought forth falshood.

16 He made a pit, and digged it, and is fallen into the ditch which he made.

17 His mischief shall return upon his own head, and his violent dealing shall come down upon his own pate.

17 I will praise the LORD according to his righteousnesse, and will sing praise to the Name of the LORD most High.

PSAL. VIII.

To the chief Musician upon Gitteth. A psalme of David.

1 O LORD our LORD, how excellent is thy Name in all the earth! who hast set thy glory above the heavens.

2 Out of the mouth of babes and sucklings hast thou ordained strength because of thine enemies, that thou mightest still the enemy and the avenger.

3 When I consider the heavens the work of thy fingers, the Moon and the Starres which thou hast ordained;

4 What is man that thou art mindful of him? or the son of man that thou visitest him?

5 For thou hast made him a little lower then the angels, and hast crowned him with glory and honour.

6 Thou madest him to have dominion over the works of thy hands; thou hast put all things under his feet.

7 All sheep and oxen, yea, and the beasts of the field;

8 The foul of the air, and the fish of the sea, and whatsoever passeth thorow the paths of the seas.

9 O LORD our Lord, how excellent is thy Name in all the earth!

PSAL. IX.

To the chief Musician upon Muth-Labben. A psalm of David.

1 I will praise thee, O LORD, with my whole heart: I will shew forth all thy marvelous works.

2 I will be glad and rejoyce in thee: I will sing praise unto thy Name, O thou most High.

3 When mine enemies are turned back, they shall fall and perish at thy presence.

4 For thou hast maintained my right, and my cause; thou satest in the throne judgeing right.

5 Thou hast rebuked the heathen, thou hast destroyed the wicked, thou hast put out their name for ever & ever.

6 O thou enemy, destructions are come to a perpetuall end, and thou hast destroyed cities, their memorial is perished with them.

7 But the Lord shall endure for ever: he hath prepared his throne for judgment.

8 And he shall judge the world in righteousnesse, he shall minister judgement to the people in uprightnesse.

9 The Lord also will be a refuge for the oppressed: a refuge in times of trouble.

10 And they that know thy Name, will put their trust in thee, for thou Lord hast not forsaken them that seek thee.

11 Sing praises to the LORD which dwelleth in Zion, declare among the people his doings.

12 When he maketh inquisition for blood, he remembreth them: he forgetteth not the cry of the humble.

13 Have mercy upon me, O LORD,

consider my trouble which I suffer of them that hate me, thou that liftest me up from the gates of death:

14 That I may shew forth all thy praise in the gates of the daughter of Sion: I will rejoyce in thy salvation.

15 The heathen are sunk down in the pit that they made: in the net which they hid, is their own foot taken.

16 The LORD is known by the judgement which he executeth: the wicked is snared in the work of his own hands. Higgaion. Selah.

17 The wicked shall be turned into hell, and all the nations that forget God.

18 For the needy shall not alway be forgotten: the expectation of the poor shall not perish for ever.

19 Arise, O Lord, let not man prevail: let the heathen be judged in thy sight.

20 Put them in fear, O LORD: that the nations may know themselves to be but men. Selah.

PSAL. X.

WHy standest thou afar off, O LORD? why hidest thou thy self in times of trouble?

2 The wicked in his pride doth persecute the poor: let them be taken in the device that they have imagined.

3 For the wicked boasteth of his hearts desire, and blesseth the covetous, whom the LORD abhorreth.

4 The wicked through the pride of his countenance will not seek after God: God is not in all his thoughts.

5 His ways are alwayes grievous; thy judgments are far above out of his sight: as for all his enemies, he puffeth at them.

6 He hath said in his heart, I shall not be moved: for I shal never be in adversity.

7 His mouth is full of cursing, and deceit, and fraud: under his tongue is mischief and vanity.

8 He sitteth in the lurking places of the villages: in the secret places doth he murder the innocent: his eyes are privily set against the poor.

9 He lieth in wait secretly as a lyon in his denne: he lieth in wait to catch the poor: he doth catch the poor, when he draweth him into his net.

10 He croucheth, and humbleth himself, that the poor may fall by his strong ones:

11 For he hath said in his heart, God hath forgotten: he hideth his face, he will never see it.

12 Arise, O LORD, O GOD, lift up thine hand: forget not the humble.

13 Wherefore doth the wicked contemn God? he hath said in his heart, Thou wilt not require it.

14 Thou hast seen it, for thou beholdest mischief and spite, to requite it with thy hand: the poor committeth himself unto thee, thou art the helper of the fatherlesse.

15 Break thou the arm of the wicked, and the evil man: seek out his wickedness till thou find none.

16 The Lord is King for ever & ever: the heathe are perished out of his

17 LORD, thou hast heard the desire of the humble: thou wilt prepare their heart, thou wilt cause thine ear to hear:

18 To judge the fatherless and the oppressed, that the man of the earth may no more oppresse.

PSAL. XI.

To the chief musician, A Psalm of David.

IN the LORD put I my trust: how say ye to my soul, Flee as a bird to your mountain?

2 For lo, the wicked bend their bow, they make ready their arrow upon the string: that they may privily shoot at the upright in heart.

3 If the foundations be destroyed, what can the righteous do?

4 The LORD is in his holy temple, the LORDS throne is in heaven: his eyes behold, his eyelids try the children of men.

5 The LORD trieth the righteous: but the wicked, and him that loveth violence, his soul hateth.

6 Upon y wicked he shal rain snares, fire and brimstone, & an horrible tempest: this shall be y portion of their cup.

7 For the righteous LORD loveth righteousnesse, his countenance doth behold the upright.

PSAL. XII.

To the chief Musician upon Sheminith, A psalm of David.

HElp LORD, for the godly man ceseth; for the faithfull fail from among the children of men.

2 They speak vanity every one with his neighbour: with flattering lippes and with a double heart do they speak.

3 The LORD shall cut off all flattering lips, and the tongue that speaketh proud things.

4 Who have said, With our tongue will we prevail, our lips are our own: who is Lord over us?

5 For the oppression of the poore, for the sighing of the needy, now will I arise (saith the LORD) I will set him in safety from him that puffeth at him.

6 The words of the LORD are pure words: as silver tried in a furnace of earth, purified seven times.

7 Thou shalt keep them, O LORD, thou shalt preserve them from this generation for ever.

8 The wicked walke on every side, when the vilest men are exalted.

PSAL. XIII.

To the chief Musician, A Psalm of David.

HOw long wilt thou forget me, O LORD) for ever? how long wilt thou hide thy face from me?

2 How long shall I take counsell in my soul, having sorrow in my heart daily? how long shall mine enemy be exalted over me?

3 Consider and hear me, O LORD my God: lighten mine eyes, lest I sleep of death:

...mmed many day. I have pre-
...ed him: & those that trou...ble me, rejoice when I am moved.
...9 For I have trusted in thy mercy.
...My heart shall rejoice in thy salvation.
...I will sing unto the LORD, be...cause he hath dealt bountifully w me.

PSAL. XIIII.

Taste the Musician. A psalm of David.

1 The fool hath said in his heart,
There is no God: they are corrupt,
they have done abominable works:
there is none that doth good.

2 The LORD looked down from heaven upon the children of men, to see if there were any that did understand and seek God.

3 They are all gone aside, they are all together become filthy: there is none that doth good, no not one.

4 Have all the workers of iniquity no knowledge? who eat up my people as they eat bread, & call not upon y Lord.

5 There were they in great fear; for God is in y generation of y righteous.

6 Ye have blamed y counsel of the poor, because the LORD is his refuge.

7 O that the salvation of Israel were given out of Sion, when the Lord bringeth again y captivity of his people. Jacob shall rejoice, & Israel shall be glad.

PSAL. XV.

A psalme of David.

1 LORD, who shall abide in thy Tabernacle? who shall dwell in thy holy hill?

2 He that walketh uprightly, and worketh righteousnesse, and speaketh the truth in his heart.

3 He that hath not w his tongue, nor done ill to his neighbour, nor taketh up a reproach against his neighbour.

4 In whose eyes a vile person is contemned: but he honoureth them that fear the LORD. He that sweareth to his own hurt and changeth not.

5 He that putteth not out his money to usury, nor taketh reward against the innocent: he that doth these things, shall never be moved.

PSAL. XVI.

Michtam of David.

1 PRESERVE me, O God: for in thee do
I put my trust.

2 O my soul, thou hast said unto the LORD, Thou art my Lord, my goodnesse extendeth not to thee:

3 But to the Saints that are in the earth, and to the excellent, in whom is all my delight.

4 Their sorrowes shal be multiplyed, that hasten after another God: their drinkings of blood will I not offer, nor take up their names into my lips.

5 The LORD is the portion of mine inheritance, and of my cup: thou maintainest my lot.

6 The lines are fallen to me in pleasant places, I have a goodly heritage.

7 I will blesse the LORD who hath given me counsell: my reins also admonish me in the night seasons.

8 I have set the LORD always before me: because he is at my right hand, I shall not be moved.

9 Therefore my heart is glad, and my glory rejoyceth: my flesh also shal rest in hope.

10 For thou wilt not leave my soul in hell: neither wilt thou suffer thine holy One to see corruption.

11 Thou wilt shew me the path of life: in thy presence is fulnes of joy:
at thy right hand there are pleasures for evermore.

PSAL. XVII.

A prayer of David.

1 HEar the right, O LORD, attend unto my cry: give ear to my prayer, that goeth not out of fained lips.

2 Let my sentence come forth from thy presence: let thine eyes behold the things that are equall.

3 Thou hast prooved mine heart, thou hast visited me in the night, thou hast tryed me, and shalt finde nothing:
I am purposed that my mouth shall not transgresse.

4 Concerning the works of men: by the word of thy lips, I have kept me from the paths of the destroyer.

5 Hold up my goings in thy paths, that my footsteps slip not.

6 I have called upon thee, for thou wilt hear me, O God: encline thine ear unto me and hear my speech.

7 Shew thy marvellous loving kind-nesse, O thou that savest by thy right hand them y put their trust in thee, from those that rise up against them.

8 Keep me as the apple of the eye:
hide me under y shadow of thy wings.

9 From the wicked that oppresse me, from my deadly enemies, who compass me about.

10 They are inclosed in their own fat: with their mouth they speak proudly.

11 They have now compassed us in our steppes: they have set their eyes bowing down to the earth:

12 Like as a lyon that is greedy of his prey, and as it were a young lyon lurking in secret places.

13 Arise, O LORD, disappoint him, cast him down: deliver my soul from the wicked, which is thy sword:

14 From men which are thy hand, O LORD, from men of the world which have their portion in this life, and whose belly thou fillest with thy hid treasure: they are ful of children, & leave y rest of their substance to their babes.

15 As for me, I will behold thy face in righteousnesse: I shall be satisfied, when I awake, with thy likenesse.

PSAL. XIX.

To the chief Musician. A Psalme of David.

1 The Heavens declare the glory of God: and the firmament sheweth the handy worke.
2 Day unto day uttereth speach, and night unto night sheweth knowledge.
3 There is no speach nor language, where their voyce is not heard.
4 Their line is gone out through all the earth, and their words unto the end of the world: in them hath he set a tabernacle for the Sunne.
5 Which is as a bride-groome comming out of his chamber, and reioyceth as a strong man to run a race.
6 His going forth is from the ende of the heaven, & his circuit unto the ends of it: & there is nothing hid from the heate thereof.
7 The law of the Lord is perfect, converting the soule: the Testimony of the Lord is sure, making wise the simple.
8 The Statutes of the Lord are right, rejoycing the heart: the commandement of the Lord is pure, enlightning y eyes.
9 The feare of the Lord is cleane, endureth for ever: the iudgements of the Lord are true, and righteous altogether.
10 More to be desired are they then gold, yea then much fine gold: sweeter also then hony, and the hony combe.
11 Moreover, by them is thy servant warned: and in keeping of them there is great reward.
12 Who can understand his errours? cleanse me from secret faultes.
13 Keep back thy servant also from presumptuous sinnes, let them not have dominion over me: then shall I be vpright, and I shall be innocent from the great transgression.
14 Let the words of my mouth, and the meditation of my heart, be acceptable in thy sight, O Lord, my strength and my redeemer.

PSAL. XX.

To the chiefe Musician. A Psalme of David.

1 The LORD heare thee in the day of trouble: the Name of the God of Iacob defend thee.
2 Send thee help from the Sanctuary, and strengthen thee out of Sion.
3 Remember all thy offerings, and accept thy burnt sacrifice. Selah.
4 Grant thee according to thine own heart, and fulfill all thy counsel.
5 We will reioyce in thy salvation, and in the Name of our God wee will set vp our banners: the LORD fulfil all thy petitions.
6 Now know I, that the LORD saveth his Anointed: he wil heare him from his holy heaven, with y saving strength of his right hand.
7 Some trust in charrets, and some in horses: but we will remember the Name of the LORD our God.
8 They are brought downe, and fallen: but we are risen, and stand upright.
9 Save, Lord, let the King heare us when we call.

PSAL. XXI.

To the chiefe Musician. A Psalme of Dauid.

1 THe king shal ioy in thy strength, O LORD: and in thy salvation how greatly shal he reioyce?
2 Thou hast given him his hearts desire, and hast not withholden the requeste of his lips. Selah.
3 For thou preventest him with the blessings of goodnes: thou settest a crowne of pure gold on his head.
4 He asked life of thee, and thou gavest it him, even length of dayes, for ever and ever.
5 His glory is great in thy salvation: honour and maiesty hast thou laid upon him.
6 For thou hast made him most blessed for ever: thou hast made him exceeding glad with thy countenance.
7 For the king trusted in the Lord, and through the mercy of the most High, he shal not be mooved.
8 Thine hand shal find out all thine enemies: thy right hand shall find out those that hate thee.
9 Thou hast made them as a fiery oven in the time of thine anger: the LORD shal swallow them up in his wrath, and the fire shal devour them.
10 Their fruite shalt thou destroy from the earth, and their seed from among the children of men.
11 For they intended evil against thee: they imagined a mischievous device, which they are not able to performe.
12 Therefore shalt thou make them turn their backe, when thou shalt make ready thine arrowes upon thy strings against the face of them.
13 Be thou exalted, LORD, in thine owne strength: so wil we sing and praise thy power.

PSAL. XXII.

To the chiefe Musician upon Aijeleth Shahar. A Psalme of David.

1 MY God, my God, why hast thou forsaken me? why art thou so far from helping me, and from the words of my roaring?
2 O my God, I cry in the day time, but thou hearest not: and in the night season: and am not silent.
3 But thou art holy, O thou that inhabitest the praises of Israel:
4 Our fathers trusted in thee: they trusted, and thou didst deliver them.
5 They cryed unto thee, and were delivered: they trusted in thee, and were not confounded.
6 But I am a worm, & no man: a reproach of men, & despised of y people
7 All they that see me, laugh me to scorne: they shoot out the lip, they shake the head, saying,
8 He trusted on the LORD, that he should deliver him: let him deliver him, seeing he delighted in him.
9 But thou art he y took me out of the 11 Be not far from me, for trouble

12 Many bulls have compassed me: fatt bulls of Bashan have beset me round.
13 They gaped upon me with their mouths, as a ravening & roaring lion.
14 I am powred out like water, and al my bones are out of joynt: my heart is like wax, it is melted in the midst of my bowels.
15 My strength is dryed up like a potsheard: and my tongue cleaveth to my jawes: and thou hast brought me into the dust of death.
16 For dogs have compassed me: the assembly of the wicked have enclosed me: they pierced my hands & my feet.
17 I may tel al my bones: they look and stare upon me.
18 They part my garments among them, and cast lots upon my vesture.
19 But be not ỹ far from me, O Lord, my strength: haste thee to help me.
20 Deliver my soul from the sword,
my darling from the power of ỹ dog.
21 Save me from the Lyons mouth: for thou hast heard me from the hornes of the Unicornes.
22 I will declare thy Name unto my brethren: in the midst of the Congregation will I praise thee.
23 Yee that feare the LORD praise him: all ye the seed of Jacob glorifie him, & feare him al ye ỹ seed of Israel.
24 For he hath not despised, nor abhorred ỹ affliction of the afflicted, neither hath he hid his face from him:
but when he cryed to him he heard.
25 My praise shal be of thee in the great Congregation: I wil pay my vowes before them that feare him.
26 The meeke shall eate and be satisfied: they shal praise the LORD that seek him: your heart shal live for ever.
27 All the ends of the world shal remember, and turne unto the LORD:
and al the kindreds of the nations shal worship before thee.
28 For the kingdome is ỹ LORDS,
& he is ỹ governour among ỹ nations.
29 Al they that be fat upon earth shal eat and worship: al they that go down to the dust shal bow before him: and none can keepe alive his owne soule.
30 A seed shal serve him: It shal be accounted to ỹ Lord for a Generation.
31 They shal come, and shal declare his righteousnesse unto a people that shal be born: that he hath done this.

PSAL. XXV.

A Psalme of David.

UNto thee, O LORD, do I lift up my soule.
2 O my God, I trust in thee: let me not be ashamed: let not mine enemies triumph over me.
3 Yea, let none that wait on thee be ashamed: let them be ashamed which transgresse without cause.
4 Shew me thy wayes, O LORD:
teach me thy pathes.
5 Lead me in thy truth and learne me: for thou art the God of my salvation: on thee do I wait al the day.
6 Remember, O LORD, thy tender mercies, and thy loving kindnesses:
for they have been ever of old.
7 Remember not the sinnes of my youth, nor my transgressions: according to thy mercie remember thou me: for thy goodnesse sake, O LORD.
8 Good & upright is ỹ LORD: there-

A Psalme of Dayid.

PSAL. XXVII.

A Psalme of David.

The LORD is my light, and my sal-

...Wait on the LORD: be of good

PSAL. XXVIII.

A Psalme of David.

UNto thee will I cry O LORD my

...Heare the voyce of my supplicati-

...Because they regard not the workes

...Blessed be y LORD, because he hath

...The LORD is my strength, and my

...The LORD is their strength, & he

...Save thy people, and bless thine

PSAL. XXIX.

A Psalme of David.

GIve unto y LORD (O ye mighties)
...give to y LORD glory & strength

1 Give unto the LORD the glory due unto his Name: worship the LORD in the beauty of holinesse.
3 The voyce of the LORD is upon the waters: the God of glory thundereth, the LORD is upon many waters.
4 The voyce of the LORD is powerful; the voyce of the LORD is full of majestie.
5 The voyce of the LORD breaketh the Cedars: yea, the LORD breaketh the Cedars of Lebanon.
6 Hee maketh them also to skip like a Calfe: Lebanon and Syrion like a young Unicorne.
7 The voyce of the LORD divideth the flames of fire.
8 The voyce of the LORD shaketh the wildernesse: the LORD shaketh the wildernesse of Kadesh.
9 The voyce of the LORD maketh the hinds to calve, and discovereth the forests: and in his Temple doth every one speake of his glory.
10 The LORD sitteth upon the flood, yea, the LORD sitteth king for ever.
11 The LORD will give strength unto his people: the LORD will blesse his people with peace.

PSAL. XXX.

A Psalme and Song at the dedication of the house of David.

I Will exalt thee, O LORD, for thou hast lifted me up, and hast not made my foes to rejoyce over me.
2 O LORD my God, I cryed unto thee, and thou hast healed me.
3 O LORD, thou hast brought up my soul from my grave: thou hast kept me alive, that I should not go down to the pit.
4 Sing unto the LORD, O yee Saints of his: and give thanks at the remembrance of his holinesse.
5 For his anger endureth but a moment, in his favour is life: weeping may endure for a night, but joy cometh in the morning.
6 And in my prosperity I said, I shall never be moved.
7 LORD, by thy favour thou hast made my mountaine to stand strong: thou didst hide thy face, & I was troubled.
8 I cryed to thee, O LORD, and unto the LORD I made supplication.
9 What profit is there in my blood, when I go down to the pit? shall the dust praise thee? shall it declare thy truth?
10 Heare, O LORD, and have mercy upon me: LORD, be thou my helper.
11 Thou hast turned for me my mourning into dancing: thou hast put off my sackcloth, and girded me with gladnesse:
12 To the end that my glory may sing praise to thee, and not be silent: O LORD my God, I will give thanks unto thee for ever.

PSAL. XXXI.

To the chiefe Musician. A Psalme of David.

IN thee, O LORD, do I put my trust, let me never be ashamed: deliver me in thy righteousnesse.
2 Bow down thine eare to me, deliver me speedily: be thou my strong rock, for an house of defence to save me.
3 For thou art my rocke and my fortresse: therefore for thy names sake lead me, and guide me.
4 Pull me out of the net that they have laid privily for me: for thou art my strength.
5 Into thine hand I commit my spirit: thou hast redeemed me, O LORD God of truth.
6 I have hated them that regard lying vanities: but I trust in the LORD.
7 I will be glad and rejoyce in thy mercies, for thou hast considered my trouble, thou hast known my soule in adversities.
8 And hast not shut me up into the hand of the enemie, thou hast set my feete in a large roome.
9 Have mercy on me, O LORD, for I am in trouble: mine eye is consumed with griefe, yea, my soule & my belly.
10 For my life is spent with griefe, and my yeers with sighing, my strength faileth, because of mine iniquity, and my bones are consumed.
11 I was a reproach among all mine enemies: but especially among my neighbours, & a feare to my acquaintance: they that did see me without, fled from me.
12 I am forgotten as a dead man out of minde: I am like a broken vessel.
13 For I have heard the slander of many: feare was on every side: while they took counsel together against me, they devised to take away my life.
14 But I trusted in thee, O LORD: I said, Thou art my God.
15 My times are in thy hand: deliver me from the hand of mine enemies, and from them that persecute me.
16 Make thy face to shine on thy servant: save me for thy mercies sake.
17 Let me not be ashamed, O LORD, for I have called upon thee, let the wicked be ashamed, and let them be silent in the grave.
18 Let the lying lips be put to silence, which speake grievous things proudly & contemptuously against the righteous.
19 O how great is thy goodnesse, which thou hast laid up for them that feare thee: which thou hast wrought for them that trust in thee, before the sons of men!
20 Thou shalt hide them in the secret of thy presence, from the pride of man: thou shalt keepe them secretly in a pavilion from the strife of tongues.
21 Blessed be the LORD, for he hath shewed me his marvellous kindnesse in a strong citie.
22 For I said in mine haste, I am cut off from before thine eyes: Nevertheless thou heardest the voyce of my supplications, when I cryed unto thee.
23 O, love y LORD all ye his Saints, for y LORD preserveth y faithful, & plentifully rewardeth the proud doer.
24 Be of good courage, and he shall strengthen your heart, all ye that hope in the LORD.

PSAL. XXXII.

1 Psalm of David, Maschil.

Blessed is he whose transgression is forgiven, whose sin is covered.

2 Blessed is the man unto whom the LORD imputeth not iniquity: and in whose spirit there is no guile.

3 When I kept silence, my bones waxed old; through my roaring all the day long.

4 For day and night thy hand was heavy upon me: my moisture is turned into the drought of Summer. Selah.

5 I acknowledged my sin unto thee, and mine iniquity have I not hid: I said, I will confesse my transgressions unto the LORD, and thou forgavest the iniquity of my sin. Selah.

6 For this shall every one that is godly pray unto thee in a time when ỹ mayst be found: surely in floods of great waters they shall not come nigh to him.

7 Thou art my hiding place, thou shalt preserve me from trouble: thou shalt compasse me about with songs of deliverance. Selah.

8 I will instruct thee, and teach thee in the way which thou shalt go: I will guide thee with mine eye.

9 Be not as the horse, or as ỹ mule which have no understanding: whose mouth must be held in with bit and bridle, lest they come neer unto thee.

10 Many sorrows shall be to the wicked: but he that trusteth in ỹ LORD, mercy shall compasse him about.

11 Be glad in the LORD, and rejoyce ye righteous: and shout for joy all ye that are upright in heart.

PSAL. XXXIII.

1 Rejoice in the LORD, O ye righteous: for praise is comely for the upright.

2 Praise the LORD with harpe: sing unto him with the psaltery, and an instrument of ten strings.

3 Sing unto him a new song: play skilfully with a loud noise.

4 For the word of ỹ LORD is right: and all his works are done in truth.

5 He loveth righteousnes and judgement: the earth is full of the goodnesse of the LORD.

6 By the word of the LORD were the heavens made: and all the host of them, by the breath of his mouth.

7 He gathereth the waters of the Sea together as an heap: he layeth up the depth in storehouses.

8 Let all the earth fear the LORD: let all the inhabitants of the world stand in awe of him.

9 For he spake, and it was done, he commanded, and it stood fast.

10 The LORD bringeth the counsel of the heathen to nought: he maketh the devices of the people of none effect.

11 The counsel of the LORD standeth for ever: the thoughts of his heart to all generations.

12 Blessed is the nation, whose God is the LORD: and the people whom he hath chosen for his own inheritance.

13 The LORD looketh from heaven: he beholdeth all the sons of men.

14 From the place of his habitation he looketh upon all the inhabitants of the earth.

15 He fashioneth their hearts alike: he considereth all their works.

16 There is no king saved by ỹ multitude of an host: a mighty man is not delivered by much strength.

17 An horse is a vain thing for safety: neither shall he deliver any by his great strength.

18 Behold, the eye of the LORD is upon them that fear him: upon them that hope in his mercy:

19 To deliver their soul from death, and to keep them alive in famine.

20 Our soul waiteth for the LORD: he is our help and our shield.

21 For our heart shal rejoyce in him: because we have trusted in his holy Name.

22 Let thy mercy (O LORD) be upon us: according as we hope in thee.

PSAL. XXXIV.

A Psalm of David, when he changed his behaviour before Abimelech, who drove him away, and he departed.

1 I Will blesse the LORD at all times: his praise shall continually be in my mouth.

2 My soul shal make her boast in the LORD: the humble shal hear thereof and be glad.

3 O magnifie the LORD with me, and let us exalt his Name together.

4 I sought the LORD, and he heard me, & delivered me from al my fears.

5 They looked to him & were lightened: and their faces were not ashamed.

6 This poor man cryed, and the Lord heard him, and saved him out of al his troubles.

7 The Angel of the LORD encampeth round about them that fear him, and delivereth them.

8 O taste & see that ỹ LORD is good: blessed is the man that trusteth in him.

9 O fear the LORD ye his Saints: for there is no want to them ỹ fear him.

10 The yong lions do lack, and suffer hunger: but they that seek the LORD, shal not want any good thing.

11 Come ye children hearken to me, I wil teach you the fear of ỹ LORD.

12 What man is he that desireth life: and loveth many dayes, that he may see good?

13 Keep thy tongue from evil: and thy lips from speaking guile.

14 Depart from evil, and do good: seek peace, and pursue it.

15 The eyes of the LORD are upon the righteous: and his ears are open unto their cry.

16 The face of the LORD is upon them that do evill, to cut off the remembrance of them from the earth.

17 The righteous cry, and the LORD heareth

heareth, and deliuereth them out of all their troubles.

18 The LORD is nigh vnto them that are of a broken heart: and sayeth such as be of a contrite spirit.

19 Many are the afflictions of the righteous: but the LORD deliuereth him out of them all.

20 He keepeth all his bones: not one of them is broken.

21 Euil shal slay the wicked: and they that hate ỹ righteous shal be desolate.

22 The LORD redeemeth the soul of his seruants: and none of them that trust in him shal be desolate.

PSAL. XXXV.

A Psalm of Dauid.

PLead my cause (O LORD) with them that striue with me: fight against them that fight against me.

2 Take hold of shield and buckler, and stand up for my help.

3 Draw out also the spear, & stop the way against them that persecute me, & say vnto my soul: I am thy saluation.

4 Let them be confounded and put to shame that seek after my soul: let them be turned back, and brought to confusion that deuise my hurt.

5 Let them be as chaff before ỹ wind: & let ỹ angel of ỹ LORD chase them.

6 Let their way be dark & slippery, & let ỹ angel of ỹ LORD persecute them.

7 For without cause haue they hid for me their net in a pit, which without cause they haue digged for my soul.

8 Let destruction come vpon him at vnawares, and let his net that he hath hid, catch himself: into that very destruction let him fal.

9 And my soul shall be joyful in the LORD: it shal reioyce in his saluation.

10 All my bones shal say, Lord, who is like vnto thee, or deliuereſt the poor from him ỹ is too strong for him, yea ỹ poor, & the needy from him ỹ spoileth him?

11 False witnesses did rise vp, they laid to my charge things that I knew not.

12 They rewarded me euil for good, to the spoiling of my soul.

13 But as for me, when they were sick, my clothing was sackcloth: I humbled my soul with fasting, and my prayer returned into my own bosome.

14 I behaued my self as though he had been my friend or brother, I bowed downe heauily, as one that mourneth for his mother.

15 But in mine aduersity they rejoyced and gathered themselues together, yea ỹ abiects gathered themselues together against me, & I knew it not, they did teare me, and ceased not.

16 With ỹ poctrical mockers in feasts they gnashed vpon me with their teeth.

17 Lord, how long wilt thou looke on? rescue my soule from their destructions, my darling from the lyons.

18 I will giue thee thankes in the great Congregation: I will praise thee among much people.

19 Let not them that are mine enemies wrongfully rejoyce ouer me, neither let them wink with the eye that hate me without a cause.

20 For they speak not peace: but deuise deceitful matters vpon them that are quiet in the land.

21 Yea they opened their mouth wide against me, and said, Aha, aha, our eye hath seene it.

22 This ỹ hast seen: (O LORD) keep not silence; O Lord, be not far from me.

23 Stirre vp thy self, and awake to my iudgement: euen vnto my cause, my God, and my Lord.

24 Iudge me, O LORD my God, according to thy righteousnesse, and let them not reioyce ouer me.

25 Let them not say in their hearts, Ah, so would we haue it: let them not say, We haue swallowed him vp.

26 Let them be ashamed & brought to confusion together, ỹ reioyce at my hurt: let them be clothed with shame & dishonour, ỹ magnifie themselues against me.

27 Let them shout for ioy, and be glad that fauour my righteous cause: yea, let them say continually, The LORD be magnified, which hath pleasure in the prosperity of his seruant.

28 And my tongue shal speak of thy righteousnes, & of thy praise all day long.

PSAL. XXXVI.

To the chiefe Musician. A Psalm of Dauid, the seruant of the LORD.

1 THe transgression of the vngodly saith within my heart that there is no feare of God before his eyes.

2 For he flattereth himself in his owne eyes, vntil his iniquity be found to be hateful.

3 The words of his mouth are vnrighteous and deceitful: he hath left off to be wise, and to doe good.

4 He deuiseth mischief vpon his bed, he setteth himself in a way that is not good: he abhorreth not euil.

5 Thy mercy, O Lord, is in the heauens: & thy faithfulnes reacheth to the clouds.

6 Thy righteousnes is like the great mountaines: thy iudgements are a great deepe, O LORD, thou preseruest man and beast.

7 How excellent is thy louing kindnesse, O God! therefore ỹ children of men put their trust vnder the shadow of thy wings.

8 They shalbe abundantly satisfied with the fatnes of thy house: & thou shalt make them drink of ỹ riuer of thy pleasures.

9 For with thee is the fountaine of life: in thy light shal we see light.

10 O continue thy louing kindnesse vnto them that know thee, and thy righteousnesse to the vpright in heart.

11 Let not the foot of pride come against me, and let not the hand of the wicked remoue me.

12 There are the workers of iniquity fallen: they are cast down, and shal not be able to rise.

PSAL. XXXVII.

A Psalm of Dauid.

FRet not thy self because of the wicked, neither be thou enuious against the workers of iniquity.

28 For the LORD loueth iudgement, and forsaketh not his Saints; they are preserued for euer: but the seed of the wicked shal be cut off.

29 The righteous shal inherite the land, and dwel therein for euer:

30 The mouth of the righteous speaketh wisedome, and his tongue talketh of iudgement.

31 The Law of his God is in his heart: none of his steps shal slide.

32 The wicked watcheth the righteous, and seeketh to slay him.

33 The LORD wil not leaue him in his hand, nor condemne him, when he is iudged.

34 Wait on the Lord, & keep his way, & he shal exalt thee to inherit ỹ land: whē ỹ wicked are cut off, ỹ shalt see it.

35 I haue seen the wicked in great power, and spreading himselfe like a greene bay tree.

36 Yet he passed away, and lo, he was not: yea, I sought him, but he could not be found.

37 Marke the perfect man, & behold ỹ vpright: for ỹ end of that man is peace.

38 But the transgressors shal be destroyed together, the end of the wicked shal be cut off.

39 But the saluation of the righteous is of the LORD: he is their strength in the time of trouble.

40 And the LORD shal help them, and deliuer them, he shal deliuer them from the wicked, and saue them, because they trust in him.

PSAL. XXXVIII.

A Psalme of Dauid, to bring to remembrance.

1 O LORD rebuke me not in thy wrath: neither chasten me in thy hote displeasure.

2 For thine arrowes sticke fast in me, and thy hand presseth me sore.

3 There is no soundnes in my flesh, because of thine anger: neither is there any rest in my bones because of my sin.

4 For mine iniquities are gone ouer mine head: as an heauy burden, they are too heauy for me.

5 My wounds stink, and are corrupt, because of my foolishnes.

6 I am troubled, I am bowed downe greatly: I go mourning all day long.

7 For my loines are filled with a loathsome disease, and there is no soundnes in my flesh.

8 I am feeble and sore broken, I haue roared by reason of the disquietnes of my heart.

9 Lord, all my desire is before thee: & my groaning is not hid from thee.

10 My heart panteth, my strength faileth me: as for the light of mine eyes, it also is gone from me.

11 My louers and my friends stand aloofe from my sore: and my kinsmen stand a farre off.

12 They also that seeke after my life, lay snares for me: and they that seeke my hurt, speake mischeuous things, odd imagine deceits all the day long.

13 But I, as a deaf man, heard not: and I was as a dumb man that openeth not his mouth.
14 Thus I was as a man that heareth not, and in whose mouth are no reproofs.
15 For in thee, O LORD, do I hope: thou wilt hear, O LORD my God.
16 For I said, Hear me, lest otherwise they should rejoyce over me: when my foot slipeth, they magnifie themselves against me.
17 For I am ready to halt, and my sorrow is continually before me.
18 For I will declare mine iniquity: I will be sorry for my sin.
19 But mine enemies are lively, and they are strong; and they that hate me wrongfully, are multiplyed.
20 They also that render evill for good, are mine adversaries: because I follow the thing that good is.
21 Forsake me not O LORD: O my God, be not far from me.
22 Make haste to help me, O Lord, my salvation.

PSAL. XXXIX.

To the chief Musician, even to Ieduthun. A Psalme of David.

I Said, I will take heed to my wayes that I sin not with my tongue: I will keep my mouth with a bridle, while the wicked is before me.
2 I was dumbe with silence, I held my peace even from good, and my sorrow was stirred.
3 My heart was hote within me, while I was muling, the fire burned: then spake I with my tongue.
4 Lord, make me to know mine end, and the measure of my dayes, what it is, that I may know how frail I am.
5 Behold, thou hast made my dayes as an handbreadth: & mine age is as nothing before thee: verily every man at his best state is altogether vanity. Selah.
6 Surely every man walketh in a vain shew: surely they are disquieted in vain: he heapeth up riches, & knoweth not who shall gather them.
7 And now Lord, what wait I for? my hope is in thee.
8 I cleare me from all my transgressions: make me not the reproach of the foole.
9 I was dumb, I opened not my mouth, because thou didst it.
10 Remove thy stroke away from me: I am consumed by the blow of thine hand.
11 When thou with rebukes doest correct man for iniquity, thou makest his beauty to consume away like a moth: surely every man is vanity. Selah.
12 Heare my prayer, O Lord, and give eare to my cry: hold not thy peace at my teares: for I am a stranger with thee, a sojourner, as all my fathers were.
13 O spare me, that I may recover strength: before I go hence, and be no more.

PSAL. XL.

To the chief Musician. A Psalme of David.

I Waited patiently for the LORD, and he inclined to me, and heard my cry.
2 He brought me up also out of an horrible pit, out of the miry clay, and set my feet upon a rock, and established my goings.
3 And he hath put a new song in my mouth, even praise unto our God: many shall see it, and fear, and shall trust in the LORD.
4 Blessed is that man that maketh the LORD his trust: and respecteth not the proud, nor such as turn aside to lies.
5 Many, O Lord my God, are thy wonderful works which thou hast done, and thy thoughts which are to us-ward: they cannot be reckoned up in order unto thee: if I would declare, and speak of them, they are more than can be numbered.
6 Sacrifice and offering thou didst not desire, mine eares hast thou opened: burnt-offering, and sin-offering hast thou not required.
7 Then said I, Lo, I come: in the volume of the book it is written of me,
8 I delight to do thy will, O my God: yea, thy Law is within my heart.
9 I have preached righteousness in the great congregation: lo, I have not refrained my lips, O Lord, thou knowest.
10 I have not hid thy righteousness within my heart, I have declared thy faithfulness, & thy salvation: I have not concealed thy loving kindness, and thy truth from the great congregation.
11 Withhold not thou thy tender mercies from me, O Lord: let thy loving kindness & thy truth continually preserve me.
12 For innumerable evils have compassed me about: mine iniquities have taken hold on me, so that I am not able to look up; they are more than the hairs of mine head, therefore my heart faileth me.
13 Be pleased, O Lord, to deliver me: O Lord, make haste to help me.
14 Let them be ashamed, and confounded together, that seek after my soul to destroy it: let them be driven backward, and put to shame that wish me evill.
15 Let them be desolate, for a reward of their shame that say unto me, Aha, aha.
16 Let all those that seek thee rejoyce and be glad in thee: let such as love thy salvation, say continually, The LORD be magnified.
17 But I am poor & needy, yet the Lord thinketh on me: thou art my help & deliverer, make no tarrying, O my God.

PSAL. XLI.

To the chief Musician. A Psalme of David.

BLessed is he that considereth the poor: the LORD will deliver him in time of trouble.
2 The Lord will preserve him, and keep him alive, & he shall be blessed upon the earth: and thou wilt not deliver him unto the will of his enemies.
3 The Lord will strengthen him upon the bed of languishing: thou

PSALM. XLIII.

1 Avge me, O God, and plead my cause against an ungodly nation; O deliver me from the deceitful & unjust man.
2 For thou art ȝ God of my strength, why dost thou cast me off? why go I mourning, because of the oppression of the enemy?
3 O send out thy light, and thy truth;
let them lead me, let them bring me to thy holy hil, and to thy Tabernacles.
4 Then will I go unto ȝ altar of God, to God my exceeding ioy: yea, upon ȝ harp will I praise thee, O God, my God.
5 Why art thou cast down, O my soule? and why art thou disquieted within me? hope in God, for I shal yet praise him, who is the health of my countenance, and my God.

PSAL. XLIIII.

To the chiefe Musician for the sons of Korah.

WE have heard with our eares, O God, our fathers have told us what workes thou didest in their dayes, in the times of old.
2 How thou didst drive out ȝ heathen with thy hand, & plantedst them, how ȝ didst afflict ȝ people, & cast them out.
3 For they got not ȝ land in possession by their own sword: neither did their own arm save them: but thy right hand & thine arme & ȝ light of thy countenace, becaus ȝ hadst a favor to them.
4 Thou art my king, O God, command deliverances for Iacob.
5 Through thee will we push down our enemies: through thy Name will we tread them under ȝ rise up against us.
6 For I will not trust in my bowe, neither shal my sword save me.
7 But ȝ hast saved us from our enemies,
and hast put them to shame ȝ hated us.
8 In God we boast all the day long:
and praise thy Name for ever. Selah.
9 But thou hast cast off, and put us to shame: & goest not forth with our armies.
10 Thou makest us to turne backe from the enemy: and they which hate us, spoile for themselves.
11 Thou hast given us like sheepe appointed for meat: and hast scattered us among the heathen.
12 Thou sellest thy people for nought: and dost not increase thy wealth by their price.
13 Thou makest us a reproach to our neighbours, a scorn and a derision to them that are round about us.
14 Thou makest us a by-word among the heathen: a shaking of the head among the people.
15 My confusion is continually before me, and the shame of my face hath covered me.
16 For the voice of him that reproacheth, and blaspheméth: by reason of the enemy and avenger.
17 All this is come upon us, yet have we not forgotten thee: neither have we dealt falsly in thy Covenant.
18 Our heart is not turned back: neither

ther have our steps declined from thy way
19 Though thou hast sore broken us in the place of dragons, and covered us with the shadow of death.
20 If we have forgotten the Name of our God, or stretched out our hands to a strange god?
21 Shal not God search this out? for he knoweth the secrets of the heart.
22 Yea for thy sake are we killed all the day long: we are counted as sheep for the slaughter.
23 Awake, why sleepest thou, O Lord? arise, cast us not off for ever.
24 Wherefore hidest thy face? & forgettest our affliction & our oppression?
25 For our soul is bowed down to the dust, our belly cleaveth to the earth.
26 Arise for our helpe, and redeeme us for thy mercies sake.

PSAL. XLV.

To the chiefe Musician upon Shoshannim: for the sons of Korah, Maschil: A song of loves.

MY heart is enditing of a good matter: I speake of the things that I have made touching the king: my tongue is the pen of a ready writer.
2 Thou art fairer then the children of men: grace is powred into thy lips: therfore God hath blessed thee for ever.
3 Gird thy sword on thy thigh, O most mighty, with thy glory & thy majesty.
4 And in thy majesty ride prosperously, because of truth and meekenes, & righteousnesse: and thy right hand shal teach thee terrible things.
5 Thine arrowes are sharpe in the heart of the kings enemies; whereby the people fal under thee.
6 Thy throne (O God) is for ever and ever: the scepter of thy kingdome is a right scepter.
7 Thou lovest righteousnes, & hatest wickednes: therefore God, thy God hath annointed thee with the oyle of gladnes above thy fellowes.
8 All thy garments smell of mirrhe and aloes, & cassia, out of y ivory palaces: whereby they have made thee glad.
9 Kings daughters were among thy honourable women: upon thy right hand did stand y queen in gold of Ophir.
10 Hearken, (O daughter) and consider, and encline thine eare: forget also thine own people, & thy fathers house.
11 So shall the king greatly desire thy beauty: for he is thy Lord, & worship thou him.
12 And the daughter of Tyre shalbe there with a gift, even the rich among the people shall entreat thy favour.
13 The kings daughter is all glorious within: her clothing is of wrought golde.
14 She shal be brought unto the king in raiment of needle-work, the virgins her companions that follow her, shal be brought unto thee.
15 With gladnesse and rejoycing shal they be brought: they shal enter into the kings palace.
16 Instead of thy fathers shal be thy children whom thou mayst make princes in all the earth.
17 I will make thy Name to be remembred in all generations: therefore shall the people praise thee for ever & ever.

PSAL. XLVI.

To the chief Musician for the sons of Korah, a song upon Alamoth.

GOD is our refuge and strength, a very present help in trouble.
2 Therfore will not we feare, though the earth be removed: & though the mountaines be caried into the midst of the sea:
3 Though the waters therof rore & be troubled, though the mountaines shake with the swelling therof. Selah.
4 There is a river, the streames whereof shal make glad y city of God, the holy place of y tabernacles of y most High.
5 God is in the midst of her, therfore she shal not be moued: God shal help her, and that right early.
6 The heathen raged, the kingdomes were moved: he uttered his voice, the earth melted.
7 The LORD of hosts is with us: the God of Iacob is our refuge. Selah.
8 Come, behold the works of the LORD, what desolations he hath made in the earth.
9 He maketh warres to cease unto the end of the earth: he breaketh the bow, and cutteth the speare in sunder, he burneth the chariot in the fire.
10 Be still, and know that I am God: I will be exalted among the heathen, I will be exalted in the earth.
11 The Lord of hosts is with us: the God of Iacob is our refuge. Selah.

PSAL. XLVII.

To the chiefe Musician, A Psalme for the sons of Korah.

O Clap your hands (all ye people): sing unto God with the voice of triumph.
2 For the Lord most high is terrible: he is a great king over all the earth.
3 He shal subdue the people under us, and the nations under our feet.
4 He shal chuse our inheritance for us, the excellencie of Iacob whom he loved. Selah.
5 God is gone up with a shout, the Lord with the sound of a trumpet.
6 Sing praises to God, sing praises: sing praises unto our king, sing praises.
7 For God is the king of all the earth: sing ye praises with understanding.
8 God reigneth over the heathen: God sitteth upon the throne of his holinesse.
9 The princes of the people are gathered together, even the people of the God of Abraham: for y shields of the earth belong to God: he is greatly exalted.

PSAL. XLVIII.

A Song and Psalme for the sons of Korah.

GReat is the LORD, and greatly to be praised in the citie of our God, in the mountaine of his holinesse.
2 Beautifull for situation, the joy of the whole earth is mount Sion: on the sides of y North, y city of y great King.

5 God is known in her palaces for a refuge.
6 For lo the kings were assembled: they passed by together.
7 They saw it, and so they marueiled, they were troubled, and hastned away.
8 Feare took hold vpon them there: and paine as of a woman in trauaile.
9 Thou breakest the ships of Tarshish an Eall wind.
10 As we have heard, so have we seen in the citie of the Lord of hosts: in the citie of God, God will establish it for euer. Selah.
11 We haue thought of thy louing kindnesse, O God, in the midst of thy Temple.
12 According to thy Name, O God, so is thy praise to the ends of y earth: thy right hand is full of righteousnes.
13 Let mount Sion reioyce, let the daughters of Iudah be glad, because of thy iudgements.
14 Walke about Sion, and go round about her: tell the towres thereof.
15 Marke ye well her bulwarkes, consider her palaces, that ye may tell it to the generations following.
16 For this God is our God for euer & euer, he will be our guide vnto death.

PSAL. XLIX.

To the chefe Musician, a Psalme for the sons of Korah.

1 Heare this all ye people, giue eare, all ye inhabitants of the world:
2 Both low and high, rich and poore together.
3 My mouth shal speake of wisedome and the meditation of my heart shalbe of vnderstanding.
4 I will encline mine eare to a parable: I will open my dark saying on y harpe.
5 Wherefore should I feare in the dayes of euil, when the iniquity of my heeles shall compasse me about?
6 They that trust in their wealth, and boast themselues in the multitude of their riches:
7 None of them can by any meanes redeeme his brother, nor giue to God a ransome for him:
8 (For the redemption of their soul is precious, and it ceaseth for ever.)
9 That he should still liue for ever, and not see corruption.
10 For he seeth that wise men die, likewise the fool & the brutish person perish, & leaue their wealth to others.
11 Their inward thought is, y their houses shall continue for ever, and their dwelling places to all generations: they call their lands after their owne names.
12 Nevertheles, man being in honour abideth not: he is like the beasts y perish.
13 This their way is their folly: yet their posterity approue their saying. Selah.
14 Like sheep they are laid in y grave, death shall feede on them: & y upright shall haue dominion ouer them in the morning, and their beauty shall consume in y grave from their dwelling.
15 But God will redeeme my soule from the power of the grave: for he shal receiue me Selah.
16 Be not thou afraid when one is made rich, when the glory of his house is increased.
17 For when he dieth, he shal carry nothing away: his glory shall not descend after him.
18 Though while he liued, he blessed his soul, and men will praise thee when thou doest well to thy selfe.
19 He shall go to the generation of his fathers, they shal neuer see light.
20 Man y is in honour, & vnderstandeth not, is like the beasts that perish.

PSAL. L.

A Psalme of Asaph.

1 THe mighty God, euen y Lord hath spoken, and called the earth from the rising of the Sunne, vnto the going downe thereof.
2 Out of Zion the perfection of beauty, God hath shined.
3 Our God shal come, and shal not keep silence: a fire shal deuoure before him, and it shalbe very tempestuous round about him.
4 He shal call to the heauens from aboue, and to the earth, that hee may iudge his people.
5 Gather my Saints together vnto me: those that haue made a couenant with me by sacrifice.
6 And the heauens shal declare his righteousnes: for God is iudge himselfe. Selah.
7 Hear, O my people, and I will speak, O Israel, & I will testifie against thee: I am God, euen thy God.
8 I will not reproue thee for thy sacrifices, or thy burnt offerings, to haue been continually before me.
9 I will take no bullocke out of thy house, nor he goates out of thy folds.
10 For euery beast of the forrest is mine, & y cattel on a thousand hils.
11 I know all the foules of the mountaines: and the wild beasts of the field are mine.
12 If I were hungry, I would not tel thee: for the world is mine, and the fulnes thereof.
13 Will I eat the flesh of buls, or drink the blood of goates?
14 Offer vnto God thanke-giving, and pay thy vowes to the most High.
15 And cal vpon mee in the day of trouble: I will deliuer thee, and thou shalt glorifie me.
16 But vnto the wicked, God saith, What hast thou to doe to declare my statutes, or that thou shouldest take my covenant in thy mouth?
17 Seeing thou hatest instruction, and castest my words behind thee.
18 When thou sawest a theefe, then thou consentedst with him, and hast been partaker with the adulterers.
19 Thou giuest thy mouth to euil, and thy tongue frameth deceit.
20 Thou sittest and speakest against thy brother, thou slanderest thine own mothers son.

21 These things hast thou done, and I kept silence: thou thoughtest y I was altogether such a one as thy selfe: but I will reprooue thee, and set them in order before thine eyes.

22 Now consider this, ye that forget God, lest I teare you in pieces, and there be none to deliuer.

23 Whoso offereth praise, glorifieth me: & to him y ordereth his conuersation aright, will shew y saluation of God.

PSALM. LI.

To y chiefe Musician. A Psalme of David, when Nathan y Prophet came to him after he had gon into Bath-sheba.

HAue mercy vpon me, O God: according to thy louing kindnes: according to the multitude of thy tender mercies, blot out my transgressions.

2 Wash me throughly from mine iniquities, and cleanse me from my sin.

3 For I acknowledge my transgressions: and my sin is euer before me.

4 Against thee, thee only haue I sinned, & done this euil in thy sight, that thou might est be iustified when y speakest, and be cleare when thou iudgest.

5 Behold, I was shapen in iniquity: and in sin did my mother conceiue me.

6 Behold y delightest truth in the inward parts: & in the hidden part thou shalt make me to know wisedome.

7 Purge me with hyssop, and I shall be cleane: wash me, and I shall be whiter then snow.

8 Make me to heare ioy and gladnesse, that the bones which thou hast broken may reioyce.

9 Hide thy face from my sinnes, and blot out all mine iniquities.

10 Create in me a cleane heart, O God: & renew a right spirit within me.

11 Cast me not away from thy presence: and take not thy holy spirit from me.

12 Restore to me y ioy of thy saluation, and vphold me with thy free spirit.

13 Then will I teach transgressours thy waies, and sinners shal be conuerted vnto thee.

14 Deliuer me from blood-guiltinesse, O God, thou God of my saluation: and my tongue shal sing aloud of thy righteousnes.

15 O Lord, open thou my lips, and my mouth it all shew forth thy praise.

16 For thou desirest not sacrifice else would I giue it: thou delightest not in burnt offerings.

17 The sacrifices of God are a broken spirit: a broken and a contrite heart, O God, thou wilt not despise.

18 Do good in thy good pleasure to Sion: build y the walles of Ierusalem.

19 Then shalt thou be pleased with the sacrifices of righteousnesse, & burnt offering, & whole burnt offering: then shal they offer bullocks on thine Altar.

PSALM. LII.

To y chiefe Musicia, Maschil, A Psalme of Dauid: when Doeg y Edomite came & told Saul, and said vnto him, David is come to the house of Ahimelech.

WHy boastest thou thy selfe, O mighty man, in thy mischiefe, O mighty man? the kindnesse of God endureth continually.

2 Thy tongue deuiseth mischiefe, like a sharp rasour working deceitfully.

3 Thou louest euil more then good, and lying rather then to speak righteousnes. Selah.

4 Thou louest all deuouring words, O thou deceitfull tongue.

5 God shal likewise destroy thee for euer, he shal take thee away, and pluck thee out of thy dwelling place, & roote thee out of the land of y liuing. Selah.

6 The righteous also shall see, and feare, and shal laugh at him.

7 Lo, this is the man that made not God his strength: but trusted in the abundance of his riches, and strengthened himselfe in his wickednesse.

8 But I am like a greene oliue tree in the house of God: I trust in the mercy of God for euer and euer.

9 I will praise thee for euer, because thou hast done it: & I will wait on thy Name, for it is good before thy Saints.

PSALM. LIII.

To y chiefe Musician vpon Mahalath. Maschil, A Psalme of Dauid.

THe fool hath said in his heart, There is no God: corrupt are they, and haue done abominable iniquity: there is none that doeth good.

2 God looked down from heauen vpon y children of men, to see if there were any y did vnderstand, & y did seek God.

3 Euery one of them is gone back: they are altogether become filthy: there is none that doeth good, no not one.

4 Haue y workers of iniquity no knowledge? who eat vp my people as they eat bread, they haue not called vpon God.

5 There were they in great feare, where no feare was: for God hath scattered the bones of him that encampeth against thee: thou hast put them to shame, because God hath despised them.

6 O that the saluation of Israel were come out of Sion! when God bringeth back the captiuity of his people, Iacob shal reioyce, and Israel shal be glad.

PSALM. LIIII.

To the chiefe Musician on Neginoth. Maschil. A Psalme of Dauid, when the Ziphims came and said to Saul, Doth not Dauid hide himselfe with vs?

SAue me, O God, by thy Name, and iudge me by thy strength.

2 Heare my prayer, O God, giue eare to the words of my mouth.

3 For strangers are risen vp against me, & oppressours seek after my soule: they haue not set God before them. Selah.

4 Behold, God is mine helper: the Lord is with them y vphold mine soule.

5 He shal reward euil vnto mine enemies: cut them off in thy truth.

6 I will freely sacrifice vnto thee: I will praise thy Name, O Lord, for it is good.

7 For he hath deliuered me out of all trouble, and mine eye hath seen my desire vpon mine enemies.

PSAL. LV.

To the Master Musician on Neginoth, Maschil, A Psalme of Davyd.

2 Heare my prayer, O God, and hide not thy self from my supplication.

3 Attend vnto me, and heare me: I mourne in my complaint, and make a noise.

4 Because of the voyce of the enemie, and the oppression of the wicked: for they cast iniquitie vpon me, and in wrath they hate me.

5 My heart is sore pained within me: and the terrours of death are fallen vpon me.

6 Feerefulnes and trembling are come vnto me, and horrour hath ouer-whelmed me.

7 And I said, O that I had wings like a doue, then would I flee away and be at rest.

8 Loe, then would I wander far off, and remaine in the wilde wildernes. Selah.

9 I would hasten my escape from the windie storme and tempest.

10 Destroy, O LORD, and deuide their tongues: for I haue seene violence, and strife in the citie.

11 Day and night they goe about it vpon the walles thereof: iniquitie also and sorow are in the midst of it.

12 Wickednesse is in the midst thereof: oppression and guile depart not from her streetes.

13 For it was not an enemy that reproched me, then I could haue borne it: neither was it he that hated me, that did magnifie himselfe against me, then I would haue hid my selfe from him.

14 But it was thou, a man mine equall, my guide, and mine acquaintance.

15 We took sweet counsel together, and walked vnto the house of God in companie.

16 Let death seaze on them, & let them goe downe quicke to hell: for wickednesse is in their dwellings, and among them.

17 As for me, I will call vpon God: and the LORD shall saue me.

18 Euening and morning, and at noone will I pray, and cry aloude: and he shall heare my voyce.

19 He hath deliuered my soule in peace from the battell that was against me: for there were many with me.

20 God shall heare and afflict them, euen he that abideth of olde. Selah. Because they haue no changes, therefore they feare not God.

21 He hath put forth his hands against such as be at peace with him: he hath broken his couenant.

22 The words of his mouth were smoother than butter, but warre was in his heart: his words were softer than oyle, yet were they drawen swordes.

23 Cast thy burden vpon the LORD, and he shall sustaine thee: he shall neuer suffer the righteous to be moued.

24 But thou, O God shalt bring them downe into the pit of destruction: bloody and deceitfull men shal not liue out half their dayes, but I will trust in thee.

PSAL. LVI.

To the chiefe Musician vpon Ionath Elem Rechokim, Michtam of Dauid, when y Philistines took him in Gath.

1 BE mercifull vnto mee, O God, for man would swallow me vp: he fighting daily, oppresseth me.

2 Mine enemies would daily swallow me vp: for they be many that fight against me, O thou most High.

3 What time I am afraid, I will trust in thee.

4 In God I wil praise his word, in God I haue put my trust, I will not feare what flesh can doe vnto me.

5 Every day they wrest my words: all their thoughts are against me for euill.

6 They gather themselues together: they hide themselues, they mark my steps when they waite for my soule.

7 Shal they escape by iniquity? in thine anger cast downe y peoples, O God.

8 Thou tellest my wanderings, put thou my teares into thy bottle: are they not in thy booke?

9 When I cry vnto thee, then shall mine enemies turne backe: this I know, for God is for me.

10 In God will I praise his word: in the LORD will I praise his word.

11 In God haue I put my trust: I will not be afraid what man can do to me.

12 Thy vowes are vpon me, O God: I will render praise vnto thee.

13 For thou hast deliuered my soule from death, wilt not thou deliuer my feet from falling: that I may walke before God in the light of the liuing.

PSAL. LVII.

To the chiefe Musician Alaschith. Michtam of Dauid, when he fled from Saul in the cave.

1 BE mercifull vnto me, O God, be mercifull to me, for my soule trusteth in thee: yea, in the shadow of thy wings will I make my refuge, until these calamities be ouerpast.

2 I will cry vnto God most high: vnto God that performeth all things for me.

3 He shall send from heauen and saue me: from the reproach of him that would swallow me vp. Selah. God shall send forth his mercy and his truth.

4 My soule is among lyons, I lie euen among them that are set on fire: euen y sonnes of men, whose teeth are speares & arrowes, & their tongue a sharpe sword.

5 Be exalted, O God aboue y heauens: let thy glory be aboue all y earth.

6 They haue prepared a net for my steps, my soule is bowed down: they haue digged a pit before me: in y midst whereof they are fallē themselues. Selah.

7 My heart is fixed, O God, my heart is fixed: I will sing & giue praise.

8 Awake vp my glory: awake psaltery and harpe: I my self will awake early.

9 I will praise thee, O LORD, among the people, I will sing vnto thee among the nations.

10 For thy mercy is great vnto the heauens, and thy truth vnto y clouds.

11 Be y exalted, O God, above y heavens: let thy glory be above all y earth

PSAL. LVIII.

To the chiefe Musician Al-taschith, Michtam of David.

DOe ye indeed speake righteousnes O congregation? do ye judge uprightly, O ye sons of men?

2 Yea, in heart you worke wickednes you weigh the violence of your hands in the earth.

3 The wicked are estranged from the wombe, they goe astray assoone as they be borne, speaking lyes.

4 Their poison is like the poison of a serpent: they are like the deafe adder, that stoppeth her eare:

5 Which will not hearken to y voice of charmers, charming never so wisely.

6 Breake their teeth, O God, in their mouth: breake out the great teeth of the young lyons, O LORD.

7 Let them melt away as waters which run continually: When he bendeth his bow to shoot his arrowes, let them be as cut in peices.

8 As a snaile which melteth, let every one of them passe away: like the untimely birth of a woman, that they may not see the Sun.

9 Before your pots can feel y thornes, he shall take them away as with a whirlewind, both living, and in his wrath.

10 The righteous shall rejoyce when he seeth the vengeance: he shall wash his feet in the blood of the wicked.

11 So that a man shall say, verily there is a reward for the righteous: verily he is a God that judgeth in the earth.

PSAL. LIX.

To y chiefe Musician Al-taschith, Michtam of David: when Saul sent, and they watched the house to kill him.

DEliver me from mine enemies, (O my God:) defend mee from them that rise up against me.

2 Deliver me from the workers of iniquitie, and save me from bloody men.

3 For loe, they lie in waite for my soule: the mighty are gathered against me, not for my transgression, nor for my sin, O LORD.

4 They runne and prepare themselves without my fault: awake to helpe me, and behold.

5 Thou therefore, O LORD God of hosts, the God of Israel, awake to visit all the heathen: be not merciful to any wicked transgressours. Selah.

6 They returne at evening, they make a noise like a dog, and go round about the citie.

7 Behold, they belch out with their mouth, swords are in their lips: for who, say they, doeth heare?

8 But thou, O Lord, shalt laugh at them, y shalt have all the heathen in derision.

9 Because of his strength will I wait upon thee: for God is my defence.

10 The God of my mercy shall prevent me: God shall let me see my desire upon mine enemies.

11 Slay them not, lest my people forget: scatter them by thy power, and bring them down, O Lord our shield.

12 For the sin of their mouth, and the words of their lips, let them even be taken in their pride: and for cursing and lying which they speake.

13 Consume them in wrath, consume them, that they may not be: and let them know that God ruleth in Jacob unto the ends of the earth. Selah.

14 And at evening let them returne, and let them make a noise like a dog, and go round about the city.

15 Let them wander up & down for meat, and grudge if they be not satisfied.

16 But I will sing of thy power: yea I will sing aloud of thy mercy in the morning: for thou hast been my defence & refuge in y day of my trouble.

17 Unto thee, O my strength, will I sing: for God is my defence, and the God of my mercy.

PSAL. LX.

To the chiefe Musician upon Shushan Eduth Michtam of David: to teach: When he strove with Aram-naharaim, and with Aram-Zobah, when Joab returned, and smote of Edom in the valley of salt twelve thousand.

O God, thou hast cast us off, thou hast scattered us, thou hast been displeased: O turn thy selfe to us again.

2 Thou hast made the earth to tremble, thou hast broken it: heale the breaches thereof, for it shaketh.

3 Thou hast shewed thy people hard things: thou hast made us to drink the wine of astonishment.

4 Thou hast given a banner to them that fear thee, that it may be displayed because of the truth. Selah.

5 That thy beloved may be delivered: save with thy right hand, & heare us.

6 God hath spoken in his holinesse, I will rejoyce: I will divide Shechem, and mete out the valley of Succoth.

7 Gilead is mine, and Manasseh is mine: Ephraim also is the strength of mine head: Judah is my Law-giver.

8 Moab is my washpot, over Edom will I cast out my shoe: Philistia triumph thou because of me.

9 Who will bring me into the strong citie? who will leade me into Edom?

10 Wilt not thou, O God, which hadst cast us off? and thou, O God, didst not go out with our armies?

11 Give us helpe from trouble: for vaine is the helpe of man.

12 Through God we shall doe valiantly: for he it is that shall tread down our enemies.

PSAL. LXI.

To the chiefe Musician upon Neginah, A Psalme of David.

HEare my cry, O God: attend unto my prayer.

2 From the end of the earth will I cry unto thee, when my heart is overwhelmed: leade me to the rocke that is higher then I.

...ou hast been a shelter for me,
...strong tower from the enemy.
...will abide in thy tabernacle for
...I will trust in the covert of thy

5 For thou, O God, hast heard my
...vows: thou hast given me the heritage
...of those that feare thy Name.
6 Thou wilt prolong the kings life:
...his yeares as many generations.
7 He shall abide before God for ever:
...prepare mercy and truth which may 8 So will I sing praise to thy name for PSAL. LXII.

To the chiefe Musician, to Jeduthun.
A Psalme of David.

1 Truely my soul waiteth upon God;
...from him commeth my salvation.
2 He only is my Rock and my Salvation: he is my defence, I shall not be greatly moved.
3 How long will ye imagine mischiefe against a man? ye shall be slaine all of you: as a bowing wall shall ye be, and as a tottering hedge.
4 They only consult to cast him down from his excellency, they delight in lies: they bleese with their mouth, but they curse inwardly. Selah.
5 My soule wait thou only upon God, for my expectation is from him.
6 He only is my rock and my salvation: he is my defence, I shall not be moved.
7 In God is my salvation and my glory: the rock of my strength, and my refuge is in God.
8 Trust in him at all times; ye people, powre out your heart before him: God is a refuge for us. Selah.
9 Surely men of low degree are vanity, and men of high degree are a lye: to be laid in the ballance, they are altogether lighter then vanity.
10 Trust not in oppression, become not vaine in robbery: if riches increase, set not your heart upon them.
11 God hath spoken once; twice have I heard this, that power belongeth to God.
12 Also unto thee, O Lord, belongeth mercy: for thou rendereth to every man according to his worke.

PSAL. LXIII.

A Psalme of David, when he was in the wildernesse of Judah.

1 God thou art my God, early will I seek thee: my soul thirsteth for thee, my flesh longeth for thee, in a dry and thirsty land, where no water is:
2 To see thy power and thy glory, so as I have seen thee in the Sanctuary.
3 Because thy loving kindnesse is better then life: my lips shall praise thee.
4 Thus will I blesse thee while I live: I will lift up mine hands in thy Name.
5 My soule shall be satisfied as with marrow and fatnesse: and my mouth shall praise thee with joyfull lips.
6 When I remember thee upon my bed, and meditate on thee in the night watches.
7 Because thou hast been my helpe, therefore in the shadow of thy wings will I rejoyce.
8 My soul followeth hard after thee: thy right hand upholdeth me.
9 But those that seeke my soule to destroy it, shall goe into the lower parts of the earth.
10 They shall fall by the sword: they shall be a portion for foxes.
11 But the king shall rejoyce in God: every one that sweareth by him shall glory: but the mouth of them that speake lies, shall be stopped.

PSAL. LXIIII.

To the chiefe Musician. A Psalme of David.

1 Heare my voyce, O God, in my prayer: preserve my life from feare of the enemy.
2 Hide me from the secret counsell of the wicked: from the insurrection of the workers of iniquitie:
3 Who whet their tongue like a sword, and bend their bowes to shoot their arrowes, even bitter words:
4 That they may shoot in secret at the perfect: suddenly doe they shoot at him, and feare not.
5 They encourage themselves in an evill matter: they commune of laying snares privily, they say, Who shall see them?
6 They search out iniquities, they accomplish a diligent search: both the inward thought of every one of them, and the heart is deep.
7 But God shall shoot at them: with an arrow suddenly shall they be wounded.
8 So they shall make their own tongue to fall upon themselves: all that see them, shall flee away.
9 And all men shall feare: and shall declare the work of God, for they shall wisely consider of his doing.
10 The righteous shall be glad in the LORD, and shall trust in him, and all the upright in heart shall glory.

PSAL. LXV.

To the chief Musician. A Psalme and song of David.

1 Praise waiteth for thee, O God, in Sion, and unto thee shall the vow be performed.
2 O thou that hearest prayer: unto thee shall all flesh come.
3 Iniquities prevaile against me: as for our transgressions, thou shalt purge them away.
4 Blessed is the man whom thou choosest, and causest to approach unto thee, that he may dwell in thy Courts: we shall be satisfied with the goodnes of thy house, even of thy holy Temple.
5 By terrible things in righteousnes wilt thou answere us, O God of our salvation: who art the confidence of all the ends of the earth, and of them that are afarre off upon the sea.
6 Which by his strength setteth fast the mountains, being girded with power.
7 Which stilleth the noise of the seas, seas: the noise of their waves, and the tumult of the people.

8 They also that dwel in the vttermost parts, are afraid at thy tokens: thou makest the outgoings of the morning and evening to reioyce.

9 Thou visitest y earth, & watereſt it, & greatly enrichest it w y river of God, w is full of water: thou preparest them corne, when y hast so provided for it.

10 Thou watereſt the ridges thereof abundantly: thou setlest the furrowes thereof: thou makest it soft with showres, thou blessest the springing therof.

11 Thou crownest the yeer with thy goodnes, and thy pathes drop fatnes.

12 They droppe upon the pastures of the wildernes: and the litle hilles reioyce on every side.

13 The pastures are clothed & flocks: the valleys also are couered ouer with corn: they shout for ioy, they also sing.

PSAL. LXVI.

To the chiefe Musician, A song, or Psalme.

MAke a ioyful noise unto God, all ye lands.

2 Sing forth the honour of his Name, make his praise glorious.

3 Say unto God, How terrible art thou in thy workes? through y greatnes of thy power shall thine enemies submit themselves unto thee.

4 All the earth shal worship thee, and shal sing unto thee, they shal sing to thy Name. Selah.

5 Come and see the workes of God: hee is terrible in his doing toward the children of men.

6 He turned the sea into dry land: they went through the flood on foot, there did we reioyce in him.

7 He ruleth by his power for ever, his eyes behold the nations: let not the rebellious exalt themselves. Selah.

8 O blesse our God, ye people, and make y voyce of his praise to be heard.

9 Which holdeth our soul in life, & suffereth not our feet to be mooued.

10 For thou, O God, hast proued us: thou hast tryed us, as silver is tryed.

11 Thou broughtest us into the net, thou laydest affliction on our loynes.

12 Thou hast caused men to ride ouer our heads, we went through fire, and through water: but thou broughtest us out into a wealthy place.

13 I wil go into thy house with burnt offerings: I wil pay thee my vowes.

14 Which my lips have uttered, and my mouth hath spoken, when I was in trouble.

15 I wil offer unto thee burnt sacrifices of fatlings, with the incense of rams: I wil offer bullocks with goats. Selah.

16 Come and heare al ye that feare God, and I wil declare what he hath done for my soul.

17 I cryed unto him with my mouth, and he was extolled with my tongue.

18 If I regard iniquity in my heart: the Lord wil not heare me.

19 But verily God hath heard me: he hath attended to y voice of my prayer.

20 Blessed be God, w hath not turned away my prayer, nor his mercy from me.

PSAL. LXVII.

To the chiefe Musician on Neginoth, A Psalme, or song.

GOd be mercifull unto us, and bless us: and cause his face to shine upon us. Selah.

2 That thy way may be known upon earth, thy saving health among all nations.

3 Let the people praise thee, O God: let all the people praise thee.

4 O let the nations be glad and sing for ioy: for thou shalt iudge the people righteously, and governe the nations upon earth. Selah.

5 Let the people praise thee, O God: let all the people praise thee.

6 Then shall the earth yeeld her increase, and God, even our own God, shall bless us.

7 God shall bless us, and all the ends of the earth shal feare him.

PSAL. LXVIII.

To the chiefe Musician. A Psalme or song of David.

LEt God arise, let his enemies be scattered: let them also that hate him flee before him.

2 As smoke is driven away, so drive them away: as waxe melteth before the fire, so let y wicked perish at y presence of God.

3 But let the righteous be glad: let them reioyce before God, yea, let them be exceedingly reioyce.

PSAL. LXIX.

To the chief Musician on Shoshannim, A Psalm of David.
Save me, O God, for the waters are me in unto my soul.
I sticke in deep mire, where there is no standing: I am come into deep wa ters, where the floods overflow me.
3 I am weary of my crying, my throat is dryed: mine eyes faile while I wait for my God.
4 They that hate me without a cause are moe then the hairs of my head: they that would destroy me, being mine enemies wrongfully, are mighty: then I restored that which I took not away.
5 O God, thou knowest my foolishness, and my sins are not hid from thee.
6 Let not them that waite on thee,
O Lord GOD of hostes, be ashamed for my sake, let not those y seek thee, be confounded for my sake, O God of Israel.
7 Because for thy sake I have borne reproach: shame hath covered my face.
8 I am become a stranger unto my brethren, and an aliant unto my mothers children.
9 For y zeale of thine house hath eaten me up, and the reproaches of them that reproached thee, are fallen upon mee.
10 When I wept, and chastened my soul with fasting, y was to my reproach.
11 I made sackcloth also my garment, and I became a proverbe to them.
12 They y sit in the gate, speak against me: & I was the song of y drunkards.
13 But as for me, my prayer is to thee,
O Lord, in an acceptable time: O God,
in the multitude of thy mercy heare me, in the trueth of thy salvation.
14 Deliver me out of the mire, and let me not sinke: let me bee delivered from them that hate me, and out of the deepe waters.
15 Let not y water flood ouerflow me, neither let the deep swallow me up, & let not the pit shut her mouth upon me.
16 Heare me, O Lord, for thy loving kindnes is good: turne to me according to the multitude of thy tender mercies.
17 And hide not thy face from thy servat:
for I am in trouble: hear me speedily.
18 Draw nigh unto my soul, & redeem
it: deliver me because of mine enemies.
19 Thou hast knowen my reproach, mine adversaries are al before thee.

I am ful of heavines: and I looked for some to take pitie, but there was none:
and for comforters, but I found none.

meat, and in my thirst they gave mee vineger to drink.

them: & that which should have beene for their welfare, let it become a trap.

upon them, and let thy wrathful anger

PSAL. LXXIII.

A Psalme of Asaph.

1 Truly God is good to Israel, even to such as are of a cleane heart.

2 But as for me, my feet were almost gone: my steps had wel-nigh slipt.

3 For I was envious at the foolish, when I saw the prosperity of y wicked.

4 For there are no bands in their death: but their strength is firme.

5 They are not in trouble as other men: neither are they plagued like other men.

6 Therefore pride compasseth them about as a chain: violence covereth them as a garment.

7 Their eies stand out with fatnesse: they have more then hart could wish.

8 They are corrupt: & speak wickedly concerning oppression: they speak loftily.

9 They set their mouth against the heavens: and their tongue walketh through the earth.

10 Therefore his people returne hither: and waters of a full cup are wrung out to them.

11 And they say, How doth God know? & is there knowledge in y most High?

12 Behold, these are the ungodly: who prosper in the world, they increase in riches.

13 Truly I have cleansed my heart in vain: and washed my hands in innocency.

14 For all the day long have I been plagued, & chastened every morning.

15 If I say, I will speake thus: behold, I should offend against the generation of thy children.

16 When I thought to know this, it was too painfull for me.

17 Until I went into the Sanctuary of God: then understood I the end.

18 Surely thou didst set them in slippery places: thou castedst them down into destruction.

19 How are they brought into desolation, as in a moment? they are utterly consumed with terrours.

20 As a dreame when one awaketh: so, O Lord, when thou awakest, thou shalt despise their image.

21 Thus my heart was grieved, and I was pricked in my reines.

22 So foolish was I, and ignorant: I was as a beast before thee.

23 Nevertheles, I am continually with thee: thou hast holden me by my right hand.

24 Thou shalt guide me with thy counsel, and afterward receive me to glory.

25 Whom have I in heaven but thee? and there is none upon earth that I desire besides thee.

26 My flesh and my heart faileth: but God is the strength of my heart, and my portion for ever.

27 For lo, they that are farre from thee shall perish: thou hast destroyed all them that go a whooring from thee.

28 But it is good for me to draw neere to God: I have put my trust in the Lord GOD, that I may declare all thy works.

PSAL. LXXIIII.

Maschil of Asaph.

1 O God, why hast thou cast us off for ever? why doth thine anger smoak against the sheepe of thy pasture?

2 Remember thy congregation which thou hast purchased of old: y rod of thine inheritance which thou hast redeemed: this mount Sion, wherein y hast dwelt.

3 Lift up thy feet unto the perpetual desolations: even all that the enemy hath done wickedly in the Sanctuary.

4 Thine enemies roare in the midst of thy congregations: they set up their ensignes for signes.

5 A man was famous according as he had lifted up axes upon y thick trees.

6 But now they breake down the carved worke thereof at once, with axes and hammers.

7 They have cast fire into thy sanctuary, they have defiled by casting downe the dwelling place of thy Name to y ground.

8 They said in their hearts, Let us destroy them together: they have burnt up all y Synagogues of God in y land.

9 We see not our signes: there is no more any Prophet, neither is there among us any that knoweth how long.

10 O God, how long shall the adversary reproach? shall the enemy blaspheme thy Name for ever?

11 Why withdrawest thy hand even thy right hand? pluck it out of thy bosome.

12 For God is my King of old, working salvation in the midst of y earth.

13 Thou didst divide the sea by thy strength: thou brakest the heads of the dragons in the waters.

14 Thou brakest y heads of Leviathan in pieces, and gavest him to be meat to the people inhabiting ỹ wildernes, 15 Thou didst cleave ỹ fountaine & broch ỹ flood: ỹ dryedst up mighty rivers.

16 The day is thine, the night also is taine: thou hast prepared the light and the Sun.
17 Thou hast set all the borders of the earth: ỹ hast made Summer and winter.
18 Remember this, that the enemy hath reproached, O Lord, & ỹ foolish people have blasphemed thy Name.
19 O deliver not the soule of thy Turtle dove unto the multitude of the wicked: forget not the Congregation of thy poore for ever.
20 Have respect unto the Covenant: for the darke places of the earth are ful of the habitations of cruelty.
21 O let not the oppressed returne asshamed: let the poor and needy praise thy Name.
22 Arise, O God, plead thine own cause: remember how the foolish man reproacheth the daily.
23 Forget not the voyce of thine enemies: the tumult of those that rise up against thee, increaseth continually.

PSAL. LXXV.

To the chiefe Musician Al-taschith. A Psalme, or song of Asaph.

VNto thee, O God, doe we give thankes, unto thee doe wee give thanke: for that thy Name is neere, thy wonrous workes declare.
2 When I shal receive the Congregation, I will iudge uprightly.
3 The earth and all the inhabitants thereof are dissolved: I beare up the pillars of it. Selah.
4 I said to ỹ fooles, Deal not foolishly: & to ỹ wicked, lift not up ỹ horne.
5 Lift not up your horne on high, speake not with a stiffe necke.
6 For promotion cometh neither from ỹ east, nor from ỹ west, nor frō ỹ south.
7 But God is the Iudge: he putteth down one, and setteth up another.
8 For in the hand of ỹ Lord there is a cup, & the wine is red: it is ful of mixture, and he poureth out of ỹ same: but ỹ dregs thereof all ỹ wicked of ỹ earth shal wring them out, & drinke them.
9 But I will declare for ever, I will sing praises to the God of Iacob.
10 All the hornes of the wicked also will I cut off, but the hornes of the righteous shal be exalted.

PSAL. LXXVI.

To the chiefe Musician on Neginoth. A Psalme, or song of Asaph.

IN Iudah is God known: his Name is great in Israel.
2 In Salem also is his Tabernacle: and his dwelling place in Sion.
3 There brake he the arrowes of the bow, the shield, and the sword, and the battel. Selah.
4 Thou art more glorious and excellent then the mountaines of prey.
5 The stout-hearted are spoiled, they have slept their sleepe: & none of ỹ men of might have found their hāds

6 At thy rebuke, O God of Iacob both the charet, and horse are cast into a dead sleep.
7 Thou, even thou art to be feared: and who may stand in thy sight, when once thou art angry.
8 Thou didst cause iudgement to be heard from heaven: ỹ earth feared, & was still,
9 When God arose to iudgement, to save al the meeke of the earth. Selah.
10 Surely the wrath of man shal praise thee; the remainder of wrath shalt thou restraine.
11 Vow, and pay unto ỹ LORD your God, let al ỹ be round about him bring presents to him that ought to be feared.
12 He shal cut off ỹ spirit of Princes: he is terrible to the kings of the earth.

PSAL. LXXVII.

To the chiefe Musician, to Iedithun. A Psalme of Asaph.

I Cryed unto God with my voice, even unto God with my voyce, & he gave eare unto me.
2 In the day of my trouble, I sought the Lord: my sore ran in y night, & ceased not: my soul refused to be comforted.
3 I remembred God, and was troubled: I complained, and my spirit was overwhelmed. Selah.
4 Thou holdest mine eyes waking: I am so troubled that I cannot speake.
5 I have considered the dayes of old, the yeeres of ancient times.
6 I cal to remembrance my song in the night: I commune with mine own heart, and my spirit made diligent search.
7 Will the LORD cast off for ever? and will he be favourable no more?
8 Is his mercy cleane gone for ever? doeth his promise faile for evermore?
9 Hath God forgotten to be gracious? hath he in anger shut up his tender mercies? Selah.
10 And I said, this is mine infirmity: but I will remember the yeeres of the right hand of the most High.
11 I will remember the workes of the LORD: surely I will remember thy wonders of old.
12 I will meditate also of all thy worke, and talke of thy doings.
13 Thy way, O God, is in ỹ Sanctuary: who is so great a God as our God?
14 Thou art the God that doest wonders, thou hast declared thy strength among the people.
15 Thou hast with thine arme redeemed thy people, the sons of Iacob and Ioseph. Selah.
16 The waters saw thee, O God, the waters saw thee: they were afraid, the depths also were troubled.
17 The clouds powred out water, the skies sent out a sound, thine arrowes also went abroad.
18 The voyce of thy thunder was in the heaven: the lightnings lightned the world: the earth trembled and shooke.
19 Thy way is in the sea, & thy steps in the great waters: and thy footsteps are not known.

10 Then [illegible] thy people like a flock by the hand of Moses & Aaron.

PS AL. LXXVIII.

Maschil of Asaph.

1 Hearken, O my people to my Law: incline your ears to the words of my mouth.

2 I will open my mouth in a parable: I will put forth dark sayings of old:

3 Which we have heard and known: and our fathers have told us.

4 We will not hide them from their children, shewing to the generation to come the praises of the LORD: and his strength, and his wonderfull works that he hath done.

5 For he stablished a testimony in Jacob, and appointed a Law in Israel, which he commanded our fathers, that they should make them known to their children.

6 That the generation to come might know them, even the children which should be born: who should arise and declare them to their children:

7 That they might set their hope in God, and not forget the works of God, but keep his Commandments.

8 And might not be as their fathers, a stubborn and rebellious generation, a generation that set not their heart aright: and whose spirit was not stedfast with God.

9 The children of Ephraim being armed, and carrying bows, turned back in the day of battel.

10 They kept not the covenant of God, and refused to walk in his Law:

11 And forgate his works: and his wonders that he had shewed them.

12 Marvelous things did he in the sight of their fathers: in the land of Egypt, in the field of Zoan.

13 He clave the sea, and caused them to pass thorow: and he made the waters to stand as an heap.

14 In the day time also he led them with a cloud, & all y night with a light of fire.

15 He clave the rocks in the wilderness, and gave them drink as out of the great depths.

16 He brought streams also out of the stone, and caused waters to run down like rivers.

17 Yet they sinned yet more against him: by provoking the most High in the wilderness.

18 And they tempted God in their heart, in asking meat for their lust.

19 Yea, they spake against God, they said, Can God furnish a table in the wilderness?

20 Behold he smote the rock, that the waters gushed out, and the streams overflowed: can he give bread also? or can he provide flesh for his people?

21 Therefore y Lord heard this, & was wroth: so a fire was kindled against Jacob, & there also came up anger against Israel:

22 Because they believed not in God: & trusted not in his salvation.

23 Though he had commanded the clouds from above: and opened the doors of heaven:

24 And had rained down Manna upon them to eat, and had given them of the corn of heaven.

25 Man did eat Angels food: he sent them meat to the full.

26 He caused an East wind to blow in the heaven: & by his power he brought in the South winde.

27 He rained flesh also upon them as dust, and feathered fouls like as the sand of the sea.

28 And he let it fal in y midst of their camp, round about their habitations.

29 So they did eat, and were wel filled: for he gave them their own desire.

30 They were not estranged from their lust: but while their meat was yet in their mouths,

31 The wrath of God came upon them, and slew the fattest of them, and smote down the chosen men of Israel.

32 For all this they sinned still: and believed not for his wondrous works.

33 Therefore their dayes did he consume in vanity, & their yeers in trouble.

34 When he slew them, then they sought him: and they returned, and enquired early after God.

35 And they remembred that God was their rock, and the high God their Redeemer.

36 Nevertheless, they did flatter him with their mouth: and they lied unto him with their tongues:

37 For their heart was not right with him: neither were they stedfast in his covenant.

38 But he being full of compassion, forgave their iniquity, and destroyed them not; yea many a time turned he his anger away, and did not stir up all his wrath.

39 For he remembred that they were but flesh, a winde that passeth away, and commeth not again.

40 How oft did they provoke him in y wilderness: & grieved him in y desert?

41 Yea, they turned back, and tempted God: & limited the holy one of Israel.

42 They remembred not his hand, nor y day whe he delivered the fro y enemy:

43 How he had wrought his signes in Egypt: & his wonders in y field of Zoan.

44 And had turned their rivers into blood: and their floods, that they could not drink.

45 He sent divers sorts of Flies among them, which devoured them: and Frogs, which destroyed them.

46 He gave also the increase unto the caterpillers: & their labor to y locust.

47 He destroyed their vines with hail, and their Sycamore trees with frost.

48 He gave up their cattell also to the hail: & their flocks to hot thunderbolts.

49 He cast upon them the fiercenesse of his anger, wrath and indignation, and trouble by sending evil angels among them.

50 He made a way to his anger, but spared not their soul from death: but gave their life over to the pestilence

51 And smote all the first born in Egypt: the chief of their strength in the tabernacles of Ham:

52 But made his own people to go forth like sheep: and guided them in the wilderness like a flock.

53 And he led them on safely, so that they feared not: but the sea overwhelmed their enemies.

54 And he brought them to the border of his Sanctuary, even to this mountain, which his right hand had purchased.

55 He cast out the heathen also before them, and divided them an inheritance by line: and made the tribes of Israel to dwell in their tents.

56 Yet they tempted, & provoked ỹ most high God, & kept not his testimonies:

57 But turned back, and dealt unfaithfully like their fathers: they were turned aside like a deceitful bow.

58 For they provoked him to anger with their high places: & mooved him to jealousie with their graven images.

59 When God heard this, he was wroth, and greatly abhorred Israel.

60 So that he forsook the Tabernacle of Shiloh: the tent which he placed among men.

61 And delivered his strength into captivity: and his glory into the enemies hand.

62 He gave his people over also to ỹ sword: & was wroth with his inheritance.

63 The fire consumed their young men: and their maidens were not given to marriage.

64 Their priests fell by the sword: & their widowes made no lamentation.

65 Then the Lord awaked as one out of sleep: and like a mighty man that chooketh by reason of wine.

66 And he smote his enemies in the hinder parts: he put them to a perpetuall reproach.

67 Moreover, he refused ỹ tabernacle of Joseph: & chose not ỹ tribe of Ephraim:

68 But chose the tribe of Iudah: the mount Sion which he loved:

69 And he built his Sanctuary like high palaces: like the earth which he hath established for ever.

70 He chose David also his servant, and took him from the sheepfolds:

71 From following the ewes great & young: he brought him to feed Jacob his people, and Israel his inheritance.

72 So he fed them according to the integrity of his heart: and guided them by the skilfulnesse of his hands.

PSAL. LXXIX.

A Psalme of Asaph.

O God, the heathen are comming into thine inheritance, thy holy temple have they defiled, they have laid Ierusalem on heaps.

2 The dead bodies of thy servants have they given to be meat unto the foule of the heaven: the flesh of thy Saints unto the beasts of the earth.

3 Their blood have they shed like water round about Ierusalem, and there was none to bury them.

4 We are become a reproch to our neighbours: a scorn and derision to them that are round about us.

5 How long, LORD, wilt thou be angry, for ever? shall thy jealousie burn like fire?

6 Powre out thy wrath on the heathen ỹ have not known thee, & on the kingdoms ỹ have not called on thy Name.

7 For they have devoured Jacob, and laid waste his dwelling place.

8 O remember not against us former iniquities: let thy tender mercies speedily prevent us: for we are brought very low.

9 Help us, O God of our salvation, for the glory of thy Name: and deliver us, & purge away our sins for thy Names sake.

10 Wherefore should the heathen say, Where is their God? let him be known among the heathen in our sight by taking ỹ blood of thy servants revenged.

11 Let the sighing of the prisoner come before thee, according to the greatnesse of thy power: preserve those that are appointed to die.

12 And render unto our neighbours seven fold into their bosome, their reproach wherewith they have reproached thee, O LORD.

13 So we thy people, and the sheep of thy pasture, will give thee thanks for ever: we will shew forth thy praise to all generations.

PSAL. LXXX.

To the chief Musician upon Shushanim ỹ duth. A psalme of Asaph.

GIve ear ỹ Shepherd of Israel, thou that leadest Ioseph like a flock, thou that dwellest between the Cherubims, shine forth.

2 Before Ephraim, and Benjamin and Manasseh, stir up thy strength, and come and save us.

3 Turn us again, O God: make thy face to shine, and we shall be whole.

4 O LORD God of hosts, how long wilt thou be angry against the prayer of thy people?

5 Thou feedest them with the bread of teares: and giv'st them teares to drink in great measure.

6 Thou makest us a strife unto our neighbours: and our enemies laugh among themselves.

7 Turn us again, O God of hosts, and cause thy face to shine, & we shall be whole.

8 Thou hast brought a vine out of Egypt: thou hast cast out the heathen, and planted it.

9 Thou preparedst room before it, and didst cause it to take deep root, and it filled the land.

10 The hils were covered with the shadow of it: and the boughs thereof were like the goodly Cedars.

11 She sent out her boughs unto the sea, and her braunches unto the river.

12 Why hast thou then broken down her hedges: so that all they which pass by the way, do pluck her?

13 The Boar out of the wood doth

1 To the chief Musician upon Gittith.
A Psalme for the sons of Korah.
How amiable are thy Tabernacles,

2 My soul longeth, yea, even fainteth

3 Y ay, y sparrow hath found an house,

4 Blessed are they that dwell in thy house: they will be stil praising thee. Selah.

5 Blessed is the man whose strength is in thee: in whose heart are the waies of them.

6 Who passing through the valley of Baca make it a well: the rame also filleth the pooles.

7 They go from strength to strength, every one of them in Zion appeareth before God.

8 O LORD God of hostes, heare my prayer: give ear, O God of Iacob. Selah.

9 Behold, O God our sheild: and look upon the face of thine Anointed.

10 For a day in thy court, is better then a thousand: I had rather be a door keeper in the house of my God, then to dwel in the tents of wickednesse.

11 For the LORD God is a sun and sheild: the LORD will give grace and glory: no good thing will he withhold from them that walke uprightly.

12 O LORD of hostes, blessed is the man that trusteth in thee.

PSAL. LXXXV.

To the chiefe Musician. A Psalme for the sons of Korah.

LORD thou hast beene favourable unto thy land; thou hast brought backe the captivity of Iacob.

2 Thou hast forgiven the iniquity of thy people, thou hast covered all their sinne. Selah.

3 Thou hast taken away al thy wrath: thou hast turned they selfe from the hercenesse of thine anger.

4 Turn us, O God of our salvation: & cause thine anger toward us to cease.

5 Wilt thou be angry with us for ever? wilt thou draw out thine anger to al generations?

6 Wilt thou not revive us again: that thy people may rejoyce in thee?

7 Shew us thy mercy, O LORD, and grant us thy salvation.

8 I will heare what God the LORD will speake: for he wil speak peace unto his people, and to his Saints: but let them not turne againe to folly.

9 Surely his salvation is nigh them that feare him, that glory may dwell in our land.

10 Mercy and truth are met together: righteousnesse and peace have kissed each other.

11 Truth shall spring out of the earth: and righteousnesse shal looke down from heaven.

12 Yea, the LORD shal give that which is good, & our land shal yeeld her increase.

13 Righteousnesse shal go before him: and shal set us in the way of his steps.

PSAL. LXXXVI.

A Prayer of David.

BOw down thine eare, O LORD, heare me: for I am poore & needy.

2 Preserve my soule, for I am holy: O thou my God, save thy servant that trusteth in thee.

3 Be merciful unto me, O LORD; for I cry unto thee daily.

4 Rejoyce y soule of thy servant: to thee, O Lord, do I lift up my soule.

5 For thou Lord art good, and ready to forgive: and plenteous in mercy unto all them that cal upon thee.

6 Give eare, O Lord, to my prayer: and attend to y voyce of my supplications.

7 In the day of my trouble I will cal upon thee, for thou wilt answer me.

8 Among the gods there is none like unto thee, O Lord: neither are there any workes like unto thy works.

9 All nations whom thou hast made shal come and worship before thee, O Lord: and shal glorifie thy Name.

10 For thou art great, and doest wondrous things: thou art God alone.

11 Teach me thy way, O LORD, I will walke in thy truth: unite my heart to feare thy Name.

12 I will praise thee, O Lord my God, with all my heart: and I will glorifie thy Name for evermore.

13 For great is thy mercy toward me: and thou hast delivered my soule from the lowest hell.

14 O God, the proud are risen against me, and the assemblies of violent men have sought after my soule: and have not set thee before them.

15 But thou, O Lord, art a God full of compassion, & gracious: long suffering, & plenteous in mercy & truth.

16 O turne to me, & have mercy upon me, give thy strength to thy servant: and save the son of thine handmaid.

17 Shew me a token for good, that they which hate me may see it, and be ashamed: because thou Lord hast holpen me, and comforted me.

PSAL. LXXXVII.

A Psalme, of song for the sons of Korah.

HIs foundation is in the holy mountaines.

2 The LORD loveth y gates of Zion, more then all y dwellings of Iacob.

3 Glorious things are spoken of thee, O citie of God. Selah.

4 I will make mention of Rahab and Babylon, to them that know me: Behold, Philistia, and Tyre, with Ethiopia: this man was borne there.

5 And of Zion it shall be said, This and that man was borne in her: and the highest himselfe shal establish her.

6 The LORD shal count when he writeth up the people: that this man was born there. Selah.

7 As well the singers as the players on instruments shall be there: all my springs are in thee.

PSAL. LXXXVIII.

A song or Psalme for the sons of Korah, to the chiefe Musician upon Mahalah-Leannoth, Maschil of Heman the Ezrahite.

O LORD God of my salvation, I have cryed day & night before thee.

2 Let my prayer come before thee: incline thine eare unto my cry.

3 For my soule is full of troubles

6 I am counted with them that go down into the pit: I am as a man that hath no strength.
7 Free among the dead, like the slains that lie in the grave, whom thou re-membrest no more: and they are cut off from thy hand.
8 Thou hast laid me in the lowest pit, in darkenesse, in the deepes.
9 Thy wrath lieth hard on me, & ȳ hast afflicted me wᵗ all thy waves. Selah.
10 Thou hast put away mine acquaintance farre from me: thou hast made me an abomination unto them: I am shut up, and I cannot come forth.
11 Mine eye mourneth by reason of affliction, LORD, I have called daily upon thee, I have stretched out my hands unto thee.
12 Wilt thou shew wonders to ȳ dead?
shall ȳ dead arise & praise thee? Selah.
13 Shall thy loving kindnesse be declared in the grave? or thy faithful-nesse in destruction?
14 Shall thy wonders be knowne in the darke? and thy righteousnesse in the land of forgetfulnes?
15 But unto thee have I cryed, O LORD; and in the morning shall my prayer prevent thee.
16 LORD, why castest ȳ off my soule?
why hidest thou thy face from me?
17 I am afflicted and ready to die, from my youth up: while I suffer thy terrours I am distracted.
18 Thy fierce wrath goeth over me:
thy terrours have cut me off.
19 They came round about me daily like water: they compassed me about together.
20 Lover & friend hast ȳ put far from me, & my acquaintance into darkenes.

PSAL. LXXXIX.

1 Maschil of ethan the Ezrahite.
I Will sing of the mercies of the LORD for ever: with my mouth will I make known wᵗ thy faithfulnes to all generations.
2 For I have said, mercy shall be built up for ever: thy faithfulnesse shalt thou establish in the very heavens.
3 I have made a covenant with my chosen, I have sworne unto David my servant.
4 Thy seed will I establish for ever:
and build up thy throne to all generations. Selah.
5 And the heavens shall praise thy wonders, O LORD: thy faithfulnesse also in the Congregation of ȳ Saints.
6 For who in the heaven can be compared to the LORD? who amongst ȳ the sons of the mighty can be likened unto the LORD?
7 God is greatly to be feared in the assembly of Saints: and to be had in reverence of all them ȳ are about him.
8 O LORD God of hostes, who is a strong LORD like unto thee? or to thy faithfulnesse round about thee?
9 Thou rulest ȳ raging of ȳ sea: when ȳ waves ther of arise, ȳ stillest them.
10 Thou hast broken Rahab in pieces, as one that is slaine: thou hast scattered thine enemies wᵗ thy strong arme.
11 The heavens are thine, the earth also is thine: as for the world, and the fulnesse ther of, ȳ hast founded them.
12 The North and the South, thou hast created them: Tabor and Hermon shal rejoyce in thy Name.
13 Thou hast a mightie arme: strong is thy hand, and high is thy right hand.
14 Justice and judgement are the habitation of thy throne: mercy and truth shal goe before thy face.
15 Blessed is the people that know the joyfull sound: they shall walke, O
LORD, in ȳ light of thy countenance.
16 In thy Name shal they rejoyce al
the day, and in thy righteousnesse shal they be exalted.
17 For thou art the glory of their strength: and in thy favour our horne shalbe exalted.
18 For the LORD is our defence:
& the holy One of Israel is our King.
19 Then thou spakest in vision to thy holy One: and saidst, I have laid helpe upon one that is mighty: I have exalted one chosen out of the people.
20 I have found David my servant, wᵗ my holy Oyle have I anointed him.
21 With whō my hand shal be established: my arm also shal strengthen him.
22 The enemy shal not exact on him:
nor the son of wickednesse afflict him.
23 And I wil beat down his foes before his face, & plague them that hate him.
24 But my faithfulnesse and my mercie shall be with him: and in my Name shal his horne be exalted.
25 I wil set his hand also in the sea:
and his right hand in the rivers.
26 He shall cry unto me, Thou art my father: my God, and the rocke of my salvation.
27 Also I wil make him my first born:
higher then the Kings of the earth.
28 My mercy will I keepe for him for evermore, and my covenant shall stand fast with him.
29 His seed also will I make to endure for ever: and his throne as the daies of heaven.
30 If his children forsake my Law,
and walke not in my judgements:
31 If they breake my statutes, and keepe not my commandements:
32 Then wil I visite their transgression wᵗ the rod, & their iniquitie wᵗ stripes.
33 Nevertheless, my loving kind-nesse will I not utterly take from him:
nor suffer my faithfulnesse to faile.
34 My covenant wil I not break: nor alter ȳ thing ȳ is gone out of my lips.
35 Once have I sworne by my holi-nesse, that I wil not lie unto David.
36 His seed shal endure for ever: and his throne as the Sunne before me.
37 It shal be stablished for ever as the Moone: and as a faithfull witnesse in heaven. Selah.

33 But thou hast cast off and abhorred: thou hast been wroth with thine anointed.
39 Thou hast made voide y^ covenant of thy servant: thou hast pyophaned his crown, by casting it to y^ ground.
40 Thou hast broken down all his hedges: thou hast brought his strong holds to ruin.
41 All that passe by the way spoile him: he is a reproch to his neighbours.
42 Thou hast set up the right hand of his adversaries: thou hast made all his enemies to rejoice.
43 Thou hast also turned the edge of his sword: and hast not made him to stand in the battell.
44 Thou hast made his glory to cease: and cast his throne down to y^ ground.
45 The dayes of his youth hast thou shortned: thou hast covered him with shame. Selah.
46 How long, LORD, wilt thou hide thy selfe, for ever? shal thy wrath burn like fire?
47 Remember how short my time is: wherfore hast y^ made all men in vain?
48 What man is he that liveth, and shal not see death? shal he deliver his his soul from the hand of y^ graver? Selah.
49 Lord, where are thy former loving kindnesses, which thou swarest to David in thy truth?
50 Remember, Lord, y^ reproach of thy servants: how I do bear in my bosome the reproach of all the mighty people.
51 Wherewith thine enemies have reproached, O Lord, wherewith they have reproched y^ footsteps of thy anointed.
52 Blessed be the LORD for evermore. Amen, and Amen.

PSAL. XC.

A prayer of Moses the man of God.

1 LOrd, thou hast been our dwelling place in al generations.
2 Before the mountaines were brought forth, or ever thou hadst formed the earth, and the world: even from everlasting to everlasting thou art God.
3 Thou turnest man to destruction: and sayest, Return ye children of men.
4 For a thousand yeeres in thy sight are but as yesterday when it is past: and as a watch in the night.
5 Thou carriest them away as with a flood, they are as a sleep: in the morning they are like grasse, which groweth up.
6 In the morning it flourisheth, and groweth up: in the evening it is cut down, and withereth.
7 For we are consumed by thine anger, and by thy wrath are we troubled.
8 Thou hast set our iniquities before thee: our secret sinnes in the light of thy countenance.
9 For all our dayes are passed away in thy wrath, we spend our yeeres as a tale that is told.
10 The dayes of our yeeres are threescore yeeres & ten: and if by reason of strength they be fourescore yeeres, yet is their strength labour, and sorrow: for it is soon cut off, and we flie away.
11 Who knoweth the power of thine anger? even according to thy fear, so is thy wrath.
12 So teach us to number our dayes, that we may apply our hearts to wisdome.
13 Returne, O LORD, how long? and let it repent thee concerning thy servants.
14 O satisfie us early with thy mercy, that we may rejoyce, and be glad all our dayes.
15 Make us glad according to y^ dayes wherein thou hast afflicted us: and the yeeres wherein we have seene evil.
16 Let thy worke appeare unto thy servants, and thy glory unto their children.
17 And let the beauty of the LORD our God be upon us: and establish thou the worke of our hands upon us: yea the worke of our hands establish y^ it.

PSAL. XCI.

1 HE that dwelleth in the secret place of the most High, shal abide under the shadow of the Almighty.
2 I will say of the LORD, He is my refuge and my fortresse, my God, in him will I trust.
3 Surely he shall deliver thee from the snare of the fouler: and from the noisome pestilence.
4 He shal cover thee with his feathers, and under his wings shalt thou trust: his truth shal be thy shield & buckler.
5 Thou shalt not be afraid for the terror by night: nor for the arrow that flieth by day.
6 Nor for the pestilence that walketh in darkenesse: nor for the destruction that wasteth at noone day.
7 A thousand shall fall at thy side, and ten thousand at thy right hand: but it shal not come nigh thee.
8 Onely with thine eyes shalt thou behold, & see the reward of y^ wicked.
9 Because thou hast made the LORD which is my refuge, even the most high, thy habitation:
10 There shall no evil befall thee, neither shall any plague come nigh thy dwelling.
11 For he shal give his Angels charge over thee: to keep thee in all thy wayes.
12 They shall bear thee up in their hands, lest thou dash thy foot against a stone.
13 Thou shalt tread upon the lyon and adder: the yong lyon and the dragon shalt thou trample under feet.
14 Because he hath set his love upon me, therefore will I deliver him: I will set him on his, because he hath known my Name.
15 He shal call upon me, and I will answer him: I will be with him in trouble, I will deliver him, & honour him.
16 With long life will I satisfie him, and shew him my salvation.

PSAL. XCII.

A Psalm or Song for the Sabbath day.

1 IT is a good thing to give thanks to the LORD, & to sing praises unto thy Name, O most high:

neither shal ỹ God of Iacob regard it.
8 Vnderstand, ye brutish among ỹ people: & ye fooles, when wil ye be wise?
9 He that planted the ear, shal he not hear? he y formed ỹ eye shal he not see?
10 He that chastiseth ỹ heathen, shal not he correct? he that teacheth man knowledge, shall not he know?
11 The LORD knoweth ỹ thoughts of man, that they are vanity.
12 Blessed is ỹ man whom ỹ chastiseth O Lord, & teacheth him out of thy law.
13 That thou mayest give him rest from the dayes of adversity, vntill the pit be digged for the wicked.
14 For the LORD wil not cast off his people: neither wil he forsake his inheritance.
15 But iudgement shall returne vnto righteousnes: and all the vpright in heart shall follow it.
16 Who wil rise vp for me against ỹ evill doers? or who wil stand vp for me against the workers of iniquity?
17 Vnlesse ỹ LORD had been my help: my soule had almost dwelt in silence.
18 When I said, my foot thy pitie ỹ mercy, O LORD, held me vp.
19 In the multitude of my thoughts within me, thy comforts delight my soul.
20 Shall the throne of iniquity have fellowship with thee: which frameth mischief by a law.
21 They gather themselves together against the soul of the righteous: and condemne the innocent blood.
22 But the LORD is my defence: & my God is the rocke of my refuge:
23 And he shal bring vpon them their own iniquity and shal cut them off in their own wickednes: yea the LORD our God shall cut them off.

PSAL. XCV.

O Come let vs sing vnto the Lord: let vs make a ioyful noise to ỹ rock of our salvation.
2 Let vs come before his presence with thanksgiving: and make a ioyfull noise vnto him with Psalmes.
3 For the LORD is a great God: and a great King above all Gods.
4 In his hand are the deep places of ỹ earth: the strength of ỹ hils is his also.
5 The sea is his, and he made it: and his hands formed the dry land.
6 O come let vs worship and bow downe: let vs kneel before the LORD our maker:
7 For he is our God: and we are ỹ people of his pasture, and the sheepe of his hand: to day if ye wil heare his voyce,
8 Harden not your heart, as in the provocation: & as in the day of temptation in the wildernesse:
9 When your fathers tempted me: proved me, and saw my worke.
10 Forty yeers long was I greeved with this generation: and said, it is a people that doe erre in their heart: and they have not known my wayes.

10 Vnto

1 To shew forth thy loving kindnes in the morning: and thy faithfulnes every night,
2 Vpon an instrument of ten strings: and vpon the Psalter: vpon the Harp with a solemne sound.
3 For thou, LORD, hast made me glad through thy worke: I wil triumph in the works of thy hands.
4 O LORD, how great are thy workes! & thy thoughts are very deepe.
5 A brutish man knoweth not: neither doth a fool vnderstand this.
6 When the wicked spring as grasse: & when all the workers of iniquity do flourish: it is that they shall be destroyed for ever.
7 But thou, LORD, art most High for evermore.
8 For lo, thine enemies, O LORD, for lo thine enemies shall perish: all the workers of iniquity shal be scattered.
9 But my horne shalt thou exalt like the horne of an vnicorne: & I shal be anointed with fresh oyle.
10 Mine eye also shal see my desire on mine enemies: and mine eares shal hear my desire of ỹ wicked ỹ rise vp against me.
11 The righteous shall flourish like the Palme tree: he shall grow like a Cedar in Lebanon.
12 Those that be planted in the house of the LORD, shall flourish in the courts of our God.
13 They shal bring forth fruit in their age: they shal be fat & flourishing:
14 To shew that the LORD is vpright: he is my Rocke, and there is no vnrighteousnes in him.

PSAL. XCIII.

THE LORD reigneth, he is clothed with Maiestie: ỹ LORD is clothed with strength, wherewith he hath girded himself: the world also is established, that it cannot be moved.
2 Thy throne is established of old: thou art from everlasting.
3 The floods have lifted vp, O Lord: the floods have lifted vp their voyce: the floods lift vp their waves.
4 The LORD on high is mightier: than the noise of many waters: yea than the mighty waves of the sea.
5 Thy Testimonies are very sure: holynes becommeth thine house, O LORD, for ever.

PSAL. XCIIII.

O LORD God, to whom vengeance belongeth: O God to whom vengeance belongeth, shew thy selfe.
2 Lift vp thy selfe, thou iudge of the earth: render a reward to the proud.
3 LORD, how long shal the wicked: how long shal y wicked triumph?
4 How long shal they vtter, & speak hard things? and all the workers of iniquity boast themselves?
5 They breake in pieces thy people, O LORD: and afflict thine heritage.
6 They slay the widow and the stranger: and murder the fatherlesse.
7 Yet they say, The Lord shal not see:

10 Vnto whom I sware in my wrath: ỹ they should not enter into my rest.

PSAL. XCVI.

O Sing vnto the LORD a new song: sing vnto the LORD all the earth.

2 Sing vnto the LORD, bleſſe his Name, ſhew forth his ſalvation from day to day.

3 Declare his glory among the heathen: his wonders among all people.

4 For the LORD is great, and greatly to be praiſed: he is to be feared above all gods.

5 For all the gods of ỹ nations are idols: but the LORD made the heavens.

6 Honour & maiesty are before him: ſtrength & beauty are in his Sanctuary

7 Give vnto ỹ LORD (O ye kindreds of the earth) give vnto the LORD glory and ſtrength.

8 Give vnto the LORD the glory due vnto his Name, bring an offering, and come into his courts.

9 O worſhip ỹ LORD in ỹ beauty of holineſſe: feare before him all ỹ earth.

10 Say among ỹ heathen, ỹ the LORD reigneth: ỹ world alſo ſhal be eſtabliſhed, that it ſhall not be mooved: he ſhall iudge the people righteouſly.

11 Let the heavens reioyce, and let the earth be glad: let the ſea roar, and the fulneſſe thereof.

12 Let the feeld be ioyfull, and all that is therein: then ſhall all the trees of the wood reioyce.

13 Before the LORD, for he commeth, for hee commeth to iudge the earth: he ſhall iudge the world with righteouſneſſe, and ỹ people with his truth.

PSAL. XCVII.

THe LORD reigneth, let the earth reioyce: let the multitude of Iles be glad thereof.

2 Cloudes and darkneſſe are round about him, righteouſnes and iudgement are the habitation of his throne.

3 A fire goeth before him, and burneth vp his enemies round about.

4 His lightnings inlightned the world: the earth ſaw and trembled.

5 The hils melted like wax at the preſence of the LORD: at the preſence of the Lord of the whole earth.

6 The heavens declare his righteouſnes: and all ỹ people ſee his glory.

7 Confounded be all they that ſerve graven images: that boaſt themſelves of idols: worſhip him all ye gods.

8 Sion heard, and was glad, and the daughters of Iudah reioyced, becauſe of thy iudgements, O LORD.

9 For ỹ, LORD, art high above all ỹ earth: ỹ art exalted far above al gods.

10 Ye that love the LORD, hate evil: he preſerveth the ſoules of his Saints: he delivereth them out of the hand of the wicked.

11 Light is ſowen for the righteous: and gladneſſe for the vpright in heart.

12 Reioyce in the LORD, ye righteous: and give thankes at the remembrance of his holineſſe.

PSAL. XCVIII.

A Pſalme.

O Sing vnto ỹ LORD a new ſong: for he hath don marveilous things: his right hand, and his holy arme hath gotten him the victory.

2 The LORD hath made known his ſalvation: his righteouſneſſe hath he openly ſhewed in ỹ ſight of ỹ heathen.

3 He hath remembred his mercy, and his truth toward the houſe of Iſrael: all the endes of the earth have ſeen the ſalvation of our God.

4 Make a ioyfull noiſe vnto the LORD, all the earth: make a loude noiſe, and reioyce, and ſing praiſe.

5 Sing vnto the LORD with the harp: with ỹ harp, & the voyce of a Pſalme.

6 With trumpets and ſound of cornet: make a ioyfull noiſe before the LORD the King.

7 Let the ſea roar, and the fulneſſe thereof: ỹ world, and they ỹ dwel therein.

8 Let the floods clap their handes: let the hils be ioyfull together.

9 Before ỹ Lord, for he commeth to iudge ỹ earth: with righteouſnes ſhall he iudge ỹ world, & the people with equity.

PSAL. XCIX.

THe LORD reigneth, let the people tremble: he ſitteth between ỹ Cherubims, let the earth be mooved.

2 The LORD is great in Zion: and he is high above all people.

3 Let them praiſe thy great and terrible Name: for it is holy.

4 The Kings ſtrength alſo loveth iudgement, thou doſt eſtabliſh equity: thou executeſt iudgement, and righteouſneſſe in Iacob.

5 Exalt ye the LORD our God, and worſhip at his footſtool: for he is holy.

6 Moſes and Aaron among his Priests, & Samuel among them that cal upon his Name: They called upon ỹ LORD, and he anſwered them.

7 He ſpake vnto them in the cloudy pillar: they kept his Teſtimonies, and the ordinance that he gave them.

8 Thou anſwereſt them, O LORD our God: thou waſt a God that forgaveſt them, though thou tookeſt vengeance of their inventions.

9 Exalt ỹ Lord our God, & worſhip at his holy hil: for ỹ Lord our God is holy.

PSAL. C.

A Pſalme of praiſe.

MAke a ioyfull noiſe to the LORD, all ye lands.

2 Serve the LORD with gladneſſe: come before his preſence with ſinging.

3 Know ye that the LORD he is God: it is he that hath made vs, and not we our ſelves: we are his people, and the sheepe of his paſture

4 Enter into his gates with thankesgiving, and into his courts with praiſe: be thankefull vnto him, and bleſſe his Name.

5 For the LORD is good, his mercy is everlaſting: and his truth endureth to all generations.

PSAL.

PSAL. CI.

A Psalme of David.

I Sing of mercy and iudgement: vnto thee, O Lord, will I sing.
2 I will behave my selfe wisely in a perfect way: O when wilt thou come vnto me? I will walk within my house with a perfect heart.
3 I will set no wicked thing before mine eyes: I hate the worke of them y turne aside: it shall not cleave to me.
4 A froward heart shall depart from me: I will not know a wicked person.
5 Whosoever secretly slandereth his neighbour, him will I cut off: him that hath a high looke, and a proud heart will not suffer.
6 Mine eyes shall be upon the faithfull in the land, that they may dwel with me: he that walketh in a perfect way, he shall serve me.
7 He that worketh deceit, shall not dwell within my house: he that telleth lies, shall not tarry in my sight.
8 Early will I destroy all the wicked of the land: that I may cut off all wicked doers from the city of the LORD.

PSAL. CII.

A prayer of the afflicted when he is ouerwhelmed, and powreth out his complaint before the LORD.

1 Heare my prayer, O Lord: and let my crying come vnto thee.
2 Hide not thy face from me in the day when I am in trouble, encline thine eare vnto me: in the day when I call, answere me speedily.
3 For my dayes are consumed as smoke, and my bones are burnt as an hearth.
4 I am smitten, and withered like grasse: I forget to eat my bread.
5 By reason of the voyce of my groaning my bone cleave to my skinne.
6 I am like a Pelican of the wilderness, I am like an Owle of the desert.
7 I watch and am as a Sparrow alone vpon the house top.
8 Mine enemies reproach me all the day: they that are mad against me, sweare against me.
9 For I have eaten ashes like bread, and mingled my drink with weeping.
10 Because of thine indignation and thy wrath: for thou hast lifted mee up, and cast me downe.
11 My dayes are like a shadow y declineth: and I am withered like grasse.
12 But thou, O LORD, shalt endure for ever: and thy remembrance vnto all generations.
13 Thou shalt arise, and have mercy vpon Sion: for the time to fauour her, yea the set time is come.
14 For thy servants take pleasure in her stones, and fauour the dust thereof.
15 So the heathen shal feare the Name of the LORD: and all the kings of the earth thy glory.
16 When the LORD shall build up Sion, he shall appeare in his glory.
17 He will regard the prayer of the destitute, and not despise their prayer.
18 This shal be written for the generation to come: and the people which shal be created, shal praise the Lord.
19 For he hath looked downe from the height of his Sanctuary: from heaven did the LORD behold the earth.
20 To heare y groaning of the prisoner, to loose those y are appointed to death:
21 To declare the Name of the Lord in Sion: and his praise in Ierusalem:
22 When the people are gathered together: & the kingdoms to serve y Lord.
23 Hee weakened my strength in the way: he shortened my dayes.
24 I said, O my God, take me not away in the middest of my dayes: thy yeeres are throughout all generations.
25 Of old hast thou laid the foundation of the earth: and the heavens are the worke of thy hands.
26 They shal perish, but thou shalt indure, yea, al of them shal waxe old like a garment: as a vesture shalt thou change them, & they shalbe changed.
27 But thou art the same: and thy yeers shal have no end.
28 The children of thy servants shal continue: and their seed shalbe established before thee.

PSAL. CIII.

A Psalme of David.

BLesse the Lord, O my soul, & al y is within me, blesse his holy Name.
2 Blesse the Lord, O my soul, and forget not al his benefits.
3 Who forgiveth al thine iniquities, who healeth al thy diseases.
4 Who redeemeth thy life from destruction: who crowneth thee with louing kindnes, and tender mercies.
5 Who satisfieth thy mouth with good things: so that thy youth is renewed like the Eagles.
6 The Lord executeth righteousnes & iudgement, for al that are oppressed.
7 He made known his wayes to Moses: his actes to the children of Israel.
8 The Lord is merciful and gracious, slow to anger, and plenteous in mercy.
9 He will not alwayes chide: neither will he keep his anger for ever.
10 He hath not dealt with us after our sinnes: nor rewarded us according to our iniquities.
11 For as the heaven is high above the earth: so great is his mercy toward them that feare him.
12 As far as the east is from the west: so far hath he removed our transgressions from vs.
13 Like as a father pitieth his children: so the Lord pitieth thē y feare him.
14 For he knoweth our frame: he remembreth that we are dust.
15 As for man, his dayes are as grasse, as a flour of y field, so he flourisheth.
16 For the wind passeth ouer it, and it is gone, and the place thereof shall know it no more.
17 But the mercy of the Lord is from everlasting to everlasting vpon them that feare him: and his righteous-neſſe vnto childrens children:

18 To ſuch as keepe his Covenant and to thoſe that remember his Commandements to do them.
19 The Lord hath prepared his throne in the heavens, and his kingdome ruleth ouer all.
20 Bleſſe the Lord, ye his Angels ý excel in ſtrength, that do his Commandements, hearkening vnto the voyce of his words.
21 Bleſſe ye the Lord all ye his hoſts, ye miniſters of his that do his pleaſure.
22 Bleſſe the Lord, all his workes in all places of his dominion: bleſſe the Lord O my ſoul.

PSAL. CIIII.

PRaiſe ý Lord, O my ſoul, O Lord my God, thou art very great: thou art clothed with honour and maieſtie:
2 Who couereſt thy ſelfe with light, as with a garment, who ſtretcheſt out the heavens like a curtaine.
3 Who layeth the beames of his chambers in the waters, who maketh the clouds his chaiet, who walketh vpon the wings of the winde.
4 Who maketh his Angels ſpirits: his miniſters a flaming fire.
5 Who laid the foundations of ý earth, ý it ſhould not be remooued for euer.
6 Thou couereddſt it with the deep as with a garment: the waters ſtood aboue the mountaines.
7 At thy rebuke they fled: at the voyce of thy thunder they haſted away.
8 They go vp by the mountaines: they goe downe by the valleys, to the place which thou haſt founded for them.
9 Thou haſt ſet a bound that they may not paſſe ouer: that they turne not again to couer the earth.
10 He ſendeth the ſprings into the valleys, which run among the hils.
11 They giue drink to euery beaſt of the field: the wilde aſſes quench their thirſt.
12 By them ſhall the foules of the heauen haue their habitation, which ſing among the branches.
13 He watereth the hils from his chambers: the earth is ſatisfied with the fruit of thy workes.
14 He cauſeth y graſſe to grow for the cattell, & herb for y ſeruice of man: ý he may bring forth food out of y earth:
15 And wine that maketh glad the heart of man, and oyle to make his face to ſhine, and bread which ſtrengtheneth mans heart.
16 The trees of the Lord are full of ſap, the Cedars of Lebanon, which he hath planted.
17 Where the birds make their neſt: as for y Storke the fir trees are her houſe.
18 The high hils are a refuge for the wild goats, & the rocks for y Conies.
19 He appointed y Moon for ſeaſons: the Sunne knoweth his going downe.
20 Thou makeſt darkenes and it is night: wherein all the beaſts of the forreſt do creep forth.
21 The young lions roare after their prey, and ſeek their meat from God.
22 The Sunne ariſeth: they gather themſelues together: and lay them down in their denns.
23 Man goeth forth vnto his worke and to his labour, vntil the euening.
24 O LORD how manifold are thy workes, in wiſedome haſt thou made them all, the earth is full of thy riches.
25 So is this great and wide ſea alſo: wherein are things creeping innumerable both ſmall and great beaſts.
26 There go the ſhips, there is ý Leuiathan, whom thou haſt made to play therein.
27 Theſe wait all vpon thee, that thou mayeſt giue them their meat in due ſeaſon.
28 That thou giueſt them, they gather: thou openeſt thine hand, they are filled with good.
29 Thou hideſt thy face, they are troubled: thou takeſt away their breath, they die: and returne to their duſt.
30 Thou ſendeſt forth thy ſpirit, they are created: and thou renewſt the face of the earth.
31 The glory of the LORD ſhall endure for euer: the Lord ſhall reioyce in his workes.
32 He looketh on the earth, and it trembleth: he toucheth the hils, and they ſmoke.
33 I will ſing vnto the LORD as long as I liue: I will ſing praiſe to my God while I haue my being.
34 My meditation of him ſhall be ſweet, I will be glad in the Lord.
35 Let the ſinners be conſumed out of the earth, and let the wicked be no more: bleſſe thou the Lord, O my ſoule. Prayſe ye the Lord.

PSAL. CV.

OGiue thankes vnto the LORD, call vpon his Name: make knowen his deeds among the people.
2 Sing vnto him, ſing Pſalmes vnto him: talke ye of all his wondrous workes.
3 Glory ye in his holy Name: let the heart of them reioyce that ſeeke Lord.
4 Seeke the Lord, and his ſtrength: ſeek his face euermore.
5 Remember his marueilous workes that he hath done: his wonders and the iudgements of his mouth.
6 O ye ſeed of Abraham his ſeruant, ye children of Iacob his choſen.
7 He is the Lord our God: his iudgements are in all the earth.
8 He hath remembred his Couenant for euer: y word which he commanded to a thouſand generations.
9 Which Couenant he made with Abraham, and his oath vnto Iſaac:
10 And confirmed the ſame vnto Iacob for a Law: and vnto Iſrael for an euerlaſting Couenant:
11 Saying, Vnto thee will I giue y land of Canaan the lot of your inheritance.
12 When they were but a few men in number: yea, very few, and ſtrangers in it.
13 When they went from one nation

PSAL. CVI.

PRaise ye the Lord, O give thankes unto the Lord, for he is good: for his mercy endureth for ever.

2 Who can utter the mighty actes of the LORD? who can shew forth all his praise?

3 Blessed are they that keepe iudgement; and hee that doeth righteousnes at al times.

4 Remember me, O Lord, with the favour that thou beareſt unto thy people: O visit me with thy salvation:

5 That I may see the good of thy chosen, that I may reioyce in the gladnes of thy nation: that I may glory with thine inheritance.

6 We have sinned with our fathers: we have committed iniquitie, wee have done wickedly.

7 Our fathers understood not ỹ wonders in Egypt, they remembred not ỹ multitude of thy mercies; but provoked him at the sea, even at the red sea.

8 Neverthelesse, hee saved them for his Names sake: that he might make his might ie power to be known.

9 He rebuked the red sea also, and it was dryed up: so he led them thorow the depths, as through the wildernesse.

10 And he saved them from the hand of him that hated them: and redeemed them from the hand of the enemy.

11 And the waters covered their enemies, there was not one of them left.

12 Then believed they his words, they sang his praise.

13 They soon forgate his works, they waited not for his counsel.

14 But lusted exceedingly in ỹ wildernes, and tempted God in the desert.

15 And he gave them their request: but sent leannes into their soul.

16 They envied Moses also in ỹ camp, and Aaron the Saint of the LORD.

17 The earth opened, and swallowed up Dathan, and couered the companie of Abiram.

18 And a fire was kindled in their company; ỹ flame burnt up ỹ wicked.

19 They made a calfe in Horeb, and worshipped the molten image.

20 Thus they changed their glory to the similitude of an oxe, eateth grasse.

21 They forgat God their Saujour, which had don great things in Egypt, 22 Wonderous works in the land of Ham, and terrible things by ỹ red sea.

23 Therfore he saide, ỹ he would destroy the, had not Moses his chosē stood before him in the breach, to turne away his wrath, lest he should destroy them.

24 Yea, they despised the pleasant land, they believed not his word.

25 But murmured in their tents, and hearkened not unto the voyce of the LORD.

26 Therefore he lifted up his hand against them, to overthrow them in the wildernesse.

27 To overthrow their seed also amōg ỹ nations, & to scatter the in ỹ lands.

28 They ioyned themselves also to Baal Peor; & ate the sacrifices of the dead.
29 Thus they provoked him to anger out with their inventions: and the plague brake in upon them.
30 Then stood up Phinehas & executed iudgement, & so y plague was stayed.
31 And that was counted unto him for righteousnesse: unto all generations for evermore.
32 They angred him also at the waters of strife: so that it went ill with Moses for their sakes:
33 Because they prouoked his spirit; so y he spake unadvisedly w his lips.
34 They did not destroy the nations, concerning whom the LORD commanded them.
35 But were mingled among the heathen, and learned their workes.
36 And they served their idoles which were a snare unto them.
37 Yea they sacrificed their sons and their daughters unto deuils.
38 And shed innocent blood, even the blood of their sons and of their daughters: whom they sacrifice d unto the idols of Canaan; and the land was polluted with blood.
39 Thus were they defiled with their owne workes; and went a whoring with their owne inventions.
40 Therefore was y wrath of y Lord kindled against his people; insomuch that he abhorred his own inheritance.
41 And he gave them into the hand of the heathen, and they that hated them ruled over them.
42 Their enemies also oppressed them, & they were brought into subiection under their hand.
43 Many times did he deliver them, but they provoked him w their counsel, & were brought low for their iniquity.
44 Neverthelesse, he regarded their affliction, when he heard their cry.
45 And he remembred for them his Covenant, and repented according to the multitude of his mercies.
46 He made them also to be pitied of all those that carried them captives.
47 Save us O LORD our God, and gather us from among the heathen, to give thanks unto thy holy Name, and to triumph in thy praise.
48 Blessed be the LORD God of Israel from everlasting to everlasting, & let all y people say, Amen, Praise ye y Lord.

PSAL. CVII.

O Give thanks unto the LORD, for he is good, for his mercy endureth for ever.
2 Let the redeemed of the LORD say so, whom he hath redeemed from the hand of the enemy;
3 And gathered them out of the lands, from the East, and from the West, from the North, and from the South.
4 They wandered in the wilderness in a solitary way; they found no city to dwell in.
5 Hungry & and thirsty, their soul fainted in them.
6 Then they cryed unto the LORD in their trouble, and he deliver them out of their distresses.
7 And he led them forth by the right way, that they might go to a city of habitation.
8 O that men would praise y Lord for his goodnesse, and for his wonderful workes to the children of men.
9 For he satisfieth the longing soul, & filleth y hungry soule with goodnesse.
10 Such as sit in darknesse, and in the shadow of death, being bound in affliction and yron.
11 Because they rebelled against the words of God, & had contemned the counsell of the most High.
12 Therefore he brought down their heart with labour; they fell downe and there was none to helpe.
13 Then they cryed unto the LORD in their trouble, and he saved them out of their distresses, 14 He brought them out of darknesse and the shadow of death; and brake their bands in sunder.
15 Oh that men would praise y Lord for his goodnesse, and for his wonderfull workes to the children of men!
16 For he hath broken y gates of brasse, and cut the barres of iron in sunder.
17 Fools, because of their transgression, and because of their iniquities are afflicted.
18 Their soule abhorreth all manner of meat, and they draw neere unto the gates of death.
19 Then they cry unto the LORD in their trouble, he saveth them out of their distresses.
20 He sent his word, & healed them, & delivered y e from their destruction.
21 Oh that men would praise the LORD for his goodnesse, and for his wonderfull works to y children of men!
22 And let them sacrifice the sacrifices of thanksgiving; and declare his works with reioycing.
23 They that go down to the Sea in ships, that do businesse in great waters;
24 These see the workes of the LORD, and his wonders in the deepe.
25 For he commandeth, and raiseth the stormy wind, which lifteth up the waves thereof.
26 They mount up to the heaven, they go down a gaine to the depths; their soul is melted because of trouble.
27 They reel too & fro, & stagger like a drunken man, & are at their wits end.
28 Then they cry unto the LORD in their trouble, and he bringeth them out of their distresses.
29 He maketh the storme a calme, so that the waves thereof are still.
30 Then are they glad because they be quiet; so he bringeth them unto their desired haven.
31 Oh that men would praise the Lord for his goodnes, and for his wonderfull works to the children of men.
32 Let them exalt him also in the Con-

Gods providence. David prayeth for help.

Congregation of the people: & praise him in the assembly of the Elders.

7 He turneth rivers into a wilderness: & the water springs into dry ground:

8 A fruitful land into barrenness, for the wickedness of them that dwel therin.

9 He turneth the wilderness into a standing water: and dry ground into water springs.

10 And there he maketh the hungry to dwell: that they may prepare a city to habitation.

11 That sowe the fields & plant vineyards, & may yeeld fruits of increase.

12 He blesseth them also, so that they are multiplied greatly: and suffereth not their cattel to decrease.

13 Againe, they are minished and brought low, through oppression, affliction, and sorrow.

14 He poureth contempt upon Princes, and causeth them to wander in the wildernesse where there is no way.

15 Yet setteth he the poore on high from affliction: and maketh him family like a flocke.

16 The righteous shal see it, & rejoyce: and all iniquity shall stop her mouth.

17 Whoso is wise, and will observe these things, even they shal understand the loving kindnesse of the LORD.

PSAL. CVIII.

A Song or Psalme of David.

1 My heart is fixed: I will sing & give prayse, even with my glory.

2 Awake psaltery and harp: I my self will awake early.

3 I will praise thee, O LORD, among the people: and I will sing prayses to thee among the nations.

4 For thy mercy is great above the heavens: & thy truth reacheth unto the cloudes.

5 Be thou exalted, O God, above the heavens: thy glory above all y earth.

6 That thy beloved may be delivered: save with thy right hand, & answere me.

7 God hath spoken in his holinesse, I will rejoyce, I will divide Sichem, & mete out the valley of Succoth.

8 Gilead is mine, Manasseh is mine, Ephraim also is the strength of mine head: Judah is my Law-giver.

9 Moab is my wash-pot, over Edom will I cast out my shooe: over Philistia will I triumph.

10 Who will bring me into y strong citie? who will leade me into Edom?

11 Wilt not thou, O God, who hast cast us off? and wilt not thou, O God, go forth with our hostes?

12 Geve us helpe from trouble: for vaine is the helpe of man.

13 Through God wee shall doe valiantly: for hee it is that shall tread down our enemyes.

PSAL. CIX.

To the chiefe Musician, A Psalme of David.

1 Hold not thy peace, O God of my prayse.

2 For the mouth of the wicked, and the mouth of the deceitfull, are opened against me: they have spoken against me with a lying tongue.

3 They compassed me about also with words of hatred: and fought against me without a cause.

4 For my love they are mine adversaries: but I give my self unto prayer.

5 And they have rewarded me evill for good: and hatred for my love.

6 Set thou a wicked man over him: and let Satan stand at his right hand.

7 When hee shall be judged, let him bee condemned: and let his prayer become sin.

8 Let his dayes be few: and let another take his office.

9 Let his children be fatherlesse, and his wife a widow.

10 Let his children bee continually vagabonds & beg: let them seek their bread also out of their desolate places.

11 Let the extortioner catch at that hee hath: and let the stranger spoile his labour.

12 Let there be none to extend mercy unto him: neither let there bee any to favour his fatherlesse children.

13 Let his posteritie be cut off: and in the generation following, let their name be blotted out.

14 Let the iniquity of his fathers be remembred with the LORD: & let not the sinne of his mother be blotted out.

15 Let them be before the Lord continually: that he may cut off the memory of them from the earth.

16 Because that he remembred not to shew mercy, but persecuted the poore and needy man: that hee might even slay the broken in heart.

17 As he loved cursing, so let it come unto him: as he delighted not in blessing, so let it be farre from him.

18 As he clothed himself with cursing, like as with his garment: so let it come into his bowels like water, and like oyle into his bones.

19 Let it be unto him as the garment which covereth him, and for a girdle wherewith he is girded continually.

20 Let this bee the reward of mine adversaries from the LORD: and of them that speake evil against my soul.

21 But doe thou for me, O GOD, the Lord, for thy names sake: because thy mercy is good, deliver thou me.

22 For I am poor and needy: and my heart is wounded within me.

23 I am gone like the shadow when it declineth: I am tossed up and down as the locust.

24 My knees are weak through fasting: and my flesh faileth of fatnesse.

25 I became also a reproach to them: when they looked upon me, they shaked their heads.

26 Helpe me, O LORD my God: O save me according to thy mercy.

27 That they may know that this is thy hand: y thou, O LORD, hast done it.

28 Let them curse, but blesse thou:

when they arise, let them be asshamed, but let thy servant rejoyce.

29 Let mine adversaries be clothed with shame: and let them cover themselves with their own confusion, as with a mantle.

30 I will greatly praise the LORD with my mouth: yea, I will praise him among the multitude.

31 For he shall stand at the right hand of the poor: to save him from those that condemne his soul.

PSAL. CX.

A Psalm of David.

THe LORD said unto my Lord, Sit thou at my right hand: untill I make thine enemies thy footstool.

2 The LORD shall send the rod of thy strength out of Zion: rule thou in the middest of thine enemies.

3 Thy people shall be willing in the day of thy power, in the beauties of holines from the womb of the morning: thou hast the dew of thy youth.

4 The LORD hath sworn, and will not repent, thou art a Priest for ever after the order of Melchizedek.

5 The Lord at thy right hand shall strike through kings in y day of his wrath.

6 He shal judge among the heathen, he shal fil the places with the dead bodies: he shall wound the heads over many countreys.

7 He shal drink of the brook in the way: therefore shall he lift up y head.

PSAL. CXI.

PRaise ye the LORD: I will praise the LORD with my whole heart in the assembly of the upright, and in the congregation.

2 The works of the LORD are great: sought out of all them that have pleasure therein.

3 His work is honourable and glorious: and his righteousnesse endureth for ever.

4 He hath made his wonderful works to be remembred: the LORD is gracious, and ful of compassion.

5 He hath given meat unto them that fear him: he wil ever be mindful of his Covenant.

6 He hath shewed his people the power of his works: that he may give them the heritage of the heathen.

7 The works of his hands are verity and judgement, all his commandments are sure.

8 They stand fast for ever and ever: and are done in truth and uprightnes.

9 He sent redemption unto his people, he hath commanded his covenant for ever: holy & reverend is his Name.

10 The fear of the LORD is the beginning of wisdome, a good understanding have al they y do his comandments: his praise endureth for ever.

PSAL. CXII.

PRaise ye the LORD. Blessed is the man that feareth the LORD: y delighteth greatly in his comandments.

2 His seed shalbe mighty on earth: the generation of y upright shalbe blessed.

3 Wealth and riches shall be in his house: and his righteousnesse endureth for ever.

4 Vnto the upright there ariseth light in the darknesse: he is gracious and rul of compassion, and righteous.

5 A good man sheweth favour and lendeth, he will guide his affaires with discretion.

6 Surely he shal not be moored for ever: the righteous shall be in everlasting remembrance.

7 He shall not be afraid of evil tidings: his heart is fixed, trusting in the LORD.

8 His heart is established, he shall not be afraid, untill he see his desire upon his enemies.

9 He hath disperſed, he hath given to the poor: his righteousnes endureth for ever: his horn shalbe exalted with honour.

10 The wicked shal see it, & be grieved; he shal gnash with his teeth, & melt away: y desire of y wicked shal perish.

PSAL. CXIII.

PRaise ye the LORD: Praise, O ye servants of the LORD: Praise the Name of the LORD.

2 Blessed be the Name of the LORD, from this time forth & for evermore.

3 From the rising of the Sun, unto the going down of the same, the LORDS Name is to be praised.

4 The LORD is high above all nations: and his glory above the heavens.

5 Who is like unto the Lord our God: who dwelleth on high.

6 Who humbles himself to behold things y are in heaven, & in the earth.

7 He raiseth up the poor out of the dust: and lifteth the needy out of the dunghill:

8 That he may set him with princes even with the princes of his people.

9 He maketh the barren woman to keep house; to be a joyfull mother of children: Praise ye the LORD.

PSAL. CXIII.

WHen Israel went out of Egypt: the house of Iacob from a people of strange language:

2 Iudah was his Sanctuary: and Israel his dominion.

3 The sea saw it, and fled: Iordan was driven back.

4 The mountains skipped like rammes: and the little hils like lambes.

5 What ailed thee, O thou sea, that thou fleddest? thou Iordan, that thou wast driven back?

6 Ye mountains, that ye skipped like rams: and ye little hils like lambes?

7 Tremble thou earth at the presence of the Lord: at the presence of the God of Iacob:

8 Which turned y rock into a standing water: the flint into a fountain of waters.

PSAL. CXV.

NOt to us, O Lord, not to us: but to thy Name give glory: for thy mercy, and for thy truths sake.

15 Precious in the sight of the LORD: is the death of his Saints.
16 O LORD, truely I am thy servant, I am thy servant, and the son of thy handmaid; thou hast loosed my bonds.
17 I will offer to thee the sacrifice of thanksgiving, and will call upon the Name of the LORD.
18 I will pay my vowes to the LORD: now in the presence of all his people.
19 In the courts of the LORDS house, in the midst of thee, O Jerusalem. Praise ye the LORD.

PSAL. CXVII.

O Praise the LORD, all ye nations, praise him all ye people.
2 For his merciful kindnesse is great toward us; & the truth of the LORD endureth for ever. Praise ye the LORD.

PSAL. CXVIII.

O Give thankes unto the LORD, for he is good, because his mercy endureth for ever.
2 Let Israel now say, that his mercy endureth for ever.
3 Let the house of Aaron now say, that his mercy endureth for ever.
4 Let them now that feare the LORD, say, that his mercy endureth for ever.
5 I called upon the LORD in distresse; the LORD answered me, and set me in a large place.
6 The LORD is on my side, I will not feare what can man do unto me?
7 The Lord taketh my part with them that helpe me; therefore shall I see my desire upon them that hate me.
8 It is better to trust in the LORD, then to put confidence in man.
9 It is better to trust in the Lord then to put confidence in princes.
10 All nations compassed me about; but in the Name of the LORD will I destroy them.
11 They compassed me about, yea they compassed me about, but in the Name of the Lord, I will destroy them.
12 They compassed mee about like bees, they are quenched as the fire of thornes; for in the Name of the Lord, I will destroy them.
13 Thou hast thrust sore at me that I might fall, but the Lord helped me.
14 The LORD is my strength and Song, and is become my salvation.
15 The voyce of rejoycing, and salvation is in the tabernacles of the righteous: the right hand of the Lord doth valiantly.
16 The right hand of the LORD is exalted: the right hand of the Lord doth valiantly.
17 I shal not die, but live, and declare the works of the Lord.
18 The LORD hath chastened mee sore: but hee hath not given mee over unto death.
19 Open to me the gates of righteousnes: I will go into them, and will praise the LORD.
20 This gate of the Lord, into which the righteous shal enter.

21 I will praise thee, for thou hast heard me: & art become my salvation.
22 The stone which the builders refused, is become the head stone of the corner.
23 This is the LORDS doing: it is marvellous in our eyes.
24 This is the day which the LORD hath made: we will rejoyce and be glad in it.
25 Save now, I beseech thee, O LORD: O LORD I beseech thee, send now prosperitie.
26 Blessed be he that commeth in the Name of the LORD: we have blessed you out of the house of the LORD.
27 God is the LORD, which hath shewed us light: bind the sacrifice with cords, even unto the horns of the Altar.
28 Thou art my God, and I will praise thee: thou art my God, I will exalt thee.
29 O give thanks to the LORD, for he is good: for his mercy endureth for ever.

PSAL. CXIX.

ALEPH.

BLessed are the undefiled in the way, who walk in the law of the LORD.
2 Blessed are they which keep his testimonies, and that seek him with the whole heart.
3 They also do no iniquity: they walk in his ways.
4 Thou hast commanded us to keep thy precepts diligently.
5 O that my ways were directed to keep thy Statutes!
6 Then shall I not be ashamed, when I have respect to all thy commandments.
7 I will praise thee with uprightnesse of heart: when I shall have learned thy righteous judgements.
8 I will keep thy Statutes: O forsake me not utterly.

BETH.

9 Wherewithall shall a young man cleanse his way? by taking heed thereto according to thy word.
10 With my whole heart have I sought thee: O let me not wander from thy commandements.
11 Thy word have I hid in mine heart: that I might not sin against thee.
12 Blessed art thou, O LORD: teach me thy Statutes.
13 With my lips have I declared all the judgements of thy mouth.
14 I have rejoyced in the way of thy testimonies: as much as in all riches.
15 I will meditate in thy precepts: and have respect unto thy ways.
16 I will delight my self in thy Statutes: I will not forget thy word.

GIMEL.

17 Deal bountifully with thy servant, that I may live, and keep thy word.
18 Open mine eyes, that I may behold wondrous things out of thy law.
19 I am a stranger in the earth: hide not thy commandements from me.
20 My soul breaketh for the longing that it hath unto thy judgements at all times.
21 Thou hast rebuked the proud that are cursed, which do erre from thy commandements.
22 Remoove from me reproach & con-
23 tempt: for I have kept thy testimonies.
24 Princes also did sit and speak against me: but thy servant did meditate in thy Statutes.
25 Thy testimonies also are my delight: and my counsellors.

DALETH.

26 My soul cleaveth unto the dust: quicken thou me according to thy word.
27 I have declared my ways, and thou heardest me: teach me thy Statutes.
28 Make me to understand the way of thy precepts: so shall I talk of thy wonderous works.
29 My soul melteth for heavinesse: strengthen thou me according unto thy word.
30 Remoove from me the way of lying: and grant me thy Law graciously.
31 I have chosen the way of truth: thy judgements have I laid before me.
32 I have stuck unto thy testimonies, O LORD: put me not to shame.
33 I will runne the way of thy commandements: when thou shalt inlarge my heart.

HE.

34 Teach me, O LORD, the way of thy Statutes: and I shall keep it unto the end.
35 Give me understanding, and I shall keep thy Law: yea, I shall observe it with my whole heart.
36 Make me to go in the path of thy commandements: for therein do I delight.
37 Incline my heart unto thy testimonies: and not to covetousnesse.
38 Turn away mine eyes from beholding vanity: and quicken thou me in thy way.
39 Stablish thy word unto thy servant: who is devoted to thy fear.
40 Turn away my reproach which I fear: for thy judgements are good.
41 Behold, I have longed after thy precepts: quicken me in thy righteousnesse.

VAV.

42 Let thy mercies come also unto me, O LORD: even thy salvation according to thy word.
43 So shall I have wherewith to answer him that reproacheth me: for I trust in thy word.
44 And take not the word of truth utterly out of my mouth: for I have hoped in thy judgements.
45 So shall I keep thy Law continually: for ever and ever.
46 And I will walk at liberty: for I seek thy precepts.
47 I will speak of thy testimonies also before kings, and will not be ashamed.
48 And I will delight my self in thy commandements, which I have loved.
49 My hands also will I lift up to thy commandments which I have loved: and I will meditate in thy statutes.

ZAIN.

50 Remember thy word unto thy servant, upon which thou hast caused me to hope.

ersout hath taken hold upon se of the wicked that forsak

Thy statutes have been my songs, use of my pilgrimage.
e remembred thy Name, O
at night, & have kept thy Law.
his I became I kept thy precepts

CHETH.

Part my portion, O LORD:
ay I would keep thy words.
I entreated thy favour with my heart: be merciful unto me acto thy word.
I thought on my wayes; and turmy feet unto thy testimonies.
I made haste, and delayed not to thy commandments.
The bands of wicked have robbed me; but I have not forgotten thy Law.
At midnight I will rise to give thanks unto thee, because of thy righteous judgements.
I am a companion of all them that fear me; and of them that keep thy precepts.
The earth, O LORD, is full of thy mercy; teach me thy statutes.

TETH.

Thou hast dealt well with thy servant,
O LORD, according unto thy word.
Teach me good judgement, and knowledge: for I have believed thy commandments.
Before I was afflicted, I went astray: but now have I kept thy word.
Thou art good, and doest good;
teach me thy Statutes.
The proud have forged a lie against me: but I will keep thy precepts with my whole heart.
Their heart is as fat as grease; but I delight in thy Law.
It is good for me, that I have been afflicted; that I might learn thy Statutes.
The Law of thy mouth is better to me, than thousands of gold and silver.

IOD.

Thy hands have made me and fashioned me: give me understanding, that I may learn thy Commandments.
They that fear thee, will be glad when they see me: because I have hoped in thy word.
I know, O LORD, that thy judgements are right, and that thou in faithfulness hast afflicted me.
Let, I pray thee, thy mercifull kindness be my comfort, according to thy word unto thy servant.
Let thy tender mercies come unto me, that I may live: for thy Law is my delight.
Let the proud be ashamed, for they dealt perversely with me without a cause:
but I will meditate in thy precepts.
Let those that fear thee turn to me: &
they shall have known thy testimonies.

Let my heart be sound in thy statutes, that I be not ashamed.

CAPH.

My soul fainteth for thy salvation: but I hope in thy word.
Mine eyes fail for thy word: saying, When wilt thou comfort me?
For I am become like a bottell in a smoak: yet do I not forget thy statutes.
How many are the dates of thy servant? when wilt thou execute judgement on them that persecute me?
The proud have digged pits for me: which are not after thy Law.
All thy commandements are faith-full: thy persecute me wrongfully; help thou me.
They had almost consumed me on earth: but I forsook not thy precepts.
Quicken me after thy loving kindness: so shall I keep the testimony of thy mouth.

LAMED.

For ever, O LORD, thy word is setled in heaven.
Thy faithfulnes is unto all generations: thou hast established the earth, and it abideth.
They continue this day according to thine ordinances: for all are thy servants.
Unlesse thy Law had been my delights, I should then have perished in mine affliction.
I will never forget thy precepts: for with them thou hast quickned me.
I am thine, save me: for I have sought thy precepts.
The wicked have waited for me to destroy me: but I will consider thy testimonies.
I have seen an end of all perfection:
but thy commandment is exceeding broad.

MEM.

O how love I thy Law! it is my meditation all the day.
Thou through thy commandements hast made me wiser then mine enemies: for they are ever with me.
I have more understanding then all my teachers: for thy Testimonies are my meditation.
I understand more then the ancients: because I keep thy precepts.
I have refrained my feet from every evill way; y I may keep thy word.
I have not departed from thy judgements: for thou hast taught me.
How sweet are thy words unto my taste! yea, sweeter then hony to my mouth.
Through thy precepts I get understanding; therefore I hate every false way.

NVN.

Thy word is a lamp unto my feet, and a light unto my path.
I have sworn, I will perform it: that I will keep thy righteous judgements.
I am afflicted very much; quicken me, O Lord, according to thy word.

108 Let

108 Accept, I beseech thee, the free will offrings of my mouth, O LORD, and teach my thy judgements.

109 My soul is continually in my hand, yet do I not forget thy Law.

110 The wicked have laid a snare for me: yet I erred not from thy precepts.

111 Thy testimonies have I taken as an heritage for ever: for they are the rejoycing of my heart.

112 I have inclined mine heart to perform thy statutes always, even to the end.

SAMECH.

113 I hate vain thoughts: but thy Law do I love.

114 Thou art my hiding place, and my shield: I hope in thy word.

115 Depart from me ye evill doers: for I will keep the commandments of my God.

116 Uphold me according unto thy word, that I may live: and let me not be ashamed of my hope.

117 Hold thou me up, and I shall be safe: and I will have respect unto thy statutes continually.

118 Thou hast trodden down all them that erre from thy statutes: for their deceit is falshood.

119 Thou puttest away all the wicked of the earth like drosse; therefore I love thy testimonies.

120 My flesh trembleth for fear of thee, & I am afraid of thy judgments.

AIN.

121 I have done judgment and justice; leave me not to mine oppressors.

122 Be surety for thy servant for good: let not the proud oppresse me.

123 Mine eyes faile for thy salvation; & for the word of thy righteousnes.

124 Deal with thy servant according to thy mercy; & teach me thy statutes.

125 I am thy servant, give me understanding; that I may know thy testimonies.

126 It is time for thee, Lord, to work; for they have made void thy Law.

127 Therefore I love thy commandements above gold, yea, above fine gold

128 Therfore I esteem all thy precepts concerning all things to be right, and I hate every false way.

PE.

129 Thy testimonies are wonderful: therefore doth my soul keep them.

130 The entrance of thy words giveth light; it giveth understanding unto the simple.

131 I opened my mouth, and panted; for I longed for thy commandments.

132 Look thou upon me, and be merciful unto me, as thou useft to do unto those that love thy Name.

133 Order my steps in thy word, & let not any iniquity have dominion over me.

134 Deliver me from the oppression of man: so will I keep thy Precepts.

135 Make thy face to shine upon thy servant, and teach me thy statutes.

136 Rivers of water run down mine eyes, because they keep not thy Law.

TSADDI.

137 Righteous art thou, O LORD, and upright are thy judgements.

138 Thy testimonies y thou hast commanded, are righteous, & very faithfull.

139 My zeal hath consumed me, because mine enemies have forgotten thy words.

140 Thy word is very pure; therefore thy servant loveth it.

141 I am small and despised; yet do I not forget thy precepts.

142 Thy righteousnes is an everlasting righteousnes, and thy Law is the truth.

143 Trouble and anguish have taken hold on me; yet thy commandements are my delights.

144 The righteousnes of thy testimonies is everlasting; give me understanding, and I shall live.

KOPH.

145 I cried with my whole heart before me, O LORD, I will keep thy statutes.

146 I cried unto thee, save me, and I shal keep thy testimonies.

147 I prevented y dawning of the morning, and cryed; I hoped in thy words.

148 Mine eyes prevent the night watches; y I might meditate in thy word.

149 Hear my voice, according to thy loving kindnesse; O LORD, quicken me according to thy judgement.

150 They draw nigh that follow after mischief, they are far from thy Law.

151 Thou art neer, O LORD, and all thy commandments are truth.

152 Concerning thy testimonies, I have known of old; that thou hast founded them for ever.

RESH.

153 Consider mine afflictions, and deliver me; for I do not forget thy law.

154 Plead my cause, and deliver me; quicken me according to thy word.

155 Salvation is far from the wicked: for they seek not thy Statutes.

156 Great are thy tender mercies, O LORD, quicken me according to thy Judgements.

157 Many are my persecutors, and mine enemies; yet doe I not decline from thy Testimonies.

158 I beheld the transgressors, & was grieved, because they kept not thy word.

159 Consider how I love thy precepts: quicken me, O LORD, according to thy loving kindnesse.

160 Thy word is true from the beginning; and every one of thy righteous Judgements endureth for ever.

SCHIN.

161 Princes have persecuted me without a cause; but my heart standeth in awe of thy word.

162 I rejoice at thy word; as one that findeth great spoil.

163 I hate and abhor lying; but thy Law do I love.

164 Seven times a day do I praise thee, because of thy righteous judgements.

165 Great peace have they which love thy Law; & nothing shal offend them.

166 LORD, I have hoped for thy salvation;

ment: the thrones of y house of David.
6 Pray for the peace of Jerusalem: they shal prosper that love thee.
7 Peace be within thy walls: and prosperity within thy palaces.
8 For my brethren & companions sakes I will now say, Peace be within thee.
9 Because of the house of the LORD our God: I will seek thy good.

PSAL. CXXII.

A song of degrees.

UNto thee lift I up mine eyes: O thou that dwellest in the heavens.
2 Behold as the eies of servants look to y hand of their masters, & as y eyes of a maiden to y hand of her mistres, so our eyes wait upon the LORD our God: until that he have mercy on us.
3 Have mercy upon us, O LORD, have mercy upon us: for we are exceedingly filled with contempt.
4 Our soul is exceedingly filled with the scorning of those that are at ease, and with the contempt of the proud.

PSAL. CXXIV.

A song of degrees of David.

IF it had not been the LORD, who was on our side: now may Israel say:
2 If it had not been y LORD, who was on our side, when men rose up against us:
3 Then they had swallowed us up quick; when their wrath was kindled against us.
4 Then the waters had overwhelmed us, the stream had gone over our soul.
5 Then the proud waters had gone over our soul.
6 Blessed be the LORD, who hath not given us as a pray to their teeth.
7 Our soul is escaped as a bird out of the snare of the fowlers: the snare is broken, and we are escaped.
8 Our help is in the Name of the LORD, who made heaven and earth.

PSAL. CXXV.

A song of degrees.

THey that trust in the LORD, shal be as mount Zion, which cannot be removed, but abideth for ever.
2 As the mountains are round about Jerusalem, so the LORD is round about his people, from henceforth, even for ever.
3 For the rod of y wicked shal not rest on the lot of y righteous: lest the righteous put forth their hands to iniquity.
4 O good, O LORD, unto those that be good, and to them that are upright in their hearts.
5 As for such as turn aside unto their crooked wayes, the LORD shall lead them forth with the workers of iniquity: but peace shall be upon Israel.

PSAL. CXXVI.

A song of the trees.

WHen the LORD turned again the captivity of Zion, we were like them that dream.
2 Then was our mouth filled with laughter, & our tongue with singing: then said they among the heathen, y LORD hath done great things for them.

3 The

3 The Lord hath done great things for us, whereof we are glad.
4 Turne againe our captivity, O Lord as the streames in the South.
5 They that sow in teares, shal reap in joy.
6 He that goeth forth and weepeth, bearing precious seed, shall doubtles come againe with rejoycing, bringing his sheaves with him.

PSAL. CXXVII.

A song of degrees for Solomon.

EXcept the LORD build the house, they labour in vaine that build it: except the LORD keepe the city, the watchman waketh but in vaine.
2 It is vaine for you to rise up early, to sit up late, to eat the bread of sorrowes: for so he giveth his beloved sleep.
3 Loe, children are an heritage of the LORD: and the fruit of the wombe is his reward.
4 As arrowes are in the hand of a mighty man, so are children of the youth.
5 Happy is the man that hath his quiver full of them, they shal not be ashamed: but they shal speake with the enemies in the gate.

PSAL. CXXVIII.

A Song of degrees.

BLessed is every one that feareth the LORD: that walketh in his wayes.
2 For thou shalt eate the labour of thine hands: happy shalt thou be, and it shal be wel with thee.
3 Thy wife shal be as a fruitful vine by the sides of thine house: thy children like olive plants round about thy table.
4 Behold, that thus shal the man be blessed, that feareth the LORD.
5 The Lord shall bleise thee out of Zion: and thou shalt see the good of Jerusalem all the dayes of thy life.
6 Yea, thou shalt see thy childrens children: and peace upon Israel.

PSAL. CXXIX.

A Song of degrees.

MAny a time have they afflicted me from my youth, may Israel now say.
2 Many a time have they afflicted me from my youth: yet they have not prevailed against me.
3 The plowers plowed upon my back, they made long their furrowes.
4 The Lord is righteous: he hath cut asunder the cords of the wicked.
5 Let them all be confounded and turned backe that hate Zion.
6 Let them be as y grasse upon the houses tops, which wytherth ar ere it groweth up.
7 Wherewith the mower filleth not his hand: nor he that bindeth the sheaves his bosome.
8 Neither doe they which go by, say, The blessing of y Lord be on you: we blesse you in the Name of the LORD.

PSAL. CXXX.

A Song of degrees.

OUt of the depths have I cryed to thee, O LORD.
2 Lord, heare my voice: let thine eers be attentive to y voice of my supplications.
3 If thou, Lord, shouldest mark iniquities, O Lord who shal stand?
4 But there is forgiveness with thee: that thou mayest be feared.
5 I wait for the Lord, my soul doth wait, and in his word do I hope.
6 My soul waiteth for the Lord, more then they y watch for y morning: I say more then they y watch for y morning.
7 Let Israel hope in the LORD, for with the Lord there is mercy: and with him is plenteous redemption.
8 And he shal redeeme Israel from all his iniquities.

PSAL. CXXXI.

A Song of degrees of David.

LORD, my heart is not haughty, nor mine eyes lofty: neither do I exercise my selfe in great matters, or in things too high for me.
2 Surely, I have behaved and quieted my selfe as a childe that is weaned of his mother: my soule is even as a weaned childe.
3 Let Israel hope in the Lord, from henceforth and for ever.

PSAL. CXXXII.

A Song of degrees.

LORD, remember David, and all his afflictions.
2 How he swate unto the Lord, and vowed unto the mighty God of Iacob.
3 Surely I will not come into the Tabernacle of my house: nor go up into my bed.
4 I will not give sleep to mine eyes: or slumber to mine eye lids.
5 Vntill I find out a place for the LORD: an habitation for the mighty God of Iacob.
6 Loe, we heard of it at Ephratah: we found it in the fields of the wood.
7 We will goe into his tabernacles: we will worship at his footstool.
8 Arise, O LORD, into thy rest, thou and the Arke of thy strength.
9 Let thy priests be clothed with righteousnes: & let thy Saints shout for joy.
10 For thy servant Davids sake turne not away the face of thine Anoynted.
11 The Lord hath sworn in truth to David, he will not turne from it: of the fruit of thy body will I set upon thy throne.
12 If thy children will keep my covenant & my testimony, that I shal teach them: their children also shall sit upon thy throne for evermore.
13 For the Lord hath chosen Zion: he hath desired it for his habitation.
14 This is my rest for ever: here will I dwel for I have desired it.
15 I will abundantly blesse her provision: I will satisfie her poor with bread.
16 I will also cloath her priests with salvation: and her Saints shal shout aloude for joy.
17 There will I make the horn of David to bud: I have ordained a lampe for mine Anointed.
18 His enemies will I cloathe with shame: but upon himselfe shal his crowne flourish.

PSAL.

PSAL. CXXXIII.
A Song of degrees of David.
Behold, how good and how pleasant it is for brethren to dwel together in unity.
2 It is like the precious ointment upon the head, that ran down upon the beard, even Aarons beard: and went down to the skirts of his garments.
3 As the dew of Hermon: and as the dew that descended upon the mountaines of Sion: for there the Lord commanded the blessing: even life for evermore.

PSAL. CXXXIIII.
A Song of degrees.
1 Behold, bless ye the Lord, all ye servants of the Lord, which by night stand in the house of the Lord.
2 Lift up your hands in the Sanctuarie, and bless the LORD.
3 The Lord that made heaven and earth, bless thee out of Zion.

PSAL. CXXXV.
1 Praise ye the Lord, praise ye the name of the Lord, praise him, O ye servants of the LORD.
2 Ye that stand in the house of the Lord:
in the courts of the house of our God.
3 Praise the LORD, for the LORD is good: sing praises unto his Name, for it is pleasant.
4 For the Lord hath chosen Iacob unto himself, and Israel for his peculiar treasure.
5 For I know that the Lord is great:
and that our Lord is above all gods.
6 Whatsoever the Lord pleased, that did he in heaven, and in earth, in the sea, and in all deepe places.
7 He maketh the vapours to ascend from the ends of the earth: he maketh lightnings for the raine: he bringeth the wind out of his treasuries.
8 Who smote the first born of Egypt,
both of man and beast.
9 Who sent tokens and wonders into the middest of thee, O Egypt: on Pharaoh and on all his servants.
10 Who smote great nations, and slew mighty kings.
11 Sihon king of the Amorites, and Og king of Bashan: and all the kingdoms of Canaan.
12 And gave their land for an heritage: even an heritage to Israel his people.
13 Thy Name, O Lord, endureth for ever: thy memorial, O Lord, throughout all generations.
14 For the Lord will judge his people:
and repent himself concerning his servants.
15 The idoles of the heathen are silver and gold: even the worke of mens hands.
16 They have mouthes, but they speake not: they have eyes, but they see not.
17 They have eares, but they heare not: neither is there any breath in their mouthes.
18 They that make them are like to them: so is every one that trusteth in them.
19 Praise the Lord, O house of Israel:
praise the LORD, O house of Aaron.
20 Blesse the Lord, O house of Levi: ye that fear the LORD, blesse the Lord.
21 Blessed be the Lord out of Zion: which dwelleth at Ierusalem: Praise ye the LORD.

PSAL. CXXXVI.
1 O Give thankes unto the Lord, for he is good: for his mercy endu-reth for ever.
2 O give thankes unto the God of gods: for his mercy endureth for ever.
3 O give thankes to the Lord of Lords: for his mercy endureth for ever.
4 To him who alone doeth great wonders: for his mercy endureth for ever.
5 To him that by wisedome made the heavens: for his mercy endureth for ever.
6 To him that stretched out the earth above the waters: for his mercy endu-reth for ever.
7 To him that made great lights: for his mercy endureth for ever.
8 The Sun to rule by day: for his mercie endureth for ever.
9 The Moon and Starres to rule by night: for his mercy endureth for ever.
10 To him y smote Egypt in their first born: for his mercy endureth for ever.
11 And brought out Israel from among them: for his mercy endureth for ever.
12 With a strong hand, and with a stretched out arme: for his mercy endureth for ever.
13 To him which divided the red sea into parts: for his mercy endureth for ever.
14 And made Israel to passe thorow the midst of it: for his mercy endureth for ever.
15 But overthrew Pharaoh and his hoste in the red Sea: for his mercy endureth for ever.
16 To him which led his people tho-row the wilderness: for his mercy endu-reth for ever.
17 To him which smote great kings:
for his mercy endureth for ever.
18 And slew famous Kings: for his mercy endureth for ever.
19 Sihon king of the Amorites: for his mercy endureth for ever.
20 And Og the king of Bashan: for his mercy endureth for ever.
21 And gave their land for an heritage: for his mercy endureth for ever.
22 Even an heritage to Israel his servant: for his mercy endureth for ever.
23 Who remembred us in our low estate: for his mercy endureth for ever.
24 And hath redeemed us from our enemies: for his mercy endureth for ever.
25 Who giveth food to all flesh: for his mercy endureth for ever.
26 O give thankes unto the God of heaven: for his mercy endureth for ever.

PSAL. CXXXVII.
1 BY the rivers of Babylon, there we sate down, yea, we wept: when we remembred Zion.
2 We hanged our harpes upon the willowes, in the midst thereof.
3 For there they that carried us away captive, required of us a song, & they y wasted us, required of us mirth, saying, Sing us one of the songs of Zion.

4 How shal we sing the LORDS song in a strange land?

5 If I forget thee, O Ierusalem: let my right hand forget her cunning.

6 If I do not remember thee, let my tongue cleave to the roofe of my mouth; if I prefer not Ierusalem above my chiefe ioy.

7 Remember, O Lord, the children of Edom, in the day of Ierusalem: who said, Raise it, raise it, even to the foundation thereof.

8 O daughter of Babylon, who art to be destroyed, happy shal he be that rewardeth thee, as thou hast served us.

9 Happy shal he be that taketh & dasheth thy little ones against the stones.

PSAL. CXXXVIII.

A psalme of David.

I Will praise thee with my whole heart: before the gods will I sing praise to thee.

2 I will worship towards thy holy Temple, and praise thy Name, for thy loving kindnes, and for thy truth, for thou hast magnified thy word above all thy Name.

3 In the day when I cryed, thou answeredst me; and strengthenedst me with strength in my soul.

4 All the kings of the earth shal praise thee, O Lord: when they heare the words of thy mouth.

5 Yea, they shal sing in the waies of the Lord: for great is the glory of the Lord.

6 Though the Lord be high, yet hath he respect unto the lowly: but the proud he knoweth afar off.

7 Though I walke in the midst of trouble, thou wilt revive me, thou shalt stretch forth thine hand against the wrath of mine enemies, and thy right hand shal save me.

8 The Lord wil perfect that which concerneth me: thy mercie, O LORD, endureth for ever: forsake not the works of thine owne hands.

PSAL. CXXXIX.

To the chiefe Musician. A Psalme of David.

O LORD, thou hast searched mee, and knowne me.

2 Thou knowest my down sitting, and mine uprising: thou understandest my thought afarre off.

3 Thou compassest my path, and my lying down, and art acquainted with all my wayes.

4 For there is not a word in my tongue: but lo, O LORD, thou knowest it altogether.

5 Thou hast beset me behinde and before, and laid thine hand upon me.

6 Such knowledge is too wonderful for me: it is high, I cannot attain to it.

7 Whither shall I go from thy Spirit? or whither shall I flie from thy presence?

8 If I ascend up into heaven, thou art there: if I make my bed in hel, behold, thou art there.

9 If I take the wings of the morning, & dwel in y uttermost parts of the sea,

10 Even there shal thine hand lead me: and thy right hand shal hold me.

11 If I say, Surely the darkenes shal cover me: even the night shal be light about me.

12 Yea, the darkenes hideth not from thee, but the night shineth as the day: the darknes and the light are both alike to thee.

13 For thou hast possessed my reins: thou hast covered me in my mothers womb.

14 I wil praise thee, for I am fearfully and wonderfully made, marvelous are thy workes: and that my soul knoweth right wel.

15 My substance was not hid from thee, when I was made in secret, & curiously wrought in the lowest parts of the earth.

16 Thine eyes did see my substance yet being unperfect, and in thy book all my members were written, which in continuance were fashioned: when as yet there was none of them.

17 How precious also are thy thoughts unto me, O God: how great is the sum of them?

18 If I should count them, they are more in number then the sand: when I awake, I am stil with thee.

19 Surely thou wilt slay the wicked, O God: depart from me therefore, ye bloody men.

20 For they speak against thee wickedly: and thine enemies take thy Name in vaine.

21 Do not I hate them, O Lord, that hate thee? and am not I grieved with those that rise up against thee?

22 I hate them with perfect hatred: I count them mine enemies.

23 Search me, O God, and know my heart: trie me, & know my thoughts.

24 And see if there be any wicked way in me: & lead me in y way everlasting.

PSAL. CXL.

To the chiefe Musician. A Psalme of David.

DEliver me, O Lord, from the evil man: preserve me from y violent man.

2 Which imagine mischiefes in their heart: continually are they gathered together for warre.

6 I said unto the Lord, Thou art my God: heare the voyce of my supplications, O LORD.

Maſil of David: A prayer when he was in the cave.

...him: I ſhewed before him my trouble:
...When my ſpirit was overwhelmed

...in the way wherein I walked, have
...they privily laid a ſnare for me.
...I looked on my right hand, and ...beheld, but there was no man that ...would know me: refuge failed me: no
...man cared for my ſoul.
...I cried unto thee, O Lord, I ſaid,
...Thou art my refuge, and my portion
...in the land of the living.
...Attend unto my cry: for I am brought
...very low: deliver me from my perſecu-
...tors: for they are ſtronger then I.
...Bring my ſoul out of priſon, that ...I may praiſe thy Name: the righteous
...ſhall compaſſe me about: for thou ſhalt
...deale bountifully with me.

PSAL. CXLIII.

A Pſalme of David.

...HEare my prayer, O Lord, give eare
...to my ſupplications: in thy faithfulnes
...anſwer me, & in thy righteouſnes.
...And enter not into iudgement with ...thy ſervant: for in thy ſight ſhall no

...For the enemy hath perſecuted my

...the ground, he hath made me to dwel in
...darknes, as thoſe that have been long dead.
...Therefore is my ſpirit overwhelmed within me: my heart within mee
...is deſolate.
...I remember the dayes of old, I meditate on all thy workes: I muſe on the
...worke of thy hands.
...I ſtretch forth my hands to thee:
...my ſoul thirſteth after thee as a thirſtie

...Heare me ſpeedily, O LORD, my ...ſpirit faileth, hide not thy face from
...me: leſt I be like unto them that go ...down into the pit.
...Cauſe me to heare thy loving kindnes in the morning, for in thee doe I
...truſt: cauſe me to know the way wherein I ſhould walk, for I lift up my ſoul
...unto thee.
...Deliver me, O Lord, from mine enemies, I fly unto thee to hide me.
...Teach me to do thy will, for thou
...art my God: thy ſpirit is good: leade me
...into the land of uprightnes.
...Quicken me, O Lord, for thy
...Names ſake; for thy righteouſnes
...ſake bring my ſoul out of trouble.
...And of thy mercy cut off mine enemies: and deſtroy all them that afflict my ſoul: for I am thy ſervant.

PSALE. CXLIV.

A Pſalme of David.

...BLeſſed be the LORD my ſtrength,
...which teacheth my handes to war
...and my fingers to fight.
...My goodnes, and my fortreſſe, my ...high tower, & my deliverer, my ſhield,
...and he in whom I truſt, who ſubdueth
...my people under me.
...Lord, what is man, that thou takeſt
...knowledge of him? or the ſon of man,
...that thou makeſt account of him?
...Man is like to vanitie, his dayes are
...as a ſhadow that paſſeth away.
...Bow thy heavens, O LORD, and ...come down: touch the mountaines
...and they ſhal ſmoke.
...Caſt forth lightning & ſcatter them,
...ſhoot out thy arrows, & deſtroy the.
...Send thine hand from above, take ...me, & deliver me out of great waters,
...from the hand of ſtrange children.
...Who's mouth ſpeaketh vanity: and ...their right hand is a right hand of ...falſhood.
...I will ſing a new ſong unto thee, O
...God: upon a pſaltery, & an inſtrument of ten strings will I sing praises to thee.

10 It is he that giveth salvation vnto kings? who delivereth David his servant from the hurtfull sword.
11 Rid me, and deliver me from the hand of strange children, who'e mouth speaketh vanity: and their right hand is a right hand of falshood.
12 That our sons may be as plants grown up in their youth: that our daughters may be as corner stones, polished after the similitude of a palace.
13 That our garners may be full, affoording all manner of store: that our sheep may bring forth thousands, and ten thousands in our streets.
14 That our oxen may be strong to labour, that there be no breaking in, nor going out: that there be no complaining in our streets.
15 Happy is that people that is in such a case: yea, happy is that people, whose God is the LORD.

PSAL. CXLV.

David's psalme of praise.

I Will extoll thee, my God, O King: and I will blesse thy Name for ever and ever.
2 Every day will I blesse thee: and will praise thy Name for ever & ever.
3 Great is y LORD, & greatly to be praised: & his great nes is unsearchable
4 One generation shall praise thy works to another, and shall declare thy mighty acts.
5 I will speak of the glorious honour of thy Majesty, and of thy wondrous works.
6 And men shall speak of the might of thy terrible acts: and I will declare thy greatnesse.
7 They shall abundantly utter the memory of thy great goodnesse: and shall sing of thy righteousnesse.
8 The LORD is gracious and full of compassion, slow to anger, and of great mercy.
9 The LORD is good to all, and his tender mercies are over all his works.
10 All thy works shal praise thee, O LORD: & thy Saints shal blesse thee.
11 They shall speak of the glory of thy kingdome: and talk of thy power.
12 To make known to the sons of men his mighty acts: and the glorious majestie of his kingdome.
13 Thy kingdome is an everlasting kingdome: and thy dominion endureth throughout all generations.
14 The LORD upholdeth all that fall: & raiseth up all those y be bowed down
15 The eyes of all wait upon thee: & thou giv'est them their meat in due season.
16 Thou openest thine hand, and satisfiest y desire of every living thing.
17 The LORD is righteous in all his ways: and holy in all his works.
18 The LORD is nigh unto all them that call upon him; to all that call upon him in truth.
19 He will fulfill the desire of them that fear him: he all o will hear their cry, and will save them.
20 The LORD preserveth all them that love him: but all the wicked he destroy.
21 My mouth shall speak the praise of the LORD: and let all flesh blesse his holy Name for ever and ever.

PSAL. CXLVI.

PRaise ye the LORD: praise the LORD, O my soul.
2 While I live will I praise the LORD, I will sing praises unto my God, while I have any being.
3 Put not your trust in princes, nor in y son of man, in whom there is no help.
4 His breath goeth forth: he turneth to his earth; in that very day his thoughts perish.
5 Happy is he that hath the God of Jacob for his help; whose hope is in the LORD his God.
6 Which made heaven and earth, the sea, and all that therein is; which keepeth truth for ever.
7 Which executeth judgement for the oppressed, which giveth food to the hungry; the LORD looseth the prisoners.
8 The LORD openeth the eyes of the blinde: the LORD raiseth the y are bowed down: y LORD loveth y righteous.
9 The LORD preserveth y strangers: he relieveth y fatherless & widow: but the way of y wicked he turnes upside down.
10 The LORD shall reign for ever, even thy God, O Zion, unto all generations; praise ye the LORD.

PSAL. CXLVII.

PRaise ye the LORD: for it is good to sing praises to our God; for it is pleasant, and praise is comely.
2 The LORD doth build up Jerusalem; he gathereth together the outcasts of Israel.
3 He healeth the broken in heart, and bindeth up their wounds.
4 He telleth the number of the starres: he calleth them all by their names.
5 Great is our LORD, and of great power; his understanding is infinite.
6 The LORD lifteth up the meek: he casteth the wicked down to y ground.
7 Sing to y LORD with thanksgiving: sing praise upon the harp to our God.
8 Who covereth the heaven with clouds, who prepareth rain for the earth; who maketh grass to grow on y mountains.
9 He giveth to the beast his food, and to the young ravens which cry.
10 He delighteth not in the strength of the horse; he taketh not pleasure in the legs of a man.
11 The LORD taketh pleasure in them that fear him, in those that hope in his mercy.
12 Praise the LORD, O Jerusalem: praise thy God, O Zion.
13 For he hath strengthened the bars of thy gates; he hath blessed thy children within thee.
14 He maketh peace in thy borders, & filleth thee with the finest of y wheat.
15 He sendeth forth his commandment on earth: his word runneth very swiftly.

PSAL. CXLIX.

PRaise ye the LORD: sing unto the LORD a new song: and his praise in the congregation of Saints.

2 Let Israel rejoice in him that made him: let the children of Zion be joyful in their King.

3 Let them praise his Name in the dance: let them sing praises unto him with the timbrell and harp.

4 For the LORD taketh pleasure in his people: he will beautifie the meek with salvation.

5 Let the Saints be joyfull in glory: let them sing aloud upon their beds.

6 Let the high praises of God be in their mouth: and a two edged sword in their hand:

7 To execute vengeance upon the heathen: and punishments upon y people.

8 To bind their kings with chains: and their nobles with fetters of iron.

9 To execute upon them, the iudgement written: This honour have all his Saints. Praise ye the LORD.

PSAL. CL.

PRaise ye the LORD. Praise God in his Sanctuary: praise him in the firmament of his power.

2 Praise him for his mighty acts: praise him according to his excellent greatnesse.

3 Praise him with the sound of y trumpet: praise him with y psaltery & harp.

4 Praise him with the timbrel and dance: praise him with stringed instruments and Organs.

5 Praise him upon the loud cymbals: praise him upon the hie sounding cymbals.

6 Let every thing that hath breath: praise the LORD. Praise ye the LORD.

The PROVERBS.

CHAP. I.

THe proverbs of Solomon, the son of David, king of Israel.

2 To know wisedome and instruction, to perceive the words of understanding.

3 To receive instruction of wisedome, and iudgement, & equity.

4 To give subtilty to y simple, to the man knowledge & discretion.

5 A wise man will hear, and will increase learning: and a man of understanding shall attain to wise counsels.

6 To understand a proverb, and the interpretation: the words of the wise, and their darke sayings.

7 The fear of the LORD is the beginning of knowledge: but fools despise wisedome and instruction.

8 My sonne, hear the instruction of thy father, and forsake not the law of thy mother.

9 For they shall be an ornament of grace unto thine head, & chains about thy neck.

10 My sonne, if sinners entice thee, consent thou not.

11 If they say, Come with us, let us lay wait for blood, let us lurk privily for the innocent without cause:

12 Let us swallow them up alive, as the grave, and whole, as those that go down into the pit.

13 We shal find all precious substance, we shall fill our houses with spoil:

14 Cast in thy lot among us, let us all have one purse.

15 My son, walk not thou in the way with them: refrain thy foot from their path:

16 For their feet run to evill, and make haste to shed blood.

17 Surely in vain the net is spread in the sight of any bird.

18 And they lay wait for their own blood: they lurk privily for their own lives.

19 So are the wayes of every one that is greedy of gain: which taketh away the life of the owners thereof.

20 Wisedom cryeth without, she uttereth her voyce in the streets:
21 She cryeth in y chief place of concourse, in the openings of the gates: in the city she uttereth her words, saying 22 How long, ye simple ones, will ye love simplicity? and the scorners delight in their scorning, and fooles hate knowledge?
23 Turn you at my reproof: behold, I will powre out my spirit unto you, I will make known my words to you.
24 Because I have called, and ye refused, I have stretched out my hand, and no man regarded;
25 But ye have set at nought all my counsell, and would none of my reproofe.
26 I also will laugh at your calamity, I will mock when your fear commeth, 27 When your feare commeth as desolation, and your destruction cometh as a whirlewind: when distresse and anguish commeth upon you.
28 Then shall they call upon me, but I will not answer; they shall seek me early, but they shall not find me.
29 For that they hated knowledge, & did not chuse the feare of the Lord.
30 They would none of my counsell: they despised all my reproofe.
31 Therefore shall they eat of the fruit of their own way, and be filled with their own devices.
32 For the turning away of the simple shall slay them, and the prosperity of fools shall destroy them.
33 But whoso hearkeneth unto me, shall dwell safely, and shall be quiet from feare of evill.

CHAP. II.

MY sonne, if thou wilt receive my words, and hide my commandements with thee;
2 So that thou encline thine eare unto wisedome, and apply thine heart to understanding:
3 Yea, if y criest after knowledge, & lift up thy voyce for understanding:
4 If thou seekest her as silver, and searchest for her as for hid treasures:
5 Then shalt y understand y feare of the Lord, & find y knowledge of God.
6 For the LORD giveth wisedome: out of his mouth commeth knowledge and understanding.
7 He layeth up sound wisedome for the righteous: he is a buckler to them that walke uprightly.
8 He keepeth the path of judgement, and preserveth the way of his Saints.
9 Then shalt thou understand righteousnesse, and judgement, and equity; yea every good path.
10 When wisedom entreth into thine heart, and knowledge is pleasant unto thy soul,
11 Discretion shall preserve thee, understanding shall keep thee:
12 To deliver thee from the way of the evil man, from the man that speaketh froward things.
13 Who leave the paths of uprightnes to walk in the wayes of darknes:
14 Who rejoyce to doe evill, and delight in the frowardnesse of the wicked:
15 Whose wayes are crooked, and they froward in their paths.
16 To deliver thee from y strange woman, even from the stranger which flattereth with her words.
17 Which forsaketh the guide of her youth, and forgetteth the covenant of her God.
18 For her house enclineth unto death, and her paths unto the dead.
19 None y go to her return again, neither take they hold of y paths of life.
20 That thou mayest walke in the way of good men, and keepe the paths of the righteous.
21 For the upright shall dwell in the land, & the perfect shall remain in it.
22 But the wicked shall be cut off from the earth, and the transgressours shall be rooted out of it.

CHAP. III.

MY sonne, forget not my law, but let thy heart keep my commandements:
2 For length of dayes, and long life, and peace shall they adde to thee.
3 Let not mercy and truth forsake thee, bind them about thy neck, write them upon the table of thine heart.
4 So shalt y finde favour, & good understanding in y sight of God, & man.
5 Trust in the LORD with all thine heart: and lean not unto thine own understanding.
6 In all thy wayes acknowledge him, and he shal direct thy paths.
7 Be not wise in thine own eyes: feare the LORD, and depart from evill.
8 It shal be health to thy navel, & marrow to thy bones.
9 Honour y LORD with thy substance, and with the first fruits of all thine increase:
10 So shal thy barns be filled with plenty, and thy presses shal burst out with new wine.
11 My sonne, despise not the chastening of the LORD, neither be weary of his correction.
12 For whom the LORD loveth he correcteth, even as a father the sonne in whom he delighteth.
13 Happy is the man y findeth wisedome, and y man that getteth understanding.
14 For the merchandise of it is better than the merchandise of silver, and the gain thereof than fine gold.
15 She is more precious than rubies: and all the things thou canst desire, are not to be compared unto her.
16 Length of dayes is in her right hand: and in her left hand riches and honour.
17 Her wayes are wayes of pleasantnesse, and all her paths are peace.
18 She is a tree of life to them that lay hold upon her: and happy is every one that retaineth her.
19 The LORD by wisedome hath founded the earth; by understand-

…ished the heauens.

…thou liest down, thou shalt

…the desolation of the wicked,

…not vnto thy neighbour, Go,

…not thou the oppressour, &

…froward is abomination to

…of the wicked: but he blesseth the …habitation of the iust.
…surely he scorneth the scorners:
…giueth grace unto the lowly.
…the wise shall inherite glory, but
…shall bethe promotion of fools.

CHAP. IIII.

…ye children, the instruction

…standing.
…I giue you good doctrine:
…you not my law.
…I was my fathers son, tender, &
…beloued in y sight of my mother.
…taught me also, and said to me,

…commandements and liue.
…get wisedome, get vnderstanding,

…wisdome is the principal thing;

…her and she shal promote thee:
…shal bring thee to honour, when
…dost embrace her.
…she shall giue to thine head an …ornament of grace, a crowne of glory
…she deliuer to thee.
…heare, O my son, and receiue my
…sayings: and the yeers of thy life shal
…many.
…I haue taught thee in the way of
…wisedome: I haue led thee in right paths.
12 When thou goest, thy steps shal not be straitened, and when thou runnest, thou shalt not stumble.
13 Take fast hold of instruction, let her not go; keep her, for she is thy life.
14 Enter not into the path of y wicked, and go not in y way of euil men.
15 Auoide it, pass not by it, turne from it, and passe away.
16 For they sleep not except they have done mischiefe, and their sleep is taken away vnlesse they cause some to fal.
17 For they eat the bread of wickednes, and drinke the wine of violence.
18 But the path of the iust is as the shining light, that shineth more and more vnto the perfect day.
19 The way of y wicked is as darkness:
they know not at what they stumble.
20 My son, attend to my words, incline thine eare vnto my sayings.
21 Let them not depart from thy eyes,
keep them in the midst of thine heart.
22 For they are life vnto those that finde them, & health to al their flesh.
23 Keep thy heart with al diligence:
for out of it are the issues of life.
24 Put away frō thee a froward mouth and peruerse lips put far from thee.
25 Let thine eyes look right on, & let thy eye-lids look straight before thee.
26 Ponder the path of thy feet, and let al thy waies be established.
27 Turn not to the right hand, nor to the left; remoue thy foot from euil.

CHAP. V.

My son, attend to my wisedome, and bow thy ear to my understanding.
2 That thou mayest regard discretiō,
& that thy lips may keep knowledge.
3 For the lips of a strange woman drop as an hony combe, and her mouth is smoother then oyle.
4 But her end is bitter as wormwood, sharpe as a two edged sword.
5 Her feet go down to death: her steps take hold on hel.
6 Lest thou shouldst ponder the path of life: her waies are moouable, that thou canst not know them.
7 Heare me now therefore, O ye children, and depart not from the words of my mouth.
8 Remoue thy way far from her, and come not nigh the dore of her house:
9 Lest thou giue thine honour vnto others, and thy yeers vnto the cruell:
10 Lest strangers bee filled with thy wealth, and thy labours be in the house of a stranger.
11 And thou mourne at the last, when thy flesh and thy body are consumed, 12 And say, How have I hated instruction, and my heart despised reproof?
13 And have not obeyed the voyce of my teachers, nor inclined mine eare to them that instructed me?
14 I was almost in al euil, in the midst of y congregation & assembly.
15 Drinke waters out of thine owne cisterne, and running waters out of thy owne well.

16 Let thy fountaines be disperſed abroad, & rivers of waters in y ſtreets.
17 Let them be onely thine owne, and not ſtrangers with thee.
18 Let thy fonntaine be bleſſed, and rejoyce with the wife of thy youth.
19 Let her be as the loving hinde, and pleaſant Roe, let her breaſts ſatisfie thee at all times, and be thou ravished always with her love.
20 And why wilt thou, my ſon, be ravished with a ſtrange woman, and embrace the boſome of a ſtranger?
21 For the wayes of man are before the eyes of the LORD: and he pondereth all his goings.
22 His owne iniquities ſhal take the wicked himſelfe, and he ſhal be holden with the coards of his ſinnes.
23 He ſhal die without inſtruction, and in the greatneſſe of his folly, he ſhal go aſtray.

CHAP. VI.

MY ſon, if thou be ſurety for thy friend, if thou haſt ſtricken they hand with a ſtranger.
2 Thou art ſnared with the words of thy mouth, thou art taken with the words of thy mouth.
3 Doe thus now, my ſon, and deliver thy ſelfe, when thou art come into the hand of thy friend: go, humble thy ſelfe, and make ſure thy friend.
4 Give not ſleep to thine eyes, nor ſlumber to thine eye-lids.
5 Deliver thy ſelfe as a Roe from the hand of the hunter, and as a birde from the hand of the fowler.
6 Goe to the Ant thou ſluggard, conſider her wayes, and be wiſe.
7 Which having no guide, overſeer, or ruler,
8 Provideth her meat in y Summer, and gathereth her food in the harveſt.
9 How long wilt y ſleep, O ſluggard? when wilt thou ariſe out of thy ſleep.
10 Yet a little ſleep, a little ſlumber, a little folding of the hands to ſleep.
11 So ſhal thy poverty come as one y trauailes, & thy want as an armed man.
12 A naughtie perſon, a wicked man walketh with a froward mouth.
13 He winketh w his eyes, he ſpeaketh with his feet, he teacheth w his fingers
14 Frowardnes is in his heart, he deviſeth miſchiefe continually, he ſoweth diſcord.
15 Therefore ſhal his calamity come ſuddenly, ſuddenly ſhal he be broken without remedy.
16 Theſe ſix things doth the LORD hate; yea, ſeven are an abomination unto him?
17 A Froude looke, a lying tongue, hands that ſhed innocent blood.
18 An heart that deuiſeth wicked imaginations, feet that be ſwift in running to miſchiefe.
19 A falſe witneſſe that ſpeaketh lies, & him y ſoweth diſcord among brethren.
20 My ſon, keepe thy fathers commandement, and forſake not the Law of thy mother.
21 Binde them continually upon thy heart, and tie them about thy neck.
22 When thou goeſt, it ſhal lead thee: when y ſleepeſt, it ſhal keepe thee: and when y awakeſt, it ſhal talk with thee.
23 For the Commandement is a lampe, and the Law is light: and reproofes of inſtruction are the way of life.
24 To keepe thee from the euil man, from the flattery of the tongue of a ſtrange woman.
25 Luſt not after her beauty in thine heart; neither let her take thee with her eye-lids.
26 For by meanes of a whorish woman, a man is brought to a piece of bread, and the adultereſſe will hunt for the Precious life.
27 Can a man take fire in his boſome, and his clothes not be burnt?
28 Can one goe upon hot coales, and his feet not be burnt?
29 So he that goeth in to his neighbours wife: whoſoever toucheth her ſhal not be innocent.
30 Men do not deſpiſe a theefe, if he ſteale to ſatisfie his ſoule, when he is hungry.
31 But if he be found, he ſhal reſtore ſeven fold, hee ſhall give all the ſubſtance of his houſe.
32 But who ſo committeth adultery with a woman, lacketh underſtanding: he that doth it, deſtroyeth his owne ſoule.
33 A wound & diſhonour ſhal he get, & his reproach ſhal not be wiped away.
34 For iealouſie is the rage of a man, therefore he will not ſpare in the day of vengeance.
35 He will not regard any ranſome, neither will he reſt content, though thou giveſt many gifts.

CHAP. VII.

MY ſon, keep my words, and lay up my commandements with thee.
2 Keep my commandments, and liue, and my Law as the apple of thine eye.
3 Binde them upon thy fingers, write them upon the table of thine heart.
4 Say to wiſdome, Thou art my ſiſter, & call underſtanding thy kinſwoman.
5 That they may keep thee from the ſtrange woman, from the ſtranger which flattereth with her words.
6 For at the window of my houſe I looked through my caſement,
7 And beheld among the ſimple ones, I diſcerned among the youths, a young man void of underſtanding,
8 Paſſing through the ſtreet neere her corner, and he went the way to her houſe.
9 In the twilight, in the evening, in the blacke and darke night.
10 And behold, there met him a woman, with the attire of an harlot, and ſubtil of heart.
11 (She is loud and ſtubborn) her feet abide not in her houſe.
12 Now is ſhe without, now in the ſtreets, & lieth in wait at every corner.
13 So ſhe caught him, & kiſſed him,

...I payed my vowes.

...The feare of the LORD is to hate ...
...wicked, pride and arrogancie, and the evil way, and the froward mouth do I hate.
14 Counsel is mine, & sound wisdome: I am understanding, I have strength.
15 By me kings reigne, and Princes decree justice.
16 By me Princes rule, and nobles: even all the Iudges of the earth.
17 I love them that love me, & those that seeke me early, shal finde me.
18 Riches and honour are with me, yea, durable riches and righteousnesse.
19 My fruit is better then gold, yea, then fine gold, and my revenue then choice silver.
20 I lead in the way of righteousnesse, in the midst of y pathes of Iudgment.
21 That I may cause those that love me to inherite substance: and I wil fil their treasures.
22 The LORD possessed me in the beginning of his way, before his workes of old.
23 I was set up from everlasting, from the beginning, or ever the earth was.
24 When there were no depths, I was brought foorth, when there were no fountaines abounding with water.
25 Before the mountains were setled, before the hils, was I brought foorth:
26 While as yet he had not made the earth, nor the fields, nor the highest part of the dust of the world.
27 When he prepared the heavens, I was there, when he set a compasse upon the face of the depth:
28 When he established the clouds above: when he strengthened the fountains of the deep.
29 When he gave to the sea his decree, that the waters should not pass his commandement: when he appointed the foundations of the earth.
30 Then I was by him, as one brought up with him: and I was daily his delight, rejoycing alwayes before him.
31 Rejoycing in the habitable part of his earth: and my delights were with the sons of men.
32 Now therefore hearken unto me, O ye children: for blessed are they that keepe my wayes.
33 Heare instruction, and be wise, and refuse it not.
34 Blessed is the man that heareth me, watching daily at my gates, waiting at the posts of my doores.
35 For who so findeth me, findeth life, and shal obtaine favour of y LORD.
36 But he that sinneth against me, wrongeth his own soule: al they that hate me, love death.

CHAP. IX.

Wisdom hath builded her house: she hath hewen out her seven pillars.
2 She hath killed her beasts: she hath mingled her wine: she hath also furnished her table.
3 She hath sent forth her maidens, she cryeth upon y highest places of y city.
4 Who so is simple, let him turn in hither: as for him that wanteth understanding, she saith to him.

5 Come,

5 Come, eate of my bread, and drink of the wine which I have mingled.
6 Forsake the foolish, and live; and goe in the way of understanding.
7 He that reproveth a scorner, getteth to himselfe shame: and he y rebuketh a wicked man, getteth himselfe a blot.
8 Reproove not a scorner, lest he hate thee: rebuke a wise man, and he will love thee.
9 Give instruction to a wise man, and he will be yet wiser: teach a just man, and he will increase in learning.
10 The feare of the LORD is the beginning of wisedome: and the knowledge of the holy, is understanding.
11 For by me thy dayes shall be multiplied: and the yeers of thy life shall be increased.
12 If thou be wise thou shalt be wise for thy selfe: but if thou corneſt, thou alone shalt beare it.
13 A foolish woman is clamorous: she is simple, and knoweth nothing.
14 For she sitteth at y door of her house on a seat in y high places of y city:
15 To call passengers who go right on their wayes:
16 Who so is simple, let him turn in hither: and as for him that wanteth understanding, she saith to him.
17 Stolen waters are sweet: and bread eaten in secret is pleasant.
18 But he knoweth not that the dead are there, and that her guests are in the depths of hell.

CHAP. X.

THe proverbs of Solomon: A wise sonmaketh a glad father: but a foolish son is y heavineſſe of his mother.
2 Treasures of wickednes profit nothing: but righteousnes deliverеth from death.
3 The LORD will not suffer y soule of the righteous to famish: but he casteth away the substance of the wicked.
4 He becommeth poore, that dealeth with a slacke hand: but the hand of the diligent maketh rich.
5 He that gatheteth in Summer, is a wise son: but he that sleepeth in harvest, is a son that causeth shame.
6 Blessings are upon the head of the just: but violente covereth the mouth of the wicked.
7 The memory of the just is blessed, but the name of the wicked shall rot.
8 The wise in heart will receive commandements: but a prating foole shal fall.
9 He that walketh uprightly, walketh surely: but he that perverteth his wayes shal be known.
10 He that winketh with y eye, causeth sorrow: but a prating foole shall fall.
11 The mouth of a righteous man is a wel of life: but violence covereth the mouth of the wicked.
12 Hatred stirreth up strifes: but love covereth all sins.
13 In the lips of him that hath understanding, wisedome is found: but a rod is for the back of him that is void of understanding.
14 Wise men lay up knowledge: but the mouth of y foolish is neer destruction.
15 The rich mans wealth is his strong city, the destruction of the poore is their poverty.
16 The labour of y righteous tendeth to life: the fruit of the wicked to sinne.
17 He is in the way of life that heareth instruction: but he that refuseth reproofe erreth.
18 He y hideth hatred with lying lips, and he that uttereth a slander is a fool.
19 In the multitude of words there wanteth not sinne: but he that refraineth his lips is wise.
20 The tongue of the just is as choice silver: the heart of the wicked is little worth.
21 The lips of y righteous feed many: but fooles die for want of wisdome.
22 The blessing of y LORD it maketh rich, and he addeth no sorrow with it.
23 It is as a sport to a foole to doe mischief: but a man of understanding hath wisedome.
24 The feare of the wicked, it shall come upon him: but the desire of the righteous shall be granted.
25 As the whirlewind passeth, so is the wicked no more: but the righteous is an everlasting foundation.
26 As vineger to the teeth, and as smoke to the eyes, so is the sluggard to them that send him.
27 The feare of the LORD prolongeth dayes: but the yeeres of the wicked shall be shortened.
28 The hope of the righteous shall be gladnesse: but the expectation of the wicked shal perish.
29 The way of the LORD is strength to the upright: but destruction shall be to the workers of iniquity.
30 The righteous shal never be removed: but the wicked shal not inhabit the earth.
31 The mouth of the just bringeth forth wisedome: but the froward tongue shall be cut out.
32 The lips of the righteous know what is acceptable: but the mouth of the wicked speaketh froward things.

CHAP. XI.

A False ballance is abomination to the LORD: but a just weight is his delight.
2 When pride cometh, then cometh shame: but with the lowly is wisdome.
3 The integrity of y upright shall guide them: but the perverseness of transgressours shall destroy them.
4 Riches profit not in the day of wrath: but righteousnesse deliverеth from death.
5 The righteousnesse of the perfect shal direct his way: but the wicked shal fall by his own wickednesse.
6 The righteousnesse of the upright shall deliver them: but transgressours shal be taken in their own naughtinesse.
7 When a wicked man dieth, his expectation shall perish: and the hope of men perisheth.

9 The righteous is delivered out of trouble, and the wicked commeth in his stead.
10 A citie with his mouth de-stroyeth his neighbour: but through the knowledge shall the iust be delivered.
11 By the blessing of the vpright a citie is exalted: but it is ouer-throwen by the mouth of the wicked.
12 He that is void of wisedome, despiseth his neighbour: but a man of vnderstanding holdeth his peace.
13 A tale-bearer reuealeth secretes, but he that is of a faithfull spirit, con-celeth the matter.
14 Where no counsel is, the people fall: but in the multitude of counsellers there is safetie.
15 He that is surety for a stranger, shall smart for it: and he that hateth suretiship, is sure.
16 A gracious woman retaineth honour: and strong men reteine riches.
17 The merciful man doeth good to his owne soule: but he that is cruell, troubleth his own flesh.
18 The wicked worketh a deceitfull worke: but to him that soweth righ-teousnes, shall be a sure reward.
19 As righteousnes tendeth to life: so he that pursueth euil, pursueth it to his owne death.
20 They that are of a froward heart, are abomination to the LORD: but such as walke right in their way, are his delight.
21 Though hand ioyne in hand, the wicked shall not be unpunished: but the seed of the righteous shall be deliuered.
22 As a iewel of gold in a swines snout: so is a faire woman which is without discretion.
23 The desire of the righteous is one-ly good: but the expectation of the wicked is wrath.
24 There is that scattereth, and yet increaseth: & there is that withholdeth more than is meet: but it tendeth to poouerty.
25 The liberal soule shall be made fat: and he that watereth, shall be watered also himselfe.
26 He that withholdeth corne, the people shall curse him: but blessing shall be vpon the head of him that selleth it.
27 He that diligently seeketh good, procureth fauour: but he that seeketh mischiefe, it shall come vnto him.
28 He that trusteth in his riches shall fall: but the righteous shall flourish as a branch.
29 He that troubleth his own house, shall inherite the wind: and the foole shall be seruant to the wise of heart.
30 The fruit of y righteous is a tree of life: and he that winneth soules, is wise.
31 Behold, the righteous shall be recompensed in the earth: much more the wicked and the sinner.

CHAP. XII.

WHoso loueth instruction, loueth knowledge: but he that hateth re-proofe, is brutish.
2 A good man obtaineth fauour of the LORD: but a man of wicked deui-ces will he condemne.
3 A man shal not be established by wickednesse: but the roote of the righteous shal not be moued.
4 A vertuous woman is a crowne to her husband: but she that maketh ashamed, is as rottennesse in his bones.
5 The thoughts of the righteous are right, but the counsels of the wicked are deceit.
6 The words of the wicked are to lie in wait for blood: but the mouth of the vpright shal deliuer them.
7 The wicked are ouerthrowen, and are not: but the house of the righteous shall stand.
8 A man shal be commended according to his wisedome: but he that is of a perverse heart, shal be despised.
9 He that is despised and hath a servant, is better then he that honoureth himself, and lacketh bread.
10 A righteous man regardeth the life of his beast: but the tender mercies of the wicked are cruell.
11 He y tilleth his land, shall be satisfied with bread: but he that followeth vaine persons, is void of vnderstanding.
12 The wicked desireth the net of evil men: but the root of the righteous yeeldeth fruit.
13 The wicked is snared by the transgression of his lips: but the iust shall come out of trouble.
14 A man shal be satisfied with good by y fruit of his mouth: and y recompense of a mans hands shal be rendred to him.
15 The way of a fool is right in his own eyes: but he that harkeneth vnto counsel, is wise.
16 A foole's wrath is presently known:
but a prudent man covereth shame.
17 He y speaketh truth, sheweth forth righteousnes: but a false witnes, deceit.
18 There is that speaketh like the piercings of a sword: but the tongue of the wise is health.
19 The lip of truth shal be established for ever: but a lying tongue is but for a moment.
20 Deceit is in the heart of them that imagine evil: but to the coun-sellers of peace, is ioy.
21 There shal no evil happen to the just: but the wicked shal be filled with mischefe.
22 Lying lips are abomination to the LORD: but they that deale truly, are his delight.
23 A prudent man concealeth knowledge: but the heart of fooles proclai-meth foolishnesse.
24 The hand of the diligent shall beare rule: but the slothfull shal be vnder tribute.
25 Heavinesse in the heart of man ma-maketh it sloop: but a good word maketh it glad.

26 The righteous is more excellent then his neighbour: but the way of the wicked seduceth them.

27 The sloathfull man rosteth not y which he took in hunting: but y substance of a diligent man is precious.

28 In y way of righteousnes is life, and in y path way thereof there is no death.

CHAP. XIII.

A Wise son heareth his fathers instruction; but a scorner heareth not rebuke.

2 A man shal eat good by the fruit of his mouth: but the soule of the transgressors shall eat violence.

3 He that keepeth his mouth, keepeth his life: but he that openeth wide his lips, shall have destruction.

4 The soul of the sluggard desireth, and hath nothing: but the soul of the deligent shall be made fat.

5 A righteous man hateth lying: but a wicked man is loathsome, and commeth to shame.

6 Righteousnesse keepeth him that is upright in the way: but wickednesse overthroweth the sinner.

7 There is y maketh himself rich, yet hath nothing; there is y maketh himself poor, yet hath great riches.

8 The ransom of a mans life are his riches: but the poor heareth not rebuke.

9 The light of y righteous rejoyceth: but y lamp of y wicked shal be put out.

10 Only by pride commeth contention: but w the wal aduised is wisdome.

11 Wealth gotten by vanity shal be diminished: but he that gathereth by labour, shall increase.

12 Hope deferred, maketh the heart sick: but when the desire commeth, it is a tree of life.

13 Whoso despiseth the word, shall be destroyed: but he that feareth the Commandments, shal be rewarded.

14 The Law of the wise is a fountaine of life, to depart frō y snares of death.

15 Good understanding giveth favour: but the way of transgressors is hard.

16 Every prudent man dealeth with knowledge: but a foole layeth open his folly.

17 A wicked messenger falleth into mischiefe: but a faithfull ambassador is health.

18 Poverty and shame shalbe to him that refuseth instruction: but he that regardeth reproofe, shalbe honoured.

19 The desire accomplished is sweet to the soul: but it is an abomination to fooles to depart from evill.

20 He that walketh with wise men, shal be wise but a companion of fools shall be destroyed.

21 Evill persueth sinners, but to the righteous good shall be repayed.

22 A good man leaveth an inheritance to his childrens children: and y wealth of the sinner is laid up for the iust.

23 Much food is in the tillage of the poore: but there is that is destroyed for want of judgement.

24 He that spareth his rod, hateth his sonne: but he that loveth him, chasteneth him betimes.

25 The righteous eateth to the satisfying of his soule: but the belly of the wicked shall want.

CHAP. XIIII.

EVery wise woman buildeth her house: but the foolish plucketh it downe with her hands.

2 He that walketh in his uprightnesse, feareth the LORD: but he that is perverse in his wayes, despiseth him.

3 In the mouth of the foolish is a rod of pride: but the lips of the wise shall preserve them.

4 Where no oxen are, the crib is clean: but much increase is by the strength of the oxe.

5 A faithfull witnesse will not lie: but a false witnesse will vtter lies.

6 A scorner seeketh wisdome, and findeth it not: but knowledge is easie vnto him that vnderstandeth.

7 Go from the presence of a foolish man, when thou perceivest not in him the lips of knowledge.

8 The wisedome of the prudent is to understand his way: but the folly of fooles is deceit.

9 Fooles make a mocke at sinne: but among the righteous there is favour.

10 The heart knoweth his own bitternesse, and a stranger doth not intermeddle with his ioy.

11 The house of the wicked shall be overthrowne: but the tabernacle of the vpright shall flourish.

12 There is a way which seemeth right vnto a man: but the end thereof are the wayes of death.

13 Even in laughter the heart is sorrowfull: and the end of that mirth is heavinesse.

14 The backslider in heart shall be filled with his owne waies: and a good man shall be satisfied from himself.

15 The simple beleeveth every word: but the prudent man looketh well to his going.

16 A wise man feareth, and departeth from evill: but the foole rageth, and is confident.

17 He y is soon angry, dealeth foolishly: & a man of wicked devices is hated.

18 The simple inherit folly: but the prudent are crowned w knowledge.

19 The evill bow before the good: & the wicked at the gates of y righteous.

20 The poore is hated even of his owne neighbour: but the rich hath many friends.

21 He that despiseth his neighbour, sinneth, but he that hath mercy on the poore, happy is he.

22 Doe they not erre that devise evill? but mercy and truth shall be to them that devise good.

correction is grievous unto him that scorner loveth not one that reproo

A merry heart maketh a cheerful countenance: but by sorrow of the heart the spirit is broken.
The heart of him that hath unseeketh knowledge: but the of fools feedeth on foolishness.
All the dayes of the afflicted are evil: but he that is of a merry heart hath a continual feast.
16 Better is little with the feare of the LORD, then great treasure, and trouble therewith.
17 Better is a dinner of herbs where love is, then a stalled oxe, and hatred therewith.
18 A wrathfull man stirreth up strife: but he that is slow to anger, appeaseth strife.
19 The way of the slouthful man is as an hedge of thornes: but the way of the righteous is made plaine.
20 A wise son maketh a glad father:
but a foolish man despiseth his mother.
21 Folly is joy to him that is destitute of wisedome, but a man of understanding walketh uprightly.
22 Without counsel, purposes are disappointed: but in the multitude of counsellers, they are established.
23 A man hath joy by the answere of his mouth: & a word spoken in due season, how good is it?
24 The way of life is above to the wise, that he may depart from hel beneath.
25 The Lord will destroy the house of the proud, but hee will establish the border of the widow.
26 The thoughts of the wicked are an abomination to the Lord: but the words of the pure, are pleasant words.
27 He that is greedy of gain, troubleth his owne house: but he that hateth gifts, shall live.
28 The heart of the righteous studieth to answer: but the mouth of the wicked powreth out evil things.
29 The Lord is far from the wicked: but he heareth y prayer of y righteous.
30 The light of the eyes rejoyceth the heart: and a good report maketh the bones fat.
31 The eare that heareth the reproofe of life, abideth among the wise.
32 He that refuseth instruction, despiseth his own soul: but he that heareth reproofe getteth understanding.
33 The feare of the LORD is the instruct on of wisedome, and before honour is humility.

CHAP. XVI.

The preparations of y heart in man, and the answer of the tongue, is from the LORD.
2 All the wayes of man are clean in his owne eyes: but the LORD weigheth the spirits.
3 Commit thy workes to the LORD, & thy thought shall be established.
4 The LORD hath made all things for himselfe: yea, even the wicked for the day of evil.
5 Every one y is proud in heart, is an abomination to y LORD: though hand ioyn in hand, he shal not be unpunished.
6 By mercy and trueth iniquitie is purged: and by the feare of the LORD, men depart from evill.
7 When a mans wayes please y Lord, he maketh even his enemies to be at peace with him.

8 Better is a little with righteousness, then great revenues without right.
9 A mans heart deviseth his way: but the LORD directeth his steps.
10 A divine sentence is in the lips of the King: his mouth transgresseth not in judgement.
11 A just weight and ballance, are the LORDS: all the weights of the bag are his work.
12 It is abomination to kings to commit wickednesse: for the throne is established by righteousnesse.
13 Righteous lips are the delight of kings: & they love him y speakes right.
14 The wrath of a king is as messengers of death: but a wise man will pacifie it.
15 In the light of the kings countenance is life, & his favour is as a cloud of the latter raine.
16 How much better is it to get wisedom, then gold: and to get understanding, rather to be chosen then silver?
17 The high way of the upright, is to depart from evill: he that keepeth his way, preserveth his soul.
18 Pride goeth before destruction: and an haughty spirit before a fall.
19 Better it is to be of an humble spirit with the lowly, then to devide the spoyle with the proud.
20 He that handleth a matter wisely, shall find good: and whoso trusteth in the LORD, happy is he.
21 The wise in heart shalbe called prudent, and the sweetnesse of the lips increaseth learning.
22 Understanding is a wellspring of life unto him that hath it: but the instruction of fooles is folly.
23 The heart of the wise teacheth his mouth, & addeth learning to his lips.
24 Pleasant words are as an hony combe, sweet to the soul, and health to the bones.
25 There is a way that seemeth right unto a man; but the end thereof are the wayes of death.
26 He that labooreth, labooreth for himself: for his mouth craveth it of him.
27 An ungodly man diggeth up evill: & in his lips there is as a burning fire.
28 A froward man soweth strife: & a whisperer separateth chief friends.
29 A violent man enticeth his neighbour, and leadeth him into the way that is not good.
30 He shutteth his eyes to devise froward things: moving his lips he bringeth evill to passe.
31 The hoary head is a crown of glory: if it be found in y way of righteousnes.
32 He that is slow to anger, is better then the mighty: and he that ruleth his spirit, then he that taketh a city.
33 The lot is cast into the lap: but y whole disposing thereof is of the Lord.

CHAP. XVII.

BEtter is a dry morsell, and quietnes therewith, then an house ful of sacrifices with strife.

2 A wise servant shal have rule over y causeth shame: & shal have part of the inheritance among y brethren.
3 The fining pot is for silver, & the furnace for gold: but the LORD tryeth the heart.
4 A wicked doer giveth heed to false lips: and a lyar giveth eare to a naughty tongue.
5 Whoso mocketh the poore, reproacheth his maker: and he that rejoyceth at calamities, shal not be unpunished.
6 Children: children are the crowne of old men: and the glory of children are their fathers.
7 Excellent speech becometh not a fool: much lesse do lying lips a prince.
8 A gift is as a precious stone in the eyes of him that hath it: whithersoever it turneth, it prospereth.
9 He that covereth a transgression, seeketh love: but he that repeateth a matter, separateth very friends.
10 A reproof entreth more into a wise man, then an hundred stripes into a fool.
11 An evil man seeketh only rebellion: therefore a cruell messenger shalbe sent against him.
12 Let a beare robbed of her whelpes meet a man, rather then a fool in his folly.
13 Whoso rewardeth evill for good, evill shall not depart from his house.
14 The beginning of strife is as when one letteth out water: therefore leave off contention before it be medled with.
15 He that justifieth the wicked, and he that condemneth the just: even they both are abomination to the LORD.
16 Wherefore is there a price in the hand of a fool to get wisedom, seeing he hath no heart to it?
17 A friend loveth at all times, and a brother is born for adversity.
18 A man void of understanding, striketh hands, and becommeth surety in the presence of his friend.
19 He loveth transgression, that loveth strife: and he that exalteth his gate, seeketh destruction.
20 He that hath a froward heart, findeth no good, and he that hath a perverse tongue, falleth into mischief.
21 He that begetteth a fool, doeth it to his sorrow: and the father of a foolish man rejoyceth not.
22 A merry heart doeth good like a medicine: but a broken spirit drieth the bones.
23 A wicked man taketh a gift out of the bosome, to pervert the wayes of judgement.
24 Wisedome is before him that hath understanding: but the eyes of a fool are in the ends of the earth.
25 A foolish son is a grief to his father, & bitternes to her that bare him.
26 Also to punish the just is not good: nor to strike Princes for equity.
27 He that hath knowledge, spareth his words: and a man of understanding is of an excellent spirit.

he that anſwereth a matter before he

The ſpirit of a man will ſuſtaine infirmity: but a wounded ſpirit who can bear?
The heart of the prudent getteth edge; and the eare of the wiſe
th knowledge.
A mans gift maketh room for him,
bringeth him before great men.
He that is firſt in his own cauſe, ſeemeth juſt; but his neighbour cometh and ſearcheth him.
The lot cauſeth contentions to ceaſe, & parteth between the mighty.
A brother offended is harder to be won, than a ſtrong city: & their contentions are like the barres of a caſtle.
A mans belly ſhall be ſatisfied with the fruit of his mouth; and with the increaſe of his lips ſhall he be filled.
Death and life are in the power of the tongue; and they that love it, ſhall eate the fruit thereof.

The poor uſeth intreaties, but the rich anſwereth roughly.
A man that hath friends muſt ſhew that ſticketh cloſer then a brother.

CHAP. XIX.

Better is the poor that walketh in his uprightneſſe, then he that is perverſe in his lips, and is a fool.

2 Alſo, that the ſoule bee without knowledge, it is not good, and he that haſteth with his feet, ſinneth.
3 The foolliſhneſſe of man perver-teth his way: and his heart fretteth a-gainſt the LORD.
4 Wealth maketh many friends: but ſ
poor is ſeparated from his neighbour.
5 A falſe witnes ſhall not be unpuniſhed: and he that ſpeaketh lies, ſhall not eſcape.
6 Many will entreat the favour of the Prince: and every man is a friend to him that giveth gifts.
7 All the brethren of the poor do hate him: how much more do his friends go far from him? he purſueth them w words, yet they are wanting to him.
8 He that getteth wiſedom, loveth his own ſoule: he that keepeth underſtanding, ſhall find good.
9 A falſe witneſſe ſhall not bee unpuniſhed: and he that ſpeaketh lies, ſhall periſh.
10 Delight is not ſeemly for a fool:
much leſſe for a ſervant to have rule over princes.
11 The diſcretion of a man defer-reth his anger: and it is his glory to paſſe over a tranſgreſſion.
12 The kings wrath is as the roaring of a lyon: but his favour is as dew upon the graſſe.
13 A foolliſh ſon is the calamity of his father: and the contentions of a wife are a continuall dropping.
14 Houſe and riches are the inheritance of fathers: and a prudent wife is from the LORD.
15 Slothfulnes caſteth into a deep ſleep, & an idle ſoul ſhal ſuffer hunger.
16 He that keepeth the Commandement, keepeth his own ſoul: but he that deſpiſeth his wayes, ſhall die.
17 He that hath pitie on the poor, lendeth unto the LORD, and y which he hath given, will he pay him again.
18 Chaſten thy ſonne while there is hope, and let not thy ſoul ſpare for his crying.
19 A man of great wrath ſhal ſuffer puniſhment: for if thou deliver him, yet thou muſt do it again.
20 Hear counſel, & receive inſtruction,
y thou mayeſt be wiſe in the latter end.
21 There are many devices in a mans heart; nevertheleſſe, the counſel of the LORD, that ſhall ſtand.
22 The deſire of a man is his kindnes, and a poor man is better then a lyar.
23 The feare of the LORD tendeth to life, & he that hath it, ſhal abide ſatisfied; he ſhall not be viſited with evill.
24 A ſlouthfull man hideth his hand in his boſom, and will not ſo much as bring it to his mouth again.
25 Smite a ſcorner, and the ſimple will beware, and reprove one that hath underſtanding, & he will underſtand knowledge.
26 He that waſteth his father, & chaſeth away his mother, is a ſonne that cauſeth

causeth shame, & bringeth reproach.
27 Ceasse my son to hear the instruction, that causeth to erre from the words of knowledge.
28 An ungodly witnesse scorneth judgement: and the mouth of the wicked devoureth iniquitie.
29 Judgements are prepared for scorners, and stripes for the back of fools.

CHAP. XX.

WIne is a mocker, strong drink is raging: and whosoever is deceived thereby, is not wise.
2 The fear of the king is as the roaring of a lyon: whoso provoketh him to anger, sinneth against his own soul.
3 It is an honour for a man to cease from strife: but every foole will be medling.
4 The sluggard will not plow by reason of the cold; therefore shall he begge in harvest, and have nothing.
5 Counsell in the heart of man is like deep water: but a man of understanding will draw it out.
6 Most men will proclaime every one his own goodnesse: but a faithful man who can find?
7 The just man walketh in his integrity: his children are blessed after him.
8 A king that sitteth in the throne of judgement, scattereth away all evill with his eyes.
9 Who can say, I have made my heart cleane, I am pure from my sinne?
10 Diverse weights, and divers measures, both of them are like abomination to the LORD.
11 Even a child is known by his doings, whether his work be pure, and whether it be right.
12 The hearing eare, & the seeing eye: the LORD hath made even both of them.
13 Love not sleep, lest thou come to poverty: open thine eyes, & thou shalt be satisfied with bread.
14 It is nought, it is nought, (saith the buyer:) but when he is gone his way, then he boasteth.
15 There is gold, and a multitude of Rubies: but the lips of knowledge are a precious jewell.
16 Take his garment that is surety for a stranger; and take a pledge of him for a strange woman.
17 Bread of deceit is sweet to a man, but afterwards his mouth shall be filled with gravell.
18 Every purpose is established by counsell, and with good advice make warre.
19 He y goeth about as a tale-bearer, revealeth secrets, therefore meddle not with him that flattereth with his lips.
20 Whoso curseth his father or his mother, his lamp shall be put out in obscure darkenesse.
21 An inheritance may be gotten hastily at the beginning; but the end thereof shall not be blessed.
22 Say not thou, I will recompense evill, but wait on the LORD, and he shall save thee.
23 Diverse weightes are an abomination unto the LORD, and a false balance is not good.
24 Mans goings are of the LORD: how can a man then understand his own way?
25 It is a snare to the man who devoureth that which is holy, and after vowes to make enquiry.
26 A wise king scattereth the wicked, and bringeth the wheele over them.
27 The spirit of man is the candle of the Lord, searching all the inward parts of the belly.
28 Mercy & truth preserve the king, and his throne is upholden by mercy.
29 The glory of young men is their strength: and the beauty of old men is the gray head.
30 The blewnesse of a wound cleanseth away evill: so do stripes the inward parts of the belly.

CHAP. XXI.

THe kings heart is in the hand of the LORD, as the rivers of water: he turneth it whithersoever he will.
2 Every way of a man is right in his own eyes: but the LORD pondereth the hearts.
3 To do justice & judgement is more acceptable to y LORD, then sacrifice.
4 An high look, and a proud heart, and the plowing of the wicked, is sinne.
5 The thoughts of the diligent tend only to plenteousnesse, but of every one that is hastie, onely to want.
6 The getting of treasures by a lying tongue, is a vanity tossed to and fro of them that seek death.
7 The robbery of the wicked shall destroy them, because they refuse to do judgement.
8 The way of man is froward & strange: but as for the pure, his work is right.
9 It is better to dwell in a corner of the house top, then with a brawling woman in a wide house.
10 The soule of the wicked desireth evill, his neighbour findeth no favour in his eyes.
11 When the scorner is punished, the simple is made wise, & when y wise man is instructed, he receiveth knowledge.
12 The righteous man wisely considereth the house of the wicked, how God overthroweth the wicked for their wickednesse.
13 Whoso stoppeth his eares at the cry of the poor, he also shall cry himself, but shall not be heard.
14 A gift in secret pacifieth anger, and a reward in the bosom, strong wrath.
15 It is joy to the just to do judgement: but destruction shall be to the workers of iniquity.
16 The man that wandereth out of the way of understanding, shall remain in the congregation of the dead.
17 He that loveth pleasure, shall be a poor man: hee that loveth wine and oyl, shall not be rich.
18 The wicked shall be a ransom for woman, and the strange wife upright.

2 A wise to dwell in the wil dness with a contentious and angry woman.
3 Such a treasure to be desired, as is the dwelling of the wife whom a man findeth it upright: who followeth after righteousness, mercy, findeth life, righteousness and honour.
4 A man that calleth the city of the Lord, casteth down the strength and confidence thereof.
5 He that keepeth his mouth and his tongue keepeth his soul from troubles.
6 A man that is haughty and scorner is his name, dealeth in proud wrath.
7 The desire of the sloathful killeth him, for his hands refuse to labour.
8 He that soweth greedily all the day long: but the righteous giveth and spareth.
9 The sacrifice of the wicked is a thing: how much more, when he offereth it with a wicked mind?
10 Cast out the scorner, and contention shall go out, yea, strife and reproach shall cease.
11 He that loveth pureness of heart, for the grace of his lips, the king shall be his friend.
12 The eyes of the Lord preserve knowledge, and he overthroweth the words of the transgressour.
13 The slothful man saith, There is a lion without, I shall be slain in the streets.
14 The mouth of the strange woman is a deep pit: he that is abhorred of the Lord, shall fall therein.
15 Foolishness is bound in the heart of a child: but the rod of correction shall drive it farre from him.
16 He that oppresseth the poor to increase his riches, and he that giveth to the rich, shall surely come to want.
17 Bow down thine eare, and hear the words of the wise, and apply thine heart unto my knowledge:
18 For it is a pleasant thing, if thou keepe them within thee, they shall withall be fitted in thy lips.
19 That thy trust may be in the LORD,
I have made knowne to thee this day,
even to thee.
20 Have not I written to thee excellent things in counsels & knowledge, 21 That I might make thee know the certainty of the words of truth: that thou mightest answer the words of truth to them that send unto thee?
22 Rob not the poor, because he is poor:
neither oppresse the afflicted in the gate:
23 For the LORD will plead their cause: and spoile the soule of those that spoiled them.
24 Make no friendship with an angry man: and with a furious man thou shalt not goe:
25 Lest thou learne his wayes, and get a snare to thy soule.
26 Be not thou one of them that strike hands, or of them that are sureties for debts.
27 If thou hast nothing to pay, why should he take away thy bed from under thee?
28 Remoove not the ancient land-marke which thy fathers have set.
29 Seest thou a man diligent in his businesse? he shall stand before Kings, he shall not stand before meane men.

CHAP. XXIII.

When thou sittest to eat with a Ruler, consider diligently what is before thee:
2 And put a knife to thy throat, if thou be a man given to appetite.
3 Be not desirous of his dainties: for they are deceitfull meat.
4 Labour not to be rich: cease from thine owne wisedome.
5 Wilt thou set thine eyes upon that which is not? for riches certainly make themselves wings, they flie away as an eagle toward heaven.
6 Eate thou not the bread of him that hath an evill eye, neither desire thou his dainties:
7 For as he thinketh in his heart, so is he: Eat and drink, saith he to thee, but his heart is not with thee.
8 The morsell which thou hast eaten, shalt vomit up and lose thy sweet words.
9 Speak not in the eares of a fool:
for he will despise the wisedome of thy words.
10 Remoove not the old land-marke:
& enter not into the fields of the fatherless:
11 For their redeemer is mighty, he shall plead their cause with thee.
12 Apply thine heart to instruction,
& thy eares to the words of knowledge.

13 Withhold not correction from the child; for if thou beatest him with the rod, he shall not die.

14 Thou shalt beat him with the rod, and shalt deliver his soule from hell.

15 My son, if thine heart be wise, my heart shall reioyce, even mine.

16 Yea, my reines shall reioyce, when thy lips speake right things.

17 Let not thine heart envy sinners, but be thou in the feare of the LORD all the day long.

18 For surely there is an end, and thine expectation shall not be cut off.

19 Heare thou, my sonne, and be wise, and guide thine heart in the way.

20 Be not amongst wine-bibbers, amongst riotous eaters of flesh.

21 For the drunkard and the glutton shall come to poverty, and drousie-nesse shall cloth a man with ragges.

22 Hearken unto thy father that begat thee, and despise not thy mother when she is old.

23 Buy the trueth, and sell it not, also wisedome, and instruction, and understanding.

24 The father of the righteous shall greatly reioyce, and he that begetteth a wise child shall have ioy of him.

25 Thy father and thy mother shal be glad, & she that bare thee shal reioyce.

26 My sonne, give me thine heart, and let thine eyes obserue my wayes.

27 For an whore is a deepe ditch, and a strange woman is a narrow pit.

28 She also lieth in wait as for a prey, and increaseth the transgressours among men.

29 Who hath woe? who hath sorrow? who hath contentions? who hath bebling? who hath wounds without cause? who hath rednesse of eyes?

30 They that tary long at the wine, they that goe to seeke mixt wine.

31 Look not thou upon the wine when it is red, when it giveth his colour in the cup, when it mooveth it self aright.

32 At the last it biteth like a serpent, and stingeth like an adder.

33 Thine eyes shall behold strange women, and thine heart shall vtter perverse things.

34 Yea, thou shalt be as he that lyeth downe in the midst of the Sea, or as he that lyeth on the top of a mast.

35 They have stricken me, shalt thou say, and I was not sicke: they have beaten me, and I felt it not; when shall I awake? I will seeke it yet againe.

CHAP. XXIIII

BE not thou enuious against euill men, neither desire to be with them.

2 For their heart studieth destruction, and their lips talke of mischiefe.

3 Through wisedome is an house builded, & by understanding it is stablished.

4 And by knowledge shall the chambers be filled with all precious and pleasant riches.

5 A wise man is strong, yea, a man of knowledge increaseth strength.

6 For by wise counsell thou shalt make thy warre: and in multitude of counsellers there is safety.

7 Wisedome is too high for a foole, he openeth not his mouth in the gate.

8 He that deuiseth to doe euill, shall be called a mischievous person.

9 The thought of foolishnesse is sinne, & scorner is an abomination to men.

10 If thou faint in the day of aduersity, thy strength is small.

11 If thou forbeare to deliver them that are drawne vnto death, and those that are ready to be slaine.

12 If ye say, Behold, we knew it not; doth not he y pondereth y hearts consider it? & he y keepeth thy soul, doth not he know it? & shal not he render vnto every man according to his works?

13 My sonne, eat thou hony, because it is good, and the hony combe, which is sweet to thy taste.

14 So shal the knowledge of wisedome be vnto thy soul: when thou hast found it, then there shall be a reward, and thine expectation shal not be cut off.

15 Lay not wait, (O wicked man) against the dwelling of the righteous, spoyl not his resting place.

16 For a iust man falleth seuen times, and riseth vp againe: but the wicked shal fal into mischief.

17 Reioyce not when thine enemy falleth, and let not thine heart be glad when he stumbleth.

18 Lest the LORD see it, and it displease him, & he turne away his wrath from him.

19 Fret not thy selfe because of euill men: neither be thou enuious at the wicked.

20 For there shall be no reward to the euill man, the candle of the wicked shall be put out.

21 My sonne, feare thou the LORD and the King: and meddle not with them that are given to change.

22 For their calamity shall rise suddenly, and who knoweth the ruine of them both.

23 These things also belong to the wise: It is not good to have respect of persons in iudgement.

24 He that saith vnto the wicked, Thou art righteous: him shal the people curse: nations shall abhorre him.

25 But to them that rebuke him shall be delight, and a good blessing shall come upon them.

26 Every man shal kisse his lips, that giveth a right answere.

27 Prepare thy worke without thee, and make it fit for thy selfe in the field: and afterwards build thine house.

28 Be not a witnes against thy neighbour without cause: and deceive not with thy lips.

29 Say not, I will do so to him, as he hath done to me: I will render to the man according to his work.

30 I went by the field of the slouthfull, and by the vineyard of the man void of vnderstanding.

21 If thine enemie bee hungry, give him bread to eat; and if he be thirstie give him water to drinke.

22 For thou shalt heape coales of fire upon his head, and the LORD shall reward thee.

23 The North wind driveth away raine, so doth an angry countenance a backbiting tongue.

24 It is better to dwell in a corner of the house top, then with a brawling woman, and in a wide house.

25 As cold water to a thirstie soul, so is good newes from a farre countrey.

26 A righteous man falling downe before the wicked, it as a troubled fountaine, and a corrupt spring.

27 It is not good to eat much hony; so for men to search their owne glory, is not glory.

28 He that hath no rule over his owne spirit, is like a city that is broken down, and without wals.

CHAP. XXVI.

AS snow in summer, and as raine in harvest; so honour is not seemly for a foole.

2 As the bird by wandring, as the swallow by flying; so the curse causeles shall not come.

3 A whip for the horse, a bridle for the asse, & a rod for the fooles back.

4 Answer not a fool according to his folly, lest thou also be like unto him.

5 Answer a fool according to his folly, lest he be wise in his own conceit.

6 He that sendeth a message by the hand of a foole, cutteth off the feet, and drinketh damnage.

7 The legs of the lame are not equal: so is a parable in the mouth of fooles.

8 As he that bindeth a stone in a sling, so is he that giveth honour to a fool.

9 As a thorne goeth up into the hand of a drunkard, so is a parable in the mouth of fools.

10 The great God that formed all things, both rewardeth the foole, and rewardeth transgressors.

11 As a dog returneth to his vomite, so a foole returneth to his folly.

12 Seest thou a man wise in his own conceit? there is more hope of a foole then of him.

13 The slothfull man saith; There is a Lyon in y way, a Lyon is in y streets.

14 As the doore turneth on his hinges, so doeth the slothfull on his bed.

15 The slothfull hideth his hand in his bosome, it grieveth him to bring it again to his mouth.

16 The sluggard is wiser in his own conceit, then seven men that can render a reason.

17 He that passeth by, and medleth with strife belonging not to him, is like one that taketh a dog by the eares.

18 As a mad man, who casteth firebrands, arrowes and death.

19 So is the man y deceiveth his neighbour, and saith, Am not I in sport?

20 Where no wood is, there the fire

goeth out: so where there is no tale-bearer, the strife ceaseth.

21 As coales are to burning coales, and wood to fire: so is a contentious man to kindle strife.

22 The words of a tale-bearer are as wounds, & they go down into the innermost parts of the belly.

23 Burning lips, and a wicked heart, are like a pot sherd couered with silver dross.

24 He y hateth dissembleth with his lips, and layeth up deceit within him

25 When he speaketh faire, believe him not: for there are seuen abominations in his heart.

26 Whose hatred is couered by deceit, his wickednes shal be shewed before the whole congregation.

27 Who so diggeth a Pit, shal fall therein: and he that rolleth a stone, it will returne vpon him.

28 A lying tongue hateth those that are afflicted by it, and a flattering mouth worketh ruine.

CHAP. XXVII.

BOast not thy selfe of to morrow: for thou knowest not what a day may bring forth.

2 Let another man praise thee, and not thine own mouth, a stranger, and not thine own lips.

3 A stone is heauy, and the sand weighty: but a fools wrath is heauier then them both.

4 Wrath is cruel, & anger is outragious: but who is able to stand before enuy?

5 Open rebuke is better then secret loue.

6 Faithful are the wounds of a friend, but y kisses of an enemy are deceitfull.

7 The full soule loatheth an hony comb: but to the hungry soul, every bitter thing is sweet.

8 As a bird y wandreth from her nest: so is a man y wandreth from his place

9 Ointment and perfume reioyce the heart: so doth the sweetnesse of a mans friend by hearty counsel.

10 Thine own friend and thy fathers friend, forsake not, neither go into thy brothers house in the day of thy calamity: for better is a neighbour that is nere, then a brother farre off.

11 My son, be wise, and make my heart glad, that I may answer to him that reproacheth me.

12 A prudent man foreseeth the evil, and hideth himself: but the simple passe on, and are punished.

13 Take his garment that is surety for a stranger, and take a pledge of him for a strange woman.

14 He that blesseth his friend with a loud voyce rising early in y morning, it shall be counted a curse unto him.

15 A continuall dropping in a very rainy day, and a contentious woman are alike.

16 Whosoeuer hideth her, hideth the winde, and the ointment of his right hand which bewrayeth it selfe.

17 Iron sharpeneth iron: so a man sharpeneth the countenance of his friend.

18 Who so keepeth the figtree, shall eate the fruit thereof: so he that waiteth on his master, shall be honoured.

19 As in water face answereth to face: so the heart of man to man.

20 Hell & destruction are neuer full: so the eyes of man are neuer satisfied.

21 As the fining pot for siluer, & the furnace for gold: so is a man to his praise.

22 Though thou shouldest bray a foole in a morter among wheate with a pestel: yet will not his foolishnes depart from him.

23 Be thou diligent to know y estate of thy flockes, & looke well to thy herds.

24 For riches are not for euer: and doth the crowne endure to euery generation?

25 If he hay appeareth, and the tender grasse sheweth it selfe, and herbes of the mountaines are gathered.

26 The lambes are for thy clothing, and the goats are y price of the field.

27 And y shalt haue goats milke enough for thy food, for y food of thy household, & for y maintenance of thy maidens.

CHAP. XXVIII.

THe wicked flee when no man pursueth: but the righteous are bold as a Lyon.

2 For the transgression of a land many are the Princes thereof: but by a man of vnderstanding & knowledge the state thereof shal be prolonged.

3 A poore man that oppresseth the poore, is like a sweeping raine which leaueth no food.

4 They that forsake the Law, praise the wicked: but such as keep the Law contend with them.

5 Euill men vnderstand not iudgement, but they that seeke the LORD vnderstand all things.

6 Better is the poore y walketh in his uprightnesse, then he y is peruerse in his wayes, though he be rich.

7 Who so keepeth the Law is a wise son, but he that is a companion of riotous men, shameth his father.

8 He that by vsury and vnlawful increase eth his substance, he shal gather it for him that will pitie the poore.

9 He that turneth away his eare from hearing the Law, even his prayer shal be abomination.

10 Who so causeth y righteous to go astray in an euil way, he shal fall himself into his own pit: but the vpright shall haue good things in possession.

11 The rich man is wise in his own conceit: but the poore that hath vnderstanding searcheth him out.

12 When righteous men do reioyce, there is great glory: but when the wicked rise, a man is hidden.

13 He that couereth his sinnes shal not prosper, but whoso confesseth and forsaketh them, shal haue mercy.

14 Happy is the man that feareth al-way:

that pampereth his servant from a child, shall have him become his son at the length.

22 An angry man stirreth up strife, & a furious man aboundeth in transgression.

23 A man's pride shal bring him low: but honour shal uphold the humble in spirit.

24 Whoso is partner with a thief, hateth his own soul: he heareth cursing, and bewrayeth it not.

25 The fear of man bringeth a snare: but who so putteth his trust in the LORD, shal be safe.

26 Many seek the ruler's favour; but every man's judgement commeth from the LORD.

27 An unjust man is an abomination to the just: and he that is upright in the way, is abomination to the wicked.

CHAP. XXX.

1 The words of Agur the son of Jakeh, even the prophecy: The man spake unto Ithiel, even unto Ithiel & Ucal.

2 Surely I am more brutish than any man, and have not the understanding of a man.

3 I neither learned wisdome, nor have the knowledge of the holy.

4 Who hath ascended up into heaven, or descended? who hath gathered the wind in his fists? who hath bound the waters in a garment? who hath established all the ends of the earth? What is his name, and what is his son's name, if thou canst tell?

5 Every word of God is pure: he is a shield unto them that put their trust in him.

6 Adde thou not to his words, lest he reprove thee, and thou be found a lyar.

7 Two things have I required of them, thee, deny me them not before I die.

8 Remove far from me vanity and lies: give me neither poverty nor riches, feed me with food convenient for me.
9 Left I be full and deny thee and say, Who is the LORD? or left I be poor, and steal, and take the Name of my God in vain.
10 Accuse not a servant unto his master: left he curse thee, and thou be found guilty.
11 There is a generation that curseth their father, and doth not bless their mother.
12 There is a generation that are pure in their own eyes, and yet is not washed from their filthinesse.
13 There is a generation, O how lofty are their eyes, and their eye-lids are lifted up.
14 There is a generation whose teeth are as swords, and their jaw teeth as knives, to devour the poor from off the earth, and the needy from among men.
15 The horse-leach hath two daughters, crying, Give, give. There are three things that are never satisfied: yea, four things say not, It is enough.
16 The grave, and the barren womb, the earth that is not filled with water: & the fire that saith not; It is enough.
17 The eye that mocketh at his father, and despiseth to obey his mother: the ravens of the valley shall pick it out, and the young eagles shall eat it.
18 There be three things which are too wonderful for me: yea, four which I know not.
19 The way of an eagle in the air, the way of a serpent upon a rock, the way of a ship in the midst of the sea, and the way of a man with a maid.
20 Such is the way of an adulterous woman; she eateth, & wipeth her mouth, and saith, I have done no wickednesse.
21 For three things the earth is disquieted, and for four, which it cannot bear.
22 For a servant when he reigneth, and a fool when he is filled with meat.
23 For an odious woman when she is married, and an handmaid that is heir to her mistresse.
24 There be four things that are little upon the earth: but they are exceeding wise.
25 The Ants are a people not strong, yet they prepare their meat in the Sumer.
26 The conies are but a feeble folk, yet make they their houses in the rocks.
27 The locusts have no king, yet go they forth all of them by bands.
28 The spider taketh hold with her hands, and is in kings palaces.
29 There be three things which go well, yea, four are comely in going.
30 A Lion which is strongest among beasts, and turneth not away for any.
31 A grey-hound, an hee-goat also, and a king, against whom there is no rising up.
32 If thou hast done foolishly in lifting up thy self, or if thou hast thought evil, lay thine hand upon thy mouth.
33 Surely the churning of milk bringeth forth butter, and the wringing of the nose bringeth forth blood: so the forcing of wrath bringeth forth strife.

CHAP. XXXI.

THe words of king Lemuel, the prophecy that his mother taught him.
2 What, my son? and what, the son of my womb? & what, the son of my vows?
3 Give not thy strength unto women, nor thy ways unto that which destroyeth kings.
4 It is not for kings, O Lemuel, it is not for kings to drink wine, nor for princes strong drink.
5 Left they drink and forget the law, and pervert the judgement of any of the afflicted.
6 Give strong drink unto him that is ready to perish, and wine unto those that be of heavy hearts.
7 Let him drink, and forget his poverty, & remember his misery no more.
8 Open thy mouth for the dumb, in the cause of all such as are appointed to destruction.
9 Open thy mouth, judge righteously, & plead the cause of the poor and needy.
10 Who can find a vertuous woman? for her price is farre above Rubies.
11 The heart of her husband doth safely trust in her, so that he shall have no need of spoile.
12 She will doe him good, and not evil, all the dayes of her life.
13 She seeketh wool and flax, and worketh willingly with her hands.
14 She is like the merchants ships, she bringeth her food from afarre.
15 She also ariseth while it is yet night, & giveth meat to her houshold, and a portion to her maidens.
16 She considereth a field, and buyeth it, with the fruit of her hands she planteth a vineyard.
17 She girdeth her loins with strength, and strengtheneth her arms.
18 She perceiveth that her merchandise is good: her candle goeth not out by night.
19 She layeth her hands to the spindle, & her hands hold the distaff.
20 She stretcheth out her hand to the poore; yea, she reacheth forth her hands to the needy.
21 She is not afraid of the snow for her houshold, for all her houshold are clothed with skarlet.
22 She maketh her self coverings of tapestry, her clothing is silk & purple.
23 Her husband is knowne in the gates, when he sitteth among the elders of the land.
24 She maketh fine linen, & selleth it, & deliverath girdles to the merchant.
25 Strength & honour are her clothing, and she shall rejoyce in time to come.
26 She openeth her mouth with wisdome, and in her tongue is the law of kindnesse.

…l well to the wayes of …and eateth not the bread …

…ny daughters have done ver…tuously, but thou excellest them all.
30 Favour is deceitful, and beauty is vain, but a woman that feareth the LORD, she shal be praised.
31 Give her of the fruit of her hands, and let her own works praise her in the gates.

ECCLESIASTES or the PREACHER.

CHAP. I.

1 THE words of the Preacher, the son of David, king in Jerusalem.
2 Vanity of vanities, saith the preacher, vanity of vanities, all is vanity.
3 What profit hath a man of all his labour which he taketh under the Sun?
4 One generation passeth away, and another generation cometh, but the earth abideth for ever.
5 The Sun also ariseth, and the Sun goeth down, and hasteth to the place where he arose.
6 The wind goeth toward the South, & turneth about unto the North: it whirleth about continually, and the wind returneth again according to his circuits.
7 All the rivers run into the sea, yet the sea is not full; unto the place from whence the rivers come, thither they return again.
8 All things are full of labour, man cannot utter it: the eye is not satisfied with seeing, nor the ear filled with hearing.
9 The thing that hath been, it is that which shall be: and that which is done, is that which shall be done, and there is no new thing under the Sun.
10 Is there any thing whereof it may be said, See, this is new? it hath been already of old time, which was before us.
11 There is no remembrance of former things, neither shall there be any remembrance of things that are to come, with those that shall come after.
12 I the Preacher was king over Israel in Jerusalem.
13 And I gave my heart to seek and search out by wisdome, concerning all things that are done under heaven: this sore travel hath God given to the sons of men, to be exercised therewith.
14 I have seen all the works that are done under the Sun, and behold, all is vanity and vexation of spirit.
15 That which is crooked, cannot be made straight: and that which is wanting, cannot be numbered.
16 I communed with mine own heart, saying, Lo, I am come to great estate, and have gotten more wisdome then all they that have been before me in Jerusalem: yea, my heart had great experience of wisdome and knowledge.
17 And I gave my heart to know wisdome, and to know madnesse and folly: I perceived that this also is vexation of spirit.
18 For in much wisedome is much grief: and he that increaseth knowledge, increaseth sorrow.

CHAP. II.

1 I Said in mine heart, Go to now, I will prove thee with mirth, therefore enjoy pleasure: & behold, this also is vanity.
2 I said of laughter, It is mad; and of mirth, What doeth it?
3 I sought in mine heart to give my flesh unto wine, (yet acquainting mine heart with wisdome) and to lay hold on folly, till I might see what was y good for the sons of men, which they should do under the heaven, all the dayes of their life.
4 I made me great works, I builded me houses, I planted me vineyards.
5 I made me gardens & orchards, & I planted trees in them of all kind of fruits.
6 I made me pools of water, to water therewith the wood that bringeth forth trees:
7 I got me servants & maidens, & had servants born in my house: also I had great possessions of great & small cattel, above all y were in Jerusalem before me.
8 I gathered me also silver and gold, & y peculiar treasure of kings, and of the provinces: I gate me men-singers and women-singers, and the delights of the sons of men, as musical instruments, and that of all sorts.
9 So I was great, and increased more then all that were before me in Jerusalem, also my wisdom remained with me.
10 And whatsoever mine eies desired, I kept not from them: I withheld not my heart from any joy, for my heart rejoyced in all my labour, and this was my portion of all my labour.
11 Then I looked on all the works that my hands had wrought, and on the labour that I had laboured to do, & lo, all was vanity & vexation of spirit, & there was no profit under y Sun.
12 And I returned my self to behold wisdom, and madnesse, and folly, for what can the man do that cometh after the king? even that which hath been already done.
13 Then I saw that wisdome excelleth folly, as far as light excelleth darkness.
14 The wise mans eies are in his head, but the fool walketh in darknesse, and I my self perceived also that one event happeneth to them all.
15 Then said I in my heart, As it happeneth to y fool, so it happeneth even to me, & why was I then more wise? then I said in my heart, y this also is vanity.
16 For there is no remembrance of the wise more then of the fool for ever, seeing that which now is, in the dayes to come shal be forgotten; and how dieth the wise man? as the fool.

17 Therefore I hated life, because the work that is wrought under the Sun is grievous unto me, for all is vanity and vexation of spirit.

18 Yea, I hated all my labour, which I had taken under the Sun: because I should leave it to a man that shall be after me.

19 And who knoweth whether he shall be a wise man or a fool? yet shall he have rule over all my labour, wherein I have laboured, and wherein I have shewed my self wise under the Sun. This is also vanity.

20 Therefore I went about to cause my heart to despaire of all the labour which I took under the Sun.

21 For there is a man whose labour is in wisdome, and in knowledge, and in equitie: yet to a man that hath not laboured therin, shall he leave it for his portion. This also is vanity, and a great evill.

22 For what hath man of all his labour, and of the vexation of his heart wherin he hath laboured under the Sun?

23 For all his dayes are sorrowes, and his travel grief: yea, his heart taketh not rest in the night. This is also vanity.

24 There is nothing better for a man then that he should eat and drink, and that he should make his soule enjoy good in his labour. this also I saw, that it was from the hand of God.

25 For who can eate? or who else can hasten here unto more then I?

26 For God giveth to a man that is good in his sight wisedom, and knowledge, and joy: but to the sinner he giveth travel, to gather & to heap up, that he may give to him that is good before God. This also is vanity and vexation of spirit.

CHAP. III.

TO every thing there is a season, and a time to every purpose under the heaven.

2 A time to be born, and a time to die, a time to plant, & a time to pluck up that which is planted.

3 A time to kil and a time to heale, a time to breake down, and a time to build up.

4 A time to weep, & a time to laugh; a time to mourn, and a time to dance.

5 A time to cast away stones, and a time to gather stones together, a time to embrace, and a time to refraine from embracing.

6 A time to get, and a time to lose, a time to keep, and a time to cast away.

7 A time to rent, and a time to sowe; a time to keepe silence, and a time to speake.

8 A time to love, and a time to hate, a time of war, and a time of peace.

9 What profit hath he that worketh, in that wherein he laboureth?

10 I have seene the travel which God hath given to the sons of men, to be exercised in it.

11 He hath made every thing beautiful in his time: also he hath set the world in their heart, so that no man can find out the work y God maketh from the beginning to the end.

12 I know that there is no good in them, but for a man to rejoyce, and do good in his life.

13 And also that every man should eate and drinke, and enjoy the good of all his labour, it is the gift of God.

14 I know y whatsoever God doeth, it shall be for ever; nothing can be put to it, nor any thing take from it: for God doth it, y men should feare before him.

15 That which hath been is now; and that which is to be, hath already been: & God requireth that which is past.

16 And moreover, I saw under the Sun the place of judgement, that wickednes was there: and the place of righteousness, that iniquity was there.

17 I said in my heart, God shall judge the righteous, & the wicked, for there is a time there for every purpose and for every work.

18 I said in my heart concerning the estate of the sons of men, that God might manifest them, and that they might see y they themselves are but beasts.

19 For that which befalleth the sonnes of me, befalleth beasts, even one thing befalleth them: as y one dieth, so dieth the other; yea, they have all one breath, so that a man hath no preeminence above a beast, for all is vanity.

20 All go unto one place, all are of the dust, and all turne to dust again.

21 Who knoweth the spirit of man, that goeth upward, and the spirit of the beast that goeth down-ward to the earth?

22 Wherefore I perceive that there is nothing better, then that a man should rejoyce in his owne works, for that is his portion, for who shall bring him to see what shall be after him?

CHAP. IIII.

SO I returned, & considered all the oppressions that are done under the Sun, and behold, the teares of such as were oppressed, & they had no comforter: & on y side of their oppressors there was power, but they had no comforter.

2 Wherefore I praised the dead which are already dead, more then the living which are yet alive.

3 Yea, better is he then both they, which hath not yet been, who hath not seene the evil work y is done under the Sun.

4 Again, I considered all travel, and every right worke, that for this a man is envied of his neighbour. this also is vanity and vexation of spirit.

5 The foole foldeth his hands together, and eateth his owne flesh.

6 Better is an handfull with quietnes, then both the hands full with travel and vexation of spirit.

7 Then I returned, and I saw vanity under the Sun.

8 There is one alone, and there is not a second, yea, he hath neither child nor brother, yet is there no end of all his labour, neither is his eye satisfied with riches, neither saith he, for whom do I labour, & bereave my soul of good?

but the abundance of the rich will not suffer him to sleep.

13 There is a sore evil which I have seen under the Sun, namely, riches kept for the owners thereof to their hurt.

14 But those riches perish by evil travel: & he begetteth a son, and there is nothing in his hand.

15 As he came forth of his mother's wombe, naked shall he returne to go as he came, & shall take nothing of his labour, which he may carry away in his hand.

16 And this also is a sore evil, that in all points as he came, so shall he go: and what profit hath hee that hath laboured for the wind?

17 All his dayes also he eateth in darkenes, and hee hath much sorrow and wrath with his sicknes.

18 Behold, that which I have seene, it is good and comely for one to eat & to drinke, and to enjoy the good of all his labour that hee taketh under the Sun, all the daies of his life, which God giveth him, for it is his portion.

19 Every man also to whom God hath given riches and wealth, & hath given him power to eate thereof, and to take his portion, and to rejoyce in his labour, this is the gift of God.

20 For he shal not much remember the dayes of his life: because God answereth him in the ioy of his heart.

CHAP. VI.

THere is an evil which I have seen under the Sun, and it is common among men.

2 A man to whom God hath given riches, wealth, and honour, so that hee wanteth nothing for his soul of all that he desireth, yet God giveth him not power to eat thereof, but a stranger eateth it, this is vanity, & it is an evil sease.

3 If a man begat an hundred children, and live many yeers, so that the dayes of his yeers be many, & his soul be not filled with good, and also that he have no burial, I say, that an untimely birth is better then he.

4 For he commeth in with vanity, & departeth in darkenes, and his name shal be covered with darkenes.

5 Moreover, hee hath not seene the Sun, nor known any thing, this hath more rest then the other.

6 Yea, though he live a thousand yeers twice told, yet hath he seene no good. Do not all go to one place?

7 All y labour of man is for his mouth, and yet the appetite is not filled.

8 For what hath the wise more then the fool? what hath the poore, that knoweth to walke before the living?

9 Better is the sight of the eyes, then the wandring of the desire, this is also vanity, and vexation of spirit.

10 That which hath been, is named already, and it is known that it is man: neither may he contend with him that is mightier then he.

11 Seeing there be many things that increase vanity, what is man y better?

12 For who knoweth what is good for man in this life, all the daies of his vain life, which he spendeth as a shadow? for who can tell a man what shalbe after him under the Sun?

CHAP. VII.

A Good name is better then precious ointment, and the day of death then the day of ones birth.

2 It is better to goe to the house of mourning then to go to the house of feasting: for that is the end of al men, and the living will lay it to his heart.

3 Sorrow is better then laughter, for by the sadnes of the countenance the heart is made better.

4 The heart of the wise is in the house of mourning, but the heart of fools is in the house of mirth.

5 It is better to heare the rebuke of the wise, then for a man to hear the song of fooles.

6 For as the crackling of thornes under a pot, so is the laughter of fooles: this also is vanity.

7 Surely oppression maketh a wise man mad, & a gift destroyeth y heart.

8 Better is the end of a thing, then the beginning thereof, and the patient in spirit is better then the proud in spirit.

9 Be not hatty in thy spirit to be angry, for anger resteth in y bosome of fools.

10 Say not thou, What is the cause that the former daies were better then these? for thou dost not enquire wisely concerning this.

11 Wisedome is good with an inheritance, & by it there is profit to them that see the Sun.

12 For wisdome is a defence, and money is a defence: but the excellency of knowledge is, that wisedome giveth life to them that have it.

13 Consider the worke of God, for who can make that straight which he hath made crooked?

14 In the day of prosperity be joyful but in the day of adversity consider: God also hath set the one over against the other, to the end that man should finde nothing after him.

15 All things have I seen in the daies of my vanity: there is a just man that perisheth in his righteousnes, and there is a wicked man that prolongeth his life in his wickednes.

16 Be not righteous over much, neither make thy selfe over wise, why shouldest thou destroy thy self?

17 Be not over much wicked, neither bee thou foolish, why shouldest thou die before thy time?

18 It is good that thou shouldest take hold of this, yea, also from this withdraw not thy hand: for he that feareth God, shal come forth of them al.

19 Wisedome strengtheneth y wise more then ten mighty men that are in the city.

20 For there is not a just man on earth that doeth good, and sinneth not.

21 Also take no heed to all words y are spoke, lest y hear thy servat curse thee

22 For oftentimes also thine own heart knoweth that thou thy self likewise hast cursed others.

23 All this have I proved by wisedome, I said, I will be wise, but it was far from me.

24 That which is far off, and exceeding deep, who can finde it out?

25 I applyed mine heart to know and to search, and to seeke out wisedome, and the reason of things, and to know the wickednes of folly, even of foolishnesse, and madnes.

26 And I find more bitter then death the woman whose heart is snares and nets, and her hands as bands: whoso pleaseth God, shal escape from her, but the sinner shal be taken by her.

27 Behold, this have I found (saith the Preacher) counting one by one, to finde out the account.

28 Which yet my soul seeketh, but I find not: one man among a thousand have I found, but a woman among all those have I not found.

29 Lo, this only have I found, that God hath made man upright, but they have sought out many inventions.

CHAP. VIII.

WHo is as the wise man? and who knoweth the interpretation of a thing? a mans wisedome maketh his face to shine, and the boldnesse of his face shal be changed.

2 I counsel thee to keep the kings commandement, and that in regard of the oath of God.

3 Bee not hasty to go out of his sight, stand not in an evil thing, for he doeth whatsoever pleaseth him.

4 Where the word of a king is, there is power, and who may say unto him, What doest thou?

5 Who so keepeth the commandement shal feele no evil thing: and a wise mans heart discerneth both time and judgement.

6 Because to every purpose there is time and judgement, therefore the misery of man is great upon him.

7 For he knoweth not that which shal bee: for who can tell him when it shall bee?

8 There is no man that hath power over the spirit to retaine the spirit, neither hath hee power in the day of death: and there is no discharge in that war, neither shall wickednes deliver those that are given to it.

9 All this have I seen, and applyed mine heart unto every work that is done under y Sun, there is a time when one man rules over another to his own hurt.

10 And so I saw the wicked buried, who had come & gone from the place of the Holy, and they were forgotten in the city, where they had so done: this is also vanity.

11 Because sentence against an evil work is not executed speedily, therefore the heart of the sons of men is fully set in them to do evil.

12 Though

Eccl. your worke.
9 Liue ioyfully with the wife whom thou louest all the dayes of the life of thy vanitie, which he hath giuen thee vnder the Sunne, all thy dayes of vanitie: for that is thy portion in this life, and in thy labour which thou takeſt vnder the Sunne.
10 Whatſoeuer thy hand findeth to do, do it with thy might: for there is no worke nor deuice, nor knowledge, nor wiſdome in the graue, whither thou goeſt.
11 I returned, and ſaw vnder the Sunne, that the race is not to the ſwift, nor the battell to the ſtrong, neither yet bread to the wiſe, nor yet riches to men of vnderſtanding, nor yet fauour to men of ſkill, but time and chance happeneth to them all.
12 For man alſo knoweth not his time: as the fiſhes that are taken in an euill net, and as the birds that are caught in the ſnare: ſo are the ſons of men ſnared in an euill time, when it falleth ſuddenly on them.
13 This wiſdome haue I ſeen alſo vnder the Sunne, and it ſeemed great vnto me:
14 There was a little citie, and few men within it, and there came a great king againſt it, and beſieged it, and built great bulwarkes againſt it:
15 Now there was found in it a poore wiſe man, and he by his wiſedome deliuered the citie: yet no man remembred that ſame poore man.
16 Then ſaid I, Wiſedome is better then ſtrength, neuertheleſſe the poore mans wiſedome is diſpiſed, and his wordes are not heard.
17 The words of wiſe men are heard in quiet, more then the cry of him that ruleth among fooles.
18 Wiſdome is better then weapons of war: but one ſinner deſtroyeth much good.

CHAP. X.

DEad flies cauſe y ointment of y Apothecary to ſtink and ſending forth a ſtinking fauour: ſo doeth a little folly him y is in reputation for wiſdome & honour.
2 A wiſe mans heart is at his right hand: but a fooles heart at his left.
3 Yea alſo when he that is a foole walketh by the way, his wiſdome faileth him, and he ſaith to every one that he is a foole.
4 If the ſpirit of the ruler riſe vp againſt thee, leaue not thy place, for yeelding pacifieth great offences.
5 There is an euil which I haue ſeene vnder the ſun, as an errour which proceedeth from the ruler.
6 Folly is ſet in great dignities, and the rich ſit in low place.
7 I haue ſeen ſeruants vpon horſes, & Princes walking as ſeruants on y earth.
8 He that diggeth a pit, ſhall fall into it; and whoſo breaketh an hedge, a ſerpent ſhall bite him.
9 Whoſo remoueth ſtones, ſhall be hurt therewith, and he that cleaueth wood, ſhall be endangered thereby.
10 If the yron be blunt, and hee doe not whet the edge, then muſt he put to more ſtrength, but wiſedome is profitable to direct.
11 Surely if the ſerpent will bite without enchantment, a babler is no better.
12 The words of a wiſe mans mouth are gracious, but the lips of a foole will ſwallow vp himſelf.
13 The beginning of the words of ins mouth is foolish: the end of his talke is mischeuous madnesse.

14 A fool also is full of words: a man cannot tell what shall be: and what shal be after him who can tell him?

15 The labour of the foolish wearieth every one of them, because he knoweth not how to go to the citie.

16 Woe to thee, O land, when thy king is a childe: and thy Princes eat in the morning.

17 Blessed art thou, O land, when thy king is the son of Nobles: and thy Princes eat in due season for strength, and not for drunkennesse.

18 By much slouthfulnesse the building decayeth: and through idlenes of the hands, y house droppeth through.

19 A feast is made for laughter: and wine maketh merry, but money answereth all things.

20 Curse not the king, no not in thy thought: and curse not the rich in thy bed chamber: for a bird of the ayr shal carry the voyce: and that which hath wings, shall tell the matter.

CHAP. XI.

CAst thy bread upon the waters: for thou shalt finde it after many dayes.

2 Give a portion to seven, and also to eight: for thou knowest not what evil shall be upon the earth.

3 If the clouds be full of raine, they empty themselves upon the earth: and if the tree fall toward the South, or toward the North: in the place where the tree falleth, there it shall be.

4 He that observeth the wind, shall not sow: and hee that regardeth the clouds, shal not reape.

5 As thou knowest not what is the way of the spirit, nor how the bones doe grow in the wombe of her that is with child, even so thou knowest not the works of God who maketh all.

6 In the morning sow thy seed, and in the evening withhold not thine hand, for thou knowest not whether shal prosper either this or that: or whether they both shal be alike good.

7 Truly the light is sweet, and a pleasant thing it is for the eies to behold the Sun.

8 But if a man live many yeeres, and reioyce in them all, yet let him remember the dayes of darkness, for they shall be many. All that commeth, is vanity.

9 Reiovce, O young man, in thy youth: and let thy heart cheare thee in y dayes of thy youth: and walke in y wayes of thine heart, & in y sight of thine eyes: but know thou, that for all these things God will bring thee into iudgement.

10 Therefore remoove sorrow from thy heart, & put away evil from thy flesh: for childhood and youth are vanity.

CHAP. XII.

REmember now thy Creatour in the dayes of thy youth, while the evil dayes come not, nor the yeeres draw nigh, when thou shalt say, I have no pleasure in them.

2 While the Sunne, or the light or the moone, or y stars be not darkened, nor the clouds returne after the raine.

3 In the day when y keepers of y house shal tremble, and the strong men bow themselves, & the grinders cease because they are few, and those that looke out of y windowes be darkened.

4 And the doores shal be shut in the streetes, when the sound of the grinding is low, and he shal rise up at the voyce of the bird, and all the daughters of musicke shall be brought low.

5 Also when they shal be afraid of that which is high, and feares shal be in the way, and the Almond tree shal flourish, and the grashopper shall be a burden, and desire shall faile: because man goeth to his long home, and the mourners goe about the streets.

6 Or ever the silver cord be loosed, or the golden bowle be broken, or the pitcher be broken at the fountaine, or the wheele broken at the cistern.

7 Then shall the dust returne to the earth as it was, and the spirit shall returne unto God who gave it.

8 Vanity of vanities (saith the Preacher) all is vanity.

9 And moreover, because the Preacher was wise, he still taught y people knowledge, yea, he gave good heed, & sought out, and set in order many proverbs.

10 The Preacher sought to find out acceptable words: and that which was written, was upright, even words of trueth.

11 The words of the wise are as goads, and as nailes fastened by the maisters of assemblies, which are given from one shepheard.

12 And further, by these, my sonne be admonished: of making many bookes there is no end, and much study is a wearines of the flesh.

13 Let us heare the conclusion of the whole matter. Feare God, and keepe his Commandements, for this is the whole duty of man.

14 For God shall bring every work to iudgement, & every secret thing, whether it be good, or whether it be evil.

The Song of SOLOMON.

CHAP. I.

THE Song of songs, which is Solomons.

2 Let him kisse me with y kisses of his mouth: for thy love is better then wine.

3 Because of the fat out of thy good ointments, thy name is as ointment poured forth, therefore doe the virgins love thee.

4 Draw me, we will run after thee: the king hath brought me into his chambers, we will be glad and reioyce in thee, we will remember thy loves more you were the upright love thee.

I am blacke, but comely, (O ye daughters of Jerusalem) as the tents of Kedar, as the curtaines of Solomon.

6 Looke not upon me because I am blacke, because the Sunne hath looked upon me: my mothers children were wroth with me, they made me the keeper of the vineyards, but mine owne vineyard have I not kept.

7 Tell me (O thou whom my soule loveth) where thou feedest, where thou makest thy flock to rest at noone; for why should I be as one that turneth aside by the flocks of thy companions.

8 If thou know not (O thou fairest among women) goe thy way forth by the steps of the flocke, and feed thy kids beside the shepheards tents.

9 I have compared thee, O my love, to a company of horses in Pharaohs chariots.

10 The cheekes are comely with rowes of jewels, thy neck with chaines of gold.

11 We will make thee borders of gold, with studs of silver.

12 While the king sitteth at his table, my Spikenard sendeth forth the sweet thereof.

13 A bundle of myrrhe is my welbeloved unto me, he shall lie all night betwixt my breasts.

14 My beloved is unto me as a cluster of camphire in the vineyards of Engedi.

15 Behold, fair art thou, my love; behold, fair art thou, thou hast doves eyes.

16 Behold, thou art faire, my beloved, excellent, also our bed is greene.

17 The beames of our house are Cedars, and our rafters of Firre.

CHAP. II.

1 I am the rose of Sharon, and the lilly of the valleys.

2 As the lilly among thornes, so is my love among the daughters.

3 As the apple tree among the trees of the wood, so is my beloved among the sons; I sate downe under his shadow with great delight, and his fruit was sweet to my taste.

4 He brought me to the banqueting house, his banner over me was love.

5 Stay me with flagons, comfort me with apples, for I am sicke of love.

6 His left hand is under my head, and his right hand doth embrace me.

7 I charge you, O ye daughters of Jerusalem, by the Roes, and by the hindes of the field, that ye stirre not up, nor make my love till he please.

8 The voice of my beloved, behold! he commeth leaping upon the mountaines, skipping upon the hills.

9 My beloved is like a Roe, or a young hart; behold, he standeth behind our wall, he looketh forth at the window, shewing himselfe through the lattesse.

10 My beloved spake, and said unto me, rise up, my love, my faire one, and come away.

11 For lo, the winter is past, the raine is over and gone.

12 The flowers appeare on the earth, the time of singing of birds is come, & the voyce of the turtle is heard in our land.

13 The figtree putteth forth her greene figs, and the vines with the tender grape give a good smell. Arise, my love, my faire one, & come away.

14 O my dove that art in the clefts of the rock, in the secret places of the stairs, let me see thy countenance, let me heare thy voyce, for sweet is thy voyce, and thy countenance is comely.

15 Take us the foxes, the little foxes that spoil the vines; for our vines have tender grapes.

16 My beloved is mine, and I am his: he feedeth among the lillies.

17 Until the day breake, and the shadowes flee away, turn my beloved, and be thou like a Roe, or a young Hart upon the mountaines of Bether.

CHAP. III.

BY night on my bed I sought him whom my soule loveth: I sought him, but I found him not.

2 I will arise now, and go about the citie in the streets, & in the broad wayes I will seeke him whom my soule loveth, I sought him, but I found him not.

3 The watchmen that go about the city, found me: to whom I said, Saw ye him whom my soule loveth?

4 It was but a little that I passed from them, but I found him whom my soule loveth, I held him, and would not let him go, till I had brought him into my mothers house, and into the chamber of her that conceived me.

5 I charge you, O ye daughters of Jerusalem, by the Roes, and by the Hindes of the field, that ye stirre not up, nor awake my love till he please.

6 Who is this that commeth out of the wilderne like pillars of smoak, perfumed with myrrhe and frankincense, with all powders of the merchant?

7 Behold his bed, which is Solomons: threescore valiant men are about it, of the valiant of Israel:

8 They all hold swords being expert in warre, every man hath his sword upon his thigh, because of feare in y night.

9 King Solomon made himselfe a charet of the wood of Lebanon.

10 He made the pillars thereof of silver, y bottom thereof of gold, the covering of it of purple, the midst thereof being paved with love, for the daughters of Jerusalem.

11 Go forth, O ye daughters of Zion, and behold King Solomon with the crowne wherewith his mother crowned him in y day of his espousals, & in y day of y gladnesse of his heart.

CHAP. IIII.

BEhold, y art fair, my love, behold, thou art faire, thou hast doves eyes within thy locks, thy hair is as a flock of goats, y appear from mount Gilead.

2 Thy teeth are like a flocke of sheep, y are even shorn, which came up from the washing: whereof every one beare twinne.

twins, & none is barren among them.

3 Thy lips are like a thred of skarlet, and thy speach is comely: thy temples are like a piece of a pomegranate within thy locks.

4 Thy necke is like the tower of David builded for an armory, whereon there hang a thousand bucklers, all shields of mighty men.

5 Thy two breasts are like two young roes, that are twinnes, which feed among the Lillies.

6 Until the day break, and the shadows flee away, I will get me to the mountaine of myrrhe, & to the hil of frankincense.

7 Thou art all faire, my love, there is no spot in thee.

8 Come with me from Lebanon my spouse, with me from Lebanon: look from the top of Amana, from the top of Shenir and Hermon, from the lyons dens, from the mountains of the leopards.

9 Thou hast ravished my heart my sister my spouse, thou hast ravished my heart with one of thine eyes, with one chaine of thy necke.

10 How faire is thy love, my sister my spouse! how much better is thy love then wine! and the smel of thine ointments then all spices!

11 Thy lippes, O my spouse drop as the hony combe: hony and milke are under thy tongue, and the smel of thy garments is like the smel of Lebanon.

12 A garden inclosed is my sister my spouse, a spring shut up, a fountaine seale.

13 Thy plants are an orchard of pomegranates, with pleasant fruites, Camphire, with spikenard, 14 Spikenard and Saffron, Calamus & Cinamon, with all trees of Frankincense, Myrrhe, & Aloes, with all chief spices.

15 A fountaine of gardens, a well of living waters, & streames from Lebanon.

16 Awake, O North winde, and come thou South, blow upon my garden, that the spices thereof may flow out. Let my beloved come into his garden, and eate his pleasant fruites.

CHAP. V.

I Am come into my garden, my sister my spouse. I have gathered my myrrhe with my spice. I have eaten my hony combe with my hony. I have drunk my wine with my milke. eat O friends, drink, yea drink abundantly O beloved.

2 I sleep, but my heart waketh. it is the voice of my beloved that knocketh, saying, open to me my sister, my love, my dove, my undefiled: for my head is filled with dew, and my locks with the drops of the night.

3 I have put off my coate, how shall I put it on? I have washed my feet, how shall I defile them?

4 My beloved put in his hand by the hole of the doore, and my bowels were moved for him.

5 I rose up to open to my beloved, and my hands dropped with myrrhe, and my fingers with sweet smelling myrrhe, upon the handles of the lock.

6 I opened to my beloved, but my beloved had with drawen himself, and was gone: my soule failed when he spake. I sought him, but I could not find him. I called him, but he gave me no answer.

7 The watch men that went about the citie, found me: they smote me, they wounded me, the keepers of the walles tooke away my vaile from me.

8 I charge you O daughters of Jerusalem, if ye find my beloved, that ye tell him that I am sicke of love.

9 What is thy beloved more then another beloved, O thou fairest among women? what is thy beloved more then another beloved, that thou dost so charge us?

10 My beloved is white and ruddie, the chiefest among ten thousand.

11 His head is as the most fine gold, his locks are bushie, & black as a Raven.

12 His eyes are as the eyes of doves by the rivers of waters, washed with milke, and fitly set.

13 His cheekes are as a bed of spices, as sweet flowres: his lips like lillies dropping sweet smelling myrrhe.

14 His hands are as golde rings set with the Beryll: his belly is as bright Ivory overlaid with Saphires.

15 His legges are as pillars of marble set upon sockets of fine golde: his countenance is as Lebanon, excellent as a Cedar.

16 His mouth is most sweet: yea he is altogether lovely. This is my beloved, & this is my friend, O daughters of Jerusalem. CHAP. VI.

WHither is thy beloved gone? O thou fairest among women, whither is thy beloved turned aside, that we may seeke him with thee.

2 My beloved is gone downe into his garden to his beds of spices, to feede in the gardens, and to gather Lillies.

3 I am my beloveds, and my beloved is mine: he feedeth among the lillies.

4 Thou art beautifull, O my love, as Tirzah, comely as Jerusalem, terrible as an army with banners.

5 Turne away thine eyes from me, for they have overcome me: thy haire is as a flocke of goates that appeare from Gilead.

6 Thy teeth are as a flocke of sheep which go up from the washing: whereof every one beareth twins, and there is not one barren among them.

7 As a piece of a pomegranate are thy temples within thy locks.

8 There are threescore queenes, and fourscore concubines, and virgins without number.

9 My dove, my undefiled is but one, she is the onely one of her mother, she is the choice one of her that bare her. The daughters saw her, and blessed her: yea the queenes and the concubines, and they praised her.

10 Who is she that looketh forth as the morning? fair as the Moone, clere as the Sun, & terrible as an army with banners?

11 I went ni new down into the garden of nuts, to see the fruits of the valley, and to see whether the vine flourished, and the pomegranates budded.

12 Or ever I was aware, my soule made me like the chariots of Amminadib.

13 Return, return, O Shulamite: return, return: that we may look on thee. What will ye see in the Shulamite? As it were the company of two armies.

CHAP. VIII.

1 O that thou wert as my brother, that sucked the breasts of my mother: when I should find thee without, I would kisse thee, yea, I should not be despised.

2 I would lead thee, and bring thee into my mothers house, who would instruct me: I would cause thee to drink of spiced wine of the juice of my pomegranate.

3 His left hand should be under my head, and his right hand should embrace me.

4 I charge you, O daughters of Jerusalem, that ye stirre not up, nor awake my love, until he please.

5 Who is this that commeth up from the wilderness, leaning upon his beloved? I raised thee up under the apple tree: there thy mother brought thee forth, there she brought thee forth that bare thee.

6 Set me as a seale upon thy heart, as a seal upon thy arm, for love is strong as death, jealousie is cruel as the grave: the coales thereof are coales of fire, which hath a most vehement flame.

7 Many waters cannot quench love, neither can the floods drowne it: if a man would give all the substance of his house for love, it would utterly be contemned.

8 We have a little sister, and she hath no breasts: what shall we doe for our sister in the day when she shall be spoken for?

9 If she be a wall, we will build on her a palace of silver, & if she be a door, we will inclose her with boards of cedar.

10 I am a wall, and my breasts like towers: then was I in his eyes, as one that found favour.

11 Solomon had a vineyard at Baalhamon, he let out the vineyard unto keepers: every one for the fruit thereof was to bring a thousand pieces of silver.

12 My vineyard which is mine, is before me: thou (O Solomon) must have a thousand, and those that keepe the fruit thereof, two hundred.

13 Thou that dwellest in the gardens, the companions hearken to thy voice: cause me to heare it.

14 Make haste, my beloved, and be thou like to a Roe, or to a young Hart upon the mountains of spices.

The book of the Prophet ISAIAH.

CHAP. I.

THE vision of Esaiah the sonne of Amoz, which he sawe concerning Iudah, and Ierusalem, in the dayes of Vzziah, Iotham, Ahaz, and Hezekiah, kings of Iudah.

2 Heare, O heavens, and give eare, O earth: for the LORD hath spoke: I have nourished and brought up children, and they have rebelled against me.

3 The oxe knoweth his owner, and the asse his masters crib: but Israel doth not consider, my people doth not consider.

4 Ah sinfull nation, a people laden with iniquity, a seed of evill doers, children that are corrupters, they have forsaken the LORD, they have provoked the holy One of Israel unto anger, they are gone away backward.

5 Why should ye be stricken any more? ye will revolt more and more, ye whole head is sicke, and ye whole heart faint.

6 From the sole of y foot even to y head, there is no soundnesse in it, but wounds and bruises, and putrifying sores: they have not been closed, neither bound up, neither mollified with ointment.

7 Your countrey is desolate, your cities are burnt with fire, your land strangers devoure it in your presence, and it is desolate as overthrown by strangers.

8 And the daughter of Zion is left as a cottage in a vineyard, as a lodge in a garde of cucumbers, as a besieged city.

9 Except the LORD of hosts had left unto us a very small remnant, we should have been as Sodome, and we should have been like unto Gomorrah.

10 Here the word of the LORD, ye rulers of Sodome, Give eare to y Law of our God, ye people of Gomorrah.

11 To what purpose is the multitude of your sacrifices unto me, saith the LORD? I am full of the burnt offrings of rams, and the fat of fed beasts, and I delight not in the blood of bullocks, or of lambes, or of hee-goates.

12 When ye come to appeare before me, who hath required this at your hand, to tread my courts?

13 Bring no more vaine oblations: incense is an abomination unto me: the new Moones, and Sabaths, the calling of assemblies I cannot away with, it is iniquity, even the solemne meeting.

14 Your new Moons, & your appointed feasts, my soule hateth: they are a trouble unto me, I am weary to bear them.

15 And when ye spread forth your hands, I will hide mine eyes from you: yea, when ye make many prayers, I will not heare: your hands are full of blood.

16 Wash ye, make you cleane, put away the evill of your doings from before mine eyes, cease to doe evil:

17 Learne to do well, seek judgement, relieve the oppressed, judge the fatherlesse, plead for the widdow.

18 Come now, and let us reason together, saith the LORD: though your sinnes be as skarlet, they shall be as white as snow, though they be red like crimson, they shall be as wooll.

19 If ye be willing and obedient, ye shall eat the good of the land.

20 But if ye refuse and rebel, ye shall be devoured with the sword: for the mouth of the LORD hath spoken it.

21 How is the faithfull city become an harlot? it was full of judgement, righteousnes lodged in it, but now murderers.

22 Thy silver is become drosse, thy wine mixt with water.

23 Thy Princes are rebellious, and companions of theeves: every one loveth gifts, and followeth after rewards: they judge not the fatherlesse, neither doth the cause of the widow come to them.

24 Therefore saith the LORD, the LORD of hosts, the mighty One of Israel: Ah, I will ease me of mine adversaries, and avenge me of mine enemies.

25 And I will turne my hand upon thee, & purely purge away thy drosse, and take away all thy tinne.

26 And I will restore thy Judges as at y first, & thy counsellers as at y beginning: afterwards thou shalt be called, city of righteousnesse, the faithfull city.

27 Zion shall be redeemed with judgement, & her converts with righteousnes.

28 And the destruction of y transgressours, and of the sinners shall be together: and they that forsake the LORD shall be consumed.

29 For they shall be ashamed of the Okes which ye have desired, and ye shall be confounded for the gardens that ye have chosen.

30 For ye shall be as an oke whose leafe is fading, & as a garden y hath no water.

31 And the strong shall be as tow, & the maker of it as a spark, & they shall both burne together, and none shall quench them.

CHAP. II.

THE word y Isaiah the son of Amoz saw concerning Iudah & Ierusalem.

2 And it shall come to passe in the last dayes that y mountaine of y LORDS house shall be established in y top of the mountaines, and shall be exalted above the hills, & all nations shall flow unto it.

3 And many people shall go, and say, Come ye, & let us go up to y mountaine of y LORD, to y house of y God of Jacob, and he will teach us of his waies, and we will walke in his pathes: for out of Zion shall go forth the Law, and the word of y LORD from Ierusalem.

4 And he shall judge among y nations, and shall rebuke many people: and they shall beat their swords into plowshares, & their speares to pruning hookes: nation shall not lift up sword against nation, neither shall they learn warre any more.

5 O house of Iacob, come ye, and let us walke in the light of the LORD.

6 Therefore thou hast forsaken thy people the house of Iacob, because they be replenished from the east, & are soothsayers like the Philistims, & they please themselves in y children of strangers.

7 Their land also is full of silver and gold, neither is there any end of their treasures: their land is full of horses, neither is there any end of their chariots.

8 Their land also is full of idols: they worship the work of their own hands, even that which their own fingers have made.

9 And the mean man boweth down, and the great man humbleth himself, therefore forgive them not.

10 Enter into the rocke, and hide thee in the dust, for feare of y LORD, and for the glory of his Majesty.

11 The lofty lookes of man shall be humbled, and the haughtinesse of men shall be bowed down, and the LORD alone shall be exalted in that day.

12 For the day of the LORD of hosts shall be upon every one that is proud and lofty, and upon every one that is lifted up, and he shall be brought low:

13 And upon all the Cedars of Lebanon that are high, & lifted up, and upon all the oakes of Bashan.

14 And upon all the high mountaines, & upon all the hils that are lifted up.

15 And upon every high tower, and upon every fenced wall.

16 And upon all the ships of Tarshish, and upon all pleasant pictures.

17 And the loftines of man shall be bowed down, and the haughtinesse of men shall be made low: and the shall alow that shall be exalted in y day of the LORD of hosts upon every one that is proud & haughty, & upon every one that is lifted up, & he shall be brought low:

8 And upon all the cedars of Lebanon, that are high & lifted up, & upon all the oaks of Bashan,

9 And upon all the high mountains, & upon all the hills that are lifted up,

10 And upon every high tower, & upon every fenced wall,

11 And upon all the ships of Tarshish, & upon all pleasant pictures.

12 And the loftiness of man shall be bowed down, & the haughtiness of men shall be made low, & the LORD alone shall be exalted in that day.

13 And the idols he shall utterly abolish.

14 And they shall go into the holes of the rocks, & into the caues of the earth for feare of y LORD, and for the glory of his majesty, when he ariseth to shake terribly the earth.

15 In that day a man shall cast his idols of silver, and his idols of gold, which they made each one for himself to worship, to y moles, and to y bats.

16 To go into the clifts of the rockes, & into the tops of the ragged rockes, for feare of the LORD, and for the glory of his Majesty, when he ariseth to shake terribly the earth.

17 Cease ye from man whose breath is in his nostrils: for wherein is he to be accounted of?

CHAP. III.

1 For behold, y Lord LORD of hosts doth take away from Ierusalem, & from Iudah, y stay and y staffe, y whole stay of bread, & y whole stay of water,

2 The mighty man and the man of warre, the iudge and the prophet, and the prudent, and the ancient,

3 The captaine of fifty, and the honorable man, and y counseller, & the cunning artificer, & y eloquent orator.

4 And I will giue children to be their princes, and babes shall rule over them.

5 And the people shall be oppressed, every one by another, and every one by his neighbour: the child shall behave himself proudly against the ancient, & the base against the honourable.

6 When a man shall take hold of his brother of the house of his father, saying, Thou hast clothing, be thou our ruler, & let this ruine be under thy hand:

7 In that day shall he sweare, saying, I will not be an healer: for in my house is neither bread nor clothing: make me not a ruler of the people.

8 For Ierusalem is ruined, and Iudah is fallen, because their tongue and their doings are against the LORD, to prouoke the eyes of his glory.

9 The shew of their countenance doth witnesse against them, and they declare their sin as Sodome, they hide it not. Woe unto their soule: for they haue rewarded euil unto themselues.

10 Say unto the righteous, that it shall be well with him: for they shall eat the fruit of their doings.

11 Woe unto the wicked it shall be ill with him, for the reward of his hands shall be given him.

12 As for my people, children are their oppressers, & women rule over them. O my people they which lead thee cause thee to erre, and destroy y way of thy paths.

13 The Lord standeth up to pleade, and standeth to iudge the people.

14 The LORD will enter into iudgement with the ancients of his people, and the princes thereof: for ye haue eaten up the vineyard: the spoile of the poore is in your houses.

15 What meane ye that ye beat my people to pieces, and grinde the faces of y poore? saith y Lord God of hosts.

16 Moreouer, y LORD saith, Because the daughters of Zion are haughty, & walk with stretched forth necks, & wanton eyes, walking, & mincing as they go, & making a tinkling with their feet.

17 Therefore the LORD will smite with a scab the crowne of the head of the daughters of Zion, and the LORD will discouer their secret parts.

18 In that day the LORD will take away the bravery of their tinkling ornaments about their feet, & their cauls, and their round tyres like the Moone,

19 The chaines, and the bracelets, & the mufflers,

20 The bonnets, and the ornaments of the legs, and the head-bands, and the tablets, and the eare-rings.

21 The rings, and nose-iewels.

22 The changeable suits of apparel, and the mantles, and the wimples, & the crisping pins.

23 The glasses, and the fine linnen, and the hoods, and the vailes.

24 And it shall come to passe, that in stead of sweet smel, there shall be stinke: and in stead of a girdle, a rent: and in stead of well set haire, baldnesse, and in stead of a stomacher, a girding of sackcloth: and burning in stead of beauty.

25 Thy men shall fal by the sword, and thy mighty in the warre.

26 And her gates shall lament and mourne, and she being desolate, shall sit upon the ground.

CHAP. IIII.

1 AND in that day seuen women shall take hold of one man, saying, We will eate our own bread, and weare our own apparel: onely let us be called by thy name, to take away our reproach.

2 In that day shall the Branch of the Lord be beautiful & glorious, & the fruit of the earth shall be excellent and comely for them y are escaped of Israel.

3 And it shall come to passe, that he that is left in Zion, and he that remaineth in Ierusalem, shall be called holy, even every one that is written among the liuing in Ierusalem.

4 When the Lord shall have washed away y filth of y daughter of Zion, & shall haue purged y blood of Ierusalem from the midst thereof by y spirit of iudgement, & by the spirit of burning.

5 And y LORD will create upon every dwelling place of mount Zion, & upon her assemblies a cloud & smoke by day & y shining of a flaming fire by night, for upon all y glory shall be a defence.

6 And there shall be a tabernacle for a shadow in the day time from y heat, and for a place of refuge, and for a couert from storme, and from raine.

CHAP. V.

1 NOw will I sing to my welbeloved, a song of my beloued touching his vineyard: my welbeloued hath a vineyard in a very fruitful hil.

2 And he fenced it, & gathered out the stones stones thereof, & planted it with the choicest vine, & built a tower in y midst of it, & also made a winepress therein: and he looked that it should bring forth grapes, and it brought forth wilde grapes.

3 And now, O inhabitants of Ierusalem, & men of Iudah, iudge, I pray you, betwixt me and my vineyard.

4 What could have bene done more to my vineyard, that I have not done in it? wherfore when I looked that it should bring forth grapes, brought it forth wilde grapes?

5 And now goe to, I will tell you what I will doe to my vineyard: I will take away y hedge thereof, & it shall be eaten vp: and breake down the wall thereof, and it shall be troden downe.

6 And I will lay it waste: it shall not be pruned, nor digged, but there shall come vp briers and thornes: I will also command the clouds, that they raine no raine vpon it.

7 For y vineyard of y LORD of hosts is the house of Israel, & the men of Iudah his pleasant plant: and he looked for iudgement, but behold oppression; for righteousnesse, but behold a cry.

8 Woe vnto them that ioyne house to house, that lay field to field till there be no place, that they may be placed alone in the midst of the earth.

9 In mine eares said the LORD of hosts, Of a trueth many houses shall be desolate, even great and faire without inhabitant.

10 Yea, ten acres of vineyard shall yeeld one bath, & the seed of an Homer shall yeeld an Ephah.

11 Woe vnto them that rise vp early in the morning, that they may follow strong drinke, that continue vntill night, till wine inflame them.

12 And y harp, & the viole, the tabret, & pipe, and wine are in their feasts: but they regard not y worke of y LORD, neither consider y operation of his hands.

13 Therefore my people are gone into captivity, because they have no knowledge: and their honourable men are famished, and their multitude dried vp with thirst.

14 Therefore hell hath enlarged her selfe, and opened her mouth without measure: and their glory, and their multitude, and their pompe, and he that reioyceth shall descend into it.

15 And the meane man shall be brought down, and the mighty man shall be humbled, and the eyes of the lofty shall be humbled.

16 But the LORD of hosts shall be exalted in iudgement, and God that is holy shall be sanctified in righteousnes.

17 Then shall the lambes feed after their manner, and the wilde places of the fat ones shall strangers eate.

18 Woe vnto them that draw iniquity with cords of vanity, and sinne as it were with a cart rope:

19 That say vnto him, Make speed & hasten his work y we may see it: & let

y counsel of y holy One of Israel draw nigh and come, that we may know it!

20 Woe vnto them y call euil good, and good euill, that put darknesse for light, and light for darknesse, that put bitter for sweet, and sweet for bitter!

21 Woe vnto them y are wise in their owne eyes, & prudent in their owne sight!

22 Woe vnto them that are mighty to drinke wine, and men of strength to mingle strong drinke.

23 Which iustifie the wicked for a reward, and take away the righteousnesse of the righteous from him.

24 Therefore as the fire deuoureth stubble, and y flame consumeth chaffe, so their root shall be rottennesse, and their blossome shall go vp as dust: because they have cast away y law of the LORD of hosts, & despised the word of the holy One of Israel.

25 Therefore is y anger of y LORD kindled against his people, & he hath stretched forth his hand against them, & hath smitten them: & y hills did tremble, & their carkeises were torn in the midst of y streets. For all this his anger is not turned away, but his hand is stretched out still.

26 And he will lift vp an ensigne to nations from farre, & will hisse vnto them from y end of y earth: & behold, they shall come with speed swiftly.

27 None shall be weary, nor stumble among st them, none shall slumber nor sleepe, neither shall the girdle of their loines be loosed, nor the latchet of their shooes be broken.

28 Whose arrowes are sharp, and all their bowes bent, their horses hoofs shall be counted like flint, and their wheels like a whirlewind.

29 Their roaring shall be like a lion, they shall roare like young lions: yea, they shall roar & lay hold on the prey, & shall deliver it, & none shall take it away.

30 And in that day they shall roare against them, like y roaring of the Sea: & if one look vnto the land, behold darkenesse & sorrow, and the light is darkened in the heavens thereof.

CHAP. VI.

IN the yeere y King Vzziah died, I saw also y Lord sitting on a throne high & lifted vp, & his traine filled y Temple.

2 Aboue it stood y Seraphims: each one had six wings: & with twaine he couered his face, and with twaine he couered his feet, and with twaine he did flie.

3 And one cryed to another, & said, Holy, holy, holy is y LORD of hosts: the whole earth is full of his glory.

4 And the posts of the dore moued at the voyce of him that cried, and the house was filled with smoake.

5 Then said I woe is me for I am vndone: because I am a man of vncleane lips, & I dwell in y midst of a people of vncleane lips: for mine eyes haue seene

6 Then flew one of y Seraphims vnto

11 Aske thee a signe of the LORD thy God: aske it either in the depth, or in the height above.

12 But Ahaz said, I will not aske, neither will I tempt the LORD.

13 And he said, Heare ye now, O house of Dauid, Is it a small thing for you to weary men, but will ye weary my God also?

14 Therefore the Lord himself shall giue you a signe: Behold, a Virgine shall conceiue and beare a Sonne, and shall call his Name Immanuel.

15 Butter and hony shall he eate, that he may know to refuse the euill, and chuse the good.

16 For before the child shall know to refuse the euil, and chuse the good, the land that thou abhorrest, shall be forsaken of both her Kings.

17 The LORD shall bring vpon thee, and on thy people, and on thy fathers house, dayes that haue not come, from the day that Ephraim departed from Iudah, euen the King of Assyria.

18 And it shall come to passe in that day, that the LORD shall hisse for the flie that is in the vttermost part of the riuers of Egypt, and for the Bee that is in the land of Assyria.

19 And they shall come, and shall rest all of them in the desolate valleys, and in the holes of the rockes, and on all thornes, and vpon all bushes.

20 In the same day shall y Lord shave a rasor that is hired, namely, by them beyond the riuer, by the king of Assyria, the head and the haire of the feet: and it shall also consume the beard.

21 And it shall come to passe in that day, that a man shall nourish a young cow, and two sheep.

22 And it shall come to passe, for the abundance of milke y they shall giue, that eat butter: for butter & hony shall every one eat that is left in the land.

23 And it shall come to passe in that day y every place shall be, where there were a thousand vines at a thousand silverlings, it shall euen be for briers and thornes.

24 With arrowes and with bowes shall men come thither, because all the land shall become briers and thornes.

25 And on all hils that shalbe digged with the mattocke, there shall not come thither the fear of briers & thorns: but it shalbe for the sending forth of oxen, and for the treading of lesser cattle.

CHAP. VIII.

MOreouer, the LORD said vnto me, Take thee a great roule, and write in it with a mans pen, concerning Maher-shalal-hash-baz.

2 And I took vnto me faithful witnesses to record, Vrijah the Priest, and Zachariah the son of Iberechiah.

3 And I went vnto the Prophetesse, and she conceiued, and bare a son: then said the LORD to me, Call his name Maher-shalal-hash-baz.

4 For before y child shall haue knowledge to cry, My father, and my mothers, the riches of Damascus, and the spoile of Samaria shall be taken away before the king of Assyria.

5 The Lord spake also unto me again, saying,

6 Forasmuch as this people refuseth the waters of Shiloah that go softly, and rejoyce in Rezin, & Remaliahs sonne;

7 Now therefore, behold the Lord bringeth up upon them the waters of the rivers, strong and many, even the king of Assyria, and all his glory: and he shall come up over all his channels, and go over all his banks.

8 And he shall passe thorow Judah, he shall overflow, & go over: it shall reach even to the necke; and the stretching out of his wings shall fill the breadth of thy land, O Immanuel.

9 Associate your selves, O ye people, and ye shall be broken in pieces: and give eare all ye of farre countreys: gird your selves, and ye shall be broken in pieces: gird your selves, and ye shall be broken in pieces.

10 Take counsel together, and it shall come to nought: speake a word, & it shall not stand: for God is with us.

11 For the Lord spake thus to me with a strong hand, and instructed me that I should not walke in the way of this people, saying,

12 Say ye not, A confederacy to all them to whom this people shall say, A confederacy: neither feare ye their feare, nor be afraid.

13 Sanctifie the Lord of hosts himself: and let him be your feare, and let him be your dread.

14 And he shall be for a Sanctuary; but for a stone of stumbling, and for a rock of offence to both the houses of Israel, for a gin, and for a snare to the inhabitants of Jerusalem.

15 And many among them shall stumble, and fall, and be broken, and be snared, and be taken.

16 Bind up the Testimony, seale the Law among my disciples.

17 And I will wait upon the Lord that hideth his face from the house of Jacob, and I will looke for him.

18 Behold, I and the children whom the Lord hath given me are for signes & for wonders in Israel from the Lord of hosts, which dwelleth in mount Zion.

19 And when they shall say unto you, Seeke unto them that have familiar spirits, & to wizards that peepe and mutter: should not a people seek unto their God? for the living to the dead?

20 To the Law, and to the Testimony, if they speak not according to this word, it is because there is no light in them.

21 And they shall passe thorow it, hardly bestead, and hungry: and it shall come to passe that when they shall be hungry, they shall fret themselves, & curse their king, & their God, and look upward.

22 And they shall look unto the earth: and behold, trouble and darkenes, gloomy dimnesse of anguish: and they shall be driven to darkenes.

CHAP. IX.

NEvertheless the dimnesse shall not be such as was in her vexation, when at the first he lightly afflicted the land of Zebulun, and the land of Naphtali, and afterward did more grievously afflict her by the way of the sea beyond Jordan, in Galilee of the nations.

2 The people that walked in darkenesse, have seen a great light: they that dwell in the land of the shadow of death, upon them hath the light shined.

3 Thou hast multiplied the nation, and not increased the joy: they joy before thee according to the joy in harvest, as men rejoyce when they divide the spoile.

4 For thou hast broken the yoke of his burden, & the staff of his shoulder, the rod of his oppressour, as in the day of Midian.

5 For every battel of the warrior is with confused noise, and garments rolled in blood: but this shall be with burning and fewel of fire.

6 For unto us a Child is borne, unto us a Son is given: and the government shall be on his shoulder: and his name shall be called, Wonderful, Counsellour, The mighty God, The everlasting Father, The Prince of peace.

7 Of the increase of his government & peace, there shall be no end: upon the throne of David, and upon his kingdome, to order it, and to establish it with judgement, and with justice, from henceforth even for ever: the zeale of the Lord of hosts will performe this.

8 The Lord sent a word unto Jacob, and it hath lighted upon Israel.

9 And all the people shall know, even Ephraim, and the inhabitant of Samaria, that say in the pride & stoutnes of heart,

10 The bricks are fallen downe, but we will build with hewne stones: the Sycamores are cut downe, but we will change them into Cedars.

11 Therefore the Lord shall set up the adversaries of Rezin against him, and couple his enemies together, 12 The Syrians before, and the Philistims behinde, and they shall devoure Israel with open mouth. For all this his anger is not turned away, but his hand is stretched out still.

13 For the people turneth not unto him that smiteth them, neither do they seek the Lord of hosts.

14 Therefore the Lord will cut off from Israel head and taile, branch and rush in one day.

15 The ancient and honourable, he is the head: and the Prophet that teacheth lyes, he is the taile.

16 For the leaders of this people cause them to erre: and they that are led of them are destroyed.

17 Therefore the Lord shall have no joy in their young men, neither shall have mercy on their fatherless & widowes: for every one is an hypocrite and an evill doer, and every mouth speaketh folly. For all this, his anger is not turned away, but his hand is stretched out still.

a wicked nes burneth as the fire:
it devoure the briers and thornes, shall kindle in the thickett of the rest: and they shal mount up like ing up of smoake.
Through the wrath of the Lord y nde is the land darkened: and the ople shal be as the fewel of the fire:
n shal ſpare his brother.
And he shal ſnatch on the right nd, and be hungry: and he shall eate on the left hand, and they ſhal not be ſfied: they ſhall eat euery man the ſh of his own arme.
Manaſſeh, Ephraim, & Ephraim Ma-aſſeh: and they together ſhal be gainſt Iudah: for all this, his anger not turned away, but his hand is ſtretched out ſtil.

CHAP. X.

Woe vnto them that decree vnrighteous decrees, and that write grieous things which they have preſcribed.
To turne aside the needy from iudgment, and to take away the right from the poor of my people, that wi-dowes may be their prey, and that they may rob the fatherleſs.
And what wil ye do in the day of viſitation, and in the deſolation which ſhall come from far? to whom will ye flee for help? and where will ye leave your glory?
Without me they ſhal bow down under the priſoners, and they ſhal fall vnder the ſlaine: for all this, his anger is not turned away, but his hand is ſtretched out ſtil.
O Aſſyrian, the rod of mine anger, and the ſtaffe in their hand is mine indignation.
I will ſend him againſt an hypocriticall nation, & againſt y people of my wrath will I give him a charge to take the ſpoile, & to take y prey, and to tread them vnder like the mire of the ſtreets.
Howbeit, he meaneth not ſo, neither doth his heart think ſo, but it is in his heart to deſtroy, and cut off nations not a few.
For he ſaith, are not my Princes altogether kings?
Is not Calno as Carchemiſh? is not Hamath as Arphad? is not Samaria as Damaſcus?
As my hand hath found the king-domes of the idols, and whoſe graven images did excell them of Ieruſalem and of Samaria:
Shal I not as I have done vnto Samaria and her idoles, ſo do to Ieruſalem and her idoles?
Wherfore it ſhal come to paſs, that when the Lord hath performed his whole worke vpon mount Zion, & on Ieruſalem, I will puniſh the fruit of y ſtout heart of the king of Aſſyria, and the glory of his high looks.
For he ſaith, By y ſtrength of my hand I have done it, & by my wiſdom, for I am prudent: and I have removed y bounds of the people, & have robbed their treaſures, & I have put down y inhabitants like a valiant man.
14 And my hand hath found as a neſt the riches of y people: and as one ga-thereth egs y are left, have I gathered all y earth, & there was none y moved y wing, or opened y mouth, or peeped.
15 Shal the axe boaſt it ſelf againſt him that heweth therewith? or ſhal the ſaw magnifie it ſelfe againſt him that ſhaketh it? as if the rod ſhould ſhake it ſelfe againſt them that lift it up, or as if the ſtaffe ſhould lift up it ſelfe, as if it were no wood.
16 Therefore ſhal the Lord, the Lord of hoſts, ſend among the fat ones leanineſs, and vnder his glory he ſhal kindle
a burning, like the burning of a fire.
17 And the light of Iſrael ſhalbe for a fire, and his holy One for a flame:
and it ſhal burn & devour his thornes
and his briers in one day:
18 And ſhal conſume the glory of his forreſt, & of his fruitful field: both ſoul and body, & they ſhalbe as when a ſtanderd-bearer fainteth.
19 And y reſt of the trees of his forreſt ſhal be few, y a child may write them.
20 And it ſhal come to paſs in that day, that the remnant of Iſrael, and ſuch as are eſcaped of the houſe of Iacob ſhall no more againe ſtay vpon him that ſmote them: but ſhal ſtay on the Lord,
the holy One of Iſrael in truth.
21 The remnant ſhal return, even y remnant of Iacob, vnto the mighty God.
22 For though thy people Iſrael bee as the ſand of the Sea, yet a remnant of them ſhal return: the conſumption decreed ſhal ouerflow with righteouſneſſe.
23 For the Lord GOD of hoſts ſhal make a conſumption, even determined in the midſt of all the land.
24 Therfore thus ſaith y Lord God of hoſts, O my people y dwelleſt in Zion, be not afraid of y Aſſyrian, he ſhal ſmite thee with a rod, & ſhal lift up his ſtaffe againſt thee after the maner of Egypt.
25 For yet a very little while, and the indignation ſhall ceaſe, and mine anger in their deſtruction.
26 And the Lord of hoſts ſhall ſtirre up a ſcourge for him, according to the ſlaughter of Midian, at y rock of Oreb, & as his rod was vpon the ſea, ſo ſhal
he lift it up after the maner of Egypt.
27 And it ſhall come to paſs in that day that his burden ſhal be taken away from off thy ſhoulder, and his yoke from off thy neck, and the yoke ſhall be deſtroyed because of y anointing.
28 He is come to Aiath, he is paſſed to Migron: at Michmaſh he hath layd up his carriages.
29 They are gone over y paſſage: they have taken up their lodging at Geba:
Ramah is afraid, Gibeah of Saul is fled.
30 Lift up thy voyce, O daughter of Gallim: cauſe it to be heard to Laiſh,
O poor Anathoth.
31 Madmenah is removed, y inhabitants of Gebim gather themſelues to flee.
32 As yet ſhall hee remaine at Nob that

that day he shall shake his hand against the mount of the daughter of Zion, the hil of Ierusalem.

33 Behold, the Lord, the Lord of hosts shall lop the bough with terrour, and the high ones of stature shall be hewen down, & y naughty shalbe humbled.

34 And he shal cut out down the thickets o' the forrests with iron, and Lebanon shal fal by a mighty one.

CHAP. XI.

AND there shall come forth a rod out of the stemme or lese and a Branch shal grow out of his rootes.

2 And the Spirit of the Lord shall rest upon him, the spirit of Wisedome and angry with me, thine anger is turned understanding, the Spirit of Counsel and might, the Spirit of Knowledge, and of the feare of the Lord:

3 And shal make him of quicke understanding in the feare of the Lord, and he shal not iudge after the sight of his eyes, neither reprove after the hearing of his eares.

4 But with righteousnes shal he judge the poor, and reprove with equity, for y meek of the earth: and he shal smite the earth w y rod of his mouth, & w y breath of his lips shal he slay y wicked.

5 And righteousnes shalbe the girdle of his loyns, and faithfulnes the girdle of his reines.

6 The wolfe also shal dwel with y lambe, & the leopard shal lie down with the kid: and the calfe, and the young lyon, and the fat ling together, & a little child shal lead them.

7 And the cow, and the beare shall feed, their young ones shall lye down together: and the lyon shall eate straw like the oxe.

8 And the sucking child shal play on the hole of the Aspe, & y weaned child shal put his hand on y Cockatrice den.

9 They shal not hurt, nor destroy in all my holy mountaine: for the earth shalbe full of the knowledge of the Lord, as the waters cover the sea.

10 And in that day there shalbe a root of Iesse, which shal stand for an ensigne of the people, to it shall the Gentiles seek, and his rest shalbe glorious.

11 And it shal come to pass in y day, that the LORD shal set his hand again the second time, to recover the remnant of his people which shalbe left, from Assyria, and from Egypt, and from Pathros, and from Cush, & from Elam, and from Shinar, and from Hamath, and from the Iands of the Sea.

12 And he shal set up an ensigne for y nations, & shal assemble y outcasts of Israel, & gather together the dispersed of Iudah, from y four corners of y earth.

13 The envie also of Ephraim shal depart, and y aduersaries of Iudah shal be cut off: Ephraim shall not envy Iudah, and Iudah shal not vex Ephraim.

14 But they shal flie on the shoulders of the Philistines toward y West, they shall spoile them of the East together: they shall lay their hand upon Edom and Moab, and the children of Ammon shal obey them.

15 And the Lord shal vtterly destroy the tongue of the Egyptian sea, and with his mighty wind shall he shake his hand over the river, and shal smite it in the seven streames, and make men go over dry-shod.

16 And there shalbe an high way for the remnant of his people, which shal be left from Assyria, like as it was to Israel in the day that he came vp out of the land of Egypt.

CHAP. XII.

AND in y day thou shalt say, O Lord, I will praise thee: though thou wast angry with me, thine anger is turned away, and thou comfortedst me.

2 Behold, God is my saluation, I will trust, and not be afraid, for the LORD IEHOVAH is my strength and my song, he also is become my saluation.

3 Wherefore with ioy shal ye draw water out of the wels of saluation.

4 And in that day shal ye say, Praise the Lord, cal vpon his Name, declare his doings among the people, make mention that his Name is exalted.

5 Sing vnto the Lord, for he hath done excellent things: this is known in all the earth.

6 Cry out, & shout, thou inhabitant of Zion: for great is the holy One of Israel in the midst of thee.

CHAP. XIII.

THE burden of Babylon, which Isaiah the son of Amoz did see.

2 Lift ye up a banner vpon the high mountain, exalt the voyce vnto them, shake the hand, that they may go into the gates of the Nobles.

3 I have commanded my sanctified ones: I have also called my mighty ones for mine anger, even them that reioyce in my highnes.

4 The noise of a multitude in y mountaines, like as of a great people: a tumultuous noise of the kingdomes of nations gathered together: the Lord of hosts mustereth the hoste of the battel.

5 They come from a far country, from the end of heaven, even the Lord, and the weapons of his indignation, to destroy the whole land.

6 Howle ye, for the day of the LORD is at hand, it shal come as a destruction from the Almighty.

7 Therfore shal al hands be faint, and every mans heart shal melt.

8 And they shall be afraid: pangs and sorrowes shal take hold of them, they shal be in paine, as a woman that trauaileth: they shalbe amazed one at another, their faces shalbe as flames.

9 Behold, the day of the Lord commeth, cruel both with wrath and fierce anger to lay the land desolate and he shal destroy y sinners therof out of it.

10 For the stars of heaven, & the constellations ther of shal not give their light: the Sun shalbe darkened in his going forth, and the Moone shall not cause her light to shine.

11 And

5 And I will punish the world for ir evil, & the wicked for their im-y: and I will cause the arrogancy the proud to cease, and will lay low e haughtiness of the terrible.
6 I will make a man more precious than fine gold; even a man then the golden wedge of Ophir.
7 Therefore I will shake the heavens, and the earth shall remove out of her place in the wrath of the Lord of hosts and in the day of his fierce anger.
8 And it shall be as a chased Roe, and as a sheep that no man taketh up: they shall every man turn to his own people, and flee every one into his own land.
9 Every one that is found, shall be thrust through: and every one that is joined unto them shall fall by the sword.
10 Their children also shall be dashed in pieces before their eies: their houses shall be spoiled, & their wives ravished.
11 Behold, I will stir up the Medes against them, which shall not regard silver, and as for gold, they shall not delight in it.
12 Their bowes also shall dash the young men to pieces, and they shall have no pity on the fruit of y womb:
their eie shall not spare children.
13 And Babylon the glory of kingdoms, the beauty of the Caldees excellency, shall be as when God overthrew Sodome and Gomorrah.
14 It shall never be inhabited, neither shall it be dwelt in from generation to generation: neither shall the Arabian pitch his tent there, neither shall the shepherds make their fold there.
15 But wild beasts of the desert shall lie there, and their houses shall be full of doleful creatures, and Owles shall dwell there, and Satyrs dance there.
16 And the wild beasts of the Ilands shall cry in their desolate houses, and dragons in their pleasant palaces: and the time is near to come, and her dayes shall not be prolonged.

CHAP. XIIII.

1 For the Lord will have mercy on Jacob, and yet choose Israel, & set them in their own land: and the stranger shall be joined with them, & they shall cleave to the house of Jacob.
2 And the people shall take them, and bring them to their place, & the house of Israel shall possesse them in the land of the LORD: for servants, and handmaids in the land: and they shall take them captives, whose captives they were, and rule over their oppressours.
3 And it shall come to passe, in the day that the LORD shall give thee rest from thy sorrow, and from thy feare, and from the hard bondage wherein thou was made to serve:
4 That thou shalt take up this proverb against the king of Babylon, & say, How hath the oppressor ceased, the golden city ceased!
The LORD hath broken the staff of the wicked, the sceptre of the rulers, 6 He who smote the people in wrath with a continual stroke, he that ruled the nations in anger, is persecuted, & none hindereth.
7 The whole earth is at rest, and is quiet: they break foorth into singing.
8 Yea, the firre trees rejoyce at thee,
and the Cedars of Lebanon, saying, Since thou art laid down, no feller is come up against us.
9 Hell from beneath is moved for thee to meet thee at thy coming: it stirreth up the dead for thee, even all the chief ones of y earth: it hath raised up from their thrones all the kings of y nations.
10 All they shall speak and say unto thee, art thou also become weake as wee? art thou become like unto us?
11 Thy pompe is brought down to the grave, & the noise of thy viols: the worme is spread under thee, and the wormes cover thee.
12 How art thou fallen from heaven, O Lucifer, son of the morning? how art thou cut down to y ground, which didst weaken the nations?
13 For thou hast said in thine heart, I will ascend into heaven, I will exalt my throne above y Stars of God: I will sit also upon the mount of the Congregation, in the sides of the North.
14 I will ascend above the heights of the cloudes, I will be like y most High.
15 Yet thou shalt be brought downe to hell, to the sides of the pit.
16 They that see thee shall narrowly look upon thee, & consider thee, saying, Is this the man that made y earth to tremble, that did shake kingdoms?
17 That made the world as a wildernes, & destroyed the cities thereof: that opened not the house of his prisoners?
18 All the kings of the nations, even all of them lie in glory, every one in his owne house.
19 But y art cast out of thy grave, like an abommable branch, & as y raiment of those that are slain, thrust through w a sword, that go down to the stones of the pit, as a carkasse trodden under feet.
20 Thou shalt not be joyned w them in burial: because y hast destroyed thy land, and slain thy people: the seed of evill doers shall never be renowned.
21 Prepare slaughter for his children, for the iniquity of their fathers, y they do not rise, nor possesse the land, nor fill the face of the world with cities.
22 For I will rise up against them, saith the Lord of hosts, & cut off from Babylon the name, and remnant, and son, and nephew, saith the LORD.
23 I will also make it a possession for the Bittern, and pools of water: and I will sweepe it with the besome of destruction, saith the LORD of hosts.
24 The Lord of hosts hath sworn, saying, Surely as I have thought, so shall it come to pass: and as I have pur-posed, so shall it stand:
25 That I will break the Assyrian in my land, & upon my mountains tread him

him under foot: then shall his yoke depart from off them, and his burden depart from off their shoulders.

26 This is the purpose y is purposed upon the whole earth: & this is y hand y is stretched out upon all y nations.

27 For the LORD of hosts hath purposed, and who shall disannul it? and his hand is stretched out, and who shall turn it back?

28 In the yeer that king Ahaz died, was this burden.

29 Rejoyce not thou whole Palestina, because the rod of him that smote thee is broken: for out of the serpents root shall come forth a cockatrice, and his fruit shall be a fiery flying serpent.

30 And the first born of the poor shall feed, and the needy shall lie down in safety: and I will kill thy root with famine, and he shall slay thy remnant.

31 Howle, O gate, cry, O city, thou whole Palestina art dissolved: for there shall come from the North a smoak, & none shall be alone in his appointed time.

32 What shall one then answere the messengers of the nation? that the LORD hath founded Zion, and the poor of his people shall trust in it.

CHAP. XV.

THE burden of Moab: because in the night Ar of Moab is laid waste, and brought to silence, because in the night Kir of Moab is laid waste, and brought to silence:

2 He is gone up to Bauth, and to Dibon, the high places to weep: Moab shall howle over Nebo, and over Medeba, on all their heads shall be baldnesse, and every beard cut off.

3 In their streets shall they gird themselves with sackcloth: on the tops of their houses, and in their streets every one shall howle, weeping abundantly.

4 And Heshbon shall cry, & Eleatch: their voice shall be heard even unto Jahaz: therefore the armed souldiers of Moab shall cry out: his life shall be grievous unto him.

5 My heart shall cry out for Moab, his fugitives shall flee unto Zoar, an heifer of three yeers old: for by y mounting up of Luhith, with weeping shall they go it up: for in the way of Horonaim they shall raise up a cry of destruction.

6 For the waters of Nimrim shall be desolate: for the hay is withered away, y grasse faileth, there is no green thing.

7 Therefore y abundance they have gotten, & y which they have laid up, shall they carry away to y brook of y willows.

8 For the cry is gone round about the borders of Moab: the howling thereof unto Eglaim, and the howling thereof unto Beer-Elim.

9 For the waters of Dimon shall be full of blood, for I will bring more upon Dimon: lions upon him y escapeth of Moab, & upon the remnant of y land.

CHAP. XVI.

SEnd ye the lamb to the ruler of the land, from Sela to the wilderness, to the mount of the daughter of Zion.

2 For it shall be y as a wandring bird cast out of the nest: so the daughters of Moab shall be at the fords of Arnon.

3 Take counsell, execute judgement, make thy shadow as the night in the midst of the noone day, hide them y are cast out, bewray not him that wandereth.

4 Let mine out-casts dwell with thee Moab, be thou a covert to them from the face of the spoiler: for the extortioner is at an end, the spoiler ceaseth, the oppressours are consumed out of the land.

5 And in mercy shall the throne be established, and hee shall sit upon it in truth, in the Tabernacle of David, judging, and seeking judgement, and hasting in righteousnesse.

6 We have heard of the pride of Moab, he is very proud: even of his haughtinesse, and his pride, and his wrath: but his lies shall not be so.

7 Therefore shall Moab howle for Moab, every one shall howle: mourn for the foundations of Kirhareseth shall ye mourn, surely they are stricken.

8 For the fields of Heshbon languish, & the vine of Sibmah, the lords of the heathen have broken down the principall plants thereof, they are come even unto Jazer, they wandered through the wilderness: her branches are stretched out, they are gone over the sea.

9 Therefore I will bewaile with the weeping of Jazer, the vine of Sibmah: I will water thee with my tears O Heshbon, & Eleatch: for y shouting for thy summer-fruits & for thy harvest is fallen.

10 And gladnes is taken away, & joy out of y plentiful field, & in the vineyards there shall be no singing, neither shall there be shouting: y treaders shall not tread out wine in their presses, I have made their vintage-shouting to cease.

11 Wherefore my bowels shall sound like an harpe for Moab, and mine inward parts for Kirharesh.

12 And it shall come to pass, when it is seen that Moab is weary on the high place, that he shall come to his sanctuary to prayer: but he shall not prevail.

13 This is the word y the LORD hath spoken concerning Moab since that time.

14 But now y Lord hath spoken, saying, within three yeers as yeers of an hireling, & the glory of Moab shall be contemned, with all y great multitude, & the remnant shall be very small & feeble.

CHAP. XVII.

THE burden of Damascus: behold Damascus is taken away from being a city, and it shall be a ruinous heap.

2 The cities of Aroer are forsaken: they shall be for flocks, which shall lie down, & none shall make them afraid.

3 The fortresse also shall cease from Ephraim, and the kingdome from Damascus, and the remnant of Syria: they shall be as the glory of the children of Israel, saith the LORD of hosts.

4 And in that day it shall come to pass, that the glory of Jacob shall

...ning and the sapness of his flesh
...ne leane.
...shall be as when y harvest man
...atcheth the corne, & reapeth the ears
...with his arme, & it shalbe as he that ga-
...thereth eares in the valley of Rephaim.
...Yet the gleaning grapes shalbe left in
...it, like the shaking of an olive tree, two ...or three berries in the top of the up-
...most bough, foure or five in the out-
...most branches of the fruitfull, saith
...the LORD God of Israel.
...In that day a man shall look to his ...maker, & his eyes shall have respect
...to the holy one of Israel.
...And he shall not look to the altars,
...the worke of his hands, neither shall
...that which his fingers have made,
...either groves, or the images.)
...In that day shall his strong cities be
...as a forsaken bough, and an uppermost
...bough, which they left because of the chil...dren of Israel: & there shalbe desolation.
...Because thou hast forgotten y God of ...thy salvation, and hast not been mind-
...full of the rock of thy strength, there...fore shalt thou plant pleasant plants,
...& shalt set it with strange slips:
...In the day shalt thou make thy plant
...to grow, and in the morning thou shalt ...make thy seed to flourish: but the ...harvest shalbe a heape in the day of ...grief, and of desperate sorrow.
...Woe to the multitude of many peo...ple, which make a noise like the noise
...of the seas, & to the rushing of na...tions, that make a rushing like the rus...hing of mighty waters.
...The nations shall rush like the rus...hing of many waters: but God shall
...rebuke them, & they shall flee afar off, &
...shall be chased as the chaff of the ...mountains before the wind, & like a rol...ling thing before the whirlwind.
...And behold, at evening-tide trouble;
...& before the morning he is not. This is ...the portion of them that spoile us, &
...the lot of them that rob us.

CHAP. XVIII.

...Woe to the land shadowing with wings,
...which is beyond the rivers of Ethiopia:
...That sendeth ambassadours by the ...sea, even in vessels of bulrushes upon
...the waters, saying, Go, ye swift messen...gers, to a nation scattered and peeled, & to a ...people terrible from their beginning hi...therto; a nation meted out and trodden
...under foot, whose land the rivers have spoi-
...led, to the place of the name of the ...LORD of hosts, the mount Zion.

CHAP. XIX.

...The burden of Egypt. Behold, y Lord
...rideth upon a swift cloud, & shall ...come into Egypt: & the idols of Egypt
...shall be moved at his presence, & the ...heart of Egypt shall melt in y midst of it.
...And I will set y Egyptians against
...the Egyptians: & they shall fight every ...one against his brother, & every one ...against his neighbour, city against ci...ty, and kingdom against kingdom.
...And y spirit of Egypt shall fail in
...y midst thereof, & I will destroy y coun...sel thereof: & they shall seek to y idols,
...& to the charmers, & to them that have
...familiar spirits, and to the wizards.
...And the Egyptians will I give over ...into the hand of a cruell lord, and a ...fierce king shall rule over them, saith
...the LORD, the LORD of hosts.
...And the waters shall fail from y sea,
...& the river shalbe wasted, & dried up.
...And they shall turn the rivers farre
...away, and the brooks of defence shalbe
...emptied, and dried up: the reeds and
...flags shall wither.
...The paper reeds by the brooks, by
...the mouth of the brooke, & every ...thing sown by the brooke, shall wi-
...ther, be driven away, & be no more.
...The fishers also shall mourn, and all
...they that cast angle into the brooke,
...shall lament, and they that spread nets
...upon the waters, shall languish.
...Moreover, they that work in fine
...flax, and they that weave net-works,
...shall be confounded.
...And they shalbe broken in the ...purposes thereof, all that make sluces
...and ponds for fish.
...Surely the princes of Zoan are ...fools, the counsell of the wise counsel-
...lers of Pharaoh is become brutish: how ...say ye unto Pharaoh, I am the son of
...the wise, the son of ancient kings?
...Where are they? where are they, y wise ...men? & let them tell thee now, and
...let them know what the LORD of ...hosts hath purposed upon Egypt.
...The princes of Zoan are become
...fools, y princes of Noph are deceived,
...they have also seduced Egypt, even they
...that are the stay of the tribes thereof.
...The LORD hath mingled a per...verse spirit in the midst thereof: and ...they have caused Egypt to erre in every
...work thereof, as a drunken man
...staggereth in his vomit.
...Neither shall there be any work for

Egypt, which the head or taile, branch or rush may doe.

16 In that day shall Egypt be like unto women: and it shall be afraid, & fear, because of y shaking of y hand of the LORD of hosts, w he shaketh over it.

17 And the land of Iudah shalbe a terrour to Egypt, every one that maketh mention thereof, shalb afraid in himselfe, because of the counsell of the LORD of hosts, which he hath determined against it.

18 In that day shal five cities in the land of Egypt speak y language of Canaan, & swear to y Lord of hosts: one shalbe called the city of destruction.

19 In y day shal there be an altar to y Lord, in y midst of y land of Egypt, & a pillar at y border thereof to the Lord.

20 And it shalbe for a signe, & for a witnesse unto the Lord of hosts in the land of Egypt: for they shall cry to the LORD because of the oppressours, and he shal send them a Saviour, & a great One, and he shall deliver them.

21 And the LORD shalbe known to Egypt, and the Egyptians shal know y Lord in that day, and shal do sacrifice and oblation, yea they shal vow a vow unto the LORD, and performe it.

22 And the Lord shal smite Egypt, he shal smite & heale it, and they shal return even to the LORD, & he shalbe intreated of them, and shal heal them.

23 In that day shal there be a hie way out of Egypt to Assyria, and the Assyrian shall come into Egypt, and the Egyptian into Assyria, & the Egyptians shall serve with the Assyrians.

24 In that day shal Israel be the third with Egypt, and with Assyria, even a blessing in the midst of the land:

25 Whom the LORD of hosts shall bless, saying, blessed be Egypt my people, and Assyria the work of my hands, and Israel mine inheritance.

CHAP. XX.

IN the yeer that Tartan came to Ashdod (when Sargon the king of Assyria sent him) and fought against Ashdod, and took it.

2 At the same time spake the Lord by Isaiah the son of Amoz, saying, Go, & loose the sackcloth from off thy loyns, & put off thy shoe from thy foot: and he did so, walking naked, & barefoot.

3 And the LORD said, Like as my servant Isaiah hath walked naked, and barefoot three yeers, for a signe, and wonder upon Egypt & upon Ethiopia:

4 So shal the king of Assyria lead away the Egyptians prisoners, and the Ethiopians captives, young and old, naked & barefoot, even with their buttocks uncovered, to the shame of Egypt.

5 And they shalbe afraid and ashamed of Ethiopia their expectation, and of Egypt their glory.

6 And the inhabitants of this Ile shal say in that day, Behold, such is our expectation whither we flee for help, to be delivered from the king of Assyria: and how shal we escape?

CHAP. XXI.

THE burden of the desert of the sea. As whirlewinds in the South passe thorow, so it cometh from the desert, from a terrible land.

2 A grievous vision is declared unto me: The treacherous dealer dealeth treacherously, and the spoiler spoileth. Go up, O Elam: besiege, O Media: all y sighing thereof have I made to cease.

3 Therefore are my loyns filled with pain: pangs have taken hold upon me, as the pangs of a woman that travaileth: I was bowed down at the hearing of it, I was dismaid at the seeing of it.

4 My heart panted, fearfulness affrighted me: the night of my pleasure hath he turned into fear unto me.

5 Prepare the table, watch in the watch-tower, eat, drink: arise ye Princes, and anoint the shield.

6 For thus hath the LORD said unto me, Go & set a watchman, let him declare what he seeth.

7 And he saw a charet with a couple of horsmen, a charet of asses, and a charet of camels: and he hearkened diligently with much heed.

8 And he cryed, A lyon: my lord, I stand continually upon y watch-tower in the day time, and I am set in my ward whole nights.

9 And behold, here commeth a charet of men, with a couple of horsmen. And he answered, & said, Babylon is fallen, is fallen, and all the graven images of her gods he hath broken unto y ground.

10 O my threshing, & the corn of my floor: that which I have heard of the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, have I declared unto you.

11 The burden of Dumah. He calleth to me out of Seir, Watchman, what of the night? watchman, what of the night?

12 The watchman said, The morning commeth, and also the night: if ye will enquire, enquire ye: return, come.

13 The burden upon Arabia. In the forrest in Arabia shall ye lodge, O ye travelling companies of Dedanim.

14 The inhabitants of y land of Tema brought water to him y was thirsty, they prevented with their bread him that fled.

15 For they fled from y swords, from the drawn sword, & from y bent bow, and from the grievous misery of warre.

16 For thus hath y Lord said unto me, Within a yeer after the yeers of a hireling, & all the glory of Kedar shall fail:

17 And the residue of the number of archers, the mighty men of the children of Kedar shall be diminished: for the LORD God of Israel hath spoken it.

CHAP. XXII.

THE burden of the valley of vision. What aileth thee now, that thou art wholly gone up to the house tops?

2 Thou y art full of shrikes, a tumultuous city, a joyous city: thy slain men are not slain with y sword, nor dead in battel.

3 All thy rulers are fled together, they are bound by the archers: all that are found in thee are bound together, which have fled from far.

and a river, are bound together, they have fled from far.

3 Therefore find I, Look away from me, I will weep bitterly, labour not to comfort me, because of the spoyling of the daughter of my people.

4 Be thou ashamed, O Zidon, and of fortress, a day of trouble, and of treading down, and of perplexity, by y Lord God of hosts, in the valley of Vision, breaking down the walls, and of crying to the mountains.

5 And Elam bare the quiver with chariots of men and horsemen, and Kir uncovered the shield.

6 And it shall come to passe, that thy choice valleys shall be full of chariots, & the horsemen shall set themselves in array at the gate.

7 And he discovered the covering of Judah, and thou didst look in that day to the armour of the house of y forrest.

8 Ye have seen also the breaches of the city of David, that they are many: and ye gathered together the waters of the lower poole.

9 And ye have numbred the houses of Jerusalem, and the houses have yee broken down to fortifie the wall.

10 Ye made also a ditch between the two walles, for the water of the old poole: but ye have not looked unto the maker of it, neither had respect unto him that fashioned it long ago.

11 And in y day did the Lord God of hosts call to weeping, & to mourning, & to baldnes, & to girding on sackcloth:

12 And behold, joy and gladnes, slaying of oxen, and killing sheep, eating of flesh, and drinking wine: let us eate & drink; for to morrow we shall die.

13 And it was revealed in mine ears by the Lord of hosts, surely this iniquity shall not be purged from you, till ye die, saith the Lord God of hosts.

14 Thus saith y Lord God of hosts, Go get thee to this treasurer, even to Shebna, which is over y house, & say,

15 What hast thou here? & whom hast thou here, that thou hast hewed thee out a sepulcher on high, & y graveth him a habitation for himself in a rocke?

16 Behold the Lord will carry thee away with a mighty captivity, and will surely cover thee.

17 He will surely violently turn and toss thee like a ball into a large country: there shalt thou die, and there the chariots of thy glory shalbe the shame of thy lords house.

18 And I will drive thee from thy station, and from thy state shal he pull thee down.

19 And it shall come to pass in that day, that I will call my servant Eliakim the son of Hilkiah:

20 And I will clothe him with thy robe, and strengthen him with thy girdle, and I will commit thy government into his hand: and he shall be a father to y inhabitants of Jerusalem, & to y house of Judah.

21 And the key of the house of David will I lay upon his shoulder; so he shal open, and none shal shut, and he shall shut, and none shal open.

22 And I will fasten him as a nayle in a sure place, and he shalbe for a glorious throne to his fathers house.

23 And they shal hang upon him all the glory of his fathers house, the offspring, and the issue, all vessels of small quantity from the vessels of cups, even to all the vessels of flagons.

24 In that day, saith the Lord of hosts, shal y nayle that is fastened in the sure place be removed, and be cut down, & fall: and the burden that was upon it, shalbe cut off: for y Lord hath spoken it.

CHAP. XXIII.

THE burden of Tyre. Howl ye ships of Tarshish, for it is laid waste, so y there is no house, no entring in: from y land of Chittim it is revealed to them.

2 Be still ye inhabitants of the Ile, thou whom y merchants of Zidon, y passe over the sea, have replenished.

3 And by great waters the seed of Sihor the harvest of the river is her revenue: and she is a mart of nations.

4 Be thou ashamed, O Zidon; for the sea hath spoken, even the strength of the sea, saying, I travel not, nor bring forth children, neither doe I nourish up young men, nor bring up virgins.

5 As at the report concerning Egypt, so shall they be sorely pained at the report of Tyre.

6 Passe ye over to Tarshish, howle ye inhabitants of the Ile.

7 Is this your joyous city, whose antiquitie is of ancient dayes? her owne feet shal carry her afar off to sojourne.

8 Who hath taken this counsel against Tyre, y crowning city, whose merchants are Princes, whose traffiquers are the honourable of the earth.

9 The Lord of hosts hath purposed it, to staine the pride of all glory, and to bring into contempt all the honourable of the earth.

10 Passe through thy land as a river, O daughter of Tarshish: there is no more strength.

11 He stretched out his hand over y sea, he shook the kingdoms: but the Lord hath give a commandment against y merchant city, to destroy the strong holds.

12 And he said, Thou shalt no more rejoyce, O y oppressed virgine daughter of Zidon: arise passe over to Chittim, there also shalt thou have no rest.

13 Behold, the land of y Caldeans, this people was not till the Assyrians founded it for them that dwel in the wilderness: they set up the towers thereof, they raised up the palaces thereof, and he brought it to ruine.

14 Howle ye ships of Tarshish: for your strength is laid waste.

15 And it shal come to pass in y day, that Tyre shalbe forgotten seventy yeers, according to the dayes of one king: after the end of seventy yeeres shal Tyre sing as an harlot.

16 Take an harp, go about the city, thou thou hast not, that hast been forgotten, make sweet melody, sing many songs that thou mayest be remembred.

17 And it shal come to passe after the end of seuenty years, that the LORD will visit Tyre, and she shall turn to her hire, and shal commit fornication with all the kingdomes of the world, upon the face of the earth.

18 And her merchandizes, and her hire shal be holines to the LORD: it shal not be treasured, nor laid up: for her merchandize shall be for them that dwel before the LORD, to eat sufficiently, and for durable clothings.

CHAP. XXIV.

BEholde the LORD maketh the earth empty, and maketh it waste, & turneth it vpside down, and scatereth abroad the inhabitants thereof.

2 And it shalbe as with the people, so with the Priest: as with the seruant, so with his master, as with the maide, so with her mistresse: as with the buyer, so with the seller, as with the lender, so with the borrower, as with the taker of vsury, so with the giuer of vsury to him.

3 The land shall be vtterly emptied, and vtterly spoiled: for the LORD hath spoken this word.

4 The earth mourneth & fadeth away, y world languisheth & fadeth away, y haughty people of y earth do languish.

5 The earth also is defiled vnder the inhabitants thereof, because they have transgressed the lawes, changed the Ordinances, broken y euerlasting couenāt.

6 Therefore hath the curse deuoured the earth, and they y dwell therein are desolate: therefore the inhabitants of y earth are burned, & few men left.

7 The new wine mourneth, the vine tree languisheth, all y merry harted do sigh.

8 The mirth of tabrets ceaseth, the noise of them that reioyce endeth, the ioy of the harp ceaseth.

9 They shal not drink wine with a song: strong drink shall be bitter to them that drink it.

10 The city of confusion is broken downe: euery house is shut vp, that no man may come in.

11 There is a crying for wine in the streets, all ioy is darkened, the mirth of the land is gone.

12 In the city is left desolation, and the gate is smitten with destruction.

13 When this shalbe in the midst of the land among y peoples, there shal be as y shaking of an olive tree, & as the gleaning grapes when y vintage is done.

14 They shal lift vp their voyce, they shall sing for the maiesty of y LORD, and they shal crie aloud from the Sea.

15 Wherefore, glorifie ye the LORD in the fires, even y Name of y LORD spoken of, God of Israel in the Iles of the Sea.

16 From y vttermost part of y earth have we heard songs, even glory to y righteous: but I said, my leannes, my leannes, wo vnto me: y treacherous dealers haue dealt treacherously, y treacherous dealers haue dealt very treacherously.

17 Feare, and the pit, and the snare are vpon thee, O inhabitant of the earth.

18 And it shal come to passe, that he who fleeth from the noise of the feare shall fall into the pit, and he that commeth vp out of the midst of the pit shall be taken in the snare: for the windowes from on high are open, and the foundations of the earth do shake.

19 The earth is vtterly broken down, the earth is cleane dissolued, the earth is moued exceeding ly.

20 The earth shal reele to and fro like a drunken man, and shal be removed like a cottage: and the transgression thereof shall be heauy vpon it, and it shall fall and not rise againe.

21 And it shal come to passe in y day that the LORD shal punish the hoste of the high ones that are on high, and the kings of the earth vpon the earth.

22 And they shall be gathered together as prisoners are gathered in the pit, and shall be shut vp in the prison, and after many dayes shall they be visited.

23 Then the Moone shal be confounded, and the Sunne ashamed, when the LORD of hosts shall reigne in mount Zion, and in Ierusalem, and before his ancients gloriously.

CHAP. XXV.

O LORD, thou art my God: I will exalt thee, I will praise thy Name, for thou hast done wonderful things: thy counsels of olde are faithfulnes, and truth.

2 For thou hast made of a citie an heape, a defenced city a ruine: a palace of strangers, to be no citie, it shall neuer be built.

3 Therefore shal the strong people glorifie thee, the citie of the terrible nations shall feare thee.

4 For y hast been a strength to y poore, a strength to the needy in his distresse, a refuge from a shadow from heate, when the blast of the terrible ones is as a storme against the wall.

5 Thou shalt bring downe y noise of strangers, as y heat in a drie place, even the heat with the shadow of a cloud, so shal the song of the terrible ones be brought low.

6 And in this mountain shall the LORD of hosts make vnto all people a feast of fat things, a feast of wines on lees well refined.

7 And he will destroy in this mountain the couering cast ouer all people, and the vaile y is spread ouer all nations.

8 He will swallow vp death in victorie, and the Lord GOD will wipe away teares from off all faces, and the rebuke of his people shall he take away from off all the earth: for the LORD hath spoken it.

9 And it shall be said in that day, Lo, this is our God: we have waited for him, and he will saue vs: this is the LORD: we have waited for him, we will be glad & reioyce in his saluation.

10 For in this mountain shall the hand

…trouble, and Moab shall be …ashen under him, even as straw …ashen down for the dunghil.

11 And he shall spread forth his hands …st of them, as he that swim…spreadeth forth his hands to swim, …he shall bring down their pride to…ther with the spoils of their hands …of the fortress of thy high fort of …ks shall he bring down, lay, low, …bring to the ground even to the dust.

CHAP. XXVI.

In that day shall this Song be sung …the land of Judah; We have a …ong city, salvation will God appoint …for walls and bulwarks.

2 Open ye the gates, that the righteous nation which keepeth the truth may enter in.

3 Thou wilt keep him in perfect peace, whose mind is stayed on thee, because he trusteth in thee.

4 Trust ye in the LORD for ever: for in the LORD JEHOVAH is everlasting strength.

5 For he bringeth down them that dwell on high, the lofty city he layeth low; he layeth it low even to the ground; he bringeth it even to the dust.

6 The foot shall tread it down, even the feet of the poor, and the steps of needy.

7 The way of the just is uprightness: thou most upright, dost weigh the path of the just.

8 Yea, in the way of thy judgements, O LORD, have we waited for thee; the desire of our soul is to thy Name, and to the remembrance of thee.

9 With my soul have I desired thee in the night; yea, with my spirit within me will I seek thee early: for when thy judgements are in the earth, the inhabitants of the world will learn righteousness.

10 Let favour be shewed to the wicked, yet will he not learn righteousness: in the land of uprightness will he deal unjustly, and will not behold the majesty of the LORD.

11 LORD, when thy hand is lifted up, they will not see: but they shall see, and be ashamed for their envy at the people; yea, the fire of thine enemies shall devour them.

12 LORD, thou wilt ordain peace for us: for thou hast also wrought all our works in us.

13 O LORD our God, other lords besides thee have had dominion over us: but by thee only will we make mention of thy Name.

14 They are dead, they shall not live; they are deceased, they shall not rise: therefore hast thou visited and destroyed them, and made all their memory to perish.

15 Thou hast increased the nation, O LORD, thou hast increased the nation: thou art glorified: thou hast removed it unto all the ends of the earth.

16 LORD, in trouble have they visited thee, they poured out a prayer when thy chastening was upon them.

17 Like as a woman with child, that draweth near the time of her delivery, is in pain, and cryeth out in her pangs: so have we been in thy sight, O LORD.

18 We have been with child, we have been in pain, we have as it were brought forth wind; we have not wrought any deliverance in the earth, neither have the inhabitants of the world fallen.

19 Thy deadmen shall live, together with my dead body shall they arise: awake and sing, ye that dwell in dust, for thy dew is as the dew of herbs, and the earth shall cast out the dead.

20 Come, my people, enter thou into thy chambers, and shut thy doors about thee: hide thyself as it were for a little moment, until the indignation be overpast.

21 For behold, the LORD cometh out of his place, to punish the inhabitants of the earth for their iniquity: the earth also shall disclose her blood, and shall no more cover her slain.

CHAP. XXVII.

IN that day the LORD with his sore and great and strong sword shall punish Leviathan the piercing serpent, even Leviathan that crooked serpent, and he shall slay the dragon that is in the Sea.

2 In that day, sing ye unto her A vineyard of red wine.

3 I the LORD do keep it: I will water it every moment: lest any hurt it, I will keep it night and day.

4 Fury is not in me: who would set the briars and thorns against me in battel? I would go through them, I would burn them together.

5 Or let me take hold of my strength, that he may make peace with me; and he shall make peace with me.

6 He shall cause them that come of Jacob to take root: Israel shall blossome and bud, and fill the face of the world with fruit.

7 Hath he smitten him, as he smote those that smote him? or is he slain according to the slaughter of them that are slain by him?

8 In measure when it shooteth forth, thou wilt debate with it: he stayeth his rough wind in the day of the East wind.

9 By this therefore shall the iniquity of Jacob be purged, and this is all the fruit to take away his sin: when he maketh all the stones of the altar as chalkstones, that are beaten in sunder, the groves and images shall not stand up.

10 Yet the defenced city shall be desolate, and the habitation forsaken, and left like a wilderness: there shall the calf feed, and there shall he lie down, and consume the branches thereof.

11 When the boughs thereof are withered, they shall be broken off: the women come and set them on fire: for it is a people of no understanding: therefore he that made them, will not have mercy on them, and he that formed them will shew them no favour.

12 And it shall come to pass in that day, that the LORD shall beat off from the channel of the river to the stream of Egypt, and ye shall be gathered

ed one by one, O ye children of Israel 13 And it shall come to passe in that day, that the great trumpet shall be blowen, and they shall come which were ready to perish in the land of Assyria, and the out cast in the land of Egypt, and shall worship the LORD in the holy mount at Jerusalem.

CHAP. XXVIII.

WO to the crown of pride, to the drunkards of Ephraim, whose glorious beauty is a fading flowre, which are on the head of the fat valleys of them that are overcome with wine.
2 Behold, the Lord hath a mighty and strong one, which as a tempest of haile and a destroying storm, as a flood of mighty waters overflowing, shall cast down to the earth with the hand.
3 The crown of pride, the drunkards of Ephraim shall be troden under feet:
4 And the glorious beauty which is on the head of the fat valley, shall be a fading flower and as the hasty fruit before the summer: which when he that looketh upon it seeth it, while it is yet in his hand, he eateth it up.
5 In that day shall the LORD of hosts be for a crown of glory, and for a diadem of beauty unto the residue of his people:
6 And for a spirit of iudgement to him that sitteth in judgement, and for strength to them that turn the battel to the gate.
7 But they also have erred through wine, & through strong drink are out of the way: the Priest and the Prophet have erred through strong drink, they are swallowed up of wine, they are out of the way through strong drink, they erre in vision, they stumble in iudgment.
8 For all tables are full of vomite and filthiness, so y there is no place clean.
9 Whom shall he teach know iudge? & whom shall he make to understand doctrine? them that are weaned from the milk, and drawn from the breasts.
10 For precept must be upon precept, precept upon precept; line upon line, line upon line, here a little, and there a little.
11 For with stammering lips, & another tõgue will he speak to this people.
12 To whom he said, This is the rest wherewith ye may cause the weary to rest, and this is the refreshing, yet they would not hear.
13 But the word of the LORD was to them, precept upon precept precept upon precept; line upon line, line upon line, here a little, and there a little: that they might go and fal backward, and be broken and snared, and taken.
14 Wherefore hear the word of the LORD, ye scornful men that rule this people, which is in Jerusalem.
15 Because ye have said We have made a covenant with death, & with hel are we at agreement, when y overflowing scourge shal passe thorow, it shal not come to us: for we have made lies our refuge, & under falshood have we hid our selves;
16 Therefore thus saith the Lord GOD, Behold, I lay in Zion, for a foundation a stone, a tried stone, a precious corner stone, a sure foundation: he that beleeveth, shal not make hast.
17 Iudgement also will I lay to the line, and righteousnesse to the plummet: and the hail shal sweep away the refuge of lies, and the waters shall overflow the hiding place.
18 And your covenant with death shall be disanulled, and your agreement with hel shal not stand: when the overflowing scourge shal passe thorow, then ye shall be troden down by it.
19 From the time that it goeth forth it shal take you: for morning by morning shall it passe over, by day and by night; it shall be a vexation only to understand the report.
20 For the bed is shorter then that a man can stretch himself on it: and the covering narrower, then that he can wrap himself in it.
21 For the LORD shall rise up as in mount Perazim, he shal be wroth as in the valley of Gibeon, that he may do his work, his strange work, and bring to passe his act, his strange act.
22 Now therefore be ye not mockers, lest your bands be made strong: for I have heard from the Lord GOD of hostes a consumption even determined upon the whole earth.
23 Give ye eare, and hear my voice, hearken and hear my speech.
24 Doth the plow-man plow all day to sowe? doth he open and break the clods of his ground?
25 When he hath made plain the face thereof, doth he not cast abroad the fitches, and scatter y cummin: and set in the principall wheat, and the appointed barely, and the rye in their place?
26 For his God doth instruct him to discretion, and doth teach him.
27 For the fitches are not threshed with a threshing instrument, neither is a cart wheel turned about upon the cummin: but the fitches are beaten out with a staffe and y cumming with a rod.
28 Bread-corn is bruised, because he will not ever be threshing it: nor break it with the wheel of his cart: nor bruise it with his horsemen.
29 This also cometh forth from the LORD of hosts, which is wonderful in counsel, and excellent in working.

CHAP. XXIX.

WO to Ariel, to Ariel, the city where David dwelt: adde ye yeer to yeer, let them kil sacrifices.
2 Yet I will distresse Ariel, and there shall be heavinesse and sworrow, and she shall be unto me as Ariel.
3 And I will camp against thee round about & will lay siege against thee with a mount, & I will raise forts against thee.
4 And thou shalt be brought down, and shalt speak out of the ground, and thy speech shal be low out of the dust, & thy voyce shal be as out of the

...ture out of the ground, &
...ech thal whisper out of ẏ dust.
...overed, the multitude of thy
...ine shal be like small dust, and
...ltitude of the terrible ones shal
...ss that passeth away: yea, it
...ow in an instant suddenly.
...ou shalt be visited of the LORD
...h with thunder, & with earth-
...and great noise, with storme &
...and ẏ flame of des ouring fire.
...ltitude of all the na-
...ons that fight against Ariel, even all
...ey that fight against her, and her munit-
...ons, and that distresse her, shal be as a
...eam of a night vision.
...It shal even be as when a hungry
...an dreameth, and behold, he eateth:
...t he awaketh, and his soul is empty:
...or as when a thirsty man dreameth, &
...hold, he drinketh: but he awaketh, &
...hold, he is faint, & his soul hath ap-
...tite: so shal ẏ multitude of all ẏ na
...ons be that fight against mount Zion.
...Stay ẏ selves & wonder, cry
...ye out, & cry: they are drunken, but ...not with wine: they stagger, but not
...with strong drink.
...For the LORD hath powred out upon
...you the spirit of deep sleep, and hath ...closed your eyes: the Prophets, & your
...rulers the Seers hath he covered.
...And the vision of all is become to ...you as the words of a booke that is ...sealed, which men deliver to one that is ...learned, saying, Reade this, I pray thee:
...and he saith, I cannot, for it is sealed.
...And the booke is delivered to him ẏ
...is not learned, saying, Reade this, I pray
...thee: and he saith, I am not learned.
...Wherefore the Lord said, Forasmuch
...as this people draw neere with ...their mouth, and with their lips
...do honour me, but have removed their ...heart from me, & their feare toward
...me is taught by the precepts of men:
...Therefore behold, I will proceed
...to do a marvelous work amongst this ...people, even a marvelous worke and a ...wonder: for the wisdom of their wise
...men shal perish, and the understanding ...of their prudent men shal be hid.
...Woe unto them that seek deep to ...hide their counsel from ẏ LORD, & their ...works are in ẏ dark, & they say,
...Who seeth us? and who knoweth us?
...Surely your turning of things
...upside down shal be esteemed as the ...potters clay: for shal the worke say of ...him that made it, He made me not? or
...shal the thing framed say of him that
...framed it, He had no understanding?
...Is it not yet a very little while,
...and Lebanon shal be turned into a fruit-
...full field, & the fruitful field shal be ...esteemed as a forrest?
...And in that day shal the deafe
...hear the words of the booke, & the eies
...of the blind shall see out of obscu-
...rity, & out of darknesse.
...The meeke also shal increase their
...joy in the LORD, & ẏ poor among men
...shal reioyce in the holy One of Israel.
20 For the terrible one is brought to nought, and the scorner is consumed, & all that watch for iniquity are cut off:
21 That make a man an offender for a word, and lay a snare for him that reproveth in the gate, and turn aside the iust for a thing of nought.
22 Therefore thus saith ẏ LORD, who redeemed Abraham, concerning ẏ house of Iacob: Iacob shal not now be ashamed, neither shal his face now waxe pale.
23 But when he seeth his children, the worke of mine hands in the midst of him, they shal sanctifie my Name, and sanctifie the holy One of Iacob, and shal feare the God of Israel.
24 They also that erred in spirit, shal come to understanding, and they that murmured, shal learne doctrine.

CHAP. XXX.

WOe to the rebellious children, saith the LORD, that take counsel but not of me, and that cover with a covering, but not of my Spirit, that they may adde sin to sin.
2 That walk to go down into Egypt, (and have not asked at my mouth) to strengthen themselves in ẏ strength of Pharoh, & trust in ẏ shadow of Egypt.
3 Therefore shal the strength of Pharaoh be your shame, and the trust in the shadow of Egypt your confusion.
4 For his princes were at Zoan, and his ambassadours came to Hanes.
5 They were al ashamed of a people ẏ could not profit them, not be anhelp, nor profit, but a shame, & also a reproach.
6 The burden of the beasts of the South: into the land of trouble and anguish, from whence come the yong and old lion, the viper, and fiery flying serpent: they wil carry their riches upon the shoulders of young asses, and their treasures on ẏ bunches of camels, to a People that shal not profit them.
7 For ẏ Egyptian shal help in vain, & to no purpose: therfore have I cried concerning this: this their strength is to sit stil.
8 Now go, write it before them in a table, and note it in a booke, ẏ it may be for the time to come for ever & ever.
9 That this is a rebellious people, lying children, children that wil not heare the Law of the LORD.
10 Which say to the Seers, See not, and to the Prophets, Prophecie not unto us right things: speake unto us smooth things, prophecie deceits.
11 Get ye out of the way, turne aside out of the path, cause the holy One of Israel to cease from before us.
12 Wherefore, thus saith the holy One of Israel, Because ye despise this word, and trust un oppression and perverseness, and stay thereon,
13 Therfore this iniquity shal be to you as a breach ready to fal, swelling out in a high wal, whose breaking commeth suddenly at an instant.
14 And he shal break it as ẏ breaking of the potters vessel, that is broken in pieces, he shall not spare, so that there shall not be found in the bruising of it, a sherd to take fire from the hearth or to take water withal out of the pit.

15 For thus saith y Lord GOD, y holy One of Israel, In returning & rest shall ye be saved, in quietness & in confidence shall be your strength. & ye would not,

16 But ye said, No, for we will flee upon horses, therefore shall ye flee. And we will ride upon the swift, therefore shall they that pursue you be swift.

17 One thousand shall flee at y rebuke of one, at y rebuke of five shall ye flee, till ye be left as a beacon upon y top of a mountain, and as an ensigne on an hill.

18 And therefore will the LORD wait, that he may be gracious unto you, and therefore will he be exalted, that he may have mercy upon you: for the LORD is a God of judgement. Blessed are all they that wait for him.

19 For the people shall dwel in Zion at Ierusalem, you shal weep no more: he will be very gracious unto thee, at the voice of thy cry: when he shal hear it, he will answere thee.

20 And though the Lord give you the bread of adversitie, and the water of affliction: yet shal not thy teachers be removed into a corner any more, but thine eyes shall see thy teachers.

21 And thine eares shall heare a word behind thee, saying, This is the way, walk ye in it: when ye turn to the right hand, and when ye turn to the left.

22 Ye shall also defile the covering of thy graven images of silver, & the ornament of thy molten images of gold, & shalt cast them away as a menstruous cloth, & shalt say unto it, Get thee hence.

23 Then shall he give y rain of thy seed, y thou shalt sow y ground with al, and bread of the encrease of y earth, and it shall be fat & plenteous, in y day shal thy cattel feed in large pastures.

24 The oxen, & the asses, and the yong asses that eare y ground, shall eat chaf prouender, which hath been winnowed with the shouel, and with the fan.

25 And there shall be upon every high mountaine, & upon every high hill, riuers and streams of waters in the day of y great slaughter, when y towers fal.

26 Moreouer, y light of y Moon shall be as y light of the Sun, and the light of the Sun shall be seuen fold, as the light of seuen dayes in the day that the LORD bindeth up y breach of his people, & healeth y stroke of their wound.

27 Behold the Name of the LORD commeth from far, burning with his anger, and the burden thereof is heavy, his lips are full of indignation, and his tongue is as deuouring fire.

28 And his breath as an ouerflowing streame shal reach to the midst of the neck, to sift the nations with y sieve of vanity, and there shal be a bridle in y iawes of y people, causing them to erre.

29 Ye shall have a song as in the night, when a holy solemnity is kept, & gladnes of heart, as when one goeth with a pipe to come to y mountaine of y LORD, to the mighty one of Israel.

30 And the LORD shall cause his glorious voice to be heard, and shall shew the lighting down of his arme, with the indignation of his anger, & with the flame of a deuouring fire, scattering, and tempest, & hailstones.

31 For through the voice of the LORD shal the Assyrian be beaten down, which smote with a rod.

32 And in every place where the grounded staffe shall passe, which the LORD shal lay upon him, it shall be with tabrets and harps: and in battels of shaking will he fight with it.

33 For Tophet is ordained of old, for y king it is prepared: he hath made it deepe and large: y pile thereof is fire and much wood: y breath of y LORD like a stream of brimstone doth kindle it.

CHAP. XXXI.

WO to them that go down for help, and stay on horses, and trust in charets, because they are many, & in horsemen, because they are very strong, but they looke not to the holy One of Israel, neither seeke y LORD.

2 Yet he also is wise and will bring evil, and will not call back his words, but will arise against the house of the evil doers, and against the help of them that work iniquity.

3 Now the Egyptians are men, & not God, & their horses flesh, & not spirit: when the LORD shall stretch out his hand both he that helpeth shall fall, & he that is holpen shal fall down, and they all shall faile together.

4 For thus hath y LORD spoken to me, Like as a Lion, & y yong lion roaring on his pray, when a multitude of shepherds is called forth against him, he will not be afraid of their voyce, nor abase himselfe for the noise of them: so shall y LORD of hosts come down to fight for mount Zion, & for y hil thereof.

5 As birds flying, so will the LORD of hosts defend Ierusalem, defending also he will deliver it, and passing over he will preserve it.

6 Turne ye unto him, from whom the children of Israel have deeply revolted.

7 For in that day every man shall cast away his idols of silver, and his idols of gold, which your own hands have made unto you for a sin.

8 Then shall the Assyrian fal with the sword, not of a mighty man, & a sword not of a meane man shall deuour him, but he shall flee from the sword, and his young men shal be discomfited.

9 And he shall passe over to his strong hold for feare, & his princes shalbe afraid of y ensigne, saith y Lord, whose fire is in Zion, & his furnace in Ierusalem.

CHAP. XXXII.

BEholde a king shal reigne in righteousnesse, and princes shal rule in judgement.

...s may shal be as an hiding place
...nd. 3 a covert from y tempest
...ers of water in a dry place: as y
...dow of a great rock in a weary land.
...d the eyes of them that see shal
...ed: and the eares of them
...ing shal hearken.
...e mynde of the rash shal under-
...knowledge, and the tongue of y
...mers shal be ready to speak plainly.
...e vile person shal be no more
...alled; nor the churle said to
...e bountifull.
...or the vile person will speak vil-
...and his heart will work iniquity,
...ake hypocrisie, and to vtter er-
...gainst the LORD, to make empt
...ul of y hungry: and he will cause
...ink of the thirsty to faile.
...e instruments also of the churl
...e be deuises: he deuiseth wicked deuices to
...oy the poore with lying words,
...even when the needy speaketh right.
...t liberall deuiseth liberal things:
...d by liberall things shal he stand.
...ise up ye women that are at ease
...ar my voice, ye careles daughters,
...give eare vnto my speech.
...e dayes & yeares shal ye be trou-
...ye careles women: for y vintage
...l the gathering shal not come.
...tremble ye women that are at ...e troubled ye careles ones, strip
...d make ye bare, & gird sackcloth
...on your loynes.
...y shal lament for y teares: for
...rtyle fields, for y fruitfull vine
...For the land of my people shal
...ng thornes and briers: ya, vpon all
...ouses of ioy in the ioyous city
...cause the palaces shal be forsaken,
...ant mvde of the cities shal be left,
...ull owne shal be for dens for ever
...ioy of wilde asses, a pasture of no. kee
...Vntil the spirit be powred vpon
...om on high, and the wilderness be
...ruitfull field, and the fruitfull field
...counted for a forrest.
...Then iudgement shal dwel in the ...ilderness, and righteousnesse re-
...ne in the fruitful field
...And the work of righteousnes shal
...ace: and the effect of righteous-
...sse, quietnesse, & assurance for ever.
...And my people shall dwell in a
...ace habitation and in sure dwel-
...ngs, and in quiet resting places:
...When it shall haile coming down
...pon the forrest, and the city shal be low
...ly in a low place.
...Blessed are ye that sow beside all
...aters, and send forth thither the feet
...of the ore and the asse.

CHAP. XXXIII.

...Woe vnto thee that spoilest, & thou
...hast not spoiled: and deale ft treacherously, & they deale not treacherously
...with thee: when thou shalt cease to spoyle, thou shalt be spoiled. & when thou shalt make an end to deale treacherously, they shal deal treacherously with thee.
...O LORD, be gracious vnto vs: we ...have waited for thee: be thou their arme every morning, our salvation also in the time of trouble.
...3 At the noise of the tumult the people fled: at the lifting vp of thy self the nations were scattered.
...4 And your spoile shalbe gathered like the gathering of the caterpillar: as the running to and fro of Locusts shal it run vpon them.
...5 The LORD is exalted: for he dwelleth on high: he hath filled Zion with iudgment and righteousnesse.
...6 And wisedome and knowledge shal be the stablesy of thy times, and strength of saluation: the feare of the LORD is his treasure.
...7 Behold, their valiant ones shal cry without: the Ambassadours of peace shal weepe bitterly.
...8 The high wayes lie waste: the wayfaring man ceaseth: he hath broken the covenant, he hath despised the citty, he regardeth no man.
...9 The earth mourneth & languisheth: Lebanon is ashamed, & hewed down, Sharon is like a wilderne sse: & Basshan and Carmel shake off their fruits.
...10 Now will I rise, saith the LORD: now will I be exalted, now will I lift vp my selfe.
...11 Ye shal conceive chaffe, ye shall bring foorth stubble: your breath as fire shal deuoure you.
...12 And the people shal be as the burnings of lime: as thornes cut vp shall they be burnt in the fire.
...13 Heare ye that are farre off, what I have done: and ye that are neere, acknowledge my might.
...14 The sinners in Zion are afraid, fearfulnesse hath surprised the hypocrites: who among us shal dwel with y deuouring fire? who among us shal dwel with everlasting burnings?
...15 He that walketh righteously and speaketh vprightly: he that despiseth y gaine of oppression, that shaketh his hands from holding of bribes: y stopper his eares from hearing of blood, & shutteth his eyes from seeing evil:
...16 He shal dwel on high, his place of defence shal be the munitions of rockes: bread shal be given him: his waters shal be sure.
...17 Thine eyes shall see the king in his beauty: they shal behold the land that is very farre off.
...18 Thine heart shal meditate terrour: Where is y Scribe? where is y receiver? where is he that counted the towers?
...19 Thou shalt not see a fierce people, a people of a deeper speech then thou canst perceive: of a stammering tongue that thou canst not understand.
...20 Look vpon Zion the city of our solemnities: thine eyes shal see Ierusalem a quiet habitation, a tabernacle y shal not be taken down, not one of y stakes thereof shal ever be removed, neither shal any of y cords thereof be broken.
...21 But there y glorious LORD will be so is a place of broad rivers & streams, wherein shal go no galy & oares, neither shal gallant ships passe thereby.

22 For the LORD is our Iudge, the LORD is our Law-giver, the LORD is our king, he wil save us.

23 Thy tacklings are loosed, they could not wel stregthe their mast, they could not spread the sail: then is y prey of a great spoil divided, y lame take y prey

24 And the inhabitant shal not say, I am sicke: the people that dwel therein shalbe forgiven their iniquity.

CHAP. XXXIII.

COme neere ye nations to heare, and hearken ye people, let y earth hear, and all that is therein: y the world, and all things that come forth of it.

2 For the indignation of y LORD is on al nations, and his fury on al their armies: he hath utterly destroyed them, he hath delivered them to y slaughter.

3 Their slain also shal be cast out, and their stinke shal come up out of their carkeises, and the mountaines shal be melted with their blood.

4 And al the host of heaven shal be dissolved, and y heavens shal be rouled together as a scroll: & al their host shal fal down, as y leafe falleth off from y vine, & as a falling fig from y fig-tree

5 For my sword shal be bathed in heaven: behold, it shal come down upon Idumea, and upon the people of my curse to judgement.

6 The sword of y LORD is filled with blood, it is made fat with fatnesse, and with the blood of lambes, & goats, & the fat of the kidneys of rams: for the LORD hath a sacrifice in Bozrah, and a great slaughter in y land of Idumea.

7 And y Vnicornes shall come down with them, and y bullocks with y buls, and their land shal bee soaked with blood, & their dust made fat & fatnes.

8 For it is the day of the LORDS vengeance, and the yeere of recompence for the controverse of Zion.

9 And the streames thereof shal be turned into pitch, and the dust thereof into brimstone, and the land thereof shal become burning pitch.

10 It shal not be quenched night nor day, the smoke thereof shal goe up for ever: from generation to generation it shal lie waste: none shal passe thorow it for ever and ever.

11 The cormorant and the bittern shal possesse it, the owle also and the raven shal dwel in it, and he shal stretch out upon it the line of confusion, and the stones of emptinesse.

12 They shal cal the Nobles thereof to the kingdom, but none shalbe there, and al her princes shal be nothing.

13 And thorns shal come up in her palaces, nettles and brambles in the fortresses thereof, & it shal be an habitation of dragons, & a court for owls.

14 The wild beasts of the desart shal also meete with the wilde beasts of the Ilands, and the Satyre shal cry to his fellow, the shrich-owle also shal rest there, & find for her self a place of rest.

15 There shal y great Owle make her nest, and lay, & hatch, & gather vnder her shaddow: there shal the Vultures also be gathered every one to her mate.

16 Seeke ye out of the book of the Lord, and read: no one of these shal faile, none shal want her mate: for my mouth, it hath commanded, and his spirit, it hath gathered them.

17 And he hath cast y lot for them, and his hand hath divided it to them by line: they shal possesse it for ever, from generation to generation, shal they dwel therein.

CHAP. XXXV.

THe wildernesse and y solitary place shalbe glad for them: and y desert shal rejoyce and blossome as the rose.

2 It shal blossome abundantly, and rejoyce even with ioy and singing: the glory of Lebanon shalbe given vnto it, the excellency of Carmel & Sharon: they shal see the glory of the LORD, and the excellencie of our God.

3 Strengthen ye the weake hands, and confirme the feeble knees.

4 Say to them y are of a fearful heart, Be strong, feare not, behold, your God will come with vengeance, even God with a recompense, he wil come & save you.

5 Then the eyes of the blinde shalbe opened, and the eares of the deafe shalbe unstopped.

6 Then shal the lame man leape as a hart, and the tongue of the dumbe sing: for in the wildernesse shal waters break out, and streames in the desart.

7 And the parched ground shal become a poole, and the thirsty land springs of water: in the habitation of dragons where each lay shal be grasse, with reedes and rushes.

8 And an high way shalbe there, and a way, & it shal be called y way of holinesse, the unclean shal not passe over it, but it shal be for those: y way-faring men, though fools shal not erre therein.

9 No lyon shal be there, nor any ravenous beast shal go up thereon, it shal not be found there; but the redeemed shal walk there.

10 And the ransomed of the LORD shal returne, and come to Zion with songs, and everlasting ioy upon their heads: they shal obtaine ioy & gladnesse, and sorrow and sighing shal flee away.

CHAP. XXXVI.

NOw it came to passe, in the fourteenth yeere of king Hezekiah, that Sennacherib king of Assyria came up against al the defenced cities of Iudah, and took them.

2 And the king of Assyria sent Rabshakeh, from Lachish to Ierusalem vnto king Hezekiah, with a great army: and he stood by y conduit of the upper poole, in y high way of y fullers field.

3 Then came forth vnto him Eliakim, Hilkiahs son, which was over the house, and Shebna the Scribe, and Ioah Asaphs son, the Recorder.

Rabshakeh said to them, Say to Hezekiah, Thus saith the great king, the king of Assyria, what confidence is this wherein thou trustest?
5 (I say, (sayest thou,) (but they are but words.) I have counsel and strength for war: Now on whom dost thou trust, that thou rebellest against me?
6 Lo, thou trustest upon the staff of this broken reed, on Egypt, whereon if a man lean, it will go into his hand, and pierce it: so is Pharaoh king of Egypt unto all that trust in him.
7 But if thou say to me, We trust in the LORD our God: Is not he whose high places and whose altars Hezekiah hath taken away, and said to Judah and to Jerusalem, Ye shall worship before this altar?
8 Now therefore give pledges, I pray thee, to my master the king of Assyria, and I will deliver thee two thousand horses, if thou be able on thy part to set riders upon them.
9 How then wilt thou turn away the face of one captain of the least of my master's servants, & put thy trust on Egypt for chariots and for horsemen?
10 And am I now come up without the LORD against this land, to destroy it? The LORD said unto me, Go up against this land, & destroy it.
11 Then said Eliakim & Shebna & Joah unto Rabshakeh, Speak, I pray thee, unto thy servants in the Syrian language; for we understand it: and speak not to us in the Jews language, in the ears of the people that are on the wall.
12 But Rabshakeh said, Hath my master sent me to thy master, and to thee, to speak these words? hath he not sent me to the men that sit on the wall, that they may eat their own dung, & drink their own piss with you?
13 Then Rabshakeh stood, and cried with a loud voice in the Jews language, and said, Hear ye the words of the great king, the king of Assyria.
14 Thus saith the King; Let not Hezekiah deceive you; for he shall not be able to deliver you.
15 Neither let Hezekiah make you trust in the LORD, saying, The LORD will surely deliver us: this city shall not be given into the hand of the king of Assyria.
16 Hearken not to Hezekiah: for thus saith the King of Assyria, Make an agreement with me by a present, and come out to me: and eat ye every one of his own vine, and every one of his fig tree, & drink ye every one waters of his own cistern:
17 Until I come & take you away to a land like your own land, a land of corn & wine, a land of bread and vineyards.
18 Beware lest Hezekiah perswade you, saying, The LORD will deliver us: Hath any of the gods of the nations delivered his land out of the hand of the king of Assyria?
19 Where are the gods of Hamath & of Arphad? Where are the gods of Sepharvaim? and have they delivered Samaria out of my hand?
20 Who are they among all the gods of these lands, that have delivered their land out of my hand, that the LORD should deliver Jerusalem out of my hand?
21 But they held their peace, & answered him not a word: for the king's commandment was, saying, Answer him not.
22 Then came Eliakim the son of Hilkiah, that was over the household, and Shebna the Scribe, and Joah the son of Asaph the recorder, to Hezekiah with their clothes rent and told him the words of Rabshakeh.

CHAP. XXXVII.

AND it came to passe, when King Hezekiah heard it, y he rent his clothes & covered himself with sackcloth, & went into the house of the LORD.
2 And he sent Eliakim, who was over the household, and Shebna y scribe, and the Elders of the Priests covered with sackcloth, unto Isaiah the Prophet, the son of Amoz.
3 And they said to him, Thus saith Hezekiah, This day is a day of trouble, & of rebuke, & of blasphemy; for the children are come to y birth, and there is not strength to bring forth.
4 It may be the LORD thy God will heare the words of Rabshakeh, whom the king of Assyria his master hath sent to reproach the living God, and will reprove the words which the Lord thy God hath heard; wherefore lift up thy prayer for the remnant that is left.
5 So the servants of King Hezekiah came to Isaiah.
6 And Isaiah said to them, Thus shall ye say to your master, Thus saith the LORD, Be not afraid of the words y thou hast heard, wherewith the servants of King of Assyria have blasphemed me.
7 Behold, I will send a blast upon him, & he shall heare a rumour, & return to his own land, & I will cause him to fall by the sword in his own land.
8 So Rabshakeh returned, and found y king of Assyria warring against Libnah: for he had heard that he was departed from Lachish.
9 And he heard say concerning Tirhakah King of Ethiopia, He is come forth to make warre with thee: and when he heard it, he sent messengers to Hezekiah, saying;
10 Thus shall ye speak to Hezekiah King of Judah, saying, Let not thy God in whom thou trustest, deceive thee, saying, Jerusalem shall not be given into the hand of the King of Assyria.
11 Behold, thou hast heard what the Kings of Assyria have don to all lands, by destroying them vtterly, and shalt thou be deliuered?
12 Have y gods of y nations delivered them w my fathers have destroyed, as Gozan, & Haran, & Rezeph, and y children of Eden which were in Telassar?
13 Where is the King of Hamath, and y King of Arphad, & the King of y city of Sepharuaim, Hena and Ivah?
14 And Hezekiah received the letter from y hand of y messengers, and read it, it, & Hezekiah went up to ỹ house of the Lord, & spread it before the Lord.

15 And Hezekiah prayed unto the LORD, saying:

16 O LORD of hosts, God of Israel that dwellest betweene the Cherubims, thou art the God, even thou alone, of all the king doms of the earth, thou hast made heaven and earth.

17 Incline thine eare, O Lord, & hear. Open thine eyes, O LORD, & see, and heare al the words of Sennacherib, & hath sent to reproach the living God.

18 Of a truth, LORD, the kings of Assyria have laid waste al the nations, and their countreys,

19 And have cast their gods into the fire: for they were no gods, but the work of mens hands, wood and stone: therefore they have destroyed them.

20 Now therfore, O LORD our God, save us from his hand, that al the kingdoms of the earth may know, that thou art the LORD, even thou only.

21 Then Isaiah the son of Amoz sent unto Hezekiah, saying, Thus saith the LORD God of Israel, Whereas thou hast prayed to me against Sennacherib king of Assyria:

22 This is the word ỹ the Lord hath spoken concerning him: The virgin, ỹ daughter of Zion hath despised & laughed thee to scorn; the daughter of Jerusalē hath shaken her head at thee.

23 Whom hast ỹ reproached & blaspheméd? & against whom hast thou exalted thy voice, & lifted up thine eies on high? even against ỹ holy one of Israel.

24 By ỹ servants hast ỹ reproached the Lord, & hast said, By ỹ multitude of my chariots am I come up to ỹ height of the mountaines, to the sides of Lebanon: and I will cut down the tal Cedars ther of: and the choice firre-trees ther of: & I will enter into ỹ height of his border, & the forest of his Carmel.

25 I have digged & drunk water, and with the sole of my feet have I dryed up al the rivers of the besieged places.

26 Hast ỹ not heard long ago, how I have done it & of ancient times, that I have formed it? now have I brought it to passe, that thou shouldest be to lay wast defenced cities in ruinous heaps.

27 Therefore their inhabitants were of smal power, they were dismayed and confounded: they were as the grasse of the feild, and as the green herb, as the grasse on the house tops, and as corne blasted before it be grown up.

28 But I know thy abode, and thy going out, and thy comming in, and thy rage against me.

29 Because thy rage against me & thy tumult is come up into mine eares: therfore wil I put my hook in thy nose, & my bridle in thy lips, & I wil turn thee back by the way by which thou camest.

30 And this shal be a signe unto thee: Ye shal eat this yeer such as groweth of it self, and the second yeer that which springeth of the same: and in the third ye re sow ye, and reap, and plant vineyards, & eate the fruit therof.

31 And the remnant that is escaped the house of Iudah, shall againe root downward & bear fruit upward.

32 For out of Jerusalem shal go a remnant, and they that escape out of mount Zion: the zeale of the LORD of hosts shall doe this.

33 Therefore thus saith the LORD concerning the king of Assyria, He shal not come into this city, nor shoot an arrow there, nor come before it with shield, nor cast a banke against it.

34 By the way that he came, by the same shal he return, and he shal not come into this city, saith the LORD.

35 For I wil defend this city to save it, for mine own sake, and for my servant Davids sake.

36 Then the Angel of the LORD went forth, and smote in the camp of the Assyrians an hundred and fourscore and five thousand: and when they arose early in the morning, behold, they were al dead corpses.

37 So Sennacherib king of Assyria departed, & went and returned home, & dwelt at Nineveh.

38 And it came to pass, as he was worshipping in the house of Nisroch his god, that Adrameleck & Sharezer his sons smote him with the sword, & escaped into the land of Armenia: and Esarhaddōthis son reigned in his stead.

CHAP. XXXVIII.

IN those dayes was Hezekiah sick to death: & Isaiah the Prophet the son of Amoz came to him, & said to him, thus saith the LORD, Set thine house in order for thou shalt die, & not live.

2 Then Hezekiah turned his face toward the wal, & prayed to the LORD,

3 And said, remember now, O LORD, I beseech thee, how I have walked before thee in truth, and with a perfect heart, & have done that which is good in thy sight: and Hezekiah wept sore.

4 Then came the word of the LORD to Isaiah, saying,

5 Go and say to Hezekiah, Thus saith the LORD, the God of David thy father, I have heard thy prayer. I have seen thy teares: behold, I wil adde unto thy dayes fifteen yeers.

6 And I wil deliver thee, & this city out of the hand of the king of Assyria: and I wil defend this city.

7 And this shal be a signe unto thee from the LORD, that the LORD wil doe this thing that he hath spoken:

8 Behold, I wil bring again the shadow of ỹ degrees which is gone down in the Sun-dial of Ahaz ten degrees backward: so the Sun returned ten degrees by ỹ degrees it was gone down.

9 The writing of Hezekiah king of Iudah, when he had been sick, and was recovered of his sickneſſe.

10 I said, in ỹ cutting off of my days I shal go to the gates of the grave: I am deprived of the residue of my yeers.

11 I said

...I shal not see the Lord, even
...lord in the land of the living: I ...should man no more with the in...habitant of the world.
12 Mine age is departed, and is re...moved from me as a shepherd's tent: I ...have cut off like a weaver my life: he ...will cut me off with pining sickness
...from day even to night wilt thou
...make an end of me.
13 I reckoned til morning, that as a ...lion so will he break all my bones:
...from day even to night wilt thou
...make an end of me.
14 Like a crane or a swallow, so did
...I chatter: I did mourn as a dove: mine
...eyes fail with looking upward: O
...Lord, I am oppressed, undertake for me.
15 What shall I say? he hath both spo...ken unto me, and himself hath done
...it: I shall go softly all my years, in the ...bitterness of my soul.
16 O Lord, by these things men live:
...and in all these things is the life of my ...spirit: so wilt thou recover me, and
...make me to live.
17 Behold, for peace I had great bitter...ness: but thou hast in love to my soul de...livered it from the pit of corruption: for
...thou hast cast all my sins behind thy back.
18 For the grave cannot praise thee, death
...can celebrate thee: they that go down
...into the pit cannot hope for thy truth.
19 The living, the living, he shall praise
...thee, as I do this day: the father to the ...children shall make known thy truth.
20 The Lord was ready to save me:
...therefore we will sing my songs to the ...stringed instruments, all the dayes of ...our life in the house of the Lord.
21 For Isaiah had said, Let them take a ...lump of figs, & lay it for a plaister upon
...the boyle, and he shal recover.
22 Hezekiah also had said, What is ...the sign that I shal go up to the house
...of the LORD?

CHAP. XXXIX.

1 Merodach-Baladan the ...son of Baladan king of Babylon,
...sends and a Present to Hezekiah:
2 he had heard that he had been sick,
...and recovered.
2 And Hezekiah was glad of them,
...and shewed them the house of his pre...cious things, the silver, and the gold, &
...the spices, and the precious ointment,
...and the house of his armour, and all
...that was found in his treasures: there ...was nothing in his house, nor in all his
...dominion, that Hezekiah shewed them not.
3 Then came Isaiah the Prophet to ...king Hezekiah, and said to him, What
...said these men? and from whence came
...they unto thee? And Hezekiah said,
...They are come from a far country to
...me, even from Babylon.
4 Then said he, What have they seen
...in thine house? and Hezekiah answered,
...All that is in mine house have they
...seen: there is nothing among my trea...sures that I have not shewed them.
5 Then said Isaiah unto Hezekiah,
...Hear the word of the LORD of hosts.
6 Behold, the dayes come, that all that ...is in thine house, and that which thy ...fathers have laid up in store until this ...day, shall be carried to Babylon: nothing
...shall be left, saith the Lord.
7 And of thy sons that shall issue from ...thee, which thou shalt beget, shall they
...take away, and they shall be eunuches
...in the palace of the king of Babylon.
8 Then said Hezekiah to Isaiah, Good
...is the word of the Lord which thou hast
...spoken. He said moreover, For there ...shall be peace and trueth in my dayes.

CHAP. XL.

1 Comfort ye, comfort ye my people
...saith your God.
2 Speake ye comfortably to Jerusa...lem, and cry unto her, that her warfare
...is accomplished, that her iniquity is ...pardoned: for she hath received of the ...Lords hand double for all her sinnes.
3 The voyce of him that cryeth in ...the wilderness, Prepare ye the way of ...the Lord, make straight in the desert a
...high way for our God.
4 Every valley shall be exalted, & ev...ery mountain & hil shall be made low,
...and the crooked shall be made straight,
...and the rough places plaine.
5 And the glory of the Lord shall be re...vealed, & all flesh shall see it together,
...for y mouth of y Lord hath spoken it.
6 The voice said, Cry. And he said,
...What shall I cry? All flesh is grasse, and
...all the goodliness thereof is as the flour
...of the field.
7 The grasse withereth, y flour fadeth,
...because the spirit of the Lord bloweth
...upon it: surely the people is grasse.
8 The grasse withereth, the flour
...fadeth, but the word of our God shall
...stand for ever.
9 O Zion, that bringest good tidings,
...get thee up into the high mountaine:
...O Jerusalem, that bringest good tidings,
...lift up thy voice with strength, lift it
...up, be not afraid, say unto the cities of
...Judah, Behold your God.
10 Behold, the Lord God will come ...with a strong hand, and his arme shall
...rule for him: behold, his reward is
...with him, and his worke before him.
11 He shal feed his flocke like a shep...herd: he shall gather the lambs with his
...arme, and carry them in his bosome, &
...shal gently lead those that are with young.
12 Who hath measured the waters in ...the hollow of his hand? & meted out
...heaven with the span, and comprehen-
...ded the dust of the earth in a measure,
...and weighed the mountaines in scales,
...and the hills in a ballance?
13 Who hath directed the Spirit of ...the LORD, or being his counseller,
...hath taught him?
14 With whom took he counsel, and ...who instructed him, and taught him in
...the path of judgement, and taught him
...knowledge, and shewed to him the ...way of understanding?
15 Behold, the nations are as a drop ...of a bucket, and are counted as the small dust of the ballance: behold, he taketh up the iles as a very little thing.

16 And Lebanon is not sufficient to burne, nor the beasts thereof sufficient for a burnt offering.

17 All nations before him are as nothing, and they are counted to him lesse than nothing, and vanitie.

18 To whom then will ye liken God? or what likenesse will ye compare unto him?

19 The workman melteth a graven image, and the goldsmith spreadeth it over with gold, and casteth silver chaines.

20 He that is so impoverished that hee hath no oblation, chooseth a tree that will not rot; he seeketh unto him a cunning workeman, to prepare a graven image that shall not be removed.

21 Have ye not known? have ye not heard? hath it not been told you from the beginning? have ye not understood from the foundations of the earth?

22 It is he that sitteth upon the circle of the earth, and the inhabitants thereof are as grasshoppers; that stretcheth out the heavens as a curtaine, and spreadeth them out as a tent to dwell in.

23 That bringeth Princes to nothing, he maketh the Iudges of the earth as vanity.

24 Yea, they shall not be planted; yea, they shall not be sowne, yea, their stock shall not take root in the earth: and he shall also blow upon them, and they shall wither, and the whirlwind shall take them away as stubble.

25 To whom then will ye liken me, or shall I be equall? saith the holy One.

26 Lift up your eyes on high, and behold, who hath created these things, that bringeth out their hoste by number: he calleth them all by names, by the greatnesse of his might, for that he is strong in power, not one faileth.

27 Why sayest thou, O Iacob, and speakest, O Israel, My way is hid from the Lord, and my judgement is passed over from my God?

28 Hast thou not known? hast thou not heard, that the everlasting God, the Lord, the Creator of the ends of the earth, fainteth not, neither is weary? there is no searching of his understanding.

29 He giveth power to the faint, & to them that have no might he increaseth strength.

30 Even the youths shall faint, & be weary, and the young men shall utterly fall.

31 But they that wait upon the Lord, shall renew their strength, they shall mount up with wings as eagles, they shall runne, and not be weary, and they shall walke and not faint.

CHAP. XLI.

KEep silence before me, O Iles, & let the people renew their strength: let them come neer, then let them speake: let us come neer together to iudgement.

2 Who raised up the righteous man from the east, called him to his foot, gave the nations before him, and made him rule over kings? he gave them as the dust to his sword, and as driven stubble to his bow.

3 He pursued them, and passed safely even by the way, that he had not gone with his feet.

4 Who hath wrought & done it, calling the generations from the beginning? I the Lord the first, & with the last I am he.

5 The iles saw it, & feared, the ends of the earth were afraid, drew neer, & came.

6 They helped every one his neighbour, and every one said unto his brother, Be of good courage.

7 So the carpenter encouraged the goldsmith, & he that smooth'd with the hammer, him that smote upon the anvile, saying, It is ready for the soldering: & he fastened it with nailes that it should not be moved.

8 But thou Israel, art my servant, Iacob whom I have chosen, the seed of Abraham my friend.

9 Thou whom I have taken from the ends of the earth, and called thee from the chiefe men thereof, and said unto thee, Thou art my servant, I have chosen thee, and not cast thee away.

10 Feare thou not, for I am with thee: be not dismayed, for I am thy God: I will strengthen thee, yea, I will helpe thee, yea, I will uphold thee with the right hand of my righteousnesse.

11 Behold, all they that were incensed against thee, shall be ashamed, and confounded: they shall be as nothing, and they that strive with thee, shall perish.

12 Thou shalt seeke them, and not find them, even them that contended with thee: they & they that warre against thee, shall be as nothing, & as a thing of nought.

13 For I the Lord thy God will hold thy right hand, saying unto thee, Feare not, I will helpe thee.

14 Feare not thou worme Iacob, and ye men of Israel, I will helpe thee, saith the LORD and thy Redeemer, the holy One of Israel.

15 Behold, I will make thee a new sharpe threshing instrument having teeth: thou shalt thresh the mountaines, and beat them small, and shalt make the hils as chaff.

16 Thou shalt fan them, and the wind shall carry them away, and the whirlwinde shall scatter them: and thou shalt rejoyce in the Lord, and shalt glory in the holy One of Israel.

17 When the poor and needy seek water, and there is none, and their tongue faileth for thirst, I the Lord will heare them, I the God of Israel will not forsake them.

18 I will open rivers in high places, and fountaines in the midst of the valleys: I will make the wildernesse a pool of water, & the dry land springs of water.

19 I will plant in the wildernesse the Cedar, the Shittah tree, and the Myrtle tree, and the oile tree, I will set in the desart the fir tree, and the Pine, and the Box tree together:

20 That they may see, & know, and consider, and understand together, that the hand of the Lord hath done this, and the holy One of Israel hath created it.

21 Produce your cause, saith the Lord,

...ch by ...rom strong reasons, saith
...ing of Jacob.
...y Jacob bring them forth, and
...ob that shall happen: let them shew
...ew former things what they be, ȳ we
...nsider them, & know ȳ latter end
...ay declare vs things for to come
...ew the things that are to come
...ter, that we may know ȳ ye are
...ods: yea, do good, or do evil, that we
...ay be dismayed, & behold it together.
...Behold, ye are of nothing, & your ...ork of nought: an abomination is he
...oseth you.
...I have raised up one from ȳ North,
...d he shall come from the rising of the ...n, and he shall call upon my name, and he
...all come upon Princes as upon mortar,
...d as the potter treadeth clay.
...Who hath declared from the be-
...ning, that we may know? and before
...me, that we may say, He is righte-
...us? yea, there is none that sheweth, yea,
...there is none that declareth, yea, there is
...none that heareth your words?
...The first shall say to Zion, Be...hold them, and I will give to Je...rusalem one ȳ bringeth good tidings.
...For I beheld, and there was no
...man, & among them, and there was no
...counsellor, that when I asked
...of them could answer me a word.
...Behold, they are all vanity, their ...works are nothing, their molten images
...are wind and confusion.

CHAP. XLII.

...Behold, my servant whom I uphold,
...mine elect, in whom my soule de-
...lighteth; I have put my Spirit on him,
...he shall bring forth iudgment to the Gentils.
...He shall not cry, nor lift up, nor
...cause voyce to be heard in the street.
...A bruised reed shall he not break, & the ...smoaking flax shall he not quench, he ...shall bring forth iudgment to truth.
...He shall not faile, nor be discoura...ged, till he have set iudgement in the ...earth, & the iles shall wait for his law.
...Thus saith God the Lord, he that ...created the heavens, and stretched them
...out, he that spread forth the earth, and
...that which commeth out of it, he that
...giveth breath unto the people upon it,
...and spirit to them that walk therein.
...I the Lord have called thee in righte...ousness, and will hold thy hand, and will ...keep thee, and give thee for a covenant
...of the people, for a light of the Gentils:
...To open the blind eyes, to bring
...out prisoners from the prison, & them
...that sit in darkness out of ȳ prison house.
...I am the Lord, that is my Name, & my ...glory will I not give to another, nor
...my praise to graven images.
...Behold, former things are come to pass,
...and new things do I declare, before
...they spring forth, I tell you of them.
...Sing unto the Lord a new song, & his ...praise from the end of the earth, ye
...that go down to the sea, and all that is therein: the ...
...ands, & the inhabitants thereof.
...Let the wilderness and the cities
...thereof lift up their voyce, the villages
...that Kedar doth inhabit: let the inha...bitants of the rocke sing, let them shout
...from the top of the mountains.
...Let them give glory unto ȳ Lord,
...and declare his praise in the Ilands.
...The Lord shall go forth as a mighty
...man, he shall stirre up jealousie like
...a man of warre, he shall cry, yea, roare, he ...shall prevaile against his enemies.
...I have long time holden my peace,
...I have been still, and refrained my selfe;
...now will I cry like a travailing woman:
...I will destroy and devour at once.
...I will make waste mountaines and
...hills, and dry up all their herbs: and I ...will make the rivers Ilands, and I will
...dry up the pooles.
...And I will bring the blind by a ...way that they knew not, I will lead them
...in paths that they have not known, I ...will make darkness light before them, & crooked things straight: These things
...will I do to them, and not forsake them.
...They shall be turned backe, they ...shall bee greatly shamed that trust in
...graven images, that say to the molten
...images, Ye are our gods.
...Heare ye deaf, and look ye blinde,
...that ye may see.
...Who is blinde, but my servant? or
...deafe, as my messenger that I sent?
...who is blind as he that is perfect, and
...blind as the Lords servant?
...Seeing many things, but thou ob-...servest not: opening the eares, but he
...heareth not.
...The Lord is well pleased for his
...righteousnes sake, he will magnifie the ...Law, and make it honourable.
...But this is a people robbed and ...spoyled, they are all of them snared in
...holes, & they are hid in prison houses;
...they are for a prey, & none delivereth,
...for a spoyl, and none saith, Restore.
...Who among you will give eare to ...this? who will hearken, and heare for
...the time to come?
...Who gave Iacob for a spoyle, and
...Israel to the robbers? did not ȳ Lord,
...he against whom we have sinned? for
...they would not walke in his wayes,
...neither were they obedient to his Law.
...Therefore he hath powred on him
...the fury of his anger, and ȳ strength of
...warre: & it hath set him on fire round
...about, yet he knew not: and it burned
...him, yet he laid it not to heart.

CHAP. XLIII.

...But now thus saith the LORD that ...created thee, O Iacob, and he that ...formed thee, O Israel, Feare not: for I ...have redeemed thee, I have called thee
...by thy name, thou art mine.
...When thou passest through the wa...ters, I will be with thee, and through the ...rivers they shall not overflow thee: when
...thou walkest through the fire, thou ...shalt not be burnt: neither shall the ...flame kindle upon thee.
...For I am the Lord thy God, the ...holy One of Israel, thy Saviour: I gave

Egypt for thy ransome, Ethiopia and Seba for thee.

4 Since thou wast precious in my sight, thou hast been honourable, and I have loved thee: therefore will I give men for thee, and people for thy life.

5 Feare not, for I am with thee: I will bring thy seed from the East, and gather thee from the West.

6 I will say to the North, Give up, & to the South, Keep not back: bring my sons from far, and my daughters from the ends of the earth:

7 Even every one that is called by my Name, for I have created him for my glory, I have formed him, yea I have made him.

8 Bring forth the blind people that have eyes, and the deaf that have ears.

9 Let all the nations be gathered together, and let the people be assembled: who among them can declare this, and shew us former things, let them bring forth their witnesses, that they may be justified, or let them hear, and say, It is truth.

10 Ye are my witnesse, saith the LORD, and my servant whom I have chosen: that ye may know and believe me, and understand that I am he: before me there was no God formed, neither shall there be after me.

11 I, even I am the Lord, and beside me there is no Saviour.

12 I have declared, and have saved, and I have shewed, when there was no strange god among you: therefore ye are my witnesse, saith the LORD, that I am God.

13 Yea before the day was I am he, & there is none that can deliver out of my hand: I will worke, and who shall let it?

14 Thus saith the Lord your Redeemer, the holy One of Israel: for your sake I have sent to Babylon, and have brought down all their nobles, and the Chaldeans, whose cry is in the ships.

15 I am the Lord your holy One, the Creator of Israel, your king.

16 Thus saith the Lord which maketh a way in the sea, and a path in the mighty waters:

17 Which bringeth forth the chariot & horse, army & power: they shall lie down together, they shall not rise: they are extinct, they are quenched as tow.

18 Remember ye not former things, neither consider the things of old.

19 Behold I will do a new thing, now it shall spring forth, shall ye not know it? I will even make a way in the wilderness and rivers in the desert.

20 The beasts of the field shall honour me, the dragons and the owles, because I give waters in the wilderness, and rivers in the desert, to give drink to my people, my chosen.

21 This people have I formed for my self, they shal shew forth my praise.

22 But thou hast not called upon me, O Iacob, but thou hast been weary of me, O Israel.

23 Thou hast not brought me thy small cattel of thy burnt offerings, neither hast thou honoured me with thy sacrifices. I have not caused thee to serve with an offering, nor wearied thee with incense.

24 Thou hast bought me no sweet cane with money, neither hast thou filled me with the fat of thy sacrifices: but thou hast made me to serve with thine offences, thou hast wearied me with thine iniquities.

25 I even I am he that blotteth out thy transgressions for mine own sake, and will not remember thy sins.

26 Put me in remembrance: let us plead together: declare thou that thou mayst be justified.

27 Thy first father hath sinned, & thy teachers have transgressed against me.

28 Therefore I have prophaned the princes of the sanctuary, and have given Iacob to the curse, & Israel to reproaches.

CHAP. XLIII.

YEt now hear, O Iacob my servant, and Israel whom I have chosen.

2 Thus saith the Lord that made thee, & formed thee from the wombe, and will help thee, Feare not, O Iacob my servant, & thou Ieshurun, whom I have chosen.

3 For I will powre water upon him that is thirsty, and floods upon the dry ground: I will powre my Spirit upon thy seed, & my blessing upon thy offspring.

4 And they shall spring up as among grasse, as willowes by the water courses.

5 One shall say, I am the Lords: and another shall call himself by the name of Iacob: and another shall subscribe with his hand to the Lord, & surname himself by the name of Israel.

6 Thus saith the Lord the King of Israel, & his redeemer the LORD of hosts, I am the first, and I am the last, and besides me there is no God.

7 And who, as I, shall call, and shall declare and set it in order for me, since I appointed the ancient people, and the things that are coming, and shall come, let them shew unto them.

8 Feare ye not, nor be afraid, have not I told thee from that time, & have declared it? ye even my witnesses. Is there a God besides me? yea, there is no God, I know not any.

9 They that make a graven image, are all of them vanity, and their desirable things shall not profite: & they are their own witnesses, they see not, nor know, that they may be ashamed.

10 Who hath formed a god, or molten a graven image that is profitable for nothing?

11 Behold, all his fellowes shall be ashamed, and the workemen, they are of men: let them all be gathered together, let them stand up; yet they shall feare, and they shall be ashamed together.

12 The smith with the tongs both worketh in the coales, and fashioneth it with hammers, and worketh it with the strength of his armes: yea, he is hungry, and his strength faileth: he drinketh no water, and is faint.

13 The Carpenter stretcheth out his rule

he marketh it out with the line: he maketh it with planes, & he marketh it with y compass, & maketh it after the figure of a man, according to the beauty of a man, that it may remain in y house.
13 He cutteth him down Cedars, & taketh the Cypresse and the Oake, which he strengthneth for himselfe among the trees of the forrest: he planteth an Ash, and the raine doeth nourish it.
14 Then shall it be for a man to burne:
for he will take thereof, & warme himself, he also kindleth it, and baketh bread, yea he maketh a god, and worshippeth it: he maketh it a graven image, and falleth down thereto.
15 He burneth part thereof in the fire, part thereof he eateth: he roasteth roast, and is satisfied: yea he warmeth himselfe, and saith, Aha, I am warme, I have seen the fire.
16 And the residue thereof he maketh a god, even his graven image: he falleth down to it, and worshippeth it, & prayeth unto it, and saith, Deliver me, for thou art my god.
17 They have not knowne, nor understood: for he hath shut their eyes, that they cannot see: and their hearts, that they cannot understand.
18 And none considereth in his heart, neither is there knowledge nor understanding to say, I have burnt part of it in the fire, yea, also I have baked bread upon y coales thereof: I have roasted flesh and eaten it, and shall I make the residue thereof an abomination? shall I fall down to the stocke of a tree?
19 He feedeth of ashes: a deceived heart hath turned him aside, that he cannot deliver his soul, nor say, Is there not a lie in my right hand?
20 Remember these (O Iacob and Israel) for thou art my servant: I have formed thee, thou art my servant, O
Israel, thou shalt not be forgotten of me.
21 I have blotted out as a thick cloud, thine iniquities, & as a cloud, thy transgressions: Returne unto me, for I have redeemed thee.
22 Sing, O ye heavens, for the Lord hath done it: howle ye lower parts of the earth: breake forth into singing, ye mountains, O forrest, and every tree therein: for the LORD hath redeemed Iacob, and glorified himselfe in Israel.
23 Thus saith the Lord thy redeemer,
and he that formed thee from y wombe,
I am the Lord that maketh all things, y that alone stretcheth forth y heavens, alone, that spreadeth abroad the earth by my selfe:
24 That frustrateth the tokens of the liers, & maketh diviners mad, that turneth wise men backward, & maketh their knowledge foolish:
25 That confirmeth the word of his servant, & performeth the counsel of his messengers, that saith to Ierusalem, Thou shalt be inhabited, and to the cities of Iudah, Ye shall be built, and I will raise up the decayed places thereof: 27 That saith to the deep, Be dry, & I will dry up thy rivers.

28 That saith of Cyrus, Hee is my shepherd, and shall perform all my pleasure, even saying to Ierusalem, Thou shalt be built, & to the Temple,
Thy foundation shall be laid.

CHAP. XLV.

THus saith y Lord to his anointed, to Cyrus, whose right hand I have holden, to subdue nations before him, and I will loose the loynes of kings, to open before him the two leaved gates, and the gates, that not be shut.
2 I will goe before thee, and make the crooked places straight: & I will break in pieces the gates of brasse, and cut in sunder the barres of Iron.
3 And I will give thee the treasures of darknesse, and hidden riches of secret places, that thou mayest know, that I the Lord which call thee by thy name, am the God of Israel.
4 For Iacobs my servants sake, & Israel mine elect, I have even called thee by thy name: I have surnamed thee,
though thou hast not knowne me.
5 I am the Lord, and there is none else,
there is no God beside me: I girded thee
though thou hast not knowne me.
6 That they may know from the rising of the Sun, & from the west, that there is none besides me, I am the LORD, and there is none else.
7 I frame the light, and create darkenes: I make peace, and create evil: I the Lord do all these things.
8 Drop down ye heavens from above, and let the fine y pour down right out of yes, let the earth open, and let them bring forth salvation, and let righteousnes spring up together: I the Lord have created it.
9 Woe unto him that striveth with his Maker: Let the potsherd strive with the potsherds of the earth: shall y clay say to him y fashioneth it, What maiest y or thy worke, he hath no hands?
10 Woe unto him that saith to his father, What begettest thou? or to y woman, What hast thou brought forth?
11 Thus saith y Lord, y holy one of Israel, & his Maker, Aske of me things to come concerning my sonns, & concerning y work of my hands command ye me.
12 I have made the earth, and created man upon it: I, even my hands have stretched out the heavens, and all their hoste have I commanded.
13 I have raised him up in righteousnes, and I will direct all his wayes: he shall build my citie, and he shall let go my captives, not for price nor reward, saith the Lord of hostes.
14 Thus saith y Lord, the labour of Egypt, & merchandise of Ethiopia, & of the Sabeans, men of stature shall come over to thee, & they shall be thine, they shall come after thee, in chaines they shall come over: and they shall fall down to thee, they shall make supplication unto thee, saying, Surely God is in thee, &
there is none else there is no god.
15 Verily thou art a God that hidest thy

thy self, O God of Israel the Saviour.
16 They shall be ashamed and also confounded all of them: they shall go to confusion together, that are makers of idols.
17 But Israel shall be saved in the Lord with an everlasting salvation; ye shall not be ashamed, nor confounded world without end.
18 For thus saith the Lord that created the heavens, God himself that formed the earth, and made it, he hath established it, he created it not in vain, he formed it to be inhabited: I am the Lord, and there is none else.
19 I have not spoken in secret, in a dark place of the earth: I said not unto the seed of Jacob, Seek ye me in vain: I the Lord speak righteousness, I declare things that are right.
20 Assemble your selves, and come; draw near together, ye that are escaped of the nations: they have no knowledge that set up the wood of their graven image, and pray unto a god that cannot save.
21 Tell ye, & bring them near, yea, let them take counsel together, who hath declared this from ancient time? who hath told it from that time? Have not I the Lord? and there is not God else besides me; a just God, and a Saviour, there is none beside me.
22 Look unto me, and be ye saved all the ends of the earth, for I am God, and there is none else.
23 I have sworn by my self, the word is gone out of my mouth in righteousness, and shall not return, that unto me every knee shall bow, every tongue shall swear.
24 Surely, shall one say, in the LORD have I righteousness and strength: even to him shall men come, and all that are incensed against him, shall be ashamed.
25 In the Lord shall all the seed of Israel be justified, and shall glory.

CHAP. XLVI.

BEl boweth down, Nebo stoupeth, their idols were ov beasts, & ov cattel, your carriages were heavy laden, they are a burden to y weary beast.
2 They stoup, they bow down together, they could not deliver y burden, but themselves are gone into captivity.
3 Hearken unto me, O house of Jacob, & all the remnant of the house of Israel, who are born by me from the belly, which are carried from the womb.
4 And even to your olde age I am he, and even to your hairs will I carry you: I have made, & I will bear, even I will carry, and will deliver you.
5 To whom will ye liken me, and make me equal, and compare me, that we may be like?
6 They lavish gold out of the bag, & weigh silver in the ballance, and hire a Goldsmith, and he maketh it a god: they fal down, yea, they worship.
7 They bear him upon the shoulder, they carry him, and set him in his place, and he standeth; from his place shal he not remoove: yea, one shal cry unto him, yet can he not answere, nor save him out of his trouble.
8 Remember this, & shew your selves a man; bring it again to mind, O ye transgressours.
9 Remember the former things of old: for I am God, and there is none else, I am God, and there is none like me.
10 Declaring the end from the beginning, & from ancient times things that are not yet done, saying, My counsel shal stand, and I will do all my pleasure.
11 Calling a ravenous bird from the east, y man that executeth my counsel from a far country, yea, I have spoken it, I will also bring it to pass, I have purposed it, I will also do it.
12 Hearken unto me, ye stout hearted, that are far from righteousness.
13 I bring near my righteousness, it shal not be far off, and my salvation shal not tary, and I will place salvation in Zion, for Israel my glory.

CHAP. XLVII.

COme down and sit in the dust, O virgin daughter of Babylon, sit on the ground: there is no throne, O daughter of y Caldeans for thou shalt no more be called tender and delicate.
2 Take the milstones & grinde meal, uncover thy locket, make bare the leg, uncover the thigh, pass over the rivers.
3 Thy nakedness shal be uncovered, yea, thy shame shal be seen: I will take vengeance, & I will not meet thee as a man.
4 As for our Redeemer, the Lord of hosts is his Name, y holy One of Israel.
5 Sit y silent, and get thee into darkness, O daughter of the Caldeans: for thou shalt no more be called, Lady of kingdoms.
6 I was wroth with my people, I have polluted mine inheritance, and given them into thine hand: thou didst shew them no mercy, upon the ancient hast thou very heavily laid the yoke.
7 And thou saidst, I shall be a Lady for ever: so that thou didst not lay these things to thy heart, neither didst remember the latter end of it.
8 Therefore hear now this, thou that are given to pleasures, that dwellest carelessly, that sayest in thy heart, I am, and none else besides me, I shall not sit as a widow, neither shal I know the losse of children.
9 But these two things shal come to thee in a moment in one day: the losse of children, and widowhood: they shal come upon thee in their perfection for the multitude of thy inchantments, and for y great abundance of thy enchantments.
10 For thou hast trusted in thy wickedness: thou hast said, None seeth me. Thy wisedome and thy knowledge, it hath perverted thee, & thou hast said in thy heart, I am, & none else besides me.
11 Therefore shal evil come upon thee, thou shalt not know from whence it riseth: and mischiefe shal fal upon thee, thou shalt not be able to put it off: and desolation shall come upon

I call to them, they stand up together.
14 All ye assemble your selves, and hear; which among them hath declared these things? the LORD hath loved him: he will do his pleasure on Babylon, & his arm shall be on y Caldeans.
15 I, even I have spoken, yea I have called him: I have brought him, and he shall make his way prosperous.
16 Come ye near unto me, hear ye this, I have not spoken in secret from the beginning, from the time that it was, there am I, and now the Lord GOD, and his spirit hath sent me.
17 Thus saith y LORD thy Redeemer, the holy One of Israel, I am y LORD thy God, which teacheth thee to profit, which leadeth thee by y way y thou shouldest go.
18 O that thou hadst hearkened to my commandments! then had thy peace been as a river, and thy righteousness as the waves of the Sea.
19 Thy seed also had been as y sand, & y offspring of thy bowels like y gravel thereof, his name should not have been cut off, nor destroyed fro before me.
20 Go ye forth of Babylon, flee ye from y Caldeans with a voyce of singing, declare ye, tell this, utter it even to y end of y earth: say ye, The LORD hath redeemed his servant Jacob.
21 And they thirsted not when he led them thorow the deserts: he caused the waters to flow out of the rock for them, he clave the rock also, and the waters gushed out.
22 There is no peace, saith the LORD, unto the wicked.

CHAP. XLIX.

Listen O Iles, unto me, and hearken, ye people from far, The LORD hath called me from the womb, from the bowels of my mother hath he made mention of my name.
2 And he hath made my mouth like a sharp sword, in the shadow of his hand hath he hid me, and made me a polished shaft, in his quiver hath he hid me.
3 And said unto me, Thou art my servant, O Israel, in whom I will be glorified.
4 Then I said, I have laboured in vain, I have spent my strength for nought, & in vain: yet surely my judgment is with the LORD, & my work with my God.
5 And now, saith the LORD that formed me from the womb to be his servant, to bring Jacob again to him, Though Israel be not gathered, yet shall I be glorious in the eyes of the LORD, & my God shall be my strength.
6 And he said, It is a light thing that thou shouldest be my servant to raise up the tribes of Jacob, & to restore y preserved of Israel, I will also give thee for a light to y Gentils, y thou mayest be my salvation to the end of y earth.
7 Thus saith y LORD the Redeemer of Israel, & his holy one, to him whom y nations abhorreth, to a servant of rulers, kings shall see & arise, princes also shall wor-

ly. Thou shalt not know. 12 Stand now with thine enchantments, and the multitude of thy sorceries, wherein thou hast laboured from thy youth, if so be thou shalt be able to profit, if so be thou mayest prevail. 13 Thou art wearied in the multitude of thy counsels: let now the Astrologers, y numbred y Heavens, y monthly Prognosticators, stand up, & save thee from these things that shall come upon thee. 14 Behold, they shall be as stubble, the fire shall burn them, they shall not deliver themselves from the power of the flame: there shall not be a coal to warm at, nor fire to sit before it.
15 Thus shall they be to thee, with whom thou hast laboured, even thy merchants from thy youth: they shall wander every one to his quarter: none shall save thee.

CHAP. XLVIII.

Hear this, O house of Jacob, which are called by y name of Israel, & are come forth out of the waters of Judah: which sware by y Name of y LORD, & make mention of the God of Israel, but not in truth, nor in righteousness.
2 For they call themselves of the holy City, & stay themselves upon y God of Israel: y LORD of hosts is his Name.
3 I have declared the former things from the beginning: & they went forth out of my mouth, & I shewed them. I did it suddenly, & they came to pass.
4 Because I knew that thou art obstinate, & that thy neck is an iron sinew, and thy brow brasse:
5 Therefore from the beginning declared I it to thee: before it came to pass I shewed it thee, lest thou should have said, Mine idol hath done them, and my graven image, and my molten image hath commanded them.
6 Thou hast heard, see all this, and will not you declare it? I have shewed thee new things from this time, even hidden things, & thou didst not know them.
7 They are created now, & not from the beginning, even before the day when thou heardest them not, lest thou should say, Behold, I knew them.
8 Yea thou heardest not; yea, thou knewest not; yea, from y time y thine ear was not opened: for I knew y thou wouldest deal very treacherously, & wast called a transgressour from the womb.
9 For my Names sake will I defer mine anger, & for my praise will I refrain for thee, that I cut thee not off.
10 Behold, I have refined thee, but not with silver: I have chosen thee in the furnace of affliction.
11 For mine own sake, even for mine own sake will I do it: for how should my Name be polluted? & I will not give my glory unto another.
12 Hearken unto me, O Jacob, and Israel my called: I am he, I am the first, I also am the last.
13 Mine hand also hath laid the foundation of the earth, and my right hand hath spanned the heavens: when ship, because of y Lord, y is faithful, & y holy One of Israel, & he shall chuse thee.

3 Thus saith y LORD, in an acceptable time have I heard thee, and in a day of salvation have I helped thee: and I will preserve thee, & give thee for a covenant of the people, to establish the earth, to cause to inherit the desolate heritages;
9 That y mayest say to y prisoners, Go forth; to them y are in darkness, Shew your selves: they shall feed in y ways, & their pastures shall be in all the high places.
10 They shall not hunger nor thirst; neither shall the heat, nor Sun smite them: for he that hath mercy on them shall lead them, even by y springs of water shall he guide them.
11 And I will make all my mountains a way, & my high ways shall be exalted.
12 Behold, these shall come from far: and lo, these from y North, & from the West, & these from y land of Sinim.
13 Sing, O heavens, and be joyful, O earth, and break forth into singing, O mountains: for y LORD hath comforted his people, and will have mercy on his afflicted.
14 But Zion said, The Lord hath forsaken me, & my Lord hath forgotten me.
15 Can a woman forget her sucking child, y she should not have compassion on the son of her womb? yea, they may forget, yet will I not forget thee.
16 Behold, I have graven thee upon the palms of my hands; thy walls are continually before me.
17 Thy children shall make haste; thy destroyers and they that made thee waste shall go forth of thee.
18 Lift up thine eyes round about, and see: Behold, all these gather themselves together, and come to thee: as I live, saith the LORD, y shalt surely clothe thee with them all as with an ornament, & bind them on them as a bride doeth.
19 For thy waste and thy desolate places, and the land of thy destruction shall even now be too narrow by reason of the inhabitants, and they that swallowed thee up, shall be far away.
20 The children which y shalt have, after y shalt have lost the other, shall say again in thine ears, The place is too strait for me: give place to me that I may dwell.
21 Then shalt thou say in thine heart, Who hath begotten me these, seeing I have lost my children, & am desolate, a captive, removing to & fro? & who hath brought up these? Behold, I was left alone; these, where had they been?
22 Thus saith the Lord GOD, Behold, I will lift up mine hand to the Gentiles, & set up my standard to the people: and they shall bring thy sons in their arms, and thy daughters shall be carried upon their shoulders.
23 And kings shall be thy nursing fathers, & their queens thy nursing mothers: they shall bow down to thee with their face toward the earth, and lick up the dust of thy feet; & thou shalt know that I am the LORD: for they shall not be ashamed that wait for me.
24 Shall the prey be taken from a mighty, or y lawful captive delivered?
25 But thus saith the LORD, Even the captives of the mighty shall be taken away, & the prey of the terrible shall be delivered: for I will contend with him that contendeth with thee, & I will save thy children.
26 And I will feed them that oppress thee with their own flesh; and they shall be drunken with their own blood, as with sweet wine: and all flesh shall know that I the LORD am thy Saviour, and thy Redeemer, the mighty one of Jacob.

CHAP. L.

THus saith y LORD, Where is the bill of your mother's divorcement, whom I have put away? or which of my creditors is it, to whom I have sold you? Behold, for your iniquities have ye sold your selves, & for your transgressions is your mother put away.
2 Wherefore when I came, was there no man? when I called, was there none to answer? is my hand shortened at all, that it cannot redeem? or have I no power to deliver? Behold, at my rebuke I dry up the sea: I make the rivers a wilderness: their fish stinketh, because there is no water, & dieth for thirst.
3 I clothe the heavens with blackness, & I make sackcloth their covering.
4 The Lord GOD hath given me the tongue of the learned, that I should know how to speak a word in season to him that is weary: he wakeneth morning by morning, he wakeneth mine ear to hear as the learned.
5 The Lord GOD hath opened mine ear, and I was not rebellious, neither turned away back.
6 I gave my back to the smiters, and my cheeks to them that plucked off the hair: I hid not my face from shame and spitting.
7 For the Lord GOD will help me; therefore shall I not be confounded: therefore have I set my face like a flint, & I know y I shall not be ashamed.
8 He is near that justifieth me; who will contend with me? let us stand together: who is mine adversary? let him come near to me.
9 Behold, the Lord GOD will help me; who is he that shall condemn me? lo, they all shall wax old as a garment; the moth shall eat them up.
10 Who is among you that feareth the LORD, that obeyeth the voice of his servant, that walketh in darkness, & hath no light? let him trust in the Name of the LORD, & stay upon his God.
11 Behold, all ye that kindle a fire, that compass your selves about with sparks: walk in the light of your fire, & in the sparks that ye have kindled. This shall ye have of mine hand; ye shall lie down in sorrow.

CHAP. LI.

HEarken to me, ye that follow after righteousness, ye that seek the and say to Zion, Thou art my people.

17 Awake, awake, stand up, O Jerusalem, which hast drunk at the hand of the LORD the cup of his fury, thou hast drunken the dregs of the cup of trembling, and wrung them out.
18 There is none to guide her among all the sons whom she hath brought forth; neither is there any that taketh her by the hand of all the sons that she hath brought up.
19 These two things are come to thee, who shall be sorry for thee? desolation, and destruction, and the famine, and the sword, by whom shall I comfort thee?
20 Thy sons have fainted, they lie at the head of all the streets, as a wild bull in a net: they are full of the fury of the LORD, the rebuke of thy God.
21 Therefore hear now this, thou afflicted, and drunken, but not with wine.
22 Thus saith thy Lord, the LORD, and thy God that pleadeth the cause of his people, Behold, I have taken out of thine hand the cup of trembling, even the dregs of the cup of my fury; thou shalt no more drink it again.
23 But I will put it into the hand of them that afflict thee; which have said unto thy soul, Bow down, that we may go over: and thou hast laid thy body as the ground, and as the street to them that went over.

CHAP. LII.

AWake, awake, put on thy strength, O Zion; put on thy beautiful garments, O Jerusalem the holy city: for henceforth there shall no more come into thee the uncircumcised and the unclean.
2 Shake thyself from the dust; arise, and sit down, O Jerusalem: loose thyself from the bands of thy neck, O captive daughter of Zion.
3 For thus saith the LORD, Ye have sold yourselves for nought; and ye shall be redeemed without money.
4 For thus saith the Lord GOD, My people went down aforetime into Egypt to sojourn there; and the Assyrian oppressed them without cause.
5 Now therefore, what have I here, saith the LORD, that my people is taken away for nought? they that rule over them make them to howl, saith the LORD, and my name continually every day is blasphemed.
6 Therefore my people shall know my Name: therefore they shall know in that day that I am he that doth speak: behold, it is I.
7 How beautiful upon the mountains are the feet of him that bringeth good tidings, that publisheth peace; that bringeth good tidings of good, that publisheth salvation; that saith unto Zion, Thy God reigneth!
8 Thy watchmen shall lift up the voice; with the voice together shall they sing: for they shall see eye to eye, when the LORD shall bring again Zion.
9 Break forth into joy, sing together, ye waste places of Jerusalem: for the LORD hath comforted his people, he hath redeemed Jerusalem.

10 The

10 The LORD hath made bare his holy arm in the eyes of all the nations, and all the ends of the earth shal see the salvation of our God.

11 Depart ye, depart ye, go ye out from thence, touch no uncleane thing, go ye out of y midst of her, be ye clean that beare the vessels of the LORD.

12 For ye shal not go out with haste, nor go by flight: for the LORD will go before you: and the God of Israel will be your re-ward.

13 Behold, my servant shal deal prudently, he shalbe exalted and extolled, and be very high.

14 As many were astonied at thee (his visage was so marred more then any man, and his form more then the sons of men)

15 So shal he sprinkle many nations, the kings shall shut their mouthes at him: for that which had not been told them, shal they see, and that which they had not heard, shal they consider.

CHAP. LIII.

WHo hath beleved our report? and to whom is the arm of the LORD revealed?

2 For he shal grow up before him as a tender plant, and as a root out of dry ground: he hath no form nor comelines, and when we shal see him, there is no beauty that we shuld desire him.

3 He is despised and rejected of men, a man of sorrows, and acquainted with griefe, and we hid as it were our faces from him: he was despised, and we esteemed him not.

4 Surely he hath born our griefs, and carried our sorrows: yet we did esteem him stricken, smitte of God, & afflicted.

5 But he was wounded for our transgressions, he was bruised for our iniquities: y chastisement of our peace was on him, and with his stripes we are healed.

6 All we like sheep have gone astray, we have turned every one to his own way, and the LORD hath laid on him the iniquity of us al.

7 He was oppressed, and he was afflicted, yet he opened not his mouth: he is brought as a lamb to the slaughter, and as a sheep before her shearers is dumb, so he openeth not his mouth.

8 He was taken from prison, and from judgements: and who shal declare his generation? for he was cut off out of the land of the living, for the transgression of my people was he stricken.

9 And he made his grave with the wicked, and with the rich in his death, because he had done no violence, neither was any deceit in his mouth.

10 Yet it pleased the LORD to bruise him, he hath put him to griefe, when thou shalt make his soul an offring for sin, he shal see his seed, he shal prolong his dayes, and the pleasure of the LORD shal prosper in his hand.

11 He shal see the travel of his soul, and shalbe satisfied: by his knowledge shal my righteous servant justifie many: for he shal bear their iniquities.

12 Therfore will I divide him a portion with the great, and he shall divide the spoil with the strong: because he hath powred out his soul unto death, and he was numbred with y transgressours, & he bare y sin of many, & made intercession for the transgressours.

CHAP. LIV.

SIng O barren, thou that didst not bear, break forth into singing, and cry aloud thou that didst not travel with child: for more are the children of the desolate then the children of the married wife, saith the LORD.

2 Enlarge the place of thy tent, and let them stretch forth the curtains of thy habitations: spare not, lengthen thy cords, and strengthen thy stakes.

3 For thou shalt break forth on the right hand, and on the left: and thy seed shal inherit the Gentiles, and make y desolate cities to be inhabited.

4 Fear not, for thou shalt not be confused: neither be thou confounded, for thou shalt not be put to shame: for thou shalt forget the shame of thy youth, and shalt not remember the reproach of thy widowhood any more.

5 For thy Maker is thine husband, y LORD of hosts is his Name and thy Redeemer the holy One of Israel, the God of the whole earth shal he be called.

6 For the LORD hath called thee as a woman forsaken, and grieved in spirit, and a wife of youth, when thou wast refused, saith thy God.

7 For a smal moment have I forsaken thee: but with great mercies will I gather thee.

8 In a little wrath I hid my face from thee, for a moment, but with everlasting kindnes will I have mercy on thee, saith the LORD thy Redeemer.

9 For this is as the waters of Noah to me: for as I have sworn that the waters of Noah should no more go over the earth, so have I sworn that I would not be wroth with thee, nor rebuke thee.

10 For the mountains shal depart, and the hils be removed, but my kindnes shal not depart from thee, neither shal the covenant of my peace be removed, saith y LORD that hath mercy on thee.

11 O thou afflicted, tossed with tempest, and not comforted, behold, I will lay thy stones with fair colours, and lay thy foundations with Saphire.

12 And I will make thy windows of Agates, and thy gates of Carbuncles, and al thy borders of pleasant stones.

13 And al thy children shal be taught of the LORD, and great shal be the peace of thy children.

14 In righteousnesse shalt thou be established: thou shalt be far from oppression, for thou shalt not fear, and from terrour, for it shal not come neer thee.

15 Behold, they shal surely gather together, but not by me: whosoever shal gather together against thee, shal fal for thy sake.

16 Be

I have created y Smith that eth forth an instrument for his worke

I have created y waster to destroy.
6 No weapon that is formed against thee shall prosper, & every tongue that shall rise against thee in judgement, y shalt condemn. This is y heritage of y servants of y LORD, and their righte-ousnesse of me, saith the LORD.

CHAP. LV.

1 Every one that thirsteth, come ye to the waters, and he that hath no money: come ye, buy and eat, yea, come, buy wine, and milke without money and without price.

2 Wherefore doe ye spend money for that is not bread? and your labour for that which satisfieth not? ha-ken diligently unto me, and eate ye that which is good, and let your soul delight it self in fatnes.

3 Bow your eare, and come to me:
heare, and your soul shall live, and I will make an everlasting Covenant with you, even the sure mercies of David.

4 Behold, I have given him for a witnesse to the people, a leader and commander to the People.

5 Behold, thou shalt call a nation that thou wilt not, and nations y knew not thee shall runne to thee, because of the LORD thy God, and for the holy one of Israel, for he hath glorified thee.

6 Seek ye y LORD, while he may be found, call ye on him while he is neer.

7 Let the wicked forsake his way, & the unrighteous man his thoughts, & let him returne to the LORD, and he will have mercie upon him, and to our God, for he will abundantly pardon.

8 For my thoughts are not your thoughts, neither are your ways my ways, saith the LORD.

9 For as the heavens are higher then the earth, so are my ways higher then your ways, and my thoughts then your thoughts.

10 For as the raine commeth downe, and the snow from heaven, and returneth not thither, but watereth the earth, and ma-keth it bring forth & bud, that it may give seed to y sower, & bread to y eater:

11 So shall my word be that goeth forth out of my mouth, it shall not turne unto me voyd, but it shall accomplish that which I please, and it shall prosper in y thing whereto I sent it.

12 For ye shall goe out with joy, and be led forth with peace, the mountains & the hills shall breake forth before you into singing, and all the trees of the field shall clap their hands.

13 Instead of the thorne shall come up the firre tree, and instead of the brier shall come up the Myrtle tree, & it shall be to the Lord for a name, for an everlasting signe that shall not be cut off.

CHAP. LVI.

1 Thus saith the LORD, Keepe yee in judgement, and doe justice: for my salvation is neer to come, and my righteousnesse to be revealed.

2 Blessed is the man that doth this, and y son of man y layeth hold on it: that keepeth y Sabbath from polluting it, & keepeth his hand from doing any evil.

3 Neither let the son of the stranger
y hath joyned himself to the LORD, speak saying, The LORD hath utterly separated me from his people: neither let the Eunuch say, Behold, I am a dry tree.

4 For thus saith the LORD unto the eunuches that keepe my Sabbaths, and choose the things that please me, and take hold of my Covenant:

5 Even to them will I give in mine house, and within my walls a place and a name better then of sons and daughters: I will give them an everlasting name that shall not be cut off.

6 Also the sons of the stranger that joyn themselves to the LORD, to serve him, and to love the name of the Lord to be his servants, every one that keep-eth the Sabbath from polluting it, and taketh hold of my Covenant:

7 Even them will I bring to my holy mountain, and make them joyful in my house of prayer: their burnt offerings and their sacrifices shall be accepted upon mine Altar: for mine house shall be called an house of prayer for all people.

8 The Lord GOD which gathereth the outcasts of Israel, saith, Yet will I gather others to him besides those that are gathered unto him.

9 All ye beast of the field, come to devour, yea all ye beasts in the forrest.

10 His watchmen are blind: they are all ignorant, they are all dumbe dogs, they cannot bark: sleeping, lying down, loving to slumber.

11 Yea they are greedy dogs, which can never have enough. & they are shepherds that cannot understand: they all looke to their own way, every one for his gain, from his quarter.

12 Come ye, say they, I will fetch wine, and we will fill our selves with strong drink: and to morrow shall be as this day, and much more abundant.

CHAP. LVII.

1 The righteous perisheth, and no man layeth it to heart, and merciful men are taken away, none considering that the righteous is taken away from the evil to come.

2 He shall enter into peace: they shall rest in their beds, each one walking in his upright way.

3 But draw neer hither, ye sons of the sorceresse, the seed of the adulterer, and the whore.

4 Against whom doe ye sport your selves? against whom make ye a wide mouth, and draw out the tongue? are not ye children transgressours, a seed of falsehood?

5 Inflaming your selves with idolatry under every green tree, slaying y children in the valleys under the clifts of y rocks?

6 Among the smooth stones of the stream is thy portion: they, they are thy lot: even to them hast thou powred a drink

drink offering, thou hast offred a meat offering: should I receive comfort in these?

7 Upon a lofty and high mountain hast thou set thy bed: even thither wentest thou up to offer sacrifice.

8 Behind thy doors also, & the posts hast thou set up thy remembrance: for thou hast discovered thy self to another then me, and art gone up: thou hast enlarged thy bed, & made a covenant with them: thou lovedst their bed, where thy sawest it.

9 And thou wentest to the King with ointment, & didst increase thy perfumes, and didst send thy messengers afar off, and didst debase thy self even to hell.

10 Thou art wearied in the greatnes of thy way, yet saidst thou not, There is no hope: Thou hast found y life of thy hand: therfore thou wast not grieved.

11 And of whom hast thou been afraid or feared, that thou hast lied, and hast not remembred me, nor laid it to thy heart? have not I held my peace, even of old, and thou feares me not?

12 I will declare thy righteousnes, and thy works, for they shal not profit thee.

13 When thou cryest, let thy companies deliver thee: but the wind shall carry them al away: Vanity shal take them: but hee that putteth his trust in me, shal possesse the land, and shal inherit my holy mountain.

14 And shal say, Cast ye up, cast ye up, prepare the way, take up the stumbling block out of the way of my people.

15 For thus saith the High and lofty One that inhabiteth eternity, whose name is holy, I dwell in the high and holy place: with him also that is of a contrite and humble spirit, to revive the spirit of the humble, and to revive the heart of the contrite ones.

16 For I will not contend for ever, neither will I be always wroth: for the spirit should faile before me, and the soules which I have made.

17 For the iniquity of his covetousnes was I wroth, and smote him: I hid me, and was wroth, and hee went on frowardly in the way of his heart.

18 I have seen his wayes, and will heal him: I will lead him also, and restore comforts unto him, & to his mourners.

19 I create y fruit of y lips: peace, peace to him that is far off, & to him that is neer, saith y Lord, and I will heal him.

20 But the wicked are like the troubled sea, when it cannot rest, whose waters cast up mire and dirt.

21 There is no peace, saith my God, to the wicked.

CHAP. LVIII.

CRy aloud, spare not, lift up thy voyce like a trumpet, and shew my people their transgression, & the house of Iacob their sins.

2 Yet they seek me daily, and delight to know my wayes, as a nation that did righteousnes, and forsook not the ordinance of their God: they aske of me the ordinances of justice: they take delight in approaching to God.

3 Wherefore have we fasted, say they, & thou seest not? wherfore have we afflicted our soul, & y takest no knowledge? Loe, in the day of your fast you find pleasure, & exact all your labours.

4 Behold, ye fast for strife & debate, and to smite with y fist of wickednes: ye shall not fast as ye doe this day, to cause your voyce to be heard on high.

5 Is it such a fast that I have chosen? a day for a man to afflict his soul? is it to bow down his head as a bulrush, & to spread sackcloth & ashes under him: wilt thou call this a fast, and an acceptable day to the LORD?

6 Is not this y fast y I have chosen? to loose the bands of wickednesse, to undo the heavy burdens, & to let y oppressed go free, and y ye break every yoke?

7 Is it not to deale thy bread to the hungry, and that y bring the poore that are cast out, to thy house? when thou seest the naked, that y cover him, and that thou hide not thy self from thy own flesh?

8 Then shal thy light break forth as the morning, and thine health shal spring forth speedily: and thy righteousnesse shal go before thee, the glory of the LORD shal be thy reward.

9 Then shalt thou call, and the LORD shall answere, thou shalt cry, and he shal say, Here I am: If thou take away from the midst of thee y yoke, y putting forth of y finger, and speaking vanity,

10 And if y draw out thy soule to the hungry, & satisfie y afflicted soule: then shall thy light rise in obscurity, and thy darknesse be as the noone day.

11 And the LORD shall guide thee continually, and satisfie thy soule in drought, and make fat thy bones: and thou shalt be like a watered garden, & like a spring of water, whose waters fail not.

12 And they y shal be of thee, shall build the old wast places: thou shalt raise up the foundations of many generations, and y shalt be called, The repairer of the breach, y restorer of paths to dwell in.

13 If thou turne away thy foot from the Sabbath, from doing thy pleasure on my holy day, & call the Sabbath a delight, the holy of y LORD, honourable, and shalt honour him, not doing thine own wayes, nor finding thine own pleasure, nor speaking thin own words:

14 Then shalt thou delight thy self in the LORD, and I will cause thee to ride upon y high places of the earth, and feed thee with the heritage of Iacob thy father, for the mouth of the LORD hath spoken it.

CHAP. LIX

BEhold, the LORDS hand is not shortened that it cannot save, neither is his eare heavy, that it cannot hear:

2 But your iniquities have separated between you and your God, and your sinnes have hid his face from you, that he will not heare.

3 For your hands are defiled with blood, and your fingers with iniquity: your lips have spoken lies, your tongue hath muttered perverseness.

...ulleth for iustice, nor any
...ie truth: they trust in vani-
...speak lies, they conceive mis-
...bring forth iniquity.
...hatch cockatrice egs, & weave
...web: he that eateth of their
...die, and that which is crushed,
...ts out into a viper.
...r webbes shal not become gar-
...ther shal they cover them-
...ith their works: their works
...works of iniquities, and the act of
...ence is in their hands.
...ir feet runne to evil, & they make
...ed shed innocent blood; their
...ghts are thoughts of iniquities, wa-
...and destruction are in their paths.
...ay of peace they know not, & 9
...is no judgement in their goings:
...ve made them crooked paths, who
...upon them shal not know peace
...erefore is judgement far from us,
...ther doth iustice overtake us: we
...e for light, but behold obscuritie,
...rs, but we walk in darknes.
...e grope for the wal like y blind,
...we grope as if we had no eyes: we
...at noone day as in the night,
...are in desolate places as dead men.
...We roare al like beares, & mourn
...ke doves: we look for iudgment,
...there is none, for salvation, but it
...far off from vs.
...For our transgressions are multipli-
...before thee, and our sinnes testifie a...gainst vs: for our transgressions are with ...us, & wicked iniquities, we know them;
...In transgressing and lying against
...the LORD, and departing away from
...our God, speaking oppression and re...bellion, conceiving and uttering from the ...heart words of falsehood.
...And iudgement is turned away
...backward, and iustice standeth afar off:
...for truth is fallen in the streets, and e-
...quitie cannot enter.
...Yea, truth faileth, & he that depar-
...teth from evil maketh himself a prey:
...and the LORD saw it, and it displea-
...sed him that there was no iudgement.
...And he saw that there was no man,
...and wondred that there was no inter-
...cessor: therefore his arm brought sal...vation unto him, and his righteousnes, it
...sustained him.
...For he put on righteousnes as a
...brestplate, and an helmet of salvation
...upon his head; and he put on the gar...ments of vengeance for clothing, and
...was clad with zeale as a cloake.
...According to their deedes, accor...ding he will repay, fury to his aduer-
...saries, recompence to his enemies, to
...the islands he will repay recompence.
...So shal they fear the Name of y
...LORD from the West, and his glory fro
...the rising of the Sunne: when y enemie shal
...come in like a flood, y Spirit of y Lord
...shal lift up a standard against him.
...And the Redeemer shall come to ...Zion, and unto them that turn from
...transgression in Iacob, saith the Lord
...As for me, this is my covenant with them, saith the Lord, My Spirit that is upon thee, and my words which I have put in thy mouth, shal not depart out of thy mouth, nor out of the mouth of thy seed, nor out of y mouth of thy seeds seed, saith the Lord, from henceforth, and for ever.

CHAP. LX.

Arise, shine, for thy light is come, & the glory of the Lord is risen on thee.
2 For behold, the darknes shal cover the earth, and grosse darknes the people: but the Lord shal arise upon thee, and his glory shal be seene upon thee.
3 And the Gentiles shal come to thy light, and kings to the brightnes of thy rising.
4 Lift up thy eyes round about, and see: all they gather themselves together, they come to thee: thy sons shal come from far, and thy daughters shalbe nursed at thy side.
5 Then thou shalt see, and flow together, & thy heart shal feare and be inlarged: because the abundance of the Sea shalbe converted to thee, y forces of the Gentiles shal come unto thee.
6 The multitude of camels shal cover thee, y dromedaries of Midian & Pha-al they fro Sheba shal come: they shal bring gold and incense, and they shal shew forth the praises of the LORD.
7 All the flocks of Kedar shal be gathered together unto thee, the rams of Ne-baioth shal minister to thee, they shal come up with acceptance on mine altar, and I wil glorifie y house of my glory.
8 Who are these that flee as a cloud, and as the doves to their windowes?
9 Surely the iles shal waite for me, and the ships of Tarshish first, to bring thy sons from far, their silver and their gold with them unto the Name of the LORD thy God, & to the holy one of Israel, y because he hath glorified thee.
10 And the sons of strangers shal build up thy wals, and their Kings shal minister unto thee: for in my wrath I smote thee, but in my favour have I had mercy on thee.
11 Therefore thy gates shal be open continually, they shal not be shut day nor night, that men may bring unto thee the forces of the Gentiles, and that their Kings may be brought.
12 For the nation and kingdome that wil not serve thee, shal perish: yea those nations shal be utterly wasted.
13 The glory of Lebanon shal come unto thee, the firre-tree, the pine tree, and box together, to beautifie the place of my sanctuary, and I wil make the place of my feet glorious.
14 The sons also of them that afflicted thee, shal come bending unto thee:
and al they that despised thee, shal bow themselves down at y soles of thy feet, & they shal call thee, The city of y Lord, y Zion of y holy One of Israel.
15 Whereas thou hast bin forsaken & hated, so that no man went through thee, I wil make thee an eternal excellency, a joy of many generations.

16 Thou shalt also suck the milke of the Gentiles, and shalt suck the breast of kings. & thou shalt know that I the LORD am thy Saviour, and thy redeemer the mighty One of Jacob.

17 For brasse I will bring gold, and for iron I will bring silver, and for wood brasse and for stones iron: I will also make thy officers Peace, and thine exactors righteousnesse.

18 Violence shall no more be heard in thy land, wasting nor destruction within thy borders, but thou shalt call thy walls Salvation, & thy gates praise.

19 The Sunne shall be no more thy light by day, neither for brightnes shall the Moone giue light to thee, but the LORD shall be vnto thee an everlasting light, and thy God thy glory.

20 Thy Sunne shall no more goe down, neither shall thy Moone withdraw it selfe: for the LORD shall be thine everlasting light, and the dayes of thy mourning shall be ended.

21 Thy people also shall be all righteous, they shall inherit y land for ever, the branch of my planting, the worke of mine hands, that I may be glorified.

22 A little one shall become a thousand, and a small one a strong nation: I the LORD will hasten it in his time.

CHAP. LXI.

THE Spirit of the LORD God is on me, because the LORD hath anointed me, to preach good tidings to the meeke, he hath sent me to bind vp the broken hearted, to proclaim liberty to the captives, & and the opening of the prison to them that are bound:

2 To proclaim the acceptable yeere of the Lord, and the day of vengeance of our God, to comfort all that mourn:

3 To appoint vnto them that mourn in Zion, to giue to them beauty for ashes, the oyle of joy for mourning, the garment of praise for the spirit of heauinesse, that they might be called trees of righteousnesse, the planting of the LORD, that he might be glorified.

4 And they shall build the old wasts, they shall raise vp y former desolations, and they shall repaire y waste cities, the desolations of many generations.

5 And strangers shall stand & feed your flockes, & the sons of the alien shall be your plowmen, & your vinedressers.

6 But ye shall be named the Priests of the LORD: men shall call you the ministers of our God, ye shall eat the riches of the Gentiles, and in their glory shall you boast your selues.

7 For your shame you shall haue double, and for confusion they shall reioyce in their portion: therfore in their land they shall possesse the double: euerlasting ioy shall be vnto them.

8 For I y Lord loue iudgement, I hate robbery for burnt offering, & I will direct their work in truth, & I will make an everlasting Covenant with them.

9 And their seed shall be knowne among y Gentiles, & their offspring among the people: all that see them shall acknowledge them, that they are y seed which the LORD hath blessed.

10 I will greatly reioyce in the Lord, my soul shall be ioyfull in my God: for he hath clothed me with the garments of saluation, he hath couered me with the robe of righteousnesse, as a bridegroom decketh himselfe with ornaments, and as a bride adorneth her selfe with her iewels.

11 For as the earth bringeth forth her bud, and as the garden causeth things that are sowne in it, to spring forth: so the LORD GOD will cause righteousnes and praise to spring forth before all the nations.

CHAP. LXII.

FOr Zions sake will I not hold my peace, and for Ierusalems sake I will not rest, vntil the righteousnesse thereof goe forth as brightnes, and the saluation thereof as a lampe that burneth.

2 And the Gentils shall see thy righteousnes, and all Kings thy glory: and thou shalt be called by a new name, which the mouth of the LORD shall name.

3 Thou shalt also be a crowne of glory in y hand of the LORD, and a royal diademe in the hand of thy God.

4 Thou shalt no more be termed Forsaken; neither shall thy land any more be termed Desolate: but thou shalt be called Hephzi-bah, and thy land Beulah: for the LORD delighteth in thee, and thy land shall be married.

5 For as a young man marrieth a virgine, so shall thy sons marry thee: & the bridegroom reioyceth ouer y bride, so shall thy God reioyce ouer thee.

6 I haue set watchmen on thy walls, O Ierusalem, which shall neuer hold their peace day nor night: ye that make mention of the LORD, keep not silence.

7 And giue him no rest till he establish, and till he make Ierusalem a praise in the earth.

8 The Lord hath sworne by his right hand, & by the arme of his strength, Surely I will no more giue thy corne to be meat for thine enemies, and the sons of y stranger shall not drinke thy wine, for the which thou hast laboured.

9 But they that haue gathered it, shall eat it, and praise the Lord, and they that haue brought it together, shall drinke it in the court of my holinesse.

10 Goe through, Go through the gates; prepare ye the way of the people: cast vp, cast vp the high way, gather out the stones, lift vp a standard for the people.

11 Behold, y LORD hath proclaimed to the end of y world, say yee to the daughter of Zion, Behold, thy saluation commeth, behold, his reward is with him, and his work before him.

12 And they shall call them, The holy people, The redeemed of the LORD: and thou shalt be called, Sought out, a city not forsaken.

CHAP. LXIII.

with that commeth from with died garments from that is glorious in his travelling in the greatnes of that speak in righteousness to save.

2 Wherefore are thou red in thine and thy garments like him that treadeth in the wine fat?

3 I have trodden y wine presse alone, & of the people there was none with me:
I have them in mine anger, and trodden them in my fury, and their blood is sprinkled upon my garments, & I have stained all my raiment.

4 For the day of vengeance is in mine heart, and the yeare of my Re-demed is come.

5 And I looked, and there was none to help, and I wondred that there was none to hold: therefore mine own arme brought salvation unto me, and my wrath it held me.

6 And I will tread down the people in mine anger, and make them drunke in my fury, and I will bring down their strength to the earth.

7 I will mention the loving kindnesses of the LORD, and the praises of the LORD, according to all that the LORD hath bestowed on us, and the great goodnesse toward the house of Israel, which he hath bestowed on them according unto his mercies, and according to the multitude of his loving kindnesses.

8 For he said, Surely they are my people, children that will not lie: so he became their Saviour.

9 In all their affliction he was afflicted, and the Angel of his presence saved them: in his love, and in his pi-tie he redeemed them, & he bare them, and carried them all the dayes of old.

10 But they rebelled, and vexed his holy Spirit: therefore he was turned to be their enemy, & he fought against them.

11 Then he remembred y dayes of old, Moses, and his people, saying, Where is he that brought them up out of y sea with the Shepherd of his flock? where is he that put his holy Spirit within him?

12 That led them by the right hand of Moses with his glorious arme, dividing the water before them, to make himself an everlasting Name?

13 That led them through the deep, as an horse in the wilderness, that they should not stumble?

14 As a beast goeth down into the valley, the Spirit of the LORD caused him to rest: so didst thou lead thy people, to make thy self a glorious Name.

15 Look down from heaven, and behold from the habitation of thy holi-nesse, and of thy glory: where is thy zeale and thy strength, the sounding of thy bowels, and of thy mercies toward me? are they restrained?

16 Doubtless thou art our father, though Abraham be ignorant of us,
and Israel acknowledge us not: thou O LORD, art our father, our redeemer, thy Name is from everlasting.

17 O LORD, why hast thou made us to erre from thy waves, and hardened our heart from thy feare? Returne, for thy servants sake, the tribes of thine inheritance.

18 The people of thy holinesse have possessed it but a little while: our adversaries have troden down thy sanctuary.

19 We are thine: thou never barest rule over them, they were not called by thy Name.

CHAP. LXIIII.

OH that thou wouldest rent the heavens, that thou wouldest come down, that the mountains might flow down at thy presence,

2 As when the melting fire burneth, y fire causeth y waters to boile, to make thy Name known to thy adversaries, y nations may tremble at thy presence!

3 When thou didst terrible things which we looked not for, thou camest down, the mountaines flowed down at thy presence.

4 For since the beginning of the world men have not heard, nor perceived by the eares, neither hath the eye seene, O God, besides thee, what he hath prepared for him that waiteth for him.

5 Thou meetest him that rejoyceth, & worketh righteousnes, in thy wayes before thy wayes: behold thou art wroth, for we have sinned: in those is continuance, and we shall be saved.

6 But we are all as an uncleane thing, and all our righteousnesse are as filthy rages, and we all do fade as a leaf, and our iniquities like the wind have taken us away.

7 And there is none that calleth upon thy Name, that stirreth up himself to take hold of thee: for thou hast hidde thy face from us, and hast consumed us because of our iniquities.

8 But now, O LORD, thou art our father, we are y clay, & thou our potter, and we all are y worke of thine hand.

9 Be not wroth very sore, O LORD, neither remember iniquity for ever:
behold, see, we beseech thee, we are all thy people.

10 Thy holy cities are a wilderness, Zion is a wilderness, Jerusalem a desolation.

11 Our holy and our beautiful house, where our fathers praised thee, is burnt up with fire, & all our pleasant things are laid waste:

12 Wilt thou refraine thy self for these things, O LORD? wilt thou hold thy peace, and afflict us very sore?

CHAP. LXV.

I Am sought of them that asked not for me: I am found of them that sought me not: I said, Behold me, behold me, unto a nation that was not called by my Name.

2 I have spread out my hands all the day unto a rebellious people, which walketh in the way that was not good,
after their own thoughts.

3 A people that provoked me to anger continually to my face that sacrificeth in gardens, and burneth incense upon altars of bricke:

4 Which remaine among the graves and lodge in the mountains, which eate swines flesh and broth of abominable things is in their vessels:

5 Which say, Stand by thy selfe, come not neere to me, for I am holier then thou: these are a smoake in my nose, a fire that burneth all the day.

6 Behold, it is written before me: I will not keep silence, but will recompence, even recompence into their bosome.

7 Your iniquities and the iniquities of your fathers together, (saith the LORD) which have burnt incense upon the mountaines, & blasphemed me upon the hils: therfore will I measure their former worke into their bosome.

8 Thus saith the LORD, As the new wine is found in the cluster, and one saith, Destroy it not, for a blessing is in it: so will I do for my servants sake, that I may not destroy them all.

9 And I will bring foorth a seed out of Iacob & out of Iudah an inheritour of my mountaines, & mine elect shall inherit it, & my servants shall dwel there.

10 And Sharon shal be a fold of flocks and the valley of Achor a place for the herds to lie downe in, for my people that have sought me.

11 But ye are they that forsake the Lord, that forget my holy mountain, that prepare a table for that troupe, and that furnish the drinke offering unto that number.

12 Therefore will I number you to the sword, & ye shal all bow down to the slaughter: because when I called, ye did not answere, when I spake, ye did not hear, but did evil before my eyes, & did chuse y wherin I delighted not.

13 Therefore thus saith y Lord GOD, Behold, my servants shal eat, but ye shal be hungry: behold, my servants shal drink, but ye shal be thirsty: behold, my servants shal rejoice, but ye shal be ashamed:

14 Behold, my servants shal sing for ioy of heart, but ye shal cry for sorrow of heart, and shal howle for vexation of spirit.

15 And ye shal leave your name for a curse unto my chosen: for the Lord GOD shal slay thee, and call his servants by another name:

16 That he who bleseth himself in y earth, shal bleese himself in the God of truth, and he that sweareth in y earth, shal swear by y God of truth, because the former troubles are forgotten, and because they are hid from mine eyes.

17 For behold, I create new heavens, and a new earth: and y former shal not be remembred, nor come to my mind.

18 But be you glad and rejoyce for ever in that which I create: for behold, I create Ierusalem a rejoycing, and her people a ioy.

19 And I will rejoyce in Ierusalem, and joy in my people, and the voyce of weeping shal be no more heard in her, nor the voice of crying.

20 There shal be no more there an infant of dayes, nor an old man that hath not filled his dayes: for y child shal die an hundred years old: and y sinner being an hundred years old shal be accursed.

21 And they shal build houses, & inhabite them, and they shal plant vineyards, & eate the fruit of them.

22 They shal not build, and another inhabite: they shal not plant, and another eate: for as the dayes of a tree, are the dayes of my people, and mine elect shal long enjoy the work of their hands.

23 They shal not labour in vaine, nor bring foorth for trouble: for they are the seed of the blessed of the Lord, and their ofspring with them.

24 And it shal come to passe, that before they call, I will answere, & while they are yet speaking, I will heare.

25 The wolfe and the lambe shal feede together, & y lyon shal eate straw like the bullocke: & dust shal be y serpents meat. They shal not hurt, nor destroy in all my holy mountain, saith y Lord.

CHAP. LXVI.

THus saith the LORD, The heaven is my throne, and the earth is my footstoole: where is the house that ye build unto me? and where is the place of my rest?

2 For al those things hath mine hand made, & al those things have been, saith the Lord: but to this man will I look, even to him that is poore, & of a contrite spirit, and trembleth at my word.

3 He that killeth an oxe is as if he slew a man: he that sacrificeth a lamb, as if he cut off a dogs necke: he that offereth an oblation, as if he offered swines blood: he that burneth incense, as if he blessed an idole: yea, they have chosen their owne wayes, and their soule delighteth in their abominations.

4 I also will chuse their delusions, and will bring their fears upon them: because when I called, none did answere: when I spake, they did not heare: but they did evil before mine eyes, and chose that in which I delighted not.

5 Heare the word of the LORD, ye that tremble at his word: your brethren that hated you, that cast you out for my Names sake, said, Let the LORD be glorified: but he shal appeare to your joy, and they shal be ashamed.

6 A voyce of noise from y citie, a voyce from y Temple, a voyce of y LORD y rendreth recompense to his enemies.

7 Before she trauailed, she brought foorth: before her paine came, she was delivered of a manchilde.

8 Who hath heard such a thing? who hath seen such things? shal the earth be made to bring forth in one day? or shal a nation be born at once? for as soone as Zion trauailed, she brought foorth her children.

9 Shal I bring to the birth, and not cause to bring foorth, saith y LORD?

...called. ...ye bring forth, and shut ...hind the God?
...ce Ierusalem, & be glad ...ll that love her: rejoyce for ...ll all ye that mourn for her, ...ye may suck, and be satisfied ...ye breasts of her consolations: ...ye may milk out, and be delight- ...the abundance of her glory.
For thus saith the LORD, Behold, ...will extend peace to her like a river, ...the glory of the Gentiles like a ...flowing stream: then shall ye suck, ye ...be borne upon her sides, and be ...dled upon her knees.
...as one whom his mother comfort- ...so will I comfort you: and ye shall ...be comforted in Ierusalem.
...and when ye see this, your heart ...joice, and your bones shall flou- ...like an herb: & the hand of y Lord ...be known towards his servants, & ...indignation towards his enemies.
...behold, the LORD will come ...fire, and his chariots like a whirl- ...to render his anger with fury, ...his rebuke with flames of fire.
...by fire, and by his sword will ...LORD plead with all flesh: and the ...slain of the LORD shall be many.
...they that sanctify themselves, and ...purify themselves in y gardens behind ...one vpon a tree, eating swines flesh, ...the abomination, and y mouse, shall ...be consumed together, saith y LORD.
...For I know their works and their ...thoughts: it shall come, that I will ga- ...ther all nations and tongues, and they ...shall come and see my glory.
...And I will set a signe among them, ...and I will send those that escape of them ...vnto y nations to Tarshish, Pul, & Lud, ...y draw y bow, to Tubal, & Iavan, to ...the iles afar off, y have not heard my ...fame, nor have seen my glory, and they ...shall declare my glory among y Gentils.
...And they shall bring all your bre- ...thren for an offring vnto the LORD, ...out of all nations, upon horses, and in ...chariots, and in litters, and upon mules, ...and upon swift beasts: to my holy ...mountain Ierusalem, saith the LORD, ...as the children of Israel bring an of- ...fering in a clean vessel, into the house ...of the LORD.
...And I will also take of them for ...Priests & for Levites, saith y LORD.
...For as the new heavens, and the ...new earth which I will make, shall re- ...main before me, saith the LORD, so ...shall your seed and your name remain.
...And it shall come to passe, that ...from one new Moon to another, and ...from one Sabbath to another shall all ...flesh come, to worship before me, ...saith the LORD.
...And they shall go forth, and look ...upon the carkasses of the men that ...have transgressed against me, for their ...worm shall not die, neither shall their ...fire be quenched, and they shall be an ...abhorring unto all flesh.

The Book of the Prophet IEREMIAH.

CHAP. I.

THE words of Ieremiah y son of Hilkiah, of the Priests that were in Anathoth, in the land of Benjamin.
...To whom the word of the LORD came in the dayes of Iosiah the son of Amon king of Iudah, in the thirteenth yeer of his reign.
...It came also in the dayes of Iehoia- kim the son of Iosiah king of Iudah, vnto the end of the eleventh yeer of Zedekiah the son of Iosiah king of Iudah, vnto the carrying away of Ieru- salem captive in the fift month.
...Then the word of the LORD came vnto me, saying,
...Before I formed thee in the belly, I knew thee, & before thou camest forth out of the womb, I sanctified thee, & I ordained thee a Prophet vnto y nations.
...Then said I, Ah Lord GOD, Be- hold, I cannot speak: for I am a child.
...But the LORD said vnto me, Say not, I am a child: for thou shalt go to all that I send thee, and whatsoe- ver I command thee, thou shalt speak.
...Be not afraid of their faces: for I am with thee to deliver thee, saith the LORD.
...Then y LORD put forth his hand, and touched my mouth, and the LORD said vnto me, Behold, I have put my words in thy mouth.
...See, I have this day set thee over y nations & over the kingdoms to root out, & to pul down, and to destroy, & to throw down, to build, and to plant.
...Moreover, the word of the LORD came vnto me, saying, Ieremiah, what seest thou? And I said, I see a rod of an Almond tree.
...Then said the LORD vnto me, thou hast well seen: for I will hasten my word to perform it.
...And the word of the LORD came vnto me the second time, saying, What seest thou? And I said, I see a seething pot, and the face thereof was toward the North.
...Then the LORD said to me, out of the North an evil shall break forth upon all the inhabitants of the land.
...For lo, I will call all the families of the kingdomes of the North, saith the LORD, and they shall come, and they shall set every one his throne at the entring of the gates of Ierusalem, and against all the walls thereof round a- bout, & against all the cities of Iudah.
...And I will utter my judgements a- gainst the, touching all their wickedne, who have forsaken me, & have burnt incense unto other gods, and worship- ped the works of their own hands.
...Now therefore gird up thy loyns, and rise, and speak unto them all that I command commaund I keepe not dismayed at their faces, lest I confound thee before them.

18 For behold, I have made thee this day a defenced city, and an iron pillar, & brasen walls against the whole land, thy against the kings of Iudah, against the Princes thereof, against thy priests, & against the people of y land.
19 And they shal fight against thee: but they shal not prevale against thee: for I am with thee, saith y Lord to deliver thee. CHAP. II.

MOreover, the word of the LORD came unto me, saying,
2 Go, and cry in the eares of Ierusalem, saying, Thus saith the LORD, I remember thee, y kindnes of thy youth, the love of thine espousals, when thou wentest after me in the wilderness, in a land that was not sown.
3 Israel was holinesse to the LORD, and the first fruits of his increase: all that devoure him, shal offend, evil shal come upon them, saith the LORD.
4 Hear ye the word of the LORD, O house of Iacob, and all the families of the house of Israel.
5 Thus saith the Lord, what iniquity have your fathers found in me, that they are gone far from me, & have walked after vanity, and are become vaine?
6 Neither said they, where is y Lord that brought us up out of y land of Egypt? that led us through y wilderness, thorow a land of deserts, & of pits, thorow a land of drought, & of y shadow of death, thorow a land that no man passed thorow, & where no ma dwelt.
7 And I brought you into a plentiful countrey, to eat the fruit thereof, and the goodnesse thereof: but when ye entred, ye defiled my land, & made mine heritage an abomination.
8 The Priests said not, Where is the LORD? and they that handle the law knew me not: the pastors also transgressed against me, and the Prophets prophesied by Baal, and walked after things that do not profit.
9 Wherefore, I will yet pleade with you, saith the LORD, and with your children's children will I pleade.
10 For passe over y Iles of Chittim, & see, & send to Kedar, & consider diligently, and see if there be such a thing.
11 Hath a nation changed their gods, which are yet no gods: but my people have changed their glory, for that which doeth not profite.
12 Be astonished, O ye heavens, at this, and be horribly afrayd, be ye very desolate, saith the LORD.
13 For my people have committed two evils, they have forsaken me, the fountain of living waters, and hewed them out cisternes, broken cisternes that can hold no water.
14 Is Israel a servant? is he a homeborn slave: why is he spoyled?
15 The young lyons roared upon him, & yelled, & they made his land waste: his cities are burnt without inhabitant.
16 Also y children of Noph & Tahapanes have broke y crown of thy head.
17 Hast y not procured this unto thy self, in y thou hast forsaken the LORD thy God, when he led thee by the way?
18 And now what hast thou to do in the way of Egypt, to drinke the waters of Sihor? Or what hast thou to do in the way of Assyria, to drinke the waters of the river?
19 Thine own wickednes shall correct thee, & thy backsliding shall reprove thee: know therefore & see, y it is a evil thing & bitter, that y hast forsaken the Lord thy God, & y my reuerence is not in thee, saith the Lord God of hosts.
20 For of old time I have broken thy yoke, & burst thy bands, & y said, I will not transgresse; when upon every high hil, & under every green tree thou wanderedst, playing the harlot.
21 Yet I had planted thee a noble vineyard, wholly a right seed: how then art thou turned into the degenerate plant of a strange vine unto me?
22 For though thou wash thee with nitre, & take thee much sope, yet thine iniquity is marked before me, saith the LORD God.
23 How canst thou say, I am not polluted, I have not gone after Baalim? see thy way in the valley, know what thou hast done: thou art a swift dromedarie traversing her wayes.
24 A wild Asse used to the wilderness, that snuffeth up the wind at her pleasure, in her occasion, who can turne her away? all they that seek her, will not weary themselves; in her moneth they shall find her.
25 Withhold thy foot from being unshod, & thy throat from thirst: but thou saidst, There is no hope; No, for I have loved strangers, & after them will go.
26 As the theefe is ashamed, when he is found: so is the house of Israel ashamed: they, their kings, their princes, & their Priests, and their Prophets,
27 Saying to a stock, Thou art my father; and to a stone, thou hast brought me forth: for they have turned their back unto me, and not their faces: but in the time of their trouble, they will say, Arise, and save us.
28 But where are thy gods that thou hast made thee? let them arise, if they can save thee in the time of thy trouble, for according to the number of thy cities, are thy gods, O Iudah.
29 Wherefore will ye plead with me? ye all have transgressed against me, saith the LORD.
30 In vaine have I smitten your children, they received no correction: your own sword hath devoured your prophets like a destroying lyon.
31 O generation, see ye the word of the LORD, have I been a wilderness unto Israel? a land of darkenesse? wherefore say my people, We are lords, we will come no more unto thee?
32 Can a maid forget her ornaments, or a bride but stain yet my people have ge ers without number.

Wherefore thou thy way to ge ranneſt thou thy way to ge ? therefore haſt thou alſo ge wicked ones thy wayes.
Alſo in thy skirts is found the blood of the ſouls of the poore innocents: I have not found it by ſecret ſearch upon all theſe.
Yet thou ſayeſt, Becauſe I am innocent, ſurely his anger ſhall turne from me. Behold, I will plead with thee, becauſe thou ſayeſt, I have not ſinned.
Why gaddeſt thou about ſo much to change thy way? thou alſo ſhalt be aſhamed of Egypt: as thou waſt aſha-med of Aſſyria.
From thence thou ſhalt go forth from him, and thine hands upon thy head: for the LORD hath rejected thy confidences, and thou ſhalt not proſper in them.

CHAP. III.

They ſay, If a man put away his wife, and he go from him, and become another man, ſhall he return unto her again? ſhall not that land be greatly polluted? but thou haſt played the harlot with many lovers; yet return unto me, ſaith the LORD.
Lift up thine eyes unto y high places,
and ſee where thou haſt not been lien with. In the wayes haſt thou ſate for them, as the Arabian in the wilderneſſe; and thou haſt polluted the land with thy whoredoms, and with thy wickedneſs.
Therefore the ſhowers have been with-holden, and there hath been no latter rain, and thou haſteſt a whores forehead, thou refuſedſt to be aſhamed.
Wilt thou not from this time cry unto me, My father, thou art the guide of my youth?
Will he reſerve his anger for ever? will he keep it to the end? Behold, thou haſt ſpoken and done evil things as thou couldeſt.
The LORD ſaid alſo unto me, in the days of Joſiah the king, haſt thou ſeen that which back-ſliding Iſrael hath done? ſhe is gone up upon every high mountain and under every green tree, and there hath played the harlot.
And I ſaid, after ſhe had done all theſe things, Turn thou unto me, but ſhe returned not: and her treacherous ſiſter Judah ſaw it.
And I ſaw, when for all the cauſes whereby back-ſliding Iſrael committed adultery, I had put her away: and given her a bill of divorce: yet her treacherous ſiſter Judah feared not, but went and played the harlot alſo.
And it came to paſſe through the lightneſſe of her whoredome, that ſhe defiled the land, and committed adultery with ſtones and with ſtockes.
And yet for all this her treacherous ſiſter Judah hath not turned unto me with her whole heart, but feigned-ly, ſaith the LORD.
Then the LORD ſaid unto me, The back-ſliding Iſrael hath juſtified her ſelfe more then treacherous Judah.
Go and proclaime theſe words toward the North, and ſay, Return thou back-ſliding Iſrael, ſaith y Lord, & I will not cauſe mine anger to fall upon you: for I am mercifull, ſaith y LORD, and I will not keep anger for ever.
Only acknowledge thine iniquity that thou haſt tranſgreſſed againſt the LORD thy God, and haſt ſcattered thy wayes to the ſtrangers under every Greene tree, and ye have not obeyed my voyce, ſaith the LORD.
Turn, O back-ſliding children, ſaith the LORD, for I am married to you: & I will take you one of a city, & two of a family, and I will bring you to Zion.
And I will give you Paſtors according to mine heart, which ſhall feed you with knowledg & underſtanding.
And it ſhall come to paſſe, when ye be multiplied and increaſed in the land in thoſe dayes, ſaith the LORD, they ſhall ſay no more, The Ark of the covenant of the LORD: neither ſhall it come to my mind, neither ſhall they remember it, neither ſhall they viſite it, neither ſhall that be done any more.
At that time they ſhall call Jeruſalem the Throne of the LORD, and all the nations ſhall be gathered unto it, to the Name of the LORD to Jeruſalem: neither ſhall they walke any more after the imagination of their evil heart.
In thoſe dayes the houſe of Judah ſhall walke with the houſe of Iſrael, and they ſhall come together out of y land of the North, to the land y I have given for an inheritance to your fathers.
But I ſaid, how ſhall I put thee among the children, & give thee a pleaſant land, a goodly heritage of the hoſts of nations? & I ſaid, Thou ſhalt call me, My father, and ſhalt not turn away from me.
Surely as a wife treacherouſly departeth from her husband, ſo have you dealt treacherouſly with me, O houſe of Iſrael, ſaith the LORD.
A voyce was heard upon the high places, weeping and ſupplications of the children of Iſrael: for they have perverted their way, and they have forgotten the LORD their God.
Returne ye back ſliding children, and I will heale your back-ſlidings. Behold, we come unto thee, for thou art the LORD our God.
Truely in vain is ſalvation hoped for from the hilles, and from the multitude of mountaines: truly in the LORD our God is the ſalvation of Iſrael.
For ſhame hath devoured the labour of our fathers from our youth, their flocks and their herds, their ſons and their daughters.
We lie down in our ſhame, and our confuſion covereth us: for we have ſinned againſt the LORD our God, we, and our fathers from our youth even unto this day, and have not obeyed the voyce of the LORD our God.

CHAP. IIII.

1 If thou wilt returne, O Israel, saith the Lord, returne vnto me: and if thou wilt put away thine abominations out of my sight, then shalt thou not remoue.
2 And thou shalt sweare, The LORD liueth, in truth, in iudgement, and in righteousnes, and the nations shall blesse themselues in him, and in him shal they glory.
3 For thus saith the LORD to the men of Iudah and Ierusalem, Breake vp your fallow ground, and sow not among thornes.
4 Circumcise your selues to the Lord, and take away the foreskins of your heart, ye men of Iudah, and inhabitants of Ierusalem: lest my fury come forth like fire, and burn that none can quench it, because of the euil of your doings.
5 ¶ Declare ye in Iudah, and publish in Ierusalem, and say, Blow ye the trumpet in the land: cry gather together, and say, Assemble your selues, and let vs go into the defenced cities.
6 Set up the standard toward Zion: retire, stay not, for I will bring euil from y North, & a great destruction.
7 The Lion is come vp from his thicket, & y destroyer of Gentiles is on his way: he is gone forth from his place to make thy land desolate & thy cities shall be laid waste without an inhabitant.
8 For this get you girded with sackcloth, lament & howle: for the fierce anger of y LORD is not turned back from vs.
9 And it shall come to passe at that day, saith the LORD, that the heart of the kings shall perish, and the heart of the Princes: and the Priests shall be astonished and the Prophets shall wonder.
10 Then said I, Ah Lord God, surely y hast greatly deceiued this people, & Ierusalem, saying, Ye shall haue peace, whereas y sword reacheth vnto y soul.
11 At that time shall it be said to this people, & to Ierusalem, A dry wind of the high places in the wilderness toward the daughter of my people, not to fanne, nor to cleanse.
12 Euen a full winde from those places shall come vnto me: now also will I giue sentence against them.
13 Lo, he shall come vp as clouds, and his charets shall be as a whirlwind: his horses are swifter than Eagles: woe vnto vs, for we are spoiled.
14 O Ierusalem, wash thine heart from wickednes, that thou mayest be saued: how long shall thy vaine thoughts lodge within thee?
15 For a voyce declareth from Dan, and publisheth affliction from mount Ephraim.
16 Make ye mention to y nations, behold, publish against Ierusalem, y watchers come from a far country, & giue out their voyce against y cities of Iudah.
17 As keepers of a field are they against her round about, because she hath been rebellious against me, saith y LORD.
18 Thy way and thy doings haue procured these things to thee, that is thy wickednesse, because it is bitter, because it reacheth vnto thine heart.
19 My bowels, my bowels, I am pained at my very heart, my heart maketh a noise in me, I cannot hold my peace, because thou hast heard, O my soule, the sound of the trumpet, y alarm of warre.
20 Destruction vpon destruction is cried, for the whole land is spoiled: suddenly are my tents spoiled, and my curtaines in a moment.
21 How long shall I see the standard, and heare the sound of the trumpet?
22 For my people is foolish, they haue not knowne me: they are sottish children, and they haue no vnderstanding: they are wise to do euil, but to do good they haue no knowledge.
23 I beheld the earth, and lo, it was without forme, and void: and the heauens, and they had no light.
24 I beheld y mountains, and lo, they trembled, and all y hils moued lightly.
25 I beheld, and lo, there was no man, and all y birds of the heauens were fled.
26 I beheld, and lo, y fruitful place was a wilderness, and all the cities of it were broken down at the presence of the LORD, and by his fierce anger.
27 For thus hath the LORD said, The whole land shall be desolate, yet will I not make a full end.
28 For this shall the earth mourne, & y heauens aboue be blacke: because I haue spoken it, I haue purposed it, and will not repent, neither will I turne back from it.
29 The whole city shall flee for the noise of the horsemen and bowmen: they shall go into thickets, and climb vp vpon the rockes: euery city shall be forsaken, and not a man dwell therein.
30 And when y art spoiled, what wilt thou do? though thou clothest thy selfe with crimson, though thou deckest thee with ornaments of gold, though thou rentest thy face with painting, in vain shalt thou make thy selfe fayre, thy louers will despise thee, they will seeke thy life.
31 For I haue heard a voyce as of a woman in trauell, and the anguish as of her y bringeth forth her first child, the voyce of the daughter of Zion that bewaileth her selfe, that spreadeth her hands, saying, Woe is me now, for my soule is wearied, because of murderers.

CHAP. V.

1 Runne ye to & fro through the streets of Ierusalem, & see now, & know, & seeke in the broade places thereof, if ye can find a man, if there be any that executeth iudgement, that seeketh the truth: and I will pardon it.
2 And though they say, The LORD liueth, surely they sweare falsely.
3 O LORD, are not thine eyes vpon the truth? y hast stricken them, but they haue not sorrowed: y hast consumed them, but they haue refused to receiue correction: they haue made their faces harder than a rock, they haue refused to returne.

Therefore I said, Surely these are poore: they are foolish, for they know not the way of the LORD, nor the iudgement of their God.
5 I will get me unto the great men, and will speake unto them, for they haue knowen the way of the LORD, and the iudgement of their God: but these haue altogether broken the yoke, and burst the bonds.
6 Wherefore a Lyon out of the forrest shall slay them, and a wolfe of the deserts shall spoile them, a Leopard shall watch ouer their cities: euery one that goeth out thence, shall be torn in pieces: because their transgressions are many, and their backe-slidings are increased.
7 How shal I pardon thee for this?
thy children haue forsaken me, and sworne by them that are no Gods: when I had fed them to the full, they then committed adultery, & assembled themselues by troupes in the harlots houses.
8 They were as fed horses in the morning: euery one neighed after his neighbours wife.
9 Shall not I visite for these things, saith the LORD? & shall not my soule be auenged on such a nation as this?
10 Go ye vp vpon her walls, and destroy: but make not a full end; take away their battlements, for they are not the LORDS.
11 For the house of Israel, and the house of Iudah haue dealt very trea-cherously against me, saith the LORD.
12 They haue belied the LORD, and said, It is not he, neither shall euil come vpon vs: neither shal we see sword nor famine.
13 And the Prophets shal become but wind, and the word is not in them:
thus shall it be done vnto them.
14 Therefore thus saith the LORD
God of hosts, Because yee speake this word, behold, I will make my words in thy mouth fire, & this people wood, and it shall deuoure them.
15 Loe, I will bring a nation vpon you from farre, O house of Israel, saith the LORD: it is a mighty nation, it is an ancient nation, a nation whose tongue thou knowest not, neither vnderstandest what they say.
16 Their quiuer is as an open sepulchre, they are all mighty men.
17 And they shall eate vp thine harvest and thy bread, which thy sonnes and thy daughters should eate: they shall eat vp thy flocks and thine herds: they shall eat vp thy Vines and thy figgetrees: they shall impoueresh thy fenced cities wherein thou trustedst, with the sword.
18 Nenertheless, in those dayes saith the LORD, I will not make a full end with you.
19 And it shall come to passe when ye shall say, Wherefore doeth the LORD our God all these things vnto vs? then shalt thou answere them; Like as ye haue forsaken me, and serued strange gods in your land, so shal ye serue strangers in a land that is not yours.
20 Declare this in the house of Iacob, and publish it in Iudah, saying, 21 Heare now this, O foolish people:
and without vnderstanding, which haue eyes and see not, which haue eares and heare not.
22 I ear ye not me, saith the LORD;
will ye not tremble at my presence, which haue placed the sand for the bound of the sea, by a perpetuall decree, that it cannot passe it: and though the waues thereof toste themselues, yet can they not preuaile, though they roar, yet can they not passe ouer it.
23 But this people hath a reuolting and a rebellious heart; they are reuolted and gone.
24 Neither say they in their heart;
Let us now feare the LORD our God that giueth raine both the former and the latter in his season: he reserueth to us the appointed weekes of y harvest.
25 Your iniquities haue turned away these things, and your sinnes haue withholden good things from you.
26 For among my people are found wicked men: they lay wait as he y setteth snares: they set a trap, they catch men.
27 As a cage is full of birds, so are their houses full of deceit: therefore they are become great, & waxen rich.
28 They are waxen fat, they shine: yea,
they ouerpasse the deedes of y wicked:
they iudge not the cause, y cause of y fatherlesse yet they prosper, and the right of the needy doe they not iudge.
29 Shall I not visit for these things, saith the LORD? shal not my soul be auenged on such a nation as this?
30 A wonderful and horrible thing is committed in the land.
31 The Prophets prophesie falsely, and y Priests beare rule by their meanes: & my people loue to haue it so: and what will ye doe in the end thereof?

CHAP. VI.

O Ye children of Benjamin, gather your selues to flee out of the midst of Ierusalem, and blow the trumpet in Tekoa: and set vp a signe of fire in Beth-haccerem: for euil appeareth out of the North, and great destruction.
2 I haue likened the daughter of Zion to a comely & delicate woman.
3 The shepheards with their flockes shall come vnto her: they shal pitch their tents against her round about:
they shall feede euery one in his place.
4 Prepare yee war against her: arise, and let vs go vp at noone: woe vnto vs, for the day goeth away, for the shadowes of the euening are stretched out.
5 Arise, and let vs goe by night and let vs destroy her palaces.
6 For thus hath the LORD of hostes said, Hew ye downe trees, and cast a mount against Ierusalem: this is the city to be visited: she is wholly oppression in the midst of her.
7 As a fountain casteth out her waters,
so she casteth out her wickednesse: vio-

CHAP. IIII.

1 If thou wilt returne, O Israel, saith y LORD, returne unto me: and if thou wilt put away thine abominations out of my sight, then shalt y not remove.
2 And thou shalt swear, The LORD liveth in Truth, in Judgement, and in Righteousnes, and the nations shall be blessed in him, and in him shal they glory.
3 For thus saith the LORD to the men of Iudah and Ierusalem, Breake up your fallow ground, and sow not among thornes.
4 Circumcise your selves to the Lord, and take away the foreskins of your heart, ye men of Iudah, and inhabitants of Ierusalem: lest my fury come forth like fire, and burn that none can quench it, because of the evil of your doings.
5 I declare ye in Iudah, and publish in Ierusalem, and say, Blow ye the trumpet in the land: cry gather together, and say, Assemble your selves, let us go into the defenced cities.
6 Set up the standard toward Zion:
retire, stay not, for I will bring evil from y North, & a great destruction.
7 The Lion is come up from his thicket, & y destroyer of Gentiles is on his way: he is gone forth from his place to make thy land desolate & thy cities shalbe laid waste without an inhabitat.
8 For this gird you with sackcloth, lament & howle: for the fierce anger of y LORD is not turned back from us.
9 And it shal come to pass at that day, saith the LORD, that the heart of the kings shal perish, and the heart of the Princes: and the Priests shal be astonished, and the Prophets shalt wonder.
10 Then said I, Ah Lord God, surely y hast greatly deceived this people & Ierusalem, saying, Ye shal have peace:
whereas y sword reacheth unto y soul.
11 At that time shall it be said to this people & to Ierusalem, A dry hot wind out of the high places in the wilderness toward the daughter of my people, not to fan nor to cleanse.
12 Even a full wind from those places shall come unto me: now also will
I give sentence against them.
13 Lo, he shall come up as clouds, and his chariots shall be as a whirlewind: his horses are swifter then Eagles: woe unto us, for we are spoiled.
14 O Ierusalem, wash thine heart from wickednes, that thou mayst be saved: how long shall thy vaine thoughts lodge within thee?
15 For a voyce declareth from Dan, and publisheth affliction from mount Ephraim.
16 Make ye mention of y nations, behold, publish against Ierusalem, y watchers come from a far country, & give out their voyce against y cities of Iudah.
17 As keepers of a field are they against her round about, because she hath been rebellious against me, saith y LORD.
18 Thy way and thy doings have procured these things to thee, this is thy wickednesse, because it is bitter, because it reacheth unto thine hart.
19 My bowels, my bowels, I am pai-at my very heart, my heart maketh a noise in me, I cannot hold my peace, because thou hast heard, O my soul, the sound of the trumpet, y alarm of warre.
20 Destruction upon destruction is cried, for the whole land is spoiled:
suddenly are my tents spoiled, and my curtanes in a moment.
21 How long shall I see the standard, and heare the sound of the trumpet?
22 For my people is foolish, they have not know me: they are sottish children, and they have no understanding: they are wise to do evil, but to do good they have no knowledge.
23 I beheld the earth, and lo, it was without forme, and void: and the heavens, and they had no light.
24 I beheld y mountains, and lo, they trembled, and all y hils moved lightly.
25 I beheld, and lo, there was no man,
and all y birds of y heavens were fled.
26 I beheld, and lo, y fruitful place was a wilderness, and all cities thereof were broken down at the presence of the LORD, and by his fierce anger.
27 For thus hath the LORD said,
The whole land shal be desolate, yet will I not make a full end.
28 For this shal the earth Mourne, & y heavens above be blacke: because I have spoken it, I have purposed it, and I will not repent, neither will I turn back from it.
29 The whole city shal flee for the noise of the horsemen and bowmen:
they shal go into thickets, and climbe up upon the rockes: every city shal be forsaken, and not a man dwel therein.
30 And when y are spoiled, what wilt thou do? though thou clothest thy self with crimson, though thou decke thee with ornaments of gold, though thou paintest y eyes with vermilion, in vain shalt thou make thy selfe fayre, thy lovers will despise thee, they will seek thy life.
31 For I have heard a voyce as of a woman in travel, and the anguish as of her y bringeth forth her first child, the voyce of the daughter of Zion bewaileth her self, that stretcheth her hands, saying, Woe is me now, for my soul is wearied, because of murderers.

CHAP. V.

1 Runne ye to & fro through the streets of Ierusalem, & see now, & take know, & seeke in the broade places thereof, if ye can find a man, if there be any that executeth iudgement, that seeketh the truth: and I will pardon it.
2 And though they say, The LORD liveth, surely they sweare falsely.
3 O LORD, are not thine eyes upon truth? y hast stricken them, but they have not grieved: y hast consumed them, but they have refused to receive correction: they have made their faces harder then a rock, they have refused to return.

Shall I not visite for these things, saith the LORD? shall not my soule be auenged on such a nation as this?

9 A wonderful and horrible thing is committed in the land.

10 The Prophets prophesie falsely: and the Priests beare rule by their meanes: and my people loue to haue it so: and what will ye doe in the end thereof?

CHAP. VI.

O Ye children of Benjamin, gather your selues to flee out of the midst of Ierusalem: and blow the trumpet in Tekoa: and set up a signe of fire in Beth-haccerem: for euil appeareth out of the North, and great destruction.

2 I haue likened the daughter of Zion to a comely & delicate woman.

3 The shepheards with their flockes shall come vnto her: they shall pitch their tents against her round about: they shall feede euery one in his place.

4 Prepare ye war against her: arise, and let vs go vp at noone: woe vnto vs, for the day goeth away, for the shadowes of the euening are stretched out.

5 Arise and let vs goe by night and let vs destroy her palaces.

6 For thus hath the LORD of hostes said, Hew ye downe trees, and cast a mount against Ierusalem: this is the citie to be visited: she is wholly oppression in the midst of her.

7 As a fountaine casteth out her waters, so she casteth out her wickednesse: violence

lence and spoile is heard in her, before me continually is grieue and wounds.
8 Be thou instructed O Ierusalem, lest my soule depart from thee; lest I make thee desolate, a land not inhabited.
9 Thus saith y LORD of hosts, They shall throughly gleane the remnant of Israel as a vine, turn backe thine hand as a grape-gatherer into the baskets.
10 To whom shal I speake and giue warning that they may heare? behold, their eare is vncircumcised, and they cannot hearken: behold, the word of the LORD is vnto them a reproach; they haue no delight in it.
11 Therefore I am full of the fury of the LORD: I am weary with holding in: I will powre it out vpon the children abroad, and vpon the assembly of young men together: for euen the husband with the wife shal be taken, the aged with him that is full of dayes.
12 And their houses shal be turned to others, with their fields & wiues together: for I will stretch out my hand on y inhabitants of the land, saith y LORD.
13 For from the least of them euen vnto the greatest of them, euery one is giuen to couetousnesse, and from the Prophets euen vnto the Priest, euery one dealeth falsely.
14 They haue healed also the hurt of y daughter of my people slightly, saying, Peace, peace, when there is no peace.
15 Were they ashamed when they had comitted abomination? nay, they were not at all ashamed, neither could they blush: therefore they shal fal among them that fal: at the time y I visit them, they shal be cast down, saith the LORD.
16 Thus saith y LORD, Stand ye in y wayes, & see, & ask for the old paths, where is y good way, & walk therein, & ye shal finde rest for your soules, but they said, We will not walke therein.
17 Also I set watchmen ouer you, saying, Hearken to the sound of y trumpet? but they said, we wil not hearken.
18 Therefore heare ye nations, and know, O congregation what is among them.
19 Heare, O earth, Behold, I wil bring euil vpon this people, euen the fruite of their thoughts, because they haue not hearkned vnto my words, nor to my Law, but reiected it.
20 To what purpose commeth there to me incense from Sheba? and the sweet cane from a farre country? your burnt offerings are not acceptable, nor your sacrifices sweet vnto me.
21 Therefore thus saith the LORD, Behold, I wil lay stumbling blockes before this people, and the fathers and the sons together shal fal vpon them: the neighbour and his friend shal perish.
22 Thus saith the LORD, Behold, a people commeth from the North country, and a great nation shal be raised from the sides of the earth.
23 They shal lay holde on bow and speare: they are cruel, & haue no mercy: their voice shal roare like the sea, and they ride on horses, set in aray as men of war against thee, O daughter of Zion.
24 We haue heard the fame thereof: our hands wax feeble, anguish hath taken hold of vs, and paine as of a woman in trauell.
25 Go not forth into the field, nor walke by the way: for the sword of the enemy, and feare is on euery side.
26 O daughter of my people, gird thee with sackcloth, & wallow thy selfe in ashes: make thee mourning, as for an only son, most bitter lamentation: for y spoiler shal suddenly come vpon vs.
27 I haue set thee for a tower and for a fortresse among my people: that thou mayest know and try their way.
28 They are all grieuous reuolters, walking with slanders, they are brasse and iron, they are all corrupters.
29 The bellowes are burnt, the lead is consumed of the fire: the founder melteth in vain, for the wicked are not plucked away.
30 Reprobate siluer shal men call them, because y LORD hath reiected them.

CHAP. VII.

THE word that came to Ieremie from the LORD, saying,
2 Stand in the gate of the LORDS house, & proclaime there this word, and say, Heare the word of the LORD all ye of Iudah, that enter in at these gates to worship the LORD.
3 Thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, Amend your wayes and your doings, and I wil cause you to dwel in this place.
4 Trust ye not in lying words, saying, The Temple of the LORD, the Temple of the LORD, the Temple of the LORD, are these.
5 For if ye throughly amend your wayes & your doings: if you throughly execute iudgement betweene man and his neighbour,
6 If ye oppresse not the stranger, the fatherlesse and the widow, and shed not innocent blood in this place, neither walke after other gods to your hurt:
7 Then wil I cause you to dwel in this place, in the land that I gaue to your fathers, for euer and euer.
8 Behold, ye trust in lying words that cannot profite.
9 Will ye steale, murder, and commit adultery, and sweare falsely, and burne incense vnto Baal, and walke after other gods whom ye know not,
10 And come, and stand before me in this house which is called by my Name, and say, We are deliuered: that we may do all these abominations?
11 Is this house which is called by my Name, become a denne of robbers in your eyes? behold, euen I haue seene it, saith the LORD.
12 But go ye now to my place which was in Shilon, where I set my Name at the first, and see what I did to it for the wickednesse of my people Israel.
13 And now because ye haue done

...ning that red.
...orkes, saith the LORD, and ...to you, rising up early, and ...but ye heard not; and I cal...but ye answered not:
...therefore will I do unto this house ...is called by my Name, wherein ...and unto the places which ...gave you and to your fathers, as I ...unto Shiloh.
...and I will cast you out of my ...as I have cast out all your bre...even the whole seed of Ephraim.
...Therefore pray not thou for this ...neither lift up cry nor prayer ...for, neither make intercession to ...for I will not heare thee.
...dest thou not what they do in ...ties of Iudah, and in the streets ...rusalem?
...The children gather wood, and ...fathers kindle the fire, and the wo...knead their dough to make cakes ...queen of heaven, and to powre ...drink offerings unto other gods, ...they may provoke me to anger.
...Do they provoke me to anger? saith ...LORD: do they not provoke them...selves to the confusion of their own faces?
...Therefore thus saith the Lord God ...mine anger, & my fury shall be ...poured out on this place, on man, & ...on beast, & upon the trees of the field, ...& upon the fruit of the ground, and it ...shall burn, & shall not be quenched.
...Thus saith the LORD of hostes, the God of Israel; put your burnt offer...ings unto your sacrifices, and eat flesh.
...For I spake not unto your fathers, ...nor commanded them in the day that I ...brought them out of the land of Egypt, ...concerning burnt offerings, or sacrifices.
...But this thing commanded I them, ...saying, Obey my voyce, & I will be your ...God, & ye shall be my people: & walke ...ye in all the wayes that I have comman...ded you, that it may be well unto you.
...But they hearkened not, nor inclined ...their eare, but walked in y counsels, and ...in the imagination of their evil heart, ...and went backward, and not forward.
...Since the day that your fathers ...came forth out of the land of Egypt, ...unto this day, I have even sent unto ...you all my servants the Prophets, daily ...& early, and sending them:
...Yet they hearkened not unto me, nor ...inclined their eare, but hardened their ...neck: they did worse then their fathers.
...Therefore thou shalt speake all these ...words unto them, but they will not ...hearken to thee: thou shalt also call to ...them, but they will not answere thee.
...But thou shalt say unto them, ...This is a nation that obeyeth not the ...voice of the LORD their God, nor re...ceiveth correction: truth is perished, ...& is cut off from their mouth.
...Cut off thine haire, O Ierusalem, ...& cast it away, & take up a lamentation ...on high places: for y Lord hath rejected ...& forsaken y generation of his wrath.
...For the children of Iudah have done ...evil in my sight, saith y LORD: they ...have set their abominations in y house ...which is called by my Name, to pollute it.
...And they have built the high places ...of Tophet, which is in the valley of ...the son of Hinnom, to burne their sons ...and their daughters in the fire, which ...I commanded them not, neither came it ...into my heart.
...Therefore behold, the dayes come, ...saith the LORD, that it shall no more ...be called Tophet, nor the valley of ...the son of Hinnom, but the valley of ...slaughter: for they shall bury in Tophet ...till there be no place.
...And the carkeises of this people ...shall be meat for the foules of the hea...ven, and for the beasts of the earth, & ...none shall fray them away.
...Then will I cause to cease from the ...cities of Iudah, and from the streets of ...Ierusalem, the voyce of mirth, and the ...voyce of gladnesse, the voyce of the ...bridegroom, and the voyce of the bride: ...for the land shall be desolate.

CHAP. VIII.

...AT y time saith y LORD, they shal ...bring out the bones of y kings of ...Iudah, and y bones of his princes, & y ...bones of y priests, and y bones of the ...Prophets, and the bones of the inhabi...tants of Ierusalem out of their graves,
...And they shal spread them before y ...sunne, and the Moon, and all the host of ...heaven whom they have loved, & who ...they have served, & after whom they ...have walked, & who they have sought, ...& whom they have worshipped: they shal ...not be gathered, nor be buried, they ...shall be for dung on y face of y earth.
...And death shall be chosen rather ...then life, by all the residue of them that ...remaine of this evil family, which re...maine in all the places whither I have ...driven them, saith y LORD of hostes.
...Moreover, thou shalt say to them, ...thus saith the LORD. Shal they fal, ...and not arise? shall he turn away, and ...not return?
...Why then is this people of Ierusa...lem slidden back by a perpetual back...sliding? they hold fast deceit, they re...fuse to returne.
...I hearkened, and heard, but they spake ...not aright: no man repented him of his ...wickednesse, saying, what have I done? ...every one turned to his course, as the ...horse rushech into the battel.
...Yea, the stork in the heaven knoweth ...her appointed times, and the turtle, ...and the crane, and y swallow observe y ...time of their comming, but my people ...know not y judgement of the LORD.
...How do ye say, We are wise, and ...the Law of the LORD is with us? Lo, ...certainly in vain made he it, the pen of ...the Scribes is in vaine.
...The wise men are ashamed, they ...are dismayed, and taken: lo, they have ...rejected the word of the LORD, and ...what wisedome is in them?
...Therefore will I give their wives unto others, and their fields to them y^t shal inherit them: for every one from the least even unto the greatest is given to covetousnesse: from ye Prophet even unto ye Priest, every one dealeth fally.

11 For they have healed the hurt of the daughter of my people slightly, saying, Peace, peace: when there is no peace.

12 Were they ashamed when they had committed abominations? nay, they were not at all ashamed, neither could they blush: therefore shall they fal among them that fall: in the time of their visitation they shal be cast downe, saith the LORD.

13 I will surely consume them, saith ye LORD: there shal be no grapes on ye vine, nor figs on ye fig-tree, and ye leafe shall fade, and the things y^t I have given them, shal passe away from them.

14 Why do ye sit fast? assemble your selves, and let us enter into ye defenced cities, and let us bee still there: for ye Lord our God hath put us to silence, & given us waters of gal to drink, because we have sinned against ye Lord.

15 We looked for peace, but no good came: for a time of health, and behold trouble.

16 The snorting of his horses was heard from Dan: ye whole land trembled, for at the sound of the neighing of his strong ones, for they are come and have devoured the land, and all that is in it: the city, and those that dwel therein.

17 For behold, I will send serpents, cockatrices among you, which will not be charmed, and they shal bite you, saith the LORD.

18 When I would comfort my selfe against sorrow, my heart is faint in me.

19 Behold the voyce of the cry of the daughter of my people, because of them that dwel in a fat country: is not the LORD in Zion? is not her king in her? why have they provoked me to anger with their graven images, and with strange vanities?

20 The harvest is past, the Summer is ended, and we are not saved.

21 For the hurt of the daughter of my people am I hurt, I am blackened: astonishment hath taken hold on me.

22 Is there no balme in Gilead? is there no Physician there? why then is not the health of the daughter of my people recovered?

CHAP. IX.

OH that my head were waters, and mine eyes a fountaine of teares, that I might weepe day and night for the slain of the daughter of my people.

2 Oh that I had in the wilderness a lodging place of wayfaring men, that I might leave my people, and go from them! for they be all adulterers, an assembly of treacherous men.

3 And they bend their tongue like their bow for lies: but they are not valiant for the truth upon the earth: for they proceed from evil to evil, and they know not me, saith the LORD.

4 Take ye heed every one of his neighbour, and trust ye not in any brother: for every brother will utterly supplant, and every neighbour will walke with slanders.

5 And they will deceive every one his neighbour, and will not speak the truth: they have taught their tongue to speak lies, and weary themselves to commit iniquite.

6 Thine habitation is in the midst of deceit, through deceit they refuse to know me, saith the LORD.

7 Therefore thus saith the LORD of hosts, Behold, I will melt them, and try them: for how shal I do for the daughter of my people?

8 Their tongue is an arrow shot out, it speaketh deceit: one speaketh peaceably to his neighbour with his mouth, but in his heart he layeth his wait.

9 Shal I not visite them for these things, saith ye LORD? shal not my soule be avenged on such a nation as this?

10 For the mountains will I take up a weeping & wailing, and for the habitations of ye wilderness a lamentation, because they are burnt up, so y^t none passe through them: neither can men heare the voyce of ye cattel: both ye fowl of the heaven & ye beast are fled: they are gone.

11 And I will make Jerusalem heapes, and a den of dragons, and I will make the cities of Judah desolate, without an inhabitant.

12 Who is the wise man that may understand this, and who is he to whom the mouth of the LORD hath spoken, that he may declare it, for what the land perisheth & is burnt up like a wilde, that none passeth through?

13 And the LORD saith, because they have forsaken my Law, which I set before them, and have not obeyed my voice, neither walked therein,

14 But have walked after ye imagination of their owne heart, and after Baalim, which their fathers taught them:

15 Therefore, thus saith ye LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, Behold, I will feed them, even this people with wormwood, and give them water of gal to drink.

16 I will scatter them also among the heathen, whom neither they nor their fathers have known, and I will send a sword after them till I have consumed them.

17 Thus saith ye LORD of hosts, Consider ye, and cal for the mourning women, that they may come, and send for cunning women, that they may come:

18 And let them make haste and take up a wailing for us, that our eyes may run down with teares, and our eyelids gush out with waters.

19 For a voyce of wailing is heard out of Zion, How are we spoiled, we are greatly confounded because we have forsaken the land, because our dwellings have cast us out.

20 Yet heare the word of ye LORD, O ye women, and let your eare receive of his mouth, and teach your dwelling, and every one her ome lamentation;

ath come up into our winered into our palaces, the children from without,
young men from the streets.
Thus saith the Lord, Even carkasses of men shall fall as dung upon the open field, and as the hand-full after the harvest man, and none shall gather them.
Thus saith the Lord, Let not the wise man glory in his wisdom, neither let the mighty man glory in his might, let not the rich man glory in his riches:
But let him that glorieth glory in this, that he understandeth and knoweth me, that I am the Lord, which exercise loving kindness, judgement, and righteousness in the earth: for in these things
I delight, saith the Lord.
Behold, the days come, saith the Lord, that I will punish all them which are circumcised with the uncircumcised; Egypt, and Judah, and Edom, and the children of Ammon, and Moab, and all that are in the utmost corners, that dwell in the wilderness: for all these nations are uncircumcised, and all the house of Israel are uncircumcised in the heart.

CHAP. X.

Hear the word which the Lord
speaketh unto you, O house of Israel.
Thus saith the Lord, Learn not the way of the heathen, and be not dismayed at the signes of heaven: for the heathen are dismayed at them.
For the customes of the people are vain: for one cutteth a tree out of the wood, the worke of the hands of the workman, with the axe.
They deck it with silver & with gold; they fasten it with nailes, & with hammers, that it moove not.
They are upright as the palme tree,
but speak not: they must needs be born because they cannot go. Be not afraide of them, for they cannot do evil, neither also is it in them to do good.
Forasmuch as there is none like to thee, O Lord, thou art great, and thy name is great in might.
Who would not feare thee, O king of nations? for to thee doth it appertain: forasmuch as among all the wise men of the nations, and in all their kingdoms, there is none like unto thee.
But they are altogether brutish and foolish: the stocke is a doctrine of vanities.
Silver is spread into plates is brought from Tharshish, and gold from Vphaz, the worke of the workman, and of the hands of the founder: blew and purple is their clothing, they are all the work of cunning men.
But the Lord is the true God, he is the living God, and an everlasting king: at his wrath the earth shall tremble, and the nations shall not be able to abide his indignation.
Thus shall ye say unto them, The gods that have not made the heavens and the earth, even they shall perish from the earth, and from under these heavens.
He hath made the earth by his power, he hath established the world by his wisedome, and hath stretched out the heavens by his discretion.
When he uttereth his voyce, there is a multitude of waters in the heavens, and he causeth the vapours to ascend from the ends of the earth: he maketh lightnings with raine, & bringeth forth the wind out of his treasuries.
Every man is brutish in his knowledge, every founder is confounded by the graven image: for his molten image is falsehood, & there is no breath in them.
They are vanity, and the worke of errours: in the time of their visitation they shall perish.
The portion of Iacob is not like
them: for he is the former of all things, & Israel is the rod of his inheritance:
the Lord of hostes is his Name.
Gather up thy wares out of the land, O inhabitant of the fortresse.
For thus saith the Lord: Behold,
I will sling out the inhabitants of the land at this once, and will distresse them, that they may finde it so.
Woe is me for my hurt, my wound is grievous: but I said, Truely this is a griefe, and I must beare it.
My tabernacle is spoiled, and all my cords are broken: my children are gone forth of me, & they are not: there is none to stretch forth my tent any more, and to set up my curtaines.
For the pastours are become brutish and have not sought the Lord: therefore they shall not prosper, and all their flockes shall be scattered.
Behold the noise of the bruit is come, and a great commotion out of the North country, to make the cities of Iudah desolate, & a den of dragons.
O Lord, I know that the way of man is not in himself: it is not in man that walketh, to direct his steps.
O Lord, correct me, but with iudgement, not in thine anger, lest thou bring me to nothing.
Powre out thy fury upon the heathen that know thee not, and upon the families that call not on thy Name: for they have eaten up Iacob, and devoured him, and consumed him, and have made his habitation desolate.

CHAP. XI.

The word that came to Ieremiah from the Lord, saying, Heare yee the words of this covenant, & speake unto the men of Iudah, and to the inhabitants of Ierusalem:
And say thou unto them, Thus saith the Lord God of Israel, Cursed be y man y obeyeth not y words of this covenant,
Which I commanded your fathers, in the day that I brought them foorth out of the land of Egypt, from the iron furnace, saying, Obey my voyce, and do

do them, according to all which I command you: so shall ye be my people, & I will be your God.

7 That I may performe the oath which I have sworne unto your fathers, to give them a land flowing with milke and hony, as it is this day: then answered I, and said, So be it, O Lord.

6 Then the Lord said unto me, Proclaime all these words in the cities of Iudah, and in the streets of Ierusalem, saying, Hear ye the words of this covenant, and do them.

7 For I earnestly protested unto your fathers, in the day that I brought them up out of the land of Egypt, even unto this day, rising early, and protesting, saying, Obey my voyce.

8 Yet they obeyed not, nor inclined their eare, but walked every one in the imagination of their evil heart: therefore I will bring upon them all the words of this covenant, which I commanded them to do, but they did them not.

9 And the Lord said unto me: A conspiracy is found among the men of Iudah, & among the inhabitants of Ierusalem.

10 They are turned back to the iniquities of their forefathers, which refused to hear my words: and they went after other gods to serve them: the house of Israel, & the house of Iudah have broke my covenant, which I made with their fathers.

11 Therefore thus saith the Lord, Behold, I will bring evill on them which they shall not be able to escape; and though they shal cry to me, I will not hearken unto them.

12 Then shall the cities of Iudah, and inhabitants of Ierusalem, go and cry unto the gods to whom they offer incense, but they shal not save them at all in the time of their trouble.

13 For according to the number of thy cities were thy gods, O Iudah, and according to the number of the streetes of Ierusalem have yee set up altars to that shameful thing, even altars to burn incense unto Baal.

14 Therfore pray not thou for this people, neither lift up a cry or prayer for them: for I will not hear them in the time that they cry to me for their trouble.

15 What hath my beloved to do in mine house, seeing she hath wrought lewdness with many? and the holy flesh is past from thee: when thou doest evil, then thou reioycest.

16 The Lord called thy name, A greene Olive tree, faire, and of goodly fruit: with the noise of a great tumult he hath kindled fire upon it, and the branches of it are broken.

17 For the Lord of hosts that planted thee, hath pronounced evil against thee, for the evil of the house of Israel, and of the house of Iudah, which they have done against themselves, to provoke me to anger, in offring incense unto Baal.

18 And the IORD hath given me knowledge of it, and I knowit: then thou shewedst me their doings.

19 But I was like a lambe or an ox that is brought to the slaughter, and I knew not that they had devised devices against me, saying, Let us destroy the tree with the fruit thereof, & let us cut him off from the land of the living, that his name may be no more remembred.

20 But, O Lord of hosts that iudgest righteously, that tryest the reines & the heart: let me see thy vengeance on them: for to thee have I revealed my cause.

21 Therfore thus saith the Lord, of the men of Anathoth, that seeke my life, saying, Prophecie not in the name of the Lord, that thou die not by our hands:

22 Therefore thus saith the Lord of hosts, Behold, I will punish them: the young men shal die by the sword: their sons and their daughters shall die by famine.

23 And there shal be no remnant of them: for I will bring evil on the men of Anathoth, even the yeer of their visitation.

CHAP. XII.

RIghteous are thou, O Lord, when I plead with thee: yet let me talke with thee of thy iudgements: wherefore doeth the way of the wicked prosper? wherfore are all they happy that deale very treacherously?

2 Thou hast planted them, yea they have taken root: they grow, yea they bring forth fruit: thou art neere in their mouth, and far from their reines.

3 But thou, O Lord, knowest me: thou hast seene me, and tried mine heart towards thee: put them out like sheepe for the slaughter, and prepare them for the day of slaughter.

4 How long shal the land mourne, and the herbes of every field wither, for the wickednes of them y dwell therein? the beasts are consumed, & y birds: because they said, He shal not see our last end.

5 If thou hast run with the footmen, and they have wearied thee, then how canst thou contend with horses? and if in y land of peace, wherein thou trustedst, they wearied thee, then how wilt thou do in the swelling of Iordan?

6 For even thy brethren, and the house of thy father, even they have dealt treacherously with thee, yea they have called a multitude after thee: believe them not, though they speake faire words unto thee.

7 I have forsaken mine house, I have left mine heritage: I have given the dearely beloued of my soule into the hands of her enemies.

8 Mine heritage is unto me as a lion in the forrest: it crieth out against me, therefore have I hated it.

9 Mine heritage is unto me as a speckled bird: the birds round about are against her: come yee, assemble all the beasts of the field, come to devoure.

10 Many pastors have destroyed my vineyard: they have troden my portion under foot: they have made my pleasant portion a desolate wilderness.

11 They have made it desolate

...ake it mourneth unto mee, ...hat is made desolate, be-
...ause hyeth it to heart.
...The spoilers are come upon all
...highe row the wilderneste of
...ost of the Land shall devour fro
...ende of the land even to y other
...ende: nothing flesh shall have peace
...They have sowne wheat, but shal
...reape they have put themselves
...to pain but shal not profit, and they ...shamed of your revenues, be...cause of the feerse anger of the LORD.
...Thus saith the Lord, against all ...mine euil neighbours, that touch the ...heritage, which I have caused my ...people Israel to inherit; Behold, I will
...pluck them out of their land, & pluck
...the house of Iudah fro among the ...middest. And it shall come to pass, after y I ...have plucked them out, I will return &
...have compassion on them, and will
...bring them every man to his heritage
...and every man to his land.
...And it shall come to passe, if they ...diligently learne the waies of my ...people, to sweare by my Name (The ...Lord liueth, as they taught my people
...to sweare by Baal:) then shal they bee
...built in the midst of my people.
...But if they will not obey, I will ut-
...terly pluck up, & destroy that nation,
...saith the LORD.

CHAP. XIII.

...Thus saith the Lord unto me, Go, & get
...thee a linnen girdle, and put it
...upon thy loynes, and put it not in water.
...So I got a girdle according to y word
...of the Lord, and put it on my loynes.
...And the word of the Lord came
...vnto me the second time, saying,
...Take the girdle that thou hast got,
...which is vpon thy loynes, and arise, go
...to Euphrates, and hide it there in a ...hole of the rocke.
...So I went, and hid it by Euphrates,
...as the Lord commanded me.
...And it came to pass after many
...dayes, that the Lord said vnto me, arise,
...go to Euphrates, and take the girdle
...from thence, which I commanded thee
...to hide there.
...Then I went to Euphrates, & digged,
...& took the girdle from the place
...where I had hid it: and lo, y girdle was ...marred, it was profitable for nothing.
...Then the word of the Lord came
...vnto me, saying,
...Thus saith the Lord, After this man...ner will I marre the pride of Iudah, & the ...great pride of Ierusalem.
...This euil people which refuse to ...heare my words, which walke in the ...imagination of their heart, & walke
...after other gods to serue them, and to ...worship them, shall even bee as this
...girdle, which is good for nothing.
...For as the girdle cleaveth to the ...loynes of a man; so have I caused to
...cleave vnto me the whole house of Israel
...& the whole house of Iudah, saith y
...Lord, that they might be vnto me for a ...people, and for a name, and for a praise
...& for a glory: but they would not hear.
...Therefore thou shalt speake vnto
...them this word, Thus saith the Lord
...God of Israel, Euery bottle shall bee
...filled with wine: and they shal say to ...thee, Do we not certainely know, that
...every bottle shal be filled with wine?
...Then shalt thou say vnto them,
...Thus saith the Lord: Behold, I will fil
...all the inhabitants of this land, even the ...kings that sit upon Dauids throne, and
...the priests, and the Prophets, & all the ...inhabitants of Ierusalem, with drunkennes.
...And I will dash them one against an...other, euen y fathers & the sonnes to...gether, saith the Lord: I will not pity, nor
...spare, nor have mercy, but destroy them.
...Heare yee, and give eare, be not
...proud: for the Lord hath spoken.
...Give glory to the Lord your God,
...before hee cause darkenes, and before
...your feete stumble on the dark moun-
...taines, and while ye looke for light,
...he turn it into the shadow of death,
...and make it grosse darkenes.
...But if ye will not heare it, my soule
...shal weepe in secret places for your
...pride: and mine eyes shall weep sore, &
...runne downe with teares, because the ...Lords flocke is carried away captive.
...Say vnto the king and to the ...Queen, Humble your selues, sit downe,
...for your principalities shal come down
...even the crowne of your glory.
...The cities of the South shalbee
...shut up, & none shal open them: Iudah
...shalbe carried away captive all of it; it
...shalbe wholly carried away captive.
...Lift up your eyes, and behold them
...that come from the North, where is the ...flocke that was given thee, thy beauti-
...full flocke?
...What wilt thou say when he shal
...punish thee (for thou hast taught them ...to be captaines, and as chief ouer thee)
...shal not sorrowes take thee as a wo...man in travel?
...And if thou say in thine heart,
...Wherfore come these things upon me?
...for y greatnes of thy iniquity are thy
...skirts discovered, & thy heels made bare.
...Can y Ethiopian change his skin?
...or y leopard his spots? then may ye also
...do good that are accustomed to do evil.
...Therefore will I scatter them as ...the stubble that passeth away by the
...winde of the wildernes.
...This is thy lot, the portion of thy ...measures from me, saith the Lord, be...cause thou hast forgotten me, and
...trusted in falshood.
...Therfore will I discouer thy skirts
...on thy face, that thy shame may appear.
...I have seen thy adulteries, and thy
...neighings, y lewdnes of thy whordo, &
...thy abominations on y hils in y fields.
...Woe vnto thee, O Ierusalem: wilt thou
...not be made cleane? when shal it once
...be?

CHAP. XIIII.

...The word of the Lord that came to
...Ieremiah concerning the dearth.

2 Judah mourneth, and the gates thereof languish, they are black to ground, and the cry of Jerusalem is gone up.

3 And their nobles have sent their little ones to the waters, they came to the pits, & found no water, they returned with their vessels empty; they were ashamed and confounded, and covered their heads.

4 Because the ground is chapt, for that there was no rain in the earth, the plowmen were ashamed, they covered their heads.

5 Yea, the Hind also calved in the field, and forsook it, because there was no grasse.

6 And the wilde asses did stand in the high places, they snuffed up the winde like dragons: their eyes did faile, because there was no grasse.

7 O Lord, though our iniquities testifie against us, do thou it for thy Names sake: for our backslidings are many, we have sinned against thee.

8 O the hope of Israel, the Saviour thereof in time of trouble, why should'st thou be as a stranger in the land, and as a wayfaring man that turneth aside to tary for a night?

9 Why should'st thou be as a man astonied, as a mighty man, that cannot save? yet, O Lord, art in the midst of us, & we are called by thy Name, leave us not.

10 Thus saith the LORD unto this people, Thus have they loved to wander, they have not refrained their feet, therefore the LORD doeth not accept them, he will now remember their iniquity, and visit their sins.

11 Then said the Lord unto me, Pray not for this people for their good.

12 When they fast, I will not heare their cry, and when they offer burnt offring, & an oblation, I will not accept them: but I will consume them by the sword, and by the famine, & by the pestilence.

13 Then said I, Ah Lord God, behold, the Prophets say unto them, You shall not see the sword: neither shall ye have famine, but I will give you assured peace in this place.

14 Then the LORD said unto mee, The Prophets prophesie lies in my Name, I sent them not, neither have I commanded them, neither spake unto them: they prophesie unto you a false vision and divination, and a thing of nought and the deceit of their heart.

15 Therefore thus saith the LORD concerning y prophets that prophesie in my Name, and I sent them not, yet they say, Sword, & famine shall not be in this land, By sword and famine shall those prophets be consumed.

16 And the people to whom they prophesie, shall be cast out in the streets of Jerusalem, because of the famine and sword, and they shall have none to bury them, them, their wives, nor their sons, nor their daughters: for I will powre their wickednes upon them.

17 Therefore thou shalt say this word unto them, Let mine eyes runne down with teares night and day, and let them not cease, for y virgin daughter of my people is broken with a great breach, with a very grievous blow.

18 If I go forth into the field, then behold the slayne with the sword: and if I enter into the city, then behold them that are sicke with famine: yea both the prophet and the priest go about in the land, and know not.

19 Hast thou utterly rejected Judah? hath thy soul loathed Zion? why hast thou smitten us, & there is no healing for us? we looked for peace, but no good came: & for a time of health, & behold trouble.

20 We acknowledge, O Lord, our wickednes, and the iniquity of our fathers: for we have sinned against thee.

21 Do not abhorre us for thy Names sake, do not dis grace the throne of thy glory: remember, break not thy covenant with us.

22 Are there any among the vanities of the Gentiles that can cause raine? or can the heavens give showers? Art not thou he, O Lord our God? therefore we will wait upon thee: for thou hast made all these things.

CHAP. XV.

Then said the Lord to me, Though Moses & Samuel stood before me, yet my mind could not be towards this people: cast them out of my sight, and let them go forth.

2 And it shall come to pass, if they say unto thee, Whither shall we go forth? then y shalt tell them, Thus saith the Lord, Such as are for death, go to death: and such as are for sword, to sword: and such as are for y famine, to y famine: & such as are for captivity, to the captivity.

3 And I will appoint over them foure kinds, saith the Lord: y sword to slay, and the dogges to teare, and the fowles of the heaven, and the beasts of the earth to devour and destroy.

4 And I will cause them to be removed into all kingdoms of the earth, because of Manasses the son of Hezekiah king of Judah, for that which he did in Jerusalem.

5 For who shall have pitie upon thee, O Jerusalem? or who shall bemone thee? or who shall go aside to aske how thou doest?

6 Thou hast forsaken me, saith the Lord, y art gone backward: therefore will I stretch out mine hand against thee, & destroy thee: I am weary of repenting.

7 And I will fan them with a fanne in the gates of the land: I will bereave them of children, I will destroy my people, since they returne not from their wayes.

8 Their widowes are increased to me above y sand of the sea: I have brought upon them against the mother of the young men a spoiler at noone day: I have caused him to fall upon it suddenly, and terrors upon the city.

9 She that hath borne seven, languisheth: she hath given up the ghost, her sunne is gone downe while it was yet day: she hath been ashamed and confounded: and the residue of them will I deliver to the sword before their enemies, saith the Lord.

O Lord, thou knowest, remember visit me, and reuenge me of my have suffered rebuke.

Thy words were found and I did them: and thy word was unto me joy and reioycing of mine heart: for am called by thy Name, O Lord God hosts.
I sate not in the assembly of the mockers nor reioyced: I sate alone because of thine hand: for thou hast filled me with indignation.
Why is my paine perpetual? and my wound incurable, which refuseth to be healed? wilt thou be altogether vnto me a liar, and as waters that fail?
Therefore thus saith the Lord, If thou turne, then will I bring thee againe, & y shalt stand before me: & if thou take forth y precious from y vile, thou be as my mouth: let them return
vnto thee, but return not thou to them.
And I will make thee vnto this people a fenced brazen wall, and they shall fight against thee, but they shall not preuaile against thee: for I am with thee to saue thee, and to deliver thee, saith the Lord.
And I will deliver thee out of the hand of the wicked and I will redeeme thee out of the hand of the terrible.

CHAP. XVI.

The word of the Lord came also vnto me, saying,
Thou shalt not take thee a wife, neither shalt thou have sons nor daughters in this place.
For thus saith the Lord concerning the sons, and concerning the daughters that are born in this place, and concerning their mothers that bare them, and concerning their fathers that begate them in this land.
They shall die of grieuous deaths, they shall not be lamented, neither shall they be buried, but they shall be as dung vp-on the face of the earth, and they shall be consumed by y sword, and by famine, and their carkasses shall be meat for the fouls of heaven, & for y beasts of y earth.
For thus saith the Lord, enter not into the house of mourning, neither go to lamente nor bemoane them: for I have taken away my peace from this people, saith the Lord, even loving kindnes and mercies.
Both the great and the small shall die in this land: they shall not be buried neither shall men lament for them, nor cut themselues, nor make themselues bald for them.
Neither shall men teare themselues for them, in mourning to comfort them for y dead, neither shall men giue them the cup of consolation to drinke for their father, or for their mother.
Thou shalt not also goe into the house of feasting to sit with them, to eate, and to drink.
For thus saith the Lord of hostes, the God of Israel, Behold, I will cause to cease out of this place in your eyes, and in your dayes, the voyce of mirth, and the voyce of gladnes, the voyce of y bridegroome, & y voyce of the bride
For it shall come to pass, when thou shalt shew this people all these words, and they shall say vnto thee, Wherfore hath the Lord pronounced all this great evil against us? or what is our inquitie? or what is our sin that we have committed against the Lord our God?
Then shalt thou say vnto them,
Because your fathers have forsaken me, saith the Lord, and have walked after other gods, and have serued them, and have worshipped them, and have forsaken me, and have not kept my Law:
And ye have done worse then your fathers, (for behold, ye walk every one after y imagination of his evil heart,) that they may not hearken vnto me.) Therefore will I cast you out of this land, into a land that ye know not, neither ye nor your fathers, and there shall ye serue other gods day and night, where I will not shew you favour.
Therfore behold, the dayes come, saith the Lord, that it shall no more be said, The Lord liveth, y brought vp y children of Israel out of y land of Egypt
But the Lord liveth, that brought vp the children of Israel from the land of the North, and from all the lands whither he had driven them: and I will bring them again into their land, that I gaue vnto their fathers.
Behold, I will send for many fishers, saith the Lord, and they shall fish them,
and after will I send for many hunters, and they shall hunt them from every mountaine, and from every hill, and out of the holes of the rockes.
For my eyes are on all their waies:
they are not hid from my face, neither is their iniquity hid from mine eys.
And first I will recompense their inquity, and their sin double, because they have defiled my land, they have filled mine inheritance w y carkeises of their

their detestable & abominable things.
19 O Lord, my strength and my fortresse, and my refuge in the day of affliction y Gentils shal come to thee from y ends of y earth, & shal say, Surely our fathers have inherited lies, vanity, & things wherin ther is no profit.
20 Shal a man make gods unto himself, and they are no gods?
21 Therfore behold, I wil this once cause them to know: I wil cause them to know mine hand and my might, & they shal know y my Name is y Lord.

CHAP. XVII.

THe sin of Iudah is written with a pen of yron, and with the point of a Diamond: it is graven on the table of their heart, and on the hornes of your altars:
2 Whilst their children remember their altars and their groues, by the greene trees upon the high hils.
3 O my mountaine, in the field I wil give thy substance, and all thy treasures to the spoile, and thy high places for sin, throughout all thy borders.
4 And thou, even thy self shalt discontinue from thine heritage that I gave thee, and I wil cause thee to serue thine enemies in y land which y knowest not, for ye have kindled a fire in my anger, which shal burne for ever.
5 Thus saith the LORD, Cursed be the man that trusteth in man, and maketh flesh his arm, and whose heart departeth from the LORD.
6 For he shalbe like the heath in the desart, & shal not see when good commeth, but shal inhabit the parched places in the wildernesse, in a salt land, and not inhabited.
7 Blessed is y man that trusteth in the LORD, & whose hope the LORD is.
8 For he shal be as a tree planted by y waters, & y spreadeth out the roots by the riuer, & shal not see when heat commeth, but her leafe shal be greene, and shal not be careful in y yer of drought, neither shal cease from yeelding fruit.
9 The heart is deceitful above all things, and desperately wicked, who can know it?
10 I the LORD search the heart, I try the reines, even to give every man according to his wayes, and according to the fruit of his doings.
11 As the Partridge sitteth on eggs, and hatcheth them not; so he that getteth riches, and not by right, shal leave them in the midst of his dayes, and at his end shal be a foole.
12 A glorious high throne from the beginning is the place of our sanctuary.
13 O LORD, the hope of Israel, all that forsake thee shal be ashamed, and they that depart from mee, shalbe written in y earth, because they have forsaken y LORD y fountain of living waters.
14 Heale me, O LORD, and I shal be healed; saue me, and I shal be saued: for thou art my praise.
15 Behold, they say unto me, Where is the word of y LORD? let it come now.
16 As for me, I have not hastened from being a pastour to follow thee: neither have I desired the woful day, thou knowest: that which came out of my lips was right before thee.
17 Be not a terrour unto me: thou art my hope in the day of evil.
18 Let them be confounded that persecute me, but let not me be confounded: let them be dismayed, but let not me be dismayed: bring upon them the day of evil, and destroy them with double destruction.
19 Thus saith the LORD unto me, Go and stand in the gate of the children of the people, whereby the kings of Iudah come in, and by the which they go out, and in all the gates of Ierusalem:
20 And say to them, Heare ye the word of the LORD, ye kings of Iudah, and all Iudah, and all the inhabitants of Ierusalem, that enter in by these gates:
21 Thus saith the LORD, Take heed to your selves, and bear no burden in the Sabbath day, nor bring it in by the gates of Ierusalem.
22 Neither carry forth a burden out of your houses on y Sabbath day, neither do ye any work, but hallow ye the Sabbath day, as I commanded your fathers.
23 But they obeyed not, neither inclined their ear, but made their neck stiff, that they might not hear, nor receive instruction.
24 And it shal come to pas, if ye diligently hearken to me, saith y LORD, to bring in no burden through y gates of this city on y Sabbath day, but hallow y Sabbath day to do no work therein;
25 Then shal there enter into y gates of this city, kings & princes sitting in y throne of David, riding in chariots & on horses, they & their princes, the men of Iudah, & the inhabitants of Ierusalem: & this city shal remain for ever.
26 And they shal come from y cities of Iudah, & from the places about Ierusalem, and from y land of Benjamin, and from y plain, & from the mountains, and from y south, bringing burnt offerings, and sacrifices, and meat offerings, and incense, and bringing sacrifices of praise unto the house of the LORD.
27 But if you wil not hearken unto me to hallow the Sabbath day, & not to beare a burden even coming in at the gates of Ierusalem on the Sabbath day: then wil I kindle a fire in the gates thereof, & it shal deuour y palaces of Ierusalem, & it shal not be quenched.

CHAP. XVIII.

THe word which came to Ieremiah from the LORD, saying,
2 Arise, and go down to the potters house, and there I wil cause thee to heare my words.
3 Then I went down to the potters house, and behold, he wrought a work on the wheels.
4 And y vessel that he made of clay,

by the force of the sword, and let their wives be bereaved of their children, and be widows, and let their men be put to death, let their young men be slain by the sword in the battel.

22 Let cry be heard from their houses, when thou shalt bring a troup suddenly on them, for they have digged a pit to take me, and hid snares for my feet.

23 Yet LORD, thou knowest all their counsel against me to slay me: forgive not their iniquity, neither blot out their sin from thy sight, but let them be overthrown before thee, deal thus with them in the time of thine anger.

CHAP. XIX.

THus saith the LORD, Go and get a potters earthen bottle, and take of the ancients of the people, and of the ancients of the Priests.

2 And go forth unto the valley of the son of Hinnom, which is by the entry of the East gate, and proclaim there the words that I shall tel thee:

3 And say, Hear ye the word of the LORD, O kings of Iudah, and inhabitants of Ierusalem; Thus saith y Lord of hosts, the God of Israel, I o, I will bring evil on this place, y which whosoever heareth, his ears shal tingle.

4 Because they have forsaken me, and have estranged this place, & have burnt incense in it to other gods, whom neither they, nor their fathers have known, nor the kings of Iudah, & have filled this place with the blood of innocents.

5 I hey have built also the high places of Baal, to burn their sons with fire for burnt offerings unto Baal, which I commanded not, nor spake it, neither came it into my minde.

6 Therefore behold, the dayes come, saith the LORD, that this place shal no more be called Topher, nor the valley of the son of Hinnom, but the valley of slaughter.

7 And I will make void the counsel of Iudah, and Ierusalem in this place, and I will cause them to fal by y sword before their enemies, and by the hands of them that seek their lives: and their carkeises will I give to be meat for the fouls of the heaven, and for the beasts of the earth.

8 And I will make this city desolate, and an hissing; every one that passeth thereby, shal be astonished and hisse, because of al the plagues thereof.

9 And I will cause them to eat y flesh of their sons & y flesh of their daughters, & they shal eat every one the flesh of his friend in the siege and straitnes wherewith their enemies and they that seek their lyf, shal straiten them.

10 Then shalt thou break the bottle in the sight of them that go with thee,

11 And say unto them, Thus saith the LORD of hosts, Even so will I break this people & this city, as one breaketh a potters vessel, y cannot be made whole again: and they shal bury them in Topher, till there be no place to bury.

12 Thus

ake it again another vessel, as good to the potter to make it. the word of the LORD came house of Israel, cannot I do with you as this potter, saith y LORD? behold as the clay is in y potters hand, so are you in mine hand, O house of Israel.

At one instant I shal speak concerning a nation, and concerning a king- to pluck up, and to pul down, and destroy it.

If that nation against whom I have pronounced, turn from their evil, I will repent of the evil that I thought to do unto them.

And at what instant I shal speak concerning a nation, and concerning a kingdom, to build and to plant it.

If it do evil in my sight, that it obey not my voyce, then I will repent of the good, wherewith I said I would benefit them.

Now therefore go to, speak to y men of Iudah, and to the inhabitants of Ierusalem, saying, Thus saith y LORD, behold I frame evil against you, & devise a device against you: return ye now every one from his evil way, and amend your ways & your doings good.

But they said, There is no hope, but we will walk after our own devices, and we will every one do the imagination of his evil heart.

Therefore thus saith the LORD, Ask ye now among the heathen, who hath heard such things, the Virgin of Israel hath done a very horrible thing.

Will a man leave the snow of Lebanon which cometh from y Rock of the field? or shal the cold flowing waters y come from another place, be forsaken.

Because my people hath forgotten me, they have burnt incense to vanity, and they have caused them to stumble in their ways from the ancient paths, to walk in paths, in a way not cast up.

To make their land desolate, and a perpetual hissing; every one that passeth thereby, shal be astonished, and wag his head.

I will scatter them as with an East wind before the enemy: I will shew them the back, and not the face, in the day of their calamity.

Then said they, Come, and let us devise devices against Ieremiah: for y law shal not perish from the Priest, nor counsel from the wise, nor y word from the Prophet: Come, and let us smite him with the tongue, and let us not give heed to any of his words.

Hearken to me, O LORD, and hearken to the voyce of them that contend with me.

Shal evil be recompensed for good? for they have digged a pit for my soul: remember that I stood before thee to speak good for them, and to turn away thy wrath from them.

Therefore deliver up their children to the famine, and pour out their blood by the power of the sword, and let their wives be bereaved of their children, and be widows, and let their men be put to death, let their young men be slain by the sword in the battel.

22 Let cry be heard from their houses, when thou shalt bring a troup suddenly on them, for they have digged a pit to take me, and hid snares for my feet.

7 And I will make void the counsel of Iudah, and Ierusalem in this place, and I will cause them to fal by y sword before their enemies, and by the hands of them that seek their lives: and their carkeises will I give to be meat for the fouls of the heaven, and for the beasts of the earth.

8 And I will make this city desolate, and an hissing; every one that passeth thereby, shal be astonished and hisse, because of al the plagues thereof.

9 And I will cause them to eat y flesh of their sons & y flesh of their daughters, & they shal eat every one the flesh of his friend in the siege and straitnes wherewith their enemies and they that seek their lyf, shal straiten them.

28 Is this man Coniah a despised broken idol? is he a vessel wherein is no pleasure? wherefore are they cast out, he and his seed, and are cast into a land which they know not?

29 O earth, earth, earth, hear the word of the LORD.

30 Thus saith the LORD, Write ye this man childless, a man that shall not prosper in his days: for no man of his seed shall prosper, sitting upon the throne of David, and ruling any more in Judah.

CHAP. XXIII.

WOe be unto the pastours that destroy and scatter the sheep of my pasture, saith the LORD.

2 Therefore thus saith the LORD God of Israel, against the pastours that feed my people, Ye have scattered my flock, & driven them away, & have not visited them: behold, I will visit upon you the evil of your doings, saith the LORD.

3 And I will gather the remnant of my flock, out of all countreys whither I have driven them, and will bring them again to their folds, and they shall be fruitful, and increase.

4 And I will set up shepheards over them which shall feed them: and they shall fear no more, nor be dismayed, neither shall they be lacking, saith the LORD.

5 Behold, the dayes come, saith the LORD, that I will raise unto David a righteous Branch, and a king shall reign and prosper, and shall execute judgement and justice in the earth.

6 In his dayes Judah shall be saved, and Israel shall dwel safely, and this is his Name whereby he shall be called, THE LORD OVR RIGHTEOVSNES.

7 Therefore behold, the dayes come, saith the LORD, that they shall no more say, The LORD liveth, which brought up the children of Israel, out of the land of Egypt:

8 But, The LORD liveth, which brought up, & which led, & fetched the seed of Israel out of the North countrey, & from all countreys whither I had driven them, and they shall dwel in their own land.

9 Mine heart within me is broken, because of the Prophets, all my bones shake: I am like a drunken man, and like a man whom wine hath overcome, because of the LORD, and because of the words of his Holiness.

10 For the land is full of adulterers, for because of swearing land mourneth: the pleasant places of the wilderness are dryed up, and their course is evil, and their force is not right.

11 For both Prophet and Priest are prophane, yea in my house have I found their wickedness, saith the LORD.

12 Wherefore their way shall be unto them as slippery ways in the darkness, they shall be driven on, & fall therein: for I will bring evil upon them, even the year of their visitation, saith the LORD.

13 And I have seen folly in the Prophets of Samaria, they prophesied in Baal, and caused my people Israel to 14 I have seen also in the Prophets of Jerusalem an horrible thing: they commit adultery, and walk in lies, they strengthen also the hands of evildoers, that none doth return from his wickedness: they are all of them unto me as Sodom, and the inhabitants thereof as Gomorrah.

15 Therefore thus saith the LORD of hosts concerning the Prophets, Behold, I will feed them with wormwood, and make them drink the water of gall: for from the prophets of Jerusalem is prophanenes gone forth into all the land.

16 Thus saith the LORD of hosts, Hearken not unto the words of the Prophets that prophesie unto you: they make you vain: they speak a vision of their own heart, & not out of the mouth of the LORD.

17 They say still unto them that despise me, The LORD hath said, ye shall have peace; & they say to every one that walketh after the imagination of his own heart, No evil shall come upon you.

18 For who hath stood in the counsel of the LORD, and hath perceived & heard his word? who hath marked his word, and heard it?

19 Behold, a whirlwind of the LORD is gone forth in fury, even a grievous whirlwind: it shall fall grievously upon the head of the wicked.

20 The anger of the LORD shall not return, until he have executed, and until he have performed the thoughts of his heart: in the latter dayes ye shall consider it perfectly.

21 I have not sent these Prophets, yet they ran: I have not spoken to them, yet they prophecied.

22 But if they had stood in my counsel, and had caused my people to hear my words, then they should have turned them from their evil way, and from the evil of their doings.

23 Am I a God at hand, saith the LORD, and not a God afar off?

24 Can any hide himself in secret places, that I shall not see him, saith the LORD? do not I fill heaven and earth, saith the LORD?

25 I have heard what the Prophets said, that prophecy lies in my Name, saying, I have dreamed, I have dreamed.

26 How long shall this be in the heart of the prophets that prophecy lies? yea, they are prophets of the deceit of their own heart?

27 Which think to cause my people to forget my Name, by their dreams which they tel every man to his neighbour, as their fathers have forgotten my Name for Baal.

28 The Prophet that hath a dream, let him tel a dream: & he that hath my word, let him speak my word faithfully. What is the chaff to the wheat? saith the LORD.

…perverted words of the living God,
…of the LORD of hosts our God.
…Thus shalt thou say to the Pro…phet, What hath the LORD answered

…And if ye say, The burden of the …LORD; therefore thus saith y Lord, Be…cause ye say this word, The burden of …the LORD, & I have sent unto you, saying, Ye
…shall not say, The burden of the LORD;
…Behold, I, even I will utterly forget you,
…and I will forsake
…you, and the City that I gave you and your
…fathers, & cast you out of my presence:
…And I will bring an everlasting reproach
…upon you, and a perpetual shame, which shall not be forgotten.

CHAP. XXIII.

…The LORD shewed me, & behold, two baskets of figs were set before the Temple of the LORD, after y Nebuchadnezzar King of Babylon had carried away captive Jeconiah y son of Jehoiakim King of Judah, & the Princes of Judah, with the carpenters & smiths from Jerusalem, & had brought them to Babylon.
…One basket had very good figs, even such as the first ripe figs: and the other basket had very naughty figs, which could not be eaten they were so bad.
…Then said the LORD unto me, What seest thou Jeremiah? and I said, Figs: the good figs, very good, and the evil very evil, that cannot be eaten they are so bad.
…Then the word of the LORD came unto me, saying,
…Thus saith y Lord, y God of Israel, Like these good figs, so will I acknowledge them that are carried away captive of Judah, whom I have sent out of this place into y land of y Caldeans for their good.
…For I will set mine eyes on them for good, & I will bring them again to this land, & I will build them, & not pull them down, and I will plant them, and not pluck them up.
…And I will give them an heart to know me, that I am the LORD, and they shall be my people, and I will be their God: for they shall return unto me with their whole heart.
…And as the evil figs which cannot be eaten: they are so evil: Surely thus saith the LORD, So will I give Zedekiah the King of Judah, and his Princes, and the residue of Jerusalem, that remaine in this land, and them that dwell in the land of Egypt.
…And I will deliver them to be removed into all the kingdoms of the earth for their hurt, to be a reproach and a proverb, a taunt and a curse in all places whither I shall drive them.
…And I will send the sword, y famin, & the pestilence among them, till they be consumed from off the land, that I gave to them and to their fathers.

CHAP. XXV.

…The word y came to Jeremiah concerning all y people of Judah, in the fourth yere of Jehoiakim the son of Josiah King of Judah, y was y first yere of Nebuchad-nezzar King of Babylon:
…The which Jeremiah the Prophet spake to all y people of Judah, & to all the inhabitants of Jerusalem, saying,
…From the thirteenth yeere of Josiah the son of Amon King of Judah, even vnto this day (that is the three and fortieth yeere) the word of the LORD hath come to me, and I have spoken vnto you, rising early and speaking, but ye have not hearkened.
…And y LORD hath sent to you all his seruants the Prophets, rising early & sending them; but ye have not hearkened nor inclined your eare to hearken.
…They said, Turne ye again now every one from his euil way, & from y euil of your doings, & dwell in y land that y LORD hath given to you, and to your fathers for ever and for ever:
…And go not after other gods to serue them, & to worship them, and prouoke me not to anger with the works of your hands, and I will do you no hurt.
…Yet ye have not hearkened to me, saith the LORD: y ye might prouoke me to anger with the works of your hands to your own hurt.
…Therefore thus saith the LORD of hosts, Because ye have not heard my words:
…Behold, I will send and take all y families of y North, saith the LORD, & Nebuchad-nezzer y King of Babylon my seruant, & will bring them against this land, & against all these nations round about, and will vtterly destroy them and make them an astonishment, & an hissing, and perpetual desolations.

10 Moreover, I will take from them the voyce of mirth, & y voyce of gladnes, the voyce of y bridegroom, & the voyce of the bride, y sound of the milstones, and the light of the candle.

11 And this whole land shal be a desolation and an astonishment, & these nations shal serue the king of Babylon seuenty yeers.

12 And it shal come to passe, when seuenty yeers are accomplished, that I will punish the king of Babylon, and that nation, saith the LORD, for their iniquity, and the land of the Caldeans, and will make it perpetuall desolations.

13 And I will bring on that land all my words which I haue pronounced against it, euen all that is written in this booke, which Ieremiah hath prophecied against all the nations.

14 For many nations, and great kings shal serue themselues of them also: and I will recompence them according to their deeds, and according to y workes of their owne hands.

15 For thus saith the Lord God of Israel to me, Take the wine cup of this fury at my hand, & cause all y nations, to whom I send thee, to drinke it.

16 And they shall drinke, and be moued, and be mad, because of the sword that I will send among them.

17 Then took I y cup at the LORDS hand, & made all the nations to drink, to whom the LORD had sent me:

18 To wit, Ierusalem, and the cities of Iudah, and the kings thereof, and the princes thereof, to make them a desolation, an astonishment, an hissing, and a curse (as it is this day.)

19 Pharaoh King of Egypt, & his seruants, & his princes, and all his people:

20 And all the mingled people, and all the Kings of y land of Vz: and all the Kings of the land of the Philistines, and Ashkelon, and Azzah, and Ekron, and the remnant of Ashdod:

21 Edom, and Moab, and the children of Ammon;

22 And all y Kings of Tyrus, and all the Kings of Zidon, and the Kings of the iles which are beyond the sea:

23 Dedan, and Tema and Buz, and all that are in the vtmost corners:

24 And all the Kings of Arabia, and all the Kings of the mingled people that dwel in the desart:

25 And all the Kings of Zimri, and all the Kings of Elam, and all the Kings of the Medes:

26 And all the Kings of y North, farre and neere, one with another, and all the kingdomes of the world, which are vpon the face of the earth: and the King of Sheshach shall drinke after them.

27 Therefore y shalt say vnto them, Thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, Drink ye, and be drunken, and spue, and fall, and rise no more, because of the sword which I will send among you.

28 And it shall be, if they refuse to take the cup at thine hand to drink, then shalt y say to them, Thus saith y LORD of hosts, Ye shal certainely drink.

29 For lo, I begin to bring euil on the citie, which is called by my Name, & should ye be vtterly vnpunished? ye shal not be vnpunished: For I will call for a sword vpon all y inhabitants of earth, saith the LORD of hosts.

30 Therefore Prophecie thou against them all these words, and say to them, The LORD shal roare from on high, and vtter his voyce from his holy habitation, he shal mightily roare vpon his habitation, he shal giue a shout, as they that tread the grapes, against all the inhabitants of the earth.

31 A noise shal come even to the ends of the earth, for y LORD hath a controversie with y nations: he will plead with all flesh: he will giue them that are wicked to the sword, saith the LORD.

32 Thus saith the LORD of hosts, Behold, euil shal go forth from nation to nation, & a great whirlwind shal be raised vp from y coasts of the earth.

33 And y slaine of y LORD shal be at that day from one end of y earth euen vnto y other end of the earth: they shal not be lamented, neither gathered, nor buried, they shal be dung vpon y ground.

34 Howle ye shepherds, and cry, and wallow your selues in y ashes ye principall of the flocke: for the dayes of your slaughter, and of your dispersions are accomplished, and ye shall fall like a pleasant vessell.

35 And the shepherds shal haue no way to flee, nor the principall of the flocke to escape.

36 A voyce of y cry of the shepherds, and an howling of the principall of the flock shall be heard: for the LORD hath spoiled their pasture.

37 And the peaceable habitations are cut downe, because of the feare of the wrath of the LORD.

38 He hath forsaken his couert, as the Lyon: for their land is desolate, because of the fiercenesse of the oppressing sword, and because of his fierce anger.

CHAP. XXVI.

IN the beginning of y reigne of Iehoiakim the son of Iosiah King of Iudah, came this word vnto y Lord, saying,

2 Thus saith the LORD, Stand in the Court of the LORDS house, & speake vnto all the cities of Iudah, which come to worship in the LORDS house, all the words that I command thee to speake vnto them: diminish not a word.

3 If so be they will hearken, and turne euery man from his euil way, that I may repent me of the euil which I purpose to doe vnto them, because of the euil of their doings.

4 And thou shalt say vnto them, Thus saith the LORD; If ye will not hearken to me, to walke in my Law which I haue set before you,

5 To hearken to the words of my seruants the Prophets, whom I send vnto you, both rising vp early, and send-ye have not hearkened: 5 This will I make this house like Shiloh, and will make this city a curse to all nations of the earth.

7 So the Priests and the Prophets, and all the people heard Jeremiah speaking these words in the house of the LORD.

8 Now it came to passe, when Jeremiah had made an end of speaking all that the LORD had commanded him to speak unto all the people, that the Priests, the Prophets and all the people took him, saying, Thou shalt surely die.

9 Why hast thou prophesied in the name of the LORD, saying, This house shall be like Shiloh, and this city shall be desolate without an inhabitant? And all the people were gathered against Jeremiah in the house of the LORD.

10 When the Princes of Iudah heard these things, then they came up from the kings house, to the house of the LORD, and sate down in the entry of the new gate of the LORDS house.

11 Then spake the Priests and the Prophets unto the Princes and to all the people, saying, This man is worthy to die, for he hath prophesied against this city, as ye have heard with your eares.

12 Then spake Jeremiah to all the Princes and to all the people, saying, The LORD sent me to prophesie against this house, and against this city, all the words that ye have heard.

13 Therefore now amend your wayes, and your doings, and obey the voyce of the LORD your God, and the LORD will repent him of all the evill that he hath pronounced against you.

14 As for me, behold, I am in your hand: doe with me as seemeth good, and meet unto you.

15 But know ye for certaine, that if ye put me to death, ye shall surely bring innocent blood vpon your selves, vpon this city, and vpon the inhabitants thereof: for of a truth the LORD hath sent me vnto you to speak all these words in your eares.

16 Then said the Princes, and all the people vnto the Priests, and to the Prophets; This man is not worthy to die: for he hath spoken to us in the Name of the LORD our God.

17 Then rose vp certaine of the Elders of the land, and spake to all the assembly of the people, saying,

18 Micah the Morasthite prophesied in the dayes of Hezekiah King of Iudah, and spake to all the people of Iudah, saying, Thus saith the LORD of hosts, Zion shall be plowed like a field, and Ierusalem shall become heapes, and the mountaine of the house as the high places of the forrest.

19 Did Hezekiah King of Iudah, and all Iudah put him at all to death? did he not feare the LORD, and beseech the LORD, and the LORD repented him of the evill which he had pronounced against them? thus might we procure great evill against our soules.

20 And there was also a man that prophesied in the Name of the LORD, Vriah the son of Shemaiah of Kirjath-iearim, who prophesied against this city, and against this land, according to all the words of Ieremiah.

21 And when Iehoiakim the King, with all his mighty men, & all the princes heard his words, the King sought to put him to death, but when Vriah heard it, he was afraid, & fled, & went to Egypt.

22 And Iehoiakim the king sent men into Egypt, namely Elnathan the son of Achbor, and certaine men with him into Egypt.

23 And they fet forth Vriah out of Egypt, and brought him to Iehoiakim the king, who slew him with the sword, and cast his dead body into the graves of the common people.

24 Nevertheless the hand of Ahikam the son of Shaphan, was with Ieremiah, that they should not give him into the hand of the people, to put him to death.

CHAP. XXVII.

1 IN the beginning of the reigne of Iehoiakim the son of Iosiah king of Iudah, came this word unto Ieremiah from the LORD, saying,

2 Thus saith the LORD to me, Make thee bonds and yokes, and put them on thy necke.

3 And send them to the king of Edom, and to the king of Moab, & to the king of the Ammonites, and to the king of Tyrus, & to the king of Zidon, by the hand of the messengers which come to Ierusalem vnto Zedekiah king of Iudah.

4 And commandthem to say to their masters, Thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, Thus shall ye say vnto your masters:

5 I have made the earth, the man and the beast, that are on the ground, by my great power, and by my out-stretched arme, and have given it to whom it seemed meet vnto me.

6 And now I have given all these lands into the hands of Nebuchadnezzar the king of Babylon my servant, and the beasts of the field have I given him also to serve him.

7 And all nations shal serve him, and his son, and his sons son, vntill the very time of his land come: and then many nations & great kings shal serve themselves of him.

8 And it shal come to passe, that the nation and kingdome which will not serve the same Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon, and that will not put their neck vnder the yoke of the king of Babylon, that nation will I punish, saith the LORD, with the sword, and with the famine, and with pestilence, vntil I have consumed them by his hand.

9 Therefore harken not ye to your prophets, nor to your diviners, nor to your dreamers, nor to your enchanters, nor to your sorcerers, which speake to you, saying, Ye shall not serve the king of Babylon.

10 For they prophesie a lie to you, to

to remove you far from your land, and ye should perish.

11 But the nations that bring their neck under the yoke of the king of Babylon, and serve him, those will I let remain still in their own land, saith the LORD, and they shall till it, and dwell therein.

12 I spake also to Zedekiah king of Judah, according to all these words, saying, Bring your necks under the yoke of the king of Babylon, and serve him and his people, and live.

13 Why will you die, thou and thy people, by the sword, by the famine, and by the pestilence, as the LORD hath spoken against the nation, that will not serve the king of Babylon?

14 Therefore hearken not to the words of the prophets, that speak to you, saying, Ye shall not serve the king of Babylon, for they prophesy a lie to you.

15 For I have not sent them, saith the LORD, yet they prophesy a lie in my Name, that I might drive you out, and that ye might perish, you, and the prophets that prophesie unto you.

16 Also I spake to the priests, and to all this people, saying, Thus saith the LORD, hearken not to the words of your prophets, that prophesy unto you, saying, Behold, the vessels of the LORDS house shall now shortly be brought again from Babylon, for they prophesy a lie unto you.

17 Hearken not unto them: serve the king of Babylon, and live: wherefore should this city be laid waste?

18 But if they be Prophets, and if the word of the LORD be with them, let them now make intercession to the LORD of hosts, that the vessels which are left in the house of the LORD, and in the house of the king of Judah, and at Jerusalem, go not to Babylon.

19 For thus saith the LORD of hosts, concerning the pillars, and concerning the Sea, and concerning the Bases, and concerning the residue of the vessels that remain in this city,

20 Which Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon took not, when he carried away captive Jeconiah the son of Jehoiakim king of Judah, from Jerusalem to Babylon, and all the Nobles of Judah and Jerusalem.

21 Yea, thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, concerning the vessels that remain in the house of the LORD, and in the house of the king of Judah and of Jerusalem;

22 They shall be carried to Babylon, and there shall they be until the day that I visit them, saith the LORD: then will I bring them up, and restore them to this place.

CHAP. XXVIII.

AND it came to passe the same year in the beginning of the reigne of Zedekiah king of Judah, in the fourth year, and in the fifth month, that Hananiah the sonne of Azur the Prophet which was of Gibeon, spake unto me in the house of the LORD, in the presence of the Priests, and of all the people, saying,

2 Thus speaketh the LORD of hosts the God of Israel, saying, I have broken the yoke of the king of Babylon.

3 Within two full years will I bring again into this place all the vessels of the LORDS house, that Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon took away from this place, and carried them to Babylon.

4 And I will bring again to this place Jeconiah the son of Jehoiakim king of Judah, with all the captives of Judah that went into Babylon, saith the LORD; for I will break the yoke of the king of Babylon.

5 Then the Prophet Jeremiah said unto the Prophet Hananiah, in the presence of the priests, and in the presence of all the people, that stood in the house of the LORD.

6 Even the Prophet Jeremiah said, Amen: the LORD do so: the LORD perform the words which thou hast prophesied, to bring again the vessels of the LORDS house, and all that is carried away captive from Babylon into this place.

7 Nevertheless, hear thou now this word that I speak in thine ears, and in the ears of all the people.

8 The Prophets that have been before me and before thee of old, prophesied both against many countreys, and against great kingdoms, of warre, and of evill, and of pestilence.

9 The Prophet which prophesieth of peace, when the word of the prophet shall come to passe, then shall the prophet be known, that the LORD hath truly sent him.

10 Then Hananiah the Prophet took the yoke from off the Prophet Jeremiahs neck, and brake it.

11 And Hananiah spake in the presence of all the people, saying, Thus saith the LORD, even so will I break the yoke of Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon from the neck of all nations within the space of two full years. And the Prophet Jeremiah went his way.

12 Then the word of the LORD came unto Jeremiah the Prophet, after that Hananiah the Prophet had broken the yoke from off the neck of the Prophet Jeremiah, saying,

13 Go and tell Hananiah, saying, Thus saith the LORD, Thou hast broken the yokes of wood, but thou shalt make for them yokes of iron.

14 For thus saith the Lord of hosts the God of Israel, I have put a yoke of iron upon the neck of all these nations, that they may serve Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon, and they shall serve him, and I have given him the beasts of the field also.

15 Then said the Prophet Jeremiah unto Hananiah the Prophet, Hear now Hananah, letter.

Lord hath not sent thee, but people to trust in a lie.
Therefore thus saith the LORD,
I will cast thee from off the earth: this year thou shalt because thou hast taught rebellion against the LORD.
So Hananiah the Prophet died the same year in the seventh month.

CHAP. XXIX.

Now these are the words of the letter that Jeremiah the Prophet sent from Jerusalem unto the residue of the elders which were carried away captives, and to the Priests, and to the Prophets, and to all the people whom Nebuchadnezzar had carried away captive from Jerusalem to Babylon.
(After that Jeconiah the king, and the queen, and the eunuchs, the princes of Judah and Jerusalem, and the craftsmen and the smiths, were departed from Jerusalem.)
By the hand of Elasah the son of Shaphan, and Gemariah the son of Hilkiah, whom Zedekiah king of Judah sent unto Babylon to Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon saying,
Thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, unto all that are carried away captives, whom I have caused to be carried away from Jerusalem unto Babylon: Build ye houses, & dwell in them; & make gardens, & eat the fruit of them.
Take ye wives, and beget sons and daughters; and take wives for your sons, & give your daughters to husbands, that they may bear sons and daughters; that ye may be increased there, and not diminished.
And seek the peace of the city whither I have caused you to be carried away captives, and pray unto the LORD for it: for in the peace thereof shall ye have peace.
For thus saith the LORD of hosts,
the God of Israel, Let not your Prophets and your diviners, that be in the midst of you, deceive you, neither hearken to your dreams which ye cause to be dreamed.
For they prophesie falsely unto you in my name: I have not sent them,
saith the LORD.
For thus saith the LORD, That after seventy years be accomplished at Babylon I will visit you, and perform my good word toward you, in causing you to return to this place.
For I know the thoughts that I think toward you, saith the LORD, thoughts of peace, and not of evil, to give you an expected end.
Then shall ye call upon me, and ye shall go and pray unto me, and I will hearken unto you.
And ye shall seek me, and find me, when ye shall search for me with all your heart.
And I will be found of you, saith the LORD, and will turn away your captivity, and I will gather you from all the nations, and from all the places whither I have driven you, saith the LORD; & I will bring you again into the place whence
I caused you to be carried away captive.
Because ye have said, The LORD hath raised us up prophets in Babylon; Know that thus saith the Lord, of the King that sitteth upon the throne of David, & of all the people that dwelleth in this city, & of your brethren that are not gone forth with you into captivity;
Thus saith the LORD of hosts,
behold, I will send upon them the sword, the famine, and the pestilence, and will make them like vile figges, that cannot be eaten, they are so evill.
And I will persecute them with the sword, with the famine, & with the pestilence, & will deliver them to be removed to all the kingdoms of the earth, to be a curse, and an astonishment, and an hissing, and a reproach among all the nations, whither I have driven them.
Because they have not hearkened to my words, saith the Lord, which I sent unto them by my servants the Prophets, rising up early & sending them, but ye would not hear, saith the LORD.
Hear ye therefore the word of the LORD, all ye of the captivity, whom I have sent from Jerusalem to Babylon.
Thus saith the Lord of hosts, the God of Israel of Ahab the son of Kolaiah, & of Zedekiah the son of Maaseiah, which prophesy a lie to you in my name, behold, I will deliver them into the hand of Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon, & he shall slay them before your eyes.
And of them shall be taken up a curse by all the captivity of Judah which are in Babylon, saying, The LORD make thee like Zedekiah, & like Ahab, whom the king of Babylon roasted in the fire.
Because they have committed villany in Israel, & have committed adultery with their neighbours wives, and have spoke lying words in my name, which I have not commanded them, even I know, & am a witness, saith the Lord.
Thus shalt thou also speak to Shemaiah the Nehelamite, saying, Thus speaketh the LORD of hosts the God of Israel, saying, Because thou hast sent letters in thy name unto all the people that are at Jerusalem, & to Zephaniah the son of Maaseiah the Priest, and to all the Priests, saying,
The Lord hath made thee Priest in the stead of Jehoiada the priest, that ye should be officers in the house of the Lord for every man that is mad, & ma-keth himself a Prophet, that thou should-est put him in prison & in the stocks.
Now therefore why hast thou not reproved Jeremiah of Anathoth, which maketh himself a Prophet unto you?
For therefore he sent to us in Babylon, saying, This captivity is long, build ye houses, and dwell in them, and plant gardens, & eat y fruit of them.
And Zephaniah y Priest read this letter in y ears of Jeremiah y prophet.

30 Then came the word of the Lord unto Ieremiah, saying,

31 Send to all them of the captivity, saying, Thus saith the LORD, concerning Shemaiah the Nehelamite, Because that Shemaiah hath prophesied unto you, and I sent him not, and he caused you to trust in a lie:

32 Therefore thus saith the Lord, Behold, I will punish Shemaiah the Nehelamite, & his seed: he shall not have a man to dwel among this people, neither shall he behold y good y I will do to my people, saith the Lord, because he hath taught rebellion against y Lord.

CHAP. XXX.

THe word that came to Ieremiah from the LORD, saying,

2 Thus speaketh the LORD God of Israel, saying, Write thee all the words that I have spoken to thee in a book.

3 For lo, the dayes come, saith the LORD, that I will bring again the captivite of my people Israel & Iudah, saith the LORD: and I will cause them to return to the land that I gave to their fathers, and they shall possesse it.

4 And these are the wordes that the LORD spake concerning Israel, and concerning Iudah.

5 For thus saith the LORD, we have heard a voyce of trembling, of feare, and not of peace.

6 Aske ye now and see whether a man doeth travel with child? wherefore do I see every man with his hands on his loynes, as a woman in travell, and all faces are turned into paleness?

7 Alas, for y day is great, so y none is like it: it is even the time of Iacobs trouble, but he shalbe saved out of it.

8 For it shall come to passe in that day, saith the LORD of hostes, that I will breake his yoke from off thy neck, and will burst thy bonds, and strangers shall no more serve themselves of him:

9 But they shal serve the LORD their God, and David their king, whom I will raise up unto them.

10 Therefore fear thou not, O my servant Iacob, saith the LORD, neither be dismayed, O Israel: for lo, I will save thee from afar, and thy seed from the land of their captivity, and Iacob shal return, and shalbe in rest, and quiet, and none shal make him afraid.

11 For I am with thee, saith the Lord, to save thee: though I make a full end of all nations, whither I have scattered thee, yet will I not make a full end of thee, but I will correct thee in measure, and will not leave thee altogether unpunished.

12 For thus saith the Lord, thy bruise is incurable, & thy wound is grievous.

13 There is none to pleade thy cause, that thou mayest be bound up: thou hast no healing medicines.

14 All thy lovers have forgotten thee: they seek thee not: for I have wounded thee with the wound of an enemy, with the chastisement of a cruell one, for the multitude of thine iniquity, because thy sinnes were increased.

15 Why crieste thou for thine affliction? thy sorrow is incurable, for the multitude of thine iniquity: because thy sinnes were increased, I have done these things unto thee.

16 Therefore all they that devoure thee, shal be devoured: and all thine adversaries every one of them shal go into captivity: and they that spoile thee, shalbe a spoile, and all that prey upon thee, will I give for a prey.

17 For I will restore health unto thee, and I will heal thee of thy wounds, saith the LORD: because they called thee an outcast, saying, This is Zion, whom no man seeketh after.

18 Thus saith the Lord, Behold, I will bring again the captivity of Iacobs tents, and have mercy on his dwelling places: and the city shalbe builded upon her own heap, and the palace shall remain after the manner thereof.

19 And out of them shall proceed thanksgiving, and the voyce of them that make merry: and I will multiply them, and they shal not be few: I will also glorifie them, & they shal not be small.

20 Their children also shalbe as aforetime, and their congregation shall be established before me, and I will punish all that oppresse them.

21 And their nobles shalbe of themselves, & their governour shal proceed from the midst of them, & I will cause him to draw neer, & he shall approach unto me: for who is this that engaged his heart to approach unto me, saith the LORD?

22 And ye shall be my people, and I will be your God.

23 Behold, the whirle-wind of the LORD goeth forth with fury, a grievous rushing whirl-wind, it shal fall grievously upon the head of the wicked.

24 The fierce anger of y LORD shall not return, until he have done it, and until he have performed y purposes of his heart: in y latter dayes ye shal consider it.

CHAP. XXXI.

AT the same time saith the LORD, will I be the God of all the families of Israel, and they shalbe my people.

2 Thus saith the LORD, The people which were left of the sword, found grace in the wilderneste, even Israel, when I went to cause him to rest.

3 The LORD hath appeared of old unto me, saying, yea, I have loved thee with an everlasting love: therefore with loving kindnesse have I drawen thee.

4 Again, I will build thee, and thou shalt be built, O virgin of Israel: thou shalt again be adorned with thy tabrets, and shalt go forth in the dances of them that make merry.

5 Thou shalt yet plant vines upon the mountaines of Samaria, the planters shal plant, and shal eat them as common things.

CHAP. XXXII.

THE word that came to Jeremiah from the LORD, in the tenth yeer of Zedekiah king of Judah, which was the eighteenth yeer of Nebuchad-rezzar.

2 For then the king of Babylons army besieged Jerusalem: & Jeremiah y prophet was shut up in y court of y prison, which was in y king of Judah's house.

3 For Zedekiah king of Judah had shut him up, saying, Wherefore dost thou prophesy, and say, Thus saith the LORD, Behold, I will give this city into the hand of the king of Babylon, and he shall take it?

4 And Zedekiah king of Judah shall not escape out of the hand of the Caldeans, but shall surely be delivered into the hand of the king of Babylon, and shall speak with him mouth to mouth, and his eyes shall behold his eyes.

5 And he shall lead Zedekiah to Babylon, and there shall he be until I visit him, saith the LORD: though ye fight with y Caldeans, ye shall not prosper.

6 And Jeremiah said, The word of the LORD came unto me, saying,

7 Behold, Hanameel the son of Shallum thine uncle shall come unto thee, saying, Buy thee my field that is in Anathoth: for the right of redemption is thine to buy it.

8 So Hanameel mine uncles son came to me in the court of the prison, according to the word of the LORD, and said unto me, Buy my field, I pray thee, that is in Anathoth, which is in y countrey of Benjamin: for the right of inheritance is thine, & the redemption is thine, buy it for thy self: then I knew that this was the word of the LORD.

9 And I bought the field of Hanameel my uncles son, that was in Anathoth, and weighed him the money: even seventeen sickles of silver.

10 And I subscribed the evidence, and sealed it, and took witnesses, & weighed him the money in the balances.

11 So I took the evidence of the purchase, both that which was sealed according to the law and custome, and that which was open.

12 And I gave the evidence of y purchase unto Baruch the son of Neriah, y son of Maaseiah, in the sight of Hanameel my uncles son, & in the presence of the witnesses, that subscribed the book of the purchase, before all the Jews that sate in the court of the prison.

13 And I charged Baruch before them, saying,

14 Thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel: take these evidences, this evidence of the purchase, both which is sealed, & this evidence which is open, and put them in an earthen vessel, that they may continue many dayes.

15 For thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, Houses and fields and vineyards shalbe possessed again in this land.

16 Now when I had delivered the evidence of the purchase to Baruch the son of Neriah, I prayed to y LORD, saying,

17 Ah Lord GOD! behold, thou hast made the heaven and the earth by thy great power and stretched out arme, & there is nothing too hard for thee.

18 Thou shewest loving kindness unto thousands, and recompensest the iniquity of the fathers into y bosome of their children after them: y great, y mighty God, y Lord of hosts is his name,

19 Great in counsel, and mighty in work: for thine eyes are open upon all the wayes of the sons of men, to give every one according to his wayes, and according to the fruit of his doings.

20 Which hast set signs and wonders in the land of Egypt, even to this day, and in Israel, and among other men, and hast made thee a Name as at this day,

21 And hast brought thy people Israel out of the land of Egypt with signs, and with wonders, and with a strong hand, and with a stretched out arme, and with great terrour,

22 And hast given them this land, which thou didst sweare to their fathers to give them, a land flowing with milke and honey.

23 And they came in and possessed it, but they obeyed not thy voice, neither walked in thy law, they have done nothing of all that thou commandedst them to do: therefore thou hast caused all this evil to come upon them.

24 Behold the mounts, they are come unto the city to take it, and the city is given into the hand of the Caldeans that fight against it, because of the sword, and of the famine, and of the pestilence: and what thou spakest is come to passe, and behold, thou seest it.

25 And thou hast said unto me, O Lord GOD, Buy thee the field for money, & take witnesses: for the city is given into the hand of the Caldeans.

26 Then came the word of the LORD unto Jeremiah, saying,

27 Behold, I am the LORD, the God of all flesh: is there any thing too hard for me?

CHAP. XXXIII.

MOreouer the word of the LORD came vnto Ieremiah the ſecond time, while he was yet ſhut vp in the court of the priſon, ſaying,
2 Thus ſaith the LORD, the Maker thereof, the LORD that formed it, to eſtabliſh it, the LORD is his Name:
3 Call vnto me, & I will anſwere thee, & ſhew thee great and mighty things, which thou knoweſt not.
4 For thus ſaith the LORD, the God of Iſrael, concerning the houſes of this city, & concerning the houſes of y kings of Iudah, which are throwne down by the mounts, & by y ſwords:
5 They come to fight with y Caldeans, but it is to fill them with y dead bodies of men, whom I haue ſlain in mine anger, & in my fury, & for all whoſe wickedneſs I haue hid my face from this city.
6 Behold, I will bring it health & cure, & I will cure them, & will reueale to them the abundance of peace & truth.
7 And I will cauſe the captiuity of Iudah, & the captiuity of Iſrael to return, & I will build them as at y firſt.
8 And I will cleanſe them from all their iniquity wherby they haue ſinned againſt me, & I will pardon all their iniquities wherby they haue ſinned againſt me, & wherby they haue tranſgreſſed againſt me.
9 And it ſhall be to me a name of ioy, a praiſe, & an honour to all y nations of y earth, who ſhall heare all y good that I do vnto them, & they ſhall feare & tremble for all y goodneſſe, & for all the proſperity that I procure to it.
10 Thus ſaith the LORD, Againe there ſhall be heard in this place (which ye ſay ſhall be deſolate, without man, & without beaſt) in the cities of Iudah, & in the ſtreets of Ieruſalem, that are deſolate without man, & without inhabitant, & without beaſt)
11 The voyce of ioy, & the voyce of gladneſſe, y voyce of y bridegroom, & the voyce of the bride, y voyce of them that ſhall ſay, Praiſe y Lord of hoſts: for y Lord is good: for his mercy endureth for euer: & of them y ſhall bring y ſacrifice of praiſe vnto y houſe of y Lord: for I will cauſe to return y captiuity of the land, as at the firſt, ſaith y LORD.
12 Thus ſaith y Lord of hoſts: Againe in this place, which is deſolate without man, & without beaſt, & in all the cities thereof, ſhall be an habitation of ſhepherds, cauſing their flocks to lie down.
13 In the cities of the mountaines, in the cities of the vale, & in the cities of the South, & in the land of Benjamin, & in the places about Ieruſalem,

…lem,

of the cities of Judah, shall they go yet unto the cities of Judah, and cry unto the gods unto whom they burn incense, and save them at all in the time of their trouble.

13 For according to the number of thy cities were thy gods, O Judah; and according to the number of the streets of Jerusalem have ye set up altars to that shameful thing, even altars to burn incense unto Baal.

14 Therefore pray not thou for this people, neither lift up a cry or prayer for them: for I will not hear them in the time that they call unto me for their trouble.

15 What hath my beloved to do in mine house, seeing she hath wrought lewdness with many, and the holy flesh is passed from thee? when thou doest evil, then thou rejoicest.

16 The LORD called thy name, A green olive tree, fair, and of goodly fruit: with the noise of a great tumult he hath kindled fire upon it, and the branches of it are broken.

17 For the LORD of hosts, that planted thee, hath pronounced evil against thee, for the evil of the house of Israel and of the house of Judah, which they have done against themselves to provoke me unto anger in offering incense unto Baal.

18 And the LORD hath given me knowledge of it, and I know it: then thou shewedst me their doings.

19 But I was like a lamb or an ox that is brought to the slaughter; and I knew not that they had devised devices against me, saying, Let us destroy the tree with the fruit thereof, and let us cut him off from the land of the living, that his name may be no more remembered.

20 But, O LORD of hosts, that judgest righteously, trying the reins and the heart, let me see thy vengeance on them: for unto thee have I revealed my cause.

21 Therefore thus saith the LORD of the men of Anathoth, that seek thy life, saying, Prophesy not in the name of the LORD, that thou die not by our hand:

22 Therefore thus saith the LORD of hosts, Behold, I will punish them: the young men shall die by the sword; their sons and their daughters shall die by famine:

23 And there shall be no remnant of them: for I will bring evil upon the men of Anathoth, even the year of their visitation.

CHAP. XII.

1 Jeremiah complaineth of the prosperity of the wicked. 5 God answereth him. 7 He lamenteth the desolation of his people. 14 He promiseth their restoration.

RIGHTEOUS art thou, O LORD, when I plead with thee: yet let me talk with thee of thy judgments: Wherefore doth the way of the wicked prosper? wherefore are all they happy that deal very treacherously?

2 Thou hast planted them, yea, they have taken root: they grow, yea, they bring forth fruit: thou art near in their mouth, and far from their reins.

3 But thou, O LORD, knowest me: thou hast seen me, and tried mine heart toward thee: pull them out like sheep for the slaughter, and prepare them for the day of slaughter.

4 How long shall the land mourn, and the herbs of every field wither, for the wickedness of them that dwell therein? the beasts are consumed, and the birds; because they said, He shall not see our last end.

5 If thou hast run with the footmen, and they have wearied thee, then how canst thou contend with horses? and if in the land of peace, wherein thou trustedst, they wearied thee, then how wilt thou do in the swelling of Jordan?

6 For even thy brethren, and the house of thy father, even they have dealt treacherously with thee; yea, they have called a multitude after thee: believe them not, though they speak fair words unto thee.

7 I have forsaken mine house, I have left mine heritage; I have given the dearly beloved of my soul into the hand of her enemies.

8 Mine heritage is unto me as a lion in the forest; it crieth out against me: therefore have I hated it.

9 Mine heritage is unto me as a speckled bird, the birds round about are against her; come ye, assemble all the beasts of the field, come to devour.

10 Many pastors have destroyed my vineyard, they have trodden my portion under foot, they have made my pleasant portion a desolate wilderness.

11 They have made it desolate, and being desolate it mourneth unto me; the whole land is made desolate, because no man layeth it to heart.

12 The spoilers are come upon all high places through the wilderness: for the sword of the LORD shall devour from the one end of the land even to the other end of the land: no flesh shall have peace.

13 They have sown wheat, but shall reap thorns: they have put themselves to pain, but shall not profit: and they shall be ashamed of your own revenues because of the fierce anger of the LORD.

14 Thus saith the LORD against all mine evil neighbours, that touch the inheritance which I have caused my people Israel to inherit; Behold, I will pluck them out of their land, and pluck out the house of Judah from among them.

15 And it shall come to pass, after that I have plucked them out I will return, and have compassion on them, and will bring them again, every man to his heritage, and every man to his land.

16 And it shall come to pass, if they will diligently learn the ways of my people, to swear by my name, The LORD liveth; as they taught my people to swear by Baal; then shall they be built in the midst of my people.

17 But if they will not hear, I will utterly pluck up and destroy that nation, saith the LORD.

CHAP. XIII.

1 Jeremiah's linen girdle hid in Euphrates. 8 The parable of bottles. 12 The vessels of wine. 15 Pride reproved. 18 The captivity of the king and queen foretold. 20 The enemy from the north. 22 The cause of the calamities. 23 The Ethiopian cannot change his skin. 26 Jerusalem's shame.

THUS saith the LORD unto me, Go and get thee a linen girdle, and put it upon thy loins, and put it not in water.

2 So I got a girdle according to the word of the LORD, and put it on my loins.

3 And the word of the LORD came unto me the second time, saying,

4 Take the girdle that thou hast got, which is upon thy loins, and arise, go to Euphrates, and hide it there in a hole of the rock.

5 So I went, and hid it by Euphrates, as the LORD had commanded me.

6 And it came to pass after many days, that the LORD said unto me, Arise, go to Euphrates, and take the girdle from thence, which I commanded thee to hide there.

7 Then I went to Euphrates, and digged, and took the girdle from the place where I had hid it: and, behold, the girdle was marred, it was profitable for nothing.

8 Then the word of the LORD came unto me, saying,

9 Thus saith the LORD, After this manner will I mar the pride of Judah, and the great pride of Jerusalem.

10 This evil people, which refuse to hear my words, which walk in the imagination of their heart, and walk after other gods, to serve them, and to worship them, shall even be as this girdle, which is good for nothing.

11 For as the girdle cleaveth to the loins of a man, so have I caused to cleave unto me the whole house of Israel, and the whole house of Judah, saith the LORD; that they might be unto me for a people, and for a name, and for a praise, and for a glory: but they would not hear.

12 Therefore thou shalt speak unto them this word; Thus saith the LORD God of Israel, Every bottle shall be filled with wine: and they shall say unto thee, Do we not certainly know that every bottle shall be filled with wine?

13 Then shalt thou say unto them, Thus saith the LORD, Behold, I will fill all the inhabitants of this land, even the kings that sit upon David's throne, and the priests, and the prophets, and all the inhabitants of Jerusalem, with drunkenness.

14 And I will dash them one against another, even the fathers and the sons together, saith the LORD: I will not pity, nor spare, nor have mercy, but destroy them.

15 Hear ye, and give ear; be not proud: for the LORD hath spoken.

16 Give glory to the LORD your God, before he cause darkness, and before your feet stumble upon the dark mountains, and, while ye look for light, he turn it into the shadow of death, and make it gross darkness.

17 But if ye will not hear it, my soul shall weep in secret places for your pride, and mine eye shall weep sore, and run down with tears, because the LORD's flock is carried away captive.

18 Say unto the king and to the queen, Humble yourselves, sit down: for your principalities shall come down, even the crown of your glory.

19 The cities of the south shall be shut up, and none shall open them: Judah shall be carried away captive all of it, it shall be wholly carried away captive.

20 Lift up your eyes, and behold them that come from the north: where is the flock that was given thee, thy beautiful flock?

21 What shalt thou say when he shall punish thee? for thou hast taught them against thee, to be chief over thee: shall not sorrows take thee, as a woman in travail?

22 And if thou say in thine heart, Wherefore come these things upon me? For the greatness of thine iniquity are thy skirts discovered, and thine heels made bare.

23 Can the Ethiopian change his skin, or the leopard his spots? then may ye also do good, that are accustomed to do evil.

24 Therefore will I scatter them as the stubble that passeth away by the wind of the wilderness.

25 This is thy lot, the portion of thy measures from me, saith the LORD; because thou hast forgotten me, and trusted in falsehood.

26 Therefore will I discover thy skirts upon thy face, that thy shame may appear.

27 I have seen thy adulteries, and thy neighings, the lewdness of thy whoredom, and thine abominations on the hills in the fields. Woe unto thee, O Jerusalem! wilt thou not be made clean? when shall it once be?

CHAP. XIV.

1 The great drought. 7 Jeremiah's prayer. 10 The LORD's answer. 13 Jeremiah's complaint. 19 His prayer.

THE word of the LORD that came to Jeremiah concerning the dearth.

2 Judah mourneth, and the gates thereof languish; they are black unto the ground; and the cry of Jerusalem is gone up.

3 And their nobles have sent their little ones to the waters: they came to the pits, and found no water; they returned with their vessels empty; they were ashamed and confounded, and covered their heads.

4 Because the ground is chapt, for there was no rain in the earth, the plowmen were ashamed, they covered their heads.

5 Yea, the hind also calved in the field, and forsook it, because there was no grass.

6 And the wild asses did stand in the high places, they snuffed up the wind like dragons; their eyes did fail, because there was no grass.

7 O LORD, though our iniquities testify against us, do thou it for thy name's sake: for our backslidings are many; we have sinned against thee.

8 O the hope of Israel, the saviour thereof in time of trouble, why shouldest thou be as a stranger in the land, and as a wayfaring man that turneth aside to tarry for a night?

9 Why shouldest thou be as a man astonished, as a mighty man that cannot save? yet thou, O LORD, art in the midst of us, and we are called by thy name; leave us not.

10 Thus saith the LORD unto this people, Thus have they loved to wander, they have not refrained their feet, therefore the LORD doth not accept them; he will now remember their iniquity, and visit their sins.

11 Then said the LORD unto me, Pray not for this people for their good.

12 When they fast, I will not hear their cry; and when they offer burnt offering and an oblation, I will not accept them: but I will consume them by the sword, and by the famine, and by the pestilence.

13 Then said I, Ah, Lord GOD! behold, the prophets say unto them, Ye shall not see the sword, neither shall ye have famine; but I will give you assured peace in this place.

14 Then the LORD said unto me, The prophets prophesy lies in my name: I sent them not, neither have I commanded them, neither spake unto them: they prophesy unto you a false vision and divination, and a thing of nought, and the deceit of their heart.

15 Therefore thus saith the LORD concerning the prophets that prophesy in my name, and I sent them not, yet they say, Sword and famine shall not be in this land; By sword and famine shall those prophets be consumed.

16 And the people to whom they prophesy shall be cast out in the streets of Jerusalem because of the famine and the sword; and they have none to bury them, them, their wives, nor their sons, nor their daughters: for I will pour their wickedness upon them.

17 Therefore thou shalt say this word unto them; Let mine eyes run down with tears night and day, and let them not cease: for the virgin daughter of my people is broken with a great breach, with a very grievous blow.

18 If I go forth into the field, then behold the slain with the sword! and if I enter into the city, then behold them that are sick with famine! yea, both the prophet and the priest go about into a land that they know not.

19 Hast thou utterly rejected Judah? hath thy soul lothed Zion? why hast thou smitten us, and there is no healing for us? we looked for peace, and there is no good; and for the time of health, and behold trouble!

20 We acknowledge, O LORD, our wickedness, and the iniquity of our fathers: for we have sinned against thee.

21 Do not abhor us, for thy name's sake, do not disgrace the throne of thy glory: remember, break not thy covenant with us.

22 Are there any among the vanities of the Gentiles that can cause rain? or can the heavens give showers? art not thou he, O LORD our God? therefore we will wait upon thee: for thou hast made all these things.

to Jerusalem for fear of the army of the Caldeans, and for fear of the army of the Syrians: so we dwell at Jerusalem.

12 Then came the word of the LORD unto Jeremiah, saying,

13 Thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel; Go and tell the men of Judah, & ye inhabitants of Jerusalem, Will ye not receive instruction to hearken to my words, saith the LORD?

14 The words of Jonadab the son of Rechab, that he commanded his sons not to drink wine, are performed: for unto this day they drink none, but obey their father's commandment: nevertheless I have spoken unto you, rising early, and speaking; but ye hearkened not unto me.

15 I have sent also unto you all my servants the prophets, rising up early, & sending them, saying, Return now every man from his evil way, and amend your doings, & go not after other gods to serve them, & ye shall dwell in the land which I have given to you, & to your fathers, but ye have not inclined your ear, nor hearkened to me.

16 Because the sons of Jonadab the son of Rechab, have performed that commandment of their father, which he commanded them, but this people hath not hearkened unto me;

17 Therefore thus saith the LORD God of hosts, the God of Israel, Behold, I will bring upon Judah and upon all the inhabitants of Jerusalem, all the evil that I have pronounced against them: because I have spoken unto them, but they have not heard, and I have called unto them, but they have not answered.

18 And Jeremiah said unto the house of the Rechabites, Thus saith the LORD of hosts the God of Israel, because ye have obeyed the commandment of Jonadab your father, and kept all his precepts, and done according unto all that he hath commanded you:

19 Therefore thus saith the LORD of hosts the God of Israel, Jonadab the son of Rechab shall not want a man to stand before me for ever.

CHAP. XXXVI.

AND it came to pass in the fourth year of Jehoiakim the son of Josiah king of Judah, that this word came unto Jeremiah from the LORD, saying,

2 Take thee a roll of a book, and write therein all the words that I have spoken unto thee against Israel, and against Judah, and against all the nations, from the day that I spake unto thee, from the days of Josiah, even to this day.

3 It may be that the house of Judah will hear all the evil which I purpose to do unto them; that they may return every man from his evil way, that I may forgive their iniquity & their sin.

4 Then Jeremiah called Baruch the son of Neriah, and Baruch wrote from the mouth of Jeremiah all the words of the LORD, which he had spoken unto him, upon a roll of a book.

5 And Jeremiah commanded Baruch, saying, saying, I am shut up. I cannot goe into the house of the LORD.

6 Therefore go thou and reade in the roule, which thou hast written from my mouth, the words of the LORD, in the eares of the people, in the house of the LORD. Shoule upon the fasting day: & also thou shalt reade them in y eares of all Iuda, that come out of their cities.
7 It may be they will present their supplication before the LORD, and will return every one from his evil way: for great is y anger and fury y LORD hath pronounced against this people.
8 And Baruch the son of Neriah did according to all that Ieremiah y Prophet commanded him, reading my booke y words of y LORD, in y LORDS house.
9 And it came to pas in the fift yeere of Iehoiakim the son of Iosiah king of Iudah, in the moneth, that they proclaimed a fast before the LORD to all the people in Ierusalem and to all the people that came from the cities of Iudah unto Ierusalem.
10 Then reade Baruch my booke y words of Ieremiah in y house of y LORD in the chamber of Gemariah the son of the Shaphan the Scribe, in the higher court at the entry of the new gate of the Lords house my eares of al y people.
11 When Micaiah y son of Gemariah the son of Shaphan had heard out of the booke all the words of the LORD,
12 Then he went down to the kings house to y Scribes chamber & lo, all the princes sate there, even Elishama y scribe & Delaiah y son of Shemaiah, and Elnathan y son of Achbor, and Gemariah the son of Shaphan, and Zedekiah the son of Hananiah, and all the princes.
13 Then Micaiah declared to them all y words y he had heard when Baruch read the book in y eares of the people.
14 Therefore all y Princes sent Iehudi the son of Nethaniah, y son of Selemiah, the son of Cushi vnto Baruch saying: Take in thine hand the roule wherein y hast read in the eares of y people, & come. So Baruch the son of Neriah tooke the roule in his hand and came to them.
15 And they said vnto him, Sit down now, and read it in our eares. So Baruch read it in their eares.
16 Now it came to pas when they had heard all y words they were afraid both one and other, and said to Baruch, We will surely tel y king of all these words.
17 And they asked Baruch, saying, Tel us now, How diddest thou write all these words at his mouth?
18 Then Baruch answered them, He pronounced all these words vnto me with his mouth, and I wrote them with ynke in the booke.
19 Then said the princes vnto Baruch, Go hide thee, thou and Ieremiah, and let no man know were ye be.
20 And they went in to the king into the court, but they laid up the roule in y chamber of Elishama y Scribe, & reade all the words in y eares of y king.
21 So the king sent Iehudi to fet y roule, and he tooke it out of Elishama the Scribes chamber, and Iehudi read it in the eares of y king, and in the eares of all the Princes that stood beside the king.
22 Now the king sate in the winter house in y ninth month, & there was a fire on y hearth burning before him.
23 And it came to pas that when Iehudi had read three or foure leaves, he cut it with the penne knife, and cast it into the fire that was on the hearth, vntil all the roule was consumed on the fire that was on the hearth.
24 Yet they were not afraid, nor rent their garments, neither y king, nor any of his servants y heard all these words.
25 Nevertheless, Elnathan, & Dalaiah, and Gemariah had made intercession to the king, that he would not burn the roule: but he would not hear them.
26 But the king commanded Ierahmeel the son of Hammelech, & Seraiah the son of Azriel, & Shelemiah y son of Abdeel to take Baruch the Scribe, and Ieremiah the Prophet: but the LORD hid them.
27 Then the word of y LORD came to Ieremiah (after y y king had burnt the roule, and the words which Baruch wrote at y mouth of Ieremiah) saying,
28 Take thee again another roule, and write in it all the former words that were in the first roule, which Iehoiakim y king of Iudah hath burnt.
29 And thou shalt say to Iehoiakim king of Iudah. Thus saith y LORD, Thou hast burnt this roule, saying, Why hast thou written therein, saying, The king of Babylon shal certainly come and destroy this land, & shal cause to cease from thence, man & beast?
30 Therefore thus saith y LORD of Iehoiakim king of Iudah. He shal haue none to sit vpon y throne of Dauid: his dead body shal be cast out in y heate in the night.
31 And I will punish him, and his seed, & his servants for their iniquity: and I will bring vpon them, and on the inhabitants of Ierusalem, & vpon y men of Iudah all the evil y I have pronounced against them: but they hearkened not.
32 Then took Ieremiah another roule, & gaue it to Baruch the Scribe, the son of Neriah who wrote therein from the mouth of Ieremiah all y words of the book which Iehoiakim king of Iudah had burnt in the fire: and there were added besides to the same many like words.

CHAP. XXVII.

1 Nabuchadnezzar the son of Nebuchadnezzar reigned in the stead of Koniah y son of Iehoiakim king of Iudah.
2 But neither he, nor his servants, nor the people of the land did hearken vnto the words of the LORD, which he spake by the Prophet Ieremiah.
3 And Zedekiah the king sent Iehucal the son of Shelemiah, and Zephaniah the son of Maaseiah the priest to the prophet Ieremiah, saying, Pray now vnto the LORD our God for

...remiah came in and went ...the people: for they had ...not into prison.
...Pharaohs army was come ...of Egypt: when y Caldeans ...heard tidings ...Jerusalem, they departed from Jerusalem.
...ne y word of the LORD ...Jeremiah, saying,
...LORD y God of Is... Thus shall ye say to the king of ... that sent you unto me to enquire, Behold, Pharaohs armie ... which is come forth to help you, shall return ... into their own land.
...the Caldeans shall come again ... fight against this city, and take it, ... burn it with fire.
...Thus saith the LORD, Deceive ...yourselves saying, The Caldeans ...shall depart from us: for they shall ...not depart.
...For though ye had smitten the whole army of the Caldeans that fight against you, and there remained but wounded men among them, yet should they every man in his tent, and burn this city with fire.
...And it came to pass, that when y army of the Caldeans was broken up from the face of Pharaohs army,
...Then Jeremiah went forth out of Jerusalem to go into the land of Benjamin, to separate himself thence in the midst of the people.
...And when he was in the gate of Benjamin a captain of the ward was there, whose name was Irijah, the son of Shelemiah, the son of Hananiah, and he took Jeremiah the prophet, saying, Thou fallest away to the Caldeans.
...Then said Jeremiah, It is false, I fall not away to the Caldeans: but he hearkened not to him: so Irijah took Jeremiah, and brought him to the princes.
...Wherefore the princes were wroth with Jeremiah, & smote him, & put him in prison in the house of Jonathan the scribe: for they had made y the prison.
...For Jeremiah was entred into the dungeon, and into cabins: and Jeremiah had remained there many days.
...Then Zedekiah the king sent, & took him out: and the king asked him secretly in his house, & said, Is there any word from the LORD? And Jeremiah said, There is: for, said he, thou shalt be delivered into the hand of the king of Babylon.
...Moreover Jeremiah said unto king Zedekiah, What have I offended against thee, or against thy servants, or against this people, that ye have put me in prison?
...Where are now your prophets which prophesied unto you, saying, The king of Babylon shall not come against you, nor against this land?
...Therefore hear now, I pray thee, O my lord the king: let my supplication, I pray thee, be accepted before thee; that thou cause me not to return to y house of Jonathan the scribe, lest I die there.
...Then Zedekiah y king commanded that they should commit Jeremiah into y court of the prison, and y they should give him daily a piece of bread out of the bakers street, until all the bread in the citie were spent. Thus Jeremiah remained in the court of the prison.

CHAP. XXXVIII.

...Then Shephatiah y son of Mattan, & Gedaliah y son of Pashur, and Jucal y son of Shelemiah, & Pashur the son of Malchiah, heard y words y Jeremiah had spoke to all y people, saying,
2 Thus saith the LORD, He that remaineth in this citie, shall die by the sword, by the famine, and by the pestilence, but he that goeth forth to the Caldeans, shall live: for he shall have his life for a prey, and shall live.
3 Thus saith y LORD, This citie shall surely be given into y hand of y king of Babylons armie, which shall take it.
4 Therefore the Princes said unto the king, We beseech thee, let this man be put to death: for thus he weakeneth the hands of the men of warre that remaine in this citie, and the hands of all the people, in speaking such words unto them: for this man seeketh not the welfare of this people, but the hurt.
5 Then Zedekiah the King said, Behold, he is in your hand, for y king is not he y can do any thing against you.
6 Then tooke they Jeremiah, and cast him into y dungeon of Malchiah y son of Hammelech, y was in the court of y prison: and they let down Jeremiah with cords. & in y dungeo there was no water, but mire: so Jeremiah sunk in y mire.
7 Now when Ebed-melech the Ethiopian, one of the Eunuches, which was in y kings house, heard that they had put Jeremiah in the dungeon: (the king then sitting in the gate of Benjamin.)
8 Ebed-melech went forth out of the kings house, & spake to y king, saying,
9 My lord the king, these men have done evil in all that they have done to Jeremiah the Prophet, whom they have cast into the dungeon: and he is like to die for hunger in y place where is for there is no more bread in y city.
10 Then the king commanded Ebed-melech the Ethiopian, saying, Take from hence thirtie men with thee, and take up Jeremiah the Prophet, out of the dungeon before he die.
11 So Ebed-melech tooke the men with him, and went into the house of the king, under the treasury, and tooke thence old cast clouts, and old rotten raggs, and let them down by cords into the dungeon to Jeremiah.
12 And Ebed-melech y Ethiopian said to Jeremiah, put now these old cast clouts & rotten raggs under thine armholes, under the cords. And Jeremiah did so.
13 So they drew up Jeremiah with cords, & took him up out of y dungeo, & Jeremiah remained in y court of y prison.
14 Then Zedekiah the king sent and tooke Jeremiah y Prophet to him, into the third entry that is in y house of y

I declare it to thee, will ſurely not put me to death, and if I give thee counſel, will ſt thou not hearken unto me?
16 So the king ſware ſecretly unto Jeremiah ſaying, As the LORD liveth that made us this ſoul, I will not put thee to death, neither will I give thee into the hand of thoſe men that ſeek thy life.
17 Then ſaid Jeremiah unto Zedekiah, thus ſaith the LORD, the God of hoſts, the God of Iſrael, If thou aſſ thou ſhalt forth to the king of Ba then thy ſoul ſhall live, and this ſhall not be burnt with fire, and thou ſhalt live, and thine houſe: 18 But if thou king of Babylon's princes, then thou ſhalt be ſhall be given into the hand of the Chaldeans, & they ſhall burn it with fire, and thou ſhalt not eſcape out of their hand.
19 And Zedekiah the king ſaid unto I am afraid of the Jews that are fallen to the Chaldeans, leſt they deliver me into their hand, and they mock me. 20 But Jeremiah ſaid, they ſhall not deliver them. Obey now the voice of the LORD which I ſpeak unto thee: ſo it ſhall be well unto thee, and thy ſoul ſhall live. 21 But if thou refuſe to go forth, this is the word that the LORD hath ſhewed me, 22 And behold all the women that are left in the king of Judah's houſe, ſhall be brought forth to the king of Babylon's princes, & ſhall ſay, Thoſe thy friends have ſet on thee, and have prevailed againſt thee, now when thy feet are ſunk in the mire, they are turned away back. 23 So they will bring out all thy wives and thy children to the Chaldeans, and thou ſhalt not eſcape out of their hand, but ſhalt be taken by the hand of the king of Babylon, and thou ſhalt cauſe this city to be burned with fire.
24 Then ſaid Zedekiah unto Jeremiah, Let no man know of theſe words, and thou ſhalt not die.
25 But if the princes hear that I have talked with thee, & they come unto thee, and ſay unto thee, Declare unto us now what thou ſaidſt to the king, hide it not from us, & alſo what the king ſaid unto thee: thou ſhalt not put us to death, alſo what the king ſaid unto thee:
26 Then ſhalt thou ſay unto them, I preſented my ſupplication before the king, to cauſe me not to return to Jonathan's houſe, to die there.
27 Then came all the princes unto Jeremiah, & aſked him: and he told them according to all theſe words that the king had commanded. So they left off ſpeaking with him, for the matter was not perceived.
28 So Jeremiah abode in the court of the priſon until the day that Jeruſalem was taken, & he was there when Jeruſalem was taken.

CHAP. XXXIX.

IN the ninth year of Zedekiah king of Judah, in the tenth month, came Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon & all his army againſt Jeruſalem, & beſieged it.
2 And in the eleventh year of Zedekiah, in the fourth month, the city was broken up.
3 And all the princes of the king of Babylon came in, & ſate in the middle gate, even Nergal-Sharezer, Samgar-Nebo, Sarſechim, Rabſaris, Nergal-Sharezer, Rabmag, with all the reſt of the princes of the king of Babylon.
4 And it came to paſs that when Zedekiah the king of Judah ſaw them, & all the men of war, then they fled, & went forth out of the city by night, by the way of the king's garden, by the gate between the two walls: & he went out the way of the plain.
5 But the Chaldean army purſued after them, & overtook Zedekiah in the plains of Jericho, & when they had taken him, they brought him up to Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon to Riblah in the land of Hamath, where he gave judgment upon him.
6 Then the king of Babylon ſlew the ſons of Zedekiah in Riblah before his eyes: alſo the king of Babylon ſlew all the nobles of Judah.
7 Moreover, he put out Zedekiah's eyes, & bound him with chains, to carry him to Babylon.
8 And the Chaldeans burnt the houſe of the king, & the houſes of the people, with fire, & brake down the walls of Jeruſalem.
9 Then Nebuzar-adan captain of the guard carried away captive to Babylon the remnant of the people that remained in the city, & thoſe that fell away, that were with him, with the reſt of the people that remained.
10 But Nebuzar-adan captain of the guard left of the poor of the people, which had nothing, in the land of Judah, & gave them vineyards & fields at the ſame time.
11 Now Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon gave charge concerning Jeremiah by Nebuzar-adan captain of the guard, ſaying, 12 Take him, & look well to him, & do him no harm, but deal with him even as he ſhall ſay unto thee.
13 So Nebuzar-adan captain of the guard, & Nebuſhazban, Rab-ſaris, & Nergal-Sharezer, Rab-mag, & all the king of Babylon's princes;
14 Even they ſent, & took Jeremiah out of the court of the priſon, & committed him unto Gedaliah the ſon of Ahikam the ſon of Shaphan, that he ſhould carry him home: ſo he dwelt among the people.
15 Now the word of the LORD came unto Jeremiah, while he was ſhut up in the court of the priſon, ſaying, 16 Go & ſpeak to Ebed-melech the Ethiopian, ſaying, Thus ſaith the LORD of hoſts, the God of Iſrael, Behold, I will bring my words upon this city for evil, & not for good, & they ſhall be accompliſhed before thee in that day.
17 But I will deliver thee in that day, ſaith the LORD, & thou ſhalt not be given into the hand of the men of whom thou art afraid.
18 For I will ſurely deliver thee, & thou ſhalt not fall by the ſword, but thy life ſhall be for a prey unto thee, becauſe thou haſt put thy truſt in me, ſaith the LORD.

CHAP.

CHAP. XL.

1 Jeremiah, which came to Jeremiah from the Lord, after that Nebuzaradan captain of the guard had let him go at Ramah, when he had taken him being bound in chains among all those that were carried away captive of Jerusalem and Judah, which were carried away captive to Babylon. 2 And the captain of the guard took Jeremiah, and said unto him, The Lord thy God hath pronounced this evil upon this place. 3 Now the LORD hath brought it, and done according as he hath said: because ye have sinned against the LORD, and have not obeyed his voice, therefore this thing is come upon you. 4 And now, behold, I loose thee this day from the chains which were upon thine hand. If it seem good unto thee to come with me into Babylon, come; and I will look well unto thee: but if it seem ill unto thee to come with me into Babylon, forbear: behold, all the land is before thee: whither it seemeth good and convenient unto thee to go, thither go. 5 Now while he was not yet gone back, he said, Go also to Gedaliah the son of Ahikam the son of Shaphan, whom the king of Babylon hath made governour over the cities of Judah, and dwell with him among the people: or go wherever it seemeth convenient unto thee to go. So the captain of the guard gave him victuals and a reward, and let him go. 6 Then went Jeremiah unto Gedaliah the son of Ahikam to Mizpah, and dwelt with him among the people that were left in the land. 7 Now when all the captains of the forces which were in the fields, even they and their men, heard that the king of Babylon had made Gedaliah the son of Ahikam governour in the land, and had committed unto him men, and women, and children, of the poor of the land, of them that were not carried away captive to Babylon; 8 Then they came to Gedaliah to Mizpah, even Ishmael the son of Nethaniah, and Johanan and Jonathan the sons of Kareah, and Seraiah the son of Tanhumeth, and the sons of Ephai the Netophathite, or Jezaniah the son of a Maachathite, they and their men. 9 And Gedaliah the son of Ahikam the son of Shaphan sware unto them and to their men, saying, Fear not to serve the Chaldees: dwell in the land, and serve the king of Babylon, and it shall be well with you. 10 As for me, behold, I will dwell at Mizpah to serve the Chaldees, which will come unto us: but ye, gather ye wine, and summer fruits, and oil, and put them in your vessels, and dwell in your cities that ye have taken. 11 Likewise when all the Jews that were in Moab, and among the Ammonites, and in Edom, and that were in all other countries, heard that the king of Babylon had left a remnant of Judah, and that he had set over them Gedaliah the son of Ahikam the son of Shaphan; 12 Even all the Jews returned out of all places whither they were driven, and came unto the land of Judah, to Gedaliah unto Mizpah, and gathered wine and summer fruits very much. 13 Moreover Johanan the son of Kareah, and all the captains of the forces which were in the fields, came to Gedaliah to Mizpah, 14 And said unto him, Dost thou certainly know that Baalis the king of the Ammonites hath sent Ishmael the son of Nethaniah to slay thee? But Gedaliah the son of Ahikam believed them not. 15 Then said Johanan the son of Kareah in private to Gedaliah in Mizpah, saying, Let me go, I pray thee, and I will slay Ishmael the son of Nethaniah, and no man shall know it. Wherefore should he slay thee, that all the Jews which are gathered unto thee should be scattered, and the remnant in Judah perish? 16 But Gedaliah the son of Ahikam said unto Johanan the son of Kareah, Thou shalt not do this thing: for thou speakest falsely of Ishmael.

CHAP. XLI.

1 Ishmael slain by Johanan. 4 Gedaliah slain. 7 Ishmael slayeth many. 10 Carrieth away captive the residue of the people. 11 Johanan pursueth after him. 16 Recovereth the captives. 17 Departeth to go into Egypt.

NOW it came to pass in the seventh month, that Ishmael the son of Nethaniah the son of Elishama, of the seed royal, and the Princes of the king, even ten men with him, came to Gedaliah the son of Ahikam to Mizpah; and there they did eat bread together in Mizpah. 2 Then arose Ishmael the son of Nethaniah, and the ten men that were with him, and smote Gedaliah the son of Ahikam the son of Shaphan with the sword, and slew him, whom the king of Babylon had made ruler over the land. 3 Ishmael also slew all the Jews that were with him, even with Gedaliah, at Mizpah, and the Chaldeans that were found there, and the men of war. 4 And it came to pass the second day after he had slain Gedaliah, and no man knew it, 5 That there came certain from Shechem, from Shiloh, and from Samaria, even fourscore men, having their beards shaven, and their clothes rent, and having cut themselves, with offerings and incense in their hand to bring them unto the house of the LORD. 6 And Ishmael the son of Nethaniah went forth from Mizpah to meet them, weeping all along as he went: and it came to pass, as he met them, he said to them, Come to Gedaliah the son of Ahikam. 7 And it was so when they came into the midst of the city, that Ishmael the son of Nethaniah slew them, and cast them into the midst of the pit, he, and the men that were with him. 8 But ten men were found among them that said unto Ishmael, Slay us not: for we have treasures in the field, of wheat, of barley, and of oil, and of honey. So he forbare, and slew them not among their brethren. 9 Now the pit wherein Ishmael had cast all the dead bodies of the men, whom he had slain because of Gedaliah, was it which Asa the king had made for fear of Baasha king of Israel: and Ishmael the son of Nethaniah filled it with them that were slain

10 Then Ismael carried away captive the residue of the people that were in Mizpah, even the kings daughters, & all the people that remained in Mizpah, whom Nebuzaradan captaine of the Guard had committed to Gedaliah the son of Ahikam: and Ishmael the son of Nethaniah carried them away captive, & departed to go over to Ammon.

11 But when Iohanan the son of Kareah, and all the captaines of the forces that were with him heard of all the evil that Ismael the son of Nethaniah had done,

12 Then they took all the men, and went to fight with Ismael the sonne of Nethaniah, and found him by the great waters that are in Gibeon.

13 Now it came to passe, that when all the people which were with Ismael saw Iohanan the son of Kareah, and all the captaines of the forces that were with him, then they were glad.

14 So all the people that Ismael had caried away captive from Mizpah cast about, & returned, and went vnto Iohanan the son of Kareah.

15 But Ismael the sonne of Nethaniah escaped from Iohanan with eight men, and went to the Ammonites.

16 Then took Iohanan the son of the Kareah, and all the captaines of the forces that were with him, all the remnant of the people whom he had recouered of Ismael the sonne of Nethaniah, after he had slaine Gedaliah the sonne of Ahikam, even the strong men of warre, and the women, and the children, and the eunuches whom he had brought againe from Gibeon.

17 And they departed, and dwelt in the habitation of Chimham, which is by Bethlehem, to go to enter into Egypt, 18 Because of the Caldeans: for they were afraid of them, because Ismael the son of Nethaniah had slaine Gedaliah the son of Ahikam, whom the king of Babylon made gouernour in the land.

CHAP. XLII.

1 Then all the captaines of the forces, & Iohanan the son of Kareah, & Iezaniah the son of Hoshaiah, & all the people, from the least even to the greatest, came neer,

2 And said to Ieremiah the Prophet, Let, we pray thee, our supplication be accepted before thee, & pray for vs vnto the Lord thy God, even for all this remnant, (for we are left but a few of many, as thine eyes do behold vs:)

3 That the Lord thy God may shew vs the way wherein we may walke, & the thing that we may do.

4 Then Ieremiah the Prophet said vnto them, I have heard you: behold, I will pray vnto the Lord your God according to your words: and it shall come to passe, that whatsoeuer thing the Lord shall answere you, I will declare it vnto you: I will keep nothing backe from you.

5 Then they said to Ieremiah, The Lord be a witnesse and faithfull witnes between vs, if we do not even according to all things for the which the LORD thy God shall send thee to vs.

6 Whether it be good, or whether it be evil, we will obey the voyce of the Lord our God, to whom we send thee, that it may be well with vs, when we obey the voyce of the Lord our God.

7 And it came to passe after ten dayes, that the word of the Lord came vnto Ieremiah.

8 Then called he Iohanan the son of Kareah, & all the captaines of the forces which were with him, and all the people from the least even to the greatest,

9 And said vnto them, Thus saith the LORD the God of Israel, vnto whom ye sent me to present your supplication before them,

10 If ye will still abide in this land, then will I build you, and not pull you down, & I will plant you, & not pluck you vp: for I repent me of the euill that I have done vnto you.

11 Be not afraid of the king of Babylon, of whom ye are afraid: be not afraid of him, saith the LORD: for I am with you to saue you, & to deliver you from his hand.

12 And I will shew mercy vnto you, that he may have mercy vpon you, & cause you to returne into your owne land.

13 But if ye say, We will not dwell in this land, neither obey the voyce of the LORD your God,

14 Saying, No: but we will go into the land of Egypt, where we shall see no warre, nor heare the sound of the trumpet, nor haue hunger of bread: & there will we dwell:

15 And now therefore heare the word of the Lord ye remnant of Iudah. Thus saith the Lord of hostes, the God of Israel: If ye wholly set your faces to enter into Egypt, & go to sojourne there;

16 Then it shall come to passe, that the sword which ye feared, shall ouertake you there in the land of Egypt, & the famine whereof ye were afraid, shall follow close after you there in Egypt: & there ye shall die.

17 So shall it be with all the men that set their faces to go into Egypt to sojourne there, they shall die by the sword, by the famine, & by the pestilence: & none of them shall remaine or escape from the euill that I will bring vpon them.

18 For thus saith the LORD of hostes, the God of Israel: As mine anger & mine wrath hath been powred forth vpon the inhabitants of Ierusalem: so shall my wrath be powred forth vpon you when ye shall enter into Egypt: & ye shall be an execration, & an astonishment, & a curse, & a reproch: & shall see this place no more.

19 The Lord hath said concerning you, O ye remnant of Iudah, Go ye not into Egypt: know certainly that I have admonished you this day.

20 For ye dissembled in your hearts, when ye sent me vnto the Lord your God, saying, Pray for vs vnto the Lord our God, & according vnto all that the Lord our God shall say, so declare vnto vs, & we will do it.

21 And now I have this day declared it to you, but yee have not obeyed the voyce of the Lord your God, nor any thing for the which he hath sent me to you.

22 Now

a how therefore know certainly, that the shall die by the sword, by the famine, by the pestilence, in the place whither he desire to go to sojourn.

CHAP. XLIII.

1 And it came to pass, that when Jeremiah had made an end of speaking unto all his people, all the words of the LORD their God, for which the LORD their God had sent him to them, even all these words,

2 Then spake Azariah the son of Hoshaiah, and Johanan the son of Kareah, and all the proud men, saying unto Jeremiah, Thou speakest falsely: the LORD our God hath not sent thee to say, Go not into Egypt to sojourn there:

3 But Baruch the son of Neriah setteth thee on against us, for to deliver us into the hand of the Caldeans, that they might put us to death, and carry us away captives into Babylon.

4 So Johanan the son of Kareah, and all the captains of the forces, and all the people obeyed not the voyce of the LORD, to dwell in the land of Judah.

5 But Johanan the son of Kareah, and all the captains of the forces took all the remnant of Judah, that were returned from all nations, whither they had been driven, to dwell in the land of Judah;

6 Men, and women, and children, and the kings daughters, and every person that Nebuzaradan the captain of the guard had left with Gedaliah the son of Ahikam the son of Shaphan, & Jeremiah the prophet, & Baruch the son of Neriah.

7 So they came into the land of Egypt: for they obeyed not the voyce of the LORD: thus came they even to Tahpanhes.

8 Then came the word of the LORD unto Jeremiah in Tahpanhes saying,

9 Take great stones in thy hand, and hide them in morter in the clay in the brick-kil which is at the entry of Pharaohs house in the sight of some of the men of Judah;

10 And say unto them, thus saith the LORD of hosts the God of Israel, Behold, I will send and take Nebuchadrezzar the king of Babylon my servant, and will set his throne upon these stones that I have hid, and he shall spread his royal pavilion over them.

11 And when he commeth he shall smite the land of Egypt, & deliver such as are for death to death; and such as are for captivity to captivity, and such as are for the sword to the sword.

12 And I will kindle a fire in the houses of the gods of Egypt, and he shall burn them, and carry them away captives: & he shall array himself with the land of Egypt, as a shepherd putteth on his garment, and he shall go forth from thence in peace.

13 He shall break also the images of Bethshemesh that is in the land of Egypt, and the houses of the gods of Egypt shall he burn with fire.

CHAP. XLIIII.

1 The word that came to Jeremiah concerning all the Jewes which dwel in the land of Egypt, which dwel at Migdal, and at Tahpanhes, and at Noph, and in the country of Pathros, saying,

2 Thus saith the LORD of hosts the God of Israel; Ye have seen all the evil that I have brought upon Jerusalem, and upon all the cities of Judah, and behold, this day they are a desolation, and no man dwelleth therin:

3 Because of their wickednes which they have committed to provoke me to anger, in that they went to burn incense, and to serve other gods who they knew not, neither they, you, nor your fathers.

4 Howbeit, I sent unto you all my servants the Prophets, rising early, & sending them, saying, Oh do not this abominable thing that I hate.

5 But they hearkened not, nor inclined their eare to turne from their wickednes, to burn no incense to other gods.

6 Wherfore my fury & my anger was powred forth, & was kindled in the cities of Judah, & in the streets of Jerusalem, & they are wasted & desolate as at this day.

7 Therefore now, thus saith the Lord the God of hosts the God of Israel; Wherefore commit ye this great evil against your soules, to cut off from you man & woman, child & sucking out of Judah to leave you none to remain;

8 In that ye provoke me unto wrath with the works of your hands, burning incense unto other gods in the land of Egypt, whither ye be gone to dwell, that ye might cut your selves off, and that ye might be a curse & a reproach among all the nations of the earth?

9 Have ye forgotten the wickednes of your fathers, and the wickednes of the kings of Judah, and the wickednes of their wives, and your own wickednes, & the wickednes of your wives which they have committed in the land of Judah, and in the streets of Jerusalem?

10 They are not humbled even unto this day, neither have they feared, nor walked in my law, nor in my statutes, that I set before you & before your fathers.

11 Therefore thus saith the LORD of hosts the God of Israel; Behold, I will set my face against you for evil, and to cut off all Judah.

12 And I will take the remnant of Judah that have set their faces to go into the land of Egypt to sojourne there, and they shall all be consumed, and fall in the land of Egypt; they shall even be consumed by the sword and by the famine: they shall die from the least even unto the greatest by the sword, and by the famine: and they shall be an execration, and an astonishment, and a curse, & a reproach.

13 For I will punish them that dwel in the land of Egypt, as I have punished Jerusalem, by the sword, by the famine, and by the pestilence.

14 So that none of the remnant of Judah which are gone into the land of Egypt to sojourn there shall escape, or remained at they should return to the land of Judah to the which they have a desire to return to dwel there: for none shall return, but such as shal escape.

15 Then all the men which knew that their wives had burnt incense to other gods, and all the women that stood by, a great multitude, even all the people that dwelt in the land of Egypt in Pathros, answered Jeremiah saying,

16 As for the word that thou hast spoken unto us in the Name of the Lord, we will not hearken unto thee.

17 But we will certainly do whatsoever thing goeth forth out of our own mouth, to burn incense unto the Queen of heaven, and to pour out drink offerings unto her, as we have done, we & our fathers, our kings & our Princes in the cities of Judah, and in the streets of Jerusalem: then had we plenty of victuals, and were well, & saw no evil.

18 But since we left off to burn incense to the Queen of heaven, & to pour out drink offerings unto her, we have wanted all things, and have been consumed by the sword and by the famine.

19 And when we burnt incense to the queen of heaven, & poured out drink offerings unto her, did we make us cakes to worship her, & pour out drink offerings unto her without our men?

20 Then Jeremiah said unto all the people, to the men, and to the women, and to all the people which had given him that answer, saying,

21 The incense that ye burnt in the cities of Judah, and in the streets of Jerusalem, ye and your fathers, your kings, and your princes, and the people of the land, did not the Lord remember them, and came it not into his mind?

22 So that the Lord could no longer bear, because of your wicked doings, & because of the abominations which ye have committed, therefore is your land an astonishment, and a desolation, & a curse, without an inhabitant, as at this day.

23 Because ye have burnt incense, & because ye have sinned against the Lord, and have not obeyed the voice of the Lord, nor walked in his Law, nor in his statutes, nor in his Testimonies, therefore this evil is happened unto you, as at this day.

24 Moreover, Jeremiah said unto all the people, and to all the women, Hear the word of the Lord, all Judah that are in the land of Egypt.

25 Thus saith the Lord of hosts, the God of Israel, saying, Ye & your wives have both spoken with your mouth, & fulfilled with your hand, saying, We will surely perform our vows that we have vowed, to burn incense to the queen of heaven, & to pour out drink offerings to her: ye will surely accomplish your vows, & surely perform your vows.

26 Therefore hear ye the word of the Lord, all Judah that dwell in the land of Egypt, Behold I have sworn by my great Name, saith the Lord, that my Name shall no more be named in the mouth of any man of Judah in all the land of Egypt, saying, The Lord God liveth.

27 Behold, I will watch over them for evil & not for good, and all the men of Judah that are in the land of Egypt shall be consumed by the sword, and by famine, until there be an end of them.

28 Yet a small number that escape the sword, shall return out of the land of Egypt into the land of Judah, & all the remnant of Judah, ye gone into Egypt to sojourn there, shall know whose word shall stand, mine or theirs.

29 And this shall be a sign unto you, saith the Lord, that I will punish you in this place, that ye may know that my words shall surely stand against you for evil.

30 Thus saith the Lord, Behold, I will give Pharaoh-hophra king of Egypt into the hand of his enemies, & into the hand of them that seek his life, as I gave Zedekiah king of Judah into the hand of Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon his enemie, and that sought his life.

CHAP. XLV.

THE word that Jeremiah the Prophet spake to Baruch the son of Neriah, when he had written these words in a book at the mouth of Jeremiah, in the fourth year of Jehoiakim the son of Josiah king of Judah, saying,

2 Thus saith the LORD the God of Israel unto thee, O Baruch;

3 Thou didst say, Woe is me now, for the Lord hath added grief to my sorrow, I fainted in my sighing, & I find no rest.

4 Thus shalt thou say unto him, The Lord thus saith, Behold, that which I have built will I break down, & that which I have planted I will pluck up, even this whole land.

5 And seekest thou great things for thy self? seek them not: for behold, I will bring evil upon all flesh, saith the Lord: but thy life will I give unto thee for a prey in all places whither thou goest.

CHAP. XLVI.

THE word of the Lord which came to Jeremiah the Prophet, against the Gentiles.

2 Against Egypt, against the army of Pharaoh Necho king of Egypt, which was by the river Euphrates in Carchemish, which Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon smote in the fourth year of Jehoiakim king of Judah.

3 Order ye the buckler & shield, and draw near to battle.

4 Harness the horses, and get up ye horsemen, & stand forth with your helmets, furbish the spears, and put on the brigandines.

5 Wherefore have I seen them dismayed & turned away back? and their mighty ones are beaten down, and are fled apace, and look not back: for fear was on every side, saith the Lord.

6 Let not the swift flee away, nor the mighty man escape: they shall stumble & fall upon the North by the river Euphrates.

7 Who is this? cometh up as a flood, whose waters are moved like the rivers?

8 Egypt riseth up like a flood, and his waters are moved like the rivers, & he saith, I will go up, & will cover the earth, I will destroy the city, & the inhabitants thereof.

9 Come

...ers, horses, and rage ye cha-
...t the mighty men come forth.
...gypt: and the Libyans, that
...ne shield; and the Lidyans that
...d bend the bow.
...is the day of the Lord GOD
...a day of vengeance, y he may
...m of his adversaries: & the
...ll devour, & it shall be satiate
...d make a their blood: for the ...GOD of hosts hath a sacrifice in y
...country by y river Euphrates.
...o up into Gilead, & take balme,
...e the daughter of Egypt: in
...ing shalt thou use many medicines,
...ou shalt not be cured.
...ons have heard of thy shame,
...earth hath filled thy cry: for the
...an hath stumbled against the
...ghty, they are fallen both together
...y are risen up together.
...d the word that the Lord spake to
...ah the prophet, how Nebuchad-
...zzar king of Babylon should come
...smite the land of Egypt.
...Declare ye in Egypt, and publish in
...dol, & publish in Noph, & in Tah-
...nes: say ye, stand fast, & prepare thee: for
...e sword shall devour round about thee.
...Why are thy valiant men swept
...wn? stood not, because the Lord
...ove them.
...He made many to fall, yea one fell
...on another: and they said, Arise, and
...go again to our own people, and ...to the land of our nativity from
...e oppressing sword.
...They did cry there, Pharaoh king
...Egypt is but a noise; he hath passed
...e appointed time.
...As I live, saith the king, whose
...me is the Lord of hosts, Surely as Ta...bor is among the mountains, and as ...Carmel by the sea, so shall he come.
...O thou daughter dwelling in ...Egypt, furnish thy self to go into cap...tivity: for Noph shall be waste and de...solate without an inhabitant.
...Egypt is like a very fair heifer;
...but destruction cometh, it cometh out
...of the North.
...Also her hired men are in y midst
...of her like fatted bullocks: for they ...also are turned back, and are fled away
...together: they did not stand, because
...the day of their calamity was come on ...them, and the time of their visitation.
...The voice thereof shall go like a ...serpent; for they shall march with an
...army, and come against her with axes,
...as hewers of wood.
...They shall cut down her forest,
...saith the Lord, though it cannot be ...searched; because they are more than the ...grasshoppers, and are innumerable.
...The daughter of Egypt shall be con...founded; he shall be delivered into the ...hand of the people of the North.
...The Lord of hosts the God of Is...rael saith; Behold, I will punish y multi-
...tude of No, and Pharaoh, and Egypt
...with their gods, and their kings; even
...Pharaoh, & all them that trust in him.

26 And I will deliver them into the hand of those that seek their lives, and into the hand of Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon, & into the hand of his servants. & afterwards it shall be inhabited as in the days of old, saith the Lord.
27 But fear not thou, O my servant
Jacob, and be not dismayed, O Israel:
for lo, I will save thee from afar off, & thy seed from the land of their captivity; & Jacob shall return, & be in rest and at ease, & none shall make him afraid.
28 Fear y not, O Jacob my servant, saith y Lord, for I am with thee: for I will make a full end of all nations whither I have driven thee, but not make a full end of thee, but correct y in measure, yet will I not leave thee wholly unpunished. CHAP. XLVII.

THE word of y Lord y came to Jeremiah y prophet against y Philistines, before y Pharaoh smote Gaza.
2 Thus saith the LORD: behold, waters rise up out of the North, & shall be an overflowing flood, & shall overflow the land and all that is therein: the city and them that dwell in it: then the men shall cry, & all the inhabitants of the land shall howle.
3 At the noise of the stamping of the hoofs of his strong horses, at the rushing of his chariots, and at the rumbling of his wheels, y fathers shall not look back to their children, for feebleness of hands 4 Because of the day that cometh to spoil all the Philistines, and to cut off from Tyrus and Zidon every helper that remaineth: for the Lord will spoil the Philistines: the remnant of the countrey of Caphtor
5 Baldness is come upon Gaza: Ashkelon is cut off with the remnant of their valley: how long wilt y cut thy self?
6 O thou sword of y Lord, how long will it be ere thou be quiet? put up thy self into thy scabbard, rest, & be still.
7 How can it be quiet, seeing the Lord hath given it a charge against Ashkelon, and against the sea shore? there hath he appointed it.

CHAP. XLVIII.

AGainst Moab thus saith the Lord of hosts, the God of Israel: Woe to Nebo, for it is spoiled: Kiriathaim is confounded and taken: Misgab is confounded and dismayed.
2 There shall be no more praise of Moab:
in Heshbon they have devised evil against it: come, & let us cut it off from being a nation: also thou shalt be cut down
O Madmen, y sword shall pursue thee.
3 A voyce of crying shall be from Horonaim, spoiling and great destruction.
4 Moab is destroyed; her little ones have caused a cry to be heard.
5 For in the going up of Luhith with continual weeping shall go up for in the going down of Horonaim the enemies have heard a cry of destruction.
6 Flee save your lives, and be like the heath in the wilderness.
7 For because thou hast trusted in thy works

works, and in thy treasures, thou shalt also be taken: and Chemosh shall go forth into captivity with his priests, & his princes together.

8 And the spoiler shall come on every city, and no city shall escape: the valley also shall perish, and the plaine shall be destroyed, as the LORD hath spoken.

9 Give wings unto Moab, that it may flee & get away: for the cities of it shall be desolate, without any to dwell therein.

10 Cursed be he that doth the work of the Lord deceitfully, and cursed be he that keepeth back his sword from blood.

11 Moab hath been at ease from his youth, and he hath setled on his lees, and hath not been emptied from vessel to vessel, neither hath he gone into captivity: therefore his taste remaineth in him, and his sent is not changed.

12 Therefore behold, the dayes come, saith the Lord, that I will send vnto him wanderers, that shall cause him to wander, and shall empty his vessels, and breake their bottels.

13 And Moab shall be ashamed of Chemosh, as the house of Israel was ashamed of Bethel their confidence.

14 How say ye, We are mighty and strong men for the warr?

15 Moab is spoyled, and gone up out of her cities, and his chosen young men are gone down to the slaughter, saith the king, whose name is the Lord of hosts.

16 The calamity of Moab is neer to come, and his affliction hasteth fast.

17 All ye that are about him, bemoan him, & all ye that know his name, say, How is the strong staff broke, and the beautiful rod!

18 Thou daughter that dost inhabit Dibon, come down from thy glory, and sit in thirst: for the spoiler of Moab shall come upon thee, and he shall destroy thy strong holds.

19 O inhabitant of Aroer, stand by the way, & espie: ask him that fleeth, and her that escapeth, & say, What is done?

20 Moab is confounded: for it is broken down: howle & cry: tell ye it in Arnon, that Moab is spoiled.

21 And judgment is come upon the plaine country: upon Holon, and upon Jahazah, and upon Mephaath,

22 And upon Dibon, and upon Nebo, and upon Beth-diblathaim,

23 And upon Kiriathaim, and upon Beth-gamul, and upon Beth-meon,

24 And upon Kerioth, and upon Bozrah, and upon all the cities of the land of Moab, farre or neer.

25 The horn of Moab is cut off, & his arm is broken, saith the LORD.

26 Make ye him drunken: for he magnified himself against the LORD: Moab also shall wallow in his vomit, and he also shall be in derision.

27 For was not Israel a derision unto thee? was he found among thieves? for since thou spakest of him, thou skippedst for joy.

28 O ye that dwell in Moab, leave the cities and dwell in the rocke, and be like the dove that maketh her nest in the sides of the holes mouth.

29 We have heard the pride of Moab, (he is exceeding proud) his loftiness, & his arrogancy, and his pride, and the haughtiness of his heart.

30 I know his wrath, saith the LORD, but it shall not be so, his lies shall not so effect it.

31 Therefore will I howle for Moab, & I will cry out for all Moab: mine heart shall mourn for the men of Kir-heres.

32 O vine of Sibmah: I will weep for thee with the weeping of Jazer: thy plants are gone over the sea, they reach even to the sea of Jazer: the spoiler is fallen upon thy summer fruits, & upon thy vintage.

33 And joy & gladness is taken from the plentiful field, & from the land of Moab, & I have caused wine to fail from the wine presses: none shall tread with shouting, their shouting shall be no shouting.

34 From the cry of Heshbon, even unto Elealeh, and even unto Jahaz have they uttered their voice from Zoar, even unto Horonaim as an heifer of three yeers old: for the waters also of Nimrim shall be desolate.

35 Moreover I will cause to cease in Moab, saith the LORD, him that offereth in the high places, and him that burneth incense to his gods.

36 Therefore mine heart shall sound for Moab like pipes, and mine heart shall sound like pipes for the men of Kir-heres: because the riches that he hath gotten, are perished.

37 For every head shall be bald, and every beard clipt: upon all the hands shall be cuttings, & upon the loynes sackcloth.

38 There shall be lamentation generally upon all the house tops of Moab, and in the streets thereof: for I have broken Moab like a vessel, wherein is no pleasure, saith the LORD.

39 They shall howle, saying, How is it broke! how hath Moab turned the back & shamed! so shall Moab be a derision, & a fearing to all them about him.

40 For thus saith the Lord, Behold, he shall flie as an eagle, and shall spread his wings over Moab.

41 Kerioth is taken, & the strong holds are surprised, and the mighty mens hearts in Moab at that day, shall be as the heart of a woman in her pangs.

42 And Moab shall be destroyed from being a people, because he hath magnified himself against the LORD.

43 Feare, and the pit, & the snare shall be upon thee, O inhabitant of Moab, saith the LORD.

44 He that fleeth from the feare shall fall into the pit, & he that getteth up out of the pit shall be taken in the snare: for I will bring upon it, even upon Moab the yeer of their visitation, saith the LORD.

45 They that fled, stood under the shadow of Heshbon, because of the force: but a fire shall come forth out of Heshbon, & a flame from the midst of Sihon, and shall devoure the corner of Moab, & the crown

16 Thy terribleneſſe hath deceived thee, and the pride of thine heart, O thou that dwelleſt in y clefts of y rocks, y holdeſt the height of the hill: though thou ſhouldeſt make thy neſt as high as the eagle, I will bring thee down from thence, ſaith the LORD.

17 Alſo Edom ſhall be a deſolation: every one y goeth by it ſhall be aſtoniſhed, and ſhall hiſſe at all the plagues thereof.

18 As in the overthrow of Sodom & Gomorrah, & y neighbour cities thereof, ſaith y Lord: ſo ſhall no man dwell there, neither ſhall a ſon of man dwel in it.

19 Behold, he ſhall come up like a lion from the ſwelling of Jordan againſt the habitation of the ſtrong: but I will ſuddenly make him run away from her:
& who is a choſen man y I may appoint over her? for who is like me? and who will appoint me the time? who is that ſhepherd that will ſtand before me?

20 Therfore hear the counſel of the LORD, that he hath taken againſt Edom, and his purpoſes that he hath purpoſed againſt the inhabitants of Teman: ſurely the leaſt of y flock ſhall draw them out: ſurely he ſhall make their habitations deſolate with them.

21 The earth is moved at the noiſe of their fall: at the cry, the noiſe thereof was heard in the red Sea.

22 Behold, he ſhall come up, and flie as the Eagle, and ſpread his wings over Bozrah: and at that day ſhall the heart of the mighty men of Edom, be as the heart of a woman in her pangs.

23 Concerning Damaſcus. Hamath is confounded, & Arpad, for they have heard evil tidings, they are faint hearted, there is ſorrow on y ſea, it cannot be quiet.

24 Damaſcus is waxed feeble, and turn-eth her ſelf to flee, and fear hath ſeized on her: anguiſh and ſorrows have taken her as a woman in travel.

25 How is the city of praiſe not left,
the city of my joy?

26 Therfore her yong men ſhal fall in her ſtreets, & all the men of war ſhall be cut off in y day ſaith y Lord of hoſts.

27 And I will kindle a fire in the wall of Damaſcus, and it ſhal conſume the palaces of Benhadad.

28 Concerning Kedar, and concerning the kingdomes of Hazor, w Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon ſhall ſmite, Thus ſaith y LORD; Ariſe ye, go up to Kedar, and ſpoil the men of y Eaſt.

29 Their tents & their flocks ſhal they take away: they ſhal take to themſelves their curtains, and all their veſſels, and their camels: & they ſhall cry unto them: Fear is on every ſide.

30 Flee, get you far off, dwel deep, O ye inhabitants of Hazor, ſaith y Lord:
for Nebuchad-rezzar king of Babylon hath taken counſel againſt you, and hath conceived a purpoſe againſt you.

31 Ariſe, get you up unto the wealthy nation that dwelleth without care, ſaith the LORD, which have neither gates, nor bars: which dwel alone.

32 And

y ſhal of y tumultuous ones of Brother. O Moab, the people of Chemoſh: for thy ſons are taken: & thy daughters captives.
Yet will I bring again y captivity of Moab in the latter days, ſaith y LORD.
Thus is the judgement of Moab

CHAP. XLIX.

Concerning y Ammonites, thus ſaith the LORD: Hath Iſrael no ſons? hath he no heir? why doth their king inherit Gad, & his people dwel in his cities?
Therfore behold, y days come, ſaith
the LORD, that I will cauſe an alarm of warre to be heard in Rabbah of y Am-monites: and it ſhall be a deſolate heap, & her daughters ſhal be burnt with fire: then ſhall Iſrael be heire unto them that were his heirs, ſaith the LORD.
Howl Heſhbon, for Ai is ſpoiled: cry ye daughters of Rabbah: gird you with ſackcloth: lament, and run to and fro by the hedges, for their king ſhall go into captivity: and his Prieſts and his princes together.

Wherfore gloriеſt thou in the valley flowing valley, O backſliding daughter that truſted in her treaſures, ſaying, Who ſhall come unto me?

Behold I will bring a fear upon thee, ſaith the Lord GOD of hoſts, from all thoſe that be about thee, and ye ſhall be driven out every man right forth, and none ſhall gather up him y wandereth.

And afterward I will bring again the captivity of the children of Ammon ſaith the LORD.

Concerning Edom. Thus ſaith the LORD of hoſts, Is wiſdom no more in Teman? is counſel periſhed from the prudent? is their wiſdom vaniſhed?

Flee ye, turn back, dwel deep, O inhabitants of Dedan: for I will bring the calamity of Eſau upon him, the time that I will viſit him.

If grape gatherers come to thee, would they not leave ſome gleaning grapes? if thieves by night, they will deſtroy till they have enough.

But I have made Eſau bare, I have diſcovered his ſecret places, and he ſhall not be able to hide himſelf: his ſeed is waſted, and his brethren, & his neighbours, and he is not.

Leave thy fatherleſſe children, I will preſerve them alive: and let thy widows truſt in me.

For thus ſaith the LORD, Behold, they whoſe judgement was not to drink of the cup have aſſuredly drunke, and art thou he that ſhall altogether go unpunished? thou ſhalt not go unpuniſhed, but thou ſhalt drink of it.

For I have ſworn by my ſelf, ſaith y LORD, that Bozrah ſhal become a deſolation, a reproach, a waſte, a curſe, & all the cities of it ſhal be perpetual waſtes.

I have heard a rumor from y LORD, and an ambaſſadour is ſent to the heathen, ſaying, Gather y e together, and come againſt her, & riſe up to y battel.

For lo I will make thee ſmal among the heathen, and deſpiſed among men.

32 And then camels shall be a booty, & y multitude of their cattel a spoil. & I will scatter into all winds them y are in y vtmost corners, and I will bring their calamity thro all his theteof, saith y Lord.
33 And Iiazor shall be a dwelling for dragons, a da desolation for ever: there shal no man abide there, nor any son of man dwel in it.
34 The word of the LORD that came to Ieremiah the I prophet, against Elam in the beginning of the reigne of Zedekiah king of Iudah saying, 35 Thus saith the LORD of hosts, Behold, I will break the bow of Elam, the chief of their might.
36 And upon Elam will I bring y four winds from y four coasts of heaven, and will scatter them to all those four winds, & there shall be no nation whither y outcasts of Elam shal not come.
37 For I will cause Elam to be dismayed before their enimies, & before them that seek their life, & I will bring evil upon them, even mine fierce anger, saith the LORD, and I will send the sword after them, till I have consumed them.
38 And I will set my throne in Elam, and will destroy from thence the king and the princes, saith the LORD.
39 But it shal come to passe in the latter dayes, that I will bring again the captivity of Elam, saith the LORD.

CHAP. L.

THe word that the LORD spake against Babylon, & against the land of y Caldeans by Ieremiah y prophet.
2 Declare ye among the nations, and publish, and set up a standard, publish, and conceal not: say, Babylon is taken, Bel is confounded, Merodach is broke in pieces, her idols are confounded, her images are broken in pieces.
3 For out of the North there cometh up a nation against her, which shal make her land desolate, and none shal dwel therein: they shal remove, they shall depart both man and beast.
4 In those dayes, & in that time, saith the LORD, the children of Israel shal come, they and the children of Iudah together, going & weeping: they shall go, and seek the LORD their God.
5 They shal ask the way to Zion with their faces thitherward, saying, Come and let us joyn our selves to the LORD in a perpetual covenant, y shall not be forgotten.
6 My people have been lost sheep: their shepherds have caused them to go astray in the mountains: they have gone from mountain to hil, they have forgotten their resting place.
7 All that found them have devoured them: & their adversaries said, We offend not, because they have sinned against the habitation of iustice, even the LORD, the hope of their fathers.
8 Remove out of the midst of Babylon, & depart out of the land of the Caldeans, & be as the he goats before the flocks.
9 For lo, I will raise & cause to come up against Babylon an assembly of great nations, from the North country: and they shall set themselves in array against her, from thence shal she be taken: their arrows shal be as of a cunning expert mighty man, that returneth not in vain.
10 And Caldea shall be a spoil: all that spoil her shall be satisfied, saith y LORD.
11 Because ye were glad, because ye were sorie, O ye destroyers of mine heritage, because ye are growne fat, as the heifer at grass, & bellow as bulls,
12 Your mother shal be confounded: she that bare you shal be ashamed: behold, y hindermost of the nations shal be a wilderness, a dry land, & a desert.
13 Because of the wrath of the LORD it shal not be inhabited, but it shal be wholly desolate: every one that goeth by Babylon shal be astonished, & hisse at all her plagues.
14 Put your selves in array against Babylon round about all ye that bend the bow, shoot at her, spare no arrows: for she hath sinned against the LORD.
15 Shout against her round about: she hath given her hand: her foundations are fallen, her walls are thrown down: for it is y vengeance of y Lord: take vengeance on her, as she hath done to others.
16 Cut off y sower fro Babylon, & him y handleth y sickle in y time of harvest: for fear of the oppressing sword they shal turn every one to his people, & every one flee every one to his own land.
17 Israel is a scattered sheep: the lions have driven him away: first the king of Assyria hath devoured him, and last this Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon hath broken his bones.
18 Therfore thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, Lo, I will punish the king of Babylon and his land, as I have punished the king of Assyria.
19 And I will bring Israel again to his habitation, and he shal feed on Carmel and Bashan, and his soul shal be satisfied upon mount Ephraim and Gilead.
20 In those dayes, and in y time, saith the LORD, y iniquity of Israel shal be sought for, and there shal be none: and the sins of Iudah, and they shal not be found: for I will pardon them whom I reserve.
21 Go up against y land of Merathaim, even against it, & against y inhabitants of Pekod: waste & vtterly destroy after them, saith the LORD, & do according to all y I have commanded thee.
22 A sound of battel is in the land, and of great destruction.
23 How is y hammer of y whole earth cut asunder & broken! how is Babylon become a desolation among nations!
24 I have laid a snare for thee, and thou art also taken, O Babylon, and thou wast not aware: thou art found & also caught, because thou hast striven against the LORD.
25 The LORD hath opened his armory, & hath brought forth y weapons of his indignation: for this is a work of the LORD of hosts, my hand o against it out from the vtmoſt border: ſhe houſes: caſt it vp and deſtroy her vtterly: let nother be left.

Slay all her bullocks: let them go down to the ſlaughter: woo vnto them for their day is come, the time of their viſitation.
36 The voice of them y flee & eſcape out of Babylon to declare in Sion the vengeance of the LORD our God,
the vengeance of his Temple.
37 Gather the archers againſt Babylon: all ye that bend the bow, ſhamp your ſelues round about her: let none thereof eſcape: recompence her according to her working: according to all that ſhe hath done vnto her: for ſhe hath been proud againſt the LORD, againſt the holy
One of Israel.
38 Therefore ſhall her yong men fal in her ſtreets, and all her men of war ſhall be deſtroyed at that day, ſaith y LORD.
39 Behold, I am againſt thee, O thou moſt proud, ſaith the Lord God of hoſts: for thy day is come, y time y I will viſit thee.
40 And the proud ſhall ſtumble & fall, and none ſhall raiſe him vp: & I will kindle a fire in his cities, & it ſhall de-voure all round about him.
41 Thus ſaith the LORD of hoſts:
The children of Iſrael & the children of Iuda were oppreſſed together, and all they that took them captives held them faſt, and refuſed to let them go.
42 Their redemmer is ſtrong: y Lord of hoſts is his name: he ſhall throughly plead their cauſe, that he may give reſt to y land, and diſquiet y inhabitants of Babylon.
43 A ſword on the Caldeans, ſaith the LORD, & on y inhabitants of Babylon, & on her princes, and on her wiſe men.
44 A ſword vpon the lyars, and they ſhall dote: a ſword vpon her mighty men, and they ſhall be diſmayed.
45 A ſword on their horſes, and on their charets, & on all the mingled people that are in the midſt of her, and they ſhall become as women: a ſword vpon her treaſures, and they ſhall be robbed.
46 A drought is on her waters, & they ſhall be dryed vp: for it is y Land of graue images, & they are mad on their idols.
47 Therefore the wild beaſts of y deſert with the wild beaſts of y Iſlands ſhall dwell there, and the owles ſhall dwell therein: & it ſhall be no more inhabited for euer, neither ſhall it be dwelt in from one generation to generation.
48 As God ouerthrew Sodom & Gomorrah & y neighbour cities thereof, ſaith
the LORD: ſo ſhall no man dwell there, neither ſhall any ſon of man abide therein.
49 Behold, a people ſhall come from the North, & a great nation & many kings ſhall be raiſed vp from the vttermoſt parts of the earth.
50 They ſhall hold the bow & the ſpear:
they are cruel & will not ſhew mercy: their voyce ſhall roar like the ſea, & they ſhall ride vpon horſes, every one put in array like a man to the battel, againſt thee O daughter of Babylon.
51 The king of Babylon hath heard the report of them, & his hands waxed feeble: anguiſh took hold of him, and pangs as of a woman in travel.
52 Behold, he ſhall come vp like a lion from y ſwelling of Iordan vnto the habitation of the ſtrong: but I will make them ſuddenly run away from her: &
who is a choſen man y I may appoint ouer her? for who is like me? & who will appoint me the time? and who is that ſhepherd that will ſtand before me?
53 Therefore hear ye the counſel of the LORD, that he hath taken againſt Babylon: & his purpoſe that he hath purpoſed againſt y land of y Caldeans:
ſurely the leaſt of the flock ſhall draw them out: ſurely he ſhall make their habitation deſolate with them.
54 At the noiſe of the taking of Babylon the earth is moved, and the cry is heard among the gentiles.

CHAP. LI.

THus ſaith y LORD, Lo, I will raiſe vp againſt Babylon, & againſt them y dwel in the midſt of them, that ſet vp & againſt me, a deſtroying wind.
2 And I will ſend vnto Babylon fanners that ſhal fan her, & ſhal empty her land: for in the day of trouble they ſhall be againſt her round about.
3 Againſt him that bendeth, let the archer bend his bow, & againſt him that lifteth himſelf vp in his brygan-dine: and ſpare ye not her young men, deſtroy ye vtterly all her hoſt.
4 Thus the ſlain ſhal fal in the land of the Caldeans, & they that are thruſt through in her ſtreets.
5 For Iſrael hath not been forſaken, nor Iudah of his God, of the LORD of hoſts, though their land was filled with ſinne againſt y holy One of Israel.
6 Flee out of the midſt of Babylon & de-liuer euery man his ſoule: be not cut off in her iniquity: for this is the time of the LORDS vengeance: he will render vnto her a recompence.
7 Babylon hath been a golden cup in the LORDS hand y made all the earth drunken: the nations have drunken of her wine, therefore y nations are mad.
8 Babylon is ſuddenly fallen and deſtroyed: howle for her: take balm for her pain: if ſo be ſhe may be healed.
9 We would have healed Babylon, but ſhe is not healed: forſake her, & let us go euery one into his own country:
for her iudgement reacheth vnto heaven, and is lifted vp even to the ſkies.
10 The LORD hath brought forth our righteouſneſs: come & let us declare in Zion y work of the LORD our God.
11 Make bright the arrows, gather the ſhields: the LORD hath ſtirred vp the ſpirit of the kings of the Medes: for as for Babylon, his purpoſe is againſt her to deſtroy it: becauſe it is the vengeance of the LORD, the vengeance of his Temple.
12 Set vp a ſtandard vpon the walls of Babylon, make ſtrong the watch, ſet vp y watchmen, prepare y armour to the LORD

Lord hath both devised & done that he spake against y inhabitants of Babylo 13 O thou y dwellest upon many waters, abundant in treasures: thine end is come, & y measure of thy covetousnes.
14 The LORD of hosts hath sworn by himself saying, Surely I will fill thee with men as with caterpillars; and they shal lift up a shout against thee.
15 He hath made the earth by his power: he hath stablished y world by his wisdome, and hath stretched out the heaven by his understanding.
16 When he uttereth his voyce, there is a multitude of waters in y heavens & he causeth the vapours to ascend from the ends of the earth: he maketh lightnings with rain, and bringeth forth the wind out of his treasure.
17 Every man is brutish by his knowledge: every founder is confounded by y graven image: for his molten image is falshood, & there is no breath in them.
18 They are vanity, the work of errours: in the time of their visitation they shal perish.
19 The portion of Iacob is not like
them, for he is the former of all things,
and Israel is the rod of his inheritance:
the LORD of hosts is his Name.
20 Thou art my battel axe and weapons of war: for with thee will I break in pieces the nations; and with thee will I destroy kingdoms;
21 And with thee will I break in pieces y horse & his rider, & with thee will I break in pieces the charet and his rider; 22 With thee also will I break in pieces man & woman, and with thee will I break in pieces old & young, and with thee will I break in pieces y yong man & y maid.
23 I will also break in pieces with thee
the shepherd & his flock, & with thee will I break in pieces the husbandman and his yoke of oxen, & with thee will
I break in pieces captains and rulers.
24 And I will render unto Babylon, & to all the inhabitants of Caldea, all their evil that they have done in Zion in your sight, saith the LORD.
25 Lo, I am against thee, O destroying mountain, saith the LORD, which de-stroyest all the earth: and I will stretch out mine hand upon thee, and roule thee down from the rocks, and will make thee a burnt mountain.
26 And they shall not take of thee a stone for a corner, nor a stone for foundations, but thou shalt be desolate for ever, saith the LORD.
27 Set ye up a standard in the land, blow a trumpet among y nations: prepare the nations against her; call together against her the kingdomes of Ararat, Minni, and Ashchenaz; appoint a captain against her: cause her horses to come up as the rough caterpillars.
28 Prepare against her the nations, with the kings of the Medes, the captains thereof, and all the rulers thereof, and all the land of his dominion.
29 And the land shal tremble and sorrow: for every purpose of the LORD shal be performed against Babylon, to make the land of Babylon a desolation without an inhabitant.
30 The mighty men of Babylon have forborn to fight: they have remained their holds: their might hath failed;
they became as women: they have burnt their dwelling places; their barres are broken.
31 One post shall run to meet another, and one messenger to meet another, to shew the king of Babylon that his city is taken at one end.
32 And that the passages are stopped, and the reeds they have burnt with fire, and the men of war are affrighted.
33 For thus saith the LORD of hosts,
the God of Israel: The daughter of Babylon is like a threshing floor, it is time to threshe her: yet a little while,
and the time of her harvest shal come.
34 Nebuchad-rezzar the king of Balon hath devoured me, he hath crushed me, he hath made me an empty vessel, he hath swallowed me up like a dragon, he hath filled his belly with my delicates, he hath cast me out.
35 The violence done to me, & to my flesh, be on Babylon shal y inhabitant of Zion say: and my blood on the inhabitants of Caldea, shal Ierusalem say.
36 Therefore thus saith the LORD:
Lo, I wil plead thy cause, and take vengeance for thee, and I will dry up her sea, and make her springs dry.
37 And Babylon shal become heaps, a dwelling place for dragons, an astonishment & an hissing, without inhabitant.
38 They shal roar together like lions:
they shal yel as lyons whelps.
39 In their heat I will make their feasts, and I will make them drunken, that they may rejoyce, and sleep a perpetual sleep, and not wake, saith the LORD.
40 I will bring them down like lambs to y slaughter, like rams with he-goats.
41 How is Shesshach taken? and how is the praise of the whole earth surprised? how is Babylon become an astonishment among the nations?
42 The sea is come up upon Babylon: she is covered with the multitude of the waves thereof.
43 Her cities are a desolation, a dry land and a wilderness, a land where no man dwelleth, neither doth any son of man pass thereby.
44 And I will punish Bel in Babylon, &
I will bring forth out of his mouth that which he hath swallowed up, & the na-ons shal not flow together any more un-him: yea, the wal of Babylon shal fal.
45 My people, go ye out of the midst of her, and deliver ye every man his soul from the fierce anger of the LORD.
46 And lest your heart faint, & ye fear for y rumor y shalbe heard in y land, a rumor shal both come one yeer, and af-ery in another yeer, that come a rumor & violence in y land, ruler against ruler.
47 Therefore behold, the dayes come, that I will doe judgement upon the graven

of Babylon, and he city shall be confounded and ashamed: because they have provoked him against the holy one of Israel.

52 Therefore, behold, the days come, saith the LORD, that I will do judgment upon her graven images: and through all her land the wounded shall groan.

53 Though Babylon should mount up to heaven, and though she should fortify the height of her strength, yet from me shall spoilers come unto her, saith the LORD.

54 A sound of a cry cometh from Babylon, and great destruction from the land of the Caldeans:

55 Because the LORD hath spoiled Babylon, and destroyed out of her the great voice; when her waves do roar like great waters, a noise of their voice is uttered:

56 Because the spoiler is come upon her, even upon Babylon, and her mighty men are taken, every one of their bows is broken: for the LORD God of recompences shall surely requite.

57 And I will make drunk her princes, and her wise men, her captains, and her rulers, and her mighty men: and they shall sleep a perpetual sleep, and not wake, saith the King, whose name is The LORD of hosts.

58 Thus saith the LORD of hosts; The broad walls of Babylon shall be utterly broken, and her high gates shall burn with fire; and the people shall labour in vain, and the folk in the fire, and they shall be weary.

59 The word which Jeremiah the Prophet commanded Seraiah the son of Neriah, the son of Maaseiah, when he went with Zedekiah the king of Judah into Babylon in the fourth year of his reign. And this Seraiah was a quiet prince.

60 So Jeremiah wrote in a book all the evil that should come upon Babylon, even all these words that are written against Babylon.

61 And Jeremiah said to Seraiah, When thou comest into Babylon, and shalt see, and shalt read all these words;

62 Then shalt thou say, O LORD, thou hast spoken against this place, to cut it that none shall remain in it, neither man nor beast, but that it shall be desolate for ever.

63 And it shall be, when thou hast made an end of reading this book, that thou shalt bind a stone to it, and cast it into the midst of Euphrates:

64 And thou shalt say, Thus shall Babylon sink to rise no more from the evil that I will bring upon her: and they shall be weary. Thus far are the words of Jeremiah.

CHAP. LII.

1 Zedekiah was one and twenty years old when he began to reign, and he reigned eleven years in Jerusalem, and his mother's name was Hamutal the daughter of Jeremiah of Libnah.

2 And he did that which was evil in the eyes of the LORD, according to all that Jehoiakim had done.

3 For through the anger of the LORD it came to pass in Jerusalem & Judah, until he had cast them out from his presence, that Zedekiah rebelled against the King of Babylon.

4 And it came to pass in the ninth year of his reign, in the tenth month, in the tenth day of the month, that Nebuchadnezzar King of Babylon came, he & all his army, against Jerusalem, & pitched against it, & built forts against it round about.

5 So the city was besieged unto the eleventh year of king Zedekiah.

6 And in the fourth month, in the ninth day of the month, the famine was sore in the city so that there was no bread for the people of the land.

7 Then the city was broken up, and all the men of war fled, and went forth out of the city by night, by the way of the gate between the two walls, which is by the king's garden: (now the Caldeans were by the city round about:) & they went by the way of the plain.

8 But the army of the Caldeans pursued after the king, and overtook Zedekiah in the plains of Jericho, and all his army was scattered from him.

9 Then they took the king, and carried him up unto the king of Babylon to Riblah in the land of Hamath, where he gave judgment upon him.

10 And the king of Babylon slew the sons of Zedekiah before his eyes: he slew also all the princes of Judah in Riblah.

11 Then he put out the eyes of Zedekiah, and the king of Babylon bound him in chains, & carried him to Babylon, & put him in prison till the day of his death.

12 Now in the fifth month, in the tenth day of the month, (which was the nineteenth year of king Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon) came Nebuzaradan captain of the guard, which served the king of Babylon, to Jerusalem,

13 And burnt the house of the LORD, and the king's house, and all the houses of Jerusalem, and all the houses of the great men burnt he with fire.

14 And all the army of the Caldeans that were with the captain of the guard, brake down all the walls of Jerusalem round about.

15 Then Nebuzaradan the captain of the guard carried away captive certain of the poor of the people, and the residue of the people that remained in the city, & those that fell away to the king of Babylon, and the residue of the multitude.

16 But Nebuzaradan the captain of the guard left certain of the poor of the land for vinedressers, and for husbandmen.

17 Also the pillars of brass that were in the house of the LORD, and the bases, and the the brasen sea that was in the house of the LORD, the Caldeans brake, & carried all the brasse of them to Babylon.

18 The caldrons also, & the shovels, & the snuffers, & the vials, & the spoons, and all y vessels of brasse, wherewith they ministred, took they away.

19 And the basons, and the fire pans, and the basons, and the candlesticks, and the spoons, & the cups, that which was of gold in gold, & that which was of silver, in silver, took the captain of the guard away.

20 The two pillars, one Sea, and twelve brasen bulles that was under the bases, which king Solomon had made in y house of the LORD: y brass of all these vessels was without weight.

21 And concerning y pillars, y height of one pillar was eight cubits, & a twelve cubit could compasse it, & y thickness of it was four fingers: it was hollow.

22 And a chapter of brasse was upon it, & the height of one chapter was five cubits, with net-worke, and pomegranates upon the chapters round about, all of brasse. The second pillar also & the pomgranates were like to these.

23 And there were ninty and six pomegranates on a side, & all the pomegranates upon the net-work were an hundred round about.

24 And y captain of the guard took Seraiah y chief Priest, & Zephaniah y second Priest, & y three keepers of y door.

25 He took also out of the city an eunuch which had y charge of the men of warr, & seven men of them y were neer the kings person, y were found in the city. & the principal scribe of the host, who mustred the people of y land: and his threescore men of y people of the land that were found in the midst of the city.

26 So Nebuzaradan the captain of the guard took them, and brought them to the king of Babylon to Riblah.

27 And y king of Babylon smote them, and put them to death in Riblah in the land of Hamath. Thus Judah was caried away captive out of their owne land.

28 This is the people whom Nebuchadnezzar caried away captive in the seventh yeare, three thousand and three and twenty Jewes.

29 In the eighteenth yeer of Nebuchadnezzar he caried away captives from Jerusalem eight hundred thirty and two persons.

30 In the three and twentieth yeare of Nebuchadnezzar, Nebuzaradan captaine of the guard caried away captive of the Jewes seven hundred forty and five persons: all the persons were four thousand and six hundred.

31 And it came to pass in the seven and thirtieth yeer of the captivity of Jechonias king of Judah, in the twelfth moneth, y Evilmorodach king of Babylon in the first yeer of his reign lift up the head of Jehoiachin king of Judah, & brought him forth out of prison.

32 And spake kindly to him, and set his throne above y throne of the kings that were with him in Babylon.

33 And changed his prison garments: and he did continually eat bread before the same.

34 And for his diet there was a continual diet given him of y king: a certain every day a portion of it to the day of his death, all the dayes of his life.

The LAMENTATIONS of IEREMIAH.

CHAP. I.

HOw doth yeer sit solitary y was full of people! how is she become as a widow! she y was great among the nations, & princesse among the provinces, how is she become tributary!

2 She weepeth sore in the night, & her teares are on her cheeks: among all her lovers, she hath none to comfort her: all her friends have dealt treacherously with her, they are become her enemies.

3 Judah is gone into captivity, because of affliction, and because of great servitude: she dwelleth among the heathen, she findeth no rest: all her persecuters overtook her between the straits.

4 The wayes of Zion do mourn, because none come to y solemn feasts: all her gates are desolate: her priests sigh: her virgins are afflicted, & she is in bitterness.

5 Her adversaries are the chief, her enemies prosper: for the LORD hath afflicted her: for the multitude of her transgressions her children are gone into captivity before the enemy.

6 And from the daughter of Zion all her beauty is departed: her princes are become like harts that find no pasture, and they are gone without strength before the pursuer.

7 Jerusalem remembered in the dayes of her affliction, and of her miseries all her pleasant things that she had in the dayes of old, when her people fell into the hand of the enemy, and none did help her, the adversaries saw her, and did mock at her Sabbaths.

8 Jerusalem hath grievously sinned, therefore she is removed: all that honored her, despise her, because they have seen her nakedness: yea she sighing, and turneth backward.

9 Her filthiness is in her skirts, she remembreth not her last end: therefore she came down wonderfully: she had no comforter. O LORD behold my affliction: for the enemy hath magnified himself.

10 The enemy hath spread out his hand upon all her pleasant things: for she hath seen y the heathen entred into her sanctuary, whom thou didst command y they should not enter into thy congregation.

11 All her people sigh, they seek bread: they have given their pleasant things for meat to relieve y soul: see, O LORD, and consider; for I am become vile.

feasts and Sabbaths to be forgotten in Zion, and hath despised in y indignation of his anger the king and y Priest.
7 The Lord hath cast off his Altar:
he hath abhorred his sanctuary: he hath given up into the hand of the enemy y walles of her palaces: they have made a noise in the house of the LORD, as in the day of a solume feast.
8 The Lord hath purposed to destroy the wal of y daughter of Zion: he hath stretched out a line: he hath not withdrawn his hand from destroying: therefore he made the rampart and the wall to lament: they languish together.
9 Her gates are sunk into y ground: he hath destroyed & broken her bars: her King and her Princes are among y Gentiles: the Law is no more, her prophets also find no vision from the LORD.
10 The Elders of the daughter of Zion sit on the ground, & keep silence:
they have cast up dust on their heads:
they have girded themselves with sackcloth, the virgins of Ierusalem hang down their heads to the ground.
11 My eyes do fail with tears, my bowels are troubled: my liver is powred on y ground because of the destruction of y daughter of my people: because y children & y sucklings swoon in y streets of the city.
12 They say to their mothers, where is corn & wine? when they swoon as the wounded in the streets of the city: when their soule is powred out into their mothers bosome.
13 What thing shall I take to witnesse for thee? what thing shall I liken to thee, O daughter of Ierusalem? what shall I equal to thee, y I may comfort thee, O virgin daughter of Zion? for thy breach is great like y sea: who can heal thee?
14 Thy prophets have seen vain and foolish things for thee: and they have not discovered thine iniquity to turne away thy captivity: but have seen for thee burdens & causes of banishment.
15 All y passe by, clap their hands at thee: they hisse & wag their head at the daughter of Ierusalem, saying: Is this y city that men call, The perfection of beauty, The joy of the whole earth?
16 All their enemies have opened their mouth against thee: they hisse and gnash the teeth: they say, we have swallowed her up: certainly this is the day

day that we looked for: we have found,
we have seen it.

17 The Lord hath done that which he had devised: he hath fulfilled his word y he had commanded in y days of old: he hath thrown down, and hath not pitied: and he hath caused the enemy to rejoice over thee, he hath exalted the horn of thine adversaries.

18 Their heart cried to y Lord O wall of y daughter of Zion, let tears run down like a river day & night: give thy self no rest, let not y apple of thy eyes cease.

19 Arise, cry out in y night: in the beginning of the watches pour out thine heart like waters before the face of the Lord: lift up thy hands toward him for the life of thy young children, y faint for hunger in the top of every street.

20 Behold, O Lord, and consider to whom thou hast done this. Shall y women eat their fruit and children of a span long? shall the Priest and the Prophet be slain in the sanctuary of the Lord?

21 The young and the old lie on the ground in the streets: my virgins & my young men are fallen by y sword: thou hast slain them in the day of thine anger: thou hast killed and not pitied.

22 Thou hast called as to a solemn day my terrours round about, so y in day of the Lords anger, none escaped nor remained: those that I have cradled & brought up, hath my enemy consumed.

CHAP. III.

I Am the man that hath seen afflition by the rod of his wrath.

2 He hath led me and brought me into darkness, but not into light.

3 Surely against me is he turned, he turneth his hand against me all the day.

4 My flesh and my skin hath he made old, he hath broken my bones.

5 He hath builded against me, and compassed me with gall and travell.

6 He hath set me in darke places, as they that be dead of old.

7 He hath hedged me about, y I cannot get out: he hath made my chain heavy.

8 Also when I cry and shout, y shutteth out my prayer.

9 He hath inclosed my wayes & hewen them: he hath made my paths crooked.

10 He was unto me as a beare lying in wait, & as a lyon in secret places.

11 He hath turned aside my wayes, and pulled me in pieces: he hath made me desolate.

12 He hath bent his bow, and set me as a marke for the arrow.

13 He hath caused the arrows of his quiver to enter into my reines.

14 I was a derision to all my people, and their song all the day.

15 He hath filled me with bitterness, he hath made me drunken with wormwood.

16 He hath also broken my teeth with gravel stones, he hath covered me with ashes.

17 And thou hast removed my soule far off from peace: I forgate prosperity.

18 And I said, my strength and my hope is perished from the LORD,

19 Remembring mine affliction, and misery, the wormwood and the gall.

20 My soul hath them still in remembrance, and is humbled in me.

21 This I recall to my mind, therefore have I hope.

22 It is of the LORDS mercies that we are not consumed, because his compassions fail not.

23 They are new every morning:
great is thy faithfulness.

24 The LORD is my portion, saith my soule, therefore will I hope in him.

25 The Lord is good to them that wait for him, to the soule that seeketh him.

26 It is good that a man should both hope and quietly wait for the salvation of the LORD.

27 It is good for a man that he bear the yoke in his youth.

28 He sitteth alone, and keepeth silence, because he hath borne it on him.

29 He putteth his mouth in the dust,
if so be there may be hope.

30 He giveth his cheek to him that smiteth him: he is filled full with reproach.

31 For y Lord will not cast off for ever.

32 But though he cause grief, yet will he have compassion, according to the multitude of his mercies.

33 For he doth not afflict willingly nor grieve the children of men.

34 To crush under his feet all the prisoners of the earth.

35 To turn aside the right of a man before the face of the most high.

36 To subvert a man in his cause,
the Lord approveth not.

37 Who is he y saith, and it cometh to pass, when y Lord commandeth it not?

38 Out of the mouth of the most high proceedeth not evil and good?

39 Wherefore doth a living man complain, a man for y punishment of his sins?

40 Let us search and try our wayes, and turn again to the LORD.

41 Let us lift up our hearts with our hands unto God in the heavens.

42 We have transgressed and have been rebellious: thou hast not pardoned.

43 Thou hast covered us with anger, and pursued us: thou hast slain, thou hast not pitied.

44 Thou hast covered thy self with a cloud, that our prayer should not pass through.

45 Thou hast made us as y offscouring and refuse in the midst of the people.

46 All our enemies have opened their mouth against us.

47 Fear and a snare is come upon us, desolation and destruction.

48 Mine eye runneth down with rivers of waters, for the destruction of the daughter of my people.

49 Mine eye trickleth down & ceaseth not, without any intermission,

50 Till the LORD look down and behold from heaven.

51 Mine eye affecteth mine heart, because of all the daughters of my city.

52 Mine enemies chased me sore like a bird without cause.

CHAP. IV.

w is the gold become dim! how is the most fine gold changed! the stones of the sanctuary are poured out at the corner of every street.
precious sons of Zion, comparable to fine gold, how are they esteemed as earthen pitchers, the work of the hands of the potter!
even daughters of Jerusalem, as the ostriches in the wilderness.
sucking child shall cleave to the roof of his mouth for thirst: the young children ask bread, & no man breaketh it unto them.
they that did feed delicately are desolate in the streets: they that were brought up in scarlet embrace dunghills.
for the punishment of the iniquity of the daughter of my people is greater than the punishment of the sin of Sodom, that was overthrown as in a moment, and no hands stayed on her.
her Nazarites were purer than snow, they were whiter than milk, they were more ruddy in body than rubies, their polishing was of sapphire.
their visage is blacker than a coal; they are not known in the streets: their skin cleaveth to their bones; it is withered, it is become like a stick.
they be slain with the sword, better be they that be slain with hunger: for these pine away, stricken through for want of the fruits of the field.
the hands of the pitiful women have sodden their own children: they were their meat in the destruction of the daughter of my people.
Lord hath accomplished his fury, he hath poured out his fierce anger, & hath kindled a fire in Zion, & it hath devoured the foundations thereof.
12 The kings of the earth, and all the inhabitants of the world, would not have believed, that the adversary & the enemy should have entered into the gates of Jerusalem.
13 For the sins of her prophets, & the iniquities of her priests, that have shed in the midst of her the blood of the just in the midst of her.
14 They have wandered as blind men in the streets, they have polluted themselves with blood, so that men could not touch their garments.
15 They cried unto them, Depart ye, it is unclean; depart, depart, touch not: when they fled away, and wandred; they said among the heathen, They shall no more sojourn there.
16 The anger of the Lord hath divided them, he will no more regard them: they respected not the persons of the priests, they favoured not the elders.
17 As for us, our eyes as yet failed for our vain help: in our watching we have watched for a nation y could not save us.
18 They hunt our steps, that we cannot go in our streets: our end is near, our days are fulfilled, for our end is come.
19 Our persecutors are swifter than the eagles of the heaven, they pursued us upon the mountains, they laid wait for us in the wilderness.
20 The breath of our nostrils, the anointed of the Lord, was taken in their pits, of whom we said, Under his shadow we shall live among the heathen.
21 Rejoyce & be glad, O daughter of Edom, y dwellest in y land of Uz; y cup also shall pass thro to thee: y shalt be drunken & shalt make thy self naked.
22 The punishment of thine iniquity is accomplished, O daughter of Zion, he will no more carry thee away to captivity: he will visit thine iniquity, O daughter of Edom, he will discover thy sins.

CHAP. V.

1 REmember, O Lord, what is come on us: consider & behold our reproach.
2 Our inheritance is turned to strangers, our houses to aliens.
3 We are orphans and fatherless, our mothers are as widows.
4 We have drunken our water for money; our wood is sold unto us.
5 Our necks are under persecution: we labour, and have no rest.
6 We have given the hand to the Egyptians, & to Assyria, to be satisfied with bread.
7 Our fathers have sinned, & are not; and we have borne their iniquities.
8 Servants have ruled over us: there is none y doth deliver us out of their hand.
9 We gat our bread with y peril of our lives because of y sword of y wilderness.
10 Our skin was black like an oven, because of the terrible famine.
11 They ravished the women in Zion, & the maidens in y cities of Judah.
12 Princes are hanged up by their hand: the faces of elders were not honoured.
13 They took y young men to grind, & the children fell under the wood.
14 The

14 The Elders have ceased from the gate, y young men from their musick.
15 The joy of our heart is ceased, our dance is turned into mourning.
16 The crown is fallen from our heads: Wo unto us that we have sinned.
17 For this our heart is faint, for these things our eyes are dim.
18 Because of the mountain of Zion, that is desolate, the foxes walk upon it.
19 But O Lord remain for ever, thy throne from generation to generation.
20 Wherefore dost thou forget us for ever, & forsake us so long time?
21 Turn thou us unto thee, O Lord, and we shall be turned: renew our days as of old.
22 But thou hast utterly rejected us, and art very wroth against us.

The book of the Prophet EZEKIEL.

CHAP. I.

NOw it came to pass in y thirtieth yeer, in the fifth day of the month, in the fift day of the moneth (as I was among the captives by the river of Chebar) that the heavens were opened, and I saw visions of God.
2 In the fift day of the moneth, (which was the fifte yeer of king Iehoiachins captivity)
3 The word of y Lord came expresly to Ezekiel y priest, the son of Buzi, in the land of y Caldeans, by y river Chebar, & the hand of y Lord was there on him.
4 And I looked, and behold a whirlwind came out of the North, a great cloud and a fire infolding it self, and a brightnes was about it, and out of the midst thereof, as the colour of amber out of the midst of the fire.
5 Also out of the midst thereof came the likenesse of four living creatures and this was their appearance: they had the likenesse of a man.
6 And every one had four faces, and every one had four wings.
7 And their feet were straight feet, and the sole of their feet was like the sole of a calves foot: and they sparkled like the colour of burnished brass.
8 And they had y hands of a man under their wings on their four sides, & they every one had their faces and their wings.
9 Their wings were joyned one to another: they turned not, when they went, they went every one straight forward.
10 As for the likenes of their faces: they had y face of a man, and the face of a lion on the right side, & they four they had the face of an ox on the left side: they four also had the face of an eagle.
11 Thus were their faces: and their wings were stretched upward, two wings of every one were joyned one to another, & two covered their bodies.
12 And they went every one straight forward: whither the spirit was to go, they went: they turned not when they went.
13 As for the likenes of y living creatures, their appearance was like burning coals of fire, and like the appearance of lampes: it went up and down among y living creatures, and y fire was bright, and out of y fire went forth lightning.
14 And the living creatures ran and returned as the appearance of a flash of lightning.
15 Now as I beheld the living creatures, behold one wheel on y earth by the living creatures with foure faces.
16 The appearance of the wheels and their work was like to the colour of Beryll: and they four had one likenesse, their appearance, & their work was as if it were a wheel in the middle of a wheel.
17 When they went, they went upon their four sides: and they returned not when they went.
18 As for the rings: they were so high, they were dreadfull: and their rings were full of eyes round about the four.
19 And when the living creatures went, the wheels went by them: and when the living creatures were lifted up from y earth, the wheels were lifted up.
20 Whithersoever y spirit was to go, they went, thither was their spirit to go: and the wheels were lifted up over against them: for the spirit of the living creature was in the wheels.
21 When those went, these went: and when those stood, these stood: & when those were lifted up from the earth, the wheels were lifted up over against them: for the spirit of the living creature was in the wheels.
22 And the likenesse of the firmament upon y heads of y living creature was as the colour of the terrible crystall, stretched forth over their heads above.
23 And under the firmament were their wings straight, y one touching the other: every one had two which covered on this side, and every one had two which covered on that side their bodies.
24 And when they went, I heard their wings like the noise of great waters, as the voyce of y Almighty, y voice of speech, as y noise of an host: when they stood, they let down their wings.
25 And there was a voice from y firmament, y was over their heads: when they stood, & had let down their wings.
26 And above the firmament that was over their heads, was the likenesse of a throne, as the appearance of a Sapphire stone: and upon the likenesse of the throne was the likenesse as the appearance of a man above upon it.
27 And I saw as the colour of amber, as the appearance of fire round about within it, from the appearance of his loyns even upward, & from the appearance of his loyns even downward, I saw as it were the appearance of fire, and it had brightnesse round about.
28 As the appearance of the bow that is in the cloud in the day of raine: so was the appearance of the brightnesse round about. This was the appearance of the likenesse of the glory of the LORD. And

...ch commission.

...ow I fell upon my face, ...d I heard a voice of one that spake.

CHAP. II.

...nd said to me, Son of man, stand ...pon thy feet, & I will speak to thee. ...e the spirit entred into me when he ...spake to me, and set me on my feet, ...at I heard him that spake unto me:

...e said to me, Son of man, I ...send thee to the children of Israel, to a ...ebellious nation that hath rebelled against ...me: they and their fathers have transgressed against me, even unto this day.

...for they are impudent children, ...and hard-hearted: I do send thee unto ...them; and thou shalt say unto them, ...Thus saith the Lord GOD.

...And they, whether they will hearken, ...or whether they will forbear, ...(for they are a rebellious house) yet shall know that there hath been a prophet among them.

...And thou son of man, be not afraid of them, neither be afraid of their words, ...though briers and thorns be with thee, and thou dost dwell among scorpions: be not afraid of their words, ...nor be dismayed at their looks, though they be a rebellious house.

...And thou shalt speak my words to them, whether they will hearken, or whether they will forbear: for they are rebellious.

...But thou son of man, hearken what I say unto thee; Be not thou rebellious like that rebellious house: open thy mouth, and eat that I give thee.

...And when I looked, behold, an hand was sent unto me; and lo, a roule of a book was therein.

...And he spread it before me; and it was written within and without: and there was written therein, lamentations, and mourning, and woe.

CHAP. III.

...Moreover he said to me, Son of man, eat that thou findest; eat this roule, and go speak to the house of Israel.

...So I opened my mouth, and he caused me to eat that roule.

...And he said unto me, Son of man, cause thy belly to eat, and fill thy bowels with this roule that I give thee. Then did I eat it, and it was in my mouth as honey for sweetness.

...And he said unto me, Son of man, go get thee unto the house of Israel, & speak with my words unto them.

...For thou art not sent unto a people of a strange speech and of an hard language, whose words thou canst not understand: surely to them I have sent thee, they would hearken unto thee:

...But the house of Israel will not hearken unto thee; for they will not hearken unto me: for all the house of Israel are impudent and hard-hearted.

...Behold, I have made thy face strong against their faces, and thy forehead strong against their foreheads.

9 As an adamant harder than flint have I made thy forehead: fear them not, neither be dismayed at their looks, though they be a rebellious house.

10 Moreover, he said to me, Son of man, all my words that I shall speak to thee, receive in thine heart, and hear with thine ears.

11 And go, get thee to them of thy captivity, to thy people, and speak to them, and tell them, Thus saith the LORD God; whether they will hear, or whether they will forbear.

12 Then the spirit took me up, and I heard behind me a voice of a great rushing, saying, Blessed be the glory of the LORD from his place.

13 I heard also the noise of the wings of the living creatures that touched one another, & the noise of the wheels out against them, and a noise of a great rushing.

14 So the spirit lifted me up, and took me away, and I went in bitterness, in the heat of my spirit, but the hand of the LORD was strong upon me.

15 Then I came to them of the captivity at Tel-abib, that dwelt by the river of Chebar, and I sate where they sate, and remained there astonished among them seven days.

16 And it came to passe at the end of seven dayes, that the word of the LORD came to me, saying,

17 Son of man, I have made thee a watchman to the house of Israel: therefore hear the word at my mouth, and give them warning from me.

18 When I say to the wicked, Thou shalt surely die; and thou givest him not warning, nor speakest to warne the wicked from his wicked way to save his life, the same wicked man shall die in his iniquity: but his blood will I require at thine hand.

19 Yet if thou warn the wicked, and he turn not from his wickednes, nor from his wicked way, he shal die in his iniquity, but thy hast delivered thy soul.

20 Againe, when a righteous man doth turn from his righteousnesse, & commit iniquity, and I lay a stumbling-blocke before him, he shal die because thou hast not given him warning: he shall die in his sinne, & his righteousnes which he hath done, shall not be remembred; but his blood will I require at thy hand.

21 Nevertheless if thou warne the righteous man, that the righteous sin not, & he doth not sinne, he shall surely live, because he is warned; also thy hast delivered thy soul.

22 And the hand of the LORD was there upon me, and he said unto me, Arise, go forth into the plaine, and I will there talke with thee.

23 Then I arose, & went forth into the plaine, and behold, the glory of the LORD stood there, as the glory which I saw by the river of Chebar: and I fell on my face.

24 Then the spirit entred into me, and set me upon my feet, and spake with me, and said unto me, Go, shut thy selfe within thine house.

25 But

25 But thou, O son of man, behold, they shall put bands upon thee, and shall bind thee with them, and thou shalt not go out among them.

26 And I will make thy tongue cleave to the roof of thy mouth, that thou shalt be dumb, and shalt not be to them a reprover: for they are a rebellious house.

27 But when I speak with thee, I will open thy mouth, & thou shalt say unto them, Thus saith the Lord GOD; He that heareth, let him hear; and he that forbeareth, let him forbear: for they are a rebellious house.

CHAP. IV.

1 Thou also, son of man, take thee a tile, & lay it before thee, & pourtray upon it the city, even Jerusalem:

2 And lay siege against it, & build a fort against it, & cast a mount against it; set the camp also against it, & set battering rammes against it round about.

3 Moreover take thou unto thee an iron pan, & set it for a wall of iron between thee and the city: and set thy face against it, & it shall be besieged, & thou shalt lay siege against it: this shall be a sign to the house of Israel.

4 Lie thou also upon thy left side, and lay the iniquity of the house of Israel upon it: according to the number of the days that thou shalt lie upon it thou shalt bear their iniquity.

5 For I have laid upon thee the years of their iniquity, according to the number of the days, three hundred and ninety days: so shalt thou bear the iniquity of the house of Israel.

6 And when thou hast accomplished them, lie again on thy right side, and thou shalt bear the iniquity of the house of Judah forty days: I have appointed thee each day for a year.

7 Therefore thou shalt set thy face toward the siege of Jerusalem, and thine arm shall be uncovered, and thou shalt prophesy against it.

8 And behold, I will lay bands upon thee, and thou shalt not turn thee from one side to another, till thou hast ended the days of thy siege.

9 Take thou also to thee wheate, and barley, and beans, and lentiles, and millet, and fitches, & put them in one vessel, and make thee bread thereof, according to the number of the days that thou shalt lie upon thy side: three hundred and ninety days shalt thou eat thereof.

10 And thy meat which thou shalt eat, shall be by weight, twenty shekels a day: from time to time shalt thou eat it.

11 Thou shalt drink also water by measure, the sixth part of a hin: from time to time shalt thou drink.

12 And thou shalt eat it as barley cakes, & thou shalt bake it with dung that cometh out of man, in their sight.

13 And the LORD said, Even thus shall the children of Israel eat their defiled bread among the nations, whither I will drive them.

14 Then said I, Ah Lord GOD! behold, my soul hath not been polluted: for from my youth up even till now have I not eaten of that which dieth of itself, or is torn in pieces, neither came abominable flesh into my mouth.

15 Then he said unto me, Lo, I have given thee cow's dung for mans dung, & thou shalt prepare thy bread therewith.

16 Moreover he said unto me, Son of man, behold, I will break the staff of bread in Jerusalem: & they shall eat bread by weight, & with care; and they shall drink water by measure, & with astonishment:

17 That they may want bread & water, & be astonished one with another, and consume away for their iniquity.

CHAP. V.

1 And thou son of man, take thee a sharp knife, take thee a barbers razor, & cause it to pass upon thine head & upon thy beard: then take thee balances to weigh, & divide the hair.

2 Thou shalt burn with fire a third part in the midst of the city, when the days of the siege are fulfilled: then shalt thou take a third part, & smite about it with a knife: and a third part thou shalt scatter in the wind; for I will draw out a sword after them.

3 Thou shalt also take thereof a few in number, & bind them in thy skirts.

4 Then take of them again, & cast them into the midst of the fire, & burn them in the fire: for therein shall a fire come forth into all the house of Israel.

5 Thus saith the Lord GOD; This is Jerusalem: I have set it in the midst of the nations and countries that are round about her.

6 And she hath changed my judgements into wickedness more than the nations, and my statutes more than the countries that are round about her: for they have refused my judgements, and my statutes, they have not walked in them.

7 Therefore thus saith the Lord GOD; Because ye multiplied more than the nations that are round about you, & have not walked in my statutes, neither have kept my judgements, neither have done according to the judgements of the nations that are round about you;

8 Therefore thus saith the Lord GOD; Behold, I, even I am against thee, and will execute judgements in the midst of thee in the sight of the nations.

9 And I will do in thee that which I have not done, & whereunto I will not do the like any more, because of all thine abominations.

10 Therefore the fathers shall eat the sons in the midst of thee, & the sons shall eat their fathers: & I will execute judgements in thee, & the whole remnant of thee will I scatter into all the winds.

11 Wherefore, as I live, saith the Lord GOD; Surely because thou hast defiled my sanctuary with all thy detestable things, & with all thine abominations, therefore will I also diminish thee, neither shall mine eye spare, neither will I have any pity.

12 A third part of thee shall die sword, and with famine shal remained in the middest of and a third part shal fal by the round about thee: and I will a third part into all the winds, draw out a sword after them.

Thus shal mine anger be accomplished, and I will cause my fury to rest upon them, and I will be comforted: they shal know that I the LORD have spoken it in my zeale when I have accomplished my fury in them.
Moreover, I will make the wast & desolate among y nations that are round about thee, in y sight of all y y passe by.
And it shal be a reproche, and a instruction, an admonishment unto nations that are round about thee, when I shal execute iudgements in thee in anger, & in fury, & in furious rebukes: I the LORD have spoken it.
When I shal send upon them the arrowes of famine, which shal be for their destruction, and which I shal send to destroy you, and I will increase the famine upon you, and break your staffe of bread.
So I send upon you famine, and beasts and they shal be reaved from thee, & noysome & blood shal passe though thee, and I wil bring the sword upon thee. I the LORD have spoken it.

CHAP. VI.

And the word of the LORD came
unto me saying,
Sonne of man, set thy face toward the mountains of Israel, and prophesie against them,
And say ye mountains of Israel, Heare
the word of the Lord GOD, Thus saith the Lord GOD to y mountaines, and to y hilles, to the rivers, and to y valleys, Behold I wil bring a sword upon you, and I wil destroy your high places.
And your altars shal be desolate, and your images shal be broken: & I wil cast down some before your idols.
And I wil lay the dead carcasses of the children of Israel before your idols, and I wil scatter your bones round about your Altars.
In all your dwelling places the cities shal be laid wast, and the high places shal be desolate, that your Altars may be laid wast and made desolate, and your idoles may be broken and cease, and your images may be cut down & your works may be abolished.
And the slain shal fal in the midst of you, and ye shal know y I am the Lord Yet will I leave a remnant: that ye may have some that shall escape the sword among the nations, when ye shal be scattered through the countries.
And they that escape of you shal remember me among the nations whither they shal be caried captives, because I am broken with their whorish heart which hath departed from me: & with their eyes which go after their idoles: and they shal loth themselves for the evils which they have committed in all their abominations.
And they shal know that I am the LORD, and that I have not said in vain, I would do this evil unto them.
Thus saith the Lord GOD. Smite with thine hand, and stampe with thy foot, and say, Alas for all the evil abominations of the house of Israel:
for they shal fal by the sword, by the famine, and by the pestilence.
He that is afarre off shal die of the pestilence, and he that is neer, shal fal by the sword, and he that remaineth and is besieged, shal die by the famine:
thus will I accomplish my fury on them.
Then shal ye know that I am the LORD, when their slain men shal be among their idols, round about their Altars, upon every high hil in all the tops of the mountaines, and under ev-very greene tree, and under every thicke oake, the place where they did offer sweet sauour to all their idoles.
So will I stretch out my hand upon them, and make the land desolate, yea more desolate then the wildernesse towards Diblath, in all their habitations:
& they shal know y I am the LORD.

CHAP. VII.

Moreover, the word of the LORD
came unto me saying,
Also thou Sonne of man, thus saith
the Lord God unto the land of Israel, An end, the end is come upon the foure corners of the land.
Now is y end come on thee, & I will send mine anger on thee, & will iudge thee according to thy wayes, & will recompense on thee all thine abominations.
And mine eye shal not spare thee, neit-ther wil I have pitie, but I wil recompense thy wayes on thee, and thine abominations shal be in y midst of thee, & ye shal know that I am the LORD.
Thus saith the Lord GOD, An evil, an only evil, behold it is come.
An end is come, the end is come: it watcheth for thee: behold, it is come.
The morning is come upon thee O ye that dwel in y land: y time is come, the day of trouble is neer, & not the sounding again of the mountaines.
Now wil I shortly powre out my fury upon thee, and accomplish mine anger upon thee, and I wil iudge thee according to thy wayes, and wil recompense thee for all thy abominations.
And mine eye shal not spare neither wil I have pity. I wil recompense thee according to thy wayes, & thy abomi-nations y are in the midst of thee, & ye shal know y I am the Lord y smiteth.
Behold the day, behold, it is come: the morning is gone forth, the rod hath bloomed, pride hath budded.
Violence is risen up to a rod of wickednes: none of them shal remaine, nor of their multitude nor of any of theirs:
neither shal there be wailing for them.
The time is come, the day draweth neere, let not the buyer rejoyce, nor the seller mourne: for wrath is upon all the multitude thereof.

13 For the seller shal not returne to that which is sold, although they were yet alive: for the vision is touching the whole multitude thereof, which shal not returne: neither shal any strengthen himselfe in the iniquity of his life.

14 They have blowen the trumpet, even to make all ready, but none goeth to the battel: for my wrath is upon all the multitude thereof.

15 The sword is without, and the pestilence, and the famine within: he that is in the field shal die with the sword, and he that is in the city, famine, and pestilence shal devoure him.

16 But they that escape of them, shal escape, and shal be on the mountaines like doues of the valleys, all of them mourning, every one for his iniquity.

17 All hands shal be feeble, and all knees shal be weake as water.

18 They shal also gird themselves with sackcloth, and horrour shal cover them: and shame shal be upon all faces, and baldnesse upon all their heads.

19 They shal cast their silver in y streets, & their gold shal be removed: their silver & their gold shal not be able to deliver them in the day of the wrath of y LORD: they shal not satisfie their soules, neither fil their bowels: because it is y stumbling block of their iniquity.

20 As for the beauty of his ornament, he set it in Maiestie: but they made the images of their abominations, and of their detestable things therein: therefore have I set it farre from them.

21 And I will give it into the hands of the strangers for a prey, and to the wicked of the earth for a spoile, and they shal pollute it.

22 My face wil I turne also from them, and they shal pollute my secret place: for the robbers shal enter into it, and defile it.

23 Make a chain: for the land is full of bloody crimes, the city is ful of violence.

24 Wherefore I wil bring the worst of the heathen, and they shal possesse their houses: I wil also make the pompe of the strong to cease, and their holy places shal be defiled.

25 Destruction commeth, and they shal seeke peace, & there shal be none.

26 Mischief shal come upon mischief, and rumour shal be upon rumour, then shal they seeke a vision of the Prophet: but the law shal perish from y Priest, and counsel from y ancients.

27 The king shal mourne, and the Prince shal be clothed with desolation, and the hands of the people of the land shal be troubled: I wil doe unto them after their way, and according to their deserts wil I iudge them: and they shal know that I am the LORD.

CHAP. VIII.

AND it came to passe in y sixt yeere, in y sixt month, in y fifth day of y month as I sate in mine house, & the Elders of Iudah sate before me, that y hand of y Lord GOD fel there on me.

2 Then I beheld, and lo, a likenesse of appearance of fire, from y appearance of his loines even downward, fire: & his loines even upward, as y appearance of brightnesse, as the colour of amber.

3 And he put forth y form of an hand, & tooke me by a locke of mine head, & y spirit lift me up between y earth & y heaven, and brought me in the visions of God to Ierusalem, to y entry of y inner gate, that looketh toward the North; where was y seat of y image of iealousie, which prouoketh to iealousie.

4 And behold, the glory of the God of Israel was there, according to the vision that I saw in the plaine.

5 Then said he unto me, Son of man, lift up thine eyes now the way toward the North: so I lift up mine eyes the way toward the North, and behold Northward at the gate of the altar this image of iealousie in the entrance.

6 He said furthermore unto me, Son of man, seest thou what they do? even the great abominations that the house of Israel committeth here, that I should go far off from my Sanctuary? but turne thee yet againe, and thou shalt see greater abominations.

7 And he brought me to the dore of the court, & when I looked, behold a hole in the wal.

8 Then said he unto me, Son of man, dig now in the wal: and when I had digged in the wal, behold a dore.

9 And he said unto me, Go in, and behold the wicked abominations that they do here.

10 So I went in, and saw, and behold every form of creeping things, and abominable beasts, and all the idols of the house of Israel pourtrayed vpon the wal round about.

11 And there stood before them seventy men of y ancients of the house of Israel, and in the midst of them stood Iaazaniah the son of Shaphan, every man his censer in his hand: and a thick cloud of incense went vp.

12 Then said he unto me, Son of man, hast thou seen what the ancients of the house of Israel doe vnder the darke, every man in the chambers of his imagerie? for they say, The LORD seeth us not, the LORD hath forsaken the earth.

13 He said also to me, Turne thee yet againe, and thou shalt see greater abominations that they doe.

14 Then he brought me to the dore of the gate of the LORDS house which was toward the North: and behold there sate women weeping for Tammuz.

15 Then said he unto me, Hast thou seene this, O Son of man? Turne thee yet again, and thou shalt see greater abominations then these.

16 And he brought me into the inner court of the LORDS house, and behold at the dore of y Temple of the LORD, between the porch and the altar were about five and twenty men, with ward the Temple of y Lord, ne was towards the East, and ud pped y sun towards y East

One like unto me, Hast thou
, O son of man? is it a light
y house of Judah, y they comabominations which they come they have filled the land olence, and have returned to oke to anger: and lo, they put nch to their nose.
erefore will I also deale in furie:
ine eye spare, neither will I have y cry in mine eares with a d voice, yet will I not hear
CHAP. IX.
ered also in mine eares with a d voice saying, Cause them that ve over the city, to draw ery man with his destroypon in his hand.
d behold six men came from the e of the higher gate, w lieth toward rth: and every man a slaughterpon in his hand: & one man among m clothed in linnen, with a ll inkehorne by his side: & they ne in & stood beside y brazen Altar e glory of y God of Israel was ne up from y Cherub, wh stood upon he ere: to the threshold of y house. & he cal the man clothed with linnen, & a ll inkehorne by his side. & the d (LORD) said unto him, Go ough the midst of the city, through midst of Jerusalem, and set a marke upon the foreheads of the men that sigh and ry for all the abominations that done in the midst thereof.
d to the others he said in mine ring, Go ye after him through the y, and smite: let not your eye spare, ther have ye pitie.
ll vtterly slay old and young: both ll and little children, and women:
t ye not neere any man upon om is the marke, and begin at my ctuarie. Then they began at the ancient n which were before y house.
d he said unto them, Defile the use, & fill the courts with the slain: go forth. And they went forth, and w in the city.
d it came to passe while they w them, and I was left: that ll upon my face, and cried, and said, as! O Lord GOD! will thou destroy all remnant of Israel, in thy powring t thy wrath upon Jerusalem?
n he said unto me, The iniquitie of Israel & Judah is great, and the land is full of bloud, and the city full of perversion: for they say, The LORD hath forsaken the earth, and y LORD seeth not.
And for me also mine eye shall not spare, neither will I have pitie: but I will recompence their way on their heads.
And behold the man clothed with linnen, which had the inkehorne by his side, reported the matter, saying, I have done as thou hast commanded me.

CHAP. X.

Then I looked, and behold, in the firmament that was above the head of the Cherubims there appeared over them as it were a Saphir stone, as the appearance of the likenes of a throne.
2 And he spake unto the man clothed with linnen, & said, Go in between y wheeles even under the Cherub, & fill thine hand with coales of fire from between y Cherubims, & skatter them over the citie. And he went in my sight.
3 Now y Cherubims stood on y right side of the house, when y man went in:
& and the cloud filled y inner court.
4 Then y glory of the LORD went up from y Cherub, and stood over y threshold of y house: & y house was filled with y cloud, and the court was full of the brightnesse of the LORDS glory.
5 And y sound of y Cherubims wings was heard even to y vter court, as the voice of y almighty God when he speaks.
6 And it came to passe, y when he had commanded y man clothed with linnen, saying, Take fire from between y wheels, from between the Cherubims, then he went in and stood beside the wheele.
7 And one Cherub stretched forth his hand from betweene the Cherubims unto the fire that was betweene the Cherubims, and took thereof, & put it into the hands of him that was clothed w linnen, who took it & went out.
8 And there appeared in the Cherubims, the forme of a mans hand under their wings.
9 And when I looked, behold, y foure wheels by Cherubims, one wheele by one Cherub, & another wheele by another Cherub, and the appearance of the wheels, was as y colour of a Beril stone.
10 As for their appearances, they foure had one likenesse, as if a wheele had been in the midst of a wheele.
11 When they went, they went upon their foure sides, they turned not as they went but to the place whither the head looked they followed it, they turned not as they went.
12 And their whole body, and their backs, and their hands, & their wings, and y wheels were full of eyes round about, even y wheeles y they foure had.
13 As for the wheels, it was cryed unto them in my hearing, O wheele.
14 And every one had foure faces,
the first face was a face of a Cherub,
& the second face was a face of a man,
& the third the face of a Lyon, and the fourth the face of an Eagle.
15 And the Cherubims were lifted up: this is the living creature that I saw by the river of Chebar.
16 And when the Cherubims went, the wheels went by them: and when the Cherubims lift up their wings, to mount up from the earth, the same wheels also turned not from beside the.
17 When they stood, these stood, and when they were lifted up, these lift up themselves also: for the spins of the living creature was in them. 18 Then the glory of the LORD departed from off the threshold of the house, and stood over the Cherubims. 19 And the Cherubims lifted up their wings, and mounted up from the earth in my sight: when they went out, the wheels also were by them, and every one stood at the door of the east gate of the LORD's house, and the glory of the God of Israel was over them above. 20 This is the living creature that I beheld by the river of Chebar, under the God of Israel; and I knew that they were the Cherubims. 21 Every one had four faces a piece, and every one four wings; and the likeness of the hands of men was under their wings. 22 And the likeness of their faces was the same faces which I saw by the river of Chebar, their appearances and themselves: they went every one straight forward.

CHAP. XI.

Moreover the spirit lift me up, and brought me unto the east gate of the house of the LORD, which looketh eastward: and behold at the door of the gate five and twenty men; among whom I saw Jaazaniah the son of Azur, and Pelatiah the son of Benaiah, princes of the people. 2 Then said he unto me, Son of man, these are the men that devise iniquity, and give wicked counsel in this city: 3 Which say, It is not near; let us build houses: this city is the caldron, and we be the flesh. 4 Therefore prophesy against them, prophesy, O son of man. 5 And the spirit of the LORD fell upon me, and said unto me, Speak; Thus saith the LORD; Thus have ye said, O house of Israel: for I know the things that come into your mind, every one of them. 6 Ye have multiplied your slain in this city, and ye have filled the streets thereof with the slain. 7 Therefore thus saith the Lord GOD; Your slain whom ye have laid in the midst of it, they are the flesh, and this city is the caldron: but I will bring you forth out of the midst of it. 8 Ye have feared the sword; and I will bring a sword upon you, saith the Lord GOD. 9 And I will bring you out of the midst thereof, and deliver you into the hands of strangers, and will execute judgements among you. 10 Ye shall fall by the sword; I will judge you in the border of Israel; and ye shall know that I am the LORD. 11 This city shall not be your caldron, neither shall ye be the flesh in the midst thereof; but I will judge you in the border of Israel. 12 And ye shall know that I am the LORD: for ye have not walked in my statutes, neither executed my judgements, but have done after the manners of the heathen that are round about you. 13 And it came to pass, when I prophesied, that Pelatiah the son of Benaiah died. Then fell I down upon my face, and cried with a loud voice, and said,

14 Again the word of the LORD came unto me, saying, 15 Son of man, thy brethren, even thy brethren, the men of thy kindred, and all the house of Israel wholly, are they unto whom the inhabitants of Jerusalem have said, Get you far from the LORD: unto us is this land given in possession. 16 Therefore say, Thus saith the Lord GOD; Although I have cast them far off among the heathen, and although I have scattered them among the countries, yet will I be to them as a little sanctuary in the countries where they shall come. 17 Therefore say, Thus saith the Lord GOD; I will even gather you from the people, and assemble you out of the countries where ye have been scattered, and I will give you the land of Israel. 18 And they shall come thither, and they shall take away all the stones thereof, and all the abominations thereof from thence. 19 And I will give them one heart, and a new spirit will I put within you; and I will take the stony heart out of their flesh, and will give them a heart of flesh: 20 That they may walk in my statutes, and keep mine ordinances, and do them: and they shall be my people, and I will be their God. 21 But as for them whose heart walketh after the heart of their detestable things and their abominations, I will recompense their way upon their own heads, saith the Lord GOD. 22 Then did the Cherubims lift up their wings, and the wheels by them, and the glory of the God of Israel was over them above. 23 And the glory of the LORD went up from the midst of the city, and stood upon the mountain which is on the east side of the city. 24 Afterwards the Spirit took me up, and brought me in a vision by the Spirit of God into Chaldea to them of the captivity. So the vision that I had seen went up from me. 25 Then I spake unto them of the captivity all the things that the LORD had shewed me.

CHAP. XII.

The word of the LORD also came unto me, saying, 2 Son of man, thou dwellest in the midst of a rebellious house, which have eyes to see, and see not: they have ears to hear, and hear not: for they are a rebellious house. 3 Therefore thou son of man, prepare thee stuff for removing, and remove by day in their sight; and thou shalt remove from thy place to another place in their sight: it may be they will consider, though they be a rebellious house. 4 Then shalt thou bring forth thy stuff by day in their sight, as stuff for removing: and thou shalt go forth at even in their sight, as they that go forth into captivity.

ege thee thorow the wal in ylight shalt thou bear it upon

7 And I did as I was commanded ought forth my stuff by day as stuff ry, and in the even I digged ough the wall with mine hand, & I ought it forth in the twylight, and I ar upon my shoulders in their sight.
8 And in the morning came the word of the LORD unto me, saying, 9 Son of man, hath not the house Israel the rebellious house, said unto thee, What doest thou?
10 Say unto them: Thus saith LORD GOD. This burden concern-the prince in Jerusalem, and all the use of Israel that are among them.
11 Say: I am a like as I have done, so shall it be done unto them.
They shall remove and go into captivity.
12 And the prince that is among them, shall bear upon his shoulder in the light and shall go forth: they shall ore the wall to carry out thereby.
shall cover his face, that he see ground with his eyes.
13 Also will I spread upon him y net, and he shall be taken in my snare: and will bring him to Babylon to the land of the Caldeans: yet shall he not e it, though he shall die there.
14 And will scatter toward every d all that are about him to help him, and all his bands: and I will draw ord after them.
15 Then shall they know that I am the RD, when I shall scatter them among y ions, & disperse them in y countries.
16 But I shall leave a few men of them the sword, from the famine, and pestilence, that they may declare their abominations among the ns whither they come, and they know that I am the LORD.
17 Moreover, the word of the Lord
came unto me, saying, 18 Son of man, eat thy bread with ness, and drink thy water with ling and with carefulness.
19 And say unto the people of the land,
Thus saith the Lord GOD, of them
habiters of Jerusalem and of the land Israel: They shall eat their bread with ness, and drink their water with ror, that her land may from all y fulness thereof, because the violence of them y dwell therein.
20 And the cities y are inhabited shall stroyed, & the land shall be desolate, shall know y I am the LORD.
21 And the word of the LORD came
me, saying,
22 Son of man, what is it that ye use this verb concerning the land of Israel, saying,
The days are prolonged, & every vision eth to nought?
23 Therefore say unto them: Thus saith the Lord GOD: I will make this verb to cease, and they shall no more use it as a proverb in Israel: but say unto them, The dayes are at hand, & y effect of every vision.
24 For there shall be no more any vain vision nor flattering divination within the house of Israel.
25 For I am the LORD: I will speak, and the word that I speak, shall come to pass: it shall not be spoken any more but in your dayes, O ye rebellious house, I will say the word and will perform it, saith the Lord GOD.
26 Again the word of the LORD came to me, saying, 27 Son of man, behold they of the house of Israel say, The vision that he seeth is for many dayes to come: and he prophesieth of y times y are far off.
28 Therefore say unto them, Thus saith the Lord GOD: There shall none of my words be prolonged any more, but the word which I have spoken shall be done, saith the Lord GOD.

CHAP. XIII.

1 And the word of the LORD came
unto me, saying,
2 Son of man, prophesie against y prophets of Israel that prophesie, & say y to them y prophesie out of their own hearts. Hear ye y word of the Lord.
3 Thus saith the Lord GOD. Woe unto the foolish prophets, y follow their own spirit, & have seen nothing.
4 O Israel, thy prophets are like foxes in the desarts.
5 Ye have not gone up into the gaps, neither made up the hedge for the house of Israel, to stand in the battel in the day of the Lord.
6 They have seene vanity, and lying divination saying, The LORD saith: and y LORD hath not sent them: and they have made others to hope, y that they would confirme the word.
7 Have ye not seene a vaine vision, and have ye not spoken a lying di-vination, whereas ye say, the LORD saith it: albeit I have not spoken?
8 Therefore thus saith the Lord
GOD: Because ye have spoken vanity and seene lies, therefore behold, I am against you, saith the Lord GOD.
9 And mine hand shall be upon y Prophets that see vanity, & y divine lies:
they shall not be in y assembly of my people, neither shall they be written in y writing of the house of Israel, neither shall they enter into y land of Israel, &
ye shall know y I am the Lord GOD.
10 Because, even because they have seduced my people saying, Peace: and one built up a wall, and lo, others daubed it with untempered matter.
11 Say unto them that daube it with untempered matter, that it shall fal: there shal be an overflowing showre, and ye, O great hailestones shall fal, & a stormie wind shall rend it.
12 Lo, when the wal is fallen, shal it not be said unto you; Where is the daubing wherwith ye have daubed it?

13 Therefore thus saith the Lord GOD; I will even rend it with a stormy wind in my fury; and there shall be an overflowing shower in mine anger, & great hailstones in my fury to consume it.
14 So will I break down the wall that ye have daubed with untempered mortar, and bring it down to the ground, so that the foundation thereof shall be discovered, & it shall fall, and ye shall be consumed in the midst thereof: and ye shall know that I am the LORD.
15 Thus will I accomplish my wrath upon the wall, and upon them that have daubed it with untempered mortar, and will say unto you, The wall is no more, neither they that daubed it;
16 To wit, the Prophets of Israel, which prophecie concerning Jerusalem, and which see visions of peace for her, & there is no peace, saith y Lord God.
17 Likewise thou son of man, set thy face against the daughters of thy people, which prophecie out of their own heart, and prophecie thou against them,
18 And say, Thus saith y Lord God. Woe unto y women y sow pillowes to all armholes, & make head-kerchiefs on y head of every stature to hunt souls! will ye hunt the souls of my people, & will ye save alive the souls that come to you?
19 And will ye pollute me among my people for handfuls of barly, and for pieces of bread, to slay the souls that should not die, & to save the souls that should not live, by your lying to my people that heare your lies?
20 Wherefore thus saith y Lord GOD; Behold, I am against your pillowes, wherewith ye there hunt y souls, to make them flie, & I will take them from your armes, & will let souls go even the souls y ye hunt to make them flie.
21 Your kerchiefs also will I teare, and deliver my people out of your hand, and they shall be no more in your hand to be hunted: & ye shal know that I am the LORD.
22 Because ye have made y heart of the righteous sad, whom I have not made sad, and strengthened y hands of y wicked, y he should not return from his wicked way, by promising him life.
23 Therefore ye shal see no more vanity, nor divine divinations, for I will deliver my people out of your hand, and ye shal know y I am the LORD.

CHAP. XIII.

1 Then came certaine of the Elders of Israel to me, and sate before me.
2 And the word of the LORD came unto me, saying,
3 Son of man, these men have set up their idols in their heart, and put the stumbling blocke of their iniquitie before their face; should I be enquired at all by them?
4 Therefore speake to them, & say unto them, Thus saith y Lord God; Every man of the house of Israel that setteth up his idols in his heart, and putteth y stumbling block of his iniquity before his face, & commeth to y Prophet, I y LORD will answere him y according to y multitude of his idols.
5 That I may take y house of Israel by their own heart, because they are all estranged from me through their idols.
6 Therefore say to the house of Israel, Thus saith the Lord GOD; Repent, & turn your selves fro your idols, & turn away your faces fro all your abominations.
7 For every one of y house of Israel, or of y stranger y sojourneth in Israel, which separateth himself from me, & setteth up his idols in his heart, & putteth the stumbling block of his iniquitie before his face, & commeth to a Prophet to aske him of me concerning me, I the LORD will answere him by my self.
8 And I will set my face against that man, & will make him a signe & a proverbe, & I will cut him off from the middest of my people, and ye shall know that I am the LORD.
9 And if y Prophet be deceived & speake any thing, I y Lord have deceived that Prophet, & I will stretch out my hand upon him, & will destroy him from y middest of my people Israel.
10 And they shal beare the punishment of their iniquitie: the punishment of the Prophet shall be even as the punishment of him that asketh unto him,
11 That the house of Israel may no more goe astray fro me neither be polluted any more at all with their transgressions, but that they may be my people, & I may be their God, saith the Lord GOD.
12 The word of the LORD came againe to me, saying,
13 Son of man, when the land sinneth against me by trespassing grievously, then will I stretch out my hand upon it, & will break the staffe of the bread thereof, and will send famine on it, & will cut off man and beast from it.
14 Though these three men were in it, Noah, Daniel, and Iob were in it, they should deliver but their owne soules by their righteousnesse, saith the Lord GOD.
15 If I cause noysome beasts to passe through the land, and they spoile it, that it be desolate, that no man may passe through because of the beasts,
16 Though these three men were in it, as I live, saith the Lord God, they shall deliver neither sons nor daughters, they only shall be delivered, but the land shall be desolate.
17 Or if I bring a sword upon that land, & say, Sword go through y land, so that I cut off man and beast from it,
18 Though these three men were in it, as I live, saith the Lord GOD, they shall deliver neither sons nor daughters, but they only shall be delivered themselves.
19 Or if I send a pestilence into that land, & powre out my fury upon it in bloud, to cut off from it man & beast, 20 Though Noah, Daniel, and Iob were in it, as I live, saith y Lord God, they shall deliver neither sonne nor daughter: they shal but deliver their own soules by their righteousnesse.

24 That thou hast also built to thee and caused thee to multiply at the eminentest place, and hast made thee an high place in every street.
25 Thou hast built thy high place at every head of the way, and hast made thy beauty to be abhorred, and hast opened thy feet to every one that passed by, and multiplied thy whoredomes.

26 Thou hast also committed fornication with the Egyptians thy neighbours great of flesh, and hast increased thy whoredomes to provoke me to anger.

27 Behold therefore I have stretched out my hand over thee, and have diminished thy ordinary food, and delivered thee unto the will of them that hate thee, the daughters of the Philistines, which are ashamed of thy lewd way.

28 Thou hast played the whore also with the Assyrians, because thou wast unsatiable; yea, hast played the harlot with them, & yet couldest not be satisfied.

29 Thou hast moreover multiplied thy fornication in the land of Canaan toward Chaldea, & yet wast not satisfied herewith.

30 How weak is thy heart, saith the Lord God, seeing thou doest all these things, the work of an impetuous whorish woman?

31 In that thou buildest thy eminent place in the head of every way, & makest thy high place in every street, & hast not been as an harlot in that thou scornest hire:

32 But as a wife that committeth adultery, which taketh strangers in stead of her husband.

33 They give gifts to all whores, but thou givest thy gifts to all thy lovers, and hirest them that they may come to thee on every side for thy whoredome.

34 And the contrary is in thee from other women in thy whoredomes, whereas none followeth thee to commit whoredomes, and in that thou giest a reward, and no reward is given unto thee, therefore thou art contrary.

35 Wherefore, O harlot, heare the word of the LORD.

36 Thus saith the Lord God: Because thy filthiness was powred out, & thy nakedness discovered through thy whordoms with thy lovers, & with the idols of thy abominations, & by blood of thy children which thou didst give unto them:

37 Behold therefore, I will gather all thy lovers, with whom thou hast taken pleasure, & all them that thou hast loved, with all them that thou hast hated: I will even gather them round about against thee, & will discover thy nakedness unto them, that they may see all thy nakedness.

38 And I will judge thee as women that break wedlock & shed blood are judged, & I will give thee blood in fury & jelousie.

39 And I will also give thee into their hand, & they shall throw down thy eminent place, & shall break down thy high places: they shall strip thee also of thy clothes, and shall take the ornaments and leave thee naked and bare.

40 They shall also bring up a company against thee, and they shall stone thee with stones, & thrust thee thorow with their swords.

41 And they shall burne thine houses with fire, & execute judgements upon thee in the sight of many women: and I will cause thee to cease from playing the harlot, & also shalt give no hire any more.

42 So will I make my fury toward thee to rest, and my jelousie shall depart from thee, and I will be quiet, and will be no more angry.

43 Because thou hast not remembred the time of thy youthhood, but hast fretted me in all these things, lo also I also will recompense the way on thine own head, saith the Lord God, & shalt not commit this lewdness above all thy abominations.

44 Behold every one that useth proverbs shall use this proverb against thee, saying: As is the mother, so is her daughter.

45 Thou are the mothers daughter that loatheth her husband, and her children, and thou are the sister of thy sisters which loathed their husbands and their children: your mother was an Hittite, and your father an Amorite.

46 And the elder sister is Samaria, & her daughters that dwel at the left hand of thee: & your younger sister that dwelleth at right hand is Sodome & her daughters.

47 Yet hast thou not walked in their wayes, nor done after their abominations: but as if that were a very little thing, thou wast corrupted more than they in all thy wayes.

48 As I live, saith the Lord God, Sodome thy sister hath not done, she nor her daughters as thou hast done, & thy daughters.

49 Behold, this was the iniquity of thy sister Sodome, pride, fulnes of bread, & abundance of idlenes was in her & in her daughters, neither did she strengthen the hand of the poore and needy.

50 And they were haughty, & committed abomination before me: therefore I took them away as I saw good.

51 Neither hath Samaria committed half of thy sins, but thou hast multiplied thy abominations more then they, and hast justified thy sisters in all thy abominations which thou hast done.

52 Thou also which hast judged thy sisters, bear thy own shame for thy sins which thou hast committed more abominable then they, they are more righteous then thou: yea, be confounded also thou & bear thy shame, in that thou hast justified thy sisters.

53 When I shall bring again their captivity, the captivity of Sodom & her daughters, & the captivity of Samaria & her daughters, then will I bring again the captivity of thy captives in the midst of them.

54 That thou may bear thy shame, and may be confounded in all that thou hast done, in that thou art a comfort unto them.

55 When thy sister Sodome & her daughters shall return unto their former estate, & Samaria & her daughters shall return to their former estate, then shalt thou & thy daughters return to your former estate.

56 For thy sister Sodom was not mentioned by thy mouth in the day of thy pride, to Jerusalem, & hath taken 5 But if a man be just, & doe that the king thereof, and the Princes thereof, which is lawful and right;

6 And hath not eaten upon the mountaines, neither hath lift up his eyes to y idols of y house of Israel, neither hath defiled his neighbours wife, neither hath come neer to a moneth woman
7 And hath not oppressed any, but hath restored to the debtour his pledge, hath spoyled none by violence, hath given his bread to the hungry, and hath covered the naked with a garment.
8 He that hath not given forth upon usury, neither hath taken any increase, that hath withdrawn his hand from iniquity, hath executed true iudgment betwixt man and man.
9 Hath walked in my statutes, & hath kept my iudgments to deal truly: he is just, he shall surely live, saith y Lord God.
10 If he beget a son that is a robber, a shedder of blood, and that doth the like to any one of these things.
11 And that doth not any of those duties, but even hath eaten on the mountaines, and defiled his neighbours wife,
12 Hath oppressed the poor and needy, hath spoiled by violence, hath not restored y pledge, & hath lift up his eyes to y idols, hath committed abomination.
13 Hath given forth upon usury, & hath taken increase, shall he then live? he shall not live: he hath done all these abominations, he shall surely die, his blood shall be upon him.
14 Now lo, if he beget a son y seeth all his fathers sinnes which he hath done, and considereth, & doth not such like.
15 That hath not eaten upon y mountaines, neither hath lifted up his eyes to the idols of the house of Israel, hath not defiled his neighbours wife,
16 Neither hath oppressed any, hath not withholden the pledge, neither hath spoiled by violence, but hath given his bread to the hungry, and hath covered the naked with a garment:
17 That hath taken off his hand from the poor, that hath not received usury nor increase, hath executed my iudgements, hath walked in my statutes, he shall not die for the iniquity of his father, he shall surely live.
18 As for his father because he cruelly oppressed, & spoiled his brother by violence, and did that which is not good among his people, lo, even he shall die in his iniquity.
19 Yet say ye, Why? doth not the son beare the iniquity of the father? when y son hath done that which is lawfull & right, & hath kept all my statutes, & hath done them, he shall surely live.
20 The soul that sinneth, it shall die: the son shall not beare the iniquity of y father, neither shall y father beare the iniquity of the son, y righteousnes of y righteous shall be on him, and the wickednes of y wicked shall be upon him.
21 But if y wicked will turn from all his sins y he hath committed, & keep all my statutes, and do that which is lawfull & right, he shall surely live, he shall not die.
22 All his transgressions which he hath committed, they shall not be mentioned unto him: in his righteousnes that he hath done, he shall live.
23 Have I any pleasure at all that the wicked should die, saith y Lord God, and not that he should return from his wayes, and live?
24 But when the righteous turneth away fro his righteousnes & committeth iniquity, & doth according to all the abominations that y wicked man doth, shall he live? all his righteousnes that he hath done shall not be mentioned, in his trespasse that he hath trespassed, in his sinne that he hath sinned, in them shall he die.
25 Yet ye say, The way of the Lord is not equall. Heat now, O house of Israel, is not my way equall? are not your wayes unequall?
26 When a righteous man turneth away from his righteousnes & committeth iniquity, & dieth in them, for his iniquity y he hath done, shall he die.
27 Again, when the wicked man turneth away fro his wickednes y he hath committed, & doth that which is lawful & right, he shall save his soul alive.
28 Because he considereth and turneth away from all his transgressions that he hath committed, he shall surely live, he shall not die.
29 Yet saith the house of Israel, The way of the Lord is not equall. O house of Israel, are not my wayes equall? are not your wayes unequall?
30 Therfore I will judge you, O house of Israel, every one according to his wayes, saith y Lord God. Repent, & turn your selves from all your transgressions, so iniquity shall not be your ruine.
31 Cast away from you all your transgressions wherby ye have transgressed, & make you a new heart, & a new spirit: for why will ye die, O house of Israel?
32 For I have no pleasure in y death of him y dieth, saith the Lord God, wherfore turne your selves and live ye.

CHAP. XIX.

MOreover, take thou up a lamentation for the princes of Israel.
2 And say, What is thy mother? a lioness: she lay down among lions, she nourished her whelpes among young beasts.
3 And she brought up one of her whelps: it became a young lion, and learned to catch y prey, it devoured men.
4 The nations also heard of him: he was taken in their pit, & they brought him with chaines unto the land of Egypt.
5 Now when she saw that she had waited, & her hope was lost, then she took another of her whelpes, and made him a young lion.
6 And he went up and down among the lions: for he became a young lion, & learned to catch the prey, and devoured men.
7 And he knew their desolate places, & he layd waste their cities, and the land was desolate, and the fulnes thereof by the noise of his roaring.
8 Then y nations set against him on every side fro y provinces, & spread their net

...ere he was taken in their pit
...ey put him in ward in chains
...ought him to the king of Baby-
...ey brought him into holds that
...ce should no more be heard on
...ountains of Israel.

...Thy mother is like a vine in thy ...planted by the waters, she was
...and full of branches, by reason
...many waters.

...And she had strong rods for y sceptres
...of that bear rule, & her stature
...exalted among the thick branches,
...appeared in her height with the
...ude of her branches.

...But she was plucked up in fury she ...cast down to the ground, and the ...wind dried up her fruit: her ...strong rods were broken & withered,
...fire consumed them.

...And now she is planted in y wil-
...ness in a dry and thirsty ground.

...And fire is gone out of a rod of her ...branches, which devoured her fruit, so
...there is in her no strong rod to be a
...sceptre to rule: this is a lamentation,
...and shall be for a lamentation.

CHAP. XX.

...And it came to pass in the seventh
...year, in the fifth month, the tenth
...day of the month, that certaine of the ...Elders of Israel came to enquire of the ...Lord, & sate before me.

...Then came the word of the Lord
...unto me, saying;

...Son of man, speak unto the Elders
...of Israel, and say to them, Thus saith the ...Lord God, Are ye come to enquire of ...me? As I live, saith the Lord God, I will ...not be enquired of by you.

...Wilt thou judge them, son of man,
...wilt thou judge them? cause them to know
...the abominations of their fathers:

...And say unto them, Thus saith the
...Lord God, In y day when I chose Israel,
...& lifted up my hand to the seed of the ...house of Iacob, and made my self known
...unto them in the land of Egypt, when
...I lifted up my hand to them, saying,
...I am the Lord your God.

...In the day that I lifted up my hand
...unto them, to bring them forth out of the ...land of Egypt, into a land that I had
...espied for them, flowing with milk & ho...ney, which is the glory of all lands.

...Then said I unto them, Cast ye away
...every man y abominations of his eyes,
...& defile not your selves with y idols of ...Egypt: I am the Lord your God.

...But they rebelled against me, and ...would not hearken to me: they did not
...every man cast away the abominations of ...their eyes, neither did they forsake the ...idols of Egypt: then I said, I will
...pour my fury on them to accom...plish my anger against them in the ...midst of the land of Egypt.

...But I wrought for my Names sake,
...that it should not be polluted before the
...heathen, among whom they were, in whose ...sight I made my self known unto them, in ...bringing them out of the land of Egypt.

...Wherefore I caused them to go forth out of the land of Egypt, and brought them into the wildernes.

...And I gave them my Statutes, and shewed them my judgements, which if a man do, he shall even live in them.

...Moreover also I gave them my Sabbaths, to be a signe between me & them, that they might know that I am the Lord that sanctifie them.

...But the house of Israel rebelled against me in y wilderness: they walked not in my Statutes, and they despised my judgements, which if a man do, he shall even live in them: & my Sabbaths they greatly polluted: then I said, I will powre out my fury upon them in the wilderness, to consume them.

...But I wrought for my Names sake,
that it should not be polluted before the heathen, in whose sight I brought them out.

...Yet also I lifted up my hand to them in the wilderness, that I would not bring them into y land which I had given them, flowing with milke and honey, which is the glory of all lands:

...Because they despised my judgements, and walked not in my Statutes, but they polluted my Sabbaths: for their heart went after their idoles.

...Nevertheles, mine eye spared them from destroying them, neither did I make an end of them in the wilderness.

...But I said unto their children in the wilderness, Walke ye not in the Statutes of your fathers, neither observe their judgements, nor defile your selves with their idoles.

...I am the LORD your God; walke in my Statutes, and keep my judgements and do them:

...And hallow my Sabbaths, & they shall be a signe between me & you, that ye may know y I am the Lord your God.

...Notwithstanding, the children rebelled against me: they walked not in my Statutes, neither kept my judgements, to do them, which if a man do, he shall even live in them: they polluted my Sabbaths: then I said, I would powr out my fury on them, to accomplish my anger against them in the wilderness.

...Nevertheles, I withdrew my hand, & wrought for my Names sake, y it should not be polluted in y sight of y heathen, in whose sight I brought them forth.

...I lifted up my hand unto them also in the wilderness, that I would scatter them among the heathen, and disperse them thorow the countreys:

...Because they had not executed my judgements, but had despised my Statutes, and had polluted my Sabbaths, & their eyes were after the fathers idols.

...Wherefore I gave them also Statutes that were not good, and judgements whereby they should not live.

...And I polluted them in their owne gifts in that they caused to passe thorow the fire all that openeth the womb, that I might make them desolate, to y end that they might know y I am the Lord.

...Therefore son of man, speak unto
the

the house of Israel, and say unto them, Thus saith the Lord GOD; Yet in this your fathers have blasphemed me, in that they have committed a trespass against me. 28 For when I had brought them into the land, concerning the which I lifted up mine hand to give it unto them, then they saw every high hill, and all the thick trees, & they offered there their sacrifices, & there they presented the provocation of their offerings, & there they made also their sweet savour, & poured out their drink offerings. 29 Then I said unto them, What is the high place whereunto ye go? And the name thereof is called Bamah unto this day. 30 Wherefore say to the house of Israel, Thus saith the Lord GOD; Are ye polluted after the manner of your fathers, & commit ye whoredom after their abominations? 31 For when ye offer your gifts, & when ye make your sons to pass through the fire, ye pollute yourselves with all your idols, even unto this day: & shall I be enquired of by you, O house of Israel, as I live, saith the Lord GOD, I will not be enquired of by you. 32 And that which cometh into your mind shall not be at all, that ye say, We will be as the heathen, as the families of the countries, to serve wood & stone. 33 As I live, saith the Lord GOD, surely with a mighty hand, & with a stretched out arm, & with fury poured out, will I rule over you. 34 And I will bring you out from the people, & will gather you out of the countries wherein ye are scattered, with a mighty hand, & with a stretched out arm, & with fury poured out. 35 And I will bring you into the wilderness of the people, & there will I plead with you face to face. 36 Like as I pleaded with your fathers in the wilderness of the land of Egypt, so will I plead with you, saith the Lord GOD. 37 And I will cause you to pass under the rod, & I will bring you into the bond of the covenant. 38 And I will purge out from among you the rebels, & them that transgress against me: I will bring them forth out of the land where they sojourn, & they shall not enter into the land of Israel, & ye shall know that I am the LORD. 39 As for you, O house of Israel, thus saith the Lord GOD; Go ye, serve ye every one his idols, & hereafter also, if ye will not hearken unto me; but pollute ye my holy Name no more with your gifts & with your idols. 40 For in mine holy mountain, in the mountain of the height of Israel, saith the Lord GOD, there shall all the house of Israel, all of them, in the land, serve me: there will I accept them, & there will I require your offerings, & the first fruits of your oblations, with all your holy things. 41 I will accept you with your sweet savour, when I bring you out from the peoples, & gather you out of the countries wherein ye have been scattered, & I will be sanctified in you before the heathen. 42 And ye shall know that I am the LORD, when I shall bring you into the land of Israel, into the country concerning the which I lifted up mine hand to give it unto your fathers. 43 And there shall ye remember your ways, & all your doings wherein ye have been defiled, & ye shall loathe yourselves in your own sight, for all your evils that ye have committed. 44 And ye shall know that I am the LORD, when I have wrought with you for my Name's sake, not according to your wicked ways, nor according to your corrupt doings, O ye house of Israel, saith the Lord GOD. 45 Moreover the word of the LORD came unto me, saying, 46 Son of man, set thy face toward the south, & drop thy word toward the south, & prophesy against the forest of the field in the south; 47 & say to the forest of the south, Hear the word of the LORD; Thus saith the Lord GOD; Behold, I will kindle a fire in thee, & it shall devour every green tree in thee, & every dry tree: the flaming flame shall not be quenched, & all faces from the south to the north shall be burned therein. 48 And all flesh shall see that I the LORD have kindled it: it shall not be quenched. 49 Then said I, Ah Lord GOD! they say of me, Doth he not speak parables?

CHAP. XXI.

1 And the word of the LORD came unto me, saying, 2 Son of man, set thy face toward Jerusalem, & drop thy word toward the holy places, & prophesy against the land of Israel; 3 & say to the land of Israel, Thus saith the LORD; Behold, I am against thee, & will draw forth my sword out of its sheath, & will cut off from thee the righteous & the wicked. 4 Seeing then I will cut off from thee the righteous & the wicked, therefore shall my sword go forth, out of his sheath, against all flesh from south to north. 5 That all flesh may know, I the LORD have drawn forth my sword out of its sheath; it shall not return any more. 6 Sigh therefore, thou son of man, with the breaking of thy loins, & with bitterness shalt thou sigh before their eyes. 7 And it shall be when they say unto thee, Wherefore sighest thou? that thou shalt answer, For the tidings; because it cometh, & every heart shall melt, & all hands shall be feeble, & every spirit shall faint, & all knees shall be weak as water: behold, it cometh, & shall be brought to pass, saith the Lord GOD. 8 Again the word of the LORD came unto me, saying, 9 Son of man, prophesy & say, Thus saith the Lord; A sword, a sword is sharpened, & also furbished: 10 it is sharpened to make a slaughter: it is furbished that it may glitter: or shall we make mirth? the rod of my son despiseth every tree. 11 And he hath given it to be furbished, that it may be handled: this sword

...ers, and it is sourbished to
...the hand of the slayer.
...and howle, son of man,
...upon my people, it shall be
...all the Princes of Israel: ex-...tesion of y sword, shall be on
...refore smite thereforeon thy thigh shall it
...Sword it is a tryall, and what if ...not contemne even the rod? it
...no more, saith the Lord GOD.
...Thou therefore, son of man, pro-
...& smite thine hands together,
...sword be doubled y third time,
...word of the slain, it is the sword
...great man that are slain, which
...ter in their privy chambers.
...I set the point of the sword a-
...all their gates, that their heart
...faint, and their ruins be multi-
...Ah, it is made bright, it is wrapt
...to be taken.
...Set thee on, way or other, either ...right hand, or on the left, which-
...soever thy face is set.
...I also will smite mine hands toge-
...and I will cause my fury to rest: I
...LORD have said it.
...The word of the LORD came un-
...me saying,
...Also, son of man, appoint thee two
...ys, y the sword of the king of Ba-
...may come, both twain shall come ...out of one land: & chuse y a place,
...chuse it head of y way to the city:
...appoint a way, that the sword may
...the Rabbath of the Ammonites, & to ...Judah in Jerusalem in the defenced.
...For the king of Babylon stood at ...parting of the way, at the head of
...two ways, to use divination: he
...his arrows bright, he consulted
...images, he looked in the liver.
...In his right hand was the divina-
...for Jerusalem, to appoint captains
...open the mouth in the slaughter, to
...up the voyce with shouting, to ap-
...battering rams against the gates,
...cast a mount, and to build a fort.
...And it shall be to them as a false divi-
...in their sight, to them that have sworn
...but he will call to remembrance
...iniquity, that they may be taken.
...Therefore thus saith y Lord GOD:
...Because ye have made your iniquity to
...remembred, in that your transgres...are discovered, so that in all your ...your sins do appear (because,)
...that ye are come to remembrance,
...shall be taken with the hand.
...And thou prophane wicked prince
...whose day is come, when mi-
...iquity shall have an end.
...Thus saith the Lord GOD. Re...move the diademe, and take off the ...crown: this shall not be the same: exalt
...him that is low, and abase him y is high.
...I will turn it, turn it, turn it, and it ...shall be non, until he come whose right it is, & I will give it him.
...And thou son of man prophesie & say, thus saith y Lord GOD concerning the Ammonites, & concerning their reproach: even say y, The sword, y sword is drawn for y slaughter: it is sourbished to consume, because of the glittering.

19 Whilst they see vanity unto thee, whilst they divine a lie unto thee, to bring thee upon y necks of them y are slain, of the wicked, whose day is come, when their iniquity shall have an end.
20 Shall I cause it to return into his sheath? I will judge thee in y place where y wast created, in y land of thy nativity.
21 And I will powre out mine indignation upon thee, I will blow against thee in the fire of my wrath, and deliver thee into the hand of brutish men, and skilful to destroy.
22 Thou shalt be for fewel to the fire: thy blood shall be in the midst of the land: thou shalt be no more remembred: for I the LORD have spoken it.

CHAP. XXII.

MOreover, the word of the LORD came unto me, saying.
2 Now thou son of man, wilt y judge, wilt thou judge the bloody city? yea, thou shalt shew her all her abominations.
3 Then say thou, Thus saith the Lord God: y city sheddeth blood in y midst of it, y her time may come, & maketh idols against her self, to defile her self.
4 Thou art become guilty in thy blood that y hast shed, & hast defiled thy self in thine idols y thou hast made, and y hast caused thy dayes to draw neer, and art come even unto thy years: therefore have I made thee a reproach to y heathen, and a mocking to all countries.
5 Those that be neer, and those that be far from thee, shall mock thee which art infamous, and much vexed.
6 Loe, y princes of Israel, every one were in thee, to their power to shed blood.
7 In thee have they set light by father and mother: in the midst of thee have they dealt by oppression with the stranger: in thee have they vexed the fatherless and the widow.
8 Thou hast despised mine holy things, & hast prophaned my Sabbaths.
9 In thee are men that carry tales to shed blood; and in thee they eat upon the mountains: in the midst of thee they commit lewdness.
10 In thee have they discovered their fathers nakedness: in thee have they humbled her y was set apart for pollution.
11 And one hath committed abomination with his neighbours wife: and another hath lewdly defiled his daughter in law, and another in thee hath humbled his sister, his fathers daughter.
12 In thee have they taken gifts to shed blood: thou hast taken usury and encrease, & dost oppress greedily gained of thy neighbours by extortion, and hast forgotten me, saith y Lord GOD.
13 Behold therefore, I have smitten mine hand at thy dishonest gain which thou hast made, and at thy blood which hath been in the midst of thee.
14 Can thine heart endure, or can thine hands be strong in the dayes that Israel is drosse. EZEKIEL. Aholah and Aholibah.

I shall deal with thee? I the LORD have spoken it, and will do it.

15 And I will scatter thee among the heathen, & disperse thee in the countries, & will consume thy filthiness out of thee.

16 And thou shalt take thine inheritance in thy self in the sight of the heathen, & thou shalt know that I am the LORD.

17 And the word of the LORD came unto me, saying,

18 Son of man, the house of Israel is to me become drosse: all they are brasse, & tinne, & iron, & lead in the midst of the furnace: they are even the drosse of silver.

19 Therefore thus saith the Lord God; Because ye are all become drosse, behold therefore, I will gather you into the midst of Jerusalem.

20 As they gather silver, and brasse, and iron, and lead, and tinne into the midst of the furnace, to blow the fire upon it, to melt it: so will I gather you in mine anger, and in my fury, and I will leave you there and melt you.

21 Yea, I will gather you, and blow upon you in the fire of my wrath, and ye shall be melted in the midst thereof.

22 As silver is melted in the midst of the furnace, so shall ye be melted in the midst thereof, & ye shall know that I the Lord have powred out my fury upon you.

23 And the word of the LORD came unto me, saying,

24 Son of man, say unto her, Thou art the land that is not cleansed, nor rained upon in the day of indignation.

25 There is a conspiracy of her Prophets in the midst thereof like a roaring lion ravening a prey, they have devoured soules; they have taken the riches & precious things: they have made her many widowes in the midst thereof.

26 Her priests have violated my law, & have prophaned mine holy things: they have put no difference between holy & prophane, neither have they shewed difference between the unclean and the clean, & have hid their eyes from my Sabbaths & I am prophaned among them.

27 Her princes in the midst thereof are like wolves ravening a prey, to shed blood, & to destroy soules, to get filthy gain.

28 And her prophets have daubed them with untempered morter, seeing vanity, & divining lyes to them, saying, thus saith the Lord God: when the LORD hath not spoken.

29 The people of the land have used oppression, & exercised robbery, & have vexed the poor & needy: yea they have oppressed the stranger wrongfully.

30 And I sought for a man among them, that should make up the hedge, & stand in the gap before me for the land, that I should not destroy it, but I found none.

31 Therefore have I powred out mine indignation upon them, I have consumed them with the fire of my wrath: their own way have I recompensed upon their heads, saith the Lord GOD.

CHAP. XXIII.

THE word of the LORD came again unto me, saying,

2 Son of man, there were two women, the daughters of one mother:

3 And they committed whoredoms in Egypt, they committed whoredoms in their youth: there were their breasts pressed, and there they bruised the teats of their virginity.

4 And the names of them were Aholah the elder, and Aholibah her sister: and they were mine, & they bare sons and daughters: thus were their names, Samaria is Aholah, & Jerusalem Aholibah.

5 And Aholah played the harlot when she was mine, and she doted on her lovers, on the Assyrians her neighbours,

6 Which were clouthed with blue, captains and rulers, all of them desirable young men, horsemen, riding upon horses.

7 Thus she committed her whoredoms with them, with all them of the chosen men of Assyria, and with all on whom she doted: with all their idols she defiled her self.

8 Neither left she her whoredoms brought from Egypt: for in her youth they lay with her, and they bruised the breasts of her virginity, and powred their whoredome upon her.

9 Wherefore I have delivered her into the hand of her lovers, into the hand of the Assyrians, upon whom she doted.

10 These discovered her nakedness: they took her sons and her daughters, and slew her with the sword: and she became famous among women, for they had executed judgement on her.

11 And when her sister Aholibah saw this, she was more corrupt in her inordinate love than she, & in her whoredoms more than her sister in whoredoms.

12 She doted upon the Assyrians her neighbours, captains & rulers clouthed most gorgeously, horsemen riding upon horses, all of them desireable young men.

13 Then I saw that she was defiled, that they took both one way,

14 And that she increased her whoredoms: for when she saw men portrayed upon the wall, the images of the Caldeans portrayed with vermilion,

15 Girded with girdles upon their loines, exceeding in dyed attire upon their heads, all of them princes to look to, after the manner of the Babylonians of Caldea, the land of their nativity.

16 And as soon as she saw them with her eyes, she doted upon them, and sent messengers unto them into Caldea.

17 And the Babylonians came to her into the bed of loves, & they defiled her with their whoredome, & she was polluted with them, & her mind was alienated from them.

18 So she discovered her whoredoms, and discovered her nakedness: then my mind was alienated from her, like as my mind was alienated from her sister.

19 Yet she multiplied her whoredoms, in calling to remembrance the dayes of her youth, wherein she had played the harlot in the land of Egypt.

20 For she doted upon her paramours, whose flesh is as the flesh of asses, and whose issue is like the issue of horses.

21 Thus

...hou calledst to remembrance
...ness of thy youth, in bruising
...ts by the Egyptians, for the ...ty youth.

3 Therefore, O Aholibah, thus saith the Lord GOD, Behold, I will raise up thy lovers against thee, from whom thy mind is alienated, and I will bring them against thee on every side,

10 The Babylonians, and all y Caldeans, Shoah, & Koa, and y Assyrians: all of them desirable young men, captains & rulers, great lords, and mighty men all of them riding on horses.

11 And they shall come against thee with chariots, wagons, and wheels, and with a company of people, which shall set against thee buckler, and shield, & sword: and I will set judgment before them, and they shall judge thee according to their judgments.

12 And I will set my jealousie against thee, and they shall deal furiously with thee: they shall take away thy nose, & thine ears, and thy remnant shall fall by y sword: they shall take thy sons & thy daughters, and thy residue shall be devoured by y fire.

13 They shall also strip thee out of thy clothes, and take away thy fair jewels.

14 Thus will I make thy lewdness to cease from thee, and thy whoredome brought from y land of Egypt: so that thou shalt not lift up thine eyes unto them, nor remember Egypt any more.

15 For thus saith the Lord GOD, Behold, I will deliver thee into y hand of them whom thou hatest, into y hand of them from whom thy mind is alienated.

16 And they shall deal with thee hatefully, and shall take away all thy labour, and shall leave thee naked and bare: and the nakedness of thy whoredome shall be discovered, both thy lewdness and thy whoredomes.

17 I will do these things unto thee, because thou hast gone a whoring after the heathen, and because thou art polluted with their idols.

18 Thou hast walked in the way of thy sister, therefore will I give her cup into thine hand.

19 Thus saith the Lord GOD, Thou shalt drink of thy sisters cup deep and large: thou shalt be laughed to scorn and had in derision; it containeth much.

20 Thou shalt be filled with drunkenness and sorrow, with the cup of astonishment and desolation, with the cup of thy sister Samaria.

21 Thou shalt even drink it and suck it out, and thou shalt break the sherds thereof, and pluck off thine own breasts: for I have spoken it, saith the Lord GOD.

22 Therefore thus saith y Lord GOD, Behold, I will raise up thy lovers against thee, from whom thy mind is alienated, and I will bring them against thee on every side,

23 The Babylonians, and all y Caldeans, Shoah, & Koa, and y Assyrians: all of them desirable young men, captains & rulers, great lords, and mighty men all of them riding on horses.

24 And they shall come against thee with chariots, wagons, and wheels, and with a company of people, which shall set against thee buckler, and shield, & sword: and I will set judgment before them, and they shall judge thee according to their judgments, and I will set my jealousie against thee, and they shall deal furiously with thee: they shall take away thy nose, & thine ears, and thy remnant shall fall by y sword: they shall take thy sons & thy daughters, and thy residue shall be devoured by y fire.

25 They shall also strip thee out of thy clothes, and take away thy fair jewels.

26 Thus will I make thy lewdness to cease from thee, and thy whoredome brought from y land of Egypt: so that thou shalt not lift up thine eyes unto them, nor remember Egypt any more.

27 For thus saith the Lord GOD, Behold, I will deliver thee into y hand of them whom thou hatest, into y hand of them from whom thy mind is alienated.

28 And they shall deal with thee hatefully, and shall take away all thy labour, and shall leave thee naked and bare: and the nakedness of thy whoredome shall be discovered, both thy lewdness and thy whoredomes.

29 I will do these things unto thee, because thou hast gone a whoring after the heathen, and because thou art polluted with their idols.

30 Thou hast walked in the way of thy sister, therefore will I give her cup into thine hand.

31 Thus saith the Lord GOD, Thou shalt drink of thy sisters cup deep and large: thou shalt be laughed to scorn and had in derision; it containeth much.

32 Thou shalt be filled with drunkenness and sorrow, with the cup of astonishment and desolation, with the cup of thy sister Samaria.

33 Thou shalt even drink it and suck it out, and thou shalt break the sherds thereof, and pluck off thine own breasts: for I have spoken it, saith the Lord GOD.

34 Therefore thus saith y Lord GOD, Because thou hast forgotten me, & cast me behind thy back, therefore bear y also thy lewdness, and thy whoredomes.

35 The LORD said moreover unto me, Son of man, wilt thou judge Aholah and Aholibah? yea, declare unto them their abominations;

36 That they have committed adultery, & blood is in their hands, and with their idols have they committed adultery, and have also caused their sons whom they bare unto me, to passe for them to devour them.

37 Moreover this they have done unto me: they have defiled my Sanctuary in the same day, and have prophaned my Sabaths.

38 For when they had slain their children to their idols, then they came the same day into my Sanctuary to prophane it: and lo, thus have they done in the midst of mine house.

39 And furthermore, that ye have sent for men to come from far, unto whom a messenger was sent, and lo, they came, for whom thou didst wash thyself, paintedst thine eyes, and deckedst thy self with ornaments;

40 And sattest upon a stately bed, and a table prepared before it, whereupon thou hast set mine incense & mine oil.

41 And a voyce of a multitude being at ease was with her: and with the men of the common sort were brought Sabeans from the wildernesse, which put bracelets upon their hands, and beautiful crowns upon their heads.

42 Then said I unto her y was old in adulteries, Will they now commit whoredomes with her, and she with them?

43 Yet they went in unto her, as they go in unto a woman that playeth the harlot: so went they in unto Aholah, and unto Aholibah the lewd women.

44 And the righteous men, they shall judge them after the maner of adulteresses, and after the maner of women that shed blood, because they are adulteresses, and blood is in their hands.

45 For thus saith y Lord GOD, I will bring up a company upon them, & will give them to be removed and spoiled.

46 And y company shall stone them with stones, & dispatch them with their swords; they shall slay their sons & their daughters, & burn up their houses with fire.

47 Thus will I cause lewdness to cease out of the land, that all women may be taught not to do after your lewdness.

48 And they shall recompense your lewdness upon you, and ye shall bear the sins of your idols, and ye shall know that I am the Lord GOD.

CHAP. XXIV.

1 AGain in the ninth year, in the tenth month, in y tenth day of y month, y word of y Lord came to me, saying,

2 Son of man, write thee the name of the day, even of this same day: the king of Babylon set himself against Ierusalem this same day.

3 And utter a parable unto the rebellious house, and say unto them, Thus saith the Lord GOD, Set on a pot, set it on, and also powre water into it.

4 Gather y pieces thereof into it, even every good piece, the thigh and the shoulder, fill it with the choice bones.

5 Take y choice of y flock, & burn also y bones under it, & make it boil well, and & let him fetch ỹ bones of it therin.

6 Wherfore thus saith ỹ Lord GOD, Wo to the bloody city, to the pot whose scum is therein, and whose scum is not gone out of it: bring it out piece by piece, let no lot fal upon it.
7 For her blood is in ỹ midst of her, she set it upon ỹ top of a rock, she powred it not on ỹ ground to cover it with dust.
8 That it might cause fury to come up to take vengeance: I have set her blood upon the top of a rock, that it should not be covered.
9 Therfore thus saith the Lord GOD, Wo to the bloody city, I will even make the pile for fire great.
10 Heap on wood, kindle the fire, consume the flesh, and spice it well, and let the bones be burnt.
11 Then set it empty upon the coals therof, that the braſſe of it may be hot, and may burn, and that the filthinesse of it may be molten in it, that the scum of it may be consumed.
12 She hath wearied her self with lies: and her great scum went not forth out of her: her scum shal be in the fire.
13 In thy filthinesse is lewdnesse, because I have purged thee, and thou wast not purged: thou shalt not be purged from thy filthinesse any more, til I have caused my fury to rest upon thee.
14 I the LORD have spoken it: it shal come to passe, and I wil do it. I wil not go back, neither wil I spare, neither wil I repent, according to thy waies and according to thy doings shal they judge thee, saith the Lord GOD.
15 Also the word of the LORD came unto me, saying,
16 Son of man, behold, I take away from thee the desire of thine eyes with a stroke: yet neither shalt ỹ mourn nor weep, neither shal thy tears run down.
17 Forbear to cry, make no mourning for the dead, bind the tire of thine head upon thee, and put on thy shoes upon thy feet, and cover not thy lips, and eat not the bread of men.
18 So I spake to ỹ people ỹ morning: & at even my wife dyed, and I did in the morning as I was commanded.
19 And the people said unto me, Wilt thou not tell us what these things are to us, that thou doſt so?
20 Then I answered them, The word of the LORD came unto me, saying,
21 Speak to the house of Israel, Thus saith the Lord GOD: Behold, I wil profane my Sanctuary, ỹ excellency of your strength, the desire of your eyes, & that which your soul pitieth: & your sons & your daughters whom ye have left, shal fal by the sword.
22 And ye shal do as I have done: ye shal not cover your lips, nor eat the bread of men.
23 And your tires shal be upon your heads, and your shoes upon your feet: ye shal not mourn nor weep, but ye shal pine away for your iniquities, and mourn one to another.
24 Thus Ezekiel is to you a sign, according to all that he hath done, ye do: and when this cometh, ye shal know that I am the Lord GOD.
25 Also ỹ son of man, shal it not be in ỹ day when I take from them their strength, the joy of their glory, the desire of their eyes, & ỹ whereupon their minds rest, their sons and their daughters,
26 That he that escapeth in that day shal come unto thee, to cause thee to hear it with thine ears?
27 In ỹ day shal thy mouth be opened to him that is escaped, & thou shalt speak, and be no more dumb: thus shalt be a signe unto them, & they shal know that I am the LORD.

CHAP. XXV.

THE word of the LORD came again unto me, saying,
2 Son of man, set thy face against the Ammonites, & prophesy against them,
3 And say to ỹ Ammonites, Hear the word of ỹ Lord God: Thus saith the Lord GOD, Because ỹ said, Aha, against my Sanctuary, when it was prophaned, & against ỹ land of Israel when it was desolate, and against ỹ house of Judah when they went into captivity,
4 Behold, I wil deliver thee to the men of the East for a possession, and they shal set their palaces in thee, and make their dwellings in thee: they shal eat thy fruits, & they shal drink thy milk.
5 And I wil make Rabbah a stable for camels, and the Ammonites a couching place for flocks: and ye shal know that I am the LORD.
6 For thus saith ỹ Lord God, Because ỹ hast clapped thine hands, & stamped with ỹ feet, & rejoyced in heart with all thy despite against the land of Israel,
7 Behold therefore, I wil stretch out mine hand on thee, & wil deliver thee for a spoil to ỹ heathen, & I wil cut thee off from ỹ people, & wil cause thee to perish out of ỹ countreys: I wil destroy thee, & ỹ shalt know that I am ỹ LORD.
8 Thus saith the Lord GOD, Because that Moab & Seir do say, Behold, the house of Judah is like all the heathen:
9 Therefore behold, I wil open ỹ side of Moab from ỹ cities, from his cities on his frontiers, ỹ glory of ỹ country, Beth-jesimoth, Baal-meon & Kiriathaim,
10 Unto the men of the East with the Ammonites, and wil give them in possession, that the Ammonites may not be remembred among the nations.
11 And I wil execute judgements upon Moab: & they shal know that I am ỹ LORD.
12 Thus saith ỹ Lord GOD, Because Edom hath dealt against ỹ house of Judah by taking vengeance, & hath grievously offended & revenged himself upon them,
13 Therfore thus saith the Lord GOD, I wil also stretch out mine hand upon Edom, & wil cut off man and beast from it: & I wil make it desolate from Teman, & they of Dedan shal fall by the sword.
14 And I wil lay my vengeance upon Edom by the hand of my people Israel: and they shal do in Edom according no more anger, and according to ays, and they shal know my ven-ith the LORD GOD.

Thus saith the Lord God, Because Philistines have dealt by revenge ken vengeance with a despiteful ion destroy it for the old hatred.
Therefore thus saith the LORD
Behold, I will stretch out mine upon the Philistines, and I will of the Cherethims, and destroy the rest of the Sea coast.
And I will execute great vengeance them with furious rebukes, and they shall know y I am y LORD, when lay my vengeance upon them.

CHAP. XXVI.

And it came to passe in the eleventh year in y first day of y moneth, y y word of y LORD came to me, saying, Son of man, because that Tyrus hath said against Ierusalem, Aha, she is broken that was the gates of the people:
she is turned unto me, I shal be replenished now she is laid waste:
Therefore thus saith y Lord GOD, Behold, I am against thee, O Tyrus, & will cause many nations to come up against thee, as causeth his waves to come up.
And they shal destroy the walls of Tyrus, and break down her towers: I also scrape her dust from her, and make her like the top of a rocke.
It shal be a place for the spreading of nets in the midst of the Sea: for I have spoken it, saith the Lord GOD, & it shall become a spoile to the nations.
And her daughters which are in y field shall be slain by the sword, and they shall know that I am the LORD.
For thus saith the Lord GOD, Behold,
I will bring upon Tyrus Nebu-chadrezzar king of Babylon, a king of kings from the North, with horses, and with chariots, and with horsemen, and companies and much people.
He shal slay in the sword thy daughters in the field, & he shal make a fort against thee, and cast a mount against thee, & lift up y buckler against thee.
And he shall set engines of war against thy walles, and with his axes he shall break down thy towers.
By reason of y abundance of his horses their dust shal cover thee, thy walles shal shake at y noise of y horsme-and of y wheels, & of y chariots, when he shall enter into thy gates, as men enter into a city wherin is made a breach.
With the hoofes of his horses shal he tread all thy streets, he shall slay thy people by y sword, and thy strong garrisons shall go down to the ground.
And they shal make a spoile of thy riches, & a prey of thy merchandise: and they shal break down thy walls, and destroy thy pleasant houses: and they shal lay thy stones, and thy timber, and thy dust in y midst of y water.
And I will cause the noise of thy songs to cease, & the sound of thy harps shall be no more heard.

14 And I will make thee like the top of a rocke: thou shalt be a place to spread nets upon: thou shalt be built no more:
for I the LORD have spoken it, saith
the LORD GOD.
15 Thus saith y Lord God to Tyrus, Shal not the iles shake at the sound of thy fall, when the wounded cry, when slaughter is made in y midst of thee?
16 Then all the Princes of the Sea shal come down from their thrones, & lay away their robes, & put off their broi-dered garments: they shal cloth themselves with trembling: they shal sit on the ground, and shal tremble at every moment, and be astonished at thee.
17 And they shal take up a lamentatio for thee, and say to thee, How art y destroyed, y wast inhabited of sea-faring men, the renowned cities, which was strong in the Sea, she & her inhabitants which cause their terror to be on all y haunt ite 18 Now shal the iles tremble in the day of thy fall, yea, the iles y are in y
Sea shall be troubled at thy departure.
19 For thus saith the Lord GOD, when I shall make thee a desolate city,
like the cities that are not inhabited,
when I shal bring up the deep on thee,
and great waters shall cover thee:
20 When I shal bring thee down with them that descend into the pit with the people of old time, and shal set thee in the low parts of the earth, in places desolate of old, with them y go down to the pit, that y be not inhabited, and I shall set glory in the land of y living:
21 I will make thee a terrour, and thou shalt be no more: though thou be sought for, yet shalt thou never be found again, saith the Lord GOD.

CHAP. XXVII.

THe word of the LORD came again
unto me, saying,
2 Now thou Son of man, take up a lamentation for Tyrus;
3 And say to Tyrus, O thou that art situate at the entry of y Sea, which art a merchant of the people for many iles, Thus saith y Lord God, O Tyrus, thou hast said, I am of perfect beauty.
4 Thy borders are in y midst of y seas, thy builders have perfected thy beauty.
5 They have made all thy ship boards of fir-trees of Senir: they have taken cedars fro Lebanon to make mast for thee.
6 Of the oakes of Bashan have they made thine oares: y company of the A-shurites have made thy benches of Ivory, brought out of y iles of Chittim.
7 Fine linnen & broidered work from Egypt was y which y spreadest forth to be thy sayle, blue & purple from y iles of Elishah was y which covered thee.
8 The inhabitants of Zidon & Arvad were thy mariners: thy wise men, O
Tyrus, y were in thee, were thy Pilots.
9 The ancients of Gebal & the wise men thereof were in thee thy calkers. al y ships of Sea & their mariners were in thee, to occupie thy merchandise.
10 They of Persia and of Lud, and of

riches, 27 thine were in thy army, thy men of war, and all thy company which is in the midst of thee, shall fall into the midst of the seas in the day of thy ruine.

28 The suburbs shall shake at the sound of the cry of thy pilots.

29 And all that handle the oare, the mariners, and all the pilots of the sea, shall come down from their ships, they shall stand upon the land;

30 And shall cause their voice to be heard against thee, and shall cry bitterly, & shall cast up dust on their heads, they shall wallow themselves in the ashes:

31 And they shall make themselves utterly bald for thee, and gird them with sackcloth, & they shall weep for thee in bitterness of heart, and bitter mourning.

32 And in their wailing they shall take up a lamentation for thee, & lament over thee, saying, what city is like Tyrus, like y destroyed in the midst of the sea?

33 When thy wares went forth out of the seas, thou filledst many people, thou didst enrich thy kings of y earth, with the multitude of thy riches, & of thy merchandise.

34 In the time when thou shalt be broken by the Seas in y depths of the waters, thy merchandize, and all thy company in the midst of thee shall fall.

35 All the inhabitants of the Isles shall be astonished at thee, and their kings shall be sore afraid, they shall be troubled in their countenance.

36 The merchants among the people shall hisse at thee, thou shalt be a terrour, and never shalt be any more.

CHAP. XXVIII.

THE word of the LORD came again unto me, saying,

2 Son of man, say to the Prince of Tyrus, thus saith y Lord GOD, because thine heart is lifted up, and thou hast said, I am a God, I sit in the seat of God, in the midst of the seas; yet thou art a man and not God, though thou set thine heart as the heart of God:

3 Lo, thou art wiser than Daniel, there is no secret that they can hide from thee:

4 With thy wisedome, and with thine understanding y hast gotten thee riches, and hast gotten gold and silver into thy treasures.

5 By thy great wisedome, & by thy merchandise hast thou increased thy riches, & thine heart is lifted up because of thy riches:

6 Therefore thus saith the LORD GOD, Because thou hast set thine heart as the heart of God;

7 Behold, therefore, I will bring strangers upon thee, the terrible of the nations, and they shall draw their swords against the beauty of thy wisedome, and they shall defile thy brightnesse.

8 They shall bring thee down to the pit, and y shalt die the deaths of them that are slain in the midst of the seas.

9 Wilt thou yet say before him that slayeth thee, I am God? but thou shalt be a man, and no God in the hand of him that slayeth thee.

10 Thou shalt die the deaths of the uncircumcised by y hand of strangers: for I have spoken it, saith the Lord GOD.

11 Moreover, the word of the LORD came unto me, saying,

12 Son of man, take up a lamentation upon the king of Tyrus, and say unto him, Thus saith the Lord GOD, thou sealest up the sum, full of wisdome, and perfect in beauty.

13 Thou

CHAP. XXIX.

IN ỹ tenth yeer in ỹ tenth moneth, in the twelfth day of the moneth, the word of the Lord came to me, saying,
2 Son of man, set thy face against Pharaoh king of Egypt, and prophesie against him, and against all Egypt.
3 Speak & say, Thus saith y Lord GOD, Behold, I am against thee, Pharaoh king of Egypt, the great Dragon that lyeth in ỹ midst of his rivers, which hath said, My river is mine own, and I have made it for my selfe.
4 But I will put hooks in thy iawes, & I will cause ỹ fish of thy rivers to stick to thy scales, & I will bring thee up out of the midst of thy rivers, & all the fish of thy rivers shal stick unto thy scales.
5 And I will leave thee thrown into the wilderness, thee and all the fish of thy rivers: thou shalt fall on the open fields, thou shalt not be brought together, nor gathered: I have given thee for meat to the beasts of the field, and to the fowles of the heaven.
6 And all the inhabitants of Egypt shal know that I am the Lord, because they have been a staffe of reede to the house of Israel.
7 When they took hold of thee by thy hand, thou didst break, and rent all their shoulder: and when they leaned on thee, thou brakest, and madest all their loynes to be at a stand.
8 Therefore thus saith the LORD GOD, Behold, I will bring a sword on thee, & cut off man & beast out of thee.
9 And y land of Egypt shalbe desolate and wast, and they shall know that I am the LORD: because he hath said, The river is mine, and I have made it.
10 Behold therefore, I am against thee, and against thy rivers, and I will make the land of Egypt utterly wast & desolate, from the towet of Syene, even to the border of Ethiopia.
11 No foot of man shall passe through it, nor foot of beast shall passe through it, neither shal it be inhabited forty yeers.
12 And I will make ỹ land of Egypt desolate in ỹ midst of the countries that are desolate, & her cities among cities that are laid wast, shalbe desolate forty yeers: and I will scatter the Egyptians among the nations, and will disperse them through the countreys.
13 Yet thus saith the Lord GOD, At the end of forty yeers will I gather the Egyptians from the people whither they were scattered.
14 And I will bring againe the captiuity of Egypt, and will cause them to returne into the land of Pathros, into the land of their habitations, and they shalbe there a base kingdome.
15 It shalbe ỹ basest of ỹ kingdomes, neither shall it exalt it self any more above ỹ nations: for I will diminish them, ỹ they shal no more rule over ỹ nations.
16 And it shal be no more ỹ confidence of the house of Israel, which bringeth

their Egypts desolation.

their iniquity to remembrance, when they shall look after them: but they shall know that I am the Lord GOD.

17 And it came to passe in the seven & twentyth yeer, in the first moneth, in the first day of the month, the word of the LORD came unto me, saying,

18 Sonne of man, Nebuchad-rezzar king of Babylon caused his army to serve a great service against Tyrus: every head was made bald, and every shoulder was peeled: yet had hee no wages, nor his army for Tyrus, for the service that he had served against it.

19 Therefore thus saith the Lord God: Behold, I will give the land of Egypt unto Nebuchad-rezzar king of Babylon; and he shall take her multitudes, & take her spoile, and take her prey, and it shall be the wages for his army.

20 I have given him the land of Egypt, for his labour wherewith he served against it, because they wrought for me, saith the Lord GOD.

21 In that day will I cause the horn of the house of Israel to bud forth, & I will give the opening of ỹ mouth in the midst of them; and they shall know that I am the LORD.

CHAP. XXX.

THe word of the LORD came again unto me, saying,

2 Son of man, prophesie and say, Thus saith the Lord GOD: Howle ye, woe worth the day.

3 For the day is neer, even the day of the LORD is neer: a cloudy day, it shall be the time of the heathen.

4 And the sword shall come upon Egypt, and great pain shall be in Ethiopia, when the slain shall fall in Egypt, and they shall take away her multitudes, & her foundations shall be broken down.

5 Ethiopia, and Libya, and Lydia, and all the mingled people, and Chub, and the men of the land that is in league, shall fall with them by the sword.

6 Thus saith the LORD, They also that uphold Egypt shall fall; and the pride of her power shall come down: from the tower of Syene shall they fall in it by the sword, saith the Lord God.

7 And they shall be desolate in the midst of the countreys that are desolate, and her cities shall be in the midst of the cities that are wasted.

8 And they shall know that I am the Lord, when I have set a fire in Egypt, & when all her helpers shall be destroyed.

9 In that day shall messengers go forth from me in ships, to make the careless Ethiopians afraid, and great pain shall come upon them, as in the day of Egypt: for lo, it commeth.

10 Thus saith the Lord God, I will also make the multitude of Egypt to cease by the hand of Nebuchad-rezzar king of Babylon.

11 He and his people with him, the terrible of the nations, shall be brought to destroy the land: and they shall draw their swords against Egypt, and fill the land with the slain.

12 And I will make the rivers dry, and sell the land into the hand of the wicked, and I will make the land and all that is therein, by the hand of strangers: I the LORD have spoken it.

13 Thus saith ỹ Lord God, I will also destroy ỹ idols, & I will cause their images to cease out of Noph: & there shall be no more a prince of ỹ land of Egypt: & I will put a fear in ỹ land of Egypt.

14 And I will make Pathros desolate, and will set fire in Zoan, and will execute judgements in No.

15 And I will power my fury upon Sin, the strength of Egypt, and I will cut off the multitude of No.

16 And I will set fire in Egypt: Sin shall have great pain, & No shall be rent asunder, & Noph shall have distresses daily.

17 The young men of Aven and of Pibeseth shall fall by the sword: and these cities shall go into captivity.

18 At Tehaphnehes also the day shall be darkened, when I shall break there the yokes of Egypt: and the pomp of her strength shall cease in her: as for her, a cloud shall cover her, & her daughters shall go into captivity.

19 Thus will I execute judgements in Egypt. & they shall know ỹ I am y LORD.

20 And it came to passe in the eleventh yeer, in the first moneth, in the seventh day of the moneth, that the word of the LORD came unto me, saying,

21 Son of man, I have broken the arm of Pharaoh king of Egypt: and, lo, it shall not be bound up to be healed, to put a roller to bind it, to make it strong to hold the sword.

22 Therefore thus saith the Lord God: Behold, I am against Pharaoh king of Egypt, & will break his arms, ỹ strong, and that which was broken, and I will cause ỹ sword to fall out of his hand.

23 And I will scatter the Egyptians among the nations, and will disperse them through the countreys.

24 And I will strengthen ỹ arms of the king of Babylon, and put my sword in his hand: but I will break Pharaohs arms, and he shall groan before him, with the groanings of a deadly wounded man.

25 But I will strengthen the arms of the king of Babylon, and the arms of Pharaoh shall fall down, and they shall know that I am the LORD, when I shall put my sword into the hand of the king of Babylon, and he shall stretch it out upon the land of Egypt.

26 And I will scatter the Egyptians among the nations, and disperse them among the countreys, and they shall know that I am the LORD.

CHAP. XXXI.

5 AND it came to passe, in the eleventh yeer, in the third moneth, in the first day of the moneth, that the word of the LORD came unto me, saying,

2 Son of man, Speake unto Pharaoh king of Egypt, and to his multitude: Whom art thou like in thy greatness?

3 Lo, the Assyrian was a Cedar in Lebanon with faire branches, & with a shadowing shrowd, & of an high stature, & his top was among the thicke boughes.

4 The waters made him great, & deep set him up on high, with their rivers running about his plants, & sent out their streames to all the trees of the field.
5 Therefore his height was exalted above all the trees of the field, and his boughes were multiplied, & his branches became long, because of the multitude of waters, when he shot forth.
6 All the foules of heaven made their nests in his boughes, & under his branches did all the beasts of the field bring forth their young, and under his shadow dwelt all great nations.
7 Thus was he faire in his greatnesse, in the length of his branches: for his root was by great waters.
8 The Cedars in the garden of God could not hide him: the firre trees were not like his boughes, and the Chestnut trees were not like his branches: nor any tree in the garden of God, was like unto him in his beauty.
9 I have made him faire by y multitude of his branches, so y all y trees of Eden that were in y garden of God, envied him.
10 Therefore thus saith y Lord God: Because thou hast lifted up thy self in height, and he hath shot up his top among the thick boughes, and his heart is proud up in his height;
11 I will therefore deliver it into the hand of the mighty one of the heathen, he shall surely deal w him, I have driven him out for his wickednesse.
12 And strangers, y terrible of y nations have cut him off, & I have left him; upon the mountains, & in all the valleys his branches are fallen, & his boughes are broken by all the rivers of y land: & all the people of the earth are gone down from his shadow, and have left him.
13 Upon his ruine shall all the fouls of heaven remain, and al the beasts of the field shalbe upon his branches.
14 To the end that none of al y trees by the waters exalt themselves for their height, neither shoot up their top among the thicke boughes, neither their trees stand up in their height, all that drink water: for they are all delivered unto death, to the nether parts of the earth, in the midst of the children of men with them that go down to y pit.
15 Thus saith the Lord God: In y day when he went down to y grave, I caused a mourning, I covered the deep for him, and I restrained the floods thereof, & y great waters were stayed, & I caused Lebanon to mourn for him, and all the trees of the field fainted for him.
16 I made the nations to tremble at the noise of his fall, when I cast him down to hell, with them that descend into the pit: and all the trees of Eden, the choise & best of Lebanon, all that drink water, shall be comforted in the nether parts of the earth.
17 They also went down into hell with him, unto them y be slain with y sword, & they y were his arm, y dwelt under his shadow in the midst of y heathen.
18 To whom art thou thus like in glory & in greatnes among the trees of Eden? yet shalt thou be brought down with the trees of Eden unto the nether parts of y earth: y shalt lie in the midst of y uncircumcised, w them y be slain w the sword: this is Pharaoh and all his multitude, saith the Lord GOD.

CHAP. XXXII.

1 And it came to passe in the twelfth yeer, in the twelfth moneth, in the first day of the moneth, that the word of the LORD came unto me, saying,
2 Son of man, take up a lamentation for Pharaoh king of Egypt, & say unto him, thou art like a young lyon of the nations: and thou art as a whale in the seas: and thou camest forth with thy rivers, and troubledst the waters with thy feet, and fouledst their rivers.
3 Thus saith the Lord GOD; I will therefore spread out my net over thee, with a company of many people, and they shal bring thee up in my net.
4 Then will I leave thee upon y land, I will cast thee forth upon y open field, and I will cause all the fouls of the heaven to remain upon thee, and I will fil the beasts of the whole earth with thee.
5 And I will lay thy flesh upon y mountaines, & fil y valleys with thy height.
6 I will also water with thy blood the land wherein thou swimmest, even to the mountains, and the rivers shalbe ful of thee.
7 And when I shal put thee out, I will cover the heaven, & make y stars thereof dark: I will cover the Sun w a cloud, and the Moon shal not give her light.
8 All the bright lights of heaven will I make dark over thee, and set darknes upon thy land, saith the Lord GOD.
9 I will also vexe the hearts of many people, when I shal bring thy destruction among the nations, into the countries which thou hast not known.
10 Yea, I will make many people amazed at thee, & their kings shalbe horribly afraid for thee: when I shal brandish my sword before them, & they shal tremble at every moment; every man for his own life, in the day of thy fall.
11 For thus saith the Lord God, The sword of the king of Babylon shall come upon thee.
12 By the sword of the mighty will I cause thy multitude to fal, the terrible of the nations al of them: & they shal spoile the pomp of Egypt, and all the multitude thereof shalbe destroyed.
13 I will destroy also all y beasts thereof from besides the great waters, neither shal y foot of man trouble them any more, nor the hoofes of beasts trouble them.
14 Then will I make their waters deep, and cause their rivers to run like oil, saith the Lord GOD.
15 When I shal make y land of Egypt desolate, & y countrey shalbe destitute of that wherof it was full, when I shall smite all them that dwell therein. 6 Then shall they know y I am the LORD. 7 This is the lamentation wherewith they shal lament but: the daughters of the nations shal lament her: they shal lament for her, even for Egypt, & for all her multitude, saith the Lord God.

17 It came to pass also in the twelfe yere, in y fifteenth day of the moneth, y word of y Lord came to me, saying. 18 Son of man, wail for y multitude of Egypt, and cast them down, even her, & the daughters of the famous nations, vnto the nether parts of the earth, with them that go down into the pit.

19 Whom dost y pas in beauty? go down & be y laid wt y uncircumcised.

20 They shal fal in y midst of them y are slain by y sword: she is delivered to y sword, draw her & her multitudes.

21 The strong among the mighty shal speak to him out of the midst of hel, with them that help him: they are gone down, they lie uncircumcised, slain by the sword.

22 Assur is there, and al her company: his graves are about him: al of them slain, falling by the sword.

23 Whose graves are set in the sides of the pit, and her company is round about her grave, al of them slain, falling by the sword, which caused terrour in the land of the living.

24 There is Elam & al her multitude round about her grave: al of them slain, fallen by y sword, which are gone down uncircumcised into y nether parts of the earth, which caused their terror in y land of the living, yet have they born their shame with them y go down into the pit.

25 They have set a bed for y midst of the slain, with al her multitudes: her graves are round about him: al of them uncircumcised, slain by y sword: though their terrour was caused in y land of y living, yet have they born their shame with them that go down to the pit: he is put in the midst of them y be slain.

26 There is Mesech, Tubal, & al her multitude: her graves are round about him: al of them uncircumcised, slain by the sword, though they caused their terrour in the land of the living.

27 And they shall not lie with the mighty, that are fallen of the uncircumcised, which are gone down to hell with their weapons of war: and they have laid their swords under their heads, but their iniquities shal be upon their bones, though they were y terrour of the mighty in the land of y living.

28 Yea, thou shalt be broken in the midst of the uncircumcised, & shalt lie with them that are slain with y sword.

29 There is Edom, her kings, & al her princes, which with their might are laid by them that were slain by the sword: they shall lie with the uncircumcised, and with them that go down to y pit.

30 There be the princes of North al of them, and al the Zidonians, which are gone down with the slain, & ther with their fear they are ashamed of their might: & they lie uncircumcised with the sword, & bear their shame with them that go down to the pit.

31 Pharaoh shal see them, and shal be comforted over al his multitude, even Pharaoh and al his army slain by the sword, saith the Lord GOD.

32 For I have caused my terrour in the land of y living: & he shal be laid in the midst of the uncircumcised with them that are slain with y sword, even Pharaoh & his multitude, saith y Lord God.

CHAP. XXXIII.

AGain the word of the LORD came vnto me, saying.

2 Son of man, speak vnto the children of thy people, & say vnto them, when I bring the sword vpon the land, if the people of the land take a man of their coasts, & set him for their watchman:

3 If when he seeth the sword come upon the land, y he blow the trumpet, and warn the people:

4 Then whosoever heareth the sound of the trumpet, & taketh not warning: if the sword come and take him away, his blood shal be upon his own head.

5 He heard the sound of the trumpet, and took not warning: his blood shal be upon him: but he that taketh warning shal deliver his soul.

6 But if the watchman see the sword come, & blow not the trumpet, and the people be not warned, if y sword come & take any person from among them, he is take away in his iniquity: but his blood will I require at y watchmans hand.

7 So thou, O thou of man, I have set thee a watchman vnto the house of Israel: therefore thou shalt hear the word at my mouth, and warn them from me.

8 When I say vnto the wicked, O wicked man, y thou shalt surely die: if thou dost not speak to warn the wicked from his way, y that wicked man shal die in his iniquity: but his blood will I require at thine hand.

9 Nevertheless, if thou warn the wicked of his way, to turn from it: if he do not turn from his way, he shal die in his iniquity: but thou hast delivered thy soul.

10 Therefore, O thou son of man, speak vnto the house of Israel, thus ye speak, saying: If our transgressions & our sins be vpon vs, & we pine away in them, how should we then live?

11 Say vnto them, As I live, saith the Lord GOD, I have no pleasure in the death of the wicked, but that the wicked turn from his way, & live: turn ye, turn ye from your evil ways: for why will ye die, O house of Israel?

12 Therefore thou son of man, say vnto the children of thy people, The righteousness of the righteous shal not deliver him in y day of his transgression: as for the wickedness of the wicked, he shal not fal by it in the day that he turneth from his wickedness: nor righteous be able to live, for oousnes in y day y he sinneth.

ries I shal say to the righteous, shal surely live, if he trust to his gteousnes, & commit iniquity, righteousn. shal not be rememne for his iniquity that he hath nd he shall die for it.
ien, when I say unto y wicked, ou shalt surely die, if he turn frō his d do y which is lawful and right:
y wicked restore the pledge, give at he had robb'd, walke in the es of life without committing inty, he shal surely live, he shal not die.
ne of his sins that he hath com-shall be mentioned unto him: he ne y which is lawful and ht, he shal surely live.
ne children of thy people say, ay of the Lord is not equal: but ir own way is not equall.
n when a righteous man turneth from righteousnesse, and committeth
y, he shal even die therby.
n the wicked turne from his dnesse and do that which is law-right, he shal live thereby.
shal say, The way of the Lord equal: O ye house of Israel: I will ge every one after his ways.
it came to pass in the twelfth of our captivity, in the tenth mothe fifth day of the month that ne that escaped out of Jerusalem, me saying, The city is smitten ne land of the LORD was upon me in the evening, afore he that came, had opened my e, until he came to me in the ning, and my mouth was opened,
I was no more dumb.
Then the word of the LORD came
me saying,
Son of man, they y inhabite those es in the land of Israel, speak say-Abraham was one, and he inherited land: but we are many, the land ven is not for inheritance.
Therefore say to them, Thus saith Lord God, Ye eat with y blood, & ft up your eyes toward your idols, &
ed blood, & shal ye possesse the land?
Ye stand upon your sword, ye abomination, and ye defile every ne your neighbours wife, and shal ye ssesse the land?
So shal thus to them, Thus saith Lord GOD, As I live, surely they at are in the wastes, shall fal by the ord, & him that is in the open field ve I given to the beasts to be devoured for to eat, & they that be in the holds d in the dennes of the pestilence.
For I will lay y land most desolate,
d the pride of their strength shal cease:
the mountaines of Israel shal be des-ate, that none shal passe through.
Then shal they know that I am
LORD, when I have laid the land most desolate, because of all their abo-inations which they have committed.
30 Also thou (son of man) the children of thy people still are talking against thee by the walles, and in the doors of the houses, and speak one to another, every one to his brother, saying, I pray you, and hear what is the word that commeth forth from the LORD.
31 And they come to thee as y people commeth, & they sit before thee as my people, and they hear my words, but they will not do them: for with their mouth they shew much love, but their heart goeth after their covetousnesse.
32 And loe, thou art unto them as a very lovely song of one that hath a pleasant voyce, and can play well on an instrument: for they hear thy words but they do them not.
33 And when this commeth to passe, (Loe it will come) then shal they know that a Prophet hath been among them.

CHAP. XXXIII.

AND the word of the LORD came
unto me, saying,
2 Son of man, prophesie against the shepheards of Israel, prophesie, & say unto them, Thus saith y Lord God to the shepheards, Wo be to y shepheards of Israel y do feed themselves: should not the shepheards feed the flocks?
3 Ye eat the fat, and ye clothe you with the wool, ye kil them that are fed:
but ye feed not the flock.
4 The diseased have ye not strengthened, neither have ye healed y was sick, neither have ye bound up y which was broken, neither have ye brought again that which was driven away, neither have ye sought y which was lost, but with force, and with cruelty have ye ruled them.
5 And they were scattered because there is no shepheard: and they became meat to all the beasts of the field, when they were scattered.
6 My sheep wandred through all the mountaines, and upon every high hil:
yea, my flock was scattered upon all the face of the earth, and none did search or seek after them.
7 Therefore ye shepheards, hear the word of the LORD.
8 As I live, saith the Lord God, Surely because my flock became a prey, & my flock became meat to every beast of y field, because ther was no shepheard, neither did my shepheards search for my flock, but the shepheards fed themselves, and fed not my flocke; 9 Therefore O ye shepheards, heare
the word of the LORD.
10 Thus saith y Lord God, Loe, I am against y shepheards, & I wil require my flock at their hand, & cause them to cease from feeding my flock, neither shal the shepheards feed themselves any more:
for I will deliver my flock from their mouth, y they may not be meat for them.
11 For thus saith the Lord GOD, Behold, I, even I wil both search my sheep, and seek them out.
12 As a shepheard seeketh out his flock in the day that he is among his sheep
that

that are scattered: so will I seek out my sheep, and will deliver them out of all places where they have been scattered in the cloudy, and dark day.

13 And I will bring them out from the people, & gather them from the countries, and will bring them to their own land, and feed them upon the mountaines of Israel by the rivers, and in all the inhabited places of the country.

14 I will feed them in a good pasture, & upon the high mountaines of Israel shall their fold be: there shall they lie in a good fold, & feed in a fat pasture upon the mountaines of Israel.

15 I will feed my flock, & I will cause them to lie down, saith the Lord God.

16 I will seek y which was lost, and bring again that which was driven away, & will bind up y which was broken, & will strengthen that which was sick: but I will destroy the fat, and the strong, I will feed them in judgement.

17 And as for you, O my flock, Thus saith the Lord GOD, Behold, I judge between cattel and cattel, between the rams and the he-goates.

18 Seemeth it a small thing unto you to have eaten up the good pasture, but ye must tread down with your feet the residue of your pastures? and to have drunk of the deep waters, but ye must foul the residue with your feet?

19 And as for my flock, they eat that which yee have trodden with your feet: and they drinke that which yee have fouled with your feet.

20 Therefore thus saith the Lord God to them I, Behold, I will judge between y fat cattel, & between y leane cattel.

21 Because ye have thrust with side and with shoulder, and pushed all the diseased with your hornes, till ye have scattered them abroad:

22 Therefore will I save my flock, & they shall no more be a prey: and I will judge between cattel and cattel.

23 And I will set up one shepherd over them, and he shall feed them, even my servant David: he shall feed them, and he shall be their shepherd.

24 And I the Lord will be their God, and my servant David a Prince among them: I the LORD have spoken it.

25 And I will make with them a covenant of peace, and will cause the evill beasts to cease out of the land: and they shall dwell safely in the wilderness, and sleep in the woods.

26 And I will make them and y places round about my hill a blessing: and I will cause y shower to come down in his season; there shall be showres of blessing.

27 And the tree of the field shall yeeld her fruit, & the earth shall yeeld her increase, & they shall be safe in their land, and shall know that I am the LORD, when I have broken the bands of their yoke, and delivered them out of the hand of those that served themselves of them.

28 And they shall no more be a prey to the heathen, neither shall y beasts of the land devoure them: but they shall dwell safely, & none shall make them afraid.

29 And I will raise up for them a plant of renown, & they shall be no more consumed with hunger in the land, neither bear y shame of the heathen any more.

30 Thus shall they know that I the Lord their God, am with them, and that they, even the house of Israel, are my people, saith the Lord GOD.

31 And yee are the flock of my pasture, men, & I am your God, saith the Lord GOD.

CHAP. XXXV.

MOreover, the word of the LORD came unto me, saying,

2 Son of man, set thy face against mount Seir, and prophecie against it,

3 And say unto it, Thus saith the Lord GOD, Behold, O mount Seir, I am against thee, and I will stretch out mine hand against thee, and I will make thee most desolate.

4 I will lay thy cities waste and thou shalt be desolate, and thou shalt know that I am the LORD.

5 Because thou hast had a perpetuall hatred, and hast shed the blood of the children of Israel, by the force of the sword in the time of their calamity, in the time y their iniquity had an end:

6 Therefore as I live, saith the Lord God, I will prepare thee unto blood, & blood shall pursue thee: sith thou hast not hated blood, even blood shall pursue thee.

7 Thus will I make mount Seir most desolate, & cut off from it him that passeth out, and him that returneth.

8 And I will fill his mountaines with his slain men: in thy hills, & in thy valleys, and in all thy rivers shall they that are slaine with the sword fall.

9 I will make thee perpetuall desolations, and thy cities shall not returne: and they shall know that I am the LORD.

10 Because thou hast said, These two nations, and these two countries shall be mine, and we will possesse it: whereas the Lord was there:

11 Therefore as I live, saith the Lord God, I will even do according to thine anger, & according to thy envie which thou hast used out of thy hatred against them: and I will make my selfe known among them, when I have judged thee.

12 And thou shalt know that I am the Lord, and that I have heard all thy blasphemies which thou hast spoken against the mountaines of Israel, saying, They are laid desolate, they are given us to consume.

13 Thus with your mouth ye have boasted against me, & have multiplied your words against me: I have heard them.

14 Thus saith the Lord GOD, When the whole earth rejoyceth, I will make thee desolate.

15 As thou didst rejoyce at the inheritance of the house of Israel, because it was desolate, so will I do to thee: thou shalt be desolate, O mount Seir, & all Idumea, even all of it, and they shall know that I am the LORD.

CHAP.

CHAP. XXXVI

Also thou son of man, prophecie to the mountains of Israel, & say, Ye mountains of Israel, hear ye the word of the LORD.

2 Thus saith the Lord GOD; Because the enemy hath said against you, Aha, even the ancient high places are ours in possession:

3 Therefore prophecie, and say, Thus saith the Lord GOD; Because they have made you desolate, and swallowed you up on every side, that ye might be a possession unto the residue of the heathen, and ye are taken up in the lips of talkers, and are an infamy of the people:

4 Therefore ye mountains of Israel, hear the word of the Lord GOD; Thus saith the Lord GOD to the mountains, and to the hills, to the rivers, and to the valleys, to the desolate wastes and to the cities that are forsaken, which became a prey and derision to the residue of the heathen that are round about;

5 Therefore thus saith the Lord GOD; Surely in the fire of my jealousie have I spoken against the residue of the heathen, and against all Idumea, which have appointed my land to their possession with the joy of all their heart with despiteful minds to cast it out for a prey.

6 Prophesy therefore concerning the land of Israel, and say unto the mountains, and to the hills, to the rivers, and to the valleys, Thus saith the Lord GOD; Behold, I have spoken in my jealousie and in my fury, because ye have borne the shame of the heathen:

7 Therefore thus saith the Lord GOD; I have lifted up mine hand, Surely the heathen that are about you, they shall bear their shame.

8 But ye, O mountains of Israel, ye shall shoot forth your branches, and yield your fruit to my people of Israel; for they are at hand to come.

9 For behold, I am for you, and I will turn unto you, and ye shall be tilled and sown.

10 And I will multiply men upon you, all the house of Israel, even all of it: and the cities shall be inhabited, and the wastes shall be builded.

11 And I will multiply upon you man and beast; and they shall increase and bring forth fruit: and I will settle you after your old estates, and will do better unto you than at your beginnings: and ye shall know that I am the LORD.

12 Yea, I will cause men to walk upon you, even my people Israel; and they shall possess thee, and thou shalt be their inheritance, and thou shalt no more henceforth bereave them of men.

13 Thus saith the Lord GOD, Because they say unto you, Thou land devourest up men, and hast bereaved thy nations.

14 Therefore thou shalt devour men no more, neither bereave thy nations any more, saith the Lord GOD.

15 Neither will I cause men to hear in thee the shame of the heathen any more, neither shalt thou bear the reproach of the people any more, neither shalt thou cause the nations to fall any more, saith the Lord GOD.

16 Moreover, the word of the LORD came unto me, saying,

17 Son of man, when the house of Israel dwelt in their own land, they defiled it by their own way, and by their doings: their way was before me as the uncleanness of a removed woman.

18 Wherefore I poured my fury upon them, for the blood that they had shed upon the land, and for their idols wherewith they had polluted it:

19 And I scattered them among the heathen, and they were dispersed through the countries: according to their way and according to their doings I judged them.

20 And when they entered unto the heathen, whither they went, they profaned my holy Name, When they said to them, These are the people of the LORD, and are gone forth out of his land.

21 But I had pity for mine holy Name, which the house of Israel had profaned among the heathen whither they went.

22 Therefore say unto the house of Israel, Thus saith the Lord GOD, I do not this for your sakes, O house of Israel, but for mine holy Names sake which ye have profaned among the heathen, whither ye went.

23 And I will sanctifie my great Name which was profaned among the heathen, which ye have profaned in the midst of them: and the heathen shall know that I am the LORD, saith the Lord GOD, when I shall be sanctified in you before their eyes.

24 For I will take you from among the heathen, and gather you out of all countries, and will bring you into your own land.

25 Then will I sprinkle cleane water upon you, and ye shall be cleane: from all your filthinesse, and from all your idols will I cleanse you.

26 A new heart also will I give you, and a new spirit will I put within you, and I will take away the stony heart out of your flesh, and I will give you an heart of flesh.

27 And I will put my Spirit within you, and cause you to walke in my statutes, and ye shall keepe my judgments, and doe them.

28 And ye shall dwell in the land that I gave to your fathers, and ye shall be my people, and I will be your God.

29 I will also save you from all your uncleannesses, & I will call for the corn, and will increase it, and lay no famine upon you.

30 And I will multiply the fruit of the tree, and the increase of the field, that ye shall receive no more reproch of famine among the heathen.

31 Then shall ye remember your own evil wayes, and your doings that were not good, and shall loath your selves in your own sights for your iniquities, and for your abominations.

32 Not for your sakes doe I this, saith the

the Lord GOD, be it known unto you: be ashamed and confounded for your own ways, O house of Israel.

33 Thus saith y Lord GOD, in y day y I shall have cleansed you from all your iniquities I will also cause you to dwell in y cities & y wast shall be builded.

34 And the desolate land shall be tilled, whereas it lay desolate in the sight of all that past by.

35 And they that say, This land that was desolate is become like the garden of Eden, and the waste and desolate and ruined cities, are become fenced, and are inhabited.

36 Then the heathen that are left round about you, shall know that I the LORD build the ruined places, and plant that that was desolate: I the LORD have spoken it, & I will do it.

37 Thus saith the Lord GOD, I will yet for this be enquired of by the house of Israel to do it for them: I will increase them with men like a flocke.

38 As y holy flock as the flock of Jerusalem in her solemne feasts: so shall y waste cities be filled with flocks of men: and they shall know that I am y Lord.

CHAP. XXXVII.

THe hand of y Lord was upon me, and carried me out in the Spirit of the LORD, and set me down in the midst of y valley, & was full of bones.

2 And caused me to passe by them round about: and behold there were very many in y open valley, and lo they were very dry.

3 And he said unto me, Son of man, can these bones live: and I answered, O Lord GOD, thou knowest.

4 Again he said to me, Prophesie of these bones & say unto them, O ye dry bones hear the word of the LORD.

5 Thus saith the Lord GOD unto these bones, Behold, I will cause breath to enter into you and ye shall live.

6 And I will lay sinews on you, & will bring up flesh upon you, & cover you with skin, & put breath in you and ye shall live: and ye shall know y I am y Lord.

7 So I prophesied as I was commanded: and as I prophesied there was a noise, and behold a shaking, and the bones came together, bone to his bone.

8 And when I beheld, lo, the sinews, and the flesh came up upon them, and the skin covered them above, but there was no breath in them.

9 Then said he unto me, I prophesie unto the winde prophesie son of man, and say to the winde, Thus saith the Lord GOD, come from the foure windes, O breath, and breathe upon these slain that they may live.

10 So I prophesied as he commanded me, and the breath came into them and they lived, and stood up upon their feet, an exceeding great army.

11 Then he said unto me, Son of man these bones are the whole house of Israelite, old and ley, Our bones are dryed and our hope is lost, we are cut off for our parts.

12 Therefore prophesie, & say unto them thus saith y Lord God, Behold, O my people, I will open your graves & cause you to come up out of your graves & bring you into the land of Israel.

13 And ye shall know that I am the Lord, when I have opened your graves, O my people, and brought you up out of your graves.

14 And shall put my Spirit in you and ye shall live, and I shall place you in your own land: then shall ye know that I the LORD have spoken it, and performed it saith the LORD.

15 The word of the LORD came again unto me, saying,

16 Moreover y son of man take thee one stick, & write on it: For Iudah & for y children of Israel his companions: then take another stick & write on it, For Ioseph the sticke of Ephraim, and for all y house of Israel his companions.

17 And ioyne them one to another unto one sticke, and they shall be one in thine hand.

18 And when y children of thy people shall speake to thee, saying, Wilt thou not shew us what y meanest by these?

19 Say unto them, Thus saith y Lord GOD, Behold, I will take the Stocke of Ioseph which is in y hand of Ephraim, and y tribes of Israel his fellowes, and will put them with him, even with the sticke of Iudah, and make them one stick, & they shall be one in mine hand.

20 And y sticks whereon thou writest shall be in thine hand before their eyes.

21 And say unto them, Thus saith the Lord GOD, Behold, I will take the children of Israel from among the heathen whither they be gone, and will gather them on every side, and bring them into their own land.

22 And I will make them one nation in the land upon the mountaines of Israel, and one king shall be unto them all: and they shall be no more two nations, neither shall they be divided into two kingdomes any more at all.

23 Neither shall they defile themselves any more with their idols, nor with their detestable things, nor with any of their transgressions: but I will save them out of all their dwelling places, wherein they have sinned, & will cleanse them: so shall they be my people, & I will be their God.

24 And David my servant shall be king over them: and they all shall have one shepherd: they shall also walke in my judgements, and observe my statutes and do them.

25 And they shall dwell in the land that I have given unto Iacob my servant, wherein your fathers have dwelt: and they shall dwell therein even they and their children, and their children's children for ever: and my servant David shall be their prince for ever.

26 Moreover, I will make a covenant of peace with them, it shall be an everlasting covenant with them: and I will place them, and multiply them, place out of the North parts, thou and many people with thee, all of them riding upon horses, a great company, and a mighty armie.

16 And thou shalt come up against my people of Israel as a cloud to cover the land, it shall be in y latter dayes, & I will bring thee against my land, that y heathen may know me when I will be sanctified in thee, O Gog, before their eyes.

17 Thus saith the Lord GOD. Art y not he of whom I have spoken in old time by my servants the Prophets of Israel, which prophesied in those dayes many yeers, that I would bring thee against them?

18 And it shall come to passe at the same time when Gog shall come against the land of Israel, saith the Lord God, that my fury shall come up in my face.

19 For in my jealousie and in the fire of my wrath have I spoken: Surely in that day there shall be a great shaking in the land of Israel,

20 So that the fishes of the Sea, and y foules of the heaven, and y beasts of y field, & all creeping things y creepe upon y earth, and all the men that are on the face of y earth, shall shake at my presence, & y mountaines shall be thrown down, and the steepe places shall fall, and every wal shal fal to the ground.

21 And I will call for a sword against him throughout all my mountaines, saith the Lord God: every mans sword shall be against his brother.

22 And I will plead against him with pestilence, and with blood, and I will raine upon him, and upon his bands, and upon the many people that are with him, an overflowing raine, and great hailstones, fire and brimstone.

23 Thus will I magnifie my self, and sanctifie my self, and I will be known in the eyes of many nations, and they shal know that I am the LORD.

CHAP. XXXIX.

1 Therefore y son of man, prophesie against Gog, & say, Thus saith the Lord God, Behold I am against thee, O Gog, chief prince of Meshech & Tubal:

2 And I will turne thee backe, and leave but the sixt part of thee, and will cause thee to come up from the North parts, and will bring thee upon the mountaines of Israel:

3 And I will smite thy bow out of thy left hand, and will cause thine arrowes to fal out of thy right hand.

4 Thou shalt fal upon y mountaines of Israel, thou and all thy bands, and y people that is with thee: I will give thee unto the ravenous birds of every sort, and to y beasts of y field to be devoured.

5 Thou shalt fal upon y open field: for I have spoken it, saith y Lord God.

6 And I will send a fire on Magog, & among them y dwel carelesly in yles: & they shal know that I am y Lord.

7 So will I make my holy Name known in y midst of my people Israel, & I will not let the pollute my holy Name any

CHAP. XXXVIII.

I am y Lord, the holy One in Israel.
8 Behold, it is come, and it is done, saith the Lord GOD; this is the day whereof I have spoken.
9 And they that dwel in the cities of Israel, shal go forth, and shal set on fire, and burne the weapons, both the shields and the bucklers, the bows and the arrowes, and the hand staves, and the speares, and they shal burne them with fire seven yeeres.
10 So that they shal take no wood out of the field neither cut down any out of the forrests; for they shal burne the weapons with fire: and they shal spoile those that spoiled them, and rob those that robbed them, saith the Lord GOD.
11 And it shal come to passe at y day, y I will give to Gog a place there of graves in Israel, y valley of y Passengers on y East of the Sea: and it shal stop y noses of y passengers, & there shal they bury Gog & all his multitude, & they shal call it, the valley of Hamon-Gog.
12 And seven moneths shal the house of Israel be burying of them, that they may cleanse the land.
13 Yea, all the people of the land shal bury them, and it shal be unto them a renown, the day that I shal be glorified, saith the Lord GOD.
14 And they shal sever out men of continuall imployment, passing through the land, to bury with the passengers those that remaine upon the face of the earth to cleanse it; after the end of seven moneths shal they search.
15 And the passengers that passe through the land, when any seeth a mans bone, then shal he set up a signe by it, till the buriers have buried it in the valley of Hamon-Gog.
16 And also the name of the city shal be Hamonah: thus shal they cleanse the land.
17 And thou, son of man, thus saith the Lord GOD, Speake unto every feathered foule, and to every beast of the field, assemble your selves, & come, gather your selves on every side to my sacrifice that I doe sacrifice for you, even a great sacrifice upon y mountains of Israel, y ye may eat flesh, & drink blood.
18 Ye shal eat y flesh of y mighty, and drink y blood of y Princes of y earth, of rams, of lambs, and of goats, of bullocks, all of them fatlings of Bashan.
19 And ye shal eat fat till ye be full, & drinke blood till ye be drunke, of my sacrifice which I have sacrificed for you.
20 Thus ye shal be filled at my table, with horses & chariots, & mighty men, and with all men of war, saith y Lord GOD.
21 And I will set my glory among the heathen, and all the heathen shal see my judgement that I have executed, and my hand that I have laid upon them.
22 So the house of Israel shal know that I am the LORD their God, from that day and forward.
23 And the heathen shal know that y house of Israel went into captivity for their iniquity; because they trespassed against me, therefore hid I my face from them, & gave them into y hand of their enemies, so fel they all by y sword.
24 According to their uncleanness, & according to their transgressions have I done unto them, and hid my face from them.
25 Therefore thus saith the Lord GOD, Now will I bring again the captivity of Iacob, and have mercy upon the whole house of Israel, and will be jealous for my holy Name.
26 After that they have born their shame, and all their trespasses wherein they have trespassed against me, when they dwelt safely in their land, and none made them afraid.
27 When I have brought them again from y people, and gathered them out of their enemies lands, and am sanctified in them in y sight of many nations.
28 Then shal they know that I am the LORD their God, by which caused them to be led into captivity among the heathen: but I have gathered them unto their own land, and have left none of them any more there.
29 Neither will I hide my face any more from them: for I have powred out my spirit upon the house of Israel, saith the Lord GOD.

CHAP. XL.

IN y five & twentieth yeer of our captivity, in y beginning of y yeere, in y tenth day of y moneth, in y fourteenth yeere after y the city was smitten, in y self same day, the hand of the LORD was upon me, and he brought me thither.
2 In the visions of God brought he me into the land of Israel, and set me upon a very high mountaine, by which was as the frame of a city on y South.
3 And he brought me thither, and behold ther was a man, whose appearance was like the appearance of brasse, with a line of flaxe in his hand, and a measuring reed, and he stood in y gate.
4 And the man said unto me, Son of man, behold with thine eyes, and heare with thine eares, and set thine heart upon all that I shal shew thee: for to the intent that I might shew them unto thee, art y brought hither; declare all that thou seest, to the house of Israel.
5 And behold, a wal on y out side of the house round about and in y mans hand a measuring reede of six cubits long, y y cubit is an handbreadth & an hand breadth: so he measured y breadth of the building, one reede, and the height one reede.
6 Then came he unto the gate which looketh toward the East, and went up y steps thereof, and measured the threshold of the gate, which was one reed broad, and the other threshold of the gate which was one reed broad.
7 And every little chamber was one reed long, and one reed broad, and between the little chambers were five cubits, and the threshold of y gate by y porch of y gate within was one reed.

I lift

he measured also the porch of the reof one reed.
Then measured he y porch of y gate ards, & the posts thereof two cubits d y porch of the gate was inward.
d the little chambers of the alkward were three on this side, ame on that side: they three were e measured the posts had one gers on this side, and on that side.
d he measured the breadth of reof of the gate ten cubits, and breadth of the gate thirteen cubits e measured the gate from roof of one little chamber to the of another: the breadth was five enty cubits, door against door.
e made also posts of three score
, even unto the post of the ard round about the gate.
And from the face of the gate of trance unto the face of the porch
e inner gate, were fifty cubits.
And there were narrow windowes e little chambers, and to their s within the gate round about: and ewise the arches: and windowes ere round about inward: and upon ch were palme trees.
Then brought he me into the ward court, and lo, there were ambers and a pavement made for e court round about: thirty chambers upon the pavement.
And the pavement by the side of gates, over against the length of gates was the lower pavement.
Then he measured y breadth from e before of the lower gate to the ter of y inner court without, an ndred cubits East and North ward.
And the gate of the outward court ked toward the north, he measured length thereof, & y breadth thereof.
And y little chambers thereof were ree on this side, & three on y side, d the arches thereof, and the arches reof were after the measure of the first gate:
length thereof was fifty cubits, & y breadth five and twenty cubits.
And their windowes & their arches, and palm trees, were after y measure of gate y looketh toward y East, and y went up to it by seven steps, & arches thereof were before them.
And the gate of y inner court was ward the East, and he measured gate an hundred cubits.
Then he brought me toward South, and behold a gate toward South: and he measured the posts and the arches thereof accorto these measures.

bites. & y breadth five & twenty cubits.
26 And there were seven steps to goe up to it, and the arches thereof were before them, and it had palme trees, one on this side, and another on that upon the posts thereof.
27 And there was a gate in the inner court toward the South, and he measured from gate to gate toward the South an hundred cubites.
28 And he brought me to y inner court by the South gate, and he measured y
South gate according to these measures, 29 And the little chambers thereof, and the posts thereof, and the arches thereof according to these measures, and there were windowes in it, and in the arches thereof round about: it was fifty cubits long, & five & twenty cubites broad.
30 And the arches round about were five & twenty cubits long, and five cubits broad.
31 And the arches thereof were toward the utter court, and palme trees were upon the posts there of, and the going up to it had eight steps.
32 And he brought me into the inner court toward the East, & he measured the gate according to these measures.
33 And the little chambers thereof, and the posts thereof, and the arches thereof were according to these measures and there were windows therein, & in the arches thereof round about, it was fifty cubites long, and five and twenty cubits broad.
34 And y arches thereof were toward y outward court, & palme trees were on y posts thereof on this side, & on that side, & y going up to it had eight steps 35 And he brought me to the North gate, and measured it according to these measures.
36 The little chambers thereof, the posts thereof, and the arches thereof, & the windows in it round about: the length was fifty cubits, and the breadth five and twenty cubits.
37 And the posts thereof were toward the utter court, and palme trees were on y posts thereof on this side, & on that side, & y going up to it had eight steps 38 And their chambers, and the entries thereof were by the posts of the gates, where they washed the burnt offering.
39 And in the porch of the gate were two tables on this side, and two tables on that side, to slay thereon the burnt offering, and the sin offering,
and the trespasse offering.
40 And at a side without as one goeth up to the entry of y North gate, were two tables, and at the other side which was at y porch of y gate, were two tables.
41 Foure tables were on this side, and foure tables on that side, by the side of the gate eight tables whereupon they slew their sacrifices.
42 And the four tables were of hewen stone for y burnt offering, of a cubit & an half long, & a cubit & an half broad, and one cubit high: whereupon also

43 The building, chambers, they laid the instruments, wherewith they slew y burnt offering & y sacrifice.

43 And within were hookes an hand broad, fastened round about, and upon the tables was the flesh of y offering.

44 And without the inner gate were the chambers of the Singers in y inner court, which was at y side of y North gate; and their prospect was toward y South, one at the side of the East gate, having the prospect toward y North.

45 And he said unto me, This chamber whose prospect is toward the South, is for the Priests, the keepers of the charge of the house.

46 And the chamber whose prospect is toward the North, is for the Priests the keepers of the charge of the Altar: these are the sons of Zadock among the sons of Leui which come neere to the LORD to minister unto him.

47 So he measured the court an hundred cubits long, & an hundred cubits broad, foursquare, and the Altar that was before the house.

48 And he brought me to the porch of the house; and measured each poste of the porch, five cubits on this side, and five cubits on that side: and the breadth of y gate was three cubits on this side and three cubits on that side.

49 The length of the porch was twenty cubits, & y breadth eleven cubits, & he brought me by y steps by w they went up to it, and there were pillars by the postes, one on this side, & another on y side.

CHAP. XLI.

AFterward hee brought me to the Temple, and measured the postes, six cubits broad on the one side, and six cubits broad on the other side, which was y breadth of y Tabernacle.

2 And the breadth of the doore, was ten cubits, and the sides of the doore was five cubits on the one side, and five cubits on the other side: and he measured the length thereof fourtie cubits, and the breadth twenty cubits.

3 Then went he inward, and measured the poste of the doore two cubits, and the doore six cubits, and the breadth of the doore seven cubits.

4 So he measured the length thereof twenty cubits, and the breadth twenty cubits before the Temple: and he said unto me, This is the most holy place.

5 After he measured the wal of the house six cubites, and the breadth of every side-chamber foure cubites round about the house on every side.

6 And y side chambers were three one over another, and thirty in order, and they entred into the wal which was of the house for the side chambers round about, that they might have hold, but they had not hold in y wal of y house.

7 And there was an enlarging & winding about still upward to y side chambers, for y winding about of the house went still upward round about y house: therefore y breadth of y house was still upward, & so increased from y lowest chamber to the highest by y midst.

8 I saw also y height of y house round about; y foundations of the side-chambers were a full reed of six great cubits.

9 The thickenesse of y wal which was for y side-chamber without, was five cubits, and y which was left, was y place of the side-chambers y were within.

10 And betweene the chambers was the wideneſſe of twenty cubits round about the house on every side.

11 And the doores of the side-chambers were toward the place that was left, one doore toward the North, and another doore toward the South: and the breadth of the place that was left, was five cubits round about.

12 Now the building that was before the separate Place, at the end toward the West, was seventy cubits broad, and the wal of the building was five cubits thicke round about, and the length thereof ninety cubits.

13 So he measured the house an hundred cubits long, & the separate place, and the building with the wals thereof, an hundred cubits long.

14 Also the breadth of the face of the house, and of the separate place, toward the East, an hundred cubits.

15 And he measured the length of the building over against y separate place, which was behinde it, and y galleries thereof on the one side and on the other side an hundred cubites, with the inner Temple, & y porches of y court,

16 The doore-posts, and the narrow windowes, and the galleries round about on their three stories over against the doore, filled with wood round about, & from the ground up to y windowes, and the windowes were covered;

17 To that above the doore, even unto the inner house, and without, and by all the wal round about, within and without by measure.

18 And it was made with Cherubims and palme trees. So that a palme tree was between a Cherub and a Cherub, and every Cherub had two faces.

19 So that the face of a man was toward the palme tree on the one side, and the face of a young lyon toward the palme tree on the other side: it was made through all y house round about.

20 From the ground unto above the doore, were Cherubims & palme trees made, and on the wal of the Temple.

21 The posts of y Temple were square, & y face of y Sanctuary appeared as the one as y appearance of y other.

22 The Altar of wood was three cubites high, and the length thereof two cubites, and the corners thereof, and y length thereof, and the wals thereof were of wood: and he said unto me, This is the Table y is before y LORD.

23 And the Temple, and the Sanctuary had two doores.

24 And y doores had two leaves apeece, two turning leaves, two leaves for one door, & two leaves for y other door.

25 And where they were made on them, on that they not goe out of the holy place into the utter court, but there they shall lay their garments, Wherein they minister for they are holy, & shall put on other garments, and shall approach to those things which are for y people.

15 Now when he had made an end of measuring the inner house, he brought me forth toward the gate, whose prospect is to ward the East, and measured it round about.
16 He measured the East side with the measuring reed, five hundred reeds, with the measuring reed round about.
17 He measured the North side, five hundred reeds with a measuring reed round about.
18 He measured y South side, five hundred reeds with the measuring reed.
19 He turned about to the West side, and measured five hundred reeds with the measuring reed.
20 He measured it by the four sides:
it had a wal round about five hundred reeds long, and five hundred broad, to make a separation between the Sanctuary and the prophane place.

CHAP. XLIII.

AFterward he brought me to the gate, even the gate that looketh toward the East.
2 And behold, the glory of the God of Israel came from y way of y east: & his voice was like a noise of many waters, & the earth shined with his glory.
3 And it was according to the app arance of the vision which I saw, even according to the vision that I saw whe
I came to destroy the city: and the visions were like the vision that I saw by river Chebar, & I fell upon my face.
4 And the glory of the LORD came into the house by the way of the gate, whose prospect is toward the east.
5 So the Spirit took me up, & brought me into the inner court, and behold, y glory of the LORD filled the house.
6 And I heard him speaking to me out of the house, & y man stood by me.
7 And he said to me, Son of man, the place of my throne, and the place of y soles of my feet, where I will dwel in y midst of y children of Israel for ever, & my holy Name shall y house of Israel no more defile, neither they, nor their kings by their whoredom nor by y carkases of their kings in their high places.
8 In their setting of their threshold by my thresholds, and their post by my posts and the wal between me, and them; they have even defiled my holy Name by their abominations that they have committed: wherfore I have co-sumed them in mine anger.
9 Now let them put away their whor-dome, and the carkases of their kings from me, and I will dwel in the midst of them for ever.
10 Thou son of man, shew the house to the house of Israel, that they may be ashamed of their iniquities, and let

11 And if they be ashamed of all that they have done, shew them the forme of the house, and the fashion thereof, and the goings out thereof, and the comings in thereof, and all the forms thereof, and all the ordinances thereof, and all the formes thereof, and write it in their sight, that they observe the whole forme thereof, and all the ordinances thereof, & do them.

12 This is the Law of the house: upon the top of the mountaine, y whole limit thereof round about shalbe most holy: behold this is the Law of the house.

13 And these are the measures of the Altar after the cubites, the cubite is a cubite and an hand breadth, even the bottome shalbe a cubite, & the breadth a cubite, & the border thereof by y edge thereof round about, shalbe a span: and this shalbe the higher place of y Altar.

14 And from the bottom upon the ground even to the lower settle shall be two cubits, and the breadth one cubite round from the lesser settle, even to the greater settle shall be foure cubites, and the breadth one cubite.

15 So the Altar shalbe foure cubits, & from the Altar and upward, shalbe foure horns.

16 And the Altar shalbe twelve cubites long, twelve broad, square in the foure squares thereof.

17 And the settle shalbe fourteen cubites long, and fourteen broad in the foure squares thereof, and the border about it shalbe halfe a cubit, & the bottome thereof shalbe a cubite about, and his staires shal looke toward the East.

18 And he said unto me, Son of man, thus saith the Lord God, These are y ordinances of y Altar, in y day when they shall make it, to offer burnt offring thereon, & to sprinkle blood thereon.

19 And thou shalt give to the priests the Levites y be of the seed of Zadok, which approach unto me, to minister unto me, saith the Lord GOD, a bullock for a sinne offering.

20 And thou shalt take of the blood of it, and put it on the foure horns of it, and on the foure corners of the settle, & upon the border round about: thus shalt thou cleanse and purge it.

21 Thou shalt take the bullocke also of the sinne offring, and he shal burn it in the appointed place of the house without the Sanctuary.

22 And on the second day thou shalt offer a kid of the goats without blemish for a sin offering, and they shall cleanse the Altar, as they did cleanse it with the bullocke.

23 When thou hast made an end of cleansing it, thou shalt offer a young bullock without blemish, and a ram of the flock without blemish.

24 And thou shalt offer them before the Lord, and the priests shal cast salt upon them, and they shal offer them up for a burnt offring unto the Lord.

25 Seven dayes shalt thou prepare every day a goat for a sinne offering: they shall also prepare a young bullocke, and a ram out of y flock without blemish.

26 Seven dayes shal they purge the Altar, and purifie it, and they shall consecrate themselves.

27 And when these dayes are expired, it shalbe y on the eight day, & forward, that the priests shal make your burnt offrings on your Altar, & your peace offrings, and I will accept you, saith the Lord GOD.

CHAP. XLIIII.

Then he brought me back y way of y gate of y outward Sanctuary, which looketh toward y East, & it was shut.

2 Then said the Lord unto me, This gate shalbe shut, it shal not be opened, and no man shall enter in by it, because the Lord the God of Israel hath entred in by it, therefore it shalbe shut.

3 It is for the Prince y Prince he is, he may sit in it to eate bread before the Lord, he shal enter by y way of the porch of the gate, & shal go out by y way of it.

4 Then brought he me the way of the North gate before the house, & I looked, and behold, y glory of the Lord filled the house of the Lord, & I fell upon my face.

5 And the Lord said to me, Son of man, marke well, & behold with thine eyes, and heare with thine eares all that I speake unto thee concerning all the ordinances of the house of the Lord, & all the lawes thereof, and marke well the entring in of the house with every going forth of the Sanctuary.

6 And thou shalt say to the rebellious, even to the house of Israel, Thus saith the Lord GOD, O ye house of Israel, let it suffice you of all your abominations,

7 In that ye have brought into my Sanctuary strangers uncircumcised in heart, and uncircumcised in flesh, to be in my Sanctuary to pollute it, even my house, when ye offer my bread, the fat and the blood, & they have broken my covenant, because of all your abominations.

8 And ye have not kept the charge of mine holy things, but ye have set keepers of my charge in my Sanctuary for your selves.

9 Thus saith the Lord God, No stranger uncircumcised in heart, nor uncircumcised in flesh, shall enter into my Sanctuary, of any stranger that is among the children of Israel.

10 And the Levites that are gone away farre from me, when Israel went astray, which went astray away from me after their idols, they shall even bear their iniquity.

11 Yet they shalbe ministers in my Sanctuary, having charge at the gates of y house, and ministring to y house: they shall slay the burnt offring & the sacrifice for the people, & they shall stand before the to minister to them.

12 Because they ministred unto them before their idols, and caused the house of Israel to fall into iniquity, therefore have I lift up mine hand against them, saith the Lord God, & they shall bear their iniquity.

13 And

[illegible] shall not come neer unto the office of a priest to me?
come neer to any of my and the most holy places: but they bear their shame, & their abomi-nations which they have committed.
14 And make them keepers of y house for all y service thereof, whatsoever shall be done therein.
15 But the priests the Levites the sons of Zadok that kept the charge of my sanctuary, when y children of Israel went astray from me, they shall come neer unto me to minister unto me, & they shall stand before me to offer unto me fat and the blood, saith y Lord God.
16 They shall enter into my Sanctuary, they shall come neere to my table to minister unto me, and they shall keep my charge.
17 And it shall come to pass, that when they enter in at the gates of the inner court, they shall be clothed with linnen garments, & no woollen shall come upon them, while they minister in the gates of the inner court, and within.
18 They shall have linnen bonnets upon their heads, and shall have linnen breeches upon their loynes: they shall not gird themselves with any thing that causeth sweat.
19 And when they go forth into vtter court, even into the vtter court to the people, they shall put off their garments wherein they ministred, & lay them in the holy chambers, & they shall put on other garments, & they shall not sanc-tifie the people with their garments.
20 Neither shall they shave their heads, nor suffer their locks to grow long,
they shall only poll their heads.
21 Neither shall any priest drink wine,
when they enter into the inner court.
22 Neither shall they take for their wife a widow, or her that is put away: but they shall take maidens of the seed of the house of Israel, or a widow that had a priest before.
23 And they shall teach my people the difference between the holy and prophane, and cause them to discerne between the unclean and the cleane.
24 And in controversie they shall stand in judgement, and they shall judge it according to my judgements: and they shall keep my lawes and my statutes in all my assemblies, and they shall hallow my Sabbaths.
25 Neither shall come at no dead person, to defile themselves: but for father or mother, or for son or daughter, or for brother, or for sister y hath had no husband, they may defile themselves.
26 And after he is cleansed, they shall reckon unto him seven dayes.
27 And in the day that he goeth into the Sanctuary, to the inner court, to minister in y Sanctuary, he shall offer his offering, saith the Lord GOD.
28 And it shall be to them for an inheritance: I am their inheritance in Israel: you shall give them no possession in Israel: I am their possession.
29 They shall eat the meat offring, & y sin offring, & the trespass offring, & every dedicate thing in Israel shall be theirs.
30 And the first of all the first fruits of all things, and every oblation of all of every sort of your oblations shall be the priests: ye shall also give to y priest the first of your dough, that he may cause the blessing to rest in thy house.
31 The priests shall not eat of any thing that is dead of itself, or torne, whether it be fowl or beast.

CHAP. XLV.

MOreover, when ye shall divide by lot the land for inheritance, yee shall offer an oblation unto the Lord, a holy portion of the land: the length shall be the length of five and twenty thousand reeds, and the breadth shall be ten thousand: this shall be holy in all the borders thereof round about.
2 Of this there shall be for the Sanctuary five hundred in length, with five hundred in breadth, square round about, and fifty cubites round about, for the suburbes thereof.
3 And of this measure shalt thou measure the length of five and twenty thousand, and the breadth of ten thousand: and in it shall be the Sanctuary, and the most holy place.
4 The holy portion of y land shall be for y priests y Ministers of y Sancta-ry, which come neere to minister to the Lord, and it shall be a place for their houses, & an holy place for y Sanctuary.
5 And the five and twenty thousand of length, and the ten thousand of breadth, shall also the Levites the Ministers of y house have for themselves for a possession for twenty chambers.
6 And ye shall appoint the possession of the citie five thousand breadth, & five & twenty thousand long, over against the oblation of the holy portion: it shall be for the whole house of Israel.
7 And a portion shall be for the prince on the one side, & on the other side of the oblation, & the holy portion, and of the possession of the citie, before the oblation of y holy portion: and before y possession of the citie from the West side, Westward, & from y east side, Eastward, and the length shall be over against one of the portions, from the West border unto the East border.
8 In the land shall be his possession in Israel, and my princes shall all no more oppresse my people, and the rest of the land shall they give to y house of Israel, according to their tribes.
9 Thus saith the Lord GOD, let it suffice you, O princes of Israel, remove violence & spoil, & execute judgement and justice, take away your exactions from my people, saith the Lord GOD.
10 Ye shall have just ballances, and a just Ephah, and a just Bath.
11 The Ephah and the Bath shall be of one measure, y the Bath may contain the tenth part of an Homer, & y Ephah

the tenth part of an Homer, the measure thereof shal be after the Homer.
12 And the shekel shall be twenty Gerahs: twenty shekels, five & twenty shekkels, fifteen shekels shall be your Maneh.
13 This is the oblation ye ye shall offer,
the first part of an ephah of an Homer of wheat, and ye shal give the first part of an Ephah of an Homer of barley.
14 Concerning the ordinances of oil, ye Bath of oil, ye shal offer ye tenth part in the new Moones, of a Bath out of ye Cor, (*) is an Homer of 10 Baths: for 10 Baths are an Homer.
15 And one lambe out of the flocke out of two hundred, out of the fat pastures of Israel, for a meat offering, & for a burnt offering, and for peace offerings, to make reconciliation for them saith the Lord GOD.
16 All the people of the land shal give this oblation for the Prince in Israel.
17 And it shall be the Princes part to give burnt offrings, & meat offrings, and drink offrings in the feasts, and in the new Moones, and in the Sabbaths, in all solemnities of the house of Israel: he shal prepare the sin-offering, & ye meat offring, and the burnt offring, and the peace offrings, to make reconciliation for the house of Israel.
18 Thus saith the Lord GOD, In the first month, in the first day of ye month, thou shalt take a young bullock without blemish, & cleanse ye sactuary.
19 And the priest shal take of the blood of the sin offering, and put it upon the posts of the house, and upon the foure corners of the settle of the Altar, and on the posts of the gate of the inner court.
20 And so thou shalt do the seventh day of the month, for every one that erreth, and for him that is simple: so shal ye reconcile the house.
21 In the first month, on the foure-teenth day of the month ye shal have the Passeover, a Feast of seven dayes, unleavened bread shall be eaten.
22 And upon that day shal the prince prepare for himself, & for all ye people of the land, a bullock for a sin offring.
23 And seven dayes of the Feast he shal prepare a burnt offring to ye Lord, seven bullocks, & seven rams without blemish, daily the seven dayes, and a kid of ye goates daily for a sin offring.
24 And he shal prepare a meat offring of an Ephah for a bullock, & an Ephah for a ram, & an Hin of oil for an Ephah.
25 In the seventh moneth, in the fifteenth day of the moneth shall he do the like in the Feast of the seven dayes, according to the sin offring, according to the burnt offering, and according the meat offring, & according to oyle.

CHAP. XLVI.

Thus saith the Lord GOD, The gate of the inner court that looketh toward the East, shall be shut the three working dayes; but on the Sabbath it shall be opened: and in the day of the new Moone it shall be opened.
2 And the prince shal enter by the way of the porch of that gate without, and shall stand by the post of the gate, and the priests shall prepare his burnt of-frings, and his peace offrings, and he shall worship at the threshold of the gate, then he shal go forth, but the gate shall not be shut until the evening.
3 Likewise the people of the land shall worship at the door of the gate before the Lord, in the Sabbaths, and in the new Moones.
4 And the burnt offering that the prince shall offer to the Lord in the Sabbath day, shall be six lambs without blemish, and a ram without blemish.
5 And the meate offring shall be an Ephah for a ram, and the meat offring for the lambs as he shall be able to give,
and an Hin of oil to an Ephah.
6 And in the day of the new Moone he shall offer a young bullocke without blemish, and six lambes and a ram, they shall be without blemish.
7 And he shal prepare a meat offring
an Ephah for a bullock, and an Ephah for a ram, & to the lambs according as his hand shall attaine unto, and an Hin of oil to an Ephah.
8 And when the prince shall enter he shall go in by ye way of ye porch of the gate, & he shall go forth by the way thereof.
9 But when the people of ye land come before ye Lord in ye solemn feasts, he that entreth in by the way of ye north gate to worship, shall go out by ye way of ye South gate: & he that entreth by way of ye South gate, shal go forth by way of ye North gate: he shal not return by ye way of the gate whereby he came in, but shal go forth over against it.
10 And the prince in ye midst of them when they go in, shall go in: and when they go forth shall go forth.
11 And in the feasts, and in the solemnities, ye meat offring shall be an Ephah to a bullock, & an Ephah to a ram, & to the lambes, as he is able to give,
and an Hin of oil to an Ephah.
12 Now when the prince shall prepare a voluntary burnt offering, or peace offrings, voluntarily to the Lord, one shal then open him the gate that looketh toward the East, and he shal prepare his burnt offring, and his peace offrings as he did on the Sabbath day:
then he shal go forth, and after his going forth, one shal shut the gate.
13 Thou shalt daily prepare a burnt offring unto the Lord of a lamb of the first yeer without blemish, thou shalt prepare it every morning.
14 And thou shalt prepare a meat offring for him every morning, the sixt part of an Ephah, and the third Part of an Hin of oil, to temper with the fine flour a meat offring continually, by a perpetual ordinance unto the LORD.
15 Thus shal they prepare the lamb, & the meat offring, and the oil every morning for a continual burnt offring.
16 Thus saith the Lord God, if the prince give a gift to any of his sons,

...ances for the people.

...ance thereof shall be his sons, it
...shall be their possession.
...whether possession by inheritance.
...But he give a gift of his inheri...tance to one of his servants, then it ...shall be to the year of liberty: after ...which it to the prince, but his in...heritance shall be his sons for them.
...Moreover the prince shall not take of ...the people's inheritance by oppression, to ...thrust them out of their possession: but he ...shall give his sons inheritance out of ...his own possession, that my people be not ...scattered every man from his possession.
...Afterward he brought me through the ...entry, which was at the side of the gate, into
...the holy chambers of the priests, which ...looked toward the North: and behold, there
...was a place on the two sides Westward.
...And he said unto me, This is the place
...where the priests shall boil the trespass
...offering, and the sin offering, where
...they shall bake the meat offering; that
...they bear them not out into the outer
...court, to sanctifie the people.
...Then he brought me forth into the ...outer court, and caused me to pass by
...the four corners of the court; and be-
...hold, in every corner of the court there ...was a court.
...In the four corners of the court
...there were courts joined of forty cubits
...long, and thirty broad: these four cor...ners were of one measure.
...And there was a new building
...round about in them, round about the
...four: and it was made with boyling
...places under the rows round about.
...Then said he unto me, These are ...the places of them that boyl, where
...the ministers of the house shall boyle
...the sacrifice of the people.

CHAP. XLVII.

...Afterward he brought me again un-
...to the door of the house, & behold,
...waters issued out from under the thres...hold of the house eastward: for the ...forefront of the house stood toward
...the East, and the waters came down
...from under from the right side of the ...house, at the South side of the Altar.
...Then brought he me out of the way
...of the gate Northward, and led me about ...the way without to the utter gate by
...the way looketh Eastward, & behold,
...there ran out waters on the right side.
...And when the man that had the ...line in his hand went forth Eastward,
...he measured a thousand cubites, and
...he brought me through the waters,
...the waters were to the ankles.
...Again he measured a thousand, and ...brought me through the waters, y wa...ters were to the knees: again he mea...sured a thousand, and brought me thro-
...the waters were to the loyns.
...Afterward he measured a thousand,
...and it was a river, that I could not pass
...over: for the waters were risen, waters
...to swim in, a river that could not be ...passed over.
...And he said unto me, Son of man,
...hast thou seen this? Then he brought ...me, and caused me to return to the ...brink of the river.
...Now when I had returned, behold,
...at the bank of the river were very ma...ny trees on the one side & on y other.
...Then said he to me, These waters
...issue out toward the country, and go ...down into the desart, and go into the ...sea: which being brought forth into the ...sea, the waters shall be healed.
...And it shall come to passe, that ev-
...ry thing that liveth, which moveth
...whithersoever the rivers shall come,
...shall live, and there shall be a very great
...multitude of fish, because these waters
...shall come thither: for they shall be hea-
...led, and every thing shall live whither
...the river cometh.
...And it shall come to passe, that the
...fishers shall stand upon it: from Engedi
...even to Eneglaim, they shall be a place
...to spread forth nets, their fish shall be
...according to their kinds, as the fish of ...the great Sea, exceeding many.
...But the myre places thereof, and ...the marish places thereof shall not be hea-
...led, they shall be given to salt.
...And by the river upon the bank
...thereof on this side, and on y side, shall
...grow all trees for meat, whose leaf shall
...not fade, neither shall the fruit thereof
...be consumed: it shall bring forth new ...fruit according to his moneths, because ...their waters they issued out of y Sanc...tuary, and the fruit thereof shall be for ...meat, and the leaf thereof for medicine.
...Thus saith y Lord God, This shall ...be y border whereby ye shall inherit the ...land, according to the twelve tribes of ...Israel: Joseph shall have two portions.
...And ye shall inherit it, one as well as ...another: concerning the which I lifted up
...my hand to give it to your fathers. & ...
...this land shall fall to you for inheritance.
...And this shall be the border of the ...land toward the North side from the ...great Sea, the way of Hethlon, as men
...go to Zedad.
...Hamath, Berothah, Sibraim, which ...is between the border of Damascus, & ...
...the border of Hamath: Hazar Hatti-
...con, which is by the coast of Hauran.
...And the border from the Sea shall be
...Hazar-enan, the border of Damascus, ...
...& the North Northward, & the border
...of Hamath: and this is the North side.
...And the East side ye shall measure
...from Hauran, and from Damascus, and
...from Gilead, and from the land of Is...rael by Jordan, from the border unto
...the East sea: and this is the East side.
...And the South side Southward from
...Tamar, even to the waters of strife in ...Kedesh, the river to the great Sea: and
...this is the South side Southward.
...The West side also shall be y great
...Sea from the border, till a man come a...gainst Hamath: this is y West side.
...So shall ye divide this land unto
...you according to the tribes of Israel.
...And it shall come to passe, that ye
...shall divide it by lot for an inheritance
...unto unto you, and to the strangers that sojourn among you, and which shall beget children among you: and they shall be to you as born in the country among the children of Israel: they shall have inherit-with you among the tribes of Israel.

23 And it shall come to pass, that in what tribe the stranger sojourneth, there shall ye give him his inheritance,
saith the Lord GOD.

CHAP. XLVIII.

NOw these are the names of the tribes, from the North end to the coast of the way of Hethlon, as one goeth to Hamath, Hazar-enan the border of Damascus Northward, to the coast of Hamath; for these are his sides East & West; a portion for Dan.
2 And by the border of Dan, from the East side unto the West, a portion for Asher.
3 And by the border of Asher, from the East side even unto the West side, a portion for Naphtali.
4 And by the border of Naphtali, from the East side unto the West side, a portion for Manasseh.
5 And by the border of Manasseh, from the East side unto the West side, a portion for Ephraim.
6 And by the border of Ephraim, from the East side even unto the West side, a portion for Reuben.
7 And by the border of Reuben, by the East side to the West side, a portion for Judah.
8 And by the border of Judah, from the East side unto the West side, shall be the offering which they shall offer of five & twenty thousand reeds in breadth, and of length as one of the other parts, from the East side unto the West side: and the Sanctuary shall be in the midst of it.
9 The oblation that ye shall offer unto the Lord shall be of the length of five & twenty thousand, and of ten thousand in breadth.
10 And for them, even for the Priests, shall be this holy oblation; toward the North, five and twenty thousand in length, and toward the West ten thousand in breadth, and toward the East ten thousand in breadth, and toward the South five and twenty thousand in length: and the Sanctuary of the Lord shall be in the midst thereof.
11 It shall be for the Priests that are sanctified of the sons of Zadok which have kept my charge, which went not astray when the children of Israel went astray, as the Levites went astray.
12 And this oblation of the land that is offered, shall be unto them a thing most holy by the border of the Levites.
13 And over against the border of the Priests, the Levites shall have five and twenty thousand in length, and ten thousand in breadth: all the length shall be five and twenty thousand, and the breadth ten thousand.
14 And they shall not sell of it, neither exchange, nor alienate the first fruits of the land: for it is holy unto the LORD.
15 And the five thousand y are left in the breadth over against five & twenty thousand, shall be a profane place for the city, for dwelling, & for suburbs:

& the city shall be in the midst thereof.
16 And these shall be y measures thereof; y North side four thousand five hundred, and the South side four thousand & five hundred, & on y East side four thousand & five hundred, and on West side four thousand & five hundred.
17 And the suburbs of y city shall lie toward y North two hundred & fifty, & toward y South two hundred & fifty,
& toward y East two hundred & fifty,
& toward y West two hundred & fifty.
18 And the residue in length over against the oblation of y holy portion shall be ten thousand eastward, and ten thousand westward: & it shall be over against the oblation of the holy portion: and the increase thereof shall be for food unto them that serve the city.
19 And they that serve the city shall serve it out of all the tribes of Israel.
20 All y oblation shall be five & twenty thousand by five and twenty thousand: ye shall offer y holy oblation foursquare, with the possession of the city.
21 And y residue shall be for the prince, on the one side, and on the other side of the holy oblation, and of the possession of the city: over against the five and twenty thousand of the oblation toward the East border, and westward over against the five and twenty thousand toward the West border, over against the portions for the prince, and it shall be the holy oblation: and the Sanctuary of the house shall be in the midst thereof.
22 Moreover, from the possession of the Levites, and from the possession of the city being in the midst of that which is the prince's, between the border of Judah, and the border of Benjamin, shall be for the prince.
23 As for the rest of the tribes, from the East side unto the West side, Benjamin shall have a portion.
24 And by the border of Benjamin,
from the East side unto the West side,
Simeon shall have a portion.
25 And by the border of Simeon, from the East side unto the West side, Issa-char a portion.
26 And by the border of Issachar, from the East side unto the West side, Zebu-lun a portion.
27 And by the border of Zebulun,
from the East side unto the West side,
Gad a portion.
28 And by the border of Gad, at the South side Southward, the border shall be even from Tamar, unto the waters of Strife in Kadesh, and to the river toward the great Sea.
29 This is the land which ye shall divide by lot unto the tribes of Israel for inheritance, and these are their portions,
saith the Lord GOD.
30 And these are the goings out of the city on the North side, four thousand five hundred measures.
31 And the gates of the city shall be

y names of y tribes of Israel, three three gates: one gate of Simeon, one Northward, one gate of Reuben, gate of Issachar, one gate of Zebulun. gate of Judah, one gate of Levi. 34 At the West side four thousand and fided at the East side four thou- five hundred, with their three gates, and five hundred: and three one gate of Gad, one gate of Asher, ne gate of Joseph, one gate one gate of Naphtali.
Benjamin, one gate of Dan. 35 It was round about eight teen thou-ded at the South side four thou- sand measures: and y name of y city from and five hundred measures, and that day shall be, The LORD is there.

8 The king answered, and said, I know of a certainty that ye would gain the time, because ye see the thing is gone from me.

9 But if ye will not make known unto me y dream, there is but one decree for you: for ye have prepared lying & corrupt words to speak before me, till the time be changed: therfore tell me the dream, and I shal know that ye can shew me the interpretation therof.

10 The Caldeans answered before the king, and said, there is not a man upon the earth that can shew the kings matter: therfore there is no king, lord, nor ruler, that asked such things at any Magician, or Astrologer, or Caldean.

11 And it is a rare thing that the king requireth, and there is none other that can shew it before the king, except the gods, whose dwelling is not with flesh.

12 For this cause the king was angry, and very furious, and commanded to destroy all the wisemen of Babylon.

13 And the decree went forth, that the wise men should be slain, & they sought Daniel, and his fellows to be slain.

14 Then Daniel answered with counsel and wisdome to Arioch the captain of the kings guard, which was gone forth to slay the wise men of Babylon.

15 He answered and said to Arioch the kings captain, Why is the decree so hastie from the king? Then Arioch made the thing known unto Daniel.

16 Then Daniel went in & desired of the king y he would give him time, and y he would shew y king y interpretation.

17 Then Daniel went to his house, & made the thing known to Hananiah, Mishael, and Azariah his companions:

18 That they would desire mercies of the God of heaven concerning this secret: that Daniel and his fellows should not perish with the rest of the wise men of Babylon.

19 Then was the secret revealed unto Daniel in a night vision: Then Daniel blessed the God of heaven.

20 Daniel answered and said, Blessed be the name of God for ever and ever: for wisdome and might are his.

21 And he changeth the times and the seasons: he remoueth kings and setteth up kings: he giveth wisdome unto the wise, and knowledge to them that know understanding.

22 He revealeth the deep and secret things: he knoweth what is in darkenesse, & the light dwelleth with him.

23 I thank thee, & praise thee, O thou of the God of my fathers: who hast given me hand, and wisdome, and might, and hast made them all: thou art this head of gold. known unto me now what we desired of thee: for thou hast now made known unto us the kings matter.

24 Therfore Daniel went in to Arioch, whom y king had ordained to destroy y wisemen of Babylon: he went & said thus to him: destroy not y wisemen of Babylon: bring me in before y king, & I will shew to y king y interpretation.

25 Then Arioch brought in Daniel before the king in haste, and said thus unto him, I have found a man of the captives of Judah, y will make known unto the king the interpretation.

26 The king answered and said to Daniel, whose name was Belteshazzar, Art thou able to make known unto me the dream which I have seen and the interpretation therof?

27 Daniel answered in the presence of the king, and said, The secret which the king hath demanded, cannot the wisemen, the Astrologians, Magicians, the Soothsayers shew to the king:

28 But there is a God in heaven that revealeth secrets, and maketh known to the king Nebuchad-nezzar, what shal be in the latter dayes. Thy dream, and the visions of thy head upon thy bed are these.

29 As for thee, O king, thy thoughts came into thy mind upon thy bed, what should come to passe hereafter: and he that revealeth secrets, maketh known to thee what shal come to passe.

30 But as for me, this secret is not revealed to me for any wisdome that I have more then any living, for the same cause that shal make known the interpretation unto the king, and that thou mightest know the thoughts of thy heart.

31 Thou, O king, sawest, and beheld a great image: this great image, whose brightnesse was excellent, stood before thee, & the form therof was terrible.

32 This images head was of fine gold, his breast and his arms of silver, his belly and his thighes of brasse:

33 His legs of iron, his feet, part of iron and part of clay.

34 Thou sawest till that a stone was cut out without hands, which smote the image upon his feet that were of iron and clay, & brake them to peeces.

35 Then was the iron, y clay, the brasse, the silver, & the gold brokē to peeces together, and became like the chaff of the Summer threshing floors, and the wind caried them away, that no place was found for them: & the stone that smote the image became a great mountain, and filled the whole earth.

36 This is the dream: and we will tell the interpretation therof before the king.

37 Thou, O king, art a king of kings: for y God of heaven hath given thee a kingdom, power, & strength, & glory.

38 And where ever the children of men dwell, y beasts of the field, & the fowles of the heaven hath he given into thy hand, and hath made thee ruler over them all: thou art this head of gold.

39 And after thee shall arise another kingdome inferiour to thine, and another third kingdome of brasse, which shall bear rule over all the earth.

40 And the fourth kingdome shall be strong as iron: forasmuch as iron breaketh in peeces and subdueth all things: and as iron that breaketh all these, it break in peeces and bruise.

41 And

dom as thou sawest the feet & toes of potters clay, and part of the kingdom shall be strong, forasmuch as thou sawest the iron mixed with miry clay.

42 And whereas thou sawest iron mixed with miry clay: they shall mingle themselves with the seed of men: but they shall not cleave one to another, even as iron is not mixed with clay.

43 And in the dayes of these kings shall the God of heaven set up a kingdome which shall never be destroyed: & y kingdome shall not be left to other people, but it shall break in pieces & consume all these kingdoms, and it shall stand for ever.

44 Forasmuch as thou sawest y the stone was cut out of y mountain without hands, and that it brake in pieces the iron, the brasse, the clay, the silver, and the gold: the great God hath made known to the king what shall come to passe hereafter, and the dreame is certain, & y interpretation thereof sure.

45 Then the king Nebuchad-nezzar fell upon his face, and worshipped Daniel, & commanded y they should offer an oblation & sweet odours unto him.

46 The king answered unto Daniel, and said, Of a truth it is y, that your God is a God of gods, and a Lord of kings, & a revealer of secrets, seeing thou couldest reveale this secret.

47 Then the king made Daniel a great man, and gave him many great gifts, and made him ruler over the whole province of Babylon, & chief of y governours of all y wise men of Babylon.

48 Then Daniel requested of the king, and he set Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego over the affaires of the province of Babylon: but Daniel sate in the gate of the king.

CHAP. III.

1 Nebuchad-nezzar the king made an image of gold, whose height was three score cubits, & y breadth thereof six cubits: & y set it up in the plain of Dura in the province of Babylon.

2 Then Nebuchad-nezzar y king sent to assemble y princes, y Governours, & Captaines, the Iudges, the Treasurers, & Counsellers, y Shiriffes, and all the rulers of the provinces, to come to the dedication of the image which Nebuchad-nezzar the king had set up: & they were all gathered together, the Governours, Captaines, the Iudges, the Treasurers, the Counsellers, the Shiriffes, and all the rulers of the provinces were gathered together unto the dedication of the image that Nebuchad-nezzar y king had set up: and they stood before the image y Nebuchad-nezzar had set up.

3 Then an Herald cried aloud, To you it is commanded, O people, nations, & languages,

4 That at what time ye hear the sound of the cornet, flute, harp, sackbut, psalterie, dulcimer, & all kinds of musick, ye fall down and worship y golden image that Nebuchad-nezzar the king hath set up:

5 And whoso falleth not down and worshippeth, shall the same hour be cast into the middest of a burning fiery furnace.

6 Therefore at that time when all the people heard the sound of the cornet, flute, harp, sackbut, psalterie, and all kinds of musick, all the people, the nations, and the languages fell down and worshipped the golden image that Nebuchad-nezzar the king had set up.

7 Wherefore at that time certain Caldeans came near, and accused the Iews.

8 They spake & said, to the king Nebuchad-nezzar, O king, live for ever.

9 Thou, O king, hast made a decree, y every man y shall hear y sound of the cornet, flute, harp, sackbut, psalterie, & dulcimer, & all kinds of musick, shall fall down and worship the golden image:

10 And whoso falleth not down and worshippeth that he should be cast into y midst of a burning fiery furnace.

11 There are certain Iews whom thou hast set over the affairs of the province of Babylon, Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego: these men, O king, have not regarded thee, they serve not thy gods, nor worship the golden image which thou hast set up.

12 Then Nebuchad-nezzar in his rage and fury commanded to bring Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego: then they brought these men before the king.

13 Nebuchad-nezzar spake, and said unto them, Is it true, O Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego? do not ye serve my gods, nor worship the golden image which I have set up?

14 Now if ye be ready, that at what time ye hear the sound of the cornet, flute, harp, sackbut, psalterie, and dulcimer, and all kinds of musick, ye fall down and worship the image which I have made, well: but if ye worship not, ye shall be cast the same hour into the midst of a burning fiery furnace, and who is that God that shall deliver you out of my hands?

15 Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego answered, and said to the king: O Nebuchad-nezzar, we are not careful to answer thee in this matter.

16 If it be so, our God whom we serve, is able to deliver us from the burning fiery furnace, and he will deliver us out of thine hand, O king.

17 But if not, be it known unto thee, O king, y we will not serve thy gods, nor worship thy golden image which thou hast set up.

18 Then was Nebuchad-nezzar full of fury, and the form of his visage was changed against Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego: therefore he spake, & commanded that they should be cast heat the furnace one seven times more then it was wont to be heat.

20 And he commanded y most mighty men y were in his army, to bind Shadrach, Meshach and Abednego, and to cast them into y burning fiery furnace.

21 Then these men were bound in their coats, their hosen, and their hats, and their other garments, & were cast into the middest of y burning fiery furnace.

22 Therefore because the kings commandment was urgent, and the furnace exceeding hot, the flame of the fire slew those men that took up Shadrach, Meshach and Abednego.

23 And these three men, Shadrach, Meshach, & Abednego, fell down bound into y midst of y burning fiery furnace.

24 Then Nebuchadnezzar the king was astonished, and rose up in hast, & spake, & said unto his counsellers, Did not we cast three men bound into the midst of the fire? They answered, and said unto the King, True O King.

25 He answered & said, Lo, I see four men loose, walking in y midst of the fire, and they have no hurt, & the form of the fourth is like the Son of God.

26 Then Nebuchadnezzar came near to the mouth of the burning fiery furnace, & spake, & said, Shadrach, Meshach, & Abednego, ye servants of the most high God, come forth, & come hither. Then Shadrach, Meshach, & Abednego came forth of y midst of y fire.

27 And the princes, Governours, and Captaines, & y kings counsellers, being gathered together, saw these men, upon whose bodies y fire had no power, nor was an hair of their head singed, neither were their coates changed, nor the smel of fire had passed on them.

28 Then Nebuchadnezzar spake and said, Blessed be the God of Shadrach, Meshach, & Abednego, who hath sent his Angel, and delivered his servants y trusted in him, & have changed the kings word, and yeelded their bodies, that they might not serve nor worship any god, except their own God.

29 Therefore I make a Decree, y every people, nation, & language, which speak any thing amisse against the God of Shadrach, Meshach, & Abednego, shall be cut in peices, & their houses shalbe made a dunghil, because there is no other God y can deliver after this sort.

30 Then the king promoted Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego, in the province of Babylon.

CHAP. IIII.

NEbuchadnezzar the king unto all people, nations, & languages, that dwel in all the earth, Peace be multiplied unto you.

2 I thought it good to shew the signs and wonders that the high God hath wrought toward me.

3 How great are his signes? and how mighty are his wonders? his kingdom is an everlasting kingdom, & his dominion is from generation to generation.

4 I Nebuchadnezzar was at rest in my house, & flourishing in my palace.

5 I saw a dream which made me afraid, & the thoughts upon my bed, & the visions of my head troubled me.

6 Therefore made I a decree to bring in all the wisemen of Babylon before me, that they might make known unto me the interpretation of y dream.

7 Then came in the Magicians, Astrologers, the Caldeans, and soothsayers, & I told the dream before them, but they did not make known unto me the interpretation thereof.

8 But at the last Daniel came in before me (whose name was Belteshazzar, according to the name of my God, and in whom is the spirit of the holy gods) and before him I told the dream, saying,

9 O Belteshazzar, master of the magicians, because I know y y spirit of the holy gods is in thee, & no secret troubleth thee, declare y vision of my dream that I have seen, & y interpretation thereof.

10 Thus were the visions of mine head in my bed: I saw, and behold a tree in the midst of the earth, and the height thereof was great.

11 The tree grew, & was strong, & the height thereof reached to heaven, & y sight thereof to y end of all the earth.

12 The leaves thereof were fair, & the fruit thereof much, and in it was meat for all: y beasts of y field had shadow under it, & y fowls of y heaven dwelt in the boughs of it, & all flesh was fed of it.

13 I saw in the visions of my head upon my bed, and lo, a watcher, & an holy One came down from heaven.

14 He cried aloud, & said thus, Hew down the tree, & cut off his branches, shake off his leaves, and scatter his fruit, let the beasts get away from under it, & y fowls from his branches.

15 Nevertheless, leave the stump of his roots in the earth, even with a band of iron and brasse, in the tender grasse of the field, and let it be wet with the dew of heaven, & let his portion be with the beasts in the grasse of the earth.

16 Let his heart be changed from mans, and let a beasts heart be given to him, & let seven times pass over him.

17 This matter is by the decree of the watchers, and the demand by the word of the holy ones: to the intent that the living may know that the most High ruleth in the kingdome of men, & giveth it to whosoever he will, and teeteth up over it y basest of men.

18 This dreame, I king Nebuchadnezzar have seen: Now y O Belteshazzar declare the interpretation thereof, forasmuch as all the wisemen of my kingdom are not able to make known unto me y interpretation: but y art able, for the spirit of y holy Gods is in thee.

19 Then Daniel (whose name was Belteshazzar) was astunned for one houre, and his thoughts troubled him: the king spake and said, Belteshazzar, dom of y interpretation ther-of shall stand to thee. 18 O king, the most high God gave Nebuchadnezzar thy father a kingdom, and majesty, and glory, and honour:

19 And for the majesty that he gave him, all people, nations, and languages trembled and feared before him: whom he would he slew; and whom he would he kept alive; and whom he would he set up; and whom he would he put down.
20 But when his heart was lifted up, and his mind hardened in pride, he was deposed from his kingly throne, and they took his glory from him:
21 And he was driven from men, and his heart was made like the beasts, and his dwelling was with the wild asses: they fed him with grass like oxen, and his body was wet with the dew of heaven, till he knew that the most high God ruled in the kingdom of men, and that he appointeth over it whomsoever he will.
22 And thou his son, O Belshazzar, hast not humbled thy heart, though thou knewest all this:
23 But hast lifted up thyself against the Lord of heaven, and they have brought the vessels of his house before thee, and thou, and thy lords, thy wives, and thy concubines have drunk wine in them, and thou hast praised the gods of silver, and gold, of brass, of iron, of wood, and of stone, which neither see, nor hear, nor know: and the God in whose hand thy breath is, and whose are all thy ways, hast thou not glorified.
24 Then was the part of the hand sent from him, and this writing was written.
25 And this is the writing that was written, MENE, TEKEL, UPHARSIN.
26 This is the interpretation of the thing: MENE, God hath numbered thy kingdom, and finished it.
27 TEKEL, Thou art weighed in the balances, and art found wanting.
28 PERES, Thy kingdom is divided, and given to the Medes and Persians.
29 Then commanded Belshazzar, and they clothed Daniel with scarlet, and put a chain of gold about his neck, and made a proclamation concerning him, that he should be the third ruler in the kingdom.
30 In that night was Belshazzar the king of the Chaldeans slain.
31 And Darius the Median took the kingdom, being about the age of threescore and two years.

CHAP. V.

1 BElshazzar the king made a great feast to a thousand of his lords, & drank wine before the thousand.
2 Belshazzar, while he tasted the wine, commanded to bring the golden and silver vessels, which his father Nebuchad-nezzar had taken out of the Temple which was in Ierusalem, that the king and his princes, his wives and his concubines might drink therein.
3 Then they brought the golden vessels that were taken out of the Temple of the house of God which was at Ierusalem, & y king and his princes, his wives & his concubines drank in them.
4 They drank wine, and praised the gods of gold, and of silver, of brasse, of iron, of wood, and of stone.
5 In the same hour came forth fingers of a mans hand, and wrote over against the candlestick upon the plaister of the wall of the kings palace, and the king saw the part of the hand y wrote.
6 Then the kings countenance was changed, and his thoughts troubled him, so that the ioynts of his loynes were loosed, and his knees smote one against another.
7 The king cried aloud to bring in y astrologers, y Caldeans, and y South sayers: & the king spake, & said to the wise men of Babylon, whosoever shall read this writing, & shew me y interpretation thereof, shall be clothed with scarlet, & have a chain of gold about his neck, & shall be y third ruler in y kingdome.
8 Then came in all the kings wise men, but they could not read the writing, nor make knowne to the king the interpretation thereof.

9 Then was king Belshazzar greatly troubled, & his countenance changed in him, and his lords were astonied.

10 Now the queen, by reason of the words of the king and his lords, came into the banquet-house, and the queen spake, and said, O king, live for ever; let not thy thoughts trouble thee, nor let thy countenance be changed.

11 There is a man in thy kingdome, in whom is y spirit of the holy Gods; and in the dayes of thy father, light and understanding, and wisdome, like the wisdome of the Gods, was found in him: whom the king Nebuchadnezzar thy father, the king, I say, thy father, made master of the Magicians, Astrologers, Caldeans, and Sooth-sayers;

12 Forasmuch as an excellent spirit, & knowledge, & understanding, interpreting of dreams, & shewing of hard sentences, & dissolving of doubts were found in y same Daniel, whom y king named Belteshazzar: now let Daniel be called, & he will shew the interpretation.

13 Then was Daniel brought in before the king. and the king spake, and said unto Daniel, Art thou that Daniel, which art of the children of the captivity of Judah, whom the king my father brought out of Jury?

14 I have even heard of thee, that the spirit of the gods is in thee, and light, & understanding, & excellent wisdome is found in thee.

15 And now the wisemen, the astrologers have been brought in before me, that they should read this writing, and make known unto me the interpretation thereof: but they could not shew the interpretation of the thing.

16 And I have heard of thee, that thou canst make interpretations, and dissolve doubts: now if thou canst read the writing, and make known to me the interpretation thereof, thou shalt be clothed with scarlet, and have a chain of gold about thy neck, & shalt be the third ruler in the kingdome.

17 Then Daniel answered, & said before y king, Let thy gifts be to thy self, and give thy rewards to another; yet I will read y writing to y king, & make known to him the interpretation.

18 O y king, the most high God gave Nebuchadnezzar thy father a kingdome, & maj sty, & glory, and honour,

19 And for y majesty y he gave him, all people, nations, & languages trembled and feared before him: whom he would he slew; and whom he would he kept alive, & set up; and whom he would, he put down, & whom he would, he put up.

20 But when his heart was lifted up, and his mind hardened in pride, he was deposed from his Kingly throne, and they took his glory from him.

21 And he was driven from y sons of men, & his heart was made like y beasts, and his dwelling was with y wild asses: they fed him & grasse like oxen, & his body was wet & the dew of heaven, till he knew that the most high God ruleth in the kingdome of men, and y he appointeth over it whomsoever he will.

22 And thou his son, O Belshazzar, hast not humbled thine heart, though thou knewest all this,

23 But hast lifted up thy self against the Lord of heaven, & they have brought the vessels of his house before thee, & thy lords, thy wives, and thy concubines, have drunk wine in them, & thou hast praised y gods of silver, & gold, of brass, iron, wood, & stone, which see not, nor hear, nor know: & God in whose hand thy breath is, and whose are all thy ways, hast thou not glorified.

24 Then was y part of the hand sent from him, & this writing was written.

25 And this is the writing that was written, MENE, MENE, TEKEL, UPHARSIN.

26 This is the interpretation of the thing. MENE. God hath numbered thy kingdome, and finished it.

27 TEKEL, thou art weighed in the balances, and art found wanting.

28 PERES, thy kingdome is divided, and given to the Medes and Persians.

29 Then commanded Belshazzar, and they clothed Daniel with scarlet, and put a chain of gold about his neck, and made a proclamation concerning him, that he should be the third ruler in the kingdome.

30 In that night was Belshazzar the king of the Caldeans slain.

31 And Darius the Median took the kingdome, he was about three score and two years old.

CHAP. VI.

IT pleased Darius to set over the kingdome an hundred and twenty princes, which should be over the whole kingdome.

2 And over these three Presidents, of whom Daniel was first, y the Princes might give accounts unto them, & y the king should have no damage.

3 Then this Daniel was preferred above the presidents & princes, because an excellent spirit was in him, and the king thought to set him over the whole realm.

4 Then the presidents and princes sought to find occasion against Daniel concerning the kingdome, but they could find none occasion or fault, forasmuch as he was faithfull, neither was there any error or fault found in him.

5 Then said these men, We shall find any occasion against this Daniel, except we find it against him concerning the law of his God.

6 Then these presidents & princes assembled together to y king, & said unto him, king Darius, live for ever.

7 All the presidents of the kingdome, the governours, & the princes, counsellers, & the captains have consulted together to establish a royal statute, & to make a firm decree, that whosoever shall ask a petition of any god or man days, save of thee, O king, shall cast into the den of lyons.

8 Now, O king, establish the decree, and sign the writing, that it be not changed, according to the law of the Medes and Persians, which alters not.
9 Wherefore king Darius signed the writing and the decree.
10 Now when Daniel knew that the writing was signed, he went into his house, and his windows being open in his chamber toward Jerusalem, he kneeled upon his knees three times a day, and prayed, and gave thanks before his God, as he did aforetime.
11 Then these men assembled, and found Daniel praying and making supplication before his God.
12 Then they came near, and spake before the king concerning the king's decree: Hast not thou signed a decree, that every man that shall ask a petition of any god or man within thirty days, save of thee, O king, shall be cast into the den of lyons? The king answered and said, The thing is true, according to the law of the Medes and Persians, which alters not.
13 Then answered they and said before the king, That Daniel, which is one of the children of Judah, regardeth not thee, O king, nor the decree that thou hast signed, but maketh his petition three times a day.
14 Then the king, when he heard these words, was sore displeased with himself, and set his heart on Daniel to deliver him, and he laboured till the going down of the Sun to deliver him.
15 Then these men assembled unto the king, and said unto the king, Know, O king, that the law of the Medes and Persians is, That no decree nor statute which the king establisheth may be changed.
16 Then the king commanded, and they brought Daniel, and cast him into the den of lyons. Now the king spake and said unto Daniel, Thy God, whom thou servest continually, he will deliver thee.
17 And a stone was brought, and laid upon the mouth of the den, which the king sealed with his own signet, and with the signet of his lords, that the purpose might not be changed concerning Daniel.
18 Then the king went to his palace, and passed the night fasting: neither were instruments of musick brought before him: and his sleep went from him.
19 Then the king arose very early in the morning, and went in haste unto the den of lyons.
20 And when he came to the den, he cried with a lamentable voice unto Daniel: and the king spake and said to Daniel, O Daniel, servant of the living God, is thy God, whom thou servest continually able to deliver thee from the lyons?
21 Then said Daniel unto the king, O king, live for ever.
22 My God hath sent his Angel, and hath shut the lyons mouthes, that they have not hurt me: forasmuch as before him innocency was found in me; and also before thee, O king, have I done no hurt.
23 Then was the king exceeding glad for him, and commanded that they should take Daniel up out of the den: so Daniel was taken up out of the den, and no manner of hurt was found upon him, because he believed on his God.
24 And the king commanded, and they brought those men which had accused Daniel, and they cast them into the den of lyons, them, their children, and their wives; and the lyons had the mastery of them, and brake all their bones in pieces or ever they came at the bottom of the den.
25 Then king Darius wrote unto all people, nations, & languages that dwell in all the earth, Peace be multiplied to you.
26 I make a decree, that in every dominion of my kingdome men tremble and fear before the God of Daniel: for he is the living God, & stedfast for ever, and his kingdom that which shall not be destroyed, and his dominion shall be even unto the end.
27 He delivereth and rescueth, & he worketh signes and wonders in heaven and in earth: who hath delivered Daniel from the power of the lyons.
28 So this Daniel prospered in the reigne of Darius, and in the reigne of Cyrus the Persian.

CHAP. VII.

1 In the first yeer of Belshazzar king of Babylon, Daniel had a dream & visions of his head on his bed: then he wrote the dream, & told the sum of the matters.
2 Daniel spake, and said, I saw in my vision by night, and behold, the four windes of the heaven strove upon the great sea.
3 And four great beasts came up from the Sea, diverse one from another.
4 The first was like a lion, & had Eagles wings: & I beheld till the wings thereof were plucked, & it was lifted up from the earth, & made stand upon the feet as a man, and a mans heart was given to it.
5 And behold another beast, a second, like to a bear, & it raised up it self on one side, & it had three ribs in the mouth of it, between the teeth of it: & they said thus to it, Arise, devoure much flesh.
6 After this I beheld, and lo another like a leopard, which had upon the back of it four wings of a fowl; the beast had also four heads, and dominion was given to it.
7 After this I saw in the night visions, and behold a fourth beast, dreadfull and terrible, and strong exceedingly, and it had great iron teeth: it devoured and brake in pieces, & stamped the residue with the feet of it: & it was diverse from all the beasts that were before it, & it had ten horns.
8 I considered the horns, and behold, there came up among them another little horn, before whom there were three of the first horns plucked up by the roots: and behold, in this horn were eyes like the eyes of a man, and a mouth speaking great things.

9 I beheld, till the thrones were cast down, and the Ancient of dayes did sit, whose garment was white as snow, & the haire of his head like the pure wool, his throne was like the fiery flame, and his wheels as burning fire.

10 A fiery streame issued, and came forth from before him: thousand thousands ministred unto him, & ten thousand times ten thousand stood before him: the judgement was set, and the bookes were opened.

11 I beheld then, because of the voyce of the great words which the horne spake, I beheld, even till the beast was slain, and his body destroyed, & given to the burning flame.

12 As concerning the rest of the beasts, they had their dominion taken away: yet their lives were prolonged for a season and time.

13 I saw in the night visions, and behold, one like the Son of man came with the clouds of heaven, and came to the Ancient of dayes, & they brought him neer before him.

14 And there was given him dominion and glory, and a kingdom, that all people, nations, and languages should serve him: his dominion is an everlasting dominion, which shall not passe away, and his kingdom that which shall not be destroyed.

15 I Daniel was grieved in my spirit in the midst of my body, and the visions of my head troubled me.

16 I came neer unto one of them that stood by, and asked him the trueth of all this: so he told me, and made me know the interpretation of the things.

17 These great beasts which are four, are four kings which shall arise out of the earth.

18 But the Saints of y most High shall take the kingdom, & possesse y kingdom for ever, even for ever and ever.

19 Then I would know the trueth of the fourth beast, which was diverse from all the others, exceeding dreadful, whose teeth were of iron, and his nailes of brasse, which devoured, brake in pieces, and stamped the residue with his feet.

20 And of the ten hornes that were in his head, and of the other, which came up, and before whom three fell, even of that horne that had eyes, and a mouth that spake very great things, whose looke was more stout than his fellowes.

21 I beheld, and the same horne made warre with the Saints, and prevailed against them.

22 Until the Ancient of dayes came, & judgement was given to the Saints of the most High, and the time came that the Saints possessed the kingdom.

23 Thus he said, The fourth beast shall be the fourth kingdom upon earth, which shall be divers from all kingdomes, and shall devoure the whole earth, and shall tread it down, and breake it in peices.

24 And the ten hornes out of this kingdom are ten kings that shall arise, and another shall rise after them, and he shall be divers from the first, & he shall subdue three kings.

25 And he shall speake great words against the most High, & shall weare out the Saints of the most high, & think to change times and Lawes: and they shall be given into his hand, until a time and times, and the dividing of time.

26 But the judgement shall sit, & they shall take away his dominion, to consume and to destroy it unto the end.

27 And the kingdom, & dominion, and the greatness of the kingdom under the whole heaven, shall be given to the people of y Saints of y most high, whose kingdom is an everlasting kingdom, and all dominions shall serve and obey him.

28 Hitherto is the end of the matter. As for me Daniel, my cogitations much troubled me, & my countenance changed in me: but I kept the matter in my heart.

CHAP. VIII.

IN the third yeer of the reign of King Belshazzar, a vision appeared unto me; even unto me Daniel, after that which appeared unto me at the first.

2 And I saw in a vision (and it came to passe, when I saw that I was at Shushan in the palace, which is in the Province of Elam) and I saw in a vision, and I was by the river of Ulai.

3 Then I lifted up mine eyes, & saw, & behold, there stood before y river a ram which had two horns, and the two hornes were high; but one was higher than y other, & y higher came up last.

4 I saw the ram pushing West, and North, and, & South: so that no beasts might stand before him, neither was there any that could deliver out of his hand, but he did according to his will, and became great.

5 And as I was considering, behold, a he-goat came from the West, on the face of the whole earth, and touched not the ground: and the goat had a notable horn between his eyes.

6 And he came to the ram that had two hornes, which I had seen standing before the river, and ran unto him in the fury of his power.

7 And I saw him come close unto the ram. & he was moved with choler against him, & smote the ram, & brake his two hornes, & there was no power in the ram to stand before him, but he cast him down to the ground, and stamped upon him: and there was none y could deliver the ram out of his hand.

8 Therefore the he-goat waxed very great. & when he was strong, the great horne was broken: and for it came up four notable ones, toward the four winds of heaven.

9 And out of one of them came forth a little horne, which waxed exceeding great, toward the South, and toward the east, and toward the pleasant land.

10 And it waxed great, even to the host of heaven, & it cast down some comforted: and of the starres to the ground, and stamped upon them.

11 He magnified himself even to the Prince of the hoast: & by him the daily sacrifice was taken away, and the place of his Sanctuary was cast down.

12 And a hoast was given him against the daily sacrifice, by reason of transgression: & it cast down the truth to the ground: and it practised and prospered.

13 Then I heard one Saint speaking, and another Saint said unto that certain Saint which spake, How long shall be the vision concerning the daily sacrifice, and the transgression of desolation, to give both the Sanctuary, and the hoast to be trodden under foot?

14 And he said unto me, Unto two thousand and three hundred dayes: then shall the Sanctuary be cleansed.

15 And it came to pass, when I, even I Daniel had seen the vision, & sought the meaning: then behold, there stood before me the appearance of a man.

16 And I heard a mans voice between the banks of Vlai, which called, and said, Gabriel, make this man to understand the vision.

17 So he came neer where I stood: & when he came, I was afraid and fell upon my face: but he said unto me, Understand O son of man: for at the time of the end shall be the vision.

18 Now as he was speaking with me, I was in a deep sleep upon my face toward the ground: but he touched me, and made me stand upright.

19 And he said, Behold, I will make thee know what shall be in the last end of the indignation: for at the time appointed the end shall be.

20 The ram which thou sawest, having two horns, are the kings of Media and Persia.

21 And the rough goat is the king of Grecia: and the great horn that is between his eyes, is the first king.

22 Now that being broken, whereas four stood up for it, four kingdoms shall stand up out of the nations, but not in his power.

23 And in the latter time of their kingdom, when the transgressours are come to the full, a king of fierce countenance, and understanding darke sentences, shall stand up.

24 And his power shall be mighty, but not by his own power: and he shall destroy wonderfully, and shall prosper, and practise, and shall destroy the mighty and the holy people.

25 And through his policie also he shall cause craft to prosper in his hand: and he shall magnifie himself in his heart, and by peace shall destroy many: he shall also stand up against the Prince of princes: but he shall be broken without hand.

26 And the vision of the evening and the morning, which was told, is true: therefore shut thou up the vision, for it shall be for many dayes.

27 And I Daniel fainted, and was sick certain dayes: afterward I rose up, and did the kings businesse, & I was astonished at y vision, but none understood it.

CHAP. IX.

1 IN y first yeer of Darius y son of Ahasuerus, of y seed of the Medes, & was made king over y realm of y Caldeans,

2 In the first yeer of his reign, I Daniel understood by books the number of the yeers, whereof the word of the LORD came to Jeremiah the Prophet, that he would accomplish feventy yeers in the desolations of Jerusalem.

3 And I set my face unto the Lord God to seek by prayer, & supplications, with fasting, & sackcloth, & ashes.

4 And I prayed unto the LORD my God and made my confession, & said, O LORD, the great & dreadful God, keeping the Covenant, and mercy to them that love him, and to them that keep his Commandements.

5 We have sinned, & have committed iniquity, and have done wickedly, and have rebelled, even by departing from thy precepts, & from thy Judgements.

6 Neither have we hearkened to thy servants y Prophets, which spake in thy Name to our kings, our Princes, & our fathers, & to all y people of the land.

7 O Lord, righteousnes belongeth to thee, but to us confusion of faces, as at this day: to y men of Judah, and to the inhabitants of Jerusalem, and to all Israel that are neer, and that are far off, through all y countreys whither y hast driven them, because of their trespass that they have trespassed against thee.

8 O Lord, to us belongeth confusion of face, to our kings, to our Princes, and to our fathers, because we have sinned against thee.

9 To the Lord our God belong mercies and forgivenesses, though we have rebelled against him.

10 Neither have we obeyed y voyce of the LORD our God, to walk in his Lawes, which hee set before us, by his servants the Prophets.

11 Yea, all Israel have transgressed thy Law, even by departing, y they might not obey thy voyce: therefore y curse is powred on us, and y oath y is written in y Law of Moses the servant of God, because we have sinned against him.

12 And he hath confirmed his words, y he spake against us, and against our Iudges y judged us by bringing on us a great evil: for under y whole heaven hath not been done, as hath been done upon Jerusalem.

13 As it is written in y Law of Moses, all this evil is come on us: yet made we not our prayer before the LORD our God, that we might turn from our iniquities, and understand thy truth.

14 Therefore hath y LORD watched upon the evil, and brought it on us: for the LORD our God is righteous in all his works which he doeth: for we obeyed not his voyce.

15 And now, O Lord our God, y hast brought thy people footh out of the land of Egypt with a mighty hand, & hast gotten thee renowme as at this day, we have sinned, we have done wickedly.

16 O Lord, according to all thy righteousnes, I beseech thee, let thi anger & wrath be turned away from thy cite Jerusalem, thy holy Mountain: because for our sinnes, & for the iniquities of our fathers, Jerusalem & thy people are become a reproach to all y^t are about us.

17 Now therefore, O our God, hear ye prayer of thy servant, and his supplications, & cause thy face to shine vpon thy Sanctuary that is desolate, for the Lords sake.

18 O my God, incline thine eare, and hear: open thine eyes, & behold our desolations. & ye city which is called by thy name: for we do not present our supplications before thee for our righteousnesses, but for thy great mercies.

19 O Lord heare. O Lord forgive, O Lord hearken & doe: defer not for thine own sake, O my God: for thy city & thy people are called by thy Name.

20 And while I was speaking, & praying, & confessing my sinne, and the sinne of my people Israel, & presenting my supplication before the LORD my God, for the holy Mountaine of my God:

21 Yea, whiles I was speaking in prayer, even the man Gabriel whom I had seen in the vision at the beginning, being caused to flie swiftly, touched me about ye time of ye euening oblation.

22 And he informed me, and talked with me, and said, O Daniel, I am now come forth to give thee skil and understanding.

23 At the beginning of thy supplications the commandement came forth, & I am come to shew it: for thou art greatly beloved: therefore vnderstand ye matter, and consider the vision.

24 Seuenty weekes are determined vpon thy people, & vpon thy holy cite, to finish the transgression, & to make an end of sinnes, & to make reconciliation for iniquity, & to bring in everlasting righteousnes, & to seale vp ye vision & prophecie, and to anoint the most holy.

25 Know therefore and vnderstand, that from the going forth of the commandement to restore & to build Jerusalem vnto the Messiah the prince, shall be seuen weeks, and threescore and two weeks, the street shall be built againe, and the wal even in troublous times.

26 And after threescore and two weeks shall Messiah be cut off, but not for himselfe: & the people of the prince y^t shall come, shall destroy the cite and the Sanctuary, and the end thereof shall be with a flood, and vnto the end of the warre desolations are determined.

27 And he shall confirme the covenant with many for one week: and in the midst of the week hee shall cause the sacrifice and the oblation to cease, and for the ouerspreading of abominations he shall make it desolate, even vntil the consummation, and that determined shall be powred vpon the desolate.

CHAP. X.

IN the third yeere of Cyrus king of Persia a thing was reuealed vnto Daniel (whose name was called Belteshazzar) & the thing was true, but the time appointed was long. & he vnderstood the thing, & had vnderstanding of the vision.

2 In those dayes I Daniel was mourning three full weeks.

3 I ate no pleasant bread, neither came flesh nor wine in my mouth, neither did I annoint my self at all, till three whole weeks were fulfilled.

4 And in the fourth and twentieth day of the first moneth, as I was by the side of the great riuer which is Hiddekel,

5 Then I lift up mine eyes, & looked, and behold a certaine man clothed in linnen, whose loines were girded with fine gold of Vphaz.

6 His body also was like the Beryll, & his face as the appearance of lightning, and his eyes as lampes of fire, and his armes and his feet like to colour to burnished brasse, & the voice of his words like the voice of a multitude.

7 And I Daniel alone saw the vision: for the men that were with me, saw not the vision, but a great quaking fell vpon them, so y^t they fled to hide themselues.

8 Therefore I was left alone and saw this great vision, and there remained no strength in me: for my comelines was turned in me into corruption, and I retained no strength.

9 Yet heard I the voyce of his words: & when I heard the voice of his words then was I in a deepe sleep on my face, and my face toward the ground.

10 And behold a hand touched me, which set me vpon my knees, and vpon the palmes of my hands.

11 And he said vnto me, O Daniel, a man greatly beloved, vnderstand the words that I speake vnto thee, & stand vpright: for vnto thee am I now sent. And when he had spoken this word vnto me, I stood trembling.

12 Then said he vnto me, Feare not Daniel: for from the first day that thou didst set thine heart to vnderstand, & to chastise thy selfe before thy God, thy words were heard, & I am come for thy words.

13 But the prince of the kingdome of Persia withstood me one and twenty dayes: but lo, Michael one of the chiefe princes came to help me: and I remained there with the kings of Persia.

14 Now I am come to make thee vnderstand what shall befall thy people in the latter dayes: for yet the vision is for many dayes.

15 And when he had spoken such words vnto me, I set my face toward the ground, & I became dumb.

16 And behold, one like the similitude of the sonnes of men touched my lips: then I opened my mouth, and spake, & said vnto him that stood before me, O my lord, by ye vision my sorrowes are turned ces & one shal certainly com, & overflow, & pas thorow: then shal he return and be stirred up even to his fortresse.

11 And the king of the South shal be moved with choler, and shal come forth and fight with him, even with the king of the North; and he shal set forth a great multitude, but the multitude shal be given into his hand.
12 And when he hath taken away the multitude his heart shal be lifted up; & he shal cast down many ten thousands;
but he shal not be strengthened by it.
13 For the king of the North shal returne, and shal set forth a multitude greater then the former, and shal certainly come (after certain yeers) with a great army, and with much riches.
14 And in those times there shal many stand up against the king of the South;
also the robbers of thy people shal exalt themselves to establish the vision but they shal fal.
15 So the king of the North shal come and cast up a mount, and take the most fenced cities; and the arms of the South shal not withstand, neither his chosen people, neither shal there be any strength to withstand.
16 But he that commeth against him, shal do according to his owne will, & none shal stand before him: & he shal stand in the glorious land, which by his hand shal be consumed.
17 He shal also set his face to enter with the strength of his whole kingdom, and upright ones with him: thus shal he do, and he shal give him the daughter of women corrupting her; but he shal not stand on his side, neither be for him.
18 After this shal he turne his face to the iles, and shal take many, but a prince for his owne behalfe, shal cause the reproach offered by him to cease without his owne reproach; he shal cause it to turne upon him.
19 Then he shal turne his face towards the fort of his owne land: but he shal stumble and fal, and not be found.
20 Then shal stand up in his estate a raiser of taxes in the glory of the kingdom, but within few dayes he shal be destroyed, neither in anger, nor in battel.
21 And in his estate shal stand up a vile person, to whom they shal not give the honour of the kingdome; but he shal come in peaceably, and obtaine
the kingdome by flatteries:
22 And with the armes of a flood shal they be overflowne from before him & be broken: yea, also the Prince of the Covenant.
23 And after the league made with him he shal work deceitfully: for he shal come up, and shal become strong with a small people.
24 He shal enter peaceably even upon the fattest places of the province, and he shal do that which his fathers have not done nor his fathers fathers; he shal scatter among them the prey & spoil, & riches

CHAP. XI.

and have retained no strength.
know any thing at all of this my Lord and this my Lord (or as for me, know) thee unmanned no strength neither is their breath left in me Therefore came again and touched me like the appearance of a man, and strengthened me.
19 And, O man greatly beloued, fear not be unto thee, be strong be strong: and when he had spoken unto me, I was strengthened, and said, Let my LORD speak, for thou hast strengthened me.
20 Then said he, Knowest thou wherfore I come to thee? And now will I returne to fight with the prince of Persia, and when I am gone forth, lo, the prince of Grecia shal come.
21 But I will shew thee that which is noted in the scripture of truth: & there is none that holdeth with me in these things but Michael your Prince.

CHAP. XI.

Also in the first yeere of Darius the Mede, even I stood to confirme, and strengthen him.
2 And now will I shew thee the trueth, Behold, there shal stand up yet three kings in Persia, and the fourth shal be far richer then they all: and by his strength through his riches he shal stir up all against the realme of Grecia.
3 And a mighty king shal stand up,
that shal rule with great dominion, and do according to his will.
4 And when he shal stand up, his kingdom shal be broken, and shal be divided toward the four winds of heaven, and not to his posterity, nor according to his dominion which he ruled: for his kingdom shal be plucked up, even for others beside those.
5 And the king of the South shal be strong, and one of his princes, and he shal be strong above him, and have dominion: his dominion shal be a great dominion.
6 And in the end of yeers they shal joyne themselves together; for the king's daughter of the South shal come to the king of North to make an agreemẽt, but she shal not retaine the power of the arme, neither shal he stand, nor his arme: but she shal be given up, & they that brought her, & he that begate her, & strengthened her in these times.
7 But out of a branch of her roots shal one stand up in his estate, which shal come with an army, & shal enter into the fort of the king of North, and shal deal against them, and shal prevaile:
8 And shal also carry captives into Egypt their gods with their princes, and with their precious vessels of silver & of gold: & he shal continue more yeers then the king of the North.
9 So the king of the South shal come into his kingdome, and shal return to his own land.
10 But his sons shal be stirred up, and shal assemble a multitude of great for-nations v. 2, & he shall stir vp all his power, and his courage against the king of the south with a great army, and the king of the south shall be stirred vp to battel with a very great and mighty army: but he shall not stand: for they shall forecast devices against him.

25 Yea they that eat of the portion of his meat shall destroy him, and his army shall overflow: and many shall fall down slain.

27 And both these kings hearts shall be to do mischief, and they shall speak lies at one table; but it shall not prosper: for yet the end shall be at the time appointed.

28 Then shall he return into his land with great riches, and his heart shall be against the holy covenant: & he shall do exploits, and return to his own land.

29 At a time appointed he shall return, & come toward the south, but it shall not be as the former or as the latter.

30 For the ships of Chittim shall come against him: therefore he shall be grieved and return, and have indignation against the holy covenant: so shall he do, he shall even return, and have intelligence with them that forsake the holy covenant.

31 And arms shall stand on his part, and they shall pollute the Sanctuary of strength, and shall take away the daily sacrifice, and they shall place the abomination that maketh desolate.

32 And such as do wickedly against the covenant shall he corrupt by flatteries: but the people that do know their God shall be strong, and do exploits.

33 And they that understand among the people, shall instruct many, yet they shall fall by the sword, & by flame, by captivity, and by spoil many days.

34 Now when they shall fall, they shall be holpen with a little help: but many shall cleave to them with flatteries.

35 And some of them of understanding shall fall to try them, and to purge, and to make them white, even to the time of the end: because it is yet for a time appointed.

36 And the king shall do according to his will, and he shall exalt himself, and magnify himself above every god, and shall speak marvellous things against the God of gods, & shall prosper till the indignation be accomplished: for that that is determined shall be done.

37 Neither shall he regard the God of his fathers, nor the desire of women, nor regard any god: for he shall magnify himself above all.

38 But in his estate shall he honour the God of forces: and a God whom his fathers knew not shall he honour with gold, & silver, and with precious stones, and with pleasant things.

39 Thus shall he do in the most strong holds with a strange god, whom he shall acknowledge, and increase with glory: & he shall cause them to rule over many, and shall divide the land for gain.

40 And at the time of the end shall the king of the south push at him: and the king of the south shall come against him like a whirlwind, with chariots, & with horsemen, & with many ships: and he shall enter into the countries, and shall overflow & pass over.

41 He shall enter also into the glorious land, and many countries shall be overthrown: but these shall escape out of his hand, even Edom, and Moab, and the chief of the children of Ammon.

42 He shall stretch forth his hand also upon countries: and the land of Egypt shall not escape.

43 But he shall have power over the treasures of gold, & of silver, and over all the precious things of Egypt: and the Libyans and the Ethiopians shall be at his steps.

44 But tidings out of the East & out of the north shall trouble him: therefore he shall go forth with great fury to make away, and utterly to make away many.

45 And he shall plant the tabernacles of his palace between the seas in the glorious holy mountain; yet he shall come to his end, & none shall help him.

CHAP. XII.

1 And at that time shall Michael stand up, the great prince which standeth for the children of thy people: and there shall be a time of trouble, such as never was since there was a nation even to that same time: and at that time thy people shall be delivered, every one that shall be found written in the book.

2 And many of them that sleep in the dust of the earth shall awake, some to everlasting life, and some to shame and everlasting contempt.

3 And they that be wise, shall shine as the brightness of the firmament, and they that turn many to righteousness as the stars for ever and ever.

4 But thou, O Daniel, shut up the words, and seal the book, even to the time of the end: many shall run to and fro, and knowledge shall be increased.

5 Then I Daniel looked, & behold, there stood other two, the one on this side of the bank of the river, and the other on that side of the bank of the river.

6 And one said to the man clothed in linen, which was upon the waters of the river, when he held up his right hand, and his left hand unto heaven, & sware by him that liveth for ever, that it shall be for a time, times, and an half; & when he shall have accomplished to scatter the power of the holy people, all these things shall be finished.

7 And I heard, but I understood not: then said I, O my Lord, what shall be the end of these things?

8 And he said, Go thy way, Daniel, whordome.

words are closed up, and sea-
the time of the end.
shall be purified, and made purged: but the wicked shall ly, and none of the wicked stand; but the wise shall un-

from the time that the daily ice shall be taken away, and the abominations that maketh desolate, set up, there shall be a thousand two hundred and ninety days.

12 Blessed is he that waiteth, and cometh to the thousand three hundred and five and thirty days.

13 But go thou thy way till the end be: for thou shalt rest, and stand in thy lot at the end of the days.

HOSEA.

CHAP. I.

THE word of the LORD that came unto Hoseah the son of Beeri, in the days of Uzziah, Jotham, Ahaz, and Hezekiah, kings of Judah, and in the days of Jeroboam the son of Joash king of Israel.

2 The beginning of the word of the LORD
by Hoseah. And the LORD said to Hoseah, Go, take unto thee a wife of whoredoms and children of whoredoms: for the land hath committed great whore-dom, departing from the LORD.

3 So he went and took Gomer the daughter of Diblaim; which conceived, and bare him a son.

4 And the LORD said unto him, Call his name Jezreel; for yet a little while, and I will avenge the blood of Jezreel upon the house of Jehu, and will cause to cease
the kingdom of the house of Israel.

5 And it shall come to pass at that day, that I will break the bow of Israel in the valley of Jezreel.

6 And she conceived again, and bare a daughter. And God said unto him, Call her name Lo-ruhamah: for I will no more have mercy upon the house of Israel; but I will utterly take them away.

7 But I will have mercy upon the house of Judah, and will save them by the LORD their God, and will not save them by bow, nor by sword, nor by battle, by horses,
nor by horsemen.

8 Now when she had weaned Lo-ruhamah, she conceived, and bare a son.

9 Then said God, Call his name Loammi: for ye are not my people, and I will not be your God.

10 Yet the number of the children of Israel shall be as the sand of the sea, which cannot be measured nor numbered;
and it shall come to pass, that in the place where it was said unto them, Ye are not my people, there it shall be said unto them, Ye are the sons of the living God.

11 Then shall the children of Judah and the children of Israel be gathered together, and appoint themselves one head, and they shall come up out of the land: for great shall be the day of Jezreel.

CHAP. II.

SAY ye unto your brethren, Ammi;
and to your sisters, Ruhamah.

2 Plead with your mother, plead:
for she is not my wife, neither am I her husband: let her therefore put away her whoredoms out of her sight, and her adulteries from between her breasts;

3 Lest I strip her naked, and set her as in the day that she was born, and make her like a wilderness, and set her like a dry land, and slay her with thirst.

4 And I will not have mercy upon her children; for they be the children of whoredoms.

5 For their mother hath played the harlot: she that conceived them hath done shamefully: for she said, I will go after my lovers, that give me my bread and my water, my wool and my flax, mine oil and my drink.

6 Therefore, behold, I will hedge up thy way with thorns, and make a wall, that she shall not find her paths.

7 And she shall follow after her lovers, but she shall not overtake them;
and she shall seek them, but shall not find them: then shall she say, I will go and return to my first husband; for then was it better with me than now.

8 For she did not know that I gave her corn, and wine, and oil, and multiplied her silver and gold, which they prepared for Baal.

9 Therefore will I return, and take away my corn in the time thereof, and my wine in the season thereof, and will recover my wool and my flax given to cover her nakedness.

10 And now will I discover her lewd-ness in the sight of her lovers, and none shall deliver her out of mine hands.

11 I will also cause all her mirth to cease, her feast days, her new moons, and her sabbaths, and all her solemn feasts.

12 And I will destroy her vines and her fig trees, whereof she hath said,
These are my rewards that my lovers have given me: and I will make them a forest, and the beasts of the field shall eat them.

13 And I will visit upon her the days of Baalim, wherein she burnt incense to them, and she decked herself with her earring and her jewels, and she went after her lovers, and forgat me, saith the LORD.

14 Therefore, behold, I will allure her, and bring her into the wilderness, and speak comfortably unto her.

15 And I will give her her vineyards from thence, and the valley of Achor for a door of hope: and she shall sing there, as in the days of her youth, and as in the day when she came up out of the land of Egypt.

16 And it shall be at that day, saith the LORD, that thou shalt call me Ishi; and shalt call me no more Baali.

17 For I will take away the names of Baalim out of her mouth, & they shal no more be remembred by their name.
18 And in that day will I make a covenant for them with the beasts of the field, & with the fouls of heaven, and with the creeping things of the ground: and I will breake the bow, and ỹ sword, and the battel out of ỹ earth, and will make them to lie down safely.
19 And I will betroth thee unto me for ever, yea, I will betroth thee unto me in righteousnesse, and in judgement, & in loving kindnesse, & in mercies.
20 I will even betroth thee to me in faithfulnes, and ỹ shalt know ỹ Lord.
21 And it shal come to passe in ỹ day, I will hear, saith ỹ LORD, I will heare the heavens, and they shal hear ỹ earth.
22 And the earth shal hear the corn, and the wine, and the oyle, & they shal heare Jezreel.
23 And I will sow her unto me in the earth: and I will have mercy upon her that had not obtained mercy, and I will say to them which were not my people, Thou art my people, and they shal say, Thou art my God.

CHAP. III.

THen said the LORD unto me, Goe yet love a woman (beloved of her friend, yet an adulteresse) according to the love of the LORD towards the children of Israel, who looketo other Gods, and love flagons of wine.
2 So I bought her to me for fifteene pieces of silver, & for an homer of barley, & an half homer of barley.
3 And I said unto her, Thou shalt abide for me many dayes: thou shalt not play ỹ harlot, & ỹ shalt not be for another man, so will I also be for thee.
4 For the children of Israel shal abide many dayes without a king, & without a Prince, & without a sacrifice, and without an image, & without an Ephod, & without Teraphim.
5 Afterward shal ỹ children of Israel return, & seek ỹ LORD their God, & David their king, & shal fear ỹ Lord, and his goodnesse in the latter dayes.

CHAP. IIII.

HEare ỹ word of ỹ LORD, ye children of Israel: for ỹ Lord hath a controversie with ỹ inhabitants of the land, because there is no trueth nor mercy, nor knowledge of God in ỹ land.
2 By swearing and lying & killing, and stealing, & committing adultery, they breake out, & blood touches blood.
3 Therefore shal the land mourn, and every one that dwelleth therein shall languish with the beasts of ỹ field, and with the foules of heaven, yea the fishes of ỹ sea also shal be taken away.
4 Yet let no man strive, nor repoove another: for this people are as they that strive with the Priest.
5 Therfore shalt thou fal in the day, and ỹ Prophet also shal fal with thee in ỹ night, & I will destroy thy mother.
6 My people are destroyed for lack of knowledg, because thou hast rejected knowledge, I will also reject thee that thou shalt be no Priest to me: seeing thou hast forgotten the Law of thy God, I will also forget thy children.
7 As they were increased, so they sinned against me: therefore will I change their glory into shame.
8 They eat up the sin of my people, & they set their heart on their iniquity.
9 And there shal be like people, like priest: and I will punish them for their wayes, and reward them their doings.
10 For they shal eat, and not have enough: they shal commit whoredom, and shal not increase, because they have left off to take heed to the LORD.
11 Whoredome, and wine, and new wine take away the heart.
12 My people aske counsel at their stockes, and their staffe declareth unto them: for ỹ spirit of whoredomes hath caused them to erre, and they have gone a whoring from under their God.
13 They sacrifice upon the tops of the mountaines, & burne incense upon the hils, under oakes, & poplers, & elmes, because the shadow thereof is good: therefore your daughters shal commit whoredome, and your spouses shal commit adultery.
14 I will not punish your daughters when they commit whoredome, nor your spouses when they commit adultery: for themselves are separated with whores, & they sacrifice with harlots: therefore the people that doth not understand shal fal.
15 Though thou Israel play ỹ harlot, yet let not Iudah offend, and come not ye to Gilgal, neither go ye up to Bethaven, nor sweare, The LORD liveth.
16 For Israel slideth backe, as a backsliding heifer: now the LORD will feed them as a Lambe in a large place.
17 Ephraim is joyned unto idols: let him alone.
18 Their drinke is sour: they have committed whoredome continually: her rulers with shame do love, Give ye.
19 The wind hath bound her up in her wings, and they shal be ashamed because of their sacrifices.

CHAP. V.

HEare ye this, O Priests, & hearken ye house of Israel, and give ye eare, O house of the king: for iudgement is toward you, because ye have been a snare on Mizpah, & a net spread on Tabor.
2 And the revolters are profound to make slaughter, though I have been a rebuker of them all.
3 I know Ephraim, and Israel is not hid from me: for now, O Ephraim, thou committest whoredome, and Israel is defiled.
4 They will not frame their doings to turn unto their God: for the spirit of whoredomes is in the midst of them, and they have not known the LORD.
5 And the pride of Israel doth testifie to his face: therefore shal Israel & Ephraim fal in their iniquity: Iudah also shal fal with them.

hall go with their flocks withdrawn himself from them.

ey have dealt treacherously ast the LORD: for they have bee strange children: now shall a th devour them & their portions.
ow ye the cornet in Gibeah, and trumpet in Ramah: cry aloud at eth: after thee, O Benjamin.
ll be desolate in the day of ke among the tribes of Israel have I known: for which shall surely be.
princes of Judah were like them remove the bound: therefore I will ur my wrath on them like water.
raim is oppressed, and broken judgment; because he willingly ked after the commandments.
erefore will I be unto Ephraim moth, and to the house of Judah orm rotteness.
When Ephraim saw his sickness, Judah his wound: then went raim to the Assyrian, and sent to ing: yet could he not heal you, ther can ye your wound.
For I will be unto Ephraim as a lion,
young lion to the house of Judah:
I, even I, will tear and go away; I will ke away, and none shall rescue him.
I will go and return to my place,
ll they acknowledge their offence, seek my face: in their affliction
ey will seek me early.

CHAP. VI.

Come, and let us return unto the RD: for he hath torn, & he ll heal us; he hath smitten, & he ll bind us up.
After two days will he revive us:
the third day he will raise us up, and we shall live in his sight.
Then shall we know, if we follow on to know the LORD: his going forth prepared as the morning, and he shall come unto us as the rain, as the latter & former rain unto the earth.
O Ephraim, what shall I do unto
? O Judah, what shall I do unto
? for your goodness is as a morning
ud, & as the early dew it goeth away.
Therefore have I hewed them by the phets; I have slain them by the rds of my mouth: and thy judge-nts are as the light that goeth forth.
For I desired mercy, and not sa-ifice; and the knowledge of God
re than burnt offerings.
But they like men have transgressed venant: there have they dealt ly against me.
Gilead is a city of them that work
quity, and is polluted with blood.
And as troupes of robbers wait
r a man, so the company of Priests murder in the way by consent, for y commit lewdness.
I have seen an horrible thing in house of Israel: there is the whorem of Ephraim, Israel is defiled.

11 Also, O Judah, he hath set an harvest for thee, when I returned the captivity of my people.

CHAP. VII.

When I would have healed Israel, then the iniquity of Ephraim was discovered, and the wickedness of Samaria: for they commit falsehood; and the thief commeth in, and the troupe of robbers spoileth without.
And they consider not in their hearts that I remember all their wickedness: now their own doings have beset them about; they are before my face.
They make the king glad with their wickedness, & the princes with their lies.
They are all adulterers, as an oven heated by the baker, who ceaseth from raising, after he hath kneaded the dough, until it be leavened.
In the day of our king the princes have made him sick with bottels of wine; he stretched out his hand with scorners.
For they have made ready their heart like an oven, while they lie in wait:
their baker sleepeth all the night, in y morning it burneth like a flaming fire.
They are all hot as an oven, and have devoured their judges: all their kings are fallen: there is none among them that calleth unto me.
Ephraim, he hath mixed himself among the people; Ephraim is a cake not turned.
Strangers have devoured his strength, and he knoweth it not: yea, gray haires are here and there upon him, yet he knoweth not.
And the pride of Israel testifieth to his face and they do not return to the Lord their God, nor seek him for all this.
Ephraim also is like a silly dove, without heart: they call to Egypt, they go to Assyria.
When they shall go, I will spread my net on them, I will bring them down as the fowls of the heaven: I will chastise them, as their congregation hath heard.
Woe unto them, for they have fled from me: destruction unto them, because they have transgressed against me, though I have redeemed them, yet they have spoken lies against me.
And they have not cried to me with their heart, when they howled upon their beds: they assemble themselves for corn & wine, & they rebel against me.
Though I have bound & strengthened their arms, yet do they imagine mischief against me.
They return, but not to the most High: they are like a deceitful bow:
their princes shall fall by the sword, for the rage of their tongue: this shall be their derision in the land of Egypt.

CHAP. VIII.

Set the trumpet to thy mouth: he shall come as an eagle against the house of the LORD, because they have transgressed my covenant, and trespassed against my Law.

2 Israel shal cry unto me, my God, we know thee.

3 Israel hath cast off the thing that is good: the enemy shal pursue him.

4 They have set up kings, but not by me: they have made princes, and I knew it not: of their silver and their golde have they made them idols, that they may be cut off.

5 Thy calfe, O Samaria, hath cast thee off, mine anger is kindled against them: how long wil it be ere they attain to innocency?

6 For from Israel was it also: the workman made it, therefore it is not God: but the calfe of Samaria shal be broken in peeces.

7 For they have sowen the wind, and they reap whirlwind: it hath no stalk: the bud shal yeeld no meal: if so be it yeeld, y strangers shal fwallow it up.

8 Israel is fwallowed up, now shal they be among the Gentiles, as a vessel wherein is no pleasure.

9 For they are gone up to Assyria, a wild asse alone by himself: Ephraim hath hired lovers.

10 Yea though they have hyred among the nations, now wil I gather them, and they shal sorrow a little for the burden of the king of princes.

11 Because Ephraim hath made many altars to sin, altars shal be for him to sin.

12 I have written to him the great things of my law: but they were counted as a strange thing.

13 They sacrifice flesh for the sacrifices of mine offerings, and eat it: but the LORD accepteth them not: now wil he remember their iniquity, & visit their sins, they shal return to Egypt.

14 For Israel hath forgotten his Maker, and buildeth temples; & Iudah hath multiplied fenced cities: but I wil send a fire upon his cities and it shal devour the palaces thereof.

CHAP. IX.

REioyce not, O Israel, for ioy, as do other people: for thou hast gone a whoring from thy God: thou hast loved a reward on every corn floore.

2 The floore and the winepresse shal not feed them, and the new wine shal fayle in her.

3 They shall not dwel in the LORDS land: but Ephraim shal return to Egypt, and they shall eate unclean things in Assyria.

4 They shal not offer wine offerings to the LORD: neither shal they be pleasing unto him: their sacrifice shal be unto them as y bread of mourners: al that eate thereof shal be polluted: for their bread for their soule shal not come into the house of the LORD.

5 What wil ye doe in the solemn day, and in y day of the feast of y LORD?

6 For lo, they are gone because of destruction: Egypt shal gather them up, Memphis shal bury them: y pleasant places for their silver, nettles shal possesse them: thorns shal be in their tabernacles.

7 The dayes of visitation are come, y dayes of recompence are come, Israel shal know it: the Prophet is a fool, the spiritual man is mad, for y multitude of thy iniquity, & y great hatred.

8 The watchman of Ephraim was with my God: but the Prophet is a snare of a Fowler in all his wayes, and hatred in the house of his God.

9 They have deepely corrupted themselves, as in the dayes of Gibeah: therefore he wil remember their iniquity, he wil visit their sins.

10 I found Israel like grapes in y wildernesse: I saw your fathers as the first ripe in the fig-tree at her first time: but they went to Baal-peor, and separated themselves to y shame, & their abominations were according as they loved.

11 As for Ephraim, their glory shal flie away like a bird: from y birth, & from the wombe, and from the conception.

12 Though they bring up their children, yet wil I bereave them, that there shal not be a man left, yea, woe also to them when I depart from them.

13 Ephraim, as I saw Tyrus, is planted in a pleasant place: but Ephraim shal bring forth his children to y murderer.

14 Give them, O LORD: what wilt thou give? give them a miscarrying wombe, and dry breasts.

15 All their wickednesse is in Gilgal: for there I hated them: for the wickednesse of their doings I wil drive them out of mine house, I wil love them no more: al their princes are rebellious.

16 Ephraim is smitten, their root is dried up: they shal beare no fruit: yea, though they bring forth, yet wil I slay even the beloved fruit of their wombe.

17 My God wil cast them away, because they did not hearken unto him: & they shal be wanderers among the nations.

CHAP. X.

ISrael is an empty vine: he bringeth forth fruit to himself: according to y multitude of his fruit, he hath increased the altars: according to y goodnes of his land, they have made goodly images.

2 Their heart is divided: now shal they be found faulty: he shal break down their altars: he shal spoile their Images.

3 For (now they shal say) We have no king, because we feared not y LORD: What then should a king doe for us?

4 They have spoken words, sweering falsely in making a Covenant: thus iudgement springeth up as hemlocke in the furrowes of the field.

5 The inhabitants of Samaria shal feare, because of the calfes of Bethaven: for the people thereof shal mourn over it, and the priests thereof that rejoyce on it, for the glory thereof, because it is departed from it.

6 It shal be also carried unto Assyria for a present for king Iareb: Ephraim shal receive shame, and Israel shal be ashamed of his owne counsel.

7 As for Samaria, her King is cut off, as the foame upon the water.

8 The

Bethaven places also of Aven: y Iſ-rael ſhall be deſtroyed: the thorn and the thiſtle ſhall come upon their altars: & they ſhall ſay to y mountains cover us: and to the hills Fall on us.
9 O Iſrael, thou haſt ſinned from the time of Gibeah: there they ſtood: the battel in Gibeah againſt the children of iniquity did not overtake them.
10 It is in my deſire that I ſhould chaſtiſe them: and the people ſhall be gathered againſt them, when they ſhall bind themſelves in their two furrows.
11 And Ephraim is as an heifer that is taught, & loveth to tread out y corn: but I paſſed over upon her fair neck: I will make Ephraim to ride: Judah ſhall plow, and Jacob ſhall break his clods.
12 Sow to your ſelves in righteouſneſs, reap in mercy, breake up your fallow ground: for it is time to ſeeke
the LORD, till he come and raine
righteouſneſs upon you.
13 Ye have plowed wickedneſſe, ye have reaped iniquity, ye have eaten y fruit of lies: becauſe thou didſt truſt in thy own way, in the multitude of thy mighty men.
14 Therefore ſhall a tumult ariſe among thy people, and all thy fortreſſes ſhall be ſpoiled, as Shalman ſpoiled Bethel in the day of battel: y mother was daſhed in pieces on her children.
15 So ſhall Bethel doe to you, becauſe of your great wickedneſs, in a morning ſhall the king of Iſrael be utterly cut off.

CHAP. XI.

1 When Iſrael was a childe, then I loved him, and called my ſon out of Egypt.
2 As they called them, ſo they went from them: they ſacrificed unto Baalim, and burned incenſe to graven images.
3 I taught Ephraim alſo to go, taking them by their armes: but they knew not that I healed them.
4 I drew them with cords of a man, with bands of love: and I was to them as they that take off the yoke on their jawes, and I laid meat unto them.
5 He ſhall not return into the land of Egypt, but the Aſſyrian ſhall be his king, becauſe they refuſed to return.
6 And the ſword ſhall abide on his cities, and ſhall conſume his branches, and devoure them, becauſe of their own counſels.
7 And my people are bent to backeſliding from me: though they called them to the moſt High, none at all would exalt him.
8 How ſhall I give thee up, Ephraim?
how ſhall I deliver thee, Iſrael? how ſhall I make thee as Admah? how ſhall I ſet thee as Zeboim? mine heart is turned within me, my repentings are kindled together.
9 I will not execute the fierceneſſe of mine anger, I will not return to deſtroy Ephraim: for I am God and not man, the holy One in the midſt of thee:
and I will not enter into the city.
10 They ſhall walk after y LORD: he ſhall roar like a lion: when he ſhall roar, then y children ſhall tremble from y Weſt.
11 They ſhall tremble as a bird out of Egypt, and as a dove out of the land of Aſſyria: and I will place them in their houſes, ſaith the LORD.
12 Ephraim compaſſeth me about with lies, and the houſe of Iſrael with deceit: but Judah yet ruleth with God, and is faithfull with the Saints.

CHAP. XII.

1 Ephraim feedeth on wind, and fol-loweth after the Eaſt wind: he daily increaſeth lies and deſolation: and they doe make a covenant with the Aſſyrians, & oyl is carried into Egypt.
2 The LORD hath alſo a contro-verſie with Judah, and will puniſh Jacob according to his wayes according to his doings will he recompenſe him.
3 He took his brother by the heele in the wombe, and by his ſtrength hee had power with God.
4 Yea, he had power over the Angel, and prevailed: he wept, and made ſupplication unto him: he found him in Bethel, and there he ſpake with us.
5 Even the LORD God of hoſtes,
the LORD is his memorial.
6 Therefore turn thou to thy God:
keepe mercy and judgement, and wait on thy God continually.
7 He is a merchant, the ballances of deceit are in his hand: he loveth to oppreſſe.
8 And Ephraim ſaid, Yet I am become rich, I have found me out ſubſtance in all my labours they ſhall find none iniquity in me, that were ſin.
9 And I that am the LORD thy God, from the land of Egypt, will make thee to dwel in tabernacles, as in the dayes of the ſolemne feaſt.
10 I have alſo ſpoken by y Prophets, and I have multiplied viſions, & uſed ſimilitudes, by y miſtery of y Prophets.
11 Is there iniquity in Gilead? ſurely they are vanity, they ſacrifice bullockes in Gilgal, yea, their altars are as heaps in the furrowes of the fields.
12 And Jacob fled into the country of Syria, and Iſrael ſerved for a wife, and for a wife he kept ſheepe.
13 And by a Prophet the Lord brought Iſrael out of Egypt, and by a Prophet was he preſerved.
14 Ephraim provoked him to anger moſt bitterly: therefore ſhall he leave his blood upon him, and his reproath ſhall his Lord return unto him.

CHAP. XIII.

1 When Ephraim ſpake trembling, he exalted himſelf in Iſrael, but when he offended in Baal, he died.
2 And now they ſin more and more, and have made them molten images of their ſilver, & idols according to their own underſtanding, all of it the work of the craftſmen: of y ſay they of them, Let the men that ſacrifice, kiſſe the calves.
3 Therefore they ſhall be as y morning cloud, & as the early dew it paſſeth away,

way, as the chaffe that is driven with a whirlewind out of the floor, and as the smoake out of the chimney.

4 Yet I am y Lord thy God from y land of Egypt, & thou shalt know no God but me, for there is no Saviour beside me.

5 I did know thee in the wilderness, in the land of great drought.

6 According to their pasture, so were they filled, they were filled, and their heart was exalted, therefore have they forgotten me.

7 Therefore I will be unto them as a Lion, as a Leopard by the way will I observe them.

8 I will meete them as a Beare that is bereaved of her whelpes, and will rent the caule of their heart, and there will I devoure them like a Lyon, the wilde beasts shall teare them.

9 O Israel, thou hast destroyed thy self but in me is thine helpe.

10 I will be thy king where is any other that may save thee in all thy cities? and thy Iudges, of whom thou saidest, Give me a king and Princes?

11 I gave thee a king in mine anger, and took him away in my wrath.

12 The iniquity of Ephraim is bound vp, his sinne is hid.

13 The sorrowes of a trauelling woman shall come vpon him: he is an vnwise sonne, for he shall not stay long in the place of y breaking forth of children.

14 I will ransome them from the power of the grave: I will redeem them from death. O death, I will be thy plagues: O grave, I will be thy destruction: repentance shall be hid from mine eyes.

15 Though he be fruitfull among his brethren, an East wind shall come, the wind of the Lord shall come vp from the wildernes, and his spring shall come dry, and his fountain shall be dried vp: the shall spoile the treasure of all pleasant vessels.

16 Samaria shall become desolate, for she hath rebelled against her God: they shall fall by the sword: their infants shall be dashed in pieces, and their women with child shall be ript vp.

CHAP. XIIII.

O Israel, return to the Lord thy God, for y hast fallen by thine iniquity.

2 Take with you words, and turne to the Lord, say vnto him, Take away all iniquity, and receive vs graciously: so will we render the calves of our lips.

3 Assur shall not save vs, we will not ride vpon horses, neither will we say any more to the work of our hands, Ye are our gods: for in thee the fatherless findeth mercy.

4 I will heale their backsliding, I will love them freely: for mine anger is turned away from him.

5 I will be as the dew vnto Israel: he shall grow as the lilly, and cast forth his roots as Lebanon.

6 His branches shall spread, and his beauty shall be as the Olive tree, and his smel as Lebanon.

7 They that dwell vnder his shadow shall returne: they shall revive as the corne, and grow as the vine: the renowne of him shall be as y wine of Lebanon.

8 Ephraim shall say, What have I to do any more with idols? I have heard him, & observed him. I am like a greene fir tree: from me is thy fruit found.

9 Who is wise, and he shall understand these things: prudent, & he shall know them? for the wayes of the Lord are right, and the iust shall walke in them: but the transgressours shall fall therein.

IOEL.

CHAP. I.

THE word of y LORD y came to Ioel, the son of Pethuel.

2 Heare this ye old men, & give eare, all ye inhabitants of y land: hath this been in your dayes, or even in the dayes of your fathers?

3 Tell ye your children of it, and let your children tell their children, and their children another generation.

4 That which the palmer-worm hath left, hath the locust eaten, and that which the locust hath left, hath the caterpiller eaten, and y the canker-worm hath left, hath the caterpiller eaten.

5 Awake ye drunkards, & weepe, and howle all ye drinkers of wine, because of the new wine, for it is cut off from your mouth.

6 For a nation is come vp on my land, strong, and without number, whose teeth are y teeth of a lion, and he hath the cheeke teeth of a great lyon.

7 He hath laid my vine waste, and barked my figtree, he hath made it bare, and cast it away, the branches thereof are made white.

8 Lament like a virgine girded with sackcloth for y husband of her youth.

9 The meat offering and y drinke offering is cut off from y house of y Lord: the priests the Lords ministers mourne.

10 The field is waste, the land mourneth: for the corne is wasted: the new wine is dried vp, the oil languisheth.

11 Be ye ashamed, O ye husbandmen, howle, O ye vine-dressers, for the wheat and for the barley, because the harvest of the field is perished.

12 The vine is dryed vp, and the figtree languisheth: the pomegranate tree, the palme tree also, & the apple tree, even all trees of y field are withered: because joy is withered away from y sons of men.

13 Gird your selves, and lament ye priests, howle ye ministers of the Altar, come, lie all night in sackcloth, ye ministers of my God: for the meat offering and the drinke offering is withholden from the house of your God.

14 Sanctifie ye a fast, call a solemne assembly, gather ye the elders, and all the inhabitants of y land into y house of the Lord your God, and cry to the Lord.

30 And I will shew wonders in the heavens, and in the earth, blood, and fire, and pillars of smoake.

31 The sun shalbe turned into darkenes, & the moon into blood, before y great and the terrible day of the Lord come.

32 And it shal come to pas, that whosoever shal call upon the Name of the Lord, shalbe delivered: for in mount Zion, & in Ierusalem shalbe deliverance, as the Lord hath said, and in the remnant whom the LORD shal call.

CHAP. III.

FOr behold, in those daies, & in that time, when I shal bring againe the captivity of Iudah and Ierusalem,

2 I will also gather all nations, and will bring them down into the valley of Iehoshaphat, and will plead with them there for my people, & for my heritage Israel, whom they have scattered among the nations, and parted my land.

3 And they have cast lots for my people, & have given a boy for an harlot, & solde a girl for wine, y they might drink.

4 Yea, and what have ye to do with me, O Tyre, and Zidon, and all the coasts of Palestine? will ye render me a recompense? and if ye recompense me, swiftly and speedily will I return your recompense upon your owne head.

5 Because ye have taken my silver, and my gold, and have caried into your temples my goodly pleasant things,

6 The children also of Iudah, and the children of Ierusalem have ye sold unto the Grecians, that ye might remove them far from their border.

7 Behold, I will raise them out of the place whither ye have sold them, and will returne your recompense upon your owne head.

8 And I will sell your sons and your daughters into the hand of the children of Iudah, and they shal sel them to the Sabeans to a people far off: for the LORD hath spoken it.

9 Proclaime ye this among the Gentiles, prepare warre, wake up the mighty men, let all the men of warre draw neer, let them come up.

10 Beat your plow-shares into swords, and your pruning hookes into speares: let the weake say, I am strong.

11 Assemble your selves and come, all ye heathen, and gather your selves together round about: thither cause thy mighty ones to come down, O Lord.

12 Let the heathen be wakened, & come up to the valley of Iehoshaphat: for there will I sit to judge all the heathen round about.

13 Put ye in the sickle, for the harvest is ripe: come, get ye down, for the presse is full, the fats overflow, for their wickednes is great.

14 Multitudes, multitudes in the valley of decision: for the day of the Lord is neer in the valley of decision.

15 The Sun and the Moone shall be darkened, and the starres shal withdraw their shining.

16 The Lord also shal roare out of Zion, & utter his voyce from Ierusalem, & y heavens & y earth shal shake: but the Lord shal be y hope of his people, & the strength of the children of Israel.

17 So shal ye know that I am the Lord your God, dwelling in Zion my holy mountaine: then shal Ierusalem be holy, and there shal no strangers passe through her any more.

18 And it shall come to passe in that day, that the mountaines shall drop down new wine, and the hils shal flow with milk, and all the rivers of Iudah shal flow with waters, and a fountaine shal come forth of y house of the Lord, and shall water the valley of Shittim.

19 Egypt shalbe a desolation, and Edom shalbe a desolate wildernes, for the violence against the children of Iudah, because they have shed innocent blood in their land.

20 But Iudah shal dwell for ever, and Ierusalem from generation to generation.

21 For I will cleanse their blood that I have not cleansed, for the LORD dwelleth in Zion.

AMOS.

CHAP. I.

THe words of Amos, which was among the herdmen of Tekoa, which he saw concerning Israel, in the daies of Vzziah king of Iudah, and in the daies of Ieroboam the son of Ioash king of Israel two yeers before the earthquake.

2 And he said, The LORD will roare out of Zion, & utter his voyce from Ierusalem, and the habitations of the shepherds shal mourne, and the top of Carmel shal wither.

3 Thus saith y Lord, For three transgressions of Damascus, and for four I will not turne away the punishment thereof, because they have threshed Gilead with threshing instruments of iron:

4 But I will send a fire into the house of Hazael, which shal devoure the palaces of Benhadad.

5 I will breake also the barre of Damascus, and cut off the inhabitant from the plaine of Auen, & him that holdeth the scepter from the house of Eden: and the people of Syria shall go into captivity unto Kir, saith the Lord.

…gressions of Moab, and for foure, I …will not turne away the punishment
…thereof, because he burnt the bones of
…the king of Edome into lime.

But I will send a fire upon Moab, & it
…shal devour the palaces of Kirioth, & Moab
…shal die with tumult, & shouting, & with the …sound of the trumpet:

And I will cut off the iudge from
…the midst thereof, and wil slay all the …princes thereof with him, saith ỹ LORD.

Thus saith the LORD, For three
…transgressions of Iudah, and for foure,
…I will not turne away the punishment
…thereof, because they have despised the …law of the LORD, and have not …kept his commandments, and their lies …caused them to erre, after the which
…their fathers have walked.

But I will send a fire on Iudah, and it
…shal devoure ỹ palaces of Jerusalem.

Thus saith the Lord, For three trans-
…gressions of Israel, and for four, I will
…not turne away the punishment thereof,
…because they sold the righteous for silver,
…& the poore for a paire of shoes.

That pant after the dust of the earth,
…on the head of the poore, & turn aside
…the way of the meeke: and a man and …his father will goe in unto the same
…maide, to profane my holy Name.

And they lay themselves down upon
…clothes laid to pledge by every Altar,
…and they drinke the wine of the con…demned in the house of their god.

Yet destroyed I the Amorite before …them, whose height was like ỹ height …of the cedars, and he was strong as the
…oakes: yet I destroyed his fruit from a…bove, and his rootes from beneath.

Also I brought you up from the …land of Egypt, and led you forty yeers
…through the wilderness, to possesse the …land of the Amorites.

And I raised up of your sons for …Prophets, and of your young men for …Nazarites. Is it not even thus, O yee
…children of Israel, saith the LORD?

But ye gave the Nazarites wine to
…drinke, and commanded the Prophets,
…saying, Prophecie not.

Behold, I am pressed under you,
…as a cart is pressed that is full of sheaves.

Therefore the flight shall perish
…from the swift, and the strong shal not …strengthen his force, neither shal the
…mighty deliver himselfe:

Neither shal he that handleth
…the bow, & he that is swift of foot,
…shal not deliver himselfe, neither shal
…he that rideth ỹ horse deliver himself.

And he that is couragious among …the mighty shall flee away naked in
…that day, saith the LORD.

CHAP. III.

HEare this word that the Lord hath …spoken against you, O children of …Israel, against ỹ whole family, which I
…brought up from ỹ land of Egypt, saying:

You only have I known of all the …families of the earth: therefore I wil
…punish you for all your iniquities.

Can two walke together, except
…they be agreed?

Will a lion roar in the forrest, when
…he hath no pray? wil a young lyon cry
…out of his denne? if he have taken nothing.

Can a bird fall in a snare upon the …earth, where no gynne is for him? shal
…one take up a snare from the earth, and
…have taken nothing at all?

Shal a trumpet be blowne in the …city, and the people not be afraid? shall
…there be evil in a city, and the LORD
…hath not done it?

Surely the Lord GOD will do no …thing, but he revealeth his secret unto
…his servants the Prophets.

The lyon hath roared, Who wil not
…feare? The Lord GOD hath spoken,
…who can but prophesie?

Publish in the palaces at Ashdod, &
…in the palaces in the land of Egypt, &
…say, Assemble your selves upon
…the mountaines of Samaria, and behold
…the great tumults in the midst thereof,
…and the oppressed in the midst thereof.

For they know not to doe right,
…saith the Lord, who store up violence, and

and robbery in their palaces.

11 Therefore thus saith the Lord, God, An aduersary there shalbe even round about the land: & he shal bring downthy strength from thee, and they palaces shalbe spoiled.

12 Thus saith the Lord, As the shepheard taketh out of the mouth of the lyon two leggs, or a piece of an eare, so shal the children of Israel be taken out that dwell in Samaria, in the corner of a bed and in Damascus in a couch.

13 Heare ye, & testifie in the house of Iacob, saith y Lord God, y God of hosts, 14 That in the day that I shal visite the transgressions of Israel upon him, I will also visite the altars of Bethel, and the horns of the Altar shalbe cut off, and fal to the ground.

15 And I will smite the winter house with the summer house, and the house of Ivorie shal perish, & y great houses shal have an end, saith the Lord.

CHAP. III.

HEare this word ye kine of Bashan, that are in the mountaine of Samaria, which oppresse y poor, which crush the needy, which say to their masters, Bring, and let us drink.

2 The Lord GOD hath sworne by his Holinesse, that lo, the dayes shal come on you, that he will take you away with hookes, & your posteritie & fish hookes.

3 And ye shal goe out at the breaches, every cow at that which is before her, and ye shal cast them into the Palace, saith the Lord.

4 Come to Bethel and transgresse, at Gilgal multiply transgression, and bring your sacrifices every Morning, and your tithes after three years.

5 And offer a sacrifice of thanksgiving with leaven, and proclaim, & publish the free offrings: for this liketh you O ye children of Israel, saith y Lord God.

6 And I also have given you cleanes of teeth in all your cities, and want of bread in all your places: yet have ye not returned to me, saith the Lord.

7 And also I have withholden the raine from you, when there were yet three moneths to the harvest, and I caused it to raine on one city, & caused it not to raine upon another city, one piece was rained upon, and the piece whereupon it rained not, withered.

8 So two or three cities wandered to one citie to drink water, but they were not satisfied: yet have ye not returned unto me, saith the LORD.

9 I have smitten you with blasting and mildew, when your gardens, and your vineyards, and your figtrees, and your olive trees increased, the palmer worme devoured them: yet have ye not returned unto me, saith the Lord.

10 I have sent among you y pestilence, after the manner of Egypt: your young men have I slaine with the sword, and have taken away your horses, and I have made the stinke of your camps to come up unto your nostrils: yet have ye not returned unto me, saith the Lord.

11 I have overthrown some of you, as God overthrew Sodome and Gomorrah, and ye were as a firebrand plucked out of the burning: yet have not returned unto me, saith the Lord.

12 Therefore thus will I do unto you, O Israel, and because I will do this unto thee, prepare to meet thy God, O Israel.

13 For loe, he that formeth the mountaines, and createth the winde, and declareth unto man what is his thought, that maketh the morning darkenesse, & treadeth vpon the high places of the earth, The Lord the God of hosts is his name.

CHAP. V.

HEare ye this word which I take vp against you, even a lamentation, O house of Israel.

2 The virgine of Israel is fallen, she shal no more rise, she is forsaken upon her land, there is none to raise her vp.

3 For thus saith the Lord GOD, The citie that went out by a thousand, shal leave an hundred, and that which went foorth by an hundred, shal leave ten to the house of Israel.

4 For thus saith the LORD to the house of Israel, Seeke ye me, and ye shal live.

5 But seek not Bethel, nor enter into Gilgal, and passe not to Beersheba: for Gilgal shal surely go into captivitie, and Bethel shal come to nought.

6 Seeke the Lord, and ye shal live, lest he breake out like fire in the house of Ioseph, and devoure it, and there be none to quench it in Bethel.

7 Ye who turne iudgement to wormwood, and leave off righteousnesse in the earth:

8 Seek him y maketh the seven starres & Orion, & turneth y shadow of death into y morning, and maketh y day dark with night: y calleth for the waters of the Sea, and powreth them out on the face of the earth: the Lord is his name.

9 That strengthneth the spoiled against the strong: so that the spoiled shal come against the fortresse.

10 They hate him that rebuketh in the gate, and they abhor him that speaketh uprightly.

11 Forasmuch therefore as your treading is on the poor, & ye take from him burdens of wheate: ye have built houses of hewen stone, but ye shal not dwell in them: ye have planted pleasant vineyards, but ye shal not drink wine of them.

12 For I know your manifold transgressions, and your mighty sinnes: they afflict the iust, they take a bribe, & they turne aside the poore in the gate from their right.

13 Therefore the prudent shal keep silence in y time: for it is an evil time.

14 Seek good, and not evil, that ye may live: & so the LORD the God of hosts shalbe with you, as ye have spoken.

15 Hate the evil, and love the good, and establish iudgement in the gate: it may be that the Lord God of hosts will be

12 Also

12 Also Amaziah said unto Amos, O thou Seer, go, flee thee away into the land of Judah, and there eat bread, and prophesie there.

13 But prophesie not again any more at Bethel: for it is the king's Chapel, and it is the king's Court.

14 Then answered Amos, and said to Amaziah, I was no Prophet, neither was I a Prophet's son; but I was an herdman, and a gatherer of Sycamore fruit:

15 And the Lord took me as I followed the flock, and the Lord said to me, Go, prophesie unto my people Israel.

16 Now therefore hear ye the word of the Lord, thou sayest, Prophesie not against Israel, and drop not thy word against the house of Isaac.

17 Therefore thus saith the Lord, Thy wife shall be an harlot in the city, and thy sons and thy daughters shall fall by the sword, and thy land shall be divided by line; and thou shalt die in a polluted land, and Israel shall surely go into captivity forth of his land.

CHAP. VIII.

THus hath the Lord GOD shewed unto me, and behold, a basket of summer fruit.

2 And he said, Amos, what seest thou? And I said, A basket of summer fruit. Then said the Lord unto me, The end is come upon my people of Israel, I will not again pass by them any more.

3 And the songs of the temple shall be howlings in that day, saith the Lord GOD: there shall be many dead bodies in every place, they shall cast them forth with silence.

4 Hear this, O ye that swallow up the needy, even to make the poor of the land to fail,

5 Saying, When will the new Moon be gone, that we may sell corn? and the Sabbath, that we may set forth wheat, making the ephah small, and the shekel great, and falsifying the balances by deceit?

6 That we may buy the poor for silver, and the needy for a pair of shoes, yea, and sell the refuse of the wheat?

7 The LORD hath sworn by the excellency of Jacob, Surely I will never forget any of their works.

8 Shall not the land tremble for this, and every one mourn that dwelleth therein? and it shall rise up wholly as a flood; and it shall be cast out and drowned, as by the flood of Egypt.

9 And it shall come to pass in that day, saith the Lord GOD, that I will cause the Sun to go down at noon, and I will darken the earth in the clear day.

10 And I will turn your feasts into mourning, and all your songs into lamentation; and I will bring up sackcloth upon all loins, and baldness upon every head; and I will make it as the mourning of an only son, and the end thereof as a bitter day.

11 Behold, the days come, saith the Lord GOD, that I will send a famine in the land, not a famine of bread, nor a thirst for water, but of hearing the words of the LORD:

12 And they shall wander from sea to sea, and from the North even to the East, they shall run to and fro to seek the word of the LORD, and shall not find it.

13 In that day shall the fair virgins and young men faint for thirst.

14 They that swear by the sin of Samaria, and say, Thy God, O Dan, liveth; and the manner of Beer-sheba liveth; they shall fall, and never rise up.

CHAP. IX.

I Saw the Lord standing upon the altar: and he said, Smite the lintel of the door, that the posts may shake: and cut them in the head of all of them; and I will slay the last of them with the sword: he that fleeth of them shall not flee away, and he that escapeth of them shall not be delivered.

2 Though they dig into hell, thence shall mine hand take them; though they climb up to heaven, thence will I bring them down:

3 And though they hide themselves in the top of Carmel, I will search and take them out thence; and though they be hid out of my sight in the bottom of the sea, thence will I command the serpent, and he shall bite them:

4 And though they go into captivity before their enemies, thence will I command the sword, and it shall slay them: and I will set mine eyes upon them for evil, and not for good.

5 And the Lord GOD of hosts is he that toucheth the land, and it shall melt, and all that dwell therein shall mourn: and it shall rise up wholly like a flood, and shall be drowned again, as by the flood of Egypt.

6 It is he that buildeth his stories in the heaven, and hath founded his troop in the earth; he that calleth for the waters of the sea, and poureth them out upon the face of the earth: The LORD is his name.

7 Are ye not as children of the Ethiopians unto me, O children of Israel? saith the LORD. Have not I brought up Israel out of the land of Egypt? and the Philistines from Caphtor, and the Syrians from Kir?

8 Behold, the eyes of the Lord GOD are upon the sinful kingdom, and I will destroy it from off the face of the earth; saving that I will not utterly destroy the house of Jacob, saith the LORD.

9 For, lo, I will command, and I will sift the house of Israel among all nations, like as corn is sifted in a sieve, yet shall not the least grain fall upon the earth.

10 All the sinners of my people shall die by the sword, which say, The evil shall not overtake nor prevent us.

11 In that day will I raise up the tabernacle of David that is fallen, and close up the breaches thereof; and I will raise up his ruins, and I will build it as in the days of old.

12 That they may possess the remnant of Edom, and all the heathen, which are called by my Name, saith the LORD that doeth this.

the days come, saith the LORD, that the ploughman shall overtake the reaper, and the treader of the grapes him that soweth seed; and the mountains shall drop sweet wine, and all the hills shall melt.

14 And I will bring again the captivity of my people of Israel, and they shall build the waste cities, & inhabit them; and they shall plant vineyards, & drink the wine thereof: they shall also make gardens, and eat the fruit of them.

15 And I will plant them upon their land, and they shall no more be pulled up out of their land, which I have given them, saith the LORD thy God.

OBADIAH.

THE vision of Obadiah. Thus saith the Lord GOD concerning Edom; We have heard a rumour from the LORD, and an Ambassador is sent among the heathen, Arise ye, and let us rise up against her in battle.

2 Behold, I have made thee small among the heathen: thou art greatly despised.

3 The pride of thine heart hath deceived thee, thou that dwellest in the clefts of the rock, whose habitation is high; that saith in his heart, Who shall bring me down to the ground?

4 Though thou exalt thyself as the eagle, and though thou set thy nest among the stars, thence will I bring thee down, saith the LORD.

5 If thieves came to thee, if robbers by night, (how art thou cut off!) would they not have stolen till they had enough? if the grapegatherers came to thee, would they not leave some gleanings? how are the things of Esau searched! how are his hidden things sought out!

6 All the men of thy confederacy have brought thee even to the border: the men that were at peace with thee have deceived thee, and prevailed against thee; they that eat thy bread have laid a wound under thee: there is none understanding in him.

7 Shall I not in that day, saith the LORD, even destroy the wise men out of Edom, and understanding out of the mount of Esau?

8 And thy mighty men, O Teman, shall be dismayed, to the end that every one of the mount of Esau may be cut off by slaughter.

9 For thy violence against thy brother Jacob shame shall cover thee, and thou shalt be cut off for ever.

10 In the day that thou stoodest on the other side, in the day that the strangers carried away captive his forces, & foreigners entered into his gates, and cast lots upon Jerusalem, even thou wast as one of them.

11 But thou shouldest not have looked on the day of thy brother in the day that he became a stranger; neither shouldest thou have rejoiced over the children of Judah in the day of their destruction; neither shouldest thou have spoken proudly in the day of distress.

12 Thou shouldest not have entered into the gate of my people in the day of their calamity, yea thou shouldest not have looked on their affliction in the day of their calamity, nor have laid hands on their substance in the day of their calamity.

13 Neither shouldest thou have stood in the crossway to cut off those of his that did escape; neither shouldest thou have delivered up those of his that did remain in the day of distress.

14 For the day of the LORD is near upon all the heathen: as thou hast done, it shall be done unto thee: thy reward shall return upon thine own head.

15 For as ye have drunk upon my holy mountain, so shall all the heathen drink continually, yea, they shall drink, and they shall swallow down, and they shall be as though they had not been.

16 But upon mount Zion shall be deliverance, and there shall be holiness; & the house of Jacob shall possess their possessions.

17 And the house of Jacob shall be a fire, and the house of Joseph a flame, and the house of Esau for stubble, & they shall kindle in them & devour them; & there shall not any remain of the house of Esau; for the LORD hath spoken it.

18 And they of the south shall possess the mount of Esau, & they of the plain the Philistines: & they shall possess the fields of Ephraim, and the fields of Samaria, and Benjamin shall possess Gilead.

19 And the captivity of this host of the children of Israel shall possess that of the Canaanites, even unto Zarephath, and the captivity of Jerusalem, which is in Sepharad, shall possess the cities of the south.

20 And saviours shall come up on mount Zion, to judge the mount of Esau; and the kingdom shall be the LORDS.

JONAH.

CHAP. I.

NOW the word of the LORD came unto Jonah the son of Amittai, saying,

2 Arise, go to Nineveh, that great city, and cry against it; for their wickedness is come up before me.

3 But Jonah rose up to flee unto Tarshish from the presence of the LORD, and went down to Joppa and he found a ship going to Tarshish: so he paid the fare thereof, and went down into it, to go with them unto Tarshish from the presence of the LORD.

4 But the LORD sent out a great wind into the sea, and there was a mighty tempest in the sea, so that the ship was like to be broken.

5 Then the mariners were afraid, and cried

Jonahs praying.

cryed every man unto his God, and cast forth y wares y were in y ship into y Sea, to lighten it or them: but Jonah was gone downe into the sides of the ship, and he lay, and was fast asleep.

6 So the shipmaster came to him, and said unto him, What meanest thou, O sleeper? Arise, call upon thy God, if so be that God will think upon us, that we perish not.

7 And they said every one to his fellow, Come, and let us cast lots, that we may know for whose cause this evil is upon us. So they cast lots, and the lot fell upon Jonah.

8 Then said they to him, Tell us we pray thee, for whose cause this evil is upon us: What is thine occupation? & whence comest thou? What is thy country? and of what people art thou?

9 And he said unto them, I am an Hebrew, and I fear the LORD the God of heaven, which hath made the sea and the dry land.

10 Then were the men exceedingly afraid, and said unto him, why hast thou done this? (for y men knew that he fled from the presence of the LORD, because he had told them.)

11 Then said they unto him, What shal we do unto thee, that the sea may be calm unto us? (for the sea wrought, and was tempestuous.)

12 And he said to them, Take me up, & cast me forth into y sea, so shall the sea be calm unto you: for I know y for my sake this great tempest is on you.

13 Never the lesse, the men rowed hard to bring it to the land, but they could not: for the sea wrought, and was tempestuous against them.

14 Wherefore they cryed unto the LORD, and said, We beseech thee, O LORD, we beseech thee, Let us not perish for this mans life, and lay not upon us innocent blood: for thou, O LORD, hast done as it pleased thee.

15 So they took up Jonah, and cast him forth into the sea, and the sea ceased from her raging.

16 Then the men feared the LORD exceedingly, and offered a sacrifice unto the LORD, and made vows.

17 Now the LORD had prepared a great fish to swallow up Jonah; and Jonah was in the belly of the fish three dayes, and three nights.

CHAP. II.

Then Jonah prayed unto the LORD his God out of the fishes belly,

2 And said, I cried by reason of mine affliction unto the LORD, and he heard me, out of the belly of hell cryed I, and thou heardest my voyce.

3 For thou hadst cast me into the deep, in the midst of the seas, and the floods compassed me about, all thy billows and thy waves passed over me.

4 Then I said, I am cast out of thy sight; yet I will look again toward thy holy Temple.

5 The waters compassed me about, even to the soul, the depth closed me round about, the weeds were wrapped about my head.

6 I went down to the bottoms of the mountains, the earth with her bars was about me for ever: yet hast thou brought up my life from corruption, O LORD my God.

7 When my soul fainted within me, I remembred the LORD: and my prayer came in unto thee, into thy holy temple.

8 They that observe lying vanities forsake their own mercy.

9 But I will sacrifice unto thee with the voyce of thanksgiving: I will pay that I have vowed: salvation is of the LORD.

10 And the LORD spake unto the fish, and it vomited out Jonah upon the dry land.

CHAP. III.

And the word of the LORD came to Jonah the second time, saying,

2 Arise go unto Nineveh that great citie, and preach unto it the preaching that I bid thee.

3 So Jonah arose, and went to Nineveh, according to the word of the LORD: now Nineveh was an exceeding great city, of three dayes journey.

4 And Jonah began to enter into the city a dayes journey, and he cryed, and said, Yet forty dayes, and Nineveh shall be overthrowne.

5 So the people of Nineveh believed God, and proclaimed a fast, and put on sackcloth, from the greatest of them even to the least of them.

6 For word came to the king of Nineveh, and he arose from his throne, and he laid his robe from him, and covered him with sackcloth, and sate in ashes.

7 And he caused it to be proclaimed and published through Nineveh, (by the decree of the king and his nobles) saying, Let neither man nor beast, herd nor flocke taste any thing: let them not feed, nor drink water.

8 But let man and beast be covered with sackcloth, and cry mightily unto God: yea, let them turn every one from his evil way, and from the violence that is in their hands.

9 Who can tell if God will turn and repent, and turn away from his fierce anger, that we perish not?

10 And God saw their works, that they turned from their evil way: & God repented of the evil y he had said that he would do unto them, & he did it not.

CHAP. IV.

But it displeased Jonah exceedingly, and he was very angry.

2 And he prayed to y LORD, & said, I pray thee, O LORD, was not this my saying, while I was yet in my country? Therefore I fled before to Tarshish: for I knew y thou art a gracious God, & merciful, slow to anger, and of great kindness, & repentest thee of the evil.

3 Therefore now, O LORD, I beseech thee, take my life from me: for it is better for me to die then to live.

...well to be angry for thy gourd? And he ſaid,
...I do well to be angry, even to death.
10 Then ſaid the LORD, thou haſt
...had pity on the gourd, for the which
...thou haſt not laboured, neither madeſt
...it grow, which came up in a night, and
...periſhed in a night:
11 And ſhould not I ſpare Nineveh,
...that great city, wherein are more then
...ſixſcore thouſand perſons, that cannot
...diſcerne between their right hand and
...their left hand, and alſo much cattel?

MICAH.

CHAP. I.

THE word of the LORD
that came to Micah ſ Moraſthite, in the dayes of Jotham, Ahaz, and Hezekiah kings of Iudah, which he ſaw concerning Samaria & Ieruſalem.
2 Hear ye people, all of them, Hearken, O earth, and all that therein is: and let the Lord GOD be witneſs againſt you, the Lord from his holy Temple.
3 For behold, ſ LORD cometh forth out of his place, & will come down and tread upon the high places of ſ earth.
4 And the mountains ſhall be molten under him, & the valleys ſhall be cleft as wax before the fire, and as the waters that are powred down a ſteep place.
5 For the tranſgreſſion of Iacob is all this, & for the ſins of ſ houſe of Iſrael.
What is the tranſgreſſion of Iacob? is it not Samaria? and what are the high places of Iudah? are they not Ieruſalem?
6 Therefore I will make Samaria as an heap of the field, and as plantings of a vineyard: and I will powre down the ſtones of it into the valley, and I will diſcover the foundations thereof.
7 And all the graven images thereof ſhall be beaten to pieces, and all the hires thereof ſhall be burnt with the fire, and all the idols thereof will I lay deſolate:
for ſhe gathered it of the hire of an harlot, and they ſhall return to the hire of an harlot.
8 Therefore I will wail and howle, I will go ſtript and naked: I will make a wailing like the dragons, and mourning as the owls.
9 For her wound is incurable, for it is come unto Iudah, he is come unto the gate of my people, even to Ieruſalem.
10 Declare ye it not at Gath, weep ye not at all: in the houſe of Aphrah roul thy ſelf in the duſt.
11 Paſſe ye away thou inhabitant of Shaphir, having thy ſhame naked: the inhabitant of Zaanan came not forth in the mourning of Bethezel, he ſhall receive of you his ſtanding.
12 For the inhabitant of Maroth waited carefully for good, but evil came down from ſ LORD unto ſ gate of Ieruſalem.
13 O thou inhabitant of Lachiſh, bind the charet to the ſwift beaſt: ſhe is the beginning of ſin to the daughter of Zion: for the tranſgreſſions of Iſ-rael were found in thee.
14 Therefore ſhalt thou give preſents to Moreſheth Gath, the houſes of Achzib ſhall be a lie to the kings of Iſrael.
15 Yet will I bring an heir to thee, O inhabitants of Mareſhah: he ſhal come unto Adullam, the glory of Iſrael.
16 Make thee bald, and pol thee for thy delicate children, enlarge thy baldneſſe as the Eagle, for they are gone into captivity from thee.

CHAP. II.

WO to them that deviſe iniquity, & worke evil upon their beds: when ſ morning is light, they practiſe it, becauſe it is in the power of their hand.
2 And they covet fields, and take them by violence: and houſes, and take them away: ſo they oppreſſe a man and his houſe, even a man and his heritage.
3 Therefore thus ſaith the LORD, Behold, againſt this family do I deviſe an evil, from which ye ſhal not remove your necks, neither ſhal ye go haughti-ly: for this time is evil.
4 In that day ſhal one take up a parable againſt you, and lament with a deſolate lamentation, and ſay, We be utterly ſpoiled: he hath changed the portion of my people: how hath he removed it from me! turning away, he hath divided our fields.
5 Therefore thou ſhalt have none that ſhall caſt a cord by lot in the congregation of the LORD.
6 Propheſie ye not, ſay they to them ſ propheſie: they ſhal not prophetie to them, that they ſhall not take ſhame.
7 O thou that art named the houſe of Iacob, is the Spirit of the LORD ſtraitned? are theſe his doings? do not my words do good to him that walk-eth uprightly?
8 Even of late my people is riſen up as an enemy: ye pull off the robe with the garment from them that paſſe by ſafely, as men averſe from war.
9 The

9 The women of my people have ye cast out from their pleasant houses, be from their children have ye taken away my glory for ever.
10 Arise ye, and depart, for this is not your rest; because it is polluted, it shall destroy you, even with a sore destruction.
11 If a man walking in the spirit and falshood, do lie saying, I will prophesie to thee of wine, & of strong drink, he shall even be y Prophet of this people.
12 I will surely assemble, O Jacob, all of thee; I will surely gather the remnant of Israel, I will put them together as y sheep of Bozrah, as y flock in y midst of their fold, they shall make great a noise by reason of y multitude of men.
13 The breaker is come up before them:
they have broken up, and have passed through the gate, & are gone out by it, and their king shall pass before them,
and the LORD on the head of them.

CHAP. III.

AND I said, hear, I pray you, O heads of Jacob, and ye princes of the house of Israel: is it not for you to know judgement?
2 Who hate the good, & love y evil,
who pluck off their skin from off them,
& their flesh as from off their bones.
3 Who also eat the flesh of my people, and flay their skin from off them, and they break their bones, and chop them in pieces, as for the pot, and as flesh within the cauldron.
4 Then shall they cry unto the Lord, but he will not hear them: he will even hide his face from them at that time, as they have behaved themselves ill in their endings.
5 Thus saith the LORD concerning the prophets y make my people erre,
that bite with their teeth, and cry, Peace;
& he y putteth not into their mouths,
they even prepare war against him.
6 Therefore night shall be unto you that ye shall not have a vision, and it shall be darke unto you, that ye shall not divine: and the Sun shall go down over the Prophets, and the day shall be darke over them.
7 Then shall the Seers be ashamed, and the diviners confounded: yea, they shall all cover their lips, for there is no answer of God.
8 But truly I am full of power by the Spirit of the LORD, and of judgment, and of might, to declare unto Jacob his transgression, and to Israel his sin.
9 Hear this, I pray you, y heads of the house of Jacob, and princes of the house of Israel, that abhor judgment, and pervert all equity.
10 They build up Zion with blood, and Jerusalem with iniquity.
11 The heads thereof judge for reward, and the priests thereof teach for hire, & the prophets thereof divine for money: yet will they lean upon the LORD, and say, is not the LORD among us? none evil can come upon us.
12 Therefore shall Zion for your sake be plowed as a field, and Jerusalem become heaps, & the mountain of the house, as the high places of the forest.

CHAP. IV.

BUT in the last days it shall come to pass, y the mountain of y house of the LORD shall be established in y top of y mountains, & it shall be exalted above y hills, & people shall flow unto it.
2 And many nations shall come, & say,
Come, & let us go up to the mountain of y LORD, & to y house of y God of Jacob, & he will teach us of his ways, & we will walk in his paths: for out of Zion shall go forth the Law, and the word of the LORD from Jerusalem.
3 And he shall judge among many people, and rebuke strong nations afar off, and they shall beat their swords into plowshares, and their spears into pruning hooks: nation shall not lift up a sword against nation, neither shall they learn war any more.
4 But they shall sit every man under his vine, & under his fig-tree, & none shall make them afraid: for the mouth of the LORD of hosts hath spoken it.
5 For all people will walk every one in the name of his god, and we will walk in the Name of the LORD our God for ever and ever.
6 In that day, saith the LORD, will I assemble her that halteth, and I will gather her that is driven out, and her
I have afflicted.
7 And I will make her that halted a remnant, and her that was cast afar off a strong nation: and the LORD shall reign over them in mount Zion from henceforth even for ever.
8 And thou, O tower of the flock, the strong hold of the daughter of Zion, unto thee shall it come, even the first dominion, the kingdome shall come to the daughter of Jerusalem.
9 Now why dost thou cry out aloud?
is there no king in thee? is thy counsellor perished? for pangs have taken thee as a woman in travel.
10 Be in pain, and labour to bring forth, O daughter of Zion, like a woman in travel: for now shalt thou go forth out of the city, and thou shalt dwell in the field, & thou shalt come to Babylon; there shalt thou be delivered: there the LORD shall redeem thee from the hand of thine enemies.
11 Now also many nations are gathered against thee, that say, Let them be defiled, & let our eye look upon Zion.
12 But they know not the thoughts of the LORD, neither understand they his counsel: for he shall gather them as the sheaves into the floor.
13 Arise, and thresh, O daughter of Zion: for I will make thine horn iron, and I will make thy hoofs brass: & thou shalt beat in pieces many people: and I will consecrate their gain unto the LORD, and their substance unto the Lord of the whole earth.

CHAP. V.

Gather thy selfe in troupes, O ughter of troups: he hath laid gainst us: they shall smite the e of Israel with a rod on y cheek.
But thou Beth-lehem Ephratah ugh thou be little among the thou-s of Iudah, yet out of thee shall he th unto me, that is to be ruler Israel: whose goings forth have bin
m of old, from everlasting.
Therefore will he give them up,
l time that the which trayleth h hath brought forth: then the remnant his brethern shall returne unto the n of Israel.
And he shall stand and feed in the ength of the LORD, in the majesty the Name of the LORD his God; they shall abide: for now shall he great unto the ends of the earth.
And this man shal be the peace, when Assyrian shal come into our land:
when he shal tread in our palaces, n shall we raise against him seven herds, and eight principall men.
And they shall waste the land of Ash-ur with the sword, and the land of mrod in the entrances thereof, thus all he deliuer us from the Assyrian, he cometh into our land, and when he treadeth within our borders.
And the remnant of Iacob shal be the midst of many people, as a dew m the LORD, as the showres upon grasse, that tarrieth not for man,
r waiteth for the sons of men.
And the remnant of Iacob shall be mong the Gentiles, in the midst of many people, as a lyon among the beasts of the forrest, as a young lyon among the flocks of sheep: who if he goe thorough, both treadeth down, and teare-th in peces, and none can deliuer.
Thine hand shall be lift up upon thine aduersaries, and all thine enemies shall be cut off.
And it shall come to passe in that day, saith the LORD, that I will cut off thine horses out of the middest of thee, and I will destroy thy charets.
And I will cut off the cities of thy land, and throw down all thy strong holds.
And I will cut off witchcrafts out of thine hand, and thou shalt have no more South-sayers.
Thy graven images also will I cut off, and thy standing images out of the middest of thee: and thou shalt no more worship the work of thy hands.
And I will pluck up thy groues out of the middest of thee: so will I destroy thy cities.
And I will execute vengeance in anger and fury upon the heathen, such as they have not heard.

CHAP. VI.

Hear ye now what the LORD saith;
Arise, contend y before the mountains,
and let the hils heare thy voyce.
Heare ye O mountains, the LORDS controuersie, and ye strong foundations of the earth: for the LORD hath a controuersie with his people, and he will plead with Israel.
3 O my people, what have I done unto thee? & wherein have I wearied thee? testifie against me.
4 For I brought thee up out of the land of Egypt, and redeemed thee out of the house of seruants, and I sent before thee, Moses, Aaron, and Miriam.
5 O my people, remember now what Balak king of Moab consulted, and what Balaam the son of Beor answered him from Shittim to Gilgal, that ye may know y righteousnes of the Lord.
6 Wherewith shal I come before the Lord, and bow my self before the high God? shal I come before him with burnt offerings, with calues of a year old?
7 Will the LORD be pleased with thousands of rams, or with ten thousands of riuers of oyle? shal I give my first born for my transgression, the fruit of my body for the sinne of my soule?
8 He hath shewed thee, O man, what is good, and what doeth the Lord require of thee, but to doe iustly, and to loue mercy, & to walk humbly with thy God?
9 The LORDS voyce crieth to the city, and the men of wisedome shall see thy Name, heare ye the rod, and who hath appointed it.
10 Are there yet the treasures of wickednes in the house of the wicked, and the scant measure that is abominable?
11 Shall I count them pure with the wicked balances, and with the bag of deceitful weights?
12 For the rich men thereof are full of violence, and the inhabitants thereof have spoken lies, and their tongue is deceitfull in their mouth.
13 Therefore also will I make thee sicke in smiting thee, in making thee desolate, because of thy sinnes.
14 Thou shalt eat, but not be satisfied, and thy casting down shall be in the midst of thee, and y shalt take hold, but shalt not deliuer: and that which y deliuerest, will I give up to y sword.
15 Thou shalt sow, but thou shalt not reap: thou shalt tread the olives, but thou shalt not anoint thee with oyle: and sweet wine, but shalt not drink wine.
16 For the statutes of Omri are kept,
and all the works of y house of Ahab, and ye walk in their counsels, that I should make thee a desolation, and the inhabitants thereof an hissing: therfore ye shal bear the reproach of my people.

CHAP. VII.

WOE is me, for I am as when they have gathered the summer fruits, as the grape gleanings of the vintage:
there is no cluster to eat: my soule de-sireth the first ripe fruit.
2 The good man is perished out of the earth, & there is none vpright among men: they all lie in wait for bloodshed:
hunt every man his brother with a net.
3 That they may do evil with both hands earnestly, the Prince asketh, &

the judge asketh for a reward: and the great man he uttereth his mischievous desire: so they wrap it up.

4 The best of them is as a briar, the most upright is sharper then a thorne hedge: the day of thy watchmen & thy visitation commeth, now shalbe their perplexity.

5 Trust ye not in a friend, put ye not confidence in a guide: keep the doors of thy mouth from her that lieth in thy bosome.

6 For the son dishonoureth the father: the daughter riseth up against her mother: the daughter in law against her mother in law, a mans enemies are the men of his own house.

7 Therefore I will looke unto the LORD: I will wait for the God of my salvation: my God will hear me.

8 Rejoyce not against me, O mine enemy. When I fall, I shall rise, when I sit in darkenesse, the LORD shalbe a light unto me.

9 I will beare the indignation of the LORD, because I have sinned against him, until he plead my cause, and execute judgement for me, he will bring me forth to the light, and I shall behold his righteousnesse.

10 Then he that is mine enemy shall see it, and shame shall cover her which said to me where is the Lord thy God? mine eyes shal behold her, now shal she be trodden down as y mire of the streets.

11 In the day that thy walls are to be built: in that day shal the decree be far removed.

12 In that day also he shal come even to thee from Assyria, and from the fenced cities, & from the fortresse, even to the river, and from sea to sea, and from mountaine to mountaine.

13 Notwithstanding the land shalbe desolate, because of them that dwell therein, for the fruit of their doings.

14 Feed thy people with thy rod, the flock of thine heritage, which dwell solitarily in the wooddie the midst of Carmel, let them feed in Bathan and Gilead as in the dayes of old.

15 According to the dayes of thy comming out of y land of Egypt, will I shew unto him marvailous things.

16 The nations shall see and be confounded at all their might: they shall lay their hand upon their mouthes, their eares shalbe deaf.

17 They shal licke the dust like a serpent, they shall move out of their holes, like wormes of the earth: they shalbe afraid of the LORD our God, and shal fear because of thee.

18 Who is a God like unto thee? that pardoneth iniquity, and passeth over transgression of the remnant of his heritage? he retaineth not his anger for ever, because he delighteth in mercie.

19 He will turn again, he will have compassion on us: he will subdue our iniquities, and thou wilt cast all their sinnes into the depths of the Sea.

20 Thou wilt perform the truth to Jacob, and the mercy to Abraham, which thou hast sworn unto our fathers from the dayes of old.

NAHVM.

CHAP. I.

1 The burden of Nineveh. The book of the vision of Nahum the Elkoshite.

2 God is jealous, and the LORD revengeth: the LORD is revengeful, and furious, the LORD will take vengeance on his adversaries, and he reserveth wrath for his enemies.

3 The Lord is slow to anger, & great in power, and will not at all acquit the wicked: the LORD hath his way in the whirlwind and in the storme, and the clouds are the dust of his feet.

4 He rebuketh the sea and maketh it dry, and driveth up all the rivers, Bathan languisheth and Carmel, & the flower of Lebanon languisheth.

5 The mountaines quake at him, and the hils melt, and the earth is burnt at his presence, yea the world, and all that dwel therein.

6 Who can stand before his indignation? and who can abide in the fiercenesse of his anger? for his fury is powred out like fire, and the rocks are throwen down by him.

7 The LORD is good, a strong hold in the day of trouble, and he knoweth them that trust in him.

8 But with an overrunning flood he will make an utter end of y place thereof, & darknes shal pursue his enemies.

9 What doe ye imagine against the Lord? he will make an utter end: affliction shal not rise up the second time.

10 For while they be folden together as thornes, and while they are drunken as drunkards, they shalbe devoured altogether as dry stubble.

11 There is one come out of thee, that imagineth evil against the LORD, a wicked counseller.

12 Thus saith the Lord, though they be quiet, and likewise many, yet thus shall they be cut down, when he shall passe through: though I have afflicted thee, I will afflict thee no more.

13 For now will I break his yoke from off thee, & will burst the bonds in sunder.

14 And the LORD hath given commandement concerning thee, that no more of thy name be sowen: out of the house of thy gods will I cut off the graven image and the molten image: I will make thy grave, for thou art vile.

15 Behold upon the mountaines the feet of him that bringeth good tidings, that publisheth peace: O Iudah keep thy solemne feasts, perform thy vowes: for the wicked shall no more passe through thee, he is utterly cut off.

CHAP. II.

1 He that dasheth in pieces, is come up before thy face: keep the munition, watch the way: make thy loins strong, fortifie thy power mightily.

2 For the Lord hath turned away the excellency of Jacob, as the excellency of Israel: for the emptiers have emptied them out, and marred their vine branches.

3 The shield of his mighty men is made red, the valiant men are in scarlet: the chariots shall be with flaming torches in the day of his preparation, and the fir trees shall be terribly shaken.

4 The chariots shall rage in the streets, they shall justle one against another in the broad ways: they shall seem like torches, they shall run like the lightnings.

5 He shall recount his worthies: they shall stumble in their walkings, they shall make haste to the wall thereof, and the defence shall be prepared.

6 The gates of the rivers shall be opened, and the palace shall be dissolved.

7 And Huzzab shall be led away captive, she shall be brought up, and her maids shall lead her as with the voice of doves tabering upon their breasts.

8 But Nineveh is of old like a pool of water: yet they shall flee away. Stand, stand, shall they cry, but none shall look back.

9 Take ye the spoyle of silver, take the spoyle of gold, for there is none end of the store, and glory out of all the pleasant furniture.

10 She is empty, and void, and waste, and the heart melteth, and the knees smite together, and much pain is in all loins, and the faces of them all gather blackness.

11 Where is the dwelling of the lyons, and the feeding place of the young lyons, where the lyon, even the old lyon walked, and the lions whelp, and none made them afraid.

12 The lyon did tear in pieces enough for his whelps, and strangled for his lionesses, and filled his holes with prey, and his dens with ravine.

13 Behold, I am against thee, saith the Lord of hosts, and I will burn her chariots in the smoak, and the sword shall devour thy young lyons, and I will cut off thy prey from the earth, and the voice of thy messengers shall no more be heard.

CHAP. III.

1 Woe to the bloody city, it is all full of lyes and robbery, the prey departeth not.

2 The noise of a whip, and the noise of the rattling of the wheels, and of prancing horses, and of the jumping chariots.

3 The horseman lifteth up both the bright sword, and the glittering spear, and there is a multitude of slain, and a great number of carkeises: and there is none end of their corpses, they stumble upon their corpses.

4 Because of the multitude of the whoredomes of the well-favoured harlot, the mistress of witchcrafts, that selleth nations through her whoredomes, and families through her witchcrafts.

5 Behold, I am against thee, saith the Lord of hosts, and I will discover thy skirts upon thy face, and I will shew the nations thy nakedness, and the kingdomes thy shame.

6 And I will cast abominable filth on thee, and make thee vile, and will set thee as a gazing stocke.

7 And it shall come to passe, that all they that look on thee, shall flee from thee, and say, Nineveh is laid waste, who will bemoane her? whence shall I seek comforters for thee?

8 Art thou better then populous No that was situate among the rivers, that had the waters round about it, whose rampart was the sea, and her wall was from the sea?

9 Ethiopia & Egypt were her strength, and it was infinite, Put, and Lubim were thy helpers.

10 Yet was she caried away, she went into captivity: her young children also were dasshed in pieces at the top of all the streets: and they cast lots for her honourable men, and all her great men were bound in chaines.

11 Thou also shalt be drunken: thou shalt be hid, thou also shalt seek strength because of the enemy.

12 All thy strong holds shall be like figgetrees with the first ripe figs: if they be shaken, they shall even fall into the mouth of the eater.

13 Behold, thy people in the midst of thee are women: the gates of thy land shall be set wide open unto thine enemies, the fire shall devoure thy barres.

14 Draw thee waters for the siege, fortifie thy strong holds, go into clay, and treade the mortar: make strong the brick-kill.

15 There shall the fire devoure thee: the sword shall cut thee off, it shall eate thee up like the canker-worme, make thy self many as the canker-worme, make thy self many as the locusts.

16 Thou hast multiplied thy merchants above the stars of heaven: the canker-worme spoileth & flyeth away.

17 Thy crowned are as the locusts, and thy captaines as the great grasshoppers, which campe in the hedges in the cold day: but when the Sunariseth, they flee away, and their place is not known where they are.

18 Thy shepherds slumber, O king of Assyria: thy nobles shall dwell in the dust: thy people is scattered upon the mountains, & no man gathereth them.

19 There is no healing of thy bruise, thy wound is grievous: all that hear the bruit of thee shall clap the hands over thee: for upon whom hath not thy wickedness passed continually?

CHAP. I.

THE burden which Habakkuk the Prophet did see.

2 O LORD, how long shal I cry, & thou wilt not hear? even cry out vnto thee of violence, and thou wilt not saue?

3 Why doest thou shew me iniquer, & cause me to behold grieuance? for spoyling & violence are before me: & there are that raise vp strife and contention.

4 Therefore the law is slacked, and iudgment doth neuer go forth: for the wicked doth compas about ỹ righteous: therfore wrong iudgment proceedeth.

5 Behold ye among the heathen, and regard, & wonder marueilously: for I will work a work in your dayes, & ye will not beleeue, though it be told you.

6 For lo, I raise vp the Caldeans, that bitter & hasty nation, which shal march through ỹ breadth of the land, to possesse ỹ dwelling places ỹ are not theirs.

7 They are terrible and dreadful, their iudgement & their dignity shal proceed of themselues.

8 Their horses also are swifter then the leopards, and are more fierce then the euening wolues: and their horsmen shal spread themselues, and their horsmen shal come from farre, they shall flee as the Eagle that hasteth to eate.

9 They shal come al for violence: their faces shal sup vp as ỹ east wind, & they shal gather the captiuity as the sand.

10 And they shal scoff at the kings, & the Princes shal be a scorne vnto them: they shal deride euery strong hold: for they shal heape dust and take it.

11 Then shal his minde change, and he shal passe ouer, and offend, imputing this his power vnto his God.

12 Art thou not from euerlasting O Lord my God, mine holy One? We shal not die. O Lord, ỹ hast ordained thē for iudgment, & O mighty God, ỹ hast stablished them for correction.

13 Thou art of purer eyes then to behold euil, and canst not look on iniquity: wherefore lookest ỹ vpon them that deal treacherously, & holdest thy tong the while the wicked deuoureth him ỹ is more righteous then he?

14 And makest men as the fishes of the Sea, as the creeping thing that haue no ruler ouer them.

15 They take vp al of them with the angle, & they catch them in their net, & gather them in their drage, therefore they reioyce and are glad.

16 Therefore they sacrifice vnto their net, and burne incense vnto their drage, because by them their portion is fat, & their meat plenteous.

17 Shal they therefore empty their net, and not spare continually to slay the nations?

CHAP. II.

I WIL stand vpon my watch, and set me vpon the tower, & wil watch to see what he wil say vnto me, and what I shal answere when I am reproued.

2 And ỹ Lord answered me, & said, Write the vision, & make it plain vpon tables, that he may run ỹ readeth it.

3 For the vision is yet for an appointed time: but at ỹ end it shal speak, & not lie: though it tarry, wait for it, because it wil surely come, it wil not tarry.

4 Behold, his soul which is lifted vp is not vpright in him, but the iust shal liue by his faith.

5 Yea also, because he transgresseth by wine, he is a proud man, neither keepeth at home, who enlargeth his lust as hel, and is as death and cannot be satisfied, but gathereth to him all nations, and heapeth to him all people.

6 Shal not all these take vp a parable against him, & a taunting prouerbe against him, and say, Wo to him that increaseth that which is not his! how long? and to him that laden himself with thick clay.

7 Shal they not rise vp suddenly that shall bite thee? and awake that shall vexe thee? and thou shalt be for a spoyle vnto them?

8 Because thou hast spoiled many nations, all the remnant of the people shal spoile thee: because of mens blood, & for the violence of the land, of the city, and of all that dwel therein.

9 Wo to him that coueteth an euil couetousnes to his house, that he may set his nest on high, that he may be deliuered from the power of euil.

10 Thou hast consulted shame to thine house, by cutting off many people, & hast sinned against thy soule.

11 For the stone shal cry out of the wall, and the beame out of the timber shal answere it.

12 Wo to him that buyldeth a towne with blood, & stablisheth a city by iniquity.

13 Behold, is it not of the LORD of hoasts, that the people shal labour in the very fire, & the people shal weary themselues for very vanity?

14 For the earth shal be filled with the knowledge of the glory of the LORD, as the waters couer the sea.

15 Wo vnto him ỹ giueth his neighbour drinke, that puttest thy bottel to him, & makest him also drunken, that thou mayest look vpon their nakednes!

16 Thou art filled with shame for glory, drink thou also, and let thy foreskin be vncouered: the cup of the LORDS right hand shal be turned vnto thee, & shamefull spuing shal be on thy glory.

17 For the violence of Lebanon shal couer thee, & the spoyl of beasts which made them afrayd, because of mens blood, & for the violence of the land, of the city, & of all that dwel therein.

18 What profiteth the grauen image that the maker thereof hath graued it, the

CHAP. III.

1 A Prayer of Habakkuk the Prophet
vpon Sigionoth.
2 O LORD, I have heard thy speech, and was afraid: O LORD, revive thy in the midst of the yeers, in the midst of the yeers make known, in the wrath remember mercy.
3 God came from Teman, and the Holy One from mount Paran. Selah.
His glorie couered the heauens, and the earth was full of his praise.
4 And his brightnes was as the light:
hornes came out of his hand, and there was the hiding of his power.
5 Before him went the pestilence, and coles went forth at his feet.
6 He stood and measured the earth:
he beheld and drove asunder the nations, and the everlasting mountaines were scattered, the perpetuall hils did bow: his wayes are everlasting.
7 I saw the tents of Cushan in affliction, and the curtains of the land of Midian did tremble.
8 Was the LORD displeased against the riuers? was thine anger against the riuers? was thine wrath against the sea, that thou didst ride vpon thy horses,
and thy charets of salvation?
9 Thy bow was made quite naked, according to the oathes of the tribes, even thy word. Selah. Thou didst cleave the earth with riuers.
10 The mountaines saw thee, & they trembled: the ouer-flowing of the water passed by: the deep vttered his voice, and lift vp his hands on high.
11 The Sun and Moon stood still in their habitation: at the light of thine arrowes they went, and at the shining of thy glittering speare.
12 Thou didst march through the land in indignation: thou didst thresh
the heathen in anger.
13 Thou wentest forth for the salvation of thy people, even for salvation with thine Anointed: thou woundedst the head out of the house of the wicked, by discouering the foundation vnto the neck. Selah.
14 Thou didst strike through with staues his head of his villages: they came out as a whirlewind to scatter me: their reioycing was as to deuoure
the poore secretly.
15 Thou didst walk through the sea with thine horse, through the heap of great waters.
16 When I heard, my belly trembled, my lips quiuered at the voyce: rottennes entred into my bones, & I trembled in my selfe, that I might rest in the day of trouble: when he commeth vp vnto the people he will inuade them with his troupes.
17 Although the figtree shal not bloome, neither shal fruit be in the vines:
the labour of the Olive shal fail, and the fields shal yeeld no meat: the flock shal be cut off from the fold, and there shal be no herd in the stalles.
18 Yet I will reioyce in the LORD:
I will ioy in the God of my salvation.
19 The Lord God is my strength, and he will make my feet like hindes feet, and he will make me to walk vpon mine high places. To the chiefe singer on my stringed instruments.

ZEPHANIAH.

CHAP. I.

1 THe word of the Lord which the Lord GOD of came to Zephaniah the sonne of Cushi, the sonne of Gedaliah, the sonne of Amariah, the sonne of Hizkiah, in the dayes of sonne of Amon King of Iudah.
2 I will vtterly consume all things from off the land, saith the LORD.
3 I will consume man & beast: I will consume the foules of the heauen, & the fishes of the sea, & the stumbling blocks with the wicked. & I will cut off man
from off the land, saith the LORD.
4 I will also stretch out mine hand vp-on Iudah, & vpon all the inhabitants of Ierusalem, & I will cut off the remnant of Baal from this place, and the name of the Chemarims with the Priests:
5 And them that worship the host of vpon the house-tops, and them worship, and that sweare by them that sweare by Malcham:
6 And them that are turned back from the LORD, and those that haue not sought the LORD, nor enquired for him.
7 Hold thy peace at the presence of the Lord GOD: for the day of y Lord is at hand: for the LORD hath prepared a sacrifice: he hath bid his guests.
8 And it shal come to pas in the day of the Lords sacrifice, that I will punish the princes, & the kings children, & all such as are clothed with strange apparell.
9 In the same day also will I punish all those that leape on the threshold, which fill their masters houses with violence and deceit.
10 And it shal come to pas, saith the day, saith the Lord, that there shalbe the noise of a cry from the fishgate, & a howling from the second, and a great crashing from the hils.
11 Howl ye inhabitants of Maktesh, for all y merchant people are cut down:
all they that beare silver are cut off.
12 And it shal come to pas at y time,
that I will search Ierusalem with candles, & punish the men y are setled on their lees, y say in their heart, the Lord wil not do good, neither will he do evil.
13 Therefore their goods shal become a boors, & their houses a desolation: they shall also build houses, but not inhabit them: & they shall plant vineyards, but not drink the wine thereof.

14 The great day of the LORD is neer, it is neer and hasteth greatly, even the voyce of the day of the LORD: the mighty man shall cry there bitterly.
15 That day is a day of wrath, a day of trouble, and distresse, a day of wastenesse and desolation, a day of darkenesse and gloominesse, a day of clouds, and thicke darkenesse,
16 A day of the trumpet and alarm against the fenced cities, and against the high towers.
17 And I will bring distresse upon men, that they shall walke like blind men, because they have sinned against the LORD, & their blood shall be powred out as dust, & their flesh as dung.
18 Neither their silver nor their gold shall be able to deliver them in the day of the LORDS wrath; but the whole land shall be devoured by the fire of his jealousie: for he shall make even a speedy riddance of all them that dwell in land.

CHAP. II.

1 Gather your selves together, yea, gather together, O nation not desired,
2 Before the decree bring forth, before the day passe as the chaffe, before the fierce anger of the LORD come upon you, before the day of the LORDS anger come upon you.
3 Seeke ye the LORD, all ye meeke of the earth: which have wrought his judgement, seek righteousnesse, seek meeknesse: it may be ye shall be hid in the day of the LORDS anger.
4 For Gaza shall be forsaken, and Ashkelon a desolation, they shall drive out Ashdod at the noon day, & Ekron shall be rooted up.
5 Woe unto the inhabitants of the sea coast: the nation of the Cherethites, the word of the LORD is against you, O Canaan, the land of the Philistims, I will even destroy thee, that there shall be no inhabitant.
6 And the sea coast shall be dwellings and cottages for shepheards and folds for flockes.
7 And the coast shall be for the remnant of the house of Judah, they shall feed thereupon: in the houses of Ashkelon shall they lie down in the evening: for the LORD their God shall visite them, and turn away their captivity.
8 I have heard the reproach of Moab, and the revilings of the children of Ammon, whereby they have reproached my people, and magnified themselves against their border.
9 Therefore as I live, saith the Lord of hosts, the God of Israel, surely Moab shall be as Sodome, and the children of Ammon as Gomorrah, even the breeding of nettles, and salt pits, and a perpetual desolation: the residue of my people shall spoile them, & the remnant of my people shall possesse them.
10 This shall they have for their pride, because they have reproached and magnified themselves against the people of the LORD of hosts.
11 The LORD will be terrible unto them: for he will famish all the gods of the earth, and men shall worship him, every one from his place, even all the ilands of the heathen.
12 Yee Ethiopians also, yee shall be slain by my sword.
13 And he will stretch out his hand against the North, & destroy Assyria, and will make Nineveh a desolation, and dry like a wilde wildernesse.
14 And flocks shall lie down in the midst of her: all the beasts of the nations, both the Cormorant & the Bittern shall lodge in the upper lintels of it, their voice shall sing in the windowes, desolation shall be in the thresholds: for he shall lay uncovered the Cedar work.
15 This is the rejoycing city that dwelt carelessly, that said in her heart, I am, and there is none beside me: how is she become a desolation, a place for beasts to lie down in! every one that passeth by her, shall hisse and wagge his hand.

CHAP. III.

1 WOe to her that is filthy and polluted, to the oppressing city.
2 She obeyed not the voyce: she received not correction: she trusted not in the LORD: she drew not neer to her God.
3 Her Princes within her are roaring lions, her Judges are even wolves of the evening, they gnaw not a bone till the morrow.
4 Her Prophets are lewde and unfaithfull persons: her priests have polluted the Sanctuary, they have done violence to the law.
5 The just LORD is in the midst thereof, he will not do iniquity: every morning doeth he bring his judgement to light, he faileth not: but the unjust knoweth no shame.
6 I have cut off the nations: their towers are desolated, I made their streets waste, that none passeth by: their cities are destroyed, so that there is no man, that there is none inhabitant.
7 I said, surely thou wilt fear me, thou wilt receive instruction, so their dwelling should not be cut off, howsoever I punish them: but they rose early, and corrupted all their doings.
8 Therefore wait ye upon me, saith the LORD, until the day that I rise up to the prey: for my determination is to gather the nations, that I may assemble the kingdoms, to powre upon them mine indignation, even all the fierce anger of all the earth shall be devoured with the fire of my jealousie.
9 For then will I turn to the people a pure language, that they may all call upon the Name of the LORD, to serve him with one consent.
10 From beyond the rivers of Ethiopia my suppliants, even my daughter of my dispersed, shall bring mine offering.
11 In that day shall thou not be ne of all thy doings wherein thou mongrestled against me: for then ake away out of the midst of ee that rejoyce in thy pride.

halt no more be haughty, be-of mine holy mountain.
e also leave in y midst of thee dicted and poor people: and they st in the Name of the LORD.
e remnant of Israel shal not do nor speak lies: neither shal a ful tongue be found in their for they shal feed & lie down, one shall make them afraid.
ing. O daughter of Zion: shout, el: be glad and rejoyce with all
. O daughter of Jerusalem.
The LORD hath taken away thy ements, he hath cast out thine ey, the king of Israel, even the el, in the midst of thee: thou ou not see evil any more.
same day it shalbe said to Jerusalem, Fear thou not: and to Zion, Let not thine hands be slake.

17 The Lord thy God in the midst of thee is mighty: he will save, he will rejoyce over thee with joy: he will rest in his love, he will joy over thee with singing.
18 I will gather them that are sorrow full for the solemne assembly, who are of thee, to whom the reproach of it was a burden.
19 Behold at that time I will undo all that afflict thee, and I will save her that halteth, and gather her that was driven out, and I will get them praise and fame in every land, where they have been put to shame.
20 At that time will I bring you again, even in the time that I gather you: for I will make you a name, and a praise among all people of the earth, when I turn backe your captivity before your eyes, saith the LORD.

HAGGAI.

CHAP. I.

IN the second yeer of Darius
the king, in y 1st moneth, in y first day of y moneth, came the word of the Lord,
by the Prophet unto Zerub-babel the son of Shealtiel, governour of Iudah, and to Ioshuah the son of Io-sedech the high Priest, saying:
2 Speaketh the LORD of hosts, saying: This people say, The time is not come, the time that the LORDS house should be built.
3 Then came the word of the LORD
by the Prophet, saying, 4 Is it time for you, O ye, to dwel in your ceiled houses, and this house lie waste?
5 Now therefore thus saith the Lord of hosts: Consider your wayes.
6 Ye sow much, and bring in little: ye eate, but ye have not enough:
drink, but ye are not filled with drink: ye cloth you, but there is none warm: & he y earneth wages, earneth wages to put it into a bag with holes.
7 Thus saith the LORD of hostes,
Consider your wayes.
8 Get you to the mountain, and bring wood, and build the house, and I will have pleasure in it, and I will be glorified, saith the LORD.
9 Ye looked for much, and lo, it came to little: & when ye brought it home,
I did blow upon it: Why saith the LORD of hostes? because of mine house that is waste, and ye run every man to his owne house.
10 Therefore the heaven over you is stayed from dew, and the earth is stayed from her fruit.
11 And I called for a drought upon y land, upon y mountains, & upon the corne, upon y new wine, & upon y oyle, & upon all that the ground bringeth forth, & upon men, & upon cat-

tel, & upon all the labour of the hands.
12 Then Zerubbabel y son of Shealt-tiel, & Ioshuah the son of Iosedech the high priest, & all the remnant of y peo ple, obeyed the voyce of y Lord their God, & y words of Haggai y Prophet (as y Lord their God had sent him) &
the People did feat before the LORD.
13 Then spake Haggai the LORDS messanger, in the LORDS message unto the people, saying, I am with you, saith the LORD.
14 And the Lord stirred up the spirit of Zerubbabel the son of Shealtiel, governour of Iudah, & the spirit of Io-shuah y son of Iosedech the high Priest, & the spirit of all y remnant of y people. & they came and did work in the house of the Lord of hosts their God: 15 In the four and twentieth day of the 6t moneth, in the second yeer of Darius the king.

CHAP. II.

IN the seventh moneth, in the one and twentieth day of the moneth, came the word of the LORD by the Prophet Haggai, saying.
2 Speak now to Zerubbabel y son of Shealtiel, governour of Iudah, and to Ioshuah y son of Iosedech y high priest,
& to the rest of the People, saying.
3 Who is left amongst you that saw this house in the first glory? & how do ye see it now? is it not in your eyes, in comparison of it, as nothing?
4 Yet now be strong, O Zerubbabel, saith the LORD, and be strong, O Ioshua son of Iosedech the high Priest, & be strong all ye people of y land, saith the LORD, and work: for I am with you, saith the LORD of hostes.
5 According to the word that I cove-nanted with you, when ye came out of Egypt, so my Spirit remaineth among you: Feare ye not.
6 For thus saith the LORD of hosts,

Yet

Yet once, it is a little while, and I will shake the heavens, and the earth, and the sea, and the dry land.

7 And I will shake all nations, and the desire of all nations shall come: and I will fill this house with glory, saith the LORD of hosts.

8 The silver is mine, and the gold is mine, saith the LORD of hosts.

9 The glory of this latter house shall be greater than of the former, saith the LORD of hosts: & in this place will I give peace, saith the LORD of hosts.

10 In the four and twentieth day of the ninth month, in the second year of Darius, came the word of the LORD by Haggai the prophet, saying,

11 Thus saith the Lord of hosts, ask now the Priests concerning the law, saying;

12 If one bear holy flesh in the skirt of his garment, and with his skirt do touch bread, or pottage, or wine, or oil, or any meat, shall it be holy? And the Priests answered, and said, No.

13 Then said Haggai, If one that is unclean by a dead body, touch any of these, shall it be unclean? And the priests answered, and said, It shall be unclean.

14 Then answered Haggai, and said, So is this people, and so is this nation before me, saith the LORD; and so is every work of their hands; and that which they offer there, is unclean.

15 And now, I pray you, consider from this day and upward, from before a stone was laid upon a stone in the Temple of the LORD.

16 Since those dayes were, when one came to an heap of twenty measures, there were but ten; when one came to the presse fat for to draw out fifty vessels out of the presse, there were but twenty.

17 I smote you with blasting, & with mildew, and with haile in all the labours of your hands; yet ye turned not to me, saith the LORD.

18 Consider now from this day and upward, from the four and twentieth day of the ninth month, even from the day that the foundation of the LORDS Temple was laid, consider it.

19 Is the seed yet in the barne? yea as yet the vine and the fig-tree, and the pome granate, and the Olive-tree hath not brought forth: from this day will I blesse you.

20 And again the word of the LORD came unto Haggai in the four & twentieth day of the month, saying,

21 Speak to Zerubbabel governour of Judah, saying, I will shake the heavens and the earth.

22 And I will overthrow the throne of kingdomes, and I will destroy the strength of the kingdomes of the heathen; and I will overthrow the chariots & those that ride in them: & the horses and their riders shall come down, every one by the sword of his brother.

23 In that day, saith the LORD of hosts, will I take thee, O Zerubbabel my servant, the son of Shealtiel, saith the LORD, and will make thee as a signet; for I have chosen thee, saith

ZECHARIAH.

CHAP. I.

IN the eight moneth, in the second yeere of Darius, came the word of the LORD unto Zechariah the son of Barachiah, the son of Iddo the Prophet, saying,

2 The LORD hath been sore displeased with your fathers.

3 Therefore say thou to them, Thus saith the Lord of hosts, Turn ye to me, saith the Lord of hosts, and I will turn unto you, saith the LORD of hosts.

4 Be ye not as your fathers, to whom the former Prophets have cried, saying, Thus saith the Lord of hosts, Turn now ye now from your evil waies & from your evil doings, but they did not hear nor hearken to me, saith the LORD.

5 Your fathers, where are they? and the Prophets, doe they live for ever?

6 But my words & my statutes, which I commanded my servants the Prophets, did they not take hold of your fathers? and they returned, and said, Like as the Lord of hosts thought to doe unto us, according to our waies, and according to our doings, so hath he dealt with us.

7 & upon the foure and twentieth day of the eleventh moneth, which is the moneth Sebat, in the second yeer of Darius, came the word of the LORD unto Zechariah the son of Barachiah, the son of Iddo the Prophet, saying;

8 I saw by night, and behold a man riding upon a red horse, and he stood among the myrtle trees that were in the bottome, and behind him were there red horses, speckled and white.

9 Then said I, O my Lord, what are these? And the Angel that talked with me said unto me, I will shew thee what these be.

10 And the man that stood among the myrtle trees answered, and said, These are they whom the LORD hath sent to walke to & fro through the earth.

11 And they answered the Angel of the LORD that stood among the myrtle trees, and said, We have walked to & fro through the earth, and behold, all the earth sitteth still, & is at rest.

12 Then the Angel of the LORD answered, and said, O LORD of hosts, how long wilt thou not have mercy on Jerusalem, & on the cities of Judah, against which thou hast had indignation these three-score & ten yeeres?

13 And the LORD answered the Angel that talked with me, with good words, and comfortable words.

14 So the Angel that commu-

...ns, saith the LORD of hosts.
...ious for Jerusalem and for
...with a great jealousie.
...ind I am very sore displeased
...ow the heathen that are at ease: for I
...e a little displeased, and they
...ped the affliction.
...Therefore thus saith the LORD,
...am returned to Jerusalem with mercies:
...y house shall be built in it, saith the
...of hosts, and a line shall be
...retched forth upon Jerusalem.
...Cry yet, saying, Thus saith the
...of hosts; My cities through ...ss shall yet be spread abroad,
...the LORD shall yet comfort Zion,
...shall yet chuse Jerusalem.
...Then lift I up mine eyes, and
...and behold four horns.
...And I said to the Angel that talked
...me, What be these? And he answered
...me, These are the horns which have
...attered Judah, Israel, and Jerusalem.
...And the LORD shewed me four ...carpenters.
...Then said I, What come these to ...do? And he spake, saying, These are
...the horns which have scattered Judah,
...so that no man did lift up his
...head: but these are come to fray them,
...to cast out the horns of the Gentils, which lift
...up their horn over the land of Judah to scatter it.

CHAP. II.

...Also I lift up mine eyes again, and looked,
...and behold, a man with a measuring line in his hand.
...Then said I, Whither goest thou?
...And he said unto me, To measure Jerusalem, to see what is the breadth
...thereof, and what is the length thereof.
...And behold, the Angel that talked with me went forth,
...and another Angel went out to meet him,
...And said to him, Run, speak to this young man, saying, Jerusalem shall be inhabited as towns without walls, for the multitude of men and cattle therein.
...For I, saith the LORD, will be unto her a wall of fire round about, & will be the glory in the midst of her.
...Ho, ho, come forth, & flee from the land of the North, saith the LORD: for I have spread you abroad as the four winds of the heaven, saith the LORD.
...Deliver thyself, O Zion, that dwellest with the daughter of Babylon.
...For thus saith the LORD of hosts, After the glory hath he sent me unto the nations which spoiled you: for he that toucheth you toucheth the apple of his eye.
...For behold, I will shake mine hand upon them, and they shall be a spoil to their servants: and ye shall know that the LORD of hosts hath sent me.
...Sing and rejoice, O daughter of Zion: for lo, I come, and I will dwell in the midst of thee, saith the LORD.
...And many nations shall be joined to the LORD in that day, & shall be my people: and I will dwell in the midst of thee, & thou shalt know that the LORD of hosts hath sent me unto thee.
...And the LORD shall inherit Judah his portion in the holy land, and shall choose Jerusalem again.
...Be silent, O all flesh, before the LORD: for he is raised up out of his holy habitation.

CHAP. III.

...And he shewed me Joshua the high priest standing before the Angel of the Lord, and Satan standing at his right hand to resist him.
...And the Lord said unto Satan, The Lord rebuke thee, O Satan, even the Lord that hath chosen Jerusalem rebuke thee: is not this a brand plucked out of the fire?
...Now Joshua was clothed with filthy garments, and stood before the Angel.
...And he answered, & spake to those that stood before him, saying, Take away the filthy garments from him. And unto him he said, Behold, I have caused thine iniquity to pass from thee, and I will clothe thee with change of raiment.
...And I said, Let them set a fair mitre upon his head. So they set a fair mitre upon his head, and clothed him with garments, & the Angel of the Lord stood by.
...And the Angel of the LORD protested unto Joshua, saying,
...Thus saith the Lord of hosts, If thou wilt walk in my ways, & if thou wilt keep my charge, then thou shalt also judge my house, and shalt also keep my courts, and I will give thee places to walk among these that stand by.
...Hear now, O Joshua the high priest, thou and thy fellows that sit before thee: for they are men wonderful: for behold, I will bring forth my servant the BRANCH.
...For behold, the stone that I have laid before Joshua; upon one stone shall be seven eyes: behold, I will engrave the graving thereof, saith the LORD of hosts, and I will remove the iniquity of that land in one day.
...In that day, saith the LORD of hosts, shall ye call every man his neighbour under the vine, and under the figtree.

CHAP. IIII.

...And the Angel that talked with me, came again, and waked me, as a man that is wakened out of his sleep,
...And said unto me, What seest thou? and I said, I have looked, and behold, a candlestick all of gold, with a bowle upon the top of it, and his seven lamps thereon, and seven pipes to the seven lamps, which are upon the top thereof.
...And two olive trees by it, one upon the right side of the bowle, and the other upon the left side thereof.
...So I answered and spake to the Angel that talked with me, saying, What are these, my lord?
...Then the Angel that talked with me answered, and said unto me, Knowest thou not what these be? And I said, Nay, my lord.
...Then he answered and spake unto me, saying, This is the word of the LORD unto Zerubbabel, saying, Not by might, nor by power, but by

Two olive trees.

me Spirit, saith the LORD of hosts.
7 Who art thou, O great mountain before Zerubbabel thou shalt become a plain, and he shall bring forth the head stone thereof with shoutings, crying, Grace, grace unto it.
8 Moreover, the word of the LORD came unto me, saying,
9 The hands of Zerubbabel have laid the foundation of this house; his hands shall also finish it, and thou shalt know that the LORD of hosts hath sent me unto you.
10 For who hath despised the day of small things? for they shall rejoice, and shall see the plummet in the hand of Zerubbabel with those seven; they are the eyes of the LORD, which run to and fro through the whole earth.
11 Then answered I, and said unto him, What are these two olive trees upon the right side of the candlestick, and upon the left side thereof?
12 And I answered again, and said unto him, What be these two olive branches, which through the two golden pipes empty the golden oil out of themselves?
13 And he answered me, and said, Knowest thou not what these be? And I said, No, my lord.
14 Then said he, These are the two anointed ones that stand by the Lord of the whole earth.

CHAP. V.

THEN I turned, and lift up mine eyes, and looked, and behold, a flying roll.
2 And he said unto me, What seest thou? and I answered, I see a flying roll; the length thereof is twenty cubits, and the breadth thereof ten cubits.
3 Then said he unto me, This is the curse that goeth forth over the face of the whole earth: for every one that stealeth shall be cut off as on this side, according to it; and every one that sweareth shall be cut off as on this side, according to it.
4 I will bring it forth, saith the LORD of hosts, and it shall enter into the house of the thief, and into the house of him that sweareth falsely by my name: and it shall remain in the midst of his house, and shall consume it, with the timber thereof, and the stones thereof.
5 Then the Angel that talked with me went forth, and said unto me, Lift up now thine eyes, and see what is this that goeth forth.
6 And I said, What is it? and he said, This is an ephah that goeth forth. He said moreover, This is their resemblance through all the earth.
7 And, behold, there was lift up a talent of lead: and this is a woman that sitteth in the midst of the ephah.
8 And he said, This is wickedness: and he cast it into the midst of the ephah; and he cast the weight of lead upon the mouth thereof.
9 Then lift I up mine eyes, and looked, and behold, there came out two women, and the wind was in their wings; for they had wings like the wings of a stork: and they lifted up the ephah between the earth and the heaven.
10 Then said I to the Angel that talked with me, Whither do these bear the ephah?
11 And he said to me, To build it an house in the land of Shinar: and it shall be established, and set there upon her own base.

CHAP. VI.

AND I turned, and lift up mine eyes, and looked, and behold, there came four chariots out from between two mountains; and the mountains were mountains of brass.
2 In the first chariot were red horses; and in the second chariot black horses;
3 And in the third chariot white horses; and in the fourth chariot grizzled and bay horses.
4 Then I answered, and said unto the Angel that talked with me, What are these, my lord?
5 And the Angel answered and said unto me, These are the four spirits of the heavens, which go forth from standing before the Lord of all the earth.
6 The black horses which are therein go forth into the north country; and the white go forth after them; and the grizzled go forth toward the south country.
7 And the bay went forth, and sought to go that they might walk to and fro through the earth: and he said, Get you hence, walk to and fro through the earth. So they walked to and fro through the earth.
8 Then cried he upon me, and spake unto me, saying, Behold, these that go toward the north country have quieted my Spirit in the north country.
9 And the word of the LORD came to me, saying,
10 Take of them of the captivity, even of Heldai, of Tobijah, and of Jedaiah, which are come from Babylon, and come thou the same day, and go into the house of Josiah the son of Zephaniah;
11 Then take silver and gold, and make crowns, and set them upon the head of Joshua the son of Josedech the high priest;
12 And speak unto him, saying, Thus speaketh the LORD of hosts, saying, Behold the man whose name is The BRANCH; and he shall grow up out of his place, and he shall build the temple of the LORD:
13 Even he shall build the temple of the LORD; and he shall bear the glory, and shall sit and rule upon his throne; and he shall be a priest upon his throne: and the counsel of peace shall be between them both.
14 And the crowns shall be to Helem, and to Tobijah, and to Jedaiah, and to Hen the son of Zephaniah, for a memorial in the temple of the LORD.
15 And they that are far off shall come and build in the temple of the LORD, and ye shall know that the LORD of hosts hath sent me unto you. And this shall come to pass, if ye will diligently obey the voice of the LORD your God.

CHAP. VII.

AND it came to pass in the fourth year of King Darius, that the word

the LORD came unto Zechariah, the fourth day of the ninth month in Chisleu.
2 When they had sent unto y house
Sherezer, & Regem melech, & eyes, saith the LORD of hosts?
men to pray before the LORD, 3 And to speake unto the Priests which were the house of the LORD of hosts, & to the Prophets, saying, Should I weep in y fifth month, separating my self, as I have done these so many years?
4 Then came the word of the LORD
unto me, saying,
5 Speake unto all the people of y land, and to the priests, saying, When ye fasted & mourned in y fifth & seventh moneth, even those seventie years, did ye at all fast unto me, even to me?
6 And when ye did eat, and when ye drinke, did not ye eate for your selves, and drinke for your selves?
7 Should not the words which the LORD hath cried by the former Prophets, when Ierusalem was one inhabited & in prosperitie, and the cities round about her, when men inhabited y South & the plaine?
8 And the word of the LORD came unto Zechariah, saying, 9 Thus speaketh the LORD of hosts, saying, Execute true iudgement, & shew every man compassions & mercies one to his brother.
10 And oppresse not the widow, nor the fatherlesse, the stranger, nor the poore, and let none of you imagine against his brother in your heart.
11 But they refused to hearken, & pulled away the shoulder, and stopped their eares, that they should not hear.
12 Yea they made their hearts as an adamant stone, lest they should hear the Law & the words which the LORD of hosts hath sent in his spirit by the former Prophets: therefore came a great wrath from the LORD of hosts.
13 Therefore it is come to passe, that as he cried, and they would not hear, so they cried, and I would not hearc,
saith the LORD of hosts.
14 But I scattred them with a whurlwind among all the nations whom they knew not: thus the land was desolate after them, that no man past either one nor came backe: for they laid the pleasant land desolate. CHAP. VIII.
1 Againe the word of the LORD of hosts came to me, saying, 2 Thus saith the Lord of hosts, I was jealous for Zion & great jealousie was I jealous for her, & great fury was I jealous for her.
3 Thus saith the Lord, I am returned to Zion, and will dwell in the midst of Ierusalem, and Ierusalem shall be called a city of truth, and the mountaine of the Lord of hosts, the holy mountain.
4 Thus saith the Lord of hosts,
There shall yet old men & old women dwell in the streets of Ierusalem, & every man with his staffe in his hand for very age.
5 And the streets of the city shall be full of boyes and girles playing in the streets thereof.
6 Thus saith the Lord of hosts, If it be marvellous in the eyes of y remnant of this people in these dayes, should it also be marvellous in mine 7 Thus saith the Lord of hosts, Behold, I will save the people from y East countrey, & from the West countrey, 8 And I will bring them, and they shall dwell in the midst of Ierusalem, and they shall be my people, & I will be their God, in truth & in righteousnes.
9 Thus saith the Lord of hosts, Let your hands be strong, ye that hear in these dayes these words from y mouth of the prophets, which were in y day y foundation was laid of the house of the Lord of hosts, that the temple might be built.
10 For before those dayes there was no hire for man nor any hire for beast, neither was there any peace to him that went out, or came in, because of the affliction: for I let all men, every man against his neighbour.
11 But now I will not be unto the residue of this people as in the former dayes, saith the LORD of hosts.
12 For the seed shall be prosperous:
the vine shall give her fruit, & the ground shall give her increase, & the heavens shall give their dew, and I will cause the remnant of this people to possesse all these things.
13 And it shall come to passe, that as ye were a curse among the heathen, O house of Iudah, and house of Israel, so will I save you, & ye shall be a blessing:
fear not, but let your hands be strong.
14 For thus saith the Lord of hosts,
As I thought to punish you, when your fathers provoked me to wrath, saith the Lord of hosts, and I repented not; 15 So again have I thought in these dayes to do well to Ierusalem, and to the house of Iudah: fear ye not.
16 These are the things that ye shall do, Speak ye every man the truth to his neighbour, execute the iudgement of truth, and peace in your gates.
17 And let none of you imagine evil in your hearts against his neighbour, and love no false oath: for all these are things that I hate, saith the LORD.
18 And the word of the LORD of hosts came unto me, saying, 19 Thus saith the Lord of hosts, The fast of y fourth moneth, & y fast of y fifth, and the fast of the seventh, & the fast of the tenth shall be to the house of Iudah, joy and gladnes, and cheerfull feasts: therfore love the truth & peace.
20 Thus saith the Lord of hosts, It shall yet come to pass y there shall come people, & the inhabitants of many cities:
21 And the inhabitants of one citie shall go to another, saying, Let us go speedily to pray before the Lord, & to seeke the LORD of hosts: I will go also.
22 Yea many people & strong nations shall come to seek y Lord of hosts in Ierusalem, and to pray before y Lord.
23 Thus saith the Lord of hosts, In those daves it shall come to passe, that and as the corners of the Altar, 10 men shall take hold out of all an 15 And the Lord their God shall speak peace to the heathen, & his clare that I will render double unto thee.

their heart shall rejoice in the LORD.
8 I will hiss for them, and gather them, for I have redeemed them, and they shall increase as they have increased.
9 And I will sow them among the people, and they shall remember me in far countries, and live with their children, and turne again.
10 I will bring them again also out of the land of Egypt, and gather them out of Assyria, and I will bring them into the land of Gilead and Lebanon, and place shall not be found for them.
11 And he shall passe through the sea

CHAP. XII.

The burden of y word of ȳ LORD 2 And it shall come to pass in ȳ day, for Israel, saith the LORD, which saith the Lord of hosts, that I will cut stretcheth forth the heavens, and lay- off ȳ names of the idols out of ȳ land, the foundation of the earth, and and they shall no more be remembred:

and also I will cause ỹ Prophets and ỹ unclean spirit to pass out of ỹ land.
3 And it shall come to passe, that when any shall yet prophesie, then his father and his mother that begat him, shall say unto him, Thou shalt not live: for thou speakest lies in the name of the LORD: and his father and his mother that begat him, shall thrust him thorow when he prophesieth.
4 And it shall come to passe in that day, that the Prophets shall be ashamed every one of his vision, when he hath prophesied: neither shall they wear a rough garment to deceive.
5 But he shall say, I am no Prophet, I am an husbandman: for man taught me to keep cattel from my youth.
6 And one shall say unto him, What are these wounds in thine hands? Then he shall answer, Those with which I was wounded in ỹ house of my friends.
7 Awake, O sword, against my shepherd, and against the man that is my fellow, saith the Lord of hosts: smite the Shepherd, and the sheep shall be scattered: and I will turn mine hand upon the little ones.
8 And it shall come to passe, that in all the land, saith the Lord, two parts therein shall be cut off and die; but the third shall be left therein.
9 And I will bring the third part through the fire, and will refine them as silver is refined, and will try them as gold is tried: they shall call on my Name, and I will hear them: I will say, It is my people: and they shall say, The Lord is my God.

CHAP. XIII.

BEhold, the day of the Lord cometh, and thy spoil shall be divided in the midst of thee.
2 For I will gather all nations against Jerusalem to battel: and the city shall be taken, and the houses rifled, and the women ravished: and half of the city shall go forth into captivity, and the residue of the people shall not be cut off from the city.
3 Then shall the LORD go forth, and fight against those nations, as when he fought in the day of battel.
4 And his feet shall stand in that day upon the mount of Olives, which is before Jerusalem on the east, and the mount of Olives shall cleave in the midst thereof toward the east and toward the west, and there shall be a very great valley; and half of the mountain shall remove toward the north, and half of it toward the south.
5 And ye shall flee to the valley of the mountains; for the valley of the mountains shall reach unto Azal: yea, ye shall flee like as ye fled from before the earthquake in the days of Uzziah king of Judah: and the LORD my God shall come, and all the Saints with thee.
6 And it shall come to passe in that day, that the light shall not be clear, nor dark.
7 But it shall be one day, which shall be known to the Lord, not day nor night: but it shall come to passe, that at evening time it shall be light.
8 And it shall be in ỹ day that living waters shall go out from Jerusalem; half of them toward the former sea, and half of them toward the hinder sea: in Summer and in Winter shall it be.
9 And the LORD shall be King over all the earth: in that day shall there be one LORD, and his Name one.
10 All the land shall be turned as a plain from Geba to Rimmon, south of Jerusalem: and it shall be lifted up, and inhabited in her place, from Benjamin unto the place of the first gate, unto the corner gate, & from the tower Hananel, unto ỹ Kings wine-presses.
11 And men shall dwell in it, & there shall be no more vtter destruction: but Jerusalem shall be safely inhabited.
12 And this shall be the plague wherewith the LORD will smite all the people that have warred against Jerusalem; their flesh shall consume away while they stand upon their feet, & their eyes shall consume away in their holes, & their tongue shall consume away in their mouth.
13 And it shall come to passe in that day, that a great tumult from the LORD shall be among them, and they shall lay hold every one on the hand of his neighbour, and his hand shall rise up against the hand of his neighbour.
14 And Judah also shall fight at Jerusalem, & the wealth of all the nations round about shall be gathered together, gold, and silver, and apparel, in very great abundance.
15 And so shall be ỹ plague of the horse, of the mule, of the camel, & of the asse, & of all the beasts that shall be in these tents as this plague.
16 And it shall come to passe, that every one that is left of all the nations which came against Jerusalem, shall even go up from year to year to worship the King the LORD of hosts, & to keep the feast of Tabernacles.
17 And it shall be that whosoever will not come up of all the families of the earth unto Jerusalem, to worship the King the LORD of hosts, even upon them shall there be no raine.
18 And if the family of Egypt go not vp, & come not, that have no raine, there shall be the plague wherewith the LORD will smite the heathen that come not vp to keep the feast of Tabernacles.
19 This shall be the punishment of Egypt, and the punishment of all nations that come not up to keep the feast of Tabernacles.
20 In that day shall there be vpon the bells of the horses, HOLINESSE TO THE LORD: and the pots in the LORDS house shall be like the bowles before the Altar.
21 Yea, every pot in Jerusalem & in Judah, shall be holinesse to the LORD of hosts: & all they that sacrifice shall come & take of them, & seethe therein: & in that day there shall be no more the Canaanite in the house of the Lord of hosts.

CHAP. I.

The burden of the word of the LORD to Israel by Malachi.

2 I have loved you, saith the LORD: yet ye say, wherein hast thou loved us? was not Esau Jacob's brother? saith the LORD, yet I loved Jacob,

3 And I hated Esau, and laid his mountains and his heritage waste, for dragons of the wilderness.

4 Whereas Edom saith, we are impoverished, but we will return & build the desolate places: thus saith the LORD of hosts, They shall build, but I will throw down; and they shall call them, The border of wickedness, and, The people against whom the LORD hath indignation for ever.

5 And your eyes shall see, and ye shall say, The LORD will be magnified from the border of Israel.

6 A son honoureth his father, and a servant his master: if then I be a father, where is mine honour? and if I be a master, where is my fear? saith the LORD of hosts unto you, O priests, that despise my Name? and ye say, Wherein have we despised thy Name?

7 Ye offer polluted bread upon mine altar; and ye say, Wherein have we polluted thee? in that ye say, The table of the LORD is contemptible.

8 And if ye offer the blind for sacrifice, is it not evil? and if ye offer the lame and sick, is it not evil? offer it now unto thy governour, will he be pleased with thee, or accept thy person? saith the LORD of hosts.

9 And now, I pray you, beseech God, that he will be gracious unto us: this hath been by your means: will he regard your persons? saith the LORD of hosts.

10 Who is there even among you that would shut the doors for nought? neither do ye kindle fire on mine altar for nought. I have no pleasure in you, saith the LORD of hosts, neither will I accept an offering at your hand.

11 For from the rising of the Sun, even unto the going down of the same, my Name shall be great among the Gentiles; and in every place incense shall be offered unto my Name, and a pure offering: for my Name shall be great among the heathen, saith the LORD of hosts.

12 But ye have profaned it, in that ye say, The table of the LORD is polluted; and the fruit thereof, even his meat, is contemptible.

13 Ye said also, Behold, what a weariness is it! and ye have snuffed at it, saith the LORD of hosts; and ye brought that which was torn, and the lame, and the sick; thus ye brought an offering: should I accept this of your hand? saith the LORD.

14 But cursed be the deceiver, which hath in his flock a male, and voweth, and sacrificeth unto the Lord a corrupt thing: for I am a great King, saith the LORD of hosts, & my Name is dreadful among the heathen.

CHAP. II.

And now, O ye priests, this commandment is for you.

2 If ye will not hear, and if ye will not lay it to heart, to give glory unto my Name, saith the LORD of hosts, I will even send a curse upon you, and will curse your blessings: yea, I have cursed them already, because ye do not lay it to heart.

3 Behold, I will corrupt your seed, and spread dung upon your faces, even the dung of your solemn feasts, and one shall take you away with it.

4 And ye shall know that I have sent this commandement unto you, that my covenant might be with Levi, saith the LORD of hosts.

5 My covenant was with him of life & peace, and I gave them to him, for the fear wherewith he feared me, and was afraid before my Name.

6 The law of truth was in his mouth, & iniquity was not found in his lips: he walked with me in peace & equity, & did turn many away from iniquity.

7 For the priest's lips should keep knowledge, and they should seek the Law at his mouth: for he is the messenger of the LORD of hosts.

8 But ye are departed out of the way, ye have caused many to stumble at the Law, ye have corrupted the Covenant of Levi, saith the LORD of hosts.

9 Therefore have I also made you contemptible, and base before all the people, according as ye have not kept my ways, but have been partial in the Law.

10 Have we not all one Father? hath not one God created us? why do we deale treacherously every man against his brother, by profaning the covenant of our fathers?

11 Judah hath deale treacherously, and an abomination is committed in Israel and in Jerusalem: for Judah hath profaned the holiness of the LORD, which he loved, and hath married the daughter of a strange god.

12 The LORD will cut off the man that doth this: the Master and the Scholar out of the Tabernacle of Jacob, and him that offereth an offering unto the LORD of hosts.

13 And this have ye done again, covering the Altar of the LORD with teares, with weeping, and with crying, insomuch that he regardeth not the offering any more, or receiveth it with good will at your hand.

14 Yet ye say, wherefore? Because the Lord hath been witnesse between thee and the wife of thy youth, against whom

A hom thou hast dealt treacherously: yet is she thy companion, and the wife of thy Covenant.

15 And did not he make one? yet had he the residue of the Spirit: and wherefore one? That he might seek a godly seed: therefore take heed to your spirit, and let none deale treacherously against the wife of his youth.

16 For the LORD the God of Israel saith, that he hateth putting away: for one covereth violence with his garments, saith the LORD of hostes, therfore take heed to your spirit, that ye deal not treacherously.

17 Ye have wearied the LORD with your words: yet ye say, wherein have we caried him? when ye say, Every one that doeth evil, is good in y sight of the Lord, & he delighteth in them: or where is the God of judgement?

CHAP. III.

BEhold, I will send my messenger, and he shal prepare the way before me: and the LORD whom ye seek, shall suddenly come to his Temple: even the messenger of the covenant, whom ye delight in: Behold, he shal come, saith the LORD of hostes.

2 But who may abide the day of his comming? and who shall stand when he appeareth? for he is like a refiners fire, & like Fullers sope.

3 And he shal sit as a refiner and purifier of silver: and he shal purifie the sons of Levi, and purge them as gold & silver, that they may offer unto the LORD an offering in righteousnes.

4 Then shall the offerings of Iudah and Ierusalem be pleasant unto the LORD, as in the dayes of old, and as in former yeers.

5 And I will come neere to you to judgment: and I will be a swift witnes against y sorcerers: & against y adulterers, & against false swearers, and against those that oppresse the hireling in his wages, the widow, and the fatherless, & that turne aside the stranger from his right: and feat not me, saith the LORD of hostes.

6 For I am the LORD, I change not: therefore yee sons of Iacob are not consumed.

7 Even from the dayes of your fathers ye are gone away from mine ordinances, and have not kept them. Return unto me, and I will return unto you, saith the LORD of hostes? But ye said, Wherein shall we return?

8 Will a man rob God? yet ye have robbed me. But ye say, Wherein have we robbed thee? In tithes & offerings.

9 Ye are cursed with a curse, for ye have robbed me, even this whole nation.

10 Bring ye all the tithes into the store house, and prove me now herewith, saith the LORD of hostes, if I will not open you the windowes of heaven, & powre you out a blessing that there shal not be roomenough to receive it.

11 And I will rebuke the devourer for your sakes, and he shal not destroy the fruits of your ground, neither shall your vine cast her fruit beforetheetime in the field, saith the LORD of hostes.

12 And all nations shall call you blessed: for ye shalbe a delightsome land, saith the LORD of hostes.

13 Your words have been stout against me, saith the LORD: yet ye say, What have we spoken so much among ther?

14 Ye have said, It is vain to serve God: and what profit is it, that we have kept his ordinances, and that we have walked mournfully before the LORD of hostes?

15 And now we call the proud happy: yea, they that work wickednes are set up: yea, they that tempt God, are even delivered.

16 Then they that feared the Lord spake often one to another, and the LORD hearkened, and heard it, and a book of remembrance was written before him, for them that feared y Lord, and that thought upon his Name.

17 And they shalbe mine, saith the LORD of hostes, in that day when I make up my jewels, and I will spare them, as a man spareth his own sonne that serveth him.

18 Then shal ye return & discerne between the righteous & the wicked, between him that feareth God, and him that feareth him not.

CHAP. IV.

FOr behold, the day commeth that shal burne as an oven, and all the proud, yea, and all that doe wickedly, shalbe stubble, and the day that commeth shall burne them up, saith the LORD of hostes, that it shall leave them neither root nor branch.

2 But unto you that feat my Name, shall the Sun of righteousnesse arise with healing in his wings, and ye shall go forth & grow up as calves of y stall.

3 And ye shall tread down the wicked: for they shalbe ashes under the soles of your feet, in y day that I shal doe this, saith the LORD of hostes.

4 Remember ye the Law of Moses my servant, which I commanded unto him in Horeb for all Israel, with the statutes and Iudgements.

5 Behold, I will send you Elijah the Prophet, before the comming of the great and dreadful day of the LORD.

6 And he shall turne the heart of the fathers to the children, & the heart of the children to their fathers, lest I

17 Then was fulfilled y which was spoken by Ieremy the Prophet, saying:

18 In Rama was there a voice heard, lamentation, and weeping, and great mourning; Rachel weeping for her children, and would not be comforted, because they are not.

19 But when Herod was dead, behold, an Angel of the Lord appeared in a dream to Ioseph in Egypt, 20 Saying, Arise, and take the yong child and his mother, and go into the land of Israel: for they are dead which sought the yong childes life.

21 And he arose, and took the yong child and his mother, and came into the land of Israel.

22 But when he heard that Archelaus did reign in Iudea in the room of his father Herod, he was afraid to go thither: notwithstanding, being warned of God in a dreame, he turned aside into the parts of Galilee,

23 And he came & dwelt in a cety called Nazar: thy it might be fulfilled w was spoke by y Prophet, He shalbe called a Nazarene. CHAP. III.

IN those dayes came Iohn the Baptist preaching in y wilderneſse of Iudea,

2 And saying, Repent ye for the kingdome of heaven is at hand.

3 For this is he that was spoken of by y Prophet Esaias, saying, The voice of one crying in y wilderness, Prepare ye y way of y Lord, make his paths straight.

4 And the same Iohn had his rayment of camel's heare and a leathrine girdle about his loynes, and his meat was locusts and wild hony.

5 Then went out to him Hierusalim, and all Iudea, and all the region round about Iordane,

6 And were baptized of him in Iordan, confessing their sins.

7 But when he saw many of y Pharises & Sadduces come to his baptisme, he said to them, Generation of vipers, who hath warned you to flee thy wrath to come?

8 Bring forth therefore fruits meet for repentance,

9 And think not to say within your selves, We have Abraham to our father: for I say to you y God is able of these stones to raise up children to Abraham.

10 And now also y axe is laide to y roote of y trees: therefore every tree which bringeth not forth good fruit, is hewen down and cast into the fire.

11 I indeed baptize you w water to repentance: but he that cometh after me is more mighty then I, whose shoes I am not worthy to bear: he shall baptize you w the holy Ghost and w fire:

12 Whose fan is in his hand, and he will throughly purge his floore, & gather his wheat into y garner: but will burn up y chaffe w unquenchable fire.

13 Then cometh Iesus fro Galilee to Iordan to Iohn, to be baptized of him.

14 But Iohn forbade him, saying, I have need to be baptized of thee, and comme st thou to me?

15 And Iesus answering, said unto him, Suffer it to be so now: for thus becometh us to fulfill all righteousnesse. Then he suffered him.

16 And Iesus when he was baptized, went up straightway out of y water, and loe, the heavens were opened unto him, and he saw the Spirit of God descending like a dove, & lighting upon him:

17 And loe, a voyce from heaven, saying, This is my beloved Sonne, in whom I am well pleased.

CHAP. IIII.

THEN was Iesus led up of y spirit into the wilderness to be tempted of y devil.

2 And when he had fasted forty days and forty nights, he was afterward an hungred.

3 And when y tempter came to him, he said, If thou be y Sonne of God, command that these stones be made bread.

4 But he answered and said, It is written, Man shall not live by bread alone, but by every word that proceedeth out of the mouth of God.

5 Then the devil taketh him up into the holy citie, and setteth him on a pinacle of the Temple,

6 And saith unto him, If thou be the Sonne of God, Cast thy self down: for it is written, For he shall give his Angels charge concerning thee, and in their hands they shall bear thee up, lest at any time thou dash thy foot against a stone.

7 Iesus said to him, It is written again, Thou shalt not tempt the Lord thy God.

8 Again the devil taketh him up into an exceeding high mountaine, and sheweth him all the kingdomes of the world, and the glory of them,

9 And saith unto him, All these things will I give thee, if thou wilt fall down and worship me.

10 Then saith Iesus unto him, Get thee hence, Satan: for it is written, Thou shalt worship the Lord thy God, and him only shalt thou serve.

11 Then the devil leaveth him: & behold, Angels came & ministred to him.

12 Now when Iesus had heard that Iohn was cast into prison, he departed into Galilee.

13 And leaving Nazareth, he came and dwelt in Capernaum, which is upon the sea coast, in the borders of Zabulon and Nephtalim.

14 That it might be fulfilled w was spoke by Esaias y Prophet, saying,

15 The land of Zebulon, and the land of Nephtalim, by way of y sea, beyond Iordan, Galilee of y Gentiles,

16 The people that sate in darkenesse saw great light, and to them that sate in the region and shadow of death

17 From that time Iesus began to preach, and to say, Repent: for the kingdome of heaven is at hand.

18 And Iesus walking by the Sea of 19 a net in ye sea, (for they were fishers)

20 And he saith unto them, Follow me, & I will make you fishers of men.
21 And they straightway left their nets, and followed him.
22 And passing on from thence, he saw other two brethren, James the sonne of Zebedee, & Iohn his brother, in a ship with Zebedee their father mending their nets, and he called them.
23 And they immediately left the ship & their father, & followed him.
24 And Iesus went about all Galilee, teaching in their Synagogues, & preaching the Gospel of the kingdom of God, and healing all manner of sicknesse, and all manner of disease among the people.
25 And his fame went thorow out all Syria, and they brought unto him all sicke people that were taken with divers diseases and torments, and those which were possessed with devils, and those which were lunatick, and those that had the palsie, and he healed them.
26 And there followed him great multitudes of people from Galilee, from Decapolis, & from Hierusalē, & from Iudea, & from beyond Iordan.

CHAP. V.

1 Seeing the multitudes, he went vp into a mountaine: and when he was set, his disciples came unto him.
2 And he opened his mouth, & taught them saying.
3 Blessed are the poore in spirit: for theirs is the kingdome of heaven.
4 Blessed are they that mourne: for they shall be comforted.
5 Blessed are the meeke: for they shall inherit the earth.
6 Blessed are they which doe hunger and thirst after righteousnesse: for they shall be filled.
7 Blessed are the mercifull: for they shall obtaine mercy.
8 Blessed are the pure in heart: for they shall see God.
9 Blessed are the peace-makers: for they shall be called ye children of God.
10 Blessed are they which are persecuted for righteousnesse sake: for theirs is the kingdome of heaven.
11 Blessed are ye when men shall revile you, & persecute you, & shall say all manner of euil against you falsly for my sake.
12 Reioyce and be exceeding glad: for great is your reward in heaven: for so persecuted they the Prophets which were before you.
13 Ye are the salt of the earth: but if the salt haue lost his sauour, wherewith shall it be salted? it is thenceforth good for nothing, but to be cast out, & to be trodden vnder foot of men.
14 Ye are the light of the world. A citie that is set on a hill, cannot be hid.
15 Neither doe men light a candle, & put it vnder a bushell: but on a candlesticke, and it giueth light vnto all that are in the house.
16 Let your light so shine before men, that they may see your good workes, & glorifie your father which is in heaven.

17 Think not that I am come to destroy the Law or the Prophets: I am not come to destroy but to fulfill.
18 For verily I say vnto you, Till heaven and earth passe one iot or one title shall in no wise passe from the Law till all be fulfilled.
19 Whosoever therefore shall break one of these least Commandments, & shall teach men so, he shalbe called least in the kingdome of heaven: but whosoever shall do & teach them, the same shalbe called great in the kingdome of heaven.
20 For I say vnto you, That except your righteousnesse shall exceed the righteousnesse of the Scribes & Pharisees, ye shall in no case enter into the kingdome of heaven.
21 Ye haue heard that it was said to them of old time, Thou shalt not kill, and whosoever shall kill, shalbe in danger of the iudgement.
22 But I say vnto you, That whosoever is angry with his brother vnaduisedly, shalbe in danger of the iudgement: and whosoever shall say to his brother, Raca, shalbe in danger of the counsell: but whosoever shall say, Thou foole, shalbe in danger of hell fire.
23 Therefore if thou bring thy gift to the Altar, and there remembrest that thy brother hath ought against thee,
24 Leaue there thy gift before the Altar, & go thy way: first be reconciled to thy brother, & then come & offer thy gift.
25 Agree with thine aduersary quickly, whiles thou art in the way with him: least at any time the aduersary deliuer thee to the Iudge, and the Iudge deliuer thee to the Officer, & thou be cast into prison.
26 Verily I say vnto thee, Thou shalt by no meanes come out thence, till thou hast paid the vttermost farthing.
27 Ye haue heard that it was said to them of old time, Thou shalt not commit adultery.
28 But I say vnto you, That whosoever looketh on a woman to lust after her, hath committed adultery with her already in his heart.
29 And if thy right eye offend thee, plucke it out and cast it from thee: for it is profitable for thee that one of thy members should perish, and not that thy whole body should be cast into hell.
30 And if thy right hand offend thee, cut it off and cast it from thee: for it is profitable for thee that one of thy members should perish, and not that thy whole body should be cast into hell.
31 It hath been said also, Whosoever shall put away his wife, let him giue her a writing of diuorcement.
32 But I say vnto you, That whosoeuer shall put away his wife, except for the cause of fornication, causeth her to commit adultery: & whosoeuer shall marry her when she is diuorced, committeth adultery.
33 Againe, ye haue heard that it hath been said to them of old time, Thou shalt not forsweare thy selfe, but shalt performe unto the Lord thine oathes.

34 But I say to you, Sweare not at all, neither by heave, for it is Gods throne
35 Nor by the earth, for it is his foote-stoole: neither by Jerusalem, for it is the city of the great king.
36 Neither shalt thou sweare by thy head, because thou canst not make one haire white or blacke.
37 But let your communication be Yea, yea: Nay, nay: for whatsoever is more then these, commeth of evil.
38 Ye have heard that it hath bin said, An eye for an eye, & a tooth for a tooth
39 But I say to you That ye resist not evil: but whosoever shall smite thee on thy right cheek, turn to him y other also.
40 And if any man will sue thee at the law and take away thy coat, let him have thy cloak also.
41 And whosoever shall compel thee to goe a mile, goe with him twaine.
42 Give to him that asketh thee: and from him that would borrow of thee, turne not thou away.
43 Ye have heard, that it hath beene said, Thou shalt love thy neighbour, and hate thine enemy.
44 But I say unto you, Love your enemies, blesse them that curse you, doe good to them y hate you, and pray for them which despitefully use you, and persecute you.
45 That ye may be the children of your Father which is in heaven: for he maketh his Sunne to rise on the evil, and on the good, and sendeth raine on the just, and on the unjust.
46 For if ye love them which love you, what reward have ye: do not even the Publicanes the same?
47 And if ye salute your brethren only, what doe you more then others? Doe not even the Publicanes so?
48 Be ye therefore perfect, even as your Father which is in heaven is perfect.

CHAP. VI.

TAke heed that ye doe not your almes before men, to be seen of them, otherwise ye have no reward of your Father which is in heaven.
2 Therefore when thou doest thine almes, doe not sound a trumpet before thee as the hypocrites doe in the Synagogues and in the streets, that they may have glory of men. Verily, I say unto you, they have their reward.
3 But when y doest almes, let not thy left hand know what the right hand doth
4 That thine almes may be in secret: And thy Father which seeth in secret himself shall reward thee openly.
5 And when thou prayest, thou shalt not be as the hypocrites are: for they love to pray standing in the Synagogues, and in the corners of the streets, y they may be seene of men. Verily I say unto you, they have their reward.
6 But thou when thou prayest, enter into thy closet, and when thou hast shut thy doore, pray to thy Father which is in secret: and thy Father which seeth in secret shall reward thee openly.
7 But when ye pray, use not vaine repetitions, as the heathen doe. For they thinke that they shall be heard for their much speaking.
8 Be not ye therefore like unto them: For your Father knoweth what things ye have need of, before ye aske him.
9 After this manner therefore pray ye: Our Father which art in heaven, hallowed be thy Name.
10 Thy kingdome come, Thy will be done, in earth, as it is in heaven.
11 Give us this day our daily bread.
12 And forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debters.
13 And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evill: for thine is the kingdome, and the power, and the glory, for ever. Amen.
14 For if ye forgive men their trespasses, your heavenly Father will also forgive you.
15 But if ye forgive not men their trespasses, neither will your Father forgive your trespasses.
16 Moreover, when ye fast, be not as the hypocrites, of a sad countenance: for they disfigure their faces, that they may appeare unto men to fast. Verily I say to you, they have their reward.
17 But thou when thou fastest, anoint thine head, and wash thy face, 18 That thou appeare not unto men to fast: but unto thy Father which is in secret: and thy Father which seeth in secret shall reward thee openly.
19 Lay not up for your selves treasures upon earth, where moth and rust doth corrupt, and where theeves break through, and steale.
20 But lay up for your selves treasures in heaven: where neither moth nor rust doeth corrupt, and where theeves do not break through nor steale.
21 For where your treasure is, there will your heart be also.
22 The light of the body is the eye: therefore if thine eye be single, thy whole body shall be full of light.
23 But if thine eye be evil, thy whole body shall be full of darkenesse. If therefore the light that is in thee be darkenesse, how great is that darkenesse!
24 No man can serve two masters: for either he will hate the one and love the other, or else he will hold to the one, and despise the other. Ye cannot serve God and Mammon.
25 Therefore I say to you, take no thought for your life, what ye shall eate, or what ye shall drink, nor yet for your body, what ye shall put on. Is not the life more then meate? & y body then raiment?
26 Behold, the fowles of the aire: for they sow not, neither do they gather into barnes, yet your heavenly Father feedeth them. Are ye 27 Which of you by taking thought can adde one cubite to his stature?
28 And why take yee thought for how they grow: they toile not, nor doe they spinne.

29 And yet I say unto you, that even Salomon in all his glory, was not arayed like one of these.

30 Wherefore if God so clothe y grasse of the field, which to day is, & to morrow is cast into y ovē, shal he not much more clothe you, O ye of little faith?

31 Therfore take no thought, saying, What shal we eat? or what shal we drink? or wherewithal shal we be clothed?

32 (For after all these things do the Gentiles seeke) for your heavenly Father knoweth that ye have need of all these things.

33 But seeke ye first the kingdome of God, and his righteousnesse, and all these things shal be added unto you.

34 Take therefore no thought for the morrow: for the morrow shal take thought for the things of it selfe: sufficient unto the day, is the evil thereof.

CHAP. VII.

1 Judge not, that ye be not judged.

2 For with what judgement yee iudge, ye shal be judged: & with what measure ye mete, it shalbe measured to you againe.

3 And why beholdest thou the mote in thy brothers eye, but consi dereth not the beame that is in thine owne eye?

4 Or how wilt y say to thy brother, Let me pull out y mote out of thine eye, and behold a beam is in thine own eye?

5 Thou hypocrite first cast out the beam out of thine owne eye, and then shalt thou see clearely to cast out the mote out of the brothers eye.

6 Give not that which is holy unto the dogs, neither cast ye your pearles before swine, lest they trample them under their feet, & turn & rent you.

7 Aske and it shal be given you: seeke, and ye shal find: knock, and it shal be opened unto you.

8 For every one that asketh receiveth: and he that seeketh, findeth: and to him that knocketh it shal be opened.

9 Or what man is there of you, who if his sonne aske bread, will he give him a stone,

10 Or if he aske a fish, will he give him a serpent?

11 If ye then being evil know how to give good gifts to your children, how much more shal your Father give (or heaven) good things to them y ask him?

12 Therefore al things what soever you would that men should doe to you, do ye even so to them: for this is the Law and the Prophets.

13 Enter ye in at the strait gate, for wide is the gate, and broad is the way that leadeth to destruction: and many there be that goe in thereat:

14 Because strait is the gate, and narrow is the way which leadeth unto life, and few there be that find it.

15 Beware of false prophets which come to you in sheepes clothing, but inwardly they are ravening wolves.

16 Ye shal know them by their fruits. Do men gather grapes of thornes, or figs of thistles?

17 Even so every good tree bringeth forth good fruit: but a corrupt tree bringeth fourth evil fruit.

18 A good tree cannot bring fourth evil fruit, neither can a corrupt tree bring forth good fruit.

19 Every tree that bringeth not forth good fruit, is hewen down and cast into the fire.

20 Wherefore by their fruits ye shal know them.

21 Not every one that saith unto me, Lord, Lord, shal enter into the kingdome of heaven, but he that doth y will of my Father which is in heaven.

22 Many will say to me in that day, Lord, Lord, have we not prophesied in thy Name? and in thy Name have cast out devils? and in thy Name done many wonderful works?

23 And then will I profesie unto them, I never knew you: depart from me ye that worke iniquitie.

24 Therefore whosoever heareth these sayings of mine, and doeth them, I will liken him to a wise man, which built his house upon a rocke:

25 And the raine descended, and the floods came, and the winds blew, and beat upon that house: and it fel not, for it was founded upon a rocke.

26 And every one that heareth these sayings of mine, and doeth them not, shal be likened unto a foolish man, which built his house upon the sand:

27 And the raine descended, and the floods came, and the winds blew, and beat upon that house, and it fell, and great was the fal of it.

28 And it came to passe, when Iesus had ended these sayings, the people were astonished at his doctrine:

29 For he taught them as one having authoritie, and not as the Scribes.

CHAP. VIII.

1 When he was come down from the mountaine great multitudes followed him.

2 And behold, there came a leper, and worshipped him, saying, Lord, if thou wilt thou canst make me cleane.

3 And Iesus put forth his hand and touched him saying, I will: be y cleane. & immediately his leprosy was cleansed.

4 And Iesus saith to him, See y tel no man, but go thy way, shew thy self to the Priest, and offer y gift that Moses commanded, for a testimony to them.

5 And when Iesus was entred into Capernaum, there came unto him a Centurion, beseeching him,

6 And saying, Lord my servant lieth at home sicke of the palsie, grievously tormented.

7 And Iesus saith unto him, I will come and heale him.

8 The Centurion answered and said, Lord, I am not worthy that y shouldest come under my roof: but speak y word only, and my servant shal be healed.

9 For I am a man under authoritie, having souldiers under me, and I say to

to this man, Go: and he goeth: and to another, Come: and he commeth: and to my servant, Do this, & he doeth it.

10 When Iesus heard it, he marvelled, and said to them that followed, Verily I say unto you, I have not found so great faith, no not in Israel.

11 And I say unto you, that many shall come from the east and west, and shall sit down with Abraham, & Isaac, and Iacob in the kingdom of heaven.

12 But the children of the kingdome shall be cast out into vter darkenes: there shalbe weeping and gnashing of teeth.

13 And Iesus said vnto the Centurion, Go thy way: and as thou hast beleeved, so be it done vnto thee. And his servant was healed in the same houre.

14 And when Iesus was come into Peters house, he saw his wives mother laid, and sick of a feuer:

15 And he touched her hand, and the feuer left her: and she arose and ministred vnto them.

16 When the even was come, they brought vnto him many y were possessed w devils: and he cast out y spirits with his word, & healed all that were sicke.

17 That it might be fulfilled which was spoken by Esaias the prophet, saying, Himselfe tok the our infirmities, and bare our sicknesses.

18 Now when Iesus saw great multitudes about him, he gaue commandment to depart vnto the other side.

19 And a certaine Scribe came, and said vnto him, Master, I will follow thee whithersoeuer thou goest.

20 And Iesus saith vnto him, The foxes have holes, and the birds of the ayre have nests: but the Son of man hath not where to lay his head.

21 And another of his Disciples said vnto him, I pray thee, suffer me first to go, and burie my father.

22 And Iesus said vnto him, Follow me, and let the dead bury their dead.

23 And when he was entred into a ship, his Disciples followed him.

24 And behold there arose a great tempest in the Sea, insomuch y the ship was covered w the waves: but he was asleep.

25 And his Disciples came to him, and awoke him, saying, Lord saue vs: we perish.

26 And he saith vnto them, Why are ye feareful, O ye of little faith? Then vp he arose and rebuked the winds and the Sea, and there was a great calme.

27 But the men marueiled, saying, What manner of man is this, that euen the winds and the Sea obey him?

28 And when he was come to the other side, into the country of the Gergasenes, there met him two possessed with deuils comming out of the Tombes exceeding fierce, so that no man might passe by that way.

29 And behold they cryed out, saying, What have we to do w thee, Iesus thou Son of God: Art thou come hither to torment vs before the time?

30 And there was a good way off from them an herd of many swine feeding.

31 So the deuils besought him saying, If thou cast vs out, suffer vs to go away into the herd of swine.

32 And he said vnto them, Go. And when they were come out, they went into the herd of swine: and behold the whole herd of swine ranne violently down a steepe place into the Sea, and perished in the waters.

33 And they that kept them, fled, and went their ways into the city, and olde every thing, and what was fallen to the possessed of the deuils.

34 And behold, the whole city came out to meete Iesus: and when they saw him they besought him that he would depart out of their coasts.

C H A P. IX.

AND he entred into a ship, and passed over, and came into his owne city.

2 And behold they brought to him a man sicke of the palsie, lying on a bed: and Iesus seeing their faith, said vnto the sicke of the palsie, Sonne be of good cheare: thy sinnes be forgiuen thee.

3 And behold certaine of the Scribes said within themselues, This man blasphemeth.

4 And Iesus knowing their thoughts, said, Wherefore thinke ye euill in your hearts?

5 For whether is easier to say, Thy sinnes be forgiuen thee: or to say, Arise and walke?

6 But that ye may know that the son of man hath power on earth to forgiue sinnes, (Then saith he to the sicke of the palsie) Arise, take vp thy bed and goe into thine house.

7 And he arose, & departed to his house.

8 But when the multitude saw it, they marueiled, and glorified God, which had giuen such power to men.

9 And as Iesus passed forth from thence, he saw a man named Matthew, sitting at the receit of custome: and he said vnto him, Follow me, and he arose and followed him.

10 And it came to passe as Iesus sat at meat in the house, behold many Publicans and sinners came, and sate down with him and his Disciples.

11 And when the Pharisees saw it, they said vnto his Disciples, Why eateth your Master w Publicans & sinners?

12 But when Iesus heard y he said vnto them, They that be whole need not a leach, but they that are sicke.

13 But go ye and learne what this meaneth, I will have mercy, and not sacrifice: for I am not come to call the righteous, but sinners to repentance.

14 Then came to him the disciples of Iohn, saying, Why do we & the Pharisees fast often: but thy disciples fast not?

15 And Iesus said vnto them, Can the children of the bride-chamber mourn as long as the bridegroom is with them? But the dayes will come when the bridegroom shall be taken from them: and then shall they fast.

16 No man putteth a piece of new an old garment: for that w to fill it up, taketh from the

and the rent is made worse.
ther to put new wine into bottels: the bottels break, and is run out, and the bottels are but they put new wine into new and both are preserved.
¶ While he spake these things, unto a certain ruler came a certain ru-worshipped him, saying, My is even now dead: but come & upon her, & she shal live.
¶ And Jesus arose, and followed and so did his Disciples.
¶ And behold a woman which was with an issue of blood twelve came behind him, and touched hem of his garment.
¶ For she said within herself, If I may touch his garment, I shal be whole.
¶ But Jesus turned him about, and when he saw her, he said, Daughter, be of good comfort: thy faith hath made whole. And the woman was healed that hour.
¶ And when Jesus came into the ru-house, and saw the minstrels, and people making a noise, ¶ He said unto them, Give place: for maide is not dead, but sleepeth.
they laughed him to scorne.
¶ But when the people were put he went in, and took her by the
and the maid arose.
¶ And the fame hereof went abroad
all that land.
¶ And when Jesus departed thence,
two blind men followed him, crying, saying, Thou son of David, have on us.
¶ And when he was come into y house, blind men came to him: and Jesus unto them, Believe ye y I am able this? They said to him, Yea, Lord.
¶ Then touched he their eyes, saying,
according to your faith be it to you.
¶ And their eyes were opened: and straitly charged them, saying, See no man know it.
¶ But they, when they were departed, spread abroad his fame in that country.
¶ As they went out, behold, they brought to him a dumme man possessed with a devil.
¶ And when the devil was cast out, y dumme spake. & y multitudes marvelled, saying, It was never so seen in Israel.
¶ But y Pharisees said, He casteth out devils through y prince of y devils.
¶ And Jesus went about all the cities and villages, teaching in their Synagogues, and preaching the Gospel of the kingdome,
and healing every sickness,
and every disease among the people.
¶ But when he saw the multitudes, he was moved with compassion on them, because they fainted, & were scattered abroad, as sheep having no shepherd.
¶ Then saith he unto his Disciples,
The harvest truely is plenteous, but the labourers are few.

38 Pray ye therefore the Lord of the harvest, y he will send forth labourers into his harvest. CHAP. X.

AND when he had called to him his twelve Disciples, he gave them power against unclean spirits to cast them out, & to heal all manner of sicknesses and all manner of diseases.
2 Now the names of the twelve Apostles are these: y first, Simon who is called Peter, & Andrew his brother: James y son of Zebedee, & John his brother:
3 Philip and Bartholomew: Thomas and Matthew the publicane: James the son of Alphaus and Lebbeus, whose surname was Thaddeus:
4 Simon the Canaanite, and Iudas
Iscariot who also betrayed him.
5 These twelve Jesus sent forth, and commanded them, saying, Go not into the way of the Gentiles, and into any city of the Samaritans enter ye not:
6 But goe rather to the lost sheep of the house of Israel.
7 And as ye goe preach, saying: The kingdome of heaven is at hand:
8 Heale the sicke, cleanse the lepers, raise the dead, cast out devils: freely ye have received, freely give.
9 Provide neither gold, nor silver nor brasse in your purses:
10 Nor scrip for your journey, nor two coates, neither shoes, nor yet staves: (for the workman is worthy of his meat.)
11 And into whatsoever city or town ye shal enter, inquire who in it is worthy, & there abide til ye goe thence.
12 And when ye come into an house, salute it.
13 And if the house be worthy, let your peace come on it: but if it be not worthy, let your peace return to you.
14 And whosoever shal not receive you, nor heare your words: when ye depart out of that house or city, shake off the dust of your feet.
15 Verily I say unto you, it shal be more tolerable for the land of Sodome & Gomorrah in the day of judgement, than for that city.
16 Behold, I send you forth as sheep in the midst of wolves: be ye therefore wise as serpents, and harmles as doves.
17 But beware of men: for they will deliver you up to the Councels, & they will scourge you in their Synagogues.
18 And ye shal be brought before governours and kings for my sake, for a testimony against them and y Gentiles.
19 But when they deliver you up, take no thought how or what ye shall speake: for it shal be given you in that same hour, what ye shal speake.
20 For it is not ye y speak, but the Spirit of your father speaketh in you.
21 And y brother shal deliver up the brother to death, & the father y child:
& y children shal rise up against their parents, & cause them to be put to death.
22 And ye shal be hated of all men

endureth to the end shal bee saved.

23 But when they persecute you in this city, flee ye into another: for verily I say unto you, Ye shal not have gone over the cities of Israel, til the Son of man bee come.

24 The Disciple is not above his maister, nor the servant above his lord.

25 It is enough for the disciple that he be as his maister, and the servant as his lord: If they have called the master of the house Beelzebub: how much more shal they cal the of his household.

26 Feare them not therefore: for there is nothing covered, that shal not be revealed: & hid that shal not be known.

27 What I tel you in darknes, that speake ye in light: & what ye hear in eare, preach ye upon the house tops.

28 And feare not them which kil the body, but are not able to kil the soul: but rather feare him which is able to destroy both soul and body in hel.

29 Are not two sparrowes sold for a farthing: and one of them shal not fal on the ground without your Father.

30 But the very haires of your head are al numbred.

31 Feare ye not therefore, ye are of more value then many sparrowes.

32 Whosoever therefore shal confesse me before men, him wil I confesse also before my Father which is in heaven.

33 But who soever shal deny me before men, him wil I also deny before my Father which is in heaven.

34 Think not that I am come to send peace on earth: I came not to send peace, but a sword.

35 For I am come to set a man at variance against his father, & the daughter against her mother: & the daughter in law against her mother in law.

36 And a mans foes shal be they of his owne household.

37 He that loveth father or mother more then me, is not worthy of me: & he that loveth son or daughter more then me, is not worthy of me.

38 And he that taketh not his crosse & followeth after me, is not worthy of me.

39 He that findeth his life shal lose it: and he that loseth his life for my sake, shal finde it.

40 He that receiveth you, receiveth me: and he that receiveth me, receiveth him that sent me.

41 He that receiveth a Prophet in the name of a Prophet shal receive a Prophets reward: and he that receiveth a righteous man in y name of a righteous man shal receive a righteous mans reward.

42 And whosoever shal give to drink unto one of these little ones a cup of cold water only in y name of a disciple, verily I say to you, he shal in no wise lose his reward. CHAP. XI.

AND it came to pass, when Jesus had made an end of commanding his twelve disciples, he departed thence to teach and to preach in their cities.

2 Now when John had heard in the Prison the workes of Christ, he sent two of his disciples,

3 And said unto him, Art thou he that should come? or do we looke for another?

4 Jesus answered, & said unto them, Go & shew John again those things which ye doe heare and see:

5 The blind receive their sight, & the lame walk, the lepers are cleansed, & deaf hear, the dead are raised up, & the poor have the Gospel preached to them.

6 And blessed is he whosoever shal not be offended in me.

7 And as they departed, Jesus began to say to y multitudes concerning John: What went ye out into the wildernes for to see? A reed shaken with the wind?

8 But what went ye out for to see? A man clothed in soft raiment? lo they that wear soft clothing are in kings houses.

9 But what went ye out for to see? A Prophet? yea, I say unto you, and more then a Prophet.

10 For this is he of whom it is written, Behold, I send my messenger before thy face, which shal prepare thy way before thee.

11 Verily I say to you, Among them that are born of women there hath not risen a greater then John y Baptist: notwithstanding he that is least in the kingdome of heaven is greater then he.

12 And from the dayes of John y Baptist until now y kingdome of heaven suffereth violence, & y violent take it by force.

13 For all the Prophets and the law prophesied until John.

14 And if ye wil receive it, this is Elias which was for to come.

15 He y hath eares to hear, let him hear.

16 But whereunto shal I liken this generation? It is like to children sitting in the markets, & calling to their fellowes,

17 And saying, We have piped to you, & ye have not danced; we have mourned to you and ye have not lamented.

18 For John came neither eating nor drinking, & they say, He hath a devil.

19 The Son of man came eating and drinking, and they say, Behold a man gluttonous and a wine-bibber, a friend of Publicanes and sinners: but wisdome is justified of her children.

20 Then began he to upbraid y cities wherein most of his mighty workes were done, because they repented not.

21 Woe unto thee Chorazin, woe unto thee Bethsaida: for if y mighty workes which were done in you, had been done in Tyre & Sidon, they would have repented long ago in sackcloth & ashes.

22 But I say unto you, It shal be more tolerable for Tyre and Sidon at the day of judgement, then for you.

23 And y Capernaum, which are exalted to heaven, shal be brought down to hel: for if the mighty works which have been done in thee, had been done in Sodom, it would have remained until this day.

24 But I say unto you, That it shal be more tolerable for the land of Sodom in y day of judgement, then for thee.

25 At that time Jesus answered and said, pleased: I will put my Spirit on him, & he shal shew judgement to ỹ Gentiles.

19 He shal not strive, nor cry, neither shal any man hear his voice in ỹ streets.
20 A bruised reed shal he not breake, & smoaking flaxe shal he not quench, til he send forth judgement to victory.
21 And in his Name shal ỹ Gentils trust.
22 Then was brought unto him one possessed with a devil, blind & dumbe: and he healed him, insomuch that the blind and dumbe both spake and saw.
23 And al the people were amazed, & said, Is not this the Son of David?
24 But when ỹ Pharisees heard it, they said, This fellow doth not cast out devils, but by Beelzebub ỹ prince of ỹ devils.
25 And Iesus knew their thoughts, & said to them, Every kingdome devided against it selfe, shal be brought to desolation; and every citie or house devided against it selfe, shal not stand.
26 And if Satan cast out Satan, he is devided against himself: how shal then his kingdome stand?
27 And if I by Beelzebub cast out devils, by whō do your children cast them out? Therefore they shalbe your judges.
28 But if I cast out devils by the Spirit of God, then the kingdome of God is come unto you.
29 Or else how can one enter into a strong mans house, & spoil his goods, except he first bind the strong man, and then he will spoyle his house?
30 He that is not with me, is against me: & he that gathereth not with me, scatereth abroad.
31 Wherfore I say unto you, Al maner of sin and blasphemy, shalbe forgiven unto men: but ỹ blasphemy against ỹ holy Ghost shal not be forgiven unto men.
32 And whosoever speaketh a word against ỹ Son of man it shalbe forgiven him: but whosoever speaketh against the holy Ghost, it shal not be forgiven him, neither in this world, neither in the world to come.
33 Either make the tree good, and his fruit good: or else make ỹ tree corrupt, and his fruit corrupt: for the tree is known by his fruit.
34 O generation of vipers, how can ye being evil, speake good things? For out of the abundance of the heart the mouth speaketh.
35 A good man out of ỹ good treasure of his heart bringeth forth good things: and a evil man out of the evil treasure bringeth forth evil things.
36 But I say to you, that every idle word that men shal speak, they shal give account thereof in the day of iudgment.
37 For by thy words ỹ shalt be iustified, & by thy words ỹ shalt be condemned.
38 Then certaine of the Scribes and of the Pharisees answered, saying: Master we would see a signe from thee.
39 But he answered, and said unto them, An evil and adulterous generation seeketh after a signe, and there the signe of the Prophet Ionas.

40 For as Ionas was three daies and three nights in the whales belly: so shall the sonne of man be three daies & three nights in the heart of the earth.
41 The men of Nineve shal rise in the judgement with this generation, and shal condemne it: for they repented at the preaching of Ionas, and behold, a greater then Ionas is here.
42 The Queene of the South shal rise up in iudgment with this generation, and shal condemne it: for she came from the vttermost parts of the earth to hear the wisdome of Salomon, and behold, a greater then Salomon is here.
43 When the vncleane spirit is gone out of a man, he walketh through drie groues, seeking rest, and findeth none.
44 Then he saith, I will returne into my house from whence I came out: and when he is come, he findeth it empty, swept, and garnished.
45 Then goeth he and taketh with him seuen other spirits more wicked then himselfe, and they enter in, and dwell there: and the last state of that man is worse then y first. Even so shall it be also of this wicked generation.
46 While he yet talked to the people, behold, his mother and his brethren stood without, desiring to speak with him.
47 Then one said vnto him, Behold, thy mother and thy brethren stand without, desiring to speake with thee.
48 But he answered, and said vnto him that told him, Who is my mother? and who are my brethren?
49 And he stretched forth his hand ouer his disciples, and said, Behold mother and brethren!
50 For whosoeuer shall do the will of my Father which is in heaven, the same is my brother, and sister, and mother.

CHAP. XIII.

THE same day went Iesus out of the house, and sate by the sea side.
2 And great multitudes were gathered vnto him, so that he went into a ship and sate, and the whole multitude stood on the shore.
3 And he spake many things vnto them in parables, saying. Behold, a sower went forth to sowe.
4 And when he sowed, some seedes fell by the way side, and the foules came and deuoured them vp.
5 Some fell vpon stony places, where they had not much earth: and forth with they sprang vp, because they had no deepnes of earth.
6 And when the sunne was vp, they were scorched, and because they had no roote, they withered away.
7 And some fell among thornes, & the thornes sprang vp, and choked them.
8 But other fell into good ground, & brought forth fruit: some an hundred fold, some sixtie fold, some thirtie fold.
9 Who hath eares to heare, let him heare.
10 And the disciples came and said vnto him, Why speakest thou to them in parables?
11 He answered, and said vnto them, Because it is given vnto you to know the mysteries of the kingdome of heaven, but to them it is not given.
12 For whosoever hath, to him shall be giuen, and he shal haue more abundance: but whosoeuer hath not, from him shal be taken away euen y he hath.
13 Therefore speake I to them in parables: because they seeing see not, and hearing they heare not, neither do they vnderstand.
14 And in them is fulfilled the prophecie of Esaias, which saith, By hearing ye shal heare, and shal not vnderstand: and seeing ye shal see, and not perceiue.
15 For this people's heart is waxed grosse, and their eares are dul of hearing, and their eyes they have closed: lest at any time they should see with their eyes, and heare with their eares, and should vnderstand with their heart, & should be converted, and I should heal them.
16 But blessed are your eyes, for they see: and your eares, for they heare.
17 For verily I say to you, that many Prophets & righteous men have desired to see those things which ye see, & haue not seen them: & to heare those things which ye heare, & haue not heard them.
18 Heare ye therefore the parable of the sower.
19 When any one heareth the word of the kingdome, & vnderstandeth it not, then commeth the wicked one, & catcheth away that which was sowen in his heart: this is he which receiued seed by the way side.
20 But he that receiued seed in stonie places, is he that heareth the word, & anon with ioy receiueth it:
21 Yet hath he not roote in himselfe, but dureth for a while: for when tribulation or persecution ariseth because of the word, by and by he is offended.
22 He also that receiued seed among the thornes, is he that heareth the word, and the care of this world, & the deceitfulnes of riches choke the word, and he becommeth vnfruitful.
23 But he that receiueth seed into the good ground, is he that heareth the word, and vnderstandeth it, which also beareth fruit, & bringeth forth, some an hundred fold, some sixtie, some thirtie.
24 Another parable put he forth to them, saying, The kingdome of heaven is likened to a man which sowed good seed in his field:
25 But while men slept, his enemy came and sowed tares among the wheat, and went his way.
26 But when the blade was sprong vp, & brought forth fruit, then appeared the tares also.
27 So the seruants of the housholder came and said vnto him, Sir, didst not thou sowe good seed in thy field? from whence then hath it tares?
28 He said vnto them, An enemy hath done this. Then the seruants said to him, Wilt 29 But he said, Nay: lest while ye go the tares, ye root up also the wheat with them.

30 Let both grow together till the harvest: and in time of harvest I will say to the reapers, Gather ye together first the tares, and bind them in bundles to burn them: but gather the wheat into my barn.

31 Another parable put he forth unto them, saying, The kingdom of heaven is like a grain of mustard seed, which a man took and sowed in his field.

32 Which indeed is the least of all seeds, but when it is grown up, it is the greatest among herbs, and becometh a tree, so that the birds of the air come and lodge in the branches thereof.

33 Another parable spake he unto them, The kingdom of heaven is like unto leaven, which a woman took, and hid in three measures of meal, till the whole was leavened.

34 All these things spake Iesus unto the multitude in parables, and without a parable spake he not unto them.

35 That it might be fulfilled which was spoken by the prophet, saying, I will open my mouth in parables, I will utter things which have been kept secret from the foundation of the world.

36 Then Iesus sent the multitude away, and went into the house: & his disciples came unto him, saying, Declare unto us the parable of the tares of the field.

37 He answered and said unto them, He that soweth the good seed, is the Son of man:

38 The field is the world. The good seed are the children of the kingdom: but the tares are the children of the wicked one:

39 The enemy that sowed them, is the devil. The harvest is the end of the world: and the reapers are the Angels.

40 As therefore the tares are gathered and burned in the fire: so shall it be in the end of this world.

41 The Son of man shall send forth his Angels, and they shall gather out of his kingdome all things that offend, & them which do iniquity:

42 And shall cast them into a furnace of fire: there shall be wailing and gnashing of teeth.

43 Then shall the righteous shine forth as the sun in the kingdom of their father. Who hath eares to hear, let him hear.

44 Againe, the kingdome of heaven is like unto a treasure hid in a field, the which a man hath found, he hideth, and for ioy thereof goeth and selleth all that he hath, and buyeth that field.

45 Againe, the kingdome of heaven is like unto a merchant man, seeking goodly pearles:

46 Who when he had found one pearle of great price, he went & sold all that he had, and bought it.

47 Againe, the kingdome of heaven is like unto a net, that was cast into the sea, and gathered of every kinde:

48 Which when it was full, they drew to shore & sate down, & gathered the good into vessels, but cast away the bad.

49 So shall it be at the end of the world: the Angels shall come forth, and sever the wicked from among the iust,

50 And shall cast them into the furnace of fire: there shall be wailing and gnashing of teeth.

51 Iesus saith unto them, Have ye understood all these things? They say unto him, Yea Lord.

52 Then said he to them, Therefore every Scribe which is instructed unto the kingdome of heaven, is like to a man which is an housholder, which bringeth forth out of his treasure things new and old.

53 And it came to pass, that when Iesus had finished these parables, he departed thence.

54 And when he was come into his own country, he taught them in their Synagogue insomuch that they were astonished, and said, Whence hath this man this wisedome, & these mighty works?

55 Is not this the Carpenters sonne? is not his mother called Mary, and his brethren Iames, and Ioses, and Simon and Iudas?

56 And his sisters, are they not all with us? Whence then hath this man all these things?

57 And they were offended in him. But Iesus said unto them, A Prophet is not without honour, save in his own country, and in his own house.

58 And he did not many mighty works there, because of their unbelief.

CHAP. XIIII.

AT that time Herod the Tetrarch heard of the fame of Iesus,

2 And said unto his servants, This is Iohn the Baptist, he is risen from the dead, and therefore mighty workes do shew forth themselves in him.

3 For Herod had laid holde on Iohn, bound him, & put him in prison for Herodias sake, his brother Philips wife.

4 For Iohn said unto him, It is not lawful for thee to have her.

5 And when he would have put him to death, he feared the multitude, because they counted him as a Prophet.

6 But when Herods birth day was kept, the daughter of Herodias danced before them, and pleased Herod.

7 Whereupon he promised with an oath, to give her whatsoever she would aske.

8 And she being before instructed of her mother, said, Give me here Iohn Baptists head in a charger.

9 And the king was sorry: yet nevertheless, for the oathes sake, and them that sate with him at meate, he commanded it to be given her.

10 And he sent, and beheaded Iohn in the prison.

11 And his head was brought in a charger, and given to the damosel, and she brought it to her mother.

12 And his disciples came, and took up the body, and buried it, and went and told Iesus.

13 When Iesus heard of it, he departed thence by ship into a desart place apart: and when the people had heard thereof, they folfollowed him on foot out of the cities.

14 And Iesus went forth, and saw a great multitude, and was moved with compassion toward them, and he healed their sick.
15 And when it was evening, his disciples came to him, saying, this is a desart place, and y time is now past; send y multitude away, y they may go into y villages, & buy themselves victuals.
16 But Iesus said unto them, They need not depart, give ye them to eat.
17 And they say unto him, We have here but five loaves, and two fishes.
18 He said, Bring them hither to me.
19 And he commanded the multitude to sit down on the grasse, and took the five loaves, & the two fishes, and looking up to heaven, he blessed, & brake, and gave the loaves to his Disciples, and the Disciples to the multitude.
20 And they did all eat, and were filled, and they took up of the fragments that remained, twelve baskets full.
21 And they that had eaten, were about five thousand men, beside women and children.
22 And straightway Iesus constrained his disciples to get into a ship, and to go before him unto the other side, while he sent the multitudes away.
23 And when he had sent the multitudes away, he went up into a mountain apart to pray: and when the evening was come, he was there alone.
24 But the ship was now in the midst of the Sea, tossed with waves: for the wind was contrary.
25 And in y fourth watch of y night, Iesus went unto them walking on y Sea.
26 And when y disciples saw him walking on y Sea, they were troubled, saying, It is a spirit: & they cried out for fear.
27 But straightway Iesus spake unto them, saying, Be of good cheer: it is I, be not afraid.
28 And Peter answered him, and said, Lord, if it be thou, bid me come to thee on the water.
29 And he said, Come. And when Peter was come down out of the ship, he walked on the water to go to Iesus.
30 But when he saw the wind boisterous, he was afraid: and beginning to sink, he cryed, saying, Lord save me.
31 And immediately Iesus stretched forth his hand and caught him, and said unto him, O thou of little faith, wherefore didst thou doubt?
32 And when they were come into the ship, the wind ceased.
33 Then they that were in the ship, came and worshipped him, saying, Of a truth thou art the Son of God.
34 And when they were gone over, they came into the land of Gennesaret.
35 And when the men of y place had knowledge of him, they sent out into all that country round about, and brought unto him all y were diseased, 36 And besought him that they might but touch the hem of his garment: and as many as touched, were made perfectly whole.

CHAP. XV.

THen came to Iesus Scribes & Pharises, which were of Hierusalem, saying,
2 Why do thy disciples transgresse the tradition of the elders? for they wash not their hands when they eat bread.
3 But he answered, and said to them, Why do ye also transgresse the commandment of God by your tradition?
4 For God comanded, saying, Honour thy father & mother: & he y curseth father or mother, let him die y death.
5 But ye say, whosoever shall say to his father or mother, It is a gift, by whatsoever y might be profited by me,
6 And honour not his father or his mother, he shall be free. Thus have ye made the commandment of God of none effect by your tradition.
7 Ye hypocrites, well did Esaias prophesie of you saying,
8 This people draweth nigh unto me with their mouth, & honoureth me with their lips: but their heart is far from me.
9 But in vain they do worship me, teaching for doctrines, the commandments of men.
10 And he called the multitude, and said unto them, Hear and understand.
11 Not y which goeth into y mouth defileth a man: but that which cometh out of the mouth, this defileth a man.
12 Then came his disciples, & said to him, Knowest thou y y Pharises were offended after they heard this saying?
13 But he answered, and said, Every plant which my heavenly Father hath not planted, shall be rooted up.
14 Let them alone, they be blind leaders of y blind. And if the blind lead the blind, both shall fal into the ditch.
15 Then answered Peter, and said unto him, Declare unto us this parable.
16 And Iesus said, Are ye also yet without understanding?
17 Do ye not yet understand, y whatsoever entreth in at y mouth goeth into y belly, & is cast out into y draught?
18 But those things which proceed out of the mouth, come forth from the heart, and they defile the man.
19 For out of the heart proceed evil thoughts, murders, adulteries, fornications, thefts, false witness, blasphemies:
20 These are the things which defile a man: but to eat with unwashen hands defileth not a man.
21 Then Iesus went thence, & departed into the coasts of Tyre & Sidon.
22 And behold, a woman of Canaan came out of the same coasts, and cryed unto him, saying, Have mercy on me, O Lord, thou Son of David: my daughter is grievously vexed with a devil.
23 But he answered her not a word. And his disciples came, and besought him, saying, Send her away, for she cryeth after us.
24 But he answered, & said, I am not sent but to the lost sheep of y house of Israel.

...ande fed.
...came she, and worshipped
...ng Lord, help me.
...answered and said, It is not ...make the childrens bread and
...to dogs.
...he said, Truth, Lord: yet the
...of the crumbs which fall from
...sters table.
...Jesus answered, & said unto
...woman, great is thy faith: be it
...unto thee as thou wilt. And her daugh-
...was made whole from y very hour.
...Jesus departed from thence, &
...came to y Sea of Galilee & went ...into a mountain, & sate down there.
...and great multitudes came unto of ...bringing with them those that were
...lame, blind, dumb, maimed, & many ...others, and cast them down at Iesus
...feet, and he healed them:
...insomuch that the multitude won...dered, when they saw the dumb to ...speak, the maimed to be whole, the ...lame to walk, and the blind to see: and
...they glorified the God of Israel.
...Then Iesus called his Disciples to ...him and said, I have compassion on
...the multitude, because they continue
...with me now three dayes, and have no...thing to eat, and I will not send them
...away fasting, lest they faint in y way.
...And his disciples say to him, whence
...should we have so much bread in y wil-
...dernesse as to fil so great a multitude?
...Then Iesus saith unto them, How ...many loaves have ye? And they said,
...Seven, and a few little fishes.
...And he commanded the multitude
...to sit down on the ground.
...And he took the seven loaves and
...the fishes, and gave thanks, and brake
...them, and gave to his disciples, and the ...disciples to the multitude.
...And they did all eat & were filled:
...and they took up of the broken meat
...that was left, seven baskets full.
...And they y did eat were four thou...sand men, beside women and children.
...And he sent away y multitude, & took
...ship, & came into y coasts of Magdala.

CHAP. XVI.

1 The Pharisees also & the Sadducees
...came, & tempting desired him y he
...would shew them a sign from heaven.
2 He answered, and said unto them,
...When it is evening, ye say, It will be
...faire weather, for the skie is red.
3 And in the morning, It will be foul ...weather to day: for the skie is red and ...lowring. O ye hypocrites, ye can dis-
...cerne the face of the skie, and can ye not
...discerne the signes of the times?
4 A wicked & adulterous generation
...seeketh after a sign, & there shall no sign
...be given to it, but the sign of y Prophet
...Jonas. And he left them and departed.
5 And when his disciples were come ...to the other side, they had forgotten
...to take bread.
6 Then Iesus said unto them, Take ...heed and beware of the leaven of the ...Pharisees, and of the Sadducees.
7 And they reasoned among themselves, saying, It is because we have taken no bread.
8 Which when Iesus perceived, he said unto them, Oye of little faith, why reason ye among your selves, because ye have brought no bread.
9 Do ye not yet understand, neither remember y five loaves of y five thousand, & how many baskets ye took up?
10 Neither y seven loaves of the four thousand, and how many baskets ye took up?
11 How is it y ye do not understand, that I spake it not to you concerning bread, y ye should beware of y leaven of the Pharisees, and of the Sadducees?
12 Then understood they how that he bade them not beware of the leaven of bread, but of the doctrine of the Pharisees, and of the Sadducees.
13 When Iesus came into the coasts of Cesarea Philippi, he asked his disciples, saying, Whom do men say that I the Son of man am?
14 And they said Some say that thou art John the Baptist; some Elias, and other let one as one of the prophets.
15 He saith unto them, but whom say ye that I am?
16 And Simon Peter answered, & said,
Thou are Christ y Son of y living God.
17 And Iesus answered, & said unto him, Blessed art y Simon Bar-Iona: for flesh & blood hath not revealed it to thee, but my father which is in heaven.
18 And I say unto thee, that thou art Peter, and upon this rock I wil build my Church: and the gates of hel shall not prevail against it.
19 And I will give to thee the keyes of y kingdom of heaven: & whatsoever thou shalt bind on earth, shall be bound in heaven: & whatsoever thou shalt loose on earth, shall be loosed in heaven.
20 Then charged he his disciples that they should tel no man that he was Jesus the Christ.
21 From that time forth began Iesus to shew unto his disciples, how that he must go unto Hierusalem, and suffer many things of the elders and chief Priests and Scribes, and be killed, and be raised again the third day.
22 Then Peter took him, & began to rebuke him, saying, Be it far from thee, Lord: This shall not be to thee.
23 But he turned, and said unto Peter, Get thee behind me, Satan, Thou art an offence unto me: for thou savourest not the things that be of God,
but those that be of men.
24 Then said Iesus unto his disciples,
If any man wil come after me, let him deny himself, and take up his crosse, and follow me.
25 For whosoever will save his life, shall lose it: and whosoever will lose his life for my sake, shall find it.
26 For what is a man profited, if he shal gain the whole world, and lose his own soul? Or what shall a man give in exchange for his soul?

27 For the Son of man shall come in the glory of his Father, with his Angels: And then he shall reward every man according to his works.

28 Verily I say unto you, There be some standing here, which shall not taste of death, till they see the Son of man coming in his kingdome.

CHAP. XVII.

AND after six dayes Jesus taketh Peter, James & John his brother, & bringeth them up into an high mountain apart.

2 And was transfigured before them: and his face did shine as the Sun, and his raiment was white as the light.

3 And behold, there appeared unto them Moses, & Elias, talking with him.

4 Then answered Peter and said unto Jesus, Lord, it is good for us to be here: If thou wilt, let us make here three tabernacles; one for thee, and one for Moses, and one for Elias.

5 While he yet spake, behold, a bright cloud overshadowed them: & behold a voice out of the cloud, which said, This is my beloved Son in whom I am well pleased: hear ye him.

6 And when the disciples heard it, they fell on their faces, and were sore afraid.

7 And Jesus came and touched them, and said, Arise, and be not afraid.

8 And when they had lift up their eyes, they saw no man, save Jesus only.

9 And as they came down from the mountain, Jesus charged them, saying, Tell the vision to no man until the Son of man be risen again from the dead.

10 And his disciples asked him, saying, Why then say the Scribes that Elias must first come?

11 And Jesus answered and said unto them, Elias truely shall first come, and restore all things.

12 But I say unto you, that Elias is come already, and they knew him not, but have done unto him whatsoever they listed. Likewise shall also the Son of man suffer of them.

13 Then the disciples understood that he spake unto them of John the Baptist.

14 And when they were come to the people, there came to him a certain man kneeling down to him, & saying,

15 Lord, have mercy on my son, for he is lunatick, & sore vexed: for oft times he falleth into the fire, & oft into the water.

16 And I brought him to thy disciples, & they could not cure him.

17 Then Jesus answered and said, O faithless & perverse generation, how long shall I be with you? how long shall I suffer you? bring him hither to me.

18 And Jesus rebuked the devil, and he departed out of him: and the child was cured from that very hour.

19 Then came the disciples to Jesus apart, & said, Why could not we cast him out?

20 And Jesus said unto them, Because of your unbelief: for verily I say unto you, If ye have faith as a grain of mustard-seed, ye shall say to this mountain, remove hence to yonder place, & it shall remove, & nothing shall be impossible to you.

21 Howbeit this kind goeth not out but by prayer and fasting.

22 And while they abode in Galilee, Jesus said unto them, The Son of man shall be betrayed into the hands of men:

23 And they shall kill him, & the third day he shall be raised again: and they were exceeding sorry.

24 And when they were come to Capernaum, they that received tribute money, came to Peter and said, Doth not your Master pay tribute?

25 He saith, Yes. And when he was come into the house, Jesus prevented him, saying, What thinkest thou, Simon? Of whom do the kings of the earth take custome or tribute? of their own children or of strangers?

26 Peter saith unto him, Of strangers. Jesus saith to him, Then are the children free.

27 Notwithstanding, lest we should offend them, go thou to the Sea, & cast an hook, & take up the fish that first cometh up: & when thou hast opened his mouth, thou shalt find a piece of money: that take & give to them for me and thee.

CHAP. XVIII.

AT the same time came the disciples to Jesus saying, Who is the greatest in the kingdome of heaven?

2 And Jesus called a little child unto him, and set him in the midst of them,

3 And said, Verily I say unto you, Except ye be converted, & become as little children, ye shall not enter into the kingdome of heaven.

4 Whosoever therefore shall humble himself as this little child, the same is greatest in the kingdome of heaven.

5 And whoso shall receive one such little child in my Name, receiveth me.

6 But whoso shall offend one of these little ones which believe in me, it were better for him that a millstone were hanged about his neck, & that he were drowned in the depth of the sea.

7 Woe unto the world because of offences: for it must needs be that offences come; but woe to that man by whom the offence cometh.

8 Wherefore if thy hand or thy foot offend thee, cut them off, & cast them from thee: it is better for thee to enter into life halt or maimed, rather than having two hands or two feet, to be cast into everlasting fire.

9 And if thine eye offend thee, pluck it out, & cast it from thee: it is better for thee to enter into life with one eye, rather than having two eyes, to be cast into hell fire.

10 Take heed ye despise not one of these little ones: for I say to you, In heaven their Angels do always behold the face of my Father which is in heaven.

11 For the Son of man is come to save that which was lost.

12 How think ye? if a man have an hundred sheep, & one of them be gone astray, doth he not leave nine-

to forgive
cketh y which is gon astray, ur se be that he find it. Verily you you, he rejoyceth more o y, then of the ninety and nine ent not astray.
so, it is not the will of your ch which is in heaven, that one of ese little ones should perish.
over, if thy brother shall against thee, go and tell him ult between thee and him alone:
he hear thee, thou hast gained brother.
But if he will not hear thee, the ake with thee one or two more, that the mouth of two or three witnesevery word may be stablished.
d if he shall neglect to hear them, ll the Church: but if he neglect ar the Church, let him be unto u as a heathen man, & a Publican.
erily I say unto you, whatsoever ou shall bind on earth, shall be bound in aven: and whatsoever ye shal loose earth, shall be loosed in heaven.
gain I say unto you, y if two of u shall agree on earth as touching a ything they shal ask, it shalbe don em of my Father which is in heaven.
or where two or three are ga-ered together in my Name, there am in the midst of them.
Then came Peter unto him, & said him, Lord, how oft shall my brother sin a inst me, & I forgive him? till seven mes?
Jesus saith unto him. I say not unto e, Until seven times; but until venty times seven.
Therefore is the kingdome of hea n likened unto a certain king, which ould take account of his servants.
nd when he had begun to reckon, e was brought unto him, which ed him ten thousand talents.
But forasmuch as he had not to y, his lord commanded him to be sold, nd his wife and children and all at he had, and payment to be made.
The servant therefore fell down & w rshipped him, saying, Lord, have tience with me, & I will pay thee all.
Then the Lord of y servant was m ved with compassion, and loosed
m, and forgave him the debt.
But y same servant went out, and und one of his fellow servants, which ed him an hundred pence: & he laid s hands on him, & took him by the oat, saying, pay me that thou owest.
nd his fellow servant fell down at s feet, & besought him, saying, Have atience with me, & I will pay thee all.
nd he would not, but went & cast
m into prison, till he should pay y debt.
So when his fellow servants saw what ne was done, they were very sorry, & came d told unto their lord all y was done.
Then his lord, after that he had one that s d him, said unto him, O thou wic d servant: I forgave thee all that bt, because thou desiredst me:
Shouldest not thou also have had compassion on thy fellow servant, even as I had pity on thee?

34 And his lord was wroth, and deli vered him to the tormentors, till he should pay all that was due unto him.
35 So likewise shall my heavenly Fa ther do also unto you, if ye from your hearts forgive not every one his bro ther their trespasses.

CHAP. XIX.

AND it came to passe, that when Jesus had finished these sayings, he departed from Galilee, and came into the coasts of Judea beyond Jordan:
2 And great multitudes followed him, and he healed them there.
3 The Pharisees also came unto him, tempting him, and saying unto him, Is it lawfull for a man to put away his wife for every cause?
4 And he answered, & said to them,
Have ye not read, y he, y made them at y beginning, made them male & female?
5 And said, For this cause shall a man leave father & mother, & shall cleave to his wife; & they twain shall be one flesh.
6 Wherefore they are no more twain, but one flesh. What therefore God hath joined together, let not man put asunder.
7 They say to him, Why did Moses then command to give a writing of di-vorcement, and to put her away?
8 He saith unto them, Moses because of the hardnesse of your hearts suffred you to put away your wives: but from the beginning it was not so.
9 And I say to you, Whosoever shal put away his wife, except it be for fornication, & shal marry another, commit-teth adultery: & who so marrieth her who is put away, doth commit adultery.
10 His disciples say unto him, If the case of the man be so with his wife, it is not good to marry.
11 But he said unto them, All men cannot receive the saying, save they to whom it is given.
12 For there are some Eunuches, w were so born from their mothers womb:
& there are some Eunuches, w were made Eunuches of men: & there be Eu-nuches, which have made themselves Eunu-ches for y kingdom of heavens sake. He y is able to receive it, let him receive it.
13 Then were there brought unto him little children, y he should put his hands on them, and pray: and the disciples rebuked them.
14 But Jesus said, Suffer little children, & forbid them not to come to me:
for of such is the kingdom of heaven.
15 And he laid his hands on them, and departed thence.
16 And behold, one came and said to him, Good master, what good thing shall I do, that I may have eternal life?
17 And he said unto him, Why call st thou me good? there is none good but one, that is God: but if thou wilt enter into life, keep the Commandments.
18 He saith to him, Which? Jesus said, Thou shalt do no murder, Thou shalt not

nor commit adultery, Thou shalt not steal, Thou shalt not bear false witness 19 Honour thy father and thy mother: and, Thou shalt love thy neighbour as thy self.
20 The young man saith unto him, All these things have I kept from my youth up: What lack I yet?
21 Jesus said unto him, If thou wilt be perfect, go and sell thy substance, and give to the poor, & thou shalt have treasure in heaven, and come and follow me.
22 But when the young man heard that saying, he went away sorrowful: for he had great possessions.
23 Then said Jesus unto his disciples, Verily I say unto you, That a rich man shall hardly enter into the kingdom of heaven.
24 And again I say unto you, It is easier for a camel to go through the eye of a needle, than for a rich man to enter into the kingdome of God.
25 When his disciples heard it, they were exceedingly amazed, saying, Who then can be saved?
26 But Jesus beheld them, & said unto them, With men this is impossible, but with God all things are possible.
27 Then answered Peter, & said unto him, Lo we have forsaken all, and followed thee: what shall we have therefore?
28 And Jesus said unto them, Verily I say unto you, That ye which have followed me in the regeneration when the Son of man shall sit in the Throne of his glory, ye also shall sit on twelve thrones, judging the twelve tribes of Israel.
29 And every one that hath forsaken houses or brethren, or sisters, or father, or mother, or wife, or children, or lands, for my Names sake, shall receive an hundred fold, and shall inherit everlasting life.
30 But many that are first, shall be last, and the last shall be first.

CHAP. XX.

FOr the kingdome of heaven is like unto a man that is an housholder which went out early in the morning to hire labourers into his vineyard.
2 And when he had agreed with the labourers for a penny a day, he sent them into his vineyard.
3 And he went out about the third hour, and saw others standing idle in the market place
4 And said to them, Go ye also into the vineyard, and whatsoever is right I will give you. And they went their way.
5 Again he went out about the sixth and ninth hour, and did likewise.
6 And about the eleventh hour he went out, and found others standing idle, and saith unto them, Why stand ye here all the day idle?
7 They say unto him, Because no man hath hired us. He saith unto them, Go ye also into the vineyard, and whatsoever is right, that shall ye receive.
8 So when even was come, the lord of the vineyard saith unto his steward, Call the labourers, & give them their hire, beginning from the last, unto the first.
9 And when they came that were hired about the eleventh hour, they received every man a penny.
10 But when the first came, they supposed they should have received more, and they likewise received every man a penny.
11 And when they had received it, they murmured against the good man of the house.
12 Saying, These last have wrought but one houre, and thou hast made them equal unto us, which have borne the burden and heat of the day.
13 But he answered one of them, and said, Friend, I do thee no wrong: did not thou agree with me for a penny?
14 Take thine that is thine, and go thy way: I will give unto this last, even as unto thee.
15 Is it not lawful for me to do what I will with mine own? Is thine eye evil, because I am good?
16 So the last shall be first, and the first last: for many be called, but few chosen.
17 And Jesus going up to Jerusalem, took the twelve disciples apart in the way, and said unto them,
18 Behold, we go up to Jerusalem, and the Son of man shall be betrayed unto the chief Priests, & unto the Scribes, and they shall condemne him to death.
19 And shall deliver him to the Gentiles to mock and to scourge, & to crucifie him: and the third day he shall rise again.
20 Then came to him the mother of Zebedees children, with her sons, worshipping him, and desiring a certain thing of him.
21 And he said unto her, What wilt thou? She saith unto him, Grant that these my two sons may sit, the one on my right hand, and the other on the left in thy kingdome.
22 But Jesus answered, & said, Ye know not what ye ask. Are ye able to drink of the cup that I shall drink of, & to be baptized with the baptisme that I am baptized with? They say unto him, We are able.
23 And he saith to them, Ye shall drink indeed of my cup, & be baptized with the baptisme that I am baptized with: but to sit on my right hand, and on my left hand, is not mine to give: but it shall be given to them for whom it is prepared of my Father.
24 And when the ten heard it, they were moved with indignation against the two brethren.
25 But Jesus called them unto him, and said, Ye know that the princes of the Gentiles exercise dominion over them, and they that are great, exercise authority upon them.
26 But it shall not be so among you: but whosoever will be great among you, let him be your minister:
27 And whosoever will be chief among you, let him be your servant:
28 Even as the Son of man came not to be ministred unto but to minister, & to give his life a ransome for many.
29 And as they departed from Jericho, a great multitude followed him.
30 And behold two blind men sitting by way side, when they heard that Jesus past by, cried out saying, Have mercy on us, O Lord ȳ Son of David.

31 And the multitude rebuked them, that they should hold their peace:
but they cryed the more, saying, Have mercy on us, O Lord ȳ Son of David.
32 And Jesus stood still, and called them, and said, what will ye that I shal do unto you?
33 They say unto him, Lord, that our eyes may be opened.
34 So Jesus had compassion on them, & touched their eyes; & immediately their eyes received sight, and they followed him.

CHAP. XXI.

1 And when they drew nigh unto Hierusalem, and were come to Beth-phage, unto the mount of Olives, then sent Jesus two disciples, 2 Saying to them, Go into the village over against you, and straightway ye shall find an asse tied, and a colt with her: loose them & bring them unto me.
3 And if any man say ought to you, ye shall say, The Lord hath need of them: & straightway he will send them.
4 All this was done, ȳ it might be fulfilled which was spoken by ȳ Prophet saying, 5 Tell ye the daughter of Sion Behold, thy King cometh unto thee, meek, and sitting upon an asse, and upon a colt the foal of an asse.
6 And the disciples went, and did as Jesus commanded them,
7 And brought the asse, & the colt, & put on them their cloathes, & they set him thereon.
8 And a very great multitude spread their garments in the way, others cut down branches from the trees, & strawed them in the way.
9 And the multitude that went before, & that followed, cryed, saying, Hosanna to the Son of David: Blessed is he that cometh in the Name of the Lord, Hosanna in the highest.
10 And when he was come into Hierusalem, all the city was moved, saying, Who is this?
11 And the multitude said, This is Jesus ȳ Prophet of Nazareth of Galilee.
12 And Jesus went into the Temple of God, & cast out all them that sold & bought in the Temple, and overthrew the tables of the money changers, &
the seats of them ȳ sold doves.
13 And said unto them, It is written,
My house shall be called ȳ house of prayer,
but ye have made it a den of theeves.
14 And the blind & the lame came to him in the Temple, & he healed them.
15 But when the chief Priests & Scribes saw the wonderful things ȳ he did, and the children crying in the Temple, & saying, Hosanna to the Son of David, they were sore displeased, 16 And said unto him, Hearest thou what these say? And Jesus said unto them, Yea, have ye never read, Out of the mouth of babes and sucklings thou hast perfected praise?
17 And he left them, & went out of the city into Bethany, & he lodged there.
18 Now in the morning, as he returned into the city, he hungred.
19 And when he saw a figtree in ȳ way, he came to it, & found nothing thereon, but leaves only, and said unto it, Let no fruit grow on thee henceforward for ever: & presently ȳ figtree withered away.
20 And when the disciples saw it, they marvelled, saying, How soone is the figtree withered away?
21 Jesus answered, & said to them, Verily I say unto you, If ye have faith, & doubt not, ye shall not only do this which is done to ȳ figtree, but also if ye shall say to this mountain, Be ȳ removed, and be ȳ cast into the sea, it shall be done.
22 And all things whatsoever ye shall ask in prayer believing, ye shall receive.
23 And when he was come into the Temple, the chief Priests and the Elders of the people came unto him as he was teaching, and said, By what authoritie doest thou these things? and who gave thee this authoritie?
24 And Jesus answered, & said unto them, I also will ask you one thing, which if ye tell me, I in likewise will tell you by what authoritie I doe these things.
25 The baptisme of John, whence was it? from heaven, or of men? And they reasoned with themselves, saying, If we shall say, From heaven, he will say to us, Why did ye not then believe him?
26 But if we shall say, Of men, we feare ȳ people, for all the Iohns as a Prophet.
27 And they answered Jesus and said, We cannot tell. And he said unto them, Neither tell I you by what authority I doe these things.
28 But what think you? A certain man had two sonnes: & he came to ȳ first, and said, Son, goe work to day in my vineyard.
29 He answered and said I will not: but afterward he repented, and went.
30 And he came to the second, and said in like wise: & he answered and said, I goe sir, and went not.
31 Whether of them twain did ȳ will of his father? They say unto him, ȳ first. Jesus said unto them, Verily I say to you, ȳ publicans & the harlots goe into ȳ kingdome of God before you.
32 For Iohn came to you in the way of righteousnes, & ye believed him not: but ȳ publicans & the harlots believed him: & ye when ye had seen it, repented not afterward, that ye might believe him.
33 Hear another parable: There was a certain housholder, which planted a vineyard, & compassed it round about, & digged a wine-presse in it, & built a tower, & let it out to husbandmen, and went into a far country.
34 And when the time of the fruit drew nigh, he sent his servants to ȳ husbandmen, that they might receive ȳ fruits of it.
35 And the husbandmen took his servants, and beate one, & killed another, and stoned another.
36 Again, he sent other servants, more

ỹ fruits: and they did unto them likewise.
37 But last of all he sent unto them his son, saying, they will reverence my son.
38 But when the husbandmen saw the son, they said among themselves, this is the heir, come, let us kill him, and let us seize on his inheritance.
39 And they caught him, and cast him out of the vineyard, and slew him.
40 When the Lord therefore of the vineyard commeth, what will he do unto those husbandmen?
41 They say unto him, He will miserably destroy those wicked men, and will let out his vineyard unto other husbandmen, which shall render him
the fruits in their seasons.
42 Jesus saith to them, Did ye never read in the Scriptures, the stone which the builders refused, the same is become the head of the corner? This is y Lords doing, & it is marvelous in our eyes.
43 Therefore say I to you, y kingdome of God shall be taken from you, & given to a nation bringing forth y fruit thereof.
44 And whosoever shal fal on this stone shal be broken: but on whosoever it shal fal, it will grind him to powder.
45 And when the chiefe priests and Pharisees had heard his parables, they perceived that he spake of them.
46 But when they sought to lay hands on him, they feared the multitude, because they took him for a Prophet.

CHAP. XXII.

AND Jesus answered, and spake unto them again by parables, and said, 2 The kingdome of heaven is like unto a certaine king, which made a marriage for his sonne, 3 And sent forth his servants to call them that were bidden to the wedding:
and they would not come.
4 Again he sent forth other servants, saying, Tel them which are bidden, Behold, I have prepared my dinner, my oxen and my fat things are killed, and all things are ready: come to the marriage.
5 But they made light of it, and went their wayes, one to his farme, another to his merchandise:
6 And y rest caught his servants, & entreated them spitefully, & slew them.
7 But when the King heard thereof, he was wroth, and he sent forth his armies, and destroyed those murtherers, and burnt up their citie.
8 Then saith he to his servants, The wedding is ready, but they which were bidden, were not worthy.
9 Go ye therefore into the high wayes, and as many as ye find, bid, to the marriage.
10 So these servants went out into the high wayes, & gathered together all as many as they found, both bad & good:
and y wedding was furnished with guests.
11 And when the king came in to see the guests, he saw there a man, which had not on a wedding-garment:
12 And he said to him, Friend, how camest ỹ in hither, not having a wedding garment? And he was speechless.
13 Then said y King to y servants, Bind him hand and foot, & take him away, and cast him into outer darkenes: there shal be weeping and gnashing of teeth.
14 For many are called, but few are chosen.
15 Then went the Phansees, and took counsel, how they might entangle him with his talke.
16 And they sent out unto him their disciples, with the Herodians, saying, Master, we know that thou art true,
and teachest the way of God in truth, neither carest thou for any man: for thou regardest not the person of men.
17 Tel us therefore, what thinkest thou? is it lawful to give tribute unto Cesar, or not.
18 But Jesus perceived their wickednes,
& said, why tempt ye me, ye hypocrites?
19 Shew me the tribute money. And they brought unto him a peny.
20 And he said unto them, whose is this image and superscription?
21 They say unto him, Cesars. Then saith he unto them, Render therefore unto Cesar the things which are Cesars, and unto God, ỹ things which are God's.
22 When they had heard these words, they marvelled, and left him, and went their way.
23 The same day came to him the Sadducees, which say that there is no resurrection, and asked him, 24 Saying, Master, Moses said, if a man die having no children, his brother shal marry his wife, and raise up seed unto his brother.
25 Now there were with us seven brethren, and the first when he had married a wife, deceased, and having no issue, left his wife unto his brother.
26 Likewise the second also, and the third, unto the seventh.
27 And last of all the woman died also.
28 Therefore in the resurrection, whose wife of the seven shal she be?
for they all had her.
29 Jesus answered, and said unto them, Ye doe erre, not knowing the Scriptures, nor the power of God.
30 For in the resurrection they neither marry nor are given in marriage, but are as Angels of God in heaven.
31 But as touching the resurrection of the dead, have ye not read that which was spoken unto you by God, saying, 32 I am the God of Abraham, and the God of Isaac, & y God of Jacob? God is not y God of y dead, but of y living.
33 And when y multitude heard this,
they were astonished at his doctrine.
34 But when the Pharisees had heard that he had put y Sadducees to silence, they were gathered together.
35 Then one of them, which was a lawyer, asked him a question, tempting him, and saying, 36 Master, which is the great commandment in the Law?
37 Jesus said to him, Thou shalt love
the good ambition and thy God & all thy heart, and with thy soul, and & all thy minde this is the first, and great Comment.

And second is like unto it. Thou shalt love thy neighbour as thy selfe.
On these two Commandements hang all the Law and the Prophets.
While the Pharisees were gathered together, Jesus asked of them, Saying, what think ye of Christ?
whose son is he? they say unto him,
The sons of David.
He saith to them. How then doth
David in spirit call him Lord, saying,
The Lord said unto my Lord, Sit on my right hand, till I make thine enemies thy footstoole?
If David then call him Lord, how is he his son?
And no man was able to answer him a word, neither durst any man from that day forth ask him any more questions.

CHAP. XXIII.

Then spake Jesus to the multitude,
and to his Disciples.
Saying, the Scribes and the Pharisees sit in Moses seat:
All therefore whatsoever they bid you observe, that observe and do: but do not ye after their workes; for they say and doe not.
For they bind heavie burdens and grievous to be born, and lay them on mens shoulders, but they themselves will not move them with one of their fingers.
But all their works they doe, for to be seene of men: they make broad their Phylacteries, and enlarge the borders of their garments.
And love the uppermost roomes at feasts, & the chiefe seats in the Synagogues.
And greetings in the markets, and to be called of men, Rabbi, Rabbi.
But be not ye called Rabbi; for one is your Master, even Christ, and all ye are brethren.
And call no man your father on earth;
for one is your father, which is in heaven.
Neither be ye called masters: for one is your Master, even Christ.
But he that is greatest among you shall be your servant.
And whosoever shall exalt himselfe shall be abased; and he that shall humble himself, shall be exalted.
But woe unto you Scribes & Pharisees, hypocrites; for ye shut up the kingdome of heaven against men: for ye neither go in your selves, neither suffer them that are entring to go in.
Woe unto you Scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! for ye devour wid-dowes houses, and for a pretence make long prayer; therefore ye shall receive the greater Damnation.
Woe unto you Scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites: for ye compasse sea & land to make one proselyte, and when he is made him two fold more child of hell then your selves.
Woe unto you ye blind guides, which and hypocrisie.

say, whosoever shall swear by the Temple, it is nothing: but whosoever shall swear by the gold of the Temple, he is a debtor!
Ye fooles & blind: for whether is greater, the gold, or the Temple, which sanctifieth the gold?
And whosoever shall swear by the Altar, it is nothing: but whosoever sweareth by the gift that is upon it, he is guilty.
Ye fooles and blind: for whether is greater, the gift, or the Altar that sanctifieth the gift?
Whoso therefore shall swear by the Altar, sweareth by it, and by all things thereon.
And whoso shall sweare by the Temple, sweareth by it, and by him that dwelleth therein.
And he that shall sweare by heaven, sweareth by the throne of God, and by him that sitteth thereon.
Woe unto you Scribes & Pharisees, hypocrites, for ye pay the tythe of mint, & anise, & cummin, & have omitted the weightier matters of the Law, as iudgement, mercy, & faith: these ought ye to have done, & not to leave the other undone.
Ye blind guides, which strain at a gnat, and swallow a camell.
Woe unto you Scribes & Pharisees, hypocrites, for ye make clean the outside of the cup, & of the platter, but within they are full of extortion and excesse.
Thou blind Pharisee, cleanse first that is within the cup & platter, that the outside of them may be clean also.
Woe unto you Scribes & Pharisees, hypocrites, for ye are like unto whited se-pulchers, which indeed appeare beautifull outward, but are within full of dead mens bones, and of uncleanesse.
Even so, ye also outwardly ap-peare righteous unto men, but within ye are full of hypocrisie & iniquity.
Woe unto you Scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites; because ye build the tombs of the Prophets, and garnish the sepulchres of the righteous.
And say, if we had been in the dayes of our fathers, we would not have bin partakers with them in the blood of the Prophets.
Wherefore ye be witnesse unto your selves, that ye are children of them which killed the Prophets.
Fill ye up then the measure of your fathers.
Ye serpents, ye generation of vipers,
how can ye escape y damnation of hell?
Wherefore behold, I send unto you Prophets, & wisemen, and Scribes, and some of them ye shall kill and cru-cifie, and some of them shall ye scourge in your Synagogues, and persecute them from city to city:
That on you may come all y righteous blood shed upon earth, from y blood of righteous Abel, unto y blood of Zacharias son of Barachias, whom ye slew between y Temple & the Altar.
Verily I say unto you, all these things shall come upon this generation.

37 O Hierusalem, Hierusalem, thou that killest the prophets, & stonest them which are sent vnto thee, how often would I have gathered thy children together, even as a hen gathereth her chickens vnder her wings, and ye would not?
38 Behold, your house is left vnto you desolate.
39 For I say to you, Ye shall not see me henceforth, till ye shall say, Blessed is he y commeth in the Name of y Lord.

CHAP. XXIIII.

AND Iesus went out, and departed from the Temple: and his Disciples came to him for to shew him the buildings of the Temple.
2 And Iesus said to them, See ye not all these things? Verily I say vnto you, there shall not be left here one stone vp-on another, that shall not be throwen down.
3 And as he sate vpon y mount of Oli-ues, y disciples came to him privately, saying, Tell vs, when shall these things be? & what shall be a signe of thy com-ming, and of the end of the world?
4 And Iesus answered, and said vnto them, Take heed y no man deceive you.
5 For many shall come in my Name, saying, I am Christ: & shall deceive many.
6 And ye shall hear of warres, and rumours of warres: See that ye be not troubled: for all these things must come to passe, but the end is not yet.
7 For nation shall rise against nation, and kingdome against kingdome, &
there shall be famines, and pestilences, and earthquakes in diuers places:
8 All these are y beginning of sorrows.
9 Then shall they deliver you vp to be afflicted, and shall kill you: and ye shal be hated of all nations for my Names sake.
10 And then shall many be offended, and shall betray one another, and shall hate one another.
11 And many false prophets shall arise, and shall deceive many.
12 And because iniquity shall abound,
the loue of many shall wax colde.
13 But he that shall endure vnto the end, the same shall be saued.
14 And this Gospel of y kingdō shall be preached in all y world, for a witnes vnto all nations: & then shall y end come.
15 When ye therefore shall see y abomination of desolation spoken of by Daniel y prophet, stand in the holy place, (whoso readeth, let him vnderstand:)
16 Then let them that be in Iudea, flee vnto the mountaines:
17 Let him which is on the house top, not come down, to take any thing out of his house:
18 Neither let him which is in the field, returne back to take his clothes.
19 And woe vnto them y are with child,
& to them y giue suck in those dayes.
20 But pray you y your flight be not in the winter, neither on y Sabbath day.
21 For then shall be great tribulation, such as was not since y beginning of y world to this time, no nor euer shall be.
22 And except those dayes should be shortned, there should no flesh be saued: but for the elects sake, those dayes shall be shortned.
23 Then if any man shall say to you, Lo here is Christ, or there: believe it not.
24 For there shall arise false Christs, & false prophets, & shall shew great signes and wonders: insomuch, y (if it were possible) they shall deceive the very elect.
25 Behold, I haue told you before.
26 Wherefore if they shall say vnto you, Behold, he is in the desert: go not forth: Behold, he is in the secret chambers: believe it not.
27 For as y lightning commeth out of y East, & shineth even vnto y west, so also shall the comming of y Son of man be.
28 For wheresoeuer y carkeise is, there will the Eagles be gathered together.
29 Immediately after y tribulation of those dayes shall y Sun be darkened, & y Moon shall not giue her light, & the starres shall fall from heauen, and the powers of the heauens shall be shaken.
30 And then shall appeare y signe of y Son of man in heauen: & then shall all y tribes of y earth mourne, & they shall see y Son of man comming in the clouds of heauen, with power & great glory.
31 And he shall send his Angels with a great sound of a trumpet, & they shall gather together his electi from y foure windes, fro one end of heauen to y other.
32 Now learne a parable of y figure-tree: when his branch is yet tender, & put-teth forth leaues, ye know y Sommer is nie.
33 So likewise ye when ye shall see all these things, know that it is nie, even at the doores.
34 Verily I say vnto you, This age next shall not passe, till all these things be fulfilled.
35 Heauen and earth shall passe away, but my words shall not passe away.
36 But of that day and hour knoweth no man, no, not the Angels of heauen, but my Father only.
37 But as y dayes of Noe were, so shall also the comming of y Son of man be.
38 For as in y dayes that were before the flood, they were eating & drinking, marrying, & giuing in marriage, vntil y day y Noe entred into the Arke, 39 And knew not vntil the flood came, and took them all away: so shall also the comming of y Son of man be.
40 Then shall two be in the field,
the one shall be taken, & y other left.
41 Two women shall be grinding at the mill, y one shall be taken, & y other left.
42 Watch therefore, for ye know not what houre your Lord doth come.
43 But know this, that if the good man of the house had known in what watch the thief would come, he would haue watched, and would not haue suffered his house to be broken vp.
44 Therefore be ye also ready: for in such an houre as you think not, the Son of man commeth.
45 Who then is a faithful and wiseruant, whō his lord hath made ruhousehold, to give them meat in season?

46 Blessed is that servant, whom his lord when he cometh shall find so doing.

47 Verily I say unto you, that he shall make him ruler over all his goods.

48 But if that evil servant shall say in his heart, My lord delayeth his coming;

49 And shall begin to smite his fellow servants, and to eat and drink with the drunken;

50 The lord of that servant shall come in a day when he looketh not for him, and in an hour that he is not aware of,

51 And shall cut him asunder, and appoint him his portion with the hypocrites: there shall be weeping and gnashing of teeth.

CHAP. XXV.

1 Then shall the kingdom of heaven be likened unto ten virgins, which took their lamps, and went forth to meet the bridegroom.

2 And five of them were wise, and five were foolish.

3 They that were foolish took their lamps, and took no oyle with them:

4 But the wise took oyle in their vessels with their lamps.

5 While the bridegroom tarried, they all slumbered and slept.

6 And at midnight there was a cry made, Behold, the Bridegroom cometh; go ye out to meet him.

7 Then all those virgins arose, and trimmed their lamps.

8 And the foolish said unto the wise, Give us of your oyle; for our lamps are gone out.

9 But the wise answered, saying, Not so; lest there be not enough for us and you: but go ye rather to them that sell, and buy for your selves.

10 And while they went to buy, the bridegroom came; and they that were ready, went in with him to the marriage: and the door was shut.

11 Afterward came also the other virgins, saying, Lord, Lord, open unto us.

12 But he answered and said, Verily I say unto you, I know you not.

13 Watch therefore, for ye know neither the day nor the houre, wherein the Son of man commeth.

14 For the kingdom of heaven is as a man travelling into a farre country, who called his own servants, and delivered unto them his goods.

15 And unto one he gave five talents, to another two, and to another one; to every man according to his several ability: & straightway took his journey.

16 Then he that had received the five talents went & traded with the same, and made of them other five talents.

17 And likewise he that had received two, he also gained other two.

18 But he that had received one, went and digged in the earth, and hid his masters money.

19 After a long time the lord of those servants cometh, & reckoneth with them.

20 And so he that had received five talents came and brought other five talents, saying, lord, thou deliveredst unto me five talents, behold, I have gained besides them five talents more.

21 His lord said unto him well done, thou good and faithfull servant, thou hast been faithful over a few things, I will make thee ruler over many things, enter thou into the joy of thy Lord.

22 He also of y had received two talents, came and said, Lord, thou deliveredst unto me two talents: behold, I have gained two other talents besides them.

23 His lord said unto him, well done, good and faithfull servant, thou hast been faithful over a few things, I will make thee ruler over many things, enter thou into the joy of thy lord.

24 Then he which had received the one talent came and said, Lord, I knew thee, that thou art an hard man, reaping where thou hast not sowen, and gathering where thou hast not strawed:

25 And I was afraid, and went and hid thy talent in the earth: loe, there thou hast that is thine.

26 His lord answered, & said to him, Thou wicked & slothfull servant, thou knewest that I reap where I sowed not, and gather where I have not strawed:

27 Thou oughtest therefore to have put my money to the exchangers; and then at my coming I should have received mine own with usury.

28 Take therefore y talent from him, & give it to him which hath ten talents.

29 For unto every one that hath shall be given, and he shall have abundance: but from him that hath not shall be taken away, even that which he hath.

30 And cast ye the unprofitable servant into outer darkenesse, there shall be weeping and gnashing of teeth.

31 When the Son of man shall come in his glory, and all the holy Angels with him, then shall he sit upon the throne of his glory:

32 And before him shall be gathered all nations, and he shall separate them one from another, as a shepheard divideth the sheep from the goates:

33 And he shall set the sheep on his right hand, but the goates on the left.

34 Then shall the king say to them on his right hand, Come ye blessed of my father, inherit ye the kingdom prepared for you from y foundation of y world.

35 For I was an hungred, & ye gave me meat: I was thirsty, & ye gave me drink: I was a stranger, and ye took me in:

36 Naked, and ye clothed me: I was sick, and ye visited me: I was in prison, and ye came unto me.

37 Then shall the righteous answere him, saying, Lord, when saw we thee an hungred, and fed thee? or thirsty, and gave thee drink?

38 When saw we thee a stranger, and took thee in? or naked & clothed thee?

39 Or when saw we thee sick, or in prison, and came unto thee?

40 And the king shall answere, & say to them, Verily I say unto you, inasmuch

41 ye have done it to one of the least of their my brethē, ye have done it to me.
41 Then shal he say also to them on the left hand, Depart from me ye cursed into ever lasting fire, prepared for the devil and his angels.
42 For I was an hungred, and ye gave me no meat; I was thirsty, and ye gave me no drink.
43 I was a stranger, & ye took me not in: naked, and ye clothed me not: sick, and in prison, and ye visited me not.
44 Then shal they also answere him, saying, Lord, when saw we thee an hungred, or a thirst, or a stranger, or naked, or sick, or in prison, and did not minister unto thee?
45 Then shal he answere them, saying, Verily, I say unto you in as much as ye did it not to one of the least of these, ye did it not to me.
46 And these shal go away into everlasting punishment, but the righteous into life eternal.

CHAP. XXVI.

AND it came to passe, when Iesus had finished all these sayings, he said unto his disciples,
2 Ye know that after two dayes is the Feast of the Passeover, and the Son of man is betrayed to be crucified.
3 Then assembled together the chief Priests and the Scribes, & the Elders of the people unto the palace of the high Priest, who was called Caiaphas.
4 And consulted that they might take Iesus by subtilty, and kil him.
5 But they said, Not on the feast day, lest there be a tumult among the people.
6 Now when Iesus was in Bethany, in the house of Simon the leper, 7 There came unto him a woman, having an alabaster box of very precious ointement, and powred it on his head, as he sate at meat.
8 But when his disciples saw it, they had indignation, saying, to what purpose is this waste?
9 For this ointment might have been sold for much, and given to the poor.
10 When Iesus understood it, he said to them, why trouble ye the woman? for she hath wrought a good work upon me.
11 For ye have the poor always with you, but me ye have not always.
12 For in that she hath powred this ointment on my body, she did it for my burial.
13 Verily, I say unto you, Wheresoever this gospel shal be preached in my whole world, she shal also this, that this woman hath done, be told for a memorial of her.
14 Then one of the twelve called Iudas Iscariot went unto the chief Priests, 15 And said unto them, What wil ye give me, and I wil deliver him unto you? and they covenanted with him for thirty pieces of silver.
16 And from that time he sought opportunity to betray him.
17 Now the first day of the feast of unleavened bread, the disciples came unto

Iesus, saying unto him, where wilt thou that we prepare for thee to eat thy Passeover?
18 And he said, go into the city to such a man, & say unto him, my master saith,
My time is at hand, I wil keep thy Pas-over at thy house with my Disciples.
19 And the Disciples did as Iesus had appointed them: and they made ready the Passeover?
20 Now when the Even was come he sate down with the twelve.
21 And as they did eat he said, verily,
I say to you, one of you shal betray me.
22 And they were exceeding sorrow-full, and began every one of them to say unto him, Lord, is it I?
23 And he answered and said, He that dippeth his hand with me in the dish,
the same shal betray me.
24 The Son of man goeth as it is written of him: but woe unto that man by whom the Son of man is betrayed!
it had been good for that man if he had not been born.
25 Then Iudas which betrayed him answered and said, Master, is it I? He said unto him, Thou hast said.
26 And as they were eating, Iesus took the bread and blessed it, and brake it, and gave it to the Disciples, and said, take, eat this is my body.
27 And he took the cup, and gave thankes, and gave it to them, saying,
Drink ye all of it.
28 For this is my blood of the New Testament, which is shed for many for the remission of sinnes.
29 But I say unto you I wil not drink henceforth of this fruit of the vine until that day when I drink it new with you in my Fathers kingdom.
30 And when they had sung an himne,
they went out into y mount of Olives.
31 Then saith Iesus unto them, All ye shal be offended because of me this night: for it is written, I wil smite the Shepherd, and the sheep of the flock
shal be scattered abroad.
32 But after I am risen again, I wil go before you into Galilee.
33 Peter answered & said unto him, Though all men shal be offended because of thee, yet wil I never be offended.
34 Iesus said unto him, Verily I say unto thee, that this night before the cock crow, thou shalt deny me thrise.
35 Peter said to him, though I should die with thee, yet wil I not deny thee.
Likewise also said all the Disciples.
36 Then came Iesus with them unto a place called Gethsemane, and said unto the disciples, Sit ye here, while I go and pray yonder.
37 And he took with him Peter and the two sons of Zebedee, and began to be sorrowful and very heavy.
38 Then saith he unto them, my soul is exceeding sorrowfull, even unto death: tarry ye here, & watch with me.
39 And he went a little further, and fell on his face and prayed saying, O my Father, if it be possible, let this cup pass

…ny from me: nevertheless, not as I
…will, but as thou will.
40 And he commeth unto the disci…ples, and findeth them asleep, and saith
…unto Peter, What, could ye not watch
…with me one houre.
41 Watch and pray, that ye enter not …into temptation: The spirit indeed is …willing, but the flesh is weake.
42 He went away again the second …time and prayed, saying, O my father
…if this cup may not passe away from …me except I drink it, thy will be done.
43 And he came & found them asleep
…again: for their eyes were heavy.
44 And he left them, and went away
…again, and prayed the third time, say…ing the same words.
45 Then commeth he to his disciples,
…and saith unto them, Sleep on now, and
…take your rest, behold, the houre is at …hand, and the Son of man is betrayed
…into the hands of sinners.
46 Rise, let us be going, behold, he is …at hand that doeth betray me.
47 And while he yet spake, lo, Judas
…one of the twelve came, & with him a …great multitude with swords & staves, sent
…from the chief Priests & Elders of y people.
48 Now he that betrayed him, gave …them a sign, saying, Whomsoever I shall
…kisse, the same is he, hold him fast.
49 And forthwith he came to Iesus,
…and said, Haile Master, and kissed him.
50 And Iesus said unto him, Friend,
…wherefore art y come? then came they,
…and laid hands on Iesus, and took him.
51 And behold one of them which …were with Iesus stretched out his hand,
…drew his sword, & stroke a servant
…of the high Priests & smote off his ear.
52 Then said Iesus to him, put up again
…thy sword into his place: for all they y
…take sword, shall perish with the sword.
53 Thinkest y y I cannot now pray
…to my father, & he shal presently give
…me more then twelve legions of angels?
54 But how then shall the Scriptures
…be fulfilled, that thus it must be?
55 In that same houre said Iesus to the …multitude, Are ye come out as against a …thief, with swords & staves for to take …me? I daily with you, teaching in …the Temple & ye laid no hold on me.
56 But all this was done y the Scriptures of y prophets might be fulfilled:
…Then all y disciples forsook him & fled.
57 And they that had laid hold on …Iesus led him away to Caiaphas the …high Priest, where the scribes, and the
…Elders were all come.
58 But Peter followed him afar off
…unto y high Priests palace, & went in,
…& sate with the servants to see y end.
59 Now the chief Priests & Elders &
…all y Counsel sought false witnesse
…against Iesus to put him to death:
60 But found none: yea though many
…false witnesses came, yet found they none.
…At the last came two false witnesses,
61 And said, This fellow said, I am …able to destroy the Temple of God, &
…to build it in three dayes.
62 And the high Priest arose, & said
…to him, answerest thou nothing? what
…is it which these witnesse against thee?
63 But Iesus held his peace. And y high …priest answered, & said to him, I adjure
…thee by y living God: y thou tell us,
…whether y be the Christ y Son of God.
64 Iesus saith unto him, Thou hast …said: Nevertheless, I say unto you,
…Hereafter shall ye see the Son of Man
…sitting on the right hand of power, &
…coming in the clouds of heaven.
65 Then y high Priest rent his cloathes,
…saying, he hath spoke blasphemy: what
…further need have we of witnesses? Lo,
…now ye have heard his blasphemy.
66 What think ye? They answered …and said, He is guilty of death.
67 Then did they spit in his face, and …buffeted him, and others smote him
…with the palmes of their hands.
68 Saying, Tophesie unto us, Thou
…Christ, who is he that smote thee?
69 Now Peter sate without in the pa…lace: & a damosel came unto him, say…ing, thou also wast with Iesus of Galilee.
70 But he denied before them all,
…saying, I know not what thou sayest.
71 And when he was gone out into …the porch, another maid saw him, and …said unto them that were there, This
…fellow was also of Iesus of Nazareth.
72 And again he denied with an oath,
…I do not know the man.
73 And after a while came unto him
…they that stood by, and said to Peter,
…surely thou also art one of them, for
…thy speech bewrayeth thee.
74 Then began he to curse and to …swear, saying, I know not the man. And …immediately the cock crew.
75 And Peter remembred the words
…of Iesus, which said unto him, Before
…the cock crow, y shalt deny me thrice,
…And he went out, and wept bitterly.

CHAP. XXVII.

WHen the morning was come, all the chefe Priests and Elders of the people tooke counsel against Iesus to put him to death.
2 And when they had bound him, they led him away, and delivered him to Pontius Pilate the governour.
3 Then Iudas which had betrayed him, when he saw that he was condemned, repented himself, & brought again the thirty pieces of silver to the chief Priests and Elders.
4 Saying, I have sinned, in that I have betrayed the innocent blood. And they said, What is y to us? see thou to that.
5 And he cast down the pieces of silver in the Temple, and departed, and went and hanged himself.
6 And the chief Priests took the silver pieces, and said, It is not law full for to put them into the treasury, because it is the price of blood.
7 And they took counsel & bought with y peters field to bury strangers in.
8 Wherefore that field was called the field of blood unto this day.

9 Then

9 Then was fulfilled ỹ which was spoken by Jeremy ỹ prophet, saying: & they took ỹ thirtie peices of silver, the price of him that was valued, whō they of the children of Israel did value

10 And gave them for the potters field, as the Lord appointed me.)

11 And Jesus stood before the governour, & the governour asked him saying: Art thou ỹ King of ỹ Jewes? And Jesus said unto him, Thou sayest.

12 And Whē he was accused of ỹ chief Priests, & Elders, he answered nothing.

13 Then saith Pilate unto him, Hearest thou not how many things they witnes against thee?

14 And he answered him to never a word: insomuch that the governour marvelled greatly.

15 Now at that feast the governour was wont to release unto the people a prisoner, whom they would.

16 And they had then a notable prisoner, called Barabbas.

17 Therfore when they were gathered together Pilate said unto them, Whom will ye that I release unto you, Barabbas, or Jesus which is called Christ?

18 For he knew that for envy they had delivered him.

19 When he was set down on the judgment seat, his wife sent unto him, saying: Have thou nothing to do with that just man; for I have suffered many things this day in a dream, because of him.

20 But the chief priests and Elders perswaded the multitude that they should aske Barabbas and destroy Jesus.

21 The governour answered and said to them, Whether of the twain will ye that I release to you? they said Barabbas.

22 Pilate said to them, What shall I doe then with Jesus, which is called Christ? They all said to him, Let him be crucified.

23 And the governour said, Why, what evil hath he done? But they cried out the more, saying, Let him be crucified.

24 When Pilate saw ỹ he could prevail nothing, but rather a tumult was made, he took water & washed his hands before ỹ multitude, saying, I am innocent of ỹ blood of this just person: see yee to it.

25 Then answered all ỹ people, & said, His blood be on us & on our children.

26 Then released he Barabbas unto them, & when he had scourged Jesus, he delivered him to be crucified.

27 Then ỹ souldiers of ỹ Governour took Jesus into ỹ common hall, & gathered unto him ỹ whole band of souldiers.

28 And they stripped him and put on him a skarlet robe.

29 And when they had platted a crowne of thorns, they put it upon his head, & a reed in his right hand: and they bowed the knee before him, & mocked him saying, Hail King of the Jewes.

30 And they spit upon him, and took the reed, and smote him on the head.

31 And after that they had mocked him, they took the robe off from him, and put his own raiment on him, and led him away to crucifie him.

32 And as they came out, they found a man of Cyrene, Simon by name: him they compelled to beare his crosse.

33 And when they were come unto a place called Golgotha, that is to say, a place of a skull,

34 They gave him ỹ wyne to drink mingled with gall: and when he had tasted thereof, he would not drink.

35 And they crucified him, and parted his garments, casting lotte: ỹ it might be fulfilled which was spoken by ỹ Prophet, They parted my garments among them, & upon my vesture they did cast lotte.

36 And sitting down they watched him there.

37 And set up over his head his accusation written, THIS IS JESUS THE KING OF THE JEWES.

38 Then were there two theeves crucified with him; one on the right hand, and another on the left.

39 And they that passed by, railed on him, wagging their heads:

40 And saying, Thou ỹ destroyest the Temple, and buildest it in three dayes, save thy self: If thou be the Sonne of God, come down from the crosse.

41 Likewise also ỹ chief Priests mocking him, with the Scribes & Elders, said,

42 He saved others, himself he cannot save: If he be the King of Israel let him now come down from the crosse, & we will believe him.

43 He trusted in God, let him deliver him now if he will have him: for he said, I am the Sonne of God.

44 The theeves also which were crucified with him, cast the same in his teeth.

45 Now from the sixt houre there was darkenes over all the land unto the ninth houre.

46 And about ỹ ninth houre Jesus cried with a loud voyce saying, Eli, Eli, lama sabachthani? ỹ is to say, My God, my God, why hast thou forsaken me?

47 Some of them, that stood there, when they heard that, said, This man calleth for Elias.

48 And straightway one of them ran, & took a sponge, & filled it with vinegar, & put it on a reed, & gave him to drink.

49 The rest said, Let be, let us see whether Elias will come to save him.

50 Jesus, when he had cried again with a loud voyce, yeelded up ỹ ghost.

51 And behold, the vaile of the Temple was rent in twaine, from the top to the bottome, and the earth did quake, and the rockes rent,

52 And the graves were opened, and many bodies of Saints, which slept,

53 And came out of the graves after his resurrection, and went into the holy citie, and appeared unto many.

54 And when the Centurion, and they that were with him watching Jesus, saw the earthquake, and the things that were done, they feared greatly, saying, Truely this was the Sonne of God.

55 And many women were there beholding afar off, which followed Jesus from Galilee, ministring unto him:

56 Among

among which was Mary Magda- the women, Fear not ye, for I know ye ne and Mary ye mother of James, & ye seeke Iesus, which was crucified.
lo ye mother of Zebedees children 6 He is not here: for he is risen, as he said
Then, even was come, there came Come, see ye place where the Lord lay.
ph an of Arimathea, named Ioseph 7 And go quickly, & tell his disciples also himselfe was Iesus disciple. y he is risen from ye dead: and behold, he goeth before you into Galilee, there shall ye see him: lo, I have told you.
8 And they departed quickly from the sepulchre with fear and great joy, & did run to bring his disciples word.
9 And as they went to tell his disciples, behold, Iesus met them, saying, All hail. And they came, and held him by the feet, and worshipped him.
10 Then said Iesus to them, Be not afraid, Go tell my brethren that they go into Galilee, & there shall they see me.
11 Now when they were going, behold, some of the watch came into the city, and shewed unto the chief Priests all things that were done.
12 And when they were assembled with the elders, & had taken counsel they gave large money unto the souldiers, 13 Saying, Say ye, His disciples came by night, & stole him away while we slept.
14 And if this come to y ears of the governour, we will perswade him, & make you sure.
15 So they took the money, and did as they were taught: and this saying is commonly reported among the Iewes until this day.
16 Then the eleven disciples went away into Galilee, into a mountaine where Iesus had appointed them.
17 And when they saw him, they worshipped him: but some doubted.
18 And Iesus came, and spake unto them, saying, All power is given unto me in heaven and in earth.
19 Go ye therefore, and teach all nations, baptizing them in y Name of y father, & of y Son, and of y holy Ghost:
20 Teaching them to observe all things whatsoever I have commanded you: and lo, I am with you alway, even unto the end of the world. Amen.

The Gospel according to S. MARK.

CHAP. I.

1 The beginning of ye gospel of Iesus Christ, y Son of God.
2 As it is written in y Prophets, Lo, I send my messenger before thy face, which shall prepare thy way before thee.
3 The voyce of one crying in the wilderness, Prepare ye the way of the Lord, make his paths straight.
4 Iohn did baptize in the wilderness, and preach the baptisme of repentance, for the remission of sinnes.
5 And there went out unto him all the land of Iudea, and they of Ierusalem, & were all baptized of him in the river of Iordan, confessing their sinnes.
6 And Iohn was clothed with camels heare, and with a girdle of a skin about his loines, & did eat locusts, & wild honey.
7 And preached, saying, There commeth one mightier than I after me, the latchet of whose shoes I am not worthy to stoope down, and unloose.
8 I indeed have baptized you with water: but he shall baptize you with y holy Ghost.
9 And it came to passe in those dayes, that Iesus came from Nazareth of Galile, & was baptized of Iohn in Iordan.
10 And straightway coming up out of the water, he saw the heavens opened, and y Spirit like a dove descending on him.
11 And there came a voyce from heaven, saying, Thou art my beloved Son, in whom I am well pleased.
12 And immediately the Spirit driveth him into the wilderness.
13 And he was there in the wilderness forty dayes, tempted of Satan, and was with the wilde beasts, and the Angels ministred unto him.
14 Now after that Iohn was put in prison, Iesus came into Galilee, preaching

15 And saying, The time is fulfilled, and the kingdome of God is at hand: repent ye, and believe the Gospel.

16 Now as he walked by the Sea of Galilee, he saw Simon, and Andrew his brother casting a net into the Sea, (for they were Fishers.)

17 And Iesus said unto them, Come ye after me, and I will make you to become fishers of men.

18 And straightway they forsooke their nets, and followed him.

19 And when he had gone a little further thence, he saw Iames the sonne of Zebedee, and Iohn his brother, who also were in y ship mending their nets.

20 And straight way he called them: & they left their father Zebedee in y ship with hired servants, & went after him.

21 And they went into Capernaum, & straightway on the Sabbath day he entred into y Synagogue, and taught.

22 And they were astonished at his doctrine: for he taught them as one y had authority, and not as the Scribes.

23 And there was in their Synagogue a man with an unclean spirit, & he cried out,

24 Say: 6. Let us alone, what have we to do with thee, y Iesus of Nazareth? Art y come to destroy us? I know thee who y Art, The holy one of God.

25 And Iesus rebuked him, saying, Hold thy peace, and come out of him.

26 And when the unclean spirit had torn him, and cryed with a loud voice, he came out of him.

27 And they were all amazed, insomuch that they questioned among themselves, saying, What thing is this? What new doctrine is this? for with authority commandeth he even the unclean spirits, & they do obey him.

28 And immediately his fame spread abroad thorow out all y region round about Galilee.

29 And forthwith when they were come out of the Synagogue, they entred into the house of Simon and Andrew, with Iames and Iohn.

30 But Simons wives mother lay sick of a feaver: anon they tell him of her.

31 And he came and took her by the hand, & lift her up, & immediatly y fever left her, & she ministred to them.

32 And at even when y Sun did set, they brought to him all y were diseased, & them y were possessed of devils.

33 And all the city was gathered together at the doore.

34 And he healed many that were sick of divers diseases, and cast out many devils, and suffered not the devils to speake, because they knew him.

35 And in y morning rising up a great while before day, he went out, & departed to a solitary place, & there prayed.

36 And Simon, and they that were with him, followed after him:

39 And when they had found him, they said unto him, All men seek for thee.

38 And he said unto them, Let us goe into other townes, y I may preach there also: for to that end came I forth.

39 And he preached in their synagogues throughout all Galilee, & cast out devils.

40 And there came a leper to him, beseeching him, and kneeling down to him, and saying unto him, If thou wilt thou canst make me cleane.

41 And Iesus moved with compassion, put forth his hand, and touched him, and said unto him, I will: be thou cleane.

42 And a soone as he had spoken, immediatly the leprie departed from him, and he was cleansed.

43 And he straitly charged him, and forth with sent him away.

44 And said unto him, See thou say nothing to any man: but go shew thy selfe to the priest, & offer for thy cleansing those things which Iesus commanded for a testimony to them.

45 But he went out, and began to publish it much, and to blase abroad the matter, insomuch that Iesus could no more openly enter into the citie, but was without in desert places: and they came to him from every quarter.

CHAP. II.

AND againe he entred into Capernaum, after some dayes, and it was noised that he was in the house.

2 And straightway many were gathered together, insomuch that there was no roome to receive them, no not so much as about the doore: & he preached word to them.

3 And they come to him, bringing one sick of the palsie, which was borne of foure.

4 And when they could not come nigh unto him for y preasse, they uncovered the roofe where he was: & when they had broken it up, they let downe the bed wherein y sick of the palsie lay.

5 When Iesus saw their faith, he said unto the sick of the palsie, Sonne, thy sinnes be forgiven thee.

6 But there were certaine of y Scribes sitting there, & reasoning in their hearts,

7 Why doeth this man thus speake blasphemies? Who can forgive sinnes but God only?

8 And immediatly when Iesus perceived in his Spirit that they so reasoned within themselves, he said unto them, Why reason ye these things in your hearts?

9 Whether is it easier to say to the sick of the palsie, Thy sinnes be forgiven thee: or to say, Arise, & take up thy bed, & walk?

10 But y ye may know y y Sonne of man hath power on earth to forgive sinnes, (he saith unto the sicke of the palsie,)

11 I say to thee, Arise, & take up thy bed, and go thy way into thine house.

12 And immediatly he arose, took up the bed, and went forth before them all, insomuch that they were all amazed, and glorified God, saying, We never saw it on this fashion.

13 And he went forth again by the sea side, and all the multitude resorted unto him, and he taught them.

14 And as he passed by, he saw Leui

And he arose, and followed him.
And he came to passe, that as Jesus sat at meat in his house, many publicans and sinners sate also together with Jesus and his disciples: for there were many, and they followed him.
16 And when the Scribes and Pharisees saw him eate with Publicans and sinners, they said unto his disciples, How is it that he eateth and drinketh with publicans and sinners?
17 When Jesus heard it, he said unto them, They that are whole have no need of the Physician, but they that are sick:
I came not to call the righteous, but sinners to repentance.
18 And the disciples of Iohn, and of the Pharisees used to fast: and they come and say unto him, Why do the disciples of Iohn, and of the Pharisees fast, but thy disciples fast not?
19 And Iesus said unto them, Can the children of the bridechamber fast while the bridegroom is with them? As long as they have the bridegroom with them they cannot fast.
20 But the dayes will come, when the bridegroom shall be taken away from them, and then shall they fast in those dayes.
21 No man also putteth a piece of a new cloth to an old garment; else the new piece that filled it up taketh away of the old, & the rent is made worse.
22 And no man putteth new wine into old bottels, else the new wine doth burst the bottels, and the wine is spilled, & the bottels will be marred: but new wine must be put into new bottels.
23 And it came to passe that he went through the corne fields on the Sabbath day, and his disciples began as they went, to pluck the eares of corne.
24 And the Pharisees said unto him, Behold, why do they on the Sabbath day that which is not lawful?
25 And he said unto them, Have ye not read what David did, when he had need, and was an hungred, he, and they that were with him?
26 How he went into the house of God in the dayes of Abiathar the high Priest, and did eate the shew bread which is not lawful to eate but for the Priests, & gave also to them which were with him?
27 And he said unto them, The Sabbath was made for man, & not man for the Sabbath:
28 Therefore the Son of man is Lord also of the Sabbath.

CHAP. III.

1 He entred againe into the Synagogue, and there was a man there which had a withered hand.
2 And they watched him, whether he would heale him on the Sabbath day, that they might accuse him.
3 And he said unto the man which had the withered hand, Stand forth.
4 And he said unto them, Is it lawful to doe good on the Sabbath dayes, or to doe evil? to save life, or to kill? but they held their peace.
5 And when he had looked round about on them with anger, being grieved for the hardnesse of their hearts: Many healed.

He saith unto the man, Stretch forth thine hand. And he stretched it out: and his hand was restored whole as the other.
6 And the Pharisees went forth, and straightway took counsel with the Herodians against him, how they might destroy him.
7 But Iesus withdrew himself with his disciples to the sea: & a great multitude from Galilee followed him, & from Iudea,
8 And from Hierusalem, and from Idumea, and from beyond Iordan, and they about Tyre and Sidon, a great multitude, when they had heard what great things he did, came unto him.
9 And he spake to his disciples, that a small ship should wait on him because of the people, lest they should throng him.
10 For he had healed many, insomuch that they preased upon him for to touch him, as many as had plagues.
11 And unclean spirits when they saw him, fell down before him and cried, saying, Thou art the Son of God.
12 And he straitly charged them, that they should not make him known.
13 And he goeth up into a mountaine, and calleth unto him whom he would: and they came unto him.
14 And he ordained twelve, that they should be with him, and that he might send them forth to preach:
15 And to have power to heale sicknesses, and to cast out devils.
16 And Simon he surnamed Peter.
17 And Iames the sonne of Zebedee, and Iohn the brother of Iames: and he surnamed them Boanerges, which is, The sons of thunder.
18 And Andrew, and Philip, and Bartholomew, and Matthew, and Thomas, & Iames the son of Alpheus, and Thaddeus, and Simon the Canaanite, 19 And Iudas Iscariot, which also betrayed him: and they went into an house.
20 And the multitude commeth together againe, so that they could not so much as eate bread.
21 And when his friends heard of it, they went out to lay hold on him, for they said, He is beside himselfe.
22 And the Scribes which came down from Hierusalem, said, He hath Beelzebub, and by the prince of the devils casteth he out devils.
23 And he called them unto him, and said unto them in parables, How can Satan cast out Satan?
24 And if a kingdom be divided against it selfe, that kingdome cannot stand.
25 And if a house be divided against it selfe, that house cannot stand.
26 And if Satan rise up against himselfe, and be divided, he cannot stand, but hath an end.
27 No man can enter into a strong mans house, and spoile his goods, except he will first bind the strong man, and then he will spoile his house.
28 Verily I say unto you, All sinnes shall be forgiven unto the sons of men and blasphemies wherewith soever they shall blaspheme:

29 But

29 But he that shall blaspheme against the holy Ghost, hath never forgiveneſſe, but is in danger of eternall damnation.
30 Becauſe they ſaid, He hath an uncleane ſpirit.
31 There came then his brethren, and his mother, and ſtanding without,
ſent vnto him, calling him.
32 And ſate multitude ſate about him, &
they ſaid vnto him, Behold, thy mother & thy brethren without ſeek for thee.
33 And he anſwered them, ſaying,
Who is my mother, or my brethren?
34 And he looked round about on them which ſate about him, and ſaid, Behold my mother and my brethren.
35 For whoſoever ſhall do y will of God y ſame is my brother, & my ſiſter, & mother.

CHAP. IIII.

AND he began again to teach by y ſea ſide, & there was gathered to him a great multitude, ſo y he entred into a ſhippe, and ſate in y ſea: & y whole multitude was by the ſea on the land.
2 And he taught them many things by parables, & ſaid to them in his doctrine 3 Hearken, behold, there went out a ſower to ſow:
4 And it came to paſſe as he ſowed, ſome fell by the way ſide, and the fouls of the ayre came and deuoured it up.
5 And ſome fell on ſtony ground, where it had not much earth: and immediatly it ſprang up, becauſe it had no depth of earth.
6 But when the ſun was up, it was ſcorched, and becauſe it had no root it withered away.
7 And ſome fell among thornes, and the thornes grew up and choaked it, and it yeelded no fruit.
8 And other fell on good ground, and did yeeld fruit that ſprang up, and increaſed, & brought forth ſome thirty, and ſome ſixty, & ſome an hundred.
9 And he ſaid unto them: He that hath eares to heare, let him heare.
10 And when he was alone, they that were about him, with the twelve, asked of him the parable.
11 And he ſaid unto them: Vnto you it is given to know the myſtery of the kingdom of God: but to they are without, all theſe things are done in Parables 12 That ſeeing, they may ſee, and not perceive, and hearing, they may heare, and not underſtand, leſt at any time they ſhould be converted, and their ſins ſhould be forgiven them.
13 And he ſaid unto them, Know ye not this parable? And how then will ye know all parables?
14 The Sower ſoweth the word.
15 And theſe are they by the way ſide, where the word is ſowen, but when they have heard, Satan commeth immediately, and taketh away the word that was ſowen in their hearts.
16 And theſe are they likewiſe which are ſowen on ſtony ground, who when they have heard the word, immediatly receive it with gladneſſe:
17 And have no root in themſelues, ſo indure but for a time afterward affliction or perſecution ariſeth for the words ſake, immediatly they are offended 18 And theſe are they which are ſowen
among thornes, ſuch as hear the word, 19 and the cares of this world, and the deceitfulneſſe of riches, and the luſts of other things entring in, choke y word, & it becommeth unfruitfull.
20 And theſe are they which are ſowen
on good ground ſuch as hear y word & receive it, & bring forth fruit, ſome thirty fold, ſome ſixty, ſome an hundred.
21 And he ſaid unto them, Is a candle brought to be put under a buſhell, or vnder a bed? & not to be ſet on a candleſtick?
22 For there is nothing hid, but it ſhall be manifeſt: neither was any thing ſecret, but y it ſhould come abroad.
23 If any man haue eares to heare,
let him heare.
24 And he ſaid unto them, Take heed
what you heare: With what meaſure ye mete, it ſhall be meaſured to you: and unto you y heare, ſhall more be given.
25 For he that hath, to him ſhall be given, and he that hath not, from him ſhall be taken, even that which he hath.
26 And he ſaid, So is the kingdome of God, as if a man ſhould caſt ſeed into the ground.
27 And ſhould ſleepe and riſe night and day, and the ſeed ſhould ſpring and grow up, he knoweth not how.
28 For the earth bringeth forth fruit of her ſelfe: firſt the blade, then the eare, after that the full corne in the eare.
29 But when the fruit is brought forth, immediatly he putteth in his ſickle, becauſe the harveſt is come.
30 And he ſaid, Where unto ſhall we liken the kingdome of God? Or with what comparation ſhall we compare it?
31 It is like a graine of muſtard-ſeed, which when it is ſowen in the earth is leſſe
then all the ſeeds that be in the earth:
32 But when it is ſowen, it groweth vp, becomes greater then all herbs, & ſhooteth out great branches: ſo y fowles of y ayre may lodge vnder y ſhadow of it.
33 And with many ſuch parables ſpake he the word vnto them, as they were able to heare it.
34 But without a parable ſpake he not to them, & when they were alone, he expounded all things to his diſciples.
35 And the ſame day when the even was come, he ſaid vnto them, Let vs paſſe over vnto the other ſide.
36 And when they had ſent away the multitude, they tooke him even as he was in the ſhip, and there were alſo with him other little ſhips.
37 And there aroſe a great ſtorme of wind, and the waves beat into the ſhip, ſo that it was now full.
38 And he was in the hinder part of the ſhip aſleepe on a pillow and they awake him, and ſay vnto him, maiſter, careſt thou not that we periſh?
39 And he aroſe, and rebuked y done for him: & all men did marvell.

21 And when Iesus was passed over again by ship unto the other side, much people gathered unto him, and he was nigh unto the Sea.

22 And behold, there cometh one of ỹ rulers of ỹ Synagogue, Iairus by name,
& when he saw him, he fell at his feet.

23 And besought him greatly, saying, My little daughter lieth at the point of death, I pray thee come and lay thy hands on her, that she may be healed, and she shall live.

24 And Iesus went ẃ him, and much people followed him, & thronged him.

25 And a certaine woman which had an issue of blood twelve yeeres,

26 And had suffered many things of many Physicians, and had spent all that she had, and was nothing bettered, but rather grew worse:

27 When she had heard of Iesus, came in ỹ preasse behinde, & touched his garment.

28 For she said, If I may touch but his clothes, I shall be whole.

29 And straightway ỹ fountaine of her blood was dryed up, and she felt in her body that she was healed of ỹ plague.

30 And Iesus immediately knowing in himselfe that vertue had gone out of him, turned him about in ỹ preasse, and said, Who touched my clothes?

31 And his disciples said unto him,
Thou seest the multitude thronging thee, and sayest thou, Who touched me?

32 And he looked round about to see her that had done this thing.

33 But the woman fearing and trembling, knowing what was done in her, came, and fell down before him, and told him all the trueth.

34 And he saith to her, Daughter, thy faith hath made thee whole, go in peace, and be whole of thy plague.

35 While he yet spake, there came from the ruler of ỹ synagogues house, certain which said, Thy daughter is dead, why troublest thou the Master any further?

36 Assoone as Iesus heard ỹ word that was spoken, he said unto the Ruler of ỹ synagogue, be not afraid, only believe.

37 And he suffered no man to follow him, Eye Peter and Iames, and Iohn
the brother of Iames.

38 And he cometh to the house of the ruler of ỹ synagogue, & seeth ỹ tumult & them that wept & wailed greatly.

39 And when he was come in, he saith to them, why make ye this ado, & weep?
the damosell is not dead, but sleepeth.

40 And they laughed him to scorne:
but when he had put them all out, he taketh ỹ father & ỹ mother of the damo-sell, & them that were with him, & en-tereth in where the damosell was lying.

41 And he took the damosell by the hand, and said unto her, Talitha cumi, which is, being interpreted, Damosell,
(I say unto thee,) Arise.

42 And straightway the Damosell arose, & walked: for she was of the age of twelve yeers: and they were astwith did with a great astonishment.

43 And he charged them straitly, y no man should know it: & commanded y something should be given her to eat.

CHAP. VI.

AND he went out from thence, and came into his own country: and his Disciples follow him.
2 And when y Sabboth day was come, he began to teach in y Synagogue: and many hearing him, were astonished, saying, From whence hath this man these things? and what wisdom is this wch is given to him, y even such mighty works are wrought by his hands?
3 Is not this y Carpenter, y son of Mary, the brother of James & Joses & of Juda, & Simon? are not his sisters here with us? And they were offended at him.
4 And Jesus said unto them; A Prophet is not without honour, but in his own country, & among his own kins, & in his own house.
5 And he could there do no mighty work, save that he laid his hands upon a few sick folk, & healed them.
6 And he marvelled because of their unbelief. And he went round about the villages, teaching.
7 And he called unto him y twelve, and began to send them forth by two & two: and gave them power over uncleane spirits.
8 And commanded them that they should take nothing for their journey, save a staff only; no scrip, no bread, no money in their purse.
9 But be shod with sandales: and not put on two coats.
10 And he said unto them, In what place soever ye enter into an house, there abide: ye depart from y place.
11 And whosoever shall not receive you, nor hear you, when ye depart thence, shake off the dust under your feet for a testimony against them. Verily I say unto you, it shall be more tolerable for Sodom and Gomorrha in the day of Judgement, than for y city.
12 And they went out and preached that men should repent.
13 And they cast out many devils, and anointed with oil many that were sick, and healed them.
14 And king Herod heard of him (for his name was spread abroad) and he said, y John the Baptist was risen from the dead, and therefore mighty works do shew forth themselves in him.
15 Others said, That it is Elias. And others said, That it was a Prophet, or as one of the Prophets.
16 But when Herod heard thereof, he said, It is John whom I beheaded, he is risen from the dead.
17 For Herod himself had sent forth & had laid hold upon John, & bound him in prison for Herodias sake, his brother Philips wife, for he had married her.
18 For John had said to Herod, It is not lawful for thee to have thy brothers wife.
19 Therefore Herodias had a quarrel against him, and would have killed him, but she could not.
20 For Herod feared John, knowing that he was a just man, & an holy, & observed him. & when he heard him, he did many things, & heard him gladly.
21 And when a convenient day was come, that Herod on his birth day made a supper to his lords, high captains, & chief estates of Galilee:
22 And when the daughter of the same Herodias came in, & danced, & pleased Herod & them y sate at meat with him, the king said unto y damsel, Ask of me whatsoever thou will, & I will give it thee.
23 And he swear unto her, Whatsoever thou shalt ask of me, I will give it unto the half of my kingdome.
24 And she went forth, and said unto her mother, What shall I ask? And she said, The head of John the Baptist.
25 And she came in straightway with haste unto the king, and asked, saying, I will that thou give me by and by in a charger the head of John the Baptist.
26 And y king was exceeding sorry, for his oath's sake, & for their sakes which sate with him, he would not reject her.
27 And immediately the king sent an executioner, and commanded his head to be brought, and he went, & beheaded him in the prison.
28 And brought his head in a charger, and gave it to the damsel, and the damsel gave it to her mother.
29 And when his disciples heard of it, they came and took up his corps, and laid it in a tomb.
30 And the Apostles gathered themselves together unto Jesus, and told him all things, both what they had done, and what they had taught.
31 And he said unto them, Come ye yourselves apart into a desart place, and rest a while. For there were many coming and going, and they had no leisure so much as to eat.
32 And they departed into a desart place by ship privately.
33 And the people saw them departing, and many knew him, & ran afoot thither out of all cities, and outwent them, and came together unto him.
34 And Jesus when he came out (saw much people, & was moved with compassion toward them, because they were as sheep not having a shepherd: & he began to teach them many things.
35 And when day was now far spent, his disciples came to him, & said, This is a desart place, & now y time is far spent.
36 Send them away, that they may go into the villages round about, and into the cities, and buy themselves bread: for they have nothing to eat.
37 He answered, & said to them, Give ye them to eat. And they say to him, Shall we go & buy two hundred pennyworth of bread, and give them to eat?
38 He saith unto them, How many loaves have ye? go, and see. And when knew they say. Five & two fishes and he commanded the people to make all sit down by companies upon y green grass.

And they sate down in ranks by hundreds and by fifties.
And when he had taken y five loaves and two fishes, he looked up to heaven, blessed & brake the loaves, & gave them to his disciples to set before the people: the two fishes divided he among them
all. And they did all eat & were filled.
And they took up twelve baskets full of the fragments and of the fishes.
And they that did eate of the loaves, were about five thousand men.
And straight way he constrained his disciples to get into the ship, & to go to the other side before to Bethsaida, while he sent away the people.
And when he had sent them away,
he departed into a mountaine to pray.
And when even was come, the ship was in the midst of the Sea, and he alone upon the land.
And he saw them toyling in rowing, for the wind was contrary to them. And about the fourth watch of y night he commeth unto them, walking upon the sea, & would have passed by them.
But when they saw him walking upon the sea, they supposed it had been a spirit, and cryed out.
For they all saw him, and were troubled. And immediatly he talked with them, and saith unto them, Be of good cheer, it is I: be not afraid.
And he went up unto them into the ship, and the wind ceased, and they were amazed in themselves beyond measure, and wondred.
For they considered not the miracle of the loaves, for their hart was hardned.
And when they had passed over,
they came into the land of Genesaret,
and drew to the shore.
And when they were come out of the ship, straight way they knew him,
And ranne through that whole region round about, and began to carry out in beds, those that were sick, where they heard he was.
And whithersoever he entred into townes, or cities, or into the villages, they laid the sick in the streets, and besought him that they might touch if it were but the hemme of his garment: and as many as touched him were made whole.

CHAP. VII.

THen came together unto him the Pharises & certain of the Scribes, which came from Hierusalem.
And when they saw some of his Disciples eate bread with defiled (y is to say, with unwashen) hands, they found fault.
For the Pharises and all the Iewes, except they wash their hands oft, eat not, holding the traditions of y elders.
And when they come from y market of them, and come, and fel at his feet:
except they wash, they eat not. And many other things there be which they have received to hold, as y washing of cups, pots, brasen vessels, and of tables.
Then the Pharises & Scribes asked him. Why walke not thy disciples according to the traditions of the elders, but eat bread with unwashen hands?
He answered and said unto them,
Well hath Esaias prophesied of you hypocrites, as it is written, This people honoureth me with their lips, but their heart is farre from me.
Howbeit in vaine do they worship me, teaching for doctrines the commandements of men.
For laying aside the commandment of God, ye hold the tradition of men, as the washing of pots and cups: and many other such like things ye doe.
And he said unto them, Full well ye reiecte the Commandement of God, that ye may keep your owne tradition.
For Moses said, Honour thy father and thy mother, and whoso curseth father or mother, let him die the death.
But ye say, If a man shall say to his father or mother, It is Corban, y is to say, a gift, by whatso very much thou art profited by me, it shalbe free.
And ye suffer him no more to doe ought for his father or his mother.
Making the word of God of none effect through your tradition, which ye have delivered: and many such like things doe ye.
And when he had called all the people to him, he said to them, Heare me all of you every one of you, & understand.
There is nothing from without a man that entring into him can defile him:
but the things which come out of him, those are they that defile the man.
If any man have eares to heare,
let him heare.
And when he was entred into the house from the people, his disciples asked him concerning the parable.
And he saith to them, Are yee so without understanding also? Doe ye not perceive y whatsoever thing from without entereth into a man it cannot defile him?
Because it entereth not into his heart but into the belly, and goeth out into the draught, purging all meates?
And he said, That which cometh out of the man, that defileth the man.
For from within, out of the heart of men, proceed evil thoughts, adulteries, fornications, murthers, Thefts, covetousnes, wickednes, deceat, lasciviousnes, a wicked eye, blasphemie, pride, foolishnes.
All these evil things come from within, and defile the man.
And from thence arose and went into the borders of Tyre and Sidon, & entred into an house, & would have not that any man know it, but he could not be hid.
For a certain woman, whose young daughter had an unclean spirit, heard of him, and came, and fel at his feet:

27 But Iesus said vnto her, Let the children first be filled: for it is not meet to take the childrens bread, and to cast it vnto the dogs.

28 And she answered, and said vnto him Yea, Lord: yet the dogs vnder the table eate of the childrens crums.

29 And he said vnto her, For this saying, goe thy way, the deuil is gone out of thy daughter.

30 And when she was come to her house she found the deuil gone out, & her daughter laid vpon the bed.

31 And againe, departing from the coasts of Tyre and Sidon, he came to the Sea of Galilee, through the middest of the coasts of Decapolis.

32 And they bring vnto him one that was deafe, and had an impediment in his speech, and they beseech him to put his hand vpon him.

33 And he tooke him aside from the multitude, & put his fingers into his eares, and he spit, and touched his tongue.

34 And looking vp to heaven, he sighed, and saith vnto him, Ephphatha, that is, Be opened.

35 And straight way his eares were opened, and the string of his tongue was loosed, and he spake plain.

36 And he charged them that they should tell no man: but y more he charged them, so much the more a great deale they published it.

37 And were beyond measure astonished, saying, He hath done all things well: he maketh both the deafe to hear, and the dumbe to speake.

CHAP. VIII.

IN those dayes the multitude being very great, and having nothing to eate, Iesus called his disciples to him, and saith vnto them,

2 I haue compassion on the multitude: Because they haue now been with me three dayes, and haue nothing to eat:

3 And if I send them away fasting to their own houses, they will faint by the way: for diuers of them came from far.

4 And his disciples answered him, From whence can a man satisfie these men with bread here in the wildernes?

5 And he asked them, How many loaues haue ye? and they said, Seuen.

6 And he commanded the people to sit down on y ground: & he took the seuen loaues, & gaue thanks, & brake, & gaue to his disciples to set before them: and they did set them before y people.

7 And they had a few small fishes: & he blessed, and commanded to set them also before them.

8 So they did eat and were filled: and they took vp of the broken meat that was left, seuen baskets.

9 And they y had eaten, were about foure thousand: and he sent them away.

10 And straightway he entred into a ship with his disciples, and came into the parts of Dalmanutha.

11 And the Pharises came forth, & began to question with him, seeking of him a sign from heauen, tempting him.

12 And he sighed deeply in his spirit, & saith, Why doth this generation seeke after a sign? Verily I say vnto you, There shall no signe be giuen vnto this generation.

13 And he left them, & entring into y ship again, departed to y other side.

14 Now the disciples had forgotten to take bread, neither had they in the ship with them more then one loafe.

15 And he charged them saying, Take heed, beware of the leauen of the Pharisees, and of the leauen of Herod.

16 And they reasoned among themselues, saying, It is because we haue no bread.

17 And when Iesus knew it, he saith vnto them, Why reason ye, because ye haue no bread? Perceiue ye not yet, neither vnderstand? haue ye your hearts yet hardened?

18 Hauing eyes, see ye not? and hearing eares, heare ye not? and do ye not remember?

19 When I brake the fiue loaues among fiue thousand, how many baskets full of fragments took ye vp? They say vnto him, Twelue.

20 And when y seuen among foure thousand, how many baskets full of fragments took ye vp? And they said, Seuen.

21 And he said vnto them, How is it that ye do not vnderstand?

22 And he commeth to Bethsaida: and they bring a blind man vnto him, and besought him to touch him.

23 And he tooke the blind man by the hand, & led him out of y towne: & when he had spit on his eyes, & put his hands on him, he asked him if he saw ought.

24 And he looked vp, and said, I see men as trees walking.

25 After y, he put his hands again vpon his eyes, & made him look vp: & he was restored & saw euery man clearly.

26 And he sent him away to his house, saying, Neither go into the towne, nor tell it to any in the towne.

27 And Iesus went out, and his disciples into the townes of Cesarea Philippi: & by the way he asked his disciples, saying vnto them, Whom do men say that I am?

28 And they answered, Iohn the Baptist: but some say, Elias: and others, One of the Prophets.

29 And he said vnto them, But whom say ye that I am? And Peter saith vnto him, Thou art the Christ.

30 And he charged them, that they should tell no man of him.

31 And he began to teach them, that y son of man must suffer many things, and be reiected of the elders, and of the chiefe priests, and Scribes, and be killed, and after three dayes rise again.

32 And he spake y saying openly. Then Peter took him, & began to rebuke him.

33 But when he had turned about, & looked on his disciples, he rebuked Peter, saying, Get thee behind me, Satan: for thou sauourest not the things that be of God, but the things y be of men.

34 And when he had called the people vnto him, with his disciples also, he unto them, Whosoever will come after me, let him deny himselfe, and take up his crosse, and follow me.

25 For whosoever shall save his life, shall lose it: but whosoever shall lose his life for my sake and the Gospels sake, the same shall save it.
26 For what shall it profit a man, if he should gaine the whole world, and lose himselfe? or be cast away?
27 Or what shall a man give in exchange for his soul?
28 Whosoever therefore shall be ashamed of me, and of my words, in this adulterous and sinfull generation, of him shall the Son of man be ashamed, when he commeth in the glory of his father, with the holy Angels.

CHAP. IX.

1 And he said unto them, Verily I say unto you, that there be some of them that stand here, which shall not taste of death, till they have seen the kingdome of God come with power.
2 And after six dayes, Jesus taketh with him Peter & James, and Iohn, and leadeth them up into an high moun-taine apart by themselves: and he was transfigured before them.
3 And his raiment became shining, exceeding white as snow, so as no Fuller on earth can white them.
4 And there appeared unto them Elias with Moses: & they were talking with Jesus.
5 And Peter answered & said to Jesus, Master, it is good for us to be here: & let us make three Tabernacles, one for thee, and one for Moses, & one for Elias.
6 For he wist not what to say, for they were sore afraid.
7 And there was a cloud y overshadowed them: & a voice came out of the cloud, saying, This is my beloved Son: hear him.
8 And sodenly when they had looked about, they saw no man any more save Jesus only with themselves.
9 And as they came down from the mount, he charged them that they should tell no man what things they had seen, save when the Son of man were risen from the dead. 10 And they kept that saying & themselves, questioning one with another, what rising from the dead should mean.
11 And they asked him saying, Why say the Scribes, that Elias must first come?
12 And he answered, and told them, Elias truely commeth first, and restoreth all things: and how it is written of the Son of man, that he must suffer many things, & be set at nought.
13 But I say to you, Elias is indeed come, & they have done to him whatsoever they listed, as it is written of him.
14 And when he came to his disciples
he saw a great multitude about them, and the Scribes questioning with them.
15 And straightway all the people when they beheld him, were greatly amazed, & running to him, saluted him.
16 And he asked the Scribes, What question ye with them?
17 And one of y multitude answered him, Master, I have brought unto thee my son, which hath a dumbe spirit:
18 And wheresoever he taketh him, he teareth him, and he foameth, & gna-sheth with his teeth, and pineth away.
And I spake to thy disciples, that they should cast him out, & they could not.
19 He answereth him, and saith, O faithles generation, how long shall I be with you, how long shall I suffer you?
bring him unto me.
20 And they brought him unto him: & when he saw him, straightway the spirit tare him, and he fell on the ground, and wallowed, foaming.
21 And he asked his father, How long is it ago since this came unto him?
And he said, Of a child.
22 And oft times it hath cast him into the fire, and into the waters to destroy him: but if thou canst do any thing have compassion on us, and help us.
23 Jesus said unto him, If thou canst believe, all things are possible to him that believeth.
24 And straightway the father of the child cried out, & said with tears, Lord,
I believe, help thou mine unbelief.
25 When Jesus saw y the people came running together, he rebuked y foul spirit, saying unto him, Thou dumb and deaf spirit, I charge thee come out of him, and enter no more into him.
26 And the spirit cried, and rent him sore, and came out of him, and he was as one dead, insomuch that many said,
He is dead.
27 But Jesus took him by the hand, and lifted him up, and he arose.
28 And when he was come into the house, his disciples asked him privately, Why could not we cast him out?
29 And he said unto them, This kind can come forth by nothing, but by prayer and fasting.
30 And they departed thence, and passed thorow Galilee, and he would not that any man should know it.
31 For he taught his Disciples, & said unto them, The Son of man is delivered into the hands of men, and they shall kill him, & after that he is killed, he shall rise the third day.
32 But they understood not that saying, and were afraid to ask him.
33 And he came to Capernaum: and being in the house, he asked them, What was it that ye disputed among your selves by the way?
34 But they held their peace: For by y way they had disputed among themselves who should be the greatest.
35 And he sate down, and called the twelve, and saith unto them, If any man desire to be first, the same shall be last of all, and servant of all.
36 And he took a child, & set him in the midst of them: and when he had taken him in his arms, he said unto them, 37 Whosoever shall receive one of such children in my Name, receiveth me:
and whosoever shall receive me, receiv-
eth not me, but him that sent me.
38 And

38 And John answered him saying, Master, we saw one casting out devils in thy Name, & he followed not us, & we forbad him because he followes not us

39 But Iesus said, forbid him not: for there is no man that shal do a miracle in my Name, that can lightly speake evil of me.

40 For he that is not against us, is on our part.

41 For whosoever shal give you a cup of water to drinke in my Name because ye belong to Christ: Verily I say unto you, He shal not lose his reward.

42 And whosoever shal offend one of these little ones that believe in me, it is better for him, a millstone were hanged about his neck, & he were cast into the sea.

43 And if thy hand offend thee, cut it off: it is better for thee to enter halt into life, then having two hands to be cast into hell into the fire that never shall be quenched:

44 Where their worme dieth not, & the fire is not quenched.

45 And if thy foot offend thee, cut it off: it is better for thee to enter halt into life, then having two feet to be cast into hell fire that never shall be quenched:

46 Where their worme dieth not, & the fire is not quenched.

47 And if thine eye offend thee, pluck it out: it is better for thee to enter into the kingdome of God with one eye, then having two eyes to be cast into hell fire:

48 Where their worme dieth not, and the fire is not quenched.

49 For every one shall be salted with fire, & every sacrifice shal be salted with salt.

50 Salt is good: but if the salt have lost his saltnes, wherewith will ye season it? Have salt in your selves, and have peace one with another.

CHAP. X.

AND he arose from thence, & cometh into the coasts of Iudea by the farther side of Iordan: and the people resort unto him again, & as he was wont, he taught them again.

2 And the Pharises came to him, and asked him, Is it lawful for a man to put away his wife? tempting him.

3 And he answered, and said unto them, What did Moses command you?

4 And they said, Moses suffered to write a bil of divorcement, & to put her away.

5 And Iesus answered, and said unto them, For the hardnes of your heart, he wrote you this precept.

6 But from the beginning of the creation, God made them male & female.

7 For this cause, shal a man leave his father & mother, and cleave to his wife,

8 And they twain shal be one flesh: so then they are no more twaine but one flesh.

9 What therefore God hath ioyned together, let no man put asunder.

10 And in the house his disciples asked him again of the same matter.

11 And he saith unto them, Whosoever shal put away his wife, & marry another, commiteth adultery against her.

12 And if a woman shal put away her husband, & be married to another, she committeth adultery.

13 And they brought young children to him, y he should touch them: & his disciples rebuked those y brought them.

14 But when Iesus saw it, he was much displeased, and said to them, Suffer the little children to come to me, & forbid them not: for of such is y kingdome of God.

15 Verily I say unto you, Whosoever shal not receive the kingdom of God as a little childe, he shal not enter therein.

16 And he took them upon his armes, put his hand on them, & blessed them.

17 And when he was gone forth into the way, there came one running, and kneeled to him, and asked him, Good Master, what shall I do that I may inherite eternal life?

18 And Iesus said unto him, Why callest thou me good? there is no man good, but one, that is God.

19 Thou know'st the commandments, Do not commit adultery. Do not kil. Do not steal. Do not bear false witnesse. Defraud not. Honour thy father & mother.

20 And he answered, and said unto him, Master, all these have I observed from my youth.

21 Then Iesus beholding him, loved him, and said unto him, One thing thou lackest: go thy way, sel whatsoever thou hast, and give it to the poor, and thou shalt have treasure in heaven: & come take up the crosse and follow me.

22 And he was sad at that saying, & went away grieved: for he had great possessions.

23 And Iesus looked round about, and said unto his Disciples, How hardly shal they that have riches, enter into the kingdome of God?

24 And the Disciples were astonished at his words. But Iesus answered again, and said unto them, Children, how hard is it for them y trust in riches, to enter into the kingdome of God?

25 It is easier for a camel to go through the eye of a needle, then for a rich man to enter into the kingdome of God.

26 And they were astonished out of measure, saying among themselves, Who then can be saved?

27 And Iesus looking upon them, said, With men it is impossible, but not with God: for with God all things are possible.

28 Then Peter began to say unto him, Loe, we have left all, and have followed thee.

29 And Iesus answered and said, Verily I say unto you, There is no man that hath left house, or brethren, or sisters, or father, or mother, or wife, or children, or lands, for my sake & for the Gospels,

30 But he shall receive an hundred fold now in this time, houses, and brethren, and sisters, & mothers, & children, and lands, with persecutions: and in the world to come eternal life.

31 But many that are first, shall be last: and the last, first.

p And they were in the way going up to Hierusalem; and Iesus went before them: and they were amazed, and as they followed they were afraid: and he took again the twelve, & began to tell them what things should happe to him.
32 Saying, Behold, we go up to Hieru-salem; & the Son of man shalbe delivered unto the chiefe priests, & to the scribes, & they shall condemne him to death,
& shall deliver him to the Gentiles.
34 And they shall mocke him, & shall scourge him, & shall spit on him, & shall kill him: & the third day he shall rise again.
35 And Iames and Iohn the sons of Zebedee came to him, saying, Master, we would that thou shouldest do for us whatsoever we shall desire.
36 And he said unto them, What would ye that I should do for you?
37 They said unto him, Grant to us that we may sit, one on thy right hand, & the other on thy left hand in thy glory.
38 But Iesus said unto them, Ye know not what ye aske: Can ye drink of the cup that I drink of? and be baptized with the baptisme that I am baptized with?
39 And they said unto him, We can.
And Iesus said unto them, Ye shall in deed drink of the cup that I drink of:
and with the baptisme that I am baptized withal shall ye be baptized:
40 But to sit on my right hand, & on my left hand is not mine to give, but it shall be given to them for whom it is prepared.
41 And when ten heard it, they began to be much displeased at Iames & Iohn.
42 But Iesus called them to him, & saith unto them, Ye know that they which are counted to rule over the Gentiles, exercise Lordship over them, & their great men exercise authority on them.
43 But so shall it not be among you:
but whosoever shalbe great among you, shalbe your minister.
44 And whosoever of you will be the chiefe, shalbe servant of all.
45 For even the Son of man came not to be ministred unto, but to minister, & to give his life a ransome for many.
46 And they came to Iericho: and as he went out of Iericho with his disciples, and a great number of people, blind Bartimeus, the son of Timeus, sate by the high wayes side begging.
47 And when he heard that it was Iesus of Nazareth, he began to cry out, & say to Iesus, Son of David, have mercy on me.
48 And many charged him that he should hold his peace: but he cryed the more a great deale thou Son of David have mercy on me.
49 And Iesus stood still, and commanded him to be called. & they call the blinde man, saying to him, Be of good comfort, rise, he calleth thee.
50 And he casting away his garment, rose, and came to Iesus.
51 And Iesus answered, and said to him, What will ye that I should do to you? The blind man said to him,
Lord, that I might receive my sight.
52 And Iesus said unto him, Go thy way: thy faith hath made thee whole.
And immediatly he received his sight,
and followed Iesus in the way.

CHAP. XI.

1 AND when they came nigh to Hieru-salem, unto Bethphage, and Bethany, at the mount of Olives, he sendeth forth two of his disciples.
2 And saith unto them, Go your way into the village over against you, and assoon as ye be entred into it, ye shall find a colt tyed, wherein never man sate: loose him, and bring him.
3 And if any man say unto you, Why doe ye this? Say ye that the Lord hath need of him: and straightway he will send him hither.
4 And they went their way, & found the colt tyed by a door without, in a place where two wayes met: & they loose him.
5 And certaine of them that stood there, said unto them, What do ye loosing the colt?
6 And they said to them, even as Iesus had commanded: and they let them go.
7 And they brought the colt to Iesus, and cast their garments on him, and he sate upon him.
8 And many spread their garments in the way: & others cut down branches of the trees, & strawed them in the way.
9 And they that went before, and they that followed, cryed, saying, Hosanna: Blessed is he that cometh in the Name
of the Lord.
10 Blessed be the kingdome of our father David, that cometh in the Name of the Lord: Hosanna in the highest.
11 And Iesus entred into Hierusalem, and into the Temple: and when he had looked round about upon all things, & now the eventide was come, he went out into Bethany with the twelve.
12 And on the morrow when they were come from Bethany, he was hungry.
13 And seeing a figtree afar off having leaves, he came if haply he might finde any thing thereon, and when he came to it, he found nothing but leaves, for the time of figges was not yet.
14 And Iesus answered, and said to it, No man eate fruit of thee hereafter for ever. And his disciples heard it.
15 And they come to Hierusalem: & Iesus went into the temple, and began to cast out them that sold and bought in the temple, & overthrew the tables of the money changers, and the seates of them that sold doves.
16 And would not suffer that any man should carry any vessell through the temple.
17 And he taught, saying to them,
Is it not written, My house shalbe called of all nations the house of prayer?
but ye have made it a den of theeves.
18 And the Scribes & chiefe priests heard it, and sought how they might destroy him: for they feared him, because all the people was astonished at his doctrine.
19 And when even was come, he went out of the citie.

20 And in the morning as they passed by, they saw the figtree dryed up from the rootes.

21 And Peter calling to remembrance, said to him. Master, behold ỹ figtree which thou cursedst is withered away.

22 And Iesus answering, said unto them, Have faith in God.

23 For verily I say unto you, That whosoever shall say unto this mountaine, Bee thou removed, and be thou cast into the Sea, and shall not doubt in his heart, but shall believe that those things whereof he speaketh come to passe, he shall have whatsoever he saith.

24 Therefore I say to you, What things soever ye desire when ye pray, believe ỹ ye receive them, & ye shall have them.

25 And when ye stand praying, forgive, if ye have ought against any man, that your Father also which is in heaven may forgive you your trespasses.

26 But if you doe not forgive, neither will your father which is in heaven forgive you your trespasses.

27 And they come againe to Hierusalem: and as hee was walking in the Temple, there came to him the chiefe priests, and the Scribes, & the Elders,

28 And say to him, By what authority doest thou these things? & who gave thee this authority to do these things?

29 And Iesus answered, and said unto them, I will also aske of you one question, and answere me, and I will tel you by what authority I do these things.

30 The baptisme of Iohn was it from heaven, or of men? Answer me.

31 And they reasoned with themselves saying, If we shall say, From heaven, he will say, why then did ye not believe him?

32 But if we shall say, Of men, they feared the people: for all men counted Iohn, that he was a Prophet indeed.

33 And they answered & said to Iesus, We cannot tel. & Iesus answering, saith unto them, Neither do I tell you by what authority I do these things.

CHAP. XII.

AND he began to speak unto them by parables. A certain man planted a vineyard, and set an hedge about it, & digged a place for the winefat, and built a towre, & let it out to husbandmen, and went into a far countrey.

2 And at the season he sent to the husbandmen a servant, that he might receive from the husbandmen of the fruit of the vineyard.

3 And they caught him and beat him, and sent him away empty.

4 And again he sent unto them another servant, & at him they cast stones, and wounded him in the head, and sent him away shamefully handled.

5 And again he sent another, and him they killed, and many others, beating some, and killing some.

6 Having yet therefore one sonne his welbeloved, he sent him also last unto them, saying, They will reverence my sonne.

7 But those husbandmen said among themselves, This is ỹ heir, come let us kill him, and ỹ inheritance shall be ours.

8 And they took him, and killed him, and cast him out of the vineyard.

9 What shall therefore the Lord of the vineyard do? he will come and destroy the husbandmen, and will give the vineyard unto others.

10 And have ye not read this Scripture? The stone which ỹ builders refused, is become the head of the corner.

11 This was the Lords doing, and it is marvellous in our eyes.

12 And they sought to lay hold on him, but they feared the people: for they knew ỹ he had spoken ỹ parable against them: and they left him, and went their way.

13 And they sent unto him certain of the Pharisees, and of the Herodians, to catch him in his words.

14 And when they were come, they said unto him, Master, we know ỹ thou art true, and carest for no man: for thou regardest not the person of men, but teachest the way of God in truth. Is it lawful to give tribute to Cesar or not?

15 Shall we give, or shall we not give? But he knowing their hypocrisie, said unto them, Why tempt ye me? bring me a penny that I may see it.

16 And they brought it. & he said unto them, Whose is this image and superscription? And they said to him, Cesars.

17 And Iesus answering, said unto them, Render unto Cesar ỹ things that are Cesars, and to God the things that are Gods. And they marvelled at him.

18 Then came unto him the Sadducees, which say there is no resurrection: & they asked him, saying,

19 Master, Moses wrote unto us, If any mans brother die, and leave his wife behind him, and leave no children, that his brother should take his wife, and raise up seed unto his brother.

20 Now there were seven brethren: and ỹ first took a wife, & dying, left no seed.

21 And ỹ second took her, & died neither left he any seed: & ỹ third likewise.

22 And the seven had her, and left no seed: last of all the woman died also.

23 In the resurrection therefore, when they shall rise, whose wife shall she be of them? for the seven had her to wife.

24 And Iesus answering, said unto them, Do ye not therefore erre because ye know not the Scriptures, neither the power of God?

25 For when they shall rise from the dead, they neither marry nor are given in marriage, but are as the Angels which are in heaven.

26 And as touching the dead, that they rise, have ye not read in the book of Moses, how in ỹ bush God spake to him, saying, I am the God of Abraham, and the God of Isaac, and the God of Iacob?

27 He is not the God of the dead, but the God of the living: ye therefore do greatly erre.

28 And one of the Scribes came, and having heard them reasoning together, and ercising that he had answered ll. And unto him, Which is the first ssment of all?

9 And Jesus answered him, The first is, Hear, O
of the Lord our God is one Lord:
10 And thou shalt love the Lord thy with all thy heart, and with all thy , and with all thy mind, and with all strength: This is the first Com 11 And the second is like, namely this, shalt love thy neighbour as thy There is none other Command greater then these.
12 And the Scribe said unto him, Well Master, thou hast said y truth: for there is one God; & there is none other but he:
13 And to love him with all the heart, & with all the understanding, & with all the soul, & with all the strength, & to love his neighbour as himself, is more then all whole burnt-offerings & sacrifices.
14 And when Jesus saw y he answered discreetly, he said to him, Thou art not far from the kingdome of God. And no man after y durst ask him any question.
15 And Jesus answered, & said, while he taught in the Temple, How say the Scribes that Christ is the son of David?
16 For David himself said by the holy Ghost, The Lord said to my Lord, Sit thou on my right hand, till I make thine enemies thy footstool.
17 David therfore himself calleth him Lord: whence is he then his son? And the common people heard him gladly.
18 And he said unto them in his doctrine, Beware of the Scribes which desire to go in long clothing: and love salutations in the market places, 19 And chief seats in y Synagogues, and the uppermost rooms at feasts.
20 Which devour widows houses, and for a pretence make long prayers:
the same receive greater damnation.
21 And as Jesus sate over against the treasury, and beheld how the people cast money into the treasury: and many that were rich cast in much.
22 And there came a certain poor widow, & she threw in two mites, which make a farthing.
23 And he called to him his disciples, and said to them, Verily I say to you, that this poor widow hath cast more in,
then they y have cast into y treasury.
24 For all they did cast in of their abundance: but she of her want did cast in all that she had, even all her living.

CHAP. XIII.

1 And as he went out of the Temple,
one of his disciples saith unto him Master, behold what manner of stones, and what buildings are here!
2 And Jesus answering, said unto him, Seest thou these great buildings? there shall not be left one stone upon another, that shall not be throwen down.
3 And he sate upon the mount of Olives over against the Temple. Peter, and James, and John, and Andrew asked him privately;

4 Tell us, When shall these things be?
And what shall be the signe when all these things shalbe fulfilled?
5 And Jesus answering them, began to say, Take heed lest any man deceive you 6 For many shall come in my Name, saying, I am Christ, and shal deceive
many.
7 And when ye shal hear of wars, and rumours of wars, be ye not troubled:
for such things must needs be, but the end shal not be yet.
8 For nation shal rise against nation, & kingdome against kingdom: & there shalbe earthquakes in divers places: & there shall be famines, and troubles:
these are the beginnings of sorowes.
9 But take heed to your selves: for they shal deliver you up to councels, & in y Synagogues ye shal be beate; & ye shalbe brought before rulers & kings for my sake, for a testimony against them.
10 And the Gospel must first be published among all nations.
11 But when they shal lead you, and deliver you up, take no thought before hand, what ye shal speak, neither do you premeditate: but whatsoever shall be given you in y hour, y speak ye: for it is not ye y speak, but the holy Ghost.
12 Now y brother shal betray y brother to death, & y father y son, & children shal rise up against their parents, & shal cause them to be put to death.
13 And ye shal be hated of all men for my Names sake: but he y shal endure unto the end the same shall be saved.
14 But when ye shal see y abomination of desolation spoke of by Daniel y prophet, standing where it ought not (let him that readeth understand,) then let the y be in Judea flee to y mountains.
15 And let him that is on the house top, not go down into the house, neither enter therein to take any thing out of his house.
16 And let him y is in y field, not turn back again for to take up his garment.
17 But wo to them y are with child,
and to them y give suck in those days.
18 And pray ye that your flight be not in the winter.
19 For in those dayes shal be afflion, such as was not from the beginning of the creation which God created, unto this time, neither shal be.
20 And except y the Lord had shortned those days, no flesh should be saved:
but for the Elects sake whom he hath chosen he hath shortned the days.
21 And then, if any man shal say to you, Lo here is Christ, or lo he is there:
believe him not.
22 For false christs and false prophets shall rise, and shall shew signes and wonders, to seduce, if it were possible, even the elect.
23 But take ye heed: behold, I have foretold you all things.
24 But in those dayes after that tribulation, the Sun shal be darkned, and the Moon shal not give her light.
25 And

25 And the ſtars of heaven ſhall fall, and the powers that are in heaven ſhall be ſhaken.

26 And then ſhall they ſee the Son of man comming in the clouds, with great power and glory.

27 And then ſhall he ſend his Angels, and ſhall gather together his elect from the four winds, from uttermoſt parts of y earth, to y uttermoſt part of heaven.

28 Now learne a parable of the fig-tree. When her branch is yet tender, & putteth forth leaves, ye know that Summer is neer:

29 So ye in like maner when ye ſhall ſee theſe things come to paſſe, know that it is nigh even at the doors.

30 Verily I ſay unto you, That this generation ſhal not paſſe, till all theſe things be done.

31 Heaven and earth ſhal paſſe away: But my words ſhal not paſſe away.

32 But of that day and y hour knoweth no man, no not the Angels in heaven, neither y Son but y Father.

33 Take ye heed, watch and pray, for ye know not when the time is.

34 For the Son of man is as a man taking a far journey, who left his houſe, and gave authority to his ſervants and to every man his work, and commanded the porter to watch.

35 Watch ye therefore (for ye know not when the maſter of the houſe cometh, at even, or at midnight, or at the cock crowing, or in the morning)

36 Leſt comming ſuddenly, he finde you ſleeping.

37 And what I ſay to you, I ſay to all.

CHAP. XIV.

After two dayes was y feaſt of the Paſſover, & of unleavened bread: and the chief Prieſts, and the Scribes ſought how they might take him by craft, and put him to death.

2 But they ſaid, not on the feaſt day, leſt there be an uproar of the people.

3 And being in Bethany, in the houſe of Simon the Leper as he ſate at meat, there came a woman having an alabaſter box of ointment of Spikenard very precious, and ſhe brake the box, and powred it on his head.

4 And there were ſome y had indignation within themſelves, and ſaid, Why was this waſte of the ointment made?

5 For it might have been ſold for more than three hundred pence, and have been given to the poor, and they murmured againſt her.

6 And Jeſus ſaid, Let her alone, why do ye trouble her? She hath wrought a good work on me.

7 For ye have poor with you always, & whenſoever you will ye may do them good: but me ye have not always.

8 She hath done what ſhe could, ſhe is come afore hand to anoynt my body to the burying.

9 Verily I ſay to you, Whereſoever this goſpel ſhal be preached throughout y whole world, this alſo y ſh. hath done ſhal be ſpoken of for a memorial of her.

10 And Judas Iſcariot, one of the twelve, went unto the chief Prieſts,

11 And when they heard it, they were glad, and promiſed to give him money. And he ſought how he might conveniently betray him.

12 And the firſt day of unleavened bread, when they killed the paſſover, his diſciples ſaid unto him, Where will thou that we go and prepare, that thou mayeſt eat the paſſover?

13 And he ſendeth forth two of his diſciples, and ſaith to them, Go ye into the city, & there ſhal meet you a man bearing a pitcher of water, follow him.

14 And whereſoever he ſhal go in, ſay to the good man of y houſe, The Maſter ſaith, where is y gueſt chamber, where I ſhal eat the paſſover with my diſciples?

15 And he will ſhew you a large upper room furniſhed and prepared, there make ready for us.

16 And his diſciples went forth, and came into y city, & found as he had ſaid unto them: & they made ready y paſſover.

17 And in the evening he cometh with the twelve.

18 And as they ſate and did eat, Jeſus ſaid, Verily I ſay unto you, one of you which eateth with me ſhal betray me.

19 And they began to be ſorrowful, and to ſay to him one by one, Is it I? and another ſaid, Is it I?

20 And he anſwered, and ſaid unto them, It is one of the twelve that dippeth with me in the diſh.

21 The Son of man indeed goeth, as it is written of him, but woe to that man by whom the Son of man is betrayed: good were it for that man if he had never been born.

22 And as they did eat, Jeſus took bread, and bleſſed and brake it, & gave to them, and ſaid, Take, eat: This is my body.

23 And he took the Cup, and when he had given thanks, he gave it to them: and they all drank of it.

24 And he ſaid unto them, This is my blood of the new Teſtament, which is ſhed for many.

25 Verily I ſay unto you, I will henceforth no more drink of the fruit of the Vine, until that day that I drink it new in the kingdom of God.

26 And when they had ſung an hymne, they went out into y mount of Olives.

27 And Jeſus ſaith to them, All ye ſhal be offended because of me this night: for it is written, I will ſmite the Shepherd, and y ſheep ſhal be ſcattered.

28 But after that I am riſen, I will go before you into Galilee.

29 But Peter ſaid unto him, Although all ſhal be offended, yet will not I.

30 And Jeſus ſaith unto him, Verily I ſay unto thee, that this day, even in this night, before the cock crow twice, thou ſhalt deny me thrice.

31 But he ſpake y more vehemently, thee, I will not deny thee ewise. Likewise also said they all.

and they came to a place which was named Gethsemany, & he said to his disciples, Sit ye here, while I shall pray.
and he taketh with him Peter, James James and John, and began to be sorrowful, and to be very heavy.
Then said he unto them, My soul is exceeding sorrowful unto death: tarry ye here and watch.
And he went forward a little, and fell on the ground, & prayed, if it were possible, the hour might pass from him.
And he said, Abba Father, all things are possible unto thee, take away this cup from me, Nevertheless, not that I will,
but what thou wilt.
And he cometh, & findeth them sleeping,
and saith unto Peter, Simon, sleepest thou?
couldest not thou watch one hour?
Watch ye and pray, lest ye enter into temptation: The spirit truely is ready, but the flesh is weak.
And again he went away & prayed, and spake the same words.
And when he returned, he found them asleep again, (for their eyes were heavy) neither wist they what to answer him.
And he cometh the third time, and saith unto them, Sleep on now, & take your rest: it is enough, the houre is come, behold, the Son of man is betrayed into the hands of sinners.
Rise up, let us go, Lo, he that betrayeth me is at hand.
And immediately, while he yet spake, cometh Iudas one of the twelve, and with him a great multitude with swords & staves, from the chief priests and the Scribes, and the Elders.
Now he that betrayed him had given them a token, saying, Whomsoever I shall kisse, that same is he, take him & lead him away safely.
And assoon as he was come, he went straightway to him, and said, Master, Master, and kissed him.
And they laid their hands on him, and took him.
And one of them that stood by drew a sword, and smote a servant of the high Priest, and cut off his eare.
And Iesus answered, & said unto them, Are ye come out as against a theefe, with swords and staves to take me?
I was daily with you in the Temple teaching, and ye caught me not: but the scriptures must be fulfilled.
Then they all forsook him, & fled.
And there followed him a certain young man, having a linnen cloth cast about his naked body, and the young men caught him:
And he left the linnen cloth, and fled from them naked.
And they led Iesus away to the high Priest: and with him came together all the chief priests, & the Elders, & Scribes.

55 And the chief priests, and all the councel sought for witnesse against Iesus to put him to death, & found none.
56 For many bare false witnesse against him, but their witnesse agreed not together.
57 And there arose certain, and bare false witnesse against him, saying,
58 We heard him say, I will destroy this temple that is made with hands, and within three dayes I will build another made without hands.
59 But neither so did their witnesse agree together.
60 And the high priest stood up in the midst, and asked Iesus, saying, Answerest thou nothing? What is it which these witnesse against thee?
61 But he held his peace, and answered nothing. Again the high Priest asked him, and said unto him, Art thou the Christ, the Son of the blessed?
62 And Iesus said, I am, & ye shall see the Son of man sitting on the right hand of power, & coming in the clouds of heaven.
63 Then the high priest rent his clothes, and said, What need we any further witnesses?
64 Ye have heard the blasphemie, what think ye? And they all condemned him to be guilty of death.
65 And some began to spit on him, & to cover his face, & to buffet him, & to say to him, prophesie: & the servants did strike him with the palmes of their hands.
66 And as Peter was beneath in the palace, there cometh one of the maids of the high Priest:
67 And when she saw Peter warming himself, she looked upon him, & said, And ye also were with Iesus of Nazareth.
68 But he denied saying, I know not, neither understand I what ye say: & he went out into the porch, & the cocke crew.
69 And a maid saw him again, and began to say to them that stood by, This is one of them.
70 And he denied it again. And a little after, they that stood by, said again to Peter, Surely ye are one of them: for ye are a Galilean, & thy speech agreeth thereto.
71 But he began to curse and to sweare, saying, I know not this man of whom ye speak.
72 And the second time the cocke crew. And Peter called to mind the word that Iesus said unto him, Before the cocke crow twice, thou shalt deny me thrice. And when he thought thereupon, he wept.

CHAP. XV.

1 And straightway in the morning, the high priests held a councel with the elders, and Scribes, & the whole councel, and bound Iesus, and carried him away, & delivered him to Pilate.
2 And Pilate asked him, Art thou the King of the Iewes? And he answering said unto him, Thou sayest it.
3 And the chief priests accused him of many things: but he answered nothing.
4 And Pilate asked him again, saying, Answerest thou nothing? behold how many things they witnesse against thee.
5 But Iesus yet answered nothing, so that Pilate marvelled.

many

many things: they witnes against thee.
5 But Iesus yet answered nothing, so that Pilate marveled.
6 Now at y feast he released to them one prisoner, whosoever they desired.
7 And there was one named Barabbas, which lay bound with them that had made insurrection with him, who had committed murther in y insurrection.
8 And the multitude crying aloud, began to desire him to do as he had ever done unto them.
9 But Pilate answered them, saying, will ye that I release unto you the King of the Iewes?
10 (For he knew that the chief priests a had delivered him for envy.
11 But the chief priests moved the people that he should rather release Barabbas unto them.
12 And Pilate answered, & said again unto them, what will ye then that I shall do unto him whom ye call the king of the Iewes?
13 and they cried out again, crucify him.
14 Then Pilate said unto them, Why, what evil hath he done? and they cried out the more exceedingly, Crucify him.
15 And so Pilate willing to content the people, released Barabbas unto them, and delivered Iesus, when he had scourged him, to be crucified.
16 And the souldiers led him away into the hal called Prætorium, & they cal together the whole band.
17 And they clothed him with purple, and platted a crown of thorns, and put it about his head.
18 And began to salute him, Hail King of the Iewes.
19 And they smote him on the head with a reed, and did spit upon him, and bowing their knees worshipped him.
20 And when they had mocked him, they took off the purple from him, and put his own clothes on him, and led him out to crucifie him.
21 And they compel one Simon a Cyrenean, who passed by, comming out of the country, the father of Alexander and Rufus, to bear his crosse.
22 And they bring him into the place Golgotha, which is, being interpreted the place of a skul.
23 And they gave him to drink, wine mingled with myrrhe, but he received it not.
24 And when they had crucified him they parted his garments, casting lots upon them what every man should take.
25 And it was the third hour, and they crucified him.
26 And the superscription of his accusation was written over, THE KING OF THE IEWES.
27 And with him they crucified two theeves, the one on his right hand, and the other on his left.
28 And the Scripture was fulfilled which saith, And he was numbred with the transgressors.
29 And they that passed by railed on him, wagging their heads, and saying, Ah, thou that destroyest the temple, and buildest it in three dayes, 30 Save thy self, and come down from the crosse.
31 Likewise also y chief Priests mocked said among themselves with the scribes, saved others, himself he cannot save.
32 Let Christ the King of Israel descend now from the crosse, that we may see and believe: And they that were crucified with him, reviled him.
33 And when the 1st hour was come, there was darkenesse over the whole land, until the ninth hour.
34 And at y ninth hour Iesus cried with a loud voice, saying, Eloi, Eloi, lama sabachthani? which, being interpreted, is, My God, my God, why hast thou forsaken me?
35 And some of them y stood by, when they heard it said, Lo, he calleth Elias.
36 And one ran, and filled a spunge full of vinegar, and put it on a reed, and gave him to drink, saying, Let him alone, let us see whether Elias will come to take him down.
37 And Iesus cried with a loud voice, and gave up the ghost.
38 And y vail of y Temple was rent in twain from the top to the bottom.
39 And when y Centurion which stood over against him, saw that he cried so, and gave up the ghost, he said, Truly this man was the Son of God.
40 There were also women looking on afar off, among whom was Mary Magdalene, and Mary the mother of James y lesse, & of Ioses, and Salome, 41 Who also when he was in Galilee, followed him, and ministred unto him, and many other women which came up with him unto Ierusalem.
42 And now when y even was come, (because it was the preparation, that is, the day before the Sabbath,)
43 Ioseph of Arimathæa, an honourable counseller, which also waited for y kingdom of God, came, & went in boldly unto Pilate, and craved the body of Iesus.
44 And Pilate marvelled if he were already dead: and calling unto him the Centurion, he asked him whether he had been any while dead.
45 And when he knew it of the Centurion, he gave the body to Ioseph.
46 And he bought fine linen, and took him down, & wrapped him in the linen, and laid him in a sepulchre which was hewen out of a rock, & rolled a stone unto the door of the Sepulchre.
47 And Mary Magdalene, & Mary the mother of Ioses beheld where he was laid.

CHAP. XVI.

1 AND when the Sabbath was past, Mary Magdalene, & Mary the mother of James, & Salome, had brought sweet spices, y they might come & anoint him.
2 And very early in y morning, the first day of the week, they came unto the sepulchre at the rising of the Sun.
3 And they said among themselves, Who shal roll us away the stone from the door of the sepulchre?

...d appeared

...entring into the Sepulchre,

...ght side clothed in a long white gar-
...nt: and they were affrighted:
...e saith to them, be not affright-

...behold the place where they laid him.
...But go your ways tell his disciples,
...even that he goeth before you
...Galilee, there shall ye see him, as
...he said unto you.
...And they went out quickly, & fled
...from the sepulchre, for they trembled &
...were amazed, neither said they any ...thing to any man, for they were afraid.
...Now when Jesus was risen early
...the first day of the week, he appeared
...first to Mary Magdalene, out of whom
...he had cast seven devils.
...And she went & told them ỹ had ...been with him, as they mourned & wept.
...And they, when they had heard
...that he was alive, and had been seen of her,
...believed not.
...After that he appeared in another
...forme unto two of them as they walked, and went into the countrey.
...And they went and told it unto
...the rest, neither believed they them.
...Afterward he appeared unto ỹ eleven as they sate at meat, & upbraided
...them with their unbelief & hardness
...of hart, because they believed not them
...which had seen him after he was risen.
...And he said unto them; Goe ye
...into all the world, and preach the Gospel to every creature.
...He that believeth and is baptized,
...shall be saved, but he that believeth
...not, shall be damned.
...And these signes shal follow them ỹ

...devils, they shal speak with new tongues,
...They shal take up serpents, and if ...they drink any deadly thing, it shall ...not hurt them, they shal lay hands on
...the sick, and they shal recover.
...So then after the Lord had spoken
...unto them, he was received up into heaven, & sate on the right hand of God.
...And they went forth & preached
...every where, the Lord working with ...them, and confirming the word with
...the signes following. Amen.

The Gospel according to S. LVKE.

CHAP. I.

...Forasmuch as many have ...taken in hand to set forth
...in order a declaration of ...those things which are most
...surely believed among us,
...As they delivered them unto
...us, which from the beginning were eye-
...witnesses & ministers of the word:
...It seemed good to me also, having
...had perfect understanding of things
...from the very first, to write unto thee in ...order, most excellent Theophilus,
...That thou mightest know the certainty of those things wherein thou
...hast been instructed.
...There was in ỹ dayes of Herod
...the King of Iudea, a certain Priest
...named Zacharias of ỹ course of
...Abia: & his wife was of the daughters
...of Aaron, and her name was Elisabeth.
...And they were both righteous before
...God, walking in all ỹ commandements
...& ordinances of ỹ Lord, blameless.
...And they had no child, because that
...Elisabeth was barren, & they both
...were well stricken in years.
...And it came to pass, that while he ...executed the Priests office before God
...in the order of his course:
...According to ỹ custome of ỹ Priests
...office, his lot was to burn incense when he went into the Temple of the Lord.
...And the whole multitude of the people were praying without at the time of incense.
...And there appeared unto him an Angel of the Lord, standing on the right side of the Altar of incense.
...And when Zacharias saw him, he was troubled, and fear fell upon him.
...But the Angel said unto him, Fear not Zacharias: for thy prayer is heard, & thy wife Elisabeth shal bear thee a son, and thou shalt call his name Iohn.
...And thou shalt have joy & gladness, & many shal rejoyce at his birth.
...For he shalbe great in the sight of the Lord, and shal drink neither wine nor strong drink: and he shalbe filled with the holy Ghost, even from his mothers wombe.
...And many of the children of Israel shal he turn to ỹ Lord their God.
...And he shal go before him in the spirit and power of Elias, to turn the hearts of the fathers to the children, and ỹ disobedient to the wisdom of the just, to make ready a people prepared for the Lord.
...And Zacharias said unto the Angel, Whereby shal I know this? for I am an old man, and my wife well stricken in yeers.
...And the Angel answering, said unto him, I am Gabriel that stand in ỹ presence of God, & am sent to speak unto thee, & to shew thee these glad tidings.
...And behold, thou shalt be dumme, & not able to speak, until ỹ day that these things shalbe performed, because thou beleevest not my words, which shalbe fulfilled in their season.
...And the people waited for Zacharias, and marvelled that he tarried so long in the Temple.
...But when he came out, he could not speak unto them: and they perceived that he had seen a vision in the Temple: for he beckened unto them, and remained speechles.
...And it came to passe, that as soon as ȳ dayes of his miniſtration were accompliſhed, he departed to his own houſe.

24 And after thoſe dayes, his wife Elizabeth conceived, and hid her ſelfe five moneths, ſaying, 25 Thus hath the Lord dealt with me in the dayes wherein he looked on me, to take away my reproch among men.
26 And in the ſixt moneth, the Angel Gabriel was ſent from God, unto a city of Galilee, named Nazareth, 27 To a Virgine eſpouſed to a man, whoſe name was Joſeph, of ȳ houſe of David, & ȳ virgines name was Mary.
28 And the Angel came in unto her, and ſaid, Haile thou that art high ly favoured, the Lord is with thee; Bleſſed art thou among women.
29 And when he ſaw him, ſhe was troubled at his ſaying, & caſt in her minde what manner of ſalutation this ſhould be.
30 And ȳ Angel ſaid to her, Fear not,
Mary, for ȳ haſt found favour at God.
31 And behold thou ſhalt conceive in thy wombe, and bring forth a ſon, and ſhalt call his name Ieſus.
32 He ſhalbe great, and ſhalbe called the Son of the Higheſt, and the Lord God ſhal give unto him the throne of his father David.
33 And he ſhal reigne over the houſe of Iacob for ever, and of his kingdom
there ſhalbe no end.
34 Then ſaid Mary unto the Angel,
How ſhal this be, ſeeing I know not a man?
35 And the Angel anſwered, and ſaid unto her, The holy Ghoſt ſhall come upon thee, & the power of the Higheſt ſhal overſhadow thee. Therefore alſo that holy thing which ſhal be borne of thee, ſhal be called the Son of God.
36 And behold, thy couſin Elizabeth, ſhe hath alſo conceived a ſon in her old age, and this is the ſixt moneth with her, who was called barren.
37 For with God nothing ſhall be impoſſible.
38 And Mary ſaid, Loe, the hand maid of the Lord: be it to me according to thy word. & the Angel departed from her.
39 And Mary aroſe in thoſe dayes, and went into the hill country with haſt, into a city of Iudah.
40 And entred in to the houſe of Zacharias, and ſaluted Elizabeth.
41 And it came to paſſe, that when Elizabeth heard the ſalutation of Mary, the babe leaped in her wombe, & Elizabeth was filled with ȳ holy Ghoſt.
42 And ſhe ſpake out with a loud voice, & ſaid, Bleſſed art ȳ among women,
and bleſſed is the fruit of thy wombe.
43 And whence is this to me, that the mother of my Lord ſhould come to me?
44 For lo, aſſoon as the voice of thy ſalutation ſounded in mine eares, the babe leaped in my wombe for ioy.
45 And bleſſed is ſhe that believed, for there ſhalbe a performance of thoſe things, which were told her from ȳ Lord.
46 And Mary ſaid, My ſoule doth magnifie the Lord.
47 And my ſpirit hath reioyced in God my Saviour.
48 For he hath regarded the low eſ-tate of his hand-maiden: for behold, from henceforth all generations ſhall call me bleſſed.
49 For he that is mighty hath done to me great things, & holy is his name.
50 And his mercy is on them ȳ fear him, from generation to generation.
51 He hath ſhewed ſtrength with his arme, he hath ſcattered the proud in the imagination of their hearts.
52 He hath put down ȳ mighty from their ſeats, & exalted the of low eſtate.
53 He hath filled ȳ hungry with good things,
and the rich he hath ſent empty away.
54 He hath holpen his ſervant Iſrael,
in remembrance of his mercy, 55 As he ſpake to our fathers, to Abraham, and to his ſeed for ever.
56 And Mary abode with her about three moneths, & returned to her own houſe.
57 Now Elizabeth's full time came that ſhe ſhould be delivered, & ſhe brought forth a ſon.
58 And her neighbours & her couſins heard how the Lord had ſhewed great mercy upō her, & they reioyced with her.
59 And it came to paſſe, that on the eight day they came to circumciſe the childs, and they called him Zacharias, after the name of his father.
60 And his mother anſwered, and ſaid,
Not ſo, but he ſhalbe called Iohn.
61 And they ſaid to her, There is none of thy kinred ȳ is called by this name.
62 And they made ſignes to his father, how he would have him called.
63 And he aſked for a writing table, and wrote, ſaying, His name is Iohn:
and they marvelled all.
64 And his mouth was opened immediately and his tongue looſed, and he ſpake and praiſed God.
65 And fear came on all that dwelt round about them, and all theſe things were noiſed abroad throughout all the hill countrey of Iudea.
66 And all they that heard them laid them up in their hearts, ſaying,
What manner of child ſhall this be?
And the hand of the Lord was with him.
67 And his father Zacharias was filled with ȳ holy Ghoſt, & propheſied, ſaying, 68 Bleſſed be ȳ Lord God of Iſrael, for he hath viſited & redemed his people, 69 And hath raiſed up an horne of ſalvation for us in the houſe of his ſervant David,
70 As he ſpake by ȳ mouth of his holy prophets, which have been ſince the world began:
71 That we ſhould be ſaved from our enemies, & from ȳ hand of all that hate us.
72 To perform the mercy promiſed to our fathers, and to remember his holy covenant, 73 The oath which he ſware to our father Abraham, 74 That he would grant unto us ȳ

ered out of y hands of our es, might serve him without fear-in holinesse and righteousnesse e in all the dayes of our life.
d thou childe shalt be called Prophet of the Highest: for thou ge before the face of the Lord to ke his waies.
To give knowledge of salvation to people by y remission of their sin-Through the tender mercy of our d, whereby the day spring from on h visited us.
To give light to them that sit in rkenesse and in the shadow of death, guide our feet in the way of peace.
And the child grew, and waxed rong in spirit, & was in the desarts till the day of his shewing unto Israel.

CHAP. II.

And it came to pass in those dayes y re went out a decree from Cesar gustus, y all y world should be taxed y s first taxing was first made when rinus was sirrit governour of Syria) d all went to be taxed, every e into his owne city.
And Ioseph also went out from Gae, out of the city of Nazareth, into dea, unto the city of David, which s called Beth-lehem, because he was the house and lineage of David.
To be taxed with Mary his espou-
, being great with child.
And so it was, that while they re there, the dayes were accompli-
, that she should be delivered.
And she brought forth her first born n, and wrapped him in swadling thes, & laid him in a manger, because re was no room for them in y Inne
And there were in the same coun-e shepheards abiding in field, keep-watch over their flocke by night.
And, lo, y Angel of y Lord came on m, & the glory of y Lord shone round out them, and they were sore afraid
And the Angel said unto them, Fear
t: for, lo, I bring you good tidings great joy, which shall be to all people.
For unto you is borne this day in y y of David, a Saviour, which is rist the Lord.
And this shal be a signe to you;
shall find the babe wrapped in swa-ing clothes, lying in a manger.
And suddenly there was with the gel a multitude of the heavenly hoste aising God, and saying, Glory to God in the highest and earth peace, good will toward men.
And it came to passe, as the Angels ere gone away from them into hea-
, the shepheards said one to another, t us now go even to Bethlehem, &
e this thing is come to pass, which Lord hath made known unto us.
And they came with haste, and und Mary, and Ioseph, and the be lying in a manger.
And when they had seen it, they w abroad the saying which was told m concerning this child.

18 And all they that heard it, wondred at those things which were told them by the shepheards.
19 But Mary kept all these things, and pondered them in her heart.
20 And the shepheards returned, g lo-rifying and praising God for all the things that they had heard and seen,
as it was told unto them.
21 And when eight dayes were accomplished for y circumcising of the child, his name was called Iesus, which was so named of the Angel before he was conceived in the wombe.
22 And when y dayes of her purification according to y Law of Moses were accomplished, they brought him to Ie-rusalem, to present him to the Lord.
23 (As it is written in the Law of the Lord: Every male that openeth the womb, shall be called holy to y Lord.) 24 And to offer a sacrifice according to that is said in y law of y Lord; a paire of turtle doves, or two young pigions.
25 And behold, there was a man in Hierusalem, whose name was Symeon, and the same man was just and devout, waiting for the consolation of Israel:
and the holy Ghost was upon him.
26 And it was revealed to him by the holy Ghost, y he should not see death before he had seen the Lords Christ.
27 And he came by the spirit into the Temple: and when the parents brought in the child Iesus, to doe for him after the custome of the Law, 28 Then took he him up in his armes,
and blessed God, and said, 29 Lord, now letteth thou thy servant
depart in peace according to thy word, 30 For mine eies have seen thy salvation, 31 Which thou hast prepared before the face of all people.
32 A light to lighten the Gentiles, and the glory of thy people Israel.
33 And Ioseph, & his mother marvelled at those things which were spoke of him.
34 And Symeon blessed them, and said to Mary his mother, Behold, this child is set for the fal and rising again of many in Israel; and for a signe which shall be spoken against.
35 (Yea, a sword shall pierce thorow thy owne soule also) that the thoughts of many hearts may be revealed.
36 And there was one Anna a Prophetesse, the daughter of Phanuel of the tribe of Aser: she was of a great age, and had lived with an husband seven yeares from her virginity.
37 And she was a widow of about fourscore and four yeares, which departed not from the Temple but served God with fastings & prayers night & day.
38 And she comming in that instant gave thankes likewise unto the Lord, and spake of him to all them that looked for redemption in Hierusalem.
39 And when they had performed all things according to the Law of the Lord, they returned into Galilee to their owne city Nazareth.

John preaching.

40 And the child grew, and waxed strong in spirit, filled with wisdome, and the grace of God was upon him.

41 Now his parents went to Hierusalem every yeare at ỹ feast of ỹ Passover.

42 And when he was twelve years old, they went up to Hierusalem after the custome of the feast.

43 And when they had fulfilled the dayes, as they returned, the child Iesus tarried behind in Hierusalem, and Ioseph and his mother knew not of it.

44 But they supposing him to have been in the company went a dayes journey, and they sought him among their kinsfolke and acquaintance.

45 And when they found him not, they turned back again to Ierusalem seeking him.

46 And it came to passe ỹ after three dayes, they found him in the Temple, sitting in ỹ midst of the Doctors, both hearing them, & asking them questions.

47 And all ỹ heard him were astonished at his understanding & answering.

48 And when they saw him, they were amazed: & his mother said to him, Sonne, why hast thou thus dealt with us? Behold thy father & I have sought thee sorrowing.

49 And he said unto them, How is it that ye sought me? Wist ye not that I must be about my Fathers business?

50 And they understood not the saying which he spake unto them.

51 And he went down with them, and came to Nazareth, and was subiect unto them: But his mother kept all these sayings in her heart.

52 And Iesus increased in wisdome & stature, & in fauour with God & man.

CHAP. III.

NOw in the fifteenth year of the reigne of Tiberius Cesar, Pontius Pilate being governour of Iudea, and Herod being Tetrach of Galilee, and his brother Philip Tetrach of Iturea, and the region of Trachonitis, and Lysanias the Tetrach of Abilene,

2 Annas and Caiphas being the high Priests, the word of God came to Iohn the son of Zacharias in the wildernes.

3 And he came into all the country neere Iordan preaching the Baptisme of repentance, for ỹ remission of sinne.

4 As it is written in the booke of the words of Esaias the Prophet, saying, The voyce of one crying in the wildernesse, Prepare ye the way of the Lord, and make his paths straight.

5 Every valley shall be filled, and every mountain and hill shall be brought low, and crooked shalbe made straight, & rough ways shall be made smooth.

6 And all flesh shall see the saluation of God.

7 Then said he to the multitude that came forth to be baptized of him, O generation of vipers, who hath warned you to flee from the wrath to come?

8 Bring forth therefore fruits worthy of repentance, and begin not to say within your selves, We have Abraham to our father: for I say vnto you, that God is able of these stones to raise up children vnto Abraham.

9 And now also the axe is laid to the root of the trees: Every tree therefore which bringeth not forth good fruit, is hewen downe and cast into the fire.

10 And the people asked him, saying, What shall we do then?

11 He answereth and saith vnto them, He that hath two coates, let him impart to him that hath none: and he that hath meat, let him do likewise.

12 Then came also Publicanes to be baptized, and said vnto him, Master, what shall we do?

13 And he said vnto them, Exact no more then that which is appointed you.

14 And the souldiers likewise demanded of him, saying, And what shall we do? And he said vnto them, Do violence to no man, neither accuse any falsly, & be content with your wages.

15 And as ỹ people were in expectation, & all men mused in their hearts of Iohn whether he were ỹ Christ or not,

16 Iohn answered, saying vnto them all, I indeed baptize you with water, but one mightier then I cometh, the latchet of whose shoes I am not worthy to vnloose, he shall baptize you with the holy Ghost, and with fire:

17 Whose fanne is in his hand, & he will throughly purge his floore, & gather the wheat into his garner: but he will burn vp the chaffe with vnquenchable fire.

18 And many other things in his exhortation preached he to the people.

19 But Herod the Tetrach being reproued of him for Herodias his brother Philippes wife, and for all the euils which Herod had done, 20 Added yet this aboue all, that he shut vp Iohn in prison.

21 Now when all the people were baptized, and Iesus also was baptized, & prayed, the heauen was opened,

22 And the holy Ghost descended in a bodily shape like a dove vpon him, and a voyce came from heauen which said, Thou art my beloued sonne, in thee I am well pleased.

23 And Iesus himself began to be about thirty years of age, being (as was supposed) the sonne of Ioseph, which was the sonne of Heli,

24 Which was the sonne of Matthat, which was the sonne of Leui, which was the sonne of Melchi, which was the sonne of Ianna, which was the sonne of Ioseph,

25 Which was the sonne of Mattathias, which was the sonne of Amos, which was the sonne of Naum, which was the sonne of Hesli, which was the sonne of Nagge,

26 Which was the sonne of Maath, which was the sonne of Mattathias, which was the sonne of Semei, which was the sonne of Ioseph, which was the sonne of Iuda,

27 Which was the sonne of Ioanna, which was the sonne of Rhesa, which was the sonne of Zorobabel, which was the sonne of Salathiel, which was the sonne of Neri,

28 Which

of God, all thy lyfe gouern frutefully.
10 For it is written, He shal geue his Angels charge ouer thee to keep thee.
11 And in their handes they shal beare the up, lest at any time thou dash thy foot against a stone.
12 And Iesus answering, said vnto him, It is said, Thou shalt not tempte
the Lord thy God.
13 And when the deuil had ended all the temptation, he departed from him for a season.
14 And Iesus returned in the power of the Spirit into Galilee, and there went out a fame of him through all the region round about.
15 And he taught in their Synagogues, being glorified of all.
16 And he came to Nazareth where he had ben brought vp, & as his custome was he went into y Synagogue on the Sabaoth day, and stood vp for to read.
17 And there was deliuered to him the booke of the prophet Esaias; and when he had opened the booke, he found the place where it was written:
18 The Spirit of the Lord is vpon me, because he hath anoynted me to preache the Gospel to the poore, he hath sent me to heal the broken hearted, to preache deliuerance to the captiues, and recouering of sight to the blind, to set at libertie them that are bruised.
19 To preache a acceptable yeere of y Lord.
20 And he closed the booke, & he gaue againe to y Minister, and sate down: & the eyes of all them that were in the Synagogue, were fast set on him.
21 And he began to say vnto them,
This day is this scripture fulfilled in your eares.
22 And all bare him witnesse, and wondred at the gracious words which proceeded out of his mouth. And they said, is not this Iosephs sonne?
23 And he said to them, ye without doubt say to me this prouerbe, Physitian heal thy self, whatsoeuer we haue heard done in Capernaum, do also here in thy country.
24 And he said, verily I say to you, No
Prophet is accepted in his own country.
25 But I tell you of a truth, Many widowes were in Israel in the dayes of Elias, when heauen was shut vp fiue yeeres & six monethes, when great famine was throughout all the land:
26 But vnto none of them was Elias sent, saue vnto Sarepta a city of Sidon, vnto a woman that was a widow.
27 And many lepers were in Israel in the time of Eliseus the prophet, & none of them was cleansed saue Naaman y Syrian.
28 And all they in the synagogue, when they heard these things were filled with wrath.
29 And rose vp, & thrust him out of the citie, & led him vnto the brow of the hill whereon their city was built, that they might cast him downe headlong.
30 But he passing through the midst of them, went his way:
31 And came down to Capernaum a citie of Galilee, and taught them on the Sabbath days.

32 And they were astonished at his doctrine: for his word was with power.

33 And in the Synagogue there was a man which had a spirit of an unclean devil, & cryed out with a loud voyce,

34 Saying, Let us alone, what have we to do with thee, thou Iesus of Nazareth? art thou come to destroy us? I know thee who thou art, the holy one of God.

35 And Iesus rebuked him, saying, Hold thy peace & come out of him. & when the devil had thrown him in the midst, he came out of him & hurt him not.

36 And they were all amazed, and spake among themselves, saying, what a word is this? for with authoritie and power he commandeth the vncleane spirits, and they come out.

37 And the fame of him went out into every place of y countrey round about.

38 And he arose out of y Synagogue, and entred into Simons house: and Simons wives mother was taken with a great fever, and they besought him for her.

39 And he stood over her, and rebuked the fever, & it left her: and immediately she arose, & ministred unto them.

40 Now when y Sun was setting, all they y had any sick with diverse diseases brought them to him. & he laid his hands on every one of them, & healed them.

41 And devils also came out of many crying out, & saying, Thou art Christ the Son of God. And he rebuking them, suffered them not to speak: for they knew that he was Christ.

42 And when it was day he departed, & went into a desart place: & the people sought him, & came to him, & stayed him y he should not depart from them.

43 And he said unto them, I must preach the kingdome of God to other cities also: for therefore am I sent.

44 And he preached in the Synagogues of Galilee.

CHAP. V.

AND it came to passe, that as y people pressed upon him to heare y word of God, he stood by y lake of Genesareth.

2 And saw two ships standing by the lake: but the fishermen were gone out of them, and were washing their nets.

3 And he entred into one of the ships which was Simons, and prayed him that he would thrust out a little from the land: and he sate down and taught the people out of the ship.

4 Now when he had left speaking, he said to Simon, Launch out into y deep, and let down your nets for a draught.

5 And Simon answering said to him, Master, we have toyled all the night, & have taken nothing, nevertheless at thy word I will let down the net.

6 And when he had thus done, they inclosed a great multitude of fishes: and their net brake.

7 And they beckened unto their partners which were in the other ship, that they should come and help them. And they came and filled both the ships, that they began to sinke.

8 When Simon Peter saw it, he fell down at Iesus knees, saying, Depart from me, for I am a sinfull man O Lord.

9 For he was astonished, and all that were with him, at the draught of the fish which they had taken.

10 And so was also Iames & Iohn sons of Zebedee, which were partners with Simon. And Iesus said to Simon, fear not, from hence forth thou shalt catch men.

11 And when they had brought their ships to land, they forsook all & followed him.

12 And it came to passe, when he was in a certain city, behold a man full of leprosie, who seeing Iesus, fell on his face, and besought him, saying, Lord if thou wilt thou canst make me clean.

13 And he put forth his hand and touched him, saying, I will: be thou clean. And immediately the leprosie departed from him.

14 And he charged him to tell no man: but go & shew thy self to the Priest, & offer for thy cleansing, according as Moses commanded for a testimonie to them.

15 But so much the more went there a fame abroad of him, and great multitudes came together to heare, and to be healed of him of their infirmities.

16 And he withdrew himself into the wildernesse, and prayed.

17 And it came to passe on a certain day, as he was teaching, that there were Pharisees and Doctors of the Law sitting by, which were come out of every towne of Galilee, and Iudea, and Hierusalem, and the power of the Lord was present to heale them.

18 And behold, men brought in a bed a man which was taken with a palsie: and they sought means to bring him in, and to lay him before him.

19 And when they could not find by what way they might bring him in because of the multitude, they went upon the house top, and let him down through the tiling, with his couch into the midst before Iesus.

20 And when he saw their faith, he said unto him, Man, thy sins are forgiven thee.

21 And the Scribes and the Pharisees began to reason, saying, Who is this that speaketh blasphemies? Who can forgive sins, but God alone?

22 But when Iesus perceived their thoughts, he answering, said unto them, What reason ye in your hearts?

23 Whether is easier to say, Thy sins be forgiven thee: or to say, Rise up and walke?

24 But that ye may know that the Son of man hath power upon earth to forgive sins (he said unto the sick of the palsie) I say to thee, Arise, and take up thy couch, and go into thine house.

25 And immediately he arose up before them, & took up y whereon he lay, & departed to his own house, glorifying God.

...Andrew were al amazed & they
...fied God, & were filled w fear, say-
...We haue seen strange things to day;
...we neuer saw the like.

...After these things I see went
...Jesus a Publicane named Levi,
...at the receipt of custome, and
...said vnto him, Follow me.

...And he left all, rose vp, & followed him.

...And Leui made him a great feast in ...his house: and there was a great
...company of Publicanes, and of others
...that sate down with them.

...But their Scribes and Pharisees
...murmured against his disciples, saying,
...Why eat and drink with Publicanes
...and sinners?

...And Iesus answering, said vnto
...them, They that are whole need not a ...Physician; but they that are sicke.

...I came not to call the righteous,
...but sinners to repentance.

...And they said vnto him, Why do
...the disciples of Iohn fast often, & make ...prayers, & likewise the disciples of the ...Pharisees; but thine eate and drink?

...And he said to them, Can ye make
...the children of the bride-chamber fast
...while the bridegroome is with them?
...But the dayes will come, when the ...bridegroome shall be taken away from them,
...and then shall they fast in those dayes.

...And he spake also a parable vnto
...them, No man putteth a piece of a new
...garment vpon an old: if otherwise, then
...both the new maketh a rent, and
...the piece that was taken out of the new
...agreeth not with the old.

...And no man putteth new wine into ...old bottles: else the new wine will ...burst the bottles, and be spilled, & the ...bottles shall perish.

...But new wine must be put into
...new bottles, and both are preserued.

...No man also hauing drunke old ...straightway desireth new: for he
...saith, The old is better.

CHAP. VI.

...And came to passe on the second
...Sabbath after the first, that he went ...through the corn fields: & his disciples
...plucked the eares of corn, and did eat,
...rubbing them in their hands.

...And certain of the Pharisees said to ...them, Why do ye that which is not
...lawful to do on the Sabbath dayes?

...And Iesus answering them, said, haue
...ye not read so much as this what Da-
...uid did, when himself was an hungred,
...& they which were with him:

...How he went into the house of ...God, and did take and eate the shew-
...bread, and gaue also to them that were
...with him, which is not lawful to eat,
...but for the Priests alone?

...And he said to them, That the Son
...of man is Lord also of the Sabbath.

...And it came to passe also on ano...ther Sabbath, that he entred into the ...synagogue & taught: and there was a ...man whose right hand was withered.

...And the Scribes & Pharisees wat...ched him, whether he would heale on
...the Sabbath dayes: that they might find
...an accusation against him.

...But he knew their thoughts, and ...said to the man which had the with-
...red hand, Rise vp, & stand forth in the ...midst. And he arose, and stood forth.

...Then said Iesus vnto them, I will ...ask you one thing. Is it lawful on the ...Sabbath dayes to do good, or to do e-
...uill? to saue life, or to destroy it?

...And looking round about vpon
...them all, he said to y man, Stretch forth
...thy hand. And he did so: and his hand
...was restored whole as the other.

...And they were filled with madnes,
...and communed one with another what
...they might do to Iesus.

...And it came to passe in those daies,
...y he went out into a mountain to pray,
...& continued all night in prayer to God.

...And when it was day, he called vnto
...him his disciples: & of them he chose
...twelve, whom also he named Apostles:

...Simon, (whom he also named Pe...ter) and Andrew his brother; Iames, &
...Iohn, Philip, and Bartholomew,

...Matthew, & Thomas, Iames, y son
...of Alphaus, & Simon called Zelotes,

...Iudas Iacobi, and Iudas brother of Iames, and
...Iudas Iscariot, which was the traitor.

...And he came down with them, &
...stood in the plain, and the company of ...his disciples, and a great multitude of ...people out of all Iudea & Hierusalem,
...and from the Sea coast of Tyre and
...Sidon, which came to hear him, and to ...be healed of their diseases.

...And they that were vexed with
...vncleane spirits; and they were healed.

...And the whole multitude sought
...to touch him: for there went vertue out
...of him, and healed them all.

...And he lifted vp his eyes on his ...disciples, and said, Blessed be ye poor:
...for yours is the kingdom of God.

...Blessed are ye that hunger now:
...for ye shalbe filled. Blessed are ye that
...weep now: for ye shal laugh.

...Blessed are ye when men shal hate
...you, and when they shal separate you
...from their company, and shal reproach
...you, and cast out your name as euill,
...for the Son of mans sake.

...Reioyce ye in that day, & leap for
...ioy: for behold, your reward is great
...in heauen: for in the like manner did
...their fathers vnto the Prophets.

...But woe vnto you that are rich; for
...ye haue receiued your consolation.

...Woe vnto you that are full: for ye
...shal hunger. Woe vnto you that laugh
...now: for ye shal mourn and weep.

...Woe vnto you when all men shall
...speak well of you: for so did their fa...thers to the false Prophets.

...But I say vnto you which heare,
...Loue your enemies, do good to them
...which hate you.

...Blesse them that curse you, & pray
...for them which dispitefully vse you.

...And vnto him that smiteth thee
...on the one cheeke, offer also the other;

and

and him that taketh away thy cloake, forbid not to take thy coat also.

30 Give to every man that asketh of thee, and of him that taketh away thy goods, aske them not again.

31 And as ye would that men should do to you, do ye also to them likewise.

32 For if ye love them which love you, what thank have ye? for sinners also love those that love them.

33 And if ye do good to them which do good to you, what thank have ye? for sinners also do even the same.

34 And if ye lend to them of whom ye hope to receive, what thank have ye? for sinners also lend to sinners, to receive as much again.

35 But love ye your enemies, & do good & lend, hoping for nothing again: & your reward shalbe great, & ye shalbe the children of y highest: for he is kind unto the unthankfull and to the evil.

36 Be ye therefore mercifull, as your father also is mercifull.

37 Iudge not, and ye shal not be iudged: condemne not, and ye shal not be condemned: forgive, and ye shalbe forgiven.

38 Give & it shalbe given unto you: good measure, pressed down & shaken together and running over, shall men giue into your bosome: for with the same measure that ye mete withall, it shalbe measured to you again.

39 And he spake a parable unto them, Can the blind lead the blinde? shal they not both fall into the ditch?

40 The Disciple is not above his Master: but every one that is perfect, shalbe as his Master.

41 And why beholdest thou the mote y is in thy brothers eye, but perceivest not the beam that is in thine own eye?

42 Either how canst thou say to thy brother, Brother, let me pul out the mote that is in thine eye, when y thy self beholdest not the beam that is in thine own eye? Thou hypocrite, cast out first y beam out of thine own eye, and then shalt thou see clearly to pul out y mote that is in thy brothers eye.

43 For a good tree bringeth not forth corrupt fruit: neither doth a corrupt tree bring forth good fruit.

44 For every tree is known by his own fruit: for of thorns men do not gather figs, nor of a bramble bush gather they grapes.

45 A good man out of the good treasure of his heart, bringeth forth that which is good: and an evil man out of the evil treasure of his heart, bringeth forth y which is evil: for of y abundance of the heart, his mouth speaketh.

46 And why call ye me Lord, Lord, and do not the things which I say?

47 Whosoever commeth to me, and heareth my sayings, and doth them, I will shew you to whom he is like:

48 He is like a man which built an house, and digged deep, and laid the foundation on a rock. And when the flood arose, y stream beat vehemently upon that house, and could not shake it: for it was founded upon a rock.

49 But he that heareth and doth not, is like a man that without a foundation built an house upon the earth: against which the stream did beat vehemently, and immediately it fell, and the ruine of that house was great.

C. II. A. VII.

NOw when he had ended all his sayings in the audience of the people, he entred into Capernaum.

2 And a certain centurions seruant was dear to him, was sick & ready to die.

3 And when he heard of Iesus, he sent unto him the Elders of the Iewes, beseeching him that he would come & heal his seruant.

4 And when they came to Iesus, they besought him instantly, saying, That he was worthy for whom he should do this:

5 For he loveth our nation, and hath built us a Synagogue.

6 Then Iesus went with them. And when he was now not farre from the house, the Centurion sent friends to him, saying unto him, Lord, trouble not thy self: for I am not worthy that thou shouldest come under my roof.

7 Wherefore neither thought I my self worthy to come unto thee, but speak a word, and my seruant shalbe healed.

8 For I also am a man ordeined to authority, having under me soldiers: & I say to one, Go: & he goeth: & to another, Come: & he commeth: and to my seruant, Do this: and he doeth it.

9 When Iesus heard these things, he marvailed at him, and turned him about, & said unto the people that followed him, I say unto you: I have not found so great faith, no not in Israel.

10 And they that were sent, returning to the house, found the seruant whole that had been sicke.

11 And it came to passe the day after, that he went into a city called Naim: and many of his Disciples went with him and much people.

12 Now when he came nigh to the gate of the city, behold, there was a dead man carried out, the only sonne of his mother: and she was a widow: and much people of the city was with her.

13 And when the Lord saw her, he had compassion on her, and said unto her, Weep not.

14 And he came & touched the bier: (& they that bare him stood still) and he said, young man I say unto thee, Arise.

15 And he that was dead, sate up, and began to speak: and he delivered him to his mother.

16 And there came a fear on all: and they glorified God, saying, That a great Prophet is risen up among us: and that God hath visited his people.

17 And this rumour of him went forth throughout all Iudea, and throughout all y region round about.

18 And the Disciples of Iohn shewed him of all these things.

19 And

…ng unto him two of his disciples,
…ying unto him, Art thou he that should come, or do we look for another?
…When the men were come unto him, they said, John Baptist hath sent us unto thee, saying, Art thou he that should come, or do we look for another?
…ame hour he cured many of their infirmities, and plagues, and of evil spirits; and unto many that were blind he gave sight.
…Then Jesus answering said unto them, Go your way, and tell John what things you have seen and heard, how that the blind see, the lame walk, the lepers are cleansed, the deaf hear, the dead are raised up, to the poor the Gospel is preached.
…And blessed is he whosoever shall not be offended in me.
…And when the messengers of John were departed, he began to speak unto the people concerning John: What went ye out into the wilderness for to see? A reed shaken with the wind?
…But what went ye out for to see? A man clothed in soft raiment, behold, they which are gorgeously apparelled, and live delicately, are in kings courts.
…But what went ye out for to see? A prophet? Yea, I say unto you, and much more than a Prophet.
…This is he of whom it is written, Behold, I send my messenger before thy face, which shall prepare thy way before thee.
…For I say unto you, Among those that are born of women, there is not a greater Prophet than John the Baptist: but he that is least in the kingdom of God is greater than he.
…And all the people that heard him, and the publicans, justified God, being baptized with the baptism of John.
…But the Pharisees and Lawyers rejected the counsel of God against themselves, being not baptized of him.
…And the Lord said, Whereunto shall I liken the men of this generation? and to what are they like?
…They are like unto children sitting in the market place, and calling one to another, and saying, We have piped unto you, and ye have not danced; we have mourned to you, and ye have not wept.
…For John the Baptist came neither eating bread nor drinking wine; and ye say, He hath a devil.
…The Son of man is come eating and drinking; and ye say, Behold a gluttonous man, and a wine-bibber, a friend of publicans and sinners.
…But wisdom is justified of all her children.
…And one of the Pharisees desired him that he would eat with him. And he went into the Pharisee's house, and sat down to meat.
…And, behold, a woman in the city, which was a sinner, when she knew that Jesus sat at meat in the Pharisee's house, brought an alabaster box of ointment,
…And stood at his feet behind him weeping, and began to wash his feet with tears, and did wipe them with the hairs of her head, and kissed his feet, and anointed them with the ointment.
…Now when the Pharisee which had bidden him saw it, he spake within himself, saying, This man, if he were a Prophet, would have known who and what manner of woman this is that toucheth him: for she is a sinner.
…And Jesus answering said unto him, Simon, I have somewhat to say unto thee. And he saith, Master, say on.
…There was a certain creditor which had two debtors: the one ought five hundred pence, and the other fifty.
…And when they had nothing to pay, he frankly forgave them both. Tell me therefore, which of them will love him most?
…Simon answered and said, I suppose that he, to whom he forgave most. And he said unto him, Thou hast rightly judged.
…And he turned to the woman, and said unto Simon, Seest thou this woman? I entered into thine house, thou gavest me no water for my feet: but she hath washed my feet with tears, and wiped them with the hairs of her head.
…Thou gavest me no kiss: but this woman since the time I came in hath not ceased to kiss my feet.
…Mine head with oyle thou didst not anoint: but this woman hath anointed my feet with ointment.
…Wherefore I say unto thee, Her sins, which are many, are forgiven; for she loved much: but to whom little is forgiven, the same loveth little.
…And he said unto her, Thy sins are forgiven.
…And they that sate at meat with him, began to say within themselves, Who is this that forgiveth sins also?
…And he said to the woman, Thy faith hath saved thee; go in peace.

CHAP. VIII.

…And it came to pass afterward, that he went throughout every city and village, preaching, and shewing the glad tidings of the kingdome of God: and the twelve were with him.
…And certain women which had been healed of evil spirits and infirmities, Mary called Magdalene, out of whom went seven devils,
…And Joanna the wife of Chuza Herod's steward, and Susanna, and many others, which ministred unto him of their substance.
…And when much people were gathered together, and were come to him out of every city, he spake by a parable.
…A sower went out to sow his seed: and as he sowed, some fell by the way side; and it was trodden down, and the fowls of the air devoured it.
…And some fell upon a rock; and as soon as it was sprung up, it withered away, because it lacked moisture.
…And some fell among thorns; and the thorns sprang up with it, and choked it.
…And other fell on good ground, and sprang up, and bare fruit an hundredfold. And when he had said these things, he cried, fie ỹ hath eares to hear, let him heare.

9 And his Disciples asked him, saying, what might this parable be?
10 And he said Vnto you it is given to know ỹ mysteries of the kingdom of God: but to others in parables: that seeing, they might not see, and hearing, they might not understand.
11 Now the parable is this: The seed is the word of God.
12 Those by the way side, are they that heare: then commeth the deuil & taketh away ỹ word out of their harts, for they should not beleeue & be saued.
13 They on the rocke are they which when they heare, receiue ỹ word with ioy, and these haue no roote, which for a while beleeue, & in time of temptation fall away.
14 And ỹ which fell among thornes, are they which when they haue heard, go forth and are choked with cares and riches, and pleasures of this life, and bring no fruit to perfection.
15 But that on the good ground, are they which in an honest and good heart hauing heard the word keep it, and bring forth fruit with patience.
16 No man, when he hath lighted a candle, couereth it with a vessel, or putteth it vnder a bed: but setteth it on a candlestick, ỹ they which enter in may see ỹ light.
17 For nothing is secret, ỹ shall not be made manifest: neither any thing hid, ỹ shall not be known, and come abroad.
18 Take heed therefore how ỹ heare: for whosoeuer hath, to him shall be giuen, & whosoeuer hath not, from him shall be taken euen ỹ which he seemeth to haue.
19 Then came to him his mother and his brethren, and could not come at him for the preasse.
20 And it was told him by certaine which heare ỹ word of God, & do it.
21 And he answered & said to them, My mother & my brethren are these.
22 Now it came to passe on a certain day, that he went into a ship with his Disciples: and he said vnto them, Let vs go ouer vnto the other side of the lake, and they launched forth.
23 But as they sailed, he fell asleepe: and there came down a storme of wind vpon the lake, and they were filled with water, & were in ieopardy.
24 And they came to him, and awoke him, saying, Master, master, we perish. Then he arose and rebuked the wind, and the raging of the water: and they ceased, and there was a calme.
25 And he said vnto them, where is your faith? & they feeling afraid, wondered all at one, saying one to another, What manner of man is this? for he commandeth euen the winds and water, & they obey him.
26 And they arrayed at ỹ countrey of the Gadarites, which is ouer against Galilee.
27 And when he went forth to land, there met him out of the city a certain man which had deuils long time, and wore no clothes, neither abode in any house, but in the Tombes.
28 When he saw Iesus, he cried and fell down before him, and with a loud voice said, What haue I to do with thee Iesus thou sonne of God most High? I beseech thee torment me not.
29 (For he had commanded ỹ vncleane spirit to come out of ỹ man. For oftimes it had caught him, and it was kept bound with chaines, and in fetters, and he brake the bands, and was driuen of the deuil into the wildernesse.)
30 And Iesus asked him saying, What is thy name? And he said, Legion: because many deuils were entered into him.
31 And they besought him ỹ he would not command them to go out into the deepe.
32 And there was a great heard of swine feeding on ỹ mountaine: & they besought him ỹ he would suffer them to enter into them. And he suffered them.
33 Then went the deuils out of the man, and entred into the swine, & the heard ran violently down a steepe place into the lake and were choked.
34 When they that fed them saw what was done, they fled, and went & told it in the city, & in ỹ countrey.
35 Then they went out to see what was done, & came to Iesus, & found ỹ man out of whom the deuils were departed, sitting at the feet of Iesus clothed, & in his right mind: & they were afraid.
36 They also which saw it, told them by what meanes he that was possessed of the deuils was healed.
37 Then all the whole multitude of the countrey of Gadara round about, besought him ỹ he would depart from them, for they were taken with great feare. & he went vp into a ship, & returned back again.
38 Now the man out of whom the deuils were departed, besought him that he might be with him: but he sent him away, saying,
39 Return to thine own house, and shew how great things God hath done vnto thee. And he went his way, and published throughout the whole city how great things Iesus had done vnto him.
40 And it came to pas ỹ when he was returned, ỹ people gladly received him: for they were all waiting for him.
41 And behold, there came a man named Iarus, & he was a ruler of the Synagogue: and he fell down at Iesus feet, and besought him that he would 42 For he had one only daughter, about twelue yeres of age, & she lay a dying. But as he went ỹ people thrust him.
43 And a woman hauing an issue of blood twelue yeeres, which had spent all her substance vpon physitions, & could not be healed of any 44 Came behinde him, and touched the border of his garment: and immediately her issue of blood stanched.
45 And Iesus said, Who touched me? When all denied, Peter and they that were with him said, Master, the people throng thee and preasse thee, and and Jesus said. Some body hath touched me for I perceive that vertue is gone out of me.

46 And when the woman saw that she was not hid she came trembling and falling down before him. She declared unto him before all the people, for what cause she had touched him, and how she was healed immediately.

47 And he said unto her, Daughter, be of good comfort, thy faith hath made thee whole, go in peace.

48 While he yet spake, there came one from the ruler of the Synagogue, saying to him, thy daughter is dead, trouble not the master.

49 But when Jesus heard it, he answered him, saying, Fear not, believe only, and she shall be made whole.

50 And when he came into the house, he suffered no man to go in save Peter, and James, & John and the father and the mother of the maiden.

51 And all wept, and bewailed her: but he said, Weep not, she is not dead, but sleepeth.

52 And they laughed him to scorn, knowing that she was dead.

53 And he put them all out, & took her by the hand, & called saying, Maid, arise.

54 And her spirit came again, and she arose straightway: and he commanded to give her meat.

55 And her parents were astonished: but he charged them that they should tell no man what was done.

CHAP. IX.

1 Then he called his twelve Disciples together, and gave them power and authority over all devils, and to cure diseases.

2 And he sent them to preach the kingdom of God, and to heal the sicke.

3 And he said unto them, Take no thing for your journey, neither staves, neither scrip, neither bread, neither money, neither have two coates a piece.

4 And whatsoever house ye enter into, there abide and thence depart.

5 And whosoever will not receive you, when ye go out of that city, shake off even the dust from your feete, for a witnesse against them.

6 And they departed and went through the townes, teaching the Gospel, and healing every where.

7 Now Herod the Tetrarch heard of all that was done by him: and he was perplexed, because that it was said of some, that John was risen from the dead.

8 And of some, that Elias had appeared: and others, that one of the old Prophets was risen again.

9 And Herod said, John I have beheaded: who is this of whom I hear such things? And he desired to see him.

10 And the Apostles when they were returned, told him all that they had done. And he took them, and went aside privately into a desart place belonging to the city, called Bethsaida.

11 And the people when they knew it, followed him. & he received them, & spake to them of the kingdom of God, & healed them that had need of healing.

12 And when the day began to weare away, then came the twelve, and said unto him, send the multitude away, that they may go into the townes and countries round about, and lodge, & get victuals: for we are here in a desart place.

13 But he said unto them, Give ye them to eate. And they said, We have no more but five loaves and two fishes, except we should go and buy meat for all this people.

14 For they were about five thousand men. And he said to his disciples, make them sit down by fifties in a company.

15 And they did so, & made them all sit down.

16 Then he took the five loaves, and the two fishes, & looking up to heaven, he blessed them, brake, & gave to the disciples to set before the multitude.

17 And they did eat, & were all filled. And there was taken up of fragments that remained to them, twelve baskets.

18 And it came to passe as he was alone praying, his disciples were with him: and he asked them, saying, whom say the people that I am?

19 They answering, said, John the Baptist. But some say, Elias: & others say, that one of the old Prophets is risen again.

20 He said unto them, But whom say ye that I am? Peter answering said, The Christ of God.

21 And he straitly charged them, and commanded them to tell no man any thing.

22 Saying, The Son of man must suffer many things, and be rejected of the Elders and chief Priests & Scribes, & be slain, & be raised the third day.

23 And he said to them all, If any man will come after me, let him deny himself, and take up his crosse daily, and follow me.

24 For whosoever will save his life, shall lose it: but whosoever will lose his life for my sake, the same shall save it.

25 For what is a man advantaged, if he gaine the whole world, and lose himself, or be cast away?

26 For whosoever shall be ashamed of me and of my words, of him shall the Son of man be ashamed, when he shall come in his own glory, and in his Father's, and of the holy Angels.

27 But I tell you of a truth, there be some here of them that stand by, which shall not taste of death, till they see the kingdom of God.

28 And it came to passe, about an eight dayes after these sayings, he took Peter and John and James, and went up into a mountaine to pray.

29 And as he prayed, the fashion of his countenance was altered, and his raiment was white & glistering.

30 And behold, there talked with him two men, which were Moses & Elias:

31 Who appeared in glory, and spake of his departure, which he should accom-

32 But [illegible] and they that were with him, were heavy with sleep: and when they were awake, they saw his glory, and the two men that stood with him.

33 And it came to pass, as they departed from him, Peter said to Jesus, Master, it is good for us to be here: and let us make three tabernacles; one for thee, and one for Moses, and one for Elias: not knowing what he said.

34 While he thus spake, there came a cloud, and overshadowed them: and they feared as they entered into a cloud.

35 And there came a voice out of the cloud, saying, This is my beloved Son: hear him.

36 And when the voice was past, Jesus was found alone: and they kept it close, and told no man in those days any of the things they had seen.

37 And it came to pass, that on the next day, when they were come down from the hill, much people met him.

38 And, behold, a man of the company cried out, saying, Master, I beseech thee look upon my son, for he is mine only child.

39 And, lo, a spirit taketh him, and he suddenly crieth out; and it teareth him that he foameth again, and bruising him hardly departeth from him.

40 And I besought thy Disciples to cast him out, but they could not.

41 And Jesus answering said, O faithless and perverse generation, how long shall I be with you, and suffer you? bring thy son hither.

42 And as he was a coming, the devil threw him down, and tare him. And Jesus rebuked the unclean spirit, and healed the child, and delivered him again to his father.

43 And they were all amazed at the mighty power of God. But while they wondered every one at all things which Jesus did, he said unto his Disciples, 44 Let these sayings sink down into your ears: for the Son of man shall be delivered into the hands of men.

45 But they understood not this saying, and it was hid from them, that they perceived it not: and they feared to ask him of that saying.

46 Then there arose a reasoning among them, which of them should be greatest.

47 And Jesus perceiving the thought of their heart, took a child, and set him by him,

48 And said unto them, Whosoever shall receive this child in my Name, receiveth me: and whosoever shall receive me, receiveth him that sent me: for he that is least among you all, the same shall be great.

49 And John answered, and said, Master, we saw one casting out devils in thy Name, and we forbade him, because he followeth not with us.

50 And Jesus said unto him, Forbid him not: for he that is not against us is for us.

51 And it came to pass, when the time was come that he should be received up, he stedfastly set his face to go to Jerusalem,

52 And sent messengers before his face: and they went, and entered into a village of the Samaritans, to make ready for him.

53 And they did not receive him, because his face was as though he would go to Jerusalem.

54 And when his disciples, James and John, saw this, they said, Lord, wilt thou that we command fire to come down from heaven, and consume them, even as Elias did?

55 But he turned, and rebuked them, and said, Ye know not what manner of spirit ye are of.

56 For the Son of man is not come to destroy men's lives, but to save them. And they went to another village.

57 And it came to pass, that as they went in the way, a certain man said unto him, Lord, I will follow thee wherever thou goest.

58 And Jesus said unto him, Foxes have holes, and birds of the air have nests; but the Son of man has not where to lay his head.

59 And he said unto another, Follow me. But he said, Lord, suffer me first to go and bury my father.

60 Jesus said unto him, Let the dead bury their dead: but go thou and preach the kingdom of God.

61 And another also said, Lord, I will follow thee; but let me first go bid them farewell which are at home at my house.

62 And Jesus said unto him, No man having put his hand to the plough, and looking back, is fit for the kingdom of God.

CHAP. X.

AFter these things the Lord appointed other seventy also, and sent them two and two before his face into every city and place, whither he himself would come.

2 Therefore said he unto them, The harvest truly is great, but the labourers are few: pray ye therefore the Lord of the harvest, that he would send forth labourers into his harvest.

3 Go your ways: behold, I send you forth as lambs among wolves.

4 Carry neither purse, nor scrip, nor shoes: and salute no man by the way.

5 And into whatsoever house ye enter, first say, Peace be to this house.

6 And if the son of peace be there, your peace shall rest upon it: if not, it shall turn to you again.

7 And in the same house remain, eating and drinking such things as they give: for the labourer is worthy of his hire. Go not from house to house.

8 And into whatsoever city ye enter, and they receive you, eat such things as are set before you.

9 And heal the sick that are therein, and say unto them, The kingdom of God is come nigh unto you.

10 But into whatsoever city ye enter, and they receive you not, go your ways out into the streets of the same, and say,

11 Even the very dust of your city, which cleaveth on us, we do wipe off against you: notwithstanding be ye sure of this, that the kingdom of God is come nigh unto you.

12 Or if he shal aske an egge, will he offer him a scorpion?

13 If ye then be euil, knowe how to giue good gifts vnto your children: how much more shall the heauenly father giue y holy spirit to them y ask him?

14 And he was casting out a deuil, and it was dumbe: And it came to passe when the deuil was gone out, the dumb spake: and the people wondred.

15 But some of them said, He casteth out deuils through Beelzebub the chiefe of the deuils.

16 And others tempting him, sought of him a signe from heauen.

17 But he knowing their thoughts, said vnto them, Euery kingdom deuided against itself is brought to desolation: & a house deuided against a house falleth.

18 If Satan also be deuided against himself, how shal his kingdom stand? Because ye say that I cast out deuils through Beelzebub.

19 And if I by Beelzebub cast out deuils, by whom do your sons cast them out? therefore shal they be your iudges.

20 But if I with the finger of God cast out deuils, no doubt the kingdom of God is come upon you.

21 When a strong man armed keepeth his palace, his goods are in peace:

22 But when a stronger then he shal come vpon him, and ouercome him, he taketh from him al his armour wherein he trusted, and deuideth his spoiles.

23 He that is not with me is against me: & he y gathereth not with me, scattereth.

24 When the vncleane spirit is gone out of a man, he walketh through dry places, seeking rest: and finding none, he saith, I wil returne vnto mine house, whence I came out.

25 And when he commeth, he findeth it swept and garnished.

26 Then goeth he, & taketh to him seuen other spirits more wicked then himself, & they enter in & dwel there: & y last state of y man is worse then y first.

27 And it came to pass, as he spake these things, a certaine woman of the company lift vp her voice, and said vnto him, Blessed is the wombe y bare thee, & y paps which thou hast sucked.

28 But he said, Yea rather blessed are they y heare y word of God, & keepe it.

29 And when the people were gathered thicke together, he began to say, This is an euil generation, they seeke a signe: and there shal no signe be giuen it, but the signe of Ionas the Prophet.

30 For as Ionas was a signe vnto the Ninevites, so shal also the Son of man be to this generation.

31 The Queene of the South shal rise vp in the iudgement with the men of this generation, and condemne them: for she came from vtmost parts of the earth, to heare y wisedom of Solomon: & behold a greater then Solomon is here.

32 The men of Nineveh shal stand in the iudgement with this generation, and condemne it: for they repented at the preaching of Ionas: and behold a greater then Ionas is here.

33 No man when he hath lighted a candle, putteth it in a secret place, neither vnder a bushel: but on a candlestick, y which come in may see the light.

34 The light of the body is y eye: therefore when thine eye is single, thy whole body also is full of light: but when thine eye is euil, thy body is full of darkenes.

35 Take heed therefore, that the light which is in thee, be not darkenes.

36 If thy whole body therefore be full of light, having no parte dark, it shal be full of light: as when y bright shining of a candle doth giue thee light.

37 And as he spake, a certaine Pharisee besought him to dine with him: he went in, and sate down to meate.

38 And when the Pharisee saw it, he marueiled that he had not first washed before dinner.

39 And the Lord said vnto him, Now do ye Pharisees make cleane the outside of y cup & y platter: but your inward parte is full of rauening, and wickednes.

40 Ye fooles, did not he y made y outside, make y which is within also?

41 But rather giue alms of such things as ye haue: and behold, all things are cleane vnto you.

42 But woe vnto you Pharisees! for ye tithe Mint and Rue, and all manner herbs, and pass ouer iudgment, and the loue of God: these ought ye to haue done, & not to leaue y other vndone.

43 Woe vnto you Pharisees! for ye loue the vppermost seates in the Synagogues, and greetings in the markets.

44 Woe vnto you Scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites: for ye are as graues which appeare not, and the men that walke ouer them are not aware of them.

45 Then answered one of the Lawyers, and said vnto him, Master thus saying, thou reproachest vs also.

46 And he said, Wo vnto you also ye Lawyers: for ye lade men with burdens grieuous to be borne, & ye your selues touch not y burdens with one of your fingers.

47 Wo vnto you: for ye build the sepulchres of the Prophets, and your fathers killed them.

48 Truely ye beare witnesse that ye allow the deedes of your fathers: for they killed them, & ye build their sepulchres.

49 Therefore also said the wisedom of God, I wil send them Prophets and Apostles, and some of them they shal slay and persecute:

50 That the bloud of all the Prophets which was shed from y foundation of the world may be required of this generation:

51 From the bloud of Abel vnto the bloud of Zacharias which perished betweene the altar & the temple: Verily I say vnto you, it shal be required of this generation.

52 Wo vnto you Lawyers: for ye haue taken away y key of knowledge:

CHAP. XII.

In the mean time, when there were gathered together an innumerable ude of people, insomuch y they ed one on another, he began to say his disciples first of all, Beware ye of leaven of y Phariſees, which is hypocriſie.
2 For there is nothing covered, that all not be revealed, neither hid, that all not be known.
3 Therefore whatsoever ye have d in darkneſs, shall be heard in the ht: and that which ye have ſpoken your ear in cloſets, ſhall be proclaimed the house tops.
4 And I ſay unto you, my friends, be t afraid of them that kill the body, &
r have no more y they can do.
5 But I will forewarn you whom you ll fear: Feare him, which after he h killed, hath power to caſt into ll: I ſay unto you, Feare him.
6 Are not five ſparrowes ſold for o farthings, and not one of them is gotten before God?
7 But even the very haires of your head all numbred: feare not therefore, ye e of more value then many ſparrowes.
8 Alſo, I ſay unto you, Whoſoever ſhall nowledge me before men, him ſhall the n of man alſo confeſſe before e Angels of God.
9 But he that denieth me before men, ll be denied before y Angels of God.
10 And whoſoever ſhall ſpeake a word ainſt the Son of man, it ſhall be forgiven
m: but unto him y blaſphemeth againſt
e holy Ghoſt, it ſhall not be forgiven.
11 And when they bring you unto the ſynagogues, & to Magiſtrates, & powers, take ye no thought how or what ng ye ſhall anſwer, or what ye ſhall ſay:
12 For the holy Ghoſt ſhall teach you the ſame houre what ye ought to ſay.
13 And one of the company ſaid to m, Maſter, ſpeake to my brother, at he divide the inheritance with me.
14 And he ſaid unto him, Man, who ade me a judge, or a diuider over you?
15 And he ſaid unto them, Take heed,
d beware of covetouſneſs: for a mans e conſiſteth not in y abundance of e things which he poſſeſſeth.
16 And he ſpake a parable to them, ſaying, The ground of a certaine rich n brought forth plentifully.
17 And he thought within himſelfe, ſaying, What ſhall I do, becauſe I have room where to beſtow my fruits?
18 And he ſaid, This will I do: I will ke down my barnes, and build greater; & there will I beſtow all my fruits, all my goods.
19 And I will ſay to my ſoul, Soule y haſt much goods laid up for many yeeres, take thine eaſe, eat, drink, & be merry.
20 But God ſaid unto him, Thou ole, this night they ſoule ſhal be required of thee: then whoſe ſhall be things ſhe which thou haſt provided?
21 So is he that layeth up treaſure for himſelfe, and is not rich towards God.
22 And he ſaid unto his diſciples,
Therefore I ſay unto you, Take no thought for your life, what ye ſhall eate, neither for y body what ye ſhall put on.
23 The life is more then meate, and the body is more then rayment.
24 Conſider y Rauens, for they neither ſow nor reap, which neither have ſtore-houſe nor barn, and God feedeth them: How much more are ye better then y fowles?
25 And which of you by taking thought can adde to his ſtature one cubite?
26 If ye then be not able to do that thing which is leaſt, why take you thought for the reſt?
27 Conſider the Lilies, how they growe: they toile not, they ſpin not: & I ſay to you, y Salomon in all his glory was not arayed like one of theſe.
28 If then God ſo clothe the graſſe, which is to day in the field, & to morrow is caſt into the oven, how much more will he clothe you, O ye of little faith.
29 And ſeeke not ye what ye ſhall eate, or what ye ſhall drinke, neither be ye of doubtful minde.
30 For all theſe things do the nations of the world ſeeke after: & your Father knoweth that ye have need of theſe things.
31 But rather ſeeke ye the kingdome of God, and all theſe things ſhall be added unto you.
32 Feare not little flocke, for it is your Fathers good pleaſure to give you the kingdome.
33 Sell that ye have, and give almes:
make you bags which waxe not old, a treaſure in the heavens, where no theefe approacheth, neither moth corrupteth.
34 For where your treaſure is, there will your heart be alſo.
35 Let your loynes be girded about,
and your lights burning, 36 And ye your ſelves like unto men that wait for their Lord, when he will returne from the wedding, that when he commeth and knocketh, they may open unto him immediately.
37 Bleſſed are thoſe ſeruants, whom the Lord ſhall when he commeth, ſhall finde watching: Verily I ſay unto you, That he ſhall gird himſelfe, and make them to ſit downe to meate, and will come forth and ſerve them.
38 And if he ſhall come in the ſecond watch, or come in the third watch and find them ſo, bleſſed are thoſe ſeruants.
39 And this know, that if the good man of the houſe had known what houre the theefe would come, he would have watched, and not have ſuffered his houſe to be broken thorow.

40 Be ye therefore ready also: for the Son of man commeth at an houre when ye thinke not.

41 Then Peter said unto him, Lord, speakest thou this parable unto us, or even to all?

42 And the Lord said, Who then is that faithfull and wise Steward, whom his Lord shall make ruler over his houshold, to give them their portion of meat in due season?

43 Blessed is y seruant whom his Lord when he commeth, shall find so doing.

44 Of a truth, I say unto you, that he will make him ruler over all he hath.

45 But and if that seruant say in his heart, My Lord delayeth his comming, and shall begin to beate the menseruants, and maidens, and to eat and drinke, and to be drunken:

46 The Lord of that seruant will come in a day when he looketh not for him, & at an houre when he is not aware, and will cut him in sunder, & will appoint him his portion with y vnbelieuers.

47 And that seruant which knew his Lords will, and prepared not himselfe, neither did according to his will, shall be beaten with many stripes.

48 But he that knew not, and did commit things worthy of stripes, shall be beaten with few stripes. For vnto whomsoeuer much is giuen, of him shall be much required: and to whom men haue committed much, of him will they aske the more.

49 I am come to send fire on the earth, & what will I, if it be already kindled?

50 But I haue a baptisme to be baptized with, and how am I straitned till it be accomplished?

51 Suppose ye that I am come to giue peace on earth? I tell you, Nay, but rather diuision.

52 For from henceforth there shall be fiue in one house, diuided, three against two, and two against three.

53 The father shall be deuided against the sonne, & the sonne against the father: the mother against the daughter, & the daughter against the mother: the mother in law against her daughter in law, & daughter in law against her mother in law.

54 And he said also to the people, When ye see a cloud rise out of the West, straightway ye say, There commeth a shoure, and so it is.

55 And when ye see the South wind blow, ye say, There will be heate, and it commeth to passe.

56 Ye hypocrites, ye can discerne the face of the skie & of the earth: but how is it that ye do not discerne this time?

57 Yea and why even of your selues iudge ye not what is right?

58 When thou goest with thine aduersary to the Magistrate, as thou art in the way, giue diligence that thou mayest be deliuered from him, lest he hale thee to the Iudge, & y Iudge deliuer thee to y officer, & y officer cast thee into prison.

59 I tell thee, Thou shalt not depart thence till thou hast payed y very last mite.

CHAP. XIII.

THere were present at that season some that told him of y Galilæans whose blood y state had mingled with their sacrifices.

2 And Iesus answering, said vnto them, Suppose ye that these Galilæans were sinners aboue all the Galilæans, because they suffered such things?

3 I tell you, Nay: but except ye repent, ye shall all likewise perish.

4 Or those eighteen vpon whom the tower in Siloe fell, and slew them, suppose ye that they were sinners aboue all men that dwell in Hierusalem?

5 I tell you, Nay: but except ye repent ye shall all likewise perish.

6 He spake also this parable: A certain man had a figtree planted in his vineyard, and he came, and sought fruit thereon, and found none.

7 Then said he vnto the dresser of his vineyard, Behold, these three yeares I come seeking fruit on this figtree, and find none: cut it down, why cumbereth it the ground?

8 And he answering, said vnto him, Lord, let it alone this year also, till I shall dig about it, and dung it:

9 And if it beare fruit well: & if not, then after that thou shalt cut it downe.

10 And he was teaching in one of their Synagogues on the Sabbath.

11 And behold, there was a woman which had a spirit of infirmitie eighteen yeares, and was bowed together, and could in no wise lift up her selfe.

12 And when Iesus saw her he called her to him, and said vnto her, Woman, thou art loosed from thine infirmitie.

13 And he laid his hands vpon her, and immediately she was made straight, and glorified God.

14 And the ruler of the Synagogue answered with indignation, because that Iesus had healed on the Sabbath day, & said to the people, There are six dayes in which men ought to worke: in them therefore come and be healed, and not on the Sabbath day.

15 The Lord then answered him, & said, Ye hypocrite doth not each one of you on Sabbath loose his oxe or his asse from the stall, & lead him away to watering?

16 And ought not this woman being a daughter of Abraham, whom Satan hath bound, lo, these eighteen yeares, to be loosed from this bond on y Sabbath day?

17 And when he had said these things, all his aduersaries were ashamed: and all the people reioyced for all the glorious things that were done by him.

18 Then said he, Vnto what is the kingdome of God like? & wherevnto shall I resemble it?

19 It is like a graine of mustard seed, which a man tooke, & cast into his garden: and it grew, and waxed a great tree: and the fowles of the aire lodged in the branches of it.

20 And againe he said, Whereunto shall I liken the kingdome of God?

whole was leavened.

And he went throw the cities and village, teaching and journeying to Hierusalem.

Then said one unto him, Lord, are few that be saved? And he said unto them,

Strive to enter in at the strait gate: for many I say unto you, will seek to enter in, and shall not be able.

When once the master of y house is risen up, and hath shut up the door, and ye begin to stand without, and to knock at the door, saying, Lord Lord open unto us, and he shal answer, & say unto you, I know not whence you are.

Then shal ye begin to say, We have eaten and drunk in thy presence, and thou hast taught in our streets.

But he shall say, I tel you, I know not whence you are; depart from me all ye workers of iniquity.

There shall be weeping, & gnashing of teeth: when ye shall see Abraham, and Isaac, and Iacob, and all the prophets in the kingdome of God, and your selves thrust out.

And they shall come from the east, and from the West, and from the north, and from the South, and shall sit down in the kingdome of God.

And behold, there are last, which shalbe first: and there are first, which shall be last.

The same day there came certain of the Pharises, saying unto him, Get thee out, and depart hence; for Herod will kil thee.

And he said to them, Go ye & tel that fox, Behold, I cast out devils, and I do cures to day and to morrow, and the third day I shall be perfected.

Nevertheless, I must walke to day and to morrow, and the day following; for it cannot be that a prophet perish out of Hierusalem.

O Hierusalem, Hierusalem, which killest the prophets, and stonest them which are sent to thee how often would I have gathered thy children together, even as a hen doth gather her brood under her wings, and ye would not?

Behold, your house is left unto you desolate: And verily I say unto you, ye shal not see me until the time come when ye shall say, Blessed is he that cometh in the Name of y Lord.

CHAP. XIIII.

And it came to passe as he went into the house of one of the chief Pharisees to eat bread on the Sabbath day, that they watched him.

And behold, there was a certaine man before him which had the dropsie.

And Iesus answering, spake to the lawyers and Pharises, saying, Is it lawful to heale on the Sabbath day?

And they held their peace. And he took him, & healed him, & let him go.

And answered them, saying, Which of you shall have an asse or an ox fallen into a pit, and will not straightway pul him out on the Sabbath day?

And they could not answere him again to these things.

And he put forth a parable to those which were bidden, when he marked how they chose out the chiefe rooms, saying unto them,

When thou art bidden of any man to a wedding, sit not down in the highest room, lest a more honourable man than thou be bidden of him;

And he y bade thee & him come and say to thee, Give this man place: and thou begin with shame to take y lowest room.

But when thou art bidden, goe and sit down in the lowest room, that when he that bade thee cometh, he may say to thee, Friend, goup higher:
then shalt thou have worship, in the presence of them y sit at meat w thee.

For whosoever exalteth himself, shall be abased: and he that humbleth himself, shall be exalted.

Then said he also to him that bade him, When thou makest a dinner or a supper, call not thy friends, nor thy brethren, neither thy kinsmen, nor thy rich neighbours, lest they also bid thee again, and a recompense be made thee.

But when thou makest a feast, call the poore, y maimed, the lame, y blind:

And y shalt be blessed: for they can not recompense thee: for y shalt be recompensed at y resurrection of y iust.

And when one of them which sat at meat with him, heard these things, he said unto him, Blessed is he that shal eat bread in the kingdome of God.

Then said he to him, A certaine man made a great supper, & bade many.

And sent his servant at supper time, to say to them that were bidden,
Come; for all things are now ready.

And they all with one consent began to make excuse: the first said unto him, I have bought a piece of ground, and I must needs go and see it: I pray thee have me excused.

And another said, I have bought five yoke of oxen, and I go to prove them: I pray thee have me excused.

And another said, I have married a wife, and therefore I cannot come.

So y servant came, and shewed his lord these things. Then y master of y house being angry said to his servant, Go out quickly into y streets & lanes of y city, & bring in hither y poore, &
y maimed, and the halt, & the blind.

And the servant said, Lord, it is done as thou hast commanded, and yet there is room.

And the lord said unto the servant, Go out into y high wayes and hedges, and compel them to come in, that my house may be filled:

For I say to you y not one of those men which were bidden shall taste of my supper.

And there went great multitudes with him: & he turned, & said to them,

If any man come to me, & hate not his

his father, & mother, & wife, and children, & brethren, & sisters, yea, & his own life also, he cannot be my disciple.

27 And whoſoever doth not bear his croſſe, and come after me, cannot be my disciple.

28 For which of you intending to build a tower, ſitteth not down firſt, and counteth the coſt, whether he have ſufficient to finiſh it?

29 Leſt happily after he hath laid the foundation, and is not able to finiſh it, all that behold it, begin to mocke him,

30 Saying, This man began to build, and was not able to finiſh.

31 Or what King going to make war againſt another King, ſitteth not down firſt, & conſulteth whether he be able with ten thouſand to meet him that commeth againſt him with twenty thouſand?

32 Or elſe, while the other is yet a great way off, he ſendeth an embaſſage, and deſireth conditions of peace.

33 So likewiſe, whoſoever he be of you, that forſaketh not all that he hath, he cannot be my disciple.

34 Salt is good: but if the ſalt have loſt his ſavour, wherewith ſhall it be ſeaſoned?

35 It is neither fit for the land, nor yet for the dunghill, but men caſt it out. He that hath eares to hear, let him hear.

CHAP. XV.

Then drew neere to him all the publicanes & ſinners for to heare him.

2 And the Phariſees and Scribes murmured, ſaying, This man receiveth ſinners, and eateth with them.

3 And he ſpake this parable unto them, ſaying,

4 What man of you having an hundred ſheep, if he loſe one of them, doth not leave ninety & nine in the wilderneſs, & go after that which is loſt, until he find it?

5 And when he hath found it, he layeth it on his ſhoulders, rejoycing.

6 And when he cometh home, he calleth together his friends & neighbours, ſaying unto them, Rejoyce with me, for I have found my ſheep which was loſt.

7 I ſay to you, That likewiſe joy ſhall be in heaven over one ſinner that repenteth more, than over ninety & nine juſt perſons, which need no repentance.

8 Either what woman having ten pieces of ſilver, if ſhe loſe one piece, doth not light a candle, & ſweep the houſe, & ſeek diligently till ſhe find it?

9 And when ſhe hath found it, ſhe calleth her friends & her neighbours together, ſaying, Rejoyce with me, for I have found the piece which I had loſt.

10 Likewiſe I ſay unto you, there is joy in the preſence of the Angels of God, over one ſinner that repenteth.

11 And he ſaid, A certain man had two ſons:

12 And the younger of them ſaid to his father, Father, give me the portion of goods that falleth to me. And he diuided unto them his living.

13 And not many dayes after, the younger ſon gathered all together, and took his journey into a farre country, & there waſted his ſubſtance with riotous living.

14 And when he had ſpent all, there aroſe a mighty famine in that land, and he began to be in want.

15 And he went and joyned himſelf to a citizen of that country, and he ſent him into his fields to feed ſwine.

16 And he would fain have filled his belly with the huſkes that the ſwine did eat, & no man gave unto him.

17 And when he came to himſelf, he ſaid, How many hired ſervants of my father's have bread enough and to ſpare, and I perish with hunger?

18 I will ariſe and go to my father, and will ſay unto him, Father, I have ſinned againſt heaven and before thee,

19 And am no more worthy to be called thy ſon: make me as one of thy hired ſervants.

20 And he aroſe, & came to his father. But when he was yet a great way off, his father ſaw him, & had compaſſion, and ran, & fell on his neck, and kiſſed him.

21 And his ſon ſaid to him, Father, I have ſinned againſt heaven, & before thee, and am no more worthy to be called thy ſon.

22 But the father ſaid to his ſervants, Bring forth the beſt robe, and put it on him, and put a ring on his hand, and ſhoes on his feet.

23 And bring hither the fatted calf, and kill it, and let us eat, and be merry:

24 For this my ſon was dead, and is alive again: he was loſt, and is found. And they began to be merry.

25 Now his elder ſonne was in the field, and as he came and drew nigh to the houſe, he heard muſick & dancing.

26 And he called one of the ſervants, and aſked what thoſe things meant.

27 And he ſaid unto him, Thy brother is come, and thy father hath killed the fatted calfe, becauſe he hath received him ſafe and ſound.

28 And he was angry, and would not go in: therefore came his father out, and intreated him.

29 And he anſwering ſaid to his father, Lo, theſe many years do I ſerve thee, neither transgreſſed I at any time thy commandment, and yet thou never gavſt me a kid, that I might make merry with my friends:

30 But as ſoon as this thy ſon was come, which hath devoured thy living with lewd women, thou haſt killed for him the fatted calf.

31 And he ſaid to him, Sonne, thou art ever with me, and all I have is thine.

32 It was meet that we ſhould make merry, and be glad: for this thy brother was dead, and is alive again: and was loſt, and is found.

CHAP. XVI.

And he ſaid alſo unto his Diſciples, There was a certain rich man, which had a ſteward, & the ſame was accuſed unto him, that he had waſted his goods.

2 And he called him, and ſaid unto him, How is it that I hear this of thee? Give an account of thy Stewardſhip,

...ardest be no longer steward. ...s the steward said within ...self, What shall I do? for my lord ...aketh from me the stewardship: ...dig I cannot; to beg I am ashamed. ...I am resolved what to do, that ...n may put out of the stewardship, ...y receive me into their houses. ...So he called every one of his lord's ...debtors unto him, and said unto the first, ...How much owest thou unto my lord? ...And he said, An hundred measures of oil. ...And he said unto him, Take thy bill, ...and sit down quickly, and write fifty. ...Then said he to another, And how much owest thou? And he said, An hundred measures of wheat. And he said to him, Take thy bill, and write fourscore. ...And the lord commended the unjust steward, because he had done wisely: for the children of this world are in their generation wiser than the children of light. ...And I say unto you, Make to yourselves friends of the mammon of unrighteousness; that, when ye fail, they may receive you into everlasting habitations. ...He that is faithful in that which is least, is faithful also in much: and he that is unjust in the least, is unjust also in much.

...Therefore if ye have not been faithful in the unrighteous mammon, who will commit to your trust the true riches? ...And if ye have not been faithful in that which is another man's, who shall give you that which is your own? ...No servant can serve two masters: for either he will hate the one and love the other, or else he will hold to the one, and despise the other: ye cannot serve God and mammon.

...And the Pharisees also who were covetous, heard all these things, and they derided him.

...And he said unto them, Ye are they which justify yourselves before men; but God knoweth your hearts: for that which is highly esteemed among men is abomination in the sight of God.

...The Law and the prophets were until John: since that time the kingdom of God is preached, and every man presseth into it. ...And it is easier for heaven and earth to pass, than one tittle of the Law to fail.

...Whosoever putteth away his wife, and marrieth another, committeth adultery: and whosoever marrieth her that is put away from her husband, committeth adultery.

...There was a certain rich man, which was clothed in purple and fine linen, and fared sumptuously every day:

...And there was a certain beggar named Lazarus, which was laid at his gate, full of sores,

...And desiring to be fed with the crumbs which fell from the rich man's table: moreover the dogs came and licked his sores.

...And it came to pass that the beggar died, and was carried by the angels into Abraham's bosom: the rich man also died, and was buried.

...And in hell he lift up his eyes, being in torments, and seeth Abraham afar off, and Lazarus in his bosom.

...And he cried and said, Father Abraham, have mercy on me, and send Lazarus, that he may dip the tip of his finger in water, and cool my tongue; for I am tormented in this flame.

...But Abraham said, Son, remember that thou in thy lifetime receivedst thy good things, and likewise Lazarus evil things: but now he is comforted, and thou art tormented.

...And besides all this, between us and you there is a great gulf fixed, so that they which would pass from hence to you cannot; neither can they pass to us, that would come from thence.

...Then he said, I pray thee therefore, father, that thou wouldest send him to my father's house:

...For I have five brethren, that he may testify unto them, lest they also come into this place of torments.

...Abraham saith unto him, They have Moses and the prophets; let them hear them.

...And he said, Nay, father Abraham: but if one went unto them from the dead, they will repent.

...And he said unto him, If they hear not Moses and the prophets, neither will they be persuaded, though one rose from the dead.

CHAP. XVII.

...Then said he to the disciples, It is impossible but that offences will come: but woe unto him through whom they come.

...It were better for him that a millstone were hanged about his neck, and he cast into the sea, than that he should offend one of these little ones.

...Take heed to yourselves: If thy brother trespass against thee, rebuke him; and if he repent, forgive him.

...And if he trespass against thee seven times in a day, and seven times in a day turn again to thee, saying, I repent; thou shalt forgive him.

...And the Apostles said unto the Lord, Increase our faith.

...And the Lord said, If ye had faith as a grain of mustard seed, ye might say unto this Sycamine tree, Be thou plucked up by the roots, and be thou planted in the sea, and it should obey you.

...But which of you having a servant plowing, or feeding cattle, will say to him by and by, when he is come from the field, Go and sit down to meat?

...And will not rather say unto him, Make ready wherewith I may sup, and gird thyself, and serve me, till I have eaten and drunken, and afterward thou shalt eat and drink.

...Doth he thank that servant, because he did the things that were commanded him? I trow not.

...So likewise ye, when ye shall have done all those things which are commanded you, say, We are unprofitable servants, we have done that which was our duty to do.

...And

11 And it came to passe, as he went to Hierusalem: that he passed through the midst of Samaria and Galilee.
12 And as he entred into a certaine village, there met him ten men that were lepers, which stood a-far off.
13 And they lifted up their voices, & said: Iesus, Master, haue mercy on vs.
14 And when he saw them, he said to them, Go shew your selues vnto the priests. And it came to passe, that as they went, they were cleansed.
15 And one of them, when he saw that he was healed, turned backe, and with a loud voice glorified God, 16 And fell downe on his face at his feet, giuing him thanks: and he was a Samaritan.
17 And Iesus answering said, Were there not ten cleansed? but where are the nine?
18 There are not found that returned to giue glory to God, saue this stranger.
19 And he said vnto him, Arise, go thy way, thy faith hath made thee whole.
20 And when he was demanded of the Pharisees when the kingdome of God should come, he answered them, and said: The kingdome of God commeth not with obseruation.
21 Neither shall they say, Lo here, or lo there: for behold, the kingdome of God is within you.
22 And he said vnto the Disciples, The dayes will come when ye shall desire to see one of the dayes of the Son of man, and ye shal not see it.
23 And they shall say to you, See here, or see there: go not after them, nor follow them.
24 For as the lightning that lighteneth out of the one part vnder heauen, shineth vnto the other part vnder heauen: so shall also the Son of man be in his day.
25 But first must he suffer many things, and be reiected of this generation.
26 And as it was in the dayes of Noe, so shall it be also in the dayes of the Son of man.
27 They did eat, they drank, they married wiues, they were giuen in marriage, vntil the day that Noe entered into the Arke, and the flood came and destroyed them all.
28 Likewise also as it was in the dayes of Lot: they did eat, they bought, they sold, they planted, they builded:
29 But the same day that Lot went out of Sodome, it rained fire & brimstone from heauen, & destroyed them all.
30 Euen thus shall it be in the day when the Son of man is reuealed.
31 In that day, he which shall be vpon the house top, & his stuffe in the house, let him not come down to take it away: & he that is in the field, let him likewise not returne backe.
32 Remember Lots wife.
33 Whosoeuer shall seeke to saue his life, shall loose it: and whosoeuer shall loose his life, shall preserue it.
34 I tell you, in that night there shall be two men in one bed, the one shall be taken, & the other shall be left.
35 Two women shall be grinding together: the one shall be taken, & the other left.
36 Two men shall be in the field: the one shall be taken, and the other left.
37 And they answered & said vnto him, Where Lord? And he said vnto them, Wheresoeuer the body is, thither will the eagles be gathered together.

CHAP. XVIII.

1 And he spake a parable vnto them, to this end: that men ought alwayes to pray, and not to faint,
2 Saying, there was in a certaine city a iudge, which feared not God, neither regarded man.
3 And there was a widow in that city, and she came vnto him, saying: Auenge me of mine aduersary.
4 And he would not for a while: but afterward he said within himselfe, Though I feare not God, nor regard man,
5 Yet because this widow troubleth me, I will auenge her, lest by her continuall commming she weary me.
6 And the Lord said, Heare what vniust iudge saith.
7 And shall not God auenge his elect, which cry day and night vnto him, though he beare long with them?
8 I tell you that he will auenge them speedily. Neuertheless when the Son of man commeth, shall he find faith on the earth?
9 And he spake this parable vnto certaine which trusted in themselues that they were righteous, & despised others:
10 Two men went vp into the temple to pray, the one a Pharisee, and the other a Publicane.
11 The Pharisee stood & prayed thus by himselfe, God, I thank thee, that I am not as other men are, extortioners, vniust, adulterers, or euen as this publicane.
12 I fast twice in the week, I pay the tithes of all that I possesse.
13 And the Publican standing afarre off, would not lift vp so much as his eyes vnto heauen: but smote on his breast, saying, God be merciful to me a sinner.
14 I tel you, this man went downe to his house iustified rather then the other: for euery one that exalteth himselfe, shall be abased, & he that humbleth himselfe, shall be exalted.
15 And they brought vnto him also infants, that he should touch them: but when his disciples saw it, they rebuked them.
16 But Iesus called them vnto him, and said: Suffer little children to come vnto me, & forbid them not: for of such is the kingdome of God.
17 Verily I say vnto you, Whosoeuer shall not receiue the kingdom of God as a little child, shall in no wise enter therein.
18 And a certaine ruler asked him, saying: Good Master, what shall I do that I may inherit eternal life?
19 And Iesus said vnto him, Why callest thou me good? none is good, saue one, that is God.
20 Thou knowest the commandements: Do not commit adultery, Do not kill, Do not steale, Do not beare false witnesse, honour thy father & thy mother.
21 And

ed said, All these have I kept ne from my youth up.
22 Now when Iesus heard these things,
he said unto him, yet lackest thou one thing:
sell all that thou hast, and distribute unto the poor, and thou shalt have treasure in heaven: and come, follow me.
23 And when he heard this, he was very sorowful, for he was very rich.
24 And when Iesus saw that he was very sorowful, he said, How hardly shall they that have riches, enter into the kingdome of God?
25 For it is easier for a camel to go through a needles eye, then for a rich man to enter into the kingdom of God.
26 And they that heard it, said, Who then can be saued?
27 He said, The things which are unpossible with men, are possible with God.
28 Then Peter said, Lo, we have left all, and followed thee.
29 And he said to them, Verily, I say vnto you, there is no man that hath left house, or parents, or brethren, or wife, or children, for the kingdome of Gods sake,
30 Who shall not receive manifold more in this present time, and in the world to come life euerlasting.
31 Then he took unto him twelue, and said vnto them, Behold, we goup to Ierusalem, & all things that are written by the Prophets concerning the Sonne of man, shall be accomplished.
32 For he shall be deliuered vnto the Gentiles, and shalbe mocked, and iniurously intreated, and spitted on:
33 And they shal scourge him, and put him to death, and the third day he shall rise again.
34 And they vnderstood none of these things: and this saying was hid from them, neither knew they the things which were spoken.
35 And it came to passe, that as he was come nigh vnto Iericho, a certaine blinde man sate by the way side begging.
36 And hearing the multitude passe by, he asked what it meant.
37 And they told him that Iesus of Nazareth passeth by.
38 And he cried, saying, Iesus thou Sonne of Dauid, haue mercy on me.
39 And they which went before, rebuked him, that he should hold his peace: but he cried so much the more, Thou Sonne of Dauid, haue mercy on me.
40 And Iesus stood and commanded him to be brought vnto him: and when he was come nie, he asked him, 41 Saying, What will thou that I shall do vnto thee? and he said, Lord, that I may receiue my sight.
42 And Iesus said vnto him, Receiue thy sight: thy faith hath saued thee.
43 And immediately he receiued his sight, and followed him, glorifying God: and all the people when they saw it, gaue praise vnto God.

CHAP. XIX.

1 And Iesus entred, and passed through Iericho,
2 And behold, there was a man named Zacheus, which was the chiefe among the publicanes, and he was rich.
3 And he sought to see Iesus who he was, and could not for the preasse because he was little of stature.
4 And he ran before, and climbed up into a Sycomore tree to see him, for he was to passe that way.
5 And when Iesus came to the place, he looked up, and saw him, and said vnto him, Zacheus, make haste, & come down, for to day I must abide at thy house.
6 And he made haste, and came down, and received him ioyfully.
7 And when they saw it, they all murmured, saying, that he was gone to be guest with a man that is a sinner.
8 And Zacheus stood, and said vnto the Lord, Behold, Lord, the halfe of my goods I giue to the poor, and if I haue taken any thing from any man by false accusation, I restore him four fold.
9 And Iesus said vnto him, This day is saluation come to this house, forasmuch as he also is the son of Abraham.
10 For the Sonne of man is come to seek, and to saue that which was lost.
11 And as they heard these things, he added, and spake a parable, because he was nigh to Hierusalem, and because they thought that the kingdome of God should immediately appear.
12 He said therefore, A certain noble man went into a farre country, to receive for himself a kingdome, and to return.
13 And he called his ten seruants, and deliuered them ten pounds, & said vnto them, Occupy til I come.
14 But his citizens hated him, & sent a message after him, saying, We will not haue this man to reigne ouer vs.
15 And it came to passe, that when he was returned, hauing received the kingdome, then he commanded these seruants to be called to him, to whome he had giuen money, that he might know how much euery man had gained by trading.
16 Then came the first, saying, Lord, thy pound hath gained ten pounds.
17 And he said vnto him, Well, thou good seruant, because thou hast been faithfull in a very little, haue thou authoritie ouer ten cities.
18 And the second came, saying, Lord, thy pound hath gained fiue pounds.
19 And he said likewise to him, Be thou also ouer fiue cities.
20 And another came, saying, Lord, behold, here is thy pound, which I haue kept laid vp in a napkin:
21 For I feared thee, because thou art an austere man, thou takest vp that thou layedst not down, and reapest that thou didst not sow.
22 And he saith vnto him, Out of thine owne mouth will I iudge thee, thou wicked seruant, thou knewest that I was an austere man, taking vp that I laid not down, & reaping that I did not sow.
23 Wherefore then gauest not thou my money into the banke, that at my comming I might have required mine owne with vsury?

24 And he saith vnto them that stood by, Take from him the pound, and giue it to him that hath ten pounds.

25 (And they said to him, Lord, he hath ten pounds.)

26 For I say vnto you, That to every one which hath shall be giuen, & from him that hath not, euen that he hath shall be taken away from him.

27 But those mine enemies which would not y I should reigne ouer them, bring hither and slay them before me.

28 And when he had thus spoken, he went before, ascending vp to Hierusalem.

29 And it came to passe, when he was come nigh to Bethphage and Bethany, at the mount called the mount of Olives, he sent two of his disciples,

30 Saying, Go ye into the village ouer against you, in the which at your entring ye shall find a colt tied, whereon yet neuer man sate, loose him, and bring him hither.

31 And if any man aske you, why do ye loose him? thus shall ye say to him, Because the Lord hath need of him.

32 And they that were sent, went their way, and found euen as he had said vnto them.

33 And as they were loosing the colt, the owners thereof said vnto them, Why loose ye the colt?

34 And they said, The Lord hath need of him.

35 And they brought him to Iesus: and they cast their garments vpon the colt, and they set Iesus thereon.

36 And as he went, they spread their clothes in the way.

37 And when he was come nigh, euen now at the descent of the mount of Olives, the whole multitude of the disciples began to reioyce & praise God with a loud voyce for all the mighty workes that they had seen,

38 Saying, Blessed be the King y commeth in the Name of the Lord: peace in heauen, and glory in the highest.

39 And some of the Pharises from among the multitude said vnto him, Master, rebuke thy disciples.

40 And he answered and said vnto them, I tell you, that if these should hold their peace, the stones would immediately cry out.

41 And when he was come neer, he beheld the citie, and wept ouer it,

42 Saying, If thou hadst known, euen thou at least in this thy day of thy visitation, the things which belong vnto thy peace! but now they are hid from thine eyes.

43 For the dayes shall come vpon thee, that thine enemies shall cast a trench about thee, and compasse thee round, and keep thee in on every side, 44 And shall lay thee euen with the ground, and thy children within thee; and they shall not leaue in thee one stone vpon another, because thou knewest not the time of thy visitation.

45 And he went into the Temple, and began to cast out them that solde therein, and them that bought,

46 Saying vnto them, It is written, My house is the house of prayer, but ye haue made it a den of theeues.

47 And he taught daily in the Temple: but the chiefe Priests and the Scribes, and the chiefe of the people sought to destroy him,

48 And could not find what they might do: for all the people were very attentiue to heare him.

CHAP. XX.

1 And it came to passe, that on one of those dayes, as he taught the people in the Temple, and preached the Gospel, the chiefe Priests and the Scribes came vpon him with the Elders,

2 And spake vnto him, saying, Tell vs, by what authority doest thou these things? or who is he that gaue thee this authority?

3 And he answered, and said to them, I will also aske you one thing, and answer me:

4 The Baptisme of Iohn, was it from heauen, or of men?

5 And they reasoned with themselues, saying, If we shall say, From heauen, he will say, Why then beleeued ye him not?

6 But and if we say, Of men, all the people will stone vs: for they be perswaded that Iohn was a Prophet.

7 And they answered that they could not tell whence it was.

8 And Iesus said vnto them, Neither tell I you by what authority I doe these things.

9 Then began he to speake to the people this parable: A certaine man planted a vineyard, and let it forth to husbandmen, & went into a far country for a long time.

10 And at the season, he sent a seruant to the husbandmen, that they should giue him of the fruit of the vineyard: but the husbandmen beat him, and sent him away empty.

11 And again he sent another seruant: & they beat him also, & intreated him shamefully, & sent him away empty.

12 And again he sent the third: and they wounded him also, & cast him out.

13 Then said the Lord of the vineyard, What shall I do? I will send my welbeloued sonne: it may be that when they see him, they will reuerence him.

14 But when the husbandmen saw him, they reasoned among themselues, saying, This is the heire: let vs kill him, that the inheritance may be ours.

15 So they cast him out of the vineyard, & killed him. What therefore shall the Lord of the vineyard do vnto them?

16 He shall come and destroy these husbandmen, and shall giue the vineyard to others. And when they heard it, they said, God forbid.

17 And he beheld them, and said, What is this then that is written, The which the builders reiected, the become the head of y corner is from that fal upon that stone, it to pouder: but on whom soeuer it shall grind him to powder.

And the chief Priests and the
the same houre sought to lay on him: for they feared the peothey perceiued that he had spo-parable against them.
And they watched him, & sent forth which should feine themselues iust that they might take hold of his that so they might deliuer him vnto and vnto the authority of y gouernour.
And they asked him, saying, Master,
we know that thou sayest and teachest rightly, neither accepted thou the person but teachest thy way of God truly
Is it lawful for us to giue tribute
Cæsar, or no?
But he perceiued their craftines, said vnto them, Why tempt ye me?
Shew me a penie: whose image and superscription hath it? They answered and said, Cæsars.
And he said vnto them, Render therefore vnto Cæsar the things which be Cæ-sars, and vnto God the things of God.
And they could not take hold of his words before y people: & they marvelled at his answer, and held their peace.
Then came to him certain of the Sadducees, which deny that there is any resurrection, and they asked him, Saying, Master, Moses wrote vnto vs, If anies brother die, having a wife, and he die without children, that his brother should take his wife, and raise vp seed vnto his brother.
Now there were therefore seuen brethren:
and the first tooke a wife, & died without children.
And the second took her to wife,
and he died childlesse.
And the third took her, and likewise the seuen also. And left no children, and died.
Last of all the woman died also.
Therefore in the resurrection,
whose of them is she? for seuen had her to wife.
And Iesus answering, said vnto them, The children of this world marie and are giuen in marriage.
But they which shall be accounted worthy to obtaine that world, and the resurrection from the dead, neither marie, nor are giuen in marriage.
Neither can they die any more: for they are equall vnto the Angels, and are the children of God, being the children of the resurrection.
Now that the dead are raised, euen Moses shewed at the bush, when he calleth the Lord the God of Abraham, and the God of Isaac, & y God of Iacob.
For he is not a God of the dead,
but of the liuing: for all liue vnto him.
Then certaine of the Scribes answered, and said, Master, thou hast well said.
And after that, they durst not aske him any question at all.

And he said vnto them, How say they that Christ is Dauids sonne?
And Dauid himself saith in the booke of Psalms, The Lord said to my Lord, sit thou on my right hand, Till I make thine enemies thy footstoole.
Dauid therefore calleth him Lord,
how is he then his sonne?
Then in the audience of all the people he said vnto his Disciples, Beware of Scribes, which desire to walke in long robes, & loue greetings in the markets, and y highest seats in y Synagogues, & the chiefe room at feasts:
Which deuour widowes houses, and for a shew make long prayers: the same shall receiue greater damnation.

CHAP. XXI.

And he looked vp, & saw rich men casting their gifts into the treasury.
And he saw also a certaine poore widow casting in thither two mites.
And he said, Of a truth I say vnto you, that this poore widow hath cast in more then they all.
For all these haue of their abundance cast in vnto the offrings of God:
but she of her pouerty hath cast in all the liuing that she had.
And as some spake of the Temple, how it was adorned with goodly stones and gifts: he said,
As for these things which ye behold,
the dayes will come, in y which there shall not be left one stone vpon another, that shall not be throwne downe.
And they asked him, saying, Master,
but when shall these things be? and what signe will there be when these things shall come to passe?
And he said, Take heede that ye be not deceiued: for many shall come in my Name, saying, I am Christ, and the time draweth neere: go ye not therfore after them.
But when ye shall heare of wars, and commotions, be not troubled: for these things must first come to passe, but the end is not by and by.
Then said he vnto them, Nation shall rise against nation, and kingdome against kingdome:
And great earthquakes shall be in diuers places, and famines, and pestilences: and fearefull things and great signes shall there be from heauen.
But before all these they shall lay their hands on you, & persecute you, deliuering you vp to the Synagogues, and into prisons, being brought before kings and rulers for my Names sake.
And it shall turne to you for a testimony.
Settle it therefore in your hearts, not to meditate before what ye shall answer:
For I will giue you a mouth, and wisedome which your aduersaries shall not be able to gaine-say, nor resist.
And ye shall be betrayed both by parents, and brethren, and kinsfolkes, and friends, and some of you shal they cause to be put to death.

17 And ye shal be hated of al men for my Names take.
18 But there shal not anhaire of your head perish.
19 In your patience possesse ye your soules.
20 And when ye shal see Hierusalem compassed with armies, then know that the desolation therof is nyghe.
21 Then let them which are in Iudea flee to the mountaines, and let them which are in the middest of it, depart out, and let not them that are in the countreys enter therinto.
22 For these be the dayes of vengeance that al things which are written may be fulfilled.
23 But woe unto them that are with child, and to them that give sucke in those dayes, for there shal be great distres in y land, & wrath on this people.
24 And they shal fal by the edge of the sword, & shalbe led away captive into al nations, and Ierusalem shall be troden down of the Gentiles, until the times of the Gentiles be fulfilled.
25 And there shal be tokens in y Sun, and in the Moon, & in the starres, & upon the earth distresse of nations, & people, by the sea & waves roaring.
26 Men hearts failing them for feare, and for looking after those things which are comming on the earth: for the Powers of heaven shalbe shaken.
27 And then shal they se the Son of man comming in a cloud with power and great glory.
28 And when these things begin to come to passe then look up and lift up your heads, for your redemption draweth nigh.
29 And he spake to them a parable. Behold the figtree, and all the trees:
30 When they now shoot forth, ye se and know of your owne selves that Summer is now nigh at hand.
31 So likewise ye, when ye se these things come to passe, know ye that the kingdome of God is nyghe at hand.
32 Verily I say to you, This generation shal not passaway, til al be fulfilled.
33 Heaven and earth shal passaway, but my words shal not passaway.
34 And take heede to your selves, lest at any time your hearts be ouer charged with surfetting, and drunkennesse, and cares of this life, and so that day come upon you unwares.
35 For as a snare shal it come upon al them that dwel on the face of the whole earth.
36 Watch ye therefore and pray always, y ye may be counted worthy to escape al this, that shal come to passe, & to stand before y Sonne of man.
37 And in the day time he was teaching in the temple, and at night he went out, and abode in the mount that is called the mount of Olyves.
38 And al the people came early in the morning to him in the temple for to heare him.

CHAP. XXII.

NOw at hand was the feast of vnleavened bread, which is called Passeouer.
2 And the chief priestes and scribes sought how they might kil him, for they feared the people.
3 Then entred Satan into Iudas, named Iscariot, being of the number of the twelve.
4 And he went his way, & communed with the chief priests and captains how he might betray him unto them.
5 And they were glad, & promised to give him money.
6 And he promised, and sought opportunity to betray him unto them in the absence of the multitude.
7 Then came the day of vnleavened bread when y passeouer must be killed.
8 And he sent Peter and Iohn, saying, Go and prepare us the passeouer that we may eat.
9 And they said unto him, Where wilt thou that we prepare?
10 And he said unto them, Behold, when ye are entred into the citie, there shal a man meet you, bearing a pitcher of water, follow him into the house where he entereth in.
11 And ye shal say unto the goodman of the house, y Master saith unto thee, Where is the guest-chamber, where I shal eat the passeouer with my disciples?
12 And he shal shew you a large vpper room furnished, there make ready.
13 And they went and found as he had said unto them, and they made ready the passeouer.
14 And when y hour was come, he sate down, & the twelve apostles with him.
15 And he said unto them, With desire I have desired to eat this passeouer with you before I suffer.
16 For I say unto you, I wil not eat more of it, til it be fulfilled in the kingdome of God.
17 And he took the cup, and gaue thanks, and said, Take this, and deuide it among your selves.
18 For I say unto you, I wil not drinke of the fruit of the vine, til the kingdome of God shal come.
19 And he took bread and gaue thanks, & brake it, and gaue unto them, saying, This is my body which is given for you: this do in remembrance of me.
20 Likewise also the cup after supper, saying, This cup is the New Testament in my blood which is shed for you.
21 But behold, the hand of him that betrayeth me is with me on the table.
22 And truly the Son of man goeth, as it was determined: but woe to that man by whom he is betrayed!
23 And they began to enquire among themselves which of them it was that should do that thing.
24 And there was also a strife among them, which of them should be counted the greatest.
25 And he said unto them, The kings of the Gentiles exercise lordship over and they that exercise authority upon them are called benefactors.

26 But not be so: but he that is greatest among you, let him be as the younger: and he that is chief, as he that doth serve.

27 For whether is greater, he that sitteth at meat, or he that serveth? Is not he that sitteth at meat? But I am among you as he that serveth.

28 Ye are they which have continued with me in my temptations.

29 And I appoint unto you a kingdom, as my Father hath appointed unto me;

30 That ye may eat and drink at my table in my kingdom, and sit on thrones judging the twelve tribes of Israel.

31 And the Lord said, Simon, Simon, behold, Satan hath desired to have you, that he may sift you as wheat:

32 But I have prayed for thee, that thy faith fail not: and when thou art converted, strengthen thy brethren.

33 And he said unto him, Lord, I am ready to go with thee both into prison, and to death.

34 And he said, I tell thee, Peter, the cock shall not crow this day, before thou shalt thrice deny that thou knowest me.

35 And he said unto them, When I sent you without purse, and scrip, and shoes, lacked ye any thing? And they said, Nothing.

36 Then said he unto them, But now he that hath a purse, let him take it, and likewise his scrip: and he that hath no sword, let him sell his garment, and buy one.

37 For I say unto you, that this that is written must yet be accomplished in me, And he was reckoned among the transgressors: For the things concerning me have an end.

38 And they said, Lord, behold, here are two swords. And he said unto them, It is enough.

39 And he came out, and went, as he was wont, to the mount of Olives; and his disciples also followed him.

40 And when he was at the place, he said unto them, Pray, that ye enter not into temptation.

41 And he was withdrawn from them about a stone's cast, and kneeled down, and prayed,

42 Saying, Father, if thou be willing, remove this cup from me: nevertheless not my will, but thine, be done.

43 And there appeared an angel unto him from heaven, strengthening him.

44 And being in an agony he prayed more earnestly: and his sweat was as it were great drops of blood falling down to the ground.

45 And when he rose up from prayer, and was come to his disciples, he found them sleeping for sorrow,

46 And said unto them, Why sleep ye? rise and pray, lest ye enter into temptation.

47 And while he yet spake, behold a multitude, and he that was called Judas, one of the twelve, went before them, and drew near unto Jesus to kiss him.

48 But Jesus said unto him, Judas, betrayest thou the Son of man with a kiss?

49 When they which were about him saw what would follow, they said unto him, Lord, shall we smite with our sword?

50 And one of them smote a servant of the high priest, and cut off his right ear.

51 And Jesus answered and said, Suffer ye thus far. And he touched his ear, and healed him.

52 Then Jesus said to the chief Priests, captains of the Temple, and the Elders which were come to him, Be ye come out, as against a thief, with swords & staves?

53 When I was daily with you in the Temple, ye stretched forth no hands against me: but this is your hour, and the power of darkness.

54 Then took they him, and led him, and brought him into the high priest's house. And Peter followed afar off.

55 And when they had kindled a fire in the midst of the hall, and were set down together, Peter sat down among them.

56 But a certain maid beheld him as he sate by the fire, & earnestly looked upon him, & said, this man was also with him.

57 And he denied him, saying, Woman, I know him not.

58 And after a little while another saw him, & said, thou art also of them. And Peter said, Man, I am not.

59 And about the space of one hour after, another confidently affirmed, saying, of a truth this fellow also was with him, for he is a Galilean.

60 And Peter said, Man, I know not what thou sayest. And immediately while he yet spake, the cock crew.

61 And the Lord turned, & looked upon Peter. & Peter remembered the word of the Lord, how he had said to him, before the cock crow, ye shall deny me thrice.

62 And Peter went out, & wept bitterly.

63 And the men that held Jesus, mocked him, and smote him.

64 And when they had blindfolded him, they struck him on the face, and asked him, saying, Prophesie, who is he that smote thee?

65 And many other things blasphemously spake they against him.

66 And as soon as it was day, the Elders of the people, and the chief priests and the scribes came together, & led him into their council, saying,

67 Art thou the Christ? Tell us. And he said unto them, If I tell you, ye will not believe:

68 And if I also ask you, you will not answer me, nor let me go.

69 Hereafter shall the Son of man sit on the right hand of the power of God.

70 Then said they all, Art thou then the Son of God? And he said unto them, Ye say that I am.

71 And they said, What need we any further witness? for we our selves have heard of his own mouth.

CHAP. XXIII.

AND the whole multitude of them arose, and led him unto Pilate.

2 And

2 And they began to accuse him, saying, We found this fellow perverting the nation, and forbidding to giue tribute to Cesar, saying, that he himselfe is Christ a king.

3 And Pilate asked him, saying, Art thou the King of the Iewes? and he answered him & said, Thou sayest it.

4 Then said Pilate to the chiefe Priests, and to the people, I finde no fault in this man.

5 And they were the more fierce, saying, He stirreth vp the people, teaching thorowout all Iury, beginning from Gal lee to this place.

6 When Pilate heard of Galilee, he asked whether ỹ man were a Galilean.

7 And as soon as he knew that he belonged vnto Herods iurisdiction, he sent him to Herod, who himself also was at Hierusalem at that time.

8 And when Herod saw Iesus, he was exceeding glad, for he was desirous to see him of a long season, because he had heard many things of him, & he hoped to haue seen some miracle done by him.

9 Then he questioned wt him in many words, but he answered him nothing.

10 And the chief Priests and Scribes stood, and vehemently accused him.

11 And Herod with his men of warre set him at nought, and mocked him, and arrayed him in a gorgeous robe, & sent him again to Pilate.

12 And the same day Pilate & Herod were made friends together: for before they were at enmity between themselues.

13 And Pilate when he had called together the chief Priests, and the rulers and the people,

14 Said vnto them, Ye haue brought this man vnto me, as one that peruerteth the people: and behold, I hauing examined him before you, haue found no fault in this man, touching those things wherein ye accuse him.

15 No, nor yet Herod: for I sent you to him, and loe, nothing worthy of death is done vnto him.

16 I will therefore chastise him, and release him.

17 For of necessity he must release one vnto them at that feast.

18 And they cryed out all at once, saying, Away with this man, and release vnto vs Barabbas:

19 (Who for a certaine sedition made in the citty, & for murder was cast in prison)

20 Pilate therefore willing to release Iesus, spake again to them.

21 But they cryed, saying, Crucifie him, crucifie him.

22 And he said to them ỹ third time, Why, what euil hath he done? I haue found no cause of death in him: I will therefore chastise him and let him go.

23 And they were instant with loud voices, requiring that he might be crucified: and the voices of them, and of the chief Priests preuailed.

24 And Pilate gaue sentence that it should be as they required.

25 And he released vnto them, him that for sedition and murder was cast into prison, whom they had desired: but he deliuered Iesus to their will.

26 And as they led him away, they laid hold on one Simō a Cyrenian coming out of ỹ country, & on him they laid ỹ crosse, ỹ he might bear it after Iesus.

27 And there followed him a great company of people, & of women which also bewailed and lamented him.

28 But Iesus turning onto them, said, Daughters of Hierusalem, weep not for me, but weep for your selues, and for your children.

29 For behold, the dayes are coming in the wch they shall say, Blessed are the barren, & the wombs that never bare, and the paps which never gaue suck.

30 Then shal they begin to say to the mountaines, Fall on vs, and to the hils, couer vs.

31 For if they doe these things in a green tree, what shalbe done in the dry?

32 And there were also two other malefactors led wt him to be put to death.

33 And when they were come to the place wch is called Caluary, there they crucified him, & ỹ malefactors, one on the right hand, & ỹ other on the left.

34 Then said Iesus, Father, forgiue them, for they know not what they do. & they parted his raiment, & cast lots.

35 And ỹ people stood beholding. And the rulers also with them, derided him, saying, he saued others, let him saue himself, if he be Christ ỹ chosen of God.

36 And ỹ Souldiers also mocked him, coming to him, & offering him vinegar,

37 And saying, If thou be the King of the Iewes saue thy self.

38 And a superscription also was written ouer him in letters of Greeke, and Latine, and Hebrew, THIS IS THE KING OF THE IEWES.

39 And one of the malefactors which were hanged, railed on him, saying, If thou be Christ, saue thy self and vs.

40 But the other answering, rebuked him, saying, Dost not feare God, seeing thou art in ỹ same condemnation?

41 And we indeed iustly, for we receiue the due reward of our deeds, but this man hath done nothing amisse.

42 And he said to Iesus, Lord, remember me when ỹ comest into thy kingdome.

43 And Iesus said vnto him, Verily I say to thee, to day shalt thou be with me in paradise.

44 And it was about the sixt houre, and there was a darkenesse ouer all the earth vntil the ninth houre.

45 And the Sun was darkened, & the vaile of ỹ temple was rent in the midst.

46 And when Iesus had cryed with a loud voice, he said, Father, into thine hands I commend my Spirit. And having said thus, he gaue vp the Ghost.

47 Now when the Centurion saw what was done, he glorified God, saying, certainly this was a iust man.

The Gospell according to S. IOHN.

CHAP. I.

1 IN the beginning was the Word, & the Word was with God, & y Word was God.
2 The same was in the beginning with God.
3 All things were made by him, and without him was not any thing made that was made.
4 In him was life, and the life was the light of men.
5 And the light shineth in darkenesse, & y darkenesse comprehended it not.
6 There was a man sent from God, whose name was Iohn.
7 The same came for a witnesse, to bear witnesse of the Light, that al men through him might believe.
8 He was not that Light, but was sent to bear witnesse of that Light.
9 That was the true light, which lighteth every man y commeth into the world.
10 He was in the world, and the world was made by him, & the world knew him not.
11 He came unto his own, and his own received him not.
12 But as many as received him, to them gave he power to become y sons of God, even to them y believe on his Name:
13 Which were born, not of blood, nor of the will of the flesh, nor of the will of man, but of God.
14 And the Word was made flesh, and dwelt among us, (and we beheld his glory, the glory as of the only begotten of the Father) full of grace & truth.
15 Iohn bare witnes of him, & cryed, saying, This was he of whom I spake, He that commeth after me is preferred before me, for he was before me.
16 And of his fulnesse have al we received, and grace for grace.
17 For the Law was given by Moses, but grace & truth came by Iesus Christ.
18 No man hath seen God at any time: the only begotten Son which is in the bosō of y Father, he hath declared him.
19 And this is y record of Iohn when the Iewes sent Priests & Leuites from Hierusalem, to ask him, who art thou?
20 And he confessed, and denyed not, but confessed, I am not the Christ.
21 And they asked him, What then? Art thou Elias? And he said, I am not. Art y y Prophet? And he answered, No.
22 Then said they unto him, Who art thou, y we may give an answer to them y sent us: What sayest thou of thy self?
23 He said, I am y voice of one crying in the wilderness: Make straight y way of the Lord, as said y Prophet Esaias.
24 And they which were sent, were of the Pharisees.
25 And they asked him, and said unto him, Why baptizest thou then, if thou be not that Christ, nor Elias, neither that Prophet?
26 Iohn answered them, saying, I baptize with water, but there standeth one among you whom ye know not,
27 He it is who coming after me is preferred before me, whose shoes latchet I am not worthy to unloose.
28 These things were done in Bethabara beyond Iordan, where Iohn was baptizing.
29 The next day Iohn seeth Iesus coming unto him, and saith, Behold the Lambe of God, which taketh away the sin of the world.
30 This is he, of whom I said, After me commeth a man which is preferred before me: for he was before me.
31 And I knew him not: but that he should be made manifest to Israel therefore am I come baptizing with water.
32 And Iohn bare record, saying, I saw the spirit descending from heaven like a dove, and it abode upon him.
33 And I knew him not: but he that sent me to baptize with water, y same said unto me, Upon whom thou shalt see turned into wine.

Spirit descending, and remain-him, the same is the which bapwith the holy Ghost.
And I saw, and bare record, that same Son of God.
Again the next day after, John and two of his Disciples, looking upon Jesus as he wal-saith, Behold y Lamb of God.
And the two disciples heard him and they followed Jesus.
Then Jesus turned and saw them coming, and saith unto them, What seek? They said unto him, Rabbi (which is to say, being interpreted, Master) where dwellest thou?
He saith unto them, Come and see.
They came and saw where he dwelt, and abode with him that day: for it was about the tenth hour.
One of the two which heard John speak, and followed him, was Andrew, Simon Peters brother.
He first findeth his owne brother Simon, and saith unto him, We have found the Messias, which is, being interpreted, the Christ.
And he brought him to Jesus. And when Jesus beheld him, he said, Thou art Simon the son of Jona, thou shalt be called Cephas, which is by interpretation a stone.
The day following Jesus would go forth into Galilee, & findeth Philip, and saith unto him, Follow me.
Now Philip was of Bethsaida, the city of Andrew and Peter.
Philip findeth Nathanael. & saith unto him, We have found him of whom Moses in y law & y prophets did write,
Jesus of Nazareth the son of Joseph.
And Nathanael said to him, Can there any good thing come out of Nazareth? Philip saith to him, come & see.
Jesus saw Nathanael comming to him, and saith of him, Behold an Israelite indeed, in whom is no guile.
Nathanael said to him, Whence knowest thou me? Jesus answered, and said unto him, Before that Philip called thee, when thou wast under the figtree, I saw thee.
Nathanael answered, and said unto him, Rabbi, thou art the Son of God, thou art the King of Israel.
Jesus answered, & said unto him,
Because I said unto thee, I saw thee under the figtree, believest thou? thou shalt see greater things than these.
And he saith unto him, Verily, verily,
I say unto you, hereafter ye shall see heaven open, & y Angels of God ascending and descending upon the Son of man.

CHAP. II.

1 And the third day there was a marriage in Cana of Galilee, and the mother of Jesus was there.
2 And both Jesus was called and his disciples to the marriage.
3 And when they wanted wine, the mother of Jesus saith unto him, They have no wine.
4 Jesus saith unto her, Woman, what have I to do with thee? mine houre is not yet come.
5 His mother saith unto the servants,
Whatsoever he saith unto you, do it.
6 And there was set there five water-pots of stone, after the manner of the purifying of the Jewes, containing two or three firkins apiece.
7 Jesus saith unto them, Fill the water-pots with water: and they filled them up to the brim.
8 And he saith unto them, Draw out now, and bear unto the governour of the feast. And they bare it.
9 When the ruler of the feast had tasted the water that was made wine, & knew not whence it was (but the servants which drew y water knew y) y governour of y feast called y bridgroom 10 And saith unto him, Every man at the beginning doeth set sooth good wine, and when men have well drunk, then that which is worse: but thou hast kept the good wine until now.
11 This beginning of miracles did Jesus in Cana of Galilee, and manifested forth his glory, and his disciples believed on him.
12 After this he went down into Capernaum, he and his mother, and his brethren, and his disciples, and they continued there not many dayes.
13 And the Jewes Passeover was at hand, & Jesus went up to Hierusalem, 14 And found in the Temple those that sold oxen, and sheep, and doves, and the changers of money, sitting.
15 And when he had made a scourge of small cordes, he drove them all out of the Temple, & the sheep, & the oxen, and poured out the changers money,
and overthrew the tables.
16 And said to them that sold doves, Take these things hence, make not my Fathers house an house of merchandize.
17 And his disciples remembred that it was written, The zeal of thine house hath eaten me up.
18 Then answered the Jewes, & said to him, What signe shewest thou unto us, seeing that thou doest these things?
19 Jesus answered, & said unto them, Destroy this Temple, and in three dayes I will raise it up.
20 Then said the Jewes, Forty & six yeers was this Temple in building, & wilt thou rear it up in three dayes?
21 But he spake of the Temple of his body.
22 When therefore he was risen from the dead, his disciples remembred that he had said this unto them: and they believed the scripture, and the word which Jesus had said.
23 Now when he was in Hierusalem at the Passeover, in the feast day, many believed in his Name, when they saw the miracles which he did.
24 But Jesus did not commit himself unto them, because he knew all men.
25 And needed not y any should tes-tifie

fe of man: for he knew what was in man.

CHAP. III.

THere was a man of ỹ Pharisees, named Nicodemus, a ruler of ỹ Iewes:
2 The same came to Iesus by night, and said unto him, Rabbi, we know that thou art a teacher come from God: for no man can do those miracles that thou doest, except God be with him.
3 Iesus answered, and said unto him, Verily, verily, I say unto thee, except a man be born again, he cannot see the kingdome of God.
4 Nicodemus saith unto him, How can a man be born when he is old? can he enter the second time into his mothers wombe, and be born?
5 Iesus answerted, Verily, verily, I say unto thee, except a man be born of water, and of the Spirit, he cannot enter into the Kingdome of God.
6 That ỹ is born of the flesh is flesh; & ỹ which is born of ỹ spirit, is spirit.
7 Marvaile not that I said unto thee, Ye must be born again.
8 The wind bloweth where it listeth, and thou hearest the sound thereof, but canst not tell whence it commeth, and whither it goeth: So is every one that is born of the Spirit.
9 Nicodemus answered, and said unto him, how can these things be?
10 Iesus answered and said unto him, art thou a Master of Israel, and knowest not these things?
11 Verily, verily I say unto thee, We speak that we do know, & testifie ỹ we have seen, & ye receive not our witnes.
12 If I have told you earthly things, and ye believe not, how shal ye believe if I tel you of heavenly things?
13 And no man hath ascended up to heaven, but he ỹ came down from heaven, even ỹ Son of man which is in heave.
14 And as Moses lifted up the Serpent in the wilderneſs: Even so must the Son of man be lifted up:
15 That whosoever believeth in him, should not perish, but have eternal life.
16 For God so loved the world, that he gave his only begotten Son: that whosoever believeth in him, should not perish, but have everlasting life.
17 For God sent not his Son into the world to condemne the world: but that ỹ world through him might be saved.
18 He that believeth on him, is not condemned: but he that believeth not, is condemned already, because he hath not believed in the Name of the only begotten Son of God.
19 And this is the condemnation, that light is come into the world, and men loved darkeneſs rather then light, because their deeds were evil.
20 For every one that doeth evil, hateth ỹ light, neither cometh to ỹ light, lest his deeds should be reproved.
21 But he that doth truth, cometh to the light, ỹ his deeds may be made manifeſt, ỹ they are wrought in God.
22 After these things came Iesus, and his disciples into the land of Iudea: there he tarried with them, & baptized.
23 And John also was baptizing in Aenon, neer to Salim, because there was much water there: and they came, and were baptized.
24 For Iohn was not yet cast into prison.
25 Then there arose a question between some of Iohns Disciples and the Iewes, about purifying.
26 And they came unto Iohn, & said unto him, Rabbi, he that was with thee beyond Iordane, to whom thou hast given witneſſe, behold, the same baptizeth, and all men come to him.
27 Iohn answered, and said, A man can receive nothing, except it be given him from heaven.
28 Ye your selves beare me witneſs that I said, I am not the Christ, but that I am sent before him.
29 He that hath the bride is ỹ bridegroom: but the friend of ỹ bridegroom, which standeth & heareth him, rejoyceth greatly, because of ỹ bridegroomes voyce: this my joy therefore is fulfilled.
30 He must increase, but I must decrease.
31 He that commeth from above, is above all: he that is of the earth is earthly, and speaketh of the earth: he that commeth from heaven, is above all.
32 And what he hath seen and heard, that he testifieth: and no man receiveth his testimonie.
33 He that hath received his testimonie, hath set to his seale ỹ God is true.
34 For he whom God hath sent, speaketh ỹ words of God: for God giveth not the Spirit by measure unto him.
35 The Father loveth the Son, and hath given all things into his hand.
36 He that believeth on the Sonne, hath everlasting life: and he that believeth not the Son, shal not see life: but the wrath of God abideth on him.

CHAP. IIII.

WHen therefore ỹ Lord knew how ỹ Pharisees had heard ỹ Iesus made & baptized more disciples then Iohn,
2 (Though Iesus himself baptized not, but his disciples,)
3 He left Iudea, and departed again into Galilee.
4 And he must needs go thorow Samaria.
5 Then commeth he to a city of Samaria, which is called Sychar, neere to the parcell of ground that Iacob gave to his son Ioseph.
6 Now Iacobs well was there. Iesus therefore being wearied with his journey, sate thus on the well, and it was about the sixt houre.
7 There commeth a woman of Samaria to draw water: Iesus saith unto her, Give me to drink.
8 For his Disciples were gone away unto the city to buy meat.
9 Then saith the woman of Samaria unto him, How is it that thou being a Iew, askeſt drink of me, which am a woman of Samaria, For the Iews have dings with the Samaritanes.

ld answered, & said to her, If y the gift of God, and who it is to thee, Give me to drink, y ld have asked of him, and he d have given thee living water.
The woman saith unto him, Sir,
d nothing to draw with, and ell is deep: from whence then hast ue living water.
greater, then our father Iacob, gave us well, & drank thereof himself, & his children, & his cattel?
Iesus answered, and said unto he Whosoever drinketh of this wa-shall thirst again:
But whosoever drinketh of the water that I shall give him, shal never ve: but the water that I shall give him, shall be in him a well of water, ing up into everlasting life.
The woman saith unto him, Sir,
me this water, that I thirst not,
ther come hither to draw.
Iesus saith unto her, Go, call thy band, and come hither.
The woman answered, & said, I e no husband: Iesus said unto her, hast well said, I have no husband:
For thou hast had five husbands, d whom thou now hast, is not thy band: in that saidest thou truely.
The woman saith unto him, Sir,
ceive that thou art a Prophet.
Our fathers worshipped in this ntain, & ye say, y in Hierusalē is the where men ought to worship.
Iesus saith to her, Woman, believe me, the hour commeth, when ye shal ther in this mountain, nor yet at erusalem, worship the Father.
Ye worship ye know not what:
know what we worship: for salvan is of the Iews.
But the hour commeth, & now is,
when true worshippers shal worship
Father in spirit, and in truth: for Father seeketh such to worship him.
God is a Spirit, and they that worship him, shall worship him in rit and in truth.
The woman saith to him, I know y
Messias commeth, & is called Christ:
when he is come, he will tel us all things.
Iesus saith unto her, I that speak unto thee am he.
And upon this came his disciples, marvelled that he talked with the man: yet no man said, What seekest thou? or why talkest thou with her?
The woman then left her water-pot, and went her way into the city, and said to the men,
Come, see a man which told me all things that ever I did: is not this the Christ?
Then they went out of the city,
and came unto him.
In the mean while his disciples, prayed him, saying, Master, eat.
But he said unto them, I have meat to eat that ye know not of.

33 Therefore said the disciples one to another, Hath any man brought him ought to eat?
34 Iesus saith unto them, My meat is to do the will of him that sent me,
and to finish his work.
35 Say not ye, There are yet four moneths, and then commeth harvest?
Behold, I say unto you, Lift up your eyes, and look on the fields: for they are white already to harvest.
36 And he that reapeth receiveth wages, and gathereth fruit unto life eternal: that both he that soweth, and he that reapeth, may rejoyce together.
37 And herein is that saying true:
One soweth, and another reapeth.
38 I sent you to reap that whereon ye bestowed no labour: other men laboured, and ye are entred into their labours.
39 And many of the Samaritanes of that city believed on him, for the saying of the woman, which testified, he told me all that ever I did.
40 So when the Samaritanes were come unto him, they besought him that he would tary with them: and he abode there two dayes.
41 And many more believed, because of his own word:
42 And said unto the woman, Now we believe, not because of thy saying, for we have heard him our selves, and know that this is indeed the Christ,
the Saviour of the world.
43 Now after two dayes he departed thence, and went into Galilee:
44 For Iesus himself testified, that a prophet hath no honour in his own country.
45 Then when he was come into Galilee, the Galileans received him, having seen all the things that he did at Hierusalem at the feast: for they also went unto the feast.
46 So Iesus came again into Cana of Galilee, where he made the water wine. And there was a certain noble ma whose son was sicke at Capernaum.
47 When he heard that Iesus was come out of Iudea into Galilee, hee went unto him, and besought him y he would come down, and heal his son: for he was at the point of death.
48 Then said Iesus to him, Except ye see signes & wonders, ye will not believe 49 The noble man saith unto him,
Sir, come down ere my child die.
50 Iesus saith unto him, Go thy way, thy son liveth: and the man believed the word that Iesus had spoken unto him, and he went his way.
51 And as he was now going down, his servants met him, and told him, saying, Thy son liveth.
52 Then enquired he of them the hour when he began to amend: and they said unto him, Yesterday at the seventh hour the fever left him.
53 So the father knew that it was at the same hour, in the which Iesus said unto him, Thy son liveth, and himself

selfe believed, and his whole house.
54 This agayn is the second miracle that Iesus did, when he was come out of Iudea into Galile.

CHAP. V.

AFter this there was a feast of the Iews. & Iesus went up to Hierusalē.
2 Now there is at Hierusalem by the sheepmarket, a pool, which is called in the Hebrew tongue Bethesda, having fiue porches.
3 In these lay a great multitude of impotent folk, of blind, halt, wythered, waiting for the mooving of ỹ water.
4 For an angel went down at a certain season into ỹ pool, & troubled ỹ water: whosoeuer then first after ỹ troubling of ỹ water stepped in, was made whole of whatsoeuer infirmitie he had.
5 And a certain man was there, which had an infirmity thirty & eight yeers.
6 When Iesus saw him lie, and knew that he had been now a long time in that case, he saith vnto him, Wilt thou be made whole?
7 The impotent mā answered him, Sir, I haue no mā, whē ỹ water is troubled, to put me into ỹ pool: but while I am coming, another steps down before me.
8 Iesus saith vnto him, Rise, take vp thy bed, and walk.
9 And immediatly the man was made whole, and took vp his bed, & walked: and on the same day was the Sabbath.
10 The Iews therefore said vnto him that was cured, it is ỹ Sabbath day, It is not lawfull for thee to carry thy bed.
11 He answered them, He that made me whole, the same said vnto mee, Take vp thy bed, and walk.
12 Then asked they him, What man is that which said vnto thee, Take vp thy bed, and walk?
13 And he ỹ was healed, wist not who it was: for Iesus had conueyed himselfe away, a multitude being in that place.
14 Afterward Iesus findeth him in the temple, and said vnto him, Behold, thou art made whole, sin no more, lest a worse thing come vnto thee.
15 The man departed, and told ỹ Iews ỹ it was Iesus which had made him whole.
16 And therfore did ỹ Iews persecute Iesus, & sought to slay him, because he had done these things on ỹ Sabbath day.
17 But Iesus answered them, My father worketh hitherto, and I work.
18 Therefore the Iews sought the more to kil him, not only because he had broken the Sabbath, but said also, that God was his Father, making himself equall with God.
19 Then answered Iesus and said vnto them, Verily, verily I say vnto you, The Son can do nothing of himself, but what he seeth the Father do: for ỹe what things soeuer he doeth, these also doeth the Son likewise.
20 For the Father loueth the Son, and sheweth him all things that himself doth: and he will shew him greater ye works then these that ye may marvail.
21 For as the Father raiseth vp the dead, and quickeneth them: euen so the Son quickeneth whom he will.
22 For the Father iudgeth no man, but hath committed all iudgement vnto the Son,
23 That all men should honour the Son, euen as they honour the Father. He ỹ honoureth not ỹ Son, honoureth not the Father which hath sent him.
24 Verily, verily, I say vnto you, He that heareth my word, and beleeueth on him that sent me, hath euerlasting life, & shall not come into condemnation, but is passed from death to life.
25 Verily, verily I say to you, The hour is comming, and now is, when the dead shall hear the voyce of the Son of God, and they that hear, shall liue.
26 For as the Father hath life in himself: so hath he graūted to the Son to have life in himself:
27 And hath giuen him authority to execute iudgement also, because he is the Son of man.
28 Marvell not at this: for the hour is comming, in the which all that are in the graues, shall hear his voyce,
29 And shall come forth: they that haue done good, vnto ỹ resurrection of life, and they that haue done euil, vnto the resurrection of damnation.
30 I can of mine own selfe do nothing. As I heare, I iudge: and my iudgement is iust, because I seeke not mine owne will, but ỹ will of ỹ Father which hath sent me.
31 If I beare witnesse of my selfe, my witnesse is not true.
32 There is another that beareth witnesse of me: and I know that ỹ witnesse which he witnesseth of me, is true.
33 Ye sent vnto Iohn, and he bare witnesse vnto the trueth.
34 But I receiue not testimony from man: but these things I say, that ye might be saued.
35 He was a burning and a shining light, and ye were willing for a season to reioyce in his light.
36 But I haue greater witnesse then that of Iohn: for the works which the Father hath giuen me to finish, the same works that I do, bear witnesse of me, that the Father hath sent me.
37 And the Father himself which hath sent me, hath born witnesse of me. Ye haue neither heard his voyce at any time, nor seen his shape.
38 And ye haue not his word abiding in you: for whom he hath sent, him ye beleeue not.
39 Search the Scriptures, for in them ye think ye haue eternall life, and they are they which testifie of me.
40 And ye will not come to me, that ye might haue life.
41 I receiue not honour from men.
42 But I know you, that ye haue not the loue of God in you.
43 I am come in my Fathers Name, & ye receiue me not: if another shal come in his own name, him ye will receiue.

41 The Iewes then murmured at him, because he said, I am the bread which came down from heaven.

42 And they said, Is not this Iesus the son of Ioseph, whose father and mother we know? how is it then that hee saith, I came down from heaven?

43 Iesus therefore answered, & said to them, Murmure not among your selves.

44 No man can come unto me, except the Father which hath sent me, draw him: and I will raise him up at the last day.

45 As it is written in the Prophets, And they shall be all taught of God: every man therefore that hath heard, and hath learned of the Father, commeth to me.

46 Not that any man hath seene the Father, save he which is of God, he hath seene the Father.

47 Verily, verily, I say unto you, He that beleeveth on me, hath everlasting life.

48 I am that bread of life.

49 Your Fathers did eate Manna in the wildernesse, and are dead.

50 This is the bread which commeth from heaven, that a man may eate thereof, and not die.

51 I am the living bread which came down from heaven: If any man eat of this bread, he shall live for ever: & the bread that I will give him, is my flesh, which I will give for the life of the world.

52 The Iewes therefore strove among themselves, saying, How can this man give us his flesh to eate?

53 Then Iesus said unto them, Verily, verily, I say unto you, Except ye eate the flesh of the Son of man, & drinke his blood, ye have no life in you.

54 Whoso eateth my flesh, and drinketh my blood, hath eternal life: and I will raise him up at the last day.

55 For my flesh is meat indeed, and my blood is drinke indeed.

56 He that eateth my flesh, & drinketh my blood, dwelleth in me, & I in him.

57 As the living Father hath sent me, and I live by the Father: so he that eateth me, even he shall live by me.

58 This is that bread which came down from heaven: not as our fathers did eat Manna and are dead: he that eateth of this bread, shall live for ever.

59 These things said he in the Synagogue, as he taught in Capernaum.

60 Many therefore of his disciples, when they had heard this, said, This is an hard saying, who can heare it?

61 When Iesus knew in himself that his disciples murmured at it, he said unto them, Doth this offend you?

62 What and if ye shall see the Son of man ascend up where he was before?

63 It is the Spirit that quickeneth, y flesh profiteth nothing: y words y I speake to you, they are spirit, & they are life.

64 But there are some of you that beleeve not. For Iesus knew from the beginning, who they were that beleeved not, & who should betray him.

65 And he said, Therefore said I to you, y no man can come to me, except it were given to him of my Father.

66 From y time many of his Disciples went back, & walked no more with him.

67 Then said Iesus unto the twelve, Will ye also goe away?

68 Then Simon Peter answered him, Lord, to whom shall we goe? thou hast the words of eternall life.

69 And we believe and are sure that thou art that Christ, the Sonne of the living God.

70 Iesus answered them, Have not I chosen you twelve, and one of you is a devill?

71 He spake of Iudas Iscariot, the son of Simon: for he it was that should betray him, being one of the twelve.

CHAP. VII.

AFter these things, Iesus walked in Galilee: for he would not walke in Iury: because the Iewes sought to kill him.

2 Now the Iewes feast of Tabernacles was at hand.

3 His brethren therefore said unto him, Depart hence, and go into Iudea, that thy disciples also may see the workes that thou doest.

4 For there is no man that doth any thing in secret, and he himself seeketh to be known openly: if thou doest these things, shew thy self to y world.

5 For neither did his brethren beleeve in him.

6 Then Iesus said unto them, My time is not yet come: but your time is alwayes ready.

7 The world cannot hate you, but me it hateth, because I testifie of it, that the workes thereof are evill.

8 Goe ye up unto this feast: I goe not up yet unto this feast, for my time is not yet full come.

9 When he had said these words unto them, he abode still in Galilee.

10 But when his brethren were gone up, then went he also up unto y feast, not openly, but as it were in secret.

11 Then the Iewes sought him at the feast, and said, where is he?

12 And there was much murmuring among the people concerning him: for some said, He is a good man, others said, Nay, but he deceiveth the people.

13 Howbeit no man spake openly of him for feare of the Iewes.

14 Now about the midst of the feast Iesus went up into y temple, & taught.

15 And the Iewes marvelled saying, How knoweth this man letters, having never learned?

16 Iesus answered them, My doctrine is not mine, but his that sent me.

17 If any man will doe his will, he shall know of the doctrine whether it be of God, or whether I speake of my self.

18 He y speaketh of himself, seeketh his own glory: but he that seeketh his own glory that sent him, the same is true, and no unrighteousnesse is in him.

19 Did not Moses give you y Law, and yet none of you keepeth the Law?

Why

you about to kill me?
The people answered and said, hast a devil, who goeth about ll you?
Jesus answered and said to them, I done one worke, & ye all marvell Moses therefore gave unto you circumcision, (not because it is of but of the Fathers) and ye on Sabbath day circumcise a man.
If a man on the Sabbath day re-Circumcision, that the Law of Moses should not be broken, are ye with me, because I have made a man every whit whole on the Sabbath day?
Judge not according to y appeabut judge righteous judgement.
Then said some of them of Jeru-
Is not this he, whom they seeke ll?
But lo, he speaketh boldly, & they nothing unto him. Doe the rulers ow indeed, that this is y very Christ?
Howbeit we know this man whence is: but when Christ commeth, no knoweth whence he is.
Then cryed Jesus in the Temple taught, saying, ye both know me, know whence I am, and I am come of my selfe, but he that sent is true, whom ye know not.
But I know him, for I am from and he hath sent me.
Then they sought to take him: but man laid hands on him, because his hour was not yet come.
And many of the people believed him, and said, When Christ com-shall he doe more miracles then which this man hath done?
The Pharisees heard that the peo-murmured such things concerning him: the Pharisees and the chiefe Priests sent officers to take him.
Then said Jesus unto them, Yet a little while am I with you, and then go unto him that sent me.
Ye shall seeke me, and shall not find me: and where I am, thither yee cannot come.
Then said y Iewes among themselves, Whither will he go, y we shall not find him? will he go unto the dispersed among Gentiles, & teach y Gentiles?
What manner of saying is this that he said, Ye shall seeke me, and shall not find me: and where I am, thither yee cannot come?
In the last day, that great day of the feast, Jesus stood, & cryed, saying,
If any man thirst, let him come unto me, and drinke.
He that believeth on me, as the Scripture hath said, out of his belly shall flow rivers of living water.
(But this spake he of the Spirit, which they that believe on him, should receive:
for the holy Ghost was not yet given, because that Jesus was not yet glorified.)
Many of the people therefore, when they heard this saying, said, Of a truth this is the Prophet.

41 Others said: This is the Christ?
But some said, Shall Christ come out of Galilee?
42 Hath not the Scripture said, that Christ commeth of the seed of David, and out of the towne of Bethlehem,
where David was?
43 So there was a division among the people because of him.
44 And some of them would have taken him: but no man laid hands on him.
45 Then came y officers to the chiefe Priests and Pharisees, & they said to them, Why have ye not brought him?
46 The officers answered, Never man spake like this man.
47 Then answered them the Pharisees, Are ye also deceived?
48 Have any of the Rulers, or of the Pharisees believed on him?
49 But this people who knoweth not the Law, are curſed.
50 Nicodemus (saith unto them, (He that came to Jesus by night, being one of them.)
51 Doth our law judge any man before it heare him, and know what he doth?
52 They answered, & said to him, Art thou also of Galilee? Search & looke:
for out of Galilee ariseth no Prophet.
53 And every man went unto his own house.

CHAP. VIII.

1 Jesus went unto y mount of Olives:
2 And early in the morning he came againe into the Temple, and all the people came unto him, and he sate down, and taught them.
3 And y Scribes & Pharisees brought to him a woman taken in adultery, &
when they had set her in the midſt, 4 They say to him, Master, this woman was taken in adultery, yea very act.
5 Now Moses in the Law commanded us, that such should be stoned: but what sayest thou?
6 This they said, tempting him, that they might have to accuse him. But Jesus stooped down, and with his finger wrote on the ground, as though he heard them not.
7 So when they continued asking him, he lift up himself, and said unto them, He that is without sin among you, let him first cast a stone at her.
8 And again he stooped downe, and wrote on the ground.
9 And they which heard it, being convicted by their own conſcience, went out one by one, beginning at y eldeſt, even to y last: & Jesus was left alone,
and the woman standing in the midſt.
10 When Jesus had lift up himself, & saw none but the woman, he said unto her, Woman, where are those thine accusers? hath no man condemned thee?
11 She said, No man, Lord. And Jesus said unto her, Neither do I condemne thee: goe, and sin no more.
12 Then spake Jesus again unto them, saying, I am the light of the world: he that followeth me, shall not walke in darkneſſe, but shall have y light of life.
13 The

13 The Pharisees therefore said unto him, Thou beareſt record of thy ſelfe, thy record is not true.
14 Iesus answered, and ſaid unto them, Though I beare record of my ſelfe, yet my record is true: for I know whence I came, and whither I go: but ye cannot tell whence I come, and whither I goe.
15 Ye iudge after the fleſh, I iudge no man.
16 And yet if I iudge, my iudgement is true: for I am not alone, but I and the Father that ſent me.
17 It is alſo written in your Law, that the teſtimony of two men is true.
18 I am one that beare witneſſe of my ſelfe, and the Father that ſent me, beareth witneſſe of me.
19 Then ſaid they unto him, Where is thy Father? Iesus anſwered, Ye neither know me nor my Father: if ye had known me, ye ſhould have known my Father alſo.
20 Theſe words ſpake Iesus in the treaſury, as he taught in the Temple, and no man laid hands on him: for his houre was not yet come.
21 Then ſaid Iesus againe unto them, I goe my way, and ye ſhall ſeeke me, and ſhall die in your ſinnes. Whither I goe, ye cannot come.
22 Then ſaid the Iewes, Will he kill himſelfe? becauſe he ſaith, Whither I goe, ye cannot come.
23 And he ſaid unto them, Ye are from beneath, I am from above: ye are of this world: I am not of this world.
24 I ſaid therefore unto you, ye ſhall die in your ſins. For if ye believe not that I am he, ye ſhall die in your ſins.
25 Then ſaid they unto him, Who art thou? And Iesus ſaid to them, Even the ſame that I ſaid to you from the beginning.
26 I have many things to ſay, and to iudge of you: but he that ſent me is true; and I ſpeak unto the world thoſe things which I have heard of him.
27 They underſtood not that he ſpake to them of the Father.
28 Then ſaid Iesus unto them, When ye have lift up the Son of man, then ſhall ye know that I am he, and that I do nothing of my ſelfe: but as my Father hath taught me, I ſpake theſe things.
29 And he that ſent me, is with me: the Father hath not left me alone: for I do alway thoſe things that pleaſe him.
30 As he ſpake thoſe words, many beleeved on him.
31 Then ſaid Iesus to thoſe Iewes that beleeved on him, If ye continue in my word, then are ye my diſciples indeed.
32 And ye ſhall know the truth, and the truth ſhall make you free.
33 They anſwered him, We be Abrahams ſeed, and were never in bondage to any man: how ſayeſt thou, Ye ſhall be made free?
34 Iesus anſwered them, Verily, verily, I ſay unto you, Whoſoever committeth ſinne is the ſervant of ſinne.
35 And the ſervant abideth not in the houſe for ever, but the Sonne abideth ever.
36 If the Son therefore ſhal make you free, ye ſhall be free indeed.
37 I know that ye are Abrahams ſeed, but ye ſeeke to kill me, becauſe my word hath no place in you.
38 I ſpeake that which I have ſeene with my Father: and ye do that which ye have ſeene, with your Father.
39 They anſwered and ſaid unto him, Abraham is our father. Ieſus ſaith unto them, If ye were Abrahams children, ye would do the workes of Abraham.
40 But now ye ſeek to kill me, a man that hath told you y truth, which I have heard of God: this did not Abraham.
41 Ye doe the deeds of your father. Then ſaid they to him, We be not born of fornication; we have one Father, even God.
42 Ieſus ſaid unto them, If God were your Father, ye would love me: for I proceeded forth, & came from God, neither came I of my ſelfe, but he ſent me.
43 Why do ye not underſtand my ſpeech, even becauſe ye cannot heare my word?
44 Ye are of your father the devill, and the luſts of your father ye will do: he was a murtherer from the beginning, and abode not in the truth, becauſe there is no truth in him. When he ſpeaketh a lie, he ſpeaketh of his own: for he is a liar, & y father of it.
45 And becauſe I tell you the truth, ye believe me not.
46 Which of you convinceth me of ſinne? And if I ſay the truth, why doe ye not believe me?
47 He that is of God, heareth Gods words; ye therefore heare them not, becauſe ye are not of God.
48 Then anſwered the Iewes, and ſaid unto him, Say we not well that thou art a Samaritane, and haſt a devil.
49 Ieſus anſwered, I have not a devil, but I honour my Father, and ye doe diſhonour me.
50 And I ſeek not mine own glory: there is one that ſeeketh and iudgeth.
51 Verily, verily, I ſay to you, If a man keep my ſayings, he ſhall never ſee death.
52 Then ſaid the Iewes unto him, Now we know that thou haſt a devil. Abraham is dead, and the Prophets, and thou ſayeſt, If a man keepe my ſaying, he ſhall never taſte of death.
53 Art thou greater then our father Abraham which is dead? and y Prophets are dead: whom makeſt thou thy ſelfe?
54 Ieſus anſwered, If I honour my ſelfe, my honour is nothing: it is my Father that honoureth me, of whom ye ſay that he is your God:
55 Yet ye have not known him, but I know him: & if I ſhould ſay, I know him not, I ſhall be a liar like to you: but I know him, & keepe his ſaying.
56 Your Father Abraham rejoyced to ſee my day: & he ſaw it, & was glad.
57 Then ſaid the Iewes unto him, Thou art not yet fifty yeers old, and haſt thou ſeene Abraham?

him sait to them. Verily, verily I you before Abra'am was, I am.
59 Then took they up stones to cast at him: but Jesus hid himself, and went out of the Temple, going through the midst of them, and so passed by.

CHAP. IX.

1 And Jesus passed by, he saw a man which was blind from his birth.
2 And his disciples asked him, saying, Master, who did sin, this man or his parents, that he was born blinde?
3 Jesus answered, neither hath this man sinned, nor his parents: but y works of God should be made manifest in him.
4 I must worke the workes of him that sent me while it is day: the night commeth, when no man can worke.
5 As long as I am in the world, I am the light of the world.
6 When he had thus spoken, he spat on the ground, and made clay of the spittle, and he anointed the eyes of the blind man with the clay, 7 And said unto him, goe wash in the pool of Siloam, (which is by interpretation, Sent.) he went his way therefore and washed, & came seeing.
8 The neighbours therefore, and they which before had seene him that he was blind, said, Is not this he that sate and begged?
9 Some said, This is he, others said,
He is like him: but he said, I am he.
10 Therefore said they unto him, How were thine eyes opened?
11 He answered and said, A man that is called Jesus made clay and anointed mine eyes, and said unto me, Go to the pool of Siloam, & wash: and I went and washed and I received sight.
12 Then said they unto him, Where is he? He said, I know not.
13 They brought to the Pharisees him that aforetime was blind.
14 And it was the Sabbath day when Jesus made y clay, & opened his eyes.
15 Then again the Pharisees also asked him how he had received his sight.
He said unto them, he put clay upon mine eyes, and I washed, and doe see.
16 Therefore said some of the Pharisees, This man is not of God, because he keepeth not the Sabbath day. Others said, How can a man that is a sinner, do such miracles? and there was a division among them.
17 They say to the blind man again,
What sayest thou of him, y he hath opened thine eyes? He said, He is a Prophet.
18 But the Jews did not believe concerning him, y he had been blind, and received his sight, until they called y parents of him y had received his sight.
19 And they asked them, saying, Is this your Son, who ye say was borne blinde? how then doeth he now see?
20 His parents answered them, and said, We know that this is our son, and that he was borne blinde:
21 But by what meanes he now seeth, we know not: or who hath opened his eyes, we know not: he is of age, ask him, he shall speake for himself.
22 These words spake his parents, because they feared the Jewes: for the Jewes had agreed already, that if any man did confesse that he was Christ, he should be put out of the Synagogue.
23 Therefore said his parents, that he is of age, aske him.
24 Then again called they y man that was blind, & said to him, Give God y praise: we know y this man is a sinner.
25 He answered & said, Whether he be a sinner or no, I know not: one thing I know, y whereas I was blind, now I see.
26 Then said they to him again, what did he to thee? how opened he thy eyes?
27 He answered them, I have told you already, and ye did not heare:
Wherefore would ye heare it again?
Will ye also be his Disciples?
28 Then they reviled him, and said,
Thou art his disciple, but we are Moses disciples.
29 We know that God spake unto Moses: as for this fellow, we know not from whence he is.
30 The man answered, and said unto them, Why, herein is a marvellous thing, that ye know not from whence he is, & yet he hath opened mine eyes.
31 Now we know that God heareth not sinners: but if any man be a worshipper of God, and doeth his will, him he heareth.
32 Since the world began was it not heard, that any man opened the eyes of one that was born blind.
33 If this man were not of God,
he could doe nothing.
34 They answered, and said to him, Thou wast altogether born in sins, &
doest y teach us? And they cast him out.
35 Jesus heard that they had cast him out: and when he had found him, he said unto him, Doest thou beleeve on the Son of God?
36 He answered and said, Who is he,
Lord, that I might beleeve on him?
37 And Jesus said unto him, Thou hast both seene him, and it is he that talketh with thee.
38 And he said, Lord, I beleeve:
and he worshipped him.
39 And Jesus said, for judgment am I come into this world, that they which see not might see, and that they which see, might be made blinde.
40 And some of the Pharisees which were with him, heard these words, and said unto him, Are we blind also?
41 Jesus said unto them, If ye were blind, ye should have no sin: but now ye say, We see: therefore your sin remaineth.

CHAP. X.

1 VErily, verily I say unto you, He y entreth not by the doore into the sheepfold, but climeth up some other way, the same is a thief & a robber.
2 But he that entreth in by the door,
is the shepheard of the sheepe.
3 To him the porter openeth, and y sheep heare his voyce, & he calleth his own sheep by name, & leadeth the out.

4 And when he putteth forth his owne sheep, he goeth before them, & y sheep follow him: for they know his voyce.
5 And a straunger will they not follow, but will flee from him: for they to know not the voyce of straungers.
6 This parable spake Iesus unto them:
but they understood not what things they were which he spake unto them.
7 Then said Iesus unto them again, Verily, verily I say unto you, I am the dore of the sheepe.
8 All that ever come before me, are theeves & robbers: but the sheep
did not heare them.
9 I am the dore: by me if any man enter in, he shal be saved, and shal go in and out, and find pasture.
10 The theefe commeth not, but for to steale, & to kil, & to destroy: I am come, that they might have life, & that they might have it more abundantly.
11 I am the good Shepheard: the good Shepheard giveth his life for y sheepe.
12 But he that is an hireling, & not y shepheard, whose own y sheep are not, seeth the wolf coming, and leaveth the sheepe and fleeth: and the wolfe catcheth them, & scatereth the sheep.
13 The hireling fleeth, because he is an hireling, & careth not for y sheep.
14 I am the good Shepheard, and know my sheep, & am known of mine.
15 Euen as the Father knoweth me, even so know I the Father: and I lay down my life for the sheepe.
16 And other sheep I have, which are not of this fold: the also I must bring, and they shal hear my voyce, and there shalbe one fold, and one shepheard.
17 Therefore doeth my Father love me, because I lay down my life, that I might take it again.
18 No man taketh it from me, but I lay it down of my self. I have power to lay it down, and I have power to take it again. This commandement have I received of my Father.
19 There was a division therefore again among y Iewes for these sayings.
20 And many of them said, He hath a devil and is mad, why hear ye him?
21 Others said, These are not the words of him that hath a devil: can a devil open the eyes of the blind?
22 And it was at Hierusalem the feast of the dedication, and it was winter.
23 And Iesus walked in the Temple in Solomons porch.
24 Then came the Iewes round about him and said to him, How long dost thou make us to doubt? If thou be the Christ, tel us plainely.
25 Iesus answered them, I told you, and yee believed not, the workes that I doe in my Fathers name, they beare witnes of me.
26 But ye believe not, because ye are not of my sheep, as I said unto you.
27 My sheep heare my voyce, and I know them, and they follow me.
28 And I give unto them eternal life, and they shal never perish, neither shal any man pluck them out of my hand.
29 My Father which gave them me, is greater then al, and no man is able to pluck them out of my Fathers hand.
30 I and my Father are one.
31 Then the Iewes tooke up stone again to stone him.
32 Iesus answered them, many good works have I shewed you from my Father:
for which of those works do you stone me?
33 The Iewes answered him, saying,
For a good worke we stone thee not,
but for blasphemy, and because that thou being a man, makest thy self God.
34 Iesus answered them, Is it not written in your law, I said, Ye are gods?
35 If he called them gods, unto whom the word of God came, and the Scripture cannot be broken:
36 Say ye of him whom the Father hath sanctified, & sent into y world, Thou blasphemest: because I said, I am the Son of God?
37 If I doe not the works of my Father, believe me not.
38 But if I doe, though ye believe not me, believe the workes, that ye may know and believe, that the Father is in me, and I in him.
39 Therfore they sought again to tak him: but he escaped out of their hands, 40 And went away again beyond Iordan, into the place where Iohn at first baptized: and there he abode.
41 And many resorted unto him, and said, Iohn did no miracle, but al things
y Iohn spake of this man were true.
42 And many believed on him there.

CHAP. XI.

NOw a certaine man was sicke, named Lazarus, of Bethany, the town of Mary, and her sister Martha.
2 (It was that Mary which anointed the Lord with oyntment, and wiped his feete with her haire, whose brother Lazarus was sicke.)
3 Therefore his sisters sent unto him, saying, Lord, behold, he whom thou lovest is sicke.
4 When Iesus heard that, he said,
This sickenes is not unto death, but for the glory of God, that the Son of God might be glorified thereby.
5 Now Iesus loved Martha, and her sister, and Lazarus.
6 When he had heard therefore that he was sicke, he abode two dayes still in the same place where he was.
7 Then after that saith he to his Disciples, Let us go into Iudea again.
8 His Disciples say unto him, Master,
the Iewes of late sought to stone thee,
and goest thou thither again?
9 Iesus answered, Are there not twelve houres in the day? If any man walke in the day, he stumbleth not, because he seeth the light of this world.
10 But if a man walke in the night, he stumbleth, because there is no light in him.

11 These

11 These things said he: and after ards he said unto them, Our friend arus sleepeth, but I go, that I may ake him out of sleepe.
12 Then said his disciples, Lord, if sleep, he shall do well.
13 Howbeit, Iesus spake of his death:
they thought that he had spoken
aking of rest in sleepe.
14 Then said Iesus unto them
ly Lazarus is dead.
15 And I am glad for your sakes,
I was not there (to the intent ye may lieve:) Nevertheles let us go to him.
16 Then said Thomas, which is cal-Didymus, to his fellow Disciples
Let us go that we may die with him.
17 Then when Iesus came, he found at he had lien in the grave foure days already.
18 (Now Bethanie was nigh unto Jerusalem, about fifteen furlongs off.
19 And many of the Iewes came to Martha and Mary, to comfort them concerning their brother.
20 Then Martha assoone as she heard that Iesus was comming, went and met him: but Mary sate still in the house.
21 Then said Martha unto Iesus, Lord, if thou hadst beene heer, my brother had not died.
22 But I know, y even now whatsoever thou askest of God, God will give it thee.
23 Iesus saith unto her, Thy brother shall rise again.
24 Martha saith unto him, I know that he shall rise again in the re-urrection at the last day.
25 Iesus said unto her, I am the resurrection, & y life: he y believeth in me, though he were dead, yet shal he live:
26 And whosoever liveth and believeth in me, shal never die, believest thou this?
27 She saith unto him, Yea, Lord, I believe y thou art the Christ the Son of God, which should come into y world.
28 And when she had so said, she went her way, and called Mary her sister secretly, saying, The Master is come and calleth for thee.
29 Assoon as she heard that, she arose quickly, and came unto him.
30 Now Iesus was not yet come into the towne, but was in that place where Martha met him.
31 The Iewes then that were with her in the house, and comforted her, when they saw Mary y she rose up hastily, and went out, followed her, saying,
She goeth to the grave, to weep there.
32 Then when Mary was come where Iesus was, & saw him, she fel down at his feet, saying to him, Lord, if thou hadst beene heer, my brother had not died.
33 When Iesus therfore saw her weeping, & the Iewes also weeping which came with her, he groaned in the spirit, and was troubled,
34 And said, where have ye laid him?
They say unto him, Lord, come & see.
35 Iesus wept.
35 Then said the Iewes, Behold how he loved him.
37 And some of them said, Could not this man which opened the eyes of the blinde, have caused that even this man should not have dyed?
38 Iesus therefore again groaning in himselfe, cometh to the grave. It was a cave, and a stone lay upon it.
39 Iesus said, Take ye away the stone.
Martha y sister of him that was dead, said to him, Lord, by this time he stinketh: for he hath been dead four daies.
40 Iesus saith unto her, Said I not to thee, that if thou wouldest believe, ye thou shouldest see the glory of God.
41 Then they took away the stone from the place where y dead was laid.
And Iesus lift up his eyes and said Father, I thanke thee y y hast heard me.
42 And I know that thou hearest me always: but because of the people which stand by, I said it, that they may believe that thou hast sent me.
43 And when he thus had spoke, he cry-ed with a loud voice, Lazarus come forth.
44 And he that was dead came forth, bound hand and foot with grave clothes: and his face was bound about with a napkin. Iesus said unto them,
Loose him, and let him go.
45 Then many of the Iewes which came to Mary, and had seen the things which Iesus did, believed on him.
46 But some of them went their wayes to the Pharises, and told them what things Iesus had done.
47 Then gathered the chief priests & the pharisees a councel, and said, What do we? for this man doth many miracles.
48 If we let him thus alone, all men will believe on him, and the Romanes shall come and take away both our place and nation.
49 And one of them named Caiaphas being the high priest that same yere, said to them, Ye know nothing at all.
50 Nor consider that it is expedient for us, that one man should die for the people, & y the whole nation perish not.
51 And this spake he not of himself:
but being high priest y yeere, he prophesied y Iesus should die for y nation.
52 And not for y nation only, but that also he should gather together in one children of God y were scattered abroad.
53 Then from y day forth, they took counsel together to put him to death.
54 Iesus therefore walked no more openly among the Iewes, but went thence to a countrey neer to the wil-dernes, into a city called Ephraim, and there continued with his Disciples.
55 And the Iewes Passeover was nigh at hand, and many went out of the countrey up to Hierusalem before the Passeover to purifie themselves.
56 Then sought they for Iesus, and spake among themselves as they stood in the Temple, What think ye that he will not come to the Feast?
57 Now both the chiefe priests and and Martha served, but Lazarus, was one of them that sate at ẏ table with him.

3 Then took Mary a pound of ointment, of Spikenard very costly, and anointed the feet of Iesus, and wiped his feet with her haire: and the house was filled with ẏ odour of ẏ ointment.
4 Then saith one of his disciples, Iudas Iscariot, Simons son, which should betray him.
5 Why was not this ointment sold for three hundred pence, and given to the poore.
6 This he said, not that he cared for ẏ Poor: but because he was a thiefe & had ẏ bag, & bare what was put therin.
7 Then saith Iesus, let her alone against ẏ day of my burying hath she kept this.
8 For the poore always ye have with you: but me ye have not always.
9 Much people of the Iewes therfore knew that he was there: and they came not for Iesus sake onely, but that they might see Lazarus also, whom he had raised from the dead.
10 But the chiefe priests consulted, that they might put Lazarus also to death.
11 Because that by reason of him many of the Iewes went away, and beleeved on Iesus.
12 On the next day, much people that were com to the Feast, when they heard that Iesus was coming to Hierusalem, 13 Took branches of palme trees, & went forth to meet him, & cryed, Hosanna, blessed is the king of Israel, that commeth in ẏ Name of the Lord.
14 And Iesus when he had found a young asse, sate thereon, as it is written,
15 Feare not, daughter of Sion, behold, thy king commeth, sitting on an asses colt.
16 These things understood not his disciples at the first: but when Iesus was glorified, then remembred they that these things were written of him, and ẏ they had done these things to him.
17 The people therefore that was with him, when he called Lazarus out of his grave, and raised him from the dead, bare record.
18 For this cause the people also met him, for that they heard that he had done this miracle.
19 The pharisees therfore said among themselves, perceive ye how ye prevaile nothing? Lo ẏ world is gon after him.
20 And there were certain Greeks among them ẏ came up to worship at ẏ feast.
21 The same came therefore to Philip which was of Bethsaida of Galilee, & desired him, saying, Sir, we would fee Iesus.
22 Philip commeth & telleth Andrew: & again Andrew & Philip told Iesus.
23 And Iesus answered them, saying, The houre is come that the Sonne of man should be glorified.
24 Verily, verily I say unto you, Except a corne of wheat fal to ẏ ground, and die, it abideth alone: but if it die, it bringeth forth much fruit.
25 He that loveth his life shal lose it: and he that hateth his life in this world, shal keep it unto life eternall.
26 If any man serve me, let him follow me, and where I am, there shall also my servant bee: If any man serve me, him wil my Father honour.
27 Now is my soule troubled, and what shal I say, Father save me from this houre, but for this cause came I unto this houre.
28 Father glorifie thy Name. Then came there a voyce from heaven, saying, I have both glorified it, and wil glorifie it againe.
29 The people therfore that stood by, and heard it, said that it thundred: others said, An Angel spake to him.
30 Iesus answered, and said, This voyce came not because of me, but for your sakes.
31 Now is ẏ judgment of this world: now shal ẏ prince of this world be cast out.
32 And I, if I be lifted up from the earth, wil draw al men unto me.
33 (This hee said, signifying what death he should die)
34 The people answered him, We have heard out of the Law, that Christ abideth for ever: and how sayest thou, The Sonne of man must bee lift up? Who is this Sonne of man?
35 Then Iesus said unto them, Yet a little while is the light with you: walke while ye have ẏ light, lest darknes come on you: for he ẏ walketh in darknes, knows not whither he goeth.
36 While ye have the light, believe in the light, ẏ ye may be the children of light. These things spake Iesus, and departed, & did hide himself from them.
37 But though he had done so many miracles before them, yet they beleeved not on him:
38 That the saying of Esaias the Prophet might be fulfilled which he spake, Lord, who hath beleeved our report? and to whom hath the arme of the Lord been revealed?
39 Therefore they could not beleeve, because that Esaias said againe, 40 He hath blinded their eyes, and hardened their heart, that they should not see with their eyes, nor understand with their heart, and be converted, and I should heale them.
41 These things said Esaias when he saw his glory, and spake of him.
42 Nevertheles, among the chiefe rulers also many beleeved on him, but because of the Pharisees they did not confesse him, lest they should be put out of the Synagogue.
43 For they loved the praise of men more then the praise of God.

ghes cryed, and said, Hee that beeth on me, beleeveth not on mee, on him that sent me.
45 And he that seeth me, seeth him sent me.
46 I am come a light into the world,
t whosoever beleeveth on mee,
ould not abide in darkenes.
47 And if any man heare my words, beleeve not, I judge him not: for I me not to judge the world, but to ve the world.
48 He that rejecteth me, and rece-eth not my words, hath one that judeth him: y word that I have spoken,
e same shal judge him in the last day.
49 For I have not spoken of my selfe, t the Father which sent me, he gave e commandement what I should y, and what I should speake.
50 And I know that his comman-ent is life everlasting: whatsoever I eak therefore, even as the Father said unto me, so I speak.

CHAP. XIII.

1 Before the feast of the Passeover, when Iesus knew that his hour was come, that he should depart out of this world unto the Father, having loved his owne which were in the world, he loved them unto the end.
2 And supper being ended, (the devil having now put into y heart of Judas Iscariot Simons son, to betray him) 3 Iesus knowing that the Father had given all things into his hands, & y he was come from God, & went to God:
4 Ariseth from supper, and laid aside his garments, & took a towel, and girded himselfe.
5 After that, he powred water into a bason, and began to wash the Disciples feet, and to wipe them with the towel wherewith he was girded.
6 Then commeth he to Simon Peter. And Peter saith unto him, Lord, dost thou wash my feet?
7 Iesus answered, and said unto him,
What I doe thou knowest not now:
but thou shalt know hereafter.
8 Peter saith unto him, Thou shalt never wash my feet. Iesus answered him,
If I wash thee not, y hast no part with me.
9 Simon Peter saith unto him, Lord, not my feet only, but also my hands and my head.
10 Iesus saith to him, He that is washed needeth not save to wash his feet, but is clean every whit: and ye are clean, but not all.
11 For he knew who should betray him: therefore said he, ye are not all clean.
12 So after he had washed their feet, and had taken his garments, and was set down again, he saith unto them, Know ye what I have done to you?
13 Ye call me Master, and Lord, and ye say well: for so I am.
14 If then your Lord and Master have washed your feet, ye also ought to wash one another's feet.
15 For I have given you an example, that ye should do as I have done to you.
16 Verily, verily I say to you, The servant is not greater then his Lord, nor he y is sent, greater then he y sent him.
17 If ye know these things, happy are ye if ye do them.
18 I speake not of you all, I know who I have chosen: but y y Scripture may be fulfilled, He that eateth bread with me, hath lift up his heel against me.
19 Now I tel you before it come, that when it is come to pass, ye may believe that I am he.
20 Verily, verily I say unto you, He that receiveth whomsoever I send, receiveth me: & he that receiveth me,
receiveth him that sent me.
21 When Iesus had thus said, he was troubled in Spirit, and testified, and said, Verily, verily I say unto you, that one of you shal betray me.
22 Then the Disciples looked one on another, doubting of whom he spake.
23 Now there was leaning on Iesus bosome, one of his disciples whom Iesus loved.
24 Simon Peter therefore beckoned to him, that hee should aske who it should be of whom he spake.
25 He then lying on Iesus brest, saith unto him, Lord, who is it?
26 Iesus answered, He it is to whom I shal give a sop, when I have dipped it; & when he had dipped the sop, he gave it to Judas Iscariot the son of Simon.
27 And after the sop, Satan entered into him. Then said Iesus unto him, That thou doest, do quickly.
28 Now no man at the table knew for what intent he spake this unto him.
29 For some of them thought, because Judas had the bag, that Iesus had said unto him, Buy those things that we have need of against the feast: or that he should give something to the poor.
30 He then having received the sop, went immediatly out: & it was night.
31 Therefore when he was gone out,
Iesus saith, Now is the Son of man glorified, and God is glorified in him.
32 If God be glorified in him, God shal also glorifie him in himselfe, and shal straightway glorifie him.
33 Little children, yet a little while I am with you. Ye shal seek me, and as I said unto the Iewes, whither I goe, ye cannot come: so now I say to you.
34 A new commandment I give unto you, that ye love one another, as I have loved you, y ye also love one another.
35 By this shall al men know that ye are my disciples, if ye have love one to another.
36 Simon Peter said unto him, Lord, whither goest y? Iesus answered him, Whither I go, thou canst not follow me
now: but y shalt follow me afterwards.
37 Peter said unto him, Lord, why cannot I follow thee now? I will lay down my life for thy sake.
38 Iesus answered him, Wilt thou lay down thy life for my sake? Verily, verily I say unto thee, The cocke shal not crow, til thou hast denied me thrice.

CHAP. XIIII.

LEt not your heart be troubled: yee beleeve in God, beleeve also in me.
2 In my Fathers house are many mansions: if it were not so, I would have told you: I go to prepare a place for you.
3 And if I go and prepare a place for you, I will come againe, and receive you unto my self, that where I am, there ye may be also.
4 And whither I go, ye know, and the way ye know.
5 Thomas saith unto him, Lord, we know not whither thou goest, & how can we know the way.
6 Iesus saith unto him, I am the way, the trueth, and the life: no man commeth unto the Father, but by me.
7 If ye had known me, ye should have known my Father also: & from henceforth ye know him, & have seen him.
8 Philip saith unto him, Lord, shew us the Father, and it sufficeth us.
9 Iesus saith unto him, Have I been so long time with you, and yet hast thou not known me, Philip? he that hath seen me, hath seen the Father: and how sayest thou then, Shew us y Father.
10 Beleevest thou not that I am in the Father, and the Father in me? The words that I speake unto you, I speake not of my self: but the Father that dwelleth in me, he doth the workes.
11 Beleeve me that I am in the Father, and the Father in me: or else beleeve me for the very workes sake.
12 Verily, verily, I say unto you: that beleeveth on me, the workes that I do, shall he do also, and greater works then these shall he doe, because I go unto my Father.
13 And whatsoever yee shal aske in my Name that will I doe, that the Father may be glorified in the Sonne.
14 If yee shal aske any thing in my Name, I will do it.
15 If yee love me, keepe my commandements.
16 And I will pray the Father, and he shal give you another Comforter, that he may abide with you for ever.
17 Even the Spirit of trueth, whom the world cannot receive, because it seeth him not, neither knoweth him: but ye know him, for hee dwelleth with you, and shal be in you.
18 I will not leave you comfortles, I will come to you.
19 Yet a little while, and the world seeth me no more, but ye see me: because I live, ye shal live also.
20 At that day ye shal know that I am in my Father, & you in me, & I in you.
21 He that hath my commandments, and keepeth them, he it is that loveth me; & he that loveth me, shalbe loved of my Father, and I will love him, and will manifest my self to him.
22 Iudas (saith unto him, not Iscariot, Lord, how is it that thou wilt manifest thy self unto us, & not unto y world?
23 Iesus answered, & said unto him, If a man love me, hee will keepe my words: and my Father will love him, and we will come unto him, and make our abode with him.
24 He that loveth me not, keepeth not my sayings, & y word which you hear is not mine, but the Fathers, y sent me.
25 These things have I spoken unto you, being yet present with you.
26 But the Comforter, which is the holy Ghost, whom the Father will send in my Name, he shal teach you all things, & bring al things to your remembrance, whatsoever I have said to you.
27 Peace I leave with you, my peace I give unto you, not as the world giveth, give I unto you: let not your hart be troubled, neither let it be afraid.
28 Ye have heard how I said unto you, I go away, and come againe unto you. If ye loved me, ye would reioyce, because I said, I goe unto the Father: for my Father is greater then I.
29 And now I have told you before it come to pass, that when it is come to pass ye might beleeve.
30 Hereafter I will not talke much with you: for y prince of this world commeth, and hath nothing in me.
31 But that the world may know that I love the Father, & as the Father gave me commandement, even so I doe. Arise, let us go hence.

CHAP. XV.

I Am the true Vine, and my Father is the husbandman.
2 Every branch in me that beareth not fruit, he taketh away: and every branch that beareth fruit, he purgeth it, that it may bring forth more fruit.
3 Now ye are cleane through the word which I have spoken unto you.
4 Abide in me, and I in you. As the branch cannot beare fruit of it self, except it abide in the Vine: no more can ye, except ye abide in me.
5 I am the Vine, ye are the branches: he that abideth in me, and I in him, the same bringeth forth much fruit; for without me ye can do nothing.
6 If a man abide not in me, he is cast forth as a branch, and is withered: & men gather them, and cast them into the fire, and they are burned.
7 If ye abide in me, and my words abide in you, ye shall aske what you will, and it shalbe done unto you.
8 Herein is my Father glorified, that ye beare much fruit, so shal ye be my disciples.
9 As y Father hath loved me, so have I loved you: continue ye in my love.
10 If ye keepe my commandements, ye shal abide in my love: even as I have kept my Fathers commandements, and abide in his love.
11 These things have I spoken unto you, that my joy might remaine in you, and that your joy might be ful.
12 This is my commandment, that ye love

me another as I have loved you.
13 Greater love hath no man then this, that a man lay down his life for his friends.
14 Ye are my friends, if ye do whatsoever I command you.
15 Hereafter I call you not servants:
for the servant knoweth not what his master doth: but I have called you friends:
for all things y I have heard of my Father I have made known unto you.
16 Ye have not chosen me, but I have chosen you, and ordained you, that ye should go and bring forth fruit, and that your fruit should remain: that whatsoever ye shall ask of the Father in my Name, he may give it you.
17 These things I command you, that ye love one another.
18 If the world hate you, ye know how it hated me before it hated you.
19 If ye were of the world, the world would love his own: but because ye are not of the world, but I have chosen you out of the world, therefore the world hateth you.
20 Remember y word y I said to you,
The servant is not greater then y Lord:
if they have persecuted me, they will also persecute you: if they have kept my saying, they will keep yours also.
21 But all these things will they do unto you for my Names sake, because they know not him that sent me.
22 If I had not come, and spoken to them, they had not had sinne: but now they have no cloke for their sinne.
23 He that hateth me, hateth my Father also.
24 If I had not done among them the works, none other man did, they had not had sin: but now have they both seen, & hated both me and my Father.
25 But this commeth to pass, y y word might be fulfilled y is written in them:
They hated me without a cause.
26 But when the Comforter is come, whom I will send unto you from the Father, even the Spirit of truth, which proceedeth from the Father, he shall testifie of me.
27 And ye also shall bear witnesse, because you have been with me from the beginning.

CHAP. XVI.

1 These things have I spoken unto you, y ye should not be offended.
2 They shal put you out of the Synagogues: yea, the time commeth, that whosoever killeth you, will thinke he doth God service.
3 And these things will they do unto you, because they have not known the Father, nor me.
4 But these things have I told you, that when the time shal come, ye may remember that I told you of them.
And these things I said not unto you at the beginning, because I was w you.
5 But now I go my way to him that sent me, and none of you asketh me, Whither goest thou?
6 But because I have said these things to you, sorrow hath filled your heart.
7 Nevertheless, I tell you the truth:
it is expedient for you that I go away:
for if I go not away, the Comforter will not come unto you: but if I depart, I will send him unto you.
8 And when he is come, he will reproove the world of sin, and of righteousnesse, and of Iudgement.
9 Of sin, because they beleeve not on me
10 Of righteousnesse, because I go to my Father, and ye see me no more.
11 Of Iudgement, because the prince of this world is iudged.
12 I have yet many things to say unto you, but ye cannot bear them now.
13 Howbeit, when the Spirit of truth is come, he will guide you in al truth: for he shall not speak of himself: but whatsoever he shal hear, that shall he speak, and he will shew you things to come.
14 He shall glorifie me: for he shall receive of mine, & shal shew it to you.
15 All things that y Father hath are mine: therefore said I, That he shal take of mine, and shall shew it unto you.
16 A little while, and ye shall not see me: & again a little while, & ye shal see me: because I go to the Father.
17 Then said some of his disciples among themselves, What is this that he saith to us: A little while, & ye shal not see me: & again, A little while, and ye shal see me, & because I go to y Father?
18 They said therefore, What is this that he saith, A little while? we cannot tell what he saith.
19 Now Iesus knew that they were desirous to aske him, and said unto them, Do ye enquire among your selves of that I said, A little while, and ye shall not see me: and again, A little while, and ye shal see me?
20 Verily, verily I say unto you, That ye shal weep, and lament, but y world shal rejoyce: and ye shall be sorrowful, but your sorrow shall be turned into joy.
21 A woman when she trayleth, hath sorrow, because her hour is come: but assoon as she is delivered of y child, she remembreth no more the anguish, for joy that a man is borne into y world.
22 And ye now therefore have sorrow: but I will see you again, and your heart shall rejoyce, and your joy no man taketh from you.
23 And in that day ye shal aske me nothing: Verily, verily I say unto you, Whatsoever ye shall aske the Father in my Name, he will give it you.
24 Hitherto have ye asked nothing in my Name: Aske, and ye shal receive, that your joy may be full.
25 These things have I spoken to you in Proverbs: y time commeth, when I shal no more speak to you in proverbs, but I shal shew you plainly of y Father.
26 At y day ye shal aske in my Name:
and I say unto you, that I will pray
the Father for you:

27 For the Father himself loveth you, because ye have loved me, & have beleeved that I came out from God.

28 I came forth from the Father, and am come into the world: againe, I leave the world, and go to the Father.

29 His disciples said unto him, Loe, now speakest thou plainly, and speakest no proverbe.

30 Now are we sure that thou knowest all things, and needest not that any man should aske thee: By this we beleeve that thou camest forth from God.

31 Iesus answered them, Do ye now beleeve?

32 Behold, the hour commeth, yea is now come, that ye shall be scattered, every man to his own, and shall leave me alone: and yet I am not alone, because the Father is with me.

33 These things I have spoken unto you, that in me ye might have peace: in the world ye shall have tribulation, but be of good cheere, I have overcome the world.

CHAP. XVII.

THese words spake Iesus, and lift up his eyes to heaven, and said, Father, the houre is come, glorifie thy Sonne, that thy Sonne also may glorifie thee.

2 As thou hast given him power, over all flesh, that he should give eternall life to as many as thou hast given him.

3 And this is life eternall, that they might know thee the onely true God, and Iesus Christ whom thou hast sent.

4 I have glorified thee on the earth: I have finished the worke which thou gavest me to doe.

5 And now, O Father, glorifie thou me with thine own self, with y glory which I had with thee before the world was.

6 I have manifested thy Name unto the men which thou gavest me out of the world: thine they were, & y gavest them me, & they have kept thy word.

7 Now they have known that all things whatsoever thou hast given me, are of thee.

8 For I have given to them the words which thou gavest me, and they have received them, and have known surely that I came out from thee, and they have beleeved that thou dost send me.

9 I pray for them, I pray not for the world, but for them which thou hast given me, for they are thine.

10 And all mine are thine, and thine are mine; and I am glorified in them.

11 And now I am no more in y world, but they are in the world, & I come to thee. Holy Father, keep through thine owne Name those whom thou hast given me, y they may be one, as we are.

12 While I was with them in the world, I kept them in thy Name: those that y gavest me, I have kept, and none of them is lost but the son of perdition, that the Scripture might be fulfilled.

13 And now come I to thee, & these things I speak in y world, y they might have my joy fulfilled in themselves.

14 I have given them thy word, and the world hath hated them, because they are not of the world, even as I am not of the world.

15 I pray not that thou shouldest take them out of the world, but that thou shouldest keep them from the evill.

16 They are not of the world, even as I am not of the world.

17 Sanctifie them through thy truth, thy word is truth.

18 As thou hast sent me into the world, even so have I also sent them into the world.

19 And for their sakes, I sanctifie my self, that they also might be sanctified through the truth.

20 Neither pray I for these alone, but for them also which shall believe on me through their word:

21 That they all may be one, as thou Father art in me, & I in thee, that they also may be one in us, that the world may beleeve that thou hast sent me.

22 And the glory which thou gavest me, I have given them, that they may be one, even as we are one.

23 I in them, & thou in me, that they may be made perfect in one, & that the world may know y thou hast sent me, & hast loved them as thou hast loved me.

24 Father, I will that they also whom thou hast given me, be with me where I am, y they may behold my glory which thou hast given me: for thou lovedst me before the foundation of y world.

25 O righteous Father, the world hath not known thee, but I have known thee, and these have known that thou hast sent me.

26 And I have declared unto them thy Name, and will declare it: that the love wherewith thou hast loved me, may be in them, and I in them.

CHAP. XVIII.

WHen Iesus had spoken these words, he went forth with his Disciples over the brooke Cedron, where was a garden, into the which he entred, and his Disciples.

2 And Iudas also which betrayed him, knew the place: for Iesus oft times resorted thither with his Disciples.

3 Iudas then having received a band of men, & officers from y chief Priests and Pharisees, commeth thither with lanternes, and torches, and weapons.

4 Iesus therefore knowing all things y should come upon him, went forth, and said unto them, Whom seek ye?

5 They answered him, Iesus of Nazareth. Iesus saith unto them, I am he. And Iudas also which betrayed him, stood with them.

6 As soone then as he had said unto them, I am he, they went backe-ward, and fell to the ground.

7 Then asked he them again, Whom seek ye? & they said, Iesus of Nazareth.

8 Iesus answered, I have told you that I am he: if therefore ye seek me, let these go their way:

that the saying might be fulfilled which he spake, Of them which thou gavest me have I lost none.

10 Then Simon Peter having a sword drew it, and smote the high priests servant, and cut off his right eare. The servants name was Malchus.

11 Then said Iesus unto Peter, Put up thy sword into the sheath: the cup which my Father hath given me, shall I not drinke it?

12 Then the band, and the captaine, and officers of the Iewes took Iesus, and bound him,

13 And led him away to Annas first, for he was father in law to Caiaphas, which was high priest y same yeere.

14 Now Caiaphas was he which gave counsell to the Iewes, y it was expedient that one man should die for y people.

15 And Simon Peter followed Iesus, and another disciple: that disciple was known unto the high priest, and went in with Iesus into the palace of the high priest.

16 But Peter stood at the door without. Then went out that other Disciple, which was knowen to the high priest, and spake unto her that kept the dore, and brought in Peter.

17 Then saith the damosel that kept the dore, unto Peter, Art not thou one of this mans Disciples? He saith, I am not.

18 And the servants & officers stood there, who had made a fire of coales, (for it was cold) and they warmed themselves: & Peter stood with them, and warmed himselfe.

19 The high priest then asked Iesus of his Disciples, and of his Doctrine.

20 Iesus answered him, I spake openly to the world, I ever taught in the Synagogue, and in the Temple, whither the Iewes always resort, and in secret have I said nothing.

21 Why asketh thou me? Aske them which heard me what I have said unto them: behold, they know what I said.

22 And when he had thus spoken, one of the officers which stood by, stroke Iesus with the palme of his hand, saying, Answerest thou the high priest so?

23 Iesus answered him, If I have spoken ill, beare witnes of the evill: but if well, why smitest thou me?

24 Now Annas had sent him bound unto Caiaphas the high Priest.

25 And Simon Peter stood & warmed himself: They said therefore unto him, Art not thou also one of his Disciples? He denyed it, and said, I am not.

26 One of the servants of the high priest (being his kinsman, whose eare Peter cut off) saith, Did not I see thee in the garden with him?

27 Peter then denyed again, and immediately the cock crew.

28 Then led they Iesus from Caiaphas unto the hall of Iudgement: And it was early, and they themselves went not into the Iudgement hall, lest they should be defiled: but that they might eat the Passeover.

29 Pilate then went out unto them, and said, What accusation bring you against this man?

30 They answered & said to him, If he were not a malefactour, we would not have delivered him up unto thee.

31 Then said Pilate unto them, Take ye him, and judge him according to your law. The Iewes therefore said unto him, It is not lawfull for us to put any man to death.

32 That the saying of Iesus might be fulfilled, which he spake, signifying what death he should die.

33 Then Pilate entred into y Iudgement hall again, & called Iesus, & said unto him, Art thou y King of the Iewes?

34 Iesus answered him, Sayest thou this thing of thy self, or did others tell it thee of me?

35 Pilate answered, Am I a Iew? Thine own nation, & the chief Priests have delivered thee unto me: What hast thou done?

36 Iesus answered, my kingdom is not of this world: if my kingdome were of this world, then would my servants fight, that I should not be delivered to the Iewes: but now is my kingdom not from hence.

37 Pilate therefore said unto him, Art thou a King then? Iesus answered, Thou sayest that I am a King. To this end was I born, & for this cause came I into the world, that I should beare witnes unto the truth: every one that is of the truth, heareth my voyce.

38 Pilate saith to him, What is truth? and when he had said this, he went out again unto the Iewes, and said unto them, I find in him no fault at all.

39 But ye have a custome y I should release unto you one at the Passeover; will yee then that I release unto you the King of the Iewes?

40 Then cryed they all again, saying, Not this man, but Barabbas, now Barabbas was a robber.

CHAP. XIX.

1 THen Pilate therefore took Iesus, and scourged him.

2 And the souldiers platted a crown of thornes, and put it on his head, and they put on him a purple robe.

3 And said, Haile King of the Iewes: and they smote him with their hands.

4 Pilate therefore went forth again, and saith unto them, Behold, I bring him forth to you, that ye may know that I find no fault in him.

5 Then came Iesus forth, wearing the crown of thornes, & y purple robe: & Pilate saith to them, Behold the man.

6 When the chief Priests therefore & officers saw him, they cried out, saying: Crucifie him, crucifie him. Pilate saith unto them, Take ye him, and crucifie him: for I find no fault in him.

7 The Iewes answered him, We have a law, & by our law he ought to die, because cause he made himself the Son of God.

8 When Pilate therefore heard that saying, he was the more afraid.
9 And went again into the judgment hall, and saith unto Iesus, Whence art thou? But Iesus gave him no answere.
10 Then said Pilate unto him, Speakest thou not unto me? Knowest thou not that I have power to crucifie thee, and have power to release thee?
11 Iesus answered, Thou couldest have no power at all against me, except it were given thee from above: therefore he that delivered me unto thee, hath the greater sinne.
12 And from thenceforth Pilate sought to release him: but y Iewes cryed out, saying, If y let this man go, thou art not Cesars friend: whosoever maketh himself a king, speaketh against Cesar.
13 When Pilate therefore heard that saying, he brought Iesus forth, and sate down in the judgement seat, in a place that is called the Pauement, but in the Hebrew, Gabbatha.
14 And it was the Preparation of the Passeouer, & about y sixt houre: & he said unto y Iewes, Behold your King.
15 But they cryed out, Away with him, away with him, crucifie him. Pilate saith unto them, Shall I crucifie your King? the chief Priests answered, We have no King but Cesar.
16 Then deliuered he him therefore unto them to be crucified: and they took Iesus and led him away.
17 And he bearing his crosse, went forth into a place called the place of a skull: which is called in y Hebrew, Golgotha:
18 Where they crucified him, & two other with him, on either side one, and Iesus in the middest.
19 And Pilate wrote a title, & put it on the crosse. & the writing was, IESVS OF NAZARETH THE KING OF THE IEWES.
20 This title then read many of the Iewes: for the place where Iesus was crucified, was nigh to the city: and it was written in Hebrew, and Greeke, and Latine.
21 Then said the chief Priests of the Iewes to Pilate, Write not, the King of the Iewes; but that he said, I am King of the Iewes.
22 Pilate answered, What I have written, I have written.
23 Then the souldiers, when they had crucified Iesus, took his garments (and made foure parts, to every souldier a part) and also his coat: Now his coat was without seam, woven from the top throughout.
24 They said therefore among themselves, Let us not rent it, but cast lots for it, whose it shall be: that the Scripture might be fulfilled, which saith, They parted my raiment among them, and for my vesture they did cast lots. These things therefore y souldiers did.
25 Now there stood by the crosse of Iesus, his mother, and his mothers sister, Mary the wife of Cleophas, and Mary Magdalene.
26 When Iesus therefore saw his mother, and the Disciple standing by whom he loved, he saith unto his mother, Woman, behold thy Son.
27 Then said he to y Disciple, Behold thy mother: & from that houre y Disciple took her into his own house.
28 After this, Iesus knowing that all things were now accomplished, that the Scripture might be fulfilled, saith, I thrist.
29 Now there was set a vessel full of vinegar: And they filled a spunge with vinegar, and put it upon hisope, and put it to his mouth.
30 When Iesus therefore had received the vinegar, he said, It is finished. & he bowed his head, & gaue up the ghost.
31 The Iewes therefore, because it was the Preparation, that y bodies should not remain vpon y crosse on Sabbath day (for y Sabbath day was an high day) besought Pilate, y their legs might be broke, & y they might be taken away.
32 Then came the souldiers, & brake the legs of the first, and of the other, which was crucified with him.
33 But when they came to Iesus, and saw that he was dead already, they brake not his legs.
34 But one of the souldiers with a speare pierced his side, and forthwith came there out blood and water.
35 And he that saw it, bare record, & his record is true, and he knoweth that he saith true, y ye might believe.
36 For these things were done, that the Scripture should be fulfilled, A bone of him shall not be broken.
37 And again another Scripture saith, They shall look on him whom they pierced.
38 And after this, Ioseph of Arimathea, being a Disciple of Iesus, but secretly for feare of the Iewes) besought Pilate that he might take away y body of Iesus: and Pilate gaue him leave. He came therefore & took y body of Iesus.
39 And there came also Nicodemus, which at y first came to Iesus by night, and brought a mixture of myrrhe and aloes, about an hundred pound weight.
40 Then took they the body of Iesus, and wound it in linnen clothes, with the spices, as the manner of the Iewes is to bury.
41 Now in the place where he was crucified there was a garden, and in the garden a new sepulchre, wherein was never man yet laid.
42 There laid they Iesus therefore, because of the Iewes preparation day, for the sepulchre was nigh at hand.

CHAP. XX.

THe first day of the week, cometh Mary Magdalene early, when it was yet dark, vnto y sepulchre, & seeth the stone taken away from the sepulchre.
2 Then she runneth and commeth to Simon Peter, and to the other Disciple

...ation. Jesus loved, and saith un-
...m, They have taken away the
...out of the sepulchre, and we
...not where they have laid him.
...Peter therefore went forth and that ...disciple, & came to a sepulchre.
...So they ran both together, and
...other Disciple did out run Peter,
...came first to the sepulchre.
...And he stooping down, and look-
...in, saw the linnen clothes lying;
...et he not in.
...Then commeth Simon Peter fol-
...wing him, and went into the sepul-
...chre, and seeth the linnen clothes lie,
...And the napkin that was about his
...head, not lying with y linnen clothes,
...but wrapped together in a place by it
...self.
...Then went in also that other Di-
...ciple which came first to the sepul...chre, and he saw, and believed.
...For as yet they knew not the Scri...pture, that he must rise again from y dead.
...Then the Disciples went away
...again unto their own home.
...But Mary stood without at the ...sepulchre, weeping, and as she wept,
...she stooped down, and looked into
...the sepulchre.
...And seeth two Angels in white sit...ting, the one at y head, and y other at
...the feet, where y body of Jesus had lien.
...And they say unto her, Woman,
...why weepest thou? She saith to them,
...Because they have take away my Lord,
...and I know not where they have laid him.
...And when she had thus said, she ...turned her self back, & saw Jesus stan...ding, and knew not that it was Jesus.
...Jesus saith unto her, Woman, why
...weepest thou? whom seekest thou? She
...supposing him to be y gardener, saith
...unto him, Sir, if thou hast borne him
...hence, tell me where thou hast laid him,
...and I will take him away.
...Jesus saith unto her, Mary: She ...turned her self, and saith unto him,
...Rabboni, which is to say, Master.
...Jesus saith to her; Touch me not:
...for I am not yet ascended to my Fa...ther: but go to my brethren, and say to ...them, I ascend unto my Father & your ...Father, and to my God, & your God.
...Mary Magdalene came & told y
...Disciples that she had seen y Lord, and ...that he had spoken these things unto her.
...Then the same day at evening, be...ing the first day of the week, when the ...doors were shut where the Disciples
...were assembled for feare of the Jewes,
...came Jesus, and stood in the midst, and
...saith unto them, Peace be unto you.
...And when he had said so, he shewed
...unto them his hands, & his side. Then were
...the Disciples glad when they saw y Lord.
...Then said Jesus to them againe,
...Peace be unto you: As my Father hath
...sent me, even so send I you.
...And when he had said this, he ...breathed on them, & saith unto them,
...Receive ye the holy Ghost.

23 Whose soever sins ye remit, they are remitted to them: and whose soever sins ye retain, they are retained.
24 But Thomas one of the twelve called Didymus, was not with them when Jesus came.
25 The other disciples therefore said to him, we have seen the Lord: But he said unto them, I except I shall see in his hands the print of the nailes, and put my finger into the print of the nailes, and thrust my hand into his side, I will not believe.
26 And after eight daies, againe his Disciples were within, and Thomas with them. Then came Jesus, the doores being shut, and stood in the midst, and said, Peace be unto you.
27 Then said he to Thomas, Reach hither thy finger; & behold my hands, & reach hither thy hand, and thrust it into my side, and be not faithless, but believing.
28 And Thomas answered, and said unto him, My Lord, and my God.
29 Jesus saith unto him, Thomas, because thou hast seene me, thou hast believed: blessed are they that have not seen, and yet have believed.
30 And many other signes truly did Jesus in the presence of his Disciples, which are not written in this booke:
31 But these are written, that ye might believe that Jesus is the Christ the Sonne of God, and that believing, ye might have life through his Name.

CHAP. XXI.

AFter these things, Jesus shewed himself again to the disciples at the sea of Tiberias: and on this wise shewed he himself.
2 There were together Simon Peter, and Thomas called Didymus, and Nathanael of Cana in Galilee, & y sons of Zebedee, & two other of his disciples.
3 Simon Peter saith unto them, I go a fishing. They said unto him, We also go with thee. They went forth, and entred into a ship immediatly, & that night they caught nothing.
4 But when the morning was now come, Jesus stood on the shore: but the disciples knew not that it was Jesus.
5 Then Jesus said unto them, Children, have ye any meat? they answered him, No.
6 And he said unto them, Cast the net on the right side of the ship, & ye shall find. They cast therefore, and now they were not able to draw it for the multitude of fishes.
7 Therefore that Disciple whom Jesus loved, saith unto Peter, It is the Lord. Now when Simon Peter heard that it was the Lord, he girt his fisher's coat unto him, (for he was naked) and did cast himself into the Sea.
8 And the other Disciples came in a little ship (for they were not far from land: but as it were two hundred cubits) dragging the net with fishes.
9 As soon then as they were come to land, they saw a fire of coales there,
and

and fish laid thereon, and bread.
10 Iesus saith vnto them, Bring of the fish which ye haue now caught.
11 Simon Peter went vp, & drew y net to land ful of great fishes, an hundred & fifty & three: and for all there were so many, yet was not the net broken.
12 Iesus saith vnto them, Come and dine. And none of the Disciples durst ask him, Who art thou? knowing that it was the Lord.
13 Iesus then commeth, and taketh bread, & giueth them, & fish likewise.
14 This is now the third time that Iesus shewed himself to his Disciples, after that he was risen from the dead.
15 So when they had dined, Iesus saith to Simon Peter, Simon, son of Ionas, louest thou me more then these? he saith to him, Yea, Lord, y knowest y I loue thee. He saith vnto him, Feed my lambs.
16 He saith vnto him again the second time, Simon son of Ionas, louest thou mee? Hee saith vnto him, Yea, Lord, thou knowest that I loue thee. Hee saith vnto him, Feed my sheepe.
17 He said vnto him the third time, Simon son of Ionas, louest thou mee? Peter was grieued, because he said to him the third time, Louest thou mee? And he said vnto him, Lord, y knowest all things, thou knowest y I loue thee. Iesus saith to him, Feed my sheepe.
18 Verily, verily, I say vnto thee, When thou wast young, y girdedst thy self, & walkedst whither y wouldest: but when y shalt be old, y shalt stretch forth thine hands, & another shall gird thee, & carry thee whither y wouldest not.
19 This spake he, signifying by what death he should glorifie God. And when he had spoken this, he said vnto him, Follow me.
20 Then Peter turning about, seeth the Disciple whom Iesus loued, following, which also leaned on his breast at supper, and said, Lord, which is he that betrayeth thee?
21 Peter seeing him, saith to Iesus, Lord, and what shall this man do?
22 Iesus saith vnto him, If I will that he tary till I come, what is that to thee? follow thou me.
23 Then went this saying abroad among the brethren, that that Disciple should not die: yet Iesus said not vnto him, He shal not die; but, If I will that he tary till I come, what is that to thee?
24 This is y Disciple which testifieth of these things, & wrote these things, and we know y his testimonie is true.
25 And there are also many other things which Iesus did, the which if they should be written every one, I suppose y euen world it self could not contain the bookes that should be written. Amen.

The ACTS of the APOSTLES.

CHAP. I.

THE former Treatise haue I made O Theophilus, of all that Iesus began both to doe and teach,
2 Vntil the day in which he was taken vp, after that he through y holy Ghost had giuen cōmandements vnto y Apostles, whom he had chosen.
3 To whom also he shewed himselfe aliue after his passion, by many infallible proofes, being seene of them forty dayes, and speaking of the things pertaining to the kingdome of God:
4 And being assembled together with them, commanded them that they should not depart from Hierusalem, but waite for the promise of y Father, which (saith he) ye haue heard of me.
5 For Iohn truely baptized with water: but ye shal be baptized with the holy Ghost, not many dayes hence.
6 When they therefore were come together, they asked of him, saying, Lord, wilt thou at this time restore again the kingdome to Israel?
7 And he said vnto them, It is not for you to know the times or y seasons, which y Father hath put in his own power.
8 But ye shal receive power after that y holy Ghost is come vpon you, & ye shal be witnesses to me, both in Hierusalem, & in all Iudea, and in Samaria, and to the vttermost part of the earth.
9 And when he had spoke these things, while they beheld, he was taken vp, & a cloud receiued him out of their sight.
10 And while they looked stedfastly toward heaven as he went vp, Lo two men stood by them in white apparell, 11 Which also said, Yemen of Galilee, why stand ye gazing vp into heauen? This same Iesus which is taken vp from you into heauē, shal so come, in like manner as ye haue seen him go into heauen.
12 Then returned they vnto Hierusalem from y mount called Oliuet, which is from Hierusalem a Sabbath dayes iourney.
13 And when they were come in, they went vp into an vpper roome, where abode both Peter, & Iames, and Iohn, and Andrew, Philip, and Thomas, Bartholomew, and Matthew, Iames, the son of Alpheus, and Simon Zelotes, and Iudas the brother of Iames.
14 These all continued with one accord in prayer and supplication, with the women, and Mary the mother of Iesus, and with his brethren.
15 And in those dayes Peter stood vp in the midst of the disciples, and said, (The number of names together was about an hundred and twenty.)
16 Men and brethren, this Scripture must needs haue been fulfilled, which the holy Ghost by the mouth of Dauid spake before concerning Iudas, which was guide to them that took Iesus.
17 For he was numbred with vs, and had obtained part of this ministery.
18 Now this man purchased a field with the reward of iniquity, and falling headlong he burst asunder in the midst, and all his bowels gushed out.
19 And

dwelt was known unto all ỹ dwellers of Jerusalem, insomuch as ỹ field was called in their proper tongue, Aceldama, that is to say the field of blood.
20 For it is written in the book of the Prophet Ioel, Let his habitation be desolate,
and let no man dwell therein:
and his Bishoprick let another take.
21 Wherefore of these men which have accompanied with us all the time that the Lord Iesus went in and out among us, 22 Beginning from the Baptisme of Iohn, unto ỹ same day ỹ he was taken from us, must one be ordained to be a witnesse with us of his resurrection.
23 And they appointed two, Ioseph called Barsabas, who was surnamed Iustus, and Matthias.
24 And they prayed, & said, thou Lord which knowest the hearts of all men shew whether of these two ỹ hast chosen,
25 That he may take part of this ministery and Apostleship, from which Iudas by transgression fell, that he might go to his own place.
26 And they gave forth their lots, and the lot fell upon Matthias, and he was numbred with the eleven Apostles.

CHAP. II.

1 When the day of Pentecost was come, they were all with one accord in one place.
2 And suddenly there came a sound from heaven as of a mighty wind, and it filled all the houses where they were sitting.
3 And there appeared unto them cloven tongues, like as of fire, and it sate upon each of them.
4 And they were all filled with the holy Ghost, and began to speak with other tongues, as the spirit gave them utterance.
5 And there were dwelling at Hierusalem Iewes, devout men, out of every nation under heaven.
6 Which when this was noised abroad, the multitude came together, & were confounded, because that every man heard them speak in his own language.
7 And they were all amazed and marvelled one at another, saying one to another, Behold, are not all these which speak, Galileans?
8 And how hear we every man in our own tongue wherein we were born?
9 Parthians & Medes & Elamites, & the inhabitants of Mesopotamia, and in Iudea, & Cappadocia, in Pontus, & Asia,
10 Phrygia, & Pamphylia, in Egypt, & in the parts of Libia about Cyrene, & strangers of Rome, Iewes, & Proselytes, 11 Cretes & Arabians, we do hear them speak in our tongues the wonderful works of God.
12 And they were all amazed, and were in doubt, saying one to another, What meaneth this?
13 Others mocking, said, These men are full of new wine.
14 But Peter standing up with the eleven lift up his voyce, and said unto them, Ye men of Iudea, and all ye that now dwell at Hierusalem, be this known unto you, & hearken unto my words:
15 For these are not drunken, as ye suppose, seeing it is but the third hour of the day.
16 But this is that which was spoken by the Prophet Ioel,
17 And it shall come to passe in the last dayes, (saith God) I will powre out of my Spirit upon all flesh: and your sonnes & your daughters shal prophesie, and your young men shal see visions, and your old men shal dream dreams.
18 And on my servants, & on my handmaidens will I powre out in those dayes of my Spirit, & they shal prophesie.
19 And I will shew wonders in heaven above, & signes in ỹ earth beneath: blood and fire, and vapour of smoake.
20 The Sun shalbe turned into darkenesse, and the Moon into blood, before that great and notable day of the Lord come.
21 And it shal come to passe, that whosoever shall call on the Name of the Lord, shalbe saved.
22 Ye men of Israel, heare these words: Iesus of Nazareth, a man approved of God among you by miracles, wonders and signes, which God did by him in the midst of you, as ye your selves also know:
23 Him, being delivered by the determinate counsell and fore-knowledge of God, ye have taken, and by wicked hands have crucified and slaine:
24 Whom God hath raised up, having loosed the paines of death: because it was not possible ỹ he should be holden of it.
25 For David speaketh concerning him: I foresaw the Lord always before my face, for he is on my right hand, that I should not be moved.
26 Therefore did my heart rejoyce, and my tongue was glad: Moreover also my flesh shal rest in hope.
27 Because thou wilt not leave my soule in hel, Neither wilt thou suffer thine Holy one to see corruption.
28 Thou hast made known unto me the wayes of life, thou shalt make me full of joy with thy countenance.
29 Men and brethren, let me freely speake unto you of the Patriarch David, that he is both dead and buried, & his sepulchre is with us unto this day.
30 Therefore being a Prophet, and knowing that God hath sworn with an oath to him, that of the fruit of his loines, according to the flesh he would raise up Christ to sit on his throne:
31 He seeing this before, spake of the resurrection of Christ, that his soule was not left in hel, neither his flesh did see corruption.
32 This Iesus hath God raised up, whereof we are all witnesses.
33 Therefore being by the right hand of God exalted, and having received the heavens, but he saith himselfe,

The Lord said unto my Lord, Sit thou on my right hand,
35 Until I make thy foes thy footstool.
36 Therefore let all the house of Israel know assuredly, that God hath made that same Iesus, whom yee have crucified, both Lord and Christ.
37 Now when they heard this, they were pricked in their heart, and said unto Peter, and to y rest of y Apostles, Men & brethren, what shall we doe?
38 Then Peter said unto them, Repent, and be baptized every one of you, in the Name of Iesus Christ, for the remission of sinnes, and yee shall receive the gift of the holy Ghost.
39 For y promise is unto you, & to your children, & to all that are afar off, even as many as y Lord our God shal call.
40 And with many other words did he testifie & exhort, saying, save your selves from this untoward generation.
41 Then they that gladly received his word, were baptized: and the same day there were added unto them about three thousand soules.
42 And they continued stedfastly in the Apostles doctrine and fellowship, & in breaking of bread, & in prayers.
43 And feare came upon every soule: and many wonders and tokens were done by the Apostles.
44 And all that believed were together, and had all things common,
45 And sold there possessions and goods, and parted them to all men, as every man had need.
46 And they continuing daily with one accord in y Temple, and breaking bread from house to house, did eat their meat & gladnes, & singlenes of heart.
47 Praising God, & having favour & all the people. And the Lord added to the Church daily such as should be saved.

CHAP. III.

NOw Peter and John went up together into the Temple at y houre of prayer, being the ninth houre.
2 And a certaine man, lame from his mothers wombe was carried: whom like unto me, him shall ye haue in they laid daily at the gate of y Temple which is called Beautifull, to aske almes of the y entred into y Temple.
3 Who seeing Peter & John about to goe into the Temple, asked an almes.
4 And Peter fastening his eyes upon him, with John, said, Looke on us.
5 And he gaue heed unto them, expecting to receive something of them.
6 Then Peter said, Silver and gold haue I none but such as I haue: Give and of the ministration of the Spirit be not rather to y glorie
I giue to thee in the Name of Iesus Christ of Nazareth rise up and walke.
7 And he tooke him by y right hand, and lift him up: and immediately his feete & ankle bones received strength.
8 And he leaping up stood, & walked, & entred with them into y Temple, walking and leaping, and praising God.
9 And all the people saw him walking and praising God.
10 And they knewy that it was he which sate for almes at the beautifull gate of the Temple: and they were filled with wonder and amazement at that which had happened unto him.
11 And as the lame man which was healed, held Peter & Iohn, all people ran together to them in y porch y is called Solomons, greatly wondering.
12 And when Peter saw it, he answered unto y people, Ye men of Israel, why marvel ye at this? or why looke ye so earnestly on us, as though by our own power or holines we had made this man to walke?
13 The God of Abraham, & of Isaac, & of Iacob, y God of our fathers hath glorified his Son Iesus, whom ye delivered up, & denied him in y presence of Pilate, when he was determined to let him goe.
14 But ye denied the holy One, & the Iust, and desired a murderer to be granted unto you,
15 And killed the Prince of life, whom God hath raised from the dead, whereof we are witnesses.
16 And his Name through faith in his Name, hath made this man strong, whom ye see & know: yea the faith which is by him hath given him this perfect soundnesse in the presence of you all.
17 And now brethren I wot that through ignorance ye did it, as did also your rulers.
18 But those things which God before had shewed by the mouth of all his Prophets, that Christ should suffer, he hath also fulfilled.
19 Repent ye therefore, & be converted, that your sins may be blotted out, when the times of refreshing shall come from the presence of the Lord.
20 And hee shall send Iesus Christ, which before was preached unto you:
21 Whom the heaven must receive till the times of restitution of all things which God hath spoken by y mouth of all his holy Prophets since y world began.
22 For Moses truely said unto the fathers, A Prophet shal the Lord your God raise up to you, of your brethren, like unto me, him shall ye heare in all things whatsoever he shall say to you.
23 And it shall come to passe, that every soul which will not hear that Prophet, shall be destroyed from among the people.
24 Yea, and all the Prophets from Samuel, and those that follow after, as many as have spoken have likewise foretold of these daies.
25 Ye are the children of y Prophets, and of the covenant which God made with our fathers, saying unto Abraham, And in thy seed shall all the kindreds of the earth be blessed.
26 Vnto you first, God having raised up his Son Iesus, sent him to blesse you in turning away every one of you from his iniquities.

CHAP. IIII.

AND as they spake unto the people, y Priests and the captaine of the tem-Ple,

and the Sadducees came upon them, being grieved that they taught the people, and preached through Iesus
the resurrection from the dead.
2 And they laid hands on them, and put them in hold unto the next day: for it was now eventide.
4 Howbeit, many of them which heard the word believed, & y number of the men was about five thousand.
5 And it came to pass on y morrow,
that their Rulers, & Elders, & Scribes, 6 And Annas the high Priest, & Caia-phas, & John, & Alexander, and as many as were of y kinred of y high Priest, were gathered together at Ierusalem.
7 And when they had set them in the midst, they asked, By what power, or by what name have ye done this?
8 Then Peter filled with the holy Ghost, said unto them, Ye rulers of the people, and Elders of Israel.
9 If we this day be examined of the good deed done to the impotent man, by what meanes he is made whole.
10 Be it known unto you all, and to all the people of Israel, that by the name of Iesus Christ of Nazareth, whō ye crucified, whom God raised from among the dead, even by him doth this man stand here before you whole.
11 This is the stone which was set at nought of you builders, which is become the head of the corner.
12 Neither is there salvation in any other: for there is none other Name under heaven given among men, whereby we must be saved.
13 Now when they saw the boldnes of Peter & John, and perceived y they were unlearned, & ignorant men, they marvelled, & they took knowledge of them, that they had beene with Iesus.
14 And beholding the man which was healed, standing with them, they could say nothing against it.
15 But when they had commanded them to go aside out of the Councell, they conferred among themselves, 16 Saying, What shal we do to these men? for that indeed a notable miracle hath been done by them, is manifest to all them that dwell in Hierusalem, and we cannot deny it.
17 But that it spread no farther among the people, let us straitly threaten them, that they speake hence forth to no man in this Name.
18 And they called them, and commanded them not to speake at al, nor to teach in the Name of Iesus.
19 But Peter and Iohn answered and said unto them, Whether it be right in the sight of God, to hearken unto you more then unto God, iudge ye.
20 For we cannot but speake the things which we have seen and heard.
21 So when they had further threa-ned them, they let them go, finding nothing how they might punish them, because of the people: for all men glorified God for that which was done.
22 For the man was above forty yeers old, on whom this miracle of healing was shewed.
23 And being let goe, they went to their own company, and reported all that the chiefe Priests and Elders had said unto them.
24 And when they heard that, they lift up their voyce to God with one accord, and said, Lord, thou art God, which hast made heaven and earth, and the sea, and all that in them is.
25 Who by the mouth of thy servant
David hast said, Why did the heathen rage, & y people imagine vaine things?
26 The Kings of the earth stood up, and the Rulers were gathered together against the Lord, & against his Christ.
27 For of a truth against thy holy child Iesus, whom thou hast anointed, both Herod, and Pontius Pilate, with the Gentiles and the people of Israel were gathered together, 28 For to doe whatsoever thy hand and thy counsell determined before to be done.
29 And now Lord, behold their threa-tenings, & grant to thy servants, y with all boldnes they may speake thy word, 30 By stretching forth thine hand to heale: and that signes and wonders may be done by the Name of thy holy child Iesus.
31 And when they had prayed, the place was shaken where they were assembled together, and they were all filled with the holy Ghost, and they spake the word of God with boldnes.
32 And the multitude of them that believed, were of one heart, and of one soul, neither said any of them, y ought of y things which he possessed, was his own, but they had all things common.
33 And with great power gave y Apostles witnes of y resurrection of y Lord
Iesus, & great grace was upon them all.
34 Neither was there any among them that lacked: for as many as were posse-sours of lands, or houses, sold them, & brought y prices of y things y were sold, 35 And laid them down at y Apostles feet: and distribution was made unto every man, according as he had need.
36 And Ioses, who by the Apostles was surnamed Barnabas (which is being interpreted, the son of consolatiō)
a Leuite, & of the country of Cyprus, 37 Having lands, sold it, and brought y money, & laid it at the Apostles feet.

CHAP. V.

BVt a certain man named Ananias &
Sapphira his wife, sold a possession, 2 And kept back part of y price, his wife also being priuy to it, & brought a certain part, & laid it at y Apostles feet.
3 But Peter said, Ananias, why hath Satan filled thine heart, to lie to the holy Ghost, and to keep back part of the price of the land?
4 Whiles it remained, was it not thine own? & after it was sold, was it not in thine own power? why hast thou conceived this thing in thine heart? thou hast not lied to men, but to God.

5 And Ananias hearing these words fell down, and gave up the Ghost: and great feare came on all them that heard these things.

6 And y young men arose, wound him up, & carried him out, and buried him.

7 And it was about the space of three houres after, when his wife not knowing what was done, came in.

8 And Peter answered unto her, Tell me whether yee sold the land for so much? And she said, Yea, for so much.

9 Then Peter said unto her, How is it y we have agreed together to tempt the Spirit of the Lord? Behold, the feet of them that have buried thy husband, are at the door, and shal carry thee out.

10 Then fell she down straightway at his feet, and yeelded up the Ghost. And the young men came in and found her dead, and carrying her forth, buried her by her husband.

11 And great feare came on all the Church, and upon as many as heard these things.

12 And by the hands of the Apostles were many signes & wonders wrought among the people. (And they were all with one accord in Salomons porch.

13 And of the rest durst no man ioyne himself to them, but the people magnified them.

14 And believers were the more added to the Lord, multitudes both of men and women.)

15 Insomuch that they brought forth the sicke into the streets, and laid them on beds and couches, that at the least the shadow of Peter passing by, might overshadow some of them.

16 There came also a multitude out of the cities round about unto Ierusalem, bringing sick folkes, and them which were vexed with unclean spirits and they were healed every one.

17 Then the high Priest rose up, and al they that were with him, (which is the sect of the Sadducees) and were filled with indignation.

18 And laid their hands on the Apostles & put them into the common prison.

19 But the Angell of the Lord by night opened the prison doores, and brought them forth, and said,

20 Go, stand & speake in the Temple to the people, all the words of this life.

21 And when they heard that, they entred into the Temple early in the morning, and taught. But the high Priest came, and they that were with him, and called the counsel together, and all y senate of the children of Israel, & sent to y prison to have them brought.

22 But when the officers came, and found them not in the prison, they returned, and told,

23 Saying, The prison truely found we shut with all safety, & the keepers standing without before y doors: but when we had opened, we found no man within.

24 Now when the high Priest, and the captaine of the Temple and the chief Priests heard these things they doubted of them whereunto this would grow.

25 Then came one and told them, saying, Behold, the men whom yee put in prison, are standing in the Temple, and teaching the people.

26 Then went the captaine with the officers, and brought them without violence: (for they feared the people, lest they should have been stoned.)

27 And when they had brought them, they set them before the Counsel, and the high Priest asked them,

28 Saying, Did not we straitly command you, that you should not teach in this Name? And lo, ye have filled Ierusalem with your doctrine, & intend to bring this mans blood upon us.

29 Then Peter and the other Apostles answered and said, We ought to obey God rather then men.

30 The God of our father raised up Iesus, whom yee slew and hanged on a tree.

31 Him hath God exalted with his right hand, to be a Prince and a Saviour, for to give repentance to Israel, and forgivenesse of sins.

32 And we are his witnesses of these things, so is also y holy Ghost, whom God hath given to them y obey him.

33 When they heard this, they were cut to the heart, and took counsell to slay them.

34 Then stood there up one in the Counsell, a Pharisee, named Gamaliel, a Doctour of Law, had in reputation among all the people, & commanded to put the Apostles forth a little space.

35 And said unto them, Ye men of Israel, take heed to your selves, what ye intend to do as touching these men.

36 For before these dayes, rose up Theudas, boasting himself to be some body to whom a number of men, about foure hundred, ioyned themselves, who was slaine, and all, as many as obeyed him, were scattered, & brought to nought.

37 After this man rose up Iudas of Galilee, in the dayes of the taxing, and drew away much people after him: he also perished, and all, even as many as obeyed him, were dispersed.

38 And now I say unto you, Refrain from these men, and let them alone: for if this counsell, or this work be of men, it will come to nought.

39 But if it be of God, ye cannot overthrow it, lest happely ye be found even to fight against God.

40 And to him they agreed: and when they had called the Apostles, and beaten them, they commanded that they should not speake in the Name of Iesus, and let them goe.

41 And they departed from the presence of the Counsell, rejoycing that they were counted worthy to suffer shame for his Name.

42 And

ecuted.
d daily in the Temple and in the ouse: they ceased not to teach esus Christ.

CHAP. VI.

In those dayes, when y number f disciples was multiplied, there a murmuring of y Grecians against wes, because their widows were glected in the daily ministration.
2 Then the twelve called the mul-tude of disciples unto them, and said, is not reason that we should leave
e word of God, and serve tables.
3 Wherefore brethren, look ye out mong you seven men of honest report, ll of the holy Ghost and wisedome,
hom we may appoint over this busines 4 But we will give our selves continually to prayer, and to the ministery f the word.
5 And the saying pleased the whole ultitude: and they chose Steven, a an full of Faith & of the holy Ghost, nd Philip, and Prochorus, and Nica-or, and Timon, and Parmenas, and icolas, a Proselyte of Antioch.
6 Whom they set before the Apo-tles: and when they had prayed, they id their handes on them.
7 And the word of God increased, and e number of y Disciples multiplyed in erusalem greatly. & a great company of e Priests were obedient to the Faith.
8 And Steven full of faith and powr, did great wonders and miracles
mong the people.
9 Then there arose certain of the ynagogue, which is called the Sinagogue of the Libertines, & Cyrenians, nd Alexandrians, & of them of Ciliia & of Asia, disputing with Steven.
0 And they were not able to resist y isdome & the spirit by which he spake.
1 Then they suborned men, which said,
e have heard him speak blasphemous
ords against Moses, & against God.
2 And they stirred up the people, e Elders, and Scribes, and came pon him, and caught him, & brought im to the Counsell.
3 And set up false witnesse, which id, This man ceaseth not to speake blasphemous words against this holy lace, and the Law.
4 For we have heard him say, that is Jesus of Nazareth shall destroy this lace, and shall change the customs hich Moses delivered us.
5 And all y sate in the Counsell, look-g stedfastly on him, saw his face, as had been the face of an Angel.

CHAP. VII.

Then said the high Priest, Are ese things so?
2 And he said, Men brethre, & fathers, arke: The God of glory appeared to r father Abraha, while he was in Mesopotamia, before he dwelt in Charran 3 And said to him, Get thee out of thy ountrey, & from thy kindred, & come to the land which I shall shew thee.
4 Then came he out of the land of Caldeans, and dwelt in Charran:
and from thence, when his father was dead, he removed him into this land wherein ye now dwell.
5 And he gave him none inheritance in it, no not so much as to set his foot on; yet he promised y he would give it to him for a possession, & to his seed after him, when as yet he had no child.
6 And God spake on this wise: that his seed should sojourne in a strange land, and that they should bring them into bondage, and intreat them evill four hundred years.
7 And the nation to whom they shal be in bondage, will I judge, saith God:
and after that shall they come forth and serve me in this place.
8 And he gave him the covenant of circumcision: and so Abraham begate Isaac, and circumcised him the eight day: and Isaac begate Iacob, and Ia cob begat the twelve Patriarchs.
9 And the Patriarchs mooved with envie, sold Joseph into Egypt: but God was with him.
10 And delivered him out of all his afflictions, and gave him favour and wisedome in the sight of Pharaoh King of Egypt: and he made him governour over Egypt, and all his house.
11 Now there came a dearth over all y land of Egypt & Canaan, & great afflic-tion. & our fathers found no sustenance.
12 But when Iacob heard that there was corne in Egypt, he sent out our Fathers first.
13 And at the second time Joseph was made known to his brethre, & Joseph's kin trid was made known to Pharaoh.
14 Then sent Joseph, and called his father Iacob to him, and all his kindred,
75 creesoure and fifteene soules.
15 So Iacob went down into Egypt, and died, he and our Fathers.
16 And were carried over into Sichem, and laid in the Sepulchre that Abrahā bought for a summe of money of the sons of Emor the Father of Sichem.
17 But when the time of the promise drew nigh, which God had sworn to Abraham, the people grew and multiplyed in Egypt.
18 Till another King arose, which knew not Joseph.
19 The same dealt subtilly with our kin trid, & evil entreated our Father, so that they cast out their young children, to the end they might not live.
20 In which time Moses was born, and was exceeding faire, & nourished up in his father's house three moneths.
21 And when he was cast out, Pharaohs daughter took him up, and nourished him for her owne son.
22 And Moses was learned in all the wisedome of the Egyptians, and was mighty in words and in deeds.
23 And when he was full fourty years old, it came into his heart to visite his brethren the children of Israel.
24 And seeing one of them suffer wrong, he defended him, and avenged him that was oppressed, and smote the Egyptian.

25 For he supposed his brethren would have understood, how that God by his hand would deliver them, but they understood not.

26 But the next day he shewed himself unto them as they strove, and would have set them at one again, saying, Sirs, ye are brethren, why do ye wrong one to another?

27 But he that did his neighbour wrong, thrust him away, saying, Who made thee a ruler and a judge over us?

28 Wilt thou kill me as thou diddest the Egyptian yesterday?

29 Then fled Moses at this saying, and was a stranger in the land of Midian, where he begat two sons.

30 And when forty years were expired, there appeared unto him in the wildernesse of mount Sina, an Angel of the Lord in a flame of fire in a bush.

31 When Moses saw it, he wondered at the sight: & as he drew neer to behold it, ỹ voyce of ỹ Lord came unto him.

32 Saying, I am the God of thy fathers, the God of Abraham, & the God of Isaac, & the God Iacob. Then Moses trembled, and durst not behold.

33 Then said the Lord to him, Put off thy shoes from thy feet: for the place where ỹ standest, is holy ground.

34 I have seen, I have seen the affliction of my people which is in Egypt, and I have heard their groaning, and am come down to deliver them. And now come, I wil send thee into Egypt.

35 This Moses whom they refused, saying, Who made thee a ruler & a iudge? the same did God send to be a ruler and a deliverer, by the hand of the Angel which appeared to him in ỹ bush.

36 He brought them out, after that he had shewed wonders and signes in the land of Egypt, and in the red Sea, and in the wildernesse fourty yeares.

37 This is that Moses which said unto the children of Israel, A Prophet shall the Lord your God raise up unto you of your brethren, like unto me, him shall ye heare.

38 This is he that was in the Church in the wilderness with the Angel, which spake to him in the mount Sina, and with our fathers: who received the lively Oracles, to give unto us.

39 To whom our fathers would not obey, but thrust him ỹ from them, & in their hearts turned back again into Egypt,

40 Saying to Aaron, make us gods to go before us: for as for this Moses, which brought us out of the land of Egypt, we wote not what is become of him.

41 And they made a calf in those dayes: & offered sacrifice unto ỹ idole, & reioyced in ỹ works of their own hands.

42 Then God turned, & gave them up to worship ỹ host of heaven: as it is written in the book of the Prophets, O ye house of Israel, have ye offered to me slaine beasts and sacrifices, by the space of fourty years in the wilderness?

43 Yea, ye took up the Tabernacle of Moloch, and the star of your god Remphan, figures which ye made, to worship them: and I will carry you away beyond Babylon.

44 Our fathers had the Tabernacle of Witnesse in the wilderness, as he had appointed, speaking unto Moses that he should make it according to the fashion that he had seene.

45 Which also our fathers that came after brought in with Iesus into ỹ possession of the Gentiles whom God drave out before the face of our fathers, unto the dayes of David.

46 Who found favour before God, and desired to finde a Tabernacle for the God of Iacob.

47 But Solomon built him an house.

48 How beit the most High dwelleth not in temples made with hands, as saith the Prophet.

49 Heaven is my throne, and earth is my footstoole: What house will ye build me, saith the Lord? or what is the place of my rest?

50 Hath not my hands made all these things?

51 Ye stiff-necked & uncircumcised in heart & eares, ye do alwayes resist ỹ holy Ghost: as your fathers did, so do ye.

52 Which of the Prophets have not your fathers persecuted? & they have slaine them which shewed before ỹ coming of the iust one, of whom ye have been now ỹ betrayers and murderers:

53 Who have received the Law by the disposition of Angels, and have not kept it.

54 When they heard these things, they were cut to the heart, and they gnashed upon him with their teeth.

55 But he being ful of ỹ holy Ghost, looked up stedfastly into heaven, and saw the glory of God, and Iesus standing on the right hand of God,

56 And said, Behold, I see the heavens opened, and the Son of man standing on the right hand of God.

57 Then they cryed out with a loud voyce, and stopped their ears, and ran upon him with one accord,

58 And cast him out of the city, and stoned him: and the witnesses laid down their clothes at a young mans feet, whose name was Saul.

59 And they stoned Steven, calling upon God, and saying, Lord Iesus receive my spirit.

60 And he kneeled down, and cried with a loud voyce, Lord, lay not this sin to their charge. And when he had said this, he fell asleepe.

CHAP. VIII.

AND Saul was consenting unto his death. And at that time there was a great persecution against ỹ Church which was at Hierusalem, & they were all scattered abroad throughout ỹ regions of Iudea & Samaria, except the Apostles.

1 And followed.

devout men carried Steven to ial, and made great lamenta-
him.
the Saul, he made havock of the entring into every house, and men and women, committed prison.
they were scattered abroad
every where preaching the word.
Philip went down to y city of ia, & preached Christ unto the.
the people ỹ one accord gave those things ỹ Philip spake, ring & seeing ỹ miracles ỹ he did.
unclean spirits, crying wt loud came out of many y were possest them: & many taken with paland that were lame, were healed.
was great joy in that city.
there was a certaine man cal-Simon, which before time in the ursued Sorcery, and bewitched ple of Samaria, giving out, that was some great one.
To whom they all gave heed,
e least to the greatest, saying,
man is the great power of God.
to him they had regard, be-of long time he had bewitthem with Sorceries.
when they believed Philip, preac of the things concerning y kingdom God, & y Name of Iesus Christ: they baptized, both men and women.
then Simon himself believed also:
when he was baptized, he continued Philip, & wondered, beholding the cles and signes which were done.
Now when the Apostles which were Hierusalem, heard that Samaria had received the word of God, they unto them Peter and Iohn.
Who when they were come down, prayed for them that they might rethe holy Ghost.
(For as yet he was fallen upon of them: only they were bap-in the Name of the Lord Iesus.) Then laid they their hands on and they received the holy Ghost.
And when Simon saw y through ying on of y Apostles hands, y holy was given he offered them money, Saying, Give me also this power, on whom soever I lay hands, he receive the holy Ghost.
But Peter said unto him, Thy with thee perish, because thou thought that the gift of God may purchased with money.
Thou hast neither part nor lot in matter: for thy heart is not right
the sight of God.
Repent therefore of this thy wicked-and pray God if perhaps y thought thine heart may be forgiven thee.
For I perceive that y art in the gall bitterness, & in y bond of iniquity.
Then answered Simon, and said,
Pray ye to the Lord for me that none these things which ye have spoken, come upon me.

25 And they when they had testified & preached the word of y Lord, returned to Hierusalem, & preached y Gospel in many villages of y Samaritanes.
26 And y Angel of y Lord spake unto Philip, saying, Arise, & go toward y South, to y way y goeth down fro Hierusalem to Gaza, which is desert.
27 And he arose, and went, and behold, a man of Ethiopia, an Eunuch of great authority under Candace Queen of the Ethiopians, who had the charge of all her treasure, and had come to Hierusalem for to worship.
28 Was returning, and sitting in his charet, read Esaias the Prophet.
29 Then y Spirit said unto Philip, Go neer, & ioyne thy selfe to this charet.
30 And Philip ran thither to him, and heard him read y Prophet Esaias, and said, understandest y what y readest?
31 And he said, How can I, except some man shoulde guide me? And he desired Philip, that he would come up, and sit with him.
32 The place of y Scripture ỹ he read was this, He was led as a sheep to ỹ slaughter, & like a lame dumbe before y sheerer, so opened he not his mouth.
33 In his humiliation his judgement was taken away: and who shall declare his generation? for his life is taken from the earth.
34 And the Eunuch answered Philip, and said, I pray thee, of whom speaketh the Prophet this? of himself or of some other man?
35 Then Philip opened his mouth, and began at the same Scripture, and preached unto him Iesus.
36 And as they went on their way, they came unto a certaine water: And the Eunuch said, See here is water, what doeth hinder me to be baptized?
37 And Philip said, If thou be beleeved with all thine heart, thou mayst. And he answered, and said, I believe that Iesus Christ is the Son of God.
38 And he commanded the charet to stand still: and they went down both into the water, both Philip and the Eunuch, and he baptized him.
39 And when they were come up out of y water, y Spirit of y Lord caught away Philip, & y Eunuch saw him no more: & he went on his way rejoycing.
40 But Philip was found at Azotus: and passing thorough, he preached in all the cities, til he came to Cesarea.

CHAP. IX.

AND Saul yet breathing out threatnings & slaughter against the disciples of y Lord, went unto y high Priest,
2 And desired of him letters to Damascus to the Synagogues, that if he found any of this way, whether they were men or women, he might bring them bound unto Hierusalem.
3 And as he journeyed, he came neere to Damascus, & suddenly there shined round about him a light from heaven.
4 And heard a voyce, saying unto him, him, Saul, Saul, why persecutest thou me?

5 And he said. Who art thou, Lord? And the Lord said, I am Iesus whom thou persecutest: it is hard for thee to kick against the pricks.

6 And he trembling and astonished, said. Lord, what wilt thou have me to do? And the Lord said unto him, arise, and go into the city, and it shalbe told thee what thou must do.

7 And the men which journeyed with him, stood speechless, hearing a voyce, but seing no man.

8 And Saul arose from the earth, & when his eyes were opened, he saw no man: but they led him by the hand, and brought him into Damascus.

9 And he was three dayes without sight, and neither did eat nor drink.

10 And there was a certain disciple at Damascus, named Ananias, and to him said the Lord in a vision, Ananias. And he said, Behold, I am here, Lord.

11 And the Lord said unto him, Arise, and go into the street which is called straight, and enquire in the house of Iudas, for one called Saul of Tarsus: for behold, he prayeth,

12 And hath seen in a vision a man named Ananias comming in, and putting his hand on him, that he might receive his sight.

13 Then Ananias answered, Lord, I have heard by many of this man, how much evil he hath done to thy Saints at Hierusalem:

14 And here he hath authority from the chief Priests, to bind all that call upon thy Name.

15 But the Lord said to him, Go thy way: for he is a chosen vessel to me, to bear my name before the Gentiles, and kings, and the children of Israel.

16 For I will shew him how great things he must suffer for my names sake.

17 And Ananias went his way, and entred into the house, and putting his hands on him, said, Brother Saul, the Lord, even Iesus that appeared to thee in the way as thou camest, hath sent me, that thou mightest receive thy sight, and be filled with the holy Ghost.

18 And immediately there fell from his eyes as it had been scales, & he received sight forthwith, & arose & was baptized.

19 And when he had received meat, he was strengthened. Then was Saul certain dayes with the disciples which were at Damascus.

20 And straightway he preached Christ in the Synagogues, that he is the Son of God.

21 But all that heard him, were amazed, and said, Is not this he that destroyed them which called on this Name in Hierusalem, and came hither for that intent, that he might bring them bound unto the chief Priests?

22 But Saul increased the more in strength, and confounded the Iewes that dwelt at Damascus, proving that this is very Christ.

23 And after many dayes were fulfilled, the Iewes took counsel to kill him.

24 But their laying awaits was known of Saul: and they watched the gates day and night to kill him.

25 Then the disciples took him by night, & let him down by the wall in a basket.

26 And when Saul was come to Hierusalem, he assayed to join himself to the disciples, but they were all afraid of him, and believed not that he were a disciple.

27 But Barnabas took him, and brought him to the Apostles, and declared to them how he had seen the Lord in the way, and that he had spoken to him, and how he had preached boldly at Damascus in the Name of Iesus.

28 And he was with them coming in, and going out at Hierusalem.

29 And he spake boldly in the Name of the Lord Iesus, & disputed against the Iewes: but they went about to slay him.

30 Which when the brethren knew, they brought him down to Cesarea, and sent him forth to Tarsus.

31 Then had the Churches throughout all Iudea, & Galile, & Samaria, and were edified, and walking in the feare of the Lord, and in the comfort of the holy Ghost were multiplied.

32 And it came to pass as Peter passed throughout all quarters, he came down also to the Saints, which dwelt at Lydda.

33 And there he found a certain man named Aeneas, which had kept his bed eight yeers, and was sick of the palsie.

34 And Peter said to him, Aeneas, Iesus Christ maketh thee whole: arise and make thy bed: & he arose straightway.

35 And all that dwelt at Lydda & Saron saw him, and turned to the Lord.

36 Now there was at Ioppa a certain disciple named Tabitha, which by interpretation is called Dorcas: this woman was full of good works, and almes deeds which she did.

37 And it came to pass in those dayes, that she was sicke and dyed: whom when they had washed, they laid her in an upper chamber.

38 And forasmuch as Lydda was nigh to Ioppa, and the disciples had heard that Peter was there, they sent unto him two men, desiring him that he would not delay to come to them.

39 Then Peter arose & went with them: when he was come, they brought him into the upper chamber, and all the widows stood by him weeping, and shewing the coates and garments which Dorcas made while she was with them.

40 But Peter put them all forth, and kneeled down and prayed, and turning him to the body, said, Tabitha, arise. And she opened her eyes, and when she saw Peter, she sate up.

41 And he gave her his hand, and lift her up: & when he had called the Saints and widowes, presented her alive.

42 And it was known throughout all Ioppa, and many believed in the Lord.

43 And it came to passe that he tarried

many dayes in Ioppa, with one a Tanner.

CHAP. X.

1 There was a certain man in Cesarea, called Cornelius, a Centurion of called the Italian band, 2 A devout man, & one y feared God, his house, & gave much almes unto his people, & prayed to God alway.
3 He saw in a vision evidently about ninth houre of the day, an Angel God comming in to him, and sayunto him, Cornelius.
4 And when he looked on him, he was afraid, and said, What is it, Lord. And he said unto him, Thy prayers, and thine almes are come up for a memorial before God.
5 And now send men to Ioppa, & call one Simō, whose surname is sirnamed Peter:
6 He lodgeth with one Simon a Tanner, whose house is by the sea side; he shall tell thee what thou oughtest to doe.
7 And when the Angel which spake unto Cornelius was departed, he called two of his household servants, and one souldier of them that waited on him continually.
8 To whom when he had declared all these things, he sent them to Ioppa.
9 On the morrow, as they went on their journey, and drew nigh unto the city, Peter went up upon the house top to pray, about the sixt houre.
10 And he became very hungry, and would have eaten: But while they made ready, he fell into a trance, 11 And saw heaven opened, and a certain vessel descending unto him, as it had been a great sheet knit at y four corners, and let down to y earth:
12 Wherein were all manner of foure-footed beasts of the earth, and wilde beasts, and creeping things, and fowls of the aire.
13 And there came a voyce to him,
Rise, Peter, kill and eate.
14 But Peter said, Not so Lord, for I have never eaten any thing that is common or unclean.
15 And the voyce spake unto him again the second time, What God hath cleansed, that call not thou common.
16 This was done thrice, and y vessel was received up againe into heaven.
17 Now while Peter doubted in himself what this vision which he had seen should mean, behold, the men which were sent from Cornelius, had made inquiry for Simons house, and stood before the gate, 18 And called and asked whether Simon, which was surnamed Peter, were lodged there.
19 While Peter thought on the vision, the Spirit said unto him, Behold, three men seeke thee.
20 Arise therefore; and get thee down, and go with them doubting nothing: for I have sent them.
21 Then Peter went down to the men which were sent unto him from Cornelius, & said, Behold, I am he whom ye seeke:
what is y cause wherefore ye are come?
22 And they said, Cornelius the Centurion a just man, and one that feareth God, and of good report among all y nation of y Iewes, was warned from God by an holy Angel, to send for thee unto his house, & to hear words of thee.
23 Then called he them in, and lodged them. And on the morrow Peter went away with them, and certain brethren from Ioppa accompanied him.
24 And the morrow after they en-tred into Cesarea. And Cornelius waited for them, and had called together his kinsemen and neere friends.
25 And as Peter was comming in, Cornelius met him, and fell downe at his feet, and worshipped him.
26 But Peter tooke him up, saying,
Stand up, I my selfe also am a man.
27 And as he talked with him, he went in, and found many that were come together.
28 And he said unto them, Ye know how that it is an unlawful thing for a man that is a Iew to keep company, or come unto one of another nation:
but God hath shewed me that I should not call any man common or unclean.
29 Therefore came I unto you without gainsaying, assoone as I was sent for. I aske therefore for what intent ye have sent for me.
30 And Cornelius said, Foure dayes agoe I was fasting, until this houre, and at the ninth houre I prayed in mine house, and behold, a man stood before me in bright cloathing, 31 And said, Cornelius, thy praier is heard, and thine almes are had in remembrance in the sight of God.
32 Send therefore to Ioppa, and call hither Simon, whose surname is Peter, he is lodged in the house of one Simon a Tanner by the Sea side, who when he commeth shall speake to thee.
33 Immediatly therefore I sent unto thee, and thou hast well done that thou are come. Now therefore are we all here present before God, to heare all things y are commanded thee of God.
34 Then Peter opened his mouth, and said, Of a truth, I perceive that God is no respecter of persons.
35 But in every nation he that feareth him, and worketh righteousnes, is accepted with him.
36 The word which God sent unto the children of Israel, preaching peace by Iesus Christ (he is the Lord of all) 37 That word (I say) you know which was published throughout all Iewry, and began at Galilee, after the Bap-tisme which Iohn preached:
38 How God anointed Iesus of Nazareth with the holy Ghost and with power, who went about doing good, and healing all that were oppressed of the devil: for God was with him.
39 And we are witnesses of all things which he did, both in the land of the Iewes, and in Ierusalem, whom they slew, and hanged on a tree.

40 Him God raised up the third day, and shewed him openly,

41 Not to all the people, but vnto witnesses chosen before of God, even to vs who did eate and drinke with him after he rose from the dead.

42 And he commanded vs to preach to the people, and to testifie that it is he which was ordained of God to be the Iudge of the quicke and dead.

43 To him giue all the Prophets witnes, that through his Name, whosoeuer beleeueth in him shal receiue remission of sins.

44 While I yet yer spake these words, the holy Ghost fel on al them which heard the word.

45 And they of the Circumcision which beleeued, were astonished, as many as came with Peter, because that on the Gentiles also was powred out the gift of the holy Ghost.

46 For they heard them speak with tongues and magnifie God. Then answered Peter, 47 Can any man forbid water, y these should not be baptized, which have receiued the holy Ghost as wel as we?

48 And he commanded them to be baptized in the Name of y Lord. Then prayed they him to tarry certa in dayes

CHAP. XI.

AND the Apostles & brethren y were in Iudea, heard that the Gentiles had also receiued the word of God.

2 And when Peter was come up to Hierusalem, they that were of the Circumcision contended with him,

3 Saying, Thou wentest in to men vncircumcised, and didst eate with them.

4 But Peter rehearsed the matter from the beginning, and expounded it by order vnto them, saying,

5 I was in the city of Ioppa, praying, and in a trance I saw a vision A certain vessel descend, as it had been a great sheet, let down from heaven by y foure corners, and it came even to me.

6 Vpon y which when I had stedfastly mine eyes, I considered & saw foure footed beasts of y earth, & wild beasts and creeping things, & foules of the aire.

7 And I heard a voyce saying vnto me, Arise Peter, slay and eate.

8 But I said, Not so Lord: for nothing common or vncleane hath at any time entred into my mouth.

9 But the voyce answered me again from heaven, What God hath cleansed, that cal not thou common.

10 And this was done three times, and al was drawn vp again into heaven.

11 And behold, immediately there were three men already come vnto y house where I was, sent from Cesarea to me.

12 And the Spirit bad me go with them, nothing doubting: Moreouer, these six brethren accompanied me, & we entred into the mans house.

13 And he shewed vs how he had seen an Angel in his house, & stood & said to him, Send men to Ioppa, & for Simon, whose surname is Peter,

14 Who shal tel thee words whereby thou, and al thy house shal be saued.

15 And as I began to speake, the holy Ghost fel on them, as on vs at the beginning.

16 Then remembred I the word of the Lord, how that he said, Iohn indeed baptized with water, but ye shal be baptized with the holy Ghost.

17 Forasmuch then as God gaue them like gift as he did vnto vs, which beleeued on the Lord Iesus Christ, what was I y I could withstand God?

18 When they heard these things, they held their peace, and glorified God, saying, Then hath God also to the Gentiles granted repentance vnto life.

19 Now they that were scattered abroad vpon the persecution that arose about Steue, trauailed as far as Phenice and Cyprus, & Antioch, preaching the word to none, but to y Iewes only.

20 And some of them were men of Cyprus and Cyrene, which when they were come to Antioch, spake vnto the Grecians, preaching the Lord Iesus.

21 And the hand of the Lord was with them, and a great number that beleeued, and turned vnto the Lord.

22 Then tidings of these things came to y eares of the Church which was in Hierusalem & they sent forth Barnabas y he should go as far as Antioch.

23 Who when he came, and had seen the grace of God, was glad, and exhorted them all, that with purpose of heart they would cleaue vnto the Lord.

24 For he was a good man, and full of the holy Ghost, and of faith: and much people was added vnto the Lord.

25 Then departed Barnabas to Tarsus for to seeke Saul.

26 And when he had found him, he brought him vnto Antioch. And it came to passe, that a whole yere they assembled themselues with the Church, and taught much people, & y disciples were called Christians first in Antioch.

27 And in these dayes came Prophets from Hierusalem vnto Antioch.

28 And there stood vp one of them named Agabus, and signified by the spirit that there should be great dearth throughout all y world, which came to passe in y dayes of Claudius Cesar.

29 Then the disciples euery man according to his ability determined to send relefe vnto the brethren which dwelt in Iudea.

30 Which also they did, & sent it to the elders by y hands of Barnabas & Saul.

CHAP. XII.

NOw about that time Herod the king stretched forth his hands to vexe certaine of the Church.

2 And he killed Iames the brother of Iohn with the sword.

3 And because he saw it pleased the Iewes, he proceeded further, to (Then were the dayes of unleavened bread.)

4 And when he had apprehended him, he put him in prison, and delivered him to four quaternions of souldiers to keep him; intending after Easter to bring him forth to the people.
5 Peter therefore was kept in prison,
but prayer was made without ceasing of the Church unto God for him.
6 And when Herod would have brought him forth, the same night Peter was sleeping between two soul-diers, bound with two chaines; and the keepers before y doore kept y prison.
7 And behold, the Angel of the Lord came upon him, and a light shined in the prison: and he smote Peter on the side, and raised him up, saying, Arise up quickly. And his chaines fell off from his hands.
8 And the Angel said to him, Gird thy self, and bind on thy sandales: and so he did. And he saith to him, Cast thy garment about thee, and follow me.
9 And he went out and followed him, and wist not that it was true which was done by the Angel; but thought he saw a vision.
10 When they were past the first and the second ward, they came unto the iron gate that leadeth unto the city, which opened to them of his own accord: and they went out, and passed on through one street, and forthwith
the Angel departed from him.
11 And when Peter was come to himself, he said, Now I know of a surety that the Lord hath sent his Angel, and hath delivered me out of the hand of Herod, and from all the expectation of the people of the Iewes.
12 And when he had considered the thing, he came to the house of Mary the mother of John, whose surname was Mark, where many were gathered together praying.
13 And as Peter knocked at the doore of the gate, a damosel came to hearken named Rhoda.
14 And when she knew Peters voyce, she opened not the gate for gladnes, but ran in, and told how Peter stood before the gate.
15 And they said unto her, Thou art mad.
But she constantly affirmed that it was so.
Then said they, It is his Angel.
16 But Peter continued knocking: and when they had opened the doore, and saw him, they were astonished.
17 But he beckoning unto them with the hand to hold their peace, declared unto them how the Lord had brought him out of the prison: and he said, Go shew these things unto Iames, and to the brethren. And he departed, and went into another place.
18 Now as soone as it was day, there was no small stirre among the soul-diers, what was become of Peter.
19 And when Herod had sought for him, and found him not, he examined y keepers, and commanded y they should be put to death. And he went down from Iudea to Cesarea, and there abode.
20 And Herod was highly displeased with them of Tyre and Sidon: but they came with one accord to him, and having made Blastus the kings Cham-berlaine their friend, desired peace, because their countrey was nourished
by the kings countrey.
21 And upon a set day, Herod arayed in royal apparel, sate upon his throne, and made an oration unto them.
22 And y people gave a shout, saying, It is y voyce of a God, & not of a man.
23 And immediately the Angel of the Lord smote him, because he gave not God the glory, and he was eaten of wormes, and gave up the ghost.
24 But the word of God grew and multiplied.
25 And Barnabas and Saul returned from Hierusalem, when they had fulfilled their ministery, and tooke with them Iohn, whose surname was Mark.

CHAP. XIII.

NOw there were in y Church y was at Antioch certaine Prophets and teachers as Barnabas & Simeon y was called Niger, & Lucius of Cyrene, and Manaen, which had been brought up with Herod the Tetrarch, and Saul.
2 As they ministred to the Lord, and fasted, the holy Ghost said, Separate me Barnabas and Saul, for the worke whereunto I have called them.
3 And when they had fasted, and prayed, and laid their hands on them, they sent them away.
4 So they being sent forth by the holy Ghost, departed unto Seleucia, & from thence they sayled to Cyprus.
5 And when they were at Salamis, they preached the word of God in the Synagogues of the Iewes; and they had also Iohn to their Minister.
6 And when they had gone thorow the Ile unto Paphos, they found a certain sorcerer, a false Prophet, a Iew, whose name was Bar-Iesus.
7 Which was with the Deputy of the countrey Sergius Paulus, a prudent man: who called for Barnabas & Saul, and desired to heare the word of God.
8 But Elymas the sorcerer (for so is his name by interpretation) withstood them, seeking to turne away the deputy from the faith.
9 Then Saul (who also is called Paul) filled with the holy Ghost, set his eyes on him,
10 And said, O ful of al subtilitie and al mischiefe, thou childe of the devill, thou enemy of al righteous-nesse, wilt thou not cease to pervert the right wayes of the Lord?
11 And now behold, the hand of the Lord is upon thee, and thou shalt be blind, not seeing the sun for a season.
And immediately there fel on him a mist and a darknesse, and he went about seeking some to lead him by the hand.

12 Then the Deputy, when he saw what was done, beleeved, being astonished at the doctrine of the Lord.

13 Now when Paul and his company loosed from Paphos, they came to Perga in Pamphylia: & Iohn departing from them, returned to Hierusalem.

14 But when they departed from Perga, they came to Antiochia in Pisidia, and went into the Synagogue on the Sabbath day, and sate down.

15 And after the reading of the Law and the Prophets, the rulers of the Synagogue sent unto them, saying, Ye men and brethren, if yee have any word of exhortatiō for ỹ people, say on.

16 Then Saul stood up, and beckening with his hand, said, Men of Israel, and ye that feare God, give audience.

17 The God of this people of Israel chose our Fathers, and exalted the people when they dwelt as strangers in the land of Egypt, and with an high arm brought he them out of it.

18 And about the time of fourty yeeres suffered he their manners in the wildernesse.

19 And when he had destroyed seven nations in the land of Canaan, hee devided their land to them by lot.

20 And after that he gave unto them Iudges about ỹ space of foure hundred & fifty yeers, until Samuel ỹ Prophet.

21 And afterward they desired a King, and God gave unto them Saul the son of Cis, a man of the tribe of Benjamin, by the space of fourty yeeres.

22 And when he had removed him, he raised up unto them David to be their king, to whom also he gave testimony, and said, I have found David the son of Iesse, a man after mine own heart, which shal fulfill al my wil.

23 Of this mans seed hath God according to his promise, raised unto Israel a Saviour, Iesus:

24 When Iohn had first preached before his comming, the baptisme of repentance to al the People of Israel.

25 And as Iohn fulfilled his course, he said, Whom thinke ye that I am? I am not he. But behold there commeth one after me, whose shooes of his feet I am not worthy to loose.

26 Men and brethren, children of the stocke of Abraham, and whosoever among you feareth God, to you is the word of this salvation sent.

27 For they ỹ dwell at Hierusalem, & their Rulers, because they knew him not, nor yet the voyces of ỹ Prophets which are read every Sabbath day, they have fulfilled thē in condemning him.

28 And though they found no cause of death in him, yet desired they Pilate that he should be slain.

29 And when they had fulfilled al ỹ was wr tte of him, they took him down from ỹ tree, & laid him in a sepulchre.

30 But God raised him from ỹ dead.

31 And he was seen many dayes of them which came up with him from Galilee to Hierusalem, who are his witnesses unto the people.

32 And we declare unto you glad tidings, how that the promise which was made unto the fathers,

33 God hath fulfilled the same unto us their children, in that he hath raised up Iesus again, as it is also written in the second Psalm, Thou art my Son, this day have I begotten thee.

34 And as concerning ỹ he raised him up frō ỹ dead, now no more to return to corruption, he said on this wise, I will give you ỹ sure mercies of David.

35 Wherefore he saith also in another Psalme, Thou shalt not suffer thine holy One to see corruption.

36 For David after he had served his own generation by the wil of God, fell on sleepe, and was laid unto his fathers, and saw corruption.

37 But he whom God raised again, saw no corruption.

38 Be it knowen unto you therfore men & brethren ỹ through this man is Preached to you ỹ forgivenes of sins.

39 And by him al ỹ believe, are iustified from al things, from ỹe could not be justified by the Law of Moses.

40 Beware therefore, lest ỹ come upon you which is spoken of in ỹ Prophets.

41 Behold ye despisers, & wonder, and perish: for I work a work in your dayes, a work ỹ you shal in no wise believe, though a man declare it unto you.

42 And when the Iewes were gone out of the Synagogue, the Gentiles besought that these words might be preached to them the next Sabbath.

43 Now when the Congregation was broken up, many of ỹ Iews and religious Proselytes followed Paul & Barnabas who speaking to thē, perswaded them to continue in ỹ grace of God.

44 And the next Sabbath day came almost the whole city together to heare the word of God.

45 But when ỹ Iewes saw ỹ multitudes, they were filled with envy, and spake against those things, which were spoke by Paul, contradicting & blaspheming.

46 Then Paul & Barnabas waxed bold, and said, It was necessary ỹ ỹ word of God should first have been spoken to you: but seeing ye put it from you, and judge your selves unworthy of everlasting life, lo, we turn to the Gentiles.

47 For so hath ỹ Lord commanded us, saying, I have set thee to be a light of ỹ Gentiles, that thou shouldest be for salvation unto the ends of the earth.

48 And when the Gentiles heard this, they were glad, & glorified the word of the Lord: and as many as were ordained to eternal life, beleeved.

49 And the word of the Lord was published throughout al the region.

50 But the Iewes stirred up the devout and honourable women, and the chiefe men of the city, and raised persecution against Paul and Barnabas, and expelled them out of their coasts.

51 But

people healed. CHAP. XIIII. XV. Paul stoned.

but they shook off ỹ dust of their against them, & came to Iconium:
and the disciples were filled with and with the holy Ghost.

CHAP. XIIII.

AND came to passe in Iconium, that they went both together into the synagogue of ỹ Iewes, & so spake, that a great multitude both of the Iewes, & also of the Grecians beleeved.
2 But the unbeleeving Iewes stirred up the Gentiles, & made their minds euil affected against the brethren.
3 Long time therefore abode they speaking boldly in the Lord, which gaue testimonie unto the word of his grace, and granted signes and wonders to be done by their hands.
4 But the multitude of the city was deuided, & part held with the Iewes, and part with the Apostles.
5 And when there was an assault made both of the Gentiles, and also of the Iewes with their Rulers, to use them despitefully, and to stone them.
6 They were ware of it, & fled unto Lystra & Derbe, cities of Lycaonia, & unto the region that lyeth round about:
7 And there they preached ỹ Gospel.
8 And there sate a certaine man at Lystra, impotent in his feet, being a cripple from his mothers wombe, who neuer had walked.
9 The same heard Paul speak: who stedfastly beholding him, and perceiuing that he had faith to be healed, 10 Said with a loud voice, Stand upright on thy feet: and he leaped and walked.
11 And when ỹ people saw what Paul had done, they lift up their voices, saying in ỹ speech of Lycaonia, The gods are come downe to us in ỹ likenes of men.
12 And they called Barnabas Iupiter, and Paul Mercurius, because he was the chiefe speaker.
13 Then the Priest of Iupiter, which was before their city, brought oxen, & garlands unto the gates, and would haue done sacrifice with the people.
14 Which when ỹ Apostles, Barnabas & Paul heard of, they rent their clothes, & ran in among ỹ people, crying out, 15 And saying, Sirs, why do ye these things? We also are men of like passions with you, and preach unto you, ỹ ye should turn frō these vanities, to ỹ liuing God, which made heauen and earth, and ỹ sea, and all things ỹ are therein.
16 Who in times past suffered all nations to walke in their owne wayes.
17 Neuertheless, he left not himself without witnesse, in that he did good, and gaue us raine from heauen, and fruitful seasons, filling our hearts with food and gladnesse.
18 And with these sayings, scarce restrained they the people, that they had not done sacrifice unto them.
19 And there came thither certaine Iewes from Antioch and Iconium, who perswaded the people, and having stoned Paul, drew him out of the city, supposing he had beene dead.
20 Howbeit, as the Disciples stood round about him, he rose up and came into the citie, and the next day hee departed with Barnabas to Derbe.
21 And when they had preached the Gospel to that city, and had taught many, they returned againe to Lystra, and to Iconium, and Antioch, 22 Confirming ỹ soules of ỹ disciples, and exhorting them to continue in ỹ faith, & ỹ we must through much tribulation enter into ỹ kingdom of God.
23 And when they had ordained them
Elders in every Church, and had prayed with fasting, they commended them to the Lord, on whom they beleeued.
24 And After they had passed throughout Pisidia, they came to Pamphylia.
25 And when they had preached ỹ word in Perga, they went down into Attalia.
26 And thence sailed to Antioch, from whence they had been recommended to the grace of God, for the worke which they fulfilled.
27 And when they were come, and had gathered the Church together, they rehearsed all that God had done with them, & how he had opened the door of faith unto the Gentiles.
28 And there they abode long time with the Disciples.

CHAP. XV.

AND certain men which came down from Iudea, taught the brethren, & said, Except ye be circumcised after ỹ manner of Moses, ye cannot be saued.
2 When therefore Paul and Barnabas had no small dissension & disputation with them, they determined ỹ Paul and Barnabas, and certain other of them, should go up to Hierusalem unto the Apostles & Elders about this question.
3 And being brought on their way
by the Church, they passed thorow Phenice and Samaria, declaring the conversion of the Gentiles: and they caused great ioy unto all the brethren.
4 And when they were come to Hierusalem, they were received of the Church, and of the Apostles and Elders, and they declared all things that God had done with them.
5 But there arose up certaine of the sect of the Phatisees which beleeved, saying, That it was needfull to circumcise them, and to command them to keepe the Law of Moses.
6 And the Apostles and Elders came together for to consider of this matter.
7 And when there had been much disputing, Peter rose up, & said to them, Men & brethre, ye know how ỹ a good while a go, God made choice amōg us that ỹ Gentiles by my mouth should heare ỹ word of ỹ Gospel, & beleeve.
8 And God which knoweth the hearts bare them witnesse, giving them the holy Ghost, even as he did unto us.
9 And put no difference betweene us & them, purifying their hearts by faith.
10 Now therefore why tempt ye God, to put a yoke upon the neck of the Disciples, which neither our Fathers nor we were able to beare?

11 But we believe that through the grace of the Lord Iesus Christ, we shall be saved even as they.

12 Then all the multitude kept silence, and gave audience to Barnabas and Paul declaring what miracles and wonders God had wrought among the Gentiles by them.

13 And after they had held their peace, Iames answered, saying, Men and brethren hearken unto me.

14 Simon hath declared how God at the first did visite the Gentiles, to take out of them a people for his Name.

15 And to this agree the words of the Prophets, as it is written,

16 After this I will returne, and will build again the Tabernacle of Dauid, which is fallen downe: and I will build againe the ruines thereof, and I will set it up.

17 That the residue of men might seek after the Lord, and all the Gentiles upon whom my Name is called, saith the Lord, who doth all these things.

18 Known unto God, are all his workes from the beginning of the world.

19 Wherefore my sentence is, that we trouble not them, which from among the Gentiles are turned to God:

20 But that we write unto them, that they abstaine from pollutions of Idols, and from fornication, and from things strangled, and from blood.

21 For Moses of old time, hath in every city them which him, being read in the Synagogues every Sabbath day.

22 Then pleased it the Apostles and Elders, with the whole Church, to send chosen men of their owne company to Antioch, with Paul and Barnabas: namely, Iudas, surnamed Barsabas, & Silas, chief men among the brethren.

23 And wrote letters by them after this manner: The Apostles and Elders, and brethren, send greeting unto the brethren which are of the Gentiles in Antioch, and Syria, and Cilicia.

24 Forasmuch as we have heard, that certaine, which went out from us, have troubled you with words, subverting your soules, saying, Ye must be circumcised, and keep the Law, to whom we gave no such commandment:

25 It seemed good to us being assembled with one accord to send chosen men to you, with our beloved Barnabas & Paul:

26 Men that have hazarded their lives for the Name of our Lord Iesus Christ.

27 We have sent therefore Iudas and Silas, who shall also tell you the same things by mouth.

28 For it seemed good to the holy Ghost, & to us, to lay on you no greater burden then these necessary things:

29 That ye abstaine from meats offered to idols, and from blood, and from things strangled, and from fornication: from which if ye keep your selves, ye shall doe well. Fare ye well.

30 So when they were dismissed, they came to Antioch: and when they had gathered the multitude together, they delivered the Epistle.

31 Which when they had read, they rejoyced for the consolation.

32 And Iudas and Silas, being Prophets also themselves, exhorted the brethren with many words, & confirmed them.

33 And after they had tarried there a space, they were let goe in peace from the brethren unto the Apostles.

34 Notwithstanding it pleased Silas to abide there still.

35 Paul also and Barnabas continued in Antioch, teaching & preaching the word of the Lord, with many others also.

36 And some dayes after, Paul said unto Barnabas, Let us goe again and visite our brethren, in every citie where we have preached the word of the Lord, and see how they doe.

37 And Barnabas determined to take them Iohn, whose surname was Marke.

38 But Paul thought not good to take him with them, who departed from them from Pamphylia, and went not with them to the worke.

39 And the contention was so sharp between them, that they departed asunder one from the other: and so Barnabas took Marke, and sailed to Cyprus.

40 And Paul chose Silas, and departed, being recommended by the brethren unto the grace of God.

41 And he went thorow Syria and Cilicia, confirming the Churches.

CHAP. XVI.

THen came he to Derbe and Lystra: and behold a certaine Disciple was there, named Timotheus, the son of a certain woman which was a Iewesse, & believed: but his father was a Greeke.

2 Which was well reported of by the brethren, y were at Lystra & Iconium.

3 Him would Paul have to go forth with him, and took and circumcised him, because of the Iewes which were in those quarters: for they knew all, that his father was a Greeke.

4 And as they went thorow the cities, they delivered them the decrees for to keep, y were ordained of the Apostles & Elders which were at Hierusalem.

5 And so were the Churches established in the faith, and increased in number daily.

6 Now when they had gone thorow Phrygia, and the region of Galatia, and were forbidden of the holy Ghost to preach the word in Asia,

7 After they were come to Mysia, they assayed to goe into Bithynia: but the Spirit suffered them not.

8 And they passing by Mysia, came downe to Troas.

9 And a vision appeared to Paul in the night: There stood a man of Macedonia, and prayed him, saying, Come over into Macedonia and helpe us.

10 And after he had seen the vision, immediatly we endeavoured to goe in-

Macedonia, assuredly gathering that the Lord had called us for to preach the Gospel unto them.

11 Therefore loosing from Troas, we came with a straight course to Samothracia, and the next day to Neapolis:

12 And from thence to Philippi, which is the chiefest city of that part of Macedonia and a Colonie: and we were in that one abiding certain dayes safe.

13 And on the Sabbath we went out of the city by a river side, where prayer was wont to be made, and we sate down, and spake unto the women which resorted thither.

14 And a certaine woman named Lydia a seller of purple of the city of Thyatira, which worshipped God, heard us: whose heart the Lord opened that she attended unto the things which were spoken of Paul.

15 And when she was baptized, and her household, she besought us, saying,
If ye have judged me to be faithfull unto the Lord, come into my house, and abide there. And she constrained us.

16 And it came to pass as we went to prayer, a certain damosel possessed with a spirit of divination, met us: which brought her masters much gain by soothsaying.

17 The same followed Paul and us, and cried, saying, These men are the servants of the most high God, which shew unto us the way of salvation.

18 And this did she many dayes: but Paul being grieved, turned and said to the spirit, I command thee in the name of Jesus Christ, to come out of her.
And he came out the same houre.

19 And when her masters saw that the hope of their gains was gone, they caught Paul & Silas, & drew them into the market place, unto the Rulers.

20 And brought them to the Magistrates, saying: These men being Jewes, do exceedingly trouble our city.

21 And teach customes which are not lawfull for us to receive, neither to observe being Romanes.

22 And y multitude rose up together against them. & y Magistrates rent off their clothes. & commanded to beat them.

23 And when they had laid many stripes upon them, they cast them into prison, charging y jayler to keep them safely.

24 Who having received such a charge, cast them into the inner prison, and made their feet fast in the stockes.

25 And at midnight Paul and Silas prayed, and sang praises unto God:
and the prisoners heard them.

26 And suddenly there was a great earthquake, so that the foundations of the prison were shaken: and immediately all the doores were opened, and every ones bands were loosed.

27 And y keeper of the prison awaking out of his sleep, and seeing the prisondoors open, hee drew out his sword, & would have killed himselfe, supposing y prisoners had been fled.

28 But Paul cried with a loud voyce, saying, Doe thy selfe no harme, for we are all here.

29 Then he called for a light, and sprang in, and came trembling, and fell down before Paul and Silas.

30 And brought them out, and said,
Sirs, what must I doe to be saved?

31 And they said, beleeve on the Lord Iesus Christ, and thou shalt be saved, and thy house.

32 And they spake to him y word of the Lord, & to all y were in his house.

33 And he took them y same hour of the night, & washed their stripes, and was baptized, he & all his straightway.

34 And when he had brought them into his house, he set meat before them, and rejoyced, believing in God with all his house.

35 And when it was day, the Magistrates sent the Sergeants, saying,
Let those men go.

36 And the keeper of the prison told this saying to Paul, The Magistrates have sent to let you goe: Now therefore depart, and goe in peace.

37 But Paul said unto them, They have beaten us openly uncondemned being Romans, and have cast us into prison, and now doe they thrust us out privily? Nay verely, but let them come themselves, and fetch us out.

38 And the Sergeants told these words unto the Magistrates: and they feared when they heard y they were Romanes.

39 And they came and besought them, and brought them out, and desired them to depart out of the citie.

40 And they went out of the prison, and entred into the house of Lydia, and when they had seen the brethren, they comforted them, and departed.

CHAP. XVII.

NOw when they had passed thorow Amphipolis, and Apollonia, they came to Thessalonica, where was a Synagogue of the Iewes.

2 And Paul as his manner was, went in unto them, & three Sabbath dayes reasoned with them out of y Scriptures,

3 Opening & alledging, that Christ must needs have suffered and risen againe from the dead: and that this Ie-sus whom I preach unto you, is Christ.

4 And some of them beleeved, and consorted with Paul and Silas: and of the devout Greekes a great multitude. & of the chiefe women not a few.

5 But the Iewes which beleeved not, moved with envy, took unto them certaine lewd fellowes of the baser sort, and gathered a company, and set all the city on an uproare, and assaulted the house of Iason, and sought to bring them out to the people.

6 And when they found them not, they drew Iason, and certaine brethren unto the Rulers of the citie, crying, These that have turned the world upside down, are come hither also.

7 Whom Iason hath received: and these all doe contrary to the decrees of Cesar, saying, That there is another King, one Iesus.

8 And they troubled the people, and the rulers of the citie, when they heard these things.

9 And whe they had taken securitie of Iason & of y other, they let them go.

10 And the brethren immediately sent away Paul and Silas by night vnto Berea, who comming thither, went into the Synagogue of the Iewes.

11 These were more noble then those in Thessalonica, in that they receiued the word with all readinesse of minde, and searched the Scriptures daily, whether those things were so.

12 Therefore many of them beleeued: also of honourable women which were Greekes, and of men not a few.

13 But when the Iewes of Thessalonica had knowledge that the word of God was preached of Paul at Berea, they came thither also, & stirred up y people.

14 And then immediately the brethren sent away Paul, to go as it were to the Sea: but Silas and Timothe us abode there still.

15 And they y conducted Paul, brought him to Athens, & receiving a commandement to Silas & Tymotheus, for to come to him & all speed, they departed.

16 Now while Paul waited for them at Athens, his spirit was stirred in him when he saw the citie wholly given to Idolatry.

17 Therefore disputed he in the Synagogue with the Iewes, and with the deuout persons, and in the market daily with them that met with him.

18 Then certain Philosophers of y Epicureans, & of y Stoikes encountred him: & some said, What will this babler say? Other some, he seemeth to be a setter forth of strange gods: because he preached to the Iesus & y resurrection.

19 And they took him, and brought him vnto Areopagus, saying, May we know what this new doctrine, whereof thou speakest, is?

20 For thou bringest certain strange things to our eares: we would know therefore what these things meane.

21 (For all the Athenians and strangers which were there, spent their time in nothing else, but either to tell or to heare some new thing.)

22 Then Paul stood in y midst of Mars-hill, & said, Ye men of Athens, I perceiue y in all things ye are too superstitious.

23 For as I passed by, and beheld your deuotions, I found an Altar with this inscription, TO THE VNKNOWN GOD, whom therefore ye ignorantly worship, him declare I to you.

24 God that made the world, and all things therein, seeing y he is Lord of heauen and earth, dwelleth not in Temples made with hands:

25 Neither is worshipped with mens hands, as though he needed any thing, seeing he giueth to all, life and breath, and all things.

26 And hath made of one blood all nations of men for to dwell on all the face of the earth, and hath determined the time before appointed, and the bound of their habitation:

27 That they should seek the Lord, if happily they might feele after him, and find him, though he be not far from every one of us.

28 For in him we liue, and moue, and haue our being, as certaine also of your own Poets haue said, For we are also his off-spring.

29 For almuch then, as we are the off-spring of God, we ought not to think y y God-head is like to gold, or siluer, or stone graven by art, & mans deuice.

30 And the times of this ignorance God winked at: but now commandeth all men every where to repent:

31 Because he hath appointed a day in the which he will iudge the world in righteousnesse, by that man whom he hath ordained, whereof he hath proued vnto all men, in that he hath raised him from the dead.

32 And when they heard of the resurrection of the dead, some mocked: and others said, We will heare thee againe of this matter.

33 So Paul departed from among them.

34 Howbeit, certaine men claue to him, & beleeued: among the which was Dionysius y Areopagite, and a woman named Damaris, & others with them.

CHAP. XVIII.

AFter these things, Paul departed from Athens, and came to Corinth.

2 And found a certaine Iew, named Aquila, borne in Pontus, lately come from Italy, & his wife Priscilla (because Claudius had commanded all Iewes to depart from Rome) & came vnto them.

3 And because he was of y same craft, he abode & them, & wrought, (for by their occupation they were tent-makers)

4 And reasoned in the Synagogue euery Sabbath, & perswaded the Iewes and the Greekes.

5 And when Silas and Timotheus were come from Macedonia, Paul was prested in spirit, and testified to the Iewes, that Iesus was Christ.

6 And when they opposed themselues, & blasphemed, he shook his raiment, and said to them, Your blood be vpon your own heads, I am cleane: from henceforth I will go vnto y Gentiles.

7 And he departed thence, and entred into a certaine mans house, named Iustus, one y worshipped God, whose house ioyned hard to the Synagogue.

8 And Crispus, y chief ruler of y Synagogue beleeued on y Lord with all his house: and many of the Corinthians hearing beleeued, and were baptized.

9 Then spake the Lord to Paul in the night by a vision, Be not afraid, but speake, and hold not thy peace:

10 For I am with thee, and no man shall set on thee, to hurt thee: for I haue much people in this citie.

11 And

he continued there a yeer and months, teaching the word of among them.
And when Gallio was the Deputie chea, the Iewes made insurrectiwith one accord against Paul, and ght him to the Iudgement Seat, Saying. This fellow perswadeth en worship God contrary to ẏ law
And when Paul was now about n his mouth, Gallio said unto ews, If it were a matter of wrong, wicked lewdnesse, O ye Iewes, reaould that I should beare ẏ you:
but if it be a question of words and es, and of your law, look ye to it:
I will be no iudge of such matters.
And he drave them from the ment Seat.
Then all the Greeks took Sosthenes chief ruler of the Synagogue, and him before ẏ Iudgement Seat: &
Gallio cared for none of those things
And Paul after this tarried there a good while, and then took his ve of the brethren, & sayled thence Syria, and with him Priscilla Aquila, having shorne his head
Cenchrea: for he had a vow.
And he came to Ephesus, and left them there: but he himself intred into the Synagogue, and reasoned with the Iewes.
When they desired him to tarry longer time with them, he consented not:
But bade them farewel, saying, I must by al meanes keep this Feast that cometh in Hierusalem; but I will return again unto you, if God will:
And he sayled from Ephesus.
And when he had landed at Cesa-rea, and gone up, and saluted the Church, he went down to Antioch.
And after he had spent some time there, he departed, and went over all the country of Galatia, and Phrygia, in order, stregthening al ẏ Disciples.
And a certaine Iew named Apollos borne at Alexandria, an eloquent man, and mighty in the Scriptures, came to Ephesus.
This man was instructed in the way of the Lord, and being fervent in the spirit, he spake and taught diligently the things of the Lord, knowing only the Baptisme of Iohn.
And he began to speake boldly in the Synagogue: whom when Aquila and Priscilla had heard, they tooke him unto them, and expounded unto him the way of God more perfectly.
And when he was disposed to go into Achaia, the brethren wrot, exhorting the Disciples to receive him:
who when he was come, helped them much ẏ had believed through grace.
For he mightily convinced the Iewes, and that publikely, shewing by the Scriptures that Iesus was Christ.

CHAP. XIX.

And it came to pas, ẏ while Apollos was at Corinth, Paul having passed thorow the upper coasts, came to Ephesus, and finding certaine disciples,
2 He said to them, Have ye received the holy Ghost since ye believed? And they said to him, We have not so much as heard, whether ther be any holy Ghost.
3 And he said unto them, Vnto what then were ye baptized? And they said, Vnto Iohns Baptisme.
4 Then said Paul, Iohn verily baptized with the baptisme of repentance, saying to the people, that they should believe on him that should come after him, that is, on Christ Iesus.
5 When they heard this, they were baptized in the Name of the Lord Iesus.
6 And when Paul had laid his hands upon them, the holy Ghost came on them, and they spake with tongues, and prophesied.
7 And al the men were about twelve.
8 And he went into the Synagogue, & spake boldly for the space of three moneths, disputing & perswading the things concerning ẏ kingdome of God.
9 But when divers were hardened, and believed not, but spake evil of ẏ way before ẏ multitude, he departed from them, & separated ẏ disciples, disputing daily in the Schoole of one Tyrannus.
10 And this continued by the space of two years, so that al they that dwelt in Asia, heard the word of the Lord Iesus, both Iewes and Grekes.
11 And God wrought special miracles by the hands of Paul:
12 So ẏ from his body were brought unto ẏ sick, handkerchiefs, or aprons, and the diseases departed from them, and the evill spirits went out of them.
13 Then certaine of the vagabond Iewes, exorcists, took upon them to call over them ẏ had evil spirits, ẏ Name of the Lord Iesus, saying, We adjure you by Iesus, whom Paul preacheth.
14 And there were seven sons of one Sceva a Iew, and chiefe of the Priests, which did so.
15 And the evill spirit answered, and said, Iesus I know, and Paul I know, but who are ye?
16 And the man in whom the evill spirit was, leapt on them and overcame them, & prevailed against them, so they fled out of ẏ house naked & wounded.
17 And this was knowne to all the Iewes and Grekes also dwelling at Ephesus, & fear fel on them al, and the Name of ẏ Lord Iesus was magnified.
18 And many that believed came, and confessed, and shewed their deeds.
19 Many also of them which used curious artes, brought their bookes together, & burned them before al men: & they counted the price of them, and found it fifty thousand pieces of silver.
20 So mightily grew the word of God, and prevailed.
21 After these things were ended, Paul purposed in the spirit, when he had passed through Macedonia and Achaia, to go to Hierusalem, saying, Af-her I have bin there I must also see Rome.

22 So he sent into Macedonia two of them that ministred vnto him, Timotheus, and Erastus, but he himselfe stayed in Asia for a season.
23 And the same time there arose no small stirre about that way.
24 For a certaine man named Demetrius, a siluer-smith, which made siluer shrines for Diana, brought no small gaine vnto the craftsmen.
25 Whom he called together, with all workemen of like occupation, and said, Sirs, ye know that by this craft we haue our wealth.
26 Moreouer ye see and hear, y^t not alone at Ephesus, but almost throughout all Asia, This Paul hath perswaded & turned away much people, saying that they be no gods which are made with hands.
27 So that not only this our craft is in danger to be set at nought: but also that the temple of the great goddesse Diana should be despised, & her magnificence should be destroyed, who all Asia and the world worshippeth.
28 And when they heard these sayings, they were full of wrath, & cryed out, saying, Great is Diana of ye Ephesians.
29 And the whole citty was filled with confusion, and having caught Gaius and Aristarchus, men of Macedonia, Pauls companions in travell, they rushed with one accord into the Theatre.
30 And when Paul would haue entred in vnto the people, the Disciples suffered him not.
31 And certaine of the chief of Asia, which were his friends, sent vnto him, desiring him that he would not aduenture himselfe into the Theatre.
32 Some therefore cryed one thing, and some another: for the assembly was confused, and the more part knew not wherefore they were come together.
33 And they drew Alexander out of the multitude, the Iewes putting him forward. And Alexander beckened with the hand, and would haue made his defence vnto the people.
34 But when they knew that he was a Iew, all with one voyce about the space of two houres cryed out, Great is Diana of the Ephesians.
35 And when ye Town-Clerk had appeased ye people, he said, Ye men of Ephesus, what man is there y knoweth not how ye citty of the Ephesians is a worshipper of ye great goddes Diana & of ye Image which fell down from Iupiter?
36 Seeing then that these things cannot be spoken against, ye ought to be quiet, and to doe nothing rashly.
37 For ye haue brought hither these men, which are neither robbers of churches, nor yet blasphemers of your goddes.
38 Wherefore if Demetrius, and the craftsmen which are with him, haue a matter against any man, the law is open, and there are deputies, let them implead one another.
39 But if ye enquire any thing concerning other matters, it shalbe determined in a lawfull assembly.
40 For we are in danger to be called in question for this dayes vprore, there being no cause whereby we may giue an account of this concourse.
41 And when he had thus spoken, he dimissed the assembly.

CHAP. XX.

AND after the vproare was ceased, Paul called vnto him the Disciples and embraced them, and departed to go into Macedonia.
2 And when he had gone ouer those parts, and had given them much exhortation, he came into Greece,
3 And there abode three moneths: and when the Iewes laid wait for him, as he was about to saile into Syria, he purposed to return through Macedonia.
4 And there accompanied him into Asia, Sopater of Berea, and of the Thessalonians, Aristarchus, and Secundus, and Gaius of Derbe, and Timotheus, and of Asia, Tychicus, & Trophimus.
5 These going before, tarried for vs at Troas.
6 And we sailed away from Philippi after the dayes of vnleavened bread, & came vnto them to Troas in fiue dayes, where we abode seuen dayes.
7 And vpon the first day of the weeke, when the disciples came together to breake bread, Paul preached to them, ready to depart on ye morrow, & continued his speech vntil midnight.
8 And there were many lights in the vpper chamber where they were gathered together.
9 And there sate in a window a certaine young man named Eutichus, being fallen into a deepe sleepe, & as Paul was long preaching, he sunke down with sleepe, and fell downe from the third loft, and was taken vp dead.
10 And Paul went downe, and fell on him, & embracing him, said, Trouble not your selues, for his life is in him.
11 When he therefore was come vp again, and had broken bread, and eaten, and talked a long while, euen till break of day, so he departed.
12 And they brought the young man aliue, and were not a little comforted.
13 And we went before to ship, and sayled vnto Assos, there intending to take in Paul, for so had he appointed, minding himselfe to goe a foot.
14 And when he met with vs at Assos, we took him in, and came to Mitylene.
15 And we sayled thence, and came the next day ouer against Chios, and the next day we arriued at Samos, and tarried at Trogyllium: and the next day we came to Miletus.
16 For Paul had determined to saile by Ephesus, because he would not spend the time in Asia, for he hasted, if it were possible for him, to be at Hierusalem the day of Pentecost.
17 And from Miletus he sent to Ephesus, & called the Elders of ye Church.

CHAP. XXI.

AND it came to passe, that after wee were gotten from them, and had launched, we came with a straight course unto Choos, and the day following to Rhodes, and from thence unto Patara.
2 And finding a ship sayling over to Phenicia, we went aboard, & let forth
3 Now when we had discovered Cyprus, we left it on the left hand, & say-led into Syria, and landed at Tyre: for there the ship was to unlade her burde.
4 And finding disciples, we tarried there seven dayes: who said to Paul thorow the Spirit, that he should not go up to Hierusalem.
5 And when wee had accomplished those dayes, we departed, and went out way, and they all brought us on our way, with wives and children, till wee were out of the city, and we kneeled down on the shore, and prayed.
6 And when we had taken our leave one of another, we took ship, and they returned home a gain.
7 And when we had finished our course from Tyre, we came to Ptolemais, and saluted the brethren, and abode with them one day.
8 And the next day we that were of Pauls company departed, and came to Cesarea, and we entred into the house of Philip the Evangelist, (which was one of the seven) and abode with him.
9 And the same man had four daughters, virgins, which did prophesie.
10 And as we tarried there many dayes, there came down from Judea a certaine Prophet named Agabus.
11 And when he was come unto us, he took Pauls girdle, and bound his owne hands and feet, and said, Thus saith the holy Ghost, So shall the Iewes at Hierusalem binde the man that oweth this girdle, and shal deliver him into the hands of the Gentiles.
12 And when he heard these things, both we & they of that place besought him not to go up to Hierusalem.
13 Then Paul answered, What meane ye to weep and to breake mine heart?
For I am ready not to be bound only, but also to die at Hierusalem for the Name of the Lord Iesus.
14 And when he would not be perswaded, we ceased, saying, The will of the Lord be done.
15 And after those dayes we took up our carriages, & went up to Hierusalem 16 There went with us also certain of the disciples of Cesarea, & brought with them one Mnason of Cyprus, an old disciple, of whom we should lodge.
17 And when we were come to Hierusalem, the brethren received us gladly 18 And the day following, Paul went in with us unto Iames, and all the Elders were present.
19 And when hee had saluted them,
he declared particularly what things God had wrought among the Gentiles by his ministery.

20 And

20 And when they heard it, they glorified the Lord, & said to him, Thou seest brother, how many thousands of Iewes there are which beleeve, and they are al zealous of the Law.

21 And they are informed of thee, that thou teachest al the Iewes which are among the Gentiles, to forsake Moses, saying, That they ought not to circumcise their children, neither to walke after the customes.

22 What is it therefore? the multitude must needs com together; for they wil heare that thou art come.

23 Doe therefore this that we say to thee: We have foure men which have a vow on them,

24 Them take, and purifie thy selfe with them, & bear charges with them that they may shave their heads: and al may know that those things wherof they were informed concerning thee, are nothing, but y thou thy selfe also walkest orderly, & keepest y Law.

25 As touching the Gentiles which beleeve, we have written and concluded, y they observe no such thing, save onely y they keep thē selves fro things offered to idols, and from blood, and from strangled, and from fornication.

26 Then Paul took the men, and the next day purifying himselfe with them, entred into the temple, to signifie the accomplishment of the dayes of purification, until that an offering should be offered for every one of thē.

27 And when the seven dayes were almost ended, y Iews which were of Asia, when they saw him in y temple, stirred up al the people, & laid hands on him.

28 Crying out, Men of Israel, helpe: this is the man that teacheth all men every where against the people, and the Law, and this place: and further brought Greeks also into the temple, and hath polluted this holy place.

29 For they had seen before with him in the city, Trophimus an Ephesian, whom they supposed that Paul had brought into the Temple.

30 And al the city was mooved, and the people ran together, and they took Paul, and drew him out of the temple: and forthwith the doores were shut.

31 And as they went about to kil him, tiding came unto the chief Captaine of the band, that al Hierusalem was in anuproare.

32 Who immediatly took souldiers, and Centurions, and ran down unto them: & whē they saw y chief captain, & y souldiers, they left beating of Paul.

33 Then the chief Captaine came neer and took him, and commanded him to be bound with two chains, & demaunded who he was, & what he had done.

34 And some cried one thing, some another among the multitude. & when he could not know the certaintie for the tumult, he commanded him to be carried into the castle.

35 And when he came upon the staires, so it was: that he was borne of the souldiers, for the violence of y people.

36 For the multitude of y people followed after, crying, Away with him.

37 And as Paul was to be led into the castle, he said unto the chief Captaine, May I speake unto thee? who said, Canst thou speake Greeke?

38 Art not thou that Egyptian which before these dayes madest an uproare, & leddest out into the wilderne four thousand men that were murtherers?

39 But Paul said, I am a man which am a Iew of Tarsus, a city in Cilicia, a citizen of no meane city: & I beseech thee, suffer me to speak to the people.

40 And vvhē he had given him licence, Paul stood on the staires, & beckened vvith the hand to the people: & vvhen there vvas made a great silence, he spake to them in y Hebrew tongue, saying:

CHAP. XXII.

MEn brethrē & fathers, hear ye my defence vvhich I make now unto you.

2 (And vvhen they heard that he spake in the Hebrew tongue to them, they kept the more silence: and he saith:)

3 I am verily a man which am a Iew, borne in Tarsus, a citie in Cilicia, yet brought up in this city, at the feet of Gamaliel, & taught according to the perfect manner of the Law of the fathers, and was zealous towards God, as ye al are this day.

4 And I persecuted this way unto the death, binding and delivering into prisons both men and women.

5 As also the high priest doth beare me vvitnes, and al the estate of the Elders: from whom also I received letters unto the brethren, and vvent to Damascus, to bring them also vvere there bound to Hierusalē, for to be punished.

6 And it came to passe, that as I made my journey, and was come nigh to Damascus about noone, suddenly there shone from heaven a great light round about me.

7 And I fell unto the ground, and heard a voyce saying unto me, Saul, Saul, vvhy persecutest thou me?

8 And I answered, who art thou, Lord? And he said unto me, I am Iesus of Nazareth vvhom thou persecutest.

9 And they that were with me, saw indeed y light, and were afraid, but they heard not y voice of him y spake to me.

10 And I said, What shal I do, Lord? And the Lord said unto me, Arise, and go to Damascus, and there it shalbe told thee of al things that are appointed for thee to doe.

11 And vvhē I could not see for y glory of y light, being led by y hand of them that were by me, I came into Damascus.

12 And one Ananias a devout man according to the Law, having a good report of al y Iews which dwelt there,

13 Came unto me, and stood and said to me, Brother Saul, receive thy sight. & y same hour I looked up upon him.

14 And he said, the God of our fathers hath chosen thee, y y shouldest know s smitten.

and see that just One, & shoul-
the vote of his mouth.
he thou shalt be his witness unto of what thou hast seen & heard and now, why tarriest thou? Arise be baptized, and wash away thy calling on the Name of the Lord. and it came to pass, y when I was e again to Hierusalem, even while ed in y temple, I was in a trance and saw him saying to me, Make
, and get thee quickely out of alem; for they will not receive timony concerning me.
And I said, Lord, they know y that prisoned, and beat in every Synae them that believed on thee.
And when the blood of thy Mar-Steven was shed, I also was stan-by, & consenting to his death, &
y raiment of them that slew him.
And he said unto me, Depart; for will send thee far hence to y Gentiles And they gave him audience to this rd, and then lift up their voyces, said, Away w such a fellow from y
th, for it is not fit y he should live
And as they cryed out, & cast off
r clothes, & threw dust into y air,
The chiefe captaine commanded m to be brought into the castle, and manded that he should be examined by scourging that he might know wherfor they cryed so against him.
And as they bound him w thongs,
Paul said to the Centurion that stood by, Is it lawful for you to scourge a an y is a Romane, & uncondemned?
When the Centurion heard that, went and told the chiefe Captaine, ying, Take heed what thou doest, for is man is a Romane.
Then the chiefe Captaine came, & d unto him, Tel me, Art thou a anes? He said, Yea.
And the chief Captain answered, great summe obtained I this free-
m. And Paul said, But I was free born Then straightway they departed him, y should have examined him:
the chiefe Captaine also was aid, after he knew that he was a Ron, and because he had bound him.
On the morrow, because he would ast know one the certainty w herefore was accused of the Iewes, he loosed m from his bands, and commanded the chiefe Priests, and all their Counsel appeare, and brought Paul downe, and set him before them.

CHAP. XXIII.

AND Paul earnestly beholding the Counsel, said, Men and brethren, I have lived in all good conscience before God until this day.
And the high priest Ananias comanded them that stood by him, to ike him on the mouth.
Then said Paul to him, God shall ite thee, y whited wal: for sittest to judg me after y Law, & commang me to be smitte contrary to y law?
And they that stood by, said, Revilest thou Gods high preist?
Then said Paul, I wist not, brethren, y he was the high priest: For it is written, Thou shalt not speake evil of the ruler of thy people.
But when Paul perceived that the one part were Sadducees, and the other Pharisees, he cried out in the Counsel, Men and brethren, I am a Pharisee, y son of a Pharisee: of the hope & resurrection of y dead, I am called in questio.
And when he had so said, there arose a dissent on betweene y Pharisees and Sadducees, & y multitude was divided.
For the Sadducees say that there is no resurrection, neither Angel nor spirit: but the Pharisees confesse both.
And there arose a great cry: and the Scribes, that were of the Pharisees part, arose, and strove, saying, We find no evil in this man: but if a Spirit or an Angel hath spoken to him, let us not fight against God.
And when there arose a great disse-sion, the chiefe Captaine fearing lest Paul should have been pulled in pieces of them, commanded y souldiers to go down, & take him by force fro among them, & to bring him into the castle.
And the night following, the Lord stood by him, and said, Be of good cheere, Paul; for as thou hast testified of me in Hierusalem, so must thou beare witnes also at Rome.
And when it was day, certain of the Iewes banded together, & bound themselves under a curse, saying, That they would neither eat nor drinke till they had killed Paul.
And there were more then forty which had made this conspiracy.
And they came to the chief priests and Elders, and said, We have bound our selves under a great curse, that we will eat nothing til we have slain Paul.
Now therefore ye with y Counsel, signifie to the chiefe captaine, that he bring him down to you to morrow, as though ye would enquire some thing more perfectly cerning him: & we or ever he com neer, are ready to kil him.
And when Pauls sister son heard of their laying in wait, he went and entred into the castle, and told Paul.
Then Paul called one of the Centurions to him, and said, Bring this young man to the chief captaine; for he hath a certaine thing to tel him.
So he took him, & brought him to the chief captaine, and said, Paul the prisoner called me unto him, and prayed me to bring this young man to thee, who hath something to say to thee.
Then the chiefe captaine tooke him by the hand, and went with him aside privately, and asked him, What is that thou hast to tel me?
And he said, The Iewes have agreed to desire thee, that thou would lest bring down Paul to morrow into the Counsel, as though they would enquire some-

somewhat of him more perfectly.
21 But do not thou yeelde unto them, for there lie in wait for him of them more than fourty men, which have bound themselves with an oath, that they will neither eat nor drink, til they have killed him; and now are they ready looking for a promise from thee.
22 So the chief Captaine then let the young man depart, and charged him, See thou tel no man, that thou hast shewed these things to me.
23 And he called unto him two Centurions, saying, Make ready two hundred men of soldiers to go to Cesarea, & horsmen three score & ten, and spearemen two hundred, at the third houre of y night.
24 And provide them beasts, that they may set Paul on, and bring him safe unto Felix the governour.
25 And he wrote a letter after this manner?
26 Claudius Lysias, to the most excellent Governour Felix, sendeth greeting.
27 This man was taken of the Iewes, & should have been killed of them: Then came I with an army, and rescued him, having understood y he was a Romane.
28 And when I would have known the cause wherfore they accused him, I brought him forth to their Councel.
29 Whom I perceived to be accused of questions of their Law, but to have nothing laid to his charge worthy of death, or of bonds.
30 And when it was told me, how yy Iews laid wait for y man, I let straightway to thee, & gave commandment to his accusers also to say before thee what they had against him. Farewell.
31 Then y souldiers as it was commanded them, took Paul, and brought him by night into Antipatris.
32 On the morrow they left him to go with him, & returned to the castle.
33 Who when they came to Cesarea & delivered the Epistle to the governour, presented Paul also before him.
34 And when the governour read the letter, he asked of what province he was. And when he understood that he was of Cilicia:
35 I will hear thee, said he, when thy accusers are also come. And he commanded him to be kept in Herods judgement hal.

CHAP. XXIIII.

AND after five dayes, Ananias y high priest descended with y Elders and with a certain Orator named Tertullus, who informed y governour against Paul.
2 And when he was called forth, Tertullus began to accuse him, saying: Seeing that by thee we enjoy great quietnes and y very worthy deeds are done to this nation by thy prouidence
3 We accept it alwaies & in all places, most noble Felix, with all thankfulnes.
4 Notwithstanding that I bee not further tedious unto thee, I pray thee that thou wouldest heare us of thy clemency a few words.
5 For we have found this man a pestilent fellow, & a mover of sedition among all y Iewes throughout y world, & a ring-leader of y sect of y Nazarenes.
6 Who also hath gone about to prophane y temple: whom we took & would have judged according to our Law.
7 But the chiefe captaine Lysias came upon us, and with great violence took him away out of our hands:
8 Commanding his accusers to come unto thee, by examining of whom thy selfe mayest take knowledge of all these things whereof we accuse him.
9 And the Iewes also assented, saying that these things were so.
10 Then Paul, after y the governour had beckned to him to speak, answered: Forasmuch as I perceive that many yeares a Iudge to this nation, I more cheerefully answer for my case.
11 Because y thou mayest understand that there are yet but twelve dayes since I went up to Hierusalem for to worship.
12 And they neither found me in the Temple disputing with any man, neither raising up the people, neither should have been killed of them: Then the Synagogues, nor in the city.
13 Neither can they prooue the things whereof they now accuse me.
14 But this I confesse unto thee, that after the way which they call heresie, so worship I y God of my Fathers, believing all things which are written in the Law and the Prophets.
15 And have hope towards God, which they themselves also allow, that there shalbe a resurrection of the dead, both of the just and unjust.
16 And herein do I exercise my self to have always a conscience void of offence toward God, and toward men.
17 Now after many yeres I came to bring almes to my nation, & offrings.
18 Whereupon certaine Iewes from Asia found me purified in the temple, neither with multitude nor tumult.
19 Who ought to have been before thee, and object, if they had ought against me.
20 Or elce let these same here say, if they have found any evil doing in me, while I stood before the Councel,
21 Except it bee for this one voyce, that I cryed standing among them: Touching the resurrection of y dead I am called in question by you this day.
22 And when Felix heard these things, having more perfect knowledge of y way, he deferred them, and said: When a certain Oratour named Tertullus, my chief captain shall come down,
23 And he commanded a Centurion to keep Paul, & to let him have liberty, & that he should forbid none of his acquaintance to minister or come to him.
24 And after certain dayes, when Felix came with his wife Drusilla, which was a Iewes, he sent for Paul, & heard him concerning the faith in Christ.
25 And as he reasoned of right & of res temperance, & judgement to come, Felix trembled, and answered, Go thy way for this time, when I have a

…ion I will call for thee.
…ged also that money should
…given him of Paul, that he …but him: 2 wherefore he sent for
…ent, and communed with him
…after two years, Portius Festus
…Felix to come: 28 & Felix willing
…the Iewes a pleasure, left Paul
…

CHAP. XXV.

…Now when Festus was come into
…e province, after three dayes he
…ascended from Cæsarea to Hierusalem.
…Then the high priest and the chief
…the Iewes informed him against
…and besought him,
…3 And desired fauour against him, that
…would send for him to Hierusalem,
…ing a plot in the way to kill him.
…4 But Festus answered, that Paul
…ould be kept at Cæsarea, and that he …himself would depart shortly thither.
…5 Let them therefore (said he, which
…among you are able, go down with me,
…and accuse this man, if there be any
…wickedness in him.
…6 And when he had tarried among them
…more then ten dayes, he went down to …Cæsarea: & the next day sitting in iudgement commanded Paul to be brought …before him.
…7 And when he was come, the Iewes which came down from Hierusalem stood round about, and laid many & grieuous complaints against Paul, which they could not prooue.
…8 While he answered for himself, Neither against the law of the Iewes, neither against the Temple, nor yet against Cæsar, haue I offended any thing at all.
…9 But Festus willing to do the Iewes a pleasure, answered Paul, and said, Wilt thou go vp to Hierusalem, & there be iudged of these things before me?
…10 Then said Paul, I stand at Cæsars iudgement seat, where I ought to be iudged: to the Iewes haue I done no wrong, as thou very well knowest.
…11 For if I be an offender, or haue committed any thing worthy of death, I refuse not to die: but if there be none of these things whereof these accuse me, no man may deliuer me vnto them, I appeale vnto Cæsar.
…12 Then Festus when he had conferred with the Counsel, answered, Hast thou appealed vnto Cæsar? to Cæsar shalt thou go.
…13 And after certaine dayes, King Agrippa and Bernice came vnto Cæsarea to salute Festus.
…14 And when they had been there many dayes, Festus declared Pauls cause vnto the King, saying, There is a certaine man left in bonds by Felix:
…15 About whom when I was at Hierusalem, the chief priests & the Elders of the Iewes informed me, desiring to haue iudgement against him.
…16 To whom I answered, It is not the manner of the Romanes to deliuer any man to die, before that he which is accused, haue the accusers face to face, & haue licence to answer for himself concerning the crime laid against him.
…17 Therefore when they were come hither, without any delay, on the morrow I sate on the iudgement seat, and commanded the man to be brought forth.

…18 Against whom when the accusers stood vp, they brought none accusation of such things as I supposed:
…19 But had certain questions against him of their own superstition, and of one Iesus which was dead, whom Paul affirmed to be aliue.
…20 And because I doubted of such manner of questions, I asked him, whether he would go to Hierusalem, and there be iudged of these matters.
…21 But when Paul had appealed to be reserued vnto the hearing of Augustus, I commanded him to be kept, till I might send him to Cæsar.
…22 Then Agrippa said vnto Festus, I would also heare the man my self. To morrow (said he) thou shalt hear him.
…23 And on the morrow when Agrippa was come, and Bernice with great pompe, and was entred into the place of hearing, with the chief Captaines, & principall men of the citie, at Festus commandment Paul was brought forth.
…24 And Festus said, King Agrippa, & all men which are here present with vs, ye see this man, about whom all the multitude of the Iewes haue dealt with me, both at Hierusalem, and also here, crying, He ought not to liue any longer.
…25 But when I found that he had committed nothing worthy of death, and that he himself hath appealed to Augustus, I haue determined to send him.
…26 Of whom I haue no certain thing to write vnto my lord: wherefore I haue brought him forth before you: and specially before thee, O king Agrippa, that after examination had, I might haue some what to write.
…27 For it seemeth to me not conuenable to send a prisoner, and not withal to signifie the crimes laid against him.

CHAP. XXVI.

…Then Agrippa said vnto Paul, Thou art permitted to speak for thy self. Then Paul stretched forth the hand, and answered for himself:
…2 I thinke my self happy, King Agrippa, because I shall answere for my self this day before thee, touching all things whereof I am accused of y Iewes,
…3 I specially, because I know thee to be expert in all customes and questions which are among the Iewes: wherefore I beseech thee to heare me patiently.
…4 My manner of life from my youth, which was at the first among mine owne nation at Hierusalem, know all Iewes,
…5 Which knew me from the beginning (if they would testifie) that after the most straitest sect of our religion, I liued a Pharisee.
…6 And now I stand, and am iudged for the hope of the promise made of God vnto our fathers:
…7 Vnto which promise our twelue tribes instantly serving God day and night, hope to come. For which hope's sake, King Agrippa, Agrippa, I am accused of the Iewes.

8 Why should it be thought a thing incredible with you, that God should raise the dead?

9 I verily thought with my selfe, that I ought to doe many things contrary to the Name of Iesus of Nazareth:

10 Which thing I also did in Hierusalē and many of ỹ Saints did I shut up in prisō, having receiued authority frō ỹ chiefe Priests: & when they were put to death, I gaue my voice against them.

11 And I punished them oft in euery Synagogue, and compelled them to blaspheme, and being exceedingly mad against them, I persecuted them euen vnto strange cities.

12 Whereupon, as I went to Damascus with authoritie and commission from the chiefe Priests:

13 At midday, O King, I saw in ỹ way a light from heauen, aboue ỹ brightnesse of the Sun shining round about me, and them wch iourneyed with me.

14 And when we were all fallen to the earth, I heard a voyce speaking to me, & saying in the Hebrew tongue, Saul, Saul, why persecutest ỹ me? It is hard for thee to kicke against the pricks.

15 And I said, Who art ỹ, Lord? And he said, I am Iesus whom ỹ persecutest.

16 But rise, and stand vpon thy feet, for I haue appeared vnto thee for this purpose, to make thee a minister and a witnes, both of these things which thou hast seene, and of those things in the which I will appeare vnto thee.

17 Deliuering thee from the people, and from the Gentiles vnto whom now I send thee.

18 To open their eyes, and to turn them from darknes to light, and from the power of Satan vnto God, that they may receiue forgiuenes of sins, and inheritance among them which are sanctified by faith that is in me.

19 Whereupon, O King Agrippa, I was not disobedient to ỹ heauenly vision.

20 But shewed first to them of Damascus, and at Ierusalem, & thorowout all ỹ coasts to Iudea, & then to ỹ Gentiles, ỹ they should repent & turn to God, and do workes meet for repentance.

21 For these causes ỹ Iewes caught me in ỹ Temple, & went about to kil me.

22 Hauing therefore obteined helpe of God, I continue to this day, witnessing both to small and great, saying none other things then those which ỹ Prophets and Moses did say should come:

23 That Christ should suffer, and that he should be the first that should rise from the dead, and should shew light vnto the people, & to ỹ Gentiles.

24 And as he thus spake for himself, Festus said with a loud voyce, Paul thou art beside thy selfe, much learning doeth make thee mad.

25 But he said, I am not mad, most noble Festus, but speake forth the words of trueth and sobernesse.

26 For the king knoweth of these things before whom also I speak freely: for I am perswaded, that none of these things are hidden from him: for this thing was not done in a corner.

27 King Agrippa, beleeuest thou the Prophets? I know that thou beleeuest.

28 Then Agrippa said to Paul, Almost thou perswadest me to be a Christian.

29 And Paul said, I would to God, not onely thou, but also all ỹ heare me this day, were both almost & altogether such as I am, except these bands.

30 And when he had thus spoken, the King rose vp, & ỹ Gouernour, & Bernice, and they that sate with them.

31 And when they were gone aside, they talked betweene themselues, saying, This man doeth nothing worthy of death, or of bonds.

32 Then said Agrippa vnto Festus, This man might haue been set at liberty, if he had not appealed to Cesar.

CHAP. XXVII.

AND when it was determined that we should sail into Italy, they deliuered Paul & certain other prisoners vnto one named Iulius, a Centurion of Augustus band.

2 And entring into a ship of Adramyum, we launched, meaning to sail by the coasts of Asia, one Aristarchus a Macedonian of Thessalonica being with us.

3 And the next day we touched at Sidon: And Iulius courteously entreated Paul, and gaue him liberty to go vnto his friends to refresh himselfe.

4 And when we had launched from thence, we sailed vnder Cyprus, because the winds were contrary.

5 And when we had sailed ouer the sea of Cilicia, and Pamphylia, we came to Myra, a citie of Lycia.

6 And there the Centurion found a ship of Alexandria saying into Italy, and he put us therein.

7 And when we had sailed slowly many dayes, and scarce were come ouer against Gnidus, the wind not suffering us, we sailed vnder Crete, ouer against Salmone.

8 And hardly passing it came vnto a place wch is called, The faire hauen, nigh whereunto was the citie of Lasea.

9 Now when much time was spent, and when saying was now dangerous, because the fast was now already past: Paul admonished them,

10 And said vnto them, Sirs, I perceiue that this voyage will be with hurt and much damage, not onely of the lading and ship, but also of our liues.

11 Neuertheless, the Centurion beleeued the master & the owner of the ship, more then those things which were spoken by Paul.

12 And because the hauen was not commodious to winter in, the more part aduised to depart thence also, if by any meanes they might attaine to Phenice, and there to winter, which is an haven of Crete, and lieth toward the Southwest, and Northwest.

13 And when the South wind blew softly, proaching that they had obtained their purpose, loosing thence, they sailed by Crete.

8 And not long after, there arose against it a tempestuous wind, called Euroclydon.

9 And when the ship was caught, and could not bear up into the wind, we let her drive.

10 And running under a certain island which is called Clauda, we had much work to come by the boat:

11 Which when they had taken up, they used helps, undergirding the ship; and fearing lest they should fall into the quicksands, strake sail, and so were driven.

12 And being exceedingly tossed with a tempest, the next day they lightened the ship;

13 And the third day we cast out with our own hands the tackling of the ship.

14 And when neither Sun nor Stars in many days appeared, and no small tempest lay on us; all hope that we should be saved was then taken away.

15 But after long abstinence Paul stood forth in the midst of them, and said, Sirs, ye should have hearkened unto me, and not have loosed from Crete, and to have gained this harm and loss.

16 And now I exhort you to be of good cheer: for there shall be no loss of any man's life among you, but of the ship.

17 For there stood by me this night the angel of God, whose I am, and whom I serve,

18 Saying, Fear not, Paul; thou must be brought before Cæsar: and, lo, God hath given to thee all them that sail with thee.

19 Wherefore, sirs, be of good cheer: for I believe God, that it shall be even as it was told me.

20 Howbeit, we must be cast upon a certain land.

21 But when the fourteenth night was come, as we were driven up and down in Adria, about midnight the shipmen deemed that they drew near to some country:

22 And sounded, and found it twenty fathoms: and when they had gone a little further, they sounded again, and found it fifteen fathoms.

23 Then fearing lest we should have fallen upon rocks, they cast four anchors out of the stern, and wished for the day.

24 And as the shipmen were about to flee out of the ship, when they had let down the boat into the sea, under colour as though they would have cast anchors out of the foreship,

25 Paul said to the Centurion, and to the soldiers, Except these abide in the ship, ye cannot be saved.

26 Then the soldiers cut off the ropes of the boat, and let her fall off.

27 And while the day was coming on, Paul besought them all to take meat, saying, This day is the fourteenth day that ye have tarried and continued fasting, having taken nothing.

28 Wherefore I pray you to take some meat: for this is for your health: for there shall not an hair fall from the head of any of you.

29 And when he had thus spoken, he took bread, and gave thanks to God in presence of them all: and when he had broken it, he began to eat.

30 Then were they all of good cheer, and they also took some meat.

31 And we were in all in the ship, two hundred threescore and sixteen souls.

32 And when they had eaten enough, they lightened the ship, and cast out the wheat into the sea.

33 And when it was day, they knew not the land: but they discovered a certain creek, with a shore, into the which they were minded, if it were possible, to thrust in the ship.

34 And when they had taken up the anchors, they committed themselves unto the sea, and loosed the rudder bands, and hoised up the mainsail to the wind, and made toward shore.

35 And falling into a place where two seas met, they ran the ship aground; and the forepart stuck fast, and remained unmoveable, but the hinder part was broken with the violence of the waves.

36 And the soldiers' counsel was to kill the prisoners, lest any of them should swim out, and escape.

37 But the Centurion, willing to save Paul, kept them from their purpose; and commanded that they which could swim, should cast themselves first into the sea, and get to land:

38 And the rest, some on boards, and some on broken pieces of the ship. And so it came to pass, that they escaped all safe to land.

CHAP. XXVIII.

1 And when they were escaped, then they knew that the island was called Melita.

2 And the barbarous people shewed us no little kindness: for they kindled a fire, and received us every one, because of the present rain, and because of the cold.

3 And when Paul had gathered a bundle of sticks, and laid them on the fire, there came a viper out of the heat, and fastened on his hand.

4 And when the Barbarians saw the venomous beast hang on his hand, they said among themselves, No doubt this man is a murderer, whom though he hath escaped the sea, yet vengeance suffereth not to live.

5 And he shook off the beast into the fire, and felt no harm.

6 Howbeit, they looked when he should have swollen, or fallen down dead suddenly: but after they had looked a great while, and saw no harm come to him, they changed their minds, and said, That he was a god.

7 In the same quarters were possessions of the chief man of the island, whose name was Publius, who received us, and lodged us three days courteously.

8 And it came to pass that the father of Publius lay sick of a fever, and of a bloody flux, to whom Paul entered in,

I and at Rome. To the Romanes. Obstinate Jews.

and prayed, and laid his hands on him, and healed him.

9 So when this was done, others also which had diseases in the Iland, came and were healed:

10 Who also honoured us with many honours, & when we departed, they laded us with such things as were necessary.

11 And after three moneths we departed in a ship of Alexandria, which had wintered in the Ile, whose signe was castor and Pollux.

12 And landing at Syracuse, we tarryed there three dayes.

13 And from thence we fet a compasse, and came to Rhegium, and after one day the South wind blew, and we came the next day to Puteoli:

14 Where we found brethren, & were desired to tarry with them seven dayes: and so we went toward Rome.

15 And from thence when the brethren heard of us, they came to meet us as far as Appii Forum, and the three Tavernes: whom when Paul saw, he thanked God, and took courage.

16 And when we came to Rome, the Centurion delivered the prisoners to the captain of the guard: but Paul was suffered to dwell by himself, with a souldier that kept him.

17 And it came to passe, that after three dayes, Paul called the chief of the Iewes together. And when they were come together, he said to them, Men and brethren, though I have committed nothing against the people, or customes of our fathers, yet was I delivered prisoner from Hierusalem into the hands of the Romanes.

18 Who when they had examined me, would have let me goe, because there was no cause of death in me.

19 But when y Iewes spake against it, I was constrained to appeal to Cesar: not y I had ought to accuse my nation of.

20 For this cause therefore have I called for you, to see you, and to speak with you, because that for the hope of Israel I am bound with this chaine.

21 And they said unto him, we neither received letters out of Iudea concerning thee, neither any of y brethren that came, shewed or spake any harm of thee.

22 But we desire to hear of thee what thou thinkest: for as concerning this sect, we know that every where it is spoken against.

23 And when they had appointed him a day, there came many to him into his lodging, to whom he expounded & testified the kingdome of God, perswading them concerning Iesus, both out of the Law of Moses, and out of the Prophets, from morning till evening.

24 And some believed the things which were spoken, and some believed not.

25 And when they agreed not among themselves, they departed, after that Paul had spoken one word, well spake the holy Ghost by Esaias the Prophet unto our fathers,

26 Saying, Go unto this people, and say, Hearing ye shall heare, and shall not understand, and seeing ye shall see, and not perceive.

27 For the heart of this people is waxed grosse, & their eares are dul of hearing, and their eyes have they closed, lest they should see with their eyes, and hear with their eares, and understand with their heart, and should be converted, and I should heale them.

28 Be it known therefore unto you, that the salvation of God is sent unto the Gentiles, & they will hear it.

29 And when he had said these words, the Iewes departed, and had great reasoning among themselves.

30 And Paul dwelt two whole yeares in his own hired house, and received all that came in unto him.

31 Preaching the kingdome of God, and teaching those things which concerne the Lord Iesus Christ, with all confidence, no man forbidding him.

The end of the Actes of the Apostles.

The Epistle of PAVL the Apostle to the ROMANES.

CHAP. I.

1 PAul a servant of Iesus Christ, called to be an Apostle, separated unto y gospel of God,

2 (Which he had promised afore by his Prophets in the holy Scriptures,)

3 Concerning his Son Iesus Christ our Lord, which was made of the seed of David according to the flesh.

4 And declared to be the Son of God, with power, according to y Spirit of holinesse, by y resurrection from the dead.

5 By whom we have received grace and Apostleship, for obedience to the Faith among all nations for his Name.

6 Among whom are ye also the called of Iesus Christ.

7 To all that be in Rome, beloved of God, called to be Saints: Grace to you and peace from God our Father, and the Lord Iesus Christ.

8 First I thanke my God through Iesus Christ for you all, that your faith is spoken of throughout y whole world.

9 For God is my witnesse, whom I serve with my spirit in the Gospel of his Son, that without ceasing I make mention of you always in my prayers,

10 Making request if by any meanes now at length, I might have a prosperous journey by the will of God, to come unto you.

11 For I long to see you, that I may impart unto you some spirituall gift, to the end you may be established,

12 That is, that I may be comforted together with you, by the mutuall faith both of you and me.

13 Now I would not have you ignorant, brethren, that oftentimes I purposed to come unto you, (but was let hitherto) that I might have some you also, even as among other Gen.

I am debtor both to the Greekes, and to the Barbarians; both to the wise, and to the unwise.
So much as in me is, I am ready to preach the Gospel to you that are at Rome also.
For I am not ashamed of the Gospel of Christ: for it is y power of God unto salvation, to every one y believeth; to the Iew first, & also to y Greek.
For therein is the righteousnesse of God revealed from faith to faith, as it is written, The just shal live by faith.
For the wrath of God is revealed from heaven against all ungodlinesse, and unrighteousnesse of men, who hold the truth in unrighteousnesse.
Because that which may be known of God, is manifest in them; for God hath shewed it unto them.
For the invisible things of him from the creation of the world are clearly seen, being understood by the things that are made, even his eternall power and Godhead, so that they are without excuse;
Because that when they knew God, they glorified him not as God, neither were thankefull, but became vaine in their imaginations, and their foolish heart was darkened.
Professing themselves to be wise, they became fooles;
And changed y glory of y uncor-ruptible God, into an image made like to corruptible man, & to birds, & to four footed beasts, and creeping things.
Wherefore God also gave them up to uncleannesse, through the lusts of their own hearts, to dishonour their own bodies between themselves:
Who changed the trueth of God into a lie, and worshipped and served the creature more then the Creator, who is blessed for ever. Amen.
For this cause God gave them unto vile affections: for even their women did change the naturall use, into that which is against nature:
And likewise also y men, leaving y naturall use of the woman, burned in their lust one towards another, men with men working that which is unseemely: and receiving in themselves that recompence of their error, which was meet.
And even as they did not like to retaine God in their knowledge, God gave them over to a reprobate minde, to do those things which are not convenient;
Being filled with all unrighteousnes, fornication, wickednes, covetousnesse, maliciousnesse, full of envy, murther, debate, deceit, malignitie, whisperers, Backbiters, haters of God, despite-full, proude, boasters, inventers of evil things, disobedient to parents; Without understanding, coye-nant breakers, without naturall affection, implacable, unmercifull:
Who knowing y judgment of God, (that they which commit such things are worthy of death) not only do y same, but have pleasure in them y do them.

CHAP. II.

THerfore thou art inexcusable, O man whosoever thou art y judgest, for wherein thou judgest another, thou condemnest thy selfe: for thou that judgest, doest the same things.
But we are sure that the judgment of God is according to truth against them which commit such things.
And thinkest thou this, O man that judgest them which doe such things, and doest the same, that thou shalt escape the judgement of God?
Or despisest thou the riches of his goodnesse, and forbearance, and long suffering, not knowing that the goodnes of God leadeth thee to repentance?
But after thy hardnesse, & impenitent heart, treasurest up unto thy selfe wrath, against y day of wrath, & revelation of y righteous judgment of God.
Who will render to every man according to his deedes:
To them, who by patient continuance in well doing, seek for glory, and honour, and immortalitie, eternal life.
But unto them y are contentious, & do not obey the truth, but obey unrighteousnesse, indignation, & wrath, Tribulation, & anguish upon every soul of man that doeth evil, of the Iew first and also of the Gentile.
But glory, honour, and peace, to every man that worketh good, to the Iew first, and also to the Gentile.
For there is no respect of persons with God;
For as many as have sinned without law, shal also perish without law; & as many as have sinned in the law,
shal be judged by the Law.
For not the hearers of the law are just before God, but the doers of the Law shal be justified.
For when the Gentiles which have not y law, do by nature y things contained in the law: these having not the law, are a law unto themselves.
Which shew the work of the law written in their hearts, their conscience also bearing witnesse, & their thoughts the meane while accusing, or else excusing one another;
In the day when God shall judge the secrets of men by Iesus Christ, according to my Gospel.
Behold, y art called a Iew, & restest in the law, & makest thy boast of God,
And knowest his will, and approovest the things that are more excellent, being instructed out of the law,
And art confident that thou thy self art a guide of the blind, a light of them which are in darknesse,
An instructer of y foolish, a teacher of babes: which hast y form of knowledge, and of the trueth in the law:
Thou therefore which teachest another, teachest thou not thy self? Do what preacheth a man should not steal, doest thou steale?

22 Thou that sayest a man should not commit adultery, doest thou commit adultery? thou that abhorrest idols, doest thou commit sacrilege?
23 Thou that makest thy boast of the law, through breaking the Law, dishonourest thou God?
24 For the Name of God is blasphemed among the Gentiles through you, as it is written.
25 For Circumcision verily profiteth, if thou keep the Law: but if thou be a breaker of the Law, thy Circumcision is made uncircumcision.
26 Therefore if the uncircumcision keep the righteousnesse of the Law, shall not his uncircumcision be counted for Circumcision?
27 And shall not uncircumcision which is by nature, if it fulfil the Law, judge thee who by the letter and Circumcision dost transgresse the Law?
28 For he is not a Iew which is one outwardly, neither is that Circumcision, which is outward in the flesh:
29 But he is a Iew which is one inwardly, & Circumcision is that of the heart, in the spirit, & not in y letter, whose praise is not of men but of God

CHAP. III.

WHat advantage then hath the Iew? or what profit is there of Circumcision?
2 Much every way, chiefly, because that unto them were committed the Oracles of God.
3 For what if some did not believe? shall their unbelief make the faith of God without effect?
4 God forbid: yea let God be true, but every man a liar, as it is written, y thou might est be justified in thy sayings, & might est overcome when y art judged.
5 But if our unrighteousnes commend the righteousnesse of God, what shall we say? Is God unrighteous, who taketh vengeance? (I speak as a man.)
6 God forbid: for then how shall God judge the world?
7 For if the truth of God hath more abounded through my lie to his glory; why yet am I also iudged as a sinner?
8 And not rather as we be slaundered, & as some affirme that we say, let us do evill, that good may come, whose damnation is just.
9 What then? are we better then they? No, in no wise: for we have before proved both Iewes and Gentiles, that they are all under sinne, 10 As it is written, There is none righteous, no not one:
11 There is none that understandeth, there is none that seeketh after God.
12 They are al gone out of the way, they are together become unprofitable, there is none y doth good, no not one.
13 Their throat is an open sepulchre, & their tongues they have used deceit, the poison of aspes is under their lips:
14 Whose mouth is full of cursednesse and bitternesse:
15 Their feet are swift to shed blood:
16 Destruction and misery are in their wayes:
17 And the way of peace have they not known:
18 There is no feare of God before their eyes.
19 Now we know that what things soever the Law saith, it saith to them who are under y Law: y every mouth may be stopped, and all the world become guilty before God.
20 Therefore by the deeds of the Law there shall no flesh be justified in his sight: for by the Law is the knowledge of sinne.
21 But now the righteousnesse of God without the Law is manifested, being witnessed by y Law & the Prophets,
22 Even the righteousnesse of God which is by faith of Iesus Christ unto all, and upon all them that believe: for there is no difference:
23 For al have sinned and come short of the glory of God.
24 Being justified freely by his grace through the redemption that is in Iesus Christ.
25 Whom God hath set forth to be a propitiation, through faith in his blood, to declare his righteousnesse for the remission of sins that are past, through the forbearance of God:
26 To declare, I say, at this time his righteousnesse: y he might be iust, and the iustifier of him y believeth in Iesus.
27 Where is boasting then? It is excluded. By what Law? of works? Nay, but by the Law of faith.
28 Therfore we conclude, that a man is justified by faith, without the deeds of the Law.
29 Is he the God of the Iewes only? Is he not also of the Gentiles? Yes, of the Gentiles also:
30 Seeing it is one God which shall justifie the Circumcision by faith, and uncircumcision through faith.
31 Do we then make voide the Law through faith? God forbid; Yea, we establish the Law.

CHAP. IIII.

WHat shall we say then, that Abraham our father, as pertaining to the flesh hath found?
2 For if Abraham were justified by workes, he hath whereof to glory, but not before God.
3 For what saith the Scripture? Abraham believed God, and it was counted unto him for righteousnesse.
4 Now to him that worketh is the reward not reckoned of grace, but of debt.
5 But to him that worketh not, but believeth on him y iustifieth y ungodly, his faith is counted for righteousnesse.
6 Even as David also describeth the blessednesse of the man, to whom God imputeth righteousnesse without works:
7 Saying, Blessed are they whose ture forgiven, and whose faith into this grace wherein we stand, & rejoyce in hope of ỹ glory of God.

3 And not onely so, but we glory in tribulations also, knowing that tri-4 And patience, experience: and experience, hope:
5 And hope maketh not ashamed, because the love of God is shed abroad in our hearts by the holy Ghost which is given unto us.
6 For whē we were yet without strēgth,
in due time, Christ died for ỹ ungodly.
7 For scarcely for a righteous man will one die: yet peradventure for a good man some would even dare to die.
8 But God commendeth his love toward us in that while we were yet sinners, Christ died for us.
9 Much more then, being now justified by his blood, we shall be saved from wrath through him.
10 For if when we were enemies, we were reconciled to God by the death of his Son: much more being reconciled, we shalbe saved by his life.
11 And not onely so, but we also joy in God through our Lord Iesus Christ, by whom we have now received the atonement.
12 Wherefore as by one man sin en-tred into the world, and death by sin:
and so death passed upon all men, for that all have sinned.
13 For untill the Law, sin was in the world: but sin is not imputed when there is no Law.
14 Nevertheless, death reigned from Adam to Moses, even over them that had not sinned, after the similitude of Adams transgression, who is the figure of him that was to come.
15 But not as the offence, so also is the free gift. for if through the offence of one many be dead, much more the grace of God, and the gift by grace, which is by one man Iesus Christ, abounded unto many.
16 And not as it was by one ỹ sinned, so is ỹ gift: for ỹ judgment was by one to condemnation: but the free gift is of many offences unto justification.
17 For if by one mans offence, death reigned by one: much more they which receive abundance of grace, and of the gift of righteousnesse, shal reigne in life by one, Iesus Christ.
18 Therfore as by the offence of one, judgement came upon all men to condemnation: even so by the righteousnes of one, the free gift came upon all men unto justification of life.
19 For as by one mans disobedience, many were made sinners: so by y obedience of one, shal many be made righteous.
20 Moreover, ỹ law entred, ỹ the offence might abound: but where sin abounde, grace did much more abound 21 That as sinne hath reigned unto death, even so might grace reigne through righteousnesse unto eternall life, by Iesus Christ our Lord.

CHAP. V.

Therefore being justified by faith,
we have peace with God, through Lord Iesus Christ.
By whom also we have acceſſe by

CHAP. VI.

WHat shal we say then? shal we continue in sin, y grace may abound?
2 God forbid: how shal we that are dead to sin, live any longer therein?
3 Know ye not, that so many of us as were baptized into Iesus Christ, were baptized into his death?
4 Therfore we are buried with him by baptisme into death, that like as Christ was raised up from the dead by the glory of the Father: even so we also should walk in newnesse of life.
5 For if we have been planted together in y likenesse of his death: we shal be also in y likenesse of his resurrection:
6 Knowing this, that our old man is crucified with him, that the body of sin might be destroyed, that henceforth we should not serve sinne.
7 For hee that is dead, is freed from sinne.
8 Now if we be dead with Christ, we believe y we shal also live with him:
9 Knowing that Christ being raised from the dead, dieth no more, death hath no more dominion over him.
10 For in that he died, he died unto sinne once: but in that he liueth, he liveth unto God.
11 Likwise reckon ye also your selves to be dead indeed unto sin: but alive to God, through Iesus Christ our Lord.
12 Let not sinne therefore reigne in your mortall body, that ye should obey it in the lust thereof.
13 Neither yeeld ye your members as instruments of unrighteousnesse unto sin: but yeeld your selves unto God, as those that are alive from the dead: and your members as instruments of righteousnesse unto God.
14 For sinne shal not have dominion over you, for yee are not under the Law, but under Grace.
15 What then? shal we sin, because we are not under the Law, but under Grace? God forbid.
16 Know ye not, that to whom ye yeeld your selves servants to obey, his servants ye are to whom ye obey: whether of sin unto death, or of obedience unto righteousnesse?
17 But God be thanked, that ye were the servants of sinne, but ye have obeyed from the heart that forme of doctrine, which was delivered you.
18 Being then made free from sin, ye became the servants of righteousnes.
19 I speake after the manner of men, because of the infirmity of your flesh: for as ye have yeelded your members servants to uncleannesse and to iniquity, unto iniquity: even so now yeeld your members servants to righteousnesse, unto holinesse.
20 For when ye were the servants of sin, ye were free from righteousnesse.
21 What fruit had ye then in those things whereof ye are now ashamed? for the end of those things is death.
22 But now being made free from sin, and become servants to God, ye have your fruit unto holinesse, and the end everlasting life.
23 For the wages of sin is death: but the gift of God is eternall life, through Iesus Christ our Lord.

CHAP. VII.

KNow yee not brethren, (for I speake to them that know the Law) how that the Law hath dominion over a man as long as he liveth?
2 For the woman which hath an husband, is bound by the Law to her husband so long as hee liveth: but if her husband be dead, she is loosed from the Law of her husband.
3 So then if while her husband liveth she be married to another man, she shal be called an adulteresse: but if her husband be dead, she is free from the Law, so that she is no adulteresse, though she be married to another man.
4 Wherefore my brethren, yee also are become dead to the Law by the body of Christ, that ye should be married to another, even to him who is raised from the dead, that we should bring foorth fruit unto God.
5 For when we were in the flesh, the motions of sinnes which were by the Law, did worke in our members to bring forth fruit unto death.
6 But now we are delivered from the Law, y being dead wherein we were held, y we should serve in newnesse of spirit, & not in the oldnesse of the letter.
7 What shall we say then? Is the Law sinne? God forbid. Nay, I had not known sin, but by the Law: for I had not known lust, except the Law had said, Thou shalt not cover.
8 But sinne taking occasion by the commandement, wrought in me all manner of concupiscence. For without the Law sin was dead.
9 For I was alive without the Law once, but when the commandement came, sinne revived, and I died.
10 And the commandement which was ordained to life, I found to be to death.
11 For sinne taking occasion by the commandement, deceived me, and by it slew me.
12 Wherefore the Law is holy, and the Commandment holy, & just, & good.
13 Was that then which is good made death unto me? God forbid: But sinne, that it might appeare sin, working death in me by y which is good: that sinne by the commandment might become exceeding sinfull.
14 For we know y y Law is spirituall: but I am carnal, sold under sinne.
15 For that which I doe I allow not: for what I would, that doe I not, but what I hate, that doe I.
16 If then I do y which I would not, I consent unto the Law y it is good.
17 Now then it is no more I that doe it, but sin that dwelleth in me.
18 For I know y in me (that is in my flesh) dwelleth no good thing. For y flesh and spirit.

presente with me: but how to ne that which is good. I find not w the good y I would. I doe not:
l which I would not. 20 I do w if I doe that I would not, it is more I that doe it, but sinne that elleth in mee.
I find then a Law, y when I would good, evil is present with me.
22 For I delight in the Law of God, ter inward man.
23 But I see another Law in my members warring against the Law of my nde, & bringing me into captivity
the Law of sinne which is in my members.
24 O wretched man y I am, who shall liver me from y body of this death?
25 I thank God, through Jesus Christ
r Lord. So then, with the minde I myself serve the Law of God; but th the flesh the Law of sinne.

CHAP. VIII.

1 There is therefore now no condemnation to them which are in Christ Jesus, who walke not after the flesh, but after the Spirit.
2 For the Law of the Spirit of life in Christ Jesus hath made me free from the Law of sinne and death.
3 For what the Law could not do, in that it was weake through the flesh, God sending his owne Sonne in the likenesse of sinfull flesh, and for sinne, condemned sinne in the flesh:
4 That the righteousnesse of the Law might be fulfilled in us, who walk not after the flesh, but after the Spirit.
5 For they that are after the flesh, doe minde the things of the flesh: but they that are after y Spirit, y things of y Spirit.
6 For to be carnally minded, is death:
but to be spiritually minded, is life and peace.
7 Because the carnal minde is enmity against God, for it is not subject to y Law of God, neither indeed can be.
8 So then they that are in the flesh, cannot please God.
9 But ye are not in the flesh, but in y Spirit, if so be that the Spirit of God dwell in you. Now if any man have not the Spirit of Christ, he is none of his.
10 And if Christ be in you, the body is dead because of sinne: but the Spirit is life because of righteousnesse.
11 But if the Spirit of him that raised up Jesus from the dead, dwel in you:
he that raised up Christ from the dead, shall also quicken your mortal bodies
by his Spirit that dwelleth in you.
12 Therefore brethren, we are debtors not to y flesh, to live after y flesh.
13 For if ye live after the flesh, ye shal die: but if ye through y Spirit doe mortifie the deeds of the body ye shal live.
14 For as many as are led by y Spirit of God, they are the sonnes of God.
15 For ye have not received the spirit of bondage again to feare, but ye have received the spirit of adoption, whereby we cry, Abba, father.
16 The spirit it selfe beareth witnes vnto our spirit, y we are y children of God.
17 And if children then heires, heires of God, & joynt heires with Christ:
if so be that we suffer with him, that we may be also glorified together.
18 For I reckon, that the sufferings of this present time, are not worthy to be compared with the glory which shal be revealed in us.
19 For the earnest expectation of the creature waiteth for the manifestation of the sonnes of God.
20 For y creature was made subject to vanity, not willingly, but by reason of him who hath subjected y same in hope 21 Because the creature it selfe also shalbe delivered from the bondage of corruption, into the glorious liberty of the children of God.
22 For we know that the whole creation groaneth and travaileth in paine together until now.
23 And not onely they, but our selves also which have y first fruits of y Spirit, even we our selves grone within our selves, waiting for the adoption, to wit, the redemption of our body.
24 For we are saved by hope: but hope that is seene, is not hope: for what a man seeth, why doth he yet hope for?
25 But if we hope for that we see not,
then doe we with patience wait for it.
26 Likewise the spirit also helpeth our infirmities: for we know not what we should pray for as we ought: but y spirit it selfe maketh intercession for us with groanings which cannot be uttered.
27 And he that searcheth the hearts, knoweth what is the mind of y Spirit, because he maketh intercession for the Saints according to y will of God.
28 And we know that all things work together for good, to them that love God, to them who are the called according to his purpose.
29 For whom he did foreknow, he also did predestinate to be conformed to y image of his Sonne, that he might be y first borne among st many brethren.
30 Moreover, whom he did predestinate, them he also called: & whom he called, them he also justified: & whom he justified, them he also glorified.
31 What shall we then say to these things?
If God be for us, who can be against us?
32 He that spared not his own Son, but delivered him up for us all: how shal he not with him also freely give us al things?
33 Who shal lay any thing to y charge of Gods elect? It is God that justifieth: 34 Who is hee y condemneth? It is Christ that died, yea, rather y is risen again: who is even at y right hand of God, who also makes intercession for us.
35 Who shal separate us from the love of Christ: shal tribulation, or distresse, or persecution, or famine, or nakednesse, or peril, or sword?
36 (As it is written, I or thy sake we are killed al the day long, we are accounted as sheepe for the slaughter.)

37 Nay,

37 Nay, in all these things we are more the conquerors through him y loved us.
38 For I am perswaded, that neither death, nor life, nor Angels, nor principalities, nor powers, nor things present, nor things to come:
39 Nor height, nor depth, nor any other creature, shalbe able to separate us from the love of God; which is in Christ Iesus our Lord.

CHAP. IX.

I Say the trueth in Christ, I lie not, my conscience also bearing me wit-nesse in the holy Ghost, 2 That I have great heavinesse, and continuall sorrow in my heart.
3 For I could wish that my self were accursed from Christ for my brethren, my kinsmen according to the flesh:
4 Who are Israelites, to whom pertaineth the adoption, and the glory, & the Covenants, and the giving of y Law, and y service of God, and y promises.
5 Whose are y fathers, and of whom as concerning y flesh, Christ came, who is over all, God blessed for ever more.
Amen.
6 Not as though the word of God hath taken none effect. For they are not all Israel which are of Israel:
7 Neither because they are the seed of Abraham are they al children, but in Isaac shal thy seed be called.
8 That is, they which are the children of the flesh, these are not the children of God: but the children of the promise are counted for the seed.
9 For this is the word of promise, At this time will I come, and Sara shal have a sonne.
10 And not only this, but when Rebecca also had conceived by one,
even by our father Isaac.
11 For the children being not yet born, neither having done any good or evil, (that the purpose of God according to election might stand, not of workes, but of him that calleth,) 12 It was said unto her, The elder shal serve the younger.
13 As it is written, Iacob have I loved,
but Esau have I hated.
14 What shal we say then? Is there unrighteousnesse with God? God forbid.
15 For he saith to Moses, I will have mercy on whom I will have mercy, and I will have compassion on whom I will have compassion.
16 So then it is not of him that willeth, nor of him that runneth, but of God that sheweth mercy.
17 For y Scripture saith to Pharaoh, Even for this same purpose have I raised thee up, that I might shew my power in thee, and y my Name might be declared throughout all the earth.
18 Therefore hath he mercy on whom he will have mercy, and whom he will he hardeneth.
19 Thou wilt say then unto me, Why doeth he yet find fault? for who hath resisted his will?
20 Nay, but O man, who art thou that replieth against God? Shal a thing formed, say to him that form-it, Why hast thou made me thus?
21 Hath not the potter power over the clay, of y same lump to make one fell to honour, another to dishonour?
22 What if God willing to shew his wrath, and to make his power to be knowen, endured with much long sufferings y vessels of wrath fitted to destruction?
23 And that he might make known the riches of his glory on y vessels of mercy, which he hath prepared to glory?
24 Even us, whom he hath called, not of y Iewes only, but also of y Gentiles?
25 As he saith also in Osee, I will call them my people, which were not my people, and her beloved, which was not beloved.
26 And it shal come to passe, that in the place where it was said unto them, Ye are not my people, there shal they be called, the children of y living God.
27 Esaias also crieth concerning Israel, Though the Number of the children of Israel be as the sand of the Sea, a remnant shal be saved.
28 For he will finish the work, & cut it short in righteousnesse: because a short work will the Lord make upon y earth.
29 And as Esaias said before, Except the Lord of Sabbath had left us a seed, we had been as Sodoma, and we had been made like unto Gomorrha.
30 What shal we say then? That the Gentiles which followed not after righteousnesse, have attained to righteous-nesse, even the righteousnesse which is of faith.
31 But Israel which followed after the Law of righteousnes, hath not attained to the Law of righteousnes.
32 Wherefore? because they sought it not by faith, but as it were by the works of the Law: for they stumbled at that stumbling stone, 33 As it is written, Behold, I lay in Sion a stumbling stone, and a rock of offence: and whosoever believeth on him shal not be ashamed.

CHAP. X.

BRethren, my hearts desire and prayer to God for Israel is, that they might be saved.
2 For I beare them record that they have a zeale of God, but not according to knowledge.
3 For they being ignorant of God's righteousnes, and going about to establish their own righteousnesse, have not submitted themselves unto the righteousnesse of God.
4 For Christ is the end of the Law for righteousnesse to every one y believeth.
5 For Moses describeth y righteousnes which is of y Law, that y man which doeth those things shal live by them.
6 But y righteousnes which is of faith, speaketh on this wise: Say not in thy heart, Who shal ascend into heaven?
(that is, to bring Christ downe from above)
7 Or, who shal descend into the deepe? (That is, to bring up Christ againe from the dead.

hat saith it? The vvord is nigh me in thy mouth, & in thy heart;
is the vvord of faith vvee preach
That if thou shalt confesse vvith outh the Lord Iesus, and shalt eve in thy heart, that God hath isen from y dead, y shalt be saved
For vvith the heart man beleeveth righteousnes, & vvith the mouth confession is made unto salvation.
For y Scripture saith, Whosoever-eveth on him, shal not be ashamed
For there is no difference betwee
Iewe, and the Greeke: for the same Lord over all, is rich unto all that cal upon him.
For vvhosoever shal cal upon the name of the Lord, shalbe saved.
How then shal they cal on him, on whom they have not beleeved? and how shal they beleeve in him, of whom they have not heard? and how shall they heare vvithout a Preacher?
And how shal they preach, except they be sent? as it is written: How beautiful are the feete of them that bring the Gospel of peace, and bring glad tidings of good things?
But they have not al obeyed the Gospel. For Esaias saith, Lord, vvho hath beleeved our report?
So then, faith commeth by hearing,
and hearing by the vvord of God.
I say then, Have they not heard?
Verily, their sound vvent into all the earth, and their vvordes unto the ends of the vvorld.
But I say, Did not Israel know? First Moses saith, I vvil prouoke you to enuie by them that are no people, & by a foolish nation I vvil anger you.
But Esaias is very bold, and saith, I was found of them that sought me not, I was made manifest unto them that asked not after me.
But to Israel he saith, All day long I have stretched forth my hands to a disobedient and gaine saying people.

CHAP. XI.

I then, Hath God cast avvay his people? God forbid. For I also am an Israelite of the seed of Abraham, of the tribe of Beniamin.
God hath not cast avvay his people which he foreknevv. Wote yee not what the Scripture saith of Elias? how he maketh intercession to God against Israel, saying,
Lord, they have killed thy Prophets, and digged downe thine Altars, and I am left alone, and they seek my life.
But vvhat saith the answere of God unto him? I have reserved unto my self seven thousand men, who have not bowed y knee to y image of Baal.
Even so then at this present time there is a remnant, according to the election of grace.
And if by grace, then it is no more of vvorkes: other vvise grace is no more grace. But if it bee of vvorkes, then is it no more grace, otherwise vvorke is no more vvorke.

7 What then? Israel hath not obtained y which he seeketh for, but y election hath obtained it, & y rest were blinded.
8 According as it is written, God hath given them the spirit of slumber:
eyes that they should not see, & eares,
that they should not hear to this day.
9 And David saith, Let their table be made a snare, & attrap, and a stumbling block, & a recompense to them.
10 Let their eyes be darkened, that they may not see, and bow down their backe alway.
11 I say then, Have they stumbled that they should fall? God forbid.
But rather through their fal, y salvation is come unto the Gentiles, for to provoke them to jealousie.
12 Now if the fal of them bee the riches of the world, and the diminishing of them the riches of the Gentiles:
how much more their fulnesse?
13 For I speake to you Gentiles, in as much as I am the Apostle of the Gentiles, I magnifie mine office:
14 If by any meanes I may provoke to emulation them which are my flesh, and might save some of them.
15 For if the casting away of them, be y reconciling of y world, what shal y receiving of them be, but life from dead?
16 For if the first fruit be holy, the lumpe is also holy: and if the root be holy, so are the branches.
17 And if some of the branches be broken off, and thou being a wilde Olive tree, wert grafted in amongst them, and with them partakest of the roote and fatnesse of the Olive tree:
18 Boast not against the branches:
but if thou boast, thou beartest not the roote, but the root thee.
19 Thou wilt say then, The branches were broke off, y I might be grafted in.
20 Wel: because of unbelefe they were broken off, and thou standest by faith. Be not high minded, but feare.
21 For if God spared not the natural branches, take heed lest he also spare not thee.
22 Behold therefore the goodnes & severity of God: on them which fell, severity: but towards thee, goodnesse, if thou continue in his goodnes: otherwise thou also shalt be cut off.
23 And they also, if they bide not stil in unbelefe, shal be grafted in: for God is able to graffe them in againe.
24 For if thou wert cut out of the Olive tree, which is wilde by nature, & wert graffed contrary to nature into a good Olive tree; how much more shal these, which be y natural branches, be graffed into their own Olive tree.
25 For I would not, brethren, that ye should be ignorant of this mystery, lest ye should be wise in your owne conceits: y blindnes in part is happened to Israel, until the fulnes of the Gentiles be come in.
26 And so all Israel shalbe saved: as it is written, There shal come out of

Sion the Deliverer, and shall turne away ungodlines from Iacob.
27 For this is my covenant unto them, when I shal take away their sinnes.
28 As concerning the Gospel, they are enemies for your sakes: but as touching the election, they are beloved for the fathers sakes.
29 For the gifts and calling of God are without repentance.
30 For as ye in times past have not beleved God, yet have now obtained mercy through their unbelefe:
31 Even so have these also now not beleved, that through your mercy, they also may obtaine mercy.
32 For God hath concluded them al in unbelief, that he might have mercy upon al.
33 O the depth of the riches both of the wisedome and knowledge of God: how unsearchable are his judgments, and his wayes past finding out!
34 For who hath known the mind of ỹ Lord? or who hath been his counseller?
35 Or who hath first given to him, & it shalbe recompensed to him again?
36 For of him, and through him, and to him are al things: to whom be glory for ever. Amen.

CHAP. XII.

I Beseech you therefore, brethren, by the mercies of God, ỹ ye present your bodies a living sacrifice, holy, acceptable to God, wis your reasonable service.
2 And be not conformed to this world, but be ye transformed by the renewing of your minde, that yee may proove what is that good, that acceptable, and perfect wil of God.
3 For I say, through the grace given unto mee, to every man that is among you, not to thinke of himselfe more highly then he ought to think, but to thinke soberly, according as God hath dealt to every man a measure of faith.
4 For as we have many members in one body, and al members have not the same office:
5 So we being many, are one body in Christ, and every one members one of another.
6 Having then gifts, differing according to the grace that is given to us, whether prophesie, let us prophesie according to the proportion of faith.
7 Or ministery, let us waite on our ministring: or he ỹ teacheth, on teaching.
8 Or he that exhorteth, on exhortation: he that giveth, let him do it with simplicity: he ỹ ruleth, ỹ diligence: he that sheweth mercy, with cheerfulnes.
9 Let love be without dissimulation: abhorre that which is evil, cleave to that which is good.
10 Be kindly affectioned one to another with brotherly love, in honour preferring one another.
11 Not slothful in business: fervent in spirit, serving the Lord.
12 Rejoycing in hope, patient in tribulation, continuing instant in prayer
13 Distributing to the necessity of Saints, given to hospitality.
14 Blesse them which persecute you: blesse, and curse not.
15 Rejoyce with them that do rejoyce, and weep with them that weep.
16 Be of the same minde one toward another. Mind not high things, but condescend to men of low estate. Be not wise in your own conceits.
17 Recompense to no man evil for evil. Provide things honestly in ỹ eye of all men.
18 If it be possible, as much as lieth in you, live peaceably with all men.
19 Dearely beloved, avenge not your selves, but rather give place unto wrath: for it is written, Vengeance is mine, I wil repay, saith the Lord.
20 Therefore if thine enemy hunger, feed him: if he thirst, give him drink. For in so doing thou shalt heap coales of fire on his head.
21 Be not overcome of evil, but overcome evil with good.

CHAP. XIII.

LEt every soule be subject unto the higher powers: for there is no power but of God. The powers that be, are ordained of God.
2 Whosoever therefore resisteth the power, resisteth the ordinance of God: and they that resist shall receive to themselves damnation.
3 For Rulers are not a terrour to good workes, but to the evil. Wilt thou then not be afraid of the power? do that which is good, and thou shalt have praise of the same.
4 For he is the minister of God unto thee for good: but if thou do that which is evil, be afraid: for he beareth not the sword in vaine: for he is the minister of God, a revenger to execute wrath upon him that doeth evil.
5 Wherefore ye must needes be subject, not onely for wrath, but also for conscience sake:
6 For, for this cause pay ye tribute also: for they are Gods ministers, attending continually upon this very thing.
7 Render therefore to al their dues: tribute to whom tribute is due, custome to whom custome: fear to whom fear, honour to whom honour.
8 Owe no man any thing, but to love one another: for he that loveth another, hath fulfilled the Law.
9 For this, Thou shalt not commit adultery, Thou shalt not kil, Thou shalt not steale, Thou shalt not beare false witnes, Thou shalt not covet: And if there be any other commandment, it is briefly comprehended in this saying, namely, Thou shalt love thy neighbour as thy self.
10 Love worketh no ill to his neighbour: therefore love is the fulfilling of the Law.
11 And that, knowing the time, that now it is high time to awake out of sleepe: for now is our salvation nearer then when we beleeved.
12 The night is farre spent, the day is at hand: let us therefore cast off ons of darkenes, and let us put on armour of light.

13 Let us walke honestly as in the day, not in rioting and drunkennes, not in chambering and wantonnesse,
not in strife and envying.
14 But put yee on the Lord Iesus Christ, and make not provision for the flesh, to fulfill the lusts thereof.

CHAP. XIIII.

1 Him that is weake in the faith, receive you, but not to doubtfull disputations.
2 For one believeth that he may eate all things: another who is weake, eateth herbs.
3 Let not him that eateth, despise him that eateth not: & let not him which eateth not, judge him that eateth: for God hath received him.
4 Who art thou that judgest another mans servant? to his owne master he standeth or falleth: yea, he shall be holden up: for God is able to make him stand.
5 One man esteemeth one day above another: another esteemeth every day alike. Let every man be fully perswa-ded in his owne mind.
6 He that regardeth a day, regardeth it unto the Lord, & he that regardeth not the day, to the Lord he doth not regard it. He that eateth, eateth to the Lord, for he giveth God thankes: and he that eateth not to the Lord he eateth not, and giveth God thankes.
7 For none of us liveth to himself, and no man dieth to himself.
8 For whether we live, we live unto the Lord: and whether we die, we die unto the Lord: whether we live therefore or die, we are the Lords.
9 For to this end Christ both died, and rose, and revived: that he might be Lord both of the dead and living.
10 But why doest thou iudge thy brother? or why doest thou set at nought thy brother? we shall all stand before the iudgement seat of Christ.
11 For it is written: As I live, saith the Lord, every knee shall bow to me, and every tongue shall confesse to God.
12 So that every one of us shall give account of himselfe to God.
13 Let us not therefore iudge one another any more, but iudge this rather, no man put a stumblingblock, or occasion to fall in his brothers way or in his.
14 I know and am perswaded by the Lord Iesus, that there is nothing unclean of it selfe: but to him that esteemeth any thing to be unclean, to him it is unclean.
15 But if thy brother be grieved with thy meate, now walkest thou not charitably. Destroy not him with thy meate, for whom Christ dyed.
16 Let not then your good be evill spoken of.
17 For the Kingdome of God is not meate and drinke, but righteousnes, and peace, and ioy in the holy Ghost.
18 For hee that in these things ser-veth Christ, is acceptable to God, and approved of men.
19 Let us therefore follow after the things which make for peace, & things wherewith one may edifie another.
20 For meate destroy not the work of God: all things indeed are pure: but it is evil for y man who eateth with offence.
21 It is good neither to eate flesh, nor to drinke wine, nor any thing whereby thy brother stumbleth, or is offended, or is made weake.
22 Hast thou faith? have it to thy selfe before God. Happy is he that con-demneth not himselfe in that thing which he alloweth.
23 And he that doubteth, is damned if he eate, because hee eateth not of faith: For whatsoever is not of faith, is sinne.

CHAP. XV.

1 WE then that are strong, ought to beare the infirmities of the weak, and not to please ourselves.
2 Let every one of us please his neighbour for his good to edification.
3 For even Christ pleased not himself, but as it is written, The reproaches of them y reproached thee fell on me.
4 For whatsoever things were written aforetime, were written for our learning: y we through patience and comfort of the Scriptures might have hope.
5 Now the God of patience & consolation grant you to be like minded one toward another, according to Christ Iesus:
6 That ye may with one minde and one mouth glorifie God, even the Father of our Lord Iesus Christ.
7 Wherefore receive ye one another, as Christ also received us, to the glory of God.
8 Now I say, that Iesus Christ was a Minister of the circumcision for the truth of God, to confirme the promises made unto the fathers.
9 And that the Gentiles might glorifie God for his mercy, as it is written, For this cause I will confesse to thee among the Gentiles, and sing unto thy Name.
10 And againe he saith, Rejoyce ye Gentiles with his people.
11 And againe, Praise the Lord, all yee
Gentiles, and laud him all ye people.
12 And again, Esaias saith, There shalbe a root of Iesse, and he that shall rise to reigne over the Gentiles, in him shall the Gentiles trust.
13 Now the God of hope, fill you with all ioy and peace in believing, that ye may abound in hope through the power of the holy Ghost.
14 And I my selfe also am perswaded of you, my brethren, that ye also are full of goodnes, filled with all knowledge, able also to admonish one another.
15 Nevertheless, brethren, I have written the more boldly unto you, in some part, as putting you in mind, because of y grace y is given to me of God 16 That I should be the minister of Iesus Christ to the Gentiles, minis-tring the Gospel of God, y the offering up of the Gentiles might be acceptable, being sanctified by y holy Ghost.

17 I have therefore whereof I may glory through Iesus Christ, in those things which pertaine to God.
18 For I will not dare to speake of any of those things which Christ hath not wrought by me, to make the Gentiles obedient by word and deed.
19 Through mighty signes, and wonders by the power of the Spirit of God: so that from Hierusalem: and round about vnto Illyricum, I have fully preached the Gospel of Christ.
20 Yea, so have I ſtrued to preach the Gospel: not where Christ was named, leſt I ſhould build vpon another mans foundation:
21 But as it is written, To whom he was not ſpoken of, they ſhall ſee: and they y have not heard, ſhal vnderſtand 22 For which cauſe alſo I have beene much hindered from comming to you:
23 But now having no more place in theſe parts: and having a great deſire theſe many yeeres to come vnto you:
24 Whenſoever I take my journey into Spaine, I will come to you: for I truſt to ſee you in my journey, & to be brought on my way thitherward by you: if firſt
I be ſomewhat filled w your company 25 But now I go vnto Hierusalem, to miniſter vnto the Saints.
26 For it hath pleaſed them of Macedonia and Achaia, to make a certain contribution for the poore Saints which are at Hierusalem.
27 It hath pleaſed them verily, and their debters they are. For if the Gentiles have beene made partakers of their ſpirituall things, their duetie is alſo to miniſter to thē in carnall things 28 When therefore I have performed this, and have ſealed to them this fruit, I will come by you into Spain.
29 And I am ſure that when I come vnto you, I ſhall come in the fulneſſe of the bleſſing of the Goſpel of Chriſt 30 Now I beſeech you, brethren, for the Lord Ieſus Chriſts ſake, and for the loye of the Spirit, y ye ſtriue together
w me in your prayers to God for me.
31 That I may bee delivered from them that doe not beleeve in Iudea, and that my ſervice which I have for Hierusalē, may be accepted of y Saints 32 That I may come vnto you with joy by the will of God, and may with you be refreſhed.
33 Now the God of peace be with you al. Amen.

CHAP. XVI.

I Commend vnto you Phebe our ſiſter, which is a ſervant of the Church which is at Cenchrea:

CHAP. I.

PAul called to be an Apostle of Iesus Christ, through the will of God, and Sosthenes our brother.

2 Vnto the Church of God which is at Corinth, to them that are sanctified in Christ Iesus, called to be saints, with all that in every place call vpon the Name of Iesus Christ our Lord, both theirs and ours.

3 Grace be vnto you and peace, from God our Father, and from the Lord Iesus Christ.

4 I thanke my God alwayes on your behalf, for the grace of God which is given you by Iesus Christ.

5 That in euery thing yee are enriched by him in all vtterance, and in all knowledge:

6 Euen as the testimonie of Christ was confirmed in you.

7 So that yee come behinde in no gift, waiting for the comming of our Lord Iesus Christ.

8 Who shall also confirme you, vnto the end that yee may be blamelesse in the day of our Lord Iesus Christ.

9 God is faithfull, by whom ye were called vnto the fellowship of his Sonne Iesus Christ our Lord.

10 Now I beseech you brethren, by the Name of our Lord Iesus Christ, that ye all speake the same thing, and that there be no diuisions among you: but that ye be perfectly ioyned together in the same mind, & in the same iudgement.

11 For it hath been declared vnto me of you my brethren, by them which are of the house of Cloe, that there are contentions among you.

12 Now this I say, that euery one of you saith, I am of Paul, and I of Apollos, and I of Cephas, and I of Christ.

13 Is Christ diuided? was Paul crucified for you? or were you baptized in the name of Paul?

14 I thanke God that I baptized none of you, but Crispus and Gaius:

15 Lest any should say, that I had baptized in mine owne name.

16 And I baptized also the houshold of Stephanas: besides, I know not whether I baptized any other.

17 For Christ sent me not to baptize, but to preach the Gospel: not with wisedome of words, lest the Crosse of Christ should be made of none effect.

18 For the preaching of the Crosse is to them y perish, foolishnes: but vnto vs which are saued, it is the power of God.

19 For it is written, I will destroy the wisedome of the wise, & will bring to nothing y vnderstanding of y prudent.

20 Where is the wise? where is the scribe? where is the disputer of this world? Hath not God made foolish the wisedome of this world?

21 For after y, in the wisdom of God, the world by wisedom knew not God, it pleased God by the foolishnes of preaching, to saue them that beleeue.

22 For the Iewes require a signe, & the Greekes seeke after wisedome.

23 But we preach Christ crucified, vnto the Iewes a stumbling block, and vnto the Greekes foolishnes:

24 But vnto them which are called, both Iewes and Greekes, Christ the power of God, & the wisedom of God.

25 Because the foolishnesse of God is wiser then men, and the weakenesse of God is stronger then men.

26 For ye see your calling brethren, how y not many wise men after y flesh, not many mighty, not many noble are called.

27 But God hath chosen the foolish things of the world to confound the wise: and God hath chosen the weake things of the world, to confound the things which are mighty.

28 And base things of the world, & things which are despised, hath God chosen, ye, & things which are not, to bring to nought things that are.

29 That no flesh should glory in his presence.

30 But of him are ye in Christ Iesus, who of God is made vnto vs wisdom, and righteousnes, & sanctification, and Redemption:

31 That according as it is written, He y glorieth, let him glory in y Lord.

CHAP. II.

ANd I, brethren, when I came to you, came not with excellency of speech, or of wisedome, declaring vnto you the testimony of God:

2 For I determined not to know any thing among you, saue Iesus Christ, and him crucified.

3 And I was with you in weakenes, and in feare, and in much trembling.

4 And my speech and my preaching, was not with entising words of mans wisedome, but in demonstration of the Spirit and of power:

5 That your faith should not stand in the wisedome of men, but in the power of God.

6 How beit we speake wisedom among them that are perfect: yet not the wisedom of this world, nor of the Princes of this world, that come to nought:

7 But we speake the wisedome of God in a mystery, euen the hidden wisedome which God ordained before the world, vnto our glory.

8 Which none of the Princes of this world knew: for had they known it, they would not haue crucified the Lord of glory.

9 But as it is written, Eye hath not seen, nor eare heard, neither hath entred into the heart of man, y things which God hath prepared for them y loue him.

10 But God hath reuealed them vnto vs by his Spirit: for y Spirit searcheth all things, yea, y deepe things of God.

11 For what man knoweth the things of a man, save the spirit of man which is in him? Even so the things of God knoweth no man, but y Spirit of God.
12 Now we have received, not the spirit of the world, but the Spirit which is of God, that we might know y things y are freely giv'e to vs of God
13 Which things also we speak, not in y words w mans wisdom teacheth, but which the holy Ghost teacheth, co-paring spirituall things w spirituall.
14 But the natural man receiveth not the things of the Spirit of God: for they are foolishnesse vnto him: neither can he know them, because they are spiritually discerned.
15 But he that is spirituall, judgeth all things, yet he himselfe is iudged of no man.
16 For who hath known the minde of the Lord, that he may instruct him? But we have the minde of Christ.

CHAP. III.

AND I, brethren, could not speake to you as vnto spirituall, but as vnto carnall, even as vnto babes in Christ.
2 I have fed you with milke, and not with meat: for hitherto ye were not able to bear it, neither yet now are ye able.
3 For ye are yet carnal; for whereas there is among you envying, & strife, and diuisions, are ye not carnal, and walke as men?
4 For while one saith, I am of Paul, and another, I am of Apollo, are ye not carnall?
5 Who then is Paul? & who is Apollo, but ministers by whom ye believed, even as the Lord gaue to every man.
6 I have planted, Apollo watered, but God gaue the increase.
7 So then, neither is he that planteth any thing, neither he that watereth: but God that giueth the increase.
8 Now he that planteth, and he that watereth, are one: and every man shall receive his owne reward according to his owne labour.
9 For we are labourers together with God, ye are Gods husbandry, ye are Gods building.
10 According to y grace of God which is given vnto me, as a wise master-builder I have laid the foundation, and another buildeth theron. But let every mã take heed how he builds there vpõ 11 For other foundation can no man lay, then y is laid, which is Iesus Christ.
12 Now if any man build vpon this foundation, gold, siluer, precious stones, wood, hay, stubble:
13 Every mans work shal be made manifest, for y day shal declare it, because it shalbe revealed by fire, & y fire shal try every mans work of what sort it is.
14 If any mans work abide vpõ the hath built thereupõ, he shal receive a reward.
15 If any mans work shalbe burnt, he shal suffer losse: but he himselfe shal be saued: yet so as by fire.
16 Know yee not that ye are the Temple of God, and that the Spirit of God dwelleth in you?
17 If any man defile the Temple of God, him shall God destroy: for the Temple of God is holy, which Temple yee are.
18 Let no man deceive himselfe: If any man among you seemeth to be wise in this world, let him become a fole, that he may be wise
19 For the wisdome of this world is foolishnes w God: for it is written, He taketh the wise in their own craftinesse.
20 And again, The Lord knoweth y thoughts of the wise, y they are vaine.
21 Therefore let no man glory in men, for all things are yours.
22 Whether Paul, or Apollo, or Cephas, or y world, or life, or death, or things present, or things to come, all are yours:
23 And ye are Christs: and Christ is Gods. CHAP. IIII.

LEt a man so account of vs, as of the Ministers of Christ, and stewards of the mysteries of God.
2 Moreouer it is required in stewards, that a man be found faithful.
3 But with me it is a very small thing that I should be judged of you, or of mans iudgement: yea, I iudge not mine owne selfe.
4 For I know nothing by my selfe, yet am I not hereby iustified; but he that iudgeth me, is the Lord.
5 Therefore iudge nothing before the time, vntil the Lord come, who both will bring to light y hidde things of darkenes, and will make manifest the counsells of the hearts: and then shall every man have praise of God.
6 And these things brethren, I have in a figure transferred to my selfe, and to Apollo, for your sakes: that ye might learne in vs not to think of man, above that which is written, that no one of you be puffed vp for one against another.
7 For who maketh thee to differ from another? And what hast thou that thou didst not receive? Now if thou didst receive it, why doest thou glory as if thou hadst not received it?
8 Now ye are full, now ye are rich, ye have reigned as Kings without vs: and I would to God ye did reigne, that we also might reigne with you.
9 For I think y God hath set forth vs Apostles last, as if we were appointed to death. For we are made a spectacle vnto y world, & to Angels, & to men.
10 We are fooles for Christs sake, but ye are wise in Christ. We are weake, but ye are strong: ye are honourable, but we are despised.
11 Even vnto this present houre we both hunger and thirst, & are naked, and are buffeted, and haue no certaine dwelling place.
12 And labour, working with mine own hands: being reuiled, we bless: being persecuted, we suffer it:
13 Being defamed, we intreate: we are made as y filth of y world, and are the off-scouring of all things to this day.
14 I write

I write not these things to shame
but as my beloved sons I warn you.
2 For though you have ten thousand teachers in Christ, yet have ye not many fathers: for in Christ Jesus I have begotten you through the Gospell.
16 Wherefore I beseech you, be ye followers of me.
17 For this cause have I sent unto you Timotheus, who is my beloved son and faithful in the Lord, who shall bring you into remembrance of my ways which be in Christ, as I teach everywhere in every Church.
18 Now some are puffed up, as though
I would not come to you.
19 But I will come to you shortly, if the Lord will, and will know, not y speech of them which are puffed up, but the power.
20 For the kingdome of God is not in word, but in power.
21 What will ye? Shall I come unto you with a rod, or in love, and in the spirit of meekenesse?

CHAP. V.

1 It is reported commonly, that there is fornication among you, and such fornication, as is not so much as named among the Gentiles, that one should have his fathers wife.
2 And ye are puffed up, and have not rather mourned, that he that hath done this deed, might be taken away from among you.
3 For I verily as absent in body, but present in spirit, have judged already, as though I were present, concerning him y hath so done this deed.
4 In the Name of our Lord Jesus Christ, when ye are gathered together and my spirit, with the power of our Lord Jesus Christ,
5 To deliver such an one unto Satan, for destruction of y flesh, y y Spirit
may be saved in y day of y Lord Jesus.
6 Your glorying is not good: know ye not that a little leaven leaveneth the whole lumpe?
7 Purge out therefore the old leaven, that ye may be a new lumpe, as ye are unleavened. For even Christ our Passeover is sacrificed for us.
8 Therefore let us keepe y Feast, not with old leaven, neither with y leaven of malice and wickednesse: but with y unleavened bread of sincerity & trueth.
9 I wrote unto you in an Epistle, that ye company with fornicators.
10 Not altogether with the fornica-tors of this world, nor with y covetous or extortioners, or with idolaters: for then must ye needs goe out of the world.
11 But now I have written unto you not to keep company, if any man that is called a brother, be a fornicator, or covetous, or an idolater, or a railer, or a drunkard, or an extortio-ner: with such a one, no, not to eate.
12 For what have I to doe to judge them also that are without? do not ye judge them that are within?
13 But them that are without, God judgeth. Therefore put away from among your selves that wicked person.

CHAP. VI.

1 Dare any of you, having a matter against another, go to Law before the unjust, and not before the Saints?
2 Do ye not know that the Saints shall judge the world? And if the world shall be judged by you, are ye unworthy to judge the smallest matters?
3 Know ye not that we shall judge Angels? how much more things that pertaine to this life?
4 If then ye have judgments of things pertaining to this life, set them to judge who are least esteemed in y Church.
5 I speake to your shame: Is it so, that there is not a wise man among you? no not one that shall be able to judge between his brethren?
6 But brother goeth to law with brother, and that before the unbelevers?
7 Now, therefore there is utterly a fault among you, because ye go to law one with another. Why doe ye not rather take wrong? why do ye not rather suffer your selves to be defrauded?
8 Nay, you do wrong, and defraud,
and that your brethren.
9 Know ye not y the unrighteous shall not inherite y kingdom of God? be not deceived: neither fornicators, nor idolaters, nor adulterers, nor effeminate, nor abusers of themselves with mankind, 10 Nor theeves, nor covetous, nor drunkards, nor revilers, nor extortioners shall inherite the kingdome of God.
11 And such were some of you: but ye are washed, but ye are sanctified, but ye are justified in the Name of y Lord Jesus, and by the Spirit of our God.
12 All things are lawful unto me, but all things are not expedient: all things are lawful for me, but I will not be brought under y power of any.
13 Meats for the belly, and the belly for meats: but God shall destroy both it and them. Now the body is not for fornication, but for the Lord: and the Lord for the body.
14 And God hath both raised up the Lord, and will also raise up us by his own power.
15 Know ye not that your bodies are y members of Christ? shall I then take y members of Christ, and make them y members of an harlot? God forbid.
16 What, know ye not that he which is joyned to an harlot, is one body? for two (saith he) shall be one flesh.
17 But he that is joyned to the Lord, is one Spirit.
18 Flee fornication: every sin that a man doth, is without the body: but he that committeth fornication, sinneth against his own body.
19 What, know ye not that your body is the Temple of the holy Ghost which is in you, which ye have of God, and ye are not your own?
20 For ye are bought with a price, therefore glorifie God in your body,
and in your spirit, which are Gods.

CHAP. VII.

NOw concerning the things where of ye wrote unto me; It is good for a man not to touch a woman.
2 Neverthelesse, to avoid fornication, let every man have his own wife: & let every woman have her own husband.
3 Let the husband render unto the wife due benevolence: and likewise also the wife unto the husband.
4 The wife hath not power of her own body, but the husband: and likewise also the husband hath not power of his own body, but the wife.
5 Defraud ye not one y other, except it be with consent for a time, y ye may give your selves to fasting and prayer, and com- together again, that Satan tempt you not for your incontinency.
6 But I speake this by permission, and not of commandment.
7 For I would that all men were even as I my selfe: but every man hath his proper gift of God, one after this manner, and another after that.
8 I say therefore to the unmarried and widowes: It is good for them if they abide even as I.
9 But if they cannot containe, let them marry: for it is better to marry, then to burn.
10 And unto the married, I command, yet not I, but the Lord, Let not the wife depart from her husband.
11 But and if she depart, let her remain unmarried, or be reconciled to her husband: and let not the husband put away his wife.
12 But to the rest speake I, not the Lord. If any brother hath a wife that beleeveth not, and she be pleased to dwel with him, let him not put her away.
13 And the woman which hath an husband y beleeveth not, & if she be pleased to dwel with her, let her not leave him.
14 For y unbeleeving husband is sanctified by y wife, & y unbeleeving wife is sanctified by y husband: else were your children unclean, but now are they holy.
15 But if the unbeleeving depart, let him depart. A brother or a sister is not under bondage in such cases: but God hath called us to peace.
16 For what knowest thou, O wife, whether thou shalt save they husband? or how knowest thou, O man, whether thou shalt save thy wife?
17 But as God hath distributed to every man, as the Lord hath called every one, so let him walke, and so ordaine I in all Churches.
18 Is any man called being circumcised? let him not become uncircumcised: Is any called in uncircumcision? let him not be circumcised.
19 Circumcision is nothing, and uncircumcision is nothing: but the keeping of the commandements of God.
20 Let every man abide in the same calling wherein he was called.
21 Art thou called being a servant? care not for it: but if thou mayest be made free, use it rather.
22 For he that is called in the Lord being a servant, is the Lords freeman: likewise also he that is called being free, is Christs servant.
23 Ye are bought with a price, not ye the servants of men.
24 Brethren, let every man wherein he is called, therein abide with God.
25 Now concerning virgines, I have no commandment of the Lord, yet I give my judgement, as one y hath obtained mercy of y Lord to be faithfull.
26 I suppose therefore that this is good for the present distresse, I say, it is good for a man so to be.
27 Art thou bound unto a wife? seek not to be loosed. Art thou loosed from a wife? seek not a wife.
28 But & if thou marry, thou hast not sinned, and if a virgine marry she hath not sinned: nevertheless, such shall have trouble in the flesh: but I spare you.
29 But this I say, brethren the time is short: It remaineth, y both they that have wives, be as they that have none.
30 And they that weep, as though they wept not: and they that rejoyce, as though they rejoyced not: and they that buy, as though they possessed not.
31 And they that use this world, as not abusing it: for the fashion of this world passeth away.
32 But I would have you without carefulnes. He that is unmarried, careth for the things that belong unto the Lord, how he may please the Lord.
33 But he that is married, careth for the things that are of the world, how he may please his wife.
34 There is difference also betwene wife & a virgine: y unmarried woman careth for y things of y Lord, that she may be holy, both in body & in spirit: but she that is married, careth for y things of the world, how she may please her husband.
35 And this I speake for your own profit: not that I might cast a snare on you, but for y ye should comely and y ye may attend on y Lord without distraction.
36 But if any man think y he behaveth himself uncomely toward his virgine, if she passe the flowre of her age, & need so require, let him do what he will, she sinneth not: let them marry.
37 Nevertheless, he that standeth stedfast in his heart, having no necessity, but hath power over his own will, & hath so decreed in his heart, that he will keepe his virgine, doeth well.
38 So then, he that giveth her in marriage, doth well: but he that giveth her not in marriage, doeth better.
39 The wife is bound by y law as long as her husband liveth: but if her husband be dead, she is at liberty to be married to who she will, only in y Lord.
40 But she is happier if she so abide after my judgement: and I think also that I have the Spirit of God.

CHAP. VIII.

NOw as touching things offered unto idoles, we know that we all have who liberty. Knowledge puffeth knowledge. Knowledge puffeth but charity edifieth.

2 If any man thinke that he knoweth any thing, he knoweth nothing yet as he ought to know.
3 But if any man love God, the same is known of him.
4 As concerning therefore the eating of those things that are offered in sacrifice unto idoles, we know that an idole is nothing in the world, and that there is none other God but one.
5 For though there be that are called gods, whether in heaven or in earth, (as there be gods many, & lords many:)
6 But unto us there is but one God: the Father, of whom are all things, &
we in him, and one Lord Iesus Christ,
by whom are all things, & we by him.
7 Howbeit, there is not in every man this knowledge: for some with conscience of the idole unto this houre, eate as a thing offered unto an idole, & their conscience being weake, is defiled.
8 But meate commendeth us not to God:
for neither if we eat, are we the better:
neither if we eat not, are we y worse.
9 But take heed, lest by any meanes this liberty of yours become a stum-blocke to them that are weake.
10 For if any man see thee which hast knowledge, sit at meat in the idoles temple: shall not the conscience of him which is weake, be emboldened to eat those things which are offered to idoles?
11 And through thy knowledge shall the weak brother perish for whom Christ died?
12 But when ye sin so against the brethren, and wound their weake conscience, ye sin against Christ.
13 Wherefore if meate make my brother to offend, I will eate no flesh while the world standeth, lest I make my brother to offend.

CHAP. IX.

1 AM not an Apostle? am I not free?
have I not seene Iesus Christ our Lord? Are not you my worke in y Lord?
2 If I be not an Apostle unto others, yet doubtlesse I am to you: for the seal of mine Apostleship are ye in y Lord.
3 Mine answere to them that doe examine me, is this:
4 Have we not power to eate and to drinke?
5 Have we not power to lead about a wife, as wel as other Apostles, as y brethren of y Lord, & Cephas?
6 Or I only and Barnabas, have not we power to forbeare working?
7 Who goeth a warfare any time at his owne charges? who planteth a vineyard and eateth not of the fruit thereof? or who feedeth a flocke and eateth not of the milke of the flocke?
8 Say I these things as a man? or saith not the Law the same also?
9 For it is written in the Law of Moses, Thou shalt not muzzle the mouth of the oxe that treadeth out the corne:
doth God take care of oxen?
10 Or saith he it altogether for our sakes? for our sakes no doubt this is written: that he that ploweth, should plow in hope: and y he y thresheth in hope, should be partaker of his hope.
11 If we have sowen unto you spiritual things, is it a great thing if we shal reape your carnall things?
12 If others be partakers of this power over you, are not we rather? Nev-ertheles we have not used this power: but suffer all things, lest we should hinder the Gospel of Christ.
13 Do ye not know, y they which minister about holy things, live of y things of the Temple? and they which wait at the Altar, are partakers with y Altar?
14 Even so hath the Lord ordained, that they which preach the Gospel,
should live of the Gospel.
15 But I have used none of these things:
Neither have I written these things, y it should be so done unto me: for it were better for me to die, then y any man should make my glorying void.
16 For though I preach the Gospel, I have nothing to glory of: for necessity is laid upon me, yea, woe is unto me, if I preach not the Gospel.
17 For if I doe this thing willingly,
I have a reward: but if against my will,
a dispensation of the Gospel is committed unto me.
18 What is my reward then? Verily, y when I preach y Gospel, I may make the Gospel of Christ without charge,
y I abuse not my power in y Gospel.
19 For though I be free from al men, yet have I made my self e servant to al, that I might gaine the more.
20 And unto the Iewes I became as a Iew, that I might gaine the Iewes.
to them that are under the Law, as under the Law, that I might gaine them that are under the Law.
21 To them that are without Law, as without Law (being not without Law to God, but under y Law to Christ) y
I might gaine them y are without Law.
22 To the weake became I as weake, that I might gaine the weake: I am made al things to al men, that I might by al meanes save some.
23 And this I do for y Gospels sake,
y I might be partaker thereof with you.
24 Know ye not that they which run in a race, run al, but one receiveth the prize? so run, that ye may obtaine.
25 And every man that striveth for the maistery, is temperate in al things:
now they do it to obtain a corruptible crown, but we an incorruptible.
26 I therefore so run, not as uncertainly: so fight I, not as one y beateth y air:
27 But I keepe under my body, and bring it into subjection: lest that by any meanes, when I have preached to others, I my self should be a cast away.

CHAP. X.

1 MOreover brethren, I would not that ye should be ignorant, how that all our fathers were under the cloud, and al passed thorow the Sea:

2 And were al baptized vnto Moses in the cloud and in the Sea:
3 And did al eat the same spiritual meat:
4 And did al drinke the same spiritual drinke (for they drancke of that spiritual Rock that followed them: and that Rocke was Christ.)
5 But with many of them God was not well pleased: for they were ouerthrown in the wildernesse.
6 Now these things were our examples, to the intent we should not lust after evil things as they also lusted.
7 Neither be ye idolaters, as were some of them: as it is written, the people sate down to eat and drinke, and rose vp to play.
8 Neither let vs commit fornication, as some of them committed, and fell in one day three and twenty thousand.
9 Neither let vs tempt Christ, as some of them also tempted, and were destroyed of serpents.
10 Neither murmure ye, as some of them also murmured, & were destroyed of the destroyer.
11 Now al these things happened vnto them for ensamples: & they were written for our admonition, vpon whom ý ends of the world are come.
12 Wherefore let him that thinketh he standeth, take heed lest he fall.
13 There hath not temptatiõ take you, but such as is cõmon to mã: But God is faithful who wil not suffer you to be tempted aboue ý you are able: but wil wt the temptation also make a way to escape, ý ye may be able to beare it.
14 Wherefore my dearely beloved, flee from idolatry.
15 I speake as to wise men: iudge ye what I say.
16 The cup of blessing ŵ we blesse, is it not ý Communion of ý blood of Christ? the bread ŵ we break, is it not the communion of ý body of Christ?
17 For we being many, are one bread, and one body: for we are al partakers of that one bread.
18 Behold Israel after the flesh: are not they which eate of the sacrifices, partakers of the Altar?
19 What say I then? that the idole is any thing? or that which is offered in sacrifice to idoles is any thing?
20 But I say, that the things which ý Gentiles sacrifice, they sacrifice to deuils, & not to God: & I would not ý ye should haue fellowship wt deuils.
21 Ye cannot drink the cup of the Lord, and the cup of deuils: ye cannot be partakers of the Lords table, and of the table of deuils.
22 Do we prouoke the Lord to iealousie? are we stronger then he?
23 Al things are lawful for me, but all things are not expedient: al things are lawful for me, but al things edifie not.
24 Let no man seeke his owne, but euery man another's wealth.
25 Whatsoeuer is sold in the shambles, that eate, asking no question for conscience sake.
26 For the earth is the Lords, and the fulnesse thereof.
27 If any of them ý believe not, & you toa feast, & ye be disposed to go: whatsoeuer is set before you, eate, asking no question for conscience sake.
28 But if any man say vnto you, This is offered in sacrifice to idoles: eate not for his sake that shewed it, and for conscience sake. The earth is the Lords, and the fulnesse thereof.
29 Conscience, I say, not thine owne, but of ý others: for why is my libertie judged of another mans conscience?
30 For if I by grace be a partaker, why am I evil spoken of, for that for which I giue thankes?
31 Whether therefore ye eate or drinke, or whatsoeuer ye do, do all to the glory of God.
32 Giue none offence, neither to the Iewes, nor to the Gentiles, nor to the Church of God:
33 Euen as I please al men in al things, not seeking mine own profit, but the profit of many, ý they may be saued.

CHAP. XI.

BE ye followers of me, euen as I also am of Christ.
2 Now I praise you, brethren, that ye remember me in al things, & keepe the ordinances as I deliuered them to you.
3 But I would haue you know that the head of euery man is Christ: and the head of the woman is the man: and the head of Christ is God.
4 Euery man praying or prophesying, hauing his head couered, dishonoureth his head.
5 But euery woman that prayeth or prophesieth with her head vncouered, dishonoureth her head: for that is euen al one as if she were shaven.
6 For if the woman be not couered, let her also be shorne: but if it be a shame for a woman to be shorn or shaven, let her be couered.
7 For a man indeed ought not to couer his head, forasmuch as he is the image and glory of God: but the woman is the glory of the man.
8 For the man is not of the woman, but the woman of the man.
9 Neither was the man created for the woman: but the woman for ý man.
10 For this cause ought the woman to haue power on her head, because of the Angels.
11 Neuertheless, neither is the man without the woman, neither the woman without the man in the Lord.
12 For as the woman is of the man, euen so is the man also by the woman: but al things of God.
13 Iudge in your selues. Is it comely ý a woman pray vnto God vncouered?
14 Doth not euen nature it selfe teach you, that if a man haue long haire, it is a shame vnto him?
15 But if a woman haue long haire, glory to her; for her haire is given her for a covering.

16 But if any man seem to be contentious, we have no such custome, neither the Churches of God.

17 Now in this I declare vnto you, that I praise you not, that you come together, not for the better, but for the worse.

18 For first of all, when you come together in the Church, I heare that there be diuisions among you, & I partly believe it.

19 For there must be also heresies among you, that they which are approoued, may be made manifest among you.

20 When ye come together therefore into one place, this is not to eate the Lords Supper.

21 For in eating every one taketh before his own supper: and one is hungry, and another is drunken.

22 What, haue ye not houses to eat and to drinke in? Or despise ye the Church of God, and shame them that haue not? what shall I say to you? shall I praise you in this? I praise you not.

23 For I haue receiued of the Lord, that which also I deliuered vnto you, that the Lord Iesus, the same night in which he was betrayed, took bread:

24 And when he had given thankes, he brake it, and said, Take, eate: this is my body, which is broken for you: this doe in remembrance of me.

25 After the same manner also he took the cup, when he had supped: saying, This cup is the New Testament in my blood: this doe ye as often as ye drinke it, in remembrance of me.

26 For as often as ye eat this bread, and drinke this cup, ye doe shew the Lords death till he come.

27 Wherefore, whosoeuer shall eat this bread, and drinke this cup of the Lord vnworthily, shall be guilty of the body and blood of the Lord.

28 But let a man examine himselfe, and so let him eat of that bread, and drinke of that cup.

29 For he that eateth & drinketh vnworthily, eateth & drinketh damnation to himself, not discerning the Lords body.

30 For this cause many are weake and sicklie among you, & many sleepe.

31 For if we would iudge our selues, we should not be iudged.

32 But when we are iudged, we are chastened of the Lord, that we should not be condemned with the world.

33 Wherefore my brethren, when ye come together to eat, tarry one for another.

34 And if any man hunger, let him eate at home, that ye come not together vnto condemnation. And the rest will I set in order when I come.

CHAP. XII.

1 OW concerning spirituall gifts, brethren, I would not haue you ignorant.

2 Ye know that ye were Gentiles, & went astray vnto these dumbe idols, euen as ye were led.

3 Wherefore I give you to vnderstand, that no man speaking by the Spirit of God, calleth Iesus accursed: and that no man can say, that Iesus is the Lord, but by the holy Ghost.

4 Now there are diuersities of gifts, but the same spirit.

5 And there are differences of administrations, but the same Lord.

6 And there are diuersities of operations, but it is the same God which worketh all in all.

7 But the manifestation of the Spirit, is given to every man to profit withal.

8 For to one is given by the Spirit, the word of wisedome, to another the word of knowledge by the same Spirit:

9 To another, faith by the same Spirit: to another the gifts of healing by the same Spirit:

10 To another the working of miracles, to another prophesie, to another discerning of spirits, to another diuers kinds of tongues, to another the interpretation of tongues.

11 But all these worketh that one and the selfe same Spirit, diuiding to every man severally as he will.

12 For as the body is one, & hath many members, and all the members of that one body, being many, are one body, so also is Christ.

13 For by one Spirit are we all baptized into one body, whether we be Iewes or Gentils, whether we be bond or free, and have been all made to drink into one spirit.

14 For the body is not one member, but many.

15 If the foot shall say, Because I am not the hand, I am not of the body: is it therefore not of the body?

16 And if the eare shall say, Because I am not a eye, I am not of y body: is it therefore not of the body?

17 If the whole body were an eye, where were the hearing? If the whole were hearing, where were y smelling?

18 But now hath God set the members euery one of them in the body, as it hath pleased him.

19 And if they were all one member, where were the body?

20 But now are they many members, yet but one body.

21 And y eye cannot say to the hand, I haue no need of thee: nor again the head to the feet, I haue no need of you.

22 Nay, much more those members of the body, which seeme to be more feeble, are necessary.

23 And those members of the body which we think to be less honourable, vpon these we bestow more abundant honour, and our uncomely parts haue more abundant comelinesse.

24 For our comely parts haue no need: but God hath tempered the body together, hauing given more abundant honour to that part which lacked:

25 That there should be no schisme in the body, but that y members should haue the same care one for another.

26 And

26 And whether one member suffer, all the members suffer with it: or one member be honoured, all the members rejoyce with it.

27 Now ye are the body of Christ, and members in particular.

28 And God hath set some in the church: first Apostles, secondarily Prophets, thirdly Teachers, after that miracles, then gifts of healings, helps in governments, diversities of tongues.

29 Are all Apostles? are all Prophets? are all Teachers? are all workers of miracles?

30 Have all the gifts of healing? do all speak with tongues? do all interpret?

31 But covet earnestly y best gifts: And yet shew I to you a more excellent way.

CHAP. XIII.

THough I speake with tongues of men and of Angels, and have not charity, I am become as sounding brasse, or a tinckling cymbal.

2 And though I have the gift of prophecie, and understand all mysteries, & all knowledge, and though I have all faith, so y I could remove mountains, & have no charitie, I am nothing.

3 And though I bestow all my goods to feed the poore, and though I give my body to be burned, and have not charitie, it profiteth me nothing.

4 Charitie suffereth long, & is kinde: charitie envyeth not: charity vaunteth not it self, is not puffed up,

5 Doeth not behave it self unseemly, seeketh not her own, is not easily provoked, thinketh no evil,

6 Rejoyceth not in iniquitie, but rejoyceth in the trueth:

7 Beareth all things, believes all things, hopeth all things, endureth all things.

8 Charitie never faileth, but whether there be prophesies, they shal faile; whether there be tongues, they shal cease? whether there be knowledge, it shal vanish away.

9 For we know in part, and we prophesie in part.

10 But when that which is perfect is come then that which is in part shal be done away.

11 When I was a child, I spake as a child, I understood as a child, I thought as a child: but when I became a man, I put away childish things.

12 For now we see thorow a glasse darkly, but then face to face: now I know in part, but then shal I know, even as also I am known.

13 And now abideth faith, hope, charitie, these three: but the greatest of these is charitie.

CHAP. XIIII.

FOllow after charitie: and desire spiritual gifts, but rather that ye may prophesie.

2 For he that speaketh in an unknown tongue, speaketh not to men, but unto God: for no man understandeth him, howbeit in y spirit he speaketh mysteries.

3 But he that prophesieth, speaketh unto men to edification, and exhortation, and comfort.

4 He that speaketh in an unknown tongue, edifieth himself: but he that prophesieth, edifieth the Church.

5 I would fain ye all spake with tongues, but rather that ye prophesied: for greater is he that prophesieth, than he that speaketh with tongues, except he interpret, that y Church may receive edifying.

6 Now brethren, if I come unto you speaking with tongues, what shal I profit you, except I shal speake to you either by revelation, or by knowledge, or by prophesying, or by doctrine.

7 And even things without life giving sound, whether pipe or harp, except they give a distinction in y sounds, how shal it be known what is piped or harped?

8 For if the trumpet give an uncertaine sound, who shall prepare himself to the battell?

9 So likewise you, except ye utter by the tongue words easie to be understood, how shal it be known what is spoken? for ye shal speak into the aire.

10 There are, it may be, so many kinds of voyces in the world, and none of them are without signification.

11 Therfore, if I know not the meaning of the voyce, I shall be unto him that speaketh a Barbarian, and he that speaketh shal be a Barbarian unto me.

12 Even so ye, forasmuch as ye are zealous of spiritual gifts, seek that ye may excell to the edifying of the Church.

13 Wherefore let him that speaketh in an unknown tongue, pray that he may interpret.

14 For if I pray in an unknown tongue, my spirit prayeth, but my understanding is unfruitfull.

15 What is it then? I will pray with the spirit, and will pray with understanding also: I will sing with y spirit, and I will sing with y understanding also.

16 Else when thou shalt blesse with the Spirit, how shal he that occupieth the room of the unlearned say Amen at thy giving of thankes, seeing he understandeth not what thou sayest?

17 For thou verily givest thanks well: but the other is not edified.

18 I thanke my God, I speake with tongues more then you all.

19 Yet in the Church I had rather speak five words with my understanding, that be my voyce I might teach others also, then ten thousand words in an unknown tongue.

20 Brethren be not children in understanding, howbeit in malice be ye children, but in understanding be men.

21 In y Law it is written: With men of other tongues, & other lips will I speak unto this people: & yet for all that will they not hear me, saith the Lord.

22 Wherefore tongues are for a signe not to them that believe, but to them that believe not: but prophesying serveth not for them that believe not, but for them which believe.

Therefore the whole Church be come together into some place, and all speak with tongues, and there come in those that are unlearned, or unbeleevers, will they not say that ye are mad?
24 But if all prophesie, and there come in one that believeth not, or one unlearned in the art of all, he is iudged of all 25 And that are the secrets of his heart are manifest, and so falling down on his face, he will worship God, and report that God is in you of a truth.
26 How is it then, brethren? when ye come together, every one of you hath a psalme, hath a doctrine, hath a tongue, hath a revelation, hath an interpretation.
Let all things be done unto edifying.
27 If any man speake in an unknown tongue, let it be by two, or at the most by three, and that by course, and let one interpret.
28 But if there be no interpreter, let him keepe silence in the Church, and let him speake to himself, and to God.
29 Let the Prophets speake two or three, and let the other iudge.
30 If any thing be revealed to another that sitteth by, let y first hold his peace.
31 For ye may all prophesie one by one,
that all may learn, & all may be comforted.
32 And the spirits of the Prophets are subiect to the Prophets.
33 For God is not the author of confusion, but of peace, as in all Churches of the Saints.
34 Let your women keep silence in y Churches, for it is not permitted unto them to speak, but they are comanded to be under obedience, as also saith the law.
35 And if they will learn any thing,
let them aske their husbands at home:
for it is a shame for women to speake
in the Church.
36 What came the word of God out from you? or came it unto you only?
37 If any man thinke himselfe to be a Prophet or spirituall, let him acknowledge that the things that I write unto you are y commandements of y Lord.
38 But if any man be ignorant, let him be ignorant.
39 Wherefore brethren, coueit to prophe-sie, & forbid not to speake w tongues.
40 Let all things be done decently and in order.

CHAP. XV.

1 Moreover, brethren, I declare unto you the Gospel which I preached unto you, which also you have received, and wherein ye stand.
2 By which also ye are saved, if ye keepe in memory what I preached unto you, vnlesse ye have beleeved in vaine.
3 For I deliver unto you first of all, that which I also received, how that Christ died for our sins, according to the Scriptures.
4 And that he was buried, and that he rose again the third day according to the Scriptures.
5 And that he was seene of Cephas,
then of the twelve.
6 After that he was seene at once of above five hundred brethren at once: of whom the greater part remaine unto this present, but some are fallen asleepe.
7 After that he was seene of Iames,
then of all the Apostles.
8 And last of all he was seene of me also,
as of one borne out of due time.
9 For I am the least of the Apostles y am not meete to be called an Apostle, because I persecuted y Church of God.
10 But by the grace of God I am what I am: & his grace which was bestowed on me, was not in vaine. But I laboured more abundantly then they all, yet not
I, but y grace of God which was w me.
11 Therefore whether it were I or they, so we preach, and so ye beleeved.
12 Now if Christ be preached y he rose from y dead, how say some among you, y there is no resurrection of y dead?
13 But if there be no resurrection of the dead, then is Christ not risen.
14 And if Christ be not risen, then is our preaching vaine, and your faith is also vaine.
15 Yea, & we are found false witnesses of God, because we have testified of God, that he raised up Christ, whom he raised not up, if so be y dead rise not.
16 For if the dead rise not, then is not Christ raised.
17 And if Christ be not raised, your faith is vaine, ye are yet in your sins.
18 Then they also which are fallen asleep in Christ are perished.
19 If in this life only we have hope in Christ, we are of all men most miserable.
20 But now is Christ risen from the dead, & become the first fruits of them that slept.
21 For since by man came death, by man came also y resurrection of y dead.
22 For as in Adam all die, even so in Christ shal all be made alive.
23 But every man in his owne order:
Christ the first fruits, afterward they that are Christs, at his comming.
24 Then commeth the end, when he shal have delivered up the kingdome to God even the Father, when he shal have put downe all rule, and all autherity and power.
25 For he must reigne till he hath put all his enemies under his feet.
26 The last enemy that shal be destroyed, is death.
27 For he hath put all things under his feet: but when he saith, All things are put under him, it is manifest that hee is excepted which did put all things under him.
28 And when all things shal be subdued to him, then shal y Son also himself be subject unto him y put all things under him, that God may be all in all.
29 Else what shal they do which are baptized for the dead, if the dead rise not at al, why are they then baptized for the dead?
30 And why stand we in ieopardy every houre?

31 I protest by your rejoycing, which I have in Christ Iesus our Lord, I die daily.

32 If after the manner of men I have fought with beasts at Ephesus, what advantageth it me, if y dead rise not? Let us eat and drink, for to morrow we die.

33 Be not deceived: evil communications corrupt good manners.

34 Awake to righteousnesse, and sin not: for some have not the knowledge of God, I speake this to your shame.

35 But some man will say: How are the dead raised up? and with what body doe they come?

36 Thou foole, that which thou sowest is not quickened except it die.

37 And that which thou sowest, thou sowest not that body that shalbe, but bare grain, it may chance of wheat, or of some other graine.

38 But God giveth it a body as it hath pleased him, and to every seed his own body.

39 All flesh is not the same flesh, but there is one kinde of flesh of men, another flesh of beasts, another of fishes, and another of birds.

40 There are also celestial bodies, and bodies terrestriall: But the glory of the celestial is one, and the glory of the terrestrial is another.

41 There is one glory of the Sunne, another of the Moone, and another glory of ỹ stars: for one star differeth from another in glory.

42 So also is the resurrection of the dead, it is sowne in corruption, it is raised in incorruption.

43 It is sowne in dishonour, it is raised in glory: it is sowne in weaknesse, it is raised in power:

44 It is sowne a naturall body, it is raised a spirituall body. There is a naturall body, and there is a spirituall body.

45 And so it is written: The first man Adam was made a living soule, ỹ last Adam was made a quickening Spirit.

46 Howbeit, that was not first which is spirituall, but that which is naturall, and afterward that which is spirituall.

47 The first man is of ỹ earth, earthy: The second man is ỹ lord from heaven.

48 As is the earthy, such are they that are earthy, and as is the heavenly, such are they also that are heavenly.

49 And as we have borne the image of the earthy, we shal also beare the image of the heavenly.

50 Now this I say, brethren, that flesh and blood cannot inherite the kingdom of God: neither doeth corruption inherite incorruption.

51 Behold, I shew you a misterie: We shal not all sleep, but we shal all be changed,

52 In a moment, in the twinkling of an eye, at the last trumpe. (for ỹ trumpet shal sound, & ỹ dead shal be raised incorruptible, & we shal be changed.)

53 For this corruptible must put on incorruption, and this mortal must put on immortality.

54 So when this corruptible shal have put on incorruption, and this mortall shal have put on immortality, then shal be brought to passe ỹ saying ỹ is written: Death is swallowed up in victorie.

55 O death, where is thy sting? O grave where is thy victory?

56 The sting of death is sinne, and the strength of sin is the Law.

57 But thanks be to God which giveth us the victory through our Lord Iesus Christ.

58 Therefore, my beloved brethren, be ye stedfast, unmoveable, alwayes abounding in the work of the Lord, forasmuch as you know that your labour is not is vaine in the Lord.

CHAP. XVI.

1 NOw concerning the collection for ỹ Saints, as I have given order to the Churches of Galatia, even so do ye.

2 Vpon the first day of the week, let every one of you lay by him in store, as God hath prospered him, that there be no gatherings when I come.

3 And when I come, whomsoever you shall approove by your letters, them will I send to bring your liberalitie unto Hierusalem.

4 And if it be meet that I go also, they shal go with me.

5 Now I will come unto you, when I shal passe thorow Macedonia: for I do passe thorow Macedonia.

6 And it may be that I wil abide, yea, & winter with you, that ye may bring me on my journey whithersoever I go.

7 For I wil not see you now by the way, but I trust to tarry a while with you, if the Lord permit.

8 But I will tarry at Ephesus until Pentecost.

9 For a great door and effectuall is opened unto me, and there are many adversaries.

10 Now if Timotheus come, see that he may be by you without fear, for he worketh the work of ỹ Lord, as I also do.

11 Let no man therefore despise him, but conduct him forth in peace, that he may come unto me: for I look for him with the brethren.

12 As touching our brother Apollos, I greatly desired him to come to you with the brethren, but his will was not at all to come at this time, but he will come when he shal have convenient time.

13 Watch ye, stand fast in the faith, quit you like men: be strong.

14 Let all your things be done with charitie.

15 I beseech you brethren, (ye know the house of Stephanas, ỹ it is ỹ firstfruits of Achaia, and that they have addicted themselves to ỹ ministery of Saints.)

16 That ye submit your selves unto such, and to every one that helpeth with us, and laboureth.

17 I am glad of the comming of Stephanas and Fortunatus, & Achaicus: for that which was lacking on your part, they have supplied.

18 For they have refreshed my spirit and ewhit ans: therefore acknowledge ye him as such.

The churches of Asia salute
you. Aquila and Priscilla salute you in the Lord, with the Church that is their house.
All the brethren greet you: greet ye one another with an holy kisse.

21 The salutation of me Paul with mine own hand.
22 If any man love not the Lord Jesus Christ, let him be Anathema Maranatha.
23 The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with you.
24 My love be with you all in Christ Jesus. Amen.

The second Epistle of PAVL the Apostle to the CORINTHIANS.

CHAP. I.

PAul an Apostle of Jesus Christ, by the will of God, & Timothy our brother, unto the Church of God which is at Corinth, with all Saints which are in all Achaia:
2 Grace be to you, & peace, from God
our father, & from our Lord Jesus Christ.
3 Blessed be God even the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Father of mercies, and the God of all comfort.
4 Who comforteth us in all our tribulation, that we may be able to comfort them which are in any trouble, by the comfort wherewith we our selves are comforted of God.
5 For as the sufferings of Christ abound in us, so our consolation also aboundeth by Christ.
6 And whether we be afflicted, it is for your consolation and salvation, which effectuall in the enduring of the same sufferings which we also suffer: or whether we be comforted it is for your consolation and salvation,
7 And our hope of you is stedfast, knowing that as you are partakers of the sufferings, so shal ye be also of the consolation.
8 For we would not, brethren, have you ignorant of our trouble which came to us in Asia, that we were prest out of measure, above strength, insomuch that we despaired even of life.
9 But we had the sentence of death in our selves, that we should not trust in our selves, but in God, which raiseth the dead:
10 Who delivered us from so great a death, and doth deliver: in whom we trust that he will yet deliver us:
11 You also helping together by prayer for us, that for y gift bestowed upon us by the means of many persons, thanks may be given by many on our behalf.
12 For our rejoycing is this, the testimony of our conscience, that in simplicity & Godly sincerity, not with fleshly wisdom, but by the grace of God we have had our conversation in y world, & more abundantly to you-wards.
13 For we write none other things unto you, then what you reade or acknowledge, and I trust you shall acknowledge even to the end.
14 As also you have acknowledged us in part, that we are your rejoycing, even as you also are ours in the day of our Lord Jesus.
15 And in this confidence I was minded to come unto you before, that you might have a second benefit;

15 And to passe by you into Macedonia, and to come again out of Macedonia unto you, and of you to be brought on my way toward Iudea.
17 When I therefore was thus minded did I use lightnesse? or the things that I purpose, do I purpose according to the flesh, that with me there should be yea, yea, and nay, nay?
18 But as God is true, our word toward you was not yea and nay.
19 For the Son of God, Iesus Christ, who was preached among you by us,
even by me & Silvanus, & Timotheus, was not yea & nay, but in him was yea.
20 For all the promises of God in him are yea, and in him Amen, unto the glory of God by us.
21 Now he which establisheth us with you in Christ, and hath anointed us, is God.
22 Who hath also sealed us, & given the earnest of the spirit in our hearts.
23 Moreover, I call God for a record upon my soul, that to spare you I came not as yet unto Corinth.
24 Not for that we have dominion over your faith, but are helpers of your joy: for by faith ye stand.

CHAP. II.

BVt I determined this with my self, that I would not come again to you in heavinesse.
2 For if I make you sorry, who is he then that maketh me glad, but y same which is made sorry by me?
3 And I wrote this same unto you, lest when I come, I should have sorrow from them of whom I thought to rejoyce, having confidence in you all,
that my joy is the joy of you all.
4 For out of much affliction & anguish of heart, I wrote unto you with many teares: not that ye should be grieved, but that ye might know y love which I have more abundantly unto you.
5 But if any have caused grieve, he hath not grieved me but in part: that I may not overcharge you all.
6 Sufficient to such a man is this punishment, w was inflicted of many.
7 So that contrariwise, ye ought rather to forgive him, and comfort him, lest perhaps such a one should be swallowed up with over much sorrow.
8 Wherefore I beseech you, that you would confirm your love toward him.
9 For to this end also did I write, that I might know the proof of you, whether ye be obedient in all things.
10 To whom ye forgive any thing, I forgive

forgive: to whom I forgave ought, for your sakes forgave I it, in the person of Christ:

11 Lest Satan should get an advantage of us: for we are not ignorant of his devices.

12 Furthermore, when I came to Troas to preach Christs Gospel, and a door was opened unto me of y Lord, 13 I had no rest in my spirit, because I found not Titus my brother: but taking my leave of them, I went from thence into Macedonia.

14 Now thankes be to God, which alwaies causeth us to triumph in Christ and maketh manifest the savour of his knowledge by us in every place.

15 For we are unto God a sweet savour of Christ in them that are saved, and in them that perish.

16 To the one we are the savour of death unto death: and to the other the savour of life unto life: and who is sufficient for these things.

17 For we are not as many, which corrupt the word of God: but as of sincerite, but as of God, in the sight of God speak we in Christ.

CHAP. III.

DO we begin again to commend our selves? or need we as some others, Epistles of commendation to you, or letters of commendation from you?

2 Ye are our Epistle written in our hearts, known and read of all men.

3 Forasmuch as ye are manifestly declared to be y Epistle of Christ ministred by us, written not w ink, but with the Spirit of the living God, not in tables of stone, but in fleshly tables of y heart.

4 And such trust have we through Christ to God-ward

5 Not that we are sufficient of our selves to thinke any thing as of our selves: but our sufficiency is of God:

6 Who also hath made us able ministers of the new Testament: not of the letter, but of the Spirit: for the letter killeth, but the spirit giveth life.

7 But if y ministration of death written, & ingraven in stones, was glorious, so that y children of Israel could not stedfastly behold y face of Moses, for the glory of his countenance, which glory was to be done away:

8 How shal not the ministration of the Spirit be rather glorious.

9 For if y ministration of condemnation be glory, much more doth y ministratiō of righteousnes exceed in glory.

10 For even y which was made glorious, had no glory in this respect, by reason of the glory that excelleth:

11 For if that which is done away, was glorious, much more that which remaineth is glorious.

12 Seeing then that we have such hope, we use great plainenes of speech.

13 And not as Moses which put a vail over his face, that the children of Israel could not stedfastly looke to the end of that which is abolished;

14 But their minds were blinded: until this day remaineth the same vail untaken away, in y reading of the Testament: the vail is donaway in Christ.

15 But even unto this day, when Moses is read, the vail is upon their heart.

16 Nevertheless, when it shall turn to the Lord, the vail shalbe taken away.

17 Now y Lord is y Spirit, & where the Spirit of y Lord is, there is liberty.

18 But we all w open face beholding as in a glasse the glory of the Lord, are changed into y same image from glory to glory, even as by the Spirit of the Lord.

CHAP. IIII.

THerefore seeing we have this ministery, as we have received mercy, we faint not:

2 But have renounced y hidden things of dishonestie, not walking in craftines, nor handling the word of God deceitfully: but by manifestation of the truth commending our selves to every mans conscience in the sight of God.

3 But if our Gospel be hid, it is hid to them that are lost.

4 In whom the God of this world hath blinded the minds of them which believe not, lest the light of the glorious gospel of Christ, who is the image of God, should shine unto them.

5 For we preach not our selves, but Christ Iesus the Lord, and our selves your servants for Iesus sake.

6 For God who commanded the light to shine out of darkenesse, hath shined in our hearts, to give the light of the knowledge of the glory of God, in the face of Iesus Christ.

7 But we have this treasure in earthen vessels, that y excellency of the power may be of God, and not of us.

8 We are troubled on every side, yet not distressed, we are perplexed, but not in despaire.

9 Persecuted, but not forsaken: cast down, but not destroyed.

10 Always bearing about in the body the dying of the Lord Iesus, that the life also of Iesus might be made manifest in our body.

11 For we which live, are alway delivered unto death for Iesus sake, that the life also of Iesus might be made manifest in our mortall flesh.

12 So then death worketh in us, but life in you.

13 We having the same spirit of faith according as it is written, I believed, and therefore have I spoken: we also believe, and therefore speake.

14 Knowing that he which raised up the Lord Iesus, shal raise us up also by Iesus, and shal present us with you.

15 For all things are for your sakes, that the abundant grace might through the thankesgiving of many, redound to the glory of God.

16 For which cause we faint not, but though our outward man perish, yet the inward man is renewed day by day.

17 For our light affliction, which conscience. CHAP. V. VI. True Ministers.

moment, worketh for us a far exceeding and eternall weight

While we look not at thethings which are seen, but at y things which are not seen: for the things which are seen are temporall, but the things which are not seen are eternall.

CHAP. V.

For we know y if our earthly house of this tabernacle were dissolved, we have a building of God, an house not made with hand, eternal in y heavens.

For in this we greatly sigh, desiring to be clothed upon with our house which is from heaven.

If so be that being clothed we shall not be found naked.

For we that are in this Tabernacle, do groan being burdened: not for that we would be unclothed, but clothed upon, that mortality might be swallowed up of life.

Now he y hath wrought us for the self same thing is God, who also hath given unto us y earnest of the Spirit.

Therefore we are alwayes confident, knowing y whilst we are at home in the body, we are absent from y Lord.

For we walk by faith, not by sight.

We are confident, I say, and willing rather to be absent from the body, and to be present with the Lord.

Wherefore we labour, that whether present or absent, we may be accepted of him.

For we must all appeare before the judgement seat of Christ, that every one may receive the things done in his body, according to that he hath done, whether it be good or bad.

Knowing therefore y terrour of the Lord, we perswade men; but we are manifest to God, & I trust also are made manifest in your consciences.

For we commend not our selves again unto you but give you occasion to glory on our behalf, that you may have somewhat to answere them, which glory in appearance, and not in heart.

For whether we be besides our selves, it is to God: or whether we be sober, it is for your cause.

For the love of Christ constraineth us, because we thus judge: that if one died for all, then were all dead:

And that he died for all, that they which live should not henceforth live unto themselves, but unto him which died for them, and rose again.

Wherefore henceforth know we no man after y flesh: yea though we have known Christ after y flesh: yet now henceforth know we him no more.

Therefore if any man be in Christ he is a new creature: old things are past away, lo, all things are become new:

And all things are of God, who hath reconciled us to himself by Iesus Christ, and hath given to us the ministery of reconciliation.

To wit, that God was in Christ reconciling the world unto himself, not imputing their trespasses to them, and hath committed unto us the word of reconciliation.

Now then we are as ambassadours for Christ, as though God did beseech you by us: we pray you in Christs stead, be ye reconciled to God.

For he hath made him to be sin for us, who knew no sin: that we might be made the righteousnes of God in him.

CHAP. VI.

WE then, as workers together with him, beseech you also that ye receive not the grace of God in vaine.

For I saith, I have heard thee in a time accepted, and in the day of salvation have I succoured thee: Behold, now is the accepted time, behold, now is the day of salvation.

Giving no offence in any thing, that the ministery be not blamed:

But in all things approving our selves as y ministers of God in much patience, in afflictions, in necessities, in distresses,

In stripes, in imprisonments, in tumults, in labours, in watchings, in fastings:

By pureneſſe, by knowledge, by long sufferings, by kindnes, by the holy Ghost, by love unfained.

By the word of truth, by the power of God, by the armour of righteousnes on the right hand & on y left,

By honour, and dishonour, by evill report, and good report; as deceivers, and yet true:

As unknown, and yet well known: as dying, and behold, we live: as chastened, and not killed:

As sorowful, yet alwaies rejoicing: as poor, yet making many rich: as having nothing, and yet possessing all things.

O ye Corinthians, our mouth is open unto you, our heart is enlarged.

Ye are not straitned in us, but ye are straitned in your owne bowels.

Now for a recompense in the same (I speake as unto my children) be ye also enlarged.

Be ye not unequally yoked together with Believers: for what fellowship hath righteousnes with unrighteousnes? and what communion hath light with darknes?

And what concord hath Christ with Belial? or what part hath he that believeth with an Infidel?

And what agreement hath the Temple of God with idols? for ye are the Temple of the living God, as God hath said. I will dwel in them, and walk in them: and I will be their God: and they shall be my people.

Wherefore come out from among them: and be ye separate, saith the Lord, & touch not the unclean thing: and I will receive you,

And will be a father unto you, and ye shal be my sons and daughters, saith the Lord Almighty.

CHAP. VII.

Having therefore these promises (dearly beloved) let us cleanse our selves from al filthinesse of the flesh & spirit, perfecting holines in the fear of God.

2 Receive us, we have wronged no man, we have corrupted no man, we have defrauded no man.

3 I speake not this to condemne you: for I have said before, that you are in our hearts to die and live with you.

4 Great is my boldnesse of speech toward you, great is my glorying of you. I am filled with comfort, I am exceeding joyful in al our tribulation.

5 For when we were come into Macedonia, our flesh had no rest, but we were troubled on every side; without were fightings, within were feares.

6 Neverthelesse, God that comforteth those that are cast down, comforted us by the comming of Titus.

7 And not by his cōming only, but by y cōsolation wherewith he was cōforted in you, whē he told us your earnest desire, your mourning, your fervētmind toward me, so y I reioyced the more.

8 For though I made you sorry with a letter, I do not repent, though I did repent: for I perceive that the same Epistle hath made you sorry, though it were but for a season.

9 Now I reioyce, not that ye were made sorry, but that ye sorrowed to repentance: for ye were made sorry after a godly manner, that ye might receive damage by us in nothing.

10 For godly sortow worketh repentance to salvatiō not to be repēted of, but y sortow of y world works death.

11 For behold, this selfe same thing y ye sortowed after a godly sort, what earefulnesse it wrought in you, yea, what clearing of your selves: yea, what indignatiō, yea, what fear, yea, what vehemēt desire, yea, what zeale, yea, what revenge, in al things ye have approved your selves to be clear in this matter.

12 Wherefore though I wrote to you, I did it not for his cause that had done the wrong, nor for his cause that suffered wrong, but y our care for you in y sight of God might appeare unto you.

13 Therfore we were cōforted in your comfort; yea, & exceedingly the more ioyed we for the ioy of Titus because his spirit was refreshed by you all.

14 For if I have boasted any thing to him of you, I am not ashamed; but as we speak al things to you in truth, even so our boasting which I made before Titus, is found a truth.

15 And his inward affection is more abundant toward you, while he remembreth y obedience of you all, how with feare & trembling you received him.

16 I rejoyce therefore that I have confidence in you in all things.

CHAP. VIII.

MOreover brethren, we do you to wit of the grace of God bestowed on the Churches of Macedonia.

2 How that in a great triall of affliction, the abundance of their ioy, and their deepe pouerty abounded vnto the riches of their liberality.

3 For to their power (I beare record) yea, & beyond their power they were willing of themselves:

4 Praying us & much entreat, that we would receive y gift, & take vpon vs the fellowship of y ministring to Saints.

5 And this they did, not as we hoped, but first gave their own selves to the Lord, & to us by the will of God.

6 Insomuch that we desired Titus, that as he had begun, so he would also finish in you the same grace also.

7 Therefore (as ye abound in every thing, in faith, & vttērance, & knowledg, & in all diligence, & in your love to us) see y ye abound in this grace also.

8 I speake not by commandement, but by occasion of y forwardnes of others, & to prove y sincerity of your love.

9 For ye know the grace of our Lord Iesus Christ, that though he was rich, yet for your sakes he became poore, that ye thorow his poverty might be rich.

10 And herein I give my advise: for this is expedient for you, who have begun before, not onely to doe, but also to be forward a yeer ago.

11 Now therefore perform the doing of it, that as there was a readines to will, so there may be a performance also out of that which you have.

12 For if there be first a willing mind, it is accepted according to that a man hath, & not according to y he hath not.

13 For I meane not that other men be eased, and you burdened:

14 But by an equality: that now at this time your abundance may be for their want, that their want also may be a supply for your want, that there may be equality.

15 As it is written, He that had gathered much, had nothing over, and he y had gathered little, had no lack.

16 But thankes be to God, which put the same earnest care into the heart of Titus for you.

17 For indeed, he accepted the exhortation, but being more forward, of his owne accord he went unto you.

18 And we have sent with him the brother, whose praise is in the Gospel throughout all the Churches.

19 And not that onely, but who was also chosen of the Churches to travell with us with this grace which is administred by us to y glory of the same Lord, and declaration of your ready minde.

20 Avoyding this, that no man should blame us in this abundance, which is administred by us.

21 Providing for honest things, not onely in the sight of the Lord, but also in the sight of men.

22 And we have sent with them our brother, of whom we have often times proved diligent in many things, but now much more diligent, vpon the great confidence which I have in you.

23 Whether any do enquire of Titus, he is my partner and fellow helper concerning you: or our brethren be

CHAP. X.

WOuld to God you could beare with me a little in my folly, & indeed beare with me.

2 For I am jealous over you with godly jealousie: for I have espoused you to one husband, that I may present you as a chaste virgine to Christ.

3 But I fear lest by any meanes, as the serpent beguiled Eve through his subtilitie, so your minds should be corrupted from ỹ simplicity ỹ is in Christ.

NOw I Paul my selfe beseech you by the meeknes & gentlenes of Christ, who in presence am base among you,
but being absent, am bold toward you:
2 But I beseech you, that I may not be bold when I am present, with that confidence wherewith I thinke to be bold against some, which thinke of us as if we walked according to the flesh.

4 For if he that commeth, preacheth another Iesus whom we have not preached, or if he receive another spirit, which ye have not received, or another Gospel, which ye have not accepted, ye might well bear with him.

5 For I suppose, I was not a whit behind the very chiefest Apostles.

6 But though I be rude in speech, yet not in knowledge, but we have been throughly made manifest among you in all things.

7 Have I committed an offence in abasing my self, that you might be exalted, because I have preached to you the Gospel of God freely?

8 I robbed other churches, taking wages of them, to do you service.

9 And when I was present with you, & wanted, I was chargeable to no man: For that which was lacking to me, the brethren which came from Macedonia supplied: and in all things I have kept my self from being burdensome to you, and so will I keepe my selfe.

10 As the truth of Christ is in me, no man shall stop me of this boasting in the regions of Achaia.

11 Wherefore? because I love you not? God knoweth.

12 But what I do that I will do, that I may cut off occasion from them which desire occasion, that wherein they glory, they may be found even as we.

13 For such are false Apostles, deceitfull workers, transforming themselves into the Apostles of Christ.

14 And no marvell: for Satan himself is transformed into an angel of light.

15 Therefore it is no great thing, if his ministers also be transformed as y ministers of unrighteousnesse, whose end shall be according to their works.

16 I say again, Let no man think me a fool: if otherwise, yet as a fool receive me, that I may boast my self a little.

17 That which I speak, I speak it not after y Lord, but as it were foolishly in this confidence of boasting.

18 Seeing that many glory after the flesh, I will glory also.

19 For ye suffer fools gladly, seeing ye your selves are wise.

20 For ye suffer if a man bring you into bondage, if a man devour you, if a man take of you, if a man exalt himself, if a man smite you on the face.

21 I speak as concerning reproach, as though we had been weak: howbeit, wherein soever any is bold, I speak foolishly, I am bold also.

22 Are they Hebrews? so am I: are they Israelites? so am I: are they the seed of Abraham? so am I:

23 Are they ministers of Christ? I speak as a fool, I am more: in labours more abundant, in stripes above measure, in prisons more frequent, in deaths oft.

24 Of the Iewish we times received I forty stripes save one.

25 Thrice was I beaten with rods, once was I stoned, thrice I suffred shipwrack: a night & a day have I bin in the deep.

26 In journeying often, in perils of waters, in perils of robbers, in perils of my own country men, in perils of the heathen, in perils in the city, in perils in the wildernesse, in perils in the sea, in perils among false brethren.

27 In wearinesse and painfulness, in watchings often, in hunger and thirst, in fastings often, in cold & nakednesse.

28 Beside those things that are without, that which commeth upon me daily, the care of all the churches.

29 Who is weak, and I am not weak? who is offended, and I burn not?

30 If I must needs glory, I will glory of the things which concern mine infirmities.

31 The God & Father of our Lord Iesus Christ, which is blessed for evermore, knoweth that I lie not.

32 In Damascus the Governour under Aretas the king, kept the city with a garison, desirous to apprehend me:

33 And through a window in a basket was I let down by the wall, & escaped his hands.

CHAP. XII.

1 IT is not expedient for me doubtlesse to glory, I will come to visions and revelations of the Lord.

2 I knew a man in Christ above fourteen yeers ago, (whether in the body, I cannot tell, or whether out of the body, I cannot tell, God knoweth) such a one caught up to the third heaven.

3 And I knew such a man (whether in the body, or out of the body, I cannot tell, God knoweth.)

4 How that he was caught up into Paradise, & heard unspeakable words, which it is not lawfull for a man to utter.

5 Of such an one will I glory, yet of my self I will not glory, but in mine infirmities.

6 For though I would desire to glory, I shall not be a fool: for I will say the truth. But now I forbear, lest any man should think of me above y which he seeth me to be, or y he heareth of me.

7 And lest I should be exalted above measure, through the abundance of the revelations, there was given to me a thorne in the flesh, the messenger of Satan to buffet me, lest I should be exalted above measure.

8 For this thing I besought the Lord thrice, that it might depart from me.

9 And he said to me, My grace is sufficient for thee: for my strength is made perfect in weakenes. Most gladly therefore will I rather glory in my infirmities, y y power of Christ may rest upon me.

10 Therefore I take pleasure in infirmities, in reproaches, in necessities, in persecutions, in distresses for Christs sake: for when I am weak, then am I strong.

11 I am become a fool in glorying: ye have compelled me. For I ought to have been commended of you: for in nothing am I behind the very chiefest Apostles, though I be nothing.

12 Truly the tokens of y Apostles were wrought among you in all patience, in and wonders, & mighty deeds.

what is it wherein ye were er to other churches, except it my self was not burdensome forgive me this wrong.
Behold, the third time I am rea-me to you, and I will not burdensome to you; for I seek not ne you: for the children ought lay up for the parents, but the
for the children.
And I will very gladly spend, and be spent for you, though y more abil
I love you, the leſſe I be loved.
But be it ſo, I did not burden you;
nevertheleſſe, being craftie, I caught with guile.
Did I make a gain of you by any of whom I ſent unto you?
I deſired Titus, & with him I ſent brother: did Titus make a gain of you? Walked we not in the ſame ſpi-walked we not in the ſame ſteps?
Again, think you that we excuſe ourſelves unto you? we ſpeak before God in Chriſt: but we do all things,
O beloved, for your edifying:
For I fear, leaſt when I come, I ſhall not finde you, ſuch as I would that I ſhall be found unto you as ye would not, leſt there be debates, envyings, wraths, ſtrifes, back-bitings, whiſperings, ſwellings, tumults
And leſt when I come again, my God humble me among you, and that I bewail many that have ſin-ned already, & have not repented of y uncleanneſſe & fornication and laſciuiouſneſſe which they have committed.

CHAP. XIII.

This y third time I am coming to you: in y mouth of two or three witneſſes ſhall every word be eſtabliſhed.
2 I told you before, and foretel you as if I were preſent the ſecond time; & being abſent, now I write to them which heretofore have ſinned, and to all other, y if I come again, I will not ſpare:
3 Since ye ſeek a proof of Chriſt ſpeaking in me, which to you-ward is not weak, but is mighty in you.
4 For though he was crucified through weakneſſe, yet he liveth by the power of God: for we alſo are weak in him, but we ſhall live with him by the power of God toward you.
5 Examine your ſelves, whether ye be in y faith: proove your own ſelves. Know ye not your own ſelves: how y Jeſus
Chriſt is in you, except ye be reprobates?
6 But I truſt that ye ſhall know that we are not reprobates.
7 Now I pray to God that ye do no evil, not that we ſhould appear approoved, but that ye ſhould do that is honeſt, though we be as reprobates?
8 For we can do nothing againſt the truth but for the truth.
9 For we are glad when we are weak, and ye are ſtrong: and this alſo we wiſh, even your perfection.
10 Therefore I write theſe things being abſent, leſt being preſent, I ſhould uſe ſharpneſſe, according to the power which the Lord hath given me to edification, and not to deſtruction.
11 Finally, brethren, farewel: be perfect, be of good comfort, be of one mind, live in peace; and the God of love and peace ſhall be with you.
12 Greet one another with holy kiſſe.
13 All the Saints ſalute you.
14 The grace of the Lord Jeſus Chriſt, and y love of God, & the communion of y holy Ghoſt, be with you all. Amen.

Jeſus Chriſt.
4 Who gave himſelfe for our ſins, that he might deliver us from this preſent evil world, according to the will of God, and our Father, 5 To whom be glory for ever and ever. Amen.
6 I marvel that you are ſo ſoon removed from him that called you unto the grace of Chriſt to another Goſpel 7 Which is not another: but there are ſome that trouble you, and would pervert the Goſpel of Chriſt.
8 But though we, or an angel from heaven preach any other Goſpel unto you than that which we have preached unto you, let him be accurſed.
9 As we ſaid before, ſo ſay I now again, if any man preach any other Go-ſpel unto you, than that ye have received, let him be accurſed.
10 For do I now perſwade men or God? or do I ſeek to pleaſe men? For if I yet pleaſed men, I ſhould not be the ſervant of Chriſt.
11 But I certifie you brethren, that the Goſpel which was preached of me, is not after man.
12 For I neither received it of man, neither was I taught it, but by the revelation of Jeſus Chriſt.
13 For ye have heard of my converſation in time paſt, in the Jews religion, how that beyond meaſure I perſecuted y church of God, & waſted it:
14 And profited in the Jews religion, above many my equals in mine own nation, being more exceedingly zealous of y traditions of my fathers.
15 But when it pleaſed God, who ſeparated me from my mothers womb, and called me by his grace, 16 To reveal his Son in me, that I might preach him among the heathen, immediatly I conferred not with flesh and blood:

17 Neither went I up to Hierusalem, to them which were Apostles before me, but I went into Arabia, and returned again unto Damascus.

18 Then after three yeers, I went up to Hierusalem to see Peter, and abode with them fifteen dayes.

19 But other of the Apostles saw I none, saue Iames the Lords brother.

20 Now the things which I write unto you, behold before God, I lie not.

21 Afterwards, I came into the regions of Cyria and Cilicia.

22 And was unknown by face unto the churches of Iudea, which were in Christ.

23 But they had heard only, that he which persecuted us in times past, now preacheth y faith, which once he destroyed.

24 And they glorified God in me.

CHAP. II.

THen fourteen yeeres, after I went up again to Hierusalem with Barnabas, and took Titus with me also.

2 And I went up by revelation, and communicated unto them that Gospel which I preach among the Gentiles, but privately to them which were of reputation, lest by any means I should run, or had run in vain.

3 But neither Titus, who was with me, being a Greek, was compelled to be circumcised:

4 And that because of false brethren unawares brought in, who came in privily to spie out our libertie, which we have in Christ Iesus, that they might bring us into bondage.

5 To whom we gave place by subjection, no not for an houre, y the truth of the Gospel might continue with you.

6 But of these, who seemed to be some what (whatsoever they were, it makes no matter to me, God accepteth no mans person) for they who seemed to be somwhat in conference added nothing to me:

7 But contrariwise, when they saw y the Gospel of the uncircumcision was committed unto me as the Gospel of the circumcision was unto Peter:

8 (For he that wrought effectually in Peter to the Apostleship of the circumcision: the same was mighty in me towards the Gentiles)

9 And when Iames, Cephas and Iohn, who seemed to be pillars, perceived y grace that was given to me, they gave me and Barnabas the right hands of fellowship, that we should go unto y heathen, and they to the circumcision.

10 Onely they would that we should remember the poor, the same which I also was forward to do.

11 But when Peter was come to Antioch, I withstood him to the face, because he was to be blamed.

12 For before that certain came from y Iames, he did eat with y Gentiles: but when they were come, he withdrew himself, and separated himself, fearing them which were of the circumcision.

13 And y other Iews dissembled likewise with him, insomuch y Barnabas was carried away with their dissimulation.

14 But when I saw that they walked not uprightly, according to the truth of the Gospel, I said unto Peter before them all: If thou being a Iew, livest after the manner of Gentiles, and not as do the Iews, why compellest thou the Gentiles to live as do the Iews?

15 We who are Iews by nature, and not sinners of the Gentiles,

16 Knowing y a man is not iustified by the works of y Law, but by y faith of Iesus Christ, even we have believed in Iesus Christ that we might be iustified by y faith of Christ, & not by the works of y Law: for by the works of the Law shall no flesh be iustified.

17 But if while we seek to be iustified by Christ, we our selves also are found sinners, is it therefore Christ the minister of sin? God forbid.

18 For if I build again the things which I destroyed, I make my self a transgressor.

19 For I through the Law am dead to y Law, that I might live unto God.

20 I am crucified with Christ. Nevertheless I live, yet not I, but Christ liveth in me: & the life which I now live in the flesh, I live by y faith of y Son of God, who loved me, & gave himself for me.

21 I do not frustrate the grace of God: for if righteousnesse come by the Law, then Christ is dead in vain.

CHAP. III.

O Foolish Galatians, who hath bewitched you, that ye should not obey the truth, before whose eies Iesus Christ hath been evidently set forth crucified among you?

2 This onely would I learn of you, Received ye the Spirit by the works of y Law, or by the hearing of faith?

3 Are ye so foolish? having begunne in the Spirit, are ye now made perfect by the flesh?

4 Have ye suffered so many things in vain? if it be yet in vain.

5 He therefore that ministreth to you the Spirit, & worketh miracles among you, doeth he it by the works of the Law, or by the hearing of faith?

6 Even as Abraham believed God, & it was accounted to him for righteousnesse.

7 Know ye therefore that they which are of faith, the same are the children of Abraham.

8 And the Scripture foreseeing that God would iustifie y heathen through Faith, preached before the Gospel unto Abraham, saying, in thee shall all nations be blessed.

9 So then they which be of faith, are blessed with faithfull Abraham.

10 For as many as are of the works of the Law, are under y curse: for it is written, Cursed is every one that continueth not in all things that are written in the book of the Law, to do them.

For that no man is justified by law in the sight of God; it is evident. The just shall live by faith.
And the law is not of faith: but y man doth them shall live in them.
Christ hath redeemed us from the curse of the Law, being made a curse for us: for it is written, cursed is every one that hangeth on a tree:
That the blessing of Abraham might come on the Gentiles through Iesus Christ: that we might receive the promise of the spirit through faith.
Brethren, I speak after the manner of men: though it be but a mans covenant, yet if it be confirmed, no man disanulleth or addeth thereto.
Now to Abraham & his seed were the promises made. He saith not, And to seeds as of many but as of one, and to thy seed, which is Christ.
And this I say, y the covenant that was confirmed before of God in Christ, the Law which was four hundred and thirty years after, cannot disanull y t it should make y promise of none effect.
For if the inheritance be of the Law, it is no more of promise: but God gave it to Abraham by promise.
Wherefore then serveth y Law? it is added because of transgressions: til the seed should come, to whom y promise was made, & it was ordained by Angels in the hand of a Mediator.
Now a Mediator is not a Mediator of one: but God is one.
Is the Law then against the promises of God? God forbid: for if there had been a law given which could have given life, verily righteousness should have been by the Law.
But the Scripture hath concluded all under sin, that the promise by faith of Iesus Christ might be given to them that believe.
But before faith came, we were kept under the law, shut up unto the faith which should afterward be revealed.
Wherefore the law was our Schoolmaster to bring us unto Christ, that we might be justified by faith.
But after that faith is come, we are no longer under a School-master.
For ye are all the children of God
by faith in Christ Iesus.
For as many of you as have been baptized into Christ, have put on Christ.
There is neither Iew, nor Greeke, there is neither bond nor free, there is neither male nor female; for ye are all one in Christ Iesus.
And if ye be Christs, then are ye Abrahams seed, and heires according to the promise. CHAP. IIII.
Now I say, that the heir as long as he is a child, differeth nothing from a servant, though he be lord of all.
But is under tutours & governours,
until the time appointed of the father.
Even so we, when we were children, were in bondage under the elements of the world:

But when the fulnesse of the time was come, God sent forth his Sonne, made of a woman, made under y Law,
To redeem them that were under the Law, that we might receive the adoption of sons.
And because ye are sons, God hath sent forth the Spirit of his Son into our hearts, crying, Abba, Father.
Wherefore thou art no more a servant, but a son; and if a son, then an heire of God through Christ.
How beit, then when ye knew not God, ye did service unto them which by nature are no gods.
But now after that ye have known
God, or rather are known of God, how turne ye againe to the weake and beggarly Elements whereunto ye desire again to be in bondage?
Ye observe dayes, and moneths, and times, and yeers.
I am afraid of you, lest I have bestowed upon you labour in vaine.
Brethren, I beseech you, be as I am, for I am as ye are; ye have not injured me at all.
Ye know how through infirmity of the flesh, I preached the Gospel unto you at the first.
And my temptation which was in the flesh ye despised not nor rejected, but received me as an Angel of God,
even as Christ Iesus.
Where is then the blessednes you spake of? for I bear you record that if it had been possible, ye would have plucked out your own eyes, and have given them to me.
Am I therefore become your enemy, because I tell you the trueth.
They zealously affect you but not well: yea they would exclude you, that you might affect them.
But it is good to be zealously affected always in a good thing, and not only when I am present with you.
My little children of whō I travel in birth again, till Christ be formed in you I desire to be present with you now, and to change my voyce, for I stand in doubt of you.
Tel me, ye that desire to be under the Law, do ye not hear the Law?
For it is written, that Abraham had two sons, the one by a bond maid, the other by a free woman.
But he who was of the bond woman, was born after the flesh: but he of the free woman, was by promise.
Which things are an Allegory, for these are the two Covenants, the one from the mount Sinai, which gendreth to bondage, which is Agar.
For this Agar is mount Sinai in Arabia, & answereth to Hierusalem, w now is, & is in bondage w her childre.
But Hierusalem which is above, is free, which is the mother of vs all.
For it is written, Reioyce thou barren that bearest not, breake forth and cry thou that travailest not; for
the

the desolate hath many moe children, then she which hath an husband.

28 Now we, brethren, as Isaac was, are the children of promise.

29 But as then he that was born after the flesh, persecuted him y was borne after the Spirit, even so it is now.

30 Nevertheles what saith y Scripture? Cast out y bond-woman and her son: for the son of y bond-woman shal not be heir with the son of the free woman.

31 So then, brethren, we are not children of y bond-woman, but of y free.

CHAP. V.

Stand fast therfore in y liberty wherwith Christ hath made us free, & be not intangled again with y yoke of bondage.

2 Behold, I Paul say vnto you, that if ye be circumcised, Christ shal profit you nothing.

3 For I testifie againe to every man that is circumcised, that he is a debtour to do the whole Law.

4 Christ is become of none effect vnto you, whosoever of you are justified by the Law: ye are fallen from grace.

5 For we through the Spirit wayte for the hope of righteousnes by faith.

6 For in Iesus Christ, neither circumcision availeth any thing, nor vncircumcision: but faith which worketh by love.

7 Ye did runwell, who did hinder you, that ye should not obey y truth?

8 This perswasion commeth not of him that calleth you.

9 A little leaven leaveneth the whole lumpe.

10 I have confidence in you, through the Lord, y you wil be none otherwise minded: but he y troubleth you, shall beare his judgement, whosoever he be.

11 And I, brethren, if I yet preach circumcision, why do I yet suffer persecution? then is y offence of y crosse ceased.

12 I would they were even cut of which trouble you.

13 For brethren, ye have been called vnto liberty, onely vse not liberty for an occasion to the flesh, but by love serve one another.

14 For al the Law is fulfilled in one word, even in this: Thou shalt love thy neighbour as thy self.

15 But if ye bite and devour one another, take heed ye be not consumed one of another.

16 This I say then, walk in the Spirit, & ye shal not fulfil the lust of y flesh.

17 For y flesh lusteth against y spirit, & the spirit against the flesh: & these are contrary y one to y other: so that ye cannot do the things that ye would.

18 But if ye be led of the spirit, ye are not vnder the Law.

19 Now the works of y flesh are manifest, which are these, adultery, fornication, vncleannesse, lasciviousnesse,

20 Idolatry, witchcraft, hatred, variance, emulations, wrath, strife, seditions, heresies,

21 Envyings, murthers, drunkennesse, revellings, & such like: of the which I tel you before, as I have also told you in time past, y they which do such things shal not inherite y kingdom of God.

22 But the fruit of the Spirit is joy, peace, long suffering, gentlenes, goodnes, faith,

23 Meekenesse, temperance: against such there is no Law.

24 And they y are Christs have crucified y flesh with the affections & lusts.

25 If we live in the Spirit, let us walk in the Spirit.

26 Let us not be desirous of vainglory, provoking one another, envying one another.

CHAP. VI.

Brethren, if a man be overtaken in a fault, ye which are spirituall, restore such a one in the spirit of meekenesse, considering thy self, lest thou also be tempted.

2 Beare ye one another burdens, so fulfil the Law of Christ.

3 For if a man think himself to be something, when he is nothing, he deceiveth himself.

4 But let every man prove his own works, & then shal he have rejoycing in himself alone, and not in another.

5 For every man shal beare his own burden.

6 Let him that is taught in the word, communicate vnto him that teacheth in all good things.

7 Be not deceived, God is not mocked: for whatsoever a man soweth, that shal he also reape.

8 For he that soweth to his flesh, of the flesh reape corruption: but he that soweth to the Spirit, shall of the Spirit reape life everlasting.

9 And let vs not be wery in well doing, for in due season we shal reape, if we faint not.

10 As we have therefore opportunity, let vs do good to all men, especially vnto them who are of y houshold of faith.

11 Ye see how large a letter I have written to you with mine own hand.

12 As many as desire to make a faire shew in y flesh, they constraine you to be circumcised: onely lest they should suffer persecution for y crosse of Christ.

13 For neither they themselves which are circumcised keep the Law: but they desire to have you circumcised, that they may glory in your flesh.

14 But God forbid that I should glory, save in the crosse of our Lord Iesus Christ, by whom the world is crucified vnto me, & I vnto the world.

15 For in Christ Iesus neither circumcision availeth any thing, nor vncircumcision, but a new creature.

16 And as many as walke according to this rule, peace be on them, & mercy, and vpon the Israel of God.

17 From henceforth let no man trouble me, for I bear in my body the marks of the Lord Iesus.

18 Brethren, the grace of our Lord Iesus Christ be with your spirit. Amen.

The

CHAP. I.

Aul an Apostle of Iesus
Christ, by the will of God,
to the Saints which are at Ephesus, and to the faithful in Christ Iesus:
2 Grace be to you, & peace from God
our Father, & from our Lord Iesus Christ.
3 Blessed be the God, and Father of our Lord Iesus Christ, who hath blessed us with all spirituall blessings in heavenly places in Christ.
4 According as he hath chosen us unto him before the foundation of the world, that we should be holy and without blame before him in love:
5 Having predestinated us to the adoption of children by Iesus Christ to himself, according to the good pleasure of his will 6 To the praise of the glory of his grace, wherein he hath made us accepted in the beloved:
7 In whom we have redemption through his blood, even the forgiveness of sins according to the riches of his grace.
8 Wherein he hath abounded toward us in all wisedome and prudence:
9 Having made known unto us the mystery of his will, according to his good pleasure, which he had purposed in himself:
10 That in my dispensation of the fulness of times, he might gather together in one all things in Christ, both which are in heaven, & which are on earth, even in him:
11 In whom also we have obtained an inheritance, being predestinated according to the purpose of him who worketh all things after the counsel of his own will.
12 That we should be to the praise of his glory, who first trusted in Christ.
13 In whom ye also trusted after that ye heard the word of trueth, the Gospel of your salvation: in whom also after that ye believed, ye were sealed with that holy Spirit of promise.
14 Which is the earnest of our inheritance, until the redemption of the pur-possession, to the praise of his glory.
15 Wherefore I also, after I heard of your faith in the Lord Iesus, and love unto all the Saints.
16 Cease not to give thankes for you, making mention of you in my prayers:
17 That the God of our Lord Iesus Christ the Father of glory, may give unto you the Spirit of wisedome and revelation in the knowledge of him.
18 The eyes of your understanding being inlightned: ye may know what is the hope of his calling, & what riches of the glory of his inheritance is in y Saints.
19 And what is the exceeding great-nes of his power to us ward who be-leeve, according to the working of his mighty power:
20 Which he wrought in Christ, when he raised him from dead, & set him at his own right hand in the heavenly places 21 Far above all principalitie and power, and might and dominion, & every name that is named, not only in this world, but also in y which is to come:
22 And hath put all things under his feet, and gave him to be the head over all things to the Church.
23 Which is his body, the fulnes of him that filleth all in all.

CHAP. II.

And you hath he quickened, who were dead in trespasses and sins.
2 Wherein in time past ye walked according to the course of this world, according to the prince of the power of the aire, the spirit that now worketh in the children of disobedience.
3 Among whom also we all had our conversation in times past, in the lusts of our flesh, fulfilling the desires of the flesh & of y minde, & were by nature
the children of wrath, even as others.
4 But God who is rich in mercy, for his great love wherewith he loved us, 5 Even when we were dead in sins, hath quickened us together with Christ, (by grace ye are saved.)
6 And hath raised us up together, and made us sit together in heavenly places in Christ Iesus.
7 That in the ages to come, he might shew the exceeding riches of his grace, in his kindnesse toward us, through Christ Iesus.
8 For by grace are ye saved through faith, and that not of your selves: it is the gift of God:
9 Not of workes, lest any man should boast.
10 For we are his workemanship, created in Christ Iesus unto good workes, which God hath before ordained, that we should walk in them.
11 Wherefore remember, that ye being in times passed Gentiles in the flesh, who are called uncircumcision by that which is called the circumcision in the flesh made by hands.
12 That at that time ye were without Christ, being aliens from the Commonwealth of Israel, and strangers from the covenants of promise, having no hope and without God in the world.
13 But now in Christ Iesus, ye who sometimes were far off, are made nigh
by the blood of Christ.
14 For he is our peace, who hath made both one, and hath broken down the middle wal of partition between us:
15 Having abolished in his flesh the enmity, even the law of commandements, conteined in ordinances, for to make in himselfe of twaine, one new man, so making peace.
16 And that he might reconcile both unto God in one body by the crosse, having slain the enmity thereby.
17 And came and preached peace to you which were afar off, and to them that were nigh.
18 For through him we both have an accesse by one Spirit unto the Father.

19 Now therfore ye are no more strangers & forreinors, but fellow citizens
ẏ Saints and of ẏ houshold of God
20 And are built upon ẏ foundation of ẏ Apostles & Prophets, Jesus Christ himself being the chiefe corner-stone.
21 In whom all the building fitly framed together, groweth unto an holy Temple in the Lord.
22 In whom you also are builded together, for an habitation of God through the Spirit.

CHAP. III.

1 For this cause I Paul the prisoner of Iesus Christ for you Gentiles.
2 If ye have heard of the dispensation of the grace of God, which is given me to you-ward:
3 How that by revelation he made known unto me the mysterie, (as I wrote afore in few words.
4 Whereby when ye read, ye may understand my knowledge in the mysterie of Christ)
5 Which in other ages was not made known to the sons of men, as it is now revealed unto his holy Apostles and Prophets by the Spirit.
6 That the Gentiles should be fellow heires. & of ẏ same body. & partakers of his promise in Christ by ẏ Gospel:
7 Whereof I was made a minister according to the gift of the grace of God given unto me, by the effectuall working of his power.
8 Vnto me who am lesse then the least of all Saints, is this grace given, that I should preach among the Gentiles the unsearchable riches of Christ.
9 And to make al men see what is the fellowship of the mysterie, which from the beginning of the world hath been hid in God, who created all things by Iesus Christ.
10 To the intent that now unto the principalities and powers in heavenly places might be known by the Church the manifold wisedome of God.
11 According to ẏ eternal purpose ẏ he purposed in Christ Iesus our Lord:
12 In whom we have boldnesse and access, & confidence by the faith of him.
13 Wherfor I desire ẏ ye faint not at my tribulations for you, wch is your glorie.
14 For this cause I bow my knees unto ẏ Father of our Lord Iesus Christ.
15 Of whom the whole family in heaven and earth is named,
16 That he would grant you according to ẏ riches of his glory, to be strengthened with might by his Spirit in ẏ inner man
17 That Christ may dwel in your hearts by faith, that ye being rooted and grounded in love,
18 May be able to comprehend with all Saints, what is the breadth, and length, and depth and heigth
19 And to know the love of Christ, which passeth knowledge, ẏ ye might be filled with all the fulnesse of God.
20 Now unto him that is able to doe exceeding abundantly, above all that we aske or thinke, according to the power that worketh in us,
21 Vnto him be glory in the Church by Christ Iesus, throughout all ages, world without end. Amen.

CHAP. IIII.

1 Therefore ẏ prisoner of ẏ Lord, beseech you that ye walk worthy of your vocation, wherewith ye are called,
2 With all lowlinesse and meekenesse, with long suffering, forbearing one another in love.
3 Endeavouring to keepe the unitie of the Spirit, in the bond of peace.
4 There is one body, and one Spirit, even as ye are called in one hope of your calling.
5 One Lord, one Faith, one Baptisme,
6 One God, & Father of all, who is above all, and through all, & in you all.
7 But unto every one of us is given grace, according to the measure of the gift of Christ.
8 Wherefore he saith, When he ascended up on high, he led captivitie captive, and gave gifts unto men.
9 (Now that he ascended, what is it, but that he also descended first into the lower parts of the earth?
10 He that descended, is the same also that ascended up far above all heavens, that he might fil all things.)
11 And he gave some, Apostles; and some, Prophets; and some, Evangelists; and some, Pastors and teachers;
12 For the perfecting of the Saints, for the work of the ministery, for the edifying of the body of Christ:
13 Til we all come in the unitie of the faith, and of ẏ knowledge of ẏ Son of God, to a perfect man, unto ẏ measure of the stature of ẏ fulnesse of Christ.
14 That we henceforth be no more children, tossed to and fro, and caried about with every wind of doctrine, by ẏ sleight of men, & cunning craftinesse, whereby they lie in wait to deceive.
15 But speaking the truth in love, may grow up into him in all things, which is the head, even Christ:
16 From whom the whole body fitly joyned together, and compacted, by that which every joynt supplieth, according to ẏ effectuall working in the measure of every part, maketh increase of the body to the edifying of it self in love.
17 This I say therefore, and testifie in the Lord, that ye henceforth walk not as other Gentiles walke, in the vanitie of their minde,
18 Having ẏ understanding darkened, being alienated from the life of God, through ẏ ignorance that is in them, because of ẏ blindnesse of their heart:
19 Who being past feeling, have given themselves over to lasciviousnesse, & worke all uncleannesse ẏ greedinesse.
20 But ye have not so learned Christ:
21 If so be that ye have heard him, and have beene taught by him, as the truth is in Iesus.
22 That ye put off concerning ẏ former nversation, the old man, which ys according to y deceitful lusts hod be renewed in the spirit of r minde:

24 And that yee put on the new n, which after God is created in teousnes and true holinesse.
25 Wherefore puting away lying, speak
h truth every man with his neighbour, r we are members one of another.
Be angry, and sin not: let not the n go down upon your wrath.
27 Neither give place to the devil:
28 Let him that stole steale no more:
ther let him labour, working y h with the thing that is good, that may have to give to him y needeth 29 Let no corrupt communication ue out of your mouth, but y d to the use of edifying, that it y minister grace unto the hearers.
30 And grieve not the holy spirit of d, whereby ye are sealed unto the y of redemption.
31 Let all bitternesse, and wrath, and ge, and clamour, and evil speaking, put away from you, with all malice 32 And be ye kind one to another, tender rted, forgiving one another, even as d for Christs sake hath forgiven you
CHAP. V.
1 Be ye therefore followers of God,
2 as deare children.
And walke in love, as Christ also h loved us, and hath given him-f for us an offering and a sacrifice
God for a sweet smelling savour.
3 But fornication and all uncleannesse, covetousnes, let it not be once named mongst you, as becommeth saints:
4 Neither filthinesse, nor foolish talk-ng, nor jesting, which are not con-enient: but rather giving of thanks.
5 For this ye know, y no whoremonger
r uncleane person nor covetous man ho is an idolater, hath any inherice in y kingdom of Christ, & of God.
6 Let no man deceive you with vaine
ords: for because of these things meth the wrath of God upon the ldren of disobedience.
7 Be not ye therefore partakers
th them.
8 For ye were sometime darkenesse,
t now are ye light in the Lord:
walk as children of light.
9 (For the fruit of the spirit is in all odnesse, & righteousnesse, & truth) 10 Proving what is acceptable to e Lord.
11 And have no fellowship with the unfruitful workes of darkenesse, but ther reprove them.
12 For it is a shame even to speak those things which are done of them in secret.
13 But all things y are reproved are made manifest by the light: for whatsoever doth make manifest, is light.
14 Wherefore he saith: Awake thou that sleepest, and arise from the dead, and Christ shal give thee light.
15 See then that ye walk circumspectly, not as fooles, but as wise, 16 Redeeming the time, because the dayes are evil.
17 Wherefore be ye not unwise, but understanding what y will of y Lord is.
18 And be not drunk of wine, wherein is excesse: but be filled with the Spirit:
19 Speaking to your selves in Psalmes, and Hymnes, and spirituall songs, singing, and making melodie in your heart to the Lord.
20 Giving thankes alwayes for all things unto God, and the father, in the Name of our Lord Iesus Christ.
21 Submitting your selves one to another in the feare of God.
22 Wives, submit your selves unto your own husbands as unto the Lord.
23 For the husband is y head of the wife, even as Christ is the head of the Church: She is the Saviour of y body.
24 Therefore as the Church is subiect unto Christ, so let the wives be to their own husbands in every thing.
25 Husbands, love your wives, even as Christ also loved the Church, and gave himself for it:
26 That he might sanctifie & cleanse
it with y washing of water by the word:
27 That he might present it to himself a glorious Church, not having spot or wrinkle, or any such thing: but that it should be holy, and without blemish.
28 So ought men to love their wives as their own bodies: he that loveth his wife, loveth himself.
29 For no man ever yet hated his own flesh: but nourisheth and cherisheth it, even as the Lord the Church:
30 For we are members of his body,
of his flesh, and of his bones.
31 For this cause shal a man leave his father & mother, & shal be ioyned unto his wife, & they two shal be one flesh.
32 This is a great mystery: but I speak concerning Christ and the Church.
33 Nevertheless, let every one of you in particular, so love his wife, even as himself: and the wife see that she reverence her husband.
CHAP. VI.
1 Children, obey your parents in the Lord, for this is right.
2 Honour thy father & mother: (which is the first commandment with promise) 3 That it may be well with thee, & thou mayest live long on the earth.
4 And ye fathers, provoke not your children to wrath: but bring them up in y nurture and admonition of y Lord.
5 Servants, be obedient unto them y are your masters according to y flesh, with feare and trembling, in singlenesse of your heart, as unto Christ:
6 Not with eye service as men-pleasers, but as the servants of Christ, doing the wil of God from the heart:
7 With good wil doing service, as to the Lord and not to men:
8 Knowing y whatsoever good thing any man doeth, y same shal he receive of

of y Lord, whether he be bond or free.
9 And ye masters, do y same things to them, forbearing threatning: knowing y your master also is in heaven: neither is there respect of persons w him 10 Finally my brethren, be strong in y Lord and in the power of his might 11 Put on the whole armour of God, that ye may be able to stand against the wiles of the devil.
12 For we wrestle not against flesh and blood, but against principalities, against powers, against the rulers of the darkness of this world, against spiritual wickedness in high places 13 Wherefore take unto your the whole armour of God, that ye may be able to withstand in the evil day, and having done all, to stand.
14 Stand therefore, having your loynes girt about with truth, and having on y breastplate of righteousnes:
15 And your feet shod with the preparation of the Gospel of peace 16 Above all, taking the shield of faith, wherewith ye shalbe able to quench all the fiery darts of y wicked.
17 And take the helmet of salvation and the sword of the Spirit, which is the word of God:
18 I saying always with all prayer and supplication in the Spirit, and watching thereunto with all perseverance, and supplication for all Saints 19 And for me, that vtterance may be given unto me, that I may open my mouth boldly, to make known the misterie of the Gospel:
20 For which I am an ambassador in bonds, that therein I might speak boldly as I ought to speake.
21 But that ye also may know my affaires, and how I do, Tychicus the loved brother, and faithful Minister in the Lord, shal make known to you al things.
22 Whō I have sent to you for this purpose, y ye may know our affaires, & that he might comfort your hearts.
23 Peace be to the brethren, and love with faith from God the Father, and the Lord Iesus Christ.
24 Grace be with all them y love our Lord Iesus Christ in sincerite. Amen.

The Epistle of PAVL the Apostle to the PHILIPPIANS. CHAP. I.

PAul and Timotheus y servants of Iesus Christ, to al the Saints in Christ Iesus, which are at Philippi, with the Bishops and Deacons:
2 Grace be unto you, and peace from God our father, and from the Lord Iesus Christ.
3 I thanke my God upon every re-membrance of you,
4 Always in every prayer of mine for you al, making request with ioy,
5 For your fellowship in the Go-spel, from the first day until now;
6 Being confident of this very thing, that he which hath begun a good worke in you, wil performe it until the day of Iesus Christ:
7 Even as it is meet for me to thinke this of you al, because I have you in my heart: inas much as both in my bōds, & in the defence & confirmation of y Go pel, ye al are partakers of my grace.
8 For God is my record, how greatly I long after you al, in the bowels of Iesus Christ.
9 And this I pray, that your love may abound yet more and more in knowledge and in al judgement,
10 That ye may approve things, that are excellent, that ye may be sincere, & without offence til y day of Christ.
11 Being filled with the fruits of righteousnesse, which are by Iesus Christ unto y ioy & praise of God.
12 But I would ye should understand, brethren, that the things which have happened unto me, have fallen out rather my unto the furtherance of the Gospel.
13 So that my bonds in Christ are become manifest in al the palace, and in al other places.
14 And many of the brethren in the Lord waxing confident by my bonds, are much more bolde to speake the word without feare.
15 Som indeed preach Christ, even of envy & strife, and som also of good will.
16 The one preach Christ of contention, not sincerely, supposing to add affliction to my bonds:
17 But the other of love, knowing that I am set for the defence of the Gospel.
18 What then? Notwithstanding every way whether in pretense or in truth, Christ is preached, and I therein do ioyce, yea, and wil rejoyce.
19 For I know y this shal turne to my salvation through your prayer & y supply of y Spirit of Iesus Christ,
20 According to my earnest expectation, and my hope, that in nothing I shal be ashamed: but that with all bolde nesse, as always, so now also Christ shal be magnified in my body, whether it be by life, or by death.
21 For to me to live is Christ, and to die is gaine.
22 But if I live in the flesh, this is the frute of my labour: yet what I shal chuse, I wote not.
23 For I am in a strait betwixt two, having a desire to depart, and to be with Christ, which is farre better.
24 Never the lesse, to abide in the flesh is more needful for you.
25 And having this confidence, I know that I shal abide and continue with you al, for your furtherance & ioy of faith,
26 That your reioycing may be more abundant in Iesus Christ for me, by my coming to you again.
27 Only let your conversation be as it becommeth the Gospel of Christ, that whether I come & see you or else be absent, I may hear of your affaires, that ye

1 If there be therefore any consolation in Christ, if any comfort in love, if any fellowship of the Spirit, if any bowels and mercies;
2 Fulfill ye my joy, that ye be like minded, having the same love, being of one accord, of one mind.
3 Let nothing be done through strife or vain glory: but in lowliness of mind let each esteem other better than themselves.
4 Look not every man on his own things, but every man also on the things of others.
5 Let this mind be in you, which was also in Christ Jesus.
6 Who being in the form of God, thought it not robbery to be equal with God:
7 But made himself of no reputation, and took upon him the form of a servant, and was made in the likeness of men.
8 And being found in fashion as a man, he humbled himself, and became obedient unto death, even the death of the cross.
9 Wherefore God also hath highly exalted him, and given him a Name, which is above every name:
10 That at the Name of Jesus every knee should bow, of things in heaven, and things in earth, and things under the earth;
11 And that every tongue should confess that Jesus Christ is Lord, to the glory of God the Father.
12 Wherefore, my beloved, as ye have always obeyed, not as in my presence only, but now much more in my absence, work out your own salvation with fear and trembling.
13 For it is God which worketh in you, both to will and to do, of his good pleasure.
14 Do all things without murmurings and disputings.
15 That ye may be blameless and harmless, the sons of God, without rebuke in the midst of a crooked and perverse nation, among whom ye shine as lights in the world;
16 Holding forth the word of life, that I may rejoyce in the day of Christ, that I have not run in vain, neither laboured in vain.
17 Yea, and if I be offered upon the sacrifice and service of your faith, I joy and rejoyce with you all.
18 For the same cause also doe ye joy and rejoyce with me.
19 But I trust in the Lord Jesus to send Timotheus shortly unto you, that I also may be of good comfort, when I know your state.
20 For I have no man like minded, who will naturally care for your state.
21 For all seeke their own, not the things which are Jesus Christs.
22 But ye know the proofe of him, that as a son with the father, he hath served with me in the Gospel.
23 Him therefore I hope to send presently, so soon as I shall see how it will goe with me.
24 But I trust in the Lord, that I also my selfe shall come shortly.
25 Yet I suppose it necessary to send unto you Epaphroditus my brother, and companion in labour, and fellow souldier, but your messenger, and he that ministred to my wants.
26 For he longed after you all, and was full of heavinesse, because that ye had heard that he had been sicke.
27 For indeed he was sick nigh unto death, but God had mercy on him: and not on him onely, but on me also, lest I should have sorrow upon sorrow.
28 I send him therefore the more carefully, that when ye see him again, ye may rejoyce, and that I may be the lesse sorrowful.
29 Receive him therefore in the Lord, with all gladnesse, and hold such in reputation.
30 Because for the work of Christ he was nigh to death, not regarding his life, to supply your lacke of service toward me.

CHAP. III.

1 Finally my brethren, rejoyce in the Lord. To write the same things unto you, to me indeed is not grievous, but for you it is safe.
2 Beware of dogs, beware of evill workers, beware of the concision.
3 For we are the Circumcision, which worship God in the Spirit, and rejoyce in Christ Jesus, and have no confidence in the flesh.
4 Though I might also have confidence in the flesh. If any other man thinketh that he hath whereof he might trust in the flesh, I more:
5 Circumcised the eight day of the stocke of Israel, of the tribe of Benjamin, an Hebrew of the Hebrewes, as touching the Law, a Pharisee.
6 Concerning zeale, persecuting the Church: touching the righteousnesse which is in the Law, blameless.
7 But what things were gaine to me, those I counted losse for Christ.
8 Yea doubtlesse, and I count all things but losse, for the excellency of the knowledge of Christ Jesus my Lord: for whom I have suffered the losse of all things, and doe count them but dung, that I may win Christ.
9 And be found in him, not having mine own righteousnesse, which is of the law, but that which is through the faith of Christ, the righteousnesse which is of God by faith:
10 That I may know him, and the power of his resurrection, and the fellowship of his sufferings, being made conformable unto his death.

11 If by any meanes I might attain unto the resurrection of the dead.
12 Not as though I had already attained, either were already perfect: but I follow after, if that I may apprehend that for which also I am apprehended of Christ Iesus.
13 Brethren, I count not my selfe to have apprehended: but this one thing I doe, forgetting those things which are behind, and reaching foorth unto those things which are before.
14 I presse toward the marke, for the price of the high calling of God in Christ Iesus.
15 Let us therefore, as many as be perfect, be thus minded: and if in any thing yee be otherwise minded, God shal reveale even this unto you.
16 Neverthelesse, whereto we have already attained, let us walke by y same rule, let us minde one same thing.
17 Brethren, be followers togetner of me, and marke them which walke so as ye have us for an example.
18 (For many walke, of whom I have told you often, and now tel you even with weeping, that they are the enemies of the Crosse of Christ:
19 Whose end is destruction, whose God is their belly, & whose glory is in their shame, who minde earthly things)
20 For our conversation is in heaven, from whence also we looke for the Saviour, the Lord Iesus Christ:
21 Who shal change our vile body, that it may be fashioned like unto his glorious body, according to the working whereby he is able even to subdue all things unto himselfe.

CHAP. III.

THerefore, my brethren, dearely beloved and longed for, my joy and crowne, so stand fast in the Lord, my dearly beloved.
2 I beseech Evodias, & beseech Syntiche y they be of y same minde in y Lord.
3 And I intreat thee also, true yoke fellow, helpe those women which laboured with me in y Gospel, & Clement also, and with other my fellow labourers, whose names are in the booke of life.
4 Rejoyce in the Lord alway: and again I say, Rejoyce.
5 Let your moderation be known unto all men. The Lord is at hand.
6 Be careful for nothing: but in every thing by prayer & supplication, with thanksgiving, let your requests be made known unto God.
7 And the peace of God, which passeth all understanding, shall keepe your hearts & minds through Christ Iesus.
8 Finally, brethren, whatsoever things are true, whatsoever things are honest, whatsoever things are just, whatsoever things are pure, whatsoever things are lovely, whatsoever things are of good report; if there be any vertue, and if there be any praise, think on these things.
9 Those things which ye have both learned & received, & heard & seen in me, do: and y God of peace shall be with you.
10 But I rejoyced in y Lord greatly now at y last your care of me hath flourished again, wherein ye were also careful, but ye lacked opportunity.
11 Not that I speake in respect of want: for I have learned in whatsoever state I am, therewith to be content.
12 I know how to be abased, and I know how to abound: every where & in all things I am instructed both to be full, and to be hungry, both to abound, and to suffer need.
13 I can doe all things through Christ which strengtheneth me.
14 Notwithstanding, ye have well done that ye did communicate with my affliction.
15 Now yee Philippians know also, that in y beginning of the Gospel, when I departed fro Macedonia, no Church communicated with me as concerning giving, & receiving, but ye only.
16 For even in Thessalonica, ye sent once and againe unto my necessity.
17 Not because I desire a gift: but I desire fruit, which may abound to your account.
18 But I have all, and abound: I am full, having received of Epaphroditus the things which were sent from you, an odour of a sweet smel, a sacrifice acceptable, wel pleasing to God.
19 But my God shal supply all your need according to his riches in glory by Christ Iesus.
20 Now unto God and our Father be glory for ever and ever. Amen.
21 Salute every Saint in Christ Iesus. The brethren which are with me, greet you.
22 All the Saints salute you, chiefly they that are of Cæsars household.
23 The grace of our Lord Iesus Christ be with you all. Amen.

The Epistle of PAVL the Apostle to the COLOSSIANS.

CHAP. I.

PAul an Apostle of Iesus Christ by y will of God, & Timotheus our brother
2 To the Saints and faithful brethren in Christ, which are at Colosse: grace be unto you and peace, from God our Father, and the Lord Iesus Christ.
3 We give thankes to God, and the Father of our Lord Iesus Christ, praying alwayes for you.
4 Since we heard of your faith in Christ Iesus, and of the love which ye have to all the Saints.
5 For the hope which is laid up for you in heaven, whereof ye heard before in y word of y truth of y Gospel,
6 Which is come unto you, as it is also in all the world, and bringeth foorth fruit, as it doth also in you, since the day ye heard of it, and knew the grace of God in trueth.

also learned of Epaphras our ved fellowservant, who is for you a faithfull minister of Christ:
8 Who also declared unto us your love in the Spirit.
For this cause we also, since the day we heard it, do not cease to pray for you, and to desire that ye might be filled with y knowledge of his will, in all wisdome, & spiritual understanding; 10 That ye might walke worthy of the Lord unto all pleasing, being fruit-full in every good worke, and increasing in the knowledge of God.
11 Strengthened with all might, according to his glorious power, unto all patience, & long-suffering with joyfulnes; 12 Giving thankes unto the Father which hath made us meet to be partakers of the inheritance of y Saints in light:
13 Who hath delivered us from the power of darkenes, and hath translated us into the kingdome of his deare Son:
14 In whom we have redemption, through his blood, even the forgive-nesse of sinnes:
15 Who is the image of the invisible
God, the first born of every creature.
16 For by him were all things created in heaven, and that are in earth, visible, and invisible, whether they be throns, or dominions, or principalities, or powers: all things were created by him, and for him.
17 And he is before all things, and by him all things consist.
18 And he is the head of the body, the Church: who is the beginning, the first born from the dead: y in all things he might have the preeminence: 19 For it pleased the Father that in him should all fulnes dwel.
20 And (having made peace through the blood of his Crosse) by him to reconcile all things to himselfe, by him,
I say, whether they be things in earth,
or things in heaven.
21 And you y were sometimes alienated, & enemies in your minde by wicked workes, yet now hath he reconciled.
22 In the body of his flesh thorow death, to present you holy & unblameable, and unreproveable in his sight:
23 If ye continue in the faith grounded and settled, and be not moved away from the hope of the Gospel, which ye have heard, and which was preached to every creature which is under heaven: whereof I Paul am made a minister.
24 Who now rejoyce in my sufferings for you, and fil up y which is behind of y afflictions of Christ in my flesh, for his bodies sake, which is y Church:
25 Whereof I am made a minister according to the dispensation of God, which is given to me for you to fulfil
the word of God:
26 Even the mystery which hath been hid from ages, and from generations, but now is made manifest to his Saints:
27 To whom God would make known what is the riches of the glory of this mystery among the Gentiles, which is Christ in you, the hope of glory:
28 Whom we preach, warning every man; and teaching every man in all wisedome, that we may present every man perfect in Christ Iesus.
29 Whereunto I also labour, striving according to his working which worketh in me mightily.

CHAP. II.

1 For I would that ye knew what great conflict I have for you, and for them at Laodicea, & for as many as have not seen my face in the flesh:
2 That their hearts might be comforted, being knit together in love, and unto all riches of the full assurance of understanding, to the acknowledgement of the mistery of God, and of the Father, and of Christ.
3 In whom are hid all the treasures of wisedome and knowledge.
4 And this I say, lest any man should beguile you with enticing words.
5 For though I be absent in the flesh, yet am I with you in the spirit, joying and beholding your order, and the stedfastnesse of your faith in Christ.
6 As ye have therefore received Christ
Iesus the Lord, so walke ye in him.
7 Rooted and built up in him, and stablished in y faith, as ye have bin taught, abounding therein w thankgiving.
8 Beware lest any man spoile you thorow Philosophy & vain deceit, after the tradition of men, after y rudiments of the world, & not after Christ.
9 For in him dwelleth all the fulnesse of the Godhead bodily.
10 And ye are complete in him, w is the head of all principalitye and power.
11 In whom also ye are circumcised with the Circumcision made without hands, in putting off the body of the sinnes of the flesh, by the Circumcisioof Christ:
12 Buried with him in Baptisme, wherein also you are risen with him, through the faith of the operation of God, who hath raised him from y dead.
13 And you being dead in your sins, and the uncircumcision of your flesh, hath he quickened together with him, having forgiven you all trespasses 14 Blotting out the hand writing of ordinances that was against us, which was contrary to us, and took it out of the way, nailing it to his crosse:
15 And having spoiled principalities and powers, he made a shew of them openly, triumphing over them in it.
16 Let no man therefore judge you in meat or in drinke, or in respect of an Holy day, or of the new Moone, or of the Sabbath dayes:
17 Which are a shadow of things to come, but the body is of Christ.
18 Let no man beguile you of your reward, in a voluntary humility, and worshipping of angels, intruding into those things he hath not seen, vainly puft up by his fleshly mind:
19 And

19 And not holding the head, from whom all the body by joynts & bands having nourishment ministred, and knit together, increaseth & the increase of God.
20 Wherefore if ye be dead & Christ from the rudiments of the world, why, as though living in the world, are ye subject to ordinances?
21 (Touch not, taste not, handle not:
22 Which all are to perish with the using) after the commandements and doctrines of men:
23 Which things have indeed a shew of wisdom, in wil-worship and humility, and neglecting of the body, not in any honour to the satisfying of the flesh.

CHAP. III.

IF ye then be risen with Christ, seek those things which are above, where Christ sitteth on the right hand of God.
2 Set your affection on things above, not on things on the earth.
3 For ye are dead, and your life is hid with Christ in God.
4 When Christ, who is our life, shall appear, then shal ye also appear with him in glory.
5 Mortifie therefore your members fornication, uncleanesse, inordinate affection, evil concupiscence, & coveteousnes, & is idolatry:
6 For which things sake, the wrath of God commeth upon the children of disobedience.
7 In the which ye also walked sometime, when ye lived in them.
8 But now you also put off all these, anger, wrath, malice, blasphemy, filthy communication out of your mouth.
9 Lie not one to another, seeing ye have put off y old man with his deeds
10 And have put on the new man, which is renewed in knowledge, after the image of him that created him:
11 Where there is neither Greek, nor Iew, circumcision, nor uncircumcision, Barbarian, Scythian, bond nor free, but Christ is all, and in all.
12 Put on therefore (as the elect of God, holy and beloved) bowels of mercies, kindnes, humblenes of mind, meeknes, long-suffering.
13 Forbearing one another, and forgiving one another, if any man have a quarrel against any: even as Christ forgave you, so also do ye.
14 And above all these things put on charity, which is y bond of perfectnes.
15 And let the peace of God rule in your hearts, to the which also ye are called in one body: and be ye thankful.
16 Let the word of Christ dwel in you richly in all wisdome teaching and admonishing one another in Psalms and Hymnes, and spiritual songs, singing with grace in your hearts to the Lord.
17 And whatsoever ye do in word or deed, do all in the name of the Lord Iesus, giving thankes to God and the Father by him.
18 Wives, submit your selves to your own husbands, as it is fit in the Lord.
19 Husbands, love your wives, and not bitter against them.
20 Children, obey your parents in all things: for this is well pleasing unto the Lord.
21 Fathers, provoke not your children to anger, lest they be discouraged.
22 Servants, obey in all things your masters according to the flesh, not with eye-service, as men pleasers, but in singlenes of heart, fearing God:
23 And whatsoever ye do, do it heartily, as to the Lord, & not unto men:
24 Knowing that of the Lord ye shall receive the reward of the inheritance: for ye serve the Lord Christ.
25 But he that doeth wrong, shall receive for y wrong which he hath done: and there is no respect of persons.

CHAP. IIII.

MAsters, give unto your servants that which is iust and equal, knowing y ye also have a Master in heaven.
2 Continue in prayer, and watch in the same with thanksgiving:
3 Withal praying also for us, that God would open unto us a dore of utterance, to speake the mystery of Christ, for which I am also in bonds:
4 That I may make it manifest, as I ought to speake.
5 Walke in wisedome toward them that are without, redeeming the time.
6 Let your speech be alway with grace seasoned with salt, y ye may know how ye ought to answere every man.
7 All my state shall Tychicus declare unto you, who is a beloved brother, & a faithful minister, and fellow servant in the Lord:
8 Whom I have sent unto you for the same purpose, that he might know your estate, and comfort your hearts:
9 With Onesimus a faithful and beloved brother, who is one of you. They shal make knowne unto you all things which are done here.
10 Aristarchus my fellow prisoner saluteth you, and Marcus sister unto Barnabas, (touching whom ye received commandements, if he come unto you, receive him.)
11 And Iesus which is called Iustus, who are of the circumcision. These only are my fellow-workers unto the kingdome of God, which have been a comfort unto me.
12 Epaphras, who is one of you, a servant of Christ, saluteth you, alwayes labouring fervently for you in prayers, that ye may stand perfect and compleat in all the wil of God.
13 For I beare him record, that he hath a great zeale for you, & them that are in Laodicea, and them in Hierapolis.
14 Luke the beloved Physician and Demas greet you.
15 Salute the brethren which are in Laodicea, and Nymphas, and the Church which is in his house.
16 And when this Epistle is read among you, cause y it be read also in the Church thal faith.

Laodiceans; and that ye likewise Epistle from Laodicea.
And say to Archippus, Take to the ministery, which thou hast received in the Lord, that thou fulfil it.
18 The salutation by the hand of me
Paul. Remember my bonds: Grace be with you. Amen.

The first Epistle of PAUL the Apostle to the THESSALONIANS.

CHAP. I.

1 Paul and Silvanus, and Ti-motheus, unto the Church of the Thessalonians, which is in God the Father, and in the Lord Jesus Christ:
Grace be unto you, and peace from our Father, & y Lord Jesus Christ.
2 We give thanks to God always for you all, making mention of you in our prayers.
3 Remembring without ceasing your work of faith, and labour of love, and patience of hope in our Lord Jesus Christ, in y sight of God, & our Father
God.
4 Knowing brethren beloved, your election of God.
5 For our Gospel came not unto you in word only, but also in power, and in the holy Ghost, and in much assurance, as ye know what manner of men
we were among you for your sake.
6 And ye became followers of us, & of the Lord, having received the word in much affliction, with joy of y holy Ghost:
7 So that ye were ensamples to all them that believe in Macedonia and Achaia.
8 For from you sounded out the word of the Lord, not only in Macedonia and Achaia, but also in every place your faith to God ward is spread abroad, so that we need not to speake any thing.
9 For they themselves shew of us, what manner of entring in we had to you, and how ye turned to God from idols, to serve y living & true God.
10 And to wait for his Son from heaven, whom he raised from the dead, even Jesus which delivered us from the wrath to come.

CHAP. II.

1 For yourselves, brethren, know our entrance in unto you, that it was not in vaine.
2 But even after that we had suffered before, & were shamefully intreated, as ye know, at Philippi, we were bold in our God to speake unto you the Gospel of God with much contention.
3 For our exhortation was not of deceit, nor of uncleanness, nor in guile.
4 But as wee were allowed of God to be put in trust with the Gospel, even so we speak, not as pleasing men,
but God, which tryeth our hearts.
5 For neither at any time used wee flattering words, as ye know, nor a cloake of covetousness, God is witness.
6 Nor of men sought we glory, neither of you, nor yet of others, when we might have been burdensome, as the Apostles of Christ.
7 But wee were gentle among you, even as a nurse cherisheth her children.
8 So being affectionately desirous of you, we were willing to have imparted unto you, not the Gospel of God onely, but also our owne soules, because ye were deare unto us.
9 For ye remember, brethren, our labour, and travaile: for labouring night & day, because we would not be chargeable unto any of you, we preached unto you the Gospel of God.
10 Ye are witnesses, and God also, how holily, & justly, & unblamably we behaved our selves among you that believe.
11 As you know how we exhorted, & comforted, and charged every one of you, (as a father doth his children.)
12 That ye would walke worthy of God, who hath called you unto his kingdome and glory.
13 For this cause also thanke we God, without ceasing, because when ye received the word of God, which ye heard of us, ye received it not as the word of men, but (as it is in truth)
the word of God, which effectually worketh also in you that believe.
14 For ye, brethren, became followers of the Churches of God, which in Judea are in Christ Jesus: for yee also have suffred like things of your own countrey men, even as they have of y Jewes.
15 Who both killed the Lord Jesus, and their own Prophets, and have persecuted us; and they please not God,
and are contrary to all men:
16 Forbidding us to speake to the Gentiles, that they might be saved, to fill up their sinnes alway: for the wrath is come upon them to the uttermost.
17 But we, brethren, being taken from you for a short time, in presence, not in heart; indeavoured the more abundantly to see your face with great desire.
18 Wherefore we would have come unto you, even I Paul, once and againe: but Satan hindred us.
19 For what is our hope, or joy, or crowne of rejoycing? Are not even ye in the presence of our Lord Jesus Christ at his comming?
20 For ye are our glory and joy.

CHAP. III.

1 Wherefore, when we could no longer forbeare, we thought it good to be left at Athens alone;
2 And sent Timotheus our brother & minister of God, & our fellow labourer in y Gospel of Christ, to establish you,
& to comfort you concerning your faith:
3 That no man should be moved by these afflictions; for your selves know, that we are appointed thereunto.
4 For verily when we were with you, we told you before, y we should suffer tribulation, even as it came to pass, & ye know.
5 For this cause, when I could no longer forbeare, I sent to know your faith, lest by some means y tempter have tempted you, & our labour be in vain.

6 But now when Timotheus came fro you to us, & brought us good tidings of your faith, & charity, & y ye have good remembrance of us alwayes, desiring greatly to see us, as we also to see you

7 Therefore brethren, we were comforted over you in all our affliction and distresse, by your faith.

8 For now we live, if ye stand fast in the Lord.

9 For what thanks can we render to God again for you, for all y joy wherwith we joy for your sakes before our God

10 Night and day praying exceedingly y we might see your face, & might perfect that is lacking in your faith?

11 Now God himself and our Father, and our Lord Iesus Christ, direct our way unto you.

12 And the Lord make you to increase and abound in love one towards another, and towards all men, even as we do towards you.

13 To the end he may stablish your hearts unblameable in holines before God, even our Father, at the comming of our Lord Iesus Christ with all his Saints. CHAP. IIII.

FVrthermore then we beseech you, brethren, and exhort you by the Lord Iesus, that as ye have received of us, how ye ought to walke, & to please God, so ye would abound more & more

2 For ye know what commandements we gave you by the Lord Iesus.

3 For this is the will of God, even your sanctification, that yee should abstaine from fornication:

4 That every one of you should know how to possesse his vessel in sanctification and honour.

5 Not in y lust of concupiscence, even as the Gentiles which know not God.

6 That no man go beyond & defraud his brother in any matter, because that the Lord is y avenger of all such, as we also have forewarned you, & testified.

7 For God hath not called us vnto vncleannesse, but vnto holinesse.

8 He therefore that despiseth, despiseth not man but God, who hath also given vnto vs his holy Spirit.

9 But as touching brotherly love, ye need not y I write to you: for ye your selves are taught of God to loveone another

10 And indeed ye do it towards all the brethren, which are in all Macedonia: but we beseech you brethren, that ye increase more and more:

11 And that ye study to be quiet, & to do your own businesses, & to worke with your own hands (as we comanded you)

12 That ye may walke honestly toward them that are without, and that ye may have lacke of nothing.

13 But I would not have you to be ignorant, brethren, concerning them which are asleep that ye sorrow not, even as others which have no hope

14 For if we believe that Iesus died, & rose again: even so them also which sleep in Iesus, will God bring with him.

15 For this we say unto you by the word of the Lord, that we which are alive, and remaine to y comming of the Lord, shal not prevent them which are asleep.

16 For y Lord himself shal descend from heaven with a shout, with the voice of the Archangel, & with y trumpet of God: & the dead in Christ shal rise first.

17 Then we which are alive & remain, shal be caught up together with them in y cloudes, to meete the Lord in the ayre: & so shal we ever be with the Lord.

18 Wherefore comfort one another with these words. CHAP. V.

BVt of the times and the seasons brethren, ye have no need that I write vnto you.

2 For your selves know perfectly that the day of the Lord so cometh as a thiefe in the night.

3 For when they shal say, Peace and safety: then sudden destruction cometh upon them, as travaile on a woman with child: & they shal not escape.

4 But ye, brethren, are not in darkenes, that that day should overtake you as a theefe.

5 Ye are al the children of light, and the children of the day: we are not of the night nor of darkenesse.

6 Therefore let us not sleep as do others: but let us watch and be sober.

7 For they that sleep, sleep in the night, and they that be drunken, are drunken in the night.

8 But let us who are of y day be sober, putting on y brestplate of faith & love, & for a helme, the hope of salvation.

9 For God hath not appointed us to wrath: but to obtaine salvation by our Lord Iesus Christ,

10 Who died for vs, that whether we wake or sleep, we should live together with him.

11 Wherefore comfort your selves together, & edifie one another, even as also ye do.

12 And we beseech you, brethren, to know them which labour among you, and are over you in the Lord, and admonish you:

13 And to esteeme them very highly in love for their workes sake, and be at peace among your selves.

14 Now we exhort you brethren, warne them that are unruly, comfort the feeble minded, support the weak, be patient to ward al men.

15 See that none render evil for evil vnto any man: but ever follow that which is good, both among your selves and to al men.

16 Rejoyce evermore:

17 Pray without ceasing:

18 In every thing give thankes: for this is the will of God in Christ Iesus concerning you:

19 Quench not the Spirit.

20 Despise not prophesyings:

21 Prove all things: hold fast that which is good.

22 Abstain from al appearance of evil.

23 And the very God of Peace sanc-you wholly; & I pray God your spirit, and soul, and body be preed blameless unto the comming our Lord Jesus Christ.

24 Faithful is hee that calleth you, ho also will do it.

The second Epistle of PAVL the Apostle to the THESSALONIANS.

CHAP. I.

PAul & Silvanus, & Ti-motheus, to y Church of the Thessalonians, in God our Father, and the Lord Iesus Christ.
2 Grace unto you, & peace from God our Father, and the Lord Iesus Christ.
3 We are bound to thanke God always for you, brethren, as it is meet, because that your faith groweth excedingly, & the charity of every one of you all toward each other aboundeth:
4 So that we our selves glory in you in the Churches of God, for your patience and faith in all your persecutions and tribulations that ye endure:
5 Which is a manifest token of the righteous judgement of God, that ye may be counted worthy of the kingdom of God, for which ye also suffer:
6 Seeing it is a righteous thing with God to recompense tribulation to them that trouble you:
7 And to you who are troubled, rest with us, when y Lord Iesus shall be revealed from heaven with his mighty Angels, 8 In flaming fire, taking vengeance on them y know not God, & that obey not y Gospel of our Lord Iesus Christ.
9 Who shal be punished with everlasting destruction frō y presence of y
Lord, & from the glory of his power:
10 When he shal come to be glorified in his Saints, and to be admired in all them y believe (because our testimony among you was believed) in that day.
11 Wherefore also we pray alwayes for you, that our God would count you worthy of this calling, and fulfil all the good pleasure of his goodnes, and the worke of faith with power:
12 That the Name of our Lord Iesus Christ may be glorified in you, and ye in him, according to the grace of our God, and the Lord Iesus Christ.

CHAP. II.

NOw we beseech you, brethren, by y coming of our Lord Iesus Christ
& by our gathering together to him:
2 That ye be not soone shaken in mind, or be troubled, neither by spirit nor by word, nor by letter, as from us, as that the day of Christ is at hand:
3 Let no man deceive you by any mean:
for y day shal not come, except there come a falling away first, & y man of sin be revealed, the son of perdition.
4 Who opposeth, and exalteth himself above all that is called God, or that is worshipped: so that he as God, sitteth in the Temple of God, shewing himself e that he is God.
5 Remember ye not, that when I was yet with you, I told you these things?
6 And now ye know what withholds,
y he might be revealed in his time.
7 For the mysterie of iniquity doeth already worke; onely hee who now letteth, will let, until hee bee taken out of the way.
8 And then shal that wicked be revealed, whom the Lord shal consume & y spirit of his mouth, & shal destroy with the brightnes of his comming.
9 Even him whose comming is after the working of Satan, with all power and signes, and lying wonders, 10 And with all deceivablenesse of unrighteousnes, in them that perish:
because they received not the love of the trueth, that they might be saved.
11 And for this cause God shal send them strong delusion, that they should believe a lye:
12 That they al might be damned who believed not the truth, but had pleasure in unrighteousnesse.
13 But we are bound to give thankes alway to God for you, brethren beloved of the Lord, because God hath from the beginning chosen you to salvation, through sanctification of the Spirit, and beliefe of the trueth, 14 Whereunto he called you by our Gospel, to the obtaining of the glory of our Lord Iesus Christ.
15 Therefore, brethren, stand fast, and hold the traditions which yee have been taught, whether by word, or our Epistle.
16 Now our Lord Iesus Christ himself, & God, even our Father, which loved us, & hath given us everlasting co-solation, & good hope through grace, 17 Comfort your hearts, and stablish you in every good word and worke.

CHAP. III.

FInally, brethren, pray for us, that the word of y Lord may have free cours, & be glorified, even as it is with you:
2 And that we may be delivered from unreasonable and wicked men: for all men have not faith.
3 But the Lord is faithful, who shal stablish you, and keep you from evill.
4 And we have confidence in the Lord touching you, that ye both do, & will do the things which we commandy ou.
5 And the Lord direct your hearts into the love of God, and into the patient waiting for Christ.
6 Now we command you, brethren, in the Name of our Lord Iesus Christ, y e withdraw your selves frō every brother that walketh disorderly, and not after the tradition which they received of us.

7 For your selves know how ye ought to follow us: for we behaved not our selves disorderly among you.
8 Neither did we eate any mans bread for nought, but wrought with labour and travell night and day, that we might not be chargable to any of you.
9 Not because we have not power, but to make our selves an ensample unto you to follow us.
10 For even when we were with you, this we commanded you, That if any would not work, neither should he eat.
11 For we hear that there are some which walke among you disorderly, working not at all, but are busibodies.
12 Now them that are such, we command, and exhort by our Lord Iesus Christ, that with quietnesse they work, and eate their owne bread.
13 But ye, brethren, be not weary in well doing.
14 And if any man obey not our word by this Epistle, note that man, and have no company with him, that he may be ashamed.
15 Yet count him not as an enemie, but admonish him as a brother.
16 Now the Lord of peace himself give you peace always, by all means. The Lord be with you all.
17 The salutation of Paul with mine own hand, which is the token in every Epistle: so I write.
18 The grace of our Lord Iesus Christ be with you all. Amen.

The first Epistle of PAVL the Apostle to TIMOTHIE.

CHAP. I.

1 PAul an Apostle of Iesus Christ, by the commandment of God our Saviour, & Lord Iesus Christ, which is our hope.
2 Vnto Timothie my owne son in the faith: Grace, mercy, and peace, from God our Father, and Iesus Christ our Lord.
3 As I besought thee to abide still at Ephesus, when I went into Macedonia, that thou mightest charge some that they teach no other doctrine:
4 Neither give heed to fables, and endlesse genealogies, which minister questions, rather then godly edifying, which is in faith: so doe.
5 Now the end of the commandment is charity, out of a pure heart, and of a good conscience, & of faith unfained.
6 From which some having swarved, have turned aside to vaine janglings,
7 Desiring to be teachers of the Law, unterstanding neither what they say, nor whereof they affirme.
8 But we know that the Law is good, if a man use it lawfully,
9 Knowing this, that the Law is not made for a righteous man, but for the Lawlesse & disobedient, for the ungodly, and for sinners, for unholy & prophane, for murtherers of fathers, and murtherers of mothers, for manslayers,
10 For whoremongers, for them that defile themselves with mankinde, for menstealers, for liers, for perjured persons, and if there be any other thing that is contrary to sound doctrine.
11 According to the glorious Gospel of the blessed God which was committed to my trust.
12 And I thanke Christ Iesus our Lord, who hath inabled me: for that he counted me faithfull, putting me into the ministery, 13 Who was before a blasphemer, and a persecuter and injurious: but I obtained mercy, because I did it ignorantly, in unbelief.
14 And the grace of our Lord was exceeding abundant, with faith and love, which is in Christ Iesus.
15 This is a faithfull saying, and worthy of all acceptation. That Christ Iesus came into the world to save sinners, of whom I am chiefe.
16 Howbeit, for this cause I obtained mercy, that in me first, Iesus Christ might shew forth all long suffering, for a patterne to them which should after believe on him to life everlasting.
17 Now to the King eternall, immortall, invisible, & only wise God, be honour & glory, for ever & ever. Amen.
18 This charge I commit to thee, Sonne Timothie, according to the Prophesies which went before on thee, that thou by them mightest war a good warfare,
19 Holding faith and a good conscience, which some having put away concerning faith, have made shipwrack.
20 Of whom is Hymenaeus and Alexander, whom I have delivered unto Satan, that they may learn not to blaspheme.

CHAP. II.

1 I Exhort therefore, first of all, that supplications, prayers, intercessions, and giving of thankes be made for all men,
2 For Kings, & for all that are in authority, that we may lead a quiet and peaceable life in all godlines & honesty.
3 For this is good and acceptable in the sight of God our Saviour,
4 Who will have all men to be saved, & to come to the knowledge of the truth.
5 For there is one God, & one Mediatour between God & men, the man Christ Iesus, 6 Who gave himselfe a ransome for all, to be testified in due time.
7 Whereunto I am ordained a Preacher, and an Apostle (I speak the truth in Christ, and lie not) a teacher of the Gentiles in faith and verity.
8 I will therefore that men pray every where, lifting up holy hands without wrath and doubting.
9 In like manner also, that women adorn themselves in modest apparel, with shamefastnes and sobriety, not with broidered hair, or gold, or pearls, or costly array,
10 But (which becommeth women professing godlines) with good workes.
11 Let the woman learne in silence with all subjection:

1 suffer not a woman to teach, nor to usurp authority over the man; but to be in silence.
13 For Adam was first formed, then Eve.
14 And Adam was not deceived, but the woman being deceived was in the transgression:
15 Notwithstanding, she shal be saved in child bearing, if they continue in faith and charity, and holines with sobriety.

CHAP. III.

1 This is a true saying: If a man desire the office of a Bishop, he desireth a good worke.
2 A Bishop then must be blameless, the husband of one wife, vigilant, sober, of good behaviour, given to hospitality, apt to teach,
3 Not given to wine, no striker, not greedy of filthie lucre, but patient, not a brawler, not covetous:
4 One that ruleth well his owne house, having his children in subjection with all gravity:
5 (For if a man know not how to rule his owne house, how shal he take care of the Church of God?)
6 Not a novice, lest being lifted up with pride, he fall into the condemnation of the devill.
7 Moreover, he must have a good report of them which are without, lest he fall into reproch, & the snare of the devil.
8 Likewise must y Deacons be grave, not double tongued, not given to much wines, not greedy of filthy lucre, 9 Holding the mysterie of the faith in a pure conscience.
10 And let these also first be proved, then let them use the office of a Deacon, being found blameless.
11 Even so must their wives be grave, not accusers, sober, faithful in all things.
12 Let the Deacons be y husbands of one wife, ruling their children, and their own houses wel.
13 For they that have used the office of a Deacon wel, purchase to themselves a good degree, & great boldnes in the faith, which is in Christ Iesus.
14 These things write I unto thee, hoping to come unto thee shortly.
15 But if I tarry long, that thou may-est know how thou oughtest to behave thy self in the house of God, which is the Church of y living God, the pillar & ground of the trueth.
16 And without controversie great is the mysterie of godlines: God was manifest in the flesh, justified in the Spirit, seene of Angels, preached unto the Gentiles, believed on in the world, received up into glory.

CHAP. IIII.

1 NOw the Spirit speaketh expresly, that in the latter times some shal depart from the faith, giving heed to 2 seducing spirits & doctrines of devils:
2 Speaking lyes in hypocrisie, having their conscience seared with an hot iron.
3 Forbidding to marry, & command-ding to abstain fro meats, & God hath created to be received & thanksgiving of the which beleeve, & know y trueth.
4 For every creature of God is good, and nothing to be refused, if it be received with thanksgiving:
5 For it is sanctified by the word of God and prayer.
6 If thou put the brethren in remembrance of these things, thou shalt be a good Minister of Iesus Christ, nourished up in y words of faith, & of good doctrine, whereunto y hast attained.
7 But refuse prophane and old wives fables, and exercise thy self rather unto godlines.
8 For bodily exercise profiteth little, but godlines is profitable unto all things, having promise of the life that now is, and of that which is to come.
9 This is a faithfull saying, and worthy of all acceptation:
10 For therefore we both labour and suffer reproach, because we trust in the living God, who is the Saviour of all men, especially of those that be leeve.
11 These things command and teach.
12 Let no mans despise thy youth, but be thou an example of the beleevers, in word, in conversation, in charity, in spirit, in faith, in purity.
13 Till I come, give attendance to reading, to exhortation, to doctrine.
14 Neglect not the gift y is in thee, which was given thee by prophesie, with laying on of y hands of y Presbytery.
15 Meditate upon these things, give thy self wholly to them: that thy profiting may appeare to all.
16 Take heed unto thy self, and unto the doctrine: continue in them: for in doing this thou shalt both save thy self and them that hear thee.

CHAP. V.

1 REbuke not an Elder, but intreat him as a father, and the younger men as brethren:
2 The Elder women as mothers, the yonger as sisters with all purity.
3 Honour widowes that are widowes indeed.
4 But if any widow have children or nephews, let the learn first to shew pietie at home, & to requite their parents: for y is good & acceptable before God.
5 Now they is a widow indeed, and desolate, trusteth in God, & continueth in supplications & prayers night & day.
6 But she that liveth in pleasure, is dead while she liveth.
7 And these things give in charge, that they may be blameless.
8 But if any provide not for his owne, and especially for those of his own house, he hath denyed the faith, and is worse then an Infidell.
9 Let not a widow be taken into the number under three score yeers old, having been the wife of one man:
10 Well reported of for good works: if she have brought up children, if she have lodged strangers, if she have washed washed the Saints feet, if she have relieved the afflicted, if she have diligently followed every good worke.

11 But the younger widowes refuse; for when they have begun to wax wanton against Christ, they will marry,

12 Having damnation, because they have cast off their first faith.

13 And they withall learne to be idle, wandring about from house to house: and not onely idle, but tatlers also, and busiebodies, speaking things which they ought not.

14 I will therefore that the yonger women marry, beare children, guide the house, give none occasion to the adversary to speake reproachfully.

15 For some are already turned aside after Satan.

16 If any man or woman ỹ believeth have widowes, let them relieve them, & let not ỹ Church be charged, ỹ it may relieve them that are widowes indeed.

17 Let ỹ Elders ỹ rule wel, be counted worthy of double honour, especially they who labour in ỹ word & doctrin.

18 For the Scripture saith, Thou shalt not muzzle the oxe that treadeth out the corne: and, The labourer is worthy of his reward.

19 Against an Elder receive not an accusation, but before two or three witnesses.

20 Them that sin, rebuke before all, that others also may feare.

21 I charge thee before God, and the Lord Iesus Christ, and the elect Angels, that thou observe these things, without preferring one before another, doing nothing by partialitie.

22 Lay hands suddenly on no man, neither be partaker of other mens sins: keep thy self pure.

23 Drinke no longer water, but use a little wine for thy stomaches sake, and thine often infirmities.

24 Some mens sins are open beforehand, going before to judgement: and some men they follow after.

25 Likewise also the good works of some are manifest before hand, and they that are otherwise, cannot be hid.

CHAP. VI.

1 Let as many servants as are under ỹ yoke count their own masters worthy of all honour, ỹ the Name of God, and his doctrine, be not blasphemed.

2 And they that have believing masters, let them not despise them, because they are brethren: but rather do them service, because they are faithful and beloved, partakers of the benefit. These things teach and exhort.

3 If any man teach otherwise, & consent not to wholesome words, even the words of our Lord Iesus Christ, & to doctrine ỹ is according to godliness,

4 He is proud, knowing nothing, but doteing about questions, and strifes of words whereof commeth envy, strife, railings, evill surmisings,

5 Perverse disputings of men of corrupt minds, and destitute of the truth, supposing that gaine is godliness: from such withdraw thy self.

6 But godliness with contentment is great gaine.

7 For we brought nothing into this world, and it is certaine we can carry nothing out.

8 And having food and raiment, let us be therewith content.

9 But they that will be rich, fall into temptation and a snare, & into many foolish & hurtful lusts, which drowne men in destruction and perdition.

10 For the love of money is ỹ root of all evil, ỹ while some coveted after, they have erred from ỹ faith, & pierced themself with thorow ỹ many sorrows.

11 But thou, O man of God, flee these things, and follow after righteousnes, godlines, faith, love, patience, meekenesse.

12 Fight the good fight of faith, lay hold on eternal life, wherunto thou art also called, and hast professed a good profession before many witnesses.

13 I give thee charge in the sight of God who quickneth all things, and before Christ Iesus, who before Pontius Pilate witnessed a good confession,

14 That thou keep this commandment without spot, unrebukeable, until the appearing of our Lord Iesus Christ:

15 Which in his time he shall shew, who is the blessed and onely Potentate, the King of kings, and Lord of lords,

16 Who onely hath immortalitie, dwelling in the light, which no man can approch unto, whom no man hath seen nor can see: to whom be honour and power everlasting. Amen.

17 Charge them that are rich in this world, that they be not high minded, nor trust in uncertaine riches, but in the living God, who giveth us richly all things to enioy;

18 That they do good, that they be rich in good workes, ready to distribute, willing to communicate,

19 Laying up in store for themselves a good foundation against ỹ time to come, that they may lay hold on eternal life.

20 O Timothy keep that which is committed to thy trust, avoiding prophane and vaine babblings, and oppositions of science, falsly so called:

21 Which some professing, have erred concerning the faith. Grace be with thee. Amen.

The second Epistle of PAVL the Apostle to TIMOTHIE.

CHAP. I.

1 PAul an Apostle of Iesus Christ, by ỹ will of God, according to ỹ promise of life which is in Christ Iesus,

2 To Timothie my dearely beloved son: grace, mercy, and peace from God the Father, and Christ Iesus our Lord.

3 I thank God, whom I serve from my forefathers ỹ pure conscience, that without ceasing I have remembrance me in my prayers night and day.

4 Greatly desiring to see thee, being mindful of thy teares, that I may be joy-full with joy.
5 When I take remembrance of the unfeigned faith that is in thee, which dwelt first in thy grand-mother Lois, and thy mother Eunice; and I am perswaded that in thee also.
6 Wherefore I put thee in remembrance, y stirre up the gift of God, which is in thee by y putting on of my hands.
7 For God hath not given us the spirit of fear, but of power, and of love, and of a sound mind.
8 Be not thou therefore ashamed of the testimony of our Lord, nor of me his prisoner: but be y partaker of afflictions of the Gospel, according to y power of God, 9 Who hath saved us, and called us, with an holy calling, not according to our works but according to his own purpose and grace, which was given us in Christ Iesus, before the world began:
10 But is now made manifest by the appearing of our Saviour Iesus Christ, who hath abolished death, and hath brought life and immortality to light, through the Gospel:
11 Whereunto I am appointed a preacher, and an Apostle, and a teacher of the Gentils.
12 For the which cause I also suffer these things; nevertheless, I am not ashamed; for I know whom I have believed, and I am perswaded that he is able to keep that which I have committed unto him against that day.
13 Hold fast the forme of sound words which thou hast heard of me, in faith and love which is in Christ Iesus.
14 That good thing which was committed unto thee, keep, by the holy Ghost, which dwelleth in us.
15 This thou knowest, y all they which are in Asia be turned away from me: of whom are Phygellus & Hermogenes.
16 The Lord give mercy to the house of Onesiphorus: for he oft refreshed me, & was not ashamed of my chaine.
17 But when he was in Rome he sought me out very diligently, and found me.
18 The Lord grant to him, that he may find mercy of y Lord in that day:
and in how many things he ministred unto at Ephesus, y knowest very wel.

CHAP. II.

1 Thou therefore my son, be strong in the grace that is in Christ Iesus.
2 And the things that thou hast heard of me among many witnesses, the same commit thou to faithful men, who thou shall be able to teach others also.
3 Thou therefore endure hardnesse, as a good souldier of Iesus Christ.
4 No man that warreth intangleth himselfe with the affaires of this life, that he may please him who hath chosen him to be a souldier.
5 And if a man also strive for mastery, yet is he not crowned except he strive lawfully.
6 The husbandman that laboureth, must be first partaker of the fruits.
7 Consider what I say, and the Lord give thee understanding in all things.
8 Remember that Iesus Christ of the seed of David, was raised from the dead, according to my Gospel:
9 Wherein I suffer trouble as an evill doer, even unto bonds: but the word of God is not bound.
10 Therefore I endure all things for the elects sake, that they may also obtaine the salvation which is in Christ
Iesus with eternall glory.
11 It is a faithfull saying: for if we be dead with him, we shall also live with him.
12 If we suffer, we shall also reigne with him, if we deny him, he will also deny us.
13 If we believe not, yet he abideth faithfull, he cannot deny himself.
14 Of these things put them in remembrance, charging them before y Lord, y they strive yet about words to no pro-fite, but to y subverting of the hearers.
15 Study to shew thy self approved unto God, a workeman that needeth not to be ashamed, rightly dividing the word of truth.
16 But shunne prophane and vaine babblings, for they will increase to more ungodlinesse.
17 And their word will eate as doth a canker; of whom is Hymeneus and Philetus:
18 Who concerning y truth have erred, saying y y resurrection is past already, & overthrow the faith of some.
19 Neverthelesse, the foundation of God standeth sure, having this seale: The Lord knoweth them that are his. And let every one that nameth the Name of Christ, depart from iniquity.
20 But in a great house, there are not only vessels of gold and of silver, but also of wood and of earth: and some to honour, and some to dishonour.
21 If a man therefore purge himselfe from these, he shall be a vessel to honour, sanctified, & meet for y masters use, & prepared to every good worke.
22 I he also youthfull lusts: but follow righteousnesse, faith, charity, peace, with them that call on the Lord
out of a pure heart.
23 But foolish and unlearned questions auoide, knowing that they doe gender strifes.
24 And the servant of the Lord must not strive, but be gentle unto all men, apt to teach, patient;
25 In meekenesse, instructing those that oppose themselves, if God peradd-venture will give them repentance to the acknowledging of the truth:
26 And that they may recover themselves out of the snare of y devil, who are taken captive by him at his will.

CHAP. III.

1 This know also, y in the last dayes perillous times shall come.
2 For men shall be lovers of their own selv e

selves covetous, boasters, proude, blasphemers, disobedient to parents, unthankfull, unholy.

3 Without naturall affection, trucebreakers, false accusers, incontinent, fierce, despisers of those yᵗ are good.

4 Traitours, heady, high minded, lovers of pleasures more then lovers of God.

5 Having a forme of godlines, but denying ẏ power ther of: from such turne away.

6 For of this sort are they which creep into houses, & lead captive silly women laden wᵗ sins, led away wᵗ divers lusts.

7 Ever learning, and never able to come to the knowledge of the trueth.

8 Now as Iannes and Iambres withstood Moses, so do these also resist the trueth: men of corrupt mindes, reprobate concerning the faith.

9 But they shal proceed no further: for their folly shall be manifest to all men: as their's also was.

10 But thou hast fully known my doctrine, manner of life, purpose, faith, long suffering, charity, patience,

11 Persecutions, afflictions, wᵗ came to me at Antioch, at Iconium, at Lystra, what persecutions I endured: but out of them al the Lord delivered me.

12 Yea, and al that will live godly in Christ Iesus, shal suffer persecution.

13 But evil men and seducers, shall waxe worse and worse, deceiving, and being deceived.

14 But continue ẏ in ẏ things which ẏ hast learned, & hast been assured of, knowing of whom ẏ hast learned the.

15 And that from a child thou hast known the holy Scriptures, which are able to make thee wise unto salvation, through faith which is in Christ Iesus.

16 All Scripture is given by inspiration of God, and is profitable for doctrine, for reproofe, for correction, for instruction in righteousnesse:

17 That ẏ man of God may be perfect, throughly furnished to all good works.

CHA P. III.

I Charge thee therefore before God, and the Lord Iesus Christ, who shal judge the quicke and the dead at his appearing, and his kingdome:

2 Preach the word, be instant in season, out of season, repoove, rebuke, exhort wᵗ all long suffering & doctrine.

3 For the time wil come, when they will not endure sound doctrine, but after their own lusts shal they heap to themselves teachers, having itching eares:

4 And they shal turn away their eares from the trueth, and shal be turned to fables.

5 But watch thou in al things, suffer afflictions, do ẏ work of an Evangelist, make full proofe of thy ministery.

6 For I am now ready to be offered, & the time of my departure is at hand.

7 I have fought a good fight, I have finished my course, I have kept the faith.

8 Henceforth there is laid up for me a crown of righteousnesse, which the Lord the righteous judge shall give me at that day: and not to me only, but unto al them also ẏ love his appearing.

9 Do thy diligence to come shortly unto me:

10 For Demas hath forsaken me, having loved this present world: and is departed unto Thessalonica: Crescens to Galatia, Titus unto Dalmatia.

11 Onely Luke is with me. Take Marke, & bring him wᵗ thee: for he is profitable to me for the ministery.

12 And Tychicus have I sent to Ephesus:

13 The cloake that I left at Troas with Carpus, when thou comest bring with thee, and the bookes, but especially the parchments.

14 Alexander the coppersmith did me much evil: the Lord reward him according to his workes.

15 Of whom be thou ware also, for he hath greatly withstood our words.

16 At my first answer no man stood with me, but al men forsook me: I pray God that it may not be laid to their charge.

17 Notwithstanding, ẏ Lord stood with me, & strengthened me, that by me preaching might be fully known, & that al the Gentiles might heare: & I was delivered out of ẏ mouth of ẏ Lion.

18 And the Lord shal deliver me from every evil work, and will preserve me unto his heavenly kingdom: to whom be glory for ever and ever. Amen.

19 Salute Prisca and Aquila, and the household of Onesiphorus.

20 Erastus abode at Corinth: but Trophimus have I left at Miletum sicke.

21 Do thy diligence to come before winter. Eubulus greeteth thee, & Pudens, & Linus, & Claudia, & al ẏ brethren.

22 The Lord Iesus Christ be with thy spirit: Grace be with you. Amen.

The Epistle of PAVL to TITVS.

CHAP. I.

PAul a servant of God, and an Apostle of Iesus Christ, according to the faith of Gods Elect, & the acknowledging of the truth, which is after godlinesse.

2 In hope of eternal life, which God that cannot lie, promised before the world began;

3 But hath in due times manifested his word through preaching, which is committed unto me, according to the commandment of God our Saviour:

4 To Titus mine own son after the common faith; Grace, mercy, & peace, from God the Father, and the Lord Iesus Christ our Saviour.

5 For this cause left I thee in Crete, that thou shouldest set in order the things ẏ are wanting, & ordaine Elders in every city, as I had appointed thee.

6 If any be blamelesse, the husband of one wife, having faithfull children accused of not ; or unruly. 8 Such a Bishop must be blameless, as a steward of God: not self-willed; not angry: not given to wine, no striker, not given to filthy lucre;

9 But a lover of hospitality, a lover of good men, sober, just, holy, temperate;

10 Holding fast the faithful word, as he hath been taught: that he may be able by sound doctrine, both to exhort and to convince the gainsayers.

11 For there are many unruly & vain talkers and deceivers, especially they of the circumcision;

12 Whose mouths must be stopped, who subvert whole houses, teaching things which they ought not, for filthy lucres sake.

13 One of themselves, even a Prophet, of their own, said: The Cretians are always liars, evil beasts, slow bellies.

14 This witness is true: wherefore rebuke them sharply, that they may be sound in the faith.

15 Not giving heed unto Jewish fables, and commandments of men that turn from the truth.

16 Unto the pure all things are pure: but unto them that are defiled and unbelieving, is nothing pure; but even their mind and conscience is defiled.

17 They profess that they know God; but in works they deny him, being abominable, and disobedient, and unto every good work reprobate.

CHAP. II.

1 But speak thou the things which become sound doctrine:

2 That the aged men be sober, grave, temperate, sound in faith, in charity, in patience.

3 The aged women likewise, that they be in behaviour as becometh holiness, not false accusers, not given to much wine, teachers of good things;

4 That they may teach the young women to be sober, to love their husbands, to love their children,

5 To be discreet, chaste, keepers at home, good, obedient to their own husbands, that the word of God be not blasphemed.

6 Young men likewise exhort to be sober minded.

7 In all things shewing thyself a pattern of good works: in doctrine shewing uncorruptness, gravity, sincerity,

8 Sound speech that cannot be condemned; that he that is of the contrary part may be ashamed, having no evil thing to say of you.

9 Exhort servants to be obedient unto their own masters, and to please them well in all things, not answering again;

10 Not purloining, but shewing all good fidelity: that they may adorn the doctrine of God our Saviour in all things.

11 For the grace of God that bringeth salvation, hath appeared to all men,

12 Teaching us, that denying ungodliness and worldly lusts, we should live soberly, righteously, and godly, in this present world;

13 Looking for that blessed hope, and the glorious appearing of the great God, and our Saviour Jesus Christ.

14 Who gave himself for us, that he might redeem us from all iniquity, and purify unto himself a peculiar people, zealous of good works.

15 These things speak and exhort, and rebuke with all authority. Let no man despise thee.

CHAP. III.

1 Put them in mind to be subject to principalities, & powers, to obey magistrates, to be ready to every good work,

2 To speak evil of no man, to be no brawlers, but gentle, shewing all meekness unto all men.

3 For we ourselves also were sometimes foolish, disobedient, deceived, serving divers lusts & pleasures, living in malice and envy, hateful, and hating one another.

4 But after that the kindness & love of God our Saviour toward man appeared,

5 Not by works of righteousness which we have done, but according to his mercy he saved us, by the washing of regeneration & renewing of the Holy Ghost,

6 Which he shed on us abundantly through Jesus Christ our Saviour;

7 That being justified by his grace, we should be made heirs according to the hope of eternal life.

8 This is a faithful saying, and these things I will that thou affirm constantly, that they which have believed in God might be careful to maintain good works: these things are good and profitable unto men.

9 But avoid foolish questions and genealogies and contentions, and strivings about the Law: for they are unprofitable and vain.

10 A man that is an heretick, after the first and second admonition reject;

11 Knowing that he that is such is subverted and sinneth, being condemned of himself.

12 When I shall send Artemas unto thee, or Tychicus, be diligent to come unto me to Nicopolis: for I have determined there to winter.

13 Bring Zenas the Lawyer, and Apollos on their journey diligently, that nothing be wanting unto them.

14 And let ours also learn to maintain good works for necessary uses, that they be not unfruitful.

15 All that are with me salute thee. Greet them that love us in the faith. Grace be with you all. Amen.

The Epistle of PAUL to PHILEMON.

1 Paul a prisoner of Jesus Christ, and Timothy our brother, unto Philemon our dearly beloved and fellow labourer,

2 And to our beloved Apphia, & Archippus our fellow soldier, and to the Church in thy house:

3 Grace to you, and peace from God

our Father, and the Lord Iesus Christ.
4 I thanke my God, making mention of thee alwayes in my prayers,
5 Hearing of thy love and faith, which thou hast toward the Lord Iesus, and toward al Saints:
6 That the communication of thy faith may become effectual by the acknowledging of every good thing which is in you in Christ Iesus.
7 For we have great joy & consolation in thy love because the bowels of y Saints are refreshed by thee, brother.
8 Wherefore though I might be much bold in Christ, to enjoyne thee that which is convenient;
9 Yet for loves sake I rather beseech thee, being such a one, as Paul y aged, & now also a prisoner of Iesus Christ.
10 I beseech thee for my sonne Onesimus, whom I have begotten in my bonds.
11 Which in time past was to thee unprofitable, but now profitable to thee and to me.
12 Whom I have sent again: y therefore receive him: y is mine own bowels
13 Whom I would have retained with me, that in thy stead he might have ministred unto me my bonds of y Gospel.
14 But without thy mind would I do nothing: that thy benefit should not be as it were of necessitie, but willingly.
15 For perhaps he therefore departed for a season, that thou shouldest receive him for ever.
16 Not now as a servant, but above a servant, a brother beloved: especially to me, but how much more unto thee both in the flesh, and in the Lord?
17 If thou count me therefore partner receive him as my selfe.
18 If he hath wronged thee, or owe thee ought, put that on mine account.
19 I Paul have written with mine own hand, I will repay it: albeit I do not say to thee, how thou owest to me even thine own selfe besides.
20 Yea, brother, let me have joy of thee in the Lord: refresh my bowels in the Lord.
21 Having confidence in thy obedience, I wrote unto thee, knowing that thou wilt also do more then I say.
22 But withall prepare me also lodging: for I trust that through your prayers I shalbe given unto you.
23 There salute thee Epaphras my fellow prisoner in Christ Iesus:
24 Marcus, Aristarchus, Demas, Lucas, my fellow labourers.
25 The grace of our Lord Iesus Christ be with your spirit. Amen.

The Epistle of PAVL the Apostle to the HEBREWES.

CHAP. 1.

GOd who at sundry times, & in divers manners spake in time past unto the fathers by the Prophets,
2 Hath in these last dayes spoken unto us by his Son, whom he hath appointed heire of all things, by whom also he made the worlds.
3 Who being the brightnesse of his glory, and the expresse image of his person, and upholding all things by the word of his power, when he had by himself purged our sinnes, sate down on the right hand of y majesty on high:
4 Being made so much better then the Angels, as he hath by inheritance obtained a more excellent Name then they.
5 For unto which of the Angels said he at any time, Thou art my Sonne this day have I begotten thee? And again, I will be to him a Father, and he shalbe to me a Son.
6 And again, when he bringeth in the first begotten into y world, he saith, & let all the Angels of God worship him.
7 And of the Angels he saith, Who maketh his Angels spirits, and his Ministers a flame of fire.
8 But unto the Son he saith, Thy throne, O God, is for ever and ever: a Scepter of righteousnesse is the Scepter of thy kingdome.
9 Thou hast loved righteousnesse, & hated iniquity, therfore God, even thy God hath anointed thee with the oyl of gladnesse above thy fellowes.
10 And, Lord in the beginning hast laid the foundation of y earth: & the heavens are the works of thine hands.
11 They shal perish, but thou remainest: and they all shall wax old as doeth a garment.
12 And as a vesture shalt y fold them up, and they shalbe changed, but thou art the same, & thy yeers shall not fail.
13 But to which of y Angels said he at any time, Sit on my right hand, until I make thine enemies thy footstoole.
14 Are they not all ministring spirits sent forth to minister for them, who shalbe heires of salvation?

CHAP. 2.

THerefore we ought to give the more earnest heed to the things which we have heard, lest at any time we should let them slip.
2 For if the word spoken by Angels was stedfast, and every transgression and disobedience received a just recompence of reward:
3 How shal we escape if we neglect so great salvation, which at y first began to be spoken by y Lord, and was confirmed unto us by the y heard him,
4 God also bearing them witnesse, both with signes & wonders, & with divers miracles, and gifts of the holy Ghost, according to his own will?
5 For unto the Angels hath he not put in subjection the world to come, whereof we speake.
6 But one in a certain place testified, saying, What is man, that thou art mindful of him? or the son of man that thou visitest him?
7 Thou madest him a little lower then the Angels, thou crownedst him with glory and honour, and didst set over the workes of thine hands.

7 Thou hast put all things in subjection under his feet. For in y he put all things under him, he left no thing y is not put under him. But now we see not yet all things put under him.
9 But we see Jesus, who was made a little lower than the Angels, for the suffering of death, crowned with glory and honour, that he by the grace of God should taste death for every man.
10 For it became him, for whom are all things, and by whom are all things, in bringing many sons unto glory, to make the captaine of their salvation perfect through sufferings.
11 For both he that sanctifieth, and they who are sanctified are all of one:
for which cause he is not ashamed to call them brethren.
12 Saying, I will declare thy Name unto my brethren, in the midst of the congregation will I sing praise unto thee.
13 And again, I will put my trust in him: and again, Behold, I, and the children which God hath given me.
14 Forasmuch then as the children are partakers of flesh and blood, he also himself likewise took part of the same, that through death he might destroy him that had the power of death, that is the devil:
15 And deliver them, who through fear of death, were all their life time subject to bondage.
16 For verily he took not on him the nature of Angels, but he took on him
the seed of Abraham.
17 Wherefore in all things it behooved him to be made like unto his brethren, that he might be a merciful and faithfull high Priest in things pertaining to God, to make reconciliation for the sins of the people.
18 For in that he himself hath suffered being tempted, he is able to succour them that are tempted.

CHAP. III.

1 Wherefore holy brethren partakers of the heavenly calling, consider the Apostle, and high Priest of our confession, Christ Iesus, 2 Who was faithfull to him that ordained him, as also Moses was faithfull in all his house.
3 For this man was counted worthy of more glory then Moses, inasmuch as he who hath builded y house, hath more honour then the house.
4 For every house is builded by some man, but he y built all things is God.
5 And Moses verily was faithfull in all his house as a servant, for a testimony of those things which were to be spoken after.
6 But Christ as a Son over his own house, whose house are we, if we hold fast the confidence, and the rejoycing of the hope firme unto the end.
7 Wherefore as the holy Ghost saith,
To day if ye will heare his voyce, 8 Harden not your hearts, as in the provocation, in the day of temptation in the wilderness:
9 When your fathers tempted me, proooved me, and saw my works, fourty yeers.
10 Wherefore I was grieved with that generation and said, they dot al-way erre in their hearts, and they have not known my wayes.
11 So I swore in my wrath, They shall not enter into my rest.
12 Take heed brethren, lest there be in any of you an evill heart of unbelief in departing from y living God.
13 But exhort one another daily while it is called to day, lest any of you be hardened through y deceitfulnes of sin.
14 For we are made partakers of Christ, if we hold the beginning of our confidence stedfast unto the end.
15 While it is said, To day if ye will heare his voyce, harden not your hearts as in the provocation.
16 For some when they had heard, did provoke: howbeit not all that came out of Egypt by Moses.
17 But with whom was he grieved forty yeers? was it not with them that had sinned, whose carkases fell in the wilderness?
18 And to whom swore he that they should not enter into his rest, but to them that believed not?
19 So we see that they could not enter in because of unbelief.

CHAP. IV.

1 Let us therefore feare lest a promise being left us, of entring into his rest, any of you should seeme, to come short of it.
2 For unto us was y Gospel preached as well as unto them: but the word pre-ched did not profit them, not being mixed with faith in them that heard it.
3 For we which have believed, do enter into rest, as he said, As I have sworn in my wrath, if they shall enter into my rest, although the workes were finished from the foundation of y world.
4 For he spake in a certain place of y seventh day on this wise: And God did rest y seventh day from all his workes.
5 And in this place again: If they shall enter into my rest.
6 Seeing therefore it remaineth that some must enter therein, and they to whom it was first preached, enter not in because of unbelief:
7 Againe, he limiteth a certain day, saying in David; To day, after so long a time, as it is said, To day if ye will hear his voice, harden not your hearts.
8 For if Iesus had given them rest, then would he not afterward have spoken of another day.
9 There remaineth therefore a rest to the people of God.
10 For he that is entred into his rest, he also hath ceased from his owne workes, as God did from his.
11 Let us labour therefore to enter into

vnto thar reit, left any man fal after the same ensample of vnbeliefe.

12 For the word of God is quicke and powerful & sharper then any two edged sword, pierceing even to y dividing asunder of soule and spirit, and of the ioynts & marrow, & is a discerner of the thoughts and intents of the heart.

13 Neither is there any creature that is not manifest in his sight: but all things are naked & opened unto y eies of him with whom we have to do.

14 Seeing then that we have a great high Priest that is passed into the heavens, lest is the Son of God, let us hold fast our profession.

15 For we have not an high Priest, y cannot be touched with the feeling of our infirmities: but was in all points tempted like as we are, yet without sin.

16 Let us therefore come boldly unto the throne of grace that we may obtain mercy, & find grace to help in time of need.

CHAP. V.

FOr every high Priest taken from among men is ordained for men in things pertaining to God, that he may offer both gifts and sacrifices for sins.

2 Who can have compassion on the ignorant, and on them that are out of the way, for that he himselfe also is compassed with infirmity.

3 And by reason hereof he ought as for the people, so also for himself, to offer for sins.

4 And no man taketh this honour unto himselfe, but he that is called of God, as was Aaron.

5 So also Christ glorified not himself to be made an high Priest, but he that said unto him, Thou art my Son, this day have I begotten thee.

6 As he saith also in another place, Thou art a Priest for ever after the order of Melchisedec.

7 Who in the dayes of his flesh when he had offered up prayers and supplications, with strong crying and teares, unto him y was able to save him from death, & was heard in that he feared.

8 Though he were a Son, yet learned he obedience, by the things y he suffered.

9 And being made perfect, he became the author of eternall salvation unto all them that obey him.

10 Called of God an high Priest after the order of Melchisedec:

11 Of whom we have many things to say and hard to be uttered, seeing ye are dull of hearing.

12 For when for the time ye ought to be teachers, ye have need that one teach you again, & y first principles of the Oracles of God, & are become such as have need of milk, & not of strong meat.

13 For every one that useth milk, is unskilfull in the word of righteousnesse, for he is a babe.

14 But strong meat belongeth unto them y are of full age, even those who by reason of use, have their senses exercised to discern both good & evill.

CHAP. VI.

THerefore leaving the principles of the doctrine of Christ, let us go unto perfection, not laying again the foundation of repentance from dead works, and of faith towards God,

2 Of the doctrine of baptismes, & of laying on of hands, & of resurrection of y dead, & of eternall judgment.

3 And this will we do, if God permit.

4 For it is impossible for those who were once enlightened, and have tasted of the heavenly gift, and were partakers of the holy Ghost,

5 And have tasted the good word of God, & y powers of y world to come,

6 If they shall fall away, to renew them again unto repentance, seeing they crucifie to themselves the Son of God afresh, & put him to an open shame.

7 For the earth which drinketh in the rain y cometh oft upon it, & bringeth forth herbs meet for them by whom it is dressed, receiveth blessing from God:

8 But that which beareth thornes & briers, is rejected, & is nigh unto cursing, whose end is to be burned.

9 But be ye loved, we are perswaded better things of you, & things y accompany salvation, though we thus speak.

10 For God is not unrighteous to forget your work, and labour of love which ye have shewed toward his Name, in that ye have ministred unto the saints, and do minister.

11 And we desire that every one of you do shew the same diligence to the full assurance of hope unto the end:

12 That ye be not slothfull, but followers of them, who through faith and patience inherite the promises.

13 For when God made promise to Abraham, because he could sweare by no greater, he sware by himself,

14 Saying, Surely, blessing, I will blesse thee, and multiplying, I will multiply thee.

15 And so after he had patiently endured, he obtained the promise.

16 For men verily sweare by the greater, and an oath for confirmation is to them an end of all strife.

17 Wherein God willing more abundantly to shew unto the heirs of promise the immutability of his counsel, confirmed it by an oath:

18 That by two immutable things, in which it was impossible for God to lie, we might have a strong consolation, who have fled for refuge to lay hold upon the hope set before us.

19 Which hope we have as an anchor of the soul both sure & stedfast, & which entreth into that within the vaile.

20 Whither the forerunner is for us entred, even Iesus, made an high priest for ever after y order of Melchisedec.

CHAP. VII.

FOr this Melchisedec king of Salem, Priest of the most high God, who met Abraham returning from y slaughter of the kings, and blessed him

2 To

To whom also Abraham gave a part of all: first being by interpretation King of righteousnesse, and then also King of Salem, which is King of peace.

3 Without father, without mother, without descent, having neither beginning of dayes, nor end of life, but made like unto the Son of God, abideth a Priest continually.

4 Now consider how great this man was, unto whom even the Patriarch Abraham gave the tenth of y spoiles.

5 And verily, they y are of the sonnes of Levi, who receive y office of y Priesthood, have a commandment to take tithes of y people according to y law, that is of their brethren, though they came out of the loynes of Abraham.

6 But he whose descent is not counted from them, received tithes of Abraham, and blessed him that had the promises.

7 And without al contradiction, the lesse is blessed of the better.

8 And here men that die, receive tithes: but there he receiveth them, of whom it is witnessed, that liveth.

9 And (as I may so say) Levi also who receiveth tithes, payed tithes in Abraham.

10 For he was yet in y loynes of his father, when Melchisedec met him.

11 If therefore perfection were by the Leviticall Priesthood (for under it the people received the Law) what further need was there y another Priest should arise after the order of Melchisedec, & not be called after y order of Aaron?

12 For the Priest-hood being changed, there is made of necessity a change also of the Law.

13 For he of whom these things are spoken, pertaineth to another tribe, of which no man gave attendance at the Altar.

14 For it is evident y our Lord sprang out of Iuda, of which tribe Moses spake nothing concerning Priesthood.

15 And it is yet far more evident: for that after the similitude of Melchisedec there ariseth another Priest.

16 Who is made not after the law of a carnal commandment, but after the power of an endlesse life.

17 For he testifieth, thou art a Priest for ever after y order of Melchisedec.

18 For there is verily a disanulling of the commandment going before for y weakenesse & unprofitablenesse therof.

19 For y law made nothing perfect: but a bringing in of a better hope did: by the which we draw nigh unto God.

20 And in as much as not without an oath he was made a Priest.

21 (For those Priests were made without an oath, but this with an oath: by him y said unto him, The Lord hath sworne & will not repent, Thou art a Priest for ever after y order of Melchisedec.)

22 By so much was Iesus made a surety of a better Testament.

23 And they truly were many Priests, because they were not suffered to continue, by reason of death.

24 But this man because he continueth ever, hath an unchangeable Priesthood.

25 Wherefore he is able also to save them to the uttermost, that come unto God by him, seeing he ever liveth to make intercession for them.

26 For such an high Priest became us, who is holy, harmelesse undefiled, separate from sinners, & made higher then the heavens.

27 who needeth not daily as those high Priests, to offer up sacrifices, first for his own sins and then for the peoples: for this he did once, when he offered up himselfe.

28 For y law maketh men high Priests which have infirmity, but y word of y oath wch was since the Law, maketh the Son, who is consecrated for evermore.

CHAP. VIII.

NOw of y things wch we have spoke, this is y summe: we have such an high Priest, who is set on the right hand of the throne of y Majesty in the heavens.

2 A Minister of the Sanctuary, and of the true Tabernacle which the Lord pitched, and not man.

3 For every high Priest is ordained to offer gifts and sacrifices: wherefore it is of necessity that this man have somewhat also to offer.

4 For if he were on earth, he should not be a priest, seeing y there are Priests that offer gifts according to the Law;

5 Who serve unto the example and shadow of heavenly things, as Moses was admonished of God, when he was about to make the Tabernacle. For (saith he) that thou make all things according to the patterne shewed to thee in the mount.

6 But now hath he obtained a more excellent ministry, by how much also he is y Mediatour of a better covenant, wch was established upon better promises.

7 For if that first covenant had been faultlesse, then should no place have been sought for the second.

8 For finding fault with them, he saith, Behold, the dayes come (saith y Lord) when I will make a new Covenant with y house of Israel, & y house of Iudah.

9 Not according to the Covenant that I made with their Fathers, in the day when I took them by y hand, to leade them out of the Land of Egypt, because they continued not in my covenant, & I regarded them not, saith the Lord.

10 For this is the covenant that I will make with the house of Israel after those dayes, saith the Lord: I will put my Lawes into their mind, and write them in their hearts, & I will bee to them a God, & they shall be to me a people.

11 And they shall not teach every man his neighbour, and every man his brother, saying, Know y Lord: for all shall know me from the least to y greatest.

12 For I will bee merciful to their unrighteousnes, and their sinnes, and their iniquities will I remember no more.

13 In that he saith, A new covenant, he he hath made the first old. Now that which decayeth and waxeth old, is ready to vanish away.

CHAP. IX.

THen verily the first covenant had also ordinances of Divine service, and a worldly Sanctuary.

2 For there was a tabernacle made, the first wherein was the candlestick, and the table, and the Shewbread which is called the Sanctuary,

3 And after ỹ second vail, the tabernacle, which is called, The holiest of all;

4 Which had ỹ golden censer, and ỹ ark of ỹ covenant overlaid round about with gold, wherein was ỹ golden pot that had manna, & Aarons rod ỹ budded, and ỹ tables of the covenant;

5 And over it the cherubims of glory shadowing the Mercy-seat; of which we cannot now speak particularly.

6 Now when these things were thus ordained, the priests went alwayes into the first tabernacle, accomplishing the service of God.

7 But into the second went the high priest alone once every yeer, not without blood which he offered for himself, and for the errours of the people.

8 The holy Ghost this signifying, that the way into the Holiest of all was not yet made manifest, while as the first tabernacle was yet standing:

9 Which was a figure for the time then present; in which were offered both gifts and sacrifices, that could not make him that did ỹ service perfect, as pertaining to the conscience.

10 Which stood onely in meats and drinks, and divers washings, and carnall ordinances imposed on them until the time of reformation.

11 But Christ being come an high Priest of good things to come, by a greater and more perfect Tabernacle, not made with hands, that is to say, not of this building;

12 Neither by ỹ blood of goats and calves: but by his own blood he entred in once into ỹ Holy place having obtained eternall redemption for us.

13 For if the blood of bulls and of goats, and the ashes of an heifer sprinkling the unclean, sanctifieth to the purifying of the flesh.

14 How much more shall the blood of Christ, who through the eternall Spirit offred himself without spot to God, purge your conscience from dead works to serve the living God?

15 And for this cause he is the Mediatour of the new Testament, that by means of death, for the redemption of ỹ transgressions that were under ỹ first testament, they which are called might receive ỹ promise of eternal inheritance.

16 For where a testament is, there must also of necessity be the death of the Testator.

17 For a Testament is of force after men are dead: otherwise it is of no strength at all while ỹ Testator liveth.

18 Whereupon neither the first Testament was dedicated without blood.

19 For when Moses had spoken every precept to all the people according to the law: he took the blood of calves, and of goats, with water, and red wooll, and hyssop, and sprinkled both the book and all the people,

20 Saying, This is ỹ blood of the Testament which God hath enjoyned unto you.

21 Moreover, he sprinkled with blood both the Tabernacle, and all the vessels of the ministerie.

22 And almost all things are by the law purged with blood: and without shedding of blood is no remission.

23 It was therefore necessary that the patternes of things in the heavens should be purified with these: but the heavenly things themselves, with better sacrifices then these.

24 For Christ is not entred into the holy places made with hands, which are the figures of the true, but into heaven it self now to appear in the presence of God for us.

25 Nor yet ỹ he should offer himself often, as ỹ high priest entreth into the holy place every yeer with blood of others;

26 For then must he often have suffered since the foundation of the world: but now once in the end of the world, hath he appeared to put away sin by the sacrifice of himself.

27 And as it is appointed unto men once to die, but after this ỹ judgement:

28 So Christ was once offered to bear the sins of many, and unto them that look for him, shall he appear the second time without sin to salvation.

CHAP. X.

FOr ỹ Law having a shadow of good things to come, & not ỹ very image of the things, can never by sacrifices which they offered yeerly year by year continually, make ỹ comers thereto perfect.

2 For then would they not have ceased to be offered, because that the worshippers once purged, should have had no more conscience of sins?

3 But in those sacrifices there is a remembrance again made of sins every yeer.

4 For it is not possible ỹ ỹ blood of bulls & of goats should take away sins.

5 Wherefore when he commeth into the world, he saith, Sacrifice and offering thou wouldest not, but a body hast thou prepared me.

6 In burnt-offerings and sacrifices for sin thou hast had no pleasure:

7 Then said I, Loe, I come (in the volume of the book it is written of me) to do thy will, O God.

8 Above when he said, Sacrifice & offering, & burnt offerings, & offering for sin ỹ wouldest not, neither hadst pleasure therein, which are offered by ỹ Law;

9 Then said he, Loe, I come to do thy will (O God) He taketh away the first, that he may establish the second.

10 By the which will we are sanctified, through the offering of the body

34 For ye had compassion on me in my bonds, and took joyfully the spoiling of your goods, knowing in your selves that ye have in heaven a better, and enduring substance.

35 Cast not away therefore your confidence, which hath great recompence of reward.

36 For ye have need of patience, that after ye have done the will of God, ye might receive the promise.

37 For yet a little while, & he y shal come, will come, and will not tary.

38 Now the just shall live by faith: but if any man draw back, my soul shal have no pleasure in him.

39 But we are not of them who draw back unto perdition; but of them that beleeve to the saving of the soul.

CHAP. XI.

NOw faith is the substance of things hoped for, the evidence of things not seen.

2 For by it the Elders obtained a good report.

3 Through faith we understand that the worlds were framed by y word of God, so y things which are seen, were not made of things which do appear.

4 By faith Abel offred to God a more excellent sacrifice then Kain, by which he obtained witnesse that he was righteous, God testifying of his gift, and by it, he being dead, yet speaketh.

5 By faith Enoch, was translated, y he should not see death, and was not found, because God had translated him: For before his translation he had this testimony, that he pleased God.

6 But without faith it is impossible to please him: for he y commeth to God, must beleeve y he is, and y he is a rewarder of them y diligently seek him.

7 By faith Noah being warned of God, of things not seen, as yet moowed with feat, prepared an ark to the saving of his house, by the which he condemned the world, and became heir of the righteousnesse, which is by faith.

8 By faith Abraham when he was called to go out into a place which he should after receive for an inheritance, obeyed; and he went out, not knowing whither he went.

9 By faith he sojourned in the land of promise, as in a strange countrey dwelling in Tabernacles w Isaac & Jacob, the heirs with him of y same promise.

10 For he looked for a city which hath foundations, whose builder and maker is God.

11 Through faith also Sara her self received strength to conceive seed, and was delivered of a childe, when she was past age, because she judged him faithful who had promised.

12 Therfore of one & him as good as dead, do many as y stars of y skie in multitude, and as the sand which is by y sea shore innumerable.

13 These all died in faith, not having received the promises, but having seen

seen them afar off, and were perswaded of them, and embraced them, and confessed that they were strangers and pilgrims on the earth.

14 For they that say such things, declare plainly y they seek a country.

15 And truly if they had been mindfull of that country, from whence they came out, they might have had opportunity to have returned.

16 But now they desire a better country, that is an heavenly: wherefore God is not ashamed to be called their God; for he hath prepared for them a city.

17 By faith Abraham when he was tryed offered up Isaac: and he that had receyved the promises, offered up his onely begotten Son,

18 Of whom it was said, That in Isaac shall thy seed be called:

19 Accounting that God was able to raise him up even from the dead: from whence also he received him in a figure.

20 By faith Isaac blessed Iacob and Esau concerning things to come.

21 By faith Iacob when he was a dying, blessed both y sons of Ioseph, & worshipped leaning upon y top of his staff.

22 By faith Joseph when he died made mention of the departing of the children of Israel; and gave commandment concerning his bones.

23 By faith Moses when he was born, was hid three months of his parents because they saw he was a proper child; & they not afraid of y kings commandment.

24 By faith, Moses when he was come to years, refused to be called the son of Pharaoh's daughter;

25 Chusing rather to suffer affliction with the people of God, than to enjoy the pleasures of sin for a season;

26 Esteeming the reproach of Christ greater riches than the treasures in Egypt: for he had respect unto the recompence of the reward.

27 By faith he forsook Egypt, not fearing the wrath of the king: for he endured, as seeing him who is invisible.

28 Through faith he kept y Passover, and y sprinkling of blood, lest he y destroyed y first born, should touch the.

29 By faith they passed through the red Sea, as by dry land: which the Egyptians assaying to do were drowned.

30 By faith the walles of Jericho fell down after they were compassed about seven dayes.

31 By faith the harlot Rahab perished not with them that believed not, when she had received the spies with peace.

32 And what shall I more say? for the time would fail me to tell of Gideon, and of Barak, and of Samson, and of Jephthah, of David also and Samuel, and of the prophets:

33 Who through faith subdued kingdomes, wrought righteousnes, obtained promises, stopped y mouths of Lyons,

34 Quenched y violence of fire, escaped y edge of the sword, out of weakness were made strong, waxed valiant in fight, turned to flight y armies of the aliens.

35 Women received their dead raised to life again: & others were tortured, not accepting deliverance, that they might obtain a better resurrection:

36 And others had triall of cruel mockings and scourgings; yea, moreover of bonds and imprisonment.

37 They were stoned, they were sawen asunder, were tempted, were slain with the sword: they wandred about in sheep-skins, and goat skins, being destitute, afflicted, tormented;

38 Of whom y world was not worthy: they wandred in desarts, & in mountains, and in dens, & caves of the earth.

39 And these all having obtained a good report through faith, received not the promise;

40 God having provided some better thing for us: that they without us should not be made perfect.

CHAP. XII.

WHerefore seeing we also are compassed about with so great a cloud of witnesses, let us lay aside every weight, and the sin which doth so easily beset us, and let us run with patience the race that is set before us,

2 Looking unto Jesus the author & finisher of our faith; who for the joy that was set before him endured the crosse, despising the shame, & is set down on the right hand of the throne of God.

3 For consider him y endured such contradiction of sinners against himself, lest ye be wearied and faint in your minds.

4 Ye have not yet resisted unto blood, striving against sin.

5 And ye have forgotten the exhortation which speaketh unto you as unto children, My sonne, despise not thou the chastening of the Lord, nor faint when thou art rebuked of him.

6 For whom the Lord loveth, he chastereth, and scourgeth every son whom he receiveth.

7 If ye endure chastening, God dealeth with you as with sons: for what son is he whom the father chasteneth not?

8 But if ye be without chastisement, whereof all are partakers, then are ye bastards, and not sons.

9 Furthermore, we have had fathers of our flesh which corrected us, and we gave them reverence: shall we not much rather be in subjection unto the Father of spirits, and live?

10 For they verily for a few dayes chastened us after their own pleasure; but he for our profit, that we might be partakers of his holinesse.

11 Now no chastening for the present seemeth to be of joyous, but grievous: nevertheless, afterward it yeeldeth the peaceable fruit of righteousnesse unto them which are exercised thereby.

12 Wherefore lift up the hands which hang down, and the feeble knees;

13 And make straight paths for your feet, lest that which is lame be turned out of the way, but let it rather be healed.

14 Follow

follow peace with all men, and se without which no man shal

looking diligently, lest any man the grace of God, lest any root ssesse springing up, trouble d thereby many be defiled:
lest there be any fornicatour, or e person, as Esau, who for one at meat sold his birthright.
ye know how that afterward
he would have inherited y' bleswas rejected: for he found no of repentance, though he sought fully with teares.
For ye are not come unto the that might be touched, & that with fire, nor unto blacknesse, arknesse, and tempest,
d the sound of a trumpet, & the of words, which voyce they that entreated that the word should ken to them any more.
For they could not endure that was commanded: & if so much also terrible was the sight, that ye are come unto mount Sion, heavenly Hierusalem, and to an merable company of Angels.

To the generall assembly, and h of the first-borne, which are written in heaven, and to God the ge of all, and to the spirits of just made perfect.
And to Iesus, the Mediatour o
new Covenant, and to the blood sprinkling, that speaketh better
y then that of Abel.
See that ye refuse not him that eaketh: for if they escaped not, who fused him that spake on earth, much he shall not we escape, if we turn a-from him y' speaketh from heaven.
Whose voice then shooke the earth:
now he hath promised, saying, Yet once more I shake not the earth ly, but also heaven.
And this word, yet once more,
ifieth y removing of those things are shaken, as of things that are e, that those things which cannot be aken, may remain.
Wherefore we receiving a king-which cannot be moved, let us e grace, whereby we may serve y fear.

For our God is a consuming fire.

CHAP. XIII.

Brotherly love continue.
2 Be not forgetful to entertaine gers, for thereby some have en-rtained Angels unawares.
Remember them that are in bonds, thinking with them, and them which are in adversity, as being your selves also in the body.
3 Marriage is honourable in all, and the bed undefiled: but whormongers and adulterers God will judge.
5 Let your conversation be without covetousnes, and be content with such things as ye have: for he hath said, I will never leave thee, nor forsake thee.
6 So that we may boldly say, The Lord is my helper, and I will not fear what manshall do unto me.
7 Remember them which have the rule over you, who have spoken to you the word of God, whose faith follow, considering y' end of their conversation.
8 Iesus Christ the same yesterday,
and to day, and for ever.
9 Be not carried about with divers and strange doctrines: for it is a good thing y' y heart be established with grace, not with meates, which have not profited them that have been occupied therein.
10 We have an altar whereof they have no right to eat, which serve y' Tabernacle.
11 For the bodies of those beasts, whose blood is brought into the Sanctuary by the high Preist for sin, are burnt without the campe.
12 Wherefore Iesus also, that he might sanctifie the people with his own blood, suffered without the gate.
13 Let us go forth therefore to him without y' camp, bearing his reproch.
14 For here have we no continuing city, but we seek one to come.
15 By him therefore let us offer the sacrifice of praise to God continually, that is, the fruit of our lips, giving thankes to his Name.
16 But to do good, and to communicate, forget not: for with such sacrifices God is well pleased.
17 Obey them that have the rule over you, and submit your selves: for they watch for your soules, as they that must give account, that they may do it with joy, and not with grefe:
for that is unprofitable for you.
18 Pray for us: for we trust we have a good conscience, in all things willing to live honestly.
19 But I beseech you the rather to do this, y I may be restored to you sooner.
20 Now the God of peace, that brought again from the dead our Lord Iesus, that great Shep eard of the sheepe, through the blood of the everlasting Covenant, 21 Make you perfect in every good work to do his will, working in you that which is well pleasing in his sight, through Iesus Christ, to whom be glory for ever and ever. Amen.
22 And I beseech you, brethren, suffer the word of exhortation, for I have written a letter to you in few words.
23 Know ye that our brother Timothy is set at liberty, with whom if he come shortly, I will see you.
24 Salute all them that have the rule over you, and all the Saints. They of Italy salute you.
25 Grace be with you all. Amen.

CHAP. I.

IAmes a servant of God, & of y Lord Iesus Christ, to y twelve tribes & are scattered abroad, greeting.

2 My brethren, count it all joy when ye fal into divers temptations.

3 Knowing this, that the trying of your faith worketh patience.

4 But let patience have her perfect work, that ye may be perfect & entire, wanting nothing.

5 If any of you lacke wisedome, let him aske of God, that giveth to all men liberally, and upbraideth not: and it shal be given him.

6 But let him ask in faith, nothing wavering, for he y wavers, is like a wave of y sea, driven with y wind, & tossed.

7 For let not that man thinke that he shal receive any thing of the Lord.

8 A double minded man is unstable in al his wayes.

9 Let the brother of low degree, rejoyce in that he is exalted:

10 But the rich, in that he is made low: because as the flowre of the grasse he shal passe away.

11 For y Sun is no sooner risen with a burning heat, but it withereth y grasse & y flowre thereof falleth, & y grace of y fashion of it perisheth: so also shal y rich man fade away in his wayes.

12 Blessed is y man y endureth temptation, for when he is tried, he shal receive the crown of life, which y Lord hath promised to them that love him.

13 Let no man say when he is tempted, I am tempted of God: for God cannot be tempted with evil, neither tempteth he any man.

14 But every man is tempted, when he is drawn away of his owne lust, & enticed.

15 Then when lust hath conceived, it bringeth forth sin: and sin, when it is finished, bringeth forth death.

16 Do not erre, my beloved brethren.

17 Every good gift, & every perfect gift is from above, & commeth down from y Father of lights, with whom is no variablenes, neither shadow of turning.

18 Of his own will begate he us, with the word of Trueth, that we should be a kind of first fruits of his creatures.

19 Wherefore, my beloved brethren, let every man be swift to heare, slow to speake, slow to wrath.

20 For the wrath of man worketh not the righteousnesse of God.

21 Wherefore lay apart al filthinesse, and superfluitie of naughtinesse: and receive with meeknesse the engrafted word, which is able to save your souls.

22 But be ye doers of y word, and not hearers only, deceiving your own soul.

23 For if any be a hearer of the word and not a doer, he is like unto a man beholding his natural face in a glasse:

24 For he beholdeth himselfe, and goeth his way, and straightway forgetteth what manner of man he was.

25 But who so looketh into the perfect law of liberty, and continueth therein, he being not a forgetful hearer, but a doer of the worke, this man shalbe blessed in his deed.

26 If any man among you seme to be religious, and bridleth not his tongue, but deceiveth his owne heart, this mans religion is vain.

27 Pure religion, and undefiled before God, and the Father, is this, To visite the fatherlesse and widowes in their affliction, and to keepe himselfe unspotted from the world.

CHAP. II.

My brethren, have not the faith of our Lord Iesus Christ the Lord of glory, with respect of person.

2 For if there come unto your assembly a man with a gold ring, in goodly apparel, and there come in also a poore man in vile rayment,

3 And ye have respect to him that weareth the gay clothing, and say unto him, Sit thou here in a good place: and say to the poor, Stand thou there, or sit here under my footestoole:

4 Are ye not then partial in your selves, & are become judges of evil thoughts?

5 Hearken, my beloved brethren, Hath not God chosen y poore of this world rich in faith, & heires of y kingdom, which he hath promised to them that love him?

6 But ye have despised the poore. Doe not rich men oppresse you, & draw you before the judgment seates?

7 Do not they blaspheme that worthy Name, by the which ye are called?

8 If ye fulfill the royal Law according to the Scripture, Thou shalt love thy neighbour as thy self, ye do well:

9 But if ye have respect to persons, ye commit sin, and are convinced of the Law as transgressours.

10 For whosoever shal keep the whole Law, and yet offend in one point, he is guilty of al.

11 For he y said, Do not commit adultery, said also, Do not kil. Now if thou commit no adultery, yet if thou kil, art become a transgressour of y Law.

12 So speake ye, & so do as they that shal be judged by the Law of liberty.

13 For he shal have judgment without mercy, y hath shewed no mercy: & mercy rejoyceth against judgment.

14 What doeth it profite, my brethren, though a man say he hath faith, and have not workes? can faith save him?

15 If a brother or sister be naked, and destitute of daily food,

16 And one of you say unto them, Depart in peace, be you warmed and filled: not withstanding, ye give them not those things which are needful to the body: what doth it profit?

17 Even so faith, if it hath not works, is dead being alone.

ing a man may say, Thou hast faith, and I have works: shew me thy faith without thy works, and I will shew me my faith by my works. 19 Thou believest that there is one God, thou doest well: the devils also believe and tremble. 20 But wilt thou know, O vain man, that faith without works is dead? 21 was not Abraham our father justified by works, when he had offered Isaac his son upon the altar? 22 Seest thou how faith wrought with his works, and by works was faith made perfect? 23 And the Scripture was fulfilled, which saith, Abraham believed God, and it was imputed to him for righteousness: and he was called the friend of God. 24 Ye see then how that by works a man is justified, and not by faith only. 25 Likewise also, was not Rahab the harlot justified by works, when she had received the messengers, and had sent them out another way? 26 For as the body without the spirit is dead, so faith without works is dead also.

CHAP. III.

1 My brethren, be not many masters, knowing that we shall receive the greater condemnation. 2 For in many things we offend all. If any man offend not in word, the same is a perfect man, and able also to bridle the whole body. 3 Behold, we put bits in the horses mouths, that they may obey us, and we turn about their whole body. 4 Behold also the ships, which though they be so great, and are driven of fierce winds, yet are they turned about with a very small helme, whithersoever the governour listeth. 5 Even so the tongue is a little member, and yet boasteth great things. Behold how great a matter a little fire kindleth. 6 And the tongue is a fire, a world of iniquity: so is the tongue among our members, that it defileth the whole body, and setteth on fire the course of nature, and it is set on fire of hell. 7 For every kind of beasts, & of birds, & of serpents, & things in the sea is tamed, & hath been tamed of mankind. 8 But the tong we can no man tame: it is an unruly evil, full of deadly poyson. 9 Therewith bless we God even the father, & therewith curse we men, which are made after the similitude of God. 10 Out of the same mouth proceedeth blessing and cursing: my brethren, these things ought not so to be. 11 Doth a fountain send forth at the same place sweet water, and bitter? 12 Can the figgtree, my brethren, bear olive berries, either a vine, figs? so can no fountain both yeeld salt water and fresh. 13 Who is a wise man, and endued with knowledge among you? let him shew out of a good conversation his works with meeknesse of wisdom. 14 But if ye have bitter envying and strife in your hearts, glory not, and lie not against the truth. 15 This wisdom descendeth not from above, but is earthly, sensual, devilish. 16 For where envying and strife is, there is confusion, & every evil work. 17 But the wisedome that is from above, is first pure, then peaceable, gentle, and easie to be intreated, full of mercy and good fruits, without partiality, and without hypocrisie. 18 And the fruit of righteousnesse is sown in peace of them y make peace.

CHAP. IIII.

1 FRom whence come wars and fightings among you? come they not hence, even of your lusts, that warre in your members. 2 Ye lust, and have not: ye kil, and desire to have, and cannot obtain: ye fight and war, yet ye have not, because ye ask not. 3 Ye ask and receive not, because ye ask amisse, that ye may consume it upon your lusts. 4 Ye adulterers, and adulteresses, know ye not that the friendship of the world is enmity with God, whosoever therefore will be a friend of the world, is the enemy of God. 5 Do ye think that the Scripture saith in vain, The spirit that dwelleth in us, lusteth to envy? 6 But he giveth more grace, wherefore he saith, God resisteth the proud, but giveth grace to the humble. 7 Submit your selves therefore to God: resist y devil, & hee will flee from you. 8 Draw nigh to God, and he will draw nigh to you: cleanse your hands, ye sinners, and purifie your hearts, ye double minded. 9 Be afflicted, and mourn, and weep: let your laughter be turned into mourning, & your joy into heavinesse. 10 Humble your selves in the sight of the Lord, and he shal lift you up. 11 Speake not evil one of another, brethren. He that speaketh evil of his brother, and judgeth his brother, speaketh evil of the Law, and judgeth y Law: but if thou judge the Law, y art not a doer of the Law, but a Judge. 12 There is one Lawgiver, who is able to save, and to destroy: who are thou that judgest another? 13 Go to now, ye that say to day, or to morrow we will go into such a city, and continue there a yeere, and buy, and sel, and get gain: 14 Whereas ye know not what shal be on the morrow: for what is your life? It is even a vapour that appeareth for a little time, and then vanisheth away. 15 For that ye ought to say, If y Lord will, we shal live, and do this or that. 16 But now ye rejoyce in your boastings: al such rejoycing is evil. 17 Therefore to him that knoweth to do good, and doeth it not, to him it is sin.

CHAP. V.

GOe to now, ye rich men, weep and howle for your miseries that shall come upon you.

2 Your riches are corrupted, and your garments moth-eaten.

3 Your gold and silver is cankred, and the rust of them shall be a witness against you, & shall eate your flesh as it were fire: ye have heaped treasure together for the last dayes.

4 Behold the hire of the labourers which have reaped down your fields, & is of you kept backe by fraud, crieth: And y cries of them which have reaped are entred into the eares of y Lord of Sabbaoth.

5 Ye have lived in pleasure on the earth, & been wanton: ye have nourished your hearts as in a day of slaughter.

6 Ye have condemned, and killed the just, and he doth not resist you.

7 Be patient therefore, brethren, to the coming of y Lord: behold, y husbandman waiteth for y precious fruit of y earth, & hath long patience for it, until he receive the early and latter raine.

8 Be ye also patient; stablish your hearts: for the coming of the Lord draweth nigh.

9 Grudge not one against another, brethren, lest ye be condemned: behold, y Judge standeth before y door.

10 Take, my brethren, the Prophets, who have spoken in the Name of the Lord, for an ensample of suffering affliction, and of patience.

11 Behold, we count them happy which endure. Ye have heard of the patience of Iob, and have seene the end of the Lord: that the Lord is very pitifull, and of tender mercy.

12 But above all things, my brethren, sweare not, neither by heaven, neither by the earth, neither by any other oath: but let your yea be yea, & your nay, nay: lest ye fall into condemnation.

13 Is any among you afflicted? let him pray. Is any merry? let him sing Psalmes.

14 Is any sicke among you? let him call for the Elders of the Church, and let them pray over him, anointing him with oyl in the Name of the Lord:

15 And the prayer of faith shall save the sicke, and the Lord shall raise him up: and if he have committed sinnes, they shall be forgiven him.

16 Confesse your faults one to another, and pray one for another, that ye may be healed: the effectuall fervent prayer of a righteous man availeth much.

17 Elias was a man subject to like passions as we are, and he prayed earnestly that it might not raine: and it rained not on the earth by the space of three yeeres and six moneths.

18 And he prayed againe, and the heaven gave raine, and the earth brought forth her fruit.

19 Brethren, if any of you do erre from the truth, and one convert him,

20 Let him know, that he which converteth the sinner from the error of his way, shall save a soule from death, & shall hide a multitude of sinnes.

The first Epistle Generall of PETER.

CHAP. I.

PEter an Apostle of Iesus Christ, to the strangers scattered throughout Pontus, Galatia, Cappadocia, Asia, and Bithinia,

2 Elect according to y foreknowledge of God y Father, through sanctification of y Spirit, to obedience, & sprinkling of y blood of Iesus Christ: Grace unto you, and peace be multiplied.

3 Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Iesus Christ, which according to his abundant mercy hath begotten us againe to a lively hope, by the resurrection of Iesus Christ from y dead,

4 To an inheritance incorruptible, and undefiled, and that fadeth not away, reserved in heaven for you,

5 Who are kept by the power of God through faith unto salvation, ready to be revealed in the last time.

6 Wherein ye greatly rejoyce, though now for a season (if need be) ye are in heavines through manifold tentations,

7 That y trial of your faith, being much more pretious then of gold (yet that perisheth) though it be tryed with fire, might be found to praise, & honour, & glory, at y appearing of Iesus Christ:

8 Whom having not seene, ye love: in whom though now ye see him not, yet believing, ye rejoy with joy unspeakeable, and full of glory:

9 Receiving the end of your faith, even the salvation of your soules.

10 Of which salvation the Prophets have enquired, and searched diligently, who prophecied of the grace that should come unto you.

11 Searching what, or what manner of time the Spirit of Christ which was in them did signifie, when it testified before-hand the sufferings of Christ, and the glory that should follow.

12 Vnto whom it was revealed, that not unto themselves, but unto us they did minister the things which are now reported unto you by them that have preached y Gospel unto you, with the Holy Ghost sent down from heaven: which things the Angels desire to look into.

13 Wherefore gird up the loynes of your minde, be sober, & hope perfectly for the grace that is to be brought to you at y revelation of Iesus Christ.

14 As obedient children, not fashioning your selves according to the former lusts in your ignorance,

15 But as he which hath called you is holy, so be ye holy in all manner of conversation:

16 Because it is written: Be yee holy, for I am holy.

17 And if ye call on y Father, who without respect of persons judgeth according the corner stone.

every mans worke: passe the time of your sojourning here in feare:
for as much as ye know that ye were not redemed with corruptible things as siluer and gold from your vaine conuersation receiued by tradition from your fathers;
But with the precious bloud of Christ as of a lambe without blemish and without spot:
Who verily was fore ordained before the foundation of the world: but was manifest in these last times for you Which by him do believe in God that did raise him up from the dead: and gaue him glory: that your faith and hope might be in God.
Seeing ye have purified your soules in obeying the truth: through the spirit vnfained loue of the brethren: see that ye loue one another with a pure heart feruently.
Being borne againe: not of corruptible seed but of incorruptible: by the word of God which liues & abides for ever.
For all flesh is as grasse: and all the glory of man, as the flowre of grasse:
the grasse withereth, and the flowre thereof falleth away.
But the word of the Lord endureth for ever: and this is the word which by the Gospel is preached vnto you.

CHAP. II.

Wherefore laying aside all malice and all guile and hypocrisies, and enuies and all euil speakings:
As new borne babes desire the sincere milke of the word that ye may grow thereby:
If so be yee haue tasted that the Lord is gracious.
To whom comming as vnto a liuing stone disallowed indeed of men, but chosen of God and precious.
Ye also as liuely stones are built vp a spirituall house: an holy Priesthood to offer vp spirituall sacrifice acceptable to God by Iesus Christ.
Wherefore it is contained in the Scripture: Behold, I lay in Sion a chief corner stone elect & precious: & he that beleeueth on him shall not be confounded.
Vnto you therefore which beleeue he is precious: but vnto them which be disobedient, the stone which the builders disallowed, the same is made the head of the corner:
And a stone of stumbling: and a rock of offence: even to them which stumble at the word being disobedient: whereunto also they were appointed.
But ye are a chosen generation,
a royal Priesthood, an holy nation,
a peculiar people, that ye should shew forth the praises of him, who hath called you out of darknes into his mar-uelous light:
Which in time past were not a people, but are now the people of God:
which had not obtained mercy, but now haue obtained mercy.
Dearly beloued, I beseech you as strangers & pilgrims, abstaine from fleshly lusts which warre against the soule:

Christs example.

Having your conuersation honest among the Gentiles, that whereas they speake against you as euil doers, they may by your good workes which they shal see, glorifie God in the day of visitation.
Submit your selues to every ordinance of man for the Lords sake, whether it be to the king as supreme,
Or vnto gouernours, as vnto them that are sent by him for the punishment of euill doers, and for the praise of them that do well.
For so is the will of God, that with well doing, ye may put to silence the ignorance of foolish men.
As free, and not using your liberty for a cloake of maliciousnesse, but as the seruants of God.
Honour all men. Loue the brotherhood. Feare God. Honour the king.
Seruants, be subiect to your masters with all feare, not only to the good and gentle, but also to the frowarde.
For this is thanke worthy, if a man for conscience toward God endure griefe, suffering wrongfully.
For what glory is it, if when yee be buffeted for your faults, ye shal take it patiently: but if when ye do well, & suffer for it, ye take it patiently, this is acceptable with God.
For even hereunto were ye called:
because Christ also suffered for vs, leauing vs an example, that ye should follow his steppes.
Who did no sinne, neither was guile found in his mouth.
Who when he was reuiled, reuiled not again: when he suffered, he threat-ned not but committed himself to him that iudgeth righteously.
Who his own selfe bare our sinnes in his owne body on the tree: y we being dead to sin, should liue vnto righ-teousnes: by whose stripes ye were healed.
For ye were as sheepe going astray: but are now returned vnto the Shepherd, and Bishop of your soules.

CHAP. III.

Likewise ye wiues, be in subiection to your owne husbands, that if any obey not the word, they also may without the word be wonne by the conuersation of the wiues:
While they behold your chaste conuersation coupled with feare.
Whose adorning, let it not be that outward adorning, of plaiting the haire, and of wearing of gold, or of putting on of apparell:
But let it be the hidden man of the heart, in y vncorruptible, even ornament of a meeke & quiet spirit, which in the sight of God of great price is.
For after this manner in the old time the holy wome also who trusted in God, adorned themselues, being subiection vnto their own husbands.
Even as Sara obeyed Abraham, calling him Lord, whose daughters ye are as long as ye do wel, and are not afraid with any amazement.

7 Likewise ye husbands, dwel|ling according to knowledge, giving honnour to y wife, as to the weaker vessel: & as being heirs together of the grace of life: y your prayers be not hindred.

8 Finally, be ye al of one minde, having compassion one of another, love as brethren, be pitiful, be courteous.

9 Not rendring evil for evil, or railing for railing: but contrariwise, blessing, knowing, that ye are thereunto called, that ye should inherit a blessing.

10 For he that will love life, & see good dayes, let him refrain his tongue from evil, & his lips y they speak no guile:

11 Let him eschew evil, and do good, let him seeke peace, and ensue it.

12 For the eyes of the Lord are ouer the righteous, and his eares are open unto their prayers: but the face of the Lord is against them that do evil.

13 And who is he that will harm you, if ye be followers of y which is good?

14 But & if ye suffer for righteousnes sake, happy are ye, and be not afraid of their terror, neither be troubled:

15 But sanctifie the Lord God in your hearts, and be ready alwayes to give an answer to every man that asketh you a reason of the hope that is in you, with meekenesse and feare.

16 Having a good conscience, that wheras they speake ill of you, as of evil doers, they may be ashamed that falsely accuse your good conversation in Christ.

17 For it is better, if the will of God be so, that ye suffer for well doing, then for evil doing.

18 For Christ also hath once suffered for sins, the just for the unjust, that he might bring us to God, being put to death in the flesh, but quickened by the Spirit:

19 By which also he went, and preached unto the spirits in prison.

20 Which sometime were disobedient, when once the long-suffering of God waited in y dayes of Noah, while the Ark was a preparing: wherein few, that is, eight soules were saved by water.

21 The like figure whereunto, even Baptisme, doth also now save us (not y putting away of y filth of y flesh, but the answere of a good conscience toward God) by y resurrection of Iesus Christ:

22 Who is gone into heaven, & is on the right hand of God: Angels, & authorities, & powers, being made subiect to him.

CHAP. IIII.

FOrasmuch then as Christ hath suffered for us in y flesh, arme your selves likewise w y same minde: for he y hath suffered in y flesh, hath ceased from sin:

2 That he no longer should live the rest of his time in the flesh, to the lusts of men, but to the will of God.

3 For the time past of our life may suffice us to have wrought y will of y Gentiles, when we walked in lasciviousnes, lustes, excesse of wine, revellings, banquettings, abominable idolatries:

4 Wherein they thinke it strange, y you run not with them to the same excesse of riot, speaking evil of you:

5 Who shal give account to him that is ready to judge y quicke & the dead.

6 For for this cause was the Gospel preached also to them that are dead, that they might be judged according to men in the flesh, but live according to God in the spirit.

7 But y end of all things is at hand: be therefore sober, & watch unto prayer.

8 And aboveall things have feruent charitie among your selves: for charitie shal cover the multitude of sinnes.

9 Use hospitality one to another without grudging.

10 As every man hath received the gift, even so minister the same one unto another, as good stewards of the manifold grace of God.

11 If any man speake, let him speake as the Oracles of God: If any man minister, let him do it as of the ability which God giveth: that God in all things may be glorified through Iesus Christ, to whom be praise and dominion for ever and ever. Amen.

12 Beloved, thinke it not strange concerning the fiery tryal, which is among you, as though some strange thing happened unto you.

13 But rejoyce in as much as ye are partakers of Christs sufferings, that when his glory shal be revealed, ye may be glad also with exceeding joy.

14 If ye be reproached for the Name of Christ, happy are ye, for the spirit of glory, and of God resteth upon you: on their part he is evil spoken of, but on your part he is glorified.

15 But let none of you suffer as a murderer, or as a thiefe, or as an evil doer, or as a busie body in other mens matters.

16 Yet if any man suffer as a Christian, let him not be ashamed: but let him glorifie God on this behalf.

17 For the time is come, that iudgement must begin at the house of God: and if it begin at us, what shal y end be of them that obey not the Gospel of God?

18 And if the righteous scarcely be saved, where shall the ungodly and the sinner appeare?

19 Wherefore, let them that suffer according to the will of God, commit the keeping of their soules to him in well doing, as unto a faithful Creator.

CHAP. V.

THe Elders w are among you, I exhort, who am also an Elder & a witnesse of the sufferings of Christ, & also a partaker of y glory y shal be revealed:

2 Feed the flocke of God which is among you, taking the oversight thereof, not by constraint, but willingly: not for filthy lucre, but of a ready mind:

3 Neither as being lords over Gods heritage, but being ensamples to the flocke.

4 And when the chiefe Shepherd shal appeare, ye shal receive a crowne of glory that fadeth not away.

5 Likewise ye younger, submit your selves gaunt to the elder: yea, al of you, be gaunt one to another, and be clothed with humilitie: for God resisteth the proud, & giveth grace to the humble.

6 Humble your selues therefore vnder the mighty hand of God, that he may exalt you in due time.
7 Casting al your care upon him, for he carith for you.
8 Be sober, be vigilant; because your aduersarie the deuil, as a roaring lion walketh about, seeking whom he may deuoure.
9 Whom resist stedfast in the faith, knowing that the same afflictions are accomplished in your brethren that are in the world.
10 But the God of al grace, who hath called us into his eternal glory by Christ Iesus, after that ye haue suffered a while, make you perfect, stablish, strengthen, & stedfast you.
11 To him be glory and dominion for ever and ever. Amen.
12 By Siluanus a faithful brother (as I suppose) I haue written vnto you briefly, exhorting & testifying, y this is y true grace of God wherin ye stand.
13 The Church that is at Babylon elected together with you, saluteth you, and so doeth Marcus my sonne.
14 Greet ye one another with a kisse of charity: Peace be with you al that are in Christ Iesus. Amen.

The second Epistle general of PETER.

CHAP. I.

1 SImon Peter, a seruant and an Apostle of Iesus Christ, to them that haue obtained like precious faith with vs through the righteousnes of God,
our Sauiour Iesus Christ.
2 Grace and peace be multiplied to you through the knowledge of God, and of Iesus our Lord:
3 According as his diuine power hath giuen vnto vs al things that pertaine vnto life and godlinesse through the knowledge of him that hath called vs by glory and vertue.
4 Whereby are giuen vnto vs exceeding great and precious promises: that by these you might bee partakers of the diuine nature, having escaped the corruption y is in y world through lust.
5 And besides this, giuing al diligence, adde to your faith, vertue; and to vertue, knowledge;
6 And to knowledge, temperance; and to temperance, patience; and to patience, godlinesse;
7 And to godlinesse, brotherly kindnes;
and to brotherly kindnesse, charitie.
8 For if these things be in you and abound, they make you that ye shall neither be barren nor unfruitful in the knowledge of our Lord Iesus Christ.
9 But he that lacketh these things, is blind, and cannot see far off, & hath forgotte that he was purged from his old sins.
10 Wherefore the rather, brethren, giue diligence to make your calling & election sure: for if ye do these things, ye shall never fal.
11 For so an entrance shal be ministred vnto you abundantly, into the everlasting kingdome of our Lord and Sa-uiour Iesus Christ.
12 Wherefore I wil not be negligent to put you alwayes in remembrance of these things, though ye know them,
and be established in the present truth.
13 Yea, I think it meet as long as I am in this tabernacle to stirre you up,
by putting you in remembrance:
14 Knowing that shortly I must put off this my tabernacle, even as our Lord
Iesus Christ hath shewed me.
15 Moreouer, I wil endeauour, that you may be able after my decease, to haue these things alwayes in remembrance.
16 For we haue not followed cunningly deuised fables, when we made known vnto you the power and com-ming of our Lord Iesus Christ, but were eye-witnesses of his Maiestie.
17 For he receiued from God the Father honour & glory, when there came such a voyce to him from the excellent glory: This is my beloued Son, in whom I am wel pleased.
18 And this voice which came from heauen we heard, when we were with him in the holy mount.
19 We haue also a more sure word of prophecie, whereunto ye do wel that ye take heede (as vnto a light that shineth in a darke place) vntil the day dawn & y day-stararise in your hearts.
20 Knowing this first, that no Prophecie of the Scripture is of any priuate interpretation:
21 For the prophecie came not in olde time by the will of man: but holy men of God spake as they were moued by the holy Ghost.

CHAP. II.

BVt there were false prophets also among the people, even as there shal be false teachers among you, who priuily shal bring in damnable heresies, even denying y Lord y bought them, &
bring on themselues swift destruction.
2 And many shal follow their pernicious wayes, by reason of whom the way of truth shalbe euil spoken of.
3 And through couetousnesse shall they with fained words, make merchandise of you, whose iudgement now of a long time lingreth not, and their damnation slumbreth not.
4 For if God spared not the Angels that sinned, but cast them down to hel, & deliuered them into chaines of darkenes, to be reserued vnto iudgement:
5 And spared not the old world, but saued Noah y eight person a preacher of righteousnes, bringing in the flood upon the world of the ungodly:
6 And turning the cities of Sodom &
Gomorrha into ashes, condemned them

n overthrow, making the an enlam-ple to thole yet after should live ungodly
7 And delivered just Lot, vexed with the filthy conversation of the wicked:
8 (For that righteous man dwelling among them, in seeing and hearing, vexed his righ teous soule from day to day, with the unlawful deedes:)
9 The Lord knoweth how to deliver the godly out of temptations, and to reserve the unjust unto the day of judgment to be punished:
10 But cheefly them that walk after the flesh in the lust of uncleanes & despise government. presumptuous are, selfe willed, they are not afraid to speake evil of dignities;
11 Whereas Angels which are greater in power and might, bring no railing accusation against them before the Lord.
12 But these as natural brute beasts, made to be taken and destroyed, speak evil of the things that they understand not, and shall utterly perish in their owne corruption.
13 And shall receive the reward of unrighteousnes, as they that count it pleasure to riot in the day time. Spots they are and blame sh s sporting themselves with their owne deceivings, while they feast with you:
14 Having eyes full of adulterer, and cannot cease from sin, beguiling unstable soul: an heart they have exercised with covetous practises, cursed children:
15 Which have forsaken the right way, and are gone astray, following the way of Balaam y son of Bosor, who loved the wages of unrighteousnesse.
16 But was reproved for his iniquity, the dumb asse speaking with mans voice, forbade the madnesse of the Prophet.
17 These are wels without water, clouds y are carried a tepest to whom y mist of darknes is reserved for ever.
18 For when they speake great swelling words of vanity, they allure through y lusts of flesh through much wantonnes, those that were clean escaped from them which live in errour.
19 While they promise them liberty, they themselves are y servants of corruption: for of who a man is overcome, of the same is he brought in bondage.
20 For if after they have escaped the pollutions of the world through the knowledge of the Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ, they are again entangled therein, & overcome, the latter end is worse with them then the beginning.
21 For it had been better for them not to have known the way of righteousnes, then after they have known it, to turne from the holy commandement delivered unto them.
22 But it is happened unto them according to the true Prouerbe: The dog is turned to his own vomite again, & the sow that was washed, to her wallowing in the mire.

CHAP. III.

THese and Epistle (beloved) I now write unto you, in both which I stirre up your pure minds by way of remembrance.
2 That ye may be mindful of y words which were spoke before by the holy Prophets, & of the commandement of us the Apostles of y Lord & Saviour.
3 Knowing this first, that there shall come in the last dares, skoffers, walking after their own lusts.
4 And saying, Where is the promise of his comming? For since the fathers slepe, all things continue as they were from y beginning of y creation.
5 For of this they willingly are ignorant, that by the word of God y heavens were of old, & the earth standing out of the water and in the water.
6 Whereby y world that then was being overflowed with water, perished.
7 But the heavens & the earth which now are, are kept in store by the same word, reserved to fire against y day of judgment and perdition of ungodly men.
8 But (beloved) be not ignorant of this one thing, that one day is with the Lord as a thousand yeers, and a thousand yeers as one day.
9 The Lord is not slack concerning his promise, (as some men count slackenes) but is long-suffering to us-ward, not willing that any should perish, but that all should come to repentance.
10 But the day of the Lord will come as a thief in the night, in the which the heavens shal passe away with a great noise, and the elements shal melt with fervent heat, the earth also & y works that are therein shalbe burnt up.
11 Seeing then that all these things shalbe dissolved, what manner of persons ought ye to be in all holy conversation and godlynesse,
12 Looking for, & hasting to the coming of y day of God, wherein the heavens being on fire, shalbe dissolved, & y elements shal melt with fervent heat?
13 Never the lesse, we according to his promise, look for new heavens, & a new earth wherin dwelleth righteousnes.
14 Wherefore (beloved) seeing these ye look for such things, be diligent that ye may be found of him in peace, without spot, and blamelesse.
15 And account that the long-suffering of our Lord is salvation, even as our beloved brother Paul also, according to the wisdome given unto him, hath written unto you,
16 As also in all his Epistles, (speaking in them of these things, in which are some things hard to be understood, which they that are unlearned, and unstable wrest, as they do also the other Scriptures unto their own destruction.
17 Ye therefore beloved, seeing ye know these things before, beware lest ye also being led away with the errour of the wicked, fall from your own stedfastnes.
18 But grow in grace, and in the knowledge of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ, to him be glory both now and for ever. Amen.

CHAP. I.

THat which was from the beginning which we have heard, which we have seene with our eyes, which we have looked on, & our hands have handled of ye word of life
2 (for the life was manifested, & we have seene, & beare witnes, & shew vnto you ye eternall life which was with the Father & was manifested vnto us)
3 That which we have seen & heard, declare we vnto you, that ye also may have fellowship with us; and truely our fellowship is with the Father, and with his Son Iesus Christ.
4 And these things write we vnto you, that your ioy may be full.
5 This then is the message which we have heard of him, & declare to you, y God is light, & in him is no darkenesse at all.
6 If we say that we have fellowship with him, and walk in darkenesse, we lie, and do not the truth.
7 But if we walk in the light, as he is in the light, we have fellowship one with another, & the blood of Iesus Christ his Son cleanseth us from all sinne.
8 If we say y we have no sinne, we deceive our selves, & y truth is not in us.
9 If we confesse our sins, he is faithfull and iust to forgive us our sins, and to cleanse us from all vnrighteousnesse.
10 If we say y we have not sinned, we make him a lyar, & his word is not in us.

CHAP. II.

MY little children these things write I vnto you, that ye sin not. And if any man sinne, we have an Advocate with the Father, Iesus Christ the righteous;
2 And he is the propitiation for our sinnes: and not for ours onely, but also for the sins of the whole world.
3 And hereby we do know y we know him, if we keep his Commandments.
4 He that saith, I know him, & keepeth not his commandments, is a lyar, and the truth is not in him.
5 But who so keepeth his word, in him verily is y love of God perfected: hereby know we, that we are in him.
6 He y saith he abides in him, ought him self also so to walk, even as he walked.
7 Brethren, I write none new commandment vnto you, but an old commandment which ye had from y beginning: the old commandement is the word which ye have heard from the beginning.
8 Again a new commandment I write vnto you, which thing is true in him and in you: because the darkenesse is past, and the true light now shineth.
9 He that saith he is in the light, and hateth his brother, is in darkenesse even vntill now.
10 He that loveth his brother, abideth in the light, and there is none occasion of stumbling in him.
11 But he that hateth his brother, is in darkenesse, and walketh in darkenesse, & knoweth not whither he goeth, because y darknes hath blinded his eyes.
12 I write vnto you, little children, because your sins are forgiven you for his Names sake.
13 I write vnto you, fathers, because ye have known him that is from the beginning. I write vnto you, young men, because ye have overcome y wicked one. I write vnto you, little children, because ye have known y father.
14 I have written vnto you fathers, because ye have known him y is from the beginning. I have written vnto you young men because ye are strong, and the word of God abideth in you, & ye have overcome the wicked one.
15 Love not y world, neither y things y are in y world. If any man love the world, y love of y Father is not in him.
16 For all y is in the world, y lust of the flesh, y lust of the eyes, & y pride of life, is not of y Father, but is of y world.
17 And the world passeth away, and the lust thereof; but he that doeth the will of God, abideth for ever.
18 Little children, it is y last time: & as ye have heard y Antichrist shall come, even now are there many Antichrists, whereby we know y it is the last time.
19 They went out from us, but they were not of us: for if they had bin of us, they would no doubt have continued with us: but they went out that they might be made manifest, y they were not all of us.
20 But ye have an unction from the holy One, and ye know all things.
21 I have not written to you, because ye know not the truth: but because ye know it, & that no lies of the trueth.
22 Who is a liar, but he that denyeth that Iesus is y Christ? He is Antichrist, that denyeth the Father and the Son.
23 Whosoever denyeth y Son, y same hath not the Father: but he y acknowledgeth y Son, hath the Father also.
24 Let y therefore abide in you, which ye have heard from the beginning: if y ye have heard from the beginning, they shall remaine in you, ye also shall continue in the Son, and in the Father.
25 And this is the promise that he hath promised us, even eternall life.
26 These things have I written unto you concerning them that seduce you.
27 But the anoynting which ye have received of him abideth in you: and yee need not that any man teach you: but as the same anoynting teacheth you of all things, and is trueth, and is no lie: and even as it hath taught you, ye shal abide in him.
28 And now, little children, abide in him, that when he shal appear, we may have confidence, & not be ashamed before him at his comming.
29 If ye know that he is righteous, ye know that every one that doeth righteousnesse, is born of him.

CHAP. III.

BEhold, what manner of love the Father hath bestowed upon us, that we should be called the sons of God:

therefore the world knoweth us not, because it knew him not.

2 Beloved, now are we the sons of God and it doeth not yet appear what we shalbe: but we know, that when he shal appear, we shalbe like him: for we shal see him as he is.

3 And every man y hath this hope in him purifieth himself eve as he is pure.

4 Whosoever committeth sin, transgresseth also the Law: for sin is the transgression of the Law.

5 And ye know that he was manifested to take away our sins, and in him is no sin.

6 Whosoever abideth in him sinneth not: whosoever sinneth, hath not seen him, neither known him.

7 Little children, Let no man deceive you: he that doeth righteousnesse, is righteous, even as he is righteous.

8 He that committeth sin, is of the devil, for the devil sinneth from the beginning: for this purpose the Son of God was manifested, that he might destroy the workes of the devil.

9 Whosoever is borne of God, doeth not commit sin: for his seed remaineth in him, and he cannot sin, because he is borne of God.

10 In this the children of God are manifest, and the children of the devil: whosoever doth not righteousnesse, is not of God, neither he that loveth not his brother.

11 For this is the message that ye heard from the beginning, that we should love one another.

12 Not as Cain, who was of y wicked one, & slew his brother: and wherefore slew he him? because his own workes were evil, and his brothers righteous.

13 Marvell not, my brethren, if the world hate you.

14 We know that we have passed from death unto life, because we love the brethren: he that loveth not his brother, abideth in death.

15 Whosoever hateth his brother is a murtherer, & ye know y no murtherer hath eternall life abiding in him.

16 Hereby perceive we the love of God, because he laid down his life for us, & we ought to lay down our lives for the brethren.

17 But whoso hath this worlds good, & seeth his brother hath need, & shutteth up his bowels of compassion from him, how dwels y love of God in him?

18 My little children, let us not love in word, neither in tongue, but in deed and in truth.

19 And hereby we know that we are of the trueth, & shall assure our hearts before him.

20 For if our heart condemne us, God is greater then our heart, and knoweth all things.

21 Beloved, if our heart condemn us not, then have we confidence towards God.

22 And whatsoever we aske, we receive of him, because we keep his commandments, and do those things that are pleasing in his sight.

23 And this is his commandment, that we should believe on the Name of his Son Jesus Christ, & love one another as he gave us commandment.

24 And he that keepeth his commandment, dwelleth in him, & he in him: hereby we know that he abideth in us, by the Spirit which he hath given us.

CHAP. III.

1 Beloved, believe not every Spirit, but try the spirits whether they are of God: because many false prophets are gone out into the world.

2 Hereby know ye the Spirit of God: every spirit that confesseth that Christ is come in the flesh, is of God.

3 And every spirit y confesseth not Jesus Christ is come in y flesh, is not of God: & this is that spirit of Antichrist whereof ye have heard, y it should come: & even now already it is in y world.

4 Ye are of God, little children, & have overcome them: because greater is he that is in you, then he that is in the world.

5 They are of the world: therefore speake they of the world, & the world heareth them.

6 We are of God, he that knoweth God, heareth us: he y is not of God, heareth not us: hereby know we the spirit of truth, and the spirit of error.

7 Beloved, let us love one another: for love is of God: & every one y loveth, is born of God, & knoweth God.

8 He that loveth not, knoweth not God: for God is love.

9 In this was manifested the love of God toward us, because that God sent his only begotten Son into the world, that we might live through him.

10 Herein is love, not that we loved God, but that he loved us, & sent his Son to be y propitiation for our sins.

11 Beloved, if God so loved us, we ought also to love one another.

12 No man hath seen God at any time: if we love one another, God dwelleth in us, and his love is perfected in us.

13 Hereby know we that we dwell in him, and he in us, because he hath given us of his Spirit.

14 And we have seen, and do testify, that the Father sent the Son to be the Saviour of the world.

15 Whosoever shall confesse that Jesus is the Son of God, God dwelleth in him, and he in God.

16 And we have known and believed the love that God hath to us. God is love, and he that dwelleth in love, dwelleth in God, and God in him.

17 Herein is our love made perfect, that we may have boldnes in y day of judgment: because as he is, so are we in this world.

18 There is no fear in love: but perfect love casteth out fear: because fear hath torment: he that feareth, is not made perfect in love.

19 We love him: because he first loved us.

20 If any man say, I love God, & hateth his brother, he is a lyar. For he loveth not his brother whom he hath seen how can he love God whom he hath not seen?

21 And this commandment have we from him, that he who loveth God, loveth his brother also. CHAP. V.

1 Whosoever believeth that Iesus is the Christ, is born of God, and every one that loveth him that begat, loveth him also which is begotten of him.
2 By this we know that we love the children of God, when we love God, and keep his Commandements.
3 For this is the love of God, that we keep his Commandements, and his commandements are not grievous.
4 For whatsoever is born of God, o-vercometh the world. And this is the victory that overcometh the world, even our faith.
5 Who is he that overcometh the world, but he that believeth that Iesus is the Son of God?
6 This is he that came by water and blood, even Iesus Christ, not by water only, but by water and blood; and it is the Spirit that beareth witnesse, because the Spirit is truth.
7 For there are three that bear record in heaven the Father, the Word, & the holy Ghost: and these three are one.
8 And there are three that bear wit-nesse in earth, the Spirit, & the Water, & blood, & these three agree in one.
9 If we receive the witnesse of men, the witnesse of God is greater; for this is the witnesse of God, which he hath testified of his Son.
10 He that believeth on the Son of God hath the witnes in himself: & he that believeth not God hath made him a liar, because he believeth not the record that God gave of his Son.
11 And this is the record, that God hath given to us eternal life: and this life is in his Son.
12 He that hath the Son, hath life, & he that hath not the Son of God, hath not life.
13 These things have I written unto you that believe on the Name of the Son of God, that ye may know that ye have eternal life, and that ye may believe on the Name of the Son of God.
14 And this is the confidence that we have in him, that if we aske any thing according to his will, he heareth us.
15 And if we know that he heare us, whatsoever we aske, we know that we have the petitions that we desired of him.
16 If any man see his brother sinne a sinne which is not unto death, he shall aske, and he shall give him life for them that sinne not to death. There is a sinne unto death: I do not say that he shall pray for it.
17 All unrighteousness is sin, and there is a sinne not unto death.
18 We know that whosoever is born of God sinneth not: but he that is begotten of God, keepeth himself, and that wicked one toucheth him not.
19 And we know that we are of God,
& the whole world lieth in wickednes.
20 And we know that the Son of God is come, and hath given us an understanding that we may know him that is true: & we are in him that is true, even in his Son Iesus Christ. This is the true God, and eternal life.
21 Little children, keepe your selves from Idols. Amen.

The second Epistle of IOHN.

1 The Elder unto the elect Lady, & her children, whom I love in the truth: & not only I, but also all they that have known the truth.
2 For the truths sake which dwelleth in us, and shall be with us for ever.
3 Grace be with you, mercy, and peace from God the Father, and from the Lord Iesus Christ, the Son of the Father, in truth and love.
4 I reioyce greatly, that I found of thy children walking in the truth, as we have received commandment from the Father.
5 And now I beseech thee, Lady, not as though I wrote a new commandment unto thee: but that we had from the beginning, that we love one another.
6 And this is love, that we walke after his commandements. This is the commandment, that as ye have heard from the beginning, ye should walke in it.
7 For many deceivers are entred into the world, who confesse not that Ie-sus Christ is come in the flesh. This is a deceiver, and an Antichrist.
8 Looke to your selves, that we lose not those things which we have wrought, but that we receive a full reward.
9 Whosoever transgresseth, and abi-deth not in the doctrine of Christ, hath not God: he that abideth in the doctrine of Christ, he hath both the Father & the Son.
10 If there come any to you, & bring not this doctrine, receive him not into your house, neither bid him God speed: 11 For he that biddeth him God speed, is partaker of his evil deeds.
12 Having many things to write unto you, I would not write with paper & inke: but I trust to come unto you, & speak face to face, that your ioy may be full.
13 The children of thy elect sister greet thee. Amen.

The third Epistle of IOHN.

1 The Elder unto the welbe-loved Gaius, whom I love in the truth.
2 Beloved, I wish above all things that thou mayest prosper, and be in health, even as thy soule prospereth.
3 For I reioyced greatly when the brethren came and testified of the truth that is in thee, even as thou walkest in the truth.
4 I have no greater ioy, then to hear that my children walk in truth.
5 Beloved, thou doest faithfully whatsoever

soever thou doest to the brethren, and to strangers;

6 Which have borne witnesse of thy charity before the church: whom if thou bring forward on their journey after a godly sort, thou shalt do wel;

7 Because that for his Names sake they went forth, taking nothing of the Gentiles.

8 We therfore ought to receive such, that we might be fellowhelpers to the trueth.

9 I wrote unto the Church: but Diotrephes who loveth to have ỹ preeminence among them, receiveth us not.

10 Wherefore if I come, I wil remember his deeds which he doeth, prating against us with malicious words: and not content therewith, neither doth he himself receive the brethren, & forbiddeth them that would, and casteth them out of the Church.

11 Beloved, follow not that which is evil, but that which is good. He that doth good is of God: but he that doth evil, hath not seen God.

12 Demetrius hath good report of men, and of the trueth it self: yea we also bear record, and ye know that our record is true.

13 I had many things to write, but wil not ✗ ink & Pen write unto thee:

14 But I trust I shal shortly see thee, and we shall speak face to face. Peace be to thee. Our friends salute thee. Greet the friends by name.

The Generall Epistle of IVDE.

IVde the servant of Iesus Christ, & brother of Iames, to them that are sanctified by God the Father, and preserved in Iesus Christ, and called;

2 Mercy unto you, & peace, and love be multiplyed.

3 Beloved, when I gave al diligence to write unto you of the common salvation: it was needful for me to write to you, & exhort you that ye should earnestly contend for the faith which was once delivered unto the Saints.

4 For there are certain men crept in unawares, who were before of old ordained to this condemnation, ungodly men, turning ỹ grace of our God into lasciviousnesse, & denying the onely Lord God, & our Lord Iesus Christ.

5 I wil therefore put you in remembrance, though ye once knew this, how that the Lord having saved his people out of the land of Egypt, afterward destroyed them that beleeved not.

6 And the Angels which kept not their first estate, but left their own habitation, he hath reserved in everlasting chaines under darkenesse, unto the judgement of the great day.

7 Even as Sodom & Gomorrah, and the cities about them, in like manner giving themselves over to fornication, and going after strange flesh, are set forth for an example, suffering the vengeance of eternal fire.

8 Likewise also these filthy dreamers defile the flesh, despise dominion, and speake evil of dignities.

9 Yet Michael the Archangel, when contending with the devil, he disputed about the body of Moses, durst not bring against him a railing accusation, but said, The Lord rebuke thee.

10 But these speake evil of those things which they know not: but what they know naturally, as brute beasts, in those things they corrupt themselves.

11 Wo unto them: for they have gon in the way of Cain, and ran greedily after the error of Balaam for reward, & perished in the gainsaying of Core.

12 These are spots in your feast of charity, when they feast with you, feeding themselves without fear: they are as clouds without water caried about of winds: trees whose fruit withereth, without fruit, twice dead, plucked up by the rootes

13 Raging waves of the Sea, foming out their own shame, wandring starres, to whom is reserved the blacknesse of darkenesse for ever.

14 And Enoch also of the seventh from Adam prophesied of these saying, Behold, the Lord cometh, with ten thousands of his Saints,

15 To execute judgement upon all, to convince all that are ungodly among them, of all their ungodly deeds, which they have ungodly committed, and of all their hard speeches, which ungodly sinners have spoken against him.

16 These are murmurers, complainers, walking after their own lusts, & their mouth speaketh great swelling words, having mens persons in admiration because of advantage.

17 But beloved, remember ye the words which were spoken before of the Apostles of our Lord Iesus Christ:

18 How ỹ they told you that there should be mockers in ỹ last time, who should walk after their own ungodly lusts.

19 These be they who separate themselves, sensuall, having not the Spirit.

20 But ye beloved, building up yourselves on your most holy faith, praying in the holy Ghost.

21 Keepe your selves in the love of God, looking for the mercy of our Lord Iesus Christ unto eternal life.

22 And of some have compassion, making a difference.

23 And others save with fear, pulling them out of the fire: hating even the garment spotted by the flesh.

24 Now unto him ỹ is able to keep you from falling, and to present you faultlesse before the presence of his glory with exceeding joy,

25 To the onely wise God our Saviour, be glory, and majestie, dominion and power, now and ever. Amen.

The

CHAP. I.

THE revelation of Iesus Christ, which God gave him, to shew to his servants things which must come to pass: & he sent & signified by his angel, to his servant John:
2 Who bare record of the word of God, and of the testimony of Iesus Christ, and of all things that he saw.
3 Blessed is he that readeth, and they that hear the words of this prophesie, and keep those things which are written therein: for the time is at hand.
4 John to the seven churches which are in Asia: Grace be unto you, & peace, from him which is, and which was, and which is to come, and from the seven spirits which are before his Throne:
5 And from Iesus Christ, who is the faithful witnesse, and y first begotten from the dead, and the Prince of y kings of the earth: to him y loveth us, & washed us from our sins in his own blood,
6 And hath made us kings & priests unto God & his Father: to him be glory & dominion for ever and ever. Amē.
7 Behold, he commeth w clouds, and every eye shall see him, & they also which pierced him: and all kinreds of y earth shall wail because of him, even so, Amē.
8 I am Alpha and Omega, the beginning & the ending, saith the Lord, which is, and which was, and which is to come, the Almighty.
9 I John, who also am your brother, and companion in tribulation, and in the kingdome and Patience of Iesus Christ, was in the Ile that is called Patmos, for the word of God, and for the testimony of Iesus Christ.
10 I was in the Spirit on the Lords day, and heard behind me a great voyce as of a trumpet, 11 Saying, I am Alpha and Omega, the first and the last, and what y seest, write in a book, and send it to y seven churches which are in Asia: to Ephesus, and to Smyrna, and to Pergamos, and to Thyatira, and unto Sardis, and unto Philadelphia, and unto Laodicea.
12 And I turned to see the voyce that spake with me. And being turned, I saw seven golden candlesticks.
13 And in the midst of the seven candlesticks, one like unto the Son of man, clothed with a garment down to the foot, and girt about the paps with a golden girdle.
14 His heads and his hairs were white like wool, as white as snow, and his eyes were as a flame of fire.
15 And his feet like unto fine brass, as if they burned in a furnace: and his voyce as the sound of many waters.
16 And he had in his right hand seven starres: & out of his mouth went a sharp two edged sword: & his countenance was as y Sun shineth in his strength.
17 And when I saw him, I fell at his feet as dead: and he laid his right hand upon me, saying unto me, Feare not, I am the first and the last.
18 I am he that liveth, and was dead: & behold, I am alive for ever more, Amē. & have y keys of hell, & of death.
19 Write the things which thou hast seen, and the things which are, and the things which shall be hereafter.
20 The mystery of the seven starres which thou sawest in my right hand, and the seven golden candlesticks. The seven starres are y angels of y seven churches: and the seven candlesticks which thou sawest, are the seven churches.

CHAP. II.

UNto the angel of the church of Ephesus, write, These things saith he that holdeth the seven starres in his right hand, who walketh in the midst of the seven golden candlesticks;
2 I know thy works, and thy labour, and thy patience, and how thou canst not bear them which are evil, & thou hast tried them & say they are apostles, and are not, & hast found them liars.
3 And hast born, and hast patience, and for my Names sake hast laboured, and hast not fainted.
4 Never the lesse I have somewhat against thee, because y hast left thy first love.
5 Remember therefore from whence thou art fallen, & repent, & do y first works: or else I will come unto thee quickly, and will remove thy candlestick out of his place, except y repent.
6 But this thou hast, y thou hatest y deeds of the Nicolaitans, & I also hate.
7 He that hath an ear, let him hear what the Spirit saith to the churches: To him that overcommeth will I give to eat of the tree of life, which is in the midst of the Paradise of God.
8 And unto the angel of y church in Smyrna, write, these things saith y first & the last which was dead, & is alive.
9 I know thy works, and tribulation, and poverty (but thou art rich,) and I know the blasphemy of them which say they are Iews and are not, but are the Synagogue of Satan.
10 Feare none of those things w thou shalt suffer: behold, the devil shall cast some of you into prison, that ye may be tried, and ye shall have tribulation ten dayes: be thou faithful unto death, and I will give thee a crown of life.
11 He that hath an ear, let him hear what the Spirit saith to the churches. He that overcommeth, shall not be hurt of the second death.
12 And to y angel of y church in Pergamos, write, These things saith he, which hath the sharp sword with two edges:
13 I know thy works, and where y dwellest, even where Satans seat is. & holdest fast my Name, & hast not denied my faith, even in those dayes, wherein Antipas was my faithful Martyr, who was slain amōg you, where Satā dwels.
14 But I have a few things against thee, because y hast there them y hold

the

the doctrine of Balaam, who taught Balak to cast a stumbling block before ỹ childre of Israel, to eat things sacrificed to idoles, & to comit fornicatiõ.

15 So hast thou also them that hold the doctrine of the Nicolaitans, which thing I hate.

16 Repent, or else I will come unto thee quickly, and will fight against them with the sword of my mouth.

17 He that hath an ear, let him hear what the Spirit saith unto ỹ churches; To him that overcommeth will I give to eat of the hidden Manna, and will give him a white stone, & in the stone a new name written, which no man knoweth, saving he that receiveth it.

18 And to ỹ angel of ỹ church in Thyatira, write, These things saith ỹ Son of God, who hath his eyes like vnto a flame of fire, & his feet are like fine brasse.

19 I know thy works & charity, & service, & faith, & thy patience, & thy works, & ỹ last to be more then ỹ first.

20 Notwithstanding, I have a few things against thee, because ỹ suffrest ỹ woman Iezebel, which calleth her self a prophetesse, to teach and to seduce my servants to comit fornication, & to eat things sacrificed unto idoles.

21 And I gave her space to repent of her fornication, & she repented not.

22 Behold, I will cast her into a bed, and them that commit adultery with her, into great tribulation, except they repent of their deeds.

23 And I will kil her children with death, and all the churches shall know that I am he which searcheth ỹ reins and hearts; and I will give unto every one of you according to your works.

24 But unto you I say, & unto ỹ rest in Thyatira, as many as have not this doctrin, and which have not known the depth's of Satan, as they speak, I will put upon you none other burthen;

25 But that which ye have already, hold fast till I come.

26 And he that overcommeth, and keepeth my works unto the end, to him will I give power over ỹ nations:

27 (And he shall rule them with a rod of iron, as the vessels of a potter shall they be broken to shivets;) even as I received of my Father.

28 And I will give him ỹ morning star.

29 He that hath an ear, let him hear what ỹ Spirit saith unto the churches.

CHAP. III.

AND to ỹ angel of ỹ church in Sardis write. These things saith he ỹ hath ỹ seven Spirits of God, & ỹ seven stars, I know thy works, that thou hast a name that thou livest, and art dead.

2 Be watchfull, and strengthen the things which remain that are ready to dy: for I have not found thy works perfect before God.

3 Remember therfore how thou hast received & heard, & holdfast, & repent. If therfore thou shalt not watch, I will come on thee as a thief, and ỹ shalt not know what hour I will come on thee.

4 Thou hast a few names even in Sardis, which have not defiled their garments, and they shall walk with me in white: for they are worthy.

5 He that overcommeth, the same shall be cloathed in white raiments, & I will not blot out his name out of ỹ book of life, but I will confesse his name before my Father, and before his angels.

6 He that hath an ear, let him hear what ỹ Spirit saith unto the churches.

7 And to ỹ angel of ỹ church in Philadelphia, write, These things saith he ỹ is holy, he ỹ is true, he ỹ hath ỹ key of David, he ỹ openeth, & no man shutteth, and shutteth, & no man openeth;

8 I know thy works: Behold, I have set before thee an open door, & no man can shut it: for thou hast a little strength, and hast kept my word, & hast not denyed my Name.

9 Behold, I will make them of ỹ synagogue of Satan, & say they are Iewes, and are not, but do lie: behold, I say them to come and worship before my feet, and to know ỹ I have loved thee.

10 Because thou hast kept the word of my patience, I also will keep thee from the hour of temptation, which shall come upon all the world, to try them that dwell upon the earth.

11 Behold, I come quickly, hold fast that which ỹ hast, ỹ no man take thy crown.

12 Him ỹ overcommeth, will I make a Pillar in the temple of my God, & he shall go no more out: & I will write upon him the Name of my God, & the name of the city of my God, which is new Hierusalem, which commeth down out of heaven from my God: & I will write upon him my new name.

13 He that hath an ear, let him hear what the Spirit saith unto ỹ churches.

14 And to ỹ angel of the church of the Laodiceans write, These things saith the Amen, ỹ faithful and true witness, the beginning of the creation of God;

15 I know thy works, that thou art neither cold nor hote, I would thou were cold or hote.

16 So then because thou art lukewarm, and neither cold nor hote, I will spue thee out of my mouth.

17 Because ỹ saiest, I am rich, & increased with goods, & have need of nothing, & knowest not ỹ ỹ art wretched, & miserable, & poor, and blinde, and naked:

18 I counsel thee to buy of me gold tryed in ỹ fire, ỹ ỹ mayest be rich, and white raiment, ỹ ỹ may est be clothed, & that the shame of thy nakedenesse do not appear, and anoint thine eyes with eye-salve, that thou mayest see.

19 As many as I love, I rebuke and chasten: be zealous therfore & repent.

20 Behold, I stand at the door and knock: if any man hear my voice and open the door, I will come in to him, & will sup with him, and he with me.

21 To him that overcommeth will I grant to sit with me in my Throne,

...ul also overcame, and am set
...with my Father in his throne.
...He that hath an ear, let him hear
...the Spirit saith unto y churches.

CHAP. IIII.

...After this I looked, and behold, a ...door was opened in heaven: & the ...first voice I heard, was as it were of ...a trumpet, talking with me: which
...said, Come up hither, and I will shew
...thee things which must be hereafter.
...And immediately I was in the Spi...rit: and behold, a Throne was set in ...heaven, and one sate on the Throne.
...And he that sate was to look upon
...like a jasper and a Sardine stone: and ...there was a rainbow round about the ...throne, in sight like to an Emerald.
...And round about the Throne
...were four and twenty seats: and upon
...the seats I saw four and twenty Elders
...sitting clothed in white raiment, and
...they had on their heads crowns of gold.
...And out of the Throne proceeded ...lightnings, and thunderings, and
...voices: and there were seven lamps of ...fire burning before the Throne, which ...are the seven Spirits of God.
...And before the Throne there was as ...it were a sea of glasse like unto Crystal: and
...in the midst of the Throne, and round
...about the Throne, were four beasts, full
...of eyes before and behinde.
...And the first beast was like a lyon,
...and the second beast like a calf, and
...the third beast had a face as a man, &
...the fourth beast was like a flying eagle.
...And y four beasts had each of them six ...wings about him, and they were full of
...eyes within. & they rest not day & night,
...saying, Holy, holy, holy, Lord God
...almighty, which was, and is, & is to come.
...And when those beasts give glory,
...and honour, & thanks to him y sate on
...the Throne, who liveth for ever & ever.
...The four and twenty Elders fall ...down before him that sate on the ...Throne, and worship him that liveth
...for ever and ever; and cast their
...crowns before the Throne, saying,
...Thou art worthy, O Lord, to re...ceive glory, and honour, & power: for
...thou hast created all things, & for thy
...pleasure they are and were created.

CHAP. V.

...And I saw in the right hand of him
...that sate on the Throne, a book
...written within, and on the backside:
...sealed with seven seals.
...And I saw a strong angel, proclai-
...ming with a loud voyce, Who is wor...thy to open the book, and to loose the ...seals thereof?
...And no man in heaven nor in earth,
...neither under the earth, was able to o...pen the book, neither to look thereon.
...And I wept much, because no man
...was found worthy to open and to read
...the book, neither to look thereon.
...And one of the Elders saith unto ...me, Weep not: behold, the Lyon of the tri...be of Iuda, the root of David: hath ...prevailed to open the book, and to
...loose the seven seals thereof.
...And I beheld, and lo, in the midst of ...the Throne, and of the four beasts, &
...in the midst of y Elders stood a Lamb
...as it had been slain, having five horns,
...and seven eyes, which are y seven spi-
...rits of God, sent fourth into all the earth.
...And he came, and took the book
...out of the right hand of him that sate
...upon the Throne.
...And when he had taken the book,
...the four beasts, and four and twenty
...Elders fell down before the Lamb,
...having every one of them harps, and
...golden vials full of odours, which are
...the prayers of Saints.
...And they sung a new song, saying,
...Thou art worthy to take the book, &
...to open the seals thereof: for thou
...wast slain, and hast redeemed us to
...God by thy blood, out of every kin...dred, & tongue, and people, and nation.
...And hast made us unto our God,
...kings and priests, and we shall reign
...on the earth.
...And I beheld, and I heard y voyce
...of many angels rould about y Throne
...and the beasts and the Elders, and the ...number of the was ten thousand times
...ten thousand, & thousands of thousands,
...Saying with a loud voyce: Worthy
...is the Lamb that was slain, to receive
...power, & riches, & wisdom & strength,
...and honour, and glory, and blessing.
...And every creature which is in ...heaven, and on the earth, & under the ...earth, and such as are in the sea, and all
...that are in them, heard I, saying, Bles-
...sing, honour, glory, and power, be un-
...to him that sitteth upon the Throne,
...and unto the Lamb for ever and ever.
...And the four beasts said, Amen.
...And the four and twenty Elders fell ...down & worshipped him y liveth for ...ever and ever.

CHAP. VI.

...AND I saw when the Lambe opened
...one of the seals, and I heard as it
...were the noise of thunder, one of the ...four beasts, saying, Come and see.
...And I saw, & behold a white horse,
...and he that sate on him had a bow, and
...a crown was given unto him, and he ...went forth conquering, & to conquer.
...And when he had opened the se...cond seal, I heard the second beast say,
...Come and see.
...And there went out another horse y
...was red: & power was given to him y
...sate thereon to take peace from y earth,
...and y they should kill one another. &
...there was given to him a great sword.
...And when he had opened the third
...seal, I heard the third beast say, Come
...and see. And I beheld, and lo, a black
...horse: and he that sate on him, had a ...pair of ballances in his hand.
...And I heard a voyce in the midst
...of the four beasts, say, A measure of ...wheat for a peny, and three measures
...of barley for a peny, and see thou hurt
...not the oil and the wine.

7 And

7 And when hee had opened the fourth seal, I heard the voyce of the fourth beast say, Come and see.

8 And I looked, and behold, a pale horse, and his name that sate on him was death, & hel followed with him. And power was given to them over the fourth part of the earth, to kil with sword, & with hunger, and with death, and with the beasts of the earth.

9 And when he had opened y fift seal, I saw under the altar the souls of them that were slain for the word of God, & for the testimony which they held.

10 And they cried with a loud voyce, saying, How long, O Lord, holy and true, dost y not judge and avenge our blood on them y dwell on the earth?

11 And white robes were given to every one of them, & it was said unto them, y they should reist yet for a little season, until their fellow servants also, & their brethren y should be killed as they were, should be fulfilled.

12 And I beheld, when he had opened the sixt seal, and lo, there was a great earthquake, and the Sun became black as sackcloth of hair, and the Moon became as blood.

13 And the stars of heaven fel unto the earth, even as a figtree casteth her untimely figs when she is shaken of a mighty winde.

14 And the heaven departed as a scrowl, when it is rolled together, and every mountain and Iland were mooved out of their places.

15 And the kings of the earth, & the great men, and the rich men, and the chief captains, and the mighty men, & every bond-man, and every free man, hid themselves in the dens, and in the rocks of the mountains.

16 And said to the mountains and rocks, Fal on us, and hide us from the face of him that sitteth on the throne and from y wrath of y Lamb:

17 For the great day of his wrath is come, and who shall bee able to stand?

CHAP. VII.

AND after these things, I saw four Angels standing on y four corners of y earth, holding y four windes of y earth that y wind should not blow on the earth, nor on the sea, nor on any tree.

2 And I saw another angel ascending from y east, having the seal of the living God: and he cried with a loud voice to the four angels, to whom it was given to hurt the earth and the sea,

3 saying, Hurt not the earth, neither y sea, nor the trees, til we have sealed the servants of our God in their forcheads.

4 And I heard the number of them which were sealed: & there were sealed an hundred & forty & four thousand of all the tribes of y children of Israel.

5 Of y tribe of Juda were sealed twelve thousand. Of y tribe of Reuben were sealed twelve thousand. Of the tribe of Gad were sealed twelve thousand.

6 Of y tribe of Aser were sealed twelve thousand. Of y tribe of Nephtali were sealed twelve thousand. Of y tribe of Manasses were sealed twelve thousand.

7 Of y tribe of Simeon were sealed twelve thousand. Of the tribe of Levi were sealed twelve thousand. Of the tribe of Issachar were sealed twelve thousand.

8 Of y tribe of Zabulon were sealed twelve thousand. Of y tribe of Joseph were sealed twelve thousand. Of y tribe of Benjamin were sealed twelve thousand.

9 After this I beheld, and lo, a great multitude, which no man could number, of all nations, & kinreds, & people, and tongues, stood before the throne, and before the Lambe, clothed with white robes, & palmes in their hands.

10 And cried with a loud voyce, saying, Salvation to our God, who sitteth upon the Throne, & to the Lambe.

11 And all y angels stood round about the Throne, and about y Elders & y four beasts, & fel before the throne on their faces, and worshipped God,

12 Saying, Amen: Blessing, and glory, and wisedome, and thanksgiving, and honour, and power, and might be unto our God for ever & ever. Amen.

13 And one of the Elders answered, saying unto me, What are these which are arrayed in white robes? & whence came they?

14 And I said unto him, Sir, thou knowest. And he said to me, These are they which came out of great tribulation, & have washed their robes, and made the white in y blood of the Lamb.

15 Therefore are they before the Throne of God, and serve him day & night in his temple; and he that sitteth on the Throne shal dwel among them.

16 They shal hunger no more, neither thirst any more, neither shal the Sun light on them, nor any heat.

17 For the Lambe which is in the middest of the throne, shal feed them, and shal leade them unto living fountains of waters: and God shal wipe away al tears from their eyes.

CHAP. VIII.

AND when he had opened the seventh seal, there was silence in heaven about the space of half an hour.

2 And I saw the seven angels which stood before God, and to them were given seven trumpets.

3 And another angel came and stood at the altar, having a golden censer, and there was given unto him much incense, that he should offer it with the prayers of al Saints upon the golden altar, which was before the Throne.

4 And the smoke of y incense ascended with the prayers of y Saints, ascended up before God, out of the angels hand.

5 And the angel took y censer, & filled it with fire of y altar, & cast it into the earth, & there were voices, & thunderings, & lightnings, & an earthquake.

6 And the seven angels which had the seven trumpets, prepared themselves to sound.

The first angel sounded, & there folmail, & fire mingled with blood, were cast upon the earth, and part of trees was burnt up, green grasse was burnt up.

8 And the second angel sounded, and were a great mountain burning was cast into the sea, and the part of the sea became blood:
9 And the third part of the creatures were in the sea, and had life, and the third part of the ships were destroyed.
10 And the third angel sounded, and there fell a great Star from heaven, burning as it were a lamp, and it fell upon the third part of the rivers, and upon the fountains of waters; 11 And the name of the Star is called Wormwood, and the third part of the waters became Wormwood: and many men died of the waters, because they were made bitter.
12 And the fourth angel sounded, and the third part of the Sun was smitten, and the third part of the Moon, and the third part of the Stars, so as the third part of them was darkened: and the day shone not for a third part of it, and the night likewise.
13 And I beheld, & heard an angel flying through the midst of heaven, saying with a loud voice, Woe, woe, woe to the inhabiters of the earth, by reason of the other voices of the trumpet of the three angels which are yet to sound.

CHAP. IX.

1 And the fifth angel sounded, and I saw a Star fall from heaven to the earth: and to him was given the key of the bottomlesse pit.
2 And he opened the bottomlesse pit, and there arose a smoak out of the pit, like the smoak of a great furnace: and the Sun and the ayr was darkened, by reason of the smoak of the pit.
3 And there came out of the smoak locusts upon the earth, and unto them was given power, as the scorpions of the earth have power.
4 And it was commanded them, that they should not hurt the grasse of the earth, neither any greenthing, neither any tree: but only those men which have not the seal of God in their foreheads.
5 And to them it was given, that they should not kill them: but that they should be tormented five moneths:
and their torment was as the torment of a scorpion, when he striketh a man.
6 And in those dayes shall men seek death, & shall not find it, and shall desire to die, and death shall flee from them.
7 And the shapes of the locusts were like unto horses prepared unto battell, and on their heads were as it were crowns of gold, and their faces were as the faces of men.
8 And they had hair as the hair of women, and their teeth were as the teeth of lyons.
9 And they had breast plates, as it were breast plates of iron, and the sound of their wings was as the sound of charets of many horses running to battel.
10 And they had tayls like unto Scorpions, and there were stings in their tayles, and their power was to hurt men five moneths.
11 And they had a king over them, which is the angel of the bottomlesse pit, whose name in the Hebrew tongue is Abaddon, but in the Greek tongue hath his name Apollyon.
12 One woe is past, and behold, there come two woes more hereafter.
13 And the first angel sounded, & I heard a voyce from the four horns of the golden altar, which is before God, 14 Saying to the first angel which had the trumpet, Loose the four angels which are bound in the great river Euphrates.
15 And the four angels were loosed, which were prepared for an hour, and a day, and a moneth, and a yeer, for to slay the third part of men.
16 And the number of the army of the horsemen were two hundred thousand thousand, & I heard the number of them.
17 And thus I saw the horses in my vision, & them that sate on them, having breast-plates of fire, & of jacinct, & brimstone, and the heads of the horses were as the heads of Lyons, & out of their mouths issued fire, and smoak, and brimstone.
18 By these three was the third part of men killed, by the fire, and by the smoak, and by the brimstone which issued out of their mouths.
19 For their power is in their mouth, and in their tayls: for their tayls were like unto Serpents, and had heads, and with them they do hurt.
20 And the rest of the men which were not killed by these plagues, yet repented not of the works of their hands, that they should not worship devils, and idols of gold and silver, & brasse, and stone, and of wood, which neither can see, nor hear, nor walk:
21 Neither repented they of their murthers, nor of their sorceries, nor of their fornication, nor of their thefts.

CHAP. X.

1 AND I saw another mighty angel come down from heaven, clothed with a cloud, and a rain-bow was upon his head, and his face was as it were the Sun, and his feet as pillars of fire.
2 And he had in his hand a little book open: and he set his right foot upon the Sea, & his left foot upon the earth.
3 And cryed with a loud voyce, as when a lyon roareth: & when he had cryed, seven thunders uttered their voyces.
4 And when seven thunders had uttered their voices, I was about to write:
and I heard a voyce from heaven saying to me, Seal up those things which the seven thunders uttered, and write them not.
5 And the angel which I saw stand upon the Sea, and upon the earth, lifted up his hand to heaven, 6 And sware by him that liveth for ever and ever, who created heaven, and the things

thing that therein are, and the earth, and the things that therein are, and the sea, and the things which are therein, that there should be time no longer.

7 But in y dayes of y voyce of y seventh Angel, when he shall begin to sound, the mistery of God should be finished, as he hath declared to his servants y prophets.

8 And the voyce which I heard from heaven, spake to me again, and said, Go, and take the little booke which is open in the hand of the Angel, which standeth upon the sea, & upon y earth.

9 And I went to the Angel and said unto him, give me the little booke. And he said unto me, Take it and eat it up, and it shall make thy belly bitter, but it shall be in thy mouth sweet as honey.

10 And I took the little book out of the Angels hand, & ate it up, & it was in my mouth sweet as honey: & assoon as I had eaten it, my belly was bitter.

11 And he said unto me, Thou must prophesie again before many people, and nations, and tongues, and Kings.

CHAP. XI.

AND there was given me a reed like a rod. & the Angel stood, saying, Rise, & measure y Temple of God, & the Altar, & them y worship therein.

2 But the Court which is without the Temple, leave out, and measure it not: for it is given unto the Gentiles, and the holy City shall they tread under foot fourtie and two moneths.

3 And I will give power unto my two witnesses, and they shall prophesie a thousand two hundred and three-score dayes, clothed in sackcloth.

4 These are the two Olive trees, and the two candlesticks standing before the God of the earth:

5 And if any man will hurt them, fire proceedeth out of their mouth, & devoureth their enemies: & if any man will hurt them, he must in this manner be killed.

6 These have power to shut heaven, that it raine not in the dayes of their prophesie: & have power over waters to turne them to blood, & to smite the earth with all plagues, as often as they will.

7 And when they shall have finished their testimony, the beast that ascendeth out of the bottomlesse pit, shall make war against them, and shall overcome them, and kill them.

8 And their dead bodyes shall lie in the street of the great city, which spiritually is called Sodome, and Egypt, where also our Lord was crucified.

9 And they of the people, and kindreds, and tongues, and nations, shall see their dead bodies three dayes and an halfe, and shall not suffer their dead bodies to be put in graves.

10 And they that dwell upon the earth, shall rejoyce over them, and make merry, and shall send gifts one to another: because these two Prophets tormented them that dwell on the earth.

11 And after three dayes & an half the spirit of life from God entred into them, & they stood upon their feet, & great feare fell upon them which saw them.

12 And they heard a great voyce from heaven, saying to them, Come up hither. And they ascended up to heaven in a cloud, and their enemies beheld them.

13 And the same houre was there a great earthquake, and the tenth part of the city fell, and in the earthquake were slaine of men seven thousand names: & the remnant were affrighted, and gave glory to the God of heaven.

14 The second woe is past, and behold, the third woe commeth swiftly.

15 And the seventh Angel sounded, and there were great voyces in heaven, saying, The kingdoms of this world are become y kingdoms of our Lord, and of his Christ, & he shall reign for ever and ever.

16 And the four and twenty Elders which sate before God on their seates, fell on their faces, & worshipped God,

17 Saying, we give thee thanks, O Lord God Almighty, which art, and wast, and art to come, because thou hast taken to thee thy great power, & hast reigned.

18 And y nations were angry, and thy wrath is come, & the time of the dead, that they should be judged, & that thou shouldest give reward to thy servants the Prophets, & to the Saints, & them that feare thy Name, small & great, & shouldest destroy them which destroy the earth.

19 And y Temple of God was opened in heaven, & there was seen in his Temple y Arke of his Testament. And there were lightnings, & voyces, and thunderings, and an earthquake, and great hayle.

CHAP. XII.

AND there appeared a great signe in heaven, a woman clothed with the Sunne, and the Moone under her feet, & upon her head a crowne of twelve starres.

2 And she being with child, cried, travailing in birth, & pained to be delivered.

3 And there appeared another signe in heaven, and behold, a great red dragon having seven heads, and ten hornes, and seven crownes upon his heads.

4 And his taile drew the third part of the starres of heaven, and did cast them to the earth: and the dragon stood before the woman which was ready to be delivered, for to devoure her child as soone as it was borne.

5 And she brought forth a man child, who was to rule all nations with a rod of iron: and her child was caught up unto God, and to his throne.

6 And y woman fled into the wilderness where she hath a place prepared of God: y there they should feed her 1260 dayes.

7 And there was war in heaven: Michael & his Angels fought against the dragon, and the dragon fought & his angels,

8 And prevailed not, neither was their place found any more in heaven.

9 And the great dragon was cast out, that old serpent, called the devil & Satan, which deceiveth the whole world: he was cast out into the earth,

...d with seven heads.
...his angels were cast out with him.
...and I heard a loud voyce, saying
...ween, Now is come Salvation and
...gth, and y kingdome of our God,
...power of his Christ: for y accu-
...your brethren is cast down, wa-
...the before our God day & night.
...And they overcame him by the
...of the Lambe, and by the word
...ir testimony, and they loved not
...lives unto the death.
...Therefore rejoyce ye heavens,
...re that dwel in them. Wo to y in...habitants of the earth, and of the sea:
...cause the devill is come down unto you,
...having great wrath, because he know-
...eth he hath but a short time.
...And when y dragon saw y he was ...cast unto y earth, he persecuted y wo...man which brought forth the man-child.
...And to y woman were given two ...wings of a great eagle, y she might flee
...into the wilderness, into her place, where ...she is nourished for a time, & times, & an
...half a time, from y face of y Serpent.
...And the Serpent cast out of his ...mouth water as a flood after the wo...man, that he might cause her to be car...ried away of the flood.
...And the earth helped the woman,
...and the earth opened her mouth, and ...swallowed up the flood which the ...dragon cast out of his mouth.
...And the dragon was wroth with
...the woman, and went to make warre with
...the remnant of her seed, which
...keepe the commandments of God, and
...have the Testimony of Jesus Christ.

CHAP. XIII.

...And I stood upon the sand of y Sea,
...and saw a beast rise up out of the ...sea, having seven heads & ten horns,
...and upon his horns ten crowns, and
...upon his heads y name of blasphemy.
...And y beast which I saw was like unto a ...Leopard, & his feet were as the feet of ...a Beare, & his mouth as the mouth of a
...Lion: & the dragon gave him his power,
...and his seat, and great authority.
...And I saw one of his heads as it ...were wounded to death, and his dead...ly wound was healed, & all the world
...wondred after the beast.
...And they worshipped the dragon,
...which gave power unto the beast, and
...they worshipped the beast, saying,
...Who is like unto the beast? Who is a...ble to make warre with him?
...And there was given unto him a ...mouth, speaking great things, & blas-
...phemies, and power was given unto
...him to continue forty & two months.
...And he opened his mouth in blas...phemy against God, to blaspheme his ...name, and his Tabernacle, and them
...that dwell in heaven.
...And it was given unto him to make warre with the Saints, and to overcome them: and power was given him over all kindreds, and tongues, and nations.
...And all they that dwel on the earth, shall worship him, whose names are not written in the Booke of life, of the Lambe slain from the foundation of y world.
...If any man have an eare, let him hear.
...He that leadeth into captivity, shall go into captivity: He y killeth & the sword, must be killed by y sword. Here is the patience & the faith of y Saints.
...And I beheld another beast coming up out of y earth, & he had two horns like a lamb, and he spake as a dragon.
...And he exerciseth all the power of the first beast before him, and causeth the earth, and them that dwel therein to worship the first beast, whose deadly wound was healed.
...And he doth great wonders, so that he maketh fire come down from heaven on the earth, in the sight of men.
...And deceiveth them that dwel on the earth, by the meanes of those miracles which he had power to do in the sight of the beast, saying to them that dwel on y earth, that they should make an image to the beast which had the wound by a sword, and did live.
...And he had power to give life to the image of the beast, that the image of the beast should both speake, and cause y as many as would not worship the image of y beast should be killed.
...And he causeth all, both small and great, rich and poor, free and bond, to receive a marke in their right hand, or in their foreheads:
...And y no man might buy or sell, save he that had the marke, or y name of the beast, or the number of his name.
...Here is wisedome. Let him that hath understanding count y number of y beast: for it is y number of a man, & his number is, six hundred threescore & six.

CHAP. XIIII.

...And I looked, & lo a lamb stood on y mount Sion, & with him an hundred fourty & four thousand, having his fathers name written in their foreheads.
...And I heard a voyce from heaven as y voice of many waters, and as y voice of a great thunder: and I heard the voyce of harpers, harping with their harps.
...And they sung as it were a new song before the Throne, & before the four beasts, and the Elders, and no man could learne that song, but the hundred and fourty and foure thousand.
...These are they which were not defiled with women: for they are virgins. These are they which follow y Lambe whithersoever he goeth: These were redeemed from among men, being the first fruits to God, and to the Lambe.
...And in their mouth was found no guile: for they are without fault before the throne of God.
...And I saw another Angel flee in the middest of heaven, having the everlasting Gospel to preach unto them that dwell on the earth, and to every nation, & kindred, & tongue, & people,
...Saying with a loud voice, Fear God, and give glory to him, for the houre of his judgement is come: and worship him that made heaven and earth, and the sea, and the fountaines of waters.

8 And there followed another Angel, saying, Babylonis fallen, is fallen, that great city, because she made all the nations drink of the wine of the wrath of her formication.

9 And y third Angel followed them, saying with a loud voyce, if any man worship y beast & his image, & receive his mark in his forehead, or in his hand,

10 The same shal drinke of y wine of y wrath of God, which is powred out without mixture into y cup of his indignation, & he shal be tormented with fire and brimstone in y presence of y holy Angels, & in the presence of y Lambe.

11 And the smoake of their torment ascendeth up for ever and ever. And they have no rest day nor night, who worship y beast & his image & who soever receiveth y marke of his name.

12 Here is the patience of the Saints: Here are they which keep the Commandements of God, and the faith of Iesus.

13 And I heard a voyce from heaven, saying to me, Write. Blessed are the dead which die in the Lord, from henceforth. Yea, saith the spirit, that they may rest from their labours, and their work s doe follow them.

14 And I look, & behold a white cloud, & upon the cloud one sate like unto the Son of man, having on his head a golden crown and in his hand a sharpe sickle.

15 And another Angel came out of the Temple, crying with a loud voyce to him y sate on y cloud: Thrust in thy sickle, & reape, for y time is come for thee to reap, for the harvest of y earth is ripe.

16 And he that sate on the cloud thrust in his sickle on the earth, and the earth was reaped.

17 And another Angel came out of the Temple which is in heaven, he also having a sharpe sickle.

18 And another Angel came out from y Altar, which had power over fire. & cryed with a loud cry to him that had y sharpe sickle, saying, Thrust in thy sharpe sickle, & gather y clusters of y vine of the earth, for her grapes are fully ripe.

19 And the Angel thrust his sickle into the earth, & gathered the vine of the earth, and cast it into the great wine-presse of the wrath of God.

20 And the wine-presse was troden without the cities, and blood came out of the wine-presse, even unto the horse bridles, by the space of a thousand and six hundred furlongs.

CHAP. XV.

1 AND I saw another signe in heaven great and marvellous, seven Angels having the seven last plagues, for in them is fulfilled up the wrath of God.

2 And I saw as it were a sea of glasse mingled with fire, & them that had got ten y victory over y beast, & over his image, and over his marke, and over the number of his name, stand on the sea of glasse, having the harpes of God.

3 And they sing the song of Moses the servant of God, & the song of the Lambe, saying, Great & marvellous are thy works, Lord God Almighty: just are thy wayes, y King of Saints.

4 Who shal not fear thee, O Lord, and glorify thy Name? for thou only art holy: for all nations shal come and worship before thee, for thy judgements are made manifest.

5 And after that I looked, and behold, the Temple of the Tabernacle of the testimonie in heaven was opened.

6 And y seven Angels came out of the Temple, having y seven plagues, arayed in pure and white linnen, and having their breasts girded with golden girdles.

7 And one of the foure beasts gave to the seven Angels, seven golden vials full of the wrath of God, who liveth for ever and ever.

8 And the Temple was filled with smoake from the glory of God, & from his power, and no man was able to enter into y Temple, til y seven plagues of the seven Angels were fulfilled.

CHAP. XVI.

AND I heard a great voyce out of the Temple, saying to y seven Angels, Go your ways and power out the vials of the wrath of God upon the earth.

2 And the first went, & powred out his vial upon the earth. & there fell a noysome & grievous sore upon the men which had the marke of the beast, & upon them which worshipped his image.

3 And the second Angel powred out his vial upon the sea, and it became as the blood of a dead man: and every living soule died in the sea.

4 And the third Angel powred out his vial upon the rivers & fountaines of waters, and they became blood.

5 And I heard the Angel of the waters say, Thou art righteous, O Lord, which art, and wast, and shalt be, because thou hast judged thus:

6 For they have shed y blood of Saints and Prophets, & thou hast given them blood to drink, for they are worthy.

7 And I heard another out of the altar say, Even so, Lord God Almighty, true & righteous are thy judgements.

8 And the fourth Angel powred out his vial upon the Sun, and power was given to him to scorch men with fire.

9 And men were scorched with great heat, and blasphemed y Name of God, who hath power over these plagues: and they repented not to give him glory.

10 And the fift Angel powred out his vial upon y seat of the beast, and his kingdome was full of darkenes, and they gnawed their tongues for paine.

11 And blasphemed the God of heaven because of their paines, and of their sores, & repented not of their deeds.

12 And y sixt Angel powred out his vial upon y great river Euphrates: & the water thereof was dryed up, that the way of y kings of y East might be prepared.

I saw three unclean spirits like frogs come out of the mouth of the dragon, & out of the mouth of the beast, & out of the mouth of the false Prophet.
14 For they are the spirits of devils, doing miracles, which go forth to the Kings of the earth, and of the whole world, to gather them to the battel of that great day of God Almighty.
15 Behold, I come as a theefe: Blessed is he that watcheth & keepeth his garments, lest he walk naked, & they see his shame.
16 And he gathered them together into a place, called in the Hebrew tongue, Armageddon.
17 And the seventh Angel powred out his vial into the ayre, and there came a great voyce out of the Temple of heaven, from the Throne, saying, It is done.
18 And there were voyces and thunders, and lightnings: and there was a great earthquake, such as was not since there were men upon the earth, so mighty an earthquake, and so great.
19 And the great city was divided into three parts, & the cities of the nations fell:
and great Babylon came in remembrance before God, to give to her the cup of the wine of the fiercenesse of his wrath.
20 And every Iland fled away, and the mountains were not found.
21 And there fell upon men a great hail out of heaven, every stone about the weight of a talent, & men blasphemed God because of the plague of the hail: for the plague thereof was exceeding great.

CHAP. XVII.

And there came one of the seven Angels which had the seven vials, & talked with me, saying to me, Come hither, I will shew to thee the judgement of the great whore, sitting on many waters.
2 With whom the Kings of the earth have committed fornication, and they inhabitants of the earth have been made drunke with the wine of her fornication.
3 So he carried me away in the Spirit into the wildernesse: and I saw a woman sit upon a skarlet coloured beast full of names of blasphemy, having seven heads and ten hornes.
4 And the woman was arayed in purple, and skarlet colour, & decked with gold and precious stone, & pearles, having a golden cup in her hand, full of abomi-nations & filthinesse of her fornication.
5 And upon her forehead was a name written, MYSTERY, BABYLON
THE GREAT, THE MOTHER OF HARLOTS, AND ABOMINA-TIONS OF THE EARTH.
6 And I saw the woman drunken with the blood of Saints, and with the blood of Martyrs of Jesus: & when I saw her, I wondred with great admiration.
7 And the Angel said to me, Wherefore dost thou marvell? I will tell thee the mystery of the woman, and of the beast that carried her, which hath the seven heads and ten hornes.
8 The beast that thou sawest was, and is not, and shall ascend out of the bottom of the pit, and go into perdition: and they that dwel on the earth shall wonder, (whose names were not written in the booke of life from the foundation of the world) when they behold the beast that was, and is not, and yet is.
9 And here is the minde which hath wis-dome. The seven heads are seven mountains, on which the woman sitteth.
10 And there are seven kings, five are fallen, & one is, & the other is not yet come, and when he commeth, he must continue a short space.
11 And the beast that was, and is not, even he is the eight, and is of the seven, and goeth into perdition.
12 And the ten hornes which thou sawest, are ten kings, which have received no kingdom as yet; but receive power as Kings one hour with the beast.
13 These have one minde, & shall give their power and strength unto the beast.
14 These shall make warr with the Lambe, and the Lambe shall overcome them: For he is Lord of lords, and King of kings, and they are with him are called, and chosen, & faithful.
15 And he saith unto me, the waters which thou sawest, where the whore sitteth, are peoples, and multitudes, and nations, and tongues.
16 And the ten hornes which thou sawest upon the beast, these shall hate the whore, and shall make her desolate and naked, and shall eate her flesh, and burn her with fire.
17 For God hath put in their hearts to fulfill his will, and to agree, and give their king dome unto the beast, until y words of God shall be fulfilled.
18 And the woman which thou saw-est, is that great city which reigneth over the Kings of the earth.

CHAP. XVIII.

And after these things, I saw another Angel come down from heaven, having great power, and the earth was lightned with his glory.
2 And he cried mightily with a strong voyce, saying, Babylon the great is fallen, is fallen, and is become the habitation of devils, and the hold of every foule spirit, and a cage of every unclean and hateful bird.
3 For all nations have drunke of the wine of the wrath of her fornication, and the Kings of the earth have committed fornication with her, and y merchants of the earth are waxen rich through y abundance of her delicacies.
4 And I heard another voyce from heaven, saying, Come out of her my people, y ye be not partakers of her sins, & that ye receive not of her plagues.
5 For her sins have reached to heave-ven, & God hath remembred her iniquities.
6 Reward her even as she rewarded you, and double unto her double according to her workes: in y cup which she hath filled, fill to her double.
7 How much she hath glorified her self, and lived deliciously, so much torment and sorrow give her: for she saith in her heart, I sit a queene, and am no widow, and shal see no sorrow 8 Therefore shal her plagues come in one day, death, & mourning, & famin; & she shal be utterly burnt with fire, for strong is the Lord God, who judgeth her 9 And the kings of the earth, who of have committed fornication, and lived deliciously with her, shal bewail her, and lament for her, when they shall see the smoake of her burning:

10 Standing afarre off for feare of her torment, saying, Alas, alas, that great city Babylon, y mighty city: for in one houre is they judgement come.
11 And y merchants of y earth shall weepe & mourn over her: for no man buyeth their merchandize any more 12 The merchandize of gold, and silver, & precious stones, & of pearls, and fine linnen, and purple, and silke, and scarlet, and all Thyne wood, and all manner vessels of ivory, and all maner vessels of most precious wood and of brasse, and iron, and marble:
13 And Cynamon, and odours, and oyntements, and frankincense, & wine, and oyl, and fine flour, and wheate, and beasts, and sheepe, and horses, and chariots, and slaves, and soules of men.
14 And the fruites that thy soule lusted after, are departed fro thee, & all thing which were dainty, and goodly are departed from thee, and thou shalt finde them no more at all.
15 The merchants of these things which were made rich by her, shal stand afar off for the feare of her torment, weeping and wayling, 16 And saying, Alas, alas, that great city, that was clothed in fin linnen, and purple, and scarlet, and decked with gold, and precious stones, and pearles:
17 For in one houre so great riches is come to nought. And every ship-master & al y company in ships, & sailers, and as many as trade by sea, stood afar off.
18 And cried when they saw the smoke of her burning, saying, What city is like unto this great city?
19 And they cast dust on their heads, and cried, weeping and wailing, saying, Alas, alas, that great city, wherein were made rich al that had ships in the sea by reason of her costlines, for in one houre is she made desolate.
20 Rejoyce over her, thou heaven, and ye holy Apostles and Prophets,
for God hath avenged you on her.
21 And a mighty Angel took up a stone like a great millstone, and cast it into y sea, saying, Thus with violence shal y great citie Babylon be thrown down, & shal be found no more at al.
22 And the voyce of harpers, and musicians, and of pipers, and trumpet-ters, shal be heard no more at all in thee, and no craftsman of whatsoever craft he be, shal be found any more in thee: and the sound of a millstone shal be heard no more at al in thee.
23 And y light of a candle shal shine more at al in thee: and the voyce of bridegroom & of y bride shal be heard no more at all in thee: for thy merchants were y great men of the earth: for thy sorceries were al nations deceived.
24 And in her was found the blood of Prophets, and of Saints, and of al that were slaine upon the earth.

CHAP. XIX.

AND after these things, I heard a great voice of much people in he-saying, Alleluia: salvation, and glo-& honour, & power to y Lord our God.
2 For true and righteous are his judgements, for he hath judged great whore, which did corrupt the with her fornication, & hath aventhe blood of his servants at her hand.
3 And again they said, Alleluia: and her smoake rose up for ever and ever.
4 And the foure and twenty Elders and the foure beasts fel down, and worshipped God, y sate on y throne, saying, Amen, Alleluia.
5 And a voyce came out of the Throne, saying, Praise our God, al ye his ser-& ye y fear him, both small and great.
6 And I heard as it were the voyce a great multitude, and as the voyce many waters, & as y voyce of mighty thunderings, saying, Alleluia: for the Lord God omnipotent reigneth.
7 Let us be glad and reioyce, and give honour to him: for the marriage of the Lambe is come, and his wife hath made her selfe ready.
8 And to her was granted that she should be arayed in fine linnen, clean and white, for the fine linnen is the righteousnesse of Saints 9 And he saith unto me, Write. Blessed are they that are called to y marriage Supper of the Lambe. And he saith unto me, These are the true sayings of God.
10 And I fel at his feet to worship him: And he said unto me, See thou do it not: I am thy fellow servant, and of thy brethren that have the testimony me of Iesus, worship God: for the testimony of Iesus is y spirit of prophesie.
11 And I saw heaven opened, & behold a white horse, and he y sate upon him was called faithful & true. & in righteous-ousnesse he doeth judge & make warre.
12 His eyes were as a flame of fire, and on his head were many crowns, and he had a name written, that no man knew but hee himselfe.
13 And he was cloathed with a vesture dipt in blood, and his name is called
The word of God.
14 And y armies which were in heaven followed him upon white horses, clothed in fine linnen, white and clean.
15 And out of his mouth goeth a sharp sword, that with it he should smite the nations: & he shal rule them with a rod of iron: & he treadeth the winepres of the fierce wrath of Almighty God.
16 And he hath on his vesture, & on his thigh a name written, KING

SAND LORD OF LORDS.

11 And I saw a great white throne, and him that sate on it, from whose face the earth & the heaven fled away,
& there was found no place for them.
12 And I saw the dead, small and great, stand before God, and the bookes were opened, & another book was opened, which ỹ book of life: & ỹ dead were judged out of those things, as were written in ỹ bookes, according to their works.
13 And the Sea gave up the dead ỹ were in it: & death & hel delivered up ỹ dead ỹ were in them: & they were judged every man according to their works.
14 And death & hel were cast into the lake of fire: this is the second death.
15 And whosoever was not found written in the booke of life, was cast into the lake of fire.
CHAP. XXI.
AND I saw a new heaven, and a new earth: for the first heaven and the first earth were passed away, and there was no more Sea.
2 And I John saw the holy citie, new Hierusalem, comming down from God out of heaven, prepared as a bride adorned for her husband.
3 And I heard a great voyce out of heaven, saying, Behold, ỹ tabernacle of God is with men, & he wil dwel with them, & they shalbe his people, & God himself shalbe with them, and be their God.
4 And God shal wype away al teares from their eyes; and there shalbe no more death, neither sorrow, nor crying, nor shal there be any more pain, for ỹ former things are passed away.
5 And he that sate upon the throne, said, Behold, I make all things new.
And he said unto me, Write: for these words are true and faithful.
6 And he said unto me, It is done. I am Alpha and Omega, ỹ beginning and ỹ end: I wil give unto him ỹ is athurst, of ỹ fountain of ỹ water of life, freely.
7 He that overcommeth shal inherite al things, and I wil be his God, and he shalbe my sonne.
8 But the fearful and unbeleeving, and the abominable, and murtherers, & whoremongers, and sorcerers, and idolaters, and al lyers, shal have their part in the lake which burneth with fire & brimstone: which is ỹ second death.
9 And there came unto me one of the seven Angels, which had ỹ seven vials ful of the seven last plagues, & talked with me, saying, Come hither, I will shew thee the Bride, the Lambes wife.
10 And he carried mee away in the spirit to a great & high mountain, & sh ewed me ỹ great City, ỹ holy Ierusalem, descending out of heaven from God 11 Having the glory of God: and her light was like to a stone, most precious, even like a Iasper stone, cleare as Crystal.
12 And had a wal great and high, & h had twelve gates, and at the gates twelve Angels: & names written theron, which are the names of the twelve tribes of the children of Israel:

13 On

13 On the East three gates, on the North three gates, on the South three gates, and on the West three gates.
14 And y wall of the city had twelve foundations: and in them the names of the twelve Apostles of the Lambe.
15 And he that talked with me had a golden reed to measure the city, & the gates thereof and the wall thereof.
16 And the city lyeth four square, & the length is as large as the breadth: and he measured the city with the reed twelve thousand furlongs: y length, & the breadth, & y height of it are equal.
17 And he measured the wal thereof, an hundred and fourty & four cubits, according to the measure of a man, that is, of the Angel.
18 And the building of the wall of it was of Iasper, and the citie was pure gold like unto cleere glasse.
19 And the foundations of the wall of the citie were garnished with all manner of precious stones. The first foundation was Iasper, y second Saphir, y third a Chalcedony, the fourth an Emerauld.
20 The fifth Sardonyx, y sixt Sardius, y seventh Chrysolite, y eight Beryl, y ninth a Topas, y tenth a Chrysoprasus, y eleventh a Iacinct, y twelfth an Amethyst.
21 And the twelve gates were twelve pearles: every several gate was of one pearle, & the street of the city was pure gold, as it were transparent glasse.
22 And I saw no Temple therein: For the Lord God Almighty, and the Lambe, are the Temple of it.
23 And the city had no need of the Sun, neither of the Moone to shine in it: for the glory of God did lighten it, and the Lambe is the light thereof.
24 And the nations of them which are saved, shall walke in the light of it: & the kings of the earth do bring their glory and honour into it.
25 And the gates of it shall not be shut at all by day, for there shalbe no night there.
26 And they shall bring the glory and honour of the nations into it.
27 And there shall in no wise enter into it any thing that defileth, neither whatsoever worketh abomination, or maketh a lie: but they which are written in the Lambes book of life.

CHAP. XXII.

AND he shewed me a pure riverof water of life, cleare as christall, proceeding out of the Throne of God, and of the Lambe.
2 In the midst of the street of it, and of either side of the river, was there the tree of life, which bare twelve manner of fruits, and yeelded her fruit every moneth: & the leaves of the tree were for the healing of the nations.
3 And there shall be no more curse, but the throne of God and of the Lambe shall be in it, and his servants shall serve him.
4 And they shal see his face, and his Name shall be in their foreheads.
5 And there shall be no night there: and they need no candle, neither light of the Sun, for the Lord God giveth them light, and they shall reigne for ever and ever.
6 And he said to me, These sayings are faithfull and true. And the Lord God of the holy Prophets sent his Angel, to shew unto his servants things which must shortly be done.
7 Behold, I come quickly: Blessed is he that keepeth the sayings of the prophesie of this book.
8 And I Iohn saw these things, and heard them, And when I had heard and seen, I fell down to worship before the feet of the Angel, which shewed me these things.
9 Then saith he to me, See thou do it not: for I am thy fellow servant, and of thy brethren the Prophets, and of them which keep the sayings of this book: worship God.
10 And he saith unto me, Seale not the sayings of the prophesie of this book: for the time is at hand.
11 He that is unjust, let him be unjust still: and he which is filthy, let him be filthy still: and he that is righteous, let him be righteous still: and he that is holy, let him be holy still.
12 And behold, I come quickly: and my reward is with me, to give every man according as his worke shalbe.
13 I am Alpha and Omega, the beginning and the end, the first and the last.
14 Blessed are they that do his commandments, that they may have right to the tree of life, and may enter in thorow the gates into the citie.
15 For without are dogges, & sorcerers, and whoremongers, and murderers, and idolaters, and whosoever loveth and maketh a lye.
16 I Iesus have sent mine Angel to testifie to you these things in the churches. I am y root and y off-spring of Dauid, and the bright and morning Starre.
17 And y Spirit & y Bride, say, Come. And let him y heareth, say, Come. And whosoever will, let him take y water of life freely.
18 For I testifie unto every man that heareth the words of the prophesie of this booke, if any man shal adde unto these things, God shal adde to him the plagues that are written in this booke.
19 And if any man shal take away from the words of the book of this prophesie, God shal take away his part out of the book of life, and out of the holy City, and from the things which are written in this booke.
20 He which testifieth these things, saith, Surely I come quickly. Amen. Even so, Come Lord Iesus.
21 The grace of our Lord Iesus Christ be with you all. Amen.
